The images appearing here are the best quality possible considering the condition and legibility of the original copy and in keeping with the filming contract specifications.

Original copies in printed paper covers are filmed beginning with the front cover and ending on the last page with a printed or illustrated impression, or the back cover when appropriate. All other original copies are filmed beginning on the first page with a printed or illustrated impression, and ending on the last page with a printed or illustrated impression.

The last recorded frame on each microfiche shall contain the symbol  $\rightarrow$  (meaning "CONTINUED"), or the symbol  $\nabla$  (meaning "END"), whichever applies.

Maps, plates, charts, etc., may be filmed at different reduction ratios. Those too large to be entirely included in one exposure are filmed beginning in the upper left hand corner, left to right and top to bottom, as many frames as required. The following diagrams illustrate the method:

Les images suivantes ont été reproduites avec le plus grand soin, compte tenu de la condition et de la netteté de l'exemplaire filmé, et en conformité avec les conditions du contrat de filmage.

Les exemplaires originaux dont la couverture en papier est imprimée sont filmés en commençant par le premier plat et en terminant soit par la dernière page qui comporte une empreinte d'impression ou d'illustration, soit par le second plat, selon le cas. Tous les autres exemplaires originaux sont filmés en commençant par la première page qui comporte une empreinte d'impression ou d'illustration et en terminant par la dernière page qui comporte une telle empreinte.

Un des symboles suivants apparaîtra sur la dernière image de chaque microfiche, selon le cas: le symbole  $\rightarrow$  signifie "A SUIVRE", le symbole  $\nabla$  signifie "FIN".

Les cartes, planches, tableaux, etc., peuvent être filmés à des taux de réduction différents. Lorsque le document est trop grand pour être reproduit en un seul cliché, il est filmé à partir de l'angle supérieur gauche, de gauche à droite, et de haut en bas, en prenant le nombre d'images nécessaire. Phrase * with more direct and pertinent self Application, than we can do. The subject of the following Book affords us the most special Instance hereof; Namely, that altho' our Merciful and Gracious God did in a wonderful manner, cast out the Heathen before our Fathers, and Planted them; prepared also a room before them, and caused them to take deep root, and to fill the Land; So that the Vine hath sent out her Boughs unto the Sea, and her Branches upon the River; Yet to humbly and prove us, and for our Sins to punish us, the Righteous God hath left a sufficient Number of the fierce and barbarous Salvages on our borders, to be pricks in our Eyes, and thorns in our sides, and they have been and are like the Boar of the Woods to waste us, and the wild Beasts of the field to devour us.

Wherefore, on Principles both humane and religious, I gladly introduce the following Memoirs to the publick view, with my hearty thanks to the Honourable Author for the great pains he has taken (among other his publick Services) to transmit these Particulars of the two last Wars with the Indian Enemy down to Posterity, That the Generation to come might know them, and set their hope in God, and not forget his Works, but keep his Commandments.

The Reader must not expect much Entertainment or Curiosity in the story of a barbarous War with cruel and perfidious Salvages: It is the benefit of Posterity, in a religious Improvement of this dry and bloody Story, that we aim at, in preserving some Remembrance thereof; And that in times to come, when we are dead and forgotten, Materials may remain for a continued & entire History of our Country: And we hope that they who come after us will take the like Case in their Times for the Children which shall be born.

Let it suffice in praise of the Narrative, if the Facts related be true and exact, and that the Style be familiar, plain and easy, as all Historical Memoirs should be writ. As to the Truth of it, none (I suppose) will have any doubts to whom the Author is known; and to whom among us it is not known? Or by whom among the lovers of the Country it is not esteemed for his affectionate regards unto the religious and civil Liberties of it?

The Reverend Dr. Mather wrote the Remarkables of the Eastern War before this, from the year 1688. unto the year 1698. ten years, wherefore he called his Book, Decennium Luctuosum. This Book may claim the like Title, for the first War here related, from August the 10th 1702. to the 12th of July 1713. did also continue just ten years.

To these ten years of Trouble and Distress the Author has added an Account of another but shorter War of three years, from July 25. 1722. to December 15. 1725. When the Salvages by their Delegates renewed their Submission, and signed Articles of Peace in the Council-Chamber in Boston; for the lasting effects whereof we are humbly waiting on a Gracious GOD with our earnest Prayers. And we owe abundant Praises to his Holy Name for the great Successes, with which he has been pleased to crown the Counsels and Arms of the Province in this last short War; to the humbling the insolent Enemy and bringing them so soon to sue for the Peace which they had broken. Not unto us, O LORD! not to us; but to thy Name give Glory; for thy Mercy and for thy Truth sake!

In

In a special manner, the wonderful Victory obtained August 12. 1724. over the bold and Bloody Tribe at Narridgwalk, and their sudden Destruction that Memorable Day, was the singular Work of GOD; And the Officers and Soldiers piously put far from themselves the Honour of it. The plain hand of Providence and not their own Conduct facilitated and quickned their March. God sent 'em timely Information where the Indians had plac'd their Guards upon the River, that they might shun them, and so come upon the Town undiscovered. God brought them on it in a right time, when the fighting Men were just come in from abroad, and the next day (we are told) they were to have come down on our Frontiers. They were surpris'd in the height of security, and so amaz'd that they could not find their hands when they would have escaped. This Destruction of the Enemy was with the loss of only one life, and two wounded, on our part. And he who was the Father of the War, the Ghostly Father of these perfidious Salvages, like Balaam the Son of Beor, was slain among the Enemy, after his vain Endeavours to Curse us.

May those singular Favours of GOD have their saving Effects on us! and his goodness to us in the present fruits of Peace which we are about to reap lead us to Repentance, bind us to Obedience, raise us in Devotion, and endear his blessed Name and Truths and Ways to us. Amen.

The Introduction.

THE keeping a Register of Memorable Occurrences, as it has been the practice of former Ages, so it ought to be continued for the advantage of Posterity: And in as much as the Divine Providence has plac'd me near the Seat of Action, where I have had greater Opportunities than many others of remarking the Cruelty and Perfidy of the Indian Enemy, I thought it my Duty to keep a Record thereof. Not that at first I design'd to make these Memoirs publick but now am perswaded to it by some whose Judgment I pay a deference unto. In the collecting them, I have us'd all faithfulness; and have been assisted therein not only from the Abstracts of Original Letters, but from Persons of the best Credit and Reputation, and yet doubtless some small Occurrences may have slip't my knowledge.

I might with Orosius very justly entitle this History De miseria hominum, being no other then a Narrative of Tragical Incurfions perpetrated by Bloody Pagans, who are Monsters of such Cruelty, that the words of Virgil may not unaptly be apply'd to them.

*Tristis haud illis monstrum, nec Scior ulla

Who are as implacable in their Revenge, as they are terrible in the Execution of it; and will convey it down to the third and fourth Generation. No Courtesy will ever oblige them to gratitude; for their greatest Benefactors have frequently fall'n as Victims to their Fury.

them repeated. God has made them a terrible Scourge for the punishment of our Sins. And probably that very Sin of ours in neglecting the welfare of their Souls. For we have not expressed the like laudable Care for them, as hath been done in the Southern and Western parts of the Country. But indeed we have rather aimed to advance a private Trade, then to instruct them in the Principles of true Religion. This brings to my remembrance a remarkable saying of one of their Chief Sachems, whom (a little before the Warbroke out) I asked, Wherefore it was they were so much bigoted to the French? Considering their Traffick with them was not so advantageous as with the English. He gravely reply'd, That the Friars taught them to Pray, but the English never did.

And it is also remarkably observable that among all the Settlements and Towns of Figure and Distinction, not one of them have been utterly destroy'd where ever a Church was gathered.

But if the Eastern parts have been remiss, this should no ways detract from the praise of that incomparable zeal of the Venerable Mr. Elliot, and the indefatigable Pains which the renowned Mr. Mayhew, and others, have exercised in the Instruction and Conversion of the Natives in their parts: wherein they were so far Successful (thro' the Blessing of God) as to form many Churches of Baptiz'd Indians; and so gather many Assemblies of Catechumens, that profess the Name of Christ; which remain to this day the Fruit and Reward of their Labours, will bespeak their Praise to future Ages, and the Thanksgiving of many to GOD.

HISTORY
Of the Wars of New-England, &c.

It is storied of Tissaphernes, That so soon as he entred into a League with Agessilane King of Sparta, he studied means whereby to infringe and violate the same: Upon which Agessilane sent his Ambassadors unto him to return him Thanks, that by so doing he had made the Gods his Enemies.
Now considering the League that has been solemnized with the Indians, together with their Cruelty and Treachery so notoriously perpetrated, it's no wonder if in the sequel of this History, we find them under some signal Remark of the Divine Displeasure.

NOT

NOT that I am unsensible that many have stigmatiz'd the English as chiefly culpable in causing the first Breach between them and us; by invading their Properties, and defrauding them in their Dealings: But to censure the Publick for the sinister Actions of a few private Persons, is utterly repugnant to Reason and Equity. Especially considering the great Care that the Legislative Power had taken to protect the Natives, and their Interests.

WHAT hath formerly occur'd of this kind is none of my business to discant upon here; but as to the Infraction which I am about to make mention of, I never yet heard the least Word in their favour, but all sorts of Persons do condemn their Perfidy.

AT the arrival of Governour Dudley in the Year 1702. the whole Body of Indians was in a tolerable good Frame and Temper; but being animated by the French, they soon began to threaten and insult the English: Upon which in the succeeding Year June the 20th. a Congress was appointed at Casco, where the Chiefs of the several Tribes met, viz. Mauxu, and Hopehood from Navidgerwalk, Wanungunt, & Wanadugunbuent from Penobscot, Whitanamunton, Adiwando and Hegen from Pennecook, and Pigwacket.

Mesambomett, and Wexar, from Amascooty, with about 250 Men in 65 Canoes, well arm'd, and mostly painted with variety of Colours, which seemingly were affable and kind, and yet in some Instances gave cause of jealousy.

and Gentlemen who accompanied him, together with the Sagamores; His Excellency very kindly saluted them, saying, "That as he was Com-
"missionated by the Great and Victorious Queen "of England, he came to visit them as his Friends "and Brethren, and to reconcile whatever Dif-

AT this they made a pause, but after a short Intermission Captain Simmo, who was their Ora-

"his Favour in giving them a Visit at such a "juncture, with so many of the Council and Gen"tlemen of both Provinces; assuring him, that "they aimed at nothing more than Peace; and "that as high as the Sun was above the Earth, "so far distant should their Designs be of mak-

"as a Testimony thesEOF they presented him a "Belt of Wampam, and invited him to the Two "Pillars of Stones, which at a former Treaty were "erected, and called by the significant Name of "the TWO BROTHERS; unto which both Par"ties went, and added a greater Number of Stones.

THIS Ceremony being performed, several Volleys were discharged on each side; and the Indians added their usual dancing, singing, and loud acclamations of Joy. Trading-houses in several places were hereupon engaged; and that the Price of Commodities should be stated, and an Armourer fixed at the publick Charge: Many Presents were also made them, which they kindly received; so that every thing lookt with a promising Aspect of a settled Peace: And that which afterward seem'd to confirm it, was the coming in of Captain Bomaseen, and Captain Samuel, who informed, that several Missionaries from the Fryars were lately come among them, who endeavoured to break the Union, and seduce them from their Allegiance to the Crown of England; but had made no Impression on them, for that they were as firm as the Mountains, and should continue so, as long as the Sun and Moon endured.

1782 THE Eastern Inhabitants, who before had thoughts of removing, were now encouraged to stand their Ground; several more were also preparing to settle among them, partly from the fertility of the Soil, the plenty of Timber, the advantage of Fishery, and several other Inducements. But I should have taken notice of two Instances in the late Treaty, wherein the matchless Perfidy of these bloody Infidels did notoriously appear. 1st. As the Treaty was concluded with Volleys on both sides, as I said before, the Indians desired the English to fire first, which they readily did, concluding it no other but a Complement; but so soon as the Indians fired, it was observ'd that their Guns were charg'd with Bullets; having contrived (as was afterwards confirm'd) to make the English the Victims of that Day. But Providence so order'd it, as to place their chief Counsellours and Sachems in the Tent where ours were seated, by which means they could not destroy one without endangering the other! 2. As the English waited some Days for Watanummon (the Pigwacket Sachem) to complete their Council, it was afterward discovered, that they only carried for a Reinforcement of 200 French and Indians, who in three Days after we returned returned came among them; having resolved to seize the Governour, Council and Gentlemen, and then to Sacrifice the Inhabitants at pleasure; which probably they might have done, had they not been prevented by an overruling Power.

But notwithstanding this Disappointment, they were still resolved on their bloody Design: For within six Weeks after the whole Eastern Country was in a Conflagration, no House standing, nor Garrison unattackt. August 10th at nine in the Morning they began their bloody Tragedy, being about five hundred Indians of all Sorts, with a number of French; who divided themselves into several Companies, and made a Descent on the several Inhabitants from Casco to Wells at one and the same time, sparing none of every Age or Sex.

AS the milk white Brows of the Grave and Ancient had no respect shown; so neither had the mournful cries of tender Infants the least pity; for they triumph'd at their Misery, and applauded such as the skillfullest Artists, who were most dexterous in contriving the greatest Tortures; which was enough to turn the most Stoical Apathic into Streams of mournful Sympathy and Compassion.

THE Town of Wells, which valiantly stood its Ground both in the former and latter War, suffered now great Spoil, nor could escape without the loss of 39 that were kill'd and taken.

Cape-Perross being inhabited only by a few Fishermen, was wholly laid desolate. But the Garrison at Winter-Harbour defended itself with much Bravery; yet it was at last overpowered by by Force, and then submitted on Terms

Saco-Fort was also attackt by the Enemy with great Fury; they kill'd eleven, and carried twenty four Captive.

Spurwink, which was principally inhabited by the Jordans, had no less than twenty two of that Family kill'd and taken.

THOSE at Scarborough were mostly in Garrison, whom the Indians not willing to encounter, sent a Captive before with a Flag of Truce; but the Officer being acquainted with their Intreagues, slighted the Message, secured the Captive, and made a vigorous Defence. However, by a long Siege they were so reduced, that had not Recruits been sent them, they had utterly been overthrowen.

Perpooduck was of all places (for number) the greatest sufferers, being but nine Families, and no Garrison to retire unto; neither any Men at home, where they took eight, and inhumanly burchered twenty five; among whom was the Wife of Michael Webber, who being big with Child, they knockt her on the head, and ripe open her Womb, cutting one part of the Child out; a Spectacle of horrid Barbarity.

Casco, which was the utmost Frontier, commanded by Major March, who was all this while unsensible of the Spoil that the Indians had done, was saluted by Mausen, Wanungonet, and Assacombuit, three of their most valiant and puissant Sachems. They gradually advanced with a Flag of Truce, and sent one before them to signify that they had matter of moment to impart to him.

him. At first he slighted the Message, but on second Thoughts went out to meet them; they seeming to him but few in number, and unarmed: However he ordered two or three Sentinels to be ready in case of Danger. Their Voice to him at first seem'd like the Voice of Jacob, but their Hands were like the Hands of Esau: With their Tongues they used deceit, and the Poison of Asps was under their Lips. For no sooner had they saluted him, but with Hatchets under their Mantles they violently assaulted him; having a number that lay in Ambush near them, who shot down one of his Guards: But being a Person of uncommon Strength, as well as Courage, he soon wrested a Hatchet from one of them, with which he did good Execution: Yet if Sergeant Hook (with a file of Ten from the Fort) had not speedily succoured him, they would soon have overpowered him. Mr. Phippeny and Mr. Kent, who accompanied him, were attackt by others, and soon fell by their Fury; for being advanced in Years, they were so infirm, that I might say of them as Juvenal did of Priam, They had scarce Blood enough left to tinge the Knife of the Sacrifice.

THE Enemy being defeated in this their Design, fell upon the several Cottages which lay round, and destroyed all they could. But the Major on rallying his Men together, seeing nothing but Fire and Smoak, divided them into three parts, which were twelve in each, and interchanged them every two Hours, who thus continued six Days and Nights without the least Intermision; by which time the whole Body of Indians came together, being upwards of five hundred, besides French commanded by Monsieur Bobasser, who had ransackt and laid wast the several Settlements before-mentioned; and being flush with Success, having taken one Sloop, two Shallops, and much Plunder, attempted to undermine the Fort from the Water side, in which they proceeded two Days and Nights, and probably would have effected their Design, if they had not been prevented by the arrival of Capt. Southack, who raised the siege, retook the Shallop, and shattered their Navy, which was upward of 200 Cannoos.

ON Tuesday after Capt. Tom, with thirty Indians, made a descent on Hampton Village; where they slew four, besides the Widow Mussey, who was a remarkable speaking Quaker, and much lamented by that Sect. They also rifled two Houses near the Garrison, but fearing a pursuit, drew off; it being generally observed, that they seldom annoy but by surprize.

BY this time Capt. Summersby was ordered with his Troop to Portsmouth, and Capt. Wadley to Wells with the like Company of Dragoons; many concluding that the Eastern parts would be the seat of Action; and yet a few Days after, Advice was brought from Deerfield, (as a forerunner of some greater Evil) of two Men taken and carried to Canad; which so alarm'd the Country, to see the Frontiers insulted two hundred Miles in length, that on September 26th. the Governour ordered 360 Men to Pigwacket, one of their principal Head-quarters: But thro' the difficulty of the Passage, and unskilfulness of the Guides, Capt. Davis at the same time had the like misfortune, who went to the Ponds; but it seem'd the Enemy went Eastward: For on the 6th. of October, Capt. Hannuell with nineteen Men, as they were going to work in their Meadows at Black-point, were way-laid by two hundred Indians, who at one stroke kill'd and took the whole body Excepting one, who like Job's Messenger was preserved to give the Melancholy Account thereof. Upon this they attack'd the Fort, where only Eight Men were left under the Command of Lieu. Wyat, who by the encouragement of Capt. Willard, and Capt. Wells, that were there in two Sloops stood their Ground some time, but being afterward dispirited they went on board Capt. Wells, and the Enemy set the deserted Garrison on fire.

Another Company of Indians commanded by Sampson fell on York, where they slew Abitur Brandon's Wife and five Children, carrying Captive with them the Widow Parsons and her Daughter.

The former attempt on Pigwacket proving unsuccessful, Collonel March went a second time with the like number of Men, where he kill'd six Indians and took as many more with some plunder, which was the first Reprisal that we made; but the Enemy dispersing into small parties, did much more mischief then in larger; which put the Country into a far greater Confusion, in somuch that there was no safety to him that went out, nor unto him that came in, but dreadful Calamity on every side.

At Berwick they ambushed five, and as the Store Ship was entering Casco, they entertained them so unexpectedly with a Volley of Shot, that the Master with three more were Slain, and two in the Boat wounded.

The General Assembly being sensibly affected with the state of matters, and dispos'd to a Vigorous prosecution of the War, enacted, That Forty Pounds, should be given for every Indian Scalp, which prompted some, and animated others to a noble Emulation: Capt. Ting was the first that embraced the tender, who in the depth of Winter, went to their head quarters, and got five, for which he received two hundred Pounds. Major Hilton also with five Companies more made the like Essay, and so did Capt. Stephens, but returned with no other Lawrel than the safety of themselves and Company.

The Enemy went on daring and successful. They frequently followed the tracks of our Men in their Marches: At Berwick they kill'd one, wounded another, and burnt two Houses. After that they made a descent on Andrew Neals Garrison, where they were vigorously repuls'd by Capt. Brown, who kill'd nine on the spot and wounded many more, which so enraged those Wretches, that at their return they executed their revenge on Joseph Ring who was then a Captive among them, whom they fastned to a Stake and burnt alive; barbarously shouting and rejoicing at his cries.

