Through Europe on the Eve of War

A RECORD OF PERSONAL EXPERIENCES

(III.—IN THE UPPER CHAMBER AT CONSTANCE.)

We reached Constance at 7.30 Saturday evening. Just 1. We had not heard any definite news since the night before, but everything looked ominous in the ancient city. We found thirty of our American delegates already there, all in a state of some nervousness, which was greatly relieved when we appeared. They were afraid we were not going to be able to get through, as the German Government was everywhere mobilizing troops and the trains were becoming uncertain. Furthermore, Germany was beginning to exclude foreigners. Just as we got there an order went out from Berlin that no Frenchman should be allowed to enter Germany, and had it not been that special exception was made for the Frenchmen at our conference, the French delegates would have had to remain in Switzerland. Many of the delegates whom we found there had come down through Germany, the day before. Their experiences with the news of the evening had made them timorous, and when I arrived they surrounded me and put the question, "Shall we hold the conference or make for England immediately before Germany and France close their doors absolutely and seize all trains for mobilizing troops?" It was finally decided that the business committee of the Conference, the American members of which were Bishop E. R. Hendrix, Edwin D. Mead, Rev. William P. Merrill, D. D., and myself, should meet immediately after dinner and decide upon the next step after full conference with Dr. Friedrich Siermund-Schultzke of Berlin, who not only knew something of the German situation, but who had that day been in touch with the Kaiser, and with the Grand Duchess of Baden, between whom and him there exists a peculiar and intimate friendship.

land is covered with a profuse growth of trees and flowering shrubs, among which winding paths of gravel have been laid. To the south of the hotel there is a large space which has been reserved for tables, and on warm evenings dinner is served there.

At eight that evening, under quiet stars, with no noise except the lapping of little waves, we ate our evening meal. Most of us were silent, for we felt that around that peaceful haven the tumult of the world was gathering into a great storm.

At nine o'clock the business committee met and for an hour deliberated over the steps to be taken. Here were thirty-five Americans, sixteen Englishmen and some representatives of eleven other nations. It would be a pity if we should run away right when our word was most needed by the nations. Actual war had not been declared. Dr. Siermund-Schultzke informed us that the Kaiser had given his sanction, although all public meetings had been forbidden in Germany, and had telegraphed the authorities at Constance to grant us every privilege and protection.

We were in no danger there. The only question was whether or not we ought to leave by the first train before war actually broke out. The status of things at that moment, so far as we could learn, was that every nation except England was mobilizing as fast as possible, that negotiations between Germany and France had been broken off, that Germany had sent her arbitrary ultimatum to Russia and that England was straining every nerve to bring the representatives of the nations together, even at the last moment, for a conference. (As was afterwards revealed when the official correspondence was published, at that last moment Austria yielded and expressed willingness to treat with Russia, but Germany would not withdraw her ultimatum and enter the conference of the powers.) The advice of the braver members prevailed and it was voted to proceed with the meetings of the Conference, await the turn of events, and not run away. In view of the fact that practically all the delegates were there, and that those who were due on Monday could not possibly reach there it was also voted to begin the sessions on Sunday morning instead of waiting until Monday.

Sunday, August 2, will remain one of the most memorable Sundays in the lives of all the delegates. In view of the awful catastrophe hanging over Europe it seemed no time for debate. Only prayer was fitting in the gathering darkness. It was a sweet and beautiful Sabbath morning, but in our hearts we heard all over Europe the toll of war drums, the tread of marching feet, the hoarse cries of soldiers for the blood of their fellow-men. Even while we were gathering for prayer the stillness was broken by the sounds of soldiers marching and drunken men in the village still yelling for war after the whole night's debauch. (I would not give the impression that all the people of Constance were yelling for war. It was only the soldier's and the poor, thoughtless youth. The majority of the people were sad and knew not why their nation was going to war, knew not the necessity of Germany bringing the Hell of 1870 and the Napoleonic days upon the people.) At ten a. m. the whole body had assembled in the little hall above the dining room—the room where five hundred years ago the famous Council of Constance had often met to discuss the grave problems of heresy and the problems of Reformation. There were about eighty of us present and there was no desire of us to speak to another.

A solemn hush brooded over the assembly. Every heart was aching. The burden of a world about to be plunged into purgatory weighed heavily on every heart. Everyone knew that on Sunday the fate of Europe, of civilization, perhaps of Christianity itself, was to be decided. Russia had not answered France, as well as Germany was mobilizing. Only England was yet had not begun preparations for immediate war. As we finished our prayers...

Premier Murray Appeals to People of Nova Scotia in Behalf of Belgians

Documents which have been placed before me today, move me to address this appeal to the Nova Scotia people.

