we beg to state as follows: 1f, reference be made to the auditor's reports for the years 1902, 1903, and 1904, it will be found that the charges for coal, carbons, labor, oil and repairs, etc., have been $5,121.85, $5,255,95 and $5,639.69 respectively. In the year 1904 an item of $1,186.41 for waterworks pipe, wrongly charged to electric light account, and $1,403.03 for new dynamo have been for waterworks pipe, wrongly charged to electric light account, and $1,403.93 for new dynamo have been deducted, and are not included in the yearly figures just mentioned. This would leave the average yearly charge for the three years, for the items enumerated, $5,339.49. The value of the city plant as shown by the reports is $17,000, to which should be added the cost of the dynamo purchased last year, the cost of Thompson suit in connection with dynamos, etc., bringing the value to about $20,000. The interest charges on this investment at $1.2 per cent. and a depreciation charge which we placed at the very low figure of $1.2 per cent.—too low as a matter of fact—would amount to $2,000 per annum. If a private corporation were furnishing the light, taxes would be paid by them on the plant, which the city now loses; this would amount to $500 per annum as the cost. Now if a private corporation would be paid by them on the plant, which the city now loses; this would amount to $500 per annum as the cost. Now if a private corporation were furnishing the light, deductions would be made for each lamp out each night, and would lessen the contract price by that much; it is but right, therefore, that the city's operation should be placed on the same basis. The present sumber of lamps operated, we understand from Mr. Jones, is 125, part of which have been added during the three years mentioned. We have estimated that 15 per cent. of these have not been lighted, and considering that a portion of the 125 lamps have been added during the three years, it would be

A FOOL'S PARADISE.

Ald. Austin's warning statement at last night's City Council session that Chatham was living in a fool's paradise regarding the cost, operation and equipment of its electric light plant, was pretty clearly evidenced by the very imperfect and faulty report of the engineer as submitted by Ald. Westman, chairman of the Property committee, and the resultant discussion with its somewhat startling disclosures

It would have been much wiser in our opinion, in view of these de velopments, had the Council acted upon the suggestion of the Mayorbacked by Ald, O'Keefe and Austinand referred the whole matter back for fuller and more authentic information ere any action was taken.

What are the facts as the public know them? One of the most wretchedly inadequate, irregular and unsatisfactory lighting services has been Chatham's portion for some time past. Every night a large tract in utter darkness, with its attendant dangers and inconveniences-and all the time the people paying for the light they do not get. A short time ago it was reported that the purchase of a new dynamo would remedy all existing evils and put the plant in first class shape. The purchase was made by the Council and some $1,500 expended from the civic treasury. But matters did not imimprove and darkness still covered the earth.

Now we are told that another new dynamo is a necessity-and last evening the majority of the Council voted for its purchase and the further expenditure of $2,000 to put the plant "in good condition." But the discussion revealed the fact that, in the event of some rewinding experiments by Engineer Jones proving unsuccessful, still another new dynamo will be needed! More than that, the Mayor brought out the fact that the engine had not sufficient power, nor the boiler sufficient capacity, to give the city 15 to 20 more lights even with all the new dynamos. Was his worship not right in characterizing Ald. Westman's proposals as "a policy of patchwork ?"

The other day Chatham was visited by an expert engineer, representing the Power Commission of the Provincial Government, and securing estimates. With some of the civic representatives he was taken to our electric light plant. Do the aldermen remember asking his opinion thereon? Do they remember the response outspoken, and unequivocal? Is this state of affairs always to continue ?

The Planet is a believer in the policy of municipal ownership where practical and profitable, but it was a good thing to get an honest, straight, businesslike estimate of the cost of the civic lighting from Mr. P. S. Coate last night. It will set the people to doing some thinkingand possibly the Council to doing some acting. Equally true is it that the report submitted by Engineer Jones and Ald. Westman was not, by any means, an accurate or complete one. The department should be honyet asked for further and fuller facts The people want these facts-the full facts. They are not content to live longer in a "fool's paradise"-and dark one, at that.

