Mr. John Scott, cattle dealer, of Owen Sound, writes: Having been shown the Empire of Saturday last, in which I am classed as one who has left the Reform party, I wish to contradict such statement and declare it to be false and unwarranted.

The "Deaper sell" of the Empire has the

and is still a strong conservative, aspresses himself in strong terms regarding the iniquitous Dominion Franchise Act. He says he has been deputy returning officer in this polling sub-division for a great number of years, and he has had more trouble in conducting an election properly under the above act in the last two contests in this riding than he ever had before in his whole career as an election officer. He further says that it is the most cumbersome act ever passed by any Government, and that it is a disgrace that it should be upon the statute book of this Dominion.

MR. GHSON'S GREAT VIOTORY.

HAMILTON, Reb. 25.—Yesterday's glorious victory in the Provincial election, has greatly strengthened the hands of the I erals for the Dominion contest, and we the present splendid organization they c fidently expect to put Doran and Laidl at the head of the polls. The various we committees were called together and twork of the campaign laid out. The Prvincial coutest has kept back work on ti Dominion contest; but, now that the form has been triumphantly won, the Libera have started out with a will to capture Dominion seats.

The majority, it is now well understood is away past the 700 notch. Sheriff Mc Kellar was busy to-day making the officia count. The Spectator credits Mr. Gilso, with a majority of 715. The magnificen figures have completely knocked the starciout of the Tories. Their organ to-day refers to the defeat in this way:

The "honor roll" of the Empire has this announcement about a Kingston citizen who is said to have left the Reform ranks: "Mr. G. W. Robinson, carriage manufacturer, Kingston, who has never voted for Sir John in his life." The genial George was called up by telephone and positively denied the statement. "I am going to vote for Alexander Gunn. No one had any authority from me to state what appears in the Empire. I have never voted for Sir John, and will not this time."

GOOD NEWS FROM WINNIPEG.

It was not exactly a bombshell that struct the Conservative camp last evening. It was cloud-burst, a blizzard, a cyclone, an earth-silde, a water-spout-anything that strikes very hard and sudden, and spreads dismay and desolation in its track. Yes, it was a tremendous defeat.

The Conservatives had not recovered today from the thing that struck so very hard and sudden, and went around with sore and revengeful hearts, talking protest. They tried to console themseives with putting down the defeat to the "wholesale bribery," "corrupt practices," "coercion," etc., of the naughty Reformers. None of the faithful would say this morning that a protest would be entered, but they pretend to say that the matter is receiving the earnest attention of the Executive Committee. COST OF GOVERNMENT IN CANADA

For the year ending June 30, 1868, being the first year under Confederation, the en penditure on account of consolidated fund was $13,486,093. For the year ending June 30, 1874, the first under Mr. Mackenzie's administration, the expenditure was $23,316,316, being less than the estimates voted under Co servative rule.

For the year ending June 30, 1878, the last for which Mr. Mackenzie's administration was responsible, the expenditure was $23,503,158.

For the year ending June 30, 1890, the xpenditure was $35,994,031. During their first period the Conserva tives increased the yearly expenditure by $9,830,223, and during the second period they have increased it by a further sum of of $12,490,873. During the Reform period the increase of yearly expenditure was only $186,842. The public expenditure of the United States in 1845, when the population of that country was 20,000,000, was $23,000,000. In Canada in 1890, with a population of 5,000,000 the expenditure was $36,000,000. But giving the Federal Government of Canada the benefit of $4,000,000 for subsidies to Provinces, the comparison stands: Expenditure of United States Gov-ernment in 1845, with a population of 20.000,000. of 20.000,000... $23,000,000 Expenditure of Canadian Government in 1890, with a population of 5,000,000 ... $36,000,000

SOUTH MIDBLESEX. Some idea of the calibre of the Conservative candidate in South Middlesexisobtained from the extraordinary declarations that he has been making to the sturdy farmers of the riding. He has been making a laughing stock of himself. So far, however, Mr. Chisholm has written no letters. He has a lively recollection of his last political letter-writing experience. Still, as it was a remarkable missive the ADVERTISEE may reproduce an extract or two from it. The letter was sent by Mr. Chisholm to a Port Hope man, who had ventriloquial powers.

