WATFORD, OCT. 1, 1906.

Downing Street Must Act.

The Buffalo Express expresses the prevalent feeling in the United States of cool contempt toward the Newfoundland Legislature. Men like Archbishop Howley describes it as "hot heads," in urging that the local laws of 1905, "which the modus vivendi suspends for the time being and which are objectionable to American fishing interests, be strictly enforced." The Buffalo Express continues: "American fishing interest be strictly energetic in making Newfoundland accept the situation. So long as that document (the modus vivendi) exists, the United States has the right to protect its fishermen even to the sending of a warship to the Newfoundland coast. And the British Government would have no other course than to sustain the action of our Government."

Doubtless "Downing street," or the colonial office, where Under Secretary Churchill is viceroy over the secretary, Lord Elgin, has fully considered all that, Mr. Churchill has the claim to do more than teach the ancient colony a lesson by "a little wholesome neglect." He waves aside its legislative enactments with the sang froid of an Oriental despot, and his American friends expect him to "devote the energies of the office he holds to 'making Newfoundland accept the situation,' on penalty of force exercised by a warship sent from Gloucester. The English Liberals have started in with a colonial policy more vigorous than wise.

Let the Stomach Alone.

You can't cure catarrh by dosing the stomach. The disease is in the throat, nose and bronchial tubes. Inhale Catarrhzone to the spot where the disease really is,—it clears away foul secretions, stops discharges at once, purifies and heals the passages, literally annihilates every trace of catarrh. Nothing else is so direct and certain as "Catarrhzone." Results guaranteed. Two sizes, 25c and $1.00 at all dealers.

Good Security.

"Mister, do you lend money here?" asked an earnest young voice at the office door.

The lawyer turned away from his desk confronted a clear-eyed, poorly dressed lad of twelve, and he studied keenly for a minute. "Sometimes we do—on good security," he said gravely. The little fellow said that he had a chance "to buy out a boy that's cryin' papers." He had half the money required, but he needed to borrow the other fifteen cents.

"What security can you offer?" asked the lawyer.

The boy's brown hand sought his pocket, and drew out a paper carefully folded in a bit of calico. It was a cheaply printed pledge against the use of intoxicating liquor and tobacco, as respectfully as if it had been the deed to a farm, the lawyer examined it, accepted it, and handed over the required sum. A friend who had watched the transaction with silent amusement laughed as the young borrower departed.

"You think I know nothing about him?" smiled the lawyer. "I know he came manfully in what he supposed to be a business way, and tried to negotiate a loan instead of begging the money. I know that he has been under good influences, or he would not have signed that pledge, and he does not hold it lightly, or he would not have cared for it so carefully. I agree with him that one who keeps himself from such things has a character to offer as security."—Exchange.

Interest Dwindling.

It is astonishing how a sensational prosecution can dwindle down to almost nothing at all, after it has been set aside and allowed to grow cold. A few months ago all Canada was concerned in the inquiry into the affairs of the New York loan, and the doings of that company's president, Joseph Phillips, the proceedings ending for the time being by the sending of Phillips for trial on a charge of conspiracy. It will be remembered that his business methods were amazing. During the past week the grand jury has been considering his case, and the charge has been amended to theft, the indictment reading that the defendant, on or about December 30, 1905, unlawfully did steal the sum of $2,500. No specific case is set forth, however, nor will the action proceed just now. It will go over to the December sessions. A great many people must be interested in the affair, and if at last Phillips gets a long term, the fact will be noted in these columns.—Saturday Night.

Fraud Everywhere.

Never has the Bystander taken up his pen more reluctantly and sorrowfully than now, when he is called upon to deplore the discovery of the milk fraud among the farmers. If honesty is exiled from the farm, where will it find a home! The spirit of gambling and fraudulent covetousness which is abroad, and the full effects of which are being every day brought to light, after polluting politics and commerce, has, it seems, at last worked down into social regions from which we fondly hoped it was still excluded. The only bright spot in the business is the frank confession of the offenders exonerating the dealers and taking the blame upon themselves. Official precautions will, no doubt be taken better to guard the buyers of milk for the future. But we shall look to having from the farm itself, through all its associations and organs, an emphatic denunciation of that which, though we may still hope is the offence of a few, brings dishonor on the whole order.—Farmers Sun.

