London, March 9.—The London Chronicle, commenting on its Washington correspondent's denial of the story that the British flag had been hoisted at the White Pass, ridicules the idea of quarreling over such a triviality. It especially deprecates making difficulties at Times says: By an agreement just this moment, when "the British people only contest the seats they are confident of gaining. The Republicans are undecided, and the Conservatives are also broken in doctrine, spirit and numbers that they are powerless greatly to turn the scale either way.'

A GREAT OPPORTUNITY. London, March 9.-Sir George William Des Voeux, formerly governor of the Bahama Islands, speaking on the far Eastern crisis, said Great Britain ought immediately to seize the opportunity of expressing cordial sympathy with the United States in her efforts to secure autonomy for Cuba and to express the determination to aid the United States with her fleet against any attack upon her coast. This, Sir George added, would prevent war with Spain, and would make general American sympathy with Great Britain, which, he asserted, was now only partial. This would be enormously to the advantage of both nations, while also assisting in the solution of the Chinese question. He remarked, in conclusion, that such an opportunity of "annealing the two English-speaking nations may never ton-an action to test the liability of railways in Canada to keep the frogs in tracks packed during winter—the privy council, as stated yesterday, gave the company leave to appeal. By an The United States House of Representorder of the railway committee of the privy council at Ottawa, they are relieved of this work during the winter season, but in no other season. The defendant, a former brakeman, lost his arm in an accident at Hamilton, as a result of getting his foot caught in a frog. however, succeeded in the supreme court in securing a judgment of $2,500, given him at the trial, which the court of appeal had reversed, thereby voiding the order of the railway committee. Mr. D'Alton McCarthy, Q.C., on behalf of the railway, has been granted this leave to appeal from the judgment of the supreme court. Two similar actions, now pending, await the result of this. DEATH OF A NOTED FORGER. Paris, March 9.- There is much exitement here over the mysterious known under many aliases, and who was found dead the other day in his lodging-house. He was identified as the forger of a letter signed "Otto," purporting to emanate from the German embassy in Paris, incriminating Count Esterhazy in the sale of military secrets. It was this letter that trapped M. Rochfort, editor of the Intransigeant, and led him to make an attack upon M. Reinach in that paper, which subsequently led to his imprisonment for libel. The authorities give out that Lehmann committed suicide, but they refuse to allow the body to be seen at the morgue. It is probable that this latter fact that has started the rumors that Lehmann was murdered for the purpose of silencing him. An inquiry is demanded.

China Gut Up.

About It?

London, March 19 .- All the morning papers comment on the menacing attitude of affairs in the far East. The Daily Chronicle says: "As a rebuff to Lord Salisbury nothing could be clearer and more painful. Russia has simply begun the partition of China. If anybody asks what China will do, the answer is simple. There is no such thing as China. The real questions are, What will England do what Japan? If ever Great Britain needed a strong man it is now, and faction that again, at a moment of acute crisis, the premier's health compels him to go abroad. Thus both the Queen and the prime minister are to be absent when their presence is peculiarly needed." A special dispatch from Shanghai says Russia had agreed to open Port Arthur and Talien Wan to foreign trade, but under Russian laws and administration. signed, Germany has obtained a concession to construct a railway connecting Tsi Nan Tu, Province of Shan Tung, on the Hoang Ho and Te Chau Fu. Germany undertakes on the completion of certain details to withdraw her troops from Tsimo and Kiao Chan

The Korean cabinet, it is understood here, will impeach the foreign minister of Korea for leasing Deer Island to Russia. A dispatch to the Times from Odessa says: Troops and war material are going to the far East, and with such haste that the Russian volunteer fleet will not suffice. The government therefore has chartered some French steamers, the first of which will start a fortnight hence with 2,000 men.

Berlin, 'March 9.-Emperor William, replying to the Hamburg Senate's congratulations on the "brilliant success of your Majesty's fár-seeing policy in China," telegraphed this answer: rely upon the proved zeal of the Hamburg merchants to aid me in making the new acquisition profitable to the fatherland.' atives Unanimously Pass the $50,000,000 National Deiense Bill.

Washington, D. C., March 9.-The galleries of the house were packed to the doors yesterday, and long lines of people, unable to gain admission, surged about the corridors. Public interest in the debate on the bill appropriating $50,000,000 for the national defense was reflected in this large attendance in the galleries. On the floor almost every member was in his seat. As soon as the journal had been read, the speaker rapped for order, and, amid a deep silence, Chairman Cannon arose and presented as a deficiency bill the measure appropriating $50,death of Moses Lehmann, who was cluded also several other items, among which are $100,000 for coal for naval vessels. When the reading of the bill was concluded with the item of $50,-•00,000 for the national defense, a spontaneous outburst of applause went up from the members and the gal-Mr. Cannon insisted that this appropriation must not be construed into a threat. Nothing was further from the minds of those who reported it. he said. This appropriation was to be placed in the hands of a wise and patriotic executive to make preparations to maintain the national honor, nothing more. "It is not a war appropriasaid he emphatically. "I say that in my judgment, measuring my words that it is a peace measure. (Great applause.) The Government of the United States would not if it could, trench upon the rights of any nation on earth." (Renewed applause.)

Mr. Cannon was followed by almost every member of the house, all making short and patriotic speeches.

Mr. Bingham, of Pennsylvania. caused the only discordant note that was heard. While supporting the bill on general principles, he characterized of the house as akin to the methods of "yellow kid journalism." He was roundly hissed when he sat down.

When the question was put on the passage of the bill, the whole house rose en masse in its favor, but Mr. Cannon asked for the ayes and nays. He did so, he said, at the request of many members, who desired that every member should go on record. Every member present voted for the bill, many of them assuming the responsibility of breaking their pairs in order to place themselves on record. At the clusion of the roll call, the speaker had his name called, an unusual proceeding and amid great applause voted for the bill. When he announced the vote, ayes 311, nays 0, an enthusiastic demonstration occurred.

THE CABINET MEETING. At the conclusion of an unusually long session of the cabinet, it was stated that the momentary anxiety caused by the Lee recall incident and Spain's objection to the method of conveying supplies to Cuba had passed away. The outlook is regarded by the cabinet as decidedly improved.

BETTER SITUATION. In spite of numerous conferences of officials, the continuation of the preparations now in progress on a large scale to put the country in a state of defense, and the outburst of patriotic speeches in Congress, there was a certain feeling apparent that in the best informed circles that the situation as to America's relations with Spain are today much more favorable. Perhaps the semi-official advices received from Madrid, indicating a peaceful purpose on the part of the Spanish Government, contributed in a large measure to that feeling.

