British Are Alarmed At London Tram and Bus Strike

COUNCIL IS CALLED TO HALT STRIKE

Inevitable Entry of Subwaysmen Into Fight Alarms The Government, MAY SUMMON KING

State of Emergency May Invoke Same Powers As War-time Act.

London, March 27.—So seriously does the Government regard the situation created by continuance of the tram and bus strike and the apparently inevitable entry of the subwaymen into the fight tomorrow night, according to several of the morning newspapers, that a privy council has been called for today to consider proclaiming a "condition of national emergency."

Some of the papers go so far as to say that issuance of the proclamation has already been decided upon and that the meeting has been summoned in order that the King's formal consent to it may be given.

The King has gone to Knowlsey as the guest of Lord Derby for the grand national steeplechase on Friday, and stated that the privy council will meet there.

May Be Deduction This reported development is not announced from any official source and may prove merely a deduction from Premier MacDonald's statement that an emergency committee would meet immediately to arrange measures to combat the situation, but in the opinion of a large section of the press and public the situation is quite acute enough to justify the step.

If a state of emergency is proclaimed it will be under the provisions of the emergency powers act of 1920, which when invoked confers upon the Government virtually the same powers as the war time defence of the realm act.

It enables the Government, subject to the approval of parliament to make wide and compulsory provisions for the safety and life of the community, including taking over control of any public service, using army and navy forces therefor and commandeering private vehicles and materials for the same purpose. The act was last put into effect during the miners' strike of 1920.

Such a step would bring the present Labor Government into conflict with a large section of their supporters, whose opposition to the act is well known.

CHURCH UNION BILL IN HOUSE

Judge Forbes at Fredericton to Give Views on Merger of Denominations.

Special to The Times. Assembly Chamber, March 27.—The corporations committee met this morning with Mr. Hayes in the chair and took up consideration of the Church Union bill. Members of the committee took their seats on the right of the chairman.

Mr. Hayes read a statement of the proposed arrangement for hearing as follows: An hour and a half to two hours for presentation by the promoters, three hours and a half for the opponents, three hours for a reply by the promoters, half an hour for the opponents.

Ivan C. Rand, for the Unionists, and Rev. Major McConnell for the opponents, entered into an argument on this proposal which Premier Veniot cut short by saying that if the two parties could not agree the committee would make the arrangements. The hearing then proceeded.

Famous "Cutty" Sark Again in Commission

London, March 27.—(United Press) The world's most famous and fastest sailing ship, "the Cutty Sark," is now being fitted out anew in a British port. Built fifty-six years ago, in 1869, this wonderful vessel for many years held the foremost place amongst the "cracker-jacks" of the clipper ship era.

ST. MARK'S CHURCH IS DISCIPLINED

Comes Under Ban of Bishop Manning Because of Dances There.

New York, March 27.—Bishop Manning of the Protestant Episcopal diocese of New York yesterday informed Rev. Dr. Win. Newman Guthrie, rector of St. Mark's-the-Bowwerie, that his church would remain without episcopal visitation or ministrations for its refusal to discontinue eurythmic dances in connection with the services at the church.

In the letter to the rector which he made known his decision on Dr. Guthrie's attitude, the bishop said he declined to visit the parish and congregation and cancelled his visitation fixed for Wednesday, June 11.

In last December and again on March 14, Bishop Manning expressed disapproval of the ritualistic dances conducted by Dr. Guthrie, which the rector of St. Mark's insisted were not banned by church law and which were presented in the church last Sunday despite the recent admonition.

Approval of Dr. Guthrie's programmes had been given by some other clergymen of the Episcopal church and they were present at the dance ritual given on last Sunday night.

SIR EDMUND WALKER DIES; FEW DAYS ILL

Commercial Bank Head was Outstanding in World of Finance.

PNEUMONIA VICTIM

No Alarm Until End was Near—Prominent in Letters and in Art.

(Canadian Press.) Toronto, March 27.—Sir Edmund Walker, D.C.L., LL.D., C.V.O., president of the Canadian Bank of Commerce, one of the most outstanding figures in the banking and financial world in Canada, and who was internationally well known, died early today at his home after an illness of only a few days of pneumonia. Sir Edmund was in his 76th year. Lady Walker passed away last summer. Four sons and three daughters survive.

Sir Edmund was engaged in the banking business for more than 60 years. He was known as one of the foremost authorities in Canada on economics in general, and his annual address to shareholders of the Canadian Bank of Commerce has been regarded as one of the most outstanding lectures in general trade conditions published anywhere. He was a speaker of note.