The heroic stand of the people of Belgium has won the admiration of the whole world. They have made sacrifices so great that it almost passes our comprehension. Their lands have been laid waste, their towns raked, their homes wrecked, their women and children outraged, their famous churches and cathedrals pillaged, their priceless art treasures destroyed—everywhere across the Belgian country is the invader's ruthless trail of ruin and blood.

In the face of this appalling suffering and destruction, almost unparalleled in the history of warfare, I am sure that the people of Nova Scotia cannot remain unmoved. Our brave Belgian Allies are fighting our battles just as much as the men whom we are sending from our shores to join the King's forces overseas. Every sacrifice they have made, every loss they have suffered, has been made or suffered in the cause of freedom for which we are fighting today. The services which they have rendered to the allied forces have been of inestimable value at the most critical stages of the campaign.

I am not unmindful of the duty which we, as Nova Scotians, owe to our own soldiers, and am deeply interested in the success of the campaign for the Canadian Patriotic Fund. I am confident that Nova Scotia will contribute more than her full quota to the support of the dependents of our gallant sons who are going to the front, and that Nova Scotians are ready, not only to do their full duty in that way, but to make other sacrifices, if need be. I know, therefore, that the present cry that comes to us across the sea, from a sorely stricken but unflinching people will not be heard in vain.

It has been my privilege to read a personal letter written from Ostend by M. Lambert Jadot, a prominent Belgian financier and Managing Director of the Acadia Coal Company, Ltd., of Stellarton. This letter will be made public through the press of this Province and will stir the heart and enlist the sympathy of every true Nova Scotian.

A cruel war forced upon an innocent people has left a trail of suffering that is pitiable in the extreme. Thousands of people are left in sore straits and distress. Their needs are urgent and great. What is needed most in Belgium at this moment is a supply of flour, bacon, sugar, pork, beans, apples, dried fish, clothing, shoes, blankets and dress material.

In my judgment, an opportunity is presented to the people of Nova Scotia to fulfil, in part, the Empire's obligations to Belgium and to do so in a tangible way. There is scarcely a home in this Province which could not afford to give a bushel of vegetables, a sack of potatoes or some articles of clothing which the Belgians particularly need. Already in the town of Stellarton a large number of packing cases have been filled with useful articles for this purpose. All donations may be addressed to the Belgian Relief Committee at Stellarton or to the Belgian Relief Committee at Halifax. Arrangements will be made with the various railway companies in this Province to transport these materials free of charge to Halifax and Stellarton. Once arrived at Halifax or Stellarton the gifts will be properly packed, and it is my hope that we may be able to make arrangements to send a steamer from Halifax direct to Belgium carrying the contribution of the people of Nova Scotia.

I appeal, then, to the people of Nova Scotia, in all confidence, that out of their plenty and prosperity they will make a response which will be worthy of our liberty-loving traditions and will convey to our brave Allies in Belgium a substantial expression of our appreciation of all that they have wrought and suffered in defence of the greatest principles for which a nation ever fought. Let our response be prompt, generous and worthy of Nova Scotia.

G. H. MURRAY.

King George signed the Home Rule Bill on the 18th inst., which thus goes on statute books. Parliament prorogued until October 27th. The King said: "I rely with confidence upon the loyal and united efforts of all my subjects and pray Almighty God may give us His blessing."

The Home Rule Bill was signed by King George, just before Parliament adjourned until Oct. 25th.

Read this carefully, Lord Kitchener addressing the soldiers said, "You can do your own country no better service than in showing yourself in France and Belgium, in the true character of a British soldier, by being invariably courteous, considerate and kind."

Now, read this from the German side, "The only means of preventing surprise attacks from the civil population has been to interfere with unrelenting severity, and to create examples which, by their frightfulness, would be a warning to the whole country."

Bridgetown Has Organized to Help in Belgian Relief Contributions

In view of the dire need of war-ravaged Belgium and in response to the noble and stirring appeal of Premier Murray to the people of Nova Scotia, Mayor Freeman, in conjunction with the clergy of the town, has organized a total Belgian Relief Committee as follows:—

Mayor Freeman, Chairman
Rev. G. C. Warren, Sec'y.
Rev. E. Underwood, Treas.
Rev. J. F. Duxan
Rev. A. R. Reynolds
Dr. Jost
Fred E. Bath
A. O. Price
J. Harry Hicks
A. F. Hiltz

Believing that every citizen of Bridgetown desires to make a hearty and generous response to Belgium's need and the Premier's appeal, solicitors have been appointed to visit every home. As the vessel bearing Nova Scotia's gifts to our Belgian allies in distress is expected to sail from Halifax early in October, let the response be prompt in this whirlwind campaign of patriotic humanitarianism. The D. A. R. Station is the centre at which to bring your contributions of food and clothing. All gifts should be delivered there by Wednesday, Sept. 30th. Should any be unable to convey their contributions to the station, just notify the solicitor who calls at your home or any member of the above committee and a team will call for the goods which should be ready by Monday, Sept. 28th. Where convenient to give food or clothing, please send your monetary contributions to Rev. E. Underwood, Treas.

