Saint John Hebrew Places of Business are Closed Today

Observance of New Year, 5685, Will Continue Till Sunset on Sunday.

Jewish places of business in Saint John, as throughout the world, today are closed and the Hebrew people are observing the beginning of their new year, the holy day of Rosh Hashanah.

ITS SIGNIFICANCE Speaking of the holy day, this morning's prominent members of the Hebrew congregation said that it was a highly spiritual occasion both in its significance and its strict observance by every Hebrew member, whether young or old, patriotic believer or not, except those who, who oppose any religious worship.

The psychology of the observance of this holy day, while others were abandoned, he said, was as follows: "The human soul needs spiritual food just as the body requires material food and circumstances do not permit the proper observance of every holy day set for the purpose. This holy day, therefore, turns every Hebrew from his material world and raises him above worldly cares and thus relieves the weary of the soul."

STROKE PUTS LIFE OF MORSE IN DANGER Shipbuilder and Financier Critically Ill in New York—Once Had Many Millions.

NEW YORK, Sept. 19.—Charles W. Morse, former banker and shipping man, suffered a second paralytic stroke at his home here following his return on Monday from Bath, Maine. Physicians reported him in a critical condition.

Morse, who was paroled from the Federal prison in Atlanta, Ga., in 1910 by President Taft on representations that he was dying, suffered a paralytic stroke four months ago in Bath. As his condition became worse recently he was brought back to his home and reached here in a state of deep coma.

At the height of his business career, Morse was said to be worth $50,000,000. At that time he controlled 16 banks, 60 ice companies and was a director in most of the large shipping companies of his day.

He was sentenced to the Federal prison in 1908 for misapplication of the funds of one of the banks with which he was connected. Following his pardon by President Taft, Morse sailed for Europe. When he returned he said his health was much improved.

Morse returned to Wall street and resumed his financial career. He is reported to have recouped $7,000,000 of his lost fortune.

Judge Holds Taxi Men Must Receive Any Tip Politely

NEW YORK, Sept. 18.—A taxicab driver who may not like the size of a tip offered him will accept it politely, nevertheless, and be grateful to receive any gratuity at all if he wants to keep clear of the law. Magistrate George W. Simpson in the West Side Court issued this warning, and he emphasized it by holding a recalcitrant chauffeur without bail for examination.

Benjamin Knaster, 29 years old, was the chauffeur who will spend the next few days in a cell instead of in his home. Dr. Joseph M. Klein of Jamaica, L. I., hired Knaster at the Pennsylvania station and rode to Forty-third street and Seventh avenue. Dr. Klein had Miss Theresa Craig of Walnut street, Long Beach, L. I., with him and the couple were in search of their ticket.

When he dismissed Knaster the dentist handed him 30 cents. The meter fare was 20 cents. According to the dentist and Miss Craig, Knaster was surly. He pretended to examine the dentist's dime to see if it were good and then exclaimed: "How in blazes do you expect a taxicab driver to live on tips like this?"

According to the couple, there was considerable more impolite conversation from the taxi driver and he finally hurled five pennies from his pocket and buried them in Dr. Klein's face.

IS BACK HOME AFTER 40 YEARS

Adopted Canadian Not Recognized When He Visits English Folks

Represents B. C. Department of Mines at Canadian Pavilion, Wembley.

LONDON, Sept. 18.—Belated to be dead, Fred A. Starkey, of British Columbia, who had not been seen by relatives for 40 years, made his way to the Lincolnshire home of his brother who, for a moment, rejected him as an impostor.

"Can I speak to John Starkey?" asked the caller at the Old Suffolk House, Barrow-on-Humber.

"Certainly, sir," replied a lady, and a moment later, when the master of the house appeared, the visitor, holding out his hand, exclaimed, "Hello Jack!"

Eying the caller with distrust, the householder kept his hands to himself, remarking, "I don't know you!"

"No, probably not, but I'm Fred," came the answer.

"What, our Fred! Oh, no, you're not; he's dead," said the farmer.

Not to be discouraged, Fred strode into the house, deposited his bag in a chair, and declared, "I want a bed for the night."

"That's rather like Fred," said the householder. "What was your father's name?"

"It's all right, Jack, old man. I'll tell you the names of the entire family if you like," came the reply, and when, sure enough, he had recited off all the names, he was received with open arms.

The new arrival is a prominent Canadian and represents the Department of Mines for British Columbia at the Canadian Pavilion, Wembley.

SAINT JOHN, N. B., SEPT. 19, 1925.

GENTLEMEN, WHAT'S THE GOOD WORD?

Saint John at the first of the coming week is to greet two most distinguished visitors, the Right Hon. W. L. Mackenzie King, Premier of Canada, and the Right Hon. Arthur Meighen, Conservative leader, and former Premier.

Each of these distinguished gentlemen is asking that the people entrust his party with the administration of the affairs of this country during the next four or five years. It is an election in which the Maritime Provinces feel something more than the customary partisan interest.

Naturally, then, the people hereabouts are asking what the future holds for them. They are rightly so impressed, greatly by generalities, just as they are certain to resent erosion. Courteously but insistently day they are asking Hon. Mr. King and Hon. Mr. Meighen for plain and explicit deliverances on many questions.

