MR. CHAPLEAU ANGRY.

The Secretary of State in a Rebellious Mood.

Rumors Current That He Has Tendered His Resignation.

His Hopes of Securing the Coveted Portfolio Blighted.

An Ottawa special of Monday's date says: Mr. Caapleau was in excellent spirits all day until the arrival of the mail from Toronto, which brought with it for him the hardest stroke of fortune's disfavor which he has suffered since he began, after Sir John Macdonald's death, his desperate fight for control of the Department of Railways and Canals. When he read in the newspaper published in the Government's interest in Toronto the leading article, declaring that it was out of the question that in the reconstruction of the Cabinet he should be given charge of the Department of Railways and Canals, and that the exposures of dishonest practices in the Government Printing Bureau made it imperative that he should remain at the head of his present department until the state of affairs in that most important branch of the department was set to rights, he saw the end of his hopes for supremacy here in the capital as political master of Quebec. That newspaper is maintained in Toronto as the organ of the Government, and its leading article had its inspiration directly from Premier Abbott, who is now resolved to crush Mr. Chapleau's pretension. Of the leading newspapers in Ontario friendly to the Government one after another has made its denunciation of Mr. Chapleau's claims, and last of all the Toronto organ has cast its stone against him. Premier Abbott has his mind made up to rid his Administration of Mr. Chapleau and cut loose the millstone hung aroung the neck of the Government, which Col. O'Brien declared him to be. He will bring into his reconstructed Cabinet the strongest representatives of Quebec whom he can make choice of, and leave his Government to stand or fall by the verdict of the country.

Mr. Chapleau, when spoken to with respect to the declaration made in the Government's Toronto organ, was in a most agitated state. "They speak of the purification of the Printing Bureau, which I must bring about," he exclaimed, "but I tell you that it is already done. On the 1st day of November Samuel E. Dawson, of Montreal, becomes Queen's Printer, and Col. Brown Chamberlin retires. Then Assistant Superintendent McMahon takes Andre Senecal's place on the same day. Is not this purification? What more can be demanded of me? It cannot now be said any longer by my enemies, can it, that I must remain at the head of my present department to purify it? These changes, these new appointments, all that purifies it absolutely, and leaves me free to take any other portfolio, does it not? For I tell you the claims of Quebec shall not be disregarded or made little of. Quebec must and shall obtain what is her just rights, and what she is justly entitled to in the control of Confederation. My Province is not to be tyrannized over or slighted, and the Government will find she can enforce her claims. As for what my own honor and dignity demand, I shall not now speak further. I go to Montreal to consult again with my friends. After that consultation I shall speak."

Premier Abbott, who was seen within the same half-hour, told his interviewer that there was nothing new in the political situation that he considered worthy of any special utterance by him for publication. All along he has as far as possible ignored Mr. Chapleau's strenuous struggle for the control of the Department of Railways and Canals. His policy is to ignore it until it is at its end. The other Ministers go about with every appearance of having no knowledge of any political crisis.

CHAPLEAU'S RESIGNATION REPORTED.

The Globe's Ottawa special says: Political excitement runs high in Ottawa tonight over the positive statement made by Mr. Chapleau's intimates that he has resigned. Mr. Chapleau declines to say whether he has or not, yet his action in absenting himself from the Council to-day is strong evidence that he has. Mr. Chapleau is very hot over the slap in the face administered gently by the chief Government organ.

"Is it true that you have resigned?" was asked.

"I cannot say," was the reply. "I am engaged in pour parlers with the Premier, and you may say that no feeling exists between us." He would say no more.

Premier Abbott was asked if the report was true, but he said he was not at liberty to say. He said he could not speak of matters which were before Council or to come before Council, which implied that Mr. Chapleau's resignation had either been placed before his colleagues by the Premier or would be.

SECESSION THREATENED.

Le Canada, a Chapleau paper, in a strong article believed to be inspired, threatens the Government that if Mr. Chapleau is not treated properly his followers will find room under the banner of Mr. Laurier. The article, which is headed "Let Us Fight Under Laurier," denounces Mr. Abbott as being under the control of the fanantics of Ontario, and adds that the Premier's hand is not strong enough to hold the reins. Mr. Chapleau's refusal to attend council, although he was up in his department, is an indication that he regards himself as outside the Counsel of the Government until he is given the portfolio of Railways and Canals. It is undoubtedly a fact that his resignation is in the hands of the Premier, to take effect immediately Mr. Abbott and Sir John Thompson decide to throw him over.

THE SECRETARY IN MONTREAL.

MONTREAL, Oct. 28.—The Secretary of State arrived in Montreal last night and went at once to the St. Lawrence Hall. There he was met by prominent Conservatives, J. Israel Tarte, C. A. Dansereau, Richard White, Robert White, M.P., and others. The conference lasted some time, and when it was over the gentlemen announced that they had Mr. Chapleau's authority for stating that he had not resigned, but further than this they were not at liberty to say. To a member of Parliament he said he was not in a position to make any statement. The prevalent opinion here among Liberals and Conservatives is that he has resigned. The Conservative camp is in a turmoil as none of the rank and file know in whom to put confidence, and even the leaders distrust each other.

THE MODERN "JACK CADE."

John Morley Criticises Joseph Chamberlain

And Recalls Some Interesting Reminiscences—Sound on the Home Rule Question.

LONDON, Oct. 27.—John Morley, M.P. for Newcastle-on-Tyne, spoke at Manchester last night. He paid a high tribute to Parnell as a leader. "Unfortunately," said Mr. Morley, "the stage darkened before the curtain fell." He, however, was glad to think that though the provocation was extreme through the tragic fifth act of the drama, neither himself nor his colleagues had used a single recriminating word in relation to Parnell, whose later actions never blinded them to the importance of the work he had achieved for Ireland. For himself, come weal, come woe, he would never regret that he had given six of the best years of his life to the great cause.

Proceeding to criticise Mr. Chamberlain's speech, Mr. Morley asked what John Bright would have thought of his assertion that the credit for good legislation belonged to the Conservatives. How was it that Chamberlain worked heart and soul in 1880 to oust the Salisbury Government, which he denounced as those "who neither toiled nor spun"? Not so long since Earl Salisbury dubbed Chamberlain as "the Modern Jack Cade." This reconciliation was very wonderful, and Chamberlain must repent as he looks back at the errors of his misspent political life. (Laughter.) He earnestly recommended this sad spectacle to the Unionists as a warning of the steep incline they were hurrying themselves to. Then if Mr. Gladstone's Cabinet had made such an awful mess of it why did not Chamberlain resign. He concluded by denying Chamberlain's assertion that he advocated handing Egypt over to France or barbarism. He was certain Lord Salisbury did not desire its permanent occupation and would thank Chamberlain for his language about Egypt.

DYNAMITE OUTRAGE IN DUBLIN.

Attempt to Blow Up the McCarthyite Newspaper Office—Michael Davitt Not a Candidate.

DUBLIN, Oct. 27.—There was great excitement in Dublin last evening owing to an attempt to blow up the office of the National Press, the organ of the McCarthyites. The members of the staff of the paper were about beginning the night's work, when a bomb fell in the area in front of the windows on Abbey street, where the editors' rooms are situated. The bomb exploded with a tremendous report, but fortunately there was no one in these particular rooms at the time and, consequently, no one was hurt. The window glass was broken, the casings shattered and the furniture in the room badly damaged. The offices in the basement were also badly damaged, and windows in all the adjacent houses were broken. An enormous crowd quickly collected. The authorities thus far are without any clue whatever. Almost universally the credit for the outrage is given to the Parnellites.

Michael Davitt has finally declined to contest the seat for North Kilkenny, as he believes he will be more useful outside of Parliament till the general election occurs.

COFFINED ALIVE!

Fearful Fate of a Pennsylvania Farmer —Horrible Evidences that He Was Buried Alive.

ERIE, Pa., Oct. 27.—Farmer George Heddecker, of Green township, apparently died suddenly of what was supposed to be heart failure, two weeks ago. The body was four days later temporarily interred. It was transferred yesterday, and when the casket was opened it was found that the body had turned round, and the interior of the casket bore traces of a terrible struggle. The distorted and blood-covered features bore evidence of the agony endured. The clothing about the head and neck had been torn in shreds, as was likewise the lining of the coffin, bloody marks of finger nails on the face, throat and neck told of the awful despair of the doomed man, who tore his own flesh in his agony. Several fingers had been bitten off and the hands torn with the teeth until they scarcely resembled those of a human being.

The Fastest Yet.

LONDON, Oct. 27.—The steamer Teutonic, from New York for Liverpool, was signaled off Browhead at 9:55 this morning, having beaten the fastest previous record from New York. She experienced stormy weather.

LONDON, Oct. 28.—The Teutonic made the trip from New York in 5 days, 21 hours and 3 minutes.

Juvenile Train-Wreckers Confess Their Crime.

LONDON, Oct. 27.—To-day the police of Croyden arrested two boys, charged with placing obstructions in front of the eastbound express. They confessed they had placed fish plates and iron chains where they were found in order to gratify their desire to see a train derailed.

Narrow Escape of Railroad Passengers.

BIRMINGHAM, Ala., Oct. 27.—On the Birmingham and Atlantic Railroad yesterday a passenger train of two coaches went through a burning trestle twenty feet high and was entirely consumed. All the passengers broke through the windows and escaped unhurt. Engineer Northcalt and the fireman were pulled out of the wreck by the passengers.

Canadian Savings Bank Business.

OTTAWA, Oct. 27.—The returns just published in the Gazette show $21,678,056 87 in the Dominion postoffice savings banks at the end of September, against $21,746,564 25 at the end of August last and $22,689,578 45 at the end of September, 1890. The deposits last month were $530,674 and The withdrawals $901,278 79. The deposits made in the Government savings banks during September were $255,705 90 and the withdrawals $309,274 99, leaving a total balance at the credit of the depositors of $17,305,000 05, against $18,452,139 60 for September last year.

A HOWLER!

Destructive Storm in Northern Ohio—Old Boreas Makes Good Time.

CONNEAUT, Ohio, Oct. 28.—A terrible cyclone struck this town shortly after 6 o'clock Monday evening. Secord's butter tub factory, worth $50,000, was completely wrecked. The Lake Shore depot was also demolished, and wreckage strewn upon the tracks for about half a mile, rendering them impassable for several hours. Both the Nickel Plate and the Lake Shore telegraph lines are tangled up on the ground, and many fine residences were unroofed and otherwise damaged. It is thought no lives were lost.

The storm was very severe all through Northern Ohio and much damage to shipping is reported. In Cleveland the velocity of the wind was from 30 to 40 miles an hour all night, and Lake Erie was literally turned inside out. Several vessels are reported wrecked.

The cyclone came off the lake from the northwest, sweeping all before it, many people narrowly escaping with their lives. The residence of James Ferguson was totally destroyed, and his wife and 10-year-old daughter were severely injured. The farm barns of Silas Hile were torn to pieces, and a large number of cattle disabled. The Record establishment was unroofed, and the engine-room and engine destroyed. The Pond planing mill, adjoining, was partly torn down and the lumber spread for over a mile. In East Conneaut about fifteen houses suffered from the storm. The large store of Weldon, Babbit & Co. was unroofed, and the stock greatly damaged by the rain and hail which followed. The Lake Shore Railway buildings were wrecked and wires town down, and they were cut off from all communication with the west.

POLITICAL POINTS.

The Protest Against Mr. Watson—Hon. C. F. Fraser Takes a Trip.

The protest against the return of Mr. Watson, the Liberal member for Marquette, Man., will be heard on the 9th prox.

The Hon. C. F. Fraser leaves home today (Tuesday) for the benefit of his health, and hopes to return in time for the approaching session of the Legislature. He goes first to Colorado, and may perhaps go on to California. In his absence the Hon. R. Harcourt, Provincial Treasurer, will be acting Commissioner of Public Works.

"Prosecute me?" says Uncle Thomas. "Let them try it if they dare. No, the Minister of Justice and the Premier know too much to attempt to prosecute me or the two Connolly boys, either."

A Quebec telegram says: During the past two days copies of a requisition to Thomas McGreevy to stand again as a candidate for Quebec West have been industriously circulated by a number of his political friends. To-night, it is asserted, by the prime mover in the matter that there are in all 1,700 signatures on the lists, and McGreevy will certainly contest the constituency.

There are twelve election petitions before the Supreme Court at Ottawa. The first on the list is that of Lisgar, in which the petitioner appeals from the judgment setting aside his petition against Ross, the sitting member. Informalities in the petition were alleged. The other cases are: Prince county, P. E. I., Perry and Yeo; King's county, N. S., Borden vs. Barteaux; Glengarry, Ont., McLennan vs. Chisholm; Stanstead, Que., Rider vs. Snow; Shelburne, N. S., White vs. Greenwood; Annapolis, N. S., Mills vs. Ray; Lunenburg, N.S., Kaulbach vs. Eisenhaner; Antigonish, N. S., Thompson vs. McGillivray; Pictou, N. S., Tupper vs. McColl; Inverness, N.S., McDonald vs. Cameron. All the cases are in regard to preliminary objections.