Is Life Worth Living

That depends. If a man lives for himself only, if he lives for his own gratification, ease, pleasure and comfort, it is not. That may sound strange, because it looks as if that were what the most of us were after. But it is true. Suppose a man "enjoys" fifty, sixty, or seventy years of this kind of life what does it all amount to in the end. He has lived his brief span in the world, and passed away. Perhaps he had a good time while he was here. But when the end comes he might as well never have been, for all the good time will do him. Whatever our views of this life or the next one, if there be one, and the most of us think there is, there is something within us, call it conscience or reason, if you like, that tells us that our life will be misspent if we do not use it for the betterment of others. Our better nature, our higher aspirations entice us away from self and create a desire within us to live more for others than ourselves. In short, to make the world better than we found it. Live this life, and there is no question as to its worth, and it will be a fitting preparation for any that may follow.—Herald.

At a meeting of the Farmers' Association in Toronto, the president, in his annual address, outlined the policy of the organization which can be endorsed by every member of the great producing class. His remarks summed up are:—"The farmers favor a lower tariff, economy in public expenditure, public ownership of telegraphs and telephones, strict public regulation or railways and express companies, taxation of railways on the same basis as farms and other private property, and the enforcement of a passenger rate of two cents a mile on railways. They are opposed to subsidizing railways and other private corporations with land or money; they are emphatically opposed to the increase of expenditure for military purposes, as being both unnecessary and demoralizing, as diverting our national resources into unprofitable channels, and as tending to lower those ideals which inspire the rising generation."

Apples Wasted.

Writing about the reckless waste of fruit a correspondent states: "It is a subject which has appealed to me very strongly for a number of years, and in an humble way I have referred to it frequently in the newspapers. I spent five years (1890-95) in the County of Grey, which, as no doubt you know, is a very fine apple country. What I saw there in the way of wasted apples astonished me. Tons and tons of orchard culls were left to rot when they might have been evaporated or made into cider with great financial profit to Canada. The day will certainly come when all these low-grade apples will be utilized, and the sooner the better. Canada does not really know what thrift means: we live in fatted peace, but of all our extravagances I don't believe there is a greater one than the way in which we treat our apple crop. Go ahead with your apple campaign."

Doubled Up With Cramps.

Stomach feels like an infernal machine and you want relief mighty quick. Nothing does the work half as soon as Polson's Nerviline. Why it kills the pain instantly. If your bottle is empty get another today. Nerviline keeps the doctor bill small because it cures little ills before they grow big. Nothing for indigestion, heartburn and cramps like Polson's Nerviline. Large bottles for 25c.

Threshing in the West.

The bulk of the Manitoba grain will be threshed this month, I believe," said Mr. James Hartney, Manitoba Government Immigration Agent at Toronto, to The News yesterday. This is cause for congratulation, and is due to the earliness of the harvest and the exceptionally fine weather that has prevailed throughout.

Is After Them.

The Sarnia council is after the ferry company and will notice them that the Grace Dormer and James Beard will act be granted licenses another year.

This action was inspired by the accident to the Ferry Hawatha several days ago. The councilmen of that city believe the Beard and Dormer are not large enough for the crowds and should be replaced by two boats as large as the Conger.

The town of Sarnia control the ferry business and it is unlike any other port along the lakes in that particular.—Port Huron Herald.

How They Kill.

An Irishman, who had been in New York a couple of years, said to his newly-landed friend: "Now, Jim, you ought to settle down here; it is a mighty great country. Why, man, they don't hang you for murder here." "And in faith, what do they do with you?" asked Jim. "They kill you with elocution," said his kind adviser.

The Irishman and the Mule.

General Phil Sheridan was at one time asked what incident in his life caused him the most amusement.

"Well," he said, "I always laugh when I think of the Irishman and the army mule. I was riding down the line one day when I saw an Irishman mounted on a mule which was kicking rather freely. The mule finally got his foot caught in the stirrup, when, in the excitement, Pat remarked: "'Well, begorra, if you're goin' to get on I'll be gettin' off!'"

Feeding and Dairy Saved Them.

An old farmer, white with honest years of toil, recently in from Barrie, told an interesting story over the evening meal last night.

"In the early seventies," said he, "I went up Yonge street and saw how the land was being impoverished by the farmers for selling the hay and straw, because of the big prices. They were actually afraid to turn their colts on some fields for fear they would break their legs in some of the cracks in the soil. Barrenness became evident and the farmers started dairying and hog raising. This year I returned over the same land, and the crops of hay I saw cut around Richmond Hill and Aurora were the rankest I ever saw grow in Canada.

A MEDICINE CHEST IN ITSELF.—Only the well-to-do can afford to possess a medicine chest, but Dr. Thomas' Electric Oil, which is a medicine chest in itself being a remedy for rheumatism, lumbago, sore throat, colds, coughs, catarrh, asthma and a potent healer for wounds, cuts, bruises, sprains, etc., is within the reach of the poorest, owing to the cheapness. It should be in every house.

