THE TIMES' NEW REPORTER

AN ARTISTIC JOY. Some of the residents along Germain street have refused to accept the sewer rack provided by the city to perfume the boulevard, and are having other material bolted to the poles. The result is a charming patchwork effect, with shades of color from brick red to black. The town council is described by Miss Rindie McWhorter as being very stupid. Any persons having earth in their back yards that is of a shade between white and red would confer a favor by offering some of it, as some spaces have not yet been filled.

THE TIMES' NEW REPORTER

LEAP FROG AND LOYALTY. The Times new reporter was asked this morning by a Daughter of the Empire if he had played leap-frog on a tobacconist. He replied that he had not, as when he was a boy the tobacconists were not provided with the right kind of parents. The Daughter of the Empire said she would visit a tobacconist store at once, and look over the stock of guns.

THE TIMES' NEW REPORTER

THE DAUGHTER OF THE EMPIRE ASKED WHAT should be done with boys who played leap-frog on tobacconist tobacconists, and occasionally on tobacconist tobacconists. The new reporter suggested that a good thing to do with such boys would be to make them orphans, as it was evident they were not provided with the right kind of parents. The Daughter of the Empire said she would visit a tobacconist store at once, and look over the stock of guns.

Suffered for Years From Constipation and Sick Headache.

Headache seems habitual with many people; indeed, some are seldom, if ever, free from it, suffering continually, and wondering why they can get no relief. The most frequent of all are bilious or sick headaches, and are caused by some derangement of the stomach or bowels, or both.

Burdock Blood Bitters regulates the digestive and biliary organs, removes acidity of the stomach, improves digestion, relieves the constipated bowels, and restores a perfect circulation of pure blood to all portions of the body.

Manufactured only by The T. Milburn Co., Limited, Toronto, Ont.

Zylpha Bitch, four years old, of Augusta, Me., was the first term prize for best attendance at the Bangor street school kindergarten division, in that city. The little girl walked half a mile to and from school every day.

FAMOUS GEMS OF PROSE TRUE GRANDEUR OF THE NATIONS

CASTING our eyes over the history of nations, with horror we discern the succession of murderous slaughters, by which their progress has been marked. Even as the hunter traces the wild beast, when pursued by his lair, by the drops of blood on the earth, so we follow man, weary, staggering with wounds, through the black forest of the past, which he has reddened with his gore. O, let it not be in the future ages, as in those we now contemplate! Let the grandeur of man be discerned, not in bloody victories, or in ravenous conquests, but in the blessings which he has secured; in the good he has accomplished; in the triumphs of benevolence and justice; in the establishment of perpetual peace.

As the ocean washes every shore, and with all-embracing arms, clasps every land, while, on its heaving bosom, it bears the products of various climes; so peace surrounds, protects and upholds all other blessings. Without it, commerce is vain, the ardor of industry is restrained, justice is arrested, happiness is blasted, virtue sickens and dies.

And peace has its own peculiar victories, in comparison with which Marathon and Bunker Hill, fields sacred in the history of human freedom, shall lose their lustre. Our own Washington rises to a truly heavenly stature—not when we follow him over the ice of the Delaware to the capture of Trenton—not when we behold him victorious over Cornwallis at Yorktown—but when we regard him in noble deference to justice, refusing the kingly crown which a faithless soldiery proffered, and, at a later day, upholding a peaceful neutrality of the country, while he received unmoved the clamor of the people wickledly crying for war.

MORNING LOCALS

The Cathedral high tea and sale was practically brought to a close last night. The large hall was packed and many sat down to the supper tables. The fancy booths and amusements did a large business also. The fair will be kept open for the children this afternoon. Special attractions have been added. The members of Sapphires Rebekah Lodge, No. 37, had an enjoyable anniversary celebration last night in their rooms in Simonds street on the occasion of their fifth successful year of their existence. The noble grand, Mrs. A. Hastings, presided. The affair took the form of a pound social, and those present voted it a thorough success. There will be a tea and sale from 4 to 6 o'clock this afternoon at the home of Mrs. G. W. Campbell, 29 Leinster street, in aid of the Seaman's Mission. The sale will be in charge of ten little girls, Marie France, Edythe White, Muriel and Ethel Rustin, Jean Somerville, Marion and Constance Campbell, Margaret Paterson, Helen Shaw and Geraldine Mellick. "Resolved, that the ferry system better meets the demands for traffic at the present time than the proposed Carleton bridge," was the subject of an interesting debate in the Exmouth street church Sunday school room last evening. Walter Adams, Richard Irwin and Roy Sandall upheld the affirmative, and Walter Drake, Robert Goodrich and William Lawton the negative. George Shaw acted as judge. The decision was awarded in favor of the affirmative. Yesterday afternoon about twelve patients attended the clinic for the treatment of persons suffering with tuberculosis. The work is growing, the physicians say, among the people afflicted with the disease. An enjoyable private assembly was held last night in the O'Regan building. F. Leaman was floor director, and the committee in charge was composed of Frank O'Brien, Fred J. McCullough, John Russell, S. J. Parsons, and I. Webber. Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Taylor Bridge street were given a pleasant surprise last night when about fifty relatives called to honor them upon the 25th anniversary of their wedding. They received a handsome silver cake basket and a dozen silver spoons. A delightful evening was spent in St. Phillip's church. The programme was lengthy and each number proved enjoyable. At a meeting of the St. Peter's Young Women last night Miss Nan McBrearty gave a very interesting account of a trip to Bermuda. The Exhibition Association last night met for the first time in their new office in Prince William street, and made preliminary arrangements for the fair to be held here from Sept. 2 to 9 next year. J. F. Calder, fishery inspector, in the city yesterday said that the lobster law