The attention of Hon. J. A. Chapleau was called to an editorial in the Empire, in which it was hinted he had better remain in the position of Secretary of State. Mr. Chapleau said he considered it due to the Province which he represented that they should have a voice in the rearrangement of the Cabinet. Until he had consulted his friends and constituents he could say no more.

It is believed in Ottawa that Premier Abbott has decided not to yield to Mr. Chapleau's clamor for the portfolio of Railways and Canals, and will defy the threatened revolt of the irate Secretary of State and his Quebec following.

The Montreal Gazette admits that Mr. Abbott has a heavy contract on hand in the proposed reconstruction of the Cabinet, and that there are dissensions within and foes without, that may dash the Government to pieces.

Thirty Houses Wrecked.

CONNEAUT, Ohio, Oct. 27.—A cyclone here last evening destroyed 30 houses. Loss, $100,000.

Chapleau vs. the Globe.

OTTAWA, Oct. 28.—Mr. Chapleau has taken action against the Toronto Globe claiming $10,000 damages. The documents when stripped of technicalities affirm that the statement of the Globe that Mr. Chapleau had offered through an intermediary to join the Liberal party was not true, and that it damaged his character to the extent of $10,000.

Lottery Officers Arrested.

BOSTON, Oct. 28.—The United States grand jury of this district has indicted the officers of the Louisiana lottery for illegally using the mails. They are all attached to the home office, in New Orleans, and most of them live in that city.

SIOUX FALLS, S. D., Oct. 28.—Last night District Attorney Stearling received word from New Orleans that the lottery defendants had been arrested. He will have the cases for an adjourned term in December.

Miss Sarah Ann Moore, of Little River, Que., has just fallen heir to $15,000. Miss Moore was betrothed to an estimable young man named Frank Smith, of Montreal, who died in Boston in July, 1890, bequeathing all his property to Miss Moore.

A Hamilton dispatch says: The Dean of Niagara, John Gamble Geddes, age 81 years, is lying at his home in this city in a very low condition. The dean was in his usual health on Sunday, and took part in the evening service at Christ Church Cathedral, of which church he was rector for 45 years. Tuesday morning he was seized with an attack of pneumonia.

UNITED STATES.

Seventy-five mules were burnt to death in a fire at Evansville, Ind., yesterday.

The murderer Williamson, under sentence of death at Sedalia, stated to-day that he alone killed his wife, who disappeared in 1889, that he killed a man by the name of Koch, and that he butchered an entire family near Centralia, Ills., in 1883.

The factory of the United States Mine Supply Company at Cleveland was completely destroyed by an explosion and fire yesterday afternoon. The charred remains of John Fink, 14 years old; Alfred Schaefer, 17 years old, and Paul Pfannkuche were dug out of the ruins. Several employes were injured, but not seriously.

One of the largest book deals ever consummated in America was closed Tuesday, the University of Chicago being the purchaser and S. Simon, of Berlin, the seller. The library has 280,000 volumes and 120,000 dissertations in all languages. The catalogue price is between $600,000 and $700,000, and the estimated booksellers' price is $300,000.

The New York Court of Appeals has handed down a decision affirming the ruling in the Tilden will case and declaring the will invalid. The estate is now believed to be worth $8,000,000. Mrs. Wm. B. Hazard, whose husband is a clerk in New York, is the only heir on the Pelton side and is thus entitled to $4,000,000; the other $4,000,000 is subject to the claims of six children of Henry A. Tilden.

Special Customs Inspector Sessions has informed the Treasury Department, at Washington, of the seizure of several lots of clothing, valued at $40, which had been smuggled into Troy, N. Y., from Canada. His report shows a systematic method of smuggling on the part of certain Canadian tailors having customers in Troy and other cities in New York. The goods are delivered to customers by the connivance of railroad employes.

BRITISH AND FOREIGN.

Paris had a $15,000 fire yesterday.

Floods are still doing much damage in various parts of England.

A large wall in the city of Tunis which had been undermined by the flood collapsed and buried 30 natives.

Seven hundred and eighty-four persons were burned out by the fire at Meiringen, Switzerland, last Sunday.

The papers of the late Mr. Parnell have been placed in sealed boxes and deposited in the vaults of the Bank of Brighton.

The French Chamber of Deputies voted $240,000 for the relief of the sufferers from recent floods in the south of France.

The National Press charges the Freeman's Journal and United Ireland with the responsibility of Monday night's outrage.

The Berlin Reichsanzeiger (official), by order of Emperor William, comments editorially to-day upon the deplorable immorality prevalent in Berlin.

Dr. Griffith Jones, a missionary at Hankow, asserts that the Chinese riots were not fomented by secret societies but by the Hunan and official classes.

The official report of the late railroad accident near Moirans, France, shows that the first accounts were exaggerated. Two persons were killed and 21 injured.

Frederick Smith, son of the late Rt. Hon. W. H. Smith, has been elected to succeed his father as the representative of the Strand division in the Imperial Commons.

Floods are still doing much damage in various parts of England. The stern of the ship Margaret John, from Little Hampton, has washed ashore. Four bodies were recovered from the wreck. Nothing is known of the fate of the rest of the crew.

The River Ebro in Spain continues to rise, and is flooding the streets of Tortosa and placing the surrounding country under water. An immense amount of damage has been done. Many villages are entirely isolated, and there has been great loss of live stock and crops. The villages of Gualchos and Urce, near Granda, have been completely inundated.

The Argentine Government has sold a tract of land in the Grand Chaco to Baron Hirsch for the establishment of a Jewish settlement. One million dollars in gold has been paid for 1,000 square miles of territory.

TORONTO TOPICS.

A Lady Almost Instantly Killed—The New Census Started.

TORONTO, Oct. 27.—Mrs. Fuller, wife of J. B. Fuller, in jumping from a carriage at the corner of Huron and Morris streets, fell and received injuries so serious that she died within a few minutes.

Wm. Kerr, a printer, well known among the old-time compositors of the city, died at the General Hospital on Sunday night after a lingering illness. He was 42 years old.

The result of the civic deputation to American cities has been that the present obnoxious system will be abolished in favor of outside closets.

The schooner Gleniffer, aground near Mimico for two years, was released yesterday and placed on drydock.

At the annual meeting of the Congregational Union last night Mr. J. C. Copp was elected president.

A bylaw was passed at last night's Council meeting forbidding hawking or peddling on business streets after July next year, when the present licenses expire.

Fifty-four policemen started out at 8 o'clock yesterday morning to take a correct census of Toronto. The Dominion enumerators counted up the population to 181,200, but the number was thought somewhat short by the Council.

Before Justice Ferguson, at the Chancery Sittings yesterday at Osgoode Hall, a case was in progress which has often been heard of in the procedure courts. It is that of the Potter infants (grandchildren) against James and Nebitt Potter, the executors of the estate of the late Alexander Potter, of Toronto, now long deceased. The action is to set aside two legacies of $500 each to Thomas and John Potter, sons of the testator. These two sons have been missing for twenty years, and the plaintiffs rely upon the presumption of death to set aside the legacies, as there is no proof existing that they are dead, though there is some circumstantial evidence of death. The grandchildren seek to have the $1,000 due the two missing sons distributed among the remaining heirs and next of kin. Alexander Potter left an estate valued at about $16,000, consisting of negotiable securities, and three farms in Perth county, worth about $16,000.

WITH THE WORKINGMEN.

Prospects of Another Colossal Strike in England.

Many of the large printing houses in Berlin and Hamburg have agreed to the men's terms, but so far there is no prospect that the great strike will be averted.

It has been decided to call out all the men in the Pittsburg, Pa., district. This will include 1,000 men.

It is rumored among Erie employes that the officers of the company are formulating a new set of rules, which will be much more strict than those already in existence in regard to the use of intoxicants.

In Staffordshire and Worcestershire on Monday 3,000 miners struck against a reduction of 10 per cent. made in their wages The engineers about the Tyne and Wear have decided to stop work on Saturday owing to a dispute as to the question of pay for over-time. Should the engineers carry out their determination, 30,000 persons will be thrown out of employment.

THE ROYAL COMMISSION.

QUEBEC, Oct. 27.—Editor Pacaud was further examined in regard to his financial transactions to-day. He worked hard for Armstrong. Witness represented to the Ministers that millions were going to ruin. The $100,000 were his own, and he could have kept it all if he wished. Armstrong did not expect to profit by the $100,000 investment. Witness only placed $6,409 23 at Mr. Langelier's disposal. Mr. Langelier was surprised and offered to mortgage his house to witness. His closest friends were not aware that witness had the $100,000. He kept it secret. Witness told Mr. Garneau it would be dangerous to delay the Baie des Chaleurs Railway. He never told Garneau he was badly in need of money. He did all the work in forming the new syndicate.

Due to Drink.

NEW YORK, Oct. 27.—The physician who attended pugilist Pat Killen says: "A man who is addicted to the constant use of alcoholic stimulants is extremely liable to erysipelas if he takes cold. Killen's death was due entirely to his drinking habits."

An Embrace That Cracked a Rib.

ANDERSON, Ind., Oct. 28.—A new terror of courtship has been developed here in the case of Miss Emma Bowers, a winsome brunette. For some days she has suffered from a supposed attack of pleurisy, but when Dr. S. F. Bordman was called in he found that one of the young lady's ribs was broken. After much questioning he girl blushingly admitted that her best beau, George Garrick, had inflicted the injury while giving her his usual tender embrace before parting on Friday night.

A Wife Too Many.

GUELPH, Oct. 27.—Alex. McK. Barclay, a farm laborer in Nichol, has been committed to the county jail on remand until Friday on a charge of bigamy. On Oct. 16 he was married at the rectory by Ven. Archdeacon Dixon to Kate O'Neill, of Nichol, when every publicity was given to the wedding. It is alleged now, however, that Barclay was married previously to Martha Cruikshank, of the county of Bruce, where Barclay resided at one time. This statement the prisoner denies, although he admits that he kept company with Martha Cruikshank, who he alleges, is now a married woman somewhere in the Northwest. The defendant is about 33 years of age, rather an intelligent man with only one arm.

UNCONSIDERED UTTERANCES

By the Preacher Who Fills Mr. Spurgeon's Place.

LONDON, Oct. 28.—Rev. Dr. A. T. Pierson, formally of Detroit, Mich., who has stipulated to supply Mr. Spurgeon's pulpit while the latter is taking a vacation for his health, preached his first sermon on Sunday. Dr. Pierson was welcomed heartily, and the audience was as large as the usual assemblage when the regular pastor is present. In the course of his remarks he indulged in a bitter attack upon the tendency to introduce ritualistic ornamentation into the London churches. Warming to his theme, he went so far as to express the hope that calamity would befall the tabernacle here, prostituted to secular art. At this there were plain murmurs of disapproval, though they were varied by a few cries of "hear." A number of the members of the tabernacle who were interviewed after the service expressed their astonishment at Dr. Pierson's criticism of what had been approved by the man whose place he was filling temporarily by courtesy. The extravagance of language which the preacher had fallen into was excused on the ground that it was doubtless unpremeditated.

HOW IT FOSTERS INDUSTRIES.

Failures, Strikes and Reductions in Wages Under the McKinley Bill.

PHILADELPHIA, Oct. 28.—A striking illustration of the wonders accomplished by the McKinley bill is shown in last week's bulletin of the American Iron and Steel Association. Under the caption "The News of the Past Week," on a single page it announces the assignment of the iron ship-building firm of Harrison, Loring & Co., at Boston; the suspension of the Biandon Iron and Steel Company, limited, of Blandon, Pa., which has a capital of $125,000; a conference over wages between the employes of the Edgar Thomson steel works at Braddock, Pa., and their superintendent, at which the wages of ladlemen were reduced 30 cents a day; the closing of the Keystone iron works at River View, Kan., the largest establishment of the kind near Kansas City, under attachments aggregating $100,000; the coming public sale at Boiling Springs, Pa., of the Katherine furnace, which was built in 1881-82; a reduction of 15 per cent. in the wages of the employes of Hainsworth Steel Company, Pittsburg, Pa.; the suspension of the Oliver & Roberts Wire Company (limited), of Pittsburg, Pa., with liabilities of $1,087,460, and a strike at Lebanon, Pa., over the refusal of certain firms to sign the wage scale of the Amalgamated Association. For a single week and a single page this seems a rather startling showing. The compiler makes no reference to it editorially, but devotes his efforts instead toward proving that tin plates are now being made in this country.

TWO VESSELS LOST.

Sinking of a Schooner with All on Board —The Sovereign Sunk.

BOSTON, Oct. 28.—Captain Chute, of the schooner Seraphim, from Bear River, N. S., reports that last Saturday, when 35 miles south from Matinicus, he saw a four-masted schooner foundered with all hands. The name of the vessel could not be made out.