There is the question of Canadian ports as opposed to alien ports. The Maritimes contributed heavily toward the construction, as they have contributed heavily toward the maintenance, of the great railways built to reach and develop the West.

The people of the Maritimes are asking whether it is the intention of either party, or of both, to continue, for example, the use of Fortland for the detriment of Canadian ports; and they are asking, likewise, what both parties propose to do in the matter of the diversion of a vast volume of export traffic of Canadian origin through other American ports, notably New York by way of Buffalo.

Allied with this great national problem is the question of C. N. R. development at the port of Saint John. The money invested in Courtenay Bay by the Dominion, except for the benefits arising from the construction of the great dry dock, has been without value because the projected pier and other terminal facilities necessary for the C. N. R. in that area have not been built.

This should not be any mere passing campaign issue. With respect to the use of Canadian ports there should be continuity of policy at Ottawa, no matter which party rules there. If Mr. King's party is successful, or if Mr. Meighen's party wins the day, what is to be done at Courtenay Bay? Do these leaders propose to commit Parliament to the expenditure necessary, not only to start the building of these terminals, but to complete them with all reasonable speed, and to insist upon their utilization? And do they propose that the Transcontinental shall be made to do the work which it is capable of doing because of its favorable mileage, its low grades and its easy curves? How do they propose to unlock and make fruitful that investment of $170,000,000 which has been so little utilized?

What do they propose to do about the Valley Railway? It was built by this province on the understanding that it would be so employed in connection with the C. N. R. that New Brunswick would be relieved of its cost. Yearly New Brunswickers pay out $250,000 or more in interest charges, over and above their proportion of the receipts from this railway. When the Dominion took over the Grand Trunk Pacific and other lines the Western Provinces were relieved of the bond issues for which they became responsible at the time of construction. The Maritimes paid their share of the building cost of those railways. They paid their share of the relief thus given the West.

They pay their share of the recurring deficits—a share equal yearly to the $6,000,000 or more which the Valley Railway cost. Repeated efforts have been made at Ottawa by New Brunswick to have the Valley Railway incorporated in the C. N. R. system. Where do Hon. Mr. King and Hon. Mr. Meighen stand as to that?

The Maritimes Provinces need, and have room for, a great number of suitable immigrants. Since the early nineties—say for thirty years—these provinces have contributed heavily to the total Dominion expenditure on immigration, but as compared with the West, they have received virtually no direct return. This is another instance in which they have paid—and paid heavily—for something they have not received. What does the Prime Minister say as to that? What does Hon. Mr. Meighen propose in relation to it?

There is the tariff. The Maritimes realize that some tariff taxation is still a necessity in the Dominion. They have no desire to disorganize or to wreck the manufacturing industries of Canada, and they believe in building up Canadian enterprises and keeping our money at home so far as that is reasonably practicable. But they are asking what kind of tariff the leaders propose—how much higher or how much lower—and they are convinced that tariff proposals in this campaign might well be more definite than those which have thus far been made public. They feel that if the Maritimes are to bear their share of the protection which is of more direct benefit to the industries of the Central Provinces than it can possibly be to this territory, there should be some form of balancing the account, in order that the Maritimes may enjoy a nearer approach to that equality of opportunity which is due them as partners in Confederation.

In connection with the tariff and taxation there is, in passing, a matter in which the Maritimes have been suffering both injustice and discrimination. While certain canned vegetables and fruits, produced mainly in the Upper Provinces, have been relieved from the sales tax on the ground that they are foods, canned fish and lobsters prepared in the Maritimes are still subject to the sales tax, although these products are foods, and their prices are directly into the general cost of living. Repeated efforts to have this discrimination removed have failed up to date. The remedy is simple. Will Hon. Mr. King apply it? Will Hon. Mr. Meighen?

The Maritimes Provinces are deeply interested in the question of freight rates, and in the solution of the railway problem. The Chairman of the Railway Commission has proclaimed the principle that trade, business, the interchange of products, must not be strangled by transportation costs, and he has said that, nevertheless, the railways must be enabled to earn a living. He has suggested that if, in order to relieve business from its handicaps in the matter of rates, it becomes necessary to introduce schedules which the railways find unprofitable, it may be necessary to supplement their revenues in some fashion beyond the present powers of the Railway Commission. How is that to be done? Are the Maritimes to receive concessions in the matter of rates on a par with those given the West? How do Mr. King and Mr. Meighen propose, further, to continue competition between the two great railway systems of Canada without incurring the present tremendous deficits in connection with the C. N. R. or, on the other hand, threatening the destruction of the C. P. R., one of the greatest, and certainly the most successful, of all Canadian enterprises.

These are some, though by no means all, of the questions on which the people of this constituency, and we believe of the Maritimes generally, are seeking definite enlightenment. Therefore these questions are courteously submitted as a demanding clear and definite treatment at the hands of the distinguished party leaders; and it may be suggested in connection with them, without any intention to give offence, that it is in the public interest, and in the interest of both parties as well, that they be met with frankness and with clarity.

