TALE LOFTY HEIGHTS

anna Denies Beating Retreat, But Admits Evacuation.

Special Cable to The Toronto World. LONDON, June 29.—"Between the Adige and Brenta our advance continues," the Italian war office announced today. The troops of Italy, scaling forbidden peaks and bullet and shell-swept slopes, stormed the lofty and powerful fort erected by the Austrians on Mattione in a venturesome step-by-step sort of advance. Italian infantry of the line at the same time carried the ridge of Monte Trappola. Trenches were taken in a single dash in the sector of Pausio. Ground of wild and rugged character, unfavorable to the movement of artillery, is retarding the pace of the advance in the Posina, and operations there are therefore being conducted on a slower scale. But Grisco has been reached and the positions of the Austrians at Betta and Monte Major have been carried. Pedescaia and positions on the Com-

Raiding Parties Succeed Under Cover of This Form of Protection.

LONDON, June 29.—Frederic Falloux in a despatch from British headquarters in France, dated Wednesday, June 28, says: Unusually heavy artillery firing, with numbers of trench raids, have continued all along the British front during the last 24 hours. Here and there were intense outbursts from artillery concentrations on both sides. The British used both gas and smoke to cover their trench raids. In the Ypres salient were found the bodies of Germans killed by gas in their trenches. The Germans retaliated by bombardment of the Canadian positions at Observatory Ridge and Sorrel Hill. The case with which raiding parties, under cover of bombardment, can rush a trench of the enemy, inflict losses and bring back prisoners is such that it has become systematic nightly business along the whole front in the last few days, on a scale not attempted before. The Berlin version follows: The fighting on the western front attained proportions of considerable

CITY HALL NOTES

The question of protecting Toronto Island from storms cropped up again at the board of control yesterday. Ald. Ryding and Ald. McBride urged that the board take immediate action to protect the shores, but the board refused to admit the city's responsibility with another conference with the works and parks commissioners. The carters employed by the street cleaning department are now after a substantial raise in pay. Yesterday a deputation of them appeared before the board of control and requested that in addition to their weekly salary of $15, they be allowed $9 per week to maintain their horses and wagons. The carters now get $19 per week, including equipment allowance, so their request is for a $5 raise. Controller Foster was absent from the board meeting yesterday, and the vote to pay the $1000 insurance to the next of kin as well as actual dependents was lost on a vote of 2 to 3. The insurance committee voted against it. Mayor Church maintained that the insurance act was wrong when it stipulated dependents. Next dependents he maintained included next of kin. PRESENTATION TO FIREMAN. Lieut. James Allen, who was recently promoted and transferred from Rose avenue fire hall to Richmond street station, was presented Wednesday with an umbrella by his comrades in the former station. He was twelve years at Rose avenue.

ATTRACT SETTLERS TO NEW ONTARIO

Hon. G. Howard Ferguson Outlined Plans for Future Greatness.

WILL LEND MONEY

Homesteaders Get Everything From Sky to Centre of the Earth.

Like a general planning his campaign, Hon. G. Howard Ferguson yesterday outlined the development and future greatness of New Ontario. The Ontario Government is planning not only to make the clay belt, almost an empire in extent, productive and populous, but to have such a harmonious expansion that the ideals that have inspired this province in the past shall in every quarter continue to prevail.

How to Get People. "By making the facts known. We are already advertising the agricultural possibilities of the Clay Belt, but much more is to follow. We will use moving pictures, we are sending literature broadcast and lectures from the agricultural department are doing good work throughout the province in explaining and demonstrating the possibilities of the Clay Belt."

"Get the west backed off the map," said the minister enthusiastically. "The homesteaders out west merely take the surplus rights to his land. From us he gets everything from the sky to the centre of the earth—oil, gas, timber, and white pine. He can cut white pine only for his own use. We meet him at North Bay and we look after him until he gets settled on his land; we feed and care for his live stock and house his implements until he gets settled. We build roads for him; we locate him on good land and try to find him congenial neighbors; we help him to get started and lend him money if necessary."

"What is the provision about lending money to the settler?" "We have taken power to lend up to $500 to any deserving settler. This does not mean that every settler will borrow $500, but he can apply for what money he needs to the nearest government agent. Then, if the loan commissioner is to be appointed, he makes a case as a deserving one, he will send an inspector to report upon the character of the man, the value of his property, his need for money and probability of his paying it back and so forth. It will be a straight business transaction involving no part of an independent commission. The government security will be the clearing of the settler."