SARNIA, Oct. 28.—Word has reached here of the sinking of the steam barge Sovereign on Sunday night in Lake Superior about ten miles southwest of Lamb's Island in between 300 and 400 feet of water. The Sovereign was owned and sailed by Captain Kerwin, Sarnia. She was insured for $10,000 in the British and Foreign Marine Insurance Company. She is a total loss. She had a cargo of about 18,000 bushels of wheat from Port Arthur to Buffalo, and the cargo was insured. The Sovereign was built at St. Catharines in 1873, and is 379 tons burthen. At the time of the disaster the Sovereign had the schooner Sligo in tow. The Sligo has reached Bay Mills in safety. Her crew is safe on board the Sligo.

Mr. H. I. McIntosh, secretary and treasurer Universal Knitting Machine Company, Toronto, Ont., says: "We have pleasure in saying a good word for St. Jacobs Oil. Our employes use it extensively, and report it as an invaluable cure for pains, bruises, etc. Cases have been reported to us where it has worked like a charm." There's nothing like it.

BRANT.

Mrs. Golding, Brantford, has instructed her solicitors to issue a writ against William Jones, contractor for the main pipes of the sewer, for $1,000 damages. It seems that Mrs. Golding fell into a hole and sustained injuries. She claims that the sewer was not properly filled in.

Robert Henry, Dr. Henwood, H. McK. Wilson, Q.C., Dr. Kelly, Henry Stroud and J. J. Hawkins, Brantford, have been in Ottawa advocating the claims of A. H. Baird for the Paris postmastership.

A man name Sherman was digging a well near Burford on Friday when it caved in. Help was promptly on hand, however, and he was dug out alive in an hour.

Mr. Van Allen, the new manager at Brantford of the Massey-Harris works, states that there will be no decrease in the number of hands employed in that city.

The 15-year-old son of W. Havill, Brantford, was fooling around with a rifle in company with some companions on Saturday, when the weapon went off. The bullet entered young Havill's leg, inflicting an ugly wound.

Judge Jones, of Brantford, has given judgment in the appeal case of G. Batson against the decision of the police court, fining him $50 for refusing to open the bar-room door of the Exchange Hotel to the police. His honor sustained the finding of the police court, appellant to pay the costs of appeal.

BRUCE.

Capt. Aleck Donnelly, of the Greyhound, which sailed out of Kincardine, was killed in his coaster the other day at Stokes Bay. It appears he was in the hold and one of the truckers dumped a truck of cordwood down the hatchway upon him without any warning, killing the unfortunate man instantly. His widow is now in Detroit and is left with five children.

ELGIN.

Nearly $400 has been raised in St. Thomas to apply towards furnishing the Amasa Wood Hospital.

The M. C. R. has been using city water in St. Thomas for some time, but will put in a filter and use water hereafter from Pinafore Lake, which is owned by that company.

Detective Fred A. Campau, of Windsor, has arrested Geo. D. Stotts on a charge of forgery. Stotts belongs to Cottam, and has been acting as fruit tree agent for J. W. McKay, of St. Thomas. It is charged that he passed a forged check on Squire Wilkinson, of Windsor.

An action for breach of promise of marriage has been entered by Miss Jessie Wood, of Malahide, against H. G. Arnold, of the same township.

J. J. Mackenzie, B.A., of the Provincial Board of Health, inspected the waterworks at St. Thomas Saturday, and will make a further analysis of the water.

The oldest resident of Iona, Mrs. Gibson, was honored on Friday by receiving congratulatory calls from a large number of friends.

The Local Government has made a grant of $80 to the Shedden Mechanics' Institute, which has made good progress during its first year.

ESSEX

Wm. Smith, aged 80 years, died in Windsor on Sunday.

Thos. W. McKee, Provincial detective, has been appointed chief of the Ontario police at Windsor. Detective McKee has been in the employ of the Government for six or seven years. He is the youngest, but one, of the Government staff and that he should receive this appointment over the heads of older men and men who have spent years in the service, is indeed a high tribute to his ability.

The First Baptist Church at Windsor (colored) has been reorganized, and a clergyman will be called. There were 45 members present. Rev. J. A. Halt was elected moderator of the council and Rev. J. L. Rickman secretary. The following officers were elected: Deacons, Bros. Allen Sidney and Robert Baker; treasurer, A. Thomas; clerks, Sisters Alsonia Matthews and Julia Browning; trustees, Allen Sidney, David Steward, Leander Noard, Stephen Holland and Samuel Harper.

The following are the newly-elected officers of the Ladies' Aid of the Methodist Church, Essex: President, Mrs. Wm. Church; first vice-president, Mrs. (Dr.) Brien; second vice-president, Mrs. S. Shaw; chaplain, Mrs. Dunstan, re-elected by acclamation; secretary-treasurer, Mrs. J. R. McEwan, re-elected by acclamation. The total membership of the Ladies' Aid is 52. The society has bought the parsonage and paid on it $1,300 in five years, besides furnishings and other necessaries.

GREY.

The following are the officers of the Owen Sound and Grey County Poultry and Pet Stock Association for the current year: President, John Chisholm; first vice, James Penny; second vice, H. Wm. McClarty, Sydenham, has resided in Grey county for 41 years.

Charles Nibbs, formerly of Owen Sound, was recently drowned at Little Current.

HALTON.

Last week Mrs. T. C. Moore, Acton, and some friends, were driving to Erin, when the horses became frightened and ran away. In the excitement Mrs. Moore was jostled out of the carriage and in the fall fractured the small bone of her left leg about an inch above the ankle joint.

KENT.

Arnold vs. County of Kent.—At Osgoode Hall, Toronto, Matthew Wilson, Q.C., for the plaintiff, moved for an injunction restraining the defendants, who are the municipal corporation of the county of Kent and the county judge, from holding an investigation into the conduct of the plaintiff as treasurer of the county, the plaintiff having been charged with malfeasance in office. The plaintiff has ceased to be treasurer, having resigned. The plaintiff moves on the grounds that the section does not apply to a person who has ceased to be an officer; that no specific allegations are made against the plaintiff, and on other grounds. Pegley, Q.C., for the defendants, contra. Judgment reserved.

Thomas Ferguson climbed 25 feet high on a lumber pile at Smith Bros.' mill at Stewart on Friday, and falling, he broke his leg.

Thomas Irwin, Raleigh, died a few days ago, aged 70 years, after a residence of about 40 years in the county.

A branch of the Catholic Order of Foresters has been formed in Chatham. The order now has 244 courts and 18,000 members.

In the death of Matthew Dolsen Chatham loses one of its oldest and most respected inhabitants. Deceased was born on the Trexler Farm, now the McKinley Farm, on the River Thames, a short distance above Chatham, on Nov. 8, 1811.

Mary Martin, a 4-year-old daughter of Thos. Martin, Chatham, was playing with a number of small children on Sunday, and had the misfortune to fracture the right limb between the knee and ankle.

Henry Verrall, Chatham, aged 81 years, died a few days ago. He was one of 22 children, and had been a clerk in the post-office for 29 years. One of his sons was killed in the American war and another was at one time publisher of the Strathroy Dispatch.

Four hundred dollars was collected at the recent anniversary services in the Wallaceburg Methodist Church to apply to the church debt account.

MIDDLESEX.

J. A. James, Nilestown, has produced a pumpkin that measures 42 inches around.

The Glencoe live stock fair will be held on Wednesday, Nov. 4. A large attendance is expected.

Benjamin J. Bryant has been re-engaged as principal of the Hyde Park public school for another term at an increased salary.

Rev. James A. McDonald, of Knox College and editor of the College Monthly, who has received a call from the Presbyterian congregation of St. Thomas, is a son of J. A. McDonald, formerly a farmer in East Williams and for a number of years subsequently a resident of Parkhill. Rev. Mr. McDonald is to be congratulated on the success he has achieved. He entered upon his studies at Knox College.

NORFOLK.

About 40 relatives and old friends of Samuel Kern, Waterford, assembled to celebrate his 78th birthday. A singular coincidence was that Wm. Barber, of the same place, celebrated his 78th birthday with Mr. Kern. In the assembly there were three persons over 80 years of age and eleven over 70 years, who all spent the afternoon very pleasantly together chatting over the scenes and incidents of their younger days.

The rate of taxation for the township of Townsend for 1891 is: County rate 2 mills, township 1¾ mills, which includes about $1,700 required by the new law to be raised by the township for school purposes.

Walter Herrod, bricklayer, met with a sad death at Bookton on Saturday. He was engaged in erecting a building, when the scaffolding fell, throwing him down a distance of about seven feet, but from the way he fell he broke his neck, and before anyone got to him was dead.

A patron of the Villa Nova cheese factory and another of the Boston factory were each fined in Waterford last week for bringing watered milk to the factory.

OXFORD.

The entire cost of the new court house in Woodstock will be in the vicinity of $100,000. The County Council originally appropriated $68,000 for the building and $7,000 for the furnishing, but through the tangle with the original architect and contractor this sum is likely to be exceeded by several thousands. Mr. Brooks was paid in all $800. This includes the $200 given as first premium to his plans. The contractor, W. C. Smith, was paid $22,632 61. The original contract was signed in November, 1889, and work was commenced in the spring of 1890. On the 25th of June, 1891, the council awarded the contract to A. J. Brown, of Toronto. His price was about $60,000, but with the extras the figure will be nearly $62,000. Thus the building will cost upwards of $85,000 without the furnishings.

Dennis Frizelle had a thrilling experience with a bull terrier in Woodstock on Monday. He was returning from school when the dog attacked him, first biting him in the leg and then caught hold of his hand. After a struggle the vicious dog was choked off.

PERTH.

Geo. Eckert, of Fullarton, has purchased lot 22, con. 4, Downie, from Mrs. Kreh for $4,000. Mr. Herman has purchased the west half of lot 24, con. 5, for $3,100, and the McFarlane farm on the 7th con., Downie, has been sold to Walter Rae for $5,100.

Valentine Allandorf, Gadshill, who recently cut his throat with a razor, is recovering.

The Perth Teachers' Association meet in Convocation Hall on Thursday and Friday, Nov. 19 and 20.

The entire family of James Wilson, Stratford, were partially asphyxiated on Saturday morning. Had not a child woke up at an early hour all would doubtless have perished. Gas escaping from a coal stove caused the trouble.

The election protest against Thomas Magwood, M. P. P. for North Perth, has been withdrawn.

The drygoods stock of Macnair, Hamilton & Co., of Stratford, has been purchased by J. H. Piper & Co., of Seaforth.

Ninety dollars was netted at Methodist Church bazar in Stratford last week.

Over $180 was collected in the two Presbyterian churches in Stratford on Sunday in aid of the hospital fund. The other churches will also give a collection and $600 in all is expected.

WELLINGTON.

About $200,000 has been expended this year for building in Guelph, and about $3,500 has been laid out to build silicabarytic stone pavement. Of the private residences built, the two finest are those erected by James Goldie and George Sleeman, at a cost of $40,000 and $30,000 respectively.

A young man who gave the name of J. Raymon, and had a ticket from Toronto to Guelph in his pocket, was arrested at Grand Rapids, Mich., for snatching a pocket-book containing over $300 from a passenger on a train, then jumping off and running away.

The Guelph Board of Education has erected two new school buildings this year at a cost of about $8,500. One is two stories high with tower, 74x35, built of Guelph stone. It has four class rooms, two above and two below, each 33x25, with cloak rooms, etc. The heating and ventilation is on the Smead-Dowd system, and the most modern improvements have been used in the school. The second is 27x35, built of brick, with one class room, heated by hot air.

At the funeral of a child named McKee, near Moorefield, the team drawing the corpse got frightened at something on the camp grounds and ran away, smashing the democrat and throwing the casket containing the corpse on the road, top down. The cortege was of unusual length for a child so young, and for a time great confusion prevailed.

The long needed extra accommodation at the O. A. College is under way this fall, and the new buildings are expected to be in fair shape by New Years. John Damp, Toronto, the contractor, arrived on the ground two weeks ago, and has already got the foundation down and one story of the horticultural building well up. He is employing chiefly local help, John Redwood overseeing the excavation and stone work. The buildings are of white brick. The convocation halls and gymnasium is located southeast of the laboratory, and will be 100x52, with 26 feet ceiling. Inside, besides the main hall, will be the stage, dressing-rooms, and a swimming tank in the basement is under consideration. The horticultural building will consist of a two-story lecture hall and plant room 34x40, greenhouse and conservatory 77x64, and boiler house 20x20, and will face the convocation hall. The latest improvements will be used in fitting the greenhouse. The total cost of the two buildings is estimated at $19,000.