The Houſwife, perceiving the Miſery that was attending her, and having boiling Soap on the Fire, ſcalded one of them to Death. The Sentinel within was ſlain, and ſhe with ſeveral others were taken; which was the ſecond time of her Captivity. But that which heightened her Affliction was being with Child, and yet oblig'd to travel in a deep Snow, under a heavy Burden, and many Days together without Subſiſtance, excepting a few bits of Skin, Ground-nuts, Bark of Trees, wild Onions, and Lilly-Roots. Nevertheleſs ſhe was wonderfully ſupported, and at laſt ſafely delivered; but the Babe ſoon periſh'd for want of Nouriſhment, and by the Cruelty of the Indians, who as it cry'd, threw hot Embers in its Mouth. After a Years Bondage ſhe was ſold to the French for eighty Livers, and then redeemed by her Husband.

THE Uſe of Snow-ſhoes appearing very requiſite for marching in the Winter Season, occaſion'd an Act in both Provinces for ſupplying the Frontiers therewith: And this Season, which before was dreaded as moſt hazardous, was now the time of greateſt ſafety, and of leſs difficulty in travelling.

BUT the Southern Parts not thinking themſelves in ſo much Danger, did in a little time become ſecure, which the Enemy taking notice of, fell on Deerfield, of which the Reverend Mr. Stoddard gave me the following Account. That Colonel Schuyler, who was always a kind and faithful Intelligencer, gave timely warning thereof, which awaken'd ſome, but was ſlighted by others:

others; However, Mr. Williams, the worthy Pastor of that Place, was strongly possess'd that the Town would in a little time be destroyed; signifying as much in his publick Ministry, and private Conference; and could not be satisfied till he had got twenty Soldiers to be posted there. A few Nights before the Assault was, they were strangely amus'd, by a trampling Noise round the Fort, as if it were beset by Indians. Towards Morning, being February 29th, the Enemy sent Scouts to discover the posture of the Town, who observing the Watch walking in the Streets, returned and put them to a stand. A while after they sent again, and were advis'd, that all was then still and quiet: Upon which, two hours before Day, they attacke the Fort, and by the advantage of some drifts of Snow, got over the Walls. The whole Body was above two hundred and fifty, under the Command of Monsieur Arteil, who found the People fast asleep and easily secured them. The most considerable part of the Town thus fell into their Hands. They left no Garrison unattackt, excepting that of Capt. Wells; But at Benoni Stebbins's they met with some repulse, and lost severall. Sixty of the English fell, whereof many were stifted in a Celler; and a hundred were taken Captive, who with a melancholly Countenance condoled each other's Misery, yet durst not express the Anguish of their Souls. That Day and Night were spent in plundering, burning and destroying. The next Morning they withdrew into the Woods, carrying with them their Plunder and Captives; among whom was the Reverend Mr. Williams, (before mentioned) whose Sufferings, with his Neighbours, through a deep Snow, over mountainous Desarts, were exceeding great; besides many Trials and Fears which they laboured under.

The Country being alarm'd, several hastned to their Relief; about thirty of those which first came, charged the Enemy in the rear, and being strengthened with a further Supply, pursued them with good Success; but the Enemy returning, and being much superiour in Number, kill'd nine of ours in the Skirmish.

The Day after there was a considerable Concurrence from the lower Towns, as well as from the County of Hertford, but for want of Snow-shoes, were unable to pursue them. Some of our Captives then in Canada, knowing the Enterprize that was on Foot, sent several Letters unto their Friends, which the Enemy did carefully put into a Bag, and hung it upon the limb of a Tree in the high-way; which Letters were afterwards found, and gave Satisfaction of those that were then alive among them.

While the Indians by Land were every way distressing of us, the French by Sea were as industrious to impoverish us.

April 7th. 1704. they fitted out a Privateer Shallop with twenty seven Men, to intercept our Southern Trade as they came laden with Provisions; which if they had succeeded in, would not only have supplied their own indigent Forces, but the Indians also; (who were then forming a desperate Design against us) But thro' the favour of God to us, they were cast away on Plimouth Shore.

Shore. A like signal Favour to us was the taking a Store-Ship of theirs (by our Virginia Fleet) of Forty Guns, bound to Canada, in which were twenty Officers, two thousand small Arms, with Ammunition answerable; besides a vast number of Crucifixes, and Presents of a greater value for encouraging the Indians in acts of Hostility against the English. In the Engagement their General was slain, the only Man that fell in Battle, by whose Interest those Stores were procured; which loss was so affecting, that (as some of our Captives afterwards reported) it caused a deep Humiliation throughout Canada a considerable time after.

As the Spring advanced, it was thought necessary to guard the Frontiers with fresh Troops, upon which Major Mason with ninety five of the Pequod, and Mobegán Indians were posted at Berwick, who at first were very terrifying to the Enemy. Yet frequent assaults were afterwards made at a little Distance, as on April 25th. Nathanial Meador was shot while at work in his Field. They mangled his dead Corps after a barbarous manner. Next day they kill'd Edward Taylor near Lampreck River, and after that took his Wife and Son whom they carried to Canada, and she was afterwards redeemed. From thence they went to Cocbecbo, expecting to have made Mr. Waldron the Victim of that Day; but being happily from home, they miss'd their aim. However they surpriz'd a Servant of his, as she went to the Well for Water, whom (after they had examined concerning her Master, the State of the Garrison, and other Affairs) they knockt on the head, but but the Stroke not proving fatal, she afterwards recovered.

After this several were assaulted in the Road to Wells, whereof two were kill'd, one taken, and another made his Escape.

May 13th. an Express came from Norsh Hampton, advising, that about break of Day a Company of French and Indians, fell on a fortified House at Pascomuck, where no watch being kept, the People were alarm'd in their beds by the noise of the Enemy's rushing on the house; and before the Inhabitants could rise, the Indians had got their Guns thro' the Port-boles, and shot those that first appeared, killing some and wounding others. The surprized People made what resistance they could, firing briskly on the Enemy; but the house being soon set on fire, they were forc'd to yield themselves Prisoners. The Enemy soon drew off, but fearing a pursuit, dismiss one of the wounded, with this Caution, that if the Englishe followed them they would Slay the Prisoners, but the unfortunate Messenger in returning back was Slain by another Indian. On the same Morning another Party attacked a Farm house two Miles off, but the fury of the Dogs so alarm'd the Inhabitants, that they instantly got up and fired several Guns to very good advantage, which prevented any further attempt. As for those at Pascomuck they were immediatly pursued, three made an Escape, eight were rescued, nineteen slain, & three carryed to Canada. Next day Major Whiting, pursued them with a number of Horses, and came upon their Track, but the Ways were so impassible, that they sent their Horses back with to resolve to follow them on Foot, but some proving lame, and others tiring, caused the rest to desist. I would here remark, that a little before the Troubles at Pascomuck, and the Farm-house before mentioned, the People at Springfield heard a great shooting; Unto some it seem'd to be at Westfield, to others at a Village, and to some again in the Woods; so that many hastned to their assistance; but when they came all was still and quiet, the reason whereof is hard to assign, and yet we have repeated instances in History of the like nature.

Under all those Sufferings from a cruel Enemy little or no impression could ever be made by us upon them, by reason of their retiring into un-accessible Swamps, and Mountains. Wherefore it was determined, that Major Church, who was so eminently Serviceable in the former War, should visit their head quarters, according to a Scheme which he had projected.

No sooner was his Commission granted, but he rais'd a considerable number of Volunteers out of Plymouth Colony both of English and friend Indians, and marched to Nantasket for further Instructions; where the following Gentlemen were appointed Officers under him. viz. Colonel Gorham, Major Hilton, Capt. John Brown, Conant, de Edward Church, Cole, Dyer, Lamb, Cook, Harroden, Williamson, and Myrick; with five hundred and sixty Men in fourteen Transports, and with thirty six Whaleboats, which were guarded by Capt. Smith, Rogers, and Southack, in three ships of War. After they were equip'd, they sail'd to Pisestaqua, to make up their Compliment from thence. May 19th.

175th they sail'd Eastward, visiting all parts as they went along, till they came to the Green Islands, where they took Monsieur Lafebure, and his two Sons with a Canada Indian, whom they examined apart: The Father at first seem'd Surly and Crooked, and the young Men were much of the like Temper, but being told what they must trust unto in case they did not confess, were afterwards Submissive, and promis'd to Pilot them where ever they were directed. Upon this the Transports and Whaleboats were ordered to be in a readiness, and every Man to have a weeks Provision; From hence they paddled to Penobscot, and with the assistance of one D'Young, whom they bro't out from Boston Goal on purpose for a Pilot, kill'd and took a considerable number both of French and Indians, among whom was St. Casten's Daughter. From thence they went to Passamaqua-da, and Mount Desart, where they met the three Ships of War according to Appointment. Their Custom was to rest in the Day, and row in the Night; and never to fire at an Indian if they could reach him with a Hatchet, for fear of alarming them. Here they seiz'd the Old Lotriell and his Family, after that Mounsier Gurden, and Sharkee, who a little before came with a Comission from Canada to form an Expedition against the English.
 No sooner had our Forces arrived here; but Orders were sent them from Boston, forthwith to Sail to Port-Royal, expecting some store Ships from France, which was welcome News for Officers & Soldiers. But they miss'd of their Expectations: However the Ships stood off the Harbour while the Land Forces went to Mena, where a Coun-all of War was held, and Lievt. Giles was sent to the Town with a Flag of Truce and Summons to Surrender; Their Answer was, "That if our forces would not hurt their Estates they would Surrender, otherwise were resolved to stand their ground." Upon which a descent was made upon them that Night, but little effected until the Morning, and then the Forces drew up and drove all before them.

There was at this time a considerable plenty of Brandy, and Clarret in their Houses, which rather proved a snare than service to our Men; Especially the Indians, who naturally affect strong Drink, but this was soon prevented, by breaking in the heads of the Casks. Lieutenant Baker and one more were kill'd in this Attack, and not above six died in the whole Expedition. Most of their Houses were burnt, and much Plunder taken, but with as little Effusion of Blood as possibly could be. The General ordered their Damns to be dug down, and their Fortifications to be laid in Ashes. Having as great success as reasonably could be expected, thro' out all the Territorys of L' Acadie, and Nova Scotia, where he took a hundred Prisoners, burnt and laid waste all the French Settlements, (except the Town of Port-Royal) a great many Cattle were also kill'd, and the Indians driven into such Confusion, that they left their Wigwams and retired into private Cells.

ON July 4th. a Council of War was call'd to concert what next to do, who resolved, that as the Fort was alarm'd, the Enemy was more numerous than at first; and that as many of our Men were

But notwithstanding the Fatigue that this worthy Gentleman had undergone, and the Dangers he had run; the Spoil he had done, and the Victories he wan, yet he could not escape the Censures of many. Some indeed extol'd his Valour and Conduct even to an Hyperbole, while others endeavoured to lessen it with as much Disgrace and Infamy, Some thought he did too much, others too little: But after one and another had pass'd their Sentiments, the General Assembly (which was then sitting) voted him Thanks for the good Services he did both to the Queen and Country.

The Governour of Port-Royal being in fear of a new Enterprize, sent Lewis Allin as a Spy, under the Colour of a Flag of Truce, with six Prisoners, (whereof Mr. Hoddy of Piscataqua was one) to observe and know the Motion of the English. But being suspected, he was apprehended and searcht, and in his Pocket-book was found this Direction; That if any Enterprize was on foot, he should (in his Advice-book) joyn L. A. the two first Letters of his Name, close together; if it was only in Agitation, to place them at some Distance; but if nothing was in Motion, then to sign a Cross.

While our Forces were engaged in visiting the Enemy abroad, great care was taken of covering the Frontiers at home; and yet very daring Assaults were frequently made by small numbers. At Oyster-River they wounded William Tinker, and at Dover they way-laid the Inhabitants as they returned from publick Worship: After that they kill'd kill'd a Lad near Casco Fort. About the same time some of the Enemy were Fishing up Connecticut River, and being trackt by a small Scout of our Volunteers, one Englishman and five Mohagen Indians, they pursued them to such advantage, that they slew the whole Company, save one, which were nine in number. Mr. Caleb Lyman, (now Elder of a Church in Boston) was Leader in this hardy Action, and has favoured us with the following Account of it.

Mr. Caleb Lyman's Account of Eight Enemy Indians kill'd by himself, and five Friend Indians;

SOME time in the Month of May, 1704. there came Intelligence from Albany, of a number of Enemy Indians up Connecticut River, who had built a Fort, and planted Corn, at a place called Cowassuck. On the fifth of June following, we set out (by order of Authority) from Northampton, and went nine Days Journey into the Wilderness, (thro' much Difficulty, by reason of the Enemy's Hunting and Scouting in the Woods, as we perceived by their Tracks and Firing) and then came across some fresh Tracks, which we followed till we came in sight of the abovesaid River: Supposing there might be a Number of Indians at hand; we being not far from the place where the Fort was said to be built. Here we made a Halt; to consult what Methods to take; and soon concluded to send out a Spy, with Green Leaves for a Cap and Vest, to prevent his own Discovery, and to find out the Enemy.  ing came on, we mov'd towards the River, and soon perceived a Smoke, at about half a Miles distance, as we tho't; where we (afterwards) found they had taken up their Lodging. But so great was the Difficulty, that (tho' we used our utmost Care and Diligence in it) we were not able to make the approach till about Two a Clock in the Morning, when we came within Twelve Rods of the Wigwam, where they lay. But here we met with a new Difficulty, which we fear'd would have ruin'd the whole Design: For the Ground was so covered over with dry Sticks and Brush, for the space of five Rods, that we cou'd not pass, without making such a Crackling, as we tho't would alarm the Enemy, and give them Time to escape. But while we were contriving to compass our Design, God in his good Providence so ordered, that a very small Cloud arose, which gave a smart Clap of Thunder, and a sudden Shower of Rain. And this Opportunity we embraced, to run thorow the Thicket; and so came undiscovered within sight of the Wigwam; and perceived by their Noise, that the Enemy were awake. But however, being unwilling to lose any Time, we crept on our Hands and Knees till we were within three or four Rods of

them. Then we arose, and ran to the side of the Wigwam, and fired in upon them: And flinging down our Guns, we surrounded them with our Clubs and Hatchets, and knockt down several we met with. But after all our Diligence, Two of their Number made their escape from us: One mortally wounded; and the other not hurt; as we afterwards heard.

When we came to look over the slain, we found seven dead upon the spot: Six of whom we scalpt, and left the other unscalpt. (Our Indians saying, They would give one to the Country, since we had each of us one; and so concluded we should all be rich eno). When the Action was thus over, we took our Scalps and Plunder; such as Guns, Skins, &c. and the Enemies Canoes; in which we came down the River about twelve Miles, by break of Day; and then tho't it Prudence to dismiss and break the Canoes; knowing there were some of the Enemy betwixt us and Home.

And now all our Care being, how to make a safe and comfortable Return, we first lookt over our Provision, and found we had not more than eno' for one small Refreshment; and being above one hundred Miles from any English Settlement, we were very tho'tful how we shou'd subsist by the way. For having trackt about Thirty of the Enemy a little before us, we could not hunt for our Subsistence, for fear of Discovery: And so were obliged to eat Buds of Trees, Grass, & Strawberry Leaves, for the space of four or five Days, til, thro' the goodness of God, we safely arriv'd at Northampton, on the 19th or 20th of the aforesaid said June. And some time after (upon our humble Petition to the Great and General Court, to consider the Service we had done) we received Thirty one Pounds Reward. And I have only this to observe, that in Consequence of this Action, the Enemy were generally alarm'd, and immediately forsook their Fort and Corn at Cowassuck, and never return'd to this Day, that we cou'd hear of, to renew their Settlement in that place.

I beg the Country's leave to observe, How poorly this bold Action, and great Service was rewarded: No doubt they looked for, and well deserved, eight times as much; and now the Province would readily pay eight hundred pounds in the like Case: But a gracious God has recompensed to the Elder, I trust, both in the Blessings of his Providence and Grace.

The French in Canada were now forming another design on North Hampton, of which we had Seasonable Advice; Yet two Men were kill'd going to Deerfield. After that came in a French deserter, who inform'd of the State of the Army that was then coming: Upon this, Expresses & Scouts were every way sent to observe their Motion; Major Whiting with a considerable Number went to the Ponds, where he expected to give them Battle, but they were gone from thence, leaving their Cannoes behind, which he burnt. Their whole Body were seven hundred, with two Fryers, under the Command of Monsieur Biscore, who in their March began to Murther about the Plunder, which they had in View & expected to be master off: Forgetting the Proverb about dividing the Skin before the Bear was kill'd. Their Dissention at last was so great, that upwards of two hundred return'd in discontent. However the rest came on, and sent Scouts before to observe the Posture of the English, who reported, that they were as thick as the Trees in the Woods. Upon which their Spirits fail'd, & more of their number deser'ed. They then call'd a Council of War, who resolv'd to desist from the Enterprize. Yet some staid, and afterwards fell on Lancaster, and Groton, where they did some Spoil, but not what they expected, for that these Towns were seasonably strengthened.

Capt. Ting and Capt. How entertained a warm dispute with them for some time, but being much inferiour in Number, were forced to retreat with some loss; yet those that were Slain of the Enemy, were more then those of ours. One of them was an Officer of some Distinction, which so Exasperated their Spirits, that in revenge they fired the Meeting House, kill'd several Cattle, and burnt many Out-houses. About the same time Capt. Allen from Westfield discovered a small Partic with whom he had a Skirmish, and lost one Man, but kill'd three, and rescued a Captive. After this, between Hadley and Quabang, we had one wounded and another Slain. By this time came Major Taylor with his Troop, ( who always distinguish't himself of an active Spirit to serve his Country ) Capt. Prescott, Buckley, and Willard with their Companies, who were so vigorous and intense in pursuing the Enemy, that they put them all to flight. And yet a little while after they fell on Groton, and Nashaway, where they kill'd kill'd Lieut. Wylor, and several more. It was not then known how many of the Enemy were slain, it being customary among them to carry off their Dead: However, it was afterward affirm'd, that they lost sixteen besides several that were wounded. After this they divided into smaller Parties, and did much Mischief, as at Aimsbury, Howarth, and Exeter. August 11th. they wounded Mark Giles of Dover, (with his Son) who thro' anguish of Pain, and much effusion of Blood, expired a few days after. At the same time another Party fell on York, where they slew Matthew Austin near the Garrison, and then went to Oyster River, where they kill'd several while at Work in their Field.

The five Nations of Indians which are called by the Name of the Onondages, Cayonges, Senecas, and Adaquans, all this while stood Neutral; But being like to be influenced by the French Missionaries who came among them, Colonel Townsend and Mr. Leveret from the Massachusetts, Capt. Gold and Capt. Loviston from Connecticut, were Commissioned to give them a Visit, and strengthen the Alliance with them; which they did to so good Effect, that they promis'd to take up the Hosts, whenever the Governour of New-York should desire it. But why so fair an Opportunity was lost, when the Interest of New-England lay bleeding, was matter of Surprize and Admiration to some, of Censures and Reflections to others. The only Account we can give of it is, the vast Trade between the Dutch and Indians; for the sake of which, that Government have always chosen to restrain their Indians from joyn-ing with us in our Wars. In the midst of War, they sent a secret League between them and the Governour of Canada, not to suffer the least Breach to be made on one another by any of their Indians.

But although my Design was only to remark the barbarous Insults of those bloody Pagans on the Territories of New England; yet I think it not improper to take a short view of their Desert on Newfoundland, considering the nearness of its Situation, and that several of our Eastern Indians were confederate with them.

