COOKSVILLE MAY BE BIG OIL CENTRE

Signs of Petroleum Wealth Stir Three Companies to Getting Options on Land.

WHOLE LAKE OF IT Said to Be Waiting to Be Pumped Out—Prospectors Will Drill This Week.

There are strong indications of a big oil field at Cooksville and vicinity, and in the past two weeks three rival companies have been bestirring themselves among the prosperous farmers of that district in a lively canvass for leases.

The first company to get busy has already leased 5000 acres, extending from the sixth line of Etobicoke Township to the town line of Trafalgar Township, a distance of four and a half miles, and taking in practically all the property south of the Britannia line to the lakeshore.

A. Willis & Co., brokers, of Toronto, are behind this movement. The identity of the other companies is thus far concealed, although it is suspected that the Standard Oil Trust is interested in one of them.

These two latter companies, having arrived a few days late on the field, have not been very successful in getting the farmers to lease their property, but from reports current at Cooksville, they are not going to be behind in the matter of finding out just what the underlying strata contains.

GREEN GRASS GREW TALL AND HID THE TARGETS

One Reason Why Good Scoring Was Interfered With at Long Branch.

The one objectionable feature to which failure to put on large scores at the Long Branch Rifle Ranges could be blamed was the fact that the grass had been cut from the tops of the firing mounds, which lie between the scratch and the rows of targets. An attempt had been made during the week to obviate the nuisance, but the man who drove the mower overlooked the very spots where his labor was most needed. The mounds are three feet or more in height and it requires but a slight growth of grass and weeds to obscure the bottoms of the targets.

Improvements have very good scores were made, although for the most part the shooting was not what it should be.

Sergeant White of the Q.O.R. found the white spot for 100 points, and Staff-Sergeant Phillips of the Grenadiers, plugged the "bull" for 100.

Sergeant Perry of the Q.O.R. scored 46, and Major Henderson of the 48th High-landers scored 41 over the 500-yard range.

It was reported that the government had issued a special order of the day, with the idea of having them tried out and commented on by members of the rank and file. The first idea did not meet with general favor and a number of amendments have been evolved.

Lacrosse News and Gossip Big Gate at Island Game

Montreal Showed Weakness on the Home — Cornwall Gave Shamrocks Hard Game.

The attendance at Saturday's match on the island must have been very gratifying to the Tecumseh management, as the gate receipts ran very close to the two thousand dollar mark, which is certainly good, considering that it was leaders playing against tail-enders. And who will say that the five thousand people present were not impartial with their applause? Every brilliant play of the visitors was cheered as readily as if it had been made by one of the local players. In this respect the followers of lacrosse in Toronto certainly excel, for they do the same thing at Rosedale, as was shown in the recent games there. The people of this city, while loyal to their own, have demonstrated that they are the same time built on the broad gauge plan.

Altho the Tecumsehs piled up a score of eleven goals against nothing for the Montrealers, it does not fairly represent the play by any means, as the contest was a great deal more of the ball than the score would indicate. Where they were deficient was on their home ice, as occasionally take a run down the field to either a goal was scored or a shot made on the net, which would come dangerously near finding a resting place inside.

Davidson and Pickering would occasionally take a run down the field to either a goal was scored or a shot made on the net, which would come dangerously near finding a resting place inside.

Games next Saturday—Capitals at Toronto, Tecumsehs at Shamrocks, Nationals at Cornwall.

In their present stride, look like real champions.

A good test of the Tecumsehs' ability will be next Saturday, when they hook up with the Shamrocks in Montreal. If they can beat the Irishmen there, it will be a case of things being made by the local players. Then appear easy, with the exception of the game in Ottawa Aug. 3.

In the meantime a good line will be had on the Capitals when they visit Rosedale next Saturday to play the Toronto. Jimmy Murphy has been making secret trips of late, and it would be surprising if the Rosedale would take a fall out of the parliamentarians when they meet here. The Caps are now rightly in their stride, the same game that won the championship for them last year, so the game next Saturday here will be watched with a great deal of interest.

Easy for Indians.

The Tecumsehs indulged in another wild runaway game on Saturday at the island, leading by half-time by 8 to 0, and then they did not exert themselves. Regardless of the press notices the visitors were never in the running and showed form worse than when beaten at Rosedale on the holiday. The day was ideal for lacrosse and a fine crowd graced the island grounds.