OBEESITY A DISEASE.
 It is Not, as a Rule, the Result of Laziness or Gluttony.

It is a mistake and an injustice to many abstemious folk to assume that all fat persons are gluttons or large eaters. Very many excessively corpulent people, especially women, are small eaters, while some of the most doughty trenchermen are gaunt and thin.

It is not the quantity so much as the quality of the food one eats which determines the putting on of flesh. Yet it is not always the kind of food that makes the obese, for some stout people eat very sparingly of sugars and starches, while there are large consumers of sweets who never put on flesh. In such cases it is a question of constitution, often of heredity and not at all, or very little, one of diet.

Another prevalent error in regard to fat people is that they are inert or lazy and never exercise. Of course exercise does increase the processes of nutrition and so leads to the burning up of superfluous fat, but at the same time it causes an increase in the appetite and thus tempts to the consumption of a greater quantity of food. So one thing balances the other, and want of exercise alone is not a very potent cause of obesity. Many very fat persons are, it is true, sluggish, but they have become so since putting on their flesh, for it makes a great difference whether one carries 150 pounds about when one walks or whether it is necessary to propel half as much again or even double the weight. It is a tremendous handicap, and there is small wonder that the lightweight do the most exercising.

Obesity, indeed, is usually a disease and not merely the result of laziness or gluttony. Its cause lies deep down in the animal economy, in among those mysterious chemical changes by which the food we take into the mouth is converted into blood and bones and muscles, skin, hair and brain cells. It can often be warded off by a proper diet and mode of living, especially if taken in hand from the very first and not allowed to get the upper hand, but the tendency to stoutness will generally persist through life and can only be modified, but never removed.

Any treatment for the radical removal of flesh should be carried out under the advice of a physician, as violent measures directed to this end may be productive of terrible harm to the constitution.

A THANKFUL MOTHER.

"I thank you with all my heart for what Baby's Own Tablets have done for my little girl," says Mrs. Antoine Charrette, Jr. of St. Boniface, Que. "When I began giving her the Tablets she seemed to be pinning away, but after using less than a box she was rapidly gaining and she is now a fine, fat, healthy little one, and I write you this, as the acknowledgment of a mother who'll never forget what Baby's Own Tablets have done for her child." Letters like this bring hope and comfort to all mothers who have feeble or sickly children. Baby's Own Tablets will cure all the minor ailments and can be given just as safely to a new born baby as to a well grown child. If you cannot get these Tablets from your dealer write the Dr. Williams' Medicine Co., Brockville, Ont. and get them at 25c a box.

Sam Jones Drops Dead on a Train.

Memphis, Tenn., Oct. 15.—"Sam" Jones, the noted evangelist, dropped dead this morning in an Oklahoma, Choctaw, and Gulf train near Little Rock.

Mr. Jones' home is at Cartersville, Ga. He was 53 years old, having been born in Alabama in 1847. He would have been 59 years old to-morrow. He was admitted to the Georgia bar in 1869, but his drinking habits soon put an end to his career as a lawyer. In 1872 he was converted, and was admitted to the ministry of the Methodist Church, South. Since then he had preached and lectured almost continuously, his eccentricities of speech and manner making him popular on the platform. He toured for some years in partnership with Sam Small, who relapsed into intemperate habits, and who was recently reconverted at Torrey and Alexander meetings.

Decent Kind of Thief.

Carman, Man., Oct. 15.—On Friday last $55 was stolen from the till in the C. P. R. station during the absence of Mr. King, the agent. Mr. King was the loser as he would have had to reimburse the company. The burglars evidently got wind of this, and considerably wrote Mr. King a note, telling him he would find the money at a certain part of the station. The money came to hand, and Mr. King appreciates the compliment.

FAREWELL.

Farewell faithful friends, I must now bid adieu. To those joys and those pleasures, I've tasted with you. We labored together united in heart. But now I must leave you, and soon we must part. My labors here are over and I must be gone. But I leave you not friendless to struggle alone. Be watchful and prayerful and Jesus will stay. Cling close to the Saviour, let him lead the way. Farewell, my dear young friends, I leave you likewise. And hope I shall meet you with Christ in the skies. Oh! Who will turn back and the Saviour deny? Like Judas, the traitor, deny him and die. Farewell, trembling sinner, sad time is with you. My heart sinks within me to bid you adieu. One step back, or forward may settle your doom. Mid the glories of heaven or eternity's gloom. Farewell every hearer, I now turn away. No more may we meet till the great Judgment Day. Though absent in body I'll be with you in prayer. And I'll meet you in heaven, there's no parting there. Home, home, sweet, sweet home. Prepare us Dear Saviour for yonder blest home. REV. A. E. DOAN, London, Sept., 1906.

