MEIGHEN AND CLARK CLASH OVER QUESTION OF TARIFF

Red Deer Member's Speech in Advocacy of Free Trade Gives Meighen Opportunity to Make Bold, Outspoken Defence of Protection, and Conservatives Cheer Him to Echo—Britain's Free Trade Policy Declared to Have Proved Ruinous.

Ottawa, May 25.—(Special.)—Hon. Arthur Meighen made a notable speech in the house today in defence of the national policy. Mr. Meighen is a western man, but he shows no disposition to court the low tariff sentiment of the west.

Mr. Meighen's speech was received with great enthusiasm by the supporters of the government and especially the Conservative Unionists of Ontario. It was a bold, outspoken defence of the national policy and has undoubtedly made a certain position for Mr. Meighen in the house.

Many of the Unionists, who feared that the government was getting too mealy-mouthed on the tariff question, rejoiced in Mr. Meighen's bold fight in the house today for protection and cheered him to the echo.

Especially were they impressed with the tragic tale of disaster, which has followed free trade in England, which Mr. Meighen put before the house in a vivid way.

Bouquets and Brickbats. Dr. Clark resumed the budget debate and opened his speech with bouquets for the prime minister and brickbats for Sir Thomas White.

He claimed that the former minister of finance had changed his views over and over again on the tariff question. For years he had argued that to admit American wheat free of duty into Canada would destroy the British empire, and yet later on he had taken the duty off wheat.

The doctor also took a fall out of Hon. W. S. Fielding and spoke contemptuously of his "milk and water" amendment. He intimated, however, that the farmers would vote for the amendment because it advocated tariff reduction.

Especially bitter was the doctor in denouncing the tax on retail sales, the so-called luxury tax. He said it was really an internal tariff; the merchant who paid thirty-five per cent. tariff duty on some articles, only had to collect that from the consumer but also had to collect this new tax which ran from ten to fifty per cent. It was a tax bound to discourage trade and add to the already exorbitant cost of living.

Dr. Clark closed by calling upon Canada to follow the free trade principles of England instead of the high tariff doctrines of the United States. This gave Mr. Meighen his opportunity. He proceeded to show what free trade has done for the Mother country. It had injured the agricultural industry and had failed to maintain the manufacturing industry against the competition of Germany and the United States. The land was deserted, over a million agricultural laborers being gradually thrown out of work.

POOR MOTHERS WILL RECEIVE STATE AID UNDER THIS BILL

Legislature Gives Final Reading to Far-Reaching Measure.

LABOR GROUP PLEASSED

With the third reading in the legislature yesterday of the bill for the payment of allowances to dependent mothers, the Labor group in the house feel they have been responsible for a very advanced piece of social legislation.

The following are among the more important provisions of the bill, which now only awaits royal assent before becoming law:

"Subject to the provisions of this act and the regulations a monthly allowance may be paid towards the support of the dependent children of a mother who:

(a) is a widow or the wife of an inmate of a hospital for the insane in Ontario, or of a man who is permanently disabled and incapable of contributing to the support of his family;

(b) was resident in Canada at the time of the death of his husband.

REDS STILL HOLD TOWN ON CASPIAN

No Indication of Advance From Enzeli and British Force Thought to Be Safe.

London, May 25.—The Bolsheviks still occupy Enzeli, on the Caspian Sea, as well as the roads leading from the town, but there are no indications at present that they contemplate a further advance, according to official advices received today.

The impression here is that the Bolsheviks accomplished what they set out to do, namely, obtain possession of Denikine's Caspian fleet.

Reports say that there has been no development on the Persian side. Prince Evrouz, Persian minister of foreign affairs, has arrived in London in connection with the Bolshevik landing at Enzeli. He is already in touch with the British foreign office and the league of nations.

The Bolsheviks have taken to Baku the vessels on which they traveled to Enzeli, as well as the whole volunteer fleet which was interned at Enzeli. A report in circulation here that the Bolsheviks made a second landing near Enzeli proves to be unfounded. The British force which left Enzeli is at Reeth, 14 miles southeast of Enzeli, and no anxiety is felt for its safety.

YOKOHAMA BANK SUSPENDS

Tokyo, May 25.—The seventy-fourth Bank of Yokohama has suspended business, and its affairs are now under investigation. The Tokyo press attributes the bank's difficulties to demoralization of the silk industry in which the institution was interested heavily.

STANDS BY N.P. Hon. Arthur Meighen, who, in his speech on the tariff in parliament yesterday, could hardly be accused of "pussy-footing."

AUSTRIAN GUILTY; SHOT WITH INTENT

Leniency Shown Prisoner on Account of Health—23 Months at Burwash.

WARNING BY JUDGE

Carrying Firearms is a Serious Offence in Canada.

"After consultation with counsel, who thinks that, in view of what the prisoner has suffered, and his apparently poor health just now, I should be just in showing him some leniency. I think it right not to impose the maximum sentence authorized by the act, which is three years, and which would result in the sending of the prisoner to Kingston, but to sentence him to Burwash, where perhaps he will have a better chance. The sentence will, therefore, be 23 months at the reformatory at Burwash. One cannot impose a lighter sentence in view of the act. It is his good fortune that the woman was not killed, and he had no previous criminal record. It is difficult to see how he could escape. It is right that all persons who take up their abode in this country should be warned that the carrying of firearms and the using of them, even without intent to murder, is something which our law does not allow, and which will lead to serious punishment." Thus did Mr. Justice Rose in the assizes yesterday address Yakym Chynkyn, an Austrian, when sentencing him to 23 months at Burwash for shooting at Mrs. Marie Timchuk in April last, with intent.

After the jury had returned their verdict, his lordship asked the usual question, whether the prisoner had anything to say why sentence should not be pronounced against him. The prisoner did not understand English, and the interpreter who acted in the case during the trial, was not on hand. Mrs. Timchuk was asked if she could perform the office of interpreter, but she was in the same position as the prisoner—she could not understand English. Ultimately it fell to the lot of accused's own brother to interpret the judge's questions, and a reply thereto. Prisoner informed his brother that he had nothing to say.