reproduce an extract or two from it. The letter was sent by Mr. Chisholm to a Port Hope man, who had ventriloquial powers. With a fine sense of fair play Mr. Chisholm asked this man to come to London in time for the meeting in December, 1886, at which Hon. Mr. Laurier was to speak. The letter then suggests that the ventriloquist should throw his voice—

On the platform so as to make the vagabond think that some of his political friends don't indorse his sentiments, and also to interrupt his remarks with a few of those choice voices in the shape of cat-calls, etc., which you know how to make so well. We will get you a seat right in front of the platform, and you will be well surrounded by friends. I will guarantee that you will have some good fun at any rate that you will have some good fun at any rate can be seen the what we want particularly is to make it is not complimentary of him. I syndigment was not complimentary or him. I syndigment the surrounded to the speaker on the vening. If you decide to come, telegraph me what time you will come and I will meet you if in the evening, or if at noon you can come to the office—above address. Of course, if you can't come I want this letter kept a secret, and will dopend on you for that. Try and come.

The letter was received; it was not destroyed; the receiver spurned the offer; and the model letter-writer was exposed. Is it not a statesmanlike document?

got into Parliament on a spurious cry. He nothing more than a Rielite, yet no sooner he voted for the election of Mr. Ouimet as Speaker of the House, though Mr. Ouimet had been a pronounced advocate of Riel? What has Dr. Roome to answer for such inconsistency? Nothing so far.

Dr. Roome claims he has ever been the farmers' friend. Is he not in favor of reciprocity in natural products or no reciprocity at all, but against reciprocity in manufactured necessaries of life? His record in Parliament will show it.

On April 23, 1890, Mr. McMullen moved in the House that binding twine be put upon the free list. Mr. Cooke also urged strongly that a combination was being formed and that it would largely increase the price to the farmer; that by taking off or removing the duty we could obtain it for nearly one-half from the American market. But no. This man, Dr. Roome, to whom the farmers had given their confidence and support, who had fostered him in days long since gone—what do we find? We find him voting high tariff. Hurrah for the National Policy! Down with the farmer! He voted with the "Grand Old Man" as he has learned to call him, 88 to 45, and the duty was raised accordingly.

MINING MACHINERY.

On Feb. 26, 1890, Dr. Platt presented the resolution, of which he had given notice, that machinery designed for use in mining operations should not be subject to customs duty when imported into Canada for mining purprese. In a word the debate was carried on by Mr. Dawson, Mr. Jones, of Halifax, Messrs. Armstrong, Charlton, Cooke, Cartwright, Sir Donald Smith and even Mr. Foster admitted that the House had been pressed from all sides. And yet Dr. Roome said: "My chief says I must not interfere with the National Policy. We must stand to our guns. We must keep up this high tariff wall. I must be loyal to my party first." That is the view Dr. Roome took when sitting there drawing his $1,000 a session. Not a word to say in the interest of the poor miner—only to vote high tariff. CENTRAL PARMERS' INSTITUTE.

When the Central Farmers' Institute assembled in 1890 out of 120 delegates all voting for the resolution (but 4) asked the Government to reduce the taxes on articles of prime necessity, such as coal, steel, iron, woolens, cottons, corn, sugar, salt and the like, so as to relieve the farmer from the

HAMILTON.

The Liberals have scored a magnificen victory in Hamilton, and the friends of peace, progress and prosperity throughout the Dominion have much cause for rejele-

Hon. J. M. Gibson, Provincial Secretary, has been elected by a majority of fully 700 of us have to do, but by means of Governvotes over his opponent, Mr. T. H. Stinson, the wealthy young man who through corrupt means carried the seat at the general election by a majority of 85.

The victory is all the more significant seeing that, though an election for the Legislature, the Hamilton Conservatives insisted on making their high tax policy an issue in the campaign. When they wanted to have a demonstration that would influence the electors they did not send for Mr. W. R. Meredith, their leader in the Legislature, or Mr. Sol. White, his annexationist lieutenant in that body. They imported the Dominion Tory leader and the lordly Tupper, and attempted to overawe the honest electors of Works would not lie in idleness. Why Hamilton by simulated enthusiasm and should it? We would have free raw ma-Combine-purchased Chinese crackers and terial, splendid railway facilities, and Roman caudles. These Dominion leaders farmers with more money to spend. The Stove Combine might be broken been offered up for sacrifice, and up, the competition in some lines every day for weeks past the Hamilton Spectator, dropping its old cries against the Ontario Government-its but no independent citizen of Canada rascally appeals to sectarian and race would cavil on that point. prejudice-has centered its efforts on making the people of Hamilton understand that as went Hamilton in the election this week so would go the Dominion elections next week. That we may not do our contemporary an injustice, we copy the following declaration of the issues printed in the ctator of the day before the election:

"A Conservative victory to-morrow makes a Conservative victory on the 5th of March absolutely safe. A Conservative de-feat to-morrow would make the battle for the Dominion harder and put the result in results doubles.