In Bed Since Saturday. Sir Edmund took to his bed on last Saturday, a heavy cold having developed into pneumonia. No alarm was felt until near the end, but during last night his condition became serious. His end was peaceful.

His four sons and three daughters were at his bedside. Sir Edmund's last illness was the only serious one of his life. While traveling with the Mendelssohn choir he suffered from only a cold, which continued when he returned to Toronto. The symptoms of pneumonia developed on Monday. Yesterday it was thought his condition had improved.

Sir John Aldrich, vice-president of the Bank of Commerce, when informed of the death of Sir Edmund, said that the news came as a great shock.

"Above all, Sir Edmund, was a great Britisher," he said. "He was a man of many parts, prominent not only in finance, but in education, art and music. His loss is a great blow to banking in Canada."

The funeral will take place tomorrow afternoon at 2:30 p. m.

The four surviving sons of Sir Edmund Walker are Dr. E. M. Walker of the biological department of the University of Toronto; Edward Walker, head of the electrical department of the Canadian National Railways; Alfred Walker of the Massey Harris Co., and Herbert Walker, partner in the legal firm of Walker, Gairns & Co. The American Legion is sponsoring the movement to provide permanent markers to be substituted for the wooden crosses which now are erected over the graves. These crosses, the Legion avers, are rapidly deteriorating.

HOUSE MUST ACT ON SEASON PASSES

Members of British Parliament, Otherwise, Must Pay Their Own Fares.

London, March 27.—(Canadian Press Cable)—Replying in the House of Commons to the question of a Labor member yesterday, Premier MacDonald said he had directed enquiries to the railway companies and also had asked the Minister of Transportation to prepare estimates of costs of providing first class season tickets for one year for every member of parliament between London and a town in his constituency which he named and it had been found that the cost would be approximately £70,000 while third class fare would cost approximately £47,000. The Premier added that the House must itself take any further action if the desire was general to provide free transportation for members of parliament.

NINETY-ONE DEAD

Casualties Grow in Big Landslide in the Amalfi District in Italy.

British United Press. Naples, March 27.—Ninety-one persons were killed in a landslide in the Amalfi district on the Gulf of Salerno, yesterday, a checkup of casualties showed today. The three towns, Vietri, where fifty lives were lost, Praiano and Conca Marina, were partly wiped out.

Cars and buildings and multitudes have been rushed to relief of the stricken area. Two destroyers in the Gulf played searchlights on the devastated towns throughout the night. The government is taking action to relieve the sufferers.

Five were killed at Amalfi, ten at Conca Marina and five at Praiano.

Pope to Restore All Ancient Splendors

Rome, March 27.—Pope Pius has empowered the congregation of ceremonies to reform and bring up to date the whole ceremonial of the Papal Court, in view of the modern exigencies that will arise at the celebration of Holy Year next year. Many of the ancient ceremonies are obsolete in consequence of the loss of temporal power, while others were laid aside centuries ago when the Papal Court was the most gorgeous known to the world.

The personal life of Pope Pius XI, as simple as can be imagined, but it was announced in Vatican circles today that his sense of appreciation of his sacred position leads him to approve the holding of public functions with the solemn splendor befitting the unique background of the great center of Christianity.

Detectives Dig For Bones of Small

Montreal, March 27.—Impelled by sobbing "release me; release me; wait; to her by an ever-haunting voice which she declares is that of Ambrose Small, vanished millionaire theatrical manager, Toronto, Miss A. Benson, a psychic medium of Toronto, came to Montreal yesterday and told detectives they would find Small's bones if they dug up the earth cellar of a St. Antoine street rooming house at a spot directly beneath the sink in the kitchen above.

POINCARÉ WILL AGAIN BE PREMIER

Paris Says Former Head of Government Will Return to Post.

(By Canadian Press.) Paris, March 27.—It was regarded as virtually certain today that Premier Poincaré would reconsider his resignation, according to the opinion of the majority of the press and the advice of his friends, and reconstitute his cabinet. Thus the unexpected defeat of the Government in the Chamber of Deputies yesterday would serve merely to infuse new blood into the administration and allow the continuance of M. Poincaré's policies.

Whether or not the Premier will seize the opportunity to begin his proposed economies at once by abolishing some of the under secretariats and combining some of the departments seems uncertain. The general impression is that, if he continues in office, he will be content with making certain changes in the holders of ministerial portfolios, although some quarters believe that, with the elections so near, he may decide that it is unnecessary to make any changes at all, and simply come back with the cabinet as it stood before his resignation.