Sometimes—too often—political leaders receive from partisan followers, and advisers wholly misleading impressions as to the temper of the people and as to the political situation existing in one part of the country or another. It may have been represented to both leaders that the disturbance of opinion, the anxiety, the determination to bring about an improvement in conditions, which have been manifest in the Maritime Provinces of late, spring from only a temporary feeling, a passing phase, which will either disappear in the heat generated by a general election, or which can be conjured out of existence by vague promises, by campaign gestures, or by fatherly admonition.

To accept that view would be to fall into a deep pit of error. The Maritimes are no less resolute and self-reliant than are the people in any part of Canada. They have faith in their own qualities and resources, and they are good Canadians.

They are not asking for charity at the hands of other provinces which are politically more powerful. They believe their prosperity is essential to the permanence and expansion of a well-rounded and successful Dominion. They believe profoundly that hitherto, in the matter of the chief federal activities, they have suffered injustice at the hands of both political parties and, in some measure, at the hands of the Central Provinces. They are prepared to give as well as to take. They fully realize the necessity for helping themselves, but they are determined, regardless of partisan politics, to win a more just and a more generous share in the future in those benefits which flow from federal policies and federal activities.

Today, in preparing to welcome Hon. Mr. King and Hon. Mr. Meighen, they look forward expectantly to instruction and enlightenment on the matters here brought under review. "Gentlemen," they are saying, "what's the good word?"

Odds and Ends

"You never know what you'll find among the odds and ends."—From "Notes by a Wayfarer."

The Wild Horses of Fundy

(W. D. Gough in Ottawa Citizen.) Shake your dripping manes again. And race beneath the stars; Tomorrow men will saddle you. From Drudgery and wars.

Gallop and neigh and prance again, And toss your flaming feet; Tomorrow men will harness you To reap and grind their wheat.

As men go up and down the earth There's naught they leave untamed; Plunge through the foaming fields to-night— Tomorrow you'll be shamed.

O gray old horses of Fundy, That madcap terrors rode; Tomorrow, wild hearts, tomorrow Your flanks shall feed the good.

Broken to shaft and to bridle, Guided by eye and rein, Subdued, you shall draw and follow, Follow and draw again.

Whining, tonight, in the starlight With the freedom that departs; Tomorrow the trace will tame you And men will break your hearts.

enough after he has taken his stance, but he is thinking about the wrong thing. His mind is concentrated on avoiding a hook or a slice, and not on hitting the ball. To workers and players in every game and concern there is a helpful suggestion here. Concentration is a thing so obviously desirable that most of us spend a goodly share of our energy in worrying over the question whether or not we possess it, and if so, whether we are duly developing it from day to day. The true fact probably is that the capacity of concentration is very widely and readily present in all human beings who have had any training and discipline worthy the name. The real test is a man's ability to direct his concentrative strength toward the most fruitful end. Let more attention be paid to clear choice of the object upon which concentration shall be trained, and less thought be given to the development of "concentration" in and of itself. The results, for all of us, will move speedily closer to par.

Golf For 17 1/2 Miles

(Winnipeg Free Press.) A remarkable golfing feat has been accomplished near Winnipeg. Hugh Fletcher, the professional of a local golf club, teed off in front of a newspaper office and proceeded to march through city streets, out into the country, over gravel roads and across pastures and ploughed fields in the direction of the 18th hole of the Winnipeg Golf Club's course. Walking 17 1/2 miles, he reached this goal in seven and a half hours, with 288 strokes to his credit, which was substantially below the lowest estimate made of his probable score. He encountered every possible kind of shot, and, strange to relate, finished with the same ball as he started with.

PRESBYTERY HAS IMPORTANT MEET

Prepares for Launching of Spiritual and Financial Campaign

Rev. W. McN. Matthews Succeeds Rev. Dr. J. S. Sutherland as Clerk.

The Saint John Presbytery of the United Church of Canada, meeting for the first time as a body representative of only the southern part of the province, held afternoon and evening sessions in St. Andrew's church, yesterday, with Rev. G. Fulton presiding, and prepared for the launching of the spiritual and financial campaign which is to be undertaken throughout Canada.

The financial objective for the Presbytery is $41,500. Dr. Sutherland for the Presbytery Commission on home missions reported that in New Maryland the vote on church union was tied and the building would remain with the united church.

PRESBYTERY FUNDS.

It was announced that the former Saint John Presbytery was now divided into four parts, Woodstock, Moncton, Fredericton and Saint John. The present officers were given charge until the end of the year, when any money left in the treasury of the Presbytery fund would be shared by the four.

A new fund for the Saint John Presbytery is to be secured and Mr. Campbell and J. Hunter White were selected to draw up a schedule of contributions.

Several non-concurring ministers had allowed their names to remain on the rolls and it was decided to permit the names to remain until Dec. 1.

A letter from Rev. T. Hunter Boyd, now in Glasgow, intimated that he would enter the United Church.

Dr. James Ross is assigned to Woodstock; Dr. F. J. McSweeney to Saint John. Dr. Ross will continue as interim moderator of congregations in the Saint John Presbytery, to which he had previously been appointed.

Dr. Sutherland's resignation as clerk was accepted and Judge Forbes and Rev. J. S. Bonnell were appointed to draw up a suitable minute of appreciation. Rev. W. McN. Matthews was elected clerk and will enter upon his new duties on October 1.

