

METHODISTS HISS MR. AYLESWORTH

Action of Minister of Justice Strongly Condemned by N. B. and P. E. I. Conference.

Delegates United on Question of Prohibition --Trust Board Loses Rev. Mr. Marshall.

Special to The Standard. Sackville, N. B., June 16.—The exercises in connection with the conference have been of the most interesting character.

Rev. J. W. McConnell reported to the board of trustees which is composed as follows:—Rev. Thos. Marshall, chairman; Rev. Geo. M. Campbell, Rev. J. W. McConnell, secretary; Rev. J. Hunter White, W. D. Baskin, Ald. J. A. Likely.

The report was received and deep regret was expressed at the loss the board had sustained in the transfer of Rev. J. W. McConnell, who has been secretary treasurer for a number of years past.

Rev. George A. Ross reported for the memorial committee and Rev. Dr. Wilson reported for the state of the work.

Rev. C. W. Hamilton, treasurer of the committee on temperance and moral reform reported as follows:—St. John, $131.09; Fredericton, $86.25; Woodstock, $37.37; Chatham, $23.05; Sackville, $58.81; St. Stephen, $27.25; Charlottetown, $48.01; Summerside, $32.50. Total $453.47.

Upon the temperance question the conference utters no uncertain sound. It has its convictions and does not hesitate to express them. It is opposed to the liquor business in all its phases and believes in ending and not mending it.

In the moral reform department with its wider range of subjects there is greater diversity of view, but from the report of the secretary, Rev. Mr. Atkins and his admirable address it is very evident that much good is being done.

In the addresses special mention was made of the white slave traffic in this Dominion and also the remarkable conduct of Mr. Aylesworth in regard to obscene literature, the reference to the latter calling for hisses from all over the house.

CAREER OF NEW VICEROY FOR INDIA

Sir Charles Hardinge Made His Way in Diplomatic Service and is Considered Capable Man for Position.

London, June 16.—India's new viceroy, who, as the Hon. Charles Hardinge, was at Washington from 1885 to 1887, in the capacity of second secretary of the English Embassy, and as Charge d'Affaires, is one of the favorites of fortune. He may be said to have begun his career as private secretary to Lord Dufferin, when the latter was Ambassador at Constantinople, came from Stamboul to this country and was then transferred as diplomatic agent and consul general to Sofia, where he remained during the four years of the most difficult period of the modern history of Bulgaria.

He was secretary of the embassy at St. Petersburg at the beginning of the late reign, and soon after the accession of King Edward was, at the latter's instance, appointed to one of the assistant under-secretariats of state, at the Foreign Office, so as to admit of Mr. Hardinge (as he was then) fulfilling her duties as lady-in-waiting to Queen Alexandra, who is particularly fond of her.

When the late King started off on those visits to foreign courts and capitals which have had so much bearing on the foreign policy of England, and have changed the grouping of the powers in the concert of Europe, it was considered desirable that he should take a member of the Foreign Office staff with him, so that touch might be kept with Downing Street. Charles Hardinge was selected for the purpose.

He managed things very adroitly and strengthened to such a degree the opinion formed of his abilities by the King, that the latter caused him to be appointed Ambassador to St. Petersburg at that moment, in 1904, when the relations between Russia and Great Britain required the most delicate handling, owing to the fact that Russia was at war with England, and Japan, in order to endow him with the necessary official prestige for this mission, he was knighted, made a member of the Privy Council, and invested, not with one, but with three British orders, namely, the Bath, the St. Michael and St. George, and the Victorian Order.

At King's Wish.

When two years later the Liberals came into office and the late King acquired thereby a far greater degree of control of the foreign relations than he had enjoyed when the Conservatives were in power, he was anxious to have as principal Under-Secretary of State at the Foreign Office and as his permanent head a man more amenable to his dictation and in sympathy with his views than Sir Thomas Sanderson, an official of the old school.

Accordingly, Sir Thomas was shelved, being only partly consoled by a peerage, and Sir Charles Hardinge was appointed in his stead, in order to compensate him for the difference of salary—that of Ambassador at St. Petersburg is $40,000, whereas that of Under-Secretary of State was a little more than $12,000—an annual grant and personal allowance of $10,000 was awarded him from the Foreign Office funds.

That with King Edward's death he would be transferred to some other post was a foregone conclusion. Sir Charles Hardinge went to rely so much on King Edward to carry out this and that one of his views in matters of foreign policy as to create the impression among the public that Sir Charles's name was being put forward as the Secretary of State for Foreign Affairs, was being in a measure left out in the cold.

Indeed, the matter was on several occasions made the subject of a pleasant discussion in Parliament, where Sir Edward Grey was obliged, for his own sake and for that of the King, to emphasize the fact that he, Sir Edward, was the sole constitutional adviser of the sovereign in foreign matters, and not Sir Charles Hardinge.

Need of a Private Fortune.

Possessed of perfect manners, the most even temper, great tact, as demonstrated by his career, no small amount of diplomacy, Charles Hardinge is particularly well qualified for the Governor-Generalship, at a time when tact and diplomacy are above everything else needed in dealing with the princes and the people of India, so many of whom have been hurt in their pride and dignity by lack of consideration on the part of English officials of the modern school.

Moreover, Sir Charles is good looking, with an air of distinction, both things calculated to impress the native mind; and then, too, he has a knowledge and experience of court life superior to that of any of his predecessors as Viceroy, and which would prove invaluable to him at Calcutta, conducting to the dignity and prestige of his own viceregal court there.

Grandson of a Famous Viceroy.

Sir Charles Hardinge, who is to be raised to the peerage, before he goes out to India, is the next brother of the present and third Viscount Hardinge, and like him a grandson of that first Lord Hardinge, who was one of the principal lieutenants of the great Duke of Wellington throughout the Peninsular War. He lost an arm at the battle of Ligny, on the eve of Waterloo, was afterward Secretary of State for War, Commander in Chief of the British army, and Governor General of India. Indeed, it was for his services as Governor General of India, and in particular for his successful war against the Sikhs and for his life and for that of two of his sons, the conquest of the Punjab, that he was raised to the peerage as Viscount Hardinge. Parliament voted him a pension of $15,000 a year for his services. That is to say, the present Lord Hardinge receives from the British treasury $15,000 a year for the services rendered to the nation in India by his grandfather.

Sir Charles, like Lord Hardinge, is sprung from a family which was already flourishing in Derbyshire in the reign of King Henry VII, and the chief of which is Sir Edmund Hardinge, holder of a baronetcy of the United Kingdom, and one of the best known of whose ancestors was the Sir Robert Hardinge, who fought so gallantly for Charles I.