The teams and officers were as follows:

Tecumsehs: Clark, goal; Griffith, Stewart, cover point; Pickering, Davidson, Rountree, defence; Felker, centre; Durkin, Murrin, Whitehead, home; Durkin, outside home, Adams, outside home.

Montreal: Muir, goal; Neville, point; Haines, cover point; G. Finlayson, R. Finlayson, McKerron, defence; Nolan, Judge of play; Pick Lillie, Toronto, Dade, outside home; Scott, inside home.

Referee: E. Baker.

Goal umpires: D. Kearns and G. Kalls.

Time-keepers: J. Davidson, Montreal; W. H. Hall, Tecumseh.

Penalty time-keeper: P. H. Punahon, Oshawa.

Tecumsehs kept up their scoring and had it 11 to 0 just before the finish of the third quarter.

The final score was 11 to 0. A few games show how easy it was for the Indians.

Felker secured the ball from the face and passed to Rountree, he to Murrin and Tecumsehs were one goal to the good in 15 seconds.

In the second game the play was in the Indian territory, but Rountree and Querie transferred it. Neville made a great run for Montreal and the play was then from end to end.

Tecumseh brought the ball up. Geo. Finlayson relieved and the play was in front of Tecumseh goal. Davidson scored in 7 m. 35 secs.

Third game—Rountree secured the ball and rushed the Tecumseh home played rings round their opponents. Griff was benched for checking Scott. Querie scored again for Tecumseh. Adams scored the fourth goal from who were on hand to provide a vicarious ball at centre and end to end play followed. Finally Murrin scored in 1:06. And so on.

Tecumsehs did not seem to let up in the last quarter, though they did not score. They shot repeatedly, but could not get in, hitting the goal post three times.

Shamrocks Win.

MONTREAL, July 13.—Cornwall played a championship game to-day on the Shamrock grounds. The teams and officials are as follows:

Shamrocks—Goal, Tierney; point, Howard; cover, Rochford; defence, Kavanagh, Dillon, McInnes; centre, Munday; home, Robinson, O'Reilly, J. Brennan; outside, H. Brennan, Isaacs, Hogan.

Cornwall—Goal, Lalonde; point, Burns; cover, Cameron; defence, Thompson, Deegan, F. Cummings; centre, White; home, R. Deegan, DeGray, McMillan; outside, F. Cummings, inside, F. Deegan.

Referee—Clancy, Ottawa, Assistant—Dr. Cameron. Timekeepers—Harry McLaughlin and Joe Lally. Penalty time-keeper—Wm. Bradley. Umpires—T. Yates, Foster and J. W. White.

It was Cornwall's first game here with the Shamrocks. The field was in very good condition, altho it had been expected that it would be rather soggy after the heavy rain of the previous day. The crowd was late in coming due to a hitch in the car service. By the time the game started the grand stand was well filled, however, the attendance being between 400 and 500. Dillon filled in the place of Hennessey, who had his shoulder broken in the game in Ottawa, but otherwise the Shamrocks' line-up was the same as usual.

There were three Deagan brothers on the Cornwall line-up. R. Deagan replacing McAleer. The Shamrocks had it over the Cornwall in the early stages of the game, the factory workers put up a good line of defence. The Shamrocks' defence played a splendid game, holding down the aggressive home department of Cornwall well. The visitors found it hard to get thru, though they worked hard and took desperate chances. One of the visitors put up a fine game, boring thru every opportunity he got. Big John White played a very good game.

The passing of Cornwall was faulty at times and they made the mistake of not covering up closely enough. The Shamrocks were very good in this respect, and they made the mistake of not covering up closely enough. The Shamrocks were very good in this respect, and they made the mistake of not covering up closely enough.

Final score—Shamrocks 5, Cornwall 2.

DON'T BE FENCED IN.

When a man wants to intimate to his neighbors that he does not like their further acquaintance, he builds a high board fence round his place and lets it go at that. There is no law against a man's fencing himself in; that's his own silly business. But what shall we say of a city that fences itself in?

Toronto's waterfront is fenced in by a murderous fence of steel rails, on top of which steam monsters play shuttcock and battledore with the bodies or the nerves of innocent, inoffensive citizens. What is the sense? Even the man who loves his own loneliness would not fence in his house and lot with such a fence.