T. H. Sommerville and C. H. Ferguson were appointed assessors for Harvey when the second vote on church union is taken.

RAISING MONEY.

Rev. Dr. McConnell said the Maritime Conference advocated a spiritual and financial programme when Presbyteries were to have sessions of study and prayer. The period from Oct. 4 to Oct. 28 was to be given over to deepening of religious life. On the first three Sundays in November services were to deal with the enterprises of the United Church and from the 18th to 21st of November was to be given over to a canvass of the church members.

Lack of Steamer Services Diverts Canadian Trade

In Canada, "Micks! Did you say Micks?" quoth Mr. O'Reilly, with assumed innocence; whereas my friend and guide, Mr. Galley, of the C. P. R., showed signs of grave internal disturbance. "Jimmy Galley," said Mr. O'Reilly, "is the most popular man in Montreal." With which bit of blarney he walked with us to the elevator and wished us all good fortune.

Because it has been alleged that goods are sometimes routed via American ports by British firms of forwarders, I called at the Montreal offices of two of them. E. W. Mills, of J. W. Mills & Son, representing Wintate & Johnston, a great British firm, declared emphatically that they ordered all business routed through Canadian ports. They have offices in London, Liverpool and Glasgow. Of course, as already explained, it is not always possible to follow this policy to the letter.

I hope to have presently some fuller information regarding the kind of goods that make up the $11,000,000 of imports and $287,000,000 of exports through American ports; but I have yet to find a Montreal importer or exporter who does not favor the largest possible use of our own ports, or who does not sympathize with the purpose of my mission. The worrying about business for Portland is not being done by them.

My mother, grandmother and five brothers all stood on it when they were married, and they've all been happy. It's worth its weight in gold."

Brothers Pass Daily But Have Not Met In 16 Years

LONDON, Sept. 19.—For sixteen years two brothers have passed within a few feet of each other daily near Colwyn Bay, but never have seen each other since 1909. They are William and Harry Dean, dining car conductors on the Irish mail trains running between London and Holyhead. Each makes a single trip daily, spending alternate nights at the two terminals. On the days that William's train leaves Holyhead shortly after noon, Harry pulls out of London at half-past eight in the morning. Their trains whiz past each other about a hundred yards outside Colwyn Bay station.

MORE ACTIVITY IN INDUSTRY

Metal Working Plant Orders Taken to Indicate Healthy Improvement

Supplies Move Steadily Through Hands of Dealers, and Optimism is Reviving.

TORONTO, Sept. 18.—In a summary of the iron, steel and machinery markets, Canadian Machinery and Manufacturing News makes the following comment this week:

Gradual and healthy improvement in industrial activity is indicated by the fact that orders of metal-working plants, in most cases, are growing and, at present rates of production some Canadian mills are finding it difficult to keep abreast of shipment demands.

Supplies are moving very steadily through the hands of dealers, and the outlook for good fall consumption is reviving optimism. Jobbers have fairly well liquidated their takings of the first part of the year and shipments for winter stock from Canadian, American and overseas producers are growing. Complainers are still heard that present prices show little profit, but current quotations are being strictly adhered to and, in the case of pig iron, sellers hesitate to take contract business past the end of the year.

While distributors are extending their purchases, consumers continue, in the main, to buy close to actual requirements, but consumption is evidently fairly high as orders and specifications are coming along with constancy and the volume is growing. Contracting for the first quarter of 1926 is now general.

SEE REVIVAL.

Robert Hobson, president of the Canadian Locomotive Co., expresses the view that business for that company is about to experience a revival. Canadian railroads have for some time been curtailing investment in rolling stock and rails and the belief is expressed by several equipment firms that orders will be distributed shortly. The Bathurst Co., Bathurst, N. B., have ordered a Mogul type locomotive from the Montreal Locomotive Co., Malton, N.S.

Three tenders have been received for fabrication and erection of the superstructure of the Montreal south shore bridge and announcement of the placing of the work is expected within a week. The contract for the erection of the $400,000 St. Andrew's College, Toronto, has been awarded to Yates Construction Co., Hamilton.

Substantial improvement in demand for each of the major non-ferrous materials in the international markets featured the week. Considerably more copper was sold than in any one of the three weeks immediately preceding. Fairly large sales of lead were reported and zinc was strong and higher. Montreal reports a stiffening market, with advances in quotations on tin and lead. Antimony receded slightly from its abnormally high position.

Guesses only have been made as to the prices to be asked for iron in the first quarter of 1926 and sellers are not anxious to take business, but a Buffalo furnace has announced a schedule of $19, $18.50 and $18 for the three steel grades of foundry iron for the fourth and first quarter delivery, with the general going price in the district, for last quarter trade, at $18.50.

A MARTYR TO CONSTIPATION

"Fruit-a-lives" brought early relief

"I first heard of 'Fruit-a-lives' through a friend of mine living in St. Johnsbury, and as I was troubled with very high Blood Pressure and Constipation, I decided to try the fruit treatment. The result is that I am feeling very much better, and I am glad to recommend 'Fruit-a-lives' to anyone." Mrs. C. W. Thompson, Lyndonville, Vermont.

