Telegrams on West Indies Matter Received

Halifax Joins St. John Word From Mr. Foster's Secretary—Hon. Mr. Pugsley Speaks of Situation in Interests of St. John and Canada

THE COUNCIL OF THE BOARD OF TRADE

The council of the board of trade met yesterday to take action regarding the West Indies steamship service, with a subsidy of $200,000 a year, might give the company the privilege of calling at Boston going and coming. The matter was taken up with the West India merchants and they were unanimous in their objections to the proposed terms. Telegrams protesting against the arrangements were sent to Ottawa to Hon. George E. Foster, Hon. Wm. Pugsley and Hon. J. D. Hazen, and a telegram was also sent to the Halifax board of trade asking for their cooperation.

THE BOARD OF TRADE

The board of trade understands that there is a bill before parliament giving a steamship service to the West Indies, both to the West Indies via Boston, both ways. Our board and every West Indian shipper canvassed today protesting vigorously against the board call as dangerous to Canadian interests and would divert business from Canadian ports. They ask for both Halifax and St. John each trip and an Boston call.

MAY BE UP IN THE COMMONS TODAY

The telegram sent to Halifax reads: "January 27, 1913. President Board of Trade, Halifax (N. S.). We are telegraphing to our members and the Minister of Trade and Commerce, the protest of this board and St. John shippers against subsidizing a steamship service for the West Indies, via Boston, and turning the same way with a subsidy of $200,000 annually. We suggest that your board and merchants cooperate and protest that Boston be cut out and the service be made Halifax and St. John." (Signed) J. M. ROBINSON, President Board of Trade.

MAY BE UP IN HOUSE TODAY

The terms of the contract may be laid before parliament today and the members of the Board of Trade and the West India merchants are awaiting the announcement of the details with interest. A telegram has been received from the secretary of the Halifax Board of Trade announcing their action in connection with the matter. Commenting on the fact that the boards of both cities are united in their union in this matter, President J. M. Robinson said this morning that he hoped that this would be only the beginning of the cooperation between the two cities. There has been the same lack of the get-together spirit throughout the previous years, and he thought the time was pretty nearly ripe for a movement towards united action in all matters of mutual interest.

How The Winter Girl Should Dress

FULLY one-third of the illnesses occurring during the fall and winter are the result of carelessness. We have all met the foolish woman who in winter garbs herself in a flimsy suit, open-work waist and low shoes and pined her for her utter lack of common sense.

Do not court trouble in the shape of influenza or rheumatism. Miss Winter Girl, by going out in the streets when the mercury points to ten above with not enough clothing to keep you comfortable. It is worth while to keep well, as illness, no matter of how trifling a character, makes serious inroads upon one's health, and, incidentally, one's purse. I am not at all "fussy," but I do think it foolish to deliberately court a doctor's bill.

"What should I wear?" methinks I hear a timid voice ask. Why, in the first place, a pair of thick-soled, heavy shoes. Perhaps they do not look quite so fetching as pumps, but think how comfortable your feet will feel!

In the second place, the winter girl should wear cotton or woolen underwear next to the skin. You can see I am considerate, as I do not absolutely insist upon woolsens. I know full well that some people have such sensitive skins that an annoying rash is the result, if they, foolishly, once attempt to go garbed in woolen undergarments.

Woolen or cotton, it makes not very much difference, so long as the body is kept in a comfortable state, despite winter winds and a sero-hugging mercury.

Now let us chat for a minute or two on the subject of flimsy, lingerie shiftwaists. Probably you expect me to frown upon them, but this is where I shall disappoint you. I have not the slightest objection to the Snow Girl wearing a blouse, bewitching in its femininity, if beneath it she wears a woolen or cotton skirt, and on top of it—when she goes a walking in God's open air—a heavy jacket surmounted by a

WHAT THE DOCTOR SAYS

ANNIE SAYS

(Copyright, 1913, by the McClure Newspaper Syndicate.)

We were told that straw would be scarce this spring. When the weather was caused a deficit in a commodity that we thought was inexhaustible. The Italian war took people's eyes off the straw and the platters of straw away from their tanks, especially in the districts where Milan straws were made. How they are declared has made the peasants afraid to take their straw to market these days. It seems a far cry from those two serious events among the human race to the scarcity of straw hats that a woman will wear.

The traders have searched hidden spots of the earth for a supply of straw and they have been partly successful, but it is not probable that the rumors of scarcity in desirable straws will add another burden to the high cost of clothing.

For the price of the exclusive milliners, it is hard to see how they could be raised within the shadow of honesty, since a small hat almost glibly of trimming brings $10 and one with a parade plume brings $120 there is no need to ask more for a pair of straw. Of course the milliners can find consolation in these prices there is no reason why they should not ask them, but the exorbitant demands are surely being shown and show to what ridiculous heights prices are raised.