TO RESCIND MOTION

Chatham, Ont., Oct. 9th, 1905. To the Editor of The Planet:

Dear Sir,-As a number of your readers are interested in the proposed Board of Education matter I enclose you copies of the letters re-

As the main object of introducing the question was to secure direct representation of all Trustees from the resentation of all Trustees from the city by general vote, this question can afford to wait until the position of the county is more clearly defined, as we do not wish to court litigation with the county. Besides, I think it would be unfair to ask the county to contribute to maintenance unless they had representation on the Board. In view of these facts I purpose at the next regular meeting of the Council making a motion to reseind the resolution passed at our last regular session.

Toronto, Ont., Oct. 7th, 1905.

It was not intended that where advantage was taken of the provisions of the Bill passed in 1904, the High School should suffer financially, so far as the payment from the county is cenceraed. It is possible, however, that section 13 (5) of the High School Act might be taken as a technical objection by the members of the County Council, and, therefore, a grant might be refused. This point has been raised in several quarters, and as the law stands it would be difficult to state how the courts would decide in the matter.

Yours faithfully,

The announcement, which is one of the most interesting that has been heard for some time, carries with it the assurance that the new corporation which has been successfully launched will be an all-Canadian institution and will have Canadian institution and will hav Canadian institution and will have a financial backing so strong as to place it immediately in a foremost position among the great fire insurance companies of the Continent. Ever since the great Toronto fire of April, 1904, the fact that millions of dollars of Canadian fire assurance is being carried by companies not licensed to do business in Canada, has been the subject of considerable surance is being carried by companies not licensed to do business in Canada, has been the subject of considerable comment both in Parliament and in commercial circles, and it was assured that sooner or later the need for a strong Canadian company of sufficient capital to meet this keen competition from the other side would be supplied. The new company is capitalized at two million dollars, and when it is known that a great many manufacturers and business men in this country have unwillingly placed their insurance in foreign companies because of the conditions at home, it will be seen that this new 'baby giant' in the insurance world begins its career with practical certainty of success.

Mr. Addison H. Hoover, President and Managing D. rector of the Sovereign Life Assurance Company, and to whom a great amount of the tremendous success of that organization is attributed, has been secured by the Provisional Directors of the Sovereign Fire Assurance Company of Canada, and will devote considerable attention, it is said, to the preliminary organization of the new corporation.

POTATO ROT.

By Prof. Harrison.

By Frof. Harrison.

The November, 1904, crop bulletin of the Ontario Bureau of Industries stated that considerable rot had appeared on potatoes, especially where the crop was grown on heavy soils or on low lying land. The extent of the loss was variously estimated at from 20 to 50 per cent. This "soft" or "wet" rot is quite distinct from the so-called "Blight," at first sight most of the potatoes appear from the so-called "Blight," at first sight most of the potatoes appear to be sound, but on examination the skin over certain areas is found to be discolored and on pressure the part beneath is soft. On breaking the skin, a turbid liquid can be easily pressed out. This liquid may contain gas bubbles and turns black on exposure to air. The skin from affected parts easily peals away and the newly exposed flesh is watery and white but soons discolors in the air, becoming almost black. Later, the flesh softens to a white, watery pulp and becomes highly offensive, with a putrefactive odor. Finally, the potato becomes a mass of black soft pulp.

The stems of the potatoes may or may not be affected, in the former

The stems of the potatoes may or may not be affected, in the former case the base of the stems becomes discolored and black, then the leaves above wilt and the entire stem falls over. If a piece of diseased stem is cut open, the fibrous strands in it (the fibrovascular bundles) will be found brown to black in color.

The cause of the "Blight" which particularly affects the leaves, is a fungus and the Bordeaux mixture properly make and applied will hold this disease in check, but the wet or soft rot cannot be managed by spraying with this mixture, because this disease in check, but the wet or soft rot cannot be managed by spraying with this mixture, because the disease is present in the roots and tubers and hence cannot be got at. The cause of the "rot" disease is a basterium, a minute rod about 1-20,000 of an inch long, which grows with great rapidity in the tissues of the potato and secrets a substance which has a dissolving action on the cell walls which hold the starch and other contents of the cell in place; when these cell walls are destroyed the potato becomes watery and soft, putrefaction sets in and the tuber is destroyed.