THE MAINE DISASTER. Three weeks ago the Maine was blown up. As it was last week at this time, so it is now; nothing is known officially as to the cause of the disaster. The court is hard at work; that is all that is known at the navy department. It is not even known when it may be expected to finish its work. THE SPANISH TORPEDO SQUAD-

RON A letter received from Madrid says: The Spanish torpedo squadron at Cadiz will not sail for Cuba, "owing to information received from the United States and Capt.-Gen. Blanco." The Pais, in confirming the statement that the departure of the torpedo squadron had been indefinitely postponed, says: "It would not be surprising were the event closely connected with the recent visits of Gen. Woodford to Senor Gullon and Senor Sagasta." In conclusion the Pais remarks: "Everyone may be assured that the squadron will neither sail now nor at any time in the future.' SPAIN SHORT OF FUNDS. New York, March 9 .- A special to the World from Washington says: A cablegram received from Minister Woodford was laid before the cabinet by the president. It declared that Spain has exwas laid before the cabinet by the prehausted every means of raising money for the prosecution of a war, without success. All the financial centers of Europe have rejected her overtures. Gen. Woodford pronounces it an utter impossibility for Spain to secure funds with which to engage in hostilities against the United States. In referring to the political conditions which impelled the ministry to suggest the recall of Gen. Lee, Minister Woodford said that Sagasta was friendly to the United States, and would make every possible concession to preserve peace.

THE FUTURE DANGER. The future danger, said Gen. Woodford, lies with the people. With a hostile majority now in the cortes, and the probability that it will be continued in the forthcoming elections, the overthrow of the Sagasta ministry is not unlikely. The succeeding ministry would be pledged to war in order to avoid revolution. If the Sagasta ministry retains power, Gen. Woodford believes that Spain would endure humiliation rather than declare war against the United States.

with quick-firing guns. She has been on the lookout for some weeks, but the difficulty was, of course, the money. I have also just heard that the Spanish Government has made arrangements for a loan through Foulds' Bank, of Paris, with a French syndicate. Sentiment as well as self-interest prompts France to assist Spain against the United States, and France is the only European country where Spain stands the slightest chance of obtaining financial help. French investors hold about $390,000,000 of Spanish bonds, largely secured by Cuban taxes. If Spain loses Cuba the French speculators will lose the security for their loans. This is why there is a great and powerful interest in France which is trying to avert war or save Spain. The whole Madrid press comments gloomily on the Spanish financiers' scare. Many, including the friends of the cabinet, attribute it less to unfavorable rumors as to the relations of Spain with the United States than to the efforts of native and foreign speculators, who are ever on the alert to take advantage of any circumstances to depress Spanish securities. A SPECULATIVE DODGE New York, March 9.-According to a cable dispatch from James Creelman, published by the Journal and Adveriser today, under a London date, "the bones of a great speculative ring are actually sticking through the reports of a successful new Spanish loan, and the purchase of warships in England and France by Spain." The dispatch continues: "For several days it has been known by the members of this gigantic combination of speculators in war materials that the United States would probably appropriate an enormous sum for military purposes, and at once the campaign was begun in the newspapers to create the impression in the United States that Spain had raised money, and was about to secure warships that are for sale, together with great quantities of war materials. The manipulators were clever enough to deceive the most intelligent and conscientious correspondents, but gradually the truth has begun to appear. I have received assurances from the governor of the Bank of France, from the governor of the Bank of England, from the Rothschilds, both in Paris, and in London, and from the head of the Credit Lyonais, that Spain has not been able to raise any money whatever. The St. James Gazette prints a cunningly written article this afternoon pretending to give the facts about the situation, but investigation at the Armstrong works, at Clydebank, in Scotland, and at every point where any persons could have any accurate knowledge, shows that the story is absolutely false. It is simply a part of the conspiracy to stampede the United terial and warships in a hurry."

GO WEST! Toronto, March 9 .-- Alex. calder, of Winnipeg, employment agent for the Crow's Nest Pass Railway, speaking of the prospects for work out west, says there will be a far larger demand for what he calls "good labor," both in railroading and mining, than it will be possible to get in Canada. He is recieving plenty of applications from men anxious to be sent out, but fully 50 per cent of these are young men from 18 to 20 years of age, wholly unsuitable for railway work, though they would be all right for agriculture. These cannot get free transportation. There are several extensions of railways in the west being projected, which will create a large demand for labor, but all who go must expect hard work

Inquest in the Case of Engineer Hutchinson's Death,

Hamilton, March Q.-The coroner's jury at the adjourned inquest on the of Engineer Hutchinson, who was fatally injured in last Tuesday's wreck on the Grand Trunk at Burington, have concluded their sittings. Sixteen witnesses were examined before Coroner Woolverton, and their testimony demonstrated beyond a doubt that the accident resulted from a misplaced switch. Following is the verdict: "That Thomas Hutchinson came to his death from injuries received by his engine running into a freight train. the switch having been thoughtlessly left open by J. Modeland, brake-man of said freight train; and the jury consider that the other members of the crew are in no way responsible for the accident."

A Married Man Arrested for Eloping With a Girl-Cried When Locked Up.

Windsor, March 9.-The elopement of a couple from Tilsonburg was frusrated yesterday morning. Monday night Chief Wills received a telegram from Mrs. Thomas White that her husbond had run away with a young girl named Flora Navlais, leaving her with five children. The police traced the elopers to Mrs. Moodie's boarding house on Pitt street. They were locked up till the girl's stepmother came. The elopers had brought a trunk with them. Both claimed it. The police gave it to the girl. As soon as she had gone, White set up a heart-breaking wail. Between his sobs he said he had only arrived from England four months ago and that the girl had induced him to elope. He had brought her to Windsor marry her and so save her from disgrace. He did not seem to think

MUNYON ON COUGHS AND COLDS.

Makes a Positive Statement of What His Remedies Will Do-Regards a Cold as the Most Dangerous of All Ailments, and Advises Immediate and nation of his charge before the presby-Scientific Treatment in All Cases.

If I were asked which of all my remedies I consider the most valuable, should unhesitatingly say the Cold Cure, particularly at this season of the year. I regard a cold as the most dangerous of all ailments. It leads to grip, catarrh, neuralgia, sore throat, pneumonia and consumption.

Colds attack the bowels and kidneys, and set the rheumatic in agony; 10, Wilson 9, Wood 10, Thompson 8, in fact, colds may be termed the parent of nearly all pains. I know that most people look upon colds as a trifling ailment. This is a mistake, for colds give more work to the doctor and undertaker than any other complaint. Get rid of the cold today, not tomorrow. Don't let it get two or three days the start of you. Have Munyon's Cold Cure ready to use, as soon as you begin to sneeze, shiver or feel that you are taking cold. You can make no better investment than in spending 25 cents with your druggist for a vial of this remedy. Get it today, whether you have a cold or not. It is better than a life insurance policy. If you have any other ailment, remember that we have 57 separate cures for 57 different diseases.

London Presbytery.

Conclusion of the March Meeting in This City.

Recommendation by the Presbytery-Commissioners to the General Assembly-A Call from Montreal Refused-Mr. Munro, of Kintore, Resigns.

The London Presbytery met in the lecture hall of the First Presbyterian Church today at 10:30 a.m., J. G. Stuart, moderator presiding. Minutes of preceding meetings, regular and special, were approved.

The list of moderators for the last ten years was read.

Mr. I. Kelso, Wallacetown, was elected moderator for the ensuing six months.