"The man who desires the success of Messrs. McKay and Ryckman is working directly against that success by voting for directly against that success by voting for Gibson.

"The interests in the two contests are the same. The party has not one policy for the Dominion and another for the Province. It is one party, with one policy, and that is the development of this Canada of ours. That policy can be supported in the Legislature as in Parliament. The Mowat Government compassas protection, and throws its

Support the Liberal candidates and you will have a favorable arrangement completed at once, but ample time will be given to enable manufacturers to suit themselves to the changed condition.

A REALLY SECRET BALLOT. The Free Press agrees with the ADVER-TISER that the ballot is really secret. This will afford hundreds of Conservatives a quiet opportunity of voting for their own interests by voting for Conciliation and

MR. M'CLARY OPPOSED BY INDE-PENDENT MANUFACTURERS.

A Kingsville correspondent writes:

"Is Mr. John McClary a Reformer, or was he ever a Reformer? If so, when did he change to be a Conservative? I was not aware that he was ever a Reformer. At the time London was my home I always understood that his vote and influence was on the Conservative side? My reasons for asking are: His friends through this section are hawking a copy of the Free Press around, showing his letters and telling the people that he was a life-long Reformer, and that he has now changed because he could see that free trade would ruin our country."

Mr. McClary has never taken a very prominent part in public affairs. Though he became rich under a system of low taxation, it has always been understood that he favored the establishment of the so-called National Policy, which enabled him and others to form a stove combine and ADVERTISER PRINTING COMPANY control the market of Canada as their nterests dictated. For this reason, whatever political predictions Mr. McClary had in early life, it is certain that he has always been tinctured with the idea that it was profitable for him that he should be subjected to a slittle competition as possible, while enjoying the opportunity provided by the Dominion Government of importing labor from abroad with perfect freedom. Thus it will be seen that Mr. McClary entertains and has in the past entertained the view that the only proper way to carry on his business is not in open competition with his neighbors, as the overwhelming majority ment aid.

Mr. McClary says he will shut down his place of business if he and his fellow members of the Stove Combine are not allowed to retain the class privileges which the policy of high taxation confers upon them. Mr. McClary is reported to be a million aire. Suppose the Liberal policy carries, and we have Unrestricted Reciprocity with the United States, there are capita ists who would be delighted to take over Mr. McClary's works at a fair valuation and run them. Indeed, inquiries have already been made about the Globe Works, now standing idle, as they have been for years, on the strength of a belief that a change is assured. With a wider market might be keener, and smaller profits holders of Government special privileges, Mr. Doherty, of Sarnia, has been sneered at because his factory is smaller than some that we know of. But surely an honest man, who is willing to accept the condition of a fair field and no favor should be commended for his pluck. He has told us that with Unrestricted Reciprocity he would vastly increase his business, and we believe him. Mr. Wm. Buck, of Brantford, who employs at least 175 men in the stove business, says the same thing. The Laidlaw Manufacturing Company, of Hamilton, large manufacturers of stoves, furnaces and steam radiators, are also earnest advo-cates of Unrestricted Reciprocity, and Mr. Adam Laidlaw, the senior partner, is one of the Liberal candidates in the present contest in the Ambitious City. He has reached the conclusion that, apart from the Combines, the manufacturing business of Canada could not be worse than it has been under the "N. P." In a recent ad-

Is the development of this Canada of ours. That policy can be supported in the Legis Lature as in Parliament. The Mowat Government opposes protection, and throws its strength in favor of commercial union. The man who gives his support to Mr. Gibson places himself in opposition to the National Policy."

Viewing it in this light as we have a right to do, knowing the overwhelming public opinion that there is in favor of a change, we are prepared to believe that the great Liberal victory in Hamilton is a precursor of the greater victory throughout the country on March 5. There are indications of it all along the line. Patriotic Conservatives are flocking to the side of reciprocity and fair play everyday, and the Government of the Combines is doomed. Let every vote be polled, and the result cannot be doubted.