History of Case.
Mrs. Timchuk giving evidence thru the medium of an interpreter, said that prisoner was one of eight men who boarded at her house at 258 Richmond street west, and that on the evening of April 7th she and prisoner had engaged in a friendly dispute while she was preparing to go to the factory where she was employed to draw her wages. She said she was a married woman with three children. Prisoner had poured some water down her back. When she reached home she found an interference with her, and she told the police that then the prisoner drew a revolver and fired at her from a distance of about five feet, the bullet passing her eyebrow. She showed the police powder marks with which the bullet was speckled. Prisoner fired the shot, but never touched her, and after witness ran away screaming prisoner turned the revolver on himself, sending a .38 calibre bullet into his chest, but the bullet splitting when it came in contact with prisoner's jaw-bone, part of the bullet coming out thru his lower lip. He put his nose to the ground and swore that prisoner had on more than one occasion made improper proposals to her. Prisoner had been boarding with witness for about eight years, and had always been a quiet boarder.

Prisoner Gives Evidence.
Giving evidence on his own behalf the prisoner said that at the time of the accident he was worried on account of a letter he had received from home that his father had made out a will giving all his property to his sister and left nothing to prisoner. He denied that he shot at Mrs. Timchuk, and said that the revolver went off when they were struggling for possession of it. The bullet went thru her hair. He never had any quarrel or argument with Mrs. Timchuk. Under cross-examination witness said he did not want to frighten Mrs. Timchuk. Q: "Did you want to frighten her into liking you?" A: "No." Q: "Did you ever ask her to sleep with you?" A: "No." Witness further denied that he told the constable that he wanted to frighten Mrs. Timchuk into submission. Witness maintained that he did not intend to shoot the lady, that he was going to use the gun on himself, as he was sick, worried and tired. Q: "Did you know it was wrong to kill yourself?" A: "Nobody ever told me."

FACE BADLY DAMAGED.

RAIL AT BRITAIN AND LAUD ERIN

Great Gathering at Labor Temple Cheers Appeals for Republican Ireland.

Perhaps the largest gathering ever assembled at the Labor Temple gave a strong touch last night to the meeting of the United Irish League, which to a man (30 per cent. women) endorsed the Irish republic of Dublin. A feature of the meeting was noted in the boxes, tambourine-shaped, used for collecting silver coins on behalf of the movement. These boxes were draped in orange and green, presumably to represent the community of interest between Catholic and Protestant in the quarrel between Ireland and Britain. This community of interest was emphasized by the two speakers of the evening, who emphasized the opinion that the quarrel held in it no religious bias, but was purely economic and political in its basis. The speakers, Lindsay Crawford and Rev. Dr. Erwin of the Presbyterian Church in Ulster, represented the agreement, license, contract or other instrument heretofore passed or entered into.

UP TO COUNCIL TO RAISE FARES

of any general or special act of the legislature, or of any municipal bylaw, agreement, license, contract or other instrument heretofore passed or entered into.
This act shall come into force and take effect on the day upon which it receives the royal assent.
How They Voted.
The vote on the motion of R. L. Brackin for the substitution of clause 2 in the new measure for the one proposed in the McCrae bill was as follows:
For the new measure—Messrs. Allen, Blags, Brackin, McCrae, Nixon, Sinclair, Dewar—7.
Against—Messrs. Carmichael, Curry, Price, Rollo and Smith—5.
Outlook Was Bad.
The attorney-general was chairman. As Chas. McCrae refused to act, the latter said that unless some enabling legislation was passed, or someone in absolute authority appointed, like the railway board, some roads in Ontario would not be able to operate their lines.

The Traffic Manager Wallick of the Hamilton Railway Company said they had a surplus of $100,000. The men were about to strike for an increase to 55c minimum and 65c maximum. The company could not afford to pay it. All their subsidiary lines, with one exception, showed deficits.
Manager Wilson of the York Radial in both Scotland and Ireland. "It cannot be the factor of population which has placed Ireland in her present unenviable position" he said, "for we note that Scotland also has but a few millions of men and women within her territory, but she has shown great enterprise and industrial spirit, has shown herself to comprise a thriving, enterprising people."

Should Have 20,000,000.
"With proper economic conditions" said Rev. Dr. Erwin, the other speaker, "Ireland should have a population of at least 20,000,000, and thus would not need to pray for boon and consideration from Britain. I am a Christian minister, and no minister can look with complacency upon the present situation in Ireland where 200,000 soldiers are under arms ready at a moment's notice to mete injustice to a desperate nation."
"We of Ireland give our pledge that we shall be ready to place 250,000 soldiers in the field ready to oppose to the movement. We shall be ready to fight for the new Ireland, and whether the foe be Germany or any other she shall invade our land only over our dead bodies" concluded the Presbyterian minister.

Manager Fleming Testifies.
Manager Fleming of the Toronto Railway Co. testifies that his company received an average fare of 3.9 cents. What with the price of everything they were face to face with a serious problem. They were able to operate their cars only by neglecting to provide new rails, cars, make repairs etc., simply because they did not have the money. Last year's wage increase to the men amounted to a million and a half dollars and this year if the demand for 55c an hour were granted it would amount to about three millions.

Mr. Fleming complained that after last year's strike which was a public outrage the railway board had taken the system over and this fact put the company's credit in jeopardy. No powers had ever been given the company while on the other hand power to destroy them had been given to others. If the McCrae bill were passed there was no assurance it would benefit the company and the railway board would simply examine their books and give them relief if they found it was necessary.

Instead a great deal of it went to the Toronto Power Co. The company had assets not disclosed, which were enormous. They asked the committee to forget all the fat years when they made money, just because of late things had gone against them, they wanted the people now to pay the shot. Mr. Garry, answering a question, said he could not say what the committee would do in the event of its treasury being empty, while it was under the control of the Ontario railway board.

Must Keep Bargain.
"This company has made a sound bargain and now at the dying sound of the legislature seek to break it. I submit that should not be allowed," concluded Mr. Garry.
James McArthur Connor, as chairman of the legislative committee of Trades and Labor Council, opposed the bill. The company had entered into a contract and should be made to live up to it.
To Charles McCrae Mr. Connor said the Trades and Labor Council were only interested in the bill as citizens.
Mayor Church said the company pinned its faith to the agreement for 28 years. They had consistently failed to live up to its terms. All public bodies were opposed to it, in short there was no demand for it, except from the company. There were 500 cars short at present. There seemed to be vested rights for corporations but none for the municipalities. The legislature had no right to pass the bill, in view of the protest of 198 municipalities.