Sir Charles married the Hon. Winifred Stuart, daughter of that first Lord Allington, who was popularly known by the nickname of "Bunny." Lady Hardinge has not inherited his peculiar rabbitlike features, but is a very charming and pretty woman, also wonderfully gifted, being probably the finest amateur violinist in England. She owns a 200 guinea Stradivarius. Her musical talents have gone far to strengthen the high favor in which she has been held ever since her childhood by Queen Alexandra, who is passionately fond of music, and who, though she does not play the violin herself, prefers it to all other instruments. Ever since Lady Hardinge's marriage she has been a lady-in-waiting to Queen Alexandra, of whose daughters she has been from girlhood probably her most intimate friend. She has two boys, the eldest now eighteen, and a girl, just ten, who rejoices in the odd Christian name of Diamond.

MR. BORDEN'S FINE SPEECH AT INGERSOLL

Opposition Leader Flays The Public Works Department For Scandalous Waste Of Public Money.

Continued from page 1. terms." Mr. George W. Robertson and Mr. Thomas Murray, were two active Liberals in Richibucto, and Mr. Murray was manager of the Liberal campaign in Kent county in 1908. On May 4th, 1908, Mr. Murray approached Mr. O'Leary with regard to the purchase of the wharf, or with regard to the purchase of a right of way for a sewer through the property. Shortly afterwards Mr. Murray and Mr. Robertson went to Ottawa and had an interview with Mr. Pugsley, Mr. Murray is unable to state any other business which took him to Ottawa at that occasion. He returned to Richibucto and made an offer to purchase the property from Mr. O'Leary and it was accordingly sold to him for the sum of $700, although the purchase price was stated in the deed to be $1000. The conveyance was executed on the 19th May. One or two days afterwards Mr. Stead, who had recommended the purchase of the municipal wharf, made his appearance in Richibucto, and on the 20th May, Mr. Robertson, manager of the Kent Northern Railway, wrote a pressing letter to the minister with regard to the purchase of the wharf.

How Values Increased. The minister immediately instructed Mr. Stead to make an examination and on the 4th June, Mr. Murray made a written offer to Mr. Stead to sell the property for $5,000. On the 9th of June, Mr. Stead recommended its purchase for that sum, although he then knew that Murray had paid not more than one thousand for it less than three weeks previously. The offer was passed on the 11th of September, just on the eve of the general elections of 1908, but Mr. Murray not being aware of this, addressed to the Department of Public Works the following telegram on the 18th of September: "Please let me know if wharf matter passed consent. This matter important to Mr. LeBlanc. Please rush it."

Mr. LeBlanc referred to in this telegram was the Liberal candidate for the county of Kent, New Brunswick, in that election. Shortly afterwards the deed was executed and by letter, 22nd September, 1908, the legal agent for the government at Richibucto (a prominent Liberal), was instructed to register it. He delayed the registration until after the election for the reason, to use his own words, "there were some people making inquiries about it, and I did not want them to get the satisfaction of getting the information." In other words it was thought desirable to cover up the transaction until after the election. Both Mr. Murray and Mr. Robertson are men actively engaged in business. The purchase money was drawn by Mr. Murray in five and ten dollar bills. Assuming that they were equally divided, that means 750 bills which this active business man received and carried to his house. He failed to give any satisfactory or reasonable explanation as to his disposal of these. He says that he paid a certain sum, the amount of which he cannot remember, to Mr. Robertson on account of a debt, the particulars of which he cannot recall. He declared that he used the balance to pay other debts but he was unable to name a single person to whom he paid any portion of the same. The engineer, Mr. Stead, did not disclose to the Department the important circumstances that the property had been purchased for more than one thousand dollars, less than three weeks before his recommendation. Mr. Pugsley considered this a very serious omission and punished him by increasing his salary $100 and giving him a bonus of $200 in addition. THE TRANSACTION IS SO GLARING AND SO FLAGRANT THAT IT REQUIRES LITTLE COMMENT. MORE THAN $4,000 WAS ABSTRACTED FROM THE PUBLIC TREASURY FOR PURPOSES WHICH WILL BE INAGINED AND UP TO THE PRESENT TIME THE GOVERNMENT HAS NOT ATTEMPTED TO PUT THE PROPERTY TO ANY USE WHATSOEVER.

DEEN HE WEDDING DAY

Young German Girl Was Betrothed And Loved Another Man—Shot Herself In Coal Bin

New York, June 16.—Minnie K. Wentz, the young governess employed by Eben E. Whitman, a cotton merchant of No. 150 East 35th street, who had been missing since last Thursday, chose the day on which she was to have been married to take her own life. Her body was found yesterday afternoon huddled in the coal bin in the sub-basement of the home of her aunt, Mrs. Annie Genser, at No. 2095 Lexington avenue.

A revolver lay near her right hand, the fingers of which were powder marked and there was an ugly contact bullet wound in her right temple, which the coroner's physician said had caused instant death. In the dead girl's pocketbook were found six picture post cards, addressed to her two brothers, her fiancé, Ludwig Reichold, employed as Superintendent by the Charles L. Kiewit Chemical Company in Cortlandt street, who had expected to marry her last Friday; to her aunt and to Mrs. Whitman, the wife of her employer. The cards told the story of her unhappiness and her intent to take her own life, and asked forgiveness of all.

Writing to her oldest brother, Eric J. Wentz, who is married and lives in The Bronx and who had been searching the hospitals and morgues for the last few days for a trace of her, she said: "This will, I guess, be the last any of you hear from me. Take my advice and don't love. I have loved and must pay the penalty with my life. I was to marry today, but instead I die by my own hand. God bless you and keep you safe. Take care of Will (her younger brother). I feel sorry for him. Lovingly, SISTER MINNIE.

Betrothed is Heartbroken. The message she left for Reichold, her intended, was shorter, and baffled the heartbroken young man yesterday in its abstractness. He said he had never known that she loved any one else. He had recently furnished a cosy little apartment in Port Chester for his intended bride, and he said yesterday she had gone to see it with him and seemed very happy in the thought of their approaching marriage. She has promised to meet him last Thursday night at her aunt's home in Lexington avenue, and they were to talk over their final plans. Friday they were to get a license, and then be married quietly by a minister they had in mind. She wrote to him simply asking his forgiveness for her act, and said there was no other way out of it for her. "On the day we are to be married I do that which costs me my life," she wrote.

Her relatives and her employer said yesterday that they did not know of any other serious love affair that the girl had. Her brother Eric, however, said that he knew she had met a man several times who lived in New Jersey. He would not say who the man was, but after he had read his dead sister's note he vowed he would "look him up."

Found by Chance.

It was by the merest chance that the girl's body was found. William, the girl's younger brother, lives with his aunt and uncle, the Gensers. They had been at home on Thursday night when Reichold called with a large bouquet of roses for his fiancée, and they all sat up late waiting for her to come as she had promised. None of them heard any one come in at the basement door that night, and no pistol shot was heard. The aunt and uncle were at home all the following day and heard no one enter the basement, nor did they hear a shot, although from the subsequent developments the girl must have entered the basement either Thursday night or some time Friday and crept into the coal bin and shot herself. The bin was used by Mrs. Genser for storing some of the family trunks and among them was one belonging to the dead girl.