The call from St. James' Church, London, was presented by the interim moderator, J. G. Stuart. It was in favor of Rev. J. Elliott, Nairn, and was signed by 108 members. It was explained that there was little time to sign the call, and that it was very unanimous. The stipend promised is $1,000, with an estimated revenue of as in heaven. $1,900. It has also been decided to give the managers power to dispose of the present property, and in that case the congregation will move to the north of the city. Rev. D. C. Johnson, Mr. Webster and Mr. McNaughton, commissioners from the congregation, were neard in support of the call. Mr. Johnson deprecated the highlycolored reports of the affairs of the ongregation which had appeared in the public prints, and which had given incorrect ideas of the position of the congregation. All three commission-ers testified to the heartiness and unanimity of the call, and expressed their hope that it would be cuted as expeditiously as possible. prose-The call was sustained and ordered to be forwarded to the Presbytery of Sarnia, and that the clerk be authorized to telegraph the Presbytery of Sarnia that the call has been sustained. Mr. J. G. Stuart and Mr. D. C. Johnson were appointed commissioners to prosecute the call before the Presbytery of Sarnia.

Mr. D. C. Johnson presented the treasurer's report for 1897: Borrowed on note 200 00 EXPENDITURE. $825 57

Presbytery and synod$281 38 Commissioners to assembly 506 35 Total.....$787 73 Leaving a balance of cash of $37 84 and note still due. McGregor presented the auditor's report. On motion these reports were received and adopted, and the treasurer asked to make request from the congregations, so as to wipe off the deficit against the presbytery. The

The London prespytery resumed yesterday afternoon in the First Presbyterian Church. The thanks of the presbytery were tendered to Mr. Stuart for his services as moderator during the last six

The following were appointed commissioners to the general assembly:
Ministers—Messrs. Little, Lawrence,
J. T. Scott, T. Wilson, D. R. Drummond, Courtenay, Dr. Proudfoot, W. R. Sutherland, R. Johnston. Elders—Elliott Grison, I. Langford, A. Robb, A. S. Macgregor, D. Ferguson, W. H. Meek, John Elliott. A call was presented from Taylor

Church, Montreal, to Rev. G. H. Smith, B.D., of Thamesford; stipend promised, $1,250, with a month's vacation. It was signed by 238 members and 59 adherents. Rev. Prof. Ross, of the Presbyterian College, Montreal, appeared in support of the call, and presented a number of strong reasons why it should be accepted. Mr. J. A. Young appeared in opposition to the call, and made a good case in behalf of Thamesford congregation. Messrs. Sutherland, Patterson and Mc-Kenzie also pleaded eloquently in opposition to the call. Prof. Ross replied briefly, and the call was put in the hands of Mr. Smith, who declined the call, evidently under deep emotion. Mr. Henderson moved, that the presbytery, having heard all parties, and Mr. Smith's own decision, decline to grant the translation. Carried. Mr. Munro, Kirkton, laid the resig-

Mr. Munro stated that for over a year past he has been in a poor state of health, and this is the reason of his resignation. There had also been insufficient financial support, resulting from the losses accasioned by removals and deaths.

Messrs. McCheyne and Sutherland appeared on behalf of the congregation, but had nothing to add, expressing their willingness to answer any questions in regard to the matter. It was moved that for the present the resignation lie on the table, and that a committee, consisting of Messrs. Sawers, Johnston and Smith, look into the matter and report. Mr. Currie gave in the report of the augmentation committee, as follows, for the past half year: Aylmer and Springfield, $75; Port Stanley, $100; North Delaware and South Caradoc $42 50; Chalmers Church, London, $100; Hyde Park and Komoka, $75; Wardsville and Newbury, $37 50. It was agreed to apply for $20 extra on behalf of North Delaware and South Caradoc. It was stated that seventeen congre gations in this presbytery have not yet contributed to the augmentation fund, but a number of brethren declared that money had been sent down. The committee on rearrangement was It was agreed to supply Delaware and Tempo with probationers.

A petition from Mr. Passmore, of King Street Church, London, was read. The burden of it was regarding a socalled unconstitutional act of the session of King Street congregation, in reinstating an elder (Mr. Saunders) who had resigned. Mr. Stuart moved that a committee with the session and investigate the whole matter, and report at the next meeting of presbytery. Carried. The the committee: Messrs. Currie, Smith, Sawers and Rathburn, elder. W. J. Clark read the report on church life and work, which was received and adopted, with the following recommendations attached:

1. The presbytery gladly recognizes the tokens of God's presence and power with pastors and congregations, as manifestly shown in the replies returned to the circular issued by the assembly's committee, and devoutly prays for the bestowal of a larger measure of God's spirit upon our peo-

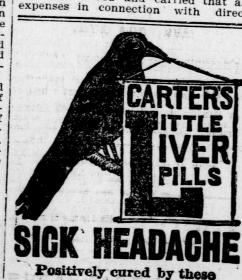

2. The presbytery urges upon all ministers and elders the importance of emphasizing the duty of family religion, and the instruction of the young in Christian doctrine in the home 3. The presbytery exhorts all in connection with the church, members or adherents, and especially all officials in the various congregations, to do what in them lies for the development of right feeling and practice in the instruction of the young in knowledge of the truth, in Sabbath observance and in total abstinence; that the two latter should be inculcated scientific, moral and philanthropic grounds, and in addition to instruction and example, every effort be made to obtain an advance in judicious legislation.

4. The presbytery also instructs the officials of the various congregations to seek to further the education of the people in systematic and proportionate giving for the sustaining and continuance of church observances, and the prospering of the schemes of the church as a whole.

5. The presbytery would remind all to whom its words may come with any authority that while the best methods should be sought after, it must ever be the prayer of each and every member of the body of Christ that the spirit of the living God may be the guide of his people, and may largely use them in answering the prayer that the Master himself gave to his church: "Thy kingdom come, thy will be done in earth

The presbytery also respectfully suggests to the assembly committee the advisability of making each question in the circular to be issued sharply distinct, in place of combining several in one, as the latter practice leads to confusion in some replies made, and thus prevents the clearest possible view of the mind of the church being obtained. It was moved and carried that all expenses in connection with direct

Mr. R. W. Ross received permission to forward his statistical and financial to forward his statistical and financial report of young people's societies to the convener of the synod's committee.

Mr. Henderson presented the report of the presbytery's home mission committee. It asked that Mr. Robinson, who had supplied Ekfrid station for some time, be recommended to the home mission committee for appointment this coming summer. The city ment this coming summer. The city ministers were appointed to meet with Mr. Robinson, and in their judgment

The action of the committee in regard to the celebration of Mr. Sutherland's anniversary was confirmed. It was decided that home missions be the subject for discussion at the May meeting of presbytery.

The Sabbath school report was taken as read, and ordered to be forwarded to the convener of the synod's committee. Rev. Donald McKenzie, B.A., Rev. John McNair, B.A., Rev. Dr. F. Beattie and Rev. W. D. Kerswill, B.A., were recommended for the consideration of Knox College board in the nomination of professor for the Old Testament chair in that college.

Cards were read as to application to made to the assembly for admission of certain ministers to the Presbyterian

In regard to the application of N. Campbell, no action was taken, except to refer him to the presbytery within whose bounds he was laboring. The presbytery approved of the principle to appoint a central committee on estimates.