WHITE STRAW AGAIN

The milliners in Paris are excited for the high prices of hats the unusual genius it takes to create a new style, and genius is receiving the full commendation these days. The milliners in America give a better excuse, which is the price they pay for the straw that they use. It is the duty to bring it into America.

On the other hand, there has never been a time when smart hats were so reasonably priced. This follows in line with the low prices for excellent copies of new French gowns, which she average woman can buy within a week or two of her receipt of the money she has earned.

What a woman means by an Easter bonnet is a new spring hat that she will put on the first mild day, be it February or June. If she likes the hat she may be seen in it in a better bazaar, for she has no comment about wearing straw and roses with velvet and tulle. She is unlike men in not having sartorial caprice. Can you imagine a man putting a straw hat on in February? He spends much of his time calling women a slave to fashion, but he is the original and uninteresting slave of the season is a white hat. It is difficult to tell whether this is owing to the fact that the milliners cater to those who go South, or whether white is to be the first fashion of the day. There are white straw hats, white pique ones, white corded silk ones and a pale Panama that is almost white. The white pique ones are not new, but they are excessively attractive. They were introduced for the Panama trip when it first became famous, and offered as a substitute for the khaki helmet, which was supposed to be the best protection from the sun. These had a high round crown and a dipping brim that shaded the eyes and the back of the head. The trimming was a wide band of sapphire velvet around the crown. Sometimes there was a ribbon of velvet under the brim, which made it more becoming to the face. Doubtless because of the success of this hat the milliners have brought out others like it. The new ones are made of the same material, but not exactly in the same shape. One can get any kind of hat of white pique now and feel that it is as fashionable and becoming as a straw one. Maybe the fabric has taken the place of straws that were difficult to get because the manufacturers saw in it chances as much and for making money. One of straw, and yet the material itself of the hat is inexpensive.

S. G. B. Crawford, two years ago a candidate for Mayor of Albany, New York, made a unique announcement of his candidacy this year. He shows a campaign picture of himself with his hat off, all his other pictures having been with his hat on. The hat, he explains, has been cast "into the fire."

DON'T PULL OUT THE GRAY HAIRS

A Few Applications of a Simple Remedy Will Bring Back the Natural Color

"Pull out one gray hair and a dozen will take its place" is an old saying, which is, to a great extent, true. If no steps are taken to stop the cause, when gray hair appears it, is a sign that Nature needs assistance. It is Nature's call for help. Gray hair, dull, lifeless, hair, or hair that is falling out, is not necessarily a sign of advancing age, for there are thousands of elderly people with perfect heads of hair without a single streak of gray.

When gray hairs come, on which the hair seems to be lifeless or dead, some good, reliable hair-restoring treatment should be resorted to at once. Specialists say that one of the best preparations to use is the old-fashioned "sage tea" which some grand parents use. The best preparation of this kind is Wyeth's Sage and Sulphur Hair Restorer. It is a simple, scientific compound of later discovered hair tonics and stimulants, the whole mixture being carefully balanced and tested by experts.

Wyeth's Sage and Sulphur is clean and wholesome and perfectly harmless. It refreshes dry, parched hair, removes dandruff and gradually restores faded or gray hair to its normal color.

Don't delay another minute. Start using Wyeth's Sage and Sulphur at once and you will see what a difference a few days' treatment will make in your hair.

This preparation is offered to the public at fifty cents a bottle, and is recommended and sold by all druggists.

WHAT THE PLAYHOUSES OFFER

UNIQUE

There seems to be a steady improvement in the special Western features shown at the Unique Theatre every Monday and Tuesday of each week. Yesterday's subject was a result of the Hroncho Company's finest effort called His Sense of Duty. The story is one that could happen, and all the more interesting for the fact. Splendid pictorial effect is achieved in the producing. The hills, the valleys, the gorges are spread out before the eye that one may witness the remote manoeuvres as well as all that is passing in the foreground, anticipate the inevitable clash and see the result of the movement and consistency of development in His Sense of Duty cause the action to be carried in strong continuity to the general termination. A strong moral is set forth in the story and this with the exciting and altogether sensational scenes employed in its unfolding make it a headline in every respect. The subject was strongly commended by the New Brunswick Board of Censors. It will be repeated today. Wednesday's feature will be a Thanhouser portrayal of Mrs. Braddon's famous novel, Aurora Floyd.

ST. JOHN PLAYGROUNDS

IN DETROIT PUBLICATION

The January issue of The Club Woman, published in Detroit, directs attention to a very effective way to the playground movement in St. John. The frontispiece of the magazine is a very clear picture of the formal opening of Rockwood Park playground by H. R. H. the Duke of Connaught. Then there is an article on the playgrounds of Canada by Miss Mabel Peters with two illustrations of St. John playgrounds. There is also a view of a playground in Winnipeg, and a portrait of Miss Peters herself. In the article on Canadian playgrounds Miss Peters covers the development of playgrounds throughout the country, with special reference to the part taken by the Women's Councils. The same issue of the Club Woman contains an article by Mrs. Clara E. Arthur, who is Miss Peters' sister, on the convention of the National Suffrage Association in Philadelphia in November last.