The Bacteriological Department of the Ontario Agricultural College, which has been studying the disease for the fast year, would like to ascertain if the disease in various parts of Ontario is similar to the one with which it has been working, and which caused so much damage last year, and hence would like farmers troubled with this disease to mail an affected potato and state at the same time if they were troubled with the soft or vet rot last year and to what extent the rot is present in the present season's crop.

The Growth of Fire Insurance in Canada

Canadian Government statistics issued by the Superintendent of Insurance show that during the past thirty-six years the business of fire assurance in this country has increased ten-fold the total amount of premiums collected in Canada in the year 1869 being $1,785,539, while that of 1904 was $13,174,819 for the same purpose. Of this premium income only $2,688,703 was paid to Canadian Companies, while $10,486,16 was paid to Foreign Companies. The total amount of fire assurance premiums collected in Canada during these thirty-six years amounted to the enormous sum of $201,580,555. Of this amount $156 600,789 was the amount of capital which left Canada in payment of premiums to Foreign Companies.

The Insurance Report shows that for the year 1904 there were but ten Canadian Companies licensed by the Dominion Government to transact the business of Fire Assurance in Canada, and but two of these ten had a paid-up capital for more than $225,000. With such facts an i figures before them the incorporate s of THE SOVEREIGN FIRE ASSURANCE COMPANY have been convinced of the necessity for a sound, substantial Corporation—the shareholders and policy-holders of which would be protected by a LARGE CASH CAPITAL PAID UP IN FULL, a Government deposit in excess of the Statutory requirement, and a strong directorate of business men which would conserve these resources for the development of Canadian institutions.

PROFITS OF FIRE ASSURANCE COMPANIES.

The average dividend paid by thirty-two British Joint Stock Fire Assurance Companies for the current financial y ar, corrected down to September 1st, 1905, exceeded 30 per cent. per annum, and the average dividends for ten years ending December 31st, 1904, paid by 136 Joint Stock Fire Assurance Companies of the United States, as compiled from official reports, has exceeded 18 1-4 per cent. per Statistics compiled by the Superintendent of Insurance covering a period of thirty years, from 1875 to 1904 inclusive, show that the dividends paid by Canadian Fire Assurance Companies amounted to $4.460,885.25, and when it is remembered that the rates for fire assurance are to-day practically 50 per cent. to 100 per cent, in excess of the rates charged during the period covered by the Insurance Department, it will be readily seen that the business is now fixed upon a substantial basis and the profitableness of the future is unquestionably assured.

THE SUBSCRIPTIONS FOR CAPITAL STOCK.

The capital stock of the Sovereign Fire Assurance Company of Canada is TWO MILLION DOLLARS, divided into 50,000 shares of $40.00 each, of which TWO HUNDRED AND FIFTY THOUSAND DOLLARS is now offered to investors at a premium of 25 per cent. or FIFTY DOLLARS A SHARE.

In Olden Times These Big Animals Were Used In War. The circus elephant is almost as old as the world, for the ancient Romans

But the elephant is also spoken or in the history of the Bible. King Lysias of Syria in 163 B. C. led 120.000 men and thirty-two war trained elephants against Judas of Maccabee and won the battle. Eleahar, the brother of Ju-

Elephants were also found in the army of Hannibal when he made war upon the Romans in 219 B. C. The trunk, head and neck of this animal are most easily hurt, and therefore Hannibal had iron mail coats made for them which covered these parts. Alexander the Great was known to have used elephants as bridge supports during his wars and, as you can see from the picture, crossed his soldiers over

Burglars and Chivroform

Doctors agree that the public is wrong in the popular conception that burglars sometimes chloroform the in-mates of a house before committing a robbery. The usual story is that the anaesthetic was squirted into the sleeping room through keyholes. A Kansas City surgeon who has had occasion to administer chloroform or ether 500 times says that chloroform administered in this manner would put a quietus on the burglar as well as the inmates of a home. Physicians have tried many times to administer chloroform to sleeping persons and have met with very poor results. The first effect of an anaesthetic is not to lull to insensibility, but to arouse all the mental and physical vigor of the person

FALL JACK

The popularity of Covert Jackets is the talk of every smart dresser, and Tweed effects crowd them closely for first place. Each garment possesses the smart touch of style that distinguishes the autumn models, and for quality, variety and value, they leave nothing to be desired. We simply state these facts and put the burden of proof on the Jackets.

