The District Deputy Grand Master introduced L. Crawford, delegate from Peter Ogden Lodge 812, who came forward and in well chosen words expressed his high appreciation in having the honor of welcoming the district Grand Lodge to the City of Toronto, and hoping that their stay will be a happy one. At this point the keys of the lodge were presented to the District Grand Master, which was accepted with a very brief address.

The following officers were also present, District Deputy Grand Master, A. L. James, Toronto; District Grand Treasurer P. Chase, Buxton; District Grand Director, A. Prince, Buxton; and District Grand Secretary C. T. Cherry, Chatham.

After the usual routine work attending the opening of the session, District Grand Master Major R. L. Dunn made the following appointments, J. H. Browning, grand chaplain L. Parker, Grand Warden; and L. Crawford, Grand Guardian.

Following the appointments on credentials, grievances, rules and Grand Master's address, the session was adjourned at 12.30 p.m. for lunch.

The afternoon session was opened at 2 p.m. shortly after which routine business of the session was taken up and disposed of, this was followed by the reading of the reports of the district Grand Secretary and District Grand Treasurer. These were placed in the hands of the auditing committee, which afterward reported favorably thereon.

The session was brought to a close on Friday afternoon with the following officers elected for the ensuing year: Brother R. L. Dunn, District Grand Master; A. L. James, District Deputy Grand Master; P. Chase, District Grand Treasurer; J. W. Shreeves, District Grand Secretary; A. Prince,

On Friday night a reception and banquet was tendered to the delegates in Occident Hall by the Committee of Arrangements. The Chairman, A. L. James, District Deputy Grand Master gave a presentation of the District Grand Master to the audience, who, in response, thanked the committee for their cordiality on behalf of the delegats.

ADVENT OF LEAGUE IN CHATHAM, WINDSOR, AND DRESDEN ENTHUSIASTIC

On August 9th, J. F. Jenkins, Executive Secretary, left the city on a tour for the purpose of setting up branches of The Canadian League for the Advancement of Colored People. He was successful in setting up branches in Chatham, Windsor and Dresden, where the coming of the League was welcomed with unbounded enthusiasm. On Sunday evening, August 9, Mr. Jenkins spoke in the A.M.E. Church, Chatham, of which the Rev. Wm. F. Seay is pastor. The Secretary chose for his subject: "A Vision in Life." The entire audience listened to Mr. Jenkins throughout with rapt attention. On the following Monday evening a meeting was held at Johnson's Hall, King Street, at which the League was officially organized, after Rev. Seay and Secretary Jenkins had explained the aims and objects of the League.

Tuesday, August 11, Mr. Jenkins proceeded to Windsor, where complete arrangements had been made for his coming and for setting up a branch of the League. The ministers of the city deserve great credit for their hearty support and for their assistance in making the meeting a tremendous success. The meeting was held in the B.M.E. Church with Rev. W. H. Jones in the chair. Many

ANTI-EVOLUTION AND RACE PREJUDICE

An editorial in the "Crisis" for September, commently on the "Evolution trial" in Dayton, Tennessee, asserts that it was evidence of the ignorance of Nordic America, the same ignorance which brings about oppression of the Negro.

"The folk who leave white Tennessee in blank and ridiculous ignorance of what science has taught the world since 1859," asserts the editorial, "are the same ones who would leave black Tennessee and black America with just as little education as is consistent with fairly efficient labor and reasonable contentment; who rave over the 18th Amendment and are dumb over the 15th; who permit lynching and make bastardy legal in order to render their race 'pure.' It is such folk who when in sudden darkness they decry the awful faces of the Fanatic, the Fury and the Fool try to hide the vision with gales of laughter.

prominent speakers were present to add zest and enthusiasm to the occasion. After the Secretary had explained the purposes of the League the house immediately went into permanent organization. Some of Windsor's most prominent citizens were elected as officers, and as in Chatham some of the outstanding white citizens were chosen and agreed to serve on the Executive Board. The Windsor League started off with $50.00 in its treasury.