GIFTS SOLICITED

What will be particularly useful are all kinds of foods, not perishable, such as flour, sugar, meal, cheese, butter, cured meats, dried salt fish, dried apples, potatoes and other vegetables, barrels of apples, all kinds of clothing for men, women and children, such as party-worn suits, dresses, underwear, stockings, socks, boots and shoes, overcoats, shawls, hats. Any contribution that a grocer might give or a drygoods or shoe merchant would select would be most acceptable.

G. C. WARREN, Sec'y.

First Dose Ends Indigestion, Heartburn, or Gas on Stomach

The question as to how long you age going to continue a sufferer from indigestion, dyspepsia or out-of-order stomach is merely a matter of how soon you begin taking Tonaline Tablets.

People with weak stomachs should take Tonaline Tablets occasionally, and there will be no more indigestion, no feeling like a lump of lead in the stomach, no heartburn, sour risings, gas on stomach, or belching of undigested food, headaches, dizziness or sick stomach, and besides, what you eat will not ferment and poison your breath with nauseous odors. All these symptoms resulting from a sour, out-of-order stomach and dyspepsia are generally relieved five minutes after taking Tonaline Tablets. Go to your druggist and get a $1.00 box of Tonaline Tablets and you will always go to the table with a hearty appetite, and what you eat will taste good, because your stomach and intestines will be clean and fresh, and you will know there are not going to be any more bad nights and miserable days for you. Tonaline Tablets freshen you and make you feel like life is worth living.

Tonaline Tablets cost $1.00 for a fifty days' treatment. At druggists or mailed by American Proprietary Co., Boston, Mass.

THE BELGIAN RELIEF FUND

The appeal of Premier Murray on behalf of the Belgian Relief Fund for the Maritime Provinces, and referred to on Sabbath in the different pulpits, ought to meet with immediate and liberal response from every citizen, male and female. Duty as well as gratitude demands this at our hands.

These destitute Belgians have been driven from their homes, in many cases with nothing but the clothing on their backs. Their fathers, husbands and sons have died fighting our battles. As the article from the Montreal Witness which we publish on another page distinctly shows, had these brave Belgians not offered such a stout resistance to the German army of more than a million men, the Kaiser's goal would almost certainly have been reached.

Paris would have yielded to their arms, and their next move would have been on London. We have mercifully been spared from this great disgrace and pillage, by the valor of a little nation which has awakened the wonder of the world.

And accounts coming to us day by day from various sources on which we can rely, are revealing more and more the unexpected barbarity of the German troops. Cruelties and outrages which only necessity could permit to appear upon the printed page, and are sufficient to bring tears from our eyes, have been perpetrated by them upon these people whose only offence was a desire to be left in peace.

This appeal for aid comes first from Stellarton, the headquarters of the Acadia Coal Company, the operations of which have been largely controlled in Belgium. Some of the officials of this Company are Belgians, as well as many of the employees. The Committee in Stellarton and that in Halifax are united in the same endeavor. Mr. Giffins on behalf of the D.A.R. has offered to convey to Halifax free all contributions delivered at the station addressed to the Belgian Relief Committee, Halifax.

It is hoped that all the people in town and country will respond to the appeal, and that all donations will be at the station ready to be forwarded not later than the 30th inst.

approval of the action taken in defence of the integrity and sanctity of international obligation.

The Exhibition of the handwork of the pupils of the Public School in Lawrencectown, on Thursday last, was a very creditable affair for all concerned in it. The pupils are to be congratulated upon the enterprise, skill and taste shown in all the exhibits. Kindergarten work, Mechatie, Technical, Agricultural and Domestic Science, all of which departments our Public School system is endeavoring to encourage and extend, were shown in embryo. The Prize List, which will appear next week in the Monitor, will indicate to a good extent the different kinds of work accomplished by the School along these lines. Two features of the Exhibition were especially attractive, the excellent needle work in various articles required in the home, and the produce of the garden. Vegetables of the various ordinary kinds, and of excellent quality were all grown by the pupils in home gardens.

The success of the Lawrencectown School in these matters should be a stimulus and encouragement in other school sections. Nova Scotia is excusably proud of the interest taken by our people generally in our public schools. The Superintendent of Education in his annual report, two or three years since, informed us that a larger number of scholars in proportion to the population, were attending school, in the earlier grades in this Province, than in any other of a dozen countries enumerated. And every one of these schools, even those of the smallest and most scattered sections, might profitably be the centre of an Exhibition, smaller or larger, of a similar kind.