The changes, if there are changes, are expected to be confined to the portfolios of finance, marine, commerce and interior, the ministers of which have been under fire from criticism in some political quarters.

For the ministry of finance, M. Francois-Marsal, who has already held the portfolio, is spoken of as a likely nominee, or, falling him, Maurice Bakoowski, the reporter of the finance committee of the Chamber of Deputies, although it is possible that a fresh man such as Emmanuel Brousse, may be brought in.

Senator Chamuel, another former minister, is expected to be offered either marine or commerce. The interior department, which has special importance in view of the election, will probably be filled by the transfer of one of the other ministers, either M. Colrat, minister of justice, or M. Reibel, minister of liberated regions.

BROADCASTING BY WIRE CAUSES SUIT

Plugging in Lamp Sockets to Hear Programmes Cheaply Causes Trouble.

New York, March 27.—Suits to prevent broadcasting of radio programmes over the wires of the States Island Edison Company, are being filed by the American Telephone and Telegraph Co. against the Wired Radio Co. and its parent organization, the North American Co., which operates 200 electric light and power companies throughout the country. The Wired Radio Co. for four months has broadcast programmes over the wires of the States Island Edison Company, receiving receipts for $2 a month to patrons who desired to plug in their lamp sockets to hear the entertainment. The suit against the Wired Radio Co. was filed in New York on March 7, it was learned, while the one against the North American Co. was filed the same day in Newark, N. J. Infringement of nine patents held by the American Telephone and Telegraph Co. was charged.

It was said at the offices of the A. T. & T. that the company had been experimenting with radio broadcasting over telephone wires for some time. C. W. Hough, president of the Wired Radio Co., declared that the A. T. & T. planned to institute such a service for which patrons would be charged $15 a month. Mr. Hough declared Vice-president Harkness of the telephone company had told him his price of $2 a month was "ridiculous."

Worker Heir to $200,000 Estate Of Brother Unseen For 60 Years

Pittsburgh, March 27.—Thomas Gemmill, a steel worker, this week learned through a newspaper advertisement that he had been named a beneficiary in the estate of his brother, John Gemmill, whom he had not seen for sixty years. The latter died recently at Nanaimo, B. C., and, according to information received here, left an estate valued at $200,000 to his brother. The advertisement seeking information regarding Gemmill was inserted by the Standard Trust Company of Vancouver, B. C.

Gemmill at first declared he would waive rights to the estate, saying that he preferred the simple life and that he had saved enough to keep his wife and himself "in a manner that suits us." He later declared, however, that he would communicate with the Vancouver bank for the benefit of a niece, who had made her home with him since childhood.

Thomas Gemmill said that he last saw his brother when John Gemmill left home near Glasgow, Scotland, and came to America. Thomas followed some years later, but the brothers had not been in frequent correspondence with each other, he said.

SEALS ARE SCARCE

Promising Season in Fisheries Turns Out to Be a Dismal Failure.

Halifax, March 27.—Local firms informed this morning that from reports they had received the season which on March 1 looked so promising, has turned out at this late date the most dismal failure on record.

Only one steamer of the whole fleet, the Ranger, has reported a kill. That vessel has taken three thousand small seals. The remainder of the fleet is helpless in the ice jam and far from the haunts of the seals.

The Farquhar line sealers Stella Maris and Sable have been for weeks held fast in an ice jam in the gulf and their position was reported this morning as unchanged.

Paris, March 27.—Nicolas Buonarroti, friend of Premier Mussolini of Italy and correspondent in Paris of Mussolini's newspaper, Popolo D'Italia, died yesterday from gunshot wounds inflicted by Ernesto Bonomi, a waiter while the correspondent was dining in an Italian restaurant here the night of Feb. 20. Radio licenses and other privileges for the use of either would be restricted to two years duration with power vested in the president to annul them in time of war or other emergencies.

TRUSTEES IN FAVOR OF INCREASE

Ask Carvill to Join Them In Addressing Provincial Government. $450,000 ASKED.

Action Is Withheld Until Matter Considered By The Commissioners.

The Board of School Trustees of St. John wants to assess for $450,000, exclusive of interest and repairs. It has powers now to demand $360,000 from the people to carry on the work of the schools of St. John.

