

THE ACADIAN

WOLFVILLE, N. S., OCT. 31, 1890. EDITORIAL NOTES.

We have heard the name of W. C. Bill, Esq., mentioned in connection with the vacancy in the senate. The western counties have been a long time without a representative and we know of no person who would rather see in the position than Mr. Bill.

Next Thursday is the day appointed by the Dominion Government as a day of general thanksgiving throughout Canada. We trust the day will be observed in a suitable manner by the people of this Canada of ours, who have been so bountifully blessed during the year with good crops and freedom from disasters which have visited other countries. We have not yet heard how the day is to be observed in Wolfville but presume there will at least be appropriate services in the various churches.

The McKinley tariff bill recently passed by the United States government, does not appear to be such a blow to the trade of this country as was anticipated. Already our people are looking about them for new markets and most gratifying results are reported from day to day. Evidently our cousins over the border have made a big mistake, and the boomerang which was to have crushed out Canada may yet rebound to the injury of themselves. The English and West India markets are open to us and will be duly taken advantage of by Canadians.

We record with sorrow this week the death of the beloved wife of Professor Keirstead who, after an illness extending over several months, passed to her rest on Wednesday afternoon at 5 o'clock. This is the third time within a year that death has entered a happy home, bearing away first a promising boy, then a tender infant, and now the loving wife and mother. It is needless to say that the deceased lady was held in the highest esteem in the community. The bereaved husband and the dear little girl left motherless have the sincere sympathy of all. The funeral will take place on Saturday afternoon at 2.30 o'clock.

The time of holding the Municipal Elections is drawing near. Election will take place on Tuesday, Nov. 18th, and nominations must be filed not later than Tuesday, Nov. 4th. In this and the two neighboring wards (7 and 9) we understand there is to be no contest, the present councillors being likely to be elected without opposition for another term. This is probably the wisest when the retiring councillor has performed the duties of the office to the satisfaction of the electors and is willing to accept re-election. It saves a great amount of trouble and prevents ill will and bad feeling, which often remains long after the contest is over.

The New England Magazine is making itself very attractive to Canadian readers. Its September number was preeminently a Canadian number, and the interest which that number aroused will be held by the fully illustrated article in the new November number, on "Fifty Years of a Canadian University," by J. J. Bell, M. A. Queen's University, Kingston, which celebrated last year its fiftieth anniversary, is the subject of this article, which is enriched by pictures of the old and new homes of the University, a view of Kingston, and portraits of Chancellor Fleming, Principal Grant, and the leading professors. It is an article which will have interest to many in Canada besides the graduates of Queen's University.

We notice a tendency on the part of some persons to use our sidewalks for the use of their teams at all times when the slightest occasion offers. This week when the streets have been broken in putting in the service pipe in connection with the water-works we have noted the care taken by those in charge of the work that the passage of teams should not be interfered with. Yet even this has been used as an excuse for driving teams on the sidewalks. Particularly at this season when the ground is made soft by frequent rains is injury done in this way. Our street commissioners should see to it that the penalty of the law is imposed if this practice is continued. Instead of allowing our streets and sidewalks to be damaged and made worse we should always endeavor to use our influence to have them improved. While on this subject we would call attention to the fact that a number of ornamental trees on our streets have been broken down within the past few weeks. Proceedings should at once be begun to severely punish the person guilty.—Another practice one which caused considerable annoyance some years ago is again being indulged in. We refer to the custom of hitching horses across the sidewalks. It, also, should be stopped.

THE PEOPLE'S FORUM.

Another Endorsement.

Mr. Editor,—The Kingsport and Long Island dike, which was agitated for a few years ago and which since the commencement of the C. V. railway has again been revived, appears to be one of the improbabilities of the day. It would so materially effect the shipping interests of Wolfville, Port Williams and Canning as to deter any government from legislating away these rights and privileges held since the settlement of the county. In the item of coal alone the shipping privilege is worth several thousands of dollars each year to the residents of Wolfville, Port Williams and Canning in the way of freights, to say nothing of other places near by which are also correspondingly benefited. If it is necessary for the success of the C. V. railway that the line should be continued from Kingsport to Long Island your scheme of a few weeks ago seems to be the most feasible. Apart from the expense of building such a dock as outlined the project would certainly be a happy one. It would largely increase the shipping facilities allowing ocean steamers to lie afloat while loading, coasting schooners to ply from port to port inside the dock at all times irrespective of the tide; and beside we should have a most beautiful harbor at all times at our very doors. Kentville would be reached by water with ease as no danger would be experienced by the rapid run of the tide as at present as the water within the basin and its tributaries would be comparatively at rest at all times. Bathing, boating and fishing would be among the advantages secured, and pleasure-seekers would largely be induced to visit us.