On Friday, August 14, the 11th Concession of the Township of Dresden gave Mr. Jenkins the surprise of his life. While he expected to be greeted with not more than 40 or 50 people, however when he entered the hall he was met by an audience of nearly 700 enthusiastic citizens. Even the little children, of whom there were many, seemed to sense the fact that something was being created for their benefit. After a short address by the pastor, Rev. W. L. Thrasher, the welcome address by Miss Hilda by Mr. Simmons and the Rev. Penick, the house voted to go into permanent organization. Several solos and a number by the choir were beautifully rendered. Mr. Jenkins' address was most highly appreciated by the Dresden people. Rev. Thrasher proved himself to be a great organizer and a thorough race man.

THE DEATH OF SIR ADAM BECK

Last Saturday evening the world lost one of its great men; Canada lost one of her greatest statesmen; London, her greatest citizen and the common people of Ontario, one of their greatest benefactors. Because last Saturday, Sir Adam Beck passed away. Really few, if any of us, have yet realized the tremendous loss our country has sustained in his death. For his intellect and great ability, for his zeal and tenacity, his integrity and scrupulous honesty, he was honored and was highly respected, but for his love and his tireless efforts on behalf of the common people he was himself much loved and will ever be remembered. If any of the many great qualities of Sir Adam stand out pre-eminently above the others they were his true spirit of philanthropy and his deep regard for the whole people. Although superior in intellect and in training to the average titled persons, yet he was as easily approachable as our commonest citizen. And in this he showed his real greatness.

It is impossible to think of the Hydro power and its benefits without at the same time thinking of Sir Adam Beck. It is his fitting and lasting monument. His whole soul was so wrapped up in this scheme that it often hid his gentler, sweeter, human sympathies. But one only needed to engage him in conversation to discover that these qualities were apparent. We remember his exact words when we approached him to offer him the honorary presidency of The Canadian League for the Advancement of Colored People. Said he: "If my accepting the office will lend any weight to your worthy cause I shall gladly accept it, although I am so burdened at present I fear I shall not be able to give you much of my time. Soon I hope to be relieved of some of my present duties and then I shall be able to join more heartily with you." As our president he did all he could to further the interest of the League.

As a mere boy he caught the vision of the great power of falling water from a little pool which turned the wheels of his father's mill in a little Ontario village. This vision grew so vivid and so clear that he was able in after years to harness the Falls by which operation all of Ontario is benefited. As Bishop Williams said of him: "The keynote of his whole public life was love of the people and service to the people. He spared neither his time, energy, work nor his money in their service. Really this was Sir Adam's way of serving God. Once convinced that an enterprise was right before God and for the people's good, he felt it his duty before God to throw the whole force of his personality into its achievement, irrespective of who opposed it or what the difficulties might be. Fearing God he feared nothing else. Public service was to him the highest form of religion. He served God by working for the good of the people. And is not that the best fruit of our religion?"

Services at the B.M.E. Church Sunday, were as usual, good and well attended. There is an increasing attendance at the services of this Church. The pastor and church are putting forth untiring efforts to make the services at the B.M.E. Church inviting, and God is rewarding us by sending to the Church a fair sized responsive audience each week. We were no less richly fed last Sunday than usual. Our pastor, Rev. F. O. Stewart, preached a very instructive and forceful sermon Sunday morning using the entire 23rd Psalm for the discourse. Sub. "The Christian's Psalm." 7 p.m. Sub. "The Sin of Looking Back." Text: Gen. 19:26. The design of this text said the speaker was to point out to those who are beginning to look back, that Lot's wife is a standing monument of the danger of incredulity, impudence, love of the world, apostasy from and disobedience to God. The choir under the leadership of Mr. A. C. Johnson is doing very nicely. The Sunday School and the mid-week service of

The Sunshine Club of the B.M.E. Church, North Buxton, is preparing for a monster occasion in celebrating the first Anniversary of their "Annual Home Coming" on the 6th and 7th of September. To this event all friends around Buxton are invited. Its is to be the banner event of the season. Retrospecting on the splendid success of last year, the preparation of a more elaborate program for this occasion, a most wonderful time is being looked for. Special services will be held on Sunday the 6th with appropriate sermons and addresses, and on Monday (Labour Day) will be a day of sports including bicycle and foot races, tug-of-war, ball game, etc., etc. The program for the day will be closed with a high class concert in the Church which is to be patronized by the Hon Senator McCoig and Dr. Rutherford.