The new St. James' Church in Guelph is of stone, of purely Gothic design. The main building is 98x40 with lofty 34 feet ceiling; the wing is 36x40 containing vestries and gallery above; the corner tower 18½ feet square, with steeple rising 120 feet from the ground, and having the main entrances; and the organ chamber 15x12x10, triangular in shape. In the basement will be the lecture room and small rooms for the church organizations. It will comfortably seat 500. The cost will be about $14,000.

Geo. Unsworth, second son of Richard Unsworth, B.A., of Fergus, while out picking beechnuts was up in a tree, and in reaching for a branch, slipped and fell to the ground, breaking his left arm in two places.

Wm. Read died on Saturday in St. Joseph's Hospital in Guelph, aged 45 years.

R. Lowry has been re-engaged as leader of the Drayton band at an increased salary.

The 7-year-old child of Geo. Bolton, Rockwood, who was suffering from blood poisoning, died on Tuesday, after having endured great agony.

Mrs. Morton, wife of Rev. J. Morton, Fergus, died on Sunday morning.

William Campbell, of Elora, has increased his offer of composition to 60 cents on the dollar. Liabilities, $10,000; assets, nominally, $10,750.

WELLAND.

In the Fourty-fourth, Welland, Battalion of Infantry, No. 4 Company, Fort Erie, Lieut. Robert Jacob Baxter retires from the service.

The sum of $585 was taken in at the recent fair at Fenwick.

There is sojourning at Niagara Falls a man who achieved a great degree of notoriety in his day. His name is E. D. Buck, and the way he sprung into prominence was by being carried across Niagara River on a rope by Blondin, the popular idea at the time and since being that he displayed more intrepidity by the act than the latter. The feat was performed in July, 1859. For many years he has been employed on one of the liners running from New York to Liverpool.

"German Syrup"

Croup. We have selected two or three lines from letters freshly received from parents who have given German Syrup to their children in the emergencies of Croup. You will credit these, because they come from good, substantial people, happy in finding what so many families lack—a medicine containing no evil drug, which mother can administer with confidence to the little ones in their most critical hours, safe and sure that it will carry them through.

ED. L. WILLITS, of Alma, Neb. I give it to my children when troubled with Croup and never saw any preparation act like it. It is simply miraculous.

Mrs. JAS. W. KIRK, Daughters' College, Harrodsburg, Ky. I have depended upon it in attacks of Croup with my little daughter, and find it an invaluable remedy.

Fully one-half of our customers are mothers who use Boschee's German Syrup among their children. A medicine to be successful with the little folks must be a treatment for the sudden and terrible foes of childhood, whooping cough, croup, diphtheria and the dangerous inflammations of delicate throats and lungs. ®

IT SAVED HER LIFE.
A Letter to the Ladies.

TORONTO, Oct. 21, 1891.
I take great pleasure in informing you that a year ago Histogenetic Medicines cured me of a serious attack of paralysis. Three years ago I had a sudden stroke while sitting on a sofa; a second one fourteen months ago while lying in bed. All I did for it failed to do much good. My voice and all one side were badly affected. At last I tried Dr. J. Eugene Jordan's Histogenetic Remedies. In three months my voice became strong. My limbs, which were almost useless, regained full power. I no longer needed to be assisted to the table or from any one place to another. My muscles developed wonderfully, considering that I am 74 years of age. I can walk to church and back regularly. The effect has been permanent now for about twelve months. Last April I had a severe attack of pneumonia and Histogenetic Remedies cured me in a few days, and on the 8th of this month I took congestion of the liver and right lung. I was so bad I could not have lived long. In a few hours the Histogenetic Remedies once more gave immediate relief. It is only two weeks, and I am sitting up every day and nearly well. To say that my faith in Histogenetic Medicines is strong but faintly expresses it. Try it, ladies, for these or any other complaints and be convinced. Dr. Rear, of Toronto, is allowed to give my name and address to any inquirers similarly affected.
Respectfully,
MRS. ——, Toronto.
P. S.—Above address can also be had at the London office.

Histogenetic Medicine Association.
492 Spadina avenue, Toronto, Oct. 13, 1891.
Gentlemen.—I had that dreadful disease, la grippe, last March, which left my system in a weak condition and my head distracted. If I moved my head or stooped it produced pain and an indescribable feeling. Great debility followed, palpitation and approaching heart failure, nervous prostration and general loss of strength and a feeling of internal pressure. I consulted Dr. Rear, who prescribed the Histogenetic Medicines of Dr. J. Eugene Jordan for me. In two weeks I was some better. I gained in strength. The medicines very soon commenced to build me up. I continued to gain, and after taking only one complete course all my symptoms were better. That is three months ago and not a trace of grippe is left. I feel well. The effect is abiding. The medicines are good to take and leave no ill affect. I thope all needing treatment may try this beautiful system. It is far better than taking poisonous drugs. Yours gratefully,
SARAH TOOLE.
N. B.—Mrs. Toole is a lady of about 65 years of age, of delicate frame, and of such a very few only out of every hundred have entirely recoved from that fatal disease.

"The Advertiser" is an organ of news and of thoroughly independent opinion. The ADVERTISER alone is responsible for opinions expressed in these columns.

"The Advertiser" advocates Continental Free Trade, and as early as possible after, free trade with the whole world.

"The Advertiser" looks forward with hope to Canada's future as that of an Independent Canadian Nationality, in equally friendly alliance with the United States and with Great Britain, believing that such a status would be best for Canada, best for Great Britain, and promotive of the best attainable relations with the United States. As to Imperial Federation, sometimes spoken of, the ADVERTISER as yet has seen nothing proposed that bears any stamp of practicability, and in any case infinitely prefers the grander and more really hopeful scheme of a federation of the English-speaking peoples of the world.

"The Advertiser" advocates prohibition and sale of intoxicating liquor; and all expedient general legislation and persuasion in the meantime.

"The Advertiser" is an advocate of equal rights for women, whether as regards the franchise, or equal wages for equal work.

"The Advertiser" is a believer in Christian Union, and considers the time has come when the various Christian denominations should come closer together. Those bodies which are now nearest should unite first. Under the present system there is an unjustifiable waste of men, means and effort. The ADVERTISER will endeavor to promote the movement for Christian union not alone by direct appeal and argument, but by seeking to present the best rather than the worst side of each denomination.

"The Advertiser" advocates Obligatory Voting as both necessary and practicable. Nothing would so much purify electoral contests. Nothing would so much enforce the idea that the franchise is a duty, not a chattel.

THE Allan Line threatens to make its winter port at Portland, instead of at Halifax, N. S.

PREMIER MERCIER of Quebec has been interviewed at some length on the present condition of affairs in that Province. Like Mr. Blaine, the Quebec Premier has been represented by his political enemies as very ill and likely to collapse, but Mr. Mercier says he is in the best of health, though of course sorry to contradict the excellent authorities who have persistently circulated a contrary view. The Premier thinks Hon. Mr. Langelier may resign his seat in the Cabinet to prevent a false construction being put on his position, but it is doubtful if the resignation will be accepted, as Mr. Mercier holds that his colleague has done nothing wrong. Mr. Mercier announces that both Mr. Langelier and himself would go before the Royal Commission. He has been, he says, accused of wrongdoing because he refused to speak till now, but he holds his course to be wise. Even if the Lieutenant-Governor should be willing to accede to the clamor of his enemies, who wish to see him dismissed, Mr. Mercier says there are constitutional objections to that course, because it would be difficult to arrange for a general election before the date fixed for the meeting of the House. In the present Assembly Mr. Mercier says he has at least sixteen of a majority. It will be a remarkable stretch of the prerogative if Lieutenant-Governor Angers orders his Ministers about their business while so supported in the popular Chamber, and before the House has an opportunity to pronounce upon the question at issue.

Literary Piracy Punished.

LONDON, Oct. 27.—Skeridan Ford was sentenced to pay a fine of $100 or three months' imprisonment, and to pay $600 damages also, with the alternative of three months' imprisonment, for "pirating" books written by Mr. Whistler, president of the Society of British Artists.

The question of Canada's political future is exercising many persons in the Dominion at the present time, and in some parts of the country members of both political parties have joined in an agitation for the political union of Canada and the United States. This journal looks forward to the establishment of an independent Canadian Nation as the best destiny for the Dominion, but being a newspaper, and not a political organ, it is neither afraid nor averse to having any view of the question discussed in its columns. After all the people are the final arbiters of their destiny, and they may be relied on to shape it in the direction that will most conduce to their welfare, moral and material. From various quarters we have communications on the subject. They are interesting as showing how persons in far-apart localities view the subject of our future.

RECIPROCITY THE IDEAL.

The talented J. W. Bengough, of Grip, answers the question, "What is honestly and reasonably to be said against the two separate English-speaking peopies of this continent becoming politically one nation?" in these terms:

1. That it is unnecessary. There is plenty of room on this continent for two great nations. A single nation, when the northern half of the continent is as densely populated as the southern, would be unwieldy.

2. That it is inexpedient so far as Canada is concerned, if it involves the giving up of our own institutions in favor of those of the United States. We prefer our own.

3. All the benefits that political union could possibly confer would be conferred by the removal of the customs line.

4. As friendly neighbors (which we would always be if the tariff thorn were removed) we would mutually enjoy the benefits of a generous emulation in the work of advancing the human race.

FAVORS POLITICAL UNION.

A leading Montreal business man, interviewed on the subject, said: "I am in favor of political union with the United States because: First. It would make commercial reciprocity permanent between the two countries and attract capital here. Second. It would remove one barrier to immigration hither both from the United States and Europe; Americans do not like to desert their flag, and Europeans do not care to seek refuge under the flag of a rival European power. Third. Our burden of debt is greater than we can bear and prosper; part of it would necessarily be assumed by the new union. Fourth. I see no prospect of a national sentiment in Canada; what public sentiment there is, is local or provincial, and we could preserve this under the new union, while our economic position would be immensely better. Fifth. Much of the trade of the Western and Northwestern States with Europe would be operated through Canada."

FOR NATIONAL INDEPENDENCE.

Dr. J. D. Macdonald, a leading citizen of Hamilton, Ont., was asked by an ADVERTISER correspondent as to his opinion for or against the political union of Canada with the United States Republic. He said: "It is a difficult matter to discuss. It may be said that, to a patriotic man, there should be no difficulty, but under the conditions which surround Canada we may be allowed to hesitate before discussing even such a question as annexation to the United States. Undoubtedly it is a question present to many minds at the present moment. The greater number, I believe, are loath to look at political union now from any aversion to the Republic or to republicism, but from a desire to put from themselves, as far as possible, the confession of political failure which would be implied in their seeking for Canada incorporation with her strong neighbor. Whether as a stepping stone to annexation, or as affording an opportunity for development in a more honorable way, many would like the experiment of national independence. Attaining to national independence, Canadians would have conditions much simplified for any future arrangements. The advantage or disadvantage of such arrangements the satisfaction or disappointment from them, the honor or the reproach would be all their own, no friends across the sea would be compromised. In the meantime the colonial condition is a source of great political weakness and uncertainty. It affects the very manhood of the country unfavorably. It prevents the dwellers in Canada from seeing with singleness of eye the interests of their own country. It makes them uncertain as to whether the land in which they live is theirs at all. By his condition as a colonist the Canadian in every public question finds himself placed in a strait betwixt two. He is called upon to serve two interests—of one of which, that of Great Britain, he has not the most remote conception, and to the other of which, that of Canada, he has not given much thought. If his country had the responsibilities which attach to independence he would give better attention to its concerns, and would perhaps be less ready than he too often proves to be, to step into the snare "set in his sight" by the boodler to whom his vote is to be of use.

AGAINST ANNEXATION.

Erastus Wiman, the well known Canadian resident of New York, who has lectured in this city, and who has been represented as in favor of the political union of Canada and the United States, says that the advocacy of political union is a mistake, because it keeps the people apart. "It is," said Mr. Wiman, "fatal to the cause of reciprocity, which would bring them together quicker than anything else for the purposes of trade, and it is trade we are after these days rather than territory. It is a conviction in the minds of annexationists that the surest preventative of annexation is reciprocity. The annexationist argues that to give a free and unrestricted interchange of products and manufactures would be to afford to Canada all the material advantages which she would gain by annexation. To deny her reciprocity would be to force her into annexation, if such a thing were possible, which it is not. Hence you will see that annexation and reciprocity, at any rate for the present moment, do not go hand in hand. That the advocacy of reciprocity postpones annexation is equally true. There is no argument in Canada in favor of annexation except the material argument, and if the material argument is removed by reciprocity, annexation is indefinitely postponed."

A PREMIUM ON ROBBERY.

Koenig Bros., Ayton, Ont., write that they heartily favor political union, for the reason that it would do away with the delays and robberies by the customs at the border that are incident to the present relations between the two great English-speaking countries. The change, in the opinion of this firm, would improve the business and the morals of the people.

GOLDWIN SMITH'S SENTIMENTS.