All your physical and mental energy is drawn from your blood stream. If the bowels and kidneys do not function properly, poisons enter the blood-stream, and the heart, brain and nerves are all affected. "Fruit-a-lives" clear the system of all waste matter, purify the blood and tone up the whole system. They are made from the intensified juices of luscious healthful fruits combined with bases. Sold everywhere 25c & 50c.

If You Tire Easily---Beware of Chronic Fatigue

Thousands are victims of chronic fatigue—and do not know it. If you tire easily, feel "all-in" at night, and wake up unrefreshed in the morning—if you are always weak, nervous, headachy, etc.—nine chances out of ten the real cause is chronic fatigue. Ordinary fatigue—the kind you feel after hard work, etc.—is normal. That's nothing to worry about. But chronic fatigue comes from within. Your nerves, muscles, etc., have become debilitated and cannot function properly.

To conquer it you must get at its cause—in the blood. For it is when your blood is thin and pale, lacking in sufficient iron, that you become run-down, and are a victim of chronic fatigue.

What you need is to strengthen your system by getting more iron in your blood. Don't take the older mineral iron medicines which many doctors now say do little good. Take organic iron—Nuxated Iron—which is like the iron in your own blood. Unlike ordinary mineral iron it does not injure the teeth or upset the stomach, but is promptly assimilated. Take Nuxated Iron for just 2 weeks and you'll be astonished how it begins to revitalize you and gives you new strength and endurance. Money back if not improved. At all good druggists.

Mass. Bank Starts Campaign to Prove Story of Bad Luck Untrue.

NORTHAMPTON, Mass., Sept. 19.—Gordon L. Willis, president of the Hampshire County Trust Company of this city, has started a campaign to do away with the superstition that two-dollar bills are unlucky. He admits that the prejudice against these bills is as prevalent in Northampton as it is elsewhere.

Mr. Willis' bank, in a drive to obtain new depositors, has offered to give each new depositor credit for $2.50 for every account opened with a two-dollar bill. He hopes that this special willingness of the institution to accept these bills will bring them back to a respectable standing in Northampton.

DEVOTED DAUGHTER WILLING PRISONER

Tended Insane Mother in Room For Two Years to Keep Condition Secret.

CHICAGO, Sept. 19.—How a devoted daughter for more than two years imposed upon herself voluntary imprisonment in a downtown hotel room to care for her mother there and prevent exposure of the mother's mental condition has come to light as a result of an inquiry by her father, Raleigh D. Harding of Wilmington, Delaware.

Neither mother nor daughter had stepped out of the room after they came to Chicago. Dreading the thought of confinement in an institution, the daughter, Louise, had brought the mother from Wilmington to Chicago.

Chrysler Cars Per Day

Production of Chrysler quality cars—the Six and the Four—is now proceeding at the amazing total of more than 800 per day. Yet even that huge volume falls short of satisfying the demand in Canada and the United States for results which only Chrysler can give.

Two weeks after the Chrysler Four was announced, it was on a production schedule of 500 per day.

It is doubtful if any new car has ever been forced to meet such an avalanche of buying orders as immediately descended upon the Chrysler Four.

At the same time, the epoch-making quality, unprecedented results and proved durability of the Chrysler Six were sending its public demand higher and higher month by month.

Today, with the most modern factory facilities and scientific manufacturing processes, world-wide demand for both the Six and the Four has sent them to new peaks of quality production.

You who are justly proud of Chrysler ownership, you scores of thousands who enjoy the new results which only Chrysler can give, have long since learned the soundness and the depth of quality in Chrysler materials and Chrysler craftsmanship. Increasing thousands of buyers enthusiastically acclaim the tremendous advance registered by Chrysler results—in performance, in ride-ability, in compact roominess, in economy.

FIVE-GAME SERIES PLANNED BETWEEN N. S. AND N. B. WINNERS

BATHURST BOYS CONFIDENT OF WINNING TODAY

Nova Scotia Title To Be Decided This Afternoon at Truro

A FIVE-GAME SERIES between the St. John Watermen, provided they win the finals for the New Brunswick championship from Bathurst today here, and the winner of the Springhill-Westville clash at Truro today will be arranged following today's games, according to W. E. Stirling, New Brunswick vice-president of the M. P. B., this morning. Mr. Stirling said he had received word from the Nova Scotia officials, approving his suggestion of bringing New Brunswick and Nova Scotia together in the semi-finals for the Maritime title and committing either Springhill or Westville to a home and home series, best three out of five, for the right to get into the Maritime finals against Charlottetown, winners of the P. E. I. championship. It is a foregone conclusion that the winner of the N. S.-N. B. tilt will win out against Charlottetown as the Island boys are not strong in baseball.