HYMENEAL

BENT-WHITE.

The home of Mr. and Mrs. Othel D. White, Phinney Cove, was the scene of a very pretty wedding (on Sept. 2nd) when their daughter, Ethel Mary was united in marriage to Mr. Victor Lenwood Bent. The bride entered the room leaning on the arm of her father to the strain of the wedding march played by Mrs. Norris Mitchell.

The bride looked charming in a gown of cream silk and shadow lace, carrying a bouquet of sweet peas. She was unattended. The room was beautifully decorated with cut flowers and evergreen. After the ceremony a bountiful repast was served. Mr. and Mrs. Bent left on Saturday, Sept. 5th for East Somerville, where they will spend their honeymoon with the bride's cousin. She was tastefully dressed in a going away suit of navy serge with hat to match.

The bride received many valuable and useful presents which showed the esteem in which she was held. Mr. and Mrs. Bent carry the good wishes of a large circle of friends.

KEMPTON-KEMPTON.

The marriage of Miss Abbie Parker Kempton, of Kempton, and Alesander Harlow Kempton, of Milton, was solemnized at the home of her brother, Park F. Kempton, Kempton, Queen's County, Nova Scotia, on Tuesday, Sept. 15th, at 5 p. m. The ceremony was performed by Rev. D. W. Dixon, of North Brookfield, beneath an arch of green and yellow.

The bride was unattended and was attired in white satin de chene with silkembroidered net veil and carried a bouquet of bride's roses, white carnations and maiden hair fern. The wedding march was played by Mrs. Ross Freeman, of Sable River, sister of the groom.

Following the ceremony and congratulations, refreshments were served, after which Mr. and Mrs. Kempton left by automobile for Caledonia en route to a tour of points of interest in the Annapolis Valley and New Brunswick.

The presents were varied and costly, that of the groom to the bride being a substantial sum of money. Among others were cheque for four thousand dollars from Harlow & Kempton, Milton, cheque for nine hundred dollars from Mrs. Edmon Kempton, several other smaller amounts of cash, silver, cut glass, linen and furniture.

Among the guests present were Mr. Robie E. Kempton, Somerville, Mass., brother of the bride, Miss Laura Baxter, Portsmouth, N. H., Mr. and Mrs. Philson Kempton, Miss Phyllis Kempton, Mr. Harold Brown, Milton, Mrs. Ross Freeman and Philson M. Freeman of Sable River. The bride was the youngest daughter of the late J. Chipman Kempton formerly of Clarence Centre, Annapolis County.

OBITUARY

CORA MAY BRINTON.

At her home, St. Croix Cove, on Wednesday, Sept. 16th, Cora May Brinton, beloved daughter of Captain and Mrs. Eber Brinton, passed away at the early age of twenty years. Fourteen months ago she was stricken down with typhoid fever, followed by pneumonia and lastly by tuberculosis. During her long sickness she was a great sufferer, but bore all with the greatest patience. When she was approached by her dear friends concerning her approaching death she would reply if it were the Master's wish she was willing to obey His summons.

On Dec. 29, 1907, Miss Brinton was baptized by the Rev. Stephen Langille, and united with the Hampton Baptist Church. Since her union with the church she has been a faithful, earnest, and helpful member.

Her christian experience was characterized by willing service. As organist in the church she will be greatly missed. She leaves a mother, father, one sister, and six brothers to mourn their loss; all of whom were present at the funeral, except Melbourne, who is in Idaho, U. S.

Outside of her own home, our sister by her peaceful disposition had won a large number of friends, who thought of her many times during her illness with loving remembrances and who gathered to pay their last fond tribute of farewell. The interment took place on Friday, Sept. 18th, in the St. Croix Cemetery, on Friday, Sept. 18th. The service was conducted by the Rev. Asaph Whitman, (pastor of the Wilmont Mountain and Hampton Baptist Churches), who spoke from Isaiah XLIII, 1-2. His words of sympathy and hope in the life that lies beyond the grave should be a comfort to the bereaved family who realize that the "little while with us" will not be long—and we are only severed from our loved ones "till He comes."

The casket laden with flowers was tenderly laid to rest by Silas Beardsley, Fred Stark, Frank Poole and Bradford Hall.

CAPT. ROBERT ROBERTS.