Miss MacDonalld, who came of a distinguished Highland Scotch family, was born at Odra Glen, Inverness, and came to Ontario as a child, residing in Toronto for many years.

NEWBRO'S HERPICIDE SAVES WORRY, SAVES MONEY, SAVES THE HAIR

If you want to free your head of dandruff and stop falling hair, you must sooner or later resort to Newbro's Herpicide.

By using Herpicide first you save yourself worry, which is desirable, you save money, which is a consideration, and you save your hair, which is the most important of all.

Why not profit by the experience of Mrs. S. A. Lee, of 119 South 4th street, Richmond, Va., who writes:

"Four years' residence in India ruined my hair until it was but two inches long and very thin. I tried everything in Europe and America without benefit until I was induced to use Herpicide. My hair is now long, soft and silky and natural color, while before it was quite gray. My friends never tire of admiring my hair."

Mrs. Lee's story is a typical history of hair troubles. After everything else fails, Newbro's Herpicide brings relief. It would be just as effective if used first.

Newbro's Herpicide kills the dandruff germ and prevents falling hair. It stops itching of the scalp almost instantly. No matter what the climate of others, Herpicide is the only genuine original dandruff germ destroyer.

Applications at good barber shops.

Send 50c for sample bottle to The Herpicide Co., Dept. R., Detroit, Mich.

Newbro's Herpicide in 50c and $1.00 sizes is sold by all dealers who guarantee it to do all that is claimed. If you are not satisfied your money will be returned.

ARGUMENT PRESENTED IN AN INTERESTING CASE

In the case of Myers against Gambin, the application made by D. Mullin, K. C., for the defendant to set aside a judgment signed by default for $600, on the grounds of collusion between the plaintiff and the defendant's solicitor, was heard this morning by Mr. Justice McKeown in chambers.

B. M. Baxter, K. C., as counsel for G. Hazen Adair, solicitor for the plaintiff, opposed the application. It was argued for the plaintiff that the judgment was obtained after an arrangement to settle had been made between the plaintiff and the defendant's solicitor, the latter acting, not in the interests of his own client but in the interests of the plaintiff and after being instructed to defend Mr. Baxter contracted that there was no such collusion and even if there was, it would not prejudice the plaintiff's case. The court considers.

THIS MAN WANTS WORK

St. John, Jan. 27th, 1913.

To the Editor of Star and Times:—

Sir,—Kindly find space in your valuable paper for a few remarks regarding work for the laborer in St. John. I read in the St. John papers that the contractors get enough laborers, that some of the contractors would take all the men they could get, and that the laborer is in a bad way. I saw in the papers I thought there was all kinds of work for a laboring man, as a Mr. Gilchrist had a statement that laborers were scarce and work was plenty. I have tried every place in St. John, but there is no chance now if Mr. Gilchrist can place 25 or 30 men I think he would do well to advertise, as that many can be easily got and gladly pay a $2 fee for the job. As for myself, I can find nothing in St. John but hard times. Thanking you again for the space I am,

WILLIAM CRAWFORD.

When shown this letter Mr. Gilchrist said that it was true that just at present there was a scarcity of demand for unskilled laborers, but he could place men with trades, such as carpenters, blacksmiths, etc. He said that times had been usually good in St. John this year and the demand for unskilled labor had been steadily maintained but within the last week or so, it had fallen off slightly because some of the larger concerns had had to shut down temporarily and contractors were not, in some cases, working with such large crews. He looked forward to seeing a renewal of active work in this connection, quite soon.

Mr. Gilchrist said that any person coming to the province through the immigration department had been supplied with labor when they asked for it, without any effort, and he thought that even today a competent man could get work. When he had spoken some few weeks ago concerning a scarcity of labor it had certainly existed.

MacNAB DEMANDS $10,000 DAMAGES OR JAIL FOR HON. SAN

NOW WILL GET AFTER SOME OTHERS OF THE ATHLETES

New York, Jan. 28.—The confession of James Thorpe, the "world's greatest athlete" as he played baseball as a professional during 1909 and 1910 will result in a sweeping investigation of the standing of the several other "college men from the north" who, Thorpe says, played in the same league. James E. Sullivan, secretary of the Amateur Athletic Union, as announced today, Mr. Sullivan said he had written Thorpe asking him to name the men referred to.

The tokens of Thorpe's glory on the Olympic field which are to be stripped from him and returned to Sweden are a bronze bust of the King of Sweden which Thorpe won with the pentathlon, and the Olympic cup, a magnificent model of the ancient viking ship.