Ontario Bank Bills Good As Gold.

The public need have no fear about the worth of Ontario Bank Bills. It is understood that the Bank of Montreal, which contemplates taking over the institution has undertaken to guarantee the Ontario Bank's circulation. Besides this all the Canadian Banks are compelled by law to maintain with the Dominion Government at Ottawa a percentage of security against their note circulation. The aggregate security of all the 35 Canadian chartered banks thus maintained at Ottawa, may be drawn upon to make good the notes issued by any one of the thirty-five. This gives an ample guarantee to all holders of Ontario Bank bills.

Munreal, Oct. 13.—It was officially announced at eleven o'clock to-day that the Bank of Montreal had taken over the affairs of the Ontario Bank.

The depositors will be paid in full, as will of course, the noteholders.

Whether the stockholders can be paid the face values of their shares remains to be seen.

Still Crying for Help.

Toronto, Oct. 15.—Thomas Southworth, superintendent of Ontario colonization, says the slackening of immigration during the winter months was embarrassing to the work of the department in furnishing help to the many farmers who are constantly enquiring for it.

Over 600 unfiled applications were taken up recently, and the farmers communicated with, in case their vacancies should have been filled. Replies to these enquiries are now coming, and in every case help is still required.

An application for help from an Englishman out of work was received, and on investigation it was found that he had been in steady employment at $2 a day.

"I couldn't stay in such a small place," he explained. "There were only 500 people there." He was not assisted.

Rev. Father Guam, of Wyoming, left last week on a vacation trip to New York, Baltimore, Washington and other eastern cities. He was accompanied by his brother from La Salette.

A Rheumatic Sufferer Cured by Dr. Williams' Pink Pills.

Rheumatism is rooted in the blood—that is a medical fact every poor rheumatic sufferer should know. Liniments and outward applications cannot possibly cure rheumatism. They are a waste of money, and while the sufferer is using them the disease is steadily growing worse—slowly but surely taking of firmer grasp upon the entire system. Rheumatism must be treated through the blood. That is the only way in which the poisonous acid can be driven out. Dr. Williams' Pink Pills actually make new blood and thus always cure rheumatism. Every dose of these pills helps to make new rich red blood which sweeps the poisonous acid from the system, loosens the aching joints and muscles and gives the rheumatic new health free from pain. Among those who can bear witness of the truth of these statements is Miss Dorsina Langlois, of St. Jerome, Que., for weary months she suffered from rheumatism and had begun to think she was incurable. "I could not straighten up" says Miss Langlois, "My limbs were almost useless, so stiff were they. For many months I endured such pains as only rheumatic sufferers can understand. Although only thirty years of age the suffering I endured actually made me look like an old woman. I used liniments and tried several medicines but got not the slightest help until almost by chance my attention was directed to Dr. Williams' Pink Pills. I began taking them and in the course of a few weeks I could see they were helping me. Little by little the pain began to go, and the stiffness to leave my joints. I continued taking the pills for several months when every symptom of the trouble had disappeared. I have not felt a twinge of rheumatism since, and I bless the day Dr. Williams' Pink Pills came to my notice."

Dr. Williams' Pink Pills never fail to cure rheumatism because they go right to the root of the trouble in the blood. That is why these pills cure all the common ailments which are due to watery blood, such as anaemia, headaches, neuralgia, St. Vitus dance, general weakness, and the distressing irregularities that afflict women and growing girls. If you need a medicine you will save money by taking Dr. Williams' Pink Pills at once. See that the full name Dr. Williams' Pink Pills for Pale People is printed on the wrapper around every box. Sold by all medicine dealers or by mail at 50 cents a box or six boxes for $2.50 from The Dr. Williams' Medicine Co., Brockville, Ont.

THOM—MICKS.

A very quiet wedding took place at the residence of Mr. and Mrs. M. R. Micks, Warwick St., Watford, on Wednesday, Oct. 10th, when their only daughter, J. Margarretta, became the bride of Mr. Andrew Travers Thom, accountant, Toronto. The Rev. E. B. Horne performed the ceremony in the presence of only the immediate friends. The young couple are very highly esteemed here, this being the groom's home till two years ago, when he moved to Toronto in which city the young couple will make their future home. Both are members of the Presbyterian church choir and S. S. The bride has always taken an active part in church work and will be greatly missed here. Wedding gifts, beautiful and costly, were received from Watford, St. Marys, Atterdod, Toronto, Munico, Paris, Ingersoll, Barrie, Montserrat, Peterborough and Omemee, showing the good wishes of a host of friends. We join with them in wishing Mr. and Mrs. Thom every happiness and prosperity through life. After a dainty repast, in charge of S. E. Thompson, caterer, the happy couple left for their future home in Toronto.