Mr. Stirling said that he had notified the P. E. I. authorities that it would be impossible for the locals, should they win today, to go to Charlottetown next week, as the Island people wanted. Regarding arrangements for the big series which will start next week, Mr. Stirling said he believed the opening game would be settled by a toss of the coin. "Bob" Atchison was on the ground at Truro now, he said, and if present plans carried, he would ask the local umpire to perform this act for the New Brunswick team. In case the locals won the toss they will undoubtedly elect to open the series here on Friday night of next week with the second game scheduled for Saturday afternoon. Should either Westville or Springhill win, they will probably choose the week-end for the opening games with the following week-end here. THAT Bathurst confidently expects to win this afternoon and even up to the series with the Saint John Watermen and that they consider the local team lucky to have beaten them on their home grounds is evidenced by a write-up of last Wednesday's game appearing in the Bathurst Northern Light. The newspaper says the home boys lost through a series of "unfortunate circumstances" and had Champeaux shown anything like the form he has displayed during the season, the result would have been different. Here is what the Northern Light says of the game: Bathurst lost the first of the play-off games for the provincial baseball championship yesterday afternoon by nothing less than a set of untoward circumstances. The Saint John players, while strong at the bat did not exhibit anything like the fielding ability of the local players, and had Champeaux held up to the form he has been showing all summer the result would easily have been in Bathurst's favor. The game was lost practically in the first two innings. In the second Champeaux seemed to have lost all control of the ball and walked five of his opponents, one of whom was knocked completely out when struck by a pitched ball. Two runs were scored by the visitors in this inning, one more in the fifth

Pirates Need Six Out of Eleven Games To Clinch The Pennant

Along The Sport Trail

THE announcement that the Saint John Amateur Skating Association is definitely embarked on an ambitious programme in the direction of a world's skating meet here this winter means that this city is in for one of the busiest sport seasons it has ever experienced. Not only will this meet reach the topmost peak in anything of its kind ever attempted before but hockey will boom as well. Pile on top of this, some classy boxing cards, some special basketball attractions, and the strain and drive nightly of a dozen bowling leagues and you have a programme that fairly shouts with action. Then, there will be skating and local and provincial meets and even this does not exhaust the list. By the time spring rolls around again, we'll need a breather and then plunge into the vortex of another baseball season. That's the cycle and everyone should get the swing of it.

IF IT IS correct that L. R. Ross intended limiting competition for his magnificent cup to boys up to 22 years of age, and not 21 years and under, as stated in the deed, by all means let us respect the wish of the donor.

BY SUNDOWN, the New Brunswick senior amateur baseball title probably will be lodged safely in Saint John for the third year in succession. In 1923, it was brought here by the St. Rose's; in 1924 by the Portlands; now in 1925, unless the dope is sadly astray; it will be by the Watermen. The nucleus of the line-ups of both Portlands and Watermen has been practically the same, so, irrespective of any other considerations entirely, it is a tribute to the baseball ability of such boys as Charlie Gorman, Snodgrass, Dick Bartlett, Ira Hannah and Corrigan to have figured in successive years on championship teams. That much, at least, is due them. In the pinch, they were not found wanting, aided of course, by some splendid pitching by Lloyd Stirling.

TWO WEEKS from today, the Trojans entertain a team on the Allison grounds in the opening of the senior rugby season. Reserve this date and help them along.

HUGHIE FULLERTON is running true to form again. We all have considerable respect for the keen, analytical mind of this interesting writer but Hughie has one bad falling—that is picking a winner. Even at that Hughie is about as good as the rest of us only he's so definite about it that it sticks out like a sore thumb. In March of last year, Fullerton named the standing of the teams at the end of the year. He picked both New York teams to win in their respective leagues. The Giants will finish second and the Yankees around seventh. He named Washington to land in fifth place and here they have practically won the league. And so, down the list. After so many failures at this uncertain game, one would think Hughie would desist but like the grand opera star, he is always trying a "farwell."

15-Year Old Girl Wins Golf Tourney

STOKE POGES, England, Sept. 19.—Playing with her pigtail tucked down the back of her sweater, Miss Erid Wilson of Chesterfield, 15 years old, and the youngest entrant in the tournament, today won the British girls' golf championship. She defeated Katharine Nicholls of Kidderminster in the final round, 5 up and 6 to play. The champion of 1924, Miss Simone Thion De La Chaume, did not defend her title. Although the youngest competitor, Miss Wilson was physically the largest and most powerful girl in the tournament. Her opponent in the final, Miss Nicholls, was the smallest and still the oldest girl entered, being 19.

Bathurst was shut out until the sixth when they scored two and they got a third and last in the seventh, Saint John scoring two more in the ninth on a passed ball. The game was witnessed by a fair sized crowd and great enthusiasm was in evidence. The Bathurst players turned in a game remarkably free from errors and distinguished by splendid fielding support, the playing of Cripps being especially notable as was McKenna's pitching and base running. The second game of the play-off series takes place at Saint John on Saturday and it is confidently expected that Bathurst will event things up.

DR. GANO THIRD IN JUNIOR EVENT AT FREDERICTON

"The Finisher," Also From Here, Third In 2.21 Class

TWO horses from Saint John figured in the money in their respective events at the closing day of the Fredericton race meet yesterday. Dr. Gano, Silas E. Rice's bay gelding, finishing third in the main event, the junior free-for-all, and "The Finisher," owned by L. Sullivan, also landing a third in the 2.21 trot and pace. Four horses were entered in the junior free-for-all, Jack Volo, driven by Conroy, finally winning. He went a poor first heat, and Togo Hall won, with Dr. Gano second. In the second heat, the Volo horse showed his form and captured the next three heats handily. The 2.17 had a field of five horses. Long Set was favored by many to win this race but showed nothing better than third money. Emotionless beat Bonnie Girl out in the first heat in 2:14, the best time of the event. It looked then as if the race was to be between those two horses. The first heat seemed the best that Emotionless could do. She went to several bad breaks as the race progressed. Bonnie Girl won the second with Long Set pressing hard. The third heat started after repeated scoring, Margaret MacGregor and Bonnie Girl both scoring poorly. Emotionless, by a bad break, lost whatever chance she had, and the first and second positions were as they were in the preceding heat. With four starters the fourth heat was Bonnie Girl's without trouble.

