City of Oakland, Where Refugees Are Flocking, and Prominent Officials

Oakland, to Which Refugees are Flocking

Scene in the Presidio, the U.S. Military Reservation at San Francisco, now turned into a great tented camp of refugees.

Chief Sullivan, Chief of San Francisco fire Department.

D. J. Sullivan, chief of San Francisco's fire department, who died from injuries received in the earthquake, was a first cousin of Mrs. Abbie Carron, widow of William Carron, who lives at 313 Charlotte street, this city. Mrs. Carron said last night that the relationship was on her mother's side of the family.

Chief Sullivan was born in Boston but moved to San Francisco with his parents while still a child. His father is dead and his mother owned a large amount of property in Chinatown. Mrs. Carron continued that she always understood that the deceased was a very brave man and had saved many lives in the course of the execution of his duties.

STORY OF PRESENT CONDITIONS IN THE RUINED CITY

Oakland, Calif., April 25.—When San Francisco is rebuilt it will be the most superb illustration of civic pride and unquestioning courage in the history of the world. The magnificent resources of the Pacific slope and the commanding position of the site of San Francisco will have nothing to do with the rise of the city from its ashes, compared with the marvellous spirit of her people. The calculating temperaments cannot understand the hot-blooded indomitable enthusiasm that is so strikingly apparent, and such might creep at the absolutely unbounded confidence of San Francisco.

a small girl on his shoulders astride of his neck and a baby in his arms, while his wife pushes a baby carriage loaded down with all their earthly possessions. Here is a Chinese woman with an invisible baby in a silk sack on her back and two little ones trotting stolidly behind her. Market street, the Broadway of San Francisco, is simply a stream of human beings.

At the open squares and the great Golden Gate park are the abiding places of tens of thousands. Jefferson square, typical of all, is a little town of shacks and tents. Women are hanging out their washing on lines strung from trees, cooking in fireplace built with loose bricks—there are plenty of bricks. Outside one tent stands a piano. A man is giving out onions and nuts are taking them away in their hats and women in their aprons.

Home Concert on the Street. Last night out on Frederick street, near the Panhandle, in San Francisco, a piano sounded. It was high 10 o'clock and the stars were shining after the rain. Eyes glanced up and down through the shrubbery and the refugees sat huddled together about their beds—Apaches—in an effort to dry out after the wetting of the afternoon. The piano, dripping with moisture stood on the curb, near the front of a cottage which had been wrecked by the earthquake.

FIRST 'FRISCO PAPER COMES
John M. Robertson Receives Copy of Newspaper Issued in Stricken City the Day After the Earthquake.

A curiosity that will prove a valuable memento of the great earthquake and conflagration in San Francisco was received here yesterday by John M. Robertson, of the hardware store of Kerr & Robertson, in Stock street, from Mr. Thos. B. Robertson. It is a copy of the first newspaper issued in San Francisco following the fearful disaster. It was published the day following the earthquake and is called "The Chronical of Disaster" and is the result of the supreme efforts of the three papers to get out a publication. There are but four pages and the whole is a return to the old hand set method. It however shows enterprise under the most extreme circumstances.

THAT OVER WORKED, PLAYED OUT FEELING AMONG WOMEN
There are thousands of females all over our land who are broken down in health and dragging out a miserable existence, and who are suffering with diseases peculiar to their sex, apparently growing old while yet young. Often they have swollen, sunken eyes, with a lifeless look; the face has a pinched and haggard appearance; they are weak, weary and trembling, often extremely nervous, sitting at apparently little noise. Many are low-spirited, and some are fretful. Some are apparently bloodless, with cold hands and feet, while others are flushed by an unusual reddening of the face, and sometimes dimness of vision, loss of memory, and often loss of appetite and sleep, and are wretched with terrible dreams.

MILBURN'S HEART AND NERVE PILLS
They bring health to the broken down, energy to the weakened constitution, tone up the tired, overstrained nerves, and strengthen the weak heart.
Mrs. Edward Jackson, Hall's Bridge, Ont., writes: "For a year I was greatly troubled with nervousness and loss of appetite, and could neither sleep nor eat. After taking a few boxes of Milburn's Heart and Nerve Pills I was completely cured and can recommend them to all sufferers."
Milburn's Heart and Nerve Pills 50 cents per box or three boxes for $1.25, all dealers. The T. Millburn Co., Limited, Toronto, Ont.

