THE BETROTHAL; HOW MR, QUINT WAS ENGAGED, AND AT LAST SUCCEEDED IN GETTING MARRIED, Translated for the Evening Post,

The following day, Mr. Quint looked very thoughifut. The occurrences at the eastle had not been of the cosmon sort. Beasie's term, counternance and attire, had imprinted themselves too deeply on his memory. He wished to divert himself, the wished towrite, and drew Bessie's beant tiful head twenty times on paper; he went to the pano, and all the chords sent back the strangest harmonies; he visited his layou it walks, and held formal c use, sations with Beasie, as if she vere walking by his side.

Though not altogether astonished, he yet felt how much the inneat recease chis heart were how much the inneat recease chis heart were how much the inneative of a moment. All his principles, all his fav urite ideas, all fils stoicism, all his fav urite ideas, all that, till now, had had a charm and value for them, all that, till now, had had a charm and value for this, all that, till now, had had a charm and value for this, all that, till now, had had a charm and value for this, all that, till now, had had a charm and value for the manual through a deep the common schools—all that, till now, had had a charm and value for the common and through a deep the common schools—all that, till now, had had a charm and value for the common schools—all that, till now, had had a charm and value for the common schools—all that, till now, had had a charm and value for the common schools—all that, till now, he had set bis heart upon—through the common schools—all that till now, he had set bis heart upon—through the common schools—all that till now, he had set bis heart upon—through the common schools—all that the common scho

O. Bessel; if thou f. cleast as $ do! Mayon the treat of thou take into thy heart the enchanted dream which thou hast created! By thee, with thee, it would last through at eternity. This is no longer the world that I saw yesterday. The grass of the income, Bessie, springs up only to weave a not carpet for thy footstep. Such is the power of Beauty that she is always felt wherever she is; all nature owns her, awaits her, listens to her trustingly; that, by her side, all things may grow better, more analishing, more lovely."

It is clearly to be seen that Mr. Quint stood no longer on the old footing with himself. He often thought a quarter of an hour at a time on these mosts and recreites which he had never known before; and he could not fathom it after the most or the footing with himself. He often thought and farcies, in the belief that he must one time or another become sober, like the rest of six brethern.

In the midst of his b'essedness, there remained In the midst of his blessedness, there remained a heavy butthen of lear a. d anxiety to carry. He would not allow himself to think that, under sny total tention thereto, together with moderate so, warrant them in expecting liberal suppossible supposition, Besse could ever listen to his modest withins, for he felt kneedy that it would be easier for his to learn Arabic in half an hour, than to learn a well congoted declaration of love in four weeks.

The next morning, the first ray of the sun that glanced over the high mountain, as it lay dissolving in pale vapor, found Mr. Quint opposite his mirror. He made one innocent remark, that the spring of his days was not yet past. "Twen yeight years oid!—a fine age. Ten years more, then fority-eight! O, Bessie, Bessie, then the winter strips the tree, and the saps dy up and the nanches decay!"

He tastefully dressed himself, more so than was common. Black with been and a sea green frock cout; his hair well erisped, and powdered even to shateness; his head-dress small and telegant, and of the new at lashion! Their could no hagerage any doubt, Mr. Quint was preparing himself to sorm a heart.

All his domestics wondered at him, particularly the old busskenner. Anne Merita was could be an order to the left, but not every make and sea green as here. Added to this, there was, unavoidably, a betraying restle west-revery change of his position, and a crackling of stants.

a compliance, as it aim were an old, a true, mu long made acquaintance and friend. Let him take himself quietly from here-let him leave the grass, to grow over his foolishness.

Thus soor Quint, in imagination, belabored himself with more than Carthusian severity. He naw his fault at that moment in the form of a giant, that pressed him down, thile his virtues appeared as dwarfs. He despaired os much that he haved himself with all his heart. Beauty, riches, grace wit, renewe, hrilliant employment, business, and all that might subdue a beautiful girl.

In the House of Commons, on Tuesday night, the stability of the Ministry was strongly meaced. Mr. Hutt had given notice of a motion, that the House address the Grown to direct that negotiations may be forthwith entered into, for the purpose of releasing this country from all treaty engal ements with Foreign States, for maintaining armed vesse's on the coast of Africa, to suppress the traffic in slaves, and the morning previous to the debate on this motion, Lord John Russell called a meeting of the friends and supporters of Government, 160 of whom attended in Lordship, as also did Lord Palmenton; distinctly informing them that should this motion be carried, he should resign his office. The result of the division at night, was, that the motion was lost by a majority of 76. The Last Days of Responsible Governs The studied silence of the Government organ pon the intended measures of the Adm tion in the forthcoming Session, reminds us that the early parts of one of Shecidan's plays were actually rought forward, and in the act of being performed upon the stage, whilst the author was engaged in finishing the last act behind the curtain; and we are strongly inclined to ascribe the non-appear ance of the Ministerial piece at Toronto, to the cessity of re-casting the parts, vacated by Chaot and Wetenhall, and making some alterations in the concluding scenes, in deference to the Markham demonstration. The system pursued and pursuing is Responsible Government, unmasked and in its expiring threes. In the times of Paganism, besides the public and open, there was a secret worship paid to the divinities to which none were admitted but those who had which none were admitted but those who had been carefully initiated. Of the secret worship, there were two mysteries, the lesser and the greater; a knowledge of the greater was withheld from those who were in a state of partial probation. The arcans of the greater mysteries was usually reserved for the favored few, whose unerstanding scorned the imposture, which their policy approved; and both the greater and the sser mysteries were sedulously concealed from the multitude, lest their disclosure should convert reverence into contemp'. The classical recollections of Lord Elgin may be refreshed when he surveys Hincks and Price, as his assistant priests, residing over the Canadian mysteries.