A SPLIT BETWEEN UNIONS IN CANADA AND STATES PREVENTED

Important Action Taken By the American Federation of Labor at St. Louis Meeting

St. Louis, Nov. 25—A threatened split between the labor unions of the United States and Canada was smoothed over in the American Federation of Labor by the action of President Samuel Gompers and his friends.

The discussion, which at times was heated, grew out of the report of the special committee on labor relations with Canada which recommended the maintenance of the autonomy of international unions in Canada, conferred the sole right to the issuance of local union charters upon the local unions in the world.

President Gompers, in reply, said that already ten Canadian central bodies were affiliated with the federation, and that the defeat of the section referred to would mean their withdrawal. Several of the Canadian delegates made speeches in support of the resolutions, which finally were adopted.

THE WEAKNESS OF BORDEN

Mr. Borden has placed a loyalty rider on the Monk amendment on the first question and begged it to his bosom. Mr. Borden was in favor of Canada taking part in the defence of the empire. Then, when the government introduced the bill providing for the nucleus of a Canadian navy, he declared himself in favor of a direct contribution to the admiralty. Now he wants the whole matter submitted to the people before anything is done.

It is not worth while to attempt to follow the opposition leader in the tortuous windings of his course, in his efforts to defeat the government. Canada is committed to a naval policy, and the only outcry against it came from the Monk-Bourassa group in the province of Quebec. They have carried a constituency, by arousing racial prejudice and insulting the minds of the people. Their success is good enough for Mr. Borden. He wants more of it, no matter what the ultimate effect of such appeals may be upon the country. He repudiates Bourassa, but accepts a Bourassa alliance. He endorses the principle that Canada should share in the defence of the empire, but asks that the people be called upon to vote on the question before Canada takes any step to provide for her own defence, to say nothing of the defence of the empire.

In a word, Mr. Borden hopes to embarrass the government, and is not too scrupulous as to the methods adopted. But his efforts will fail. Canada has adopted a naval policy, and is proceeding to carry it out. She must be placed in a position to protect her sea-borne commerce, and to join in the defence of the empire when the empire is attacked. Otherwise her courage and loyalty would be but an empty boast.

Mr. Borden's repudiation of Bourassa is not a repudiation in the true meaning of the word. He has not denounced the inflammatory appeals made in Drummond Artibanks. His attitude on this question is so different from the patriotic and statesmanlike attitude of Sir Wilfrid Laurier that the latter gains prestige and honor in the comparison.

THE FUNNY MAN

The Standard's Ottawa humorist is at it again. He gravely assures the readers of the toy organ that: "Mr. Borden gave the government the most terrible thrashing on the question of sincerity that a party has undergone in many years. He made the government as a whole, and Mr. Brodeur in particular, look as foolish as a man and as contemptible as could possibly be the case." As if this were not enough he says further: "Sir Wilfrid Laurier looked as foolish as ever he has. As for Mr. Brodeur, it is not easy to describe his looks."

LLOYD'S LIST OF WRECKS

London, Nov. 23.—Reports to Lloyd's show several mishaps to craft from American ports. The British ship Crompton, from Tacoma, June 23, for Queenstown, went ashore in the fog off Port Mague, Ireland, and it is expected will be a total wreck. All on board escaped. The American bark, James Johnson, from Sydney for Newcastle, N. S. W., was stranded and lost her boom in collision with the Norwegian ship Illawarra from New York for Muscat, Arabia, which arrived at Algiers yesterday with fire in her hold, had been beached and her No. 2 hold flooded. The British ship Freida, from Wilmington, N. C., Nov. 2 via Newport News, Nov. 3 for Glasgow, went ashore in a fog off Seaville Scot. Lloyd's report the British steamship Silverdale, from New York, Oct. 3 for Havana, is missing.