Messrs. Alex. Henderson and John Cameron, elder, were appointed representatives on the committe of bills and overtures at the synod, and Mr. Drummond was appointed representative on the same committee in the assembly.

A resolution of sympathy with Mr. Dewar, of Ailsa Craig, who has been ery ill, was passed.

The presbytery adjourned, to meet for conference at Knox Church, St. Thomas, on the second Monday in May, at 2 o'clock in the afternoon, and for business on the Tuesday following, at 9 o'clock a.m.

The Epworths In Council.

A Large Attendance at All the Meetings. Interesting Papers and Discussions-"Heart Avenues," "Ideal Officers,"

"Model Meetings" "Forward Movement of Missions."

TUESDAY MORNING. The forenoon session of the Epworth League Convention opened at 9 o'clock with a large attendance. "The Junior League" was discussed in several able and interesting papers and various phases of the work were dealt with. Miss Mai D'Arville, of Glencoe, presented a paper on "Junior League Organization." The importof the presbytery be appointed to meet ance of provision for religious instruction and training of the children aside from those of a disciplinary character was forcibly presented. In outlining a method of forming an organization Miss D'Arville said the superintendent should be able to devote time and talent to make junior work a specialty. Practical hints as to conducting the meetings, the roll, age of members, pledge, committees, etc., were given in Miss D'Arville's paper and much appreciated. Mr. Chas. Abbott, of this city, gave a helpful talk on "The Eye" as a heart avenue. He considered illustrations the best means of fixing the truth, and with the aid of blackboard, gave general hints as to emblems, acrostics, material from helps, ways of illustrating, kinds of blackboards, kinds of lettering, colors, etc.

Miss F. Langford, of Granton, spoke of "The Ear," as a heart avenue. Evidently Christ, the greatest religious teacher, considered the ear as a heart avenue, for his teaching from first to last was oral, said Miss Langford. She dwelt upon the necessity of being careful of phraseology in reaching the juniors. Children, she said, were more deeply interested in what was earnest and spiritual than in what was light and frivolous.

A. Richardson at some length. Miss Emma Stevenson, of Glencoe read a paper, the subject of which was "From Junior League to Senior. How and When." She strongly advocated the formation of an intermediate league by which the boys and girls of 13, 14, 15 and 16 years of age, who have got beyond the reach of the junior society, and have not yet been admitted into the senior league, could be At 6:30 o'clock this morning the sun-

Want Debentures for New Schools.

Board of Education Will Ask the Council for $16,000

To Erect N.w Buildings on the Collegiate institute Grounds

And a Public School in the North End -A Kindergarten for West London.

The Board of Education met last night, and one item of business was the decision to ask the city counto issue debentures amounting to $16,000. If obtained negotiations were for the purchase of new school and a cottage for the janitor will at once be erected on the Collegiate Institute grounds, the cost of the two buildings being estimated at $10,000, and a $3,000 public school will be built in the north part of the city. With the balance of the amount asked it is proposed to wipe off the indebtedness on other schools. The regular night of meeting was week previous, but that being election night there was not a quorum present, and this special general meeting were: Trustees Logan (chairman), was called. The members present Macpherson, Strong, Gillean, Hamilton, Dr. Ziegler, Bridle, E. W. Boyle, Martyn, Dr. English, MacRobert, Evans, McCormick, Mrs. Boomer, Dr. Teasdall and Bayly, Inspector Carson, Principal Merchant, Architect Matthews and Secretary McElheran. A number of communication were read and referred to committees. They were chiefly applicacions for position: on the teaching staf and for janitor-ships. One letter informed the heard that copies of the School Law and judgment was ordered for Goodwin for and Regulation; issued by the educastraight was ordered for Goodwin for and Regulation; assued by the educational department could be had for an analysis of the straight for the cents each. Some time ago the secretary was instructed to write for copies, Principal Merchant reported that the number of pupils on roll at the Collegiate Institute is now 716. The average attendance during February was an increase of 5 over February, Inspector Carson recommended that the vacant room at the West London school be seated with 21 No. 2 double desks and furnished with a blackboard. That Miss Proudfoot take the newly-furnished room with part II. pupils, and that Miss Heritage take charge of the primary class in the primary class room; that a transition teacher be appointed to Rectory street school until the end of June; that a transition teacher be appointed to Lorne avenue and Talbot street schools teachers; that the appointments be made from the following: Misses Cripps, Field, Coxe, Nichol and Wil-The report was referred to committees. The report of No. 2 committee, presented by Dr. English, contained a clause referring a communication from the Le Page Door Check Company to board for final action. In March, 1897, it was decided to purchase seventeen of these checks, but the order Chief Wills, of Windsor, reports that there were only 30 convictions in Windsor for the quarter ending Feb. 28, and not given satisfaction, as the hinges on the door on which none of them for serious offenses. Trustee Bayly urged that in addition to these debentures the board ask for $3,000 for a four-roomed building in the north part of the city.

Trustee Hamilton wanted provision made for a new building for a kindergarten in the south end of West London. This, however, was dealt with in another way.

The following amendment was made by Trustee MacRobert: "That the board of 1897, having decided that it was necessary to build a two-room school on the lot in the north part of the city twenty by the board, that the city council be requested to issue debentures for the amount required, viz., $3,-000; also that the city council be requested to issue debentures to cover the balance of the amount necessary for the completion of the South Colborne street school, about $1,500, the exact amount to be ascertained by the audit committee, and also debentures to pay off the encumbrance on the Queen's avenue kindergarten property, making in all $6,000, for public school purposes." The clause passed.

No change was made in the report of No. 1 committee. It recommended: That the petition of the ratepayers of West London for the establishment of kindergarten be complied with, and that No. 2 committee be requested to procure a suitable room for its ac commodation, and report back to this board; that Miss Laura Cooper be appointed director in the proposed kin-dergarten when it is opened. Progress was reported re union label on printing done for the board. The names of Mr. John H. Downing and Miss Hattie McGeoch were recommended to be added to the list of substitute teachers. The chairman of the audit committee reported that accounts to the amount of $10,559 96 had been passed. On motion of Trustee MacRobert the following trustees constitute a committee to wait upon the city council to ask for the issue of debentures as per the resolution passed: R. A. Bayly, Dr. English, Dr. Teasdall, Logan, Macpherson, Hamilton, Evans, Dr. Ziegler, Strong, Boomer, Martyn, and the Trustee MacRobert moved and Trustee Bayly seconded, that the salary of Mr. C. B. Edwards, of the Collegiate Institute staff, be increased $50 a year. Mr. Macpherson saw no reason for the increase in Mr. Edwards' case. His present salary is $1,000 a year. Mr. MacRobert claimed that other teachers at the institute doing similar work got $1,100. Mr. Merchant partially admitted this. The vote carried on the following division: Yeas-MacRobert, McCormick, 3. Dr. Teasdall, Bridle, Dr. Ziegler, Hamilton and Logan. Nays-Evans, English, Boyle, Martyn, Strong, Macpherson, and Mrs. Boomer. Tenders for the year's printing be called. Dr. Teasdall gave notice of motion that at the next meeting the question of salaries paid to male substitutes, and also that of substitutes returning from the Normal School, be taken into consideration.