Goldwin Smith's views of the trend of affairs were set forth in reply to a request that he would attend a recent meeting at Windsor in favor of political union. He contended that Confederation has been a failure, because it was a compromise to begin with, and had been expensively and corruptly carried on. Continuing, he says: "The framers of Confederation confidently looked forward to a vast and rapid increase of the population as the consequence of their measure. Some of them are fortunate in not living to be confronted by the census of 1891. How can anything worse be said of a policy than that it is sending away the people by hundreds of thousands from their homes? If it is the men that make the nation the great annexationists are the upholders of the present system.

"If Confederation has proved futile as an attempt to unite what nature has divided, it has proved equally futile as an attempt to put aside what nature has united. It is unnecessary to dilate upon this in writing to those who look across from Windsor to Detroit. The social and general fusion between the two sections of the English-speaking race upon this continent, in spite of the desperate efforts made to prolong estrangement, is every day becoming more complete.

"Our country, as we all rejoice to believe, is full of resources and of the moral and material elements of prosperity. What it wants is only a fair chance; but this it cannot have as long as it is starved and stunted by the evil pressure of a perverse and unnatural policy.

"Among other kind things that have been said about me, it has been constantly asserted that I left England from discontent or on bad terms with my former political friends. There is not a shadow of foundation for the statement. I am as thoroughly at home in England as ever I was, and more than once since I settled here I have received from my old political party on the other side of the water the most decisive proofs of confidence and regard that a political party can give. I have therefore a right to speak as one thoroughly true to the interest and honor of my native country. It is my settled conviction that in regard to this question the real interest of the Canadian people and that of the English people are one. By the union of the English-speaking race on this continent Great Britain would lose absolutely nothing. She would gain the friendship of the whole race and be released from the dangers and liabilities which she now retains, while she has lost the very shadow of power. Nothing, I repeat, is more fixed in my mind than the belief that loyalty to the mother country will be best shown by promoting the alliance of all her offspring here. I take it for granted that you, like myself, would never contemplate anything without the consent of the mother country signified by the Crown and Parliament.

"Opinion on these subjects has been making progress. This is seen if we compare the position now held by the leaders of the Liberal party with the position held by its leaders twenty years ago. I remember the time when the great Liberal organ of that day denounced us as traitors if we spoke of Canada as anything but a dependency or claimed for her even commercial self-government. Not only Liberals but Conservatives have advanced. A Conservative Minister, by laying protective duties on British goods, took Canada out of the commercial unity of the empire and proclaimed Canadian interest as the sole rule of his policy, setting English, Scotch and Irish opposition openly at defiance. Our people have been kept silent and ever constrained sometimes to belie their real sentiments by a moral terrorism, exercised often in interests far from really patriotic. Let a bold hand break the ice and the waters are ready to flow."

FAVORS INDEPENDENCE.

A contrary view is expressed by M. J. Sheridan, a correspondent of the ADVERTISER at Jack Fish Bay, Ont., who writes:

Without being a strict adherent of either political party in this country, I wish to express an opinion on the question you are now putting before your readers; and I say, with a strong conviction that I am right, that political Union with the United States would be detrimental to the best interests of Canada. Canada, as our cousins to the south of us well know, is a rich country, possessing mineral and wheat growing lands not to be excelled, therefore they want to force us by any means within reach to throw in our lot with theirs and become part of Uncle Sam's domain. But Canadians will answer "No," we are Canadians and proud of our birthright, and if ever we do sever the tie that binds us to the mother country it "will be to go on our own hook," and float our own flag proudly with the breeze, always independent of Uncle Sam, and still retain our name and nationality; for

"Breathes there a man with soul so dead,
Who never to himself hath said,
This is my own my native land."

A WESTMINSTER FARMER.

Henry Anderson, Wilton Grove, a leading Westminster farmer, being asked for his views on the subject of our national future replied as follows:

1. Political union is the only remedy for the domination of the French party in the Dominion Legislature and the robbery of the Dominion Treasury for the benefit of Quebec.

2. It would obviate all danger of war on his continent, or what is nearly as bad, expensive preparations for war, that at this time is the greatest curse of Europe, and may become so here if the present insane divisions are perpetuated.

3. It would double the value of capital invested in trade or manufactures. In a few years, when the United States debt is paid, while our debt is sure to be increased, if not doubled, property of all kinds will be worth double in the States to what it will be in Canada.

4. Fair reciprocity in trade will never be obtained, no matter which party we place in power. It is absurd to expect the Yankees will do anything to promote the prosperity of a rival nationality on this continent.

5. It would be a blessing to England if she was relieved of the ever-recurring disputes concerning British America. There would then be nothing to prevent a cordial fraternal feeling amongst all the English-speaking people of the world, and we should be spared the humiliation of seeing our mother country humbling herself and yielding the advantage in every treaty to the Americans, rather than undertake the hopeless task of defending Canada.

6. I have discussed the question for years past with men of both political parties and am satisfied that if a leader like Hon. Ed. Blake would come out square for political union on fair conditions a very large majority of the electors of Ontario would support him, in spite of the fact that political cowardice prevents the majority from expressing their opinions until some prominent man has the courage to lead the way.

THE PEOPLE'S WELFARE FIRST.

James Smith, a Brant county farmer, writes:

In regard to the future of Canada, I ask, What has British connection done for Canada? Is it not the principal barrier to our progress? Is it not keeping away the Germans, the Scandinavians and the Irish from our soil? Were we part of the United States our rate of progress must at least equal that country's, which last decade was 25 per cent. as against 11.5 in Canada. In the matter of public morality we can no longer claim any advantage. If annexation is good for Canadians as individuals it must be good for Canadians as a whole. The only obstacle is sentimentalism, but sentimentalism is no more satisfying in this practical age than is scenery.

"Trader," Colpoy's Bay, Ont., writes strongly adhering to the belief that political union would be mutually advantageous to Canada and the United States.

FAVORS A WIDER UNION.

Theo. L. Pitt, Niagara Falls Center, Ont., writes:

Canada is not simply an "English-speaking people of this continent." It is an integral part of the British Empire. To propose the political union of Canada with the United States, independently of the remainder of the British Empire, is to propose the disintegration of that empire.

The British Empire to-day, and prospectively for a long future, is the greatest political bulwark of modern civilization. Its flag represents, its power defends, its enterprise is upbuilding and extending, the greatest empire of freedom and human progress the world has ever seen. To propose its disintegration is treason to that freedom and human progress, and to modern civilization.

The British Empire heads the column of resistance to the aggression and ultimate dominance of Russia and Russian barbarism over the eastern continent. Disintegrate the British Empire and Kossuth's prophetic warning may yet come true. "America may yet see Cossacks!" Disintegrate the British Empire and England and all her present colonies and dependencies will see Cossacks, and many of her sons Siberia or its equivalent. That is the great issue of the future, the very heart of the undying eastern question. Shall Anglo-Saxon civilization, Anglo-Saxon freedom, Anglo-Saxon free Bibles and free religion, Anglo-Saxon progress on all the lines of human advancement, Anglo-Saxon individual liberty of movement, of growth, of education, of spiritual, intellectual, moral and physical culture, and all that makes the true glory of the English-speaking world—shall all this go on to the progressive conquest and blessing of the eastern continent and of the earth, or shall the Russian opposite of all this prevail? To you, Canadians of to-day, this is a vital question, infinitely more important than the sale of your surplus eggs and hay, barley and potatoes, codfish and lumber. As you loyally help to settle it right, or disloyally help to settle it wrong, so will your sons and daughters of future generations bless or curse you.

By its development under the fostering protection of the British Government, and the building of the world's greatest railway across its continental expanse, Canada has become a great highway of the Empire between the east and the west—between England and Asia and Australasia—a highway whose value in the present condition of eastern and the world's affairs cannot be measured or approximately estimated. Sever Canada from the British Empire and you cut the Baby's Fearful Suffering from Skin Disease Covering Entire Body Cured by Cuticura.

My baby was taken very sick when he was 3 months old, and in a few days began breaking out. We employed both of the home doctors, and they could do nothing for him. Then we sent for the best doctor in Eaton Rapids, Mich., and he doctored him for two weeks, and he got worse all the time; and then I took him to Jackson, to a doctor who attends especially to skin diseases, and then he got worse than ever. Then I told my husband we had better try the CUTICURA REMEDIES any way, did not have any idea they would do any good, but in less than two months from the time we began giving them to him he was entirely well, and not a spot on him. His hair began growing right off, and we thought he would always be bald-headed. There was not a spot on his whole body, face and head, only his nose and eyes, but what was as raw as beefsteak. So poor there was not anything but bones and so weak he could raise neither hand nor head.

Canadian Yearling Record Made at Listowel—General Sporting News.

FOOTBALL.

The Canadian-American football players added another victory to their list Monday by defeating Chatham. The match was played at Chatham, Eng., in torrents of rain. The visitors winning by three goals to none.

At Whitby on Saturday the Collegiate Institute team defeated the old Torontos one goal to none.

The Hamilton Times makes the following personal remarks on the visitors regarding Saturday's game: Gordon, one of London's half-backs, had his ankle sprained towards the end of second half, and Cronyn took his place.—The shirt which J. B. Bacon wears is said to be made of part of the historic coat of many colors, but the person who said so slandered the maker of Joseph's coat.—Bacon kicked so hard at the ball that wasn't there on Saturday that he kicked the heel and sole clean off his boot.—Sayers made one grand run in the game.

A CANADIAN YEARLING RECORD.

LISTOWEL, Oct. 27.—W. J. Hay's yearling b. f., Lulu G., was sent yesterday over the course here to beat the Canadian half-mile yearling record of 1:37½ The filly went the first heat in 1:40½, after two breaks. In the second heat she went to the quarter in 47 seconds and finished the half in 1:34 without a break or skip. After twenty minutes rest she scored up again, this time trotting the heat also without a skip. The quarter was reached in the same time as before, 47 seconds, and the half in 1:34 flat, the last eighth was made in 22½ seconds. The performance was according to rules of the National Breeders' Association. Summary:

DIRECT DOES IT.

COLUMBIA, Tenn., Oct. 26.—The match race between Direct and Hal Pointer attracted an immense crowd to Columbia today. It was for a purse of $3,000, and an additional $1,000 if the world's record was broken. Direct won each heat. Geers urged Pointer to his utmost, and once to such an extent that he went under the wire off his feet. The heats were almost identical. The two would get off together, Direct almost immediately taking the lead and they would travel together at a terrific pace to the stretch. There Geers braced himself for the final effort, and in the stretch would keep the leader even, coming to Direct's throat latch. Then Starr would let the whip fall, and with a mighty burst the Californian would go under the wire a winner of the heat. Summary:

Match race, $3,000:
Direct.....1 1 1
Hal Pointer.....2 2 2

Time, 2:09, 2:08, 2:08½.

On Thursday a stallion race that is creating considerable interest will take place on the Chatham Driving Park between John Duncan, 2:25; Texas Mike, 2:27¼; Roadmaster, 2:26½; Corncracker, 2:27½; Young Bonair, 2:29¼; Prince Frederick, 2:28½ and Jack the Ripper, 2:29½. The purse is $300.

THE TRIGGER.

At the Oxford rifle matches held at Woodstock, great interest was taken in the team competition between companies, six men each, of the battalion for the trophy presented by Major Ellis, No. 8 Company winning with a total of 371. No. 1 Company second, with 350, and No. 6 Company third, with 338.

TERSELY TREATED.

News Notes from Here, There and Everywhere.

Sarah Winnemucca, the Piute Princess, is dead.

The health of Mrs. Parnell shows some slight signs of improvement.

Lieut.-Col. Howlett, one of the survivors of the battle of Waterloo, died at Southampton to-day (Tuesday).

The Ulster linen trade is so prosperous that the wages of employes have been voluntarily increased by the employers.

The Rev. Dr. Howard Duffield, of Detroit, has accepted a call to the First Presbyterian Church, New York. It is said the salary is $7,000.

A decree has been issued in St. Petersburg forbidding the performance of the "Marseillaise" in any public place of amusement.

Turkey has prohibited the immigration of Jews in families of any nationality but allows individuals to pass through the country.

It is stated that the family of the late Mr. James Bell, killed in the Brandon accident, will enter a suit against the C.P.R. for $20,000.

A farmer named Whitelaw was instantly killed at Deloraine while delivering grain on Saturday, being crushed between the elevator and his wagon.

Mr. Goschen, Chancellor of the Exchequer, has been ill since Thursday and is confined to his bed. His ailment is a severe throat trouble.

Hon. Justice Cimon was married to-day (Tuesday) to Miss Stella Langevin, second daughter of the Hon. Sir Hector Langevin. The ceremony was performed by Mgr. Langevin, uncle of the bride.

According to a dispatch from Queen City, Texas, Lee Green (colored), who murdered the family of Farmer Lowe, near that place, on Saturday, was taken from jail by a mob and burned to death.

The following banks have declared half-yearly dividends: Bank of Toronto, 5 per cent.; Bank of Montreal, 5 per cent.; Commerce, 3½ per cent.; Merchants', 3½ per cents.; Hamilton, 4 per cent.; Imperial, 8 per cent. per annum.