PROGRESS.

Some Answers written.

To the Editor of the ACADIAN:

SIR,—In view of the approaching meeting of the qualified voters of the Wolfville Water District, called by order of the commissioners for the purpose of asking the citizens of the town to vote a further sum of money to enable them to complete the work already under construction, it behoves us to get the fullest information as to what has been done with the $25,000 already borrowed and also what amount is really necessary to finish the work. If the commissioners have faithfully discharged their duties in accordance with the plans and specifications submitted by their engineer, they should be able to tell us whether or not the engineer's estimate was the sum authorized by the act of incorporation, and if not why they attempted such an expensive service without first submitting the matter to the ratepayers at a meeting called for the purpose. If they did not know what the cost of the service would be whoes fault was it that they did not know? Generally when the executive of a corporate body comes before the stockholders to ask for further means to carry on their business they are supposed to give a full and clear statement of the affairs of the corporation, and to show to a dollar the amount expended. Now it is only reasonable to demand such a statement from the commissioners before they vote any further sum to be borrowed on their behalf. Possibly the commissioners are in a position to do so, if they are answer to the following questions should be given:

- 1. Is there any dispute between the contractor, J. I. Brown, with reference to his claim for his pipes? What is the full amount of his claim?
2. Do the commissioners know the amount they will have to pay the contractor, George and John Brown? And if not why not?
3. Have they settled with the proprietors of the land through which the pipes have been laid from the upper dam to the village? And if not why not?
4. What amount has already been expended on the reservoir near Wolfville? Has the origin of the plan of the engineer been carried out? Has there been any change made in the construction of the east embankment of the reservoir and if so why were the changes made? and what has been the actual cost incurred in reference to the changes? and by whose authority were the original plans altered from?
5. There are many other questions that should be answered satisfactorily to the ratepayer before he votes to allow his property to be further encumbered by mortgage to the holder of the Wolfville water bonds. Yours, UNUS PARVUS.

The Municipal Elections.

As the municipal elections are to be held at an early day it will be remembered that at the last session of the legislature an act was passed by which the then existing disqualification of Dominion officials was removed. The amending clause is contained in chap. 56 sect. 1, of the acts of 1890, and reads as follows:

1. The holding of any office or employment under the government of Canada, or the government of Nova Scotia, shall not hereafter disqualify any person for election as a municipal councillor or as an elector at municipal elections.

It will be seen that Dominion officials are no longer disqualified either as electors or candidates, so far as the municipal elections are concerned.

LAST.—On Saturday, Oct. 25th, off the Wickwire dike, a 2 years old male colt dark bay in color with a white stripe in forehead, two hind feet white, piece of his main cut off, long bushy tail.

CHARLES JARVIS, Wolfville, owner. The water commissioners have been busy this week putting in service pipe.

Going West.

BOSTON.

The Pilgrims landed from the Mayflower 22d Dec., 1620, on Plymouth Rock and Boston was settled in 1630. The destruction of tea in this harbor (Dec. 16th, 1773) was the first step in the revolution which caused the loss to England of her American colonies. Boston is "the hub of the universe," the El Dorado of Nova Scotia, and the place of culture. Boston is about as populous as Manchester, England; its streets resemble those of English cities; and the residents are wealthy. Its hospitals, parks, churches, theatres and buildings are fine. A large amount of Boston capital is invested in the western states, where Boston brown bread, Boston baked beans and clam chowder—Boston style—are much appreciated. There are several routes to select from for travelers going west. In 1888 I went by Fall River and Long Island Sound to New York, and thence to Philadelphia and Washington, and across via the Baltimore and Ohio route to Chicago. This time I decided on the Hoosac route via Buffalo and Niagara Falls, which I recommend as the shortest and best. A few miles to the north of that route via Friburgh railway are the celebrated Saratoga springs. Who has not heard of Saratoga trunks and Saratoga fad potatoes? There are numerous summer resorts to which the Bostonian flies to escape the awful heat. I broke my journey at a charming place called Nahant. Only distant from Boston about ten miles, and from Lynn four miles, this retreat faces the Atlantic ocean; just the place to spend a honeymoon rambling over the rocky shore, to see the spouting horn, the swallow's nest, Bass Point and other objects of interest,—or fishing for perch which abound in the tranquil bay. There is nothing dull about Nahant either, secluded, it is accessible from Boston by water, the steamer Fred C. Day making three trips each week daily. Those who abhor the sea can take a conveyance here called for some unknown reason "the barge," to Lynn and thence to Boston by railway train. The accommodation at the Hood Cottage Hotel is first class and the cuisine excellent. I noticed that Lynn is being rapidly rebuilt after the recent disastrous fire and there is no fear of its being unable to supply all the states with boots and shoes. An English politician at a public dinner at Northampton, the city represented by Lamborne and Charles Bradlaugh, gave a toast: "May the trade of Northampton be trodden under foot all over the world. May the same happen to the trade of Lynn, say I. And may the electric lights from her manufactory (the largest in the states) illuminate the universe."