After an illness of all but three years, Capt. Robert Roberts passed peacefully away yesterday at his residence, Church Street, Bridgetown. He was born 62 years ago at Liverpool, N. S., a son of Mr. Robt. Roberts of that town. At the age of seventeen he took up what proved to be his life's calling—the sea. In six years he became a Master Mariner, having command of a vessel from that time on. His voyages were mostly in Southern waters, although for sixteen years he sailed out of St. John, N. B. In 1882 he married Carrie C., daughter of Mr. Jas. G. Percy, then of that city. Of the union nine children have been born, six of whom, with his wife, survive him—three daughters and three sons—Robert in New York, and the rest at home. A sister also survives him—Mrs. Viets of Digby, N. S. In the summer of 1911 he came home for a three-month holiday, and it was when this was drawing to a close, on the afternoon of October 21st, whilst taking a walk, that he was seized with paralysis, which effected his speech as well as the whole of his right side. At first it was thought he could not survive many weeks, but as the result of careful nursing and constant care he lived until yesterday, although he never fully recovered from the shock.

The funeral will take place tomorrow (Thursday) afternoon from St. James' Church at 3 o'clock, the Rev. officiating.

CARD OF THANKS.

Captain and Mrs. Eber Brinton wish to thank their neighbors and friends for the many acts of kindness and expressions of sympathy during the long illness and recent death of their daughter Cora; also to thank them for the many beautiful flowers so much appreciated by the deceased during her illness and to assure them that they deeply esteem the many kindnesses shown.

Liverpool Advance: There was an exhibition at J. C. Spinney's fish market on Monday a large sea turtle captured by a Lunenburg fishing vessel east of Coffin's Island and brought into this port Saturday afternoon. This immense shell-fish weighed over 1,000 lbs., and was the largest ever seen in Liverpool. It took eight able-bodied men to carry it from the vessel at Mulhull's wharf to the market. The monster died yesterday morning.

Meeting of Canadian Patriotic Fund Committee

A meeting was held in Bridgetown, Sept. 18th, of the provisional members of the Patriotic Fund Committee.

There were present, Hon. W. B. Ross, Convener, and all other members of the Provisional Committee, viz: Mr. W. G. Clarke, Warden of Annapolis County; Mr. Atlee, Mayor of Annapolis; Mr. Karl Froeman, Mayor of Bridgetown; and Mr. O. P. Goucher, Mayor of Middleton. On motion the Hon. W. B. Ross was appointed President, Mr. Goucher, Mayor of Middleton was appointed Secretary, Mr. Macdonald, Manager of the Royal Bank of Canada, was appointed Treasurer.

The correspondence with the central Committee was read and discussed and after the Committee severally expressed their views it was unanimously decided to recommend the raising of a sum of money by assessment on the County and incorporated towns.

It was further resolved to ask the arbitration committees of the County and incorporated towns to meet at an early date with a view of determining the total sum to be recommended to be assessed in the above way and also to endeavor to arrive at a fair distribution of this amount upon the County and on each of the three incorporated towns.

It was further resolved that this committee adjourn until after the arbitration committee meet.

Annual Exhibition of the Lawrenceton School

The annual School Exhibition of Lawrenceton Section was held on the 17th inst., and was a success in every way. An exceptionally fine day made it possible for a large number of people in and out of town to attend the very fine exhibit put on by the school.

The officers were: R. J. Messenger, President, and H. H. Whitman, Secretary-Treasurer who together with efficient committees and the able assistance of Dr. J. B. Hall (always interested in educational matters that give an impetus in the right direction) and our staff of teachers Mr. Banks, Miss Leck and Miss Morgan, made the exhibition possible.

There were several judges from out of town who were most courteous and capable.

Mr. Chas. Strong, of Bridgetown, gave us the benefit of his knowledge of fowls, thereby conferring an especial favor on the pupils and community.

Mr. Vernon Leonard, of Clarence, very kindly assisted in the judging of the garden products, and Mrs. Pearson, of Paradise rendered valuable assistance in the department of cut flowers, plants and pressed flowers.

This mere expression of thanks does not fully render our gratitude to Mr. Strong, Mr. Leonard and Mrs. Pearson.

The exhibits were of high order and consisted of garden products, fruit, grain, cut flowers, house plants, pressed flowers, insects (mounted), sewing in three grades, ranging from a finished shirtwaist to the senior class, to a dollie's quilt in the Primary Department (and including darning and patching, culinary work as evidenced by the bread, tea biscuit and plain cake, and photography.

The drawing from nature and copying deserve me than passing notice as so the samples of writing shown.

Kindergarten work was shown in exquisite paper folding and cutting, cardboard work and paper weaving.

Manual Training in wood work was unusually good for the short time taught, and compared very favorably with the articles lent by the Truro Manual Training School.

Ice Cream was provided by the community and sold on the ground. In the evening the Band rendered several selections and the musical director, Miss Robb, conducted a class in singing, to the delight of all.