Is it that Toronto does not wish the further acquaintance of her neighbors that she allows this fence to exist? Does she wish to encourage the growth of a population of maimed folk that she permits the railroads and their steam horrors to kill outright or frighten to death the thousands who seek fresh air in a trip across the bay? Which this fearful fencing in?

Were it possible to focus the spirit of Toronto it would be found that that spirit spells freedom—free access to the waterfront, free entrance for all neighbors, freedom to grow into a greater Toronto. But a greater Toronto must continue to remain a dream if the railroads are permitted to fence us in.

Hoist the railroads along the waterfront; and let the freedom of Toronto pass under! Why continue the burden of the citizens by compelling them to tramp half a mile up a bridge and half a mile down again to get to the waterfront? Why, forsooth, put this additional haul to the cartage does already too onerous?

To be or not to be FENCED IN is the question, and for Greater Toronto there is only one answer: Don't be fenced in.

RAILROAD WRECK RESPONSIBILITY.

To the discussion on the causes of the many disastrous railway wrecks occurring in the United States, the National Union of Railway Trackmen have just made a highly important contribution. In effect, it is the most serious indictment of railway managers that has yet been made, and it comes with added force from the section-hands who have special reason to know the matters whereof they speak. Their intervention in this controversy comes in the form of a letter issued by the executive committee of the union, specifying in detail various practices and conditions that are affirmed to prevail in the track department of practically every railroad in the United States.

Hitler the companies have sought to relieve themselves from responsibility by laying the blame for the frequency of train wrecks, either on the defective quality of the rails supplied by the steel-makers or on the mistakes and negligence of their employes. The trackmen now retaliate by declaring in explicit terms that the true cause of the majority of the wrecks lies in the maintenance, or, rather, lack of proper maintenance of the tracks, in an insufficient number of employes, and an insufficient supply of material, and in insufficient supervision.

From the statistics given in the committee's letter, based on the interstate commission records for the years 1905-6, it appears that during that period there were 23,384 derailments of trains, with a consequent death toll of 1614 people, an injury list of 17,413 others, and a pecuniary loss of $19,434,096.

These derailments have averaged over 500 a month for the last three years, the deaths have averaged over 500 a year, and the injury list has averaged over 5500 a year. All the derailments, the trackmen affirm, were due to the failure properly to maintain the tracks, and accompanying the report of the executive committee are numerous photographs of main-line tracks, taken in the Western States, showing rotten ties, to which are due in large measure the broken rails that figure as the cause of the derailments. The trackmen, whose competence and vigilance is so necessary for the safety of the traveling public, receive, it is stated, an average of less than $1.25 a day, for ten hours' work, while the gang foremen, or "section bosses" receive less than $30 a month. Still more serious is the charge made, that the defective condition of the tracks has been repeatedly referred to the attention of the railway companies, who have refused or neglected to furnish proper material or equipment, and then laid the blame upon the trackmen.

The committee say further that "in addition to not employing enough men, or furnishing sufficient material, the tracks as a rule are not patrolled, either night or day." In earlier days, when trains were fewer and lighter, and ran at a lower speed, it was considered necessary for the public safety that good, careful men should patrol the tracks during the day and by night also. If the trains were operated at night, these men carried signaling appliances and were expected to carry the load necessary for lighting loose rails and spikes. Now nothing of that kind is done except on some of the eastern tracks. Trains at night, say the committee, "plunge into the darkness, and the men running them and the passengers riding thereon must trust to blind luck for safety in reaching their destination."

As their representations have been ignored by the railway managers, the National Union decided to appeal to public sentiment for the redress of grievances and the enforcement of ordinary precautions for the safeguarding of life and property. It declares that no standard of efficiency is required for service in the track department, and that in some cases the entire section crew of laborers is composed of boys under fifteen years of age. It urges that there should be either state or national inspection of railway tracks, and that the most perfect remedy would be to place them under the jurisdiction of the interstate commerce commission. If these grave affirmations are true, they add another to the many series of disclosures affecting railroad management which have been made in recent years. With all the unparalleled prosperity of the country and the huge fortunes made by the financial operations of railroad magnates, enough has not been spared to meet the first conditions of a proper public service.

BRITISH POLITICAL AFFAIRS.