Mr. Dewar wanted to know if the city was opposed to paying anything out of what it receives from the company towards a wage increase. The mayor did not answer and Mr. Dewar raising his voice, said he did not propose to be put off on the pretext that the mayor could not hear him.
Won't Pay Anything.
The mayor: The city is opposed to paying out anything; the company should bear all the burden.

Chairman McIntyre of the railway board said that what the body was interested in was the matter of operating the railway in the event of a strike or in the event of there being too much money in the treasury to carry on. The board wanted to be in a position to assure the continuous operation of the system.
If the street railway employees were advanced to 55c Mr. McIntyre said, he did not think the city's percentage received from the company's receipts would be sufficient to pay it.
Manager Fleming: No, we could not pay the increase to the men out of the city's percentage.
Continuing Mr. McIntyre thought that the city should be shouldered with the responsibility of increasing rates when it was for the total company was unable to carry on because of insufficient revenue. The railway board could not run the way if the fares were inadequate; it had no credit. He felt sure the city council would pass a bylaw increasing

Mr. Dewar wanted the committee to vote on the new bill submitted by the Ontario Railway Board, and moved in that direction, while J. W. Curry moved that Toronto be excluded from the provisions of the measure altogether. In this he was supported by Mr. Price, while Hon. Peter Smith thought the committee had no right to deal with it, but with the original measure.

The attorney-general also thought the original bill only should be dealt with, but after a lengthy discussion the committee proceeded to vote on the new measure, with the result as previously noted.

CASH NOT TAKEN AS TO AMOUNT OF TIMBER CUT

"Culler" Says He Simply Signed His Government Returns.

JUDGE WAS SEVERE

The investigation into the conduct of the crown lands department was resumed yesterday morning at the parliament buildings, before Judges Riddell and Latchford. The greater part of the time was taken up with the manner in which returns were made to the government of the timber cut by the Spanish River Lumber Co.

The first witness, Theodore Ellis, a bookkeeper for the company and who was also a commissioner for taking affidavits, said he did not require camp clerks and cullers to swear to returns, although returns were required to sign an affidavit.

As a culler J. Parker Reid, the next witness, said he signed his report as "J. Parker Reid" but as a camp clerk, he used the signature "John Reid" to the camp reports.

When a culler he gave his address as Massey, but while he was a clerk he gave his address as "John Reid."

"Who were you trying to fool?" asked R. T. Harding, crown counsel. "I was not trying to fool anybody," Reid replied.

For two years, during which period I got $5 a day from the government as a culler, and $50 a month from the company as a clerk, Reid said he was quite sure that anyone in the department reading your reports would think that John Reid and J. Parker Reid were two different people.

Had Tally System. In the year 1918-19 he said he was on berth "N" and that the tally system was to keep track of the number of standing and down timber cut. He had a tally system which he thought would be legible to anyone examining his reports.

Mr. Reid said that timber coming from a district in which he knew there had been a blow-down was marked by him as "down timber" without actually knowing whether it was standing or down timber. It was just an estimate.

Mr. Reid also said that it was not necessary to put the rule on all logs—they could estimate the size. Then, too, on the skidways it was impossible to measure all logs and their sizes were averaged up.

Judge Riddell:—I call it lying like a thief. The hearing will be resumed this morning.

Great Lakes Steamship Service. Commencing Saturday, May 29, at 2 p.m., eastern standard, and each Wednesday and Saturday thereafter at 1 p.m., eastern standard, the Canadian Pacific Railway will operate a steamship express for Port McNicoll, making direct connection with steamships to Sarnia and "Assiniboia" for Sault Ste. CHINAMAN CHARGED WITH WOUNDING. Harry Chow, a Chinese restaurant keeper on York street, was in yesterday's police court committed for trial on a charge of wounding a returned soldier, Fred Skeene, whom it is alleged, he slashed on the head and afterwards in the back with a knife. Bail was fixed at $2,000.

The plaintiffs seek an injunction against the defendants, restraining them from selling Kellogg's Toasted Corn Flakes in Canada, alleging that they purchased the right to sell the product in Canada from Dr. John H. Kellogg, the inventor. Evidence was put in the case as far back as June, 1917. The hearing will be continued today.

In yesterday's police court Bernard McMahon was found guilty of wounding. He had chewed the ear of a man, James O'Connor. DID NOT MAKE USE OF HIS POSITION TO PASS MEASURE

Thomas Marshall Tells Legislature About Bill to Amend Companies Act.

IS REFERRED BACK

There was considerable discussion in the legislature yesterday over the bill amending the Ontario companies' act by permitting preferred shareholders of telephone companies to vote. The proposed amendment is as follows and was up for a third reading.

1. Subsection 1 of section 80 of the Ontario companies act is amended by adding at the end thereof the following: "Provided, however, that no such bylaw heretofore or hereafter passed by the directors of a telephone company to which this part of the act shall apply shall have the effect of depriving the holders of preference shares in such company of any right to vote at meetings of shareholders."

W. Stringer (Haldimand) moved that the bill be sent back to the legal committee. Thomas Marshall (Lincoln) explained his name had been mentioned in connection with the bill and he wished to assure the house that there was nothing more to the bill than what appeared. It was not true that it trespassed on the rights of any class of shareholders.

Charles McCrae (Sudbury) as chairman of the legal committee, which dealt with the measure, said an individual had purchased $25,000 worth of stock in an independent telephone company with the understanding that he would get his money back within a certain specified time. When the time expired the money was not forthcoming. For this reason added Mr. McCrae, he felt the stock owner should have voting powers at shareholders' meetings and for this reason he thought the bill fair.

K. K. Homuth: There were the opponents of this bill present at the legal committee when it was discussed? Mr. McCrae: There was nobody present to oppose the bill.

Hon. G. S. Henry: This bill should have been fully advertised, so that all interested parties had an opportunity of being heard. It is too late in the session now to pass it. Leave it over for another session, when an opportunity can be given to fully discuss the measure.