Yesterday afternoon a reporter called at the house and asked for a picture of the girl, and the newspaper man went down cellar to look for a picture in the trunk. The reporter stumbled over

LAZIEST WORD FROM 'FRISCO ON BIG FIGHT

Tex Rickard Acknowledges After Many Protestations To The Contrary That He Will Abandon 'Frisco.

San Francisco, June 16.—Tex Rickard admitted tonight he did not have the slightest hope of pulling off the fight in San Francisco and that every day of indecision as to where it would take place merely increased his financial loss. "If the court grants an injunction here I leave for Reno Sunday morning and will immediately commence the erection of an arena there," he said. "My attorneys have advised me not to buck the governor and the attorney general, but I have agreed to wait until Saturday.

"It is a bitter pill for me and a heavy loss, but I will take my medicine and keep my word to pull off this fight if its the last thing I do." San Francisco, June 16.—Bill Delaney, the veteran trainer and manager of prize fighters, took charge of the Johnson camp today. Delaney arrived from Harbin Springs at noon and went immediately to the Ocean beach to join the champion in a conference then in session. "Johnson appears to be in fine fettle," said Delaney, after the fighter had gone through his usual workout in the afternoon, before a large audience. "From now on I will be at the training camp and superintendent Johnson's work. I can say for Johnson that he is ready and willing to fight at any place where the fight may be held."

W. E. JARDINE LUCKY MAN

Fredericton, June 16.—The drawing for trip to San Francisco for the Jeffries-Johnson fight which has been conducted here recently, took place tonight and W. E. Jardine, manager of the Bank of New Brunswick, proved the holder of the lucky ticket which was number 423. Mr. Jardine is unlikely to take advantage of the trip and instead will receive $200 in cash.

Mr. Jardine was formerly a member of the Marathon football team and has many friends in St. John who will be glad to hear of his good fortune. The body as he entered the bin, and Mrs. Genser, holding a lamp above him to see what was the matter, saw the blood-stained face of her dead niece. She fainted from the shock. Disappeared Last Thursday. The girl was last seen Thursday afternoon about 3 o'clock. On the previous Saturday she returned with the Whitman family from a stay in Baltimore. The Whitmans went to their country home at Lawrence, Long Island, and she accompanied them. Wednesday she came to this city and spent the day with her brother and his wife in The Bronx. In the evening she was at a theatre party, and a company of friends entertained her afterwards. She appeared very happy, her brother said, Thursday morning she left her brother's home in The Bronx and went to the Whitman house in East 88th street, obtained the keys from the caretaker, and got some jewelry and trinkets she had left there. She had telephoned Mrs. Whitman at Lawrence that she would come out that night, and at the same time she had told her fiancé that she would meet him at her aunt's home. A search party was started the next day, when it was found that she had not appeared at either place. It is supposed she purchased the revolver at a pawnshop shortly before she shot herself. None of her relatives had seen it before. Minnie Wentz came to this country several years ago from Germany. She has studied music for some time, and was a good pianist. Reichold met her two years ago, he said, on board a steamer returning from a visit to Germany. She was twenty years of age and an orphan.

Sackville, June 16.—Miss M. L. Hockin, M. A., of Dartmouth, has been appointed lady principal of Columbian College, New Westminster, B. C. During the past year she has been filling a similar position in the Methodist college, St. John's, Newfoundland. Miss Hockin is an arts graduate of the University of Mount Allison class of 1904. She is a daughter of Rev. A. Hockin, formerly president of the N. S. Methodist conference.

HILLSBORO CHURCH WILL BE REBUILT

Moncton, June 16.—The congregation of the Hillsboro Baptist church have decided to proceed at once with the rebuilding of the church recently destroyed by fire. At a meeting last evening $45,000 was subscribed and committees were appointed to solicit further amounts. H. R. Morrison, of the Bank of Montreal staff here, has been transformed to Edmundston.

MONCTON TO HOLD CARNIVAL AND SPORTS

Moncton, June 16.—At a meeting of the Greater Moncton Club tonight, it was decided to give up the idea of an old home week for Moncton, this year, but to boom a carnival and sports for some date in the fall. A meeting of the club and citizens in general will be held on Tuesday night next to further consider the matter.

MAINE ITALIANS ARE CHARGED WITH MURDER

Portland, Me., June 16.—Gussipe Pietranto and Rinaldo Pietranto, his brother, who are held without bail to the supreme court, in connection with the death of Gatenacoe, at Wilson's mills, Magalloway plantation, Monday morning, were brought to the county jail at Paris late today. The trouble which resulted in the killing of Vincenzo, started Sunday morning, being the breaking out of an old feud.

Great Opportunities. Mr. Elliott spoke of the great opportunities before the farmers of the St. John valley. He had, he said, been in nearly all the river valleys of North America, and there was not one in his opinion, that for scenery, or for opportunities of agricultural development, compared with the St. John. He strongly urged more livestock as a necessary adjunct to profitable farming and with this must go an intelligent rotation of crops. Clover was the great soil rejuvenator that should have a place in every rotation. Mr. Elliott went into many practical details and concluded an eloquent address by warmly recommending the adoption of the Women's Institute organization in the province. The organization of the women of the farm had done more in his opinion, for rural Ontario than any other agency. The farm home was the basis of the country's prosperity and the women who understood its best management would raise a generation of boys and girls that would prefer farm life to any other.

Notes of thanks were given to the ladies for their splendid entertainment and to the speakers. On Wednesday Messrs. Elliott and Hubbard held a similar meeting at Gallowayville and on Thursday at Centerville. On Friday an evening meeting will be held at Debec with an afternoon and evening meeting at Harvey. Away on European Tour. Dr. B. C. Borden, principal of the Mount Allison Ladies College, passed through the city yesterday with Mrs. Borden and others on his way to Montreal. He will leave tomorrow for his European tour. Those who joined from St. John are Mrs. J. Willard Smith, Miss Annie Smith, Miss Faith Hayward, Miss Lillian Anderson, Miss Marjorie Knight and Miss Nora Knight.

SUCCESSFUL MEETING VICTORIA CO.

Able Speakers Give Practical Addresses in Series Arranged by Department of Agriculture Women's Institute Suggested

Andover, June 15.—Forty-two leading farmers of Andover and Perth, gathered at Mr. Elliott's farm in Andover to meet Andrew James, of Galt, Ont., and W. W. Hubbard, secretary for agriculture, to discuss soil cultivation, yesterday. The object of cultivation, said Mr. Elliott, were to make a seed bed bring out the fertility of the soil to the plant and to conserve moisture through the dry portion of the season.

The soil should be worked until finely divided and loose, then it should be compacted as unless the worked soil is pressed closely against the surface the soil moisture from below cannot come up to the plants. After rolling, however, for this purpose, the surface of the soil should be harrowed to make a soil mulch and prevent the soil moisture from evaporating. Mr. James had prepared a piece of land for turnip seeding and Mr. Elliott illustrated his talk as he went along. Some drills were made with the horse hoe and Mr. Elliott was supplied with a single mould board plow, showing why he preferred the drill made by one trip of the single plow for a seedbed, to that made with a horse hoe or double mould board plow. In the latter case the surface soil was gathered up in a loose heap and was far too open for the small turnip seed. In the former case there was only a little loose earth thrown upon the compacted soil and a firm seedbed could be had.