Our new pastor is making a splendid impression in the village. Everyone seems to be satisfied that they have the right man for North Buxton, a preacher of great power and eloquence, and the appreciation of his services is seen by the large congregations at both morning and evening services and also at prayer meetings, where on one occasion there were 20 present. Don't forget the 6th and 7th of September.

Dr. Kelly, dentist and Dr. Chatters, physician, of Windsor, were visitors in North Buxton on Sunday and were entertained by Mr. and Mrs. Reginald Robbins. The doctors are hoping to open offices here, which has become a necessity.

HISTORICAL ASSOCIATION TO CELEBRATE ITS TENTH ANNIVERSARY

On the 9th and 10th of September the Association for the Study of Negro Life and History will celebrate its Tenth Anniversary in Washington, D.C. Coming to the end of the tenth year of this first systematic effort to embody the civilization of the Negro the management invites special attention to this occasion. It marks an epoch in the development of the Negro. The race has been gradually taught that no group can make much progress without preserving a record from which its program for the future can be worked out of the wisdom which can come only with an appreciation of the failures and successes of the past.

The Association has, therefore, increased in favor with many who at first did not take it seriously. Some thought that the society might not add anything new to the already voluminous and worthless literature on the Negro. The work did not proceed far, however, before the scientific publications of the Association convinced intelligent people that this organization had invaded a new field to render the cause of truth a distinct service. It has published facts in scientific form, believing that facts properly set forth will tell their own story.

Frederick L. Hoffman, statistician of the Prudential Life Insurance Co. likened the movement unto the important work started by John R. Green in popularizing the history of England. A. A. Goldenwiser characterized the enterprise an excellent one deserving an enthusiastic support. Dr. J. Franklin Jameson, editor of The American Historical Review, endorsed the effort as an undertaking deserving a cordial welcome. Professor W. B. Munro, of Harvard University, acclaimed the first publication an historical journal of excellent quality and Kelly Miller, styled it the most scholarly magazine ever published by Negroes.

And this is the standard to which the Association has adhered. It has not tried to whitewash the Negro by proclaiming his achievements without noting his failures. Furthermore, it has not endeavored to publish what the whites have thought of the Negro, not what they have done for their brother of African blood, and not what they have done against him. The aim of the Association has always been to adhere to the new plan of presenting the Negro himself to the world as reflected in what he himself has thought and felt and attempted and accomplished. In this way the Association has secured the support of both races who appreciate the value of saving the records of the Negro that the race may not become a negligible factor in the thought of the world.

MY LOVE AND I.

Sailing in a birch canoe,
O'er the waters so blue,
While the music's softly playing
And the trees are gently swaying;
I can hear the banjos strumming,
And melodious voices humming,
While my love and I are sailing,
'Neath a Southern sky.

As we sail on down the stream,
Just as one sees, in a dream,
Angels, climbing the golden stairs,
Playing on harps, such heavenly airs,
There drifts on the breeze, a plaintive strain,
Which from our minds all troubles drain,

And my love and I keep sailing
'Neath the Southern sky.

French Girl Well Treated in French Music Conservatory

New York, Aug. 14—Maude J. Wanzer, a colored music student, whom it was sought to bar from going to France to study at the American Conservatory in Fontainebleau, has written to the National Association for the Advancement of Colored People, 69 Fifth Avenue, to say she was cordially received there and that the French officials and professors of the school show no trace of race prejudice.

In thanking the N.A.A.C.P. for advising here to persevere in her effort to attend the school, Miss Wanzer writes:

"It is indeed a great pleasure to write to you and try in my poor way to thank you for the assistance given me in my most needful hour. Encouragement, truly, meant everything.