J. W. Curry could see no reason why the bill should not pass. Margaret Thomas Marshall, M.L.A., was a common and not a preferred shareholder.

An "Innocent" Measure. Hon. W. B. Rolfe thought the bill was one of those "innocent" measures which sometimes slipped through committee and the house without the members having a clear understanding of what it meant.

Hon. Thomas Crawford said if the bill was deferred for a year no interests would be injured and the owner of the $25,000 preferred stock would receive his money. The company was in good condition and paying dividends. The whole thing, he thought, looked like an effort on behalf of the preferred shareholder to get control of the Dunville Telephone Co.

W. E. N. Sinclair (South Ontario), who fathered the bill, maintained it was a fair measure and insisted that nobody was trying to "put anything over."

It was finally decided to refer the bill to the legal committee of the house for a rehearing.

FINED FOR CRIMINAL NEGLIGENCE.

In the sessions yesterday a fine of $300 was imposed on J. J. Walsh for criminal negligence when driving an automobile and injuring Beatrice Cope. It was stated in court that Mr. Walsh had already paid $2500 damages to Miss Cope in respect of the injuries she sustained.

MANY DRUNKS WERE CHARGED.

For many months there have not appeared so many persons in the police court charged with being drunk, as was the case yesterday, when no fewer than 34 paid their respects to the magistrate. Most of the accused managed to pay their fines. It must be remembered, however, that there was no police court on Monday.

TECHNICAL STAFF RECOMMENDATIONS

Principal McKay Endorses Choice of Advisory Industrial Committee.

Business done at the meeting of the advisory industrial committee of the board of education yesterday, had for the most part to do with the appointment of teachers to the staff of the Technical School. The following appointments, which were highly endorsed by Principal McKay, were recommended by the committee: Miss Nellie L. Pattinson, who had been acting director of domestic science since September of last year, to the position of director of domestic science at an initial salary of $2800; Miss Margaret H. Shortall, B.A., assistant teacher of domestic science, at $2000; Miss Agnes H. Puddington, B.A., B.S., at an initial salary of $2800; Dr. McKay explained that these appointments meant not merely giving instruction, but organizing and directing some twelve hundred teachers taking part in the work.

The committee also recommended the opening of a department of optometry, with Dr. McKay as principal, Wellington Graham Mayhew as director of optometrical studies, and four additional lecturers.

A delegation waited upon the committee in behalf of the amputated cases' tag, asking permission to have assistance from the school children during the coming year. The matter was endorsed by the meeting.

GETTING COSTLY TO KEEP COOL

Local Ice Companies Join Giant Throng of Price Boosters.

A NEW SYSTEM

The finance minister, thru the luxury tax is making it expensive to people to keep warm during the winter and now it is announced the ice dealers, just to keep in unison, will charge the public to additional sum to keep cool during the summer. The local ice companies are this year selling 11 tickets for $2, against seven tickets for $1 last season. The management of the companies contend that the system of book tickets is much easier, simpler and more economical than the old contract system.

E. W. Trent, the secretary-treasurer of Chapman's Limited, who control both the Belle Ewart and Grenadier Ice Companies, contends that now the ice merchants have adopted the 25-pound unit system in the city—which has come about by a process of evolution—that it has without a shadow of doubt worked out to the benefit of the household. He further states that the average housewife paid less for her ice last year than she did in the old monthly contract system, which was in vogue in 1916.

Asked to give some reasons for his contentions, Mr. Trent said that the companies now only supply to the customer the amount of ice he actually requires and this in spite of the merchants maintaining a daily delivery. Under the old system—the contract system—the household had to take ice whether he wanted it or not. In cool weather, said Mr. Trent, the customer does without ice, but the company was compelled to continue its service at all costs. The price in Hamilton, concluded Mr. Trent, was 20 tickets for $2 against 15 in Toronto for the same number of tickets.

The management of the Lake Simcoe Ice Company stated that they have been working on the new scale since May 1, and would continue to supply ice at the same rates as the other companies doing business in the city.

The Duke and Duchess of Devonshire, accompanied by Captain Balfour, A.D.C., and Lieut.-Col. Fraser, yesterday visited the hospital for incurables on Dunn avenue. They were received by Ambrose Kent, president; Col. Mrs. Carley claims alimony of $200 a month.

In the sessions yesterday, Judge Coatsworth sentenced Ernesto Sestiro to three months in jail for two charges of false pretences, theft and receiving. Accused obtained moneys from two pupils with which to purchase music and instruments, but failed to supply the articles.

COURT OF REVISION

Before the court of revision yesterday, appeals from divisions 2 and of Ward Eight came on for consideration. In all there were 50 appeals by disgruntled taxpayers, and 19 by the assessment department. There were besides 116 applications in regard to tax adjustment for 1920.

There were no cases of outstanding interest, most of the appeals being taken where the assessments had been increased by a dollar or two a foot from last year. George Shtamer appealed against an assessment of $4700 on property on Kingswood avenue, North Toronto, for which he said he had paid $7800. When informed that his assessment should be placed at $6000, Mr. Shtamer said he was not appealing for a reduction. He wished to point out that other houses on the same street, and similar in build to his own, were assessed as low as $2800. Mr. Nixon said he would draw the attention of the assessor to the matter.

DUKE VISITS INCURABLES

The Duke and Duchess of Devonshire, accompanied by Captain Balfour, A.D.C., and Lieut.-Col. Fraser, yesterday visited the hospital for incurables on Dunn avenue. They were received by Ambrose Kent, president; Col. CALLS U. S. ADMIRAL

Secretary Daniels Says Fiske Was Obstacle Rather Than Aid to Operations.

Washington, May 25.—An old controversy between Naval Secretary Daniels and Rear-Admiral Bradley Fiske was revived today before the senate committee investigating the United States navy's part in the war.

Secretary Daniels said the summoning of Admiral Fiske would be satisfactory to him, but that he would insist upon an opportunity to appear before the committee again after the admiral had testified.

Replying to the chairman, Mr. Daniels said he had never paid much attention to Admiral Fiske's plan to reorganize the navy department in 1915.

"He bored me to exhaustion," declared Mr. Daniels. "He was a monumental egotist. He thought the German general staff system was the best in the world, and wrote me about one letter a day, urging me to approve its adoption for our navy."

