The sentinel stopped in his walk and stood for a moment by the battered sundial, listening. Faintly in the still night air came to him across the fields the beating of horses' hoofs on the hard road. Striding athwart the broken lawn to an oaken door, he smote it with the butt of his pike, crying: "Peace within there. The general is coming." There was an instant hushing of the coarse song, then a laugh, and when some one in nasal tones raised the slow tune of a hymn the laughter became more uproarious, subsiding gradually, however, as voice after voice joined the drone. The sentinel now walked over to the main entrance and said to some one within the hall:

while Ald. Tilley thought they should await the engineer's report.

City Engineer Peters claimed that as Mr. Clark had not asked the city to take over the warehouse it was premature to give any report on how the work was being done. In regard to the wet boards, he said as soon as he knew they were being used he ordered them not to go on with the work. Something under a thousand boards had already been tense heat, and proved so satisfactory that the engineer allowed Mr. Clark to

Ald. Helder—"I have been using boards fifty years, and if any man says a green board will not shrink he is a green board will not shrink he is astray. When the specifications call for boards clear of sap and dry, why do you allow the use of green, sappy boards? I want to show up this matter, and I will do it at the open council if I can't here."

It was moved and carried that the Wm Thomson & Co. asked that additional first said if any man says for their duties. It was referred to the treasury board.

Messrs. Fleming's bill of $700.17 for repairs to ferry steamer was ordered to be paid with the exception of an item amounting to $10. This was for very saiding. The following buisness was disposed of:

MUNICIPAL LIGHTING

Has Been a Success in Fredericton-Council Meeting.

FREDERICTON, Jan. 3 .- The city council at tonight's meeting made a move which if followed up will lessen the number of delinquent taxpayers in the future. It was decided to apply to the legislature at the next session for authority to add 6 per cent, to all taxes unpaid ninety days after the notices are issued.

Municipal lighting for streets has been on trial here for one year, and the result seems to be quite satisfactory. > This was a miserable day for the pedestrian. The best place to walk was in the middle of the street. The sidewalk ploughs were of course out but there were too few of them to do much. The biting sleet nearly flayed the faces of those who had to meet it. The weather was too rough for the D. A. R. steamer Yarmouth to venture out this morning and it is not likely that any attempt will be made to cross the bay until tomorrow morning.

Despatches tell of similar conditions all over the eastern states.