This was followed by a short address by the President, who then introduced Mr. DeWolfe, Supt. of Rural Science for Nova Scotia. Mr. DeWolfe spoke very enthusiastically of the Exhibition, and of the great benefit to the community as a whole in educating the pupils in things practical, teaching them to have every sense and faculty cultivated so, that no matter what profession might be entered, life's outlook would be broader and richer for knowing "how to do things."

Judge Longley, who needed no introduction to a Lawrenceton audience of young or older people responded to his welcome by eulogizing the exhibition and telling us of his own happy experience in gardening in Halifax; also his delight in the interest shown by the parents, in the whole working of our excellent school.

The Principal, Mr. B. Banks then read the names of the prize winners in gardening, each of which was greeted with hearty applause on rising.

This brought the day's programme to an end and when the band played "God Save the King" all went home feeling that the day had been a happy one and had contributed not a little to future success of many a pupil.

Among the visitors noticed were—Judge Loneval, of Halifax; Mr. and Mrs. DeWolfe, of Truro; Judge

Strong, of Bridgetown; Mr. Vernon Leonard, of Clarence, Mrs. Doane, of Massachusetts and many others.

In reviewing the exhibition one feels safe in saying to other communities, whether small or large—"Go thou and do likewise"—for it is surely a stride in the right direction.

To name all who contributed time and attention to the school would be a long task but we are all grateful to them especially to Mrs. Forman Bishop and Mrs. Miner Daniels who superintended the sewing classes so faithfully.

Sept. 21.
Mrs. E. J. Andrews is spending a few weeks with her daughter, Mrs. Perry Porter of Hillsgrove.

The army worm has visited some of our farmers, stripping the grain and clover as they went.

The farmers are harvesting their potatoes. There are big crops, but the potato rot has taken a large toll.

Mr. Oscar Andrews has sold his fine property to the Rev. Mr. Langille, and has bought the C. Short-life property.

Preaching next Sunday, Sept. 27, at 7:30 p. m., by the Rev. I. G. Porter, Sunday School at 2, and Mission Band at 3 p. m.

One of our business men, Mr. H. T. Warner, has purchased 4000 acres of woodland in Hants County, and is taking some of our men there to begin operations.

At both churches last Sunday, the matter of sending contributions to the suffering Belgians was forcibly brought before the congregations. This is an object worthy of our immediate help.

Mr. C. T. Warner of Plimpton, passed away Sunday morning. He was around well as usual Saturday. Mr. Warner had just gone through a painful operation on the eye. He was a general favorite with the men who hauled large quantities of piling and cordwood to him throughout the year. He was an old sea captain, and will be greatly missed.

"Was your husband cool when you told him there was a burglar in the house?" asked Mrs. Hammer.

"Cool," replied Mrs. Cobb. "I should say he was cool. Why, his teeth chattered."—Cincinnati Enquirer.

HEALTH PAST FIFTY

Careful diet is of almost importance to men and women past fifty years of age; it keeps up their strength, and the oil in Scott's Emulsion is a nourishing food, a curative medicine and a sustaining tonic to regulate the functions.

It contains the medicinal fats of pure cod liver oil and science proves that they furnish twice as much energy as other foods—then too, it creates pure blood, sharpens the appetite, relieves rheumatism, strengthens the body and alleviates the ailments due to declining years.

Scott's is free from wines, alcohol or harmful drugs. Beware of substitutes.

An enterprising young florist, in order to increase his trade, displayed this sign in his window: "We give a packet of flower seeds with every plant."

His competitor across the street promptly sought to meet the competition by placing in his window the following announcement: "We give the earth with every plant."—Tit-Bits.

An old man over on Bear Creek was leading two lively calves out to early pasture one Spring morning. When he came to the field, he tied one calf to one of his boot-straaps, and the other to the opposite strap, while he opened the rickety gate. The calves ran away. When he was picked up his wife asked him: "Didn't you know any better than to do such a foolish trick as that?" "Yes, Ann," he answered, "I hadn't been dragged four rods before I saw my mistake."

A few weeks ago Drs. Miller, of Middleton, and DeVine, of Kingston, operated a boy of twelve years old in Meadowvale for tuberculosis of the knee. Doctor's Indorse Newbro's Herpicide for the Hair