On the 21st of August, one hundred and forty French and Indians, in two Sloops, early in the Morning, from Placentia, arrived at Bonaville, and fortified the Finbrook Cady, the Society of Pele, and a lesser Yessel, in which was thirty Ton of Oil. Capt. Gill of Charlestown was there at the same time, in a Ship of fourteen Guns, with twenty four Men. He was furiously attackt, but defended himself with great Courage and good Conduct, from diverse bold and desperate Attempts which they made upon him. When he had beat 'em at small Arms, they then brought the Galley to bear upon him with her great Guns, which he return'd in the like Language. They then set Fire to the Society, with an expectation of burning him alive; but this Word proving contrary, drove her ashore on a Rock, where she soon consumed. They then set the lesser Ship on Fire, which burnt to such a degree, by reason of the Oil, that it would soon have devoured him, had not the Buoy-ropes of the Anchor got between the Rudder and the Stern, and kept off the blazing War from him. The Situation of the Fort was such, as that it was not able to protect the Town of St. Johns, upon which it was wholly laid in Ashes, the Inhabitants being mostly fled into the Woods. The loss that Capt. Gill sustained in the whole Encounter, was but one Man slain and two wounded.

I now return to the Westward, where on the 25th of October, the Enemy did some Mischief. Lancaster was alarm'd, and the Alarm was a means of the untimely Death of the Reverend Mr. Gardiner, their worthy Pastor. Several of the Inhabitants, who belonged to the Garrison, were wearied by hard Travelling the Day before, in pursuit of the Enemy. This caused this good Man out of Pity and Compassion, to Watch that Night himself; accordingly he went into the Box, which lay over the Flanker, where he staid till late in the Night; But being cold, (as was supposed) he was coming down to warm himself, when one between Sleeping and Waking, or surpris'd thro' excess of Fear, fir'd upon him, as he was coming out of the Watch house; where no Man could rationally expect the coming of an Enemy.

Mr. Gardiner, altho' he was shot through the Back, came to the Door and bid them open it, for he was wounded. No sooner did he enter, but he fainted away: As he came to himself, he asked who it was that shot him? and when they told him, he pray'd God to forgive him, and forgave him himself, believing that he did it not on purpose; and with a composed frame of Spirit, desired them that bewailed him not to weep, but pray pray for him, and his Flock. He comforted his sorrowful Spouse, and expired within an hour.

The Indian Harvest being now gathered, and the Winter approaching, the Enemy like Beasts of Prey, retired to their private Cells: But concluding it necessary to discover their Head quarters, it was resolved, that Col. Hilton, with two hundred and seventy Men, should go to Naridg-walk with twenty Days Provision: At which time the Country appeared like a frozen Lake, the Snow four foot deep; yet neither Officers nor Soldiers were in the least discouraged; but when they came unto the Fort, could not discover the least step of an Indian, only a few deserted Wigwams, and a large Chappel, with a Vestry at the end of it, which they set on fire.

The Winter Season requiring Snow-shoes, an Express was sent Col. Patrick to supply the Frontiers therewith, which he no sooner forwarded, but the Express was intercepted, by a Mount-Real Scout, who robb'd him of Fifty Pounds that he had in his Pocket, which at their return they presented to the Governour, who converted it into a Bowl; and called it by the Name of the New-England Gift.

Early in the Spring, Capt. Lovely was ordered to Cruise on the Shore of L'Acadia, and defeat the French from their Fishery, having Whale-Boats to attend him: Capt. Fowl was also dispatched in a Sloop of War, who on the Northward of Cape-Sables took a small Vessel formerly belonging to the English, which had Cattle and Sheep on Board her. Soon after he took five Prisoners at Port Rosus, and three at L'Have, burnt burnt a few Houses, and kill'd some Cattle; but the Inhabitants were so miserably poor, and their Circumstances so desperate, that they rather chose to be Prisoners among the English, than at Liberty among the French.

May the 4th. 1705. Capt. Hill, who was formerly taken at Wells, and carried to Canada, was from thence sent by Mounſieur Vaudriell, to concert the exchange of Prisoners, who advis'd of one hundred and seventeen that were then with him, and about seventy more with the Indians; which unexpected News was very reviving to the dejected Spirits of their mournful Friends; considering the many Deaths they escaped in their Captivity.

Upon the advice hereof, Capt. Levinſton was sent to Canada to capitulate about the matter, and after him Capt. Appleton, and Mr. Sheldon (with seventy Prisoners of theirs) who went by Water, having ordered a Scout before of ten Men by Land to advise of their coming, that so our Prisoners might be in readiness. But the Jesuits and Fryars had by this time so influenc'd the Governour, as to cause him to break his Word of Honour, pretending, that as the Indians were independant and a free born People, that he had no power to demand any Captives of them; when at the same time they were so much in Subjection, and Vassalage unto him, that they never form'd an Enterprize without him, neither did they dare to attempt it without his knowledge.

Now altho' the Expence and Industry of our Commissioners in this Affair was very great; yet notwithstanding they could not obtain above sixty

sixty Captives out of one hundred and eighty seven; which was scandalously base and dishonourable in that Government.

The descent that the Enemy again made on New-foundland, was more terrible and surprizing than the former; for on January 21st. at break of day, Monsieur Supercas, Governour of Placentia, came with five hundred and fifty French from Canada, Port-Royal, and other places adjacent, and a company of Salvages, of whom Affacombuis was Chief; who ranck'd and laid waste all the Savibian Settlements in a few Days, and then fell on St. John's, where in the space of two hours all were become Prisoners of War, excepting those in the Castle and Fort. The Night before the Enterprize they were oblig'd to lye on a Bed of Snow, six foot deep, for fear of being discovered, which caused such cold and numbness in the Joynts of several, that the General vow'd revenge, and accordingly Executed his Resentment, for that he destroy'd all before him, and gave no Quarter for some time; till Monsieur Baccare, who was a Gentleman of more Humanity, did interpose and abate his Fury: The Number that they took alive was one hundred and forty, whom they sent unto the Garrison, not out of pity to the Prisoners, but with a design to Starve the whole. After that they laid close seige to the Garrison, and Fort, which continued thirty Days without relief. (Excepting three who made their Escape to the former and seventeen to the latter) In the Fort were only forty Men under the command of Capt. Moody, and twelve in the Castle, under Capt. Loibem; who behaved themselves with such bravery, that they slighted all manner of tenders that were made them of Surrendering, with the highest Contempt imaginable.

Upon this the Enemy committed many Barbarities, and sent several threatnings; but they had no Influence either on Officers or Soldiers, for they ply'd their Bombs and Mortarpieces to so good Effect; that they kill'd several, and lost but three in the whole Engagement.

After this they Steer'd to Consumption-Bay, having first demolish'd all the English Settlements in Trinity and Bonaville, where they burnt their Stages and Boats, and laid a Contribution besides upon the Inhabitants. From thence they went to Carbonar, where they met with some repulse, and finding their Provision fall short, they sent a further number unto the Fort, reserving the most skillful and able Fishermen for themselves until the succeeding Spring.

During this time our Frontiers at home were greatly infested. At Spruce-Creek in Kistery they kill'd five and took as many more; among the slain was Mrs. Kibb, a Gentlewoman of good Extraction, and Education; but the greatest Sufferer was Benjamin Hutchinson in the loss of his Wife and Children. Three weeks after John Rogers was dangerously wounded; and at a little distance James Tidy was shot by another Party. From thence they went Westward, and took a Shallop which belong'd to Piscataqua. Our Sea coast at the same time was distressed by Privateers, particularly by Capt. Crepes, who notwithstanding our Cruisers that were then out, took seven Vessels besides a Sloop, and carried them all to Port-

Royal,

Royal; excepting the latter, which was retaken by Capt. Harris at Richmond's Island.

About the same time Michael Royal, a Fisherman belonging to Marblehead, as he went ashore for wood off of Cape Sables, was Barbarously cut in peices; On the 15th. of October following, eighteen Indians fell on Cape Neddick, where they took four Children of Mr. Stevins at a little distance from the Garrison. The youngest not able to travel was knock't on the head, the other three were carried Captive; but being struck by Lieut. March, and loosing one of their Company, they kill'd a second Child in way of revenge.

During the Winter little or no Spoil was done on any of our Frontiers; the Enemy being so terrified by reason of Snow-shoes ( which most of our Men were skilful in ) that they never attempted coming at such a season after.

But as the Spring came on, April 27th. 1796. a small Body fell on an Our-house in Oyster-River, where they kill'd eight, and wounded two. The Garrison which stood near, had not a Man in it, at that time; but the Women, who shew'd an Amazonian Courage seeing nothing but Death before them, advanc'd the Watch-box, and gave an Alarm. They put on Hats, with their Hair hanging down, and fired so briskly that they struck a terror in the Enemy, and they withdrew without firing the house, or carrying away much Plunder. The principal Sufferer at this time was John Wheeler, who thinking them to be friend Indians, unhappily fell under their Fury. Two days after Mr. Shapleigh and his Son, as they were travel-travelling Parry, were carried, were so in tops of the fear'd the June the Provision Privateer Boat, and Alarm also so expedient Drum) only entred command who next wherein command of in his was England C The Y plot, in Guns, for which that other Upon that were Charles after an teen, say fell under cret Tra his second back with travelling thro' Kittery, were ambusht by another Party, who killing the Father, took the Son, and carried him to Canada. In their March they were so inhumanely Cruel, that they bit off the tops of his Fingers, and to stagnate the Blood, fear'd them with hot Tobacco-Pipes.

June the 1st Mr. Walker, being loaden with Provisions from Connecticut, was chased by a French Privateer, which to avoid he ran ashore in his Boat, and as he hastned to Road-Island, made an Alarm all round: The Government there was so expeditious, that in a few Hours (by beat of Drum) one hundred Men well equip'd voluntarily entred on board of two Sloops, under the command of Major Wanton and Captain Paine, who next Day became Masters of the Prize, wherein were thirty seven Men, under the command of Capt. Ferrel, bound for Port-Royal, but in his way was obliged to cruise on the New-England Coast.

The Year after they did another brave Exploit, in taking a Sloop from Placentia, with four Gaas, four Patteraroes, and forty nine Men, which undoubtedly prevented great Mischief that otherwise would have befallen us.

Upon the Advice of many English Captives that were now at Port-Royal, Captain Rouse of Charlestown was sent with a Flag of Truce, who after an unusual stay, returned but with seventeen, saying, that the French detained them. He fell under a severe suspicion of carrying on a secret Trade with the Enemy; which grew upon his second going, when he brought but seven back with him.

The General Assembly which was then sitting, with the Country throughout, were thrown hereby, into a great Ferment; considering the vast Charge and Effusion of Blood. He was Indicted for Trayterous Correspondence with the Enemy. Others at the same time, like Snakes in the Grass, or Moles under Ground, were as industrious to evade it, and to put a different Gloss on all his Actions.

— Quid non Mortalia pectora Cogit Auri Sacra Fames? —

And yet it has been generally remark'd from the beginning of Time here, that those who have been Indian-Traders, and seemingly got much, have sensibly decay'd, and many of them become Victims to their bloody Cruelty. A Proclamation was issued forth to apprehend all such as were Suspected; Several hereupon were seized, and others vehemently Suspected, who did what they could to extenuate the Crime, and to get the Indictment alter'd from that of Treason, unto High Misdemeanour. At last a Court of Oyer and Terminer was call'd, and Fines were imposed, besides the Prison Fees.

How far these unhappy Measures tended to increase our Troubles, is Obvious to an impartial Eye, if we consider how they supply'd the Enemy with Powder, Shot, Iron, Nails, and other Materials of War.

The Advice of Collonel Schuyler from time to time was of eminent Service unto the Country, who advis'd of two hundred and seventy Men that were coming upon us. Their first descent was on Dunstable, the third of July, where they fell on to the destruction of one half of their Number.

 After that a small Party attack't Daniel Galeucias House, who held them play for some time, till the old Mans Courage fail'd; when on surrendring himself, he inform'd them of the state of the Garrison; how that one Man was kill'd & only two Men and a Boy left; which caused them to rally a new, and with greater Courage than before.
 Upon which one with the Boy got out on the back side, leaving only Jacob to fight the Battle, who for some time defended himself with much bravery; but over power'd with Force, and finding none to assist him, was oblig'd to quit it, and make his escape as well as he could; but before he got far, the Enemy laid hold of him once and again, and yet by much struggling he rescued himself: Upon this they burnt the House, and next Day about forty more fell on Amesbury, where they kill'd eight; two, at the same time, who were at work in a Field, hearing an Out-cry, hastned to their Relief; but being pursued, ran to a deserted House, in which were two Flankers, where each of them found an old Gun, but neither of them fit for Service; and if they were, had neither Powder nor Shot to load with: However, each took a Flanker, and made the best appearance they could, by thrusting the Muzzles of their Guns outside the Port-holes, crying aloud, Here they are, but do not fire till they come nearer; which put the Enemy into such a fright, that they instantly drew off.

From thence they went to Kingstown, where they kill'd and wounded several Cattle. About the same time Joseph English, who was a Friend Indian, going from Dunstable to Chelmsford, with a Man and his Wife on Horeback, was shot dead, the Woman taken, but the Man made his escape. On the 8th of July, five Indians a little before Night, fell on an Out-house in Reading, where they surpriz'd a Woman with eight Children; the former with the three youngest were instantly dispatcht, and the other they carried Captive; but one of the Children unable to travel, they knockt on the head, and left in the Swamp, concluding it was dead, but a while after it was found alive. The Neighbourhood being alarm'd, got ready by the Morning, and coming on their Track, pursued them so near, that they recovered three of the Children, and put the Enemy into such a Terrour, that they not only quitted their Plunder and Blankets, but the other Captive also. Several Strokes were afterwards made on Chelmsford, Sudbury and Groton, where three Soldiers as they were going to publick Worship, were way-laid by a small Party, who kill'd two, and made the other a Prisoner.

At Exeter a Company of French Mobacks, who some time kept lurking about Capt. Hilton's Garrison, took a view of all that went in and out; and observing some to go with their Scythes to mow, lay in ambush till they laid by their Arms, and while at Work, rushed on at once, and by intercepting them from their Arms, kill'd four, wounded one, and carried three Captive: So that out of ten, two only escaped. Several of our Captives still remaining among the French and Indians, occasioned Mr. Sheldon's going a second time to Canada with a Flag of Truce, who at his return brought forty five, and had a prospect of many more, but was prevented by the Jesuits.

As to the Treatment of our Captives with the French, it was as different and various as their Tempers and Constitutions: Some were mild and pleasant, while others were morose and sordid; but the Indians might as well alter their Complexions as their Constitutions; for scarce a Day past without some act of Cruelty, insomuch that all were under a constant Martyrdom between fear of Life and terror of Death.

It would be an endless task to enumerate the various Sufferings that many groaned under, by long Marching with heavy Burdens, thro' heat and cold; and when ready to faint for want of Food, they were frequently knockt on the head: Teeming Women, in cold Blood, have been ripe open; others fastned to Stakes, and burnt alive; and yet the Finger of God did eminently appear in several Instances, of which I shall mention a few. First.

First. Of Rebekah Taylor, who after her return from Captivity, gave me the following Account: viz.

That when she was going to Canada, on the back of Mount-Real River, she was violently insulted by Sampson her bloody Master, who without any Provocation was resolved to hang her; and for want of a Rope, made use of his Girdle, which when he had fastned about her Neck, attempted to hoise her up on the limb of a Tree, (that hung in the nature of a Gibbet) but in hoising her, the Weight of her Body broke it asunder; which so exasperated the cruel Tyrant, that he made a second attempt, resolving that if he fail'd in that, to knock her on the head: But before he had power to effect it, Bomaseen came along, who seeing the Tragedy on foot, prevented the fatal stroke.

A second was a Child of Mrs. Hannab Parsons, of Wells, whom the Indians for want of Food, had determined to Roast alive, but while the fire was kindling, and the Sacrifice preparing, a Company of French Mobawks came down the River in a Canoe, with three Dogs, which somewhat revived these hungry Monsters, expecting to make a Feast upon one of them. So soon as they got ashore, the Child was offer'd in Exchange; but despising the offer, they tendred a Gun, which they readily accepted, and by that means the Child was preserved.

A third was of Samuel Butterfield, who being sent to Groton as a Soldier, was with others attackt, as they were gathering in the Harvest; his bravery was such, that he kill'd one and wounded another, but being overpower'd by strength, was forc'd to submit; and it hapned that the slain Indian was a Sagamore, and of great dexterity in War, which caused matter of Lamentation, and enrag'd them to such degree that they vow'd the utmost revenge; Some were for whipping him to Death; others for burning him alive; but differing in their Sentiments, they submitted the Issue to the Squaw Widow, concluding she would determine something very dreadful, but when the matter was opened, and the Fact considered, her Spirits were so moderate as to make no other reply, than, "Fortune L'guare. Upon which some were uneasy; to whom she answered, If by killing him, you can bring my Husband to life again; I beg you to study what Death you please; but if not let him be my Servant; which he accordingly was, during his Captivity, and had favour shewn him.

The State of Affairs still looking with a Melancholly Aspect, it was resolv'd for a more vigorous Prosecution of the War, to grant the following Encouragement. viz.

To Regular Forces under pay	10 0 0	} per Scalp.
To Volunteers in Service	20 0 0
To Volunteers without pay	50 0 0
To any Troop or Company that go for the Relief of any Town or Garrison	30 0 0

Over and above was granted the benefit of Plunder, & Captives of Women & Children under twelve Years of age, which at first seem'd a great Encou-

Encouragement, but it did not answer what we expected. The Charge of the War was by this time so great, that every Indian we had kill'd or taken, cost the Country at least a Thousand Pounds.

But while they continued in great Bodies, they did not commit the like Spoil and Rapine (in proportion) as they did in smaller. August the 10th. they slew William Pearl of Dever, and a little after took Nathanael Tibbits. But of all the Indians that was ever known since King Philip, never any appear'd so Cruel and Inhumane as Assacombuit, that insulting Monster, who by the Encouragement of the French went over to Paris, and being introduced to the King, lifted up his Hand in the most arrogant manner imaginable, saying, This Hand of mine has Slain one hundred and fifty of your Majesty's Enemies, within the Territory of New-England &c. Which bold and impudent Speech was so pleasing to that Bloody Monarch, that he forthwith Knighted him, & order'd eight Livers a day to be paid him during Life; which so exalted the Wretch (having his Hands so long imbrued in innocent Blood) as at his return, to exert a Sovereignty over the rest of his Brethren, by Murdering one, and Stabbing another, which so exasperated those of their Relations, that they sought Revenge, and would instantly have Executed it, but that he fled his Country, and never return'd after.

January 21st. Collonel Hilton with two hundred and twenty Men, visited the Frontiers anew; but the mildness of the Winter prevented his going so far as he expected; However in his return, return, near Black-Point, he came on an Indian track which he pursued, and kill'd four; at the same Time he took a Squaw alive with a Papoose at her breast, which he preserved, and she was of singular service in conducting him to a Body of eighteen, who lodg'd on a neck of Land; About break of day he Surpriz'd them as they lay asleep, and slew all but one, whom they kept a Prisoner; But it's strange to think by what winged Mercury reports are often carried. Plutarch I remember, and other Writers, have given surprizing Instances of things transacted at such a distance, as have been inconsistent with any humane Conveyance. Witness that of Demitian, two thousand five hundred Miles in the space of twenty four Hours; And of William the Conquerour, the news of whose Death was conveyed from Rome to Rome the day he dyed, which our Historians mention, was — prius pene quam nunciari possit. And to my certain knowledge, on the very Morning that Colonel Hilton did this Exploit, it was publickly talkt of at Portsmouth in every Article, and with little or no Variation, altho' ninety Miles distance.