TAKEN TO ALMS HOUSE ON BOTTOM OF EXPRESS WAGON
Sarah Brown, the woman who was found in a yard off High street last Friday night, was taken from the jail to the almshouse yesterday afternoon sitting on the bottom of an express wagon.
The unfortunate woman, who is unable to walk, was carried down the jail steps by a couple of male prisoners. A blanket was thrown on the bottom of the wagon and she was lifted in. A boy was in charge of the team and heaved off along King street east, the woman holding on to the back of the seat with both hands—and thus the rather long journey to the almshouse at Croucheville was begun.
Secretary Wetmore, of the almshouse commission, who had been working on the case, said he had been unable to learn anything about the antecedents of the woman. His attention was drawn to the manner in which she had been removed to the almshouse and in reply he said he saw her in the jail Tuesday, when she said she felt well enough to be taken out but was unable to walk. He says he told her of the arrangement about the express wagon and that she expressed her thorough satisfaction. Mr. Wetmore said that no doubt it would have been better to have had a coach but she pointed out

PETITIONING TO HAVE REV. MR. PIERCE REMAIN AS PASTOR
It would seem that all is not yet settled in regard to the pastorate of Zion Methodist church, in spite of the fact that Rev. James Crisp, of Gibson, has been called and has accepted. From what can be ascertained the friends of Rev. Thomas Pierce, present pastor, are of the opinion that Rev. Mr. Pierce has not been used quite right and are therefore making strenuous efforts to have him retained. According to a member of the church three-quarters of the congregation have signed or will sign a petition to be forwarded to the stationing committee of the conference asking that Rev. Mr. Pierce be retained. Matters are therefore in a complicated state.

LIVING HIGH IN 'FRISCO
San Francisco, April 25.—"All is well" were the words that went down the line at police headquarters when the uniformed officials had finished their long night vigil through the burned districts and reported off duty to their commanding captains today.
"From reports of officers filed this morning," said Chief of Police Dinnan, "there is every indication that San Francisco has settled down to almost a normal condition. Our officers are everywhere, as usual, but no crime has been reported for the past twenty-four hours. The one perplexing problem that we have to contend with is the unequal distribution of food. The great mass of the most needy of the city are living better than they ever did in their lives, while the unfortunate who have been accustomed to seek for aid are actually suffering. We are doing all in our power to relieve this condition and hope in a few days to get rid of those who are taking everything in sight."
Retail trade was resumed today with a rush in the unburned sections of the city. In nearly every block on Fillmore street, from McAllister as far as California street, the dealers were running full force.
Many of the dealers complain that people who are able to pay for the necessities of life are departing upon the commission for their living.

STUDENTS, GIVEN UP AS LOST, ALIVE
Had Wintered on Isle Royal, Being Left Behind by Steamer Last Fall—Had Beards Hanging Down Their Breasts.
A Port Arthur despatch to the Toronto Globe says: When the steamer Bradshaw made the round of Isle Royale last week she found two men at Chippewa harbor, who had been unintentionally left on the island last fall. The men are D. E. Bailey and C. B. Hallner, of Ansonia (N. Y.), students, who meant only to spend their holidays on the island. Their disappearance was most mysterious, and their friends had been prosecuting inquiries all winter along Lake Superior, but without avail. The young men put in a good winter, hunting and trapping, and came out with hair hanging on their shoulders and beards falling to their breasts.

DUMPING INQUIRY OPENS IN CITY HALL

There were some lively passages at arms between the recorder and Ald. McArthur on one side and Gordon S. Mayes on the other last evening, at the investigation into the charges that mud and other material had been dumped within the harbor limits. Mr. Mayes claimed he was not permitted to ask questions and expressed himself as amazed at the ruling of the chair. The recorder reminded him that he was liable to be put out by a constable for disrespect, which drew a heated rejoinder, and a threat to import Dr. Pugsley into the proceedings. Matters quieted down after a time and the meeting adjourned with peace and harmony prevailing, to meet tomorrow evening.

Mr. Quinn, and Pilot Bart Rogers gave evidence tending to show that mud was dumped improperly. The harbor master disclaimed any knowledge of such acts. There will be many more witnesses at the next hearing, and it is expected will be held in the afternoon. Mr. Mayes, Van Wert, Bullock and Sproul were present with the recorder, common clerk and city hall stenographer.

Get Money Evidence at Once. Bostonian W. Quinn sworn, and examined by the chairman, said he knew of two or three occasions when mud from Sand Point was dumped between the Beacon light and Shag rocks. He did not remember dates, but it was this year. Mud was left lying on the beach for more than a week. He could not say if it had affected the east channel. He had seen mud dumped into the harbor from steamers. He knew it was done, because the steamers were not hauled away, given away or taken to sea.

Put the Harbor Master On. The chairman suggested the harbor master should be called to speak as to his knowledge of dumping. The harbor master—"I have nothing to say about it." Ald. Lewis—"He had better be sworn." Harbor master Ferris, sworn, said he had no knowledge of any material being deposited over the harbor within the last nine months except from one vessel last summer. He had no knowledge of dumping from steamers.