Pass the Yukon Bill and Stand United to Maintain Canada's Rights to the Trade of the Gold Region.

Is it not time that the bill to provide a speedy all-Canadian route to the Yukon were passed through the House of Commons, and the work proceeded with at once. For over a month the Opposition have insisted on discussing the question. For many days, until this week, no Opposition speaker contributed any information on the subject that was new or valuable. The impression has therefore been forced upon the outside public that the killing of valuable time and the delay in beginning the most needed railway to the Yukon were the sole objects which the Opposition had in view. Within the last day or two, however, owing to the action of the United States Senate, in passing a bill intended to deny Canadians the right to tranship goods in waters made international by the treaty of Washington, and which indeed were International when Russia owned Alaska, the Opposition have received all four divisions of that city have renew comfort. Sir Charles Tupper and his associates must regard the United States Senators as his very allies, for they have played right into his hand. Sir Charles has come forward with the suggestion that inasmuch as the United States disputes our right to tranship goods in the Yukon, it is the duty of the Canadian Government to capitulate, and meekly submit to be deprived of their international rights. But as the Premier and Sir Richard Cartwright last week was much greater than that pointed out, the members of the Gov- polled four years ago. The only difernment of Canada are not cravens. They are not to be deterred by atintimidation from working to maintain the rights of Canada, and to preserve to Canadian manufacturers, mechanics and merchants, the legitimate trade of the Yukon, which is theirs by right.

The disappointed United States charter peddlers who seem to have the ear of Sir Charles Tupper and Mr. Foster, may, if they choose, induce the United States Congress to depart from its international engagement and to violate the Washington treaty. But the adoption of such a course has no terrors for the Canadian Government. Premier Laurier and his associates hold that Canada desires to maintain the friendnot at the sacrifice of her rights, as laid down in the Washington treaty. The clause, which is threatened by the United States legislation is:

"The navigation of the Rivers Yukon, Porcupine and Stikine, ascending from, to and into the sea, shall forever remain free and open for the purposes of commerce, to the subjects of his Britannic Majesty and the citizens of the United States, subject to any law and regulations of either country, within its own territory, not inconsistent with privilege of free naviga-

There is nothing ambiguous about this treaty. Surely, in view of the necessities of our situation, when the profitable trade of the Yukon, which fairly belongs to us, is menaced, it should be the duty of every member of Parliament, on the Opposition as well as on the Government benches, to strengthen the hands of our rulers in Instead of that, Sir Charles advocates present capitulation to the United States threats-for the Senate legislation has not yet passed Congress-and indefinite sacrifice to trade. In like circumstances, the opposition in the British Parliament would be a unit in support of the Government. Over the border, when Spain no Democratic or Republican party, but | work of progress has now been well all are united to uphold the common interest. Why should there be less patriotism in the Opposition ranks at Ot-

A Tie in West Elgin.

A telegram to The Advertiser from St. Thomas says that when Judge Ermatinger completed the recount of the votes in the West Elgin election at a late hour last night, he declared the vote was a tie. The judge will now certify the result to the returning officer, Sheriff Brown, who, under section 122 of the Election Act, has the right to give the casting vote and to declare elected the candidate of his choice. In view of all the circumstances, it need surprise no one if the returning officer gives his casting vote for Mr. Macnish, the Liberal memberelect. Only when there is an equality of votes has the returning officer a right to exercise his franchise in a Provincial election.

The recent elections in London, England, for what may be called the Municipal Parliament of that great city were exceedingly lively and exciting. Among the ablest memberselect on the Progressive (Liberal) side was Mr. John Burns, the celebrated labor leader. It is seldom that a conest of this sort is brought to a close without some addition to the general stock of clever epigrams or epithets. ne of the most widely circulated of those in this campaign was Mr. John Burns' casual allusion to the crowd of Primrose Dames, who worked against him and the Progressive cause, as an "army of scented Delilahs."

The Situation in Toronto. Some comment is made in our To ronto contemporaries on the fact that come of the recent contest as emphatic condemnation of the Administration, the Globe rather felicitates self upon the fact that the old-time given, and that Liberalism showed mistake. enormous gains in the city. There can be no doubt that in Toronto, as in Western Ontario, the vote for Goyernment candidates in the election of Toronto the Opposition majorities were merely pulled down. It was, indeed, very substantial gain which our friends in Toronto made. From a bulk majority for the Conservatives of 6,059 votes in 1894 to 2,797 at the recent general election a gain in the four Toronto constituencies for the Liberals of the most decisive character is demonstrated. How was the revolution brought about? By a change in the sentiment of the electors or by better work on the part of Liberal organizers? Without special knowledge on the subject, we would suppose that the substantial betterment was attained partly through both these causes. The only regret is that Dr. Dewart, in North Toronto, came so near being elected beyond a doubt, and yet was defeated by a laxity in the arrangements for Mest relations with her neighbor, but getting out the vote, the avoidance of which would have safely seated him. This is a most regrettable incident of the campaign, which subsequent proceedings may remedy, but it could have been avoided in the first instance if the friends of Liberalism in Toronto had had greater faith in their cause. The truth is that the Toronto Liberals have in the past talked too much and organized too little. The tendency to take this line of action has possibly been fostered by the apparent hopelessness of the conflict with a supposedly reactionary local public opinion. Candidates and their friends have too frequently gone into the conflict at the eleventh hour, as if they were hopelessly beaten from the start, and the result has been that the full Liberal vote was not polled, bad votes were slipped in to fatten the alleged Conservative majority, and the impression was created both inside and outside Toronto that the city was hopelessly Conservative. When a majority can be cut down by thousands in the course of four years, when an able and popular candidate comes within a few votes of being elected, and could have been elected if all the votes now known to have been available had been polled, it is time convention Liberal and a Liberal Patfor the Toronto Liberals to be aroused to their responsibility to themselves and to their friends throughout the province. They should be ready by next general election to so organize their forces and to promote the canour rivals of millions of dollars worth didature of their ablest men in such a way as to secure a favorable verdiet not only in North Toronto but in other divisions of the city. It is apparent from the enormous falling off in the Conservative majorities in threatens the United States, there is the recent general election that the

the next election is now.

There is now every probability that a bridge will be built over the Detroit River between Windsor and Detroit. The Grand Trunk and Wabash railcompanies, which are now in close affinity, make the application for a chants of this city and every other cen- charter to the respective Governments at Ottawa and Washington. The chief benefit of an international bridge at Detroit would be the avoidance of delays in ferrying cars across, especially in the winter season. Vessel men have hitherto opposed the const uction of a bridge because they alleged it would interfere with navigation, but

Our city contemporary, the Free Press, makes a somewhat hysterical adopted by the opponents of Col. Leys to gratify, if possible, their after-elecattempt was made to get Mr. Spencer Caldwell, a supporter of Mr. Beck, to swear away Col. Leys' good name, under circumstances detailed by that gentleman. The exposure made by Mr. Caldwell was surely a fitting subject for comment by us, as were also the repeated daily appeals of our contemporary, which gave such an explanation of what perjury is as to come perilously near being a direct incitement to commit that crime.