MACK SAYS IT COST $375,000 TO BUILD PHILADELPHIA TEAM

NEW YORK, Sept. 19.—"It took me ten years and it cost us $375,000 to build this club, but I think the time and the money has been well invested," Connie Mack, veteran manager of the Philadelphia Athletics, said recently. It does not take a keen analyst to observe that Mack is very proud of his young team, that he has confidence in it and the brightest hope for the future. "Even if we do not win the pennant this year," he said, "I will not admit that I haven't."

Groves was of little use this season, but Mack feels sure that he will deliver next year. Groves came from the same club that got $800,000 from the New York Giants for Jack Bentley and it was two years before Bentley was of any real service to the Saint John Delegates Return After Meetings on P. E. I.

Hundredth Anniversary of the W. M. S. in Canada—Amalgamation on March 31.

The 100th anniversary of the first Women's Missionary Society formed in Canada was commemorated at the 49th annual meeting of the Maritime Missionary Society of the Maritime Provinces or eastern division of the Presbyterian Church in Canada (now the United Church) held in Malpeque, P. E. I., this week and the Saint John delegates who returned last evening for the convention were greatly impressed by the ceremonies and by the reports presented at the meeting.

The dedicatory prayer was offered by Mrs. L. M. McLean. Resolutions were sent by Mrs. Carmichael and Rev. Dr. and Mrs. Morton, Trinidad.

Mrs. Nell McLeod, president of P. E. I. presbyterial, unveiled a tablet to the memory of these pioneer missionary workers—seven in number. Representatives of P. E. I. Presbyterial sent greetings by Rev. George Christie, Alberton. Mr. Christie spoke of the new paper for the Maritime Provinces taking the place of The Wesleyan, to be called The United Churchman. There is to be a column put at the disposal of the W. M. S. and contributions of interest are invited.

Rev. A. F. Robb, just returned from Korea, gave a splendid address. He represented the 859 missionaries of the United Church of Canada. He brought congratulations to Malpeque and to the W. M. S. and on accepting the budget for the coming year. Rev. F. M. Auld, M.D., of Hontan, brought greetings for the F. M. Board from Hontan missionaries. He spoke of "The Women and Children of China."

It was enthusiastically decided to endeavor to raise what still remains on the budget and 50 per cent more before March 31, 1926. The greatest spirit of optimism marked the meetings.

PAINS IN LEFT SIDE AND BACK

Other Troubles Women Often Have Relieved by Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound

Lachine, Quebec.—"I took Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound because I suffered with pains in my left side and back, and with weakness and other troubles women so often have. I was this way about six months. I saw the Vegetable Compound advertised in the 'Montreal Standard' and I have taken four bottles of it. I was a very sick woman and I feel so much better I would not be without it. I also use Lydia E. Pinkham's Sanna-tiva Wash. I recommend the medicine to my friends and I am willing for you to see my letter as a testimonial."—Mrs. M. W. Ross, 880 Notre Dame Street, Lachine, Quebec.

Doctor Said An Operation Provoked. Alberta.—"Perhaps you will remember sending me one of your books a year ago. I was in a bad condition and would suffer awful pains at times and could not do anything. The doctor said I could not have children unless I went under an operation. I read testimonials of Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound in the papers and a friend recommended me to take it. After taking three bottles I became much better and now have a bonny baby girl four months old. In my hopefulness I had help a little with the compound. I recommend the Vegetable Compound to my friends and am willing for you to use this testimonial letter."—Mrs. A. A. Adams, Box 64, Provost, Alberta, C.

Protest Filed In York Co. Election FREDERICTON, Sept. 18.—A formal protest of the election of Councilor Wasson, G. B. B. in the Parish of Bright has been made by Albert J. Jewett. Messrs. Bird and Jewett tied in the recent municipal election and the returning officer declared the sitting member, Mr. Bird, elected. The protest is on the ground that one envelope containing separate ballots for John T. Christie and Albert F. Jewett was rejected. Had it been accepted Mr. Jewett would have been elected. It is said that in other parishes votes of that kind were accepted.

Oil Company's New Pipe Line Is Ready

The new cargo landing facilities of the Imperial Oil Company have been completed and will be used by the next tanker making port for this company. They consist of a piling pier just off the company's plant and a pipe line to the land tanks where the oil is stored.

The pier is some distance off shore on the Courtenay Bay side of the oil plant. The depth of water on the average is about 22 feet and is 20 feet at low tide, giving draught enough for any tankers brought here.

The pipe-line is about 1,500 feet in length and consists of two six-inch pipes running from the shore tanks along the C. N. R. right-of-way to Broad street and thence to the pier.