But all this while we were only cutting off the Branches; the French in Canada, and Nova Scotia, who supply the Indians with all necessarys for the War, were the Root of all our Woe.

Wherefore it was resolv'd to make an Enterprize on Nova Scotia, under the Command of Colonel Mack with two Regiments. viz.

In three Transport Ships, five Briganteens, and fifteen Sloops, with Whaleboats answerable, having her Majesty's Ship the Dekiford, and the Province Gally to cover them.

March 12th. 1707 they sail'd from Nantasket, and in a fortnight after, arriv'd at Port Royal Gut, where they landed on both sides the River, which the Enemy observing, made an alarm and retired to the Fort, with what Substance they could get.

Monfieur Supercas, who was the Governour, upon rallying his Forces together, held a short Skirmish but finding too warm a Reception, (his Horse being shot under him) was obliged to retreat. A Council of War being called, it was resolv'd that the Artillery should be landed, and their Lines forced: But thro' the Unfaithfulness of some, and cowardly Preventions of others, little was done in annoying the Enemy, save killing their Cattle, burning their Mills and Out-houses: Whereas if the Officers on board her Majesty's Ship had been true and faithful, matters had succeeded to good advantage. But instead of pressing on, they did rather clog and hinder the Affair: For by crafty Insinuations they afterwards obtained a second Council, which the General not so well weighing as he ought, prov'd the overthrow of the whole Design. They voted to return; whereas if they had only kept their Ground, and not fired a Gun, the Enemy must of necessity have Surrendered or have Starved. This was so surprising, that the whole Country was under an amazing Ferment, and the Commander so grossly reflected on, that his Spirits sunk, and he became of little Service ever after: Yee to give him his Character, he was a Man of good Courage, and a true lover of his Country. But the Business that he undertook, was too weighty for his Shoulders to bear. So soon as his Excellency was apprized hereof, (who had the Honour and Interest of his Country much at Heart) he sent strict Orders to stay them; and another Ship of War, with two Companies of fresh Men to reinforce them; Col. Hutchinson, Col. Townsend, and Mr. Leverett were appointed Commissioners, to give the greater Vigour: But the number of Deserters, and disaffected Officers overthrew the whole Affair. However a second Attempt was made, which the Enemy perceiving, called in their Auxiliaries both of French and Indians from Maine, Sacbensco, and all other places adjacent. A Privateer and some other Vessels had also arrived since the withdraw of our Forces. By their Assistance the Enemy had not only strengthened the Fort, but secured their Lines; so that nothing could be well attempted but by a few Encounters; in which Major Walton behaved himself with much Bravery, being the only Field-Officer then ashore; who engaged them some time, and at last put them to flight, killing and wounding several; among whom was the Field-Major. Those that fell on our side were sixteen, and as many more wounded. Our Frontiers ders at home were as much distressed as ever :

May 22d they took two at Oyster-River, and on June 12th kill'd one at Groton ; After that they flew William Carpenter of Kittery, with his whole Family. July 8th they way-laid a Cart with two Men, as they were going from Dover to Oyster-River, whom they shot dead. Capt. Sumer- by, who was there with his Troop, regained the most of the Plunder that they took. About the same time Stephen Gilman and Jacob his Brother, as they were riding from Exeter to Kingstown, were ambush'd by another Party. The first had his Horse shot under him, and was in danger of being scalp'd before he could get clear : The other Brother had several Shot thro' his Cloaths, and one that graz'd his Belly ; his Horse also was wounded ; yet he defend'd himself on Foot, and got into the Garrison.

At Casco the Indians intercepted a Fishing-boat as she was sailing between the Islands, in which were five Men, three of whom they kill'd, and took the other two. August the 10th they waylaid the Road between York and Wells, and as four Horsemen were riding in Company with Mrs. Littlefield, who had the value of Sixty Pounds with her, were all slain except one, who made his escape. Another Company sailing on Mar- borough, encompassed two as they were at work in the Field ; one of which got clear, and the Neighbourhood meeting together, engaged them so smartly, that the Enemy gave way, leaving twenty four Packs behind ; which so exasperated their Spirits, with the loss they sustained, that they flew the Captive which they had taken. On our side two were slain, and two wounded.

At Exeter one was kill'd near the Meeting-house; and two days after another at Kingstown, but the most afflicting stroke that befell us this season was at Oyster River, where thirty French Mobawks, who appeared like so many Furys with their naked Bodys painted like Blood, and observing some at work in hewing of Timber, and others driving the Team, they violently fell upon them with such hideous Noise and Yelling, as made the very Woods to echo. At the first shot they kill'd seven and mortally wounded another, upon which Capt. Chesly (who had signally behaved himself in many Encounters) with the few that were left, fired on them with great vigour and resolution; and for some time gave a check to their Triumphant; but the Enemy being too powerful soon overcame him, to the great lamentation of all that knew him.

It being now the height of Indian Harvest, they dispersed themselves in all parts, and did considerable Mischief; but having something more then ordinary in view, they beset Winter-Harbour, and on September 21st. with one hundred and fifty Men in fifty Canoes, Attempted the taking two Shallops as they lay at Anchor, in which were Capt. Austin, Mr. Harmon, Sergeant Cole, and five Men more, with a Boy; who perceiving their Intention, suffer'd them to paddle till they had got near, and then fired, which put them into great Confusion. But they soon recover'd themselves & fir'd on our Men with such resolution, as made them to quit one of their Boats, by cutting their masts and lashings; and no sooner had they taken possession thereof, but they got their Main-sail a-trip, before that our Men could get up their half Mast high, and then put out their Oars, which they joyn'd with Paddles on each side; but having no fargood, and their Boat a dull sailer, ours gain'd on them so much, that they got twelve or thirteen Canoos a head, with Fishing-lines to tow them. But a breeze springing up, & the Enemy making too near the Wind, (for want of a fargood) came to stays several times, in so much that they fell a quarter of a Mile a-stern; But the rest of the Canoos kept on firing; and our Men on them for a considerable time together. The only Man we lost was Benjamin Daniels, who was shot thro' the Bowels soon after they came to sail; At his fall he said, "I am a dead Man! yet recovering himself a little added, "Let me kill one before I dye! but he had not strength to fire.

The Engagement held about three hours, in which the ~~Enemy~~ spent five pounds of Powder, & when the Enemy ceased their chase, they had not above one quarter of a pound left. The Indians were so bold and daring, as to attempt to take hold of the blades of their Oars, as they were rowing. The number of them that fell was their unknown, because of a continued Cloud of Smoke; but it was affirmed, that nine were slain, and twice as many wounded. After this a small Scout appear'd at Barnick, where they kill'd two as they return'd from worship; Upon which some of the Inhabitants who were acquainted with their walk, lay in wait, and making the first discovery fired to good advantage; which put them into so great a Consternation, that they dropt their Packs, in which were three Scalps, supposed to be some of those which a little before were taken at Oyster River. The Winter Season afforded a little respite: But on April 22. 1708. Lieut. Littlefield of Wells, with Joseph Winn, as they were travelling to York, were surrounded by a small Body; the latter made his escape, but the other was carried to Quebec, who being a skillful Engineer, especially in Water works, did them great Service.

About this time eight hundred French and Indians were forming a desperate design against us, but on a division among themselves fell short of the Mischief they designed us. However one hundred and fifty on August 29th at break of day, fell on Haverhill, and passing by the Garrisons got into the very Center of the Town before they were discovered. They attempted to fire the Meeting-house, and after that did burn several Houses near it. Major Turner, Capt. Price, & Capt. Carleton, were happily there at that time, and rallied together what Forces they could; but most of their Men being posted in remote Garrisons, were unable to assist them. However with such as they could get together, they faced the Enemy with much bravery, and in less than an hour put them all to flight, leaving nine of their dead, and carrying off several that were wounded. But the Slain on our side were thrice as many, by reason of the surprize that they at first were in; among whom was the Reverend Mrs. Rolfe the worthy Minister of that Town, with Capt. Wainright.

A while after James Hays of Amesbury was taken, and one at Brookfield; they also kill'd Robert Reed and David Hutchins of Kittery.

Collonel Hilton again march'd toward their Head quarters with one hundred and seventy Men at Amassaconty, Pigwacket, and other places adjacent; but after a long and tedious March could make no discovery.

On April 12th. 1709. a Scout fell on Deerfield; and took Mehamen Hinsdel, as he was driving a Carr, which was the second time of his Captivity. And on May 6th. another Party within three Miles of Exeter, surpriz'd several as they were going to a Saw-mill, among whom were Mr. William Moody, Samuel Stepbins, and two of Mr. Jeremiah Gilman's Sons, whom they carried Captive. A few Days after Capt. Wright of Northampton, with several English, and two Natick Indians, adventuring to the Lake, within forty miles of Fort La Motte, kill'd and wounded two or three of the French Mahawks; and on their return up French-River, met with another Body of the Enemy in Canoes, on whom they fir'd, and overfet, kill'd and wounded several of them. In this Company was William Moody before mentioned, who being now alone with but one Indian in a Canoe, was encouraged by the English to kill said Indian, and make his escape. Which he attempted, but overfet the Canoe in the struggle, and then Moody swam towards the English for Relief. Whereupon Lieut. John Wells, with two or two more, ran down the Bank and helped him ashore. In the mean time a number of the Enemy came to the Bank, and wounded John very good Courage, and well spirited to serve his Country, and so the loss of him was much lamented. Hereupon Amos unhappily resign'd himself again into the Enemies hands; who most inhumanly tortured him, by fastning him unto a Stake, and roasting him alive; whose Flesh they afterwards devoured. Our Men considering they were so far in the Indians Country, and like to be encompass'd, were forc'd so make a running Fight. So scattering in the Woods, lost John Barnes who was supposed to perish with him.

The Town of Deerfield, which had sust. a much Spoil before by Monsieur Artell, was on June 23d oblig'd to a new Encounter, by Monsieur Kerul his Son-in-Law, who with one hundred and eighty French and Indians, expected to lay all desolate. But the Town being alarm'd, they valiantly resisted, with the loss only of one Man, and another wounded. After that the Eng-my kill'd two at Brookfield, one at Wells, and took another Captive.

Col. Ketch who was now in England, and well acquainted with the Continent of America, was very sensible that the reduction of Canada was of absolute necessity; for subduing the Indians; upon which he laid a Plan of the whole Country before some of the chief Ministers of State, representing every thing in its true Light. General Wolfe added all his Interest to the Motion made by Col. Ketch, and between them they obtain'd a promise for sufficient Forces both by Sea and Land, for the Conquest of Canada. They arriv'd early in the Spring, with her Majesty's Royal Commands and Instructions to the Governours of the several Provinces, to furnish their respective Quota's. To such as should offer volunteers, they presented a good Firelock, Cartouch-box, Flints, Ammunition, a Coat, Hat and Shirt; with an assurance of her Majesty's Princely Favour to all such as should distinguish themselves.

Upon this the several Governours contributed their utmost Assistance; and considering that New-York (with the adjacent places) lay nearest the Lake, it was resolved that Col. Nicholson should command the several Troops from thence, for the attacking of Mount-Real, while Col. Vetch was preparing to head the Forces by Sea.

But it often happens in the course of Divine Providence, that when our Expectations are at the highest, things come to pass. For while our Forces were ready, and after a vast Expence by long waiting, there was a stop at home from any further proceeding for that time; which occasioned Col. Nicholson to imbarque again for England, to revive the Expedition, if possible. But such was the importance of Affairs then on foot, that notwithstanding his indefatigable Care and Pains, he could not effect it. However he obtained a sufficient Force for the reduction of Port-Royal and Nova Scotia, which was so prejudicial to our Fishery and Merchandize.

Its Situation is from 43 to 51 degrees of North Latitude, and is part of the Terra Canadae, whose Bounds are, the Atlantick Ocean on the North, Briton Island and the Bay of Saint Lawrence to the East, Canada to the West, and New England to the South; whose first seizure was by Sir Sebastian Cobbet, for the Crown of Great Britain, in the Reign of King Henry the seventh; but lay dormant till the Year 1621. In which time, Sr. William Alexander, who was then one of the Secretaries of State for Scotland, and afterwards Earl of Sterling, had a Patent for it from King James, where he settled a Colony and possess'd it some Years. After that St. David Kirk was Proprietor as well as Governour, but did not enjoy it long; for to the surprize of all-thinking Men, it was given up, not to the French; but Oliver who had a foreseeing Eye of the danger that would ensue unto the British Interest, from its being in the hands of so potent an Enemy, retook it in the Year 1654. and in no other Treaties would be perswaded to surrender it: Yet in 1662. it was again given up, to the Shame and Scandal of the English.

Monsieur Meneval was then made Governour, who built a small Fort at Port Royal, which lies on the edge of a Basin one League broad, and two long, about sixteen foot of Water on one side, and six or seven on the other, where the Inhabitants drove a considerable Trade, and increased much in the adjacent Parts, till Sr. William Phips in the Year 1690, took possession of it in the Name of King William and Queen Mary, and administered the Oaths of Allegiance to the Inhabitants; but in a little time they revolted. Col. Nicholson arrived at Boston July the fifth, 1700. in her Majesty's Ship Dragon, attended by the Schooner and a Bombship, with several Transport Ships, Officers, a Regiment of Marines, provisions and Stores of War; bringing with him her Majesty's Royal Command to the several Governours of the Massachusetts, New Hampshire, Connecticut and Rhode-Island, to be assisting in the said Expedition; who very readily obeyed, and supply'd their respective Quota's of good effective Men, with Transports, Provision, Stores of War, Pilots, Chaplains, Chirurgeons, and all Necessaries for the Service.

Col. Nicholson was appointed General and Commander in chief, who Embarked September 18th from Nantasket having with him

Her Majesty's Ship the Dragon, Commanded by Martyn,

The Falmouth ————— Capt. Riddle

The Lowstoft ————— Capt. Gordon

The Feverham ————— Capt. Paster

The Province Galley ——— Capt. Soubach

Besides Tenders, Transports, Hospitals, Store-ships, and twenty five lesser Vessels, with open Floats for carrying Boards and necessaries for the Cannon. The Land-Forces consisted of five Regiments of Foot, whereof Col. Vetch was Adjutant-General, Sir Charles Hobby, Col. Wakon, Col. Toller, Col. Whiting, and Col. Reading, had Commissions sent them from the Queen. The Wind proving fair, they all safe arrived in six Days, excepting Capt. Troy, who at his entering into the Gut was lost with twenty five Men. Next Day a Council of War was held, and several Detachments ordered to go ashore, and view the Ground for the better landing and pitching their Camp. Col. Reading and Col. Rednap, with a Company of Marines, were appointed on the South side of the River where the Fort stood, and supported with one hundred and fifty Men more under the command of Major Mullins: At the same time Col. Vech, Col. Waken, Major Brown, Capt. Southack, and Engineer Forbes, landed on the North side with a Company of Granaders, commanded by Capt. Adams. After this Orders were given to land the whole Army, which was done by four a Clock in the Afternoon. The Fort fired on them, but did no Damage. In the Evening the Bomb-Ship came up, and saluted them with seven Shels, which number the Fort returned, but without Execution. On Thursday the twenty sixth at break of Day, the General march'd with the Army on the South side, the Marines in the Front, Col. Reading at their head, Col. Whiting's Regiment in the Center, Sir Charles Hobby in the Reer, and Major Livingston with a Party of Indians flanking the Body in their March. Towards Evening the Fort fir'd very smartly, and so did the French and Indian, with their small Arms, as they lay behind the Fences, who kill'd three of our Men. Upon landing the Stores, which were brought up in the Night, the Enemy discharged several times from the Fort. Next Day we mounted some of our Guns, and made preparations to bring up the flat bottom Boats with the Artillery and Ammunition. In the Evening our Bomb-Ship came up again, and threw thirty six Shells into the Fort, which put them into such an amazing Terror, as brought to my Mind the saying of the Poet,

The slaughter-breathing Brass grew hot and spoke, In flames of Lightning, and in clouds of Smoke.

After that Lieut. Col. Ballantine with his Company from the Fleet, and Lieut. Col. Goff from Col. Vetch on the Norih, with four Companies more, came to the General's Camp: Every Regiment was now preparing for further Engagements, the Cannon being all landed; Lieut. Col. Jobson with three hundred was ordred to cut Pasages, the Boats being constantly employed in going and coming with Provisions and all sorts of Warlike Stores. On Friday the twenty ninth two French Officers, a Fort Major Sergeant and Drummar, came out of the Fort with a Flag of Truce, and a Letter from Monsieur Supercass, unto the General, respecting some Gentlewomen that were terrified at the Noise of Bombs, praying his Protection, and that no Incivility or Abuse might be done them, which was granted. Next Day the Centinels of our advanced Guards discovered some of the Enemy near the Woods, whom they pursued, and took Capt. Allin a Prisoner. October 1st. the great Guns were plac'd on three Batteries; the Mortars were also planted, and twenty four Coburns at a little distance from the outward Barrier of the Fort. These all play'd upon the Fort with good Effect; the French at the same time firing their great Guns and Mortars upon us. The General sent Col. Talbot and Capt. Abney with a Summons to Monsieur Supercass the Governour, to deliver up the Fort for the Queen of Great Britain, as her undoubted Right.

Right. The Answer which he return'd was solely desiring a Capitulation with some of the principal Officers on each side, which was granted; and thereupon a Cessation of Arms. Next Day the Articles of Capitulation were drawn up and signed by General Nicholson and the Governour. Upon this several Compliments pass'd on each side, which were sent by Major Handy the Aid-de-Camp: And on October 5th the Fort was delivered up. Upon which Major Abbercromby, with two hundred Men, five Captains, and eight Subalterns, were ordered to take possession thereof. Capt. Davison marched first at the head of fifty Grenadeers; Major Abbercromby, Capt. Mascarene, Capt. Bartlett, Capt. Adams, and Capt. Lyon, followed in their proper Stations; the General, with Col. Vesib on his right Hand, and Sir Charles Hobby on the left; with Monsieur Bonaventure and D'Gouten who were Hostages; and then the Field-Officers, with a great many others advanced to the Fort; where the French Governour met them half way on the Bridge, with Col. Reading and Capt. Matthews, who were Hostages on our side, and complimented him in these Words.

Sir, I am very sorry for the King my Master, in losing so brave a Fort, and the Territories adjoining; but am not my self happy in falling into the Hands of one so Noble and Generous, and now deliver up the Keys of the Fort, and all the Magazine into your Hands, hoping to give you a Visit next Spring. Which Keys the General immediately delivered to Col. Vesib, Governour of the Fort, by vertue of her Majesty's Instructions: Whereupon Monsieur Superon with his Officers and Troops marched out with with Drums beating, Colours flying, and Guns shouldered; each paying their Respects to the General as they passed by; and then our Army entered the Fort, hoisted the Union-Flag, and drank the Queen's Health, firing all the Guns round the Fort; as likewise did the Men of War, and other Vessels in the River.