Witnesses. Mr. Mayes—"What, no right? In this free country. What right have you to say that to me?" The recorder—"No person can come here and dictate to or insult this committee." Mr. Mayes to the chairman—"I propose to leave now, but I claim I have a perfect right to have Dr. Pugsley here, if I can get him, because of the recorder's objection to my putting questions." The recorder—"That is absolutely untrue. You cannot make statements like that. You can't talk all the time." Mr. Mayes—"Where do you mean by the harbor?" The witness—"Where they dump it when they can't get it out."

A PERFECTLY PLAIN PROPOSITION The Story of a Girl and a Gold Mine

(Conclusion.) "It's only because it's Ed's project," she cried, wrathfully. "If it was any one else you would be hot after your self. It's a perfectly plain proposition, and you know it. You tell me not to see Burg. You say he won't invest in anything more, not even a sure 100 per cent. paying venture. Well, this is a thousand times more. He can realize a profit for years and years, on an investment of only $20,000. Do you think Burg will turn that down? I don't. And it's good to see him. You don't have to introduce me. As his secretary, it may be your place to keep people from bothering him, but you shan't stop me."

Ed's eyes were suddenly turned to her. "You shan't stop me," she said, "but I don't want to. You're the most precious thing in the world to me and—his voice was significant—"I know Burg." His meaning changed her completely. He meant to keep people from bothering him, but she meant to keep people from bothering her. "I'll introduce you, Lorene," he said, gently. "But I don't want to. You're the most precious thing in the world to me and—his voice was significant—"I know Burg."

That's where you find "Nervine" in every well regulated household. So pleasant to take that even little children don't object to its use; so certain to cure coughs, sudden colds and tight chest that thousands of bottles are used every day. Polson's Nervine does prevent illness, it does ease pain and inflammation and by being handy will save worry and keep down the doctor bills. Large bottles sold for a quarter at all dealers.

Backache is more than tiredness. Hard work does not bring sharp, shooting pains. And a dull, nagging pain—that a night's sleep won't drive away—is never due to weariness.

Nine times in ten, backache says Kidney Trouble. Pain is nature's way of telling you that your kidneys are weak—that they cannot do nature's work—that they want help to get well and strong again!

GIN PILLS are the greatest help that sick kidneys can have. They relieve the pain, strengthen the kidneys, and completely cure all kidney troubles. They are prepared solely to cure the kidneys. They do that one thing—and do it quickly and thoroughly. That's why we authorize any druggist to dispense them, and we do not ask you to buy a box of boxes for $1.00, or to buy a box of boxes for $1.00, or to buy a box of boxes for $1.00.

The Question of Nourishment to be derived from bread is most important, and should not be overlooked by any breadeater. There is, however, a vast difference in the nourishing properties of bread, which varies according to the flour from which it is made. It is admitted that the Manitoba Hard Wheat from which "FIVE ROSES" FLOUR is made contains more gluten and phosphates than any grain grown on this continent; and as "FIVE ROSES" is made only from the pick of the harvest, by a process which retains the nutritive properties of the grain unimpaired, bread made from it consequently contains more nutriment in more easily digestible form than that made with ordinary brands.

A MIX-UP IN THE MARKET

Report That Wm. Daley Will Sell Beer There—About Those Stands.

There was a rumour about the country market this morning that William Daley, who bought up twelve stands, was going to sell beer in the market and also degrees of recreational furniture.

A market official gave the following information: "Supposing Mr. Daley, who owns the stands, gets the consent of the Board of Safety to sublet his stands (as the city by-law exacts this consent), Mr. Daley does so. The stands are now let and Mr. Daley's tenants, as it were, occupy the stands. During the summer Saturdays the stands are generally well filled up, and opposing countrymen come and sell the clerk for stands and there are none. In that case he has the power to tell the countrymen to place their produce on the stands owned by Mr. Daley, and they can sell their produce there. That is where the law conflict. The local legislature looks after the interest of the countrymen."

ALD. McARTHUR TALKS ON LIGHT

Expresses Great Surprise That Mayor Signed Contract With Railway Co.

Ald. McArthur expressed great surprise this morning that the mayor had signed the contract with the St. John Railway Company for lighting the St. John street.

"Under all the circumstances my fight was in line with the thought expressed by Ald. Vanwart and others, that a one or two years' contract under the arrangements now drawing to a close with the railway company was in the best interests of the city. There is a very respectable that his worship the mayor should sign—if he has signed—the contract, without first consulting or knowing all the facts in connection with the matter."