"His favorite illustration of the way the system worked in France was a story that when the Franco-Prussian war broke out, Molke was asleep
when told that war was declared.
Molke merely rolled over and told his advisors to look in the top drawer of his desk, and get the plan for war, and then went back to sleep.

MEIGHEN AND CLARK
IN A LIVELY CLASH

of employment and millions of Englishmen were forced to emigrate and find a new home in distant lands.
And while this emigration was going on from the British Isles, immigrants were pouring into Germany.

The balance of trade, which had been in favor of Great Britain under protection disappeared under free trade and every year showed a great adverse balance of trade. England was forced every year to buy more than she sold and was only kept going by her enormous investments in foreign countries.

Mr. Meighen said it was supposed for a long time that the manufacturing industries of Great Britain were prospering under free trade, but he was found to be in a deplorable condition when he broke out. Great Britain was obliged to rely upon other countries for raw materials and other materials she needed for carrying on the war.

Britain's Policy Reversed.
The situation was such that commissions were appointed by the Assembly government to examine into the iron and steel industry and other key industries. The commissions reported that Germany and the United States had been displacing Britain in the markets of the world. Moreover they were dumping their products into Great Britain and selling at slaughter prices. The recommendations of these various commissions called for a reversal of England's traditional policy of free trade. They recommended subsidies for industries, tariff protection and import duties, the total prohibition of imports.

Mr. Meighen pointed out that in the United States a highly protected country, there had been a prosperity and every year a favorable balance of trade. Canada could only export more than she imported and pay interest on her foreign debts by a protective tariff. At the same time he pointed out that all tariff reductions of any consequence made in this country had been made by the Conservatives and that practically no tariff reduction was made by the Liberals when in power.

Dr. Michael Clark, Red Deer, in resuming the budget debate referred to the instability of the tariff. In past years we had had the Fielding tariff, then the White tariff, and now came the demand for another revision.
Once on the sea bed of protection, interests. Authorities agreed that if Canada was to pay her external liabilities, she must increase her production. It had been stated that in the years immediately before us we should export $200,000,000 worth of goods every year. Of necessity Canada must depend upon her agricultural products for this export.

Dr. Clark, quoted figures of Canadian trade to illustrate the large factor which agricultural products had in it. During the year 1916 the total exports of Canada were $741,000,000, of which $358,000,000 were agricultural products. He gave round numbers only.

Quoted Agricultural Exports
In 1917, the exports totalled $1,151,000,000, of which $500,000,000 agricultural exports. In 1918, the figures were $1,540,000,000, and $733,000,000; in 1919, $1,216,000,000, and $460,000,000; and in 1920, the first months of the 1919-20 fiscal year, when munitions had gone out altogether, the exports were $941,000,000, of which $358,000,000 were agricultural. In other words, much more than half of the exports were agricultural and these figures came from a period of inflated prices. There would be a decrease in prices in the future and they will still have $200,000,000 interest to pay. Surely, there should be nothing done to hinder agricultural interests in the way of taxing imports and placing obstacles in the way of foreign trade that will bring a high tariff wall at that far as it was concerned, borrowing was absolutely necessary for the good of the state.

Says Taxes Never Imposed Before.
The new taxes, which were imposed before. They were called excise duties, but they were not excise duties at all.
Dr. Clark, very much doubted
if any such duties ever had been imposed before. In 1842 there were duties like these imported from Holland into England; that this was doubtful if they were placed on the consumer.

Dr. Clark, very much doubted
if any such duties ever had been imposed before. In 1842 there were
duties like these imported from Holland into England; that this was
doubtful if they were placed on the
consumer.

Dr. Clark compared the returned soldier buying a fifty dollar suit of clothes, paying for the same tax with the millionaire buying a $150 suit and paying $15 tax. "There is," he said,
"neither equality nor decency in a tax of that kind."

Dr. Clark thought, too, that some of the individual taxes should be changed. If taxed candy should be subject to 30 per cent instead of 10 per cent.

Luxury Tax to Hurt Business.
Dr. Clark said that the new luxury tax would operate, and was operating to decrease business. People all over Ottawa were cancelling orders as a result of the tax. Eventually, owing to this decrease of business, stores would begin to discharge employees. The next step would be the discharge of factory workers, and, finally, stagnation. A feature of the new luxury tax was that farmers were practically exempt under it. The farmer could wear cheap clothes, grow his own food, and live free from the operation of the tax.

We are against the budget; the amendment is a milk and water affair, and our policy is that outlined by the Dominion party. Agriculture," said Dr. Clark, who went on to quote Sir Wilfrid Laurier in 1896 on free trade. "We inherit that doctrine, and we intend to follow it," he declared.
The men who fought in France did so for political liberty, and there was now an advancing army—of which the present progressives were the advance guard—what was the matter with them? "We will not submit to any further economic slavery in Canada."

Meighen Answers Clark.
Hon. Arthur Meighen said the items referred to in the auditor-general's report could have been brought before the public accounts committee by any member of the house. The members' requests did not know where they stood on the tariff

RUSH OF IMMIGRATION
TO WESTERN CANADA

Omaha, Neb., May 25.—According to a statement just made public by W. V.
Bennett, in charge of the Canadian government land office, the great tide of emigration of 1912 and 1913 to interior Canada is about to be repeated. In the first three months of 1920, almost as many settlers from the trans-Missouri country have gone to Canada as went all last year.
The statement adds that during the past twenty years 45,000 Nebraska have emigrated to the Dominion, taking with them approximately $5,000,000.
The explanation given is that the farmers sell their farms in Nebraska for tremendous sums because they can purchase land just as good in the Dominion for one-third of what they sell for.

KERMESSE D'ETE ALLURING SIGHT

Women's Art Association Arranges Scene of Loveliness Fitting Spring.

Allurements are many at the attractive Kermesse d'Été, which is in progress at the quarters of the Women's Art Association, 23 Prince Arthur avenue, and which yesterday afternoon was at its best in the atmosphere of an ideal day. Under the lacy green of the trees, tents and stalls awaited the visitors, displaying home-made hats, decorated by members of the association, jewelry and other heirlooms, quaint boxes and bric-a-brac of various kinds. Tents on the lawn invited to interviews, in which the past was painted and the future foretold. Tea was daintily served and a program presented of vaudeville numbers, dances, songs, together with a pretty act entitled "Fandora's Boy" and an oriental play in which a number of local people took part. In the evening pupils of Miss Josephine Hodgson appeared in the attractively presented "Egyptian Freeze."