Wider For Heavy Crops. For a heavy crop of turnips for feeding purposes, Mr. Elliott preferred having his rows about 26 to 28 inches apart and the turnips left from 15 to 20 inches apart in the rows. When he was sure he had good seed he only sowed about 3/4 lb. of seed to the acre. He would rather, he said, pay 60 cents per lb. for the best seed than 20 cents for inferior seed and have to sow a larger quantity. He found that a teaspoonful of paraffine oil attended to the pound of turnip seed, would assist very much in preventing damage from the turnip fly.

After some further discussion upon soils, a Clydefield mare was brought into the ring, and Mr. Elliott gave an interesting address upon draft horses illustrating his remarks by reference to the mare before him. This talk was followed by a short address by Mr. Elliott upon the selection of dairy cows. Four cows of Mr. James' were used to illustrate his remarks. While he said, a man who studied cows could select good producers, there was but one infallible test between cows. That was to carefully weigh their milk from day to day and to test it occasionally for butterfat. He went over the cow point by point and an interesting discussion ensued.

Tables were then spread by the ladies of the Andover Agricultural Society and a bountiful repast served to all in attendance. In the Evening. This was followed by a meeting in the evening in Beveridge Hall, at which there was an attendance of fifty-four. Donald Innes presided. W. W. Hubbard opened the meeting with a short address, urging the importance of more live stock husbandry. If he said, the hay and grain with the addition of a few turnips now raised in Victoria county farm, was fed to stock, potato growing could be continued as largely as at present and much more economically. A half ton of fertilizer per acre would mean the application of barnyard manure to the previous crops, would give surer crops of potatoes and better maintain the soil than a ton applied to the previous crop. The number would then, by having other strings to his bow, be somewhat independent of low markets. He would not have his eggs all in the one basket, he would give more employment to the feeding of all the hay and grain grown in Victoria and Carleton counties to good stock would, he said, treble the population of those counties with all that would mean in the increase of general business.

Business Girls Want to Marry But They Are Very Particular

Love and at Least $1,000 a Year Required of the Husband-to-be.

Magazine Writer Tells of Result of Investigation --Hopes of Women of Affairs.

"While factory and working girls marry to escape hard toll, it is different with the business girl—stenographers, bookkeepers, cashiers, clerks, telephone operators, etc. They have none of the dreary toll that makes the laboring girl's life miserable and they are getting better wages, too.
 "Consequently they are more particular and the right man has to come along before 'Miss Business' will give up her typewriter for a dishpan. Yes, she is mighty particular, more so than the daughters of millionaires," says Robt. H. Schaufier in Success Magazine for July.
 Schaufier has made a wide investigation and study of the heart longings of the young woman who works for a living. He has talked to thousands from the girl who earns $3 a week to the highly specialized woman who manages a business at from $3000 to $10,000 a year, and he is reporting his findings in a series of interesting articles.
 "I'd rather have the chance to do this interesting work," said the head lady of a department in a Toronto store to the writer, "than be the daughter of a millionaire."
 "A man would have to offer me a good deal," said a Wisconsin stenographer, "to atone for my giving up my economic independence."
 "Girls in offices and stores see so much of men," said a Winnipeg bookkeeper, "that they are apt to be made suspicious and pessimistic."
 "If I could get a real good position for $12 a week, with a nice little room I'd never marry," said a laboratory assistant in Massachusetts.
 "Romantic passion is not necessary," said a Montreal stenographer. "It often burns out and makes unhappy. I'd want deep respect and sympathy. I wouldn't marry until I was just fit for wifehood as for any other profession that I would enter with expectations of success."

TYPES OF THE SMART BUSINESS GIRL.

"I want love," said a St. John telephone girl. "His money might give out. Love lasts when money is gone."
 A millinery clerk said: "I want to be loved—not because I'm useful, but because I'm me."
 "Just so long as there is a clean tablecloth in the house and love, it won't matter if we don't have much to eat," said a saleswoman in Chicago.
 The business girl does not expect to do anything but housework after she marries.
 Another telephone girl said: "What go on with my telephone? Why, I'd be so tired in the evening I wouldn't even have a smile left for my husband."
 An underpaid Brooklyn girl said: "I wish someone would fix it so living wouldn't be so high. We don't want to work after we get married."
 Four-fifths of the business girls want children, as compared with only two-thirds of the factory girls.
 "I don't want to marry until I have children. I love them," said a Tennessee stenographer.
 Few of the girls want many children. Some are apostles of "race suicide."
 A Minnesota stenographer said: "I don't want many children. Mother had so many she could not give us much care."
 The girl who boards usually is a firm believer in marriage.
 "A furnished room is no way for a girl to live," said an Indiana beauty shop worker. "I don't know what the folks in my town would say if they knew I saw my gentlemen friends in my room, but there isn't any parlor in the boarding house, and all the girls do it."
 The factory girl's ideal of manly beauty is a tall, dark square-jawed man. The business girl wants a young man about her own age, "so we can grow up together."
 Widowers and divorced men do not stand high with business girls.
 "No warmed-over affections for mine," seems to be their motto.
 The hundreds of business girls who named the salaries they wanted their husbands to receive struck an average of $20 a week, or $1000 a year.
 Business girls like cool spenders; prospects of having stingy husbands do not appeal to them. Two-thirds of the girls insist that their husbands shall have good educations.
 Only three-tenths of them consider marriage a failure; they are optimists about matrimony.

DANGER OF VERSATILITY

Some Resultant Difficulties from Ability to Do a Little of Everything--A Case in Point.

It is not easy for every man to find his true vocation. Some men are plainly born to do one thing. Their bent is shown in early childhood. The Chinese have a convenient theory that a baby shows by its choice of one among a number of objects placed before it just what it can best do, and what it therefore should be trained to do. If it picks up a pen, it will be a writer, if it selects a coin, banking is the predestined occupation, if a book is chosen, the child is sure to be a scholar. It would be a very fine thing if every man's occupation could be chosen so easily. If one asks a young boy what he intends to be, he is likely to get the answer, "I don't know."
 Some boys confess that they would like to be soldiers of fortune; others would elect to be explorers; still others would like to build automobiles, operate wireless apparatus, and, above all, construct aeroplanes and fly like Glenn Curtiss. The average parent is glad to discern in the child whose definite, wholesome proclivity manifested itself at a tender age. It may be a boy wants a rifle, and his father is pleased to find his son practising a target and learning to "keep his rifle and himself just what the object of the workshop idea. The instinct toward the workshop deserves parental encouragement. It is a great thing when a boy has learned to make the simplest articles of furniture neatly and solidly.
 Any sort of artistic talent is to be cherished and indulged. There was a boy who was seemingly "dull and muddly-muddled." His responses when you spoke to him were numb-witted. He was given to fits of silliness or outright anger; he brooded and was morose. Somehow or other he disclosed a singular talent for modelling in clay. His parents had the good sense to aid and abet this manifestation in every possible way. They gave him a complete and complete instructor, who placed before him in inspiring pictures and statuary of the great masters. The new-fledged sculptor made a truly beautiful study of "Walt's" St. Gahad. He transformed his own clay in the process, as well as the arduous substance, and he was moulding his own character as he wrought in the plastic material.
 Some are fortunate.

