BILL.

An Act to establish Courts of Conciliation in Upper Canada.

WHEREAS the moral power that would be exercised Freamble.
 by Courts of Conciliation, might have a very beneficial tendency in preventing expensive, vexatious, uncertain and prolonged Lawsuits, which occupy much 5 of the time of Courts, Judges, Jurors and Witnesses, and are productive of ill-will, envy and strife in society; and whereas it is desirable to establish such Courts, for the prompt and final determination of controversies having their origin in passion, excitement and misapprehension 10 —for repressing the spirit of litigation—for lessening the necessity of taking oaths—for avoiding needless exposures of human frailty in the legal tribunals—and for encouraging the speedy and amicable settlement of disputes and differences arising between friends and neighbours:—
 15 Be it therefore enacted, &c.

That Tribunals are hereby established in the several Courts of Counties of Upper Canada, to be known as the Courts Conciliation of Conciliation. established.

II. And be it enacted, That a Court of Conciliation Where, when 20 shall be held in each of the said Counties by the County and by whom Judge. It may be held on any juridical day, and wherever, held.
 in his County, the Judge may happen to be.

III. And be it enacted, That the causes of action of In what cases 25 which this Court shall have cognizance, are assault, bat- they shall act.
 tery, false imprisonment, breach of promise of marriage, libel, slander, malicious prosecution, and personal violence of any kind.

IV. And be it enacted, That any person claiming to Summons to 35 have a cause of action against another, in any of the cases attend mentioned in section III, may serve on him or her a writ- Conciliation ten notice, mentioning the alleged cause of action, and Court.
 requiring him or her to appear in relation thereto, before the Court of Conciliation of the County where the notice is served, at a specified time, not less than five days from 40 the time of service. Such notice must be served in the manner prescribed for a summons in a civil action.

V. And be it enacted, That at the time specified in Parties to the notice, or at such other time as the hearing may be appear and be adjourned to by the Court, the parties appearing must be heard in private.

received by the Judge apart from all other persons, except that when an infant or a woman is a party to a proceeding before the Court, such infant or woman may be attended by the husband or guardian of such party, or if there be none, then by some friend approved by the 5
 Judge's duty. Court; and thereupon it shall be the duty of the Judge to hear the allegations and explanations of the parties, to inform them of their respective rights, and to endeavour to reconcile their differences.

VI. And be it enacted, That parties may voluntarily 10 appear before the Court without notice, and such appearance shall be as effectual as if notice had been previously served.

Parties may appear without summons.

VII. And be it enacted, That if a reconciliation be had, a memorandum thereof, stating the nature of the 15 controversy or alleged cause of action, the appearance of the parties and the fact of the reconciliation, without specifying the terms thereof unless it be agreed by the parties to specify them, must be entered in a book of records, to be kept by the Judge, and such entry must be 20 signed by the respective parties. The reconciliation thus effected shall be the final determination of the matter in controversy.

Memorandum to be made if reconciliation effected.

To be final.

VIII. And be it enacted, That if the parties agree to a judgment in favour of one against the other in settle- 25 ment of their differences, the Judge may make, at the foot of the entry of reconciliation, a memorandum, stating the judgment agreed upon. A transcript of such memorandum, certified by the Judge, may be filed in the office of the Clerk of the County Court, and shall there- 30 upon have the same effect, and may be enforced in the same manner as any judgment of a County Court.

Any judgment to which the parties agree may be executed, and how.

IX. And be it enacted, That if, instead of a reconciliation, the terms of which are settled between the parties, they voluntarily submit their matters in difference 35 to the Court, and agree to abide the judgment, or assent thereto, in the presence of the Court, such submission and agreement or assent, must be entered in the book of records and signed by the respective parties; and thereupon the judgment of the Court, made pursuant to the 40 submission, shall be filed and have the same effect, and may be enforced in the same manner as the judgment mentioned in section VIII.

And so of a judgment by the Judge with consent of parties.

X. And be it enacted, That if, after the service of the notice prescribed in section IV, either party fail to ap- 45 pear, or, if the parties appearing, be not reconciled, as mentioned in sections VII and VIII, or do not enter into the submission and agreement mentioned in section IX,

Entry of default to appear, &c. to be made by Judge.

it shall be the duty of the Judge to make an entry in his book of records, stating, in a summary manner, the nature of the charge, the notice given, the proof of service thereof, the failure to appear of either party, or the appearance of the parties and their failure to be reconciled.

XI. And be it enacted, That the entries in such book of records, or certified copies thereof signed by the Judge, shall be evidence of the facts therein stated, and it shall be the duty of the Judge to give a transcript of the entries in any case, certified by him, to either party, on request.

Entries or certified copies thereof to be evidence.

XII. And be it enacted, That in any action that may be hereafter brought for the recovery of damages for a cause of action mentioned in section III, the plaintiff cannot recover costs unless he produce at the trial the certified copy mentioned in section XI, and unless it thereby appear that the notice was duly served, and that he or she appeared pursuant thereto, or that both parties appeared without notice, as mentioned in section VI. The defendant cannot recover costs in such action when it appears that after service of the notice he or she failed to appear pursuant thereto.

Costs not to be recovered by parties not appearing before Court of Conciliation.

XIII. And be it enacted, That if the case be one requiring a provisional remedy, and of such urgency as not to justify the delay arising from a previous notice to appear before the Court of Conciliation, the action may be commenced without such appearance or notice, and if the plaintiff afterwards give the notice and appear before the Court of Conciliation pursuant thereto, he may recover costs accruing subsequent to such appearance.

Cases of urgency provided for.

XIV. And be it enacted, That in an action between partners, or between principal and agent, if either party make it appear to the Court that, previous to his complaint or answer, he made an offer in writing to his adversary to submit the matter in difference between them to arbitration, as prescribed in section XV, no costs can be awarded against the party making such offer.

In cases between partners, &c. no costs without prior offer of arbitration.

XV. And be it enacted, That the Arbitrators required by section XIV, must be three competent and disinterested persons, one to be chosen by each party, and the third to be either chosen by those two, or by the Judge of the Court of Conciliation of the County where the notice was served, or before whom the parties voluntarily appeared.

Arbitrators how appointed.

XVI. And be it enacted, That it shall be the duty of the Judge of the Court of Conciliation, so far as may be compatible with his duties as Judge, to give to every person who may ask it, advice respecting his differences with Judge to give advice to parties: limitation.

No Fee. another. No fee can be received by the Judge for any services rendered in the said Court, nor can any proceedings be protracted therein longer than fifteen days, unless both parties agree to a longer delay. When advising parties, in cases submitted to him, the Judge shall act according to conscience and right, without regard to technical rules. 5

Admission, &c. not to be used against party making it. XVII. And be it enacted, That no party to any admission or declaration made before the Court of Conciliation, shall be bound thereby or responsible therefor, in any other judicial proceeding whatever, except as provided in this Act. No statements made by parties before the said Court shall be used as evidence for or against them in any other place, in case the Court fail to effect a settlement of their differences. The hearing of all matters submitted to the Court must be private. 10 15
