FLOORS

The Eskimo has floors of ice and probably he thinks them nice, and strictly up to date; but if there ever came a thaw they'd be the worst you ever saw and that's as sure as fate.

The Arab has his floors of sand; We have no doubt he thinks it grand, a floor beyond compare; but sand is full of bugs and ants and they climb up a fellow's pants, when he sits in a chair.

The Mexican has floors of dirt and floors of that kind will not hurt, so long as weathers dry; but when there comes a season wet, such floors are not the one best bet, which no one can deny.

In Olden times men built their homes with battlements and towers and stone, and ornaments of gold; but all the floors were made of stone, and they made people sigh and groan, they were so hard and cold.

And then with rushes they were strewn to make them warmer to the shoon, and also to the feet, and those stale rushes decay, their scent would drive the folks away, in agonized retreat.

It took uncounted years of toil and planning by the midnight oil to dope out modern floors; the floors on which we dance and walk, and sigh and cuss, and wildly talk of hoarders and such bores.

The floors on which we spend our lives, and train our kids, and pet our wives, are surely handsome things, be they of color light or dark, we proudly view them and remark—

"They are good enough for Kings."

Your Mansion might have jasper walls, the finest paintings in it's halls that artists can produce, and onyx stairs and marble doors, but if it had no modern floors it would be a poor excuse.

Good Hardwood floors make life a poem, they beautify your happy home as nothing else can do. WE have the best, the years have given it the test that means so much to you.

That whereas William D. Duncan of the Town of Campbellton, (now deceased) with marked ability and faithfulness represented the Parish of Addington in the Municipal Council of the Municipality of Restigouche during the last term, wherein also he exhibited a thorough and intimate knowledge of municipal affairs coupled with an untiring devotion to his official duties and in public recognition of which he was again elected to the same office at the general election of Councillors in September last, although in failing health at the time of said death.

Be it therefore resolved that this Council place on record its high appreciation of the public services rendered by the said Coun. Duncan and the great loss which the County of Restigouche has sustained by his death.

He said that there had been very little contagious disease in Restigouche County during the past year. There had been a few cases of small-pox and influenza in Dalhousie, but these had been carefully looked after. He said

Restigouche was one of the best counties in the province. It was free of all bond debt and its councillors were always bootleg.

Dr. Desmond answered many questions asked by councillors and explained the working of different departments of the Health Act.

The Public Accounts Committee reported recommending payment of County Accounts.

OPPOSITION TICKET COMPLETED

Great Activity in Local Political Circles—Tuesday Promises To Be Exciting.

A large number of local ratepayers gathered at the Murray Hall on Monday evening to discuss matters relative to the coming contest on the 24th inst. and also to arrange the opposition ticket.

The first part of the session was characterized by a spirit of hesitation manifesting the fact that all electors present realized the important nature of the meeting and the responsibility which would necessarily be assumed by those who agreed to run in the approaching contest. This atmosphere of hesitancy was finally dispelled however by the vigorous speeches of the opposition party and the electors got down to business in an enthusiastic manner. The following ticket was finally drawn up:—

Mayor—F. M. Anderson. Councillors at Large—B. O. Bates, Thos. N. Dickie.

Councillors for Ward I.—John Harquail and W. S. Richards. Councillors for Ward II.—J. J. Bernier and H. A. Margul.

Councillors for Ward III.—J. W. Howard and W. F. Yonge.

SOME QUESTIONS FOR RATEPAYERS

Record of Town Council Should Receive Very Close Scrutiny.

There is once again before the citizens of this Town a question. As to the correct manner much depends. A year ago a New Mayor and largely a new Council were returned to the Government of the Town. This Mayor and Council are being judged day by day by the citizens as to the way they have administered the affairs of the Town. Have their actions been better? Have the officials under the law been required to give better attention to existing laws? Have some good laws been made for the comfort and profit of the Townpeople? There have been unseemly exhibitions of supposed authority on the part of the members of the Council. There have been departures in the matter of assessing and collecting taxes of different kinds. Have such been to the gain and comfort of the people? Has the dignity of the Council been improved upon? The Townpeople are asked to look at these and other things pertinent to the welfare of the Town.

