LOCAL AND OTHER ITEMS.

On Thursday last the thermometer registered ten degrees below zero in Quebec.

MICHAEL McDONALD and two sons, of Whitehaven, Quebec, N. S., were drowned at Casco by the swamping of their fishing boat on Thursday last.

The North Sydney Herald says that on Saturday last the steamer "Horizon" was in St. Peter's inlet, near the schooner "Thobald," of P. E. I., breaking her mainmast, and, under the influence of a heavy sea, was wrecked.

JOHN SACKETT, who has had his effects seized in Washington last week, and the Misses Sackett, sister of the late John Sackett, are in New York for having on Saturday last, on board the steamer "Labouret," in company with Mr. and Mrs. Chamberlain.

A DEPARTURE from Bowling Green, Kentucky, dated the 20th inst., says a messenger from Louisville brought the intelligence that the previous night, and all the heavily coating of five persons, perished, except Gregg, who was away.

The Market House in this city had a narrow escape from destruction by fire on Saturday morning last. Shortly after the fire had been started in the morning the pipe broke and some beams between the City Chamber and the present and extinguished the fire before any damage was done.

MEMBERS of the Caledonian Club at the home house, to-morrow evening, are requested to appear in Highland costume, with a plaid and bonnet. Their friends will meet at the Club Rooms, Queen Street, at eight o'clock, p. m., whence they will proceed to the house, which takes place at 9 o'clock sharp.

A FARMER named Roberts, who had been sentenced to St. John, N. B., about a year ago, made his escape from the Dorchester Penitentiary on Wednesday last. He, in charge of an officer, was attending the cattle at the stable of the institution, a few moments, and did not return. Search was made for him, and he was captured at Fort Eglin.

The extensive works of the Fort Wayne Electric Light Co., situated at Fort Wayne, Ind., were totally destroyed by fire on the 22d inst. All tools and patterns were destroyed. This company is the most prominent in light manufacturing concerns in the West, and has in the past three years expended in the business of manufacturing incandescent lights, installing plants all over the United States, Canada and Mexico. The capital invested is fully half a million. The loss amounts to over $200,000; insurance, $148,000.

"Sons Adopted Americans" is the title of an article in the November number of THE AMERICAN MAGAZINE. The article was prepared by the editor of the Journal, Mr. Allan Forman, who has made a careful study of the lower-class emigrants and immigrant-house dwellers of New York City. Mr. Forman has not lived in this densely populated tenement, and, therefore, is competent to give strong and graphic pictures of the mode of life of these poor people, without any aid from his imagination.

The steamer "Correll," Captain Brown, with a cargo consisting of 2,025 bbls. flour, 200 bbls. apple, 100 bbls. onions, and the usual miscellaneous freight, arrived here last Wednesday evening. Her passengers were: Miss S. Melrose, Mrs. Louise McSwain, Mrs. McDonald, Miss Cayle, Miss Borge, Mrs. Steele, J. Andrews, J. McDonald, A. Hurry, J. McDonald, A. McCallan, T. Goss, J. Bell, J. F. W. Wain, and Miss Borge at midnight. Thursday, with a freight consisting of 1200 bushels potatoes and sundry other merchandise, and the following passengers: D. T. Steele, J. McIntosh, M. McKinnon, E. Roberts, Miss Goodie, J. A. McKinnon, W. Mackill, P. Budge, Mrs. Gratton, T. Leary, Mary Marchison and Sarah Marchison.

A MORTGAGE correspondent of the Patriot gives an account of an accident resulting from careless handling of a gun, which might have proved very serious. The particulars are to be about as follows: A Mr. Martin, of St. Mary's Road, was going to Montserrat-bridge with a load of potatoes; he was walking near his horse and Mr. LeBlanc, a neighbor, was walking beside him. In front of this cart was another empty cart, and as they were going along Mr. Martin, who was carrying a gun, jumped into the empty cart to get a lift, first putting in the gun. No sooner had he got into the cart than the gun went off, driving the charge through the tail-board of the cart and into the nose, and leg of Mr. Martin's horse. Mr. LeBlanc received one of the shots in the fleshy part of his thigh. The horse is likely to die from the effects of the wounds.

Mr. JAMES McCLELLAN, of Brooklyn Point Road, about ten miles from Charlottetown, met with a very severe loss on Thursday last week in the destruction, by fire, of his outbuildings, crop, cattle and farming implements. About twenty buildings, including a large barn, were destroyed, and all his crop was burned. The fire started sometime about eleven o'clock at night, when all were in bed. The family were awakened by the roaring of the outbuildings which were burning brightly, and when they got to the barn it was too late to save anything. The mare broke loose and rushed from the stable, but before she could be caught she rushed back and was destroyed in the flames. Nothing is known as to the origin of the fire. Mr. McClellan's loss is estimated at about $5,000. The buildings were insured for $6,000. Much sympathy is felt for Mr. McClellan in his great loss.

DONAHUE'S MONTHLY MAGAZINE for December is a very interesting number as a whole. Peter McGee leads off with an article on the Sweden and the "pure teaching" of Luther. Then comes "A. A. Stange's Dream." The next is "The Protestant Opinion on the School Question." But the great article of the number is "Cardinal Manning on the 'The Church's Own Witness,' which is admitted to be one of the ablest productions of the great churchman. The article makes twenty closely printed pages. Then we have, by John Gilmary Shea, an article on "The Pope's Day in New England." "Shakespeare in Paraphrase," by the editor of London Standard, will well repay perusal. In all, there are thirty articles, besides twenty pages of events of the month. The eleventh year commences in January. A good thing to subscribe. It is a "handy" volume, and, besides, contains the best of the best of the month.

THE S.S. "HALIFAX" will leave for Boston, Charlottetown, on Monday Night, Nov. 26th, (VIA HALIFAX) and for Boston, on Thursday, December 6th, Boston for Charlottetown, Wednesday, 21st of November, Saturday, 1st of December.

CHAPTER XIX. AT THE ANTELOPE.

Master Hope took all the guests by boat to Windsor, and very soon the little party at the Antelope was in a state of such perfect felicity...

Master Hope came in just after this counsel had been given. He had a stater married to the host of a large, prosperous inn near Windsor...

It suited, however, in Perron's mind to be taken charge of the whole party, including Aldona. This little damsel had been in a manner...

For the interview at the Denney was satisfactory. The young man after a good supper, ordered by the sweet singing of some chosen pupils...

They made him tell his whole life, and asked many questions about Aldona, especially about the fragment of Aldona's soul which had been...