The smart which the board of governors of the Amateur Athletic Union will be called upon to unravel because of Thorpe's confession appears today to be less complicated than at first thought. Sullivan said that Thorpe had participated in very few events under the union's rules and that while the Indian had won many prizes and established new records, most of the events were in college athletics over which the union had no jurisdiction.

To expunge the records of non-marked set by Thorpe, the record committee of the union would convene this afternoon and make a report to the board of governors.

Manchester, Ohio, Jan. 28.—Indian officials here declare that James Thorpe refused to offer several weeks ago to join the Amateur Athletic Union, and that within a month offers have come from the several managers and moving pitcher contracts, and that the Indian had won many prizes and established new records, most of the events were in college athletics over which the union had no jurisdiction.

LOWEST POINT OF DRY LAND IS IN DEAD SEA BASIN

Washington, Jan. 28.—Five of the six big continents of the world have extensive areas of land that are below sea level. The lowest point in the continent of North America is in Death Valley, California, 278 feet below sea level. This is but a slight depression, however, compared to the basin of the Dead Sea in Palestine, Asia, where the lowest dry land point is 1,290 feet below sea level. This is the lowest point of dry land in the world.

Figures on points below sea level have just been published by the Geological Survey. South America is practically the only continent that is without depression that is far below the level of the sea.

The lowest point in Africa is in the Sahara Desert, 190 feet below sea level. Contrary to popular belief, the entire desert is not below the level of the sea, it is asserted. Europe has a depression of eighty feet on the shore of the Caspian sea, and in Australia the lowest point is at Lake Torrens, about twenty-five feet below sea level.

SPIRITED TIMES IN ELECTIONS IN MONCTON TODAY

Moncton, N. B., Jan. 28.—The Moncton civic election is being held today. There are two candidates for mayor, W. K. Gross and Dr. R. L. Botsford. There is an aldermanic contest in every ward.

Last evening a protest was filed against the candidature of Alderman W. K. Gross for mayor, and E. A. Flyers, as alderman for Ward Two, alleging that they were disqualified on the ground that they are directly or indirectly interested in leases of stalls in the city market. The protest was signed by F. Bonnet and P. R. Rich.

The municipal committee of the Moncton Trades and Labor Council this year inaugurated a new idea in obtaining the views of civic candidates on matters of interest to the working class. Chairman Mather submitted questions asking the attitude of the candidates on appointment of a street commissioner, tax reform, free market and an eight hour day for city employees. The replies of various candidates were published.

George Ackman, I. C. R. claims agent, left today for Kentville, N. S., having received word of the death of his father, Rev. S. R. Ackman, last evening, in the eighth year of his age.

FREDERICKSON'S BID FOR MEN AND INDUSTRIES

The Fredrickson Board of Trade is wide awake, and has just issued a very handsome book of sixty pages, with numerous illustrations, dealing with that city as an industrial and distributing centre. Heretofore Fredrickson has been much advertised as a tourist resort, and less emphasis placed upon its advantages as a manufacturing centre. The purpose of the book under review is to show that Fredrickson has a great future as a manufacturing city and a distributing centre. The book was prepared under the direction of the board by George M. McLeod, publicity commissioner, and its object is to present to capitalists, manufacturers and artisans some of the resources and available advantages which Fredrickson possesses. The illustrations include excellent views of construction scenes on the St. John Valley Railway and the Fredrickson and Grand Lake Railway. There are also views of factories, river scenes, pictures of homes, public buildings and churches; and the advantages of Fredrickson in regard to railways, coal, electric power, and other resources. The book is to be congratulated on this book, which ought to be of very considerable benefit in attracting the attention of outside investors, and inducing them to visit Fredrickson and look over the situation.

STRANGE TALE BACK OF A THEFT CHARGE

Extraordinary Story of Man's Life Told in London Court

London, Jan. 26.—Behind a commonplace charge of theft before Mr. Allan Lawrence, at London Sessions, twenty-one months' imprisonment for stealing bags; false pretences, six months; 1911, London Sessions, obtaining $100 by fraud, 18 months. Detective Hewitt said there were other convictions recorded against the prisoner in South Africa, and Detective Sergeant Raymond gave evidence of fraud committed by the prisoner on poor people in London. Mr. Lawrence remarked that he had not had before him a man of worse character or worse qualities. He would undergo three years' penal servitude, and afterwards would be deported.