Wedding Bells.

An interesting event took place in St. Paul's (Anglican) church, Antigonish, last Monday. It was the marriage of E. A. Brown, Esq., agent at Mahone Bay of the People's Bank of Halifax, and Miss Marianne E. Henry, daughter of the late Robert Henry, senior. The church was handsomely decorated for the occasion with flowers, house plants and autumn leaves. The bride was one of the most popular ladies of Antigonish and Mr. Brown also is well known having been for some time here in the service of the Merchants Bank of Halifax; consequently the church was filled to overflowing by the friends of the principals who came to witness the event. The ceremony was performed by Rev. O. P. Easton. F. H. Macphie Esq., gave away the bride. Miss Minnie Randall, of Bayfield, a graduate of the Boston Conservatory of Music, presided at the organ and played the wedding march as the happy couple left the church. The bride was attired in a handsome travelling suit of electric green cloth with hat to match and carried a white bouquet. After the ceremony the bridal party lunched at the residence of the bride's mother, and the newly married couple left on the noon train for Mahone Bay, taking with them the most cordial good wishes of a very large circle of friends in which the Echo joins heartily. The bride was the recipient of a large number of very handsome and valuable presents, tangible, though inadequate, marks of the esteem in which she was held in Antigonish.—And yours Echo. (The ACADIAN desires to extend congratulations to our townsman and his fair bride and to wish them a long life of happiness.—Ed.)

Hantsport Notes.

On Monday of this week there was launched from the yard of Mr. J. B. North, a brackentine of 500 tons register, named the L. W. Norton. Her other dimensions are: length of keel 130 feet, beam, 30 feet; depth of hold 17 feet. Her owners are G. B. Lockhart of New York; L. W. Norton, who will command her; and J. B. North. Mr. North is building another brackentine for Bennett Smith & Sons of Windsor. She is 166 feet keel, and 55 feet beam; she will be launched early in the spring. The ladies of the W. G. T. U. of this place held a very successful tea meeting on Tuesday evening in Parker's rink. The attendance, though good, was not so large as it would have been had the weather proved more favorable. The tea, dinner and fancy tables were well filled and liberally patronized. A. B. Adams was the speaker.

LYNN RECOVERY, Dec. 25th, 1890.

Mr. J. B. Morton, Esq., Cornwallis, N. S.

DEAR SIR,—I hereby certify that I was troubled with Chronic Bronchitis for the year, which was brought on by colds and stomach trouble. During that time I had treatment from five doctors and a month's medicine from Dr. Norton, but no good. Last November I was advised to take Dr. Norton's Duck Brand Pills, which at that time I was unable to work and all of my food went to water, and I could eat any kind of food and had given up to die. I only used two bottles of the medicine and am now well and strong, and would highly recommend it to all who are affected as I was.

Yours truly, CHARLES W. McLELLAN.

College Hall was well filled on Friday evening last, the occasion of the entertainment given by the members of the Pterian Society of Acadia Seminary. An excellent programme of vocal and instrumental music, readings, &c., was presented in an exceedingly pleasant manner by the young ladies. The entertainment was all so good that it would be unfair for us to particularize. Mention must be made however of the reading by the little daughter of Professor Taft, which brought down the house. We hope to have an opportunity of enjoying another entertainment of the Pterian Society at no distant date.

In our last issue we neglected to state the result of the foot-ball match played on Wednesday last week between teams from the College and the club recently organized in Kentville. The game was played on the ground of the College team and the result was seven tries to nothing in favor of Acadia.

The governors of Acadia College have purchased the property of Mr George Borden on College avenue, for the site of their new Seminary building. The residence of Mr Borden will probably be used as a residence for one of the professors. Mr Borden will build elsewhere in some part of the town, but at the present and until the new Seminary is erected will continue to occupy his present residence.