It is very foolish of our contemporary to call this exposure an indication of conscious guilt. Rather was it, as the readers of The Advertiser can bear testimony, a clear indication that Col. Leys and his friends are now in possession of evidence that men have been prevailed on to sign affidavits committing them to statements that are absolutely untrue. If Col. Leys says that so soon as he can get hold of these affidavits, he will prosecute their makers with rigor, he adopts a proper course, and it is surely the duty of a public journalist, in view of the explicit statement of Mr. Spencer Caldwell, to warn citizens against being invelgled into doing that which that gentleman very properly refused to do. As for The Advertiser, it would not again have referred to the matter if the Free Press had not for days kept in its columns an advertisement the intention of which was obvious, though thinly disguised. It might as well have been headed: "Perjurers wanted. Lowest tenderer not necessarily accepted." Our contemporary is welcome to pursue its policy of vindictiveness and persecution of Col. Leys; but the time will soon arrive when it will be convinced of its

The People Are With the Government. It is very amusing to the disinterested student of public affairs to see Conservative journals clamoring for the resignation of the Ontario Government, so that Mr. Whitney and his friends may take possession of the offices! Were it worth our while, we might ask these troubled editors to point to an instance in Canadian history of a Government with a clear majority at its back-a majority which will almost certainly grow-giving place to a man supported by a minority of the representatives. But, as the Globe fitly points out, Mr. Whitney is not only in a minority in the newly-elected Legislature, but is in a still larger minority in the popular vote. Even if, by a series of flukes and bare majorities, Mr. Whitney had succeeded in obtaining a small majority in the Legislature, the returns do not indicate that popular uprising against the Government of which the Opposition journals are trying to persuade themselves. Mr. Whitney's own majority is reduced; Mr. Marter's has well nigh disappeared; Mr. St. John, Mr. Meacham, Mr. Magwood and Mr. Willoughby are all defeated; Mr. Garvin, who came out as the chief exponent of the Opposition policy on education, is buried under a majority of 1,000. Most of the gains Mr. Whitney made were the result, not of popular opinion turning in his favor, but of some fluke, some division of the forces against him, some dissension in the Liberal ranks.

To such good luck, which we venture to believe would not be his if the fight had to take place over again, Mr. Whitney must perforce trace his gains in the Province. In no fewer than four constituencies, for example, there were triangular fights, in which the Conservative candidate won because the Liberal vote was divided between the Wise Lake Erie fishermen will stick to dogs, instead of adopting the new idea of using bicycles. But so long as fishermen believe they can, it's mighty comforting.

NEUTER GENDER NEWSPAPERS.

In the see-saw of the campaign they kept a foot on each side. Thus were they ready for an emergency; nothing could surprise them. They had guessed everything and counted on everything. They had hedged all through the gam and in any event they would win with the winners.

They call that independence. We call it neutrality. A newspaper of neuter gender politics is quite as useful to the state as the citizen who never votes.

Of the Woman's Morning Music Club-A Lecture on Shakespeare's Heroines.

Mr. William Owen, the actor, gave a nost pleasing lecture yesterday in the Bell Music Hall, under the auspices of the Ladies' Morning Music Club of this city, on "Shakesperian Heroines." Over 100 ladies were in attendance. The lecturer stated that in order to arrive at a scientific understanding of the subject they must examine the ground upon which these flowers of Shakespeare grow. All had heard of the greatness of Shakespeare; literature teemed with it. There was one thing greater than Shakespeareinstitution which produced him; the theater which made his genius in its present form possible. This was true, just as it was true that the church was supreme to her priests. When Cook, he said, discovered the Sandwich Islands, he found there traces of obscure theatrical representations. Before Troy burned, and Homer sang China had a theater which reflected her civilization. When Shakespeare's ancestors were pirates, preying upon the Phoenician merchants, Oedipus was being played in Athens. When the land in which Shakespeare was born was inhabited by men so low in the scale of humanity that they offered human sacrifices to their gods, t"Antigone" was being played in Greece. There was, the speaker said, a family resemblance running through all these women of Shakespeare. While they were differentiated as to individuals, they all had one trait in common-moral heroism. The characters of Desdemona, in "Othelio," Ophelia, in "Hamlet," Juliet, in "Romeo and Juliet," and Portia, in "The Merchant of Venice," were types of feminine nature given as ilustrations. At the close, Mr. Owen was eulogized by Miss Graydon, the president of the club, and was tendered a hearty vote

P.-elect. The attack on Col. Leys will not succeed. But it may land its promoters and their agents in the penitentiary. The member for London has already authorized us to say that he was guilty of no wrong-

And he does not mean to stand calmly by if Charles Tupper ever since the session an attempt is made to swear away his opened, and yesterday Sir Charles good name. Col. Leys and his friends will not permit to be repeated the tacties which were pursued in the election trial that enabled Mr. Beattie to hold corruption and rascality. Perjury such as was alleged to have been then committed will not be tolerated by Col. Leys. Indeed, there is good ground for the belief that in consequence of evidence that has come to light, one of the principal participants in that alleged perjury will be behind the prison bars in a short time. Undue leniency a year ago has apparently not taught some people a lesson, but there is a limit to forbearance, and it has now been

The authors of the advertisement which has on three separate days been printed in the news columns of the Free Press, inviting persons to go forward and make these affidavits, cannot be too strongly condemned. They practically invite the committal of perjury by earnestly supporting the making of wholesale affidavits, without very strict regard to their knowledge of the facts. These advocates of the Opposition falsely tell Free Press readers that they cannot be guilty of perjury unless

"there is the intention to testify falsely." Is it not a fact that when a man makes a false affidavit, he is guilty of perjury? The law says that the act, deliberately gone about, proves the intent. Why, then, do the Free Press writers say it is intimidation to warn the unthoughtful against being inveigled into making such sworn declarations as Mr. Caldwell swears he was asked to make? Everyone is not so constituted as to be able to distinguish between that which is right and that which is criminal. In all such cases, is it not better for a man to refuse to be cajoled into signing documents that, apparently innocent, may yet commit him to make criminal allegations

Having thus shown that the opposition leader had no alternative route to that of the government, Sir Wilfrid proceeded to point out that the neople of Canada have a treaty right in the navigation of the Stikine, a right guaranteed by the seal of Great Britain, that the Americans will think twice before they violate. Mr. Foster, who followed, admitted the theoretical right of Canada under the treaty, but urged that the withholding of the privilege of bonding at Fort Wrangel made our treaty right of no effect, and that, although the Yukon Railway might be finished by September, we would not be able to use it. This was elactly the opening that the members of the government have been waiting for. It is well known that the disappointed chartermongers who have been hanging around Ottawa have boasted of their power to secure at Washington legislation hostile to the Canadian route. There is no evidence that they have direct relations Mr. Foster, but it undoubtedly true that they regard him as their ally in compassing the defeat of the Yukon pill. At Ottawa Mr. Foster has been the center of the campaign against the bill, but his efforts have availed little. The opposition trusted that Washington would speak, and Washington having spoken they at once clamored for the withdrawal of the bill before parliament because American legislation had rendered it of no value. Sir Louis Davies, in a stirring tore the mask from the faces of the opposition leaders. At a moment of grave international difficulty the Conservative leaders were giving aid and counsel to the enemy. They advised surrender ere ever a blow had been struck, for the United States Senate bill had not one line in it in contradiction of our treaty rights, merely asked certain impossible conditions in return for the granting of bonding privileges at Wrangel, privileges the withholding of which would not interfere with the treaty right of free navigation. This was the line of attack, and the vigor with which it was followed up roused the ministerialists to a high pitch of enthusiasm. They saw how great a tactical error the opposition had been betrayed into by accepting Mr. Foster's position. There were openings for legitimate criticism in regard to the size of the land grant and the advisability of calling for tenders. So long as the opposition sought to make a breach at these points the fight was one in regard to which the people of Can-

20 YEARS OF BONDAGE

Dr. Chase's K.-L. Pills Loose the Shackles of Constipation and Stomach Disorders.