How Wheat Perspires

(London Daily News) When you are perspiring furiously in the dog days of this year, it may or may not console you to think that an ordinary field of wheat is giving off moisture quite as furiously. Between the months of April and July, according to Professor Sir James Dewar, a field of wheat transpires sufficient moisture to cover the surface of its ground to a depth of nine inches. Another interesting fact is that it requires 3 1/2 pounds of water to produce 18 grains of corn. These and other wonders of heat and moisture were discussed yesterday by Sir James in another lecture to young folk at the Royal Institution. He mentioned that the famous vine at Hampton Court, which has a leaf surface of 1,820 square inches, gave off in twelve hours two-fifths of a pound of water. Speaking of the solar radiation in tropical places, Sir James said that in six hours about four-fifths of a square mile received heat equivalent to the combustion of 1,000 tons of coal, while an area of 1,200 square miles put in one year heat equivalent to one billion tons of coal—the whole estimated coal output of Europe and America.

The Quickest, Simplest Cough Cure

Easily and Cheaply Made at Home. Saves You $2.

This recipe makes 16 ounces of cough syrup—enough to last a family a long time. You couldn't buy as much or as good cough syrup for $2.50. Simple as it is, it gives almost instant relief and usually stops the most obstinate cough in 24 hours. This is partly due to the fact that it is slightly laxative, stimulates the appetite and has an excellent tonic effect. It is pleasant to take—children like it. An excellent remedy, too, for whooping cough, croup, sore lungs, asthma, throat troubles, etc. Mix two cups of granulated sugar with one cup of warm water in a bottle, and add the Sugar Syrup. It keeps perfectly. Take a teaspoonful every one, two or three hours. It is one of the oldest and best-known remedial agents for the throat membranes. Pinex is the most valuable concentrated compound of Norway white pine extract, and it is rich in ginseng and the other natural healing elements. Other preparations will not work in this form.

The prompt results from this recipe have explained why the pinex has been imitated often, but never successfully. A guarantee of absolute satisfaction, or money promptly refunded, goes with the recipe. Your druggist has Pinex, or will get it for you. If not, send to The Pinex Co., Toronto, Ont.

MOTHER OF LARGE FAMILY

Tells How She Keeps Her Health—Happiness For Those Who Take Her Advice.

Scottville, Mich.—"I want to tell you how much good Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound and Sensitive Wash have done me. I live on a farm and have worked very hard. I am forty-five years old, and am the mother of thirteen children. Many people think it strange that I am not broken down with hard work and the care of my family, but I tell them that I owe my health and bearing down pains for them if they will take as I have. I am eagerly ever without it in the house."

"I will say also that I think there is no better medicine to be found for young girls. My eldest daughter has taken Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound, and that there will be no back-ache and bearing down pains for them if they will take as I have. I am eagerly ever without it in the house."

REDUCTION IN WOOL SCHEDULE IS CERTAIN

commented when the witness had finished his speech to the committee.

In great part of the afternoon was devoted to the cross examination of O. M. Stafford, president of the Cleveland Woolen Mills. Mr. Stafford had made the customary appeal against the reduction of duties. If protection were reduced to such an extent as would prevent the importation of cheaper grades of cloth, he argued, then either mills would have to close down or the manufacturer would have to reduce wages to a point that would enable him to compete with foreign countries.

"If," Mr. Stafford declared, in a rhetorical outburst, "you will protect energy, honesty, intelligence and brains, you will lay a foundation upon which we can build a prosperity beyond which we have never dreamed before."

Quiet About His Own Business

In defending the interests of his industry, Mr. Stafford gave no satisfaction as to the extent of his business or the manner with which it had been attended by success. He suggested the appointment of an impartial tariff commission to which he would be glad to render all assistance. If the committee wished to have further details of his business, his books were available for examination. But this offer was not at all pleasing to the Democrats. Time and time again Mr. Stafford was pressed to give a statement of his company's profits. He admitted that a cash dividend of eight per cent was now being paid. He indignantly denied that the stock had been watered, but again and again declined to give any details.

"You can get all the information you want from my books," he would reply with a tantalizing smile.

"You have told us that the woolen industry has clean hands," Mr. Raitay sharply remarked, after Mr. Stafford had repeatedly answered to that same effect, "but we don't think that you're coming before us fairly and with clean hands."

Wholesale Stamp Dealers Who Buy From Pilfering Office Boys

New York, Jan. 28.—The operations of thirty-seven stamp dealers in New York, who are said by post office inspectors to have cleared $2,000,000 last year by buying from pilfering office boys and peddling the stamps so brought before the federal grand jury on charges of conspiracy.

Runners for these "brokers," who bought the stamps from the office boys by stealing the firm's stamps, and then kept them at it by threats of exposure, will also be prosecuted.

The inspectors have found letters from peddlers to stamp dealers indicating that the dealers were aware they were buying stolen stamps. One supposed peddler writer referred to a place in New Jersey where he had a large stock of stamps.

The business of the dealers was disclosed in proceedings against postmasters of small places, accused of selling stamps at a discount to New York dealers, to increase their total sales and thus get big salaries.