It has been the salvation of many a youth to strike suddenly upon his life-work. It has been the misfortune of some men that they have hunted aimlessly and restlessly, on into middle life, for the mode in which they might most valuably employ themselves without quite finding what they sought. It is supposed to be a compliment to say of a man that he is versatile. His versatility may be his sorrowful misfortune.
 Here is a man who could not choose when he was young what he would do when he was older. His hand turned easily to many things. His teachers praised him as clever. His relatives quoted his odd, bright sayings. His father and his mother, mollycoddled him and gave him preferential treatment over their other children. When he went to college there was no definite trend in his curriculum beyond the attainment of that general culture, which is, after all, the best thing college has to give. But he postponed the consideration of what should be his calling after his pastoral care. He resigned and became a teacher. At first he was very enthusiastic over his pupils and his work. Presently they wearied him. The work did not seem big enough for a grown man. Others of inferior mental calibre could do it just as well. He went back to his book-writing, and now ekes out a meagre subsistence by contributions to the magazines. His wife and his four children, no doubt, are proud to see their father's name in print, but they are not so proud as he is.
 It is well to be suspicious of a musician who plays a number of instruments. He is not likely to play any one of them well. He may astonish a vaudeville audience, but he will not convince the connoisseur. There are men who can build light-houses and paint pictures, and write books and do full justice to a tripartite vocation, but the vast majority, in order to excel, must concentrate and specialize upon one clear-cut and carefully insulated vocation. Edward Everett Hale just came short of greatness because he tried to do too many things. It is possible for a man to be a great physician and a novelist; it is likewise possible to be a clerkman and to produce a "best seller," but in most learned professions it is far wiser to choose either the science or the muse for one's devoted, exclusive attention. The marriages of true minds are not morguatic alliances.
 The wise man is he who finds out as early in life as he is able the thing which he can do to best advantage, and then he directs his whole energies to achieve success in that particular business. The unwise man is he in whom the habit of restlessness has become confirmed by perpetual experimentation, leaving behind him a trail of incompleteness and unsuccess. Inchoate enterprises and half-baked inventions, as the immature fruits of his versatility.

Summer Drinks and Ices.

ICES.
 Chilled Desserts.
 Ice cream and ices are well known frozen desserts, but the distinction between others is not always easily made. A frappe is a water ice frozen soft about the consistency of mush; it should be served in sherbet glasses.
 A parfait is a rich ice cream frozen without stirring.
 Sundae is ice cream with syrups poured over them.
 A mousse contains gelatine; it is frozen without stirring.
 Punches contain crushed fruits, lemon, ginger, pineapple, and are strained.
 Muddled drinks contain spices and eggs.
 Tutti frutti creams and ices contain a mixture of fruits; the proportion is one pint of juice or fruit to one quart of cream or water.
 Sorbets or sherbets are drinks of fruit juices sweetened, diluted and chilled; the proportion of water to fruit juice is smaller in sherbets than in water ices, and the juices are varied at convenience. Two cups of water, two cups of sugar, one cup of fruit juice is the average proportion.
 Frozen dainties are delightful at any time, but it is when the thermometer soars and days are humid and sultry and appetites jaded as they were yesterday that they are most welcome.
 Trouble to prepare? Not much when you consider how much pleasanter it is to turn the wheel of an up-to-date freezer or chop a block of ice than to stand over a hot stove cooking dessert or making coffee.
 Plain ice cream flavored with vanilla, lemon, cocoa, coffee, almond or chocolate, is excellent, but the most delicious creams are those made with the addition of one or more fruits. Strawberry and pineapple are prime favorites, but raspberry, peach and orange are nourishing and refreshing and different combinations may be tried until a particular favorite is discovered.
 Water ices cannot be made with cooked fruit, but should have the expressed juice of the raw fruit mixed with water and sugar. Some kinds of fruit, especially grapes, cherries and peaches, have a gummy property that causes them to become light and white in the freezer if beaten too much, as if eggs or gelatin had been added. Consequently when water ices are desired they are made better in an old-fashioned freezer.
 Plain Ice Cream.—One quart milk heated in a double boiler, three eggs beaten separately, four tablespoons sugar, flavoring.—Put two quarts over one quart of vinegar, let stand 24 hours; strain and pour liquid over quart of fresh fruit and let it stand 24 hours; repeat operation third day then add one pound of sugar to each pint of juice, bring slowly to boil and bottle. Two tablespoons to a glass of water is sufficient. Strawberry vinegar is made the same way.

 Strawberry and Raspberry Shrub.—Take one gallon berries, one-half gallon elder vinegar; let stand over night; strain, put in six pounds of white sugar; when it boils skim and cool, then bottle. When used put in two-thirds ice water.
 Currant Shrub.—Add to each pint of strained currant juice a pint of sugar; boil gently 10 minutes, cool, bottle and cork.
 Elderberry Syrup.—Wash berries and add very little water. When they boil strain and sweeten, allowing one-half pint of sugar to each pint of juice; bring to boil, and when cold, bottle.
 Grape Juice.—Wash the grapes, add a pint of water to every pound, heat until skin bursts, strain, and allow a pint of sugar to each quart of juice; bring to boil, and when cold, bottle.
 Fruit Nectar.—To one quart of hot water add one cup of sugar and a glass of currant or elderberry jelly. Cook until dissolved; cool and add lemon and orange juice to suit taste.
 Egg Lemonade.—Take a five lemons, one and a half cups of sugar, one quart of water, one pint of any fruit juice, preferably strawberry. Put all in a bunch bowl with six stalks of bruised mint and plenty of fine ice.
 Raspberry Fluff.—To a quart of lemonade and a half cup of raspberries or the shrub, add leaves from sprig of mint; chill thoroughly and serve in tall, thin glasses.
 Egg Lemonade.—Juice and grated rind of three lemons, one and a half cups of sugar, one cup of water, two fresh eggs. Put in a fruit jar and shake until very foamy, add water enough to fill the jar and pour into glasses two-thirds full of cracked ice. Feed Russian Tea.—Three cups boiling water poured over four teaspoons of Russian tea; infuse 10 minutes, strain, cool, add juice of three lemons and sweeten to taste. Fill colonial glasses with finely chopped ice to a depth of three inches, then to top with the tea. Garnish with a sprig of lemon verbena or rose geranium.