In summing up the causes of human misery it will be found that by far the greatest sources of disease originate in derangement of the Stomach and Bowels. People will abuse their stomachs and neglect the calls of nature till they bring on themselves her vengeance. To get back to nature's paths, to have the Stomach and Bowels once more fulfilling their function properly, to clear the system of all the results and consequences of poisons accumulating and circulating in the Blood is the work of Dr. Chase's Kidney-Liver

Mr. Thos. Miller, Lucknow, Ont., says that he was afflicted with Stomach Trouble and Constipation for about 20 years, durne he tried almost everything he heard of, but to no purpose. Mr. H. Day, the popular druggist, sent him a sample of Dr. Chase's K.-L. Pills. The first dose he took did him good, and they have proved so effectual in his case that he recommends them to all those afflicted as he was.

WEEKLY REVIEW. Today's session was about the same as almost every day this week-quiet, with very light receipts of everything

The weeks shows little change in the values of any line but oats; they have widened out considerably; this is due to the extra heavy demand from private parties. Peas were quite firm; wheat and beans unchanged. Provisions show a decline in eggs. The meat section has not changed any. Receipts of potatoes improved. Seeds were quiet and easy; the bulk of samples offering were poorish. The price of hay has not varied any.

sunny and shallow waters. I had seen crowds and masses of my fellow-creatures, but from afar off; myself kept in a fortunate aloofness. now I was one of the masses, a unit amid a million; jostled, crushed, utterly insignificant, an atom of sand on a limitless shore or a drop in a fathomless ocean. The very ground under my feet was the dust of creatures like myself; the houses had been built and the streets laid by hands long since dead, by myriads of hands, innumerable legions of vanished generations. I was here in the heart of the great city which had existed so many centuries, bearing its striving, mourning, expanding population, for ever coming through the gate of birth, and passing away through the somber gate of death, a never-ending procession, threading the same streets and bearing the same Night in the city had an irresistible attraction for me. The early sunset called into play millions of lights, which illuminated the main thoroughfares brilliantly. It was dark so soon that it was still suitable for me to stroll through the streets alone. There were tragedies and comedies being acted everywhere, in the presence of spectators who paid little heed to them. The stalls on each side of the wider streets were lit up with flaring gas jets; and their keen proprietors, with the equally keen and shrewd customers, presented me with many glimpses into human nature. I could not linger long beside any of them, lest I should attract too much attention; but there was a humor and a passion about some of the scenes which appealed to and fascinated my imagination.

The spell of the city was upon me. I began to understand how citizens could not break away from it, and would yearn to get back to it from the loveliest of country places. I nad wondered to hear Mr. Manning assert that he could not bear to be away from the streets of London. But I wondered no longer.

Then, when I turned away from the busier roads, and turned down the quiet side streets, which were but dimly lighted by a few lamps, where the high walls rose darkly on each side, with obscure corners here and there, where crime and misery might find a hiding-place, there was a read pleasure in the stillness that made by own foot-

Churchwarden street was one these. There were few gas lamps, and still fewer shops with lighted windows, making darkness visible. Most of the buildings were huge warehouses, which were deserted at night; and between when they negot money, but help them lay narrow passages, black with exceeding blackness. How in Heaven All Earthly Dimness Will be Made Clear.

Great Forcefullness of the Bible Set Forth by Rev. Dr. Talmage.

Washington, March 8.-This discourse of Rev. T. DeWitt Talmage is one of mighty contrasts and the dimness of earthly eyesight, as compared with the vividness of celestial eyesight is illustrated. The text is I. Cor., xiii., 12: "For now we see through a glass, darkly; but then face to face." The Bible is the most forceful and pungent of books. While it has the sweetness of a mother's hush for human trouble, it has all the keenness of a scimeter and the crushing power of a lightning bolt. It portrays with more than a painter's power, at one stroke picturing a heavenly throne and a judgment conflagration,

The strings of this great harp are fingured by all the splendors of the future, now sounding with the crackle of consuming worlds, now thrilling with the joy of the everlasting emancipated. It tells how one forbidden tree in the garden blasted the earth with sickness and death; and how another tree, though leafless and bare, yet, planted on Calvary, shall yield a fruit which shall more than antidote the poison of the other. WHAT IT TELLS OF THE FUTURE.

It tells how the red-ripe clusters of God's wrath were brought to the wine press, and Jesus trod them out; and how, at last, all the golden challices of heaven shall glow with the wine of that awful vintage. It dazzles the eye with an Ezekiel's vision of wheel, and wing, and fire, and whirlwind; and stoops down so low that it can put its lips to the ear of a dying child and say: 'Come up higher.'

And yet Paul, in my text, takes the responsibility of saying that it is only an indistinct mirror, and that the mission shall be suspended. I think there may be one Bible in heaven, fastened to the throne. Just as now, in a museum, we have a lamp exhumed from Herculaneum or Nineveh, and we look at it with great interest and say, How poor a light it must have given compared with our modern lamps! So I think that this Bible, which was a lamp to our feet in this world, may lie near the throne of God, exciting our interest in all eternity by the contrast betwen its comparatively feeble light and the illumination of heaven.

BIBLE IS THE SCAFFOLDING. The Bible, now, is the scaffoldi For at the end of the rising temple, but when the building is done there will be no use for the scaffolding.

The idea I shall develop today is that in this world our knowledge is comparatively dim and unsatisfactory, but, nevertheless, is introductory to grander and more complete vision. This is eminently true in regard to our view of God. We hear so much about God that we conclude we understand him. He is represented as having the tenderness of a father, the firmness of a judge, the majesty of a king, and the love of a mother. We hear about him, talk about him, write about him. We lisp his name in infancy, and it trembles on the tongue of the octogenarian. We think that we know very much about him. Take the attribute of mercy. Do we understand it? The Bible blossoms all over with that word -mercy. It speaks again and again of great Being are most inadequate, onesided and incomplete. When, at death, the gates shall fly open, and we shall look directly upon him, how new and surprising! CHRIST'S VIRTUES SET FORTH. Again, my text is true of the Saviour's excellency. By image and sweet rhythm of expression, and startling antithesis, Christ is set forth-his love, his compassion, his work, his life, his

And yet it is through a glass, darkly. We see not half of that compassionate face. We feel not half the warmth of that loving heart. We wait for death the righteous in heaven. Infidels say. Then we shall be face to face. Not shadow then, but substance. Not hope then, but the fulfilling of all prefig-

The surest way to avoid this is for the mother to reinforce her own strength by the use of Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription during the time of anticipation. It will make her perfectly healthy. It will lighten and brighten the time of waiting. It will make the ordeal of motherhood about the state of the st solutely safe and comparatively free from pain and will insure a strong, healthy constitution for the baby.