That Assembly now constitutes a part of the Executive-a council of advice and to-operation only when needed-not an effective estate of control-and there are but two classes in the country - the men who conduct the Administration, acknowledging no restraint-and the people, whose righteous authority their represenbuyers therefore looked for lower prices, but holdters were firm, and indisposed to submit to the reduction—the consequence is that a very limited

MEDICAL REVIEW.

The Brilish American Journal of Medical and Physical Science for April is lying on our table. Among the strictly medical articles is a very interesting and able paper on a subject connected with medical jurisprusence. The present num-ber is the last of the figh volume, and closes the present series. This journal has supplied ably and honestly a Provincial want, and it has been without doubt, the means of increasing the amount of medical knowledge in Canada, and of preserving not only a record of important facts and cases in medicine and surgery, but a collection of observations on physical science, that will happy to learn that the journal will be continued in another form, and under circumstances must increase its utility.

MOSTREAL, March 22, 1850.

Since August, 1948, I have recommended the Plantagenet Water in a variety of Chronic complaints, and with good effect. It has proved very useful in Dyspepsis, Rheamstiam, and Scrollan. Weakly and nervous persons, and those in whom, there was an increased action of the bowles and kinlers, took but half a tumbler at a time, repeated every hard or two. When possessed of more strength, and there existed a tardy state of the secretions, the water was more copiously partaken of; and in cases of Pichors, where a disposation to congestion predominated, with a tendency to fever and irritation, it was taken to the extent of several phins a day.

IMPORTANT TESTIMONIALS.
Copy of a letter from "COLONEL HAWKER," (the well known Author on "GUNS & SHOOT" (NG.") Longparish House, near Whiteharch, 1818.—I cannot resist informing you of the extractionary (fleet that I have experienced by taking only a few of your LOZENGES. I had a cough by a few of your LOZENGES. I had a cough by several weeks, that d nied all that had been prescribed for me; and yet I got completely rid of it by taking shout half a small box of your Lozenges, which I fine are the only ones that relieve the cough without deranging the stomath or digestive organs.

THE CONNECTICUT MUTUAL LIFE INSURANCE COMPANY is established upon the purely mutual system, with a Tairif of Premiums as low as is justifiable with the permanence and security of an Institution of this character. Every person taking out a Folicy is a member, and entitled to vote at the Annual Meetings. The Dividends are declared annually on the 31st January. All persons insuring previous to that day, participate in the profits of that year, which are passed to his credit upon the books of the Company; to be paid during the life of the insured, in the order of rotation, from the excess of a capital of profits of $200,000. The stipulated capital of profits having been obtained, the Directors will be authorized to pay the first year's Dividends at the close of the present fiscal year; afterwards, such year's Dividends, in requisir or order, will be redeemed, as the funds of the Institution exceed the above two hundred thousand dollars. It is supposed that each person, will be required to pay three annual Premiums before his Dividends will be redeemed. This feature in the conditions of this Company, over those who do not redeem or pay the Dividends until the death of the insured, is peculiarly favorable to the member, as the redemption of Dividends will assist in the payment of the Annual Premiums, after a few of the first years have elapsed, or take up notes given for Premiums.

The assured, on surrender of his Policy, at any MACHINE BELTING, STEAM PACKING, AND HOSE. PACKING, AND HOSE.

THE Substribers having been recently appointed by the "Boston Betting Company" their AGENTS, for the SALE of their YUL-CANISED RUBBER FABRICS in CANADA, beg to offer the same to Steam Boat Proprietors, Machinists, &c. The superiority of the STEAM PACKING, BELTING and HOSE, of the Company's make, over any other material for above purposes, being so well known, it is unnecessary to say anything in their favor. Certificate, signed by extensive consumers, attesting their superiority, can be seen on application to the Agents.

assist in the payment of the after a few of the first years have elapsed, or take up notes given for Premiums.

The assured, on surrender of his Policy, at any time after three years, will receive its equitable value. All Premiums amounting to fifty dollars, or more, on Policies running five years or longer, may be paid one half by Note; to remain a dete on the Policy, antil cancelled by Dividends; or the Policy becomes a claim.

This Company was organized in December, 1846, and its prospectly has hitherto been unparalleled. It is now in the third fiscal year of its existence; and cumbers (October, 1849) nearly even thousand members; with a constantly increasing accession. Its losses have been small, compared with the numbers which might have one expected, according to the Tables of Mortality upon which Life insurance as predicated.