COOL DRINKS.
 cornstarch and one quart cream or rich milk. Dissolve cornstarch in a little cold milk, add beaten yolks and sugar, pour hot milk into this, return to boiler. Cook five minutes, stirring briskly. Remove, and cream and beaten whites of eggs and the flavoring. Freeze when cold.
 Roly Poly Ice Cream.—Make plain ice cream. Mold in balls with two tablespoons, or pack in round moulds. When ready to serve, roll them in or sprinkle over them grated coconut, powdered macaroons, chopped nuts or candied ginger, citron and orange peel. Serve with a sauce made with a cup of sugar and one cup of water, boiled four minutes, add chocolate chopped fruit, or favorite flavoring.
 Fruit Fluff.—To every pint of chopped peach, banana or pineapple, allow one pint of water, six eggs and one pound of sugar; beat eggs until light, then add other ingredients and cook until thick as custard. Strain, set dish in pan of cold water and beat until cold. Freeze and serve with a syrup like a sundae.
 Dean Swift's Iced Coffee.—Make coffee as usual, using white of an egg and one cup of finely ground coffee to five cups of boiling water. When cool strain, sweeten and freeze to consistency of mush. Serve in frappe glasses with sweetened whipped cream.
 Cool Drinks.
 Fruits, containing as they do, a variety of sugars, acids, flavors, potash, soda salts and other minerals easily assimilated should form a large part of our diet all the year. Stimulating, refreshing and one of the greatest aids to digestion, and, like nuts, is a necessary luxury.
 When cooked, sugar is usually added, making the nutritive value higher, but causing the loss of much of the original flavor.
 It is not enough for one to eat each day the exact quantity of food needed to sustain life and strength. A certain amount of bulk is needed to keep one in good health, and fruit furnishes this without over-crowding the body with nutrient matter.
 In hot weather the amount of moisture exuded from the body is greater than in cooler weather and more liquid is required to maintain a right temperature. So we resort to cooling beverages. When these contain citric, or similar fruit acids, they are found to be more cooling than clear water. Here are a few recipes for refreshing drinks:

SALMON HARBOUR NOW GROWING LITTLE TOWN

President of Canadian Coal Corporation Tells of Developments in Queens Co.-Mines Proving Very Valuable.

P. P. Shaw, president of the Canadian Coal Corporation, operating coal areas at Salmon Harbor, in the Grand Lake district, returned yesterday from Boston where he attended a meeting of the directors of the company.

The company entered the territory at Salmon Harbor a year ago last month and took over a barren property not even fit for farming land, but possessing valuable coal deposits.

They have constructed a spur track of three miles to the line of the Central Railway and shipments of about 60 to 70 tons per day are now being made.

The mine level is about one mile in length and is connected and drained to one central pumping station. Three head houses have been erected and the company has literally transformed what was practically a hole in the woods to a thriving little town with 100 men at work in the mines.

Rev. Dr. W. E. McIntyre and Mr. and Mrs. I. C. Archibald returned yesterday from Hibernia, Hampstead, where they have been attending the fifth Baptist district meeting.

Among those who attended were Rev. R. N. Campbell, Rev. F. E. Bishop, Rev. B. H. Nobles, Dr. W. L. Archibald and Rev. M. Niles.

Officers for the ensuing year were elected as follows: Chairman, Rev. C. B. Lewis; Secretary, Rev. David Patterson; Treasurer, J. R. Vanwart, of Wickham.

A business meeting was held on Wednesday afternoon, and in the evening there was a public meeting in the Baptist church at which addresses were delivered by Rev. Dr. W. E. McIntyre, Rev. I. C. Archibald and Mrs. Archibald, missionaries from India.

Today's programme includes a trip on the river as far as Ewaldville, where dinner will be served and sports indulged in.

Dr. W. L. Archibald delivered an interesting address on the Work of the Educational Institutions of the Baptist Church at Wolfville, N. S.

On Thursday morning another business meeting was held, at which a statistical review of the work of the year in the district was presented.

A pretty wedding was solemnized on Wednesday night at the residence of Mr. and Mrs. Edmund Craig, Water street, West End, when their daughter Emmanette was united in marriage to Mr. Charles Heans, of the North End.

A quiet wedding took place at the home of Mrs. R. Campbell, 25 John street, Wednesday evening, when her only daughter, Adelaide C., was united in marriage to Robert Wilson, Rev. B. H. Nobles performed the ceremony.

MASONIC VISITORS ARRIVED YESTERDAY

Members of Royal Arch Chapter of Chelsea in City--P. A. Melville, former St. John Man, Honored Guest.

After a stormy trip from Boston to St. John and a sail up the bay under ideal conditions, twenty-six members of the Royal Arch Chapter of Chelsea, Mass., arrived yesterday afternoon on the Governor Cobb, and will be entertained by the Carleton Royal Arch Chapter of this city.

The visitors are all members of the chapter of the Shekinah, and they chose St. John as the place of their pilgrimage as a compliment to a former well known St. John man, P. A. Melville, who is a member of the Carleton chapter, but who for the last 18 years has been resident of the Hub, and a member of the staff of the Boston Globe.

The party includes Alfred Anderson, M. E. H. P.; Raymond T. Rowell, P. H. P.; Edwin H. Pearson, K. of Somerville R. A. chapter; and the following from Chelsea chapter: Harry C. Robinson, James Walker, Walter A. Haynes, Herbert S. Grutchfield, Ernest McKay, David Smith, Edward A. Pritchard, Josiah B. Shurtleff, Jr., James S. Wilson, John E. Parsons, Fred G. Parker, W. S. Clow, W. H. Toppan, John R. Smith, Walter Parkins, William P. Inis, Wilbur A. Baston, John L. Gibby and John Denton.

Many of the visitors have been in this city before and the reports of the hospitality of the local craftsmen and the beauties of the city which they carried back to Boston, made it an easy matter to get a delegation together.

Last evening they attended Carleton Royal Arch Chapter when the ceremony was exemplified with full ceremonial, members of the Shekinah chapter taking a prominent part in the proceedings.

Addresses were made by the officers of the visiting chapter and by those of the Carleton chapter. The officers of Carleton chapter are: Reverend Steeves, H. P.; Thomas E. Poyers, K.; J. H. Crockett, A. A. Dodge, Treas.; L. A. Langstroth, Sec.; C. R. Davis, C. of H.; H. A. Porter, R.A.C.; E. H. Cairns, P.S.; H. H. Bisset, M. 2nd V.; W. S. Morrison, M. 2nd; R. E. Crawford, M. 1st V., and Robt. Clarke, Tyler.

Today's programme includes a trip on the river as far as Ewaldville, where dinner will be served and sports indulged in.

Probably the most interesting visitor is Mr. Melville who will be remembered here as a member of the local press and is now high in rank with the press men of Boston.

He left this city in 1892 and this is his second trip to his home since that time. While here Mr. Melville was much interested in amusement matters. He was an active member of the Micaever club and first secretary of the St. John Opera House Company.

ANOTHER COMMITTEE TAKES UP WEST SIDE TRANSFER

Board of Works Decides C.P.R.'s Offer to Develop 40-Acre Lot as Wharf Building Progresses Requires Further Investigation--Ald. Baxter Makes Some Pointed Remarks.