Interest in the present session of the British Government has practically evaporated with the debate and vote on the house of lords resolutions. The government program, considerably reduced in size to it was, has again been cut, and with little over a month to go, it is safe to say that in its attenuated form some of the measures spared from the massacre will fail to reach the statute book. Nor will this be due exclusively to the malice of the upper house, since the proposals of the government with regard to the land question in England and Scotland have not escaped criticism even from members of their own household. The differences among the straight Liberals, the Labor party and the Irish Nationalists have stimulated the opposition to unusual activity, and the movement for fiscal reform shows continually increasing vitality.

Mr. Lloyd George, replying the other day to the toast of the "Free Trade Cause," begged his hearers not to assume that the battle was over—it was just beginning, and there was real danger in any assumption to the contrary. He went on to say—what The World has repeatedly pointed out—that last year everything was in favor of the free traders. "Tariff reform," remarked Mr. Lloyd George, "was championed by a government whose name was sufficient to damn any cause, and no man would look at tariff reform because of the company it kept—it was infinitely better the Liberals should realize that."

In his opinion the question of the house of lords and free trade were really much mixed up together. "The cause of free trade," he said, "was the cause of Liberalism, and the cause of Liberalism was dependent on the success of the enterprise which the government had undertaken, after due and long deliberation for dealing with the house of lords."

It thus appears that the British cabinet intend to let the cause of free trade stand or fall by the result of its crusade against the hereditary house. Whether this is a wise or a prudent course, time will show, but on the face of it a real devotion to free trade principles should have led rather to their severance from any other controversial proposition of even more uncertain issue.

But in addition to this, Mr. McKenna, the new president of the board of education, hinted, in a recent speech, at an even more drastic education bill than that of last year. He indicated that the time was coming when he would wound men opposed to him in politics, and gave the assurance that his bill would make the lords regret that they had not accepted Mr. Birrell's bill. With this in front of parliament, it is not surprising that there should be a disinclination to pursue the strenuous life in what remains of the current session. For better or worse, the government has apparently made up its mind to gratify, the Nonconformists and let the Nationalists go hang, since it is absolutely impossible to devise a measure acceptable to both. Altogether the prospect in British politics is of an uncommonly lively character.

After having sold a large part, the remainder of an issue of $800,000 of five per cent. thirty-year gold bonds is now being offered through the state columns by Messrs. A. E. Ames & Co., Limited, in conjunction with the Royal Canadian Bank of Montreal and Halifax, and Messrs. J. C. Macdonald & Co. of Halifax. The issue price is 95-1/2 cent, but each subscriber carries, also a stock bonus of 50 per cent of the par value of the bonds. The issue is being made to extend the electric railway for seventeen and one-half miles from Rio Piedras, through the large and fertile valley, the center of a large sugar plantation, and a populated suburb, and Rio San Juan, town seven and one-half miles distant from San Juan. The water-power is being developed at Comeria Falls, on the La Plata River, fifteen miles from San Juan.

CONFESSES TO HELP JUSTICE

Witness For Rebuttal in Haywood Case Substantiates Orchard as Against Davis. BOISE, Idaho, July 14.—There were startling developments in the trial of William Haywood for the murder of Frank Steunberger, when the state began its rebuttal Saturday.

PUERTO RICO SECURITIES.

Offering of Bonds With Stock Bonus—Rapid Development of the Trade of the Island. An extraordinary development in the business of the Island of Puerto Rico has manifested itself since the island was ceded to the United States at the close of the Spanish-American War in 1898. The mainspring of the rapid rate of development has been that the principal products—sugar, tobacco and import-export, which is third in importance—are admitted free into the United States, while all other countries have to pay heavy duties. This and favorable climate, and comparatively short all-water haul to the eastern ports of the United States, has permitted the island to develop in exports. In 1901 were $4,533,962, and in 1906 reached $23,257,530, while imports almost kept pace, the total in 1906 having been $2,853,236, and $23,27,865 in 1906.

Perjury Somewhere. Witnesses in the defence, however, swore that Orchard was not at Wardner on April 29, 1899. Davis himself has sworn that he was elsewhere, and that he had no connection with the crime. A crowded courtroom showed close attention to the second session of the trial, when William Dewey, a witness in rebuttal for the state, confessed to active, armed participation in the destruction of the Bunker Hill building at Wardner, on April 2, last, 1899, when two men were killed in a riot of a thousand men. Harry Orchard began his serenade in an adjoining room, where, he said, he lit one of the fuses which started the explosion, and he swore that William F. Davis, known among his fellows as "Big Bill" Davis, led the mob.