Mrs. Nannie J. Taylor, of Lovelace, Hill Co., Texas, says: "I am the mother of eight children. I suffered from female weakness. I tried physicians with no avail. When I last became with child I saw the advertisement of Doctor Pierce's Favorite Prescription. I bought two bottles and took according to directions. When baby was born I had a very easy time and have not suffered one hour since, from female weakness. Baby is as fat and healthy as can be."

He gave himself for me! I shall forever behold his glory. I shall eternally hear his voice. Lord Jesus, now I see thee!"

The idea of that text is just as true has not come to somt pass in life thoroughly inexplicable? You say, "What does this mean? What is God going to do with me now? He tells me that ail things work together for good. This does not look like it." You continue to study the dispensation, and after awhile guess about what God means. "He means to teach me tnat. Perhaps it is to humble my pride. Perhaps it is to make me feel more dependent. Perhaps to teach me the uncertainty of life."

Bible assures us there shall be a satisfactory unfolding. "What I do thou knowest not now; but thou shalt know hereafter. You will know why God door there was a household of seven children. Why not take one from that group instead of your only one? Why single out the dwelling in which there was only one heart beating responsive to yours? Why did God give you that child at all if he meant to take it away? Why fill the cup of your gladness brimming if he meant to dash it

Do you suppose that God will explain that? Yea. He will make it plainer than any mathematical problem—as plain as that two and two makes four. In the light of the throne you will see that it was right-all right. "Just and true are all thy ways, thou King of

Ah! God will clear it all up. In the light that pours from the throne no dark mystery can live. Things now utterly inscrutable will be illumined as plainly as though the answer were written on the wall, or sounded in the temple anthem. Bartimeus will thank God that he was blind, and Lazarus that he was covered with sores, and Joseph that he was cast into the pit, and Daniel that he was denned with lions, and Paul that he was humpbacked, death, his resurrection. Happiness in this world is only a half-fledged thing; a flowery path, with a serpent hissing across it; a broken pitcher from which flowery path, with a serpent hissing across it; a broken pitcher, from which the water has dropped before we could drink it; a thrill of exhilaration, followed by disastrous reactions. Mrs. Osborne, of the mission train--Mr. Robert Robertson, city, was re- address at the Adelaide Street Baptist Church last night, under the auspices of the Young Ladies' Mission Circle. The audience was large. Mrs. G. F. Robertson, president of the circle, occupied the chair. Mrs. Osborne has recently returned from mission work in India, and described her experience in a most interesting and graphic manner. Mrs. Osborne thought that a knowledge of medicine was of great value to the missionary, who a meeting of the King's Daughters in should also endeavor to learn in advance as much of the native language as possible. It would be a great saving of time and expense if the language could be so acquired before en-

Mrs. Rorer is a large, matronly wo-man, the picture of health, and in her demonstrations exhibits a deftness and ease of manner which seems to thoroughly warrant her statement that "she who has to cook for only eight or ten people has her lot cast in pleasant places." She talks almost incessantly, and always says something. things she says arrest the attention very abruptly. There is a sort of piquancy about them which makes a lasting impression. At times she gave her hearers a shock by stating something which set completely at defiance certain principles of cooking they have for years fondly cherished, or at least regarded as perfectly sound. Mrs. Rorer urged strongly the application of scientific principles to housekeeping, from the standpoint of economy and efficiency. Judging by the cheapness of food in Canada, Mrs. Rorer estimated that a family of ten could live on $5 a week, under proper management. In the evening Mrs. Rorer gave an extra lesson on "meats," which was highly profitable.

WEST LONDON MAINS.

Contract Awarded to Harding & Leathorne at $13,005-Work to Begin at Once.

The water commissioners met Monday afternoon and awarded the tenders for laying mains in West London. The mains to be laid are 8,100 feet of 8inch, 8,800 feet of 6-inch, and 3,000 feet of 4-inch iron pipe. The tenders were: Clark & Conley, Toronto, $16,750; Hill & Gowanlock, Toronto, $15,508; J. Cooke, London, $13,338 20; Harding & Leathorn, London, $13,005. The latter being the lowest, was accepted, and Engineer Moore will proceed with the work at once.

The pumping engineer's report, showing that 36,116,612 gallons of water had been pumped in the last 13 days, was received and filed. The report of G. 2. If London Can Get It-The Doherty Organ Works Negotations.

The fin nce committee of the city New York, delivered an council held a special meeting yesterday afternoon to consider what steps should be taken to secure the removal of the Doherty organ works, recently destroyed by fire at Clinton, to this city. The members present were Ald. Winnett, Graham, McPhillips, O'Meara, Nutkins and Mayor Wilson. Mr. J. F. Sherlock, the company's agent in this city, said that if the new factory were built here it would cost probably $65,000 or $75,000, and employ nearly 300 hands. The plant within the last two years had to be nearly doubled, and at the time of the fire 1,000,000 feet of lumber and 1,000 organs in course of construction were destroyed. The G. T. R. would, he said carry material and rebuild the factory at Clinton if Mr. Doherty would stay there. In reply to the question as to how many families would likely come here Mr. Sherlock said: "You can safely build on the whole of Clinton." It was pointed out that in London Mr. Doherty would have fire protection and railway facilities, which would be of inestimable value to him. The conclusion of the matter was that Mr. Doherty will be invited to come to London, view the sites and interview the committee, in a day or two, as the negotiations could then proceed on a more intelligent basis.

THE BISHOP AT ST. PAUL'S

of the Society for Promoting Christian Knowledge-An Instructive Address

A special service was held in St. Paul's Cathedral yesterday afternoon to commemorate the 200th aniversary Promoting Christian Knowledge. It was the occasion of an admirable address by the Bishop of Huron. He traced the society from its birth in 1698, when the British nation was emerging and others connected with the above from the great revolution of 1688. The society began work at a time when the masses were in deep ignorance and in spiritual and moral darkness; when of the society was to promote the religious education of the masses, and teach the principles of eternal truth. It was as the grain of mustard seed, small in its beginning, but phenomenal in its full-grown vigor. Two hundred years ago a handful of men placed themselves and their means under divine guidance, and today they had grown into an army, and the society had brought life and joy to millions at home and abroad. The colonial work of the society was described and extolled by the bishop, who pointed out extolled by the bishop, who pointed out that they had given to the Diocese of Huron over £8,000 for colleges, churches, etc. The bishop spoke of the three-fold strength of the Church of England—herglorious foundation truths set forth in her articles and creeds. set forth in her articles and creeds, making her a bulwark of faith and a beacon light in the darkness around; her noble liturgy, which was a rich inheritance of precious truths, and her defense of the faith. The service was conducted by the dean, Rev. Canon Dann and Rev. W. T.