A new man is asking the votes of the citizens for the position of Mayor, Mr. F. M. Anderson has been in our midst for years. As an administrator of affairs—important affairs—he seems to have retained the confidence of the Shivers Lumber Co. for a number of years. From this fact, we must conclude that he has executive ability—the average amount of honesty and the ability and energy of a man to project things and carry them through. He has worked with his hands and with his brain and with both, secured a measure of success. Seeing that things pertaining to Town affairs are in a difficult middle—a heavy debt on our shoulders, with the prospect of this debt being increased, a dissatisfaction with the levying and collecting of the taxes (there being very heavy default, now $40,000, in tax payments)—possibly illegal movement on hand to increase the taxes—in fact, great and deep and broad intense dissatisfaction with the whole Town machine, would it not be a wise thing to put at the head of affairs a business man and business men?

The present Mayor—a nice man, a good hearted kindly man—seems to be well suited to running the affairs of this Town as he would be to managing the Bank of England; has repeatedly expressed himself as being tired of the job, has threatened to resign and yet we find him asking to be returned for a second term as Mayor.

It has been repeated among a few persons that this is an inopportune time for Mr. Anderson to occupy the Mayor's seat, inasmuch as the Shivers Lumber Company who have been entrusted with certain exemptions under the laws of the past Council are to again extended for another term of years. Even if such were considered, this question cannot come up in 1922 and as a matter of fact, not before 1925. Before that time, Mr. Anderson may be retired from such position as Mayor and insure peace. He is a man who from experience knows the difficulties and conditions of the working-man and the business man—a man of sane, sound business ability—of honesty and integrity of character and deeply interested in the best welfare of the

The Clerk said the poll books were all carefully kept.

The following returning officers were appointed:—Ward 1.—G. E. Asker. Ward 2.—John McDonald. Ward 3.—Austin Kane.

The returning officers were authorized to appoint their poll clerks and constables, and the mayor was authorized to fill any vacancies in returning officers should any arise.

Hon. P. J. Veniot's letter, re Matapedia Valley roadway was taken up. His Worship spoke of the importance of this highway and said every measure should be taken to have the work completed.

Coun. Moores moved that Coun. Veniot be appointed a delegate to interview the Quebec government in reference to said highway.—Carried. The Council then adjourned.

BIG CROWD AT FIRST CARNIVAL

Many Original And Beautiful Costumes On The Ice.

Last Friday night the young people here enjoyed in Campbellton's first carnival of the season one of the most enjoyable events of recent weeks.

The rink was packed and the strains of the brass band music blended harmoniously with the steady, rhythmic, ring of steel and the ripple of happy laughter. The fact that all those present had embodied the true carnival spirit was manifested by the large number of original costumes worn. Four cash prizes were given.

The prize for the most original costume was won by Miss Ina Currie, who represented "Queen Gasoline." The next prize went to Omer Guldry who represented a swan, while Messrs. Reuben Dickie and Samuel Russell represented a "Graffe." It can be easily imagined that they had quite a job on their hands—to say nothing of a very long neck—but they were successful in capturing the third prize. The fourth prize was won by Loraine McNichol who represented a "Cow-boy."

The judges who awarded the prizes were Mrs. Geo. S. Kerr, Mrs. Wm. Sharpe and Messrs. Charles Alexander and Duncan Gallon.

On the whole the event was a grand success and we are pleased to learn that Mr. Sullivan's intentions give promise of another carnival in February.

GROWTH OF CANADIAN SHIPPING

Strong Policy in Immigration Now Necessary

By E. W. BEATTY
President Canadian Pacific Railway

One of the most interesting features in Canadian development during recent years has been the growth of the shipping facilities of Canada. An indication of this can be seen in this year's returns from the port of Montreal, which show that up to the close of navigation 980 vessels had docked there, as compared with 664 for the previous season. The shipments included more than 140,000,000 bushels of grain, an increase of nearly 100 per cent over the previous highest figure, that of 1914.

The prosperity of a country depends upon the ease with which its produce can be marketed, and in the case of Canada, which exists so largely on overseas markets, the conditions of trade are undeniably governed by the facilities for transport. The development of shipping sufficient to insure the speedy conveyance of passengers and freight is therefore of vital importance, and accounts for the steady increase in the size of the Canadian Pacific fleet on both Atlantic and P. C. C. routes.