ELDRIDGE—ARMSTRONG.

A very pretty wedding took place at the residence of Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Armstrong, Rapley St., Strathroy, on Thursday, Oct. 4th, when their daughter, Della Claire, was united in marriage to Donald A. Eldridge of London. The Rev. T. H. Jackson officiated and the wedding march was rendered by Miss L. Barrie-Iverson. The bride, who was given away by her father, was prettily gowned in cream silk with trimmings of lace and chiffon, and carried a shower bouquet of bridal roses. The bride was assisted by her sister, Miss Gertrude, who wore a gown of cream silk trimmed with oriental lace and carried a bouquet of pink carnations and maiden-hair ferns. John Eldridge, a brother of the groom, acted as groomsman. The groom's gifts to the bride and bridesmaid were two beautiful sunbursts of pearls. After the ceremony and congratulations, the guests proceeded to the dining room where they partook of a dainty repast after which Mr. and Mrs. Eldridge left on the evening train amid showers of rice and good wishes, for Detroit and other western points. Mrs. Eldridge traveling in a navy blue tailored suit with smart white hat. On their return, they will be at home to their friends on Clarke St., London South, after Nov. 1.—Age.

PEACOCK—WILSON.

A very pretty wedding was solemnized at the home of the bride's brother, Mr. W. C. Peacock, Wanstead, on Wednesday, Sept. 26, when his sister, Miss Vina, was united in the holy bonds of matrimony to Mr. Ronald D. Wilson, of Detroit. The bride was handsomely gowned in a dress of allover lace over white organdy and carried a shower bouquet of white carnations. Miss Iva Rouse, of London, made a charming little flower girl. The Rev. Mr. Baird, of Sarnia, officiated. At one o'clock, to the strains of the wedding march played by Miss Ethel Wilson, of London, sister of the groom, the bridal party entered the parlor and took their place beneath an arch of maple leaves. The bride was given away by her eldest brother, Arthur, of Port Huron. After receiving the congratulations the party gathered on the lawn where they were photographed. All then repaired to the dining room where a dainty wedding breakfast was served. After doing ample justice to the good things, the afternoon was spent in games and other amusements. Guests were present from London, Glencoe, Strathroy, Sarnia, St. Huron, Detroit and Buffalo. The presents were many and costly, showing the high esteem in which the bride was held. The bride's going away gown was of light blue venetian cloth and white silk waist. The happy couple left on No. 5 for western points amid showers of rice and good wishes.—Wyoming Enterprise.

Canada's Great Transport Line at Jamestown Exposition.

Norfolk, Va.—Among the interesting transportation exhibits at the Jamestown Exposition, to be held on the shores of Hampton Roads near Norfolk, in 1907, will be that of the Grand Trunk Railway, the pioneer road of Canada and the only double track system of that country. Not only is this road to participate in the transportation display at the Ter-Centennial, but they will have a special building to house their extensive exhibit.

Though the headquarters of this immense system is located in Canada, the company intend to have a display second to none, and with this in view, they will erect a handsome building in a central location of the exposition grounds.

The decision of the company to participate in the Exposition makes them the second Trunk Line to determine upon such a course, the Southern Railway having decided to display a splendid exhibit of the varied resources along its thousand miles of track. The Baltimore and Ohio Railroad are considering an exhibit in engine construction, the plan being to give a graphic illustration of the progress made in this line of industry, by exhibiting the first engine ever used by the B. & O. alongside of one of their present-day monsters.

The exhibit of the Grand Trunk Railroad will be unique in that it will contain enlarged pictures of the summer resorts, along their tracks, beautifully executed by noted artists, which in themselves will be works of art, specimens of fish, game and other products so abundant in the regions through which the system passes will all be displayed. The feature of the display, however, will be the mineral exhibit. One from the great mines at "Cobalt" and "Ontario," called the "New Silverdale" on account of its great wealth of ore, will be made. This mine was opened last year and is considered one of the richest silver fields in the world.

Training of Teachers.

Toronto, Oct. 15.—Dr. Seath, superintendent of education, leaves the city this afternoon to visit the principal establishments for the professional training of teachers in New York City and the States. He will be absent a fortnight, and on his return will make a report to the minister of education with a view of embodying all that is most modern in their methods and worthy of adoption in the reorganization of the Normal school system here.