A HAPPY EVENING

A bright and novel entertainment was given last evening before a delightful audience in the school-room of Exmouth street Methodist church by the members of the literary department, when they gave a musical and literary festival of much excellence. Miss Laura Sandall, president of this department, occupied the chair, and among those participating in the programme were—Mrs. Wm. Stepper, Miss Waldron, Miss Minnie Myles, Miss Blanche Myles, Miss Barkin, Ernest Thomas, Walter McIntyre, Carl Boyd, Miss Mabel Lobb, Master Ronald Thomas and a quartette.

The programme proved very interesting. It consisted of the rendering of old-time songs, such favorites as "The Last Rose of Summer," "The Old Oak Bicket," "The Bonnie Banks of Loch Lomond," "Annie Laurie," "Robin Adair," and "Home Sweet Home." These were given as solos by some of those taking part, while sketches were presented by others, showing how the songs originated, and in some instances giving a brief story of the authors and composers. After the programme, the social committee took charge and refreshments were served.

DRIVING HIM TO THE GRAVE

"Fruit-a-lives" Saved My Life

Niagara Falls, Ont., July 27, 1911.

"For thirteen years, I was a terrible sufferer from the tortures of Sick Headache, Indigestion, Constipation and Vomiting. I could not retain much food, and this, together with the pain, and headaches, was driving me to the grave.

"Then I used 'Fruit-a-lives' and almost at once I got relief.

"'Fruit-a-lives' stopped the vomiting, relieved the constipation, took the stomach acid, and gave me the first relief in years. I feel that I owe my life to 'Fruit-a-lives' and for the sake of other victims of Indigestion and Headaches, I will allow this statement to be published.

HARRY DICKINSON.

"'Fruit-a-lives' is sold by all dealers at $10 a box, 5 for $45, trial size, 50c, by sent on receipt of price by Fruit-a-lives Limited, Ottawa.

DRASTIC REFORMS IN STOCK EXCHANGE ARE URGED BY GOVERNOR

Albany, N. Y., Jan. 27.—State supervision and regulation of the New York Stock Exchange and other stock exchanges are advocated by Governor Quinn in a message sent by him to the legislature tonight.

The time is ripe, in the governor's opinion, for the state to step in and end "diabolical abuses, shifty schemes and clever combinations to catch the unwary and mislead the public."

Among the measures which Governor Quinn would have enacted into law are: A law to distinguish clearly proper transactions of purchase or sales from those that are the result of manipulative or speculative schemes; a law to prohibit brokers from selling backward and forward among themselves or among their customers with intent to deceive or mislead outsiders; a law to prohibit brokers from selling for their own account, or for the account of their customers at the time the customer's order is executed; a law clearly prohibiting insolvent brokers from continuing to buy and sell after they become insolvent; a law making it a criminal offense "to issue any statement or publish any advertisement as to the value of any stock or other security or as to the financial condition of any corporation or company issued or to issue stock or securities, where any promise or prediction contained in such statement or advertisement to be false, or to not be fully justified by existing conditions."

Governor Quinn also recommends that he leave to the legislature for its consideration the existing laws and the enactment of new laws governing short sales, the hypochondria of securities, brokers' sales, usury (under which he classifies the raising of call money rates to more than six per cent), the relations between the exchanges and the consolidation of exchanges.

LECTURES LAST EVENING

Mrs. Fike at Art Club, Rev. J. McCaskill Speaks on Stevenson

At the Art Club meeting last evening the lecturer was Mrs. Emma Fike who spoke most entertainingly and instructively on the French sculptor Auguste Rodin. Mr. F. Fisher presided. Mrs. Fike's lecture was a most thoughtful one, evidencing familiarity with her subject and care in presenting it. Rodin is the most outstanding figure of that school which seeks to infuse life into marble rather than chisel marble into semblance of life. The lecturer showed pictures of some of his noted works including the Burghers at Calais, the Hypocrite, the Hand of God, and Le Penseur. She also spoke of the collection of this famous sculptor's works in the special gallery in the Metropolitan Museum of Art in New York.

W. F. Hatheway discussed Mrs. Fike's paper, and Rev. J. McCaskill gave an educational lecture in St. Stephen's church last evening on the life of Robert Louis Stevenson, his works and character. The lecture was greatly appreciated by a large gathering. The speaker dealt with the writings of the famous author, his style, ideals and the painstaking care which he exercised in order to attain success. In addition to the lecture which proved a distinct literary treat, solos were given by Miss Jessie Knight, and E. March, with Mrs. Gordon Dakin as accompanist.

POPULAR SCIENCE

The Popular Science Monthly for February opens with an article on the geological history of China and its influence on the Chinese people, by Professor Eliot Blackwelder, of the University of Wisconsin, who bases his descriptions on the studies he has made and on the photographs he has taken in China. An article follows on Faugh geysees, by the late Henri Poincaré, in whose recent death last year the world loses perhaps its most distinguished man of science. Professor R. S. Lillie, of the University of Pennsylvania, describes the role played by the membranes in the processes of the life of the cell. Professor Howard C. Lewis, of Hiram College, explains the new economic problems connected with the efficiency of labor.