Prairie fires around Guthrie, O. T., have been burning for three days. Hundreds of farms have been swept of their crops and in a great many cases the houses and barns have been consumed, the stock perishing and the people escaping only with their lives.

The explosion of a boiler Monday afternoon at the electric light plant of the Louisville Gas Company, resulted in the death of Wm. R. Adams, a fireman, and the injury of Solomon Dreyfus, Carrie Dinkelspiel, Hattie Ennis and Lena Sickles. The boiler house was wrecked and several buildings damaged.

Near Great Falls, Mont., several men working on the Pacific extension of the Great Northern Railway were cleaning up a blast containing some powder, when it exploded, killing some of the men instantly and wounding several others dangerously. Two of the latter have died. Civil Engineer Garrett was killed by a flying rock.

M. Ribot, in reply to an interpellation in the French Chamber of Deputies, said France had not abandoned any of her former rights in Egypt, and recent events were tending to increase French influence there. The rapprochement between Russia and France, he said, was simply in consequence of old sympathies and a community of interests, and formed a guarantee of peace. A proposition to suppress the embassy at the Vatican was thrown out by 284 against 210.

NEW PUBLICATIONS.

Christmas books are beginning to come in. Among the prettiest to hand is "Tennyson's Pictures," by Walter Paget and Herbert Dicksee. Another Christmas gem is specially intended for the little ones. It is entitled "Buttercup Farm," and is handsomely illustrated. The books are on sale at the bookstore of John Mills, this city.

Miss Isabel F. Hapgood has translated a large number of Tolstoy's books, and Miss Isabel F. Hapgood has been journeying in Russia. What more natural than that she should see "Count Tolstoy at Home," and what still more natural than that she should make this the title and subject of a paper in the November Atlantic. There has not been a more vivid or appreciative sketch of Tolstoy yet written. Miss Hapgood, although admiring his great gifts, is not a blind adherent of his changeable philosophies. Here is a bit of useful information: The name Tolstoy with the "y" is the writer's own way of spelling his own name, and not a typographical error. There is the first installment of a two-part story by Henry James, entitled "The Chaperon," a subject quite to Mr. James' taste. He delights in portraying the joys and sorrows of a highly conventional society, and how cleverly he does it is again proved by the story in question. Professor William J. Stillman's paper on Journalism and Literature will be read with disfavor by the journalist, and by the literateur with delight. Mrs. Catherwood's agreeable serial is concluded. Lafcadio Hearn has a picturesquely written paper on life in Japan. There is a short story of Italian life by E. Cavazza; while the solid reading of the number is further augmented by a second paper on "A People Without Law"—the Indians—by James Bradley Thayer; by S. E. Winbolt's Schools at Oxford, and by some able reviews. Houghton, Mifflin & Co., Boston.

Mr. Gladstone's Portrait.

LONDON, Oct. 27.—No date has yet been definitely fixed for the presentation of Mr. J. C. Forbes' portrait of Mr. Gladstone by the National Liberal Club, the ultimate choice depending largely on the ability of Mr. Laurier, Mr. Mowat or Mr. Blake to come to London to take part in the unveiling. It is hoped that the ceremony will take place if possible before Mr. Gladstone leaves for Italy, about the end of November. The picture is practically finished, subject to a few final touches. It is certainly one of the best portraits of Mr. Gladstone that has ever been painted.

Use Coltam's Washing Compound

And your clothes will not be rotted away with injurious chemicals or worn away by the washboard or scrubbing brush, as no rubbing is required. Clothes are not made yellow by the use of this compound; but on the contrary very white and soft or of a brilliant color.

Washing and cleaning is done more quickly and thoroughly with less labor, so that washing day is now no longer dreaded. Clothes, soap, time, labor and patience are saved. Everything thoroughly disinfected and disease kept down by the use of C. W. C. Ask your grocer for it, and do not allow him to substitute "something just as good" for this compound.

LOCAL MARKETS,
Reported by A. M. Hamilton & Son.

LONDON, Tuesday, Oct. 27.

To-day's market was a bare one. The receipts in all departments were light, and trading consequently was limited. There was a good general demand at the listed prices. Oats were influenced by the scarcity of deliveries and advanced 5c per 100 pounds. Hay met with a keen demand and sold quickly at $11 to $12 per ton. Outside of the above there were no changes. General values for to-day's market were as follows:

British Grain Trade.

LONDON, Oct. 26.—The Mark Lane Express, in its review of the British grain trade during the past week, says: English wheats of good quality and in dry condition advanced 1s 2d. The quantity coming to market in a wretchedly unfit state owing to the continual rains remains unsold. Foreign wheat was held for 6d advance. California cargoes sold at 44s and American red winter at 38s 9d. Maize was firm; mixed American, new crop, quoted at 23s 3d. Oats were strong under the prospect of the Russian exports ceasing; Americans were 2s dearer, 21s being asked for December shipment, with 20s 9d offered. The advance in rye was checked by a liberal American supply. Barley, beans and peas were held for a slight rise. At to-day's market all staples were dearer. Dry English wheats were scarce and advanced 6d. Foreign wheat also advanced 6d. Maize rose 1s 6d and flour 6d. Oats, barley and beans were firm.

English Apple Market.

MONTREAL, Oct. 22.—Latest cable reports from Messrs. Woodall & Co., Liverpool, advise that the market is active, even in face of heavy receipts, and confidence in the future is very strong.

CHICAGO.

CHICAGO, Oct. 27.—Hogs—Receipts, 41,000; left over, 4,000; market rather active on packing and shipping account and feeling weak; prices 10c to 15c lower. Sales ranged at $2 40 to $4 23 for pigs, $3 70 to $4 30 for light, $3 80 to $4 for rough packing, $3 85 to $4 30 for mixed, $4 to $4 45 for heavy packing and shipping lots.
Later—10:30 a.m.—Market quite active, but prices fully 15c lower.
Cattle—Receipts 12,000; market rather active and prices well supported. Quotations ranged at $6 to $6 25 for prime to shipping steers, $4 30 to $5 90 for good to fancy do, $3 to $4 for common to fair do, $3 60 to $4 25 for butchers' steers, $1 80 to $2 60 for stockers, $2 to $3 10 for Texans, $2 50 to $4 00 for rangers, $2 50 to $3 25 for feeders, $1 50 to $3 50 for cows, $1 25 to $2 75 for bulls, $2 50 to $5 for veal calves.
Sheep—Receipts, 9,000; quality rather good; market fairly active and prices well supported. Quotations ranged at $3 50 to $4 80 for westerns, $3 50 to $5 15 for natives, $3 50 to $5 50 for lambs.

EAST BUFFALO.

EAST BUFFALO, Oct. 27.—No fresh arrivals since our report of yesterday, except a few cars of late comers. The only offerings were a few lots of common cattle and odd lots held over; trade about steady for good fat stock, and dull for common lots.
Sheep and Lambs—Receipts, about 10 cars, 6 of which were Canada lambs. Market slow, but a shade firmer for good stuff, and the 25 loads on sale, 15 having been held over, 10 of which were Canada lambs, will be pretty well cleaned up at the price quoted. Good Canada lambs sold at $5 35 to $5 55; western, $5 to $5 50; good to best sheep, $4 to $4 75; common, $3 50 to $3 75.
Hogs—Receipts, 6 loads, and 20 loads held over from yesterday. Market a trifle firmer, with a fair York demand; prospects look fair at the prices quoted. Yorkers, $5 30 to $5 40; mediums, $5 40 to $5 50; choice heavy, $5 45 to $5 55; pigs, $4 to $4 40.

The Dairy Markets.

INGERSOLL Oct. 27.—At the cheese market held to-day, 7,500 boxes were offered: September and balance. Market dull; no sales.

The Oil Market.

PETROLEA, Oct. 27.—Oil opened and closed to-day at $1 34½.

GETS DRUNK ON GASOLINE.

Curious Form of Dissipation Acquired by a Virginia Boy.

BALTIMORE, Oct. 28.—Six-year-old Willie Grant Webb was found insensible from the effects of inhaling the fumes of gasoline on Saturday morning by his mother, Mrs. Joanna Webb, of Hampden, Va. The boy seems to have an uncontrollable desire for that manner of stupefying himself, and if he can elude the watchfulness of his parents will seek to have recourse to his favorite dose. He succeeded in "dosing" himself during the absence of his mother from the house for fifteen minutes. When Mrs. Webb returned and found the boy lying on the floor she pulled him to his feet. He was limp and apparently lifeless. The boy was carried into the house, and the odor of the oil being detected on his breath, a physician was called and administered stimulants, and in a few hours the boy was apparently all right again. Mrs. Webb says that Willie must have contracted the habit of inhaling the gasoline and discovered its effects while watching her fill the gasoline stove. The fumes affect the boy like liquor or other alcoholic drinks.

Closing Meeting of the Methodist Women's Mission Board—Traffic in Chinese Girls at Victoria, B. C. —Election of Officers.

TORONTO, Oct. 23.—The last day's sessions of the Board of Managers of the Women's Missionary Society of the Methodist Church were held yesterday.
The first business brought before the consideration of the board was a letter from Miss Cartwell, of Victoria, B.C. It stated that the traffic in Chinese girls at that place had begun again in earnest.
By a unanimous vote the board decided that the Woman's Missionary Society memorialize the Dominion Government to take such steps as shall prevent the introduction into British Columbia of Chinese women for immoral purposes.
It was recommended that appropriations for the ensuing year be as follows in the various departments of the work: Japan work, $15,855; French work, $4,469; Chilliwhack, $3,155; Crosby Home, $5,833 70; Chinese home, $1,480; China work, $790; Newfoundland, $400; total, $31,982 70.
The election of officers resulted as follows: President, Mrs. James Gooderham re-elected for the tenth time; vice-president, Mrs. (Rev. Dr.) Carman, re-elected for the seventh time; recording secretary, Mrs. (Dr.) Willmott, re-elected for the fifth time; corresponding secretary, Mrs. Strachan, of Hamilton, re-elected for the eleventh time; Mrs. T. Thompson was elected treasurer, Mrs. (Dr.) Rosebrugh, of Hamilton, having resigned. Mrs. (Rev. Dr.) Parker, of Barrie, was re-elected editress of the society's department in the Missionary Outlook over Miss McGuffin after five ballots had been taken. Miss McGuffin and Mrs. Whiston were appointed editresses of the society's department in the Guardian and Wesleyan respectively.
Treasurers were appointed to the various departments of work as follows: Japan, Mrs. Large; Port Simpson, Miss Hart; Chilliwhack, Miss Clarke; Chinese work, Miss Leak; French work, Mrs. Torrance.
The Standing Committee of last year was re-elected, with the name of Mrs. Hamilton, Parkdale, added. For Indian Affairs, Mrs. Burns, Mrs. Cunningham and Mrs. (Dr.) Sutherland were elected, and Mrs. Platt appointed in charge of the women's missionary column in Onward. Supply Committee will be the same as heretofore. The convention will meet next year at Brantford, and it was decided that the next annual meeting shall be held all in one week and not extend over Sunday.

Why It Is Popular.

Because it has proven its absolute merit over and over again, because it has an unequaled record of cures, because its business is conducted in a thoroughly honest manner, and because it combines economy and strength, being the only medicine of which "100 Doses One Dollar" is true—these strong points have made Hood's Sarsaparilla the most successful medicine of the day. f

Just Impediment!

By Richard Pryce,

AUTHOR OF "AN EVIL SPIRIT," "THE UGLY STORY OF MISS WETHERBY," ETC.

"Do I disturb you?" said Ruther ford "for I wish to have a few minutes' conver sation with you."

He could not but remark her nervous manner.

"It is about Miss Wilton," he added.

"Believe me, it is nothing," said Mrs. Wilton hurriedly. "Esther danced too much and the rooms were very hot—everyone was saying so—and she had not been to a dance for a long time, and she is much better this morning. What did she say to you? You see she had not quite come to herself that time when she was sitting in the upper hall. Did Lady Heron say anything after we left? I was afraid Esther seemed a little discourteous, but you see she was not well, and—and——"

Mrs. Wilton paused. Rutherford was looking at her in surprise. He was experiencing the effect that his aunt had said Mrs. Wilton's manner produced upon herself. There was that lack of proportion of which she had spoken.

"I am glad Miss Wilton is better," said Rutherford. "I think the rooms may have been too hot."

What did all this mean? What occasion for these explanations? And above all, why was Mrs. Wilton agitated?

Esther was better, however, and that was the main point.

Rutherford of course did not know it, but in some respects this interview bore a great likeness to the interview of a few weeks back between Lady Heron and Mrs. Wilton.

"What had you to say to me?" Mrs. Wilton asked suddenly. It seemed to strike her that she was upon the wrong track.

"To ask your consent to my engagement with your daughter."