We don't ask one to believe a word of this argument simply because we say it's so. We put the burden of the proof on the coats, Wer'e simply going to tell you the facts about these Rainproof Coats and then let you be the judge as to whether its an opportunity worth considering.

We're showing them in Plain Oxfords, O.ive Mixtures and Novelty Patterns, They're popularly called October Coats because they're needed when it's too warm for an overcoat and too cool for none at all, and then the weather's so uncertain, likely to rain any day, and they're absolutely rainproof. They look like those long swell $25.00 Overcoats, and have that snap and swing of the tailor made garments, broad shoulders, close fitting collar, and all the rest of the smart style attributes we unhesistatingly say $12.00, $13.50 and $15.00 Raincoats

CAMDEN'S BIG FAIR DISTRICT

Largest Exhibition Ever Seen in Dresden in Years-Good Races

Camden's Fair, which was held last Priday, Oct. 3th, at Dresden, ranks with the best fall fairs of the year in point of attendance, there being over 4,000 people present. In its speeding contests it was superior to many. In its exhibition of horses of all kinds, especially of roadsters, it could not be beaten. The Agricultural Hall was full of fruits and vegetables, together wich ladies' work and tables, together with ladies' work and specimens of fine art.

It is said that owing to the bad weather a year ago an attempt was made to revive interest in the fall exhibitions. The attempt has been exhibitions. The attempt has been successful from every standpoint and next year's fair will be the equal of any in Kent county.

Citizen of No Country Raises Very Nice Question by Discovering New Arctic Land.

The Duke of Oreans being without a country and possessing no rights of citizenship of any recognized state, a curious and absolutely unprecedented curious and absolutely unprecedented question has arisen in connection with the new land that he has discovered in the Arctic seas, says the Marquise de Fontenoy. As a general rule, when explorers discover a new land they take possession thereof in the name of their Government, and hoist the latter's flag. Their nation is thereupon regarded as becoming invested thereby with the rights of sovereignity over the newly-discovered territory, unless indeed if ly-discovered territory, unless indeed it declines to avail itself of the privilege ly-discovered territory, unless indeed it declines to avail itse, for the privilege. On general principles, every man is regarded as being the citizen of some state or other, and as subject to its Government and its laws; and being ipso facto, barred from the exercise of any sovereign rights, save those with which he may happen to be invested by its statutes and constitution, he cannot of his own accord assume sovereignty over any new land which he may discover. He may have proprietary rights, but the sovereignty over the new territory in question belongs to the state to which he is subject. Even King Leopold, after he had explored the greater part of the Congovalley through his agents, spent millions of dollars in opening it up to trade, and had hoisted his flag everywhere, was not regarded as possessing any sovereign rights over what is now known as the Congo Free State until where, was not regarded as possessing any sovereign rights over what is now known as the Congo Free State until he had been invested therewith by the great powers assembled in international congress at Berlin,

Now, the Duke of Orleans has been deprived, not only judicially but also legislatively, of his French nationality and citizenship, and has been banished from French soil. He has therefore no right to fly the French flag, to raise it over any land that he may discover, or to take possession of the latter in France's name. Nor does France acquire any sovereign rights over any France's name. Nor does France acquire any sovereign rights over any discovery that he may make.