When a doctor endorses a preparation it means more than an ordinary testimonial. His opinion is always that of the professional man devoted to the welfare of the people. Dr. J. J. Boyd, Covington, Tenn., says: "I feel it my duty to write this for the benefit of those suffering from dandruff. In the average case a few applications of Newbro's Herpicide will remove all dandruff. It is advisable to continue its use for several weeks." The words of J. B. Thompson, M. D., No. 2 Burrough Place, Cor. Hollis St., Boston, Mass., are not less enthusiastic: "I can only speak in praise of Newbro's Herpicide. It is all that is claimed and perhaps more. Herpicide not only cleanses the scalp but brightens the hair, gives it life and makes it soft." Dr. T. A. Moore, Duncan, Ariz., writes of his experience: "My scalp was in places covered by patches of dry, scaly material and the itching was incessant. Since using Herpicide all these evils have disappeared and my hair is soft, smooth and growing. Hair has grown on spots before but thinly covered." Newbro's Herpicide is "the original remedy to kill the dandruff germ" and stop falling hair. The terrible itching which goes with dandruff is allayed almost at once. Newbro's Herpicide in 50c and $1.00 sizes is guaranteed to do all that is claimed. If you are not satisfied your money will be refunded. Applications may be obtained at the leading barber shops. Be sure you get genuine Herpicide. Bear River Drug Store, Bear River, N. S., Special Agents.

Through Europe on the Eye of War

(Continued from page 1.) towards learned England was that day straining every nerve to keep Germany from plunging recklessly into the strife. There was nothing to do but pray. Mr. Baker was in the chair, and with tears in his eyes told of the remarkable work that had been accomplished by the British and German churches to establish good-will between the two nations. A group of men of good-will existed in each nation whose friendship no wars could break. It looked as though there was to go for naught--to be wasted in a moment. But we must not believe that. Such work could never be in vain. If war came, after it was over there would be this foundation on which to build anew. Even then it was not too late. It seemed incredible to him that all Europe should go to war even considering the steps toward war that had already been taken. Let us all pray to God with all our hearts that he avert this dire catastrophe. Before the prayers Bishop E. R. Hendrix, of Kansas City, Mo., and Bishop John L. Nuelson, of Zurich, Switzerland, were asked to say a few words that our hearts might be attuned to our high purpose and our faith sustained as the kingdom of God seemed ready to fall all about us. Their remarks were of that prophetic nature that lifted them into prayer and like prayer, would lose their high character in print. Bishop Hendrix's words were a call to cling to God with renewed fervor, to keep our faith that even above a sinful, confused world his hand ruled; that out of men's blindness and passion he would bring some ultimate good. He believed that if this awful war came, out of it the world might learn that their trust in brute power and force was vain. Here was the result of it. At last they might see that there was no lasting security, justice, peace, or happiness as they put their trust in God. The peacemakers would go home with this message for all the world. Perhaps the world would now be prepared to listen. Bishop Nuelson, of Zurich, reminded the delegates that they were not praying alone that morning. That in thousands of churches and from millions of hearts of men and women prayers were now ascending to the throne of God that this conduct of the nations might be avoided. Let us remember that these wars were not begun by the people--but by ruthless monarchs and the cliques about them. He had just come from two great international gatherings where members of all nations had been sitting about the Lord's table together. These were not the men who made war. They with us were lamenting these dark days. Even though this war came, and lasted long, after it was over the real Christians of all lands would again get together and plan for a time when Christian brotherhood should supplant war. Then came the time of prayer. It was the meeting in the Upper Room has been repeated in history. It was in that hour. Outside Germany, French and English were going out to fight one another; here Germans, French and English were kneeling in prayer. Outside the people were calling for blood; here representatives of twelve peoples were praying for increased love for one another. Outside the Germans, French and English were hurling epithets of hatred and revenge at each other; here they were pleading themselves in new lips of brotherhood in Christ's kingdom of good-will. Representatives of five nations were called upon for prayer. First I was asked to pray as representative of America. I have prayed for public shaming perhaps five thousand times in my life, but never before this morning did I realize what it was to voice the cry of the people before me, and of the world. I had no conception of what I should say when I arose--I have no idea now of what I said. I only know that my heart was bleeding for the sins of the world, and I saw a vision of millions of little children who were soon to roam the devastated cities hungry, cold, fatherless, all because of the sin of a few men. I saw the mad orgy of lust, vice, drunkenness, hatred, cruelty that was to be loosed, and I felt for once something of what Christ felt in Gethsemane. I could only beseech God over and over again to spare us this thing, and to teach men that Christ's test of discipleship was that they should love one another. After it had finished praying Dr. Siegmund-Schultze, non-representing Germany, prayed, and Dr. John C. Ford from England, then Dr. Marquis Dumesnil from France, and Dr. K. Bohringer from Switzerland. It is hard to say how great prayers could have been printed and distributed by the millions among the nations. It is too sad the governments who were waging war against each other could not have heard German prayers for God's blessings on France and England, English and French praying for God's blessings upon Germany. Still kneeling we remained a time in silence. Then those who had sufficient control of themselves to utter words continued to lift our hearts unto the Lord. As I sat there it came over me when the peace of the world should come. It would be when the peoples of the various nations felt toward one another as we in that room felt toward one another. I looked up once and there before me I saw a German, a Frenchman and an Englishman kneeling so close together that their arms touched. Nothing in Heaven or earth could have made those kneeling disciples of the Lord fight one another. Were the leaders of the nations--even three nations of Europe--Christians as those three men were Christians, no power in heaven or earth could plunge their nations into war. I believe there are many people in every nation who have reached this stage of real Christianity. I believe this feeling is spreading among the people. I find it among working men in Europe. It found expression in the streets of Paris. It would have found considerable expression among the workmen of Germany had not the Kaiser prohibited all assemblies of the people. I have incessantly found it among the pastors of the churches, especially in America and England. It is growing everywhere. The pity of it is that it has not reached the dignitaries of either state or church in two or three nations. Had every Protestant pastor in Germany reached the point of real Christianity that those Germans kneeling beside the English at Constance had reached and had the Roman Catholic priests in Austria reached the point that those priests of the various nations had reached who were to have knelt side by side in prayer the leaders after our Constance meeting--in that very city of Liege which now lies in dust and ashes--in a conference similar to ours, this war would not have been. This is all there is to the peace movement to bring the leaders of the church, the nation, the trades unions, the social democrats to the point of Christian brotherhood those kneeling disciples had reached in that quiet chamber of the Lord at Constance. It is all so simple, so easy, so near, but so seemingly impossible, so hard, so far off, because of our stubbornness, our blindness, most of all, our sin. The meeting closed with a word from Dr. George U. Wagner, the eminent Lutheran pastor of New York, who had been to the morning service of that church in the city. The people in the great congregation were in tears, he told us. Yes, all over Germany and France and England the people--the Christian people--were in tears, but they had no word to say or knew not how to say it, while the governments were plunging them into calamity and ruin, over nothing but the desire of a few men in Austria to get revenge in their own perverse way. How long must this last? How long must the people of Germany and Austria remain dumb under the rods of the heartless and the oppressors? Again, is not here a great hope for peace, that before