There was a long pause after this. The clock on the mantel-piece ticked loudly. An engine gave its shrill whistle from Charing Cross. A pigeon alighted on the window sill.

Then Rutherford spoke again. He told Mrs. Wilton his circumstances—how that it would not be possible for him to make very large settlements.

This Mrs. Wilton waved aside as a matter of no importance. Esther had a fortune of her own.

Then would Mrs. Wilton give her consent to an engagement? He did not ask that the wedding should be at once. He was going away for six months——

"Have you spoken to Esther?"

"Last night, Mrs. Wilton."

"Is it rather sudden? You have known her so short a time. Are you sure of your own mind?"

"Absolutely."

There was a pause.

"What was Esther's answer?"

"Well, it was yes," said Rutherford smiling.

"It all seems to me so sudden," said Mrs. Wilton again. "Are you certain that you know enough of each other——"

"Certain."

Mrs. Wilton's face was ghastly white.

"What day do you start?"

"Almost at once. We leave Liverpool the day after to-morrow—my cousin and I, you understand—for New York. This is July; I suppose we shall be back the end of January or the beginning of February."

"Will you give me a few hours?" said Mrs. Wilton. "I am deeply sensible of the advantage to Esther of a marriage with you, but I put her happiness before anything. I must think it over. I will write to you to-night, Lord Rutherford."

"I must content myself with that. May I not see Esther?"

"Not now," said Mrs. Wilton. "I made her stop in bed this morning. She was overtired."

"May I write to her?"

"I would rather that you did not till you hear from me. I will write to-night. You start the day after to-morrow. You shall hear from me to-morrow morning."

So Rutherford had to satisfy himself with this promise, and to leave without a definite answer. He quite understood now the feeling of uneasiness which his aunt had said was produced upon herself by Mrs. Wilton's manner.

CHAPTER XXIV.

THE LETTER UNREAD.

The next morning's post brought Rutherford Mrs. Wilton's promised letter. It contained her consent to his engagement with Esther. The letter was short, cordial, and to the point. Mrs. Wilton expressed own pleasure at the proposed alliance. She would have preferred, she said, that Esther and he had seen more of one another before binding themselves. It would have been well, she thought, for each to have known better the other's temperament, but she would like him to understand that Esther would not hold him to the engagement should his own feelings change.

He thought this an odd clause, but he knew that Mrs. Wilton was not quite like other women, and he did not attach any importance to it.

The writer went on to say that she saw no objection to Esther and himself corresponding during his absence, and then came a sentence which distressed him.

"I am very sorry that we shall not see you again before you go. I am taking Esther to the sea for a few days. I think change of air will do her good, and quite set her up. Will you write to her here, for we shall not be away more than a week, and I am keeping on these rooms?"

Rutherford gave an exclamation of dismay. Not see her again before he left! He must see her again. Why could not Mrs. Wilton have waited one more day? Was Esther so ill?

There were other letters beside his plate. He opened them mechanically. Some were invitations, some were bills, and one neither. It chanced that those he opened first were of no importance. Then he came to the letter which was neither invitation nor bill. He tore open the envelope. Somewhere lately he had seen handwriting of which the handwriting on this reminded him. He unfolded the sheet, but he saw nothing of its contents. He could only think of Esther. He must see her again. If but for a moment he must see her. He folded up the letter. It would keep. Quite mechanically he put it away in the drawer that contained the anonymous communication which he had received a few days back, and which he had not yet destroyed.

He hurried off to Northumberland avenue, and the letter lay unread in the drawer. He did not remember it for six months, and in the meantime much happened.

It was ten o'clock when he reached the hotel.

Mrs. Wilton was gone.

Surely there must be some mistake?

No; Mrs. Wilton, Miss Wilton, Miss Close, and a maid had left the hotel at eight o'clock on the preceding evening.

"Last night?"

"Yes, sir, last night."

Rutherford went to the office.

It was quite true that Mrs. Wilton and her party had gone away on the preceding evening. Had the clerk their address? No. Mrs. Wilton had said that she would be back in a few days, and she had retained her rooms. Had she given any reason for her sudden departure? No, Mrs. Wilton had merely announced her intention of leaving. When was that? About one o'clock the day before. An hour, then, after Rutherford's visit! Was Miss Wilton ill? The clerk thought not. He sent for the chambermaid. No, she had not remarked that Miss Wilton was ill.

There was nothing more to be done, so Rutherford left the hotel. He was powerless in the matter, and he could only wait till Mrs. Wilton or Esther wrote to him. He felt that he had not been treated quite fairly.

With Esther's loving words ringing in his ears he found it difficult to account for her consenting to go away without seeing him again. He did not doubt her for a moment. If she had anything to do with the sudden departure there must be some good reason for it. He would hear from her possibly in the course of the day—unless, indeed, she waited for him to write, and this he could not do, for he had not her address.

How extraordinary it was! The more he thought of it the more strange did it seem. It appeared almost as if Mrs. Wilton had gone to prevent a meeting between himself and Esther. This was surely improbable. What possible objection could she have to their seeing each other? If she had refused her consent then there might be some reason for such a step. As it was he puzzled himself in vain.

For the moment he could not help a feeling of resentment against Billy, whose troubles and follies necessitated the six months' absence. It could not have happened at a less convenient time. He felt almost as if he could not carry through what he had voluntarily undertaken. What might not happen in six months? It would not have been so difficult to go if he had seen Esther again. He began to think of postponing the departure for a week, but a very small amount of reflection showed him that he would not be justified in doing this, and he resigned himself to the inevitable.

For Over Fifty Years

MRS. WINSLOW'S SOOTHING SYRUP has been used for children teething. It soothes the child, softens the gums, allays all pain, cures wind colic, and is the best remedy for diarrhœa. Twenty-five cents a bottle.

In Ellensburg, Wash., the other day, a Chinaman walked down the street whistling "Annie Rooney," and was followed by an Indian playing "Home, Sweet Home," on the harmonica.

For lame back, side or chest, use Shiloh's Porous Plaster. Price 25 cents. W. T. Strong, 184 Dundas street, agent.

Taking the whole land surface of the globe into consideration, there is, on an avarage of 22½ acres to each person.

SHILOH'S VITALIZER is what you need for Constipation, Loss of Appetite Dizziness, and all symptoms of dyspepsia. Price 10 and 75 cent per bottle. W. T. Strong, 184 Dundas street, agent.

Candles are coming in again. Glad of it. When we were young they were continually going out.

SHILOH'S COUGH and Consumption Cure is sold by us on a guarantee. It cures Consumption. W. T. Strong, 184 Dundas street, agent.

Bountiful nature provides the birds with feathers, but does not put any down on their bills.

CROUP, WHOOPING COUGH and Bronchitis immediately relieved by Shiloh's Cure. W. T. Strong, 184 Dundas street, agent.

Our grandfathers used horse pistols; we are satisfied with Colt's.

Carter's Little Liver Pills must not be confounded with common Cathartic or Purgative Pills, as they are entirely unlike them in every respect. One trial will prove their superiority

A Grand Fall Display—Niagara.

A man's wife should always be the same especially to her husband; but if she is weak and nervous and uses Carter's Iron Pills, she cannot be, for they will make her "feel like a different person," at least so they all say, and their husbands say so, too.

Miss Smilax—"I've just been talking to Mr. Bigbrain; he is so very clever; I couldn't help thinking of you, Mr. Sappy, all the time I was talking to him." Mr. Sappy—"Yeth? I am so glad, don't you know." Miss Smilax—"Yes, I couldn't help thinking what an immeasurable difference there is between people."

"Since I made a practice of using B. B. B. my children have got rid of Pimples, Head aches, etc." H. McConnell, 28 Henderson avenue, Toronto.

A recent invention introduced into factories enables any person in any part of the factory to stop the main engine simply by pushing an electric button.

Skin diseases depending on bad blood are promptly removed by Burdock Blood Bitters, the best blood purifier extant.

Mrs. Harrison has been chosen an honorary member by the Association of King's Daughters.

On the Road to Matrimony.

"Oh, Maude, isn't it lovely; I'm to be married at last."

"How splendid; who is he?

Has often saved you the trouble of using your own; so much the better—it makes less work. So with SURPRISE SOAP. SURPRISE has been devised for washing clothes with the smallest amount of hard work to get good results. Using Surprise Soap without boiling or scalding the clothes, saves a great deal of work and time. Thousands of women now use SURPRISE SOAP this way ("the surprise way"). You can do it too and have the clothes perfectly sweet and clean, without the slightest injury to them, leaving the hands soft and smooth after the wash.

SURPRISE Soap saves money in practical use. READ the directions on the wrapper. b

WIVES AND DAUGHTERS

LONDON, CANADA.

The October Number Now Out.

WIVES AND DAUGHTERS is the only ladies' journal published in the West. It is read by about every man, woman and child in the City of London and its suburbs.

It reaches, besides, over 2,950 towns in Ontario and the adjoining Provinces, and a large number in the United States. Many of these towns regularly receive bundles containing between 75 and 100 copies.

WIVES AND DAUGHTERS was first published in October, 1890—only one year ago—and its circulation everywhere is steadily on the increase.

No ladies' journal is more widely or favorably known in Canada than WIVES AND DAUGHTERS. It is published in sixteen-page form on or about the 15th of each month.

A remarkable feature of WIVES AND DAUGHTERS is that it gives more for the money than any other ladies' journal in the world. The price is only 50c. for 1892, with balance of present year thrown in to new subscribers.

For subscribers to the Daily Advertiser or the Western Advertiser the rate will be only 25c. per annum.

As it is one of the best advertising mediums in the country, it will pay advertisers to use its columns. Advertising rates—which are moderate—will be made known on application.

A sample copy will be mailed to any address on receipt of 5c in coin or postage stamps.

THE WEATHER PROPHET.

TORONTO, Oct. 27—11 p.m.—The area of depression has since yesterday moved slowly to Nova Scotia, causing rain in that Province, and both rain and snow as far westward as the Upper St. Lawrence. The highest pressure has moved to the lake region, there causing cold, northerly gales, while lower pressure and warmer weather was spread over the Northwest Territories.

Minimum and maximum temperatures: Calgary, 38°—62°; Battleford, 34°—54°; Prince Albert, 28°—52°; Qu'Appelle, 34°—63°; Minnedosa, 35°—56°; Toronto, 33°—40°; Montreal, 35°—42°; Quebec, 34°—42°; Halifax, 25°—56°.

Local temperatures—Highest, 35°; lowest, 31°.

TO-DAY'S PROBABILITIES.

TORONTO, Oct. 28—1 a.m.—The indications for the next 24 hours for the lower lakes region covering the peninsula and as far east as Belleville are: Winds, shifting to easterly and southerly; fair, with a little higher temperature.

—"What's the gender of that infant?" asked Assistant City Clerk Abbott of Paul Cook as the latter yesterday registered his latest under the classic name of "Alpha Omega Perpetua! Cook." It is a boy, and is doing as well as can be expected.

—James A. Thomas complained to the police magistrate yesterday that John Ryan and Charles Clegg had broken into his rink and otherwise trespassed on his property. They had, however, promised not to do it again and he was willing to withdraw the charge.

—R. B. Walker did not appear at the Police Court yesterday to answer to a charge of obstructing the sidewalk in Market Lane. This case has been postponed from week to week at the request of defendant's counsel, but he did not appear at the court so the magistrate imposed a fine of $5.

—Bailiff Burns arrived home from his hunting tour in Muskoka this morning. He reports game as being very plentiful, the weather fine, and he had a good time generally. His party killed eight fine deer and a very large bear. He reports the scenery on the Muskoka lakes as beautiful beyond all belief.

—W. S. Smith, J. Wolfe and M. Masuret, of London, visited town last Saturday and purchased from Alex. Shaw a 28-foot yacht that he is building. These gentlemen are to be congratulated, for they have secured a good boat and one that promises to be fast as well as a comfortable cruiser.—[Port Dover Maple Leaf.

—The citizens of Toronto will be made comfortable while traveling on the street cars this winter, as the street railway company has given the McClary Manufacturing Company the contract for heating the cars with McClary's famous stoves. One hundred of these are now being put into cars to be ready for the first cold snap.—[Globe.

—Mrs. Russell, of London, mother of Mr. Russell and Chas. Trouse, Arnow, is at present visiting her sons. She is in her 88th year, and made the journey in one day from her home, riding about twenty miles of the distance in a buggy. On her arrival she declared she could make the journey over again next day. She is remarkably smart for her age.—[Tiverton Watchman.

—Squire Owrey held an investigation into the charge of assault preferred against Mrs. Gertrude Peters, of London township, by County Constable Minhinnick. J. Peters, husband of the defendant, stated that the hired girl, who, it is said, was assaulted was at times slightly demented. The charge was denied. It was alleged that Mrs. Peters struck the girl with a large knife and a tumbler and also slapped her ears. Squire Owrey reserved judgment until this morning.