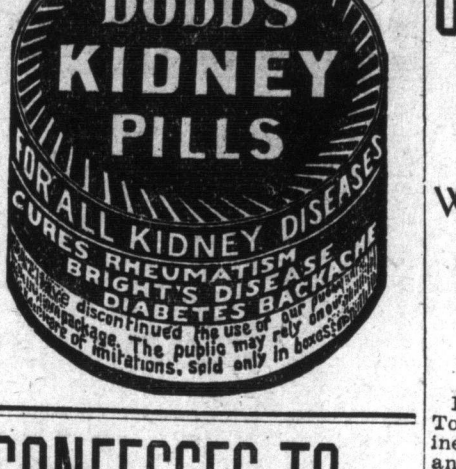

Under the provocation of a sneering remark by E. J. Richardson, Dewey rallied and even combated; but through the Under he gave evidence of remorse. Under told why he had come to Boise to confess after eight years of silence. He had been in Colorado for several years, he said, and had even risen to a town marshalship.

Why He Confesses. "What prompted me to confess my guilt was given you, before you decided to make confession of the crime? What reward will you receive? What induced you to make this statement now after all these years?" were some of Richardson's questions.

Frank Robson III. For some weeks past the friends of Frank Robson have been anxious about him, for there was news from Melbourne, Australia, that he was hopelessly ill. He went to the antipodes last August to control the Park Amusement Company at St. Kilda's, South Australia, where he erected an immense figure eight. Yesterday his brother, W. J. Robson, of the Toronto Ferry Company, received word that Frank was recovering.

A Presentation. Many Toronto rowing enthusiasts remember "Uncle Dick" Hodgkinson, who came out here by Tom Sullivan when he last rowed the Duran. Since the race on Toronto Bay "Uncle Dick" has been around the world and is now listed on the Toronto and Montreal race on Toronto Bay. The presentation was made at McLeod's Hotel, Buffalo.

COMMISSIONER FOR N. ONTARIO

Would Be Lots of Good Work That Such an Official Could Do. RAINY RIVER, July 9.—(Special).—To-morrow morning the Ontario cabinet ministers, Hon. Frank Cochrane and Hon. Dr. Reame, cross over into Ontario and will traverse 44 miles of frontier and then enter the Canadian Northern before striking the northern boundary. A few hours will be spent at Keewatin, Kenora, and the return journey will be over the C.P.R. thru the constituency represented by Dr. Smellie. Meetings will be held at Keewatin, Kenora, and two or three other towns in the north, and the tour will be completed on the 17th with a meeting at Fort William. Toronto will be reached on the 17th.

North Ontario Commissioner. Another suggestion, since the government desire to learn the difficulties of carving out homes in the north, is that a Northern Ontario Commissioner be appointed with the special duty of visiting every part of the remote districts every year to make a general survey of the situation. He could say where money had been spent on a road or bridge, how long it had stood, and how many officers of the crown and north could be under his direct supervision, and his responsibilities would be almost equal to those of a cabinet minister.

Such an officer would need to be a man of many talents. Hon. Frank Cochrane was selected for his special duty because of his experience in the country, but his many difficult problems of colonization. He could say where money had been spent on a road or bridge, how long it had stood, and how many officers of the crown and north could be under his direct supervision, and his responsibilities would be almost equal to those of a cabinet minister.

Gamey Would Do. The Ontario Commissioner would relieve the government of some of the strain of official work. A man who would fill the bill in Gamey, whose addresses to the people on this tour have been logical, clear-cut and sententious. No other man knows the country as no other man knows it. He effectively answers the most bitter criticisms and everywhere he has been met with enthusiasm.

These bring the total expenditure up to $2,048,593.71, and total revenue $2,193,959.57, leaving a balance in favor of the district of $145,365.86. But this does not satisfy the sore ones. They say a large amount has been spent, but they need more.

Dr. Bethune, who speaks for the dissatisfied ones up here, said to-day that he was pleased with his interview with the two ministers. They seemed to be in sympathy with the general demand for more attention to the district, and it was a good sign when they came to personally investigate the conditions that are causing the upheaval. Indeed, this is the feeling up here. The trip so far has been a great success. The hope is expressed that the ministers will make the tour an annual affair. It will serve to keep the government in touch with the remote districts of the province.