ANY DYSPEPTIC CAN GET WELL

By Taking "Fruit-a-tives" Says Capt. Swan

Life is very miserable to those who suffer with Indigestion, Dyspepsia, Sour Stomach and Biliousness. This letter from Captain Swan (one of the best known skippers on the Great Lakes) tells how to get quick relief from Stomach Trouble. PORT BURWELL, ONT., May 8th, 1913. "A man has a poor chance of living and enjoying life when he cannot eat. That was what was wrong with me. Loss of appetite and indigestion was brought on by Constipation. I have had trouble with these diseases for years. I lost a great deal of flesh and suffered constantly. For the last couple of years, I have taken "Fruit-a-tives" and have been so pleased with the results that I have recommended them on many occasions to friends and acquaintances. I am sure that "Fruit-a-tives" have helped me greatly. By following the diet rules and taking "Fruit-a-tives" according to directions, any person with Dyspepsia will get benefit." H. SWAN "Fruit-a-tives" are sold by all dealers at 50c a box 6 for $2.50, or trial size 25c, or sent postpaid on receipt of price by Fruit-a-tives Limited, Ottawa.

long the people of Germany and Austria and Russia will insist on democracy, on having a voice as well as feelings? It is worthy of careful notice that the two democracies of Europe, England and France, did all within their power to end the war, using every resource until the last moment. Let us have democracies for another reason. It is easy to educate democracies. Pastors and teachers are freer to speak their views and the people can discuss great problems free from censorship. Again perhaps democracy and peace must come together. It seemed like sacrilege to transact any business at the close of that sacramental meeting. But it was the Lord's business and had to be done. First of all the following petition was unanimously adopted and ordered telegraphed to every ruler of the United States and to the President of the United States: "The Conference of members of Christian churches representing twelve countries and thirty confessions assembled at Constance to promote friendly relations between nations, solemnly appeals to Christian rulers to avert a war between millions of men among whom friendship and common interests have been steadily growing, and thereby to save from disaster Christian civilization and assert the power of the Christian spirit in human affairs." Then the question of continuing the Conference had to be settled. There was considerable nervousness among the delegates. Some had imperative duties at home and some had little children who needed them so that the probability of being shut up in Constance for several weeks or months, even though they might be safe, somewhat alarmed them. But when I put to our American delegates the point that here was a great opportunity of history to show the world that instead of silencing us, the nations going to war would only make us holdier, and that if they were going to fight we were going to talk peace all the more earnestly; that this would be a spectacle which neither our own nation nor Europe would ever forget, almost with one voice they voted to go on with the conference. The English and other delegates took the same brave attitude, and the first session of the Conference to take up the regular business was set for that afternoon at four o'clock. The significant events of this second remarkable gathering will be rehearsed in the next chapter. FRIDERICK LYNCH.