On the Success of these her Majesty's Arms, a Day of Thanksgiving was solemniz'd; and agreeable to the Articles of Capitulation, three Vessels were appointed to transport the Soldiers unto France, being two hundred and fifty eight; who besides the common Allowance, had a considerable stock of Wine, Brandy, Sugar, Spice, and other things, with a plentiful supply for the late Governour. After this a Council of War was call'd, who resolv'd, that Major Levington, with St. Casper, and three Indian Guides, should go to the Governour of Canada, about the Exchange of Captives, and inform him how Matters were here. Their first arrival was at Pembait, at St. Casper's House, who courteously entertain'd him. From thence they went to the Island of Loto, where they met with fifty Canoes and wives, as many Indians, besides Women and Children; where were two English Prisoners, taken a little before at Winter-Harbour. Two Days after one of the Prisoners made his escape from an Island where he was hunting with his Master, carrying with him both his Canoe and Gun, and left him behind; which so exasperated the Wench, that when he got from thence, and came where Major Levington was, he took him by the Throat with his his Hatchet in his Hand; ready to give him the fatal stroke; had not Sr. Coffin interposed; He was however kept Prisoner some time; but by the prudent management and mediation of that Gentleman was released. November the 4th they took their departure, and next day the Majors Cannon overfate, drowning one Indian, where he also lost his Gun and all he had; after that coming among the Ics, their Cannon was cut to pieces, which obliged them to travel the rest of the way by Land; thro' horrible Deserts and Mountains, being often forced to head Rivers and Lakes, and some times Kneel deep in Snow; scarce passing a day without fording some River or other, which in some places were very rapid and dangerous; so for ninetey days together never saw the Sun the Weather being very stormy and full of Fog, and the Mists so prodigious thick, that in many places it was with difficulty they got thro' when most ly Spruce, and Cedar; and the way under foot so extreame rocky, that it was almost next to an impossibility; At last their Provisions were wholly spent; so that for five days together they had not what to eat; at last what they scraped off the Snow with their knives, and the bark of Trees; after these insupportable Difficulties they arrived at Quilid; December the sixteenth, where they were much longer detained; and after some time of Refreshment, set out about the Posthouse; The Curious of their return, some two Gentlemen with them to assist; to treat on the same way six Days toward his Man fell sick, whom he left in a Hospital; They returned from thence they came to Shambles; and brought with them three black Canoes, being thirteen in number, which Canoes they carried seventy Miles by Land, thro' the Woods and Ice, and then passed in them fifty Miles by Water, crossing the Lake. They did not arrive at Albany till February 25th. Early in the Spring the Enemy appeared as insulting as ever: The first that fell under their Cruelty was Benjamin Frobble of York; but the most affecting and surprizing Stroke was on Col. Bloss of Essex, who being deeply engaged in the Madag. Affair, and having several Treas. of value that were sell'd fourteen miles up the Country, went out with seventeen Men to pool off the Bark for sale of Womans: But not being so careful and watchful as they ought to be, on July the twenty second they were ambush'd by a Body of Indians, who were making a descent upon us. They took two and kill'd three, whereof the Colonel was one; which so surpris'd the rest, (their Guns being wet) that they all ran without firing some shot, or making the least Reprisal. This was the Enemy's intention, and the more because they slew a superior Officer, and that so pitifully, and with utmost revenge slash'd their Hathe in his Boats, leaving a Scarce on his Head. Next day about a hundred Men went in pursuit of them, but could not discover any. One of the slain was buried on the spot, the other was brought home, where the Colonel was decently inter'd: the several Misses in great Satisfaction according to his Corps: He was a Gentleman of good Temper, Courage and Conduct, respected and lamented by all that knew him.

After this the Enemy appear'd very bold and insolent in the Town, in open Streets; where they carried Captive our Children as they were at play. They then took John Wedgwood, whom they carried to Canada; and after that kill'd John Adams, of whom one thing is remarkable; that three Nights before he dreamt he should be slain by the Indians, at a certain place near his Brother's Barn; which place he frequently visited with a melancholly Countenance, telling several of the Neighbourhood, that within a little while he should be kill'd, and pointed to the very spot, which fell out accordingly.

After this they bent their fury Westward, where at Waterbury they kill'd three, and one at Simsbury. About the same time they fell on Brookfield, and then at Marlborough, where they shot the Post as he was riding to Hadly. From thence they went to Chelmsford, where they wounded Major Tyng, who soon after expired; he was a true lover of his Country, and had very often distinguish'd himself a Gentleman of good Valour and Conduct.

August the 2d. between forty and fifty French & Indians fell on Winter-Harbour, where they kill'd a Woman and took two Men, one whereof was Mr. Pendleton Fletcher, which was the fourth time of his Captivity; but he was soon redeem'd by the Garrison. The week after they came with a far superior Number, kill'd three, and carryed away six, one of the slain they barbarously Skin'd, and made themselves Girdles of his Skin. The last that fell this Season was Jacob Garland of Concho, in his returning from publick Worship.

After

As the Winter approached, Colonel Walton was again preparing to traverse the Eastern Shore with an hundred and seventy Men, being the usual Season of visiting their Clam-banks, where one of the Enemy very happily fell into his Hands as they were encamping on an Island; for by the smoke that the English made, they came near, concluding them to be some of their own Tribe, but finding themselves deceived, they attempted to escape, which our Men prevented. The Principal Indian among them was Arruhawikwobens, chief Sachem of Navidgwalk, an active bold Fellow, and one of an undaunted Spirit; for when they ask'd several Questions he made them no Reply, and when they threatned him with Death, he laugh'd at it with contempt; upon which they deliver'd him up unto our friend Indians, who soon became his Executioners; but when the Squire saw the destiny of her Husband, she became more flexible, and freely discovered where each of them encamp'd. Upon this they went further East, and took three more; after that a certain Indian (thro' discontent) surrendr'd himself, and inform'd of Mausu and several others that were at Pembfoot, which our Forces had regard unto; and as they returned went up Sage River, where they took two, and kill'd five more. Now altho' the Number that we destroyed of them seems inconsiderable to what they did of ours, yet by Cold, Hunger, and Sicknes; at least a third of them was wasted since the War begun. For as their number at first (among the several Tribes) were computed four hundred and fifty fighting Men from Pembfoot, Westward, they were now reduc'd to about three hundred, which made the Old Men weary of the War, and to covet Peace. At Winter-Harbour they took Corporal Ayers, but soon releas'd him, without offering him the least Injury, and then went unto the Fort with a Flag of Truce professing their desire of a Pacification. Yet in a few Days after some came in an Hostile manner at Cocheco, where they slew Thomas Downs and three more while at Work in the Field. After that, they went to Tork, where they kill'd one and wounded another, who afterwards got to the Garrison and reported, that as they were fishing in the Pond they were way-laid by five Indians, one of which ran furiously at him, and knockt him on the head; after this they Scalp'd him, and cut him deep in the Neck. He perfectly retained his Senses, but made not the least motion or struggle, and by this means sav'd his Life. April the twenty ninth the like number appear'd at Wells, where they kill'd two Men as they were planting of Corn. After that they slew John Church of Cocheco, and then way-laid the People as they return'd from publick Worship, where they wounded one, and laid violent Hands on another, but upon firing their Guns, some who were before, return'd and rescued the Prisoner. Upon this Col. Walton went with two Companies of Men to Ossipe and Winnepissnowy Ponds, being places of general Resort for Fishing, Fowling and Hunting; but saw none, only a few deserted Wigwams; for being so closely pursued from one place to another, they removed to other Nations, leaving only a few Cut-throats behind, which kept the Country in a constant Alarm. Col.

Col. Nicholson by the Reduction of Port Royal, (which from that time bears the Name of Annapolis Royal) was but the more inflamed with the desire of the Conquest of Canada. Wherefore upon his return to England, he so effectually represented to the Queen and Ministry, the great Advantage that would accrue unto the Crown thereby, that he obtained Orders for a sufficient Force both by Sea and Land, with the assistance of the several Colonies. And for the better expediting the same, he set sail the latter end of April, some time before the Fleet, with express Orders unto the several Governours of New-England, New-York, the Jerseys, and Philadelphia, to get their Quota's of Men in readiness. He arrived at Boston on June the eighth, 1711. to the great Joy and Satisfaction of the Country. A Congress hereupon was appointed at New-London, being nearest the Center, where the several Governours met, with a firm Resolution of carrying on the important Affairs. On the 25th the Castle gave a Signal of Ships in the Bay, which prov'd to be the Fleet: Upon which the Troops of Guards, and Regiment of Foot were under Arms to receive them: And as his Excellency was not yet return'd, the Gentlemen of the Council and others of Distinction, went to Congratulate them.

Brigadier Hill was Commander in Chief of these her Majesties Troops, and Sr. Rowland Walker Admiral of the Fleet; which consisted of fifteen Men of War, forty Transports, a Battalion of Marines and seven Regiments under Colonel Kirk, Colonel Segmore, Brigadier Hill, Colonel Diffrin.

Disse, Collonel Windes, Collonel Clayton and Collonel Kaine, with upwards of five thousand Men, who arrived safe in Health, & encamped on Noddler Island, where the General invited the Government to view them under Arms: They made the finest appearance that was ever yet seen or known in America. Her Majesty out of her Royal Favour was also pleased to send six Ships with all manner of Warlike Stores, and a fine Train of Artillery with forty Horses to draw the same.

It's surprizing to think how vigorously this Expedition was forwarded, while at Boston, altho' a Town but of Eighty Years standing; out of a howling Wilderness; yet scarce any Town in the Kingdom (but where Stores are laid up before) could have effected the same in so short a time. For in less than a Month the whole Army was supply'd with ten weeks Provision, and all other Necessaries that were wanted; Besides two Regiments of our New-England Forces, under the Command of Collonel Fitch and Collonel Walton; who embark'd at the same time in Transports of our own. On the day that the Fleet sail'd, Collonel Nicholson set out for New-York, & from thence for Albany, having ordered Battos before, and every thing else on the Inland Frontiers, to be in readines for passing the Lake with utmost Application. The Assembly of New-York rais'd ten thousand Pounds, besides their Proportion of Men, the Jersey five, and altho' Pennsylvania was not so free of their Persons because of their Persuasion, yet were as Generous in their Part, as any of the other Colonys in carrying on the Expedition.

proving foggy, and the Wind freshning, the Admiral ask'd the Pilots what was best to do? who advised that as the Fleet was on the North Shore, it would be best to bring too, with their heads unto the Southward: but he obstinately refusing, acted the reverse, and ordered their heads unto the North, which was so astonishing unto the Pilots, that one and another foretold their Fear (unto the Officers) and the Destiny that would attend them before the Morning; which accordingly fell out. For at one of the Clock nine Ships with 1500. Men were all cast ashore; and most of the rest in as eminent danger; but so soon as the former struck, they fired their Guns, which gave Caution to the rest: Some of which wore, and stood off; others were so encompassed by the Breakers that they were oblig'd to bring too their Anchors, which was their last Refuge; but before the day approached, the Wind happily shifted to W. N. W. upon which they cut their Cables and came to sail. Soon after a Council of War was call'd; but the result not known until the Evening, and then the Flag bore away to Spanish River, without giving the usual Signal: On which many of the windward Ships were left behind; but a small Man of War was ordered to Cruise the next day for those that were left, and to take up such as might be alive among the dead, who were about six hundred. After this they made towards the Fleet, but were eight days in getting down; during which time the Wind was W. N. W. and had our Fleet proceeded, (as it were to be wish'd they had) might easily have got unto Quebec in forty eight Hours.

Upon

When this Disaster the whole Country (and indeed the Nation) was alarm'd, and many Conspiracies arose; some imputing it to Cowardice, but most to Treachery, and the secret Influence of some Malecontents then at Helm; otherwise why would a matter of such vast Importance to the British Kingdom, be hush'd up in silence, and the Principal Officers not Summon'd to appear. If the Admiral was in fault, wherefore was he not call'd to an Account? Or why did not the General to vindicate himself, lay a Remonstrance before the Council Board? And the Pilots, who were order'd from hence as so great a Charge to the Country to represent matters in a true light) been examined? But instead thereof, amidst without being ask'd one Question. However one thing is remarkable, that among those that were shipwreck'd and lost their lives, there was but one single Person that belong'd to New-England among them.

Colonel Nicholson at this juncture was industriously engaged in getting the Barren ready for passing the Lake with a considerable Number of French Indians, as well as English, for the attacking of Mount Real, which next to Quebec was the place of greatest Importance in all the French Territories. But just as he was ready to embark, an Express came and gave an Account of this miserable Disaster that belet the Fleet: Whereas, if he had proceeded, his whole Army would probably have been cut off; For upon advice of our Fleets misfortune, the French drew off all their Auxiliaries and most of their Militia to reinforce Mount Real, being advi'd of the defects that was making on them. So great was our loss in this Enterprize, that it Affected the whole Country seven Years after; as the Advance & Expence of so much Money and Provisions might well do. And it as much flust the Enemy; for out of the ruins of our Vessels they not only got much Plunder, but fortified their Castle and out Barteries with a considerable Number of Cannon. They moreover stir'd up the French and Indians about Annapo-la Royal to revolt from their Allegiance to the Crown. Capt Pigeon being ordered up the River for Timber to repair the Fort, was violently attacked by no less than one hundred and fifty, who kill'd the whole Boats Crew, wounded the Fort Master, and afterwards very barbarously Murdered him: They also slew Capt. Forbes the Engineer, besides several others, and took thirty four of them Prisoners. Soon after this, we were informed of the Arrival of our British Forces in England, on the 9th. of October at Portsmouth, where on the 17th. following, the Admirals Ship the Edgar was accidentally blown up, with 400 Seamen and several other People on board, all the Officers being on shore.

The reduction of Canada was a matter of great Consequence, not only to the Interest of New-England and the adjacent Colonies; but also to the whole British Empire. Nor that in it self it is of such intrinsic Value; for that the Cold is so great, and the Ice so rigid, as to embargo it more than half the Year: But as the ingenious Mr. Dummer observes in a Letter of his to a Nable Lord in the Year 1712, the Consequence would be very valuable; for as it extends above one thousand Leagues towards the Mississippi, it would require a vast consumption yearly of the English Manufactury to support it; there being so great a number of several Nations that live behind, which bring down vast quantities of Furs of all sorts, as amount to an incredible Sum. But her Majesty's Royal Aim, as he notes, was not so immediately to advance a Trade, as the Security and Peace of her good Subjects in New-England; being thorowly apprized that so long as the French inhabit there, so long the English would be in hazard.

The Hudson's Bay Company, as well as Newfoundland, have given a melancholly Account of the many Ravages that have been committed there by the powerful Assistance of those Salvages. I'm not insensible that many have blamed New-England, and cast the Odium wholly on them for not succeeding in this Enterprize; but why New-England should be branded with such Infamy, I never could yet hear the Grounds, or any Reason assigned, but what sprung from some capricious Brains, who were no well wishers either to the Cause or Country, and would stigmatize us if possible, as Enemies to the Church, and Disloyal to our Sovereign. But why Enemies to the Church? or wherein is it that we differ from them? save only in the Ceremonies, which none of them will allow to be Essential. We indeed are called Dissenters; but many of those that are of the Church, dissent more from one another than we do: For what we dissent from, is, (as they themselves term it) only in matters of Indifferency; but many of them are Dissem-ders from their own Articles of Faith. Is not our Doctrine the same? the Sabbath as strictly solemnized? and our Mode of Worship as agreeable to the primitive Constitution, as any other Church in the World? Not but that we have degenerated from the pious Steps of our Fore-fathers; yet I am bold to say, that as to number, there are as many sincere and good People in New-England, as in any one part of the World. But I beg pardon for this Digression, which is only to wipe off the Calumny that is too often cast upon us. Now as to our Loyalty, such pregnant Instances may be given thereof, as will be surprising to Posterity. Witness our generous and noble Undertaking in the reduction of Port Royal under Sir William Phips; and after that in the Year 1690. in our descent on Canada, where we lost many hundred brave Men, and at our own Cost expended upwards of one hundred and forty thousand Pounds in Money, without any Allowance or Assistance from the Crown. After this a new descent on Port-Royal, which altho' we miscarried in that also, yet as Mr Dummer observes, we were not dispirited in raising another Body of Troops under the Command of Colonel Nicholson. And all this under the oppression of twenty Years War before by the French and Indians. Yet in the last fatal Expedition, we supplied more than our Quota which the Queen assigned; Besides great Sums were advanced to furnish the British Forces, which but few Towns in the Kingdom of England were able to effect; and none could do it with greater Alacrity and cheerfulness of Spirit than we did.

In the History of St. Sebastian Cobbet, which I before hinted, we were informed that he took the great River of St. Laurens for the Crown of Great Britain in the Reign of King Henry the seventh, which according to the French Historians, contains almost 2000 Miles in length and 840 in breadth, Situate between the 39th and 64th Degrees of North Latitude, which takes in Acadia, Newfoundland and Terra De Labrador. This great Territory in the beginning of the last Century, by the Contrivance of some then at Helm, was taken possession of by the French, who since that have made many fine Settlements, more especially at Mount Real and Quebeck. The latter is called a City commanded by a Castle, which stands on an Eminence, in which are five Churches, a Cathedral, a Bishop and 25 Prebendaries. Our unhappy Disappointment against Canada gave great uneasiness to the Country, and was matter of fear lest new Reprisals would be made on the out skirts; wherefore it was determined that Collonel Walton with one hundred and eighty Men should go to Penobscot and the adjacent Territories; where he burnt two Fishing Vessels (that were preparing to come upon us early in the Spring) and took several Captives, with some Plunder.

But New-England at this time was not alone insulted. The Jesuits were every way endeavouring to stir up the Indians; and at last did influence them to make a descent on the Borders of Virginia; where they made a great many of the Palatines: Upon which a considerable Number was raised, who were in quest of them, and

and destroyed four Towns, besides a great many whom they took Prisoners. Some of them were supposed to be the Senakes, who are a Branch of the Five Nations. Another Tribe called the Shackans, made many Incursions on Carolina; upon which Col. Gibbs the Governour commissi-onated Capt. Hofings and B—— the Indian Emperour, who was in League with the English; as also Capt. Wilch, with the Assistance of the Chickasaw Indians, to fall on them in several parts, and in a little time got to their Head-quarters, where the Enemy in three Divisions endeavoured to surround them, but after a smart Engagement, received a perfect Overthrow; which was followed with the burning and destroying four hundred Houses or Wigwams. The Friend Indians appeared bold and active, but for want of Discipline and a good Regulation, did not the Service that otherwise they might. After this Col.
Barnwell went in pursuit of another Nation call'd the Tankawabs, and entirely routed them.

I now return to our Frontiers, where at Exeter, April 26th 1722. they kill'd Mr. Cumingham as he was travelling the Road from Mr. Hildes to Exeter: After that they shot Samuel Wibben, between York and Cape Naddis. Others fell on several Trains in Wald, where they slew three & wounded as many more. One of the slain was Lieut-Ishfield, who a little before was redeemed out of Captivity, and a Person very much lamented.
 Soon after they appeared in the middle of the Town, and carried away two from thence. They went to Spring Creek, where they kill'd a Boy and took another, and then went to York, but being pur-pursued made their escape. Another Party fell on the upper branch of Oyster-River, where they shot Jeremiah Cromet, and three Miles higher burnt a Saw-mill with a great many thousand of Boards. Next day they slew Esfigh Tuttle at Tele- End, and wounded a Son of Lieut. Herd's as he stood Sentinel. May 14th about thirty French and Indians who had a design on York, surpriz'd a Scout of ours as they were marching to Cape-Ned- dick, where they slew Sergant Nalton, and took seven besides: the remainder fought on a retreat till they got to a Rock, which for some time prov'd a good Barrier to them, and there continued untill they were relieved, by the Vigilant Care of Capt.