"That is now our most important task," replied Mr. Ferguson. "All agricultural settlements have up to this time been more or less sporadic. There would be a rush to a mining camp, with an immediate demand for meat, vegetables and foodstuffs of all kinds. Naturally to meet these demands a good many settlers took up homesteads, but they settled as close to the local market as possible. If a township could grow anything at all it would be thrown open to homesteaders and quickly settled up, although much better land might be not far away. These agricultural communities were located solely with reference to the mining camps, and were often far apart and quite unconnected. We are now endeavoring to open townships in a more systematic way. Then, again, along the line of the National Transcontinental more or less isolated settlements are to be found. In one I have in mind the population is altogether 50, and that settlement is likely to be a main branch exclusively. We are to have our friends come in from Quebec, but we want to assimilate them and so with immigrants from other countries. We do not want the confusion of tongues that bedevils the Canadian west. We hope to organize municipalities built to have them largely guided by men from old Ontario. We want all the people of this province to have the same ideas and the same traditions of British citizenship."

north country is the more attractive for being a mineral-producing country. We must have towns as well as country life, and in these mining towns—where big money is made—the people buy generously and the farmers benefit."

"How is the nickel commission getting on?" asked The World reporter. "They are hard at work. At this moment there are men in New Caledonia, Norway and England collecting data. I think the commissioners will be back at work in Canada by September."

ROYAL CANADIAN HOTEL LICENSE IS SUSPENDED

John Meagher Found to Have Sold Liquor on Sundays.

John Meagher's license for the Royal Canadian Hotel, George and Front streets, was cancelled by the license board for two weeks yesterday, from Saturday night until the morning of July 17. He was accused of selling liquor on Sundays and allowing an undesirable class of persons to congregate in his hotel on Sunday.

In giving the decision of the board, J. D. Flavell, chairman, stipulated that Meagher should see to it that the bartenders were not allowed to keep keys for the bar. Were it not for the near approach of prohibitory legislation, said Mr. Flavell, the careless way in which Meagher had been running his hotel would cause the board to order either that the license should be cancelled or that some other person were put in to take charge.

The board commented severely on the fact, as stated by the defendant, that the public lavatories in the district were closed at 5 o'clock at night and from Saturday night until Monday morning. This Meagher pleaded as one reason for the number of persons round his hotel on Sunday.

MOTOR CAR TRAFFIC INCREASES ON BORDER

Thirty-Five Hundred Crossed Line Since Reciprocity in Licenses.

Two thousand five hundred American automobiles have crossed to the Canadian side at Windsor since automobile reciprocity went into effect, on May 23, a month ago. Between eight and nine hundred have crossed at Niagara Falls.

The excess at Windsor is due to the proximity of Detroit, an automobile centre. The townspeople of Windsor have expressed themselves as delighted with the increase of the motor traffic from the other side that has followed the reciprocal enactments.

The majority of the American cars that have crossed the line at Windsor are of a purely local character. A large percentage of those that crossed at Niagara Falls are those of tourists.

QUEEN MARY HOSPITAL IS GREATLY ADMIRER

Workers for White Rose Day Visit Institution for Sick Children.

CONTRIBUTIONS ASKED

Captains and Chaperones Prepare for Day on Which to Canvass Citizens.

Yesterday afternoon the captains and chaperones will have charge of the different city districts on White Rose Day motor out to the Queen Mary Hospital for sick children, which is the object for which the various teams will work and for which the citizens will be asked to do their share, as they did last year, in the matter of contributions.

The party was in charge of Mrs. O. R. Baker, and the cars were on hand through the courtesy of gentlemen interested in the good work of the institution. The visitors were received at the entrance of the institution by W. J. Gage and Hon. W. A. Churlton, after which they were shown through the different wards and rooms, the complete appointments and bright, clean surroundings meeting much favorable comment.

There are eighty children in the Queen Mary at the present time, all tubercular. The first ward entered was the isolation ward, where the children are kept for the first two weeks of their stay in order to see that no other disease in the shape of measles or other infection is present. Most of the little ones here were babies with nurses in charge and the children in their little white coats were objects of real sympathetic interest to those who will work in their interest on White Rose Day.

The school, situated at the top of the house, is built in the same manner as the roof school, with windows opening on three sides. The school is under the direction of the city board, and the children looked almost normal from the health point of view. Specimens of the needlework and objects evolved as a result of the teaching of manual training were on view, proving that the little ones did not suffer educationally from the effects of their predisposition to disease. Everywhere the same regard to cleanliness and bright environment were commented upon, and the good fortune of the children and of the city in having so fine an institution for those who in many cases would be without the special care and medical attention needed, was matter for congratulation to those who were so interested in the future happiness and usefulness of the little inmates.

Aspects of the building and grounds were served with tea at the nurses' table, and the beautiful site and pleasant surroundings being very much admired.