The upper part of the house was devoted to the exhibition and sale of many useful and pretty articles, all displayed in artistic and dainty fashion. The festival continues during the week, with several changes of program.

PARENTS OF PUPILS FORM ASSOCIATION

Will Protest Against Withdrawal of Name "University of Toronto School."

At a well-attended and enthusiastic meeting of the parents of past and present pupils of the University School of Toronto, held in the assembly room of the school on West Bloor street last night, it was resolved to form an association the primary object of which will be to have a large and influential deputation to call upon the minister to protest against the possible withdrawal of the name "University of Toronto School," endangered thru the proposed legislation of the present government. A committee of eleven was formed, with Dr. O. J. C. Withrow as convener to take the necessary steps in selecting the personnel of the deputation, date of interview with minister, to prepare rules and regulation of the association, and to name an executive.

Those eligible for membership in the association are the parents of past and present pupils, the teaching staff of the school and past pupils.

PREMIER'S TAX EXEMPTION BILL IS DISCUSSED

Premier Drury's bill to grant exemptions on income, improvements and business, was a lively topic for discussion at yesterday's meeting of the legislature. It will be further discussed.

The premier said he would consent to restricting his measure to townships, but at the same time he would not exclude other municipalities who might desire to avail themselves of the advantages of his bill.

H. H. Dewar said Ottawa had voted against the principles of the bill, which was the result of agitation rather than public pressure. Mr. Drury also suggested that the bill be passed with added clauses that the government approve the taking of such votes by order-in-council and name the place in such order. Hon. Mr. Henry Wood said he was in favor of the bill and had arranged to have a public meeting at the result of his and his conferees' appeal and considers the concession a splendid one.

CHATHAM FIREMEN FIGHT TWO FIRES

Children's Shelter and Home of Rev. R. J. Perkins Ablaze at the Same Time.

Chatham, Ont., May 25.—(Special) Prompt action on the part of the two platoons of the local fire department saved considerable property loss late Monday night when fires occurred at the Children's Shelter and the residence of the Rev. R. J. M. Perkins within a few minutes of each other. Late Monday night, a rocket is believed to have caused a blaze on the verandah at the Children's Shelter, which spreading to the eave of a nearby house, threatened a bad fire. The cause of the fire at the Christ Church Rectory is unknown. The blaze melted a lead pipe, and the burning gas hampered the efforts of the firemen for a time. The floor of the drawing room was burned. Mr. Perkins and family had retired for the night. His son, Russell, was almost overcome by the smoke.

CHIEF INSPECTOR LEAVING FORCE

Robert McClelland Retiring From Police After 47 Years' Service.

Chief Inspector Robert McClelland, who has seen as long service on the force as any other member, tendered his resignation to the police commissioners yesterday afternoon. Inspector McClelland joined the department 47 years ago, and was the sixty-fifth constable to join. At present he has been charged with the order which handles the clothing, police occurrences and many of the records. The inspector's resignation will go into effect July 1, when he will be given three months' holidays with full pay, followed by the annual life pension from the benefit fund. At present he is secretary of the Chief Constable's Association. Inspector H. Gregory of the morality department joined the same year as the chief inspector. McClelland was one of the twelve policemen who, with Deputy Chief Stewart, assisted the military in the Pilgrim riots. He was complimented by the governor-general, Earl Abernethy, and presented with a valuable pin for service as officer in charge of the police arrangements at the Victorian era ball, held in the armories in 1897, when 1100 people were present.

WANT ADDITIONAL ROOM.

Chief Grasett asked the press to endeavor to assist in drawing the attention of the authorities in the city hall to provide additional office room for the police. Deputy Chief Dickson and Mayor Church, however, are more favorable to the erection of a police building. The police department need a building, and, owing to the cramped quarters of the courts, it is deemed advisable to move the police offices from the city hall. The idea of securing a site for such a building will be taken up by the commissioners in the near future. The Sportsmen's Association were granted the privilege of holding a tag day sometime between June 15 and July 15, for the purpose of raising funds to send teams to the Olympic games.

A NEW RARA AVIS.

Trippers to Muskoka in interviews with The World have expressed a strong desire to get hold of the type of binoculars much in use among artillery officers in Flanders. One man stated to The World yesterday afternoon that he was looking for binoculars with ten to twelve perspective power. "I have searched high and low for this kind of glass, but have not come across anything like it. I always imagined that officers during the past war used binoculars on every conceivable occasion, but seeing a few artillery observers none seem to have used them. Most excellent. And I suppose they are very rare that even if an artillery officer could be found who had such a pair he would consider the pair such a 'rara avis' that he wouldn't part with it for love or money. There is no chance of borrowing a pair if not buying one."

O.Y.P.A. TENNIS CLUB.

Keyser spoke on re-establishment, pensions and unity in soldier movements. The following provisional officers were elected: President, A. Grippin; first vice, C. Holloway; 2nd vice, J. Carr; 3rd vice, J. Bateman; Tyler, S. Barrett; secretary, Jack Carr; treasurer, H. G. Keyser; executive, S. Think, J. Williams, S. Gardner, J. Williams, W. Starr and H. Axford. At the close of the meeting a delegation from the British-American Legion of Detroit was received by Fred Marsh and arrangements were made for the executives of the G. A. U. V. and the American association to meet and discuss plans for amalgamation.

AMPUTATION CLUB CAMPAIGN BEGINS

Amputation week. This is what this week should be termed. The campaign for the club house for amputees, returning begins today. In dead, if quiet, earnest, and will be carried forward to its fullest fruition on Saturday, when a tag day special will conclude the sacrifice of the women in charge, Miss E. Church, Mrs. Arthur Van Koughnet and Mrs. T. Albert Brown, Mrs. H. D. Warren. It will be recalled that the Amputation Club is renting quarters at Church street, but the number of these men of sacrifice is assuming such proportions that the little quarters will no longer hold them. It is interesting to note that the theatres in Toronto have in many cases placed their boxes at the service of the committee and more than a hundred feet of film showing the glories and sacrifice of service at the front will be shown during the week.