The new cargo landing facilities of the Imperial Oil Company have been completed and will be used by the next tanker making port for this company. They consist of a piling pier just off the company's plant and a pipe line to the land tanks where the oil is stored.

The pier is some distance off shore on the Courtenay Bay side of the oil plant. The depth of water on the average is about 22 feet and is 20 feet at low tide, giving draught enough for any tankers brought here.

The pipe-line is about 1,500 feet in length and consists of two six-inch pipes running from the shore tanks along the C. N. R. right-of-way to Broad street and thence to the pier.

"Here, sir," said Private Brown, producing a good-sized scrubbing brush.

More Power to Your Shotgun

Imagine a shotgun load that not only gives from 15 to 20 yards greater range, but gets the "high flyers" at 65, 65 and even 70 yards.

Under stress of the World War, many improvements were made in ammunition. In the smokeless powder industry, one of these was a progressive burning powder which made it possible to obtain a higher velocity, and consequently longer effective range, without increasing the breech pressure. The use of this principle in the production of the famous has obtained a velocity and patterns, in 12, 16 and 20 gauge guns that have never been equalled. The close, effective pattern of SUPER-X may be attributed to the manner in which energy is produced by progressive burning powder. For detailed information call or write:

Mr. Hamilton expects to be away a week in connection with this very important gathering.

MRS. ARCHIBALD TO INDIA AGAIN

Veteran Baptist Missionary Spent 47 Years in Work There.

Visiting in City Now, Speaks of Gains Made Among the Telegus.

Forty-seven years of service in India has endeared that country to Mrs. Carolyn Hammond Archibald, veteran Baptist missionary, who expects to return after visiting here for a time. Mrs. Archibald left India last April and has been visiting in the United States and Canada, telling about the work and about the progress of the work in being done there and of the great need for further effort.

Mrs. Archibald will return today to her home in Andover, N. B., after visiting Dr. and Mrs. L. W. Chipman, Coburg street. Mrs. Chipman is a relative of the late Rev. Dr. Archibald.

TO INDIA IN 1928.

Mrs. Archibald was born in Andover and left for India in 1878, undertaking an arduous and unthought-of task in those days—a single woman going among the Telegus. As Miss Hammond, she found a large unbroken field for several years. She has the charge of a district of one million people. That same district now has six mission stations with several workers.

Rev. Mr. Archibald went out from Nova Scotia in 1832 and when he and Miss Hammond met, they soon found a common bond of interest in their work. In 1923, Rev. Mr. Archibald retired from the work, and died last year. He is buried in India and it is believed that Mrs. Archibald, turns, as if were toward home.

"I love Canada, but where one's work is, is the place one loves best, and she has heart and interest in all her work in India among the Telegus in the Madras presidency, where I have lived so many years and seen such marvellous improvements," said Mrs. Archibald, with a bright smile.

NOW 30 MISSIONARIES.

She loves the people of India, but not the practices of their religion. She loves to speak of the five million Telegus, who come under the jurisdiction of the Canadian Baptist Missionary Society, of the excellent educational system, copied as much as possible from that established by the British government. There are primary, high and theological schools, with eight hospitals and two leper asylums, with 80 missionaries to do the work attempted so bravely by a handmaid in 1878 and begun in 1876, making the work just 47 years old.

"When one thinks of the 13,000 communications at the present time and of the many who have died in the years it gives one a glow of peace to know that one has helped in the salvation of people who otherwise might never have been about God," she said.

Mrs. Archibald is the embodiment of youth, despite her toll-filled years in a strange country, trying climate and hardships.

"It is the spirit one maintains that makes for youthfulness when years advance," she affirmed. "I hope to tell some who may be able to go where they really need my country, with only seven per cent, who can read their own language and only about 50,000,000 in the teeming 315,000,000 who can read English." She knows Gandhi's son and feels that Gandhi can never lead his country because he is opposed to Christianity.

She spoke of the boarding schools, thoroughly equipped to meet the needs of young people who live in the outlying districts. These, she said, are the hope of the work, as they throw around the students a continual Christian influence that is bound to carry good with it when they return to their homes.

WED AND SAIL ON GOVERNOR DINGLEY

Miss E. E. Moore and E. K. Thurston Marry This Evening in Queen Sq. Church.

A wedding of much interest will take place this evening at 7 o'clock in Queen Square United Church, when Miss Elsie Elizabeth Moore, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Edwin A. Moore of Boston, Mass., will be united in marriage to Edward Kenneth Thurston, son of Mr. and Mrs. Edward S. Thurston of this city. The ceremony will be performed by Rev. J. M. Rice.

On account of the unavoidable absence of her father, the bride will be given away by her uncle, Thos. Evans, and will be attended in a heavy blue ensemble suit with hat to match and gray fur, and will carry a bouquet of Opella roses. The ushers will be Foster C. Thurston, brother of the groom, and Dr. Gordon Smith, cousin of the bride.

Immediately after the ceremony the happy couple will leave by the Governor Dingley on a honeymoon trip to Boston, New York and other U. S. cities and on their return will reside in Halifax where the groom is employed with the Canadian General Electric Company. The bride and groom were the recipients of a large number of valuable presents, including checks, cut glass and silver.