Willard. About this time fifty of our English who went up Merrimack-River, returned, with the good Account of eight Indians that they had slain, and of considerable Plunder besides: which they had taken, without the loss of one Man.
June 1st they again came to Spruce-Creek, where they shot John Picharnell as he was locking his door, and going to the Garrison: they also wounded his Wife and knockt a Child on the head, which they Scalpt, yet afterwards it recovered. Two days after they were seen at Amf- bury, then at Kingstown, where they wounded Ebenezer Scophus, and Stephen Gilman, the latter of which they took alive and inhumanly Masdered. After this they kill'd one at Newham- nick, and on July 18th fell on a Company at Wells, where they slew another and took a Negro Captive, who afterwards made his Escape. The Sabbath after they endeavoured to intercept the on which a Scout was sent in pursuit, but made no discovery. Yet in the intermitting time they took two Children from Lieut. Herd's Garrison, and not having time to Scalp them, cut off both their Heads, and carried them away. There was not a Man at that time at home; however one Easter Jones supplied the place of several; for she courageously advanced the Watch-box, crying aloud; Here they are, come on, come on; which so terrified them as to make them draw off, without doing any further Mischief. The Enemy at this time were thought to be very numerous, for they appeared in many Parties, which occasioned an additional number to be left to cover the Frontiers, under the Command of Capt. Davis, whose vigilant Care (thro' the blessing of God on it) kept them from doing any further Mischief: September 1st they kill'd John Spencer, and wounded Dependance Stover. At this time a Sloop from Placentia, with forty five French and Indians was cruising on our Coast, which Capt. Carver observing, gave her chase, and took her: But our Fishery at Cape Sables, thro' the defect of the Guard-Ship, were great Sufferers; where no less than twenty fell into their Hands.

The last Action that happened (of any moment) this War, was at Mr. Plafled's Marriage with Capt. Whedubibi's Daughter of Wells, where happened a great concourse of People, who as they were preparing to mount in order to their return, found two of their Horses missing; upon which Mr. Dwining with Isaac Cole and others went out to seek them; but before they had gone many Rods, the two former were kill'd and the others others taken. The Noish of the Guns soon alarm'd the Guests, and Capt. Lane, Capt. Robinson and Capt. Herd, with several others mounted their Horses, ordering twelve Soldiers in the mean time to run over the Field, being the near or way: But before the Horsemen got far, they were ambush'd by another Party, who kill'd Capt. Robinson, and dismounted the rest; and yet they all escap'd excepting the Bridgroom, who in a few days after was redeem'd by the prudent Care of his Father, at the Expence of more than three hundred Pounds. Capt. Lane and Capt. Harman mustered what Strength they could, and held a dispute with them some time, but there was little or no Execution done on either side.

Not long after this we had advice of a Suspension of Arms between the two Crowns, which the Indians being apprized of, came in with a Flag of Truce and desired a Treaty. Their first Application was to Capt. Wade at Casco, desiring that the Conference might be there; but the Governour was not willing so far to condescend, order'd it to be at Perseus, where they accordingly met July 12th, 1712, three Delegates from St. Jago's, three from Kenebec, including the other Settlements from Pemecook, Amesecomet, Naridwahk, Saco, and all other Adjutant Places; where Articles of Pacification were drawn up, which I have hereunto annexed. viz.

sent; having no other Record of conveying to Posterity, but what they communicate from Father to Son, and so to the Son's Son. When the several Articles were read and explained, by Interpreters upon Oath, (the Delegates being present) they signified an unanimous Consent and Satisfaction, by loud Huzzes and Acclamations of Joy. Many Presents were then made them, which were thankfully received, and every Tribe had their proportion given out; but they were so disorderly, that Mauw (alho' he was the chief Sagamore in all the Eastern parts) was rob'd by the Morning of all he had; upon which he made a miserable Complaint unto the English next Day, of the unkindness of his young Men, who had stolen away all he had, therefore hee had a new Supply. But altho' their Government is so Anarchical, and their Chiefs have so little Respect and Honour shewn them, yet in their Council they observe a very excellent Decorum; not suffering any to speak but one at a time; which is deliver'd with such a remarkable Pathos, and surprising Gravity, that there is neither Smile nor Whisper to be observ'd; until he that speaks has finish'd his Discourse, who then sits down, and after that another riseth up.

The Peace thus concluded and so firmly resolv'd, gave matter of Encouragement to the Eastern Inhabitants for restoring their former Habitations; who were also countenanced and assisted by the Government, even from Cape-Porter to Kennebeck River, where several Gentlemen, who had large tracts of Land, granted a hundred Acres to

A Fishery was also undertaken by the ingenious Dokter Noyes, where twenty Vessels were employ'd at a time. He afterwards built a stone Garrison at Augusta at his own Charge, which was judged to be the best in the Eastern Country; and for a while was kept at the publick Cost, but afterwards slighted; which occasioned the Inhabitants to withdraw, and then the Indians burnt it with several other Houses;

In Kenibek River the Sturgeon Fishery was also begun and carried on with so great Success, that many thousand Cags were made in a Season; and esteemed as good as any that ever came from Hambrough or Norway; Besides vast quantities of Pipe Staves, Hogshead and Barrel, Pine Boards, Plank, and Timber of all sorts, which were not only transported to Boston, but to foreign places; Husbandry also began to thrive, and great stocks of Cattel were rais'd.

The French Missionaries perceiving the Growth of these Plantations, soon animat'd the Indians to disrest them, by insinuating that the Land was theirs; and that the English invaded their Properties; which was a vile and wrong Suggestion; for that their Conveyance were from the Ancient

Sagamores, at least seventy Years before ; and the Proprietors did not settle so high up by several Miles as was formerly posselt be their Predecessors.

However the Indians could not be satisfied, but so threatned the Inhabitants, that many withdrew, and others were discouraged from going to Settle. Soon after they kill'd many of their Cattel, and committed many other Outrages.

No sooner was this Advice brought unto his Excellency, Samuel Shute Esq. who was now Captain General and Governour in Chief, in and over the Provinces of the Massachusetts-Bay, and New-Hampshire, &c. (and one zealously affected for the Interest of the Country) but he appointed a Congress at Arowsick in Kenebeck River, in August 1717. where a great number of Indians, with the Chiefs of every Tribe accordingly met. And some of the Principal Gentlemen of both Provinces accompanied his Excellency to the place appointed. The Complaints on each side being impartially heard and debated, the Original Deeds from the Ancient Sagamores were produced and explained ; having interpreters on Oath. The Articles drawn up and signed in the year 1713. were again read and ratified, to the seeming Satisfaction of the Principal Sachems, who inclined to Peace ; and imputed the late Miscarriages unto the young Men, but were now resolved on a firm Harmony, and would in no respect violate the former Treaties. Upon this his Excellency made them several Presents, which they thankfully received, and in acknowledgment thereof, returned him a Belt of Wampam, with some Beavour Skins:

After this they drank the Kings Health, and promis'd Allegiance to the Crown of Great Britain; so that every thing had now the promising Aspect of a lasting Peace. One thing I cannot here omit; three days after our departure, a number of Indians went a Duck-hunting, which was a season of the year that the old ones generally shed their Feathers in, and the young are not so well flusht as to be able to fly; they drove them like a flock of Sheep before them into the Creeks, where without either Powder or Shot they kill'd at one time four thousand and six hundred; for they followed them so close that they knockt them down with Billets and Paddles, and sold a great number of them to the English for a Penny a dozen, which is their practice yearly, tho' they seldom make so great a Slaughter at once. But before two years were expired, they again began to insult the Inhabitants, being spur'd on by the Jesuits, which occasioned a Scout of fifty or sixty Men to be sent out, who kept them in some awe. But in the year 1720. they began to be more insolent, and appear'd in greater Bodies; upon which Collonel Walton was ordered with about two hundred Men to guard the Frontiers, and was after that appointed with Capt. Moody, Herman Penballow, and Wainright to send to their Chiefs for Satisfaction for the late Hostilities which they had done in killing the Cattle, &c. The Indians fearing the event promis'd to pay two hundred Skins, and for their fidelity to deliver up four of their young Men as Hostages. After this they became tolerably quiet; but in the Spring grew as insolent as before; especially in

Kenebeck, where some time in July they came with ninety Canoes on Padishals Island, which lies opposite to Arowsick, and sent to speak with Capt. Penballow, who fearing an intreague, refused. Upon which one hundred and fifty of them went over to him, with whom he held a Conference; especially with Mounſieur Delachese, and Sabaſtian Ralle who were Jefuits; Mounſieur Croizen from Canada, and St Caſteen from Penobſcot came alſo along with them, who brought a Letter for Governour Shute in behalf of the ſeveral Tribes, importing, That if the Engliſh did not remove and quit their Land in three weeks, they would burn their Houſes and kill them as alſo their Cattle. Upon this an additional Number of Soldiers were ſent under the command of Collonel Tbaxter and Lieut. Col. Goff; and ſeveral Gentlemen of the Council were alſo appointed to enquire into the ground of theſe Tumults, and if poſſible to renew the Pacificati- on: who accordingly went and ſent Scouts to call the Indians in, but they ſlighted the Meſſage with deriſion. Hereupon the Soldiers were order'd to continue, and reinforce the Garrifons that Winter. But in the Summer they renewed their inſults, and on the thirteenth of June 1722 about ſixty of them in twenty Canoes, came and took nine Families in Merry-meeting-Bay, moſt of which they afterwards ſet at liberty, but ſent Mr. Hamilton, Love, Handſon, Treſcot and Edgar to Canada; who with great difficulty and expence afterwards got clear. They then made a deſcent on St. Georges, where they burnt a Sloop, took ſeveral Priſoners, and fought the Garrifon ſome time; and in a Month

Month after came a greater Body from Pewobscot, who kill'd five and engag'd the Fort twelve Days; being very much encouraged by the influence of the Fryar that was with them.
But finding they could make no great impression, endeavour'd to undermine it, and had made a considerable progress therein, till upon the falling of much Rain, the Trenches caved in, which caused the seige to break up, with the loss of twenty of them in the Engagment, as we were afterwards informed. About the same time Capt.
Samuel with five others boarded Lieut. Tilson, as he lay at Anchor a fishing near Damaris Cove: They pinion'd him and his Brother, and beat them very sorely: But at last one got clear and released the other; who then fell with great Fury upon the Indians, threw one over-board; and mortally wounded two more.

Capt. Savage, Capt. Blin, and Mr. Newton, who at this time were coming from Annapolis, and knew nothing of their Ravages, went into Passamaquady for Water. They were no sooner ashore, but found themselves hem'd in by a Body of Indians; the French basely standing by and suffering it. They wanted to divide the Cargo of the Sloop among them, and at last sent Capt. Savage on board to procure some Ransome. But the Wind rising, he was forc'd off, and made the best of his way to Boston: Those that he left (after some Difficulty and Expence) were released.

Capt. Harmon who was now in Kenebeck, went up the River with a Detachment of thirty four Men, and seeing some Fires, went ashore in the Night, where he came on eleven Canooos: The Indians were lying round the Fire, and so wearied, by much Dancing the day before upon the Success they had, that they stumbled over them as they lay asleep. Reports were various as to the number of Indians that were then slain; some say eighteen, others not so many: However they brought away fifteen Guns; and at a little distance found the Hand of an Englishman laid on the stump of a Tree, and his Body mangled after a barbarous manner; having his Tongue, Nose and private parts cut off: They brought away the Body, and gave it a decent Burial. It was found to be the Body of Moses Eaton of Salisbury.

In this brave attempt of Capt. Harmon, which was effected in ten minutes, we lost not one Man, yet at the same time a great Body of Indians lay near, who being startled at the Noise that was made, arose and fired several Guns, but did no Damage.

The Country at this time was in a surprizing Ferment, and generally disposed to a War; but the Governour and Council could not readily come into it, considering the vast Expence and Effusion of Blood that would unavoidably follow: Besides some were not satisfied with the Lawfulness of it at this time: For altho' they believed the Indians to be very criminal in many respects, yet were of Opinion that the English had not so punctually observed the Promises made to them of Trading-houses for the benefit of Commerce and Traffick, and for the preventing of Frauds and Extortions, too common in the private dealings of the English with them. But the grand abuse to them is the selling of strong Drink to them, them, which has occasioned much quarrelling and Sin and the loss of many Lives, to the great Scandal of Religion, and reproach of the Country. His Excellency was sensible of the Promises that he made them at the Treaty of Pacification; which he failed not to lay before the General Assembly; but he met with so much opposition that nothing could be effected. The firing an Armourer at the Publick Charge, was also engaged, but nothing done therein; So that the Indians were full of resentments, and thought themselves wrong'd. Yet all this time they made no application unto the Government for redress, which they ought to have done by the Articles of Agreement, but broke forth into Horrid and cruel Outrages, by burning killing and destroying. At last the Government by repeated Addresses from the People, was obliged to call the Council together to concert what was proper to be done, who advised, to the proclaiming an open War. But their not consulting before hand with the other Governments was certainly a great oversight; who probably would have come into it, and thereby have help'd to support the Charge, which now lay wholly on the Massachusetts and Newhampshire.

GOD Save the King.

The abovesaid Declaration ( for substance ) was also given out the Week after, at the Council-Chamber at Portsmouth, in the Province of Newhampshire.

Now altho' the Settlements in Kenebeck were the first that were molested, yet it's not to be supposed that the bent of the Enemies Fury was on them alone, as some would insinuate; for at the same time they interrupted the Fishery throughout all Nova-Scotia; many have reflected on the Government for suffering a Fort to be at St. Georges, as if that did irritate the Indians; but why the Proprietors might not make an improvement thereof, as well as any others on their right of Purchase I know not; considering that it was granted from the Crown, and no exemption made at the Treaty of Peace. Yet at the same time I must be free to say, that there was too great indulgence at first in the Government in suffering so many Townships at so great a distance to be laid out at once, unless they were more peopled; which has since been the occasion not only of a vast Expence, but a great effusion of Blood.

The number of Vessels were about sixteen which the Enemy took at Canso, as they went into the Harbours for their Necessity; which so soon as Governour Philipp was apprised of, he summoned the several Masters ashore with the Sailors, and proposed the fitting out of two Sloops well Man'd for recovering the Vessels and Captives, which being approved of, he forthwith ordered the Drums to beat for Volunteers, and in less then half a day fix'd them out with about twenty Men in each, under the command of Capt. Eliot and Capt. Robinson, who freely offered their services; but as Capt. Eliot out sail'd the other, he got first to a Harbour call'd Wispague, where he discovered some Vessels, and bore directly down upon them, till he came pretty near. The Indians being flush't with Success, and having thirty nine on board one of the Vessels which they had took, and seeing no more Men on board the English then what was usual, commanded them to strike for that they were their Prize. Unto whom Capt. Eliot reply'd that he was hastning to them; and in an Instant called his Men on Deck, who fired on them with a loud Huzza, and clapt them on board; which was so surprising a Salutation, that they made a most dreadful yelling. However they resisted so well as they could for about half an hour, in which time Capt. Eliot received three Wounds, when Mr. Broadstreet, who commanded the Soldiers, entered with that ran down in the hold, were tore in pieces by the Shells, so that only five escaped, who were wounded. One of our Men was kill'd, and seververal hurt, particularly the Corporal of the Troops, who had five Swan-shot in his Body.

Capt. Elios being ill of his Wounds, was oblig'd to return, carrying with him seven Vessels into Canso, which he retook with fifteen Captives, six hundred Quintals of Fish, and two heads of the Chiefs of those Indians that were among them.
Upon this the Governour ordered the same Sloop back with a fresh supply of Men to reinforce Capt. Robinson, who in a Week after brought in two Indian Scalps, a Scooner and a Sloop which they took at Mallegash.

After that he met with a French Man and an English Captive, who inform'd of a Body of Indians and five Vessels that lay at a little distance, which he immediately went in pursuit of; but fearing the event, was not willing at first to engage them, but kept at some distance, and then three Canoes with three Indians in each double arm'd drew near, one of which came on board, as the rest lay on their Paddles, whom they reated friendly in expectation of a greater Prize.
But the Indian growing jealous attempted to escape, and presented his Gun to Lieut. Jephson's breast, which he putting by, shot him dead.
Upon this they fir'd upon those in the Canoes, and kill'd three. The Enemy was so numerous ashore, that he thought it not safe to encounter them; however he took one Vessel. At this time

time they had twenty of our English Captives, but could not come to a fair Capitulation about their Redemption. However the Captain warn'd them to use them well, for as we had thirty of theirs at Annapolis, twenty at Boston, and as many more at Canso, as they treated ours, so we would theirs. Mr. Broadstreet now steer'd to the Westward of the Harbour where Capt. Eliot had the dispute before mentioned, where he retok three Vessels more, but could see neither Captive nor Indians. The Day after Capt. Blin very happily arriv'd with a Flag of Truce, and redeem'd seven Vessels and twenty four Captives, who otherwise would have been put to Death. From thence he sail'd to the Cape, and in his returning back, took three or four Indians, which he carried to Boston. Capt. Soutback being inform'd of a small Body that was then at Astagenash in the Gulph of St. Lawrence, where Monsieur Golden the famous Fryar did reside, had an intent to visit him; but in his passage thro' the Gutt was happily diverted, where meeting with two Canoes, in which were six Indians he kill'd one, and took the other five.

The General Assembly not finding the former Bounty sufficiently encouraging to Volunteers, now pass'd an Act of one hundred pounds a Scalp to all such as supported themselves, and whoever was subsisted by the Publick, should have sixty pounds for the like: That any Company or Troop issuing forth upon an Alarm, should over and above the Establishment have thirty pounds, and an encouraging Reward besides, for all Prisoners that they took; and whatever Plunder might be taken should be shared among them: And if any Volunteers the General Court should think fit to order.

 September the 10th we had a surprizing Account from Arowsick of four or five hundred, Canada and Cape Sable Indians, that fell upon them early in the Morning, who probably would have laid all desolate, had they not been seasonably discovered by a small Guard which Capt. Penballow was sending out for assisting the Neighbourhood to gather in the Corn; who kill'd one and wounded three more of the Company: The report of which Guns did so alarm the Inhabitants, that they with most of their Substance got seasonably into the Garrison. Their first appearance seemed terrible; considering their Number, with the fewness of those that were to defend; who fought the Garrison some time, and shot Samuel Brooking thro' a Port-hole, after that they had kill'd fifty head of Cattle, and burnt twenty six dwelling Houses. The same Day in the Evening came Col. Walton and Capt. Harmon, with about thirty Men in two Whale-boats, who with those of Capt. Temple and Penballow's Men, (that could be spared out of the Garrisons) made about seventy, and gave them Battle some time: But the Enemy were so numerous, that they were like to have hem'd them in, had they not fought upon a retreat. In the Night they drew off, without much cause of Triumph, and went up the River, where they attackt Mr. Stratton, as he was turning down in

in his Sloop, whom they mortally wounded; then went to Richmond, where some time they held a dispute with the Garrison, and afterwards drew off. The last that fell this Season was a Man at Berwick.

His Excellency's Affairs now calling him to Great Britain, the Government of the Massachusetts was wholly devolved on the Honourable William Danvers, Esq. Lieut. Governour; during whose Administration, there were as many remarkable Turns of Divine Providence, (respecting the Enemi ty) as have happened since the War commenc'd; whose Prudence and good Conduct have made him acceptable unto all.

The first Alteration that he made, was in Commissionating Col. Westbrook as Chief in the Eastern Affairs; who on the 10th of February march'd to Pendescot, and Capt. Harmon at the same time up Amanascoggin River, but neither of them had any Success; save burning their Chappel and some Wigwams. Capt. Sayward with a Company of Volunteers went as far as the White Hills, near one hundred miles into the Enemy's Country, but met with the like misfortune.

So soon as the Spring advanced, they began to appear as furious as ever. At Scardrough they kill'd Thomas Larible and his Son; after that Mrs Dering and two Soldiers, where they also took Mary Scamond, John Huttuel and Robert Fordam.
Another Party came to Coobeecha, where they slew Tristram Head, Joseph Ham, and carried three Children Captive: From thence they went to Lamper-Elle River, where they kill'd Aaron Ranz lins with one of his Children, carrying away his

Two of Ensign Stephens's Sons were also kill'd, and two more carried Captive.