I.O.D.E. CONVENTION NARROWLY AVOIDS FACTIONAL FIGHT

Resolution is Passed Calling Upon Mrs. Gooderham to Reconsider Resignation.

MRS. BRUCE'S ADDRESS

Calgary, May 25.—The long-looked-for break between the Gooderham-Kingmill factions almost occurred during the morning session of the national convention of the Imperial Order of the Daughters of the Empire here today, and this despite the fact that, through the night, the delegates were in conference, finally adopting a resolution to the effect that the differences should be dropped and the incident forgotten. The question of whether a vote of confidence or appreciation should be tendered, Mrs. Gooderham churched the troubled waters anew. A number of delegates were of the opinion that a vote of confidence in Mrs. Gooderham would mean a vote of censure to Lady Kingmill. Upon the resolution of Mrs. George Smith of St. Catharines imploring Mrs. Gooderham to reconsider her resignation from the memorial committee, which passed the convention with few dissenting votes, the crisis was passed and Mrs. Gooderham was welcomed to the platform.

An informal conference between secretaries and other officers this morning developed that a large number of girls' chapters have been organized throughout the Dominion, as well as special chapters such as a teachers' chapter at the coast and business girls' chapters.

The address of welcome to the delegates was given at noon by Mrs. W. D. Spence, Alberta representative on the national council, and was responded to by Mrs. Arthur Adams of St. John, N.B.

Insidious Propaganda.

The president, Mrs. John Bruce, Toronto, made a strong plea for economy on the part of the 6,000 members of the order, pointing out that needless extravagance was one of the greatest factors in creating the present emergency of high prices.

The speaker said that Bolshevism was often mentioned as the great menace of the hour, adding, however, "It is not Bolshevism that we must watch, but we must guard against an insidious propaganda that is being carried on in many parts of the Dominion, having to do with Canadian independence. It sometimes seems to me that these influences might adopt the policy of gaining a foothold in the Empire by the hope of disrupting the Daughters of the Empire. What rejoicing there would be in the ranks of the enemies of imperialism if they succeeded in smashing or even weakening our influence."

vinely appointed social order, safeguarding the sanctity of the home and protect the issue of the union from the blight and scandal of marital separation. In this matter she is second to none."

Following Lambeth Conference.

In his opening remarks, his lordship explained that the reason for his assembling the synod at an earlier date than previous years was as a consequence of the summoning by the Archbishop of Canterbury of the Lambeth conference in London in July, and his desire to be present at the most important gatherings on the board of management of the M.S.C.C. showed that the total receipts for the year were $46,381.23—an increase of nearly $5,000,000 over the corresponding previous year. The contributions for the general apportionment was $40,079.91.

This sum, although the largest recorded in the history of the society, is not the sum asked. The reserve and trust funds of the society showed a steady increase.

Following the reading of the report Rev. (Capt.) J. R. MacLean, M.A. rose from the floor of the house and made a strong appeal for the home Canadian, declaring at the same time that he did not think that the church was alive to the situation in this respect.

Clean Doorstep First. "The foreign mission has, of course, to be considered, but so has the home missions," said Rev. MacLean. "The morality in certain foreign sections of the city simply doesn't exist and I think we should clean our own doorstep first."

Referring to the results of the Anglican forward movement, which he declared would rank among the finest achievements in the church's spiritual and financial history, his lordship stated that "the church now found herself in the happy position of having more than she asked for, and, better still, a freshly created force waiting to be used in the highest interests of the Kingdom of God."

Withheld From God. "The giving results show how much had been stored and hoarded by the rich and well-to-do, and how much they had been withheld from God for the purpose of His Kingdom by those who could have done so much better than facts evidenced they did in response to the calls of the church of God upon them," continued the bishop.

"How much farther the cause of God would have been advanced, both here and there, who thus proved themselves to be able to give in a larger measure, done so more relatively to the measure of their ability in the past. From this time forth and onward a revived and high standard of Christian giving must be inaugurated and maintained, and never again be lowered, a giving that shall take business cognizance of the wretched inadequacy of clerical stipends the whole church over, and deal with and dispose of this question in a generous and whole-hearted fashion; a giving that shall take business cognizance of the burden of the church indebtedness and consequent crippling of church organizations and efforts as the result of such indebtedness and shall proceed to remove this hindrance to the church's growth. Forgetting therefore, the niggardly giving of the past in the new, let our men of wealth lead in the larger appreciation of God's kingdom in its ability to meet the needs of mankind; to solve the social and industrial problems of the world and to calm and quiet its seething unrest.

The doctors had no hope of my recovery, and every medicine I tried proved useless until a friend induced me to take "Fruit-a-lives".

Unrest Reviewed.

Bishop Sweeney reviewed the general unrest that has persisted throughout the world as an aftermath of the war, but declared that a change for the better seemed to have taken place since the recent conference of prelates at San Remo, when certain fundamentals were arranged between them, looking to world peace and mandatory responsibilities of the nations being assigned for that end.

"The peaceful passing of May Day, contrary to general expectations, seems to warrant the saying that there are signs of once more returning to saner living," said His Lordship. "Extravagances due to reaction after the war are beginning to abate. Governments at last settling down to the serious business of taking action in the direction of more normal living conditions; profiteering and other evils in connection with the necessities of life are being handled in a more fearless way."

His Lordship then outlined the episcopal acts of himself and Bishop Reeve during the year, and expressed regret that the Diocese had suffered by the deaths of five of the clergy and six laymen.

The Irish Question.

In his concluding remarks Bishop Sweeney stated that the recent appointment of Sir Hamar Greenwood as secretary for Ireland and the action of the Vatican afforded hope that some settlement of the Irish question would soon be reached. "A settlement that would check the long list of violence, outrage and cold-blooded murder, which since January 1, 1919, has been the revolting program of the anti-British section of the nation, a record that had stained with an ineffaceable blot the annals of that country."

"In the interests of the innocent victims, of the peace of the Empire, and above all of the Christian civilization of our day," continued the Bishop, "let those speak who ought to speak to check these horrors and stop these atrocities or else let them come under the condemnation of the Holy Apostles, who affirms to him that knoweth to do good and doeth it not, to him it is sin."