".....The Director of the Conservatory is really a broad and intelligent man as well as a musician. I have never in my life been accorded the kindness and welcome he extended to me. Each day he shakes my hand and says something encouraging.When they were making the pictures of one class—I thought it another—he caught my arm and took me flying through the corridor and up the stairs, calling 'Encore' and rushed me into the picture.It is such a pity that other members of my race did not come on for the trouble is truly not over here. Please thank all interested persons for me and assue the Negroes, through the papers, the trouble is not in France."

Miss Wanzer reports cordial treatment from the American students at the Conservatory, even from Girls from Texas.

Sing Sing Has First Black Guard

Ossining, N.Y., Aug. 14— Strange are the hands of fate in dealing with human lives, and especially in the appointment of Henry Quarles of 510 Classon Avenue, Brooklyn, who reported to Sing Sing Prison with his credentials, and the officials discovered that it was the first time in history that a black man had been selected as a keeper. The Warden, Lewis E. Lawes appointed Henry Quarles as the law requires from the civil service list of eligibles without knowledge of his color, but as a native born American citizen.

Word of the new guard flew like wild fire through the prison walls before night and caused quite a discussion among the criminals. Warden Lawes decided that the guarding of white criminals by a black guard might cause friction and assigned the new guard to patrol work outside of the prison walls.

Rev. W. F. Seay of the Campbell A. M. E. Church, Chatham, preached a most wonderful sermon at the Union Baptist Church Sunday afternoon. He selected for his text, Gal 6:7 "Be not deceived, God is not mocked, for whatsoever a man soweth that shall he also reap." He gave a most beautiful outline of the whole and spared no pains in stressing the many ways that we are sowing various seed. He held our people spell bound during his whole talk and proved himself a worthy and efficient minister of the Gospel. Collection was fair, raising after this wonderful sermon, for the Church $38. and for the speaker $4.51.

Editor, The Dawn of Tomorrow,—

Please allow space in your valuable paper for me to speak a few words for and about the good people of the Union Baptist Church and surrounding community of the 11 con. where one will find some of the best people in Ontario. We have just closed our third financial drive with a nice success. We have been having a great meeting at the Union Baptist Church for the last few nights. Monday night August 10th Rev. J. C. Browning of the free Baptist Church represented the Deacons and Trustees. Tuesday night the pastor spoke on the good work of the Ladies' Aid Club. Wednesday night rain prevented any meeting. Thursday night the Rev. Dr. Penick of the Queen St. Baptist Church spoke to an attentive audience. Friday night we were honored with the presence of Mr. J. F. Jenkins of London as speaker with about 600 present to hear this great young Moses who is sparing no pains in trying to get our people together. We can only say God bless Jenkins and the good work that he has engaged in. Mr. Jenkins is quite a speaker. I would to God that all our people would take time to hear this great man tell of the misfortunes and successes of the race. We had with us in this meeting the Rev. Penick who spoke also and offered a motion that we go into organization of the League which motion was carried by a vote of from 500 to 550. We want Mr. Jenkins with us again in the near future. Miss H. Carter, one of our own teachers gave the address of welcome with credit and honor. Mrs. C. Richardson sang a solo that touched the hearts of all with miss Edna Highate at the Organ. The choir of the Union Baptist Church sang the opening hymn. Prayer was offered by the pastor. Those who gave donations of 50c. or more are as follows: Dr. J. W. Rutherford $5.00; Senator McCoig $2.00; Mr. Daniel Solomon, $2.00; Ben. Richardson, $2.00; Mrs. Malone, 50c; John Davis 50c; Isaac Richardson 50c Sunday School $5.00; Rev. We are sparing no pains in trying to make this one of the greatest communities in Ontario. Our pastor is a tireless worker and a full fledged race man, one who is not ashamed of his race nor of the Gospel of Christ Jesus. When you want to enjoy yourself and have the time of your life we ask you to come to the Union Baptist Church where you will find a cordial welcome awaiting you. If you love the race let us show it, I hope all of our people will boost our paper The Dawn of Tomorrow and make one of the greatest papers of this country. It will be what we make it. Let us put it over the top. Get behind Jenkins and the Dawn.