—The Dominion voters' lists, as prepared, are understood to be very defective. Hundreds of names are alleged to be on the lists that should not be, and many names are left off that should be on. The total appeals on the lists are said to number over 1,500. And but four of the city wards are embraced! The court for hearing the appeals will be held next month.

—Monday evening a social was held in St. George's Church, London West, under the auspices of the choir. Songs were finely rendered by Misses Gurd and Saunders, Mrs. Smith, and Messrs. Wood, Mills, Bridge, Milligan and Jeans; a well-executed piano duet by Misses Gurd and Orrell, and an effective clarionet solo by Art. Wilkins. Mrs. Milligan was the efficient accompanist. The young ladies provided refreshments.

—Robert Smale was acquitted by the Police Magistrate yesterday on a charge of having stolen a pair of skates from Westminster Rink. Ald. Thomas, the proprietor, said that during the last two or three years at least 50 pairs of skates had been stolen. He could not produce the pair that he alleged Smale had taken, but said that his private mark was on them. He did not know when they had been taken. Smale said he got them from his brother, who had bought them in Hamilton.

—Rev. H. C. Speller, city, is credited by the St. Thomas Times with having preached "two able sermons" in the Center Street Baptist Church there on Sunday. The Journal says: "There were exceedingly large congregations at each service. Mr. Speller is possessed of a clear, resonant voice which, with an abundance of expressive gestures, he uses to the best effect to force home the truth of the gospel which he expounds." Thanksgiving collections of $110 were taken up, and baptism was administered at the close of the evening service.

—Postmaster Dawson has received notice that the following papers are non-transmissable by mail in Canada, and if any come into his hands they are to be sent to the dead letter office at Ottawa: Sporting World, Police Gazette, Household Companion, Illustrated Companion, Welcome Friend, of New York; Sunday World, Detroit; Our Home and Fireside Magazine, People's Illustrated Journal, Practical Housekeeper, Portland, Me.; American Cottage Home, American Fireside and Farm, American Homestead, American Household Journal, Jersey City; The Home, Boston.

A Commendable Appointment.

The universal opinion is that there was no mistake made when Justice MacMahon was raised to the bench. His equanimity of temper, his gentle, but firm manner, create a favorable impression among laymen who attend the court. He shows a disposition to be fair to everybody and a desire to administer the law without prejudice. Where he thinks it is better, in the common interests, for a settlement to be made, he so advises.—[St. Thomas Times.

A Sad Parting.

Anthony Mansell was taken to Kingston yesterday by Sheriff's Officer Graham to serve his sentence of seven years on a conviction for manslaughter in connection with Harry Platt's death. His wife bid him good-bye on the G. T. R. station, and the parting was heart-rending. Mansell bore up bravely, although the sight of Mrs. Mansell seemed to almost unnerve him. A few of his friends were on the platform at the time, with whom he shook hands.

The Minister's Escape.

There were some peculiar things in connection with the escape of Rev. Thomas Patton from his wrecked car on Sunday. His watch was picked up some time after, and when handed to him was ticking with its wonted regularity and indicated perfect time. It was also strange that the only suit of clothes he saved was his Sabbath clerical attire. He is recovering nicely from his injuries. This evening he will address a public meeting in St. James' Presbyterian Church, and will touch upon an event which he will have sufficient occasion to remember all his life.

Appointments.

Wm. Thompson, well and favorably known to WESTERN ADVERTISER readers from his contributions to the agricultural department of that journal, has been appointed manager and editor of the Manitoba and Northwest edition of the Farmers' Advocate, with headquarters at Winnipeg. He left for his new home Monday night. Mr. Thompson is one of the best authorities on agricultural matters in Canada, and he is in every way capable to undertake the duties he now assumes. In him Winnipeg will have a good citizen. The duties hitherto undertaken with so much acceptance by Mr. Thompson in connection with the WESTERN ADVERTISER have been assumed by his brother, Jas. D. Thompson, and the department will continue to be sustained with vigor, freshness and a single eye to the welfare of the wide circle of readers of the paper.

Wallick and His Horses.

Friday and Saturday nights the thrilling productions, "The Mountain King" and "The Bandit King" will be presented at the Grand by the celebrated James H. Wallick. His famous educated horses lend an effective realism to his plays, and make a feature that cannot but delight all. The Philadelphia Item says: "The various situations are thrilling, and each act terminates with a dramatic climax—a veritable curtain-raiser, in fact. Mr. Wallick is really forceful in his acting, being easy and graceful, and his mannerisms natural. He has an intelligent conception of what is required of him, and invests everything he does with consistency. The marvelous horses, Raider, Charger, Texas and Pete, were beyond criticism, and, as a lady in the audience was heard to exclaim, were 'just too sweet for anything.' They certainly contribute in no small degree to the success of Mr. Wallick's plays."

Huron Diocese Women Workers.

In Bishop Cronyn Hall Monday afternoon the Board of Management of the Women's Auxiliary Missionary Association of the Diocese of Huron held their semi-annual meeting. The president, Mrs. Baldwin, was in the chair. The reports of the different diocesan secretaries were read. A life membership card was presented to Mrs. Baldwin. During the evening an "at home" afforded pleasant enjoyment for delegates, city pastors and their families and students of Huron College. There were present in the afternoon: Mrs. Eakins, New St. Paul's Church, Woodstock; Mrs. Finkle, Old St. Paul's, Woodstock; Miss Buchanan, Brantford; Mesdames Jackson, Edelstein and Vincent Shore, Glanworth; Mrs. Merton Shore, Ailsa Craig; Mrs. Hoyt, Ingersoll; Miss Sands, Chatham; Mrs. Chance, Tyrconnel; Mrs. Ashbury, Delaware. Those from the city were: Mrs. Baldwin, president; Mrs. Complin, treasurer; Mrs. Whitehead, recording secretary; Mrs. Newman, corresponding secretary; Miss H. H. Marsh, Dorcas secretary; Miss Crose, organizing secretary; Mrs. Boomer, editress of the Monthly Leaflet; Mesdames Richardson and Code and Miss Smith, Memorial Church; Mesdames E. W. Hyman and Becher, St. Paul's; Mrs. (Canon) Davis and Misses Moore and Hunt, St. James', London South; Mrs. (Rev.) Sage and Miss Kingsmill, St. George's London West; Mesdames Hill and Falls, St. John the Evangelist, and Mrs. Talbot Macbeth.

Fire at the Paris G. T. R. Station.

A serious fire broke out in the sawmill to the rear of the G. T. R. freight house at Paris yesterday morning about 3 o'clock. It spread with great rapidity to the G. T. R. freight sheds, tool house, water tank and outbuildings and four cars soon fell a prey to the flames. There is no cause assigned for the origin of the fire, although it is suspected to be the work of an incendiary. The insurance is not known, but it is probable the goods in the freight house would be partly insured. Several of the trains were delayed in consequence of the fire.

A Thief in South London.

Shortly after midnight Monday a resident of the south side of Langarth street, connected with the hardware business, was awakened by a noise in the cellar. The thought of burglars flashed instantly on his mind, and desiring sufficient aid to overpower them he yelled lustily to his next door neighbor, who, when informed of the cause, did likewise to his neighbor on the other side. Neighbor No. 1 came over with a club and No. 2 with a shotgut. Headed by the proprietor with cocked pistol they crept stealthily down the cellar stairs, but not a living object could they find. Thanking his assistants, who were shivering in the night air and scanty attire, the mistaken owner went back to bed, soon to be aroused by another racket of a like kind. With a determination to do or die he again betook himself to the underground apartment and was rewarded by discovering the source of the trouble—a large cat making an early breakfast on the good things in store. Mr. —— was not annoyed the rest of the night.

Delegates to the Convention.

The regular meeting of the W. C. T. U., usually held on Tuesdays, took place Monday at the Park Avenue Presbyterian Church, as several of the members were to start for Toronto this morning to attend the Provincial W. C. T. U. Convention. The departing delegates are: Mrs. Thornley, Mrs. Darch, Mrs. Cameron, Miss Cosford, Mrs. Holmes, Mrs. Geo. Brown, Mrs. Courtice, Mrs. McLevy, Miss Slaght and Mrs. Carson. Minutes of last meeting were read and approved. It was voted that the Provincial Convention be invited to meet here next year, and also that a resolution of greeting be sent to the Baptist Convention now in session in this city. Two new members were received into the Union—Mrs. Whiting and Mrs. Gurd. The president spoke strongly concerning the objectionable posters put up by dramatic companies in various parts of the city. A letter has been sent to Anthony Comstock, the veteran reformer, inquiring how best to obviate the nuisance. Some discussion took place as to whether the taking of the pledge prevented indulgence in patent medicines, many of which are preparations of herbs steeped in bad whisky. The question is to be brought up at the Provincial Convention.

LINK AND LEVER.

Good Time Made by the Empire State Express—Steel Ties—Earnings.

Most of the right of way for the new Detroit and Chicago line belonging to the Wabash has been secured, and work will begin in the spring.

The Canadian Pacific Railway traffic receipts for the week which ended Oct. 21 amounted to $441,000, an increase of $62,000 over those for the corresponding week of last year.

The Michigan Central has adopted the Sewall system of steam heat coupling for all its passenger trains, and has also equipped them with the Westinghouse air whistle signal in place of the cord and cab bell.

The Empire State express, which started from New York at 9:01:15 a.m. Monday, arrived in Buffalo at 5:42:15 p.m. Allowing for the 1 minute and 15 seconds that the train was late out of New York it was only 1 minute later than the schedule, which is 8 hours 40 minutes, New York to Buffalo.

The Lake Shore has placed an order for 2,000 cars to be delivered next July and August. The Lake Shore is also experimenting with asphalt between the tracks in some of its yards. It is thought this will be better than ballasting with stone and gravel, producing a more smoothly and sightly yard.

Steel ties that were placed in the track of the Chicago and Western Indiana Railway nineteen months ago have been examined by the roadmaster. The track had a very heavy traffic, but the roadmaster reports that the ties were not only safe, smooth, and pleasant, to ride on, but were a money-saving device. He also observed that there was less oscillation and vibration in the locomotives and cars passing over them, especially in heavily-loaded cars of yielding material like grain.

Surveyors of the Northern Pacific extension have made the discovery that the main divide of the Rockies is only 5,200 feet above the sea level, instead of 5,500 feet, as shown in the old maps. Over 5,000 men are employed in grading and track-laying, and it is expected there will be no cessation of work this winter. Sixty miles of grade is ready for the track west of the present terminus. The bridge over the Big Horn River has been completed, and iron has been laid as far as that point, which is about 25 miles from the summit.

GOOD-NATURED CRUMBLERS.

Lewis Clark writes: "In your issue of Saturday last I saw a paragraph giving the price of water by metre. If the statement there made is correct, I consider the water commissioners are charging householders too much for water. If they can afford to sell water at 15 cents per 1,000 gallons, can they explain why I have to pay $1 15 per quarter and I only use about 400 gallons in that time? At that rate they must be making money; then what do they mean by asking the Council for $30,000 more money? If you or the commissioners can explain this it will much oblige."

EPP'S COCOA—GRATEFUL AND COMFORTING.—"By a thorough knowledge of the natural laws which govern the operations of digestion and nutrition, and by a careful application of the fine properties of well-selected Cocoa, Mr. Epps has provided our breakfast-tables with a delicately-flavored beverage which may save many heavy doctors' bills. It is by the judicious use of such articles of diet that a constitution may be gradually built up, until strong enough to resist every tendency to disease. Hundreds of subtle maladies are floating around us ready to attack wherever there is a weak point. We may escape many a fatal shaft by keeping ourselves well fortified with pure blood and a properly-nourished frame."—[Civil Service Gazette.—Made simply with boiling water or milk. LIQUOR FOR HEATHEN LANDS.

Strong Prohibition Resolution Passed by the Women's Missionary Board of the Methodist Church.

TORONTO, Oct. 27.—The Board of Managers of the Woman's Missionary Society of the Methodist churches convened again at 9 o'clock yesterday morning in Elm Street Methodist Church. Mrs. James Gooderham presided, and the various branches were fully represented. The reports on memorials and publications were dealt with, and it was decided that a missionary catechism be prepared for juvenile bands.

Mr. Whiston, of Halifax, asked permission to move the following resolution: Whereas alcoholic liquors in large quantities are being exported into heathen countries by professedly Christian nations, thus subverting missionary effort and plunging the natives of uncivilized countries into a state of degradation unknown before they came in contact with commerce and civilization; therefore, resolved, that we hereby acknowledge the sisterly greetings of the Ontario Woman's Christian Temperance Union, that we express our sympathy with them and assure our sisters of our hearty co-operation in their noble efforts to bring about the total prohibition of the liquor traffic. And further resolved, that this resolution be placed on our records, and appear in the press notices of this meeting."

Mrs. Young, of Markham, seconded the motion in a few stirring remarks, and on a standing vote the resolution was adopted.