Ships Pay Their Way
The phenomenal growth of Canada's Mercantile Marine during the last few years has been taken as an indication of the country's progress. There is danger, however, in a too rapid growth if the vessels are not best directed along commercially profitable lines. What we have considered is whether the new tonnage is justified by the country's production, whether the ships are fitted to the line of traffic available, and whether they are the kind of ships that are likely to pay their way. If these factors are not taken into consideration, we may find that a portion at least of Canada's large mercantile fleet is the kind of asset popularly referred to as a "white elephant."

A statistical comparison of Canada's mercantile marine, covering a period of years is apt to be misleading unless we thoroughly understand a letter written in 1851, addressed to Earl Grey, then Colonial Secretary in Britain, by James Ross, the distinguished Nova Scotian statesman, remarked:

"The best criterion of the comparative 'civilization' of countries may be found in the growth of commerce and the increase of a mercantile marine. Tried by this test, the North American Provinces will stand comparison with any other portion of the globe."

The West Indian colonies, the Australian group, including New Zealand, the African colonies and the East Indies, or the collection of islands, were valued collectively in 1916 for 2,252 vessels, as compared with 2,252 vessels for the North American group, including Canada, Nova Scotia, New Brunswick, Prince Edward Island, and the Maritime Provinces. Of these, Nova Scotia owned 1,410 vessels, and in number ranked third after the United States and Great Britain.

Canada's Place in Shipping
In 1922 the British American Provinces stood fourth in the world's shipping, with 7,101 vessels totalling 846,644 tons. In this year alone 609 vessels totalling 224,214 tons were built in the Canadian Maritime Provinces, only 9,000 tons less than the tonnage built in the United States, which, moreover, in that year purchased Canadian-built vessels to the value of $9,000,000. The highest tonnage on the Canadian register previous to the great war was reached in 1918, with a total of 1,250,012 tons net. These, however, were still mostly wooden sailing vessels, and under the competition of steamers and trade depression, the tonnage had dropped to 1,002,000 tons by 1920, or to 862,613 tons in 1921.

It was not till 1900 that steel vessels began to appear to any extent on Canadian register, and not till 1910 were steel vessels in the majority, the figures being 4,394 steamers out of a total of 5,667 vessels. On October 31, 1921, there were 8,222 vessels on Canadian register, the gross tonnage of these 8,222 vessels being 1,750,570 tons. Evolution is shown.

The large tonnage of British North American ships in the middle of the nineteenth century is, however, deceptive, unless one analyzes the character of the trade in which the vessels engaged. The Nova Scotia ships, in particular, were built of soft wood, and were not suited for a long life. They carried a cargo of Nova Scotia lumber to England, then loaded with a cargo for South America and transported to and fro on many coasts.

DODGE DEALERS
APPLAUD PRICE CUT

Luncheon Throng Hears Slash to Go in Effect Feb. 1 Will Be Sustained.

New York, Jan. 11.—Fifteen hundred Dodge Brothers dealers at the annual "Dodge Brothers" luncheon given yesterday in the Pennsylvania Hotel, were in formed by F. J. Haynes, president and manager of the company, that effective February 1 the prices of Dodge Brothers cars would be reduced substantially. The reduction is both retroactive and indefinite, according to Mr. Haynes, who explained that the size of the cut would not be made known until February 1.

The dealers received the announcement of their chief with an ovation that almost shook the walls of the dining hall. The verbal announcement was identical with that appearing in the Dodge Brothers advertisements today.

The luncheon was the largest in point of attendance and elaborateness ever given by the company. An address was given by Mr. Haynes, who was introduced by C. W. Matheson, general sales manager.

Mr. Haynes reviewed the success of the last year, in which Dodge Brothers were conspicuous as leaders, and emphasized the greater possibilities of 1922.

MOOSE FREEZES IN RUNNING STREAM

High Animal Was Found Standing Erect With Legs Encased in Ice.

St. John, N. B., Jan. 14.—Standing erect with all four feet imprisoned in the ice that seals the surface of Brandy Brook, a large bull moose was found dead by Arthur Beckwith, of president and manager of the company, St. John, while he was hunting rabbits along the Brandy Brook about six miles from St. John. When Mr. Beckwith first came upon the monarch of the forest the great animal was standing in such a position as to cause the hunter to believe that the moose was alive. On investigation, however, he discovered that the moose was dead.

Mr. Beckwith did not make a close examination of the body of the moose, so he was unable to say whether it had been shot. It is supposed that some time ago while the ice on the brook was still thin that the moose had been shot at and wounded but not badly enough to prevent his running. He probably attempted to cross the brook and broke through the ice but extricated himself from this position and subsequently perished standing up.