True, there are other pretenders. But they are one and all of them accorded what may be described as honorary citizenship of the countries in which they have established their homes. Thus Don Carlos in the lawsuits which he has been carrying on with his daughters in the Austrian courts on the subters in the Austrian courts on the su ters in the Austrian courts on the sub-ject of their dead mother's property has described himself as an Austrian citizen and so has the Duke of Bragan-za, the legitimist pretender to the throne of Portugal. Prince Victor Napoleon, the Bonapartist pretender, on the other hand, enjoys the rights of Belgian citizenship, just in the same way that Emperor Napoleon III., prior to his accession to the throne possess-ed, first of all, Swiss citizenship, and after that the rights of an English sub-ject, taking the oath of allegiance to ject, taking the oath of allegiance to Queen Victoria and to the British crown when he was sworn in as a special constable during the Chartist troubles constable during the Chartist troubles in and about London.

But the Duke of Orleans is a wanderer on the face of the earth. The Governments of Austria, of Belgium, and of Italy have all raised objections to his setting up his home permanently on their territory, not wishing to have it used as the headquarters for conspiracies against the French republic. True, he has a country seat in England which he inherited from his granduncle, the Duc d'Aumale. But cold shouldered at the Court of St. James, ostracized by society, barred from most of the London clubs, and expelled from several others by reason from most of the London clubs, and expelled from several others by reason of his repeatedly professed animosity towards the English reigning family and everything British, he would be the last person on earth to claim English citizenship. Yet in view of the fact that he was born in England, and that he served for a time as an officer of the English army, receiving a commission as such (after graduating from the English military college at Sandmission as such (after graduating from the English military college at Sand-hurst) at the hands of his venerable relative and benefactor, Queen Victoria, whom he so shamefully insulted in a public letter at the time of the Boer war, it is just a question whether he is not, all things considered, an Eng-lish subject, and whether Great Bri-tain is not entitled to the fruits of his discovery.

The land in question lies between northeast Greenland and Spitzbergen, northeast Greenland that while the and it is remarkable that while the coasts of both there territories have been mapped, the intervening sea should have been wholly neglected by explorers. Indeed the duke's discovery shows that we have been mistaken in believing the Arctic ocean to be a sea where there was no geographical tro-phy of importance left to conquer ex-cept the north pole.

Great Fire In London Predicted.

"Within the next few years, I tell you, there will be another great fire, attended by loss of life, in the city of London." This is the prophecy which London." This is the prophecy which Edward Atkinson made to one of the representatives of the St. James Gazette. As regards the mechanical appliances employed by the London fire brigade Mr. Atkinson gave it as his opinion that we are far behind the United States. "Your appliances are mere toys," he remarked. "I read of your having an engine which can throw a jet of 500 gallons a minute, but that is not enough. I have not seen a single standpipe in any street here. In America the standpipe runs to the highest floor of the lot liest building and is so constructed that the engine on its arrival can be connected without a minute's delay. No hose is needed, and water is thrown on to every floor. We do not have, as you do, a few such jets of water thrown from the ground level." Edward Atkinson made to one of the a grand success, and some very fine solos were rendered by Dr. Oliver, P. W. Stone, of Merlin, and Mr. Ed. Hea, of 9th concession, Raleigh. Rev. Mr. Thomson, of Merlin, occupied the chair.

Miss Edith Magee, of Glenwood, spent a few days with her cousin, Miss Velma Bennett. The many friends of Rev. Mr.

gess, former pastor of St. Andrew's church here, regret to learn that he completed his term in the St. An-drew's church on Sunday, Sept. 17. We can safely say that we are losing a most industrious and ambitious young student, who has done much for the church. Mr. Burgess leaves his home in Tilbury on October 1 for Kingston, where he will complete his course in the Queen's University. His many friends wish him much success.

"Busy" Business Man Sized Up and Blind Apostleship to Strenuosity

BAR TO PROGRESS.