Copp Bros., another large stove firm, also oppose Mr. McClary's "blue ruin" views. They favor Unrestricted Reciprocity because of the good that it would do the general community. Ald. Wm. Copp, in seconding the nomination of Mr. Laidlaw and Mr. Doran, the two manufacturers who are the Liberal candidates opposing the retired liquor dealers that have been put up by the Conservatives in Hamilton on the present occasion, said:

put up by the Conservatives in Hamilton on the present occasion, said:

"Mr. Doran has filled the mayor's chair for two years, and no one ever did the effice more credit. My friend and brother mannatricted feet this this this this this policy arrying more redit. My friend and brother mannatric trees that is wise to have a city like Hamilton repeter when go to Ottawa an give their voices in favor of legislation that would injure the manufacturer and workman are one (applause), and you can do no better than return manufacturers. I have been grieved by the ories of disloyalty. I have recently been in England, and there I told them I was a Grit. (Applause.) I was usked, 'Are not the Grits of Canada diselval' and I said emphatically that they were not. I pointed out that it must be a vast benefit to canadians to be in a position to trade with the United States on an equal footing owing to the proximity of the countries. I am an Englishman, but my heart is for Canada first. (Applause.) I told them that it was coming to a question of reciprocity or annexation with the United States and showed them that reciprocity was the only thing that would wipe out the annexation tendency. I believe the Conservative party cannot grapple with reciprocity. Only the Liberals tives a ir own on and farmers it would be if they could sell their way, also voted against the proposition to reduce the income necessary to obtain a vote from $500 to $250 out of the United States there will be dis-satisfaction and a consequent cry for an-nexation. But the Tories say that Can-ada's manufacturers cannot stand up against those of the United States. I have no fear for the Canadian. Be he a manufacturer, a workman, a scholar or statesman, the Can-dian can stand up against the American and come out best as a rule. Feeling thus I have no fear for Canada should we get free trade. The Canadians cannot come out second best."

That is the way to talk. Is it not a ore manly, straightforward and fair position to assume than that taken up by the men who clamor for special privileges at the expense of their fellows?

The mass meeting of electors had a great treat last night in the splendid speech of Joseph Tait, M.P.P. The trade question was never better handled, the absurdities seldom more neatly exposed, while the bogus loyalty cry was riddled with shot and shell of wit and ridicule in a style to carry the audience enthusiastically.

SINCERITY OF TORY CRIES. It might be well for any who attach imortance to the bogus loyalty cries got up by the gentlemen of the Combines, to reflect how these cries will appear in the course of a fortnight.

These cries are got up for the use of the 6,000, with corresponding industrial and residential wealth. The figures for 1876 do not include thes uburbs. The figures for 1890 do, as the two new wards were included in the nent of last year. This fact is co cealed by the high tax advocates, who try thus by false pretenses, to make believe that their policy has helped the city.

But for this dodge, the figures given

Our esteemed local contemporary com-plains that Mr. Tait spoke of Sir Charles Tupper as "that old rogue." What Mr. Tait said was, "that old roue."

Our city contemporary refuses to be convinced that sugar, for April delivery, has been offered for sale in New York at 45 cents per pound for granulated, and 33 cents to 38 cents for yellow. Our authority is the Prices Current of that city of the 21st inst. We are indersed by a leading w sale merchant of this city. Is there a Tory dealer in London who can quote reliable prices to the contrary? Under that arrangement with Unrestricted Reciprecity, there would be a great reduction in the price of sugar in Canada. The reason for the fall of prices is to be found in the big reduction in the United States duty on sugar which comes into effect on April 1. Why does our conten-

Killed by a Falling Tree.

Springfield, Ont., Feb. 25.—A terrible accident occurred Monday morning between 11 and 12 o'clock on the 9th concession of South Dorehester. While John Ireland was 5 felling timber a lodged tree suddenly descended upon him, crushing his head and mutilating his body in a horrible manner. He was at once taken to his home, and Dr. Minshall, of Brownsville, summoned, but his services were of no avail, as the injured man expired shortly after his arrival. He leaves a wife and large family to mourn his loss.

CAMPAIGN SUGGESTIONS.

The Best Means to Win the Election Now at Hand.