More than two feet of the animal's legs were encased in the ice. He was found near a deep part of the brook called Soldier Hole, in which it is said a soldier who had run away from St. John, was drowned about thirty-five years ago.

FIRE AT BELLEDUNE

Fire broke out in the home of Mr. and Mrs. James Chalmers, Belledune, last Wednesday afternoon, and before anything could be done to save building the flames had secured such a grip as to render salvage work almost impossible. The fire had its inception in the upstairs department, and this enabled the owners to save the bulk of the furniture from downstairs, but nothing they could do in the circumstances could prevent the house from becoming a total ruin. The home of the Chalmers family in Belledune was one of the oldest landmarks in the district. It was likewise the local Post Office. The loss is partially covered by insurance.

GOOD SMELT SEASON.

The smelt catch on the Restigouche is a very good one. Already five carloads have been shipped and two more cars are being loaded. The first smelt were taken Dec. 29th. Besides Montgomery & O'Shea there are several buyers who have large quantities including A. & E. Leggie, W. Crocker, Simon McGregor, and others. The smelt catch means a very large sum of money placed in circulation as it is estimated every pound of fish represents an expenditure of seven cents when it is packed and loaded in cars for shipment.

IN MEMORIAM.ASTLES—In loving memory of my darling daughter Sadie who departed this life January 22nd, 1918, aged 8 years and three months.
Oh! my darling how I miss you,
No mortal tongue can tell, but we Must not murmur or complain, the Lord doeth all things well.
Four years have passed,
But never shall your memory fade
Loving thoughts shall always linger
'Round the grave where you are laid.
Inserted by mother, Mrs. Alvin Astles.O. S. E. T.

At their regular Friday night meeting of last week the O. S. E. T. staged a lively debate on the subject: "It is resolved that women should receive equal remuneration to that of men for the same kind of work." The discussion was characterized by some logical arguments and considerable humor. Considering the fact that the debate was an impromptu affair and boy shared commendable skill and argumental ability in defending his particular side of the question. The judges gave decision in favor of the negative side on the grounds that their arguments had kept more closely to the main point than those of their opponents.

POLICE COURT.

Last week David Joleneur of the Tobique became so enthusiastic in extending the season's greetings to his friends there that the parable of the community was obliged to call official assistance from Campbellton in order that municipal peace might be restored. Burns and Smith hurried to the scene and found Joleneur using doors, tables and people's faces for the same exalted which usually employs a punching bag. When he offered resistance Smith promptly handed him "one" which changed his entire aspect of the situation. Monday morning at the police court, when he appeared before His Honor, his pocket-book also experienced a slight change.

$20.00 and costs.

At Monday morning's court Maxime was fined $75.00 and costs. Mr. Lapoint remarked later in the chief's office that this was the last time there would be any more in his house. A very good resolution for the new year Mr. Lapoint.

One drunk was hauled Sunday night. A good night's rest had a fine of $3.00 effected a temporary cure.

FLOORS

The Eskimo has floors of ice and probably thinks them nice, and strictly up to date; but if ever came a thaw they'd be the worst you ever saw that's as sure as fate.

The Arab has his floors of sand; We have no he thinks it grand, a floor beyond compare; but is full of bugs and ants and they climb up a fo pants, when he sits in a chair.

The Mexican has floors of dirt and floors of kind will not hurt, so long as weathers dry; but there comes a season wet, such floors are not fit to be sat on, which no one can deny.

In Olden times men built their homes with ments and towers and stone, and ornaments of, but all the floors were made of stone, and they people sigh and groan, they were so hard and cold.

And then with rushes they were strewn to these warmer to the shoon, and also to the fo these stale rushes decay, their scent would dri folk away, in agonized retreat.

It took uncounted years of toil and plan the midnight oil to dope out modern floors; the on which we dance and walk, and sigh and quidly talk of hoarders and such bore.

The floors on which we spend our lives, as our kids, and pet our wives, are surely ho things, be they of color light or dark, we proud them and remark—

"They are good enough for Kings!"
Your Mansion might have jasper walls, th paintings in it's halls that artists can produce, a stairs and marble doors, but if it had no modern 'would be a poor excuse.

Good Hardwood floors make life a poss beauty your happy home as nothing else can d have the best, the years have given it d that means so much to you.