NO INTEREST SHOWN BY CANADIAN WOMEN

Inquiries Concerning Big Parade on Dominion Day Came From British Born.

EVERY WOMAN URGED

Will Show to the World That Women of Canada Are Willing to Help.

What is the matter with Canadian women that they are not roused in the interests of the women's parade on Dominion Day?

Yesterday the lady who was in charge of the room at the city hall for a good part of the morning reported that she had had many inquiries from wives and mothers asking if they might march and apparently enthusiastic in the matter, but "there wasn't one woman amongst them. They were all British born."

Don't the women yet know what the parade means? It is to be in a manner a national celebration, for it will be held on the day when the provinces of Canada were first joined together to have a certain unity of interests. It is to demonstrate to the country and to the world at large, that the women of Canada are willing to do whatever within them lies to help on the needs of the moment in war work.

It will also be an object lesson in many lines of activities which patriotic work has been doing, and above all it will show to Canada a sight that ought to stir the heart of even those not before awakened—the number of women and children who have given their husbands or fathers to the cause of King and country.

There is something purely Canadian, is surely not receiving the support to which it is entitled, and we are told that no Canadian women are interested, that the enquiries all come from the British-born.

There is yet time to alter this report. Every woman in Toronto is invited to take part, and the sincere hope of those in charge is that every woman in Toronto will accept the invitation.

DOMINION DAY PROGRAM

For Dominion Day at Scarborough Beach, the Banda Roma has selected a special program which Signor Siragusa believes will be the most interesting to be ever given in Canada. This meant that the most favorable of selecting suitable programs is in some measure responsible for the great popularity of the band in the United States and for the most favorable impression it has made in Toronto. Popular hits on the other side that have not yet found their way into the repertoire of Canadian bands are played at nearly every concert, as well as many old favorites and classical selections.

DELIGHTED BY BANDA ROMA

Under the leadership of Signor Siragusa the Banda Roma is making a big hit with visitors to Scarborough Beach Park. To watch Siragusa conduct is itself an interesting experience. The band plays popular selections with a charm and feeling that cannot be surpassed, and it takes more serious compositions with the enthusiasm of true Italian musicians. The programs so far have been admirably arranged, and contain selections calculated to please all tastes. Mario and Duffy, horizontal bar comedians, and moving pictures in the open air complete the bill.

NEXT WEEK AT LOEW'S

One of the best bills of the season, half the year's big headlines, will be shown at Loew's Yonge street theatre the coming week. The "Phon Phenix," a musical comedy, long running, with Bill Cunningham and Jack Nelson as the leading characters, supported by a chorus of six of the prettiest and cleverest girls that ever stepped from Broadway, will be the feature of the week. The other headline will be Lottie Williams, former star of Blaney musical comedy, who will appear in her plays which were so popular there, in her new play, "The Girl Who Came to Stay." Cooper and Smith, two of the cleverest colored comedians in the country, will appear in their new play, "The Grand Piano, and will over one of the cleverest acts in vaudeville. It's a combination of cleverness, wit, conversation and songs which they wrote themselves. Adelle Irons, a new song beauty, with popular hits, and many others, besides the Irons Law series, will complete the bill.

FINE DRAMA AT STRAND

For today and Saturday the superb photo-drama, "The Writing on the Wall," will form the feature at the Strand Theatre. This is a sensational version on the theme of the necessity for preparedness against fire. It tells the story of a wealthy tenement owner who refused to comply with the law and who instead of replacing wooden fire escapes with up-to-date appliances, merely painted them to look like new. The inevitable retribution, in the shape of a gigantic fire, in which he loses his life, overtakes him. The play is marked by the utmost realism throughout. Joseph Kilgour is stage and wire. Virginia Pearson, former star in a forceful manner her perfect knowledge of dramatic situations.

MADISON THEATRE

It seems almost unbelievable that a great star can go on eclipsing her previous performances upon the stage, after time, but Mary Pickford's appearance in "The Elmer Gantry" which is the feature at the Madison Theatre the remainder of this week, has been pronounced by public and critics alike as unquestionably her greatest endeavor. In earlier releases she has appeared as an immature child, when fate had kicked about at will, and in these roles she has won our sympathy. In the "Eternal Grand" however, she is a very mature

PLAYS, PICTURES AND MUSIC

'GIRLS' AT THE ALEXANDRA.

"Girls" or better still the "Man-haters," the most successful comedy from the pen of the versatile and surprising Clyde Fitch will be the mainstay that should pack the Alexandra Theatre next week, when Edward H. Robbins and his clever players present this uproariously funny comedy for the first time in stock. "Girls" has to its credit a record run of Broadway. It has for its chief characters three girls living in a studio in New York who have an oath that they will remain man-haters. They live a jolly existence in an atmosphere of entirely right man comes along, and from this on the "Man-haters" woman is dissolved in a most laughable way, and as a result "Girls" has proved to be just the brightest and wisest comedy of the age. The regular runtimes will be given on Wednesday and Saturday.