Dr. Henry W. Shimer, of the Massachusetts Institute of Technology, gives an account of the views on organic evolution of M. Bergson, the best known living philosopher, who is this month lecturing in the United States. Professor M. V. O'Shea, of the University of Wisconsin, describes the abilities of a trained horse, which he explains as not requiring great intelligence on the part of the animal. Dr. Frederic Lyman Wells, of the MacLean Hospital at Waterville, Mass., gives an account of conditions favoring the advancement of psychological medicine. Professor E. D. Harris, of Cornell University, describes immense salt concretions which he has discovered. Dr. Stewart Paton, of Princeton, discusses problems concerning the American college and university. There are editorial notes on the Cleveland convention meeting, on a recently discovered extinct species of man and on the seals of the Pribilof Islands.

WHAT IT COSTS TO LIVE HIGH IN GAY BERLIN

Problem Gravely Considered by Court—German Capital Has Nothing to Learn From Paris

Berlin, Jan. 28.—Fashionable life in Berlin was amusingly illustrated in the police court the other day in the course of the interrogation of a man who is being tried on a charge of fraud together with fifteen associates. The man, Sattler by name, is accused of having managed a bank with the flighty name of "Mercury," much more to his own profit than to that of his customers. Altogether the trial was rather a weighty matter, for documents put in by the prosecution form a book of 3,000 pages.

As in most of such cases there was much evidence, and the argument was extremely technical, so that the glad surprise of those less directly concerned can be imagined when suddenly the interrogatory developed into a lesson on how much to spend on clothes if one wishes to cut a figure in the "Vanity Fair" of Berlin.

The questions glided swiftly from bankery bills to those of the tailor. Sattler admitted that he ordered twenty-two suits in the course of six months from one of the dearest tailors in Berlin, and altogether twenty-five during the period, with a total cost of $925. In sixteen months twenty-two pairs of boots were bought, stockings at $4.50 a pair, and shirts at $10 each, $15 being frequently spent on a suit of underwear. Sattler also bought a walking stick with a handle set with thirty-two diamonds, at a cost of $750. Although he rented three houses at a total of $18,000, Sattler frequently stayed at a hotel, paying $100 a week for a room alone. In twenty months he spent a total of $82,500, including fines amounting to $12,500 for driving motor cars at excessive speed.

One of the shops most frequently mentioned in the course of the interrogatory was named "The Gentleman." The whole case was a remarkable illustration of the never life of Berlin, which has now nothing to learn from Paris or New York in the matter of high-living.

NORTHEASTERN LEAGUE; SOME POINTS IN FAVOR

Arguments Presented By Those Who Favor St. John Going Into It

Joe Page arrived in the city yesterday noon, and during the afternoon he had conference with the owners of the Maritime Club regarding the meeting which was held in Manchester, N. H., last week, which a franchise was given to the local club to enter a team in the new Northeastern Baseball League. The local agreement, it is said, has not as yet decided what move they will take in the matter of providing baseball for the St. John fans this season. It is understood that Mr. Leonard of the Lynn team, who was in the city yesterday, had a conference with owners of the local club for the formation of a new Brunswick and Maine League to consist of St. John, Fredericton, Moncton, and Saint John. He left the city on the Boston express last night.

These are the Roe Brothers, three of whom have won nearly all the championships of Ontario at one time or another. PLAN FOR 112 GAMES IN NEW LEAGUE SEASON

Further Details of Organization of North Eastern With St. John Mentioned as Possibility

The organization of the Northeastern Baseball League, in which there is St. John interest, the Manchester Union says: While almost covered the streets outside, the holders of five franchises in the Northeastern league met in the warmth of the parlors of the New Manchester house Thursday and organized by electing George W. Mills, of Portland, Me., as president. Former mayor and former postmaster Edgar J. Knowlton, of this city, was elected honorary president. A telephone message from William Malarkey, of Fitchburg, made it plain that he intended to go after the Concord, Fitchburg, Mass., and Salem, Mass., franchises and James Callagy, who was unable to be present, assured the various managers to be that Lewiston, Me., was right in line. The meeting was called at 4 o'clock in the afternoon, after a delay since the late afternoon, which was imper each series Messrs. Callagy and Malarkey. When they did not appear the meeting was opened and Mr. Mills, who represented A. J. Goodwin, holder of the Portland, Me., franchise, was elected president. Mr. Mills has been scout for the Chicago Americans, and is under contract to continue for another year. He will be president, secretary and treasurer and will hold the only clarified position. The clubs represented at the meeting were: Manchester, Portland, Me., Bangor, Me., St. John, N. B., Fitchburg, Me., and Lewiston, Me. Manchester was personally represented by James T. Manning; St. John, N. B., by Joe Page; Bangor, Me., by M. J. Roach, promoter of the league; Portland, Me., by George S. Mills, and Gloucester, Me., by Joseph O'Rourke. A constitution and bylaws were provisionally adopted and will be amended to the playing season. It is planned to play the first game on either May 1 or 3 and to play the closing game, either on Labor Day or the Saturday following. A schedule to include 112 games will be drawn up later. It was decided to hold back the election of a board of directors till the make-up of the circuit has been definitely decided upon, though it is expected that those officers will be chosen at the meeting in Boston next month. The most important decision reached during the evening meeting was relative to the playing season. LOCAL NEWS