Capt. Watkins, who at this time was engaged on a Fishing Voyage at Canso, was surpris'd by a small Body in the Night while abed. The Day before he was at Church, and it hapned that two Ministers in two different Congregations preached on one and the same Subject; namely, preparing for sudden Death; not knowing how soon or in what manner Death would attack them. His Lodging was on an Island at a little distance from the Fort; and altho' he was so strongly importun'd by several of his Friends to stay with them that Night, as if they had a secret impulse of some impending Evil; yet all the Arguments they could use, could no ways prevail nor influence him. He was a Gentleman of singular good Temper, respected and lamented by all that knew him. John Drew of Portsmouth (a pretty Youth) was slain with him, at the same time.

The Delegates of the six Nations of Iroquois, with the Mohagan and Scatacook Indians, being disposed to come to Boston, were kindly entertained there. And at a Conference with the General Assembly, signified a great concern for the Blood that was so often shed by their Kinsmen and Brethren; That from the Original they were Friends to the English, and as a Testimony of their their continuing so, presented a belt of Wampam; which according to their Custom, is the renewing the Covenant. His Honour the Lieut. Governour, as an acknowledgement, gave each of them a piece of Plate, with Figures engraven thereon, as a Turtle, a Bear, a Hatchet, a Wolf, &c. which were the Escutcheons of their several Tribes. And the more to oblige them to our Interest, they had a promise made of one hundred pounds a Scalp for every Indian that they kill'd or took; which seem'd so pleasing to them, that they manifested a readiness of taking up the Hatchet in favour of the English, whenever any Hostility was made against them. After this they were entertained with the curious sight of a Gun that was made by the ingenious Mr. Pim of Boston; which altho' loaden but once, yet was discharg'd eleven times following with Bullets in the space of two minutes; each of which went thro' a double Door at fifty yards distance. They were then presented with an Ox, which with Bows and Arrows they kill'd and dress'd according to their own Custom; where thousands of Spectators were present to behold and hear their barbarous Singing and Dancing. But notwithstanding this free and generous Entertainment, with the firm promises they made of falling on our Enemies, (whenever they made any Insults on us) all proved of little or no Significancy; which was principally owing to the powerful influence of the Dutch, for the sake of Trade and Comerce with them, as was observed on the like Occasion.

October the thirteenth we had an account from Northfield, of a Body of Indians that fell on the Town-Fort, where they wounded two and kill'd as many more. Soon after they surprized Mr. Cogshel and his Boats Company as they were going ashore at Mount Desart.

December 25th about sixty laid siege to St. Georges Garrison, where they continued thirty Days, and were not a little surpris'd with the expectation of Success ; for at their first coming they took two Soldiers, who gave an account of the state of Matters : But Mr. Canady the commanding Officer being one of uncommon Courage and Resolution, stood his Ground till Col. Westbrook arrived, who soon put them to a rout. After this some came to Berwick, where they took a Soldier as he was carelessly wandering from the Garrison.

The favourableness of the Winter prevented our marching to any of their Head-quarters this Season, excepting to Narridgwalk, where Capt. Moulton found a vile and pernicious Letter from the Governour of Quebeck, directed unto the Fryer, exhorting him to push on the Indians with all imaginable Zeal against the English, whose Advice he as industriously pursued.

April 17th 1724. they shot William Mitchel of Scarborough, as he was plowing in the Field, and took two of his Sons, who afterward were released at the taking of Narridgwalk. They then fell on a Sloop at Kenebunk, which belong'd to Lyn, and kill'd the whole Company: But the greatest stroke was on Capt. Winslow, who with sixteen Men in two Whale-boats, went from St. George's

October

George's to the Green-Islands, where the Enemy usually frequent on the account of Fowling. But on their return they were ambuscaded by two or three Companies of them that lay on each side the River. The first that fell was Sergeant Harvey, who commanded the other Boat; for by keeping too near the Shore, he gave the Enemy the greater Advantage: However he returned the Shot with as much bravery as could be expected, till overpower'd by a multitude. Capt. Winslow, who was considerably a-head and out of danger, perceiving the Engagement, courageously return'd back to their Assistance. But before he could give them any relief, was surrounded with about thirty Canoes, who made a hideous yelling; but he gave them no answer but from the muzzles of his Guns. A smart Engagement followed, which held till Night: When finding his Thigh broken, and most of his Men slain, was oblig'd to hasten ashore; but there also he found himself unhappily way-laid: They fell on him with utmost fury, yet his Courage continued until the last; for (as one of those that escaped has since reported) he rested himself on his other Knee, and kill'd an Indian before they had power to slay him. Thus died that worthy young Gentleman, for the Cause of his Country. He was one of liberal Education and good Extract, being the Grand Son of Governour Winslow of Plymouth; and if he had survived, might have been of good Service in his Generation. Sylvanus Nock, a worthy Elder of the Church of Ober-River, soon after this was slain as he was on Horseback. Myles Thomson of Berwick was the same same day also kill'd by another Party, and his Son was carried Captive. A few Days after they again beset Capt. Penballow's Garrison, where they took three as they were driving their Cows to Pasture, and at their drawing off kill'd a great many Cattle. Another Company fell on Kingstown, where they took Peter Colcard, Ephraim Seaverns, and two of Mr. Stephens's Children, whom they carried to Canada; but by the unwearied Pains and Expence of Mr. Stephens, he in a little time purchased his Children. Colcard about six Months after made his escape and got unto his Friends, but did not survive long. May 24th they shot George Chesley as he was returning from publick Worship, with whom was Elizabeth Burnum, who was mortally wounded. Three Days after they went to Perpoduck, where they kill'd one and wounded another, and then march'd to Saco, where they slew David Hill a Friend Indian. On the same Day another Party went to Chester, where they took Thomas Smith, with another whom they pinion'd, but soon after they made their escape.

The Frontiers being thus alarmed, two Companies of Volunteers went from Newhampshire on the Bounty A & one hundred pounds a Scalp, and it hapned that Moses Davu, as he was weeding his Corn, went unto a Brook to drink, where he saw three Indian Packs, upon which he informed the Troops that were then coming out. He with his Son went before as guides, but by an Ambushment were both shot dead. The English then fired on them, who kill'd one, and wounded two more, but could not find either of the latter, altho altho' they track't them by their Blood some way. The Assembly of New-Hampshire then sitting, order'd the aforesaid Sum of one hundred pounds to be paid.

The next damage they did, was at Groton, but were so closely pursued, that they left several of their Packs behind. About which time News came to Deerfield of a Body of Indians discover'd up Connecticut River. Capt. Thomas Wells Rallied a Company of Men, and went in quest of them, but made no further Discovery, till, upon their return home, about four Miles from Deerfield, three of the Company (supposing themselves out of Danger) Rode at some distance before the rest, and unhappily fell into an Ambushment of the Enemy near a Swamp, and were all three kill'd by them. But the Company behind, hearing the Guns, rode up with all speed, and came upon the Enemy while they were scalping the slain; and firing upon them wounded several. Upon which the Enemy fled into the Swamp, and the English dismounting their Horses, ran in after them, and trackt them a considerable way by the Blood of the wounded, but found none. However they recovered ten Packs, and heard afterwards that two died of their Wounds, and a third lost the use of his Arm. Another Company fell on Sparwink, where they mortally wounded Solomon Jordan, as he was coming out of the Garrison. Next 1724 day being July the 18th. Lieut. Bean went in quest of them, and came up with a Scout of thirty whom he engag'd and put to flight, leaving twenty five Packs, twelve Blankets, a Gun, a Hatchet, and sundry other things behind them.

 The

The Enemy not finding so great encourag-ment In attacking our Frontiers as they expected, were now resolved to turn Pirates, and accordingly intercepted several of our Fishery as they went in and out the Harbours for Wood, Water, or in case of Storms, and accordingly made up a Fleet of fifty Canoes, who design'd at first for Monhe- gen, but going thro, the Fox Islands, and seeing several Vessels at Anchor, surprized eight with little or no Opposition; in which were forty Men, twenty of whom they put to Death, reserving the Skippers and best Sailors to Navigate for them: After this they took fourteen more; & with the assistance of the Cape Sable Indians, became so powerful and desperate, that at first they terrified all Vessels that sail'd along the Eastern Shore. They then went to St. Georges with a design to burn that Garrison; in order whereto, they fill'd a couple of Shallops with cumbustible matter, which they set on fire, but it was happily extinguished. They then offered terms on surrendering which were rejected. And finding that neither Force nor Insinuation would prevail they withdrew, and sail'd to Annapolis, expecting to surprize the Fort; but firing at a Soldier in their March, gave an Alarm; and a detachment issued forth; who after a smart dispute gave them a perfect rout, but not without loss on our side.

The Fishery being thus invaded, two Shallops with about forty Men well fixt went from New- hampshire, who fairly came up with one of them, but thro' Cowardize and Folly were afraid to engage them: However Doctor Jackson from Kittery, and Sylvanus Lakeman from Ipswich, with a lesser number gave them Chase, and fired very smartly with their small Arms, altho' the Enemy had two great Guns and four Pateraroes, which cut their Shrouds and hindred their pursuit for some time: But being fixed again, they followed them with greater Resolution, and drove them into Penobscot, where a greater Body being ready to cover tuem, he was forced to desist. The Doctor and Mr. Cutt were dangerously wounded in this Engagement, but some time after recovered. This Storm of the Enemy by Sea produced no Calm ashore.

At Rutland they kill'd three Men, wounded one, and took another; and at Oxford beset a House that lay under a Hill, but as one of the Enemy attempted to break thro' the Roof, he was shot by a Woman of the House. The Sabbath now became a Day of Danger in which they often did Mischief, as at Dover, Oyster-River and Berwick, where they kill'd one, wounded a second, and carried away a third.

Capt. Harmon, Moulton, Brown and Bene, were now preparing for Naridwalk with two hundred Men in seventeen Whale-boats. After they landed at Triconnick, they met with Bamazeeu at Bromswick, (who had slain an Englishman some days before) whom they shot in the River, as he attempted to make an escape. They afterwards kill'd his Daughter, and took his Wife Captive; who gave an account of the state of the Enemy; which encouraged them to march on briskly; and on August 12th they got within two miles of the place: Capt. Harmon drew off with above sixty Men to range their Corn-fields, in hopes of find-finding some there, imagining they saw some Smokes; while Capt. Moulton with about an hundred Men moved forward, and when he came within view of the Town, artfully divided them into three Squadrons, of thirty in each; having ordered ten to guard their Baggage, and a Squadron on each Wing to lye in Ambush, while he with the like number encountered them in the Front. He went on with such Resolution, that he got within Pistol shot before he was discovered.

The Indians were under amazing Terror; yet in their surprize some of them snatch'd up their Guns and fired: but their hands shook and they did no Execution. They immediately betook themselves to flight, and in running fell on the very muzzles of our Guns that lay in Ambush. Our Men pursued them so warmly, that several were slain on the spot; more got into their Canoes, & others ran into the River; which was so rapid and the falls in some places so great, that many of them were drowned. By this time Capt. Har- mer came up, who was not so happy as to discover any of the Enemy where he expected. The number of the dead which we scalpt, were twenty six, besides Mounseur Ralle the Jesuit, who was a Bloody Incendiary, and Instrumental to most of the Mischiefs that were done us, by preaching up the Doctrine of meriting Salvation by the destruction of Hereticks. Some say that Quarter was offered him, which he refused and would neither give nor take any. After this they burnt and destroyed the Chappel, Canoes, and all the Cottages that lay round, they also took four Indians alive, and recovered three Captives.

The number in all that were kill'd and drown'd were supposed to be eighty, but some say more. The greatest Victory we have obtained in the three or four last Wars; and it may be as noble an Exploit (all things considered) as ever hapned in the time of King Phillip. About seventy French Indians were now making a descent on our Frontiers, who divided into several Parties and kill'd a great number of Cattel. Some of them fell on the House of John Hanson of Dever, who being a stiff Quaker, full of Enthusiasm, and ridiculing the Military Power, would on no account be influenced to come into Garrison; by which means his whole Family (then at home,) being eight in number, were all kill'd and taken. But some time after his Wife and two or three of his Children were redeemed with considerable Pains and Expence.

September 4th. they fell on Dunstable, and took two in the Evening, next morning Lieut. French with fourteen Men went in quest of them; but being way-laid, both he and one half of his Company were destroyed. After that as many more of a fresh Company engaged them, but the Enemy being much superior in number overpower'd them, with the loss of one Man and four wounded.

On the Monday after they kill'd John Collins of Kingstons, with his Son, as they were gathering Corn-stalks. About the same time Nathan Edwards of Northampton was kill'd. And the next day the same Company of Indians went to Westfield, and fell on several People as they were coming out of the Meadows with their Carts load-

Guns all missing fire except Mr. Neah Ashley's, his went off, and shot down one of the Enemy; which put a stop to their further pursuit of the English. Hereupon a Company Rallyed, and went after the Enemy, and quickly found the In- di-an whom Ashley had slain. And taking his Scalp, said Ashley brought it to Boston, and received one hundred Pounds Reward for it. And now a Regiment of fresh Men under the Command of Col. Westbrook were preparing for Penob- scot, one of their chief places of randevous for Planting and Fishing; but by the unskillfulness of his Guides, were led into a labyrinth of Difficulties, and after a long Fatigue return'd without any discovery.

Capt. Lovewell from Dunstable with thirty Volunteers, at the same time went North-ward, who marching several Miles up the Country came on a Wigwam wherein were two Indians, one of which they kill'd and the other took, for which they received the promised bounty of one hundred pounds a Scalp, and two Shillings and six pence a day besides.

Other Companys were disposed to go out on the like encouragment, but did not see the track of an Indian; being under such amazing Terror, by reason of their late overthrow at Noridwalk, that they deserted their former Habitation; for when Capt. Heath went to Penobscot, he made no other discovery than a few empty Wigwams.

The Government (being thorowly appriz'd of the perfidy of the French at Canada, in supplying the Indians with all necessary stores of War, notwithstanding the Peace at Utrecht, so firmly ratified between the two Crowns) sent Col. Tbaxter and Col. Dudley from the Massachusetts, with Mr. Atkinson from New-Hamshire, as Commissioners to represent the many Grievances that arose thereby; As also to demand the several Captives which they had of ours, and that hence forward they would withdraw all manner of assistance from the Enemy; for as they were Indian bordering between both Governments, they belonged either to the Dominion of Great Britain, or unto the French King; if to the French King, then consequently they were his Subjects, and the encouraging or supplying them with warlike Stores against the English, was a flagrant violation of the Peace between the two Crowns; if they belonged to the King of Great Britain, then the exciting them to War was as great a breach, and a stirring them up to Rebellion, contrary unto their Allegiance and Submission in the year 1694. which was afterwards renewed in the year 1713. and 1717.

Our Gentlemen in their Journey to Quebeck, met the Governour at Mount Real unto whom they delivered this Message: Upon which the Governour seem'd to extendate his supplying or countenancing them in any act of Hostility; till they made it evident from Letters under his Hand unto Mounseur Rallee the Jesuit and Father Confessor. But to palliate the Matter he reply'd, They were an Independant Nation, and that as the Captives were out of his reach he would not engage therein. But as to those among the French he would order them to be released upon paying the first Cost that they had given the Indians. This we were oblig'd to do, after an exorbitant manner; and in the whole got but sixteen with the promise of ten more. Notwithstanding this he would often reflect on the English for invading the Properties of the Indians, till our Commissioners demonstrated that we possess'd no more than what we purchas'd, and had formerly inhabited; and in as much as the Boundaries between the Two Crowns were firmly fixt, that all the Indians inhabiting this side L' Accadia, must of consequence belong to the Crown of Great Britain. After this our Gentlemen departed, acknowledging the kind Entertainment which his Excellency had given them; who order'd a Guard to attend them part of their way home.

But the difficulties and hazards that they met with in their Journey were great and terrible. It took them full four Months. The Lake they pass'd over was a hundred and fifty miles long, and thirty wide, which was covered with Water four inches on the surface of the Ice. The first place they came to was Shamblee, where is a strong Fortification 200 foot square, and 30 foot high, with four Bastions, in which are four tier of Guns one above another. From thence they travell'd to Mount Real, which is an Island of 30 miles long and 12 wide, lying in the middle of the River commonly called St. Lawrence's River; about 180 miles up from Quebeck, navigable for Vessels of about 100 Tons. (of Mount Real) lies near the middle, walled round with Stone and Lime 16 foot high and 3 thick; but no Battery or Fortification; in which are three Churches, two Chappels, two Nunneries, and two Streets of three quarters of a mile in length; containing about 400 Houses. Their Trade is mostly in Furs, which they transport to Quebeck, and from thence to France.

Capt. Lovewell, who was endowed with a generous Spirit and Resolution of serving his Country, and well acquainted with hunting the Woods, raised a new Company of Volunteers, & marched some miles beyond their common Head-quarters: On the Easterly side of Winnepissocay Ponds he cross'd an Indian Track, and soon after espied two of them, whose Motions he watch'd all the Day, and at Night silently came upon them as they lay asleep round their Fire. At his first firing he kill'd seven, after that two more, and wounded another, which was their whole Company: Who being within a Day and half march of our Frontiers, would probably have done mischief, had they not been so seasonably prevented. Their Arms were so new and good, that most of them were sold for seven pounds apiece, and each of them had two Blankets, with a great many spare Moggafens, which were supposed for the supplying of Captives that they expected to have taken. The Plunder was but a few Skins; but during the March our Men were well entertained with Moose, Bear, and Deer; together with Salmon Trout, some of which were three foot long, and weighed twelve pounds apiece.

April

April 13th. 1725. there came two Indians to Macquoit, and took one Cockram, a Soldier of about eighteen years of Age, whom they carried thirty Miles into the Woods. The first night they pinioned him, but left him loose the second. He took an opportunity (as they were asleep,) to knock them both on the head, Scalpt 'em and brought their Scalps away with him, and their Guns. But in his return he was so unhappy as to loose a Gun, and one of the Scalps, in fording over a River. When he came to the Garrison and gave an account of the whole affair, there went out a Party the next Morning and found the Indians both dead according to the information that he had given. He was not only rewarded according to the Act, but was advanced in his Post, for his brave Action, and for the encouragement of others.

On the Monday after came another Party to Harmouth, where they slew William and Maibew Scals, which was a great weakening to that Garrison, being very active and industrious Men, and the principal supporters thereof.

After this they went to Cape Porpos and way-laid Lieut. Trescott with some others, as they were passing along the Road, whom they fired on, and wounded the said Trescott in several places.

A Vessel from Conso about this time arriving, brought an account of seventy Indians that fell on an Out-house in view of the Garrison, where they kill'd seven Men, one Woman and a Child, and from thence went to Capt. Durell's Island, where they beset a fortified House in which were only four, who engag'd them several Hours; one of which was in a little time shot thro' a loop-hole, but the remaining three held out and defended themselves with such bravery, that the Enemy was obliged to draw off with considerable loss.