The fact that there was an overdraft of $40,000 last year and that next year will come added expenses, including some salary increases is quoted as reason for the board's wish to have its assessment powers enlarged. It is understood that it is not in mind, if the request is granted, to go to the $450,000 limit at once.

This morning the Common Council was asked to join the trustees in an application to Fredericton for the increase but action was deferred.

Mayor Fisher read a request from the Board of School Trustees that the council join with the trustees in an application to the Government to increase the amount which the Board might assess for school purposes, exclusive of interest and repairs, from $890,000 to $460,000. It was pointed out that the board last year had an overdraft of $40,000 and next year there would be required $90,000 for insurance and automatic increases in 1925.

Also had to be considered. The Mayor said he was in favor of joining them in an increase to $410,000 rather than the amount asked. It was decided to appoint Commissioner Prink and the common clerk a committee to prepare the advertisement to be published one week before the plebiscite.

Mayor Fisher said he had asked Mr. Wille, secretary of the Civic Power Commission, to present and give some information in connection with the monthly report of the Commission, in connection with the statement that the hospital and schools were not using hydro. He said this matter had been taken up but no action had been taken.

Commissioner Wigmore said he did not think if the building was started there would be any trouble in having the grant renewed. It was decided to appoint Commissioner Prink and the common clerk a committee to prepare the advertisement to be published one week before the plebiscite.

Japan Restores Tariff Policy

Tokio, March 27.—An adjustment of Japan's tariff policy will be made soon, the Government announced today simultaneously with the official announcement of restoration of tariff duties on some commodities exempted from import tax immediately after the earthquake last fall. The restriction will be effective on April 1.

The duties restored affect all commodities exempted last September except rice, of which both the visible supply in domestic fields is less than the estimated demand. Rice will continue to be admitted free for some months. The government explained imports had reached such a point under the ordinance admitting free foodstuffs and materials for restoration of devastated regions that serious threat to break the market had arisen.

Washington, March 27.—The charge that Secretary Mellon is occupying office unlegally because of his interest in various financial concerns was made yesterday in the Senate by Senator McKellar, Tennessee. MODIFIED PLANS FOR ARTILLERY TRAINING THIS YEAR ANNOUNCED

Annual Meeting of N. B. Heavy Brigade Officers Is Held.

A modified form of artillery training for the active militia, consequent upon the curtailment of appropriations for summer camps by the federal parliament, was outlined last night at the annual meeting and dinner of the 3rd New Brunswick Heavy Brigade, Canadian Artillery, held in the Byng Boys' bungalow in Lancaster.

According to present plans only a limited number of officers and men will go to Petawawa this summer for a 16-days' course, beginning June 22. At the same time a nine-days' refresher course will be given to those partially qualified. Under the new arrangement this year, officers and N. C. O.'s can qualify for their ranks at Petawawa instead of having to go to the Royal Military College at Kingston.

The commanding officer, Lieutenant Colonel N. P. MacLeod, M. C., announced that he was applying to Ottawa for the establishment of a provisional school for all ranks, commencing about May 1. Instructors for this school would come from the permanent force.

He also announced plans for the uniting of the training of signallers from brigade headquarters and the batteries under Lieut. E. Walsh, who recently joined the brigade and who was a signaller overseas.

FAME Woman Who Wrote About It Finally Achieves It Herself

(By Maurice Heale.) New York.—The Muses must have chuckled merrily when they greeted Elizabeth Irons Folsom to name a short story she wrote last summer "Towers of Fame." It was their little joke.

That story, less than 3,000 words in length, has raised Mrs. Folsom from semi-obscure to just what her wisely-chosen title indicates—Towers of Fame.

It won for her the 1923 award by the O. Henry Memorial of the Society of Arts and Sciences as the best short story less than 3,000 words long.

The prize-winning story was first published in "McClure's" in August, 1923. Since then it has been reprinted once in "Current Opinion" and again in a volume of prize stories.

Mrs. Folsom's "Towers of Fame" has all the makings of an original O. Henry story. It carries you on a wave of suspense to the last few paragraphs and then gives you a crushing surprise.

But after all, it is fiction. Mrs. Folsom's real life story is more touching, more human, more—let us say—satisfying, than any fiction story.

She was born and educated in Bloomington, Ill. As a girl and a bride she was a member of the social set. Then necessity sent her out into the working world. She decided newspaper work was her field. Followed 14 years of reporting on a Bloomington paper. Most of it was "on the courthouse run." She came into close contact with raw life.