LOCAL OPTION

More than half of the municipalities in Ontario are under local option. Between eighty and ninety more will vote on the question on the first Monday in January. The rule has been to carry the fight first into the most favorable contingencies. This has served the purpose of gaining victories and enabling the friends of local option to get evidence to show that local option does not disastrously affect a com-

JUST ONE DOSE OF DIAPEPSIN MAKES DYSPEPSIA VANISH

Misery From Indigestion, Heartburn Gas and Headache Goes Before You Realize it. You can eat anything your stomach craves without fear of indigestion or dyspepsia, or that your food will ferment or sour on your stomach, if you will take a little Diapepsin occasionally. Your meals will taste good, and anything you eat will be digested; nothing can ferment or turn into acid or poison or stomach gas, which causes belching, flatulence, a feeling of fullness after eating, nausea, indigestion (like a lump of lead in stomach), biliousness, heartburn, water-brash, pain in stomach, and intestinal or other symptoms.

WEIGHED IN THE BALANCE

When I am dead, I will bequeath to you Some little things you loved—who loved me, too. The great things God remembers—let them be hidden by Him from every mortal eye. But these are little things that you will prize. Who look at me with tender human eyes. Only a smile, perhaps—a word—a tear. A trick of manner infinitely dear. A foolish jest by which we were forgot. Just as I chanced they loved—or loved me not!

IN LIGHTER VEIN

SUSPICIOUS. I'm suspicious of her I am free to admit. She has made a pillow and started to knit a scarf for my table, of crimson and white. She gave me her picture the last time I called. And yesterday looked in my watch-case. If I had it in there, and I really believe The lady has made up her mind to have me.

AN AWFUL THREAT.

A journalist sat for many weary minutes in the waiting room of one of our medical celebrities. His patience at an end, he called to the servant and said: "My man, just go in and tell your master that if I am not admitted in five minutes I shall be well again."

RIVAL EMPIRES.

A Jamaican nigger once had some words with a nigger from Martinique. In the course of their argument he from Jamaica exclaimed, contemptuously: "Yah! What did we give you at Waterloo, eh?"

IF THE BOASTERS MADE GOOD.

If the boasters were only as clever as they thought and accurately filled as an order for groceries or dry goods. "As styles now run in dressing hair," adds Vice Consul DeYoung, "even those blessed by nature with an abundance of it must resort to some manner of falsifying. Indeed the international hair market has never fluctuated more than of late and the business is passing through one of its most thriving periods."

PERFECTLY WELCOME

Night was approaching, and the rain was coming down faster and faster. The traveler dismounted from his horse and rapped at the door of the one farm-house he had found in a five-mile stretch of traveling. No one came to the door. As he stood on the doorstep the water from the eaves trickled down his collar. He rapped again. Still no answer. Another spell of coughs and finally the red head of a lad of twelve was stuck out of the second story.

"Watcher want?"

"I want to know if I can stay here overnight," the traveler answered testily. The red-headed lad watched the man for a minute or two before answering. "Ye kin fer all of me," he finally answered, and then closed the window—'Log-pincot's."

LET YOUR STOMACH HAVE ITS OWN WAY

Do Not Try to Drive and Force it to Work When it is Not Able or You Will Suffer All the More.

You cannot treat your stomach as some men treat a balky horse; force, drive or even starve it into doing work at which it rebels. The stomach is a patient and faithful servant and will stand much abuse and mistreatment before it "rebels," but when it does you had better get along with it and not attempt to make it work. Some people have the mistaken idea that they can make their stomachs work by starving themselves. They might cure the stomach that way, but it would take so long that they would have to use for a substitute to do its duty. It is to let the stomach rest if it wants to and employ a substitute to do its duty.

Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablets will do the work of your stomach for you and digest your food for you. You can prove this by putting your food in a glass jar with one of the tablets and sufficient water and you will see the food digested in just the same time as the tablets would do it. This will save you a great deal of worry and trouble. Now, to what both your mind and body. These Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablets after being taken will make you feel that you are eating your food and you will feel in your mind that your food is being digested because you will feel no pain or distress in your stomach. In fact, you will forget all about having a stomach, just as you did when you were a healthy boy or girl.

Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablets act in a natural way because they contain only the natural elements of the stomach and other digestive fluids of the stomach. It makes no difference what condition the stomach is in, they go right ahead of their own accord and do their work. They know their surroundings and surrounding conditions do not influence them in the least. They thus relieve the weak stomach of all its burdens and give it its much-needed rest and permit it to become strong and healthy.

Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablets are for sale by all druggists at 50 cents a box. They will tell you frankly that there is nothing on earth so good for dyspepsia as Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablets.

ALL OFF, SAYS C. P. R. TO COUNCIL

Aldermen Block West Side Transfer By Insisting Railway Maintain Sewers—Agreement Drawn Up By Recorder, Objected to in Meeting

The transfer of the west side harbor lock to the C. P. R. was being up in the special meeting of the council yesterday over a question of the maintenance of the sewers.