HANLAN'S POINT

Now that old King Sol has decided to bestow his warm rays of sunshine upon the city, the outdoor amusements are commencing to flock to their favorite spot. The attractions performing twice daily all this week and on the holiday (Saturday) is headed by the daredevil Holden, who has been acclaimed the sensation of America. His high diving and stunts are of a kind that will draw the attention of the most fastidious to the point of fear. Also worth considerable mention is the celebrated Roman ring artist, whose muscular feats place them among the leading acts of the kind in the up-to-date selections. On Saturday the Toronto Traction will play both morning and afternoon. Boats run every few minutes.

AT THE HIPPODROME

For next week the Hippodrome management announces as the headline attraction Joseph Hart's latest creation "After the Wedding." The piece deals with the trials and tribulations of a married couple. The return from their honeymoon. The special feature of the bill will be the "Triangle" by the Master of the Ring, a very clever dramatic star, Frank Mills, in the role of the leading character. The Morton Bar, which is a singing and dancing comedy with a personality, while the "The Girl Who Came to Stay" is a dancing specialty, and Keystone feature which is complete a bright hot weather bill.

DR. ALEX. FRASER PAYS TRIBUTE TO CANADIANS

Acknowledges Receipt of Proceeds for Comforts for the Lovat Scouts in Egypt.

In the course of a letter to Dr. Alexander Fraser acknowledging the receipt of forty-five pounds, seven shillings, the proceeds of a concert for comforts to the Lovat Scouts, Lady Lovat, Beaufort Castle, writes: "I am sure Toronto friends would be rewarded could they see the pleasure it has been to us all who are responsible for keeping the funds up to strength. The scouts are still in Egypt where they are suffering much from the heat. They are longing to get to France."

"One hears on all sides how magnificently the Canadians have been fighting at Ypres all this last week. Despite the terrible superiority of the German heavy artillery they held on till their trenches were flattened out. All agree it was a marvellous performance. London was ringing with it yesterday when I was there."

MAYONNAISE DRESSING

The season for salads and cold dishes approaches, and for many of these a mayonnaise sauce is required, says a writer in The Queen, London. It is a concoction which is not difficult to make rightly if the directions are carefully carried out. A good recipe is as follows: If the weather is hot, choose a cool place for the operation and place the mixing bowl in a pan of cold water. He says that the oil is good and of fine quality. Place the yolks of two fresh, raw eggs in a basin, add half a teaspoonful of salt, rather less pepper, and a teaspoonful of French and English mustard mixed, and a dust of cayenne. Some people like to add half a teaspoonful of onion juice. Work well together and then add, drop by drop, three gills (a gill is a quarter of a pint) of oil, stirring all the time. When thick and creamy add, drop by drop, one dessertspoonful of vinegar, half the same of lemon juice and half the same of tarragon vinegar mixed. If the oil is added in too great a quantity it will not mix with the egg, and the sauce, instead of being smooth and creamy and of the consistency of a rich custard and a good yellow, will be dark and oily and thin. If too much vinegar is used the sauce will be too thin. It should be thick enough to coat the salmon, etc., over which it is poured. If the sauce should curdle, beat another egg yolk and mix the sauce with it, drop by drop.

RULES OF HEALTH FOR DYSPEPTICS

There are two ways by which people who suffer from indigestion, dyspepsia, sour stomach, flatulence, etc., can overcome the trouble. First, as practically all cases of dyspepsia are directly or indirectly traceable to acidity and fermentation, they can eliminate from their diet all foods which ferment and form acids, such as all starches and sugar and foods containing them, thus prohibiting bread, potatoes, fruits and most meats. About the only safe foods are gluten breads, sprouts and small quantities of white meat of chicken or turkey. This diet is almost a starvation one, but it is quite effective. The second way, which appeals especially to those who like to eat hearty meals of good foods, is to eat whatever is reasonable, digestible, neutralize the acid and stop fermentation by the use of a good antacid. Bismuthated magnesia is a teaspoonful of which in a little water immediately after eating or whenever the stomach does its work without pain or hindrance. Owing to its simplicity, convenience and effectiveness, this latter plan is now being adopted, instead of the old-fashioned, expensive, weakening starvation process. In this connection it is interesting to note that since the widespread use of bismuthated magnesia was established, many druggists have strangled to supply it in 5 gr. tablets, 2 or 3 of which are equivalent to a teaspoonful of the powder form and six much more convenient to carry.