The Board of Works at its meeting yesterday afternoon referred the matter of the exchange of the 40 acre lot for the 1600 foot strip, down the Beacon Bar, to a sub-committee, consisting of Ald. McGoldrick, Christie, Elkin, Lively and Vanwart. Ald. Baxter in the course of a lengthy speech accused the C. P. R. of breach of faith in the past, and lack of ordinary business morality, and intimated that some members of the common council ought to show more concern for the interests of the city, and not be so anxious to help out the Federal government in a matter where it was well able to help itself.

Ald. Lively came out with the statement that he would not consent to the transfer, unless the C. P. R. agreed to develop the 40 acre lot in a specified time, and to put in sewer conduits at its own expense. Tenders for installing a sprinkler system on the West Side sheds were laid on the table. Ald. McGoldrick presided and A. Jones, Smith, Sprout, Holder, White, Hayes, Willet, Elkin, Russel, Baxter and Christie were present with the common clerk, recorder, city engineer, harbor master and street superintendent.

In opening the meeting the chairman said that he and the mayor had had a consultation with the Minister of Public Works, in which Mr. Pugsley had urged the city to make the transfer of the 40 acre lot to the C. P. R. At present he could not make an explicit statement regarding the state of the negotiations, but he had reason to believe that the C. P. R. would be willing to enter into an agreement that would be satisfactory to the city.

The mayor, who was present, then gave a detailed account of the interview with Mr. Pugsley. He said Mr. Pugsley had assured them that the C. P. R. would agree to utilize the property as fast as the new wharves were constructed, and that, Mr. Pugsley, on behalf of the government, had undertaken to construct a sea-wall along the shore line of the 40 acre lot. As regards the construction of sewer conduits, they had been advised that the C. P. R. would favorably consider the request of the city to build them at its own expense.

The C. P. R. would also accept exemption from taxation. Ald. Baxter asked whether any arrangements had been discussed looking to the extension of Union street for fire purposes.

The mayor said that point wasn't mentioned. Ald. Baxter said "It's an important one and should be considered." Ald. Willet then moved that the matter be referred to a sub-committee of the Board of Works, consisting of five members, with the mayor and recorder acting as ex officio members with instructions to consider and further the transfer.

Ald. White moved in amendment that the committee consist of the mayor, Ald. McGoldrick, Baxter, Elkin, Lively and Vanwart. The C. P. R. had agreed to know whether the committee would be authorized to accept the offer to allow the city to construct the sewers at its own expense, if the Railway Commission was agreeable, they should master up sufficient manliness to resist the C. P. R.'s attitude. There was danger in referring the matter to a sub-committee loaded with advocates of the transfer. The matter should be taken up by the whole board. A sub-committee might enter into some understanding which would practically commit the whole council.

Continuing Ald. Baxter said he was more strongly opposed to the transfer than ever before. He was in a position to state that the Empress was not coming to St. John next winter and in the face of that it was folly to give the C. P. R. absolute control of the West Side wharf facilities. At the same time he would not oppose the transfer if the C. P. R. would give satisfactory guarantees that the business interests of the city should be protected.

Ald. White thought that there was no danger in appointing a small committee. The personnel might be changed to suit some of the aldermen. Ald. Baxter said there had been no request from the C. P. R. for the Fifth Form.

TRUE BILL AGAINST COOMBS ON 4 COUNTS

Grand Jury Throws Out Charge of Appropriating $5,700--Case Will be Taken Up This Morning.

When the County Court opened yesterday at ten a. m., at the Court House, nine members of the grand jury were present. Shortly after the court resumed its session Judge Forbes read the five counts contained in the indictment in the case of the King vs. H. Leslie Coombs.

The first count charges the accused with appropriating $5,700, the property of the D'Israeli Asbestos Company. The second count contains a charge of conspiracy against the accused with R. D. Isaacs.

The third is similar to the second, but is more extended. The fourth charges Coombs, acting as a director or public officer, with altering or changing entries in the books of the company. The last count is similar to the fourth, only is more extended.

His Honor said that defendant always had the privilege of taking the stand in his own defense and he thought that if the evidence which would be presented to them was as strong as contained in the depositions, the accused should be put on his trial.

At half-past ten the jury retired and at one o'clock returned on bill on the first count and true bill on the remaining four.

RETRENCHMENT IS RAILROAD SLOGAN

FIGHT OVER FREIGHT RATES IS COMING

Interest in Stock Market Very Dull

MONEY EASY IN TONE

Leaders Suspected of Making Provision for Further Developments in Railroad Rate War—Money Plenty in London

New York, N. Y., June 16.—The stock market today was abandoned to dullness and neglect. Immediate developments were ignored and the professional traders were driven to forming conjectures over what might prove to be the market's response to expected happenings in the future. It was urged that the enactment of the railroad bill, when completed, might open the way for some activity in the speculation although the short time yet required and the definite form to be taken by the statute are taken for granted.

A more influential factor in the repression of the speculation is the content to be voted over the coming attempt to introduce higher freight rates. The determination expressed by shippers and their disposition to the proposed organization to contest the proposed advances arouse some anxiety amongst those who rely on the higher rates to keep up profits. The symptoms of acerbity amongst railroad executives themselves in the discussion of the question of retrenchment and the broad insinuation by the president of the Great Northern that stock market policy rather than operating exigencies govern some of the pronouncements advanced, were taken as suggestive of the direction in which the rate contest might effect stock.

RAILWAYS LAY OFF 10,000 EMPLOYEES

St. Paul, June 16.—The Pioneer Press, in a published article, says that the policy of retrenchment threatened by the railroads because of federal activity in preventing a proposed increase in freight rates is already going into effect. Thus far the policy has meant the discharge of about ten thousand laborers, to start nearly all new construction work, while plans for extensions and betterments have been temporarily dropped.

It is estimated that the Northern Pacific has given order to lay off 2,500 men, the Great Northern 3,000 and the Chicago & Northwestern 600. The Chicago, Milwaukee & St. Paul discharged between 1,000 and 1,200 men during the first part of June in the Northern district alone. For the present the Chicago, Milwaukee & St. Paul is not extending the policy of retrenchment in the Northwest. It is said the Santa Fe has laid off 4,000 men and the Chicago, Rock Island & Pacific 1,500.

President Howard Elliott today issued a statement, giving the reasons for the action of the railroads. He says: "Four forces, namely, increased taxes, increased prices for labor and materials, increased facilities both in quantity and quality and the enlarged powers of the railway commissions, are all working to reduce the net earnings of railway companies, so that it seems prudent for boards of directors and for railway officers to consider most carefully not only their duty to the travellers and shippers over their roads but also their duty to the very large number of people whose money is invested in railroads and the large class of investors to whom the railway must go if they are to obtain money for additions, improvements, and extensions. It seems, therefore, the part of wisdom not to engage in new enterprises at the present time and not to undertake too much work."

RECORD MONTH FOR EXPORTS FROM U.S.