Those present at the meeting were the C. P. R. who undertook the construction of the sewers on plans approved by the city engineers and engineers of the company and the department of public works, Ottawa. P. R. Taylor, representative of the company, however, stated that there was absolutely no hope of coming to an understanding of the city insisted that they should maintain the sewers.

His worship was authorized to name a committee of three of the aldermen to enter into negotiations with the government with a view to the taking over of the water terminals on the west side. This committee he will name later.

Those present at the meeting, besides his worship, were Ald. Sproul, Russell, Smith, Elkin, Scully, Potts, Jones, Holder, White, McGoldrick, Hayes, Lohely and McLeod. Recorder Baxter, P. R. Taylor and Copman Clerk Wardroper.

The mayor said that he had hoped to bring up the question of the transfer of the harbor of Courtenay Bay to the government. He found, however, that the city engineers had to draw up plans to be submitted to the department at Ottawa. He thought the matter would be in shape to bring up at the regular meeting of the council.

The draft of the agreement by which the city is to be let in Lancaster to B. Mooney & Sons for $800 a lot was read by the recorder and ratified. Ald. Hayes, Vanwart and McGoldrick were appointed a committee to act with the recorder in the sale.

The matter of the agreement with the C. P. R. for the transfer of the forty acre strip on the west side was then taken up. The recorder read a draft of the agreement and the council went into committee to consider it section by section.

The first section defining the boundaries was passed after some discussion.

The next section referred to the use to which the C. P. R. would put the land. After hearing the recorder and P. R. Taylor, Alderman Lohely moved that the section be amended to meet the wishes of the C. P. R. selector, to provide that the land would be used by the company for railway purposes only and to be developed as the government work provided.

Ald. Potts thought the C. P. R.'s position that they would be developing their own property, an unreasonable one. Ald. Sproul also spoke against it. Ald. White thought there had been too much delay already and that the C. P. R. should be trusted a little. Ald. Hayes, Elkin, Jones and Scully supported the motion of Ald. Lohely.

Likely took exception to the manner in which the recorder had drawn the agreement. The council had accepted the agreement as drawn up by the late recorder.

After some more discussion Mayor

Prink said that it was undoubtedly the intention of the council to frame the agreement so as to ensure that the C. P. R. would proceed with the work as rapidly as the government built the retaining wall.

Mr. Taylor said that if the company did not get the land to be used as a railway yard they did not want it at all. The company would, however, undertake to carry his view as far as the government goes ahead with its work.

On the question being finally put it was carried by a vote of 5 to 3. Those voting in the affirmative were: Ald. Jones, Elkin, Lohely, White, Scully, Hayes, Russell and McGoldrick. Those opposed to it were: Ald. Potts, McLeod, Smith, Holder and Sproul.

The next point was as to the manner of filling in the property. It was decided to instruct the recorder to incorporate the section he had drawn up in the agreement.

The next section that aroused discussion was one incorporated by the C. P. R., limiting their taxation on the property to $100 a year. The recorder asked for instructions as to this.

Mr. Taylor suggested as the result of the vote for the city to be amended by adding words safeguarding the city in case the property should ever be used for other purposes, private or public. This was transferred. With this amendment the section was adopted.

The most debatable question of all and on which the agreement was finally hung up, that of maintenance of sewers, was then taken up. The recorder said that it was his view that the responsibility of maintenance of the sewers.

Ald. Potts moved that the company be required to maintain the sewers.

Mr. Taylor said that if this motion passed it was quite reasonable to assume the position of the C. P. R. did. If the city engineer was asked to build a sewer there and was not competent to construct one that would stand the strain, it would be plain that he was not fit to retain office.

A prolonged discussion followed on the matter, and finally the question was put, when Ald. Potts' motion was carried by a vote of 8 to 5. The yeas were: Ald. Potts, Jones, Lohely, White, McLeod, Holder, Sproul and Smith. The nays were Ald. Hayes, Russell, Elkin, Scully and McGoldrick.

The recorder then, in spite of the protest of Mr. Taylor that there was no use in considering the agreement further, read the balance of the document. A section recommended that, in consideration of the city abandoning any claim against the C. P. R. for agreement in connection with the 1,600 feet strip, the company should give the city a release from any action it might have for the giving in of Union street.

Ald. Hayes thought the recorder had exceeded his authority in putting such a section in the agreement and his worship took the same view. Finally a motion was introduced by Ald. Potts that the section as drawn by the recorder be incorporated in the final agreement. This was lost by a vote of 6 to 5, on the casting vote of the mayor.

On motion of Ald. McGoldrick the committee rose and resolved itself into the council and the report of the board of works was read by the common clerk and introduced by the engineer, was carried and the meeting adjourned.