Among the young men of to-day who are looking for opportunities for launching into successful careers it may be said that the great majority have before their eyes as an example for emulation the typical busy business man. In this statement I want to make a marked distinction between the business man and the business man who is chronleally of the busy type. For in chronically of the busy type. For in my opinion there is no type in exist-ence who in all his relations with the world is so absolutely a bar to progress of the human race, writes John A. Howland,

Not infrequently this busy business man is not busy. He is emotional, excitable, and is borrowing troubles and tangles. He thinks he is most strenuous, when as a matter of fact he had lost merely his self-control. Personally he may rush madly by train and cab to his office, dash to the express elevator, bounce into his office and be an hour recovering from his emotionalism. But this man in his own estimation is one of the busiest of men, and the busy feeling grows upon him until it becomes a condition of fixed until it becomes a condition of fixed mental aberration in a passive state, or until it as violently breaks out into a certain business hydrophobia.

Manifestly neither the business man nor the busy business man is able, willing, or called upon to receive every person who asks him for a portion of his time. But in my experience of this busy business man, he squanders more time in busying himself, mentally and physically, than he would need to give every person a hearing who might call upon him in the routine day. This man who is mentally aberrated with the ingrowing idea of his busy condition, and who yet is more or less passive under the spell, is one of the passive under the speil, is one of the most irritating of the types. He has the demeanor of gentleness, perhaps. He can smile, sometimes, vaguely in a far off manner. But business abstrac-tion is buried into his eyes until you may feel that using them with hypno-tic intent he might induce you to be-come a packing box or a block of blank sock certificates.

His most maddening aspect is shown

when you have approached him with something which is not business, thank God, but which is so much worther that he is compelled to reliterate almost incoherently that he "would be delighted to ake the matter up with you -only-you know I am so-so fright-fully busy, always, that I-I-" and you stammering per onal pronoun. His whole bearing, so far as it is sane, is that he is regarding his busy business as he regards an incurable disease from which he is doomed always to suffer— as perhaps he must.

This same caller appearing before that other type of violently busy man logically may expect almost any kind of explosive negative, and at the best having it tempered with the querulous reiteration of his busy condition amounting to more than an obsession.

This monomaniacal representative of business in its busies; garb is the one man in business who has given to the term "business" much of its hard, uncalculating immobility and narrowness. cial).—Mr. Theodore Young, a well-known citizen of this piace, is one of the many Canadians who have been rescued from the cattches of the much dreaded Bright's D.sease, by His outlook on life is abnormal to the last degree. He has yoked himself fast to the grim specter. Time, and he goes protestingly toward any object in life which would halt his partner.

Viewed from any side this overbusied man wears the standing and inmuch dreaded Bright's D.sease, by Dodd's Kidney Pills.

"For two years," says Mr. Young, in relating his experience, "I was afficied with Beight's D.sease. The dostors told me I could get no relief. My urine was very dark and I lost considerable blood, making me so weak I could searcely stand. I also used many-medicines without gretting relief.

delible confession of his inefficiency. The man feeling the pressure of his business day after day is unfitted for the exactions of his work. He is a quart cup in the gauger's plant where asso used many mentanes without getting relief.

"Hearing of wonderful cures by Dodd's Kidney Pills led me to try them, and after using the first box I found great relief. After using four boxes I was able to go to work, which I had been unable to do for owne time. I recommend Dodd's Kidney and Dodd's Kidney the comments of the comm only the gallon measure is of economical use. He needs make too many trips from the cask to the barrel in render-ing his service. He is in use in many places, however, and in the process he some time. I recommend Dodd's Kidney Pills to all who are afflicted as I was." is inimical to good business in a great measure and wholly so to all else in measure and wholly so to all else in life.

Yet this is the type of business man which with so many observers of the business world naturally attracts the attentions. We have become too much the blind apostles of strenuosity. It no longer interests us that a man with calm exterior and an inward confidence in himself moves with even certainty. to a legitimate end. The limelight and the grand stand are the properties necessary to attract in his accomplishments. Without this portable back-Without this portable ground for attainment, the world does not care to look, to say nothing of learning.

"I have been putting in a month of hard work, but I'll be able to look over the top of it soon," is an expression creditable to a man who has upon his shoulders the success of a business. "I am so busy I don't know which way to turn," is a much commoner and excited expression, however, and when you hear it put it down that it comes from a weak nature confessing from a weak nature confessin its inefficiency.