Washington, June 16.—Exports from the United States last month were larger than in May of any other year with the exception of 1907, being valued at $131,145,428, which was less by $1,500,000 than the exports in May, 1907, according to the Bureau of Statistics. Imports in May were smaller than in any month since August last, amounting to $119,929,608, against $123,923,300 in April and $162,989,435 in March of the present year. The excess of exports over imports last month was $11,215,820 against $7,262,248 in May of last year. For the seven months ended with May, 1910, the excess of exports over imports was $178,989,676. Exports for the eleven months ended with May last exceeded those of the corresponding months of last year by $11,667,663.

CLOSING STOCK LETTER

New York, June 16.—After showing a fair degree of strength during the first hour today's stock market again relapsed into extreme dullness, with the tape showing frequent intervals of complete idleness. The sagging tendency of prices which ensued was therefore significant of nothing except a widespread neglect. Even the floor scalping element showed little initiative. Some attempt was made to depress Steel on the announcement that the resolution to investigate the status of the corporation as related to the Sherman and Interstate Commerce Acts had passed the house of representatives but this has been anticipated. Besides there is little apprehension that such an investigation now would have any serious effect, even if the senate should approve it. Routine news was rather colorless and it was obvious that it would require some fresh impulse to arouse the market from its torpor. Satisfactory crop reports coming to hand a little later on may provide this impulse. For the time being, however, the prospect appears to lead to more dullness and narrow price movements.

MANY HITS THIS CONTEST

St. Josephs Won Intersociety Game Last Night from St. Peters--M. R. A. in Commercial.

St. Josephs 9; St. Peters 4. It was a slaughter all around on the Shamrock grounds last evening when St. Josephs went up against their old rivals, St. Peters, and walloped them to the tune of 9 to 4.

A late comer who slid into a seat during the second inning looked pityingly down upon the St. Joseph boys when told the score was 4 to 2 for St. Peters.

In the third inning St. Peters got three bases full but then the new pitcher retired the side by striking out.

When the fourth inning arrived St. Peters went to bat and Harrigan promptly struck out. Messers McCormick and Dever sent out grounders, but the latter went out at second on Britt's drive to shortstop and McCormick fell down at first.

Score by innings: St. Josephs 2 4 3 0-9, St. Peters 0 0 0 0-4. AB. R. H. P. O. A. E. Donnelly, 1b., 3 2 3 4 0 1.

Western Cities Haste to Make Bids for Big Fight

Following Announcement of Governor Gillett's Veto, Tacoma, Salt Lake City and Reno Enter the Field--San Francisco's Mayor Defies the Executive Head of the State and Says Fight Will be Held in His City--Attorney General is Interviewed.

San Francisco, Cal., June 16.--The fight between Jeffries and Johnson will take place on July fourth, if not in San Francisco, then I will pull it off in Reno, but the fight will be held on the date set, and I will keep my promise.

This statement was made by Tex Rickard to the Associated Press tonight. Rickard is the promoter of the fight.

San Francisco, Cal., June 16.--To all intents and purposes the Jeffries-Johnson championship fight tonight is a pugilistic outcast, as far as California is concerned.

The fighters are ready and are training faithfully, there is no doubt about the purse, for nearly half the money has been deposited in the banks, and the match has been more widely advertised and has attracted greater interest than any other contest in recent ring history.

While no legal steps have been taken as yet against any of those concerned, promoter Blot of the Langford and Kaufman fight, slated for Saturday next, is in no better case.

As to the big fight Attorney General Webb said today that he would not bother with an application for a temporary restraining order but would ask for a permanent injunction.

Ben Loumad, Cal., June 16.--With a reassuring telegram from Rickard tucked under his belt, Jeffries kept serenely at work at his training quarters today.

promoter informed Jeff that, despite the present agitation, the fight, in all probability, would be held in San Francisco.

Tacoma, Wash., June 16.--A number of local capitalists here, today authorized the Tacoma Athletic Association to state that they are willing to put up $100,000 and reimburse Rickard and Gleason for all expenses they have incurred.

Salt Lake City, U. S., June 16.--A movement to bring the Jeffries-Johnson contest to this city received a setback today when Governor Spry positively announced that he saw no reason to change his former expressed view that it could not be held in this state.

Reno, Nev., June 16.--A committee appointed at a meeting of business men today, began preliminary plans toward getting the Jeffries and Johnson fight for Reno.

The Nevada fight law requires only a thousand dollar license fee, Richard C. Giddard, attorney general of Nevada, issued the following statement regarding the glove contests in Nevada.

San Francisco, June 16.--Gov. J. M. Gillett's message to Attorney General Webb invoking the arm of the law to put a quietus on the Jeffries-Johnson and the Langford-Kaufman contests, are generally regarded as a knockout blow to the fight game in California.

Chicago, June 16.--I am running San Francisco, I am taking no order from Gillett or his attorney general. You can bet your last dollar that the big fight will be pulled off in my town.

Asked what he would do if the National Guard were ordered to stop the mill, McCarthy said: "We will run it ourselves. We have policemen to do what we tell them to do.

PETITION COUNCIL FOR EARLY CLOSING BY-LAW

North End Association Takes Action in Consequence of Violations—Policy Pursued in Other Cities.

At a meeting of the North End Early Closing Association, held in the store of A. Wetmore, Mill street, last evening, it was decided to petition the common council to adopt an early closing by-law similar to that in force in Montreal, Winnipeg and many other Canadian cities.

Expect General Support. Many of the big stores of this city already close at 7 p. m. and it is believed that the merchants of the city would support a movement to legalize a practice which the big stores apparently have found it to their advantage to pursue.

The Early Closing Association of the North End want a by-law adopted compelling stores to close at 7 p. m., with the exception of three weeks before Christmas, and the usual evenings before public holidays.

PEACE RESTORED BETWEEN D'ISRAELI STOCKHOLDERS

Directors Return 75,000 Shares of Stock to the Treasury and Everything is Serene—Yesterday's Meeting was as a Love Feast Compared to the Previous Day—New Organization Effected.

Yesterday's adjourned meeting of the stockholders of the D'Israeli Asbestos Company was as tame as the meeting of Wednesday was warm. The stockholders heard the report of the committee appointed at the Wednesday meeting to look into the books of the company and the meeting adjourned until August 2nd, when the stockholders will meet again in the office of Hanington & Hanington.

The report of the committee stated that an agreement had been reached with Messrs. L. A. Coderre, Roch Gagnon, F. H. LeBlanc and H. W. The report of the committee was then read by A. H. Hanington who in the absence of Mr. C. Freed appeared for the Nova Scotia stockholders. It was a lengthy document and first set forth why the committee had been appointed and the powers vested in them. It then went on to say that an agreement had been concluded between the members of the committee and Messrs. Coderre, Gagnon, LeBlanc and Adam whereby they would return the stock held by them and assist in placing the company on an orderly basis.

On motion of Capt. Norton it was decided that the number of stockholders to form a quorum should be nine and that they should represent the majority of the stock.