The following suggestions may be of service in the coming election: "In close constituencies particularly, the very best sorutineers possible should be secured and they should be on hand when the polls are opened, as questionable votes are often hurried in before the arrival of the service side do not allow him to be 'bluffed' if he had a proper right to vote. James Anderson, president of the Windstone Board of Trade, says he thinks he is quite as capable of speaking for the business men of Windsor as the lawyers whom the Conservatives have now on the stimp in Essex county, and who delight in saying that Unrestricted Reciprocity with the United States would ruin the business men of Windsor. Mr. Anderson is proprietor of one of the largest retail establishments in town, and he says he would ask no favors from the merchants of Detroit in the event of free commercial union. He feels quite confident that the business interests of Windsor would be benefited rather than depreciated by Unrestricted Reciprocity. Protest Against the Disgraceful

To the Editors of the Adventure and Free Press:
During the past two weeks we have heard a great deal about "the old flag," and because the Reformers advocate free trade and reciprocity they are accused of disloyalty. I think this is unfair, unjust and untrue. When the volunteers were ordered out during the late Riel rebellion, was it only the Consenyative volunteers that obeyed the command, and did the volunteers who were Reformers in politics refuse to obey that command? I think not. I know to the very contrary. I firmly believe that the Reformers of this city and of Ontario are just as loyal, just as true and equally as ready to fight for "the old olag" to-morrow as we Conservatives are. I think, therefore, that it is not honorable, it is not right, to accuse the Liberals of this city and Mr. Hyman, their representative, of "disloyalty," which simply means, in other words, "treason."

All contests such as horse-racing, boatracing, foot-racing, tennis, football, hockey, etc., are supposed to be, and every endeavor is made to have them conducted on fair and honorable grounds, and surely a political contest should rise to the same level.

Personally, therefore, I protest to this cry of "disloyalty" being used against my

Mr. Chisholm at Glaworth said the amount of the Government's income would be reduced by $13,000,000 freeiprocity were adopted and to-night he had stated the figures at $16,000,000. This was another remarkable instance of Mr. Chisholm's unreliability and lack of knowledge of subjects he attempted to speak on. The Democrats would be elected in the United States, and thus that country's tariff would be reduced by the speaker and four sons whom he taught, first to love their Good and second to love their country. They would be ready to fight for the British flag as their father was, and in all their veins coursed that same blood which had been freely spilled as Queenston Heights and Lundy's Lane. If it came to fight they would fight to the last breath.

And old Kenyon flushed, almost breath-less, paused and mopped his brow with a silk nandkerchief as red as his face. There was silence a moment. Captain Lane's kindly features wore an expression half grave, half quizzical. Hearn had edged around nearer where Miss Marshall was sitting, and that young lady had dropped her dainty embrodiery in her lap and was listening attentively. Something in the gravity of her demeanor gave Kenyon encouragement.

in the gravity of her demeanor gave Kenyon encouragement.

"Now, you, Miss Marshall, are accustomed to social circles in the North. Tell me frankly, now, did you ever hear men prominent in civil life express any other opinion of the profession of an army officer than that it was rather a useless, dawdling and unworthy occupation?"

"In peace times, I presume you mean, major?"

"In peace times, I presume you mean, major?"

"In peace times, certainly; though the necessity for its existence then is as great. You recollect what Washington said; 'In time of peace prepare for war."

"I confess that men who leadnarrow lives in business or professions and never get beyond the groove are apt to say something of what you suggest, major. But men who think and travel, especially those who have visited our frontier, come back with feelings of much admiration for the army, officers and men."

of much admiration for the army, officers and men."

'Then I'll rest my case with the men who think and travel," said Hearn, laughing brightly. 'Come you old cynic, don't make me believe I have no friends outside my profession, when it sometimes seems as though I hardly had one in it."

'Now, there you go, Hearn," interrupted Kenyon, 'That's just exactly where you're wrong. You would trust to the few traveled and educated men; but what are they among the mass of voters, who know noth-

Do you ever see anything good of an arm offices in any paper until he's dead? Never, unless it's something put in by a 'newspaper soldier;' and God save me from more of them. What could your thinkers and travelers do, even if they would condescend to bestir themselves in our behalf,—which they don't—as against the masses and the press? No paper in the land is so low but what it can hurt and sting you."

'How? I should like to know."

'How? I should like to know."

'How? Simply by printing any low scandel at your expense; and no matter what your record or your character may have been, no matter how damnable a lie may be asserted of you, the mass of the people will read and believe, and your natural protectors—the generals and the War Department—will call upon you to defend yourself against even anonymous assault."

