Rev. E. E. Gates preaches this Lord's Day.

Pastor Jenner's reply to the Church will be read at the Wednesday Evening Meeting.

THE SUNDAY SCHOOL.—The Superintendent was pleased with the hearty response for Teachers. He would be delighted if the number were doubled to day. Come up and see the school anyway.

"LEST WE FORGET," read the fourth page and act to-day. A generous response from ALL is needed.

The Halifax County Convention held in this Church on Tuesday last, was fairly attended. The Tea served by our ladies was a delightful occasion, and thanks were tendered heartily. Many helpful suggestions were given by Messrs. Muirhead and Sandford on Sunday School work.

BLOOMFIELD MISSION.—Rev. E. E. Gates gave an inspiring address last Tuesday Evening at the Mission; a large number attended. The spiritual life of the Mission has been excellent, and services are continued Tuesday, Thursday, and Sunday evenings. The classes in the Sunday School are large, grand, and good work, is being done by the teachers. The Committee having the oversight of the work are greatly encouraged. If possible, go up and give a word of cheer.