WORKMEN'S LICENSES.
Several men reported for working in the city without a license, were in the police court today and were told to go to City Hall and arrange to take out their licenses.

DIED THIS MORNING.
The death of Mrs. Bridget Power occurred this morning at her home 74 Simonds street. She had been ill about two months. She was the widow of Michael Power and is survived by one son, Thomas, of the Hotel Edward, and one daughter, Miss Cecilia, at home. The funeral will be held on Thursday morning from her late home in Simonds street.

SUGAR LOWER.
Another decline of ten cents took place in all grades of refined sugar this morning on the local market. Local wholesalers who are well stocked with this commodity say they are not realizing much on sugar these days, that in fact the majority are losing money. One dealer who buys in heavy quantities said the morning he was losing $80 on the 100 barrels. There had been a steady decline in sugar for some time, and merchants who had large supplies on hand had been trying to dispose of them for the tendency was steadily downward. Reports from Europe were that the prospects for a heavy beet harvest were particularly bright.

LOCAL BASEBALL MATTERS UNSETTLED

Several Conferences Held But No Definite Statement Yet

Joe Page, of Montreal, had a conference this morning with the owners of the Marathon Baseball team in regard to the Northeastern league. After the meeting the owners said they had nothing new to give out regarding the situation. Another meeting will be held this afternoon. In regard to the conference yesterday by Frank Leonard of the Lynn team with the Marathon management, the latter said this morning that the reports that Mr. Leonard was to purchase the club were not correct. According to the statement made by one of the owners this morning, Mr. Leonard submitted a proposition to come to St. John and act as manager, and also to act as manager of the local team. He would take some stock in the local organization, but would not purchase it outright. The local owners would still hold the controlling interest.

MAKE RENT DEAL WITH NAVY ISLAND PEOPLE

Commissioners do Not Want Property to Pass From Possession

The city is conducting negotiations for the purpose of coming to an arrangement with the several families who live on Navy Island. Although the land, what there is of it, belongs to the city, no rent has been paid for several years. If this condition is indefinitely the city's interest will be imperilled and it is with this view, rather than with the attention of securing the revenue, that the city is arranging leases with the residents. The matter was brought up this morning at the meeting of the city commissioners by the commissioner of public lands. Some matters relating to the city's lands in Lancaster were also discussed.

CASE IS SETTLED

The case was adjourned from yesterday morning, and when it was called this morning, Mr. Purdy announced that a settlement had been reached. His Honor allowed the matter to drop. The amount of settlement is said to have been in the vicinity of $125. One prisoner, charged with drunkenness was before the court this morning and was fined $8 or thirty days in jail.

WINTERPORT NOTES

At the present time there are eleven steamers in port and two more are expected this afternoon. The lack of facilities is being felt and the owners are having difficulty in getting their steamers away on time. Some of the steamers are docked at the grain berths, and the steamers waiting to take on grain are consequently delayed. The Donnan liner Cassandra is expected between 2 and 3 o'clock this afternoon. The Allan liner Lake Erie is expected to arrive in port tonight.

ST. DAVID'S Y. P. A.

The meeting of the Young People's Association of St. David's church was held last night under the auspices of the missionary committee and proved to be one of the most successful missionary meetings ever held in the church. The lecture room was crowded for the occasion. The principal feature of the programme was an address by Rev. E. B. Wylie of St. Stephen, who discussed the approach to a scientific basis in foreign mission work. He contrasted the earlier methods of work with those in use at present. Formerly the work of missionaries was almost entirely evangelistic, but, now, a start was made with what was best in the people with whom they were working and an effort was made to uplift them by introducing the new religion to their attention. The programme also included selections by vocal quartette, consisting of Misses Cochrane and Hoegg and Messrs. C. Girvan and H. Shaw; vocal solo by Mrs. A. E. Logan, and readings from the poems of Dr. A. L. Fraser of Nova Scotia by Mrs. David McMillan. Dr. Macdonald presided and Mrs. J. M. Barnes acted as accompanist. Refreshments were served at the close of the programme, to the members of the Young Ladies' Mission Band.