Then, the introduction having been made and the dog having no excuse for not knowing her, Margaret walked up and patted him, while he wagged his tail with much graciousness.

Child Marriages In India.

Recently at the Caxton Hall, Westminster, Sirdar Arjan Singh addressed the East Indian Association on "Early Marriages In India." Sidar Arjan Singh said in India people married in childhood, sometimes in infancy, and noi rarely the promise of marriage was made before birth. If a girl was unmarried at twelve she was regarded at disgraced and her father as a sinner About 400,000 children in every five years were married when under five years of age. Many girls then married became widows while still bables of small children, and the misery of widowhood in India was inconceivable to the European mind.—London Post. Child Marriages In India.

THE FOUR D'S.

Ciurles Spurgeon once said that there are three there are three great enemies to man—"dirt, debt and the devil." He might have added one more D and included dyspepsia. The evil results of this disease could hardly be exaggrated. Its effects are felt in mind and heady and are as far reaching as and body, and are as far reaching as the effects of the curse that was laid on the Jackdaw of Rheims which was cursed in eating and drinking and cursed in eating and drinking and sleeping, in standing and sitting and lying." The good effects of Dr. Picroe's Golden Medical Discovery are most marked in aggravated and chronic cases of dyspepsia. It enables the stomach glands to secrete the necessary quantity of digestive fluids, and this at once relieves that craving or grawing sensation so comcraving or gnawing sensation so common to certain forms of indigestion, It tones and regulates the stomach, invigorates the torpid liver and gives the blood making glands keen assimilative power. "Golden Medical Discovery" cures ninety-eight per cent, of those who use it. Dr. Pierce's Pleasant Pellets are superior to all other laxative medicines when the bowels are obstructed.

"Alcohol has a certain position as a medicine," said Sir Frederick Treves recently, "but in the last twenty-five years its use by the medical profession has steadily diminished. It is often said that alcohol is an excellent appetizer, but the appetite does not need artificial stimulation. If the body wants feeding, it demands food.

HUGHES STANDS TEST

Declines Republican Nomination For Mayor of New York.

Recognized That His Acceptance Would Embarrass and Impair the Efficiency of the Insurance Investigation and He Accordingly Shapes His Conduct by Answering the Clear Call of Paramount Public Duty.

New York, Oct. 10.—Charles E. Hughes, counsel for the insurance investigating committee, yesterday declined the Republican nomination for Mayor of New York City.

In stating his grounds for refusing the nomination, which was tendered to him by the unanimous vote of the city Republican convention, last Friday night, Mr. Hughes said:

"In this dilemma I have simply to

"In this dilemma I have simply to do my duty as I see it. In my judg-ment I have no right to accept the nomination. A paramount public duty forbids it. "It is not necessary to enlarge upon

"It is not necessary to enlarge upon the importance of the insurance investigation. This is undisputed. It is dealing with questions vital to the interests of millions of our fellow citizens throughout the land. It presents an opportunity for public service secon to none, and involves a co-relative re-sponsibility. This work commands all my energies. It is imperative that I continue in it.

"You have frankly recognized that it must be continued unembarrassed and must be continued unemparrassed and with unimpaired efficiency. But it is entirely clear to me that this cannot be if I accept the nomination.

"You know how desirous I have been that the investigation should not be colored by any suggestion of political motive. Whatever confidence it has inspired has been due to absolute inde-pendence of political consideration.

WILFUL CARELESSNESS.

Tragedy At Bracebridge in Which Boy of Eleven Years Shoots a Companion Dead.

Bracebridge, Oct. 10.—The adjourned inquest into the death of Alphonse Duvall was concluded here last night. The decision of the jury was that Duvall's death was caused through the wilful carelessness of Orville Hall, who is eleven years of age.

