PRÉFACE

La "Généalogie des Familles de la Beauce" que nous livrons aujourd'hui à la publicité est d'une importance exceptionnelle, puisqu'elle permet aux innombrables descendants des familles de ce vaste district de retracer leurs origines avec justesse et sûreté. C'est l'œuvre d'un saint et humble prêtre, Messire Charles Beaumont—qui lui a consacré des années de recherches minutieuses, avec un zèle et une patience à toute épreuve; rendant ainsi à son pays un service non moins signalé que patriotique. Honneur à sa mémoire!

M Charles Beaumont naquit à Charlebourg le 2 nov. 1820 du mariage de Jacques Beaumont et d'Agathe Pageau. Il fit ses études à Québec où il fut ordonné prêtre le 23 juin 1844, puis nommé vicaire à S^{te} Anne de Beaupré, 1849 curé de S Fereol. 1852 curé de S^t Etienne. 1853 curé de S^{te} Hénédine. 1862 curé de S^t Michel, puis en oct. de la même année curé de S^t Joachim. Il se retira ensuite du ministère et vint résider à l'Ange Gardien où il est décédé le 2 sept. 1889. Sa sépulture eut lieu à Charlesbourg sa paroisse natale.

Nous devons à l'obligeance du Rév. Edouard Carrier, curé de S Joseph, et depositeur de l'original de pouvoir publier ce précieux volume.

St-François (Beauceville).—Les commencements de cette paroisse, l'une des plus anciennes de la Beauce, remontent à 1700, et probablement même avant cette date. Dès 1737 elle était déjà desservie comme mission d'abord par le R. P. François Carpentier, Récollet et dans la suite par d'autres missionnaires, dont sept religieux récollets. La paroisse de St-François comprenait dans l'origine toute la seigneurie de Rigaud-Vaudreuil, soit une étendue de 9 milles de front sur 12 de profondeur ; elle fut démembrée dans la suite pour former St-Victor de Tring (1871) et plus tard St-Benjamin. Son érection canonique date du 9 oct. 1835, et l'érection civile du 4 nov. 1850.

La première chapelle fut construite vers 1750 et subsista jusqu'en 1783 ; de 1783 à 1803, les offices eurent lieu dans une chapelle temporaire, qui fut démolie pour faire place à une autre également démolie en 1855 et remplacée par l'église actuelle.

St-Joseph.—La plus ancienne et la plus importante des paroisses de la Beauce. Son établissement remonte presque aux temps même du fondateur de Québec, car on trouve que des colons s'y étaient fixés dès 1640 ; cependant sa première chapelle ne fut bâtie que près d'un siècle plus tard en 1737. Cette première construction fut remplacée par une nouvelle église construite en bois en 1764. Comme elle menaçait ruine elle fut démolie pour faire place à une autre en 1785 laquelle à son tour fut remplacée par l'église actuelle, magnifique édifice en pierre, construit en 1867.

Dès l'origine St-Joseph fut visité par les missionnaires, à des époques éloignées, jusqu'en 1738 lorsqu'une desserte régulière fut organisée.

La paroisse de St-Joseph possède un magnifique couvent dirigé par les Sœurs de la Charité.

St-Ludger—C'est vers 1880 qu'eurent lieu les premiers établissements dans cette région—qui faisait alors partie de la paroisse actuelle de St Samuel et du Domaine de la Couronne. Elle fut desservie comme mission d'abord en 1885 par M. le curé de St-Sébastien et ensuite par le curé de St-Samuel M. Garon. Il n'y a pas eu d'érection canonique mais par décret la mission fut établie le 19 sept. 1893. La construction de l'église remonte à 1901. Le presbytère actuel bâti en 1895, servit temporairement de chapelle.

Ste-Marie. Cette paroisse, une des plus grandes et des plus importantes de la Beauce a commencé à s'établir dès les premières années du XVII^e siècle. Elle était déjà desservie comme mission en 1737 et eut son prêtre résident en 1767. Ste-Marie a été la paroisse-mère de plusieurs autres ; de là l'importance qu'il convient de donner à ses registres et aux autres documents précieux qui y sont conservés. Son érection canonique date de 1770 et sa première église paroissiale fut bâtie en 1780. D'autres églises l'ont remplacé dans la suite. Une construite en 1857, et bénite en 1859, c'est l'église actuelle.

Une chapelle dédiée à Ste Anne, y a été bâtie par la famille de feu Son Eminence le Cardinal Taschereau, comme ex voto, c'est un lieu de pèlerinage, le jour de la fête de la Bonne Ste-Anne.