The report of the Diocesan representatives on the board of management of the M.S.C.C. showed that the total receipts for the year were $46,381.23—an increase of nearly $5,000,000 over the corresponding previous year. The contributions for the general apportionment was $40,079.91.

This sum, although the largest recorded in the history of the society, is not the sum asked. The reserve and trust funds of the society showed a steady increase.

"The giving results show how much had been stored and hoarded by the rich and well-to-do, and how much they had been withheld from God for the purpose of His Kingdom by those who could have done so much better than facts evidenced they did in response to the calls of the church of God upon them," continued the bishop.

"How much farther the cause of God would have been advanced, both here and there, who thus proved themselves to be able to give in a larger measure, done so more relatively to the measure of their ability in the past. From this time forth and onward a revived and high standard of Christian giving must be inaugurated and maintained, and never again be lowered, a giving that shall take business cognizance of the wretched inadequacy of clerical stipends the whole church over, and deal with and dispose of this ques-

UP TO RETAILER TO RECORD SALES

Every Post Brings New Rulings on Complicated Luxury Budget.

NEWSPAPERS TAXED

Clauses Applicable to All Goods Shipped or Delivered Since May 19.

By nearly every post G. E. Dunbar, the controller of inland revenue for Toronto, is receiving new regulations and instructions concerning the collection and imposition of the luxury tax. It was made clear yesterday that the department of finance at Ottawa does not propose to issue luxury tax stamps. It is left to the retailer to use the best methods to record his sales in such a manner as to be able to verify them by affidavit if necessary. But should such retailer neglect to keep reliable evidence of his sales since May 19 last, he will be liable to prosecution. No advice is offered as to the best methods of keeping such record, and no provision is made for the small storekeeper who has never kept an account book in his life—and could not do so if he was paid to. The question arises, is he to be put to the expense of keeping a ledger clerk, and add the wages of such clerk to the price of his goods?

Newspapers Also Taxed. It appears even newspapers are not to escape the new taxation. An order issued yesterday states that newspapers are considered manufactured articles. There will be a sales tax on all sales of advertising space, but whether or not subscription sales to individuals and to newsboys will be taxed has not yet been decided.

The following are some of the more important of the rulings received in the city from Ottawa yesterday. The luxury and sales taxes are applicable to all goods shipped or delivered after May 19 last. This will affect contracts for goods shipped or delivered before this date for deliveries to be made after May 19. Ottawa is not concerned as to which of the parties to the contract will arrange for the payment of the tax, but the burden of the law is bluntly. If the goods are delivered after May 19 the tax that applies must be paid.

Photographs Taxed. The twenty per cent. excise tax on photographs is substituted for the former ten per cent. tax. Duties drawn in sterling on British customers are in payment for goods exported will not be taxed until the duties have been assessed to. A similar ruling is made with regard to the two cent tax on transfers of stocks or shares. Cokes is subject to one per cent. sales tax. Smoked hams and bacon are subject to tax, but sausage, bran, middlings, and mixed feed for cattle are exempt. Domestic and imported rugs are to be taxed upon yardage, figuring on a width of 27 inches.

Sales of Canadian or foreign-made goods to countries outside of Canada are not taxable. Gold bullion purchased for manufacturing purposes is exempt from sales tax. All ceiling electrolux, gasoliers and candlesticks having two or more arms are subject to the 20 per cent. excise tax.

Watches, china, spectacles, gold or silver mounted, are not taxable. Plated goods taxable include jewelry, mirrors, electrical wares. Ivory and articles sold as ivory are taxable. Bread, vegetables and fruits in their natural state, hog and poultry foods, are not taxable. Hats, bonnets and hoods costing over $12 for women, misses and children are taxable. Prayer beads are not taxable.

Sales Tax on Autos.

The sales tax applies to all sales of automobiles, trucks and parts. Cornmeal and oatmeal sold in bulk or packages are exempt from sales tax. Canned vegetables, jams, cocoa, cola and similar goods are subject to the sales tax. Fur skin dressers and dyers must charge a one per cent. sales tax. Glassware, perfume, razors, brushes, retail confectioners who manufacture in part or wholly the goods they sell are subject to the same excise tax as candy manufacturers. Solid chocolate is not classified as confectionery, but chocolate products are.

A manufacturer who pays a one per cent. material import duty is exempt in producing other materials subsequently exported asks if he will be permitted to refund to himself the amount of the tax paid in the first instance. To this, Ottawa replies: "Sales tax not applicable to goods exported, which does not answer the question. Apparently once the tax is paid it is not returnable."

Replies From Ottawa.

Following are some of the queries sent to Ottawa, and the replies received: "Advise if wholesaler should collect one or two per cent. from retailer on all taxable sales. If we only collect one per cent. and pay that to the government and pay one per cent. to the manufacturer on all goods purchased by us, we will lose one per cent. Seems to be misunderstanding on this point. Is the tax to be levied once or twice on the same goods in passing from manufacturer to wholesaler and thence to the retailer?"

"Sales tax applicable to both manufacturer and wholesaler unless it is absorbed. Tax must be shown separately on the invoice from the manufacturer to the wholesaler, and also on the invoice from the wholesaler to the retailer. Is the answer?"

"This means at least two per cent. (if thru a jobber, three per cent.) is added to the cost of the article before it reaches the purchaser."

"The tax must not be included in the cost on which the profit is calculated. The tax must be shown separately on all invoices when it is not included in the purchase price." This seems to imply that the jobber may use at least two methods in collecting the sales or luxury tax. He may either itemize it on his invoices or include the amount of the tax on the price of the article in question. Thus a $200 article would be charged: "To one victrola, $200; excise luxury tax $40; total $240." Or the invoice may read: "To one victrola, including excise luxury tax, $240."

NATURAL GAS PRICES ADVANCE IN BRANTFORD

Brantford, May 25.—(Special.)—The Brantford Gas Company today announced that new prices for natural gas would become effective in June, the bills for that month being marked 88 cents per 1000 feet, instead of 80 cents on the front. The advance has been expected for some time, as the contract made with the city in 1904 permitted the company to charge a maximum of 80 cents. The issue will be fought by the city.