The accident occurred late on Saturday afternoon in the store kept by young Hall's father. Duvall, who was 16 years of age, had called with a com-panion. David Jack, and after making panion, David Jack, and after making a purchase of tobacco, had expressed for one of the larger size. Hall took the tobacco back and then secured a gun, which he pointed at Duvall, saying, "I will shoot you," he pulled the hammer half way back. Pulling the hammer back all the way, with the remark that the gun wasn't loaded, the weapon was discharged. Duvall was shot in the neck, the jugular vein being severed, and he died within twenty minutes. He was employed with the Dominion Linen Mills here.

Average cost per lamp per annum $42.12 12-100. S42.12 12-100.

It is interesting to note the increase in cost of lamps each year; the increase being mainly due to the repairs on the dynamos. If the city had purchased in the beginning two reliable dynamos the cost of lighting would have been greatly reduced and a better service could have been given. It will be seen from the above figures that the poor service is largely due to defective dynamos. It is impossible to give a good service with defective machinery. In 1901 I recommended in my report the purchase of a new dynamo. Total value of piant October 2, 1905, $20,126.81.

Ald. Westman moved that the Property committee be authorized to purchase a new dynamo and put the plant in first class condition.

Ald. Edmondson seconded. He said that the reason the lighting had been so faulty was the poor condition of the machinery.

The deputation from the Gas Cowas heard.

Ex-Mayor Manson Campbell stated It is interesting to note the in-

was heard.

Ex-Mayor Manson Campbell stated that if the Council saw fit to give the contract to the Gas Co. they could depend on a good service in every respect. Mr. Campbell pointed out that the figures in Ald. Westman's report were not the accurate ones as any engineer could determine.

Men are prone to speak of ambition as though it meant only the possession of money.

It seems strange that the things that don't seem possible happen so often.

man's report were not the accurate ones as any engineer could determine. Manager P. S. Coate said the figures in the Gas Co.'s letter were taken from the official auditors' reports. Nothing was allowed in Ald. Westman's report for depreciation of vatue of plant or taxes. He gave a very lucid explanation of the figures and position of both company and city. and city.

Ald. Marshall was much impressed

Ald, Marshall was much impressed with the reliability and force of the company's proposition. He feared, however, that, to turn back to lighting by the company would be a retrogressive step and thought the new dynamos should be purchased and a thorough test of civic lighting made. Ald, Potter was disappointed that the Gas Co. figures were the same as their former contract. He anticipated a reduction, Ald, Potter was an ardent believer in municipal ownership and believed in giving the civic plant a full and fair trial. Ald, Austin said he was disappointed in the proposition of the Gas Co. and also in the report of the Property Committee. He thought the figures of the latter were much astray ty Committee. He thought the figures of the latter were much astray and Mr. Coate's figures were much more authentic. He was disappointed in the ptice charged by the Gas Co.

"Let us be honest with ourselves." "Let us be nonest with ourselves, said Ald. Austin," and figure that we, in all probability, will have to purchase two new dynamos instead of one. We are only living in a fool's paradise to figure that we are only paying $42 per light."

paying $42 per light."

In answer to a pertinent question from Mayor Cowan, Engineer Jones said the present engine would not give power enough for more than about 15 to 20 additional lamps. Nor was the boiler sufficient for more.

Ald. O'Keefe wanted to arrive at the actual cost to the city, which he figured to be even more than that of the Gas Co. He thought the Council should get more light upon the matter as the report and figures of the ter as the report and figures of the Property Committee were evidently faulty. Ald. O'Keefe thought sentiment should not be considered. He wanted to know—and the people wanted to know—what the city was now paying for its light. He would like to know if the Gas Co. would consider a proposition from the Council to take over their plant.

Mr. Manson Campbell — We would certainly consider any proposition the

Mr. Manson Campbell — We would certainly consider any proposition the Council made.

Mayor Cowan said he thought the report of the Property Committee was far from complete or accurate. It was a proposal of patch-up that was much to be dreaded and very experimental. What light the Council had on the matter had been secured from the representatives of the Gas Coand questions to the city engineer, and he thought the matter should be referred back for further consideration. eration.

Ald. O'Keefe moved, in Amendment, that the Council go into commistee of the whole to get at the true figures and submit a proposal to the Gas Co. if deemed advisable. Ald. Austin seconded.