"You do not mean that, major, do you?, assault."

"You do not mean that, major, do you?, ask Miss Marshall.

"I do, emphatically. I have seen officers time and again compelled to report to division or department head-quarters that they were innocent of allegations made by nameless scribblers in the daily press. I have seen the most abstemious men in the army heralded as drunk on duty by a sheet that witheld the name of its informant. But all the same the officers were called to account. When we were sent to aid the marshals in breaking up the whisky distilleries in Brooklyn; when the first colored cadets were sent to West Point; when Chicago was burned and we had to shoot some prowling robbers torid the ruined city of a gang the delivered. Chicago was burned and we had to shoot some prowling robbers torid the ruined city of a gang that flocked there; when we were hurried in again in '77, and all the great cities of the north were practically at the mercy of the mob—at every one of those times, and heaven only knows how many times between, the press made scandalous assertions by name about one officer or another. In most cases there was no truth whatever in what was said; in ever case, however, the officer was compelled by his superiors to establish his innecence. By heaven! I'll never forget our experience in '77. We were ordered to lose not an Lieutenant Nairn with a small guard at the of engine and kept the strikers off, asing nor force, saying not a word making no reply to jeers and insult; but the leading paper came out next day and denounced Nairn early we were both reeling drunk, and gave most outrageous details of things that never happened. Of course, as army officers were the targets of this abuse, the artical of was copied by eastern papers. Nairn was a man who never drank a drop; had a magnificient war record; was a general officer of voinnteers, and a gentleman honored throughout the whole service. All the same he and I were compelled to submit written denials to department head-quarters and all the satisfaction we ever got was that the editor said his reporter had perhaps been unduly influenced by the prejudiced statements of the strikers. Why hadn't this occursed to him in the first place? Why didn't he know that these men, furious at being thwarted, would say anything to revenge themselves after we had gone on our way? He did; but because just such sensational articles would make his paper sell among the masses, and because he knew that were the army officer had one friend he had a sorre of enemies, that was enough for him. Now, that, and a host of similar experiences, is why I say no son of mine shall ever take up so thankless a profession. Of course if the country were in danger, flag assailed, he would fight as I would. As for me, I'm too old a dog to learn new tricks, and having lived his paper so, major, although I admit that the press has been most unjust; but I think we have more friends among the pople than you give us credit for."

"Not one bit of it I You think the press knows better now and wouldn't do it all over again. That's what Hearn here would say. Now, you mark my words, gentlemen, so few are our friends in this country—that is, in the North at least—either in the press or the public, that any story at the expense of an army officer would be eagerly published by almost any paper in the hand and used as a text by hundre

—A grand organ recital, conducted by London talent, was held in the Baptist Tabernacle, Ingereoll, Tuesday night before a large and critical audience. Prof. W. C. The programme was a difficult one, but well rendered.

The Bill To Be Paid.

Chairman Jones, Commissioner Davis, City Engineer Tracy, Secretary Ellwood and Inspector Platt attended a meeting of the Water Commissioner yesterday afternoon. City Solicitor Meredith recommended as the best method of settling the Colville springs expropriation account that a check for $6,000, with six months' interest at 6 per cent., be handed into court. The treasurer was instructed accordingly. Mr. A. E. Ashton's communication, expressing his submission to his alleged exorbitant water rate account, was filed. The engineer's pumping report and the consideration of the estimates, as per the Council's request, were laid over until next meeting. Usual accounts were passed.

Mr. Watson's Concert.

Mr. A. J. Watson's concert given to his customers and friends last evening in Victoria Hall was a highly successful affair, the edifice being more than filled. Mrs. Ada H. Gauld's readings were most enjoyable, her dialect number showing rare powers and eliciting hearty appreciation, particularly in her admirable rendition of Frank Desprez's "Lasca." Mrs. Gauld's genuine ability as an elocutionist is well known in London. Miss Ricita Mutch and Dr. Ziegler, as the soloists, were in good voice and repeatedly encored. Messrs. Forsythe, Drewe, Freeland and Standfield made a capital quartet, their selections being executed in faultiess style. Mr. W. S. Corbin showed decided musical talent in his flute solo with guitar accompaniment, while the performances of the London Harmony Club were up to their usual standard. Mr. A. Allen was an almost perfect accompanist.