Capt. Lovewell being still animated with an uncommon zeal of doing what Service he could, made another attempt on Pigwackett with forty four Men; who in his going built a small Fort near Ossipy, to have recourse unto in case of danger, as also for the relief of any that might be sick or wounded; and having one of his Men at this time sick, he left the Doctor with eight Men more to guard him: With the rest of his Company he proceeded in quest of the Enemy, who on May the 8th about 10 in the Morning, forty miles from said Fort, near Saco Pond, he saw an Indian on a point of Land: Upon which they immediately put off their Blankets and Snaplacks, and made towards him; concluding that the Enemy were a-head and not in the rear. Yet they were not without some Apprehensions of their being discovered two days before, and that the appearing of one Indian in so bold a manner, was on purpose to ensnare them. Wherefore the Captain calling his Men together, proposed whether it was best to engage them or not; who boldly reply'd, That as they came out on purpose to meet the Enemy, they would rather trust Providence with their Lives and die for their Country, than return without seeing them. Upon this they proceeded, and mortally wounded the Indian, who notwithstanding returned the Fire, and wounded Capt. Lovewell in the Belly: Upon which Mr. Wyman fired fired and kill'd him. But their dismantling themselves at this juncture proved an unhappy snare; for the Enemy taking their Baggage, knew their strength by the number of their Packs, where they lay in ambush till they returned, and made the first shot; which our Men answered with much bravery, and advancing within twice the length of their Guns, slew nine: The Encounter was smart and desperate, and the Victory seem'd to be in our favour, till Capt. Lovewell with several more were slain and wounded, to the number of twelve: Upon which our Men were forced to retreat unto a Pond, between which and the Enemy was a ridge of Ground that proved a Barrier unto us. The Engagement continued ten hours, but altho' the shouts of the Enemy were at first loud and terrible, yet after some time they became sensibly low and weak, and their appearance to lessen: Now whether it was thro' want of Ammunition, or on the account of those that were slain and wounded, that the Enemy retreated; certain it is they first drew off and left the Ground: And altho' many of our Men were much enfeebled by reason of their Wounds, yet none of the Enemy pursued them in their return. Their number was uncertain, but by the advice which we afterwards received, they were seventy in the whole, whereof forty were said to be kill'd upon the spot, sixteen more died of their Wounds, and that twelve only returned. An unhappy instance at this time fell out respecting one of our Men, who when the Fight began was so dreadfully terrified, that he ran away unto the Fort, telling those who were there, there, that Capt. Lovewell was kill'd with most of his Men; which put them into so great a Consternation, that they all drew off, leaving a bag of Bread and Pork behind, in case any of their Company might return and be in distress.

The whole that we lost in the Engagement were fifteen, besides those that were wounded. Eleazer Davis of Concord was the last that got in, who first came to Berwick and then to Portsmouth, where he was carefully provided for, and had a skilful Surgeon to attend him. The Report he gave me was, That after Capt. Lovewell was kill'd, and Lieut. Farewell and Mr. Pobbins wounded, that Ensign W. man took upon him the command of the shattered Company, who behaved himself with great Prudence and Courage, by animating the Men and telling them, That the Day would yet be their own, if their Spirits did not flag; which enliven'd them anew, and caused them to fire so briskly, that several discharged between twenty and thirty times apiece. He further added, that Lieut. Farewell, with Mr. Fry their Chaplain, Jessab Jones, and himself, who were all wounded, march'd towards the Fort; but Jones steer'd another way, and after a long fatigue and hardship got safe into Saco. Mr. Fry three days after, thro' the extremity of his Wounds, began to faint and languish, and died. He was a very worthy and promising young Gentleman, the bud of whose Youth was but just opening into a Flower.

Mr. Jacob Fullam, who was an Officer and an only Son, distinguish'd himself with much bravery. One of the first that was kill'd was by his hand; and when ready to encounter a second, it's said, that he and his Adversary fell at the very instant by each others Shot. Mr. Farewell held out in his return till the eleventh day; during which time he had nothing to eat but Water and a few Roots which he chewed; and by this time the Wounds thro' his Body were so mortified, that the Worms made a thorow Passage. The same day this Davis caught a Fish which he broil'd, and was greatly refresh'd therewith; but the Lieut. was so much spent, that he could not taste a bit. Davis being now alone in a melancholy desolate state, still made toward the Fort, and next day came to it, where he found some Pork and Bread, by which he was enabled to return as before-mentioned.

Just as I had finished this Account, I saw the Historical Memoirs of the ingenious Mr. Symmes, wherein I find two things remarkable, which I had no account of before: One was of Lieut.
Robins, who being sensible of his dying state, desired one of the Company to charge his Gun and leave it with him, being perswaded that the Indians by the Morning would come and scalp him, but was desirous of killing one more before he died. The other was of Solomon Kies, who being wounded in three places, lost so much Blood as disabled him to stand any longer; but in the heat of the Battle, calling to Mr. Wyman said, he was a dead Man; however said that if it was possible he would endeavour to creep into some obscure hole, rather than be insulted by these bloody Indians: But by a strange Providence, as he was creeping away, he saw a Canoe in the Pool, which he roll'd himself into,
 and

and by a favourable Wind (without any assistance of his own) was driven so many miles on, that he got safe unto the Fort.

In 1 Sam. 31. 11, 12, 13. it is recorded to the immortal Honour of the Men of Jabish Gilead, that when some of their renowned Heroes fell by the hand of the Philistines, that they prepared a decent Burial for their Bodies.

Now so soon as the Report came of Capt. Lovewell's defeat, about fifty Men from New-hampshire well equipt, marched unto Rigwackett for the like end, but were not so happy as to find them: But Col. Tyng from Dunstable, with Capt. White who went afterwards, buried twelve; where at a little distance they found three Indians, among whom was Paugus, a vile and bloody Wretch. Now the reason why no more of the Enemy could be found, was because it's customary among them to conceal their dead, and bury them in some places of obscurity.

Give me leave here again to relate (as I did before respecting Col. Hilton) that six or eight Days before Capt. Lovewell was defeated, we had a current Report several miles round of his being so, with little or no variation both as to Time and Circumstances.

Our encountering the Enemy at such a distance was so terrible and surprizing, that they never found any body after. And tho' our Actions in this War can bear no comparison with those of our British Forces, (which have caused the World to wonder) yet not to mention the bravery of these Worthies, who died in the Bed of Honour, and for the interest of their Country,

*The mourning Drum, the Lance and Ensigns trail,

Mr. Wyman, who distinguish'd himself in such a signal manner, was at his return presented with a Silver hiked Sword and a Captains Commission. Edward Lingfield was also made an Ensign, and the General Assembly (to shew a grateful Acknowledgment to the Soldiers, and a compassionate Sympathy unto the Widows and Orphans,) ordered the Sum of fifteen hundred pounds to be given them; under a certain regulation. And for a further encouragement of Volunteers; ordered four Shillings a day out of the Publick to be paid every one that would enlist, besides the bounty of one hundred pounds a Scalp. Upon which a great many brave Men under the Command of Capt. White, Capt. Wyman, and others went out, but the Extremity of the Heat prevented their Marching far. Many of them sickned of the Bloody Flux, and some dyed after their return; particularly Capt. White and Capt. Wyman, whose Deaths were very much lamented.

Sagwartin, and Nebin, one a Hostage and the other a Prisoner belonging to the English, being desirous of visting their old Acquaintance, had liberty granted them on their Parole; who after some time returned and gave an Account, that the Indians were generally disposed to a Peace, for that the losses they met with, and the daily Terror four they were under made their lives miserable. After this they went out again, and meeting with several others, they represented their ready desires of having a Treaty of Pacification with the English. Upon which Col. Walton, from New-Hampshire, Col. Stoddard and Mr. Wainwright; from the Massachusetts, were appointed Commissioners to go unto St. Georges to hear and report what they had to offer. They arrived there July the second, and sent the said two Indians with a Letter unto their Chiefs, letting them know that they were come; who in six days after appeared under a Flag of Truce.

Capt. Bean the Interpreter was sent to meet them. They brought a Letter from Winnemisset their Chief Sagamore, which was wrote in French. The import of which was to congratulate the Gentlemen Arrival on a design of Peace, which they earnestly desired to treat about, provided they might do it safely; being under some fear and jealousy. And indeed they had Cause of being so, for that about ten days before under a Flag of Truce, some of the English Treacherously attempted to lay violent Hands upon them, but lost one in the Skirmish, and had another wounded, which was the occasion of the like unhappy disaster that afterwards hapned unto Capt. Saunders in Penobscot Bay. They then moved, that in as much as many of their Men were scattered, (being out a hunting) that our Gentlemen would stay a little, which they consented to. And five days after, Seven came in under a Flag of Truce, making the usual signal; and informing the Commissioners they would wait on them to were dismiss'd. The next day their whole Body came within a quarter of a Mile of the Garrison desiring the English to come to them ; which they refused, saying, that they were sent from the several Governments to hear what they had to offer ; but assured them that if they came to them no injury should be offered. After a short consultation they comply'd, provided that the English would engage it in the Name of God. And then they sent in thirteen of their Chiefs, expecting the like number of English to be sent them. So soon as they met, the Commissioners demanded what they had to offer, who complimented them with the great satisfaction they had in seeing them in so peaceable a disposition, and that it was also the intent and desire of their hearts. It was then ask'd wherefore they made War upon the English ? Who replied, because of their Encroachments upon their Lands so far Westward as Cape- Newagen, where two of their Men as they said were beaten to Death. Unto which 'twas answered, That that very Land was bought by the English, and that the Deeds from their Predecessors were ready to be shewn ; And admitting it was true what they said, that the English did so inhumanly beat two of their Indians, yet it was not justifiable in them (according to the Articles of Peace) to commence a War at once, without first making Application to the Government, who at all times were ready to do them justice.

This Conference being over, they propos'd a further Treaty ; which after some debate was resolved to be at Boston. They then moved for a Cessation

Cessation of Arms, but our Commissioners, having no power, replied, that if they went to Boston it might probably be granted. But in the mean time moved that each Party should be on their Guard, for that it was the Custom of Nations to carry on the War on both sides till matters were fully concluded. The Indians reply'd that as they desired Peace, they were resolv'd on calling in their young Men, promising for themselves and those also of their Tribe, that no Hostility should be formed against us.

The Treaty being over, Capt. Loran and Abanquid, who were two of their Chiefs, accompanied our Gentlemen to Boston, where they were friendly Entertained, and after a Capitulation of matters, return'd in a Vessel prepared on purpose, with a promise of bringing more of their Chiefs with them in forty days after their arrival, for a final Issue of all differences.

Several Constructions and Censures were pass'd on this Treaty; some thinking the English were more forward for a Peace than the Indians, and that as we now knew their head quarters, might easily destroy their Corn, and disrest them in their Fishery, which would bring them to a ready composition. Altho' the Penobscot Indians seem'd Guarantee for the other Tribes, yet as we knew them Treacherous, we could put no confidence in them, but rather lay our selves open unto a Snare, and become the more secure. Something like this accordingly fell out; for on September 15th a Party of them fell on some of Cocheco while at work in the Field, where they slew one, Scalpt another, cut off the Head of a third, and carried carried a fourth Captive; all which belong'd to the Family of the Evans's.

A few days after another Party attack'd a Garrison at North Yarmouth, but were so stoutly repulsed that they made no impression; but at their drawing off, kill'd several Cattel. Two days after some appear'd at Mowsum and then at Damaru Cove, which lies Eastward of Kennebeck, and is two Leagues within the line agreed upon; where they took and burnt two Shallops which belonged to Stephen Hunuel, and Alexander Saoper, whom with five Men and a Boy, they carried to the Winnigause, and knockt him on the head. Some conjectured these Indians came from Canada, others that they belong'd to the Eastward, for that an English Jacket was afterwards seen on one of them; but the Eastern Indians laid it on the other.

At the same time the English had several Companies out, as at Amarascoggin, Rockamagug, Naridgwalk, &c. Where Col. Harmon and others went, but made no discovery. Some thought that We hereby infring'd on the Articles made between them and us, unto which it may be replied, that these places were not within the Penobscot Line; and altho' they promis'd to do what they could in restraining others from falling on the English, yet as several Scouts from other Places were then out, they could not absolutely engage for them; Wherefore it was now requisite for us to secure our Frontiers.

About the 28th September 1725 Capt Dwight of Fort Dummer sent out a Scout of six Men West, who being upon their return sat down to Refresh them.

themselves; and hearing a noise like Rūning, looked up, and saw fourteen Indians just upon them. Our Men fired at the Enemy, but were soon over pow'd by the Indians, who kill'd two, took three and one escaped.

The forty days before mentioned for coming in of the Penobscot Indians, with those of the other Tribes being near twice expired, gave great uneasiness for fear of some Mischief that was designed. But in the beginning of November, the several Captains hereafter mentioned came in, viz. Sauguaram, alias Soron, Arexus, Francois Xavier, Meganumbe, where the following Submission and Agreement was concluded on.

Attest

J. Willard, Secr.

Thus we have seen the Events of twenty three Years, in most of which we have heard nothing but the sound of the Trumpet, and the alarm of War.
And in the time of the Intervening Peace, we met with many Interruptions and Acts of Hostility, which prevented the growth of our Eastern Settlements.

It's surprizing to think that so small a number of Indians should be able to distress a Country

try so large and populous, to the degree we have related. The Charge of the War in the last three Years was no less than One hundred and seventy thousand pounds; besides the constant Charge of watching, warding, scouting, making and repairing of Garrisons, &c. which may modestly be computed at upwards of seventy thousand pounds more. Yet after all, the Enemy have but little cause of Triumph; for that one third of them (at least) have been destroy'd, and one of their Tribes so shattered (at Naridgwalk) that they are never more like to make any formidable head.

Now as Peace seems once more to be concluded by the Treaty beforementioned, the greatest Difficulty will be to support and maintain it. If Trading Houses, which are now resolved on, (by the Wisdom of the Government) be well regulated, it may (under God) be a means of our Tranquillity: Especially if the Government can also prevail with them to receive the Ministry for their instruction in the Principles of the true Religion.

But altho' it was agreed on with the several Delegates that the Treaty should be ratified and confirmed in a publick and solemn manner by the Chiefs of the several Tribes of the Eastern Indians at Falmouth in Casco-Bay, some time in the Month of May; yet when that time came they were not ready for it, but seem'd for some time uncertain and dilatory. Nevertheless the Government from time to time received Advices of their continued desires of Peace; and resolving that the failure should not be on our part, His Honour the Lieutenant Governour with a Quorum of His Ma-

Majesty's Council, and a number of Gentlemen of the House of Representatives; attended with a good Guard, and a fine train of Young Gentlemen; set out from Boston on July 14. and arrived at Fal- mouth the 16th.

On the 21st: His Honour received a Letter from Wenemouet, Sagamore and chief Sachem of the Pe- nobscot Tribe, dated at St. Georges July 19. Praying him to meet the Indians at Pennaquid; which his Honour absolutely refused; requiring him to come to Casco, and promising him safe conduct.

On the 29th Wenemouet arrived, with a number of his Principal Men and others, about forty; and on the thirtieth the Conference for the Ratification of the late Treaty was enter'd on; and on the sixth of August it was concluded.

The Penobscot Tribe only appeared, but in behalf of all the other Tribes. The Canada Tribes had been sent to by them, and had sent a Letter (as they said) with two Wampam Belts; the one for their Brethren of Penobscot, in Token of suppose of their being concluded by them in the present Treaty; the other to be presented to our Governour upon the Ratification of the Treaty; which was accordingly presented.

The Lieut. Governour demanded of them, Why the Narridgwalks were not there? Wenemouet answered, that they had full power to act for them, and for the Wowenocks and the Arreruguisenocks, and the St. Francis.

The Governments had many and large Conferen- ces with the Indians; worthy to be communicated to the Publick, and which would be an Enter- tainment to the Curious. In these Conferences the Discretion and Prudence of the Silvages was observable, as well as the Wisdom, Justice, Equity and Tenderness of the Governour on our part.

One of the first things that the Indians desired of our Governours was, That they would give order that the Kessels in the Harbour as well as the Taverns ashore might be restrained from selling any Liquors to their Young Men. The Governour told them, that he very much approved of that, and would give order accordingly.

On Saturday, July 30th when the Conference for the day was over, the Lieut. Governour told them, "To Morrow is the Lord's Day, on which we do no Business. Loron, their Speaker, answered readily, "To Morrow is our Sabbath-Day; we also keep the Day.

It may be a pleasure to the Reader to have the Words of the Ratification of the Treaty, both on our part and also on the part of the Indians.

On the Indians part it ran in the following Words.

WE the underwritten Wenemoret, chief Sachem and Sagamore of the Pembscot Tribe, and other the Chiefs with the rest of the said Tribe now convened, having had the within Articles of Peace distinctly and deliberately read over and interpreted to us; Do by these Presents in a publick and solemn manner, as well for ourselves as for all the within mentioned Tribes, from whom we are delegated and fully impowered, Ratify, Affirm and Confirm all and singular the within Articles of Peace, To His most Sacred Majesty King GEORGE: And that the same and each of them be, and shall

On our part the Ratification of the Treaty ran thus.

By the Honourable William Dummer Esq. Lieut.
Governour and Commander in Chief of his Majesty's Province of the Massachusetts Bay in New-England.

Whereas Wenemoves the chief Sachem of Pentabscot, with others his Chiefs and the rest of said Tribe, Convented at Casco-Bay the 5th day of August 1726. Having solemnly and publickly Ratified

Wished the Treaty of Submission made at Boston the 27th day of December last, and delivered the same to me, which I have according accepted; I do hereby Ratify and Confirm all the Articles in the within mentioned Instrument.

Given under my Hand and Seal at Arms at Rahowah in Cape-Bay, the sixth day of August, in the thirteenth year of the Reign of our Sovereign Lord King GEORGE, by the Grace of God of Great-Britain, &c. Annoq. Dom. 1726.

WILLIAM DUMMER.

By the Command of his Honour the Lieut. Governour,

John Wainwright, Clerk of the Council.

After the Ratification was over the Lieut. Governour among other things, desired them to say, what Measures they purpos'd to take, whereby the Inhabitants on our Frontiers may be made safe and safe, notwithstanding the Norrid-walks &c. who did not personally appear to Ratify the Articles of the present Treaty?

They answered, That they would have the Inhabitants of the Frontiers to be very careful; and that as soon as they return'd home: it should be their first care to send to all the Tribes, and let them know that there is a Peace made.

The

The Lieut. Governour ask'd them, Will you lay your Commands and Injunctions on the other Tribes for that purpose, as far as you are able? Loron answered, We will do our utmost to oblige 'em to live peaceably towards us.

The Lieut. Governour replied, Do you say you will resent it, if any hostile Acts or Injuries should be committed against our People?

Loron. We will resent such Actions, and joyn our young Men with yours in such a case, and oblige them to be quiet and sit down. We mean in case any of the Tribes should rise against us, or resist us, we will take effectual means to set 'em down by force. As to the first Treaty we reckon'd our selves oblig'd to this, but we account we are under much more and stronger Obligations to it now; since the Engagements our whole Tribe have taken upon them, in ratifying the Articles of the Treaty. We shall take effectual care therefore that any such Persons be oblig'd to sit down.

We have given our Words, and repeated our Promises and Engagements; and our Words are written down, and they will appear afterwards against us.

When the whole Conference was transcribed, it was on August 11. (may the Day be memorable and happy to us and ours after us) distinctly read over and interpreted to Wenemovet and the Indians with him; and the Lieut. Governour ask'd them if they understood it, and whether it was rightly taken down? They answered, That the Conference was rightly taken down, and not a word missing in it.

The

His Honour then for their more full Satisfaction subscribed his Name to it, and then deliver'd it to Wenemovet, chief Sachem, who with his principal Men subscrib'd to it, and deliver'd it back to his Honour.

And thus we hope, by the Will of God, that a happy Foundation is laid for a lasting Peace. And we cannot conclude without a thankful Acknowledgement of the great favour and mercy of God to us, in the wise Conduct given unto His Honour the Licut. Governour, both in the management of the War, and also of the Treaty of Peace. May the Comforts and Rewards of a faithful Administration remain to Him for ever; and the happy Fruits of Peace unto these Provinces.

IN Page 102. there is a great omission, which the Reader is desired to correct, viz. In the Article relating to Lieut. Bean and Company, at the bottom of the Page, it should have been added, One of their principal Indians was kill'd, and his Scalp brought to Boston, for which said Bean and Company receiv'd an hundred pounds.