Then her eyes began to fail. About five years ago she found herself on the verge of blindness. Instead of resigning to her fate she went to Europe to consult a famous oculist. He saved her sight, but only by taking the sight from one eye and dimming the other.

It was while on her back in a hospital, her eyes blindfolded, that the inspiration came. She would write fiction. She wrote a story—and sold it.

Since then she has written and sold more than 90 short stories, some of them very short—as low as 750 words in length.

Eight years ago she moved to New York, and has lived here since with the exception of her months abroad. She is a widow and has not a relative in the world, she says.

The child was romping from school riding a scooter. He was pushing the scooter along the edge of the platform as a train approached, and the wheels of the scooter skidded on the platform. The child fell on the tracks in the path of the train.

TRUSTEES IN FAVOR OF INCREASE

(Continued from page 1.) They should patronize the citizens' business and use hydro. Commissioner Thornton asked if it would be possible to have a form showing the accounts receivable in the monthly report. Mr. Willard said it would.

Mayor Fisher said he would like to have the opinion of the members of the council on the matter of purchasing a piano for the West Side city hall without a written guarantee that the extremes of temperature would not ruin the instrument. Commissioner Thornton said he had the assurance of the dealers and from personal experience he knew there was no danger from this source. No action taken.

Mayor Fisher reported that at the next meeting of the council he would present a bill for the purchase of a piano for the West Side city hall without a written guarantee that the extremes of temperature would not ruin the instrument. Commissioner Thornton said he had the assurance of the dealers and from personal experience he knew there was no danger from this source. No action taken.

THE RIVER

According to reports reaching Indian town the river is open as far as Craig's Point. The remarkable feature is that hardly any floating ice has appeared in the river since about the 15th of this side of Grand Bay. Men who have spent the greater part of their lives along the river say that this is due to the poor quality of the ice, which practically all melted after being badly honeycombed by the sun.

Braden had been the wonder of the Maine and New Brunswick circuit and last season when the "melon" show was being staged under the auspices of the Police Association of Sydney and arrangements to have the local star appear in the principal bout were made by Prescott Anthony, Deputy Chief.

HAS NO RECORD OF CROSSING LETTER

C. N. R. Official Writes Mayor of Mill Street Matter.

That the C. N. R. had no record of any letter ever having been received from the city accepting or rejecting the proposition of D. B. Hanna for the overhead crossing at Mill street was the information received this morning by Mayor Fisher from L. S. Brown, general manager of the Atlantic region. Mr. Brown's letter said he had taken the matter up with the vice-president and had been informed that the only letters on file there in connection with the matter were one of Mr. Schofield's, dated Oct. 1921, and Mr. Hanna's reply to it. Mr. Schofield pointed out in his letter that the plans had not been made public and asked permission to discuss them. In his reply Mr. Hanna said he did not want the plans made public just then, but would soon be in St. John.

The letter of Mr. Brown says in part: "The records do not show that any letter was ever received from the city of St. John advising one way or the other as to the proposition made by Mr. Hanna."

Mr. Hanna has been furnished with the estimated cost, but as soon as I get the information will let you know.

Harrington and Gill Talked Of For World's Tournament.

Joe Harrington and Fred Gill, two of the leading bowlers in this country, may participate in the world's candlepin bowling tournament, which is to be held in the Boston Arena, starting on April 7. Oscar Brown, manager of the Eastport Bowling academy, has entered a team in the tournament, and promised the two local stars that if he is able to carry out his plans he will take them along as members of his team. He was greatly impressed by their showing while competing in Eastport some few weeks ago, and is confident that they would not only strengthen his team, but would make formidable opponents in both the single and double competitions.

If Mr. Brown's plans materialize he is figuring on taking McPhee, Burpee, Kenney, Harrington and Gill as his regular team.

Latest reports from Boston say that Manager Roy H. Booth, who is arranging for the big candlepin classic, has his entry committee hard at work approving all entries and making final arrangements for the tournament.

So extensive have been the plans for the coming championships that it is said the bowlers will be greatly surprised to see how well they are taken care of during the tournament. The midway, with its hundreds of novelties and other features in Malden, Mass., will claim considerable attention.

OTHERS WE KNOW

Archie Walsh, who is a former St. John boy and one of the leading bowlers of the world, will enter a team in the tournament to represent his allies in Malden, Mass. It is expected that Hartley Wheaton, a former St. John boy, will be on his line up. The latter has been going strong this year in the Boston Suburban League, and is looked upon as one of their strongest bowlers.

IS HAPPY AGAIN.

John O'Neill, the popular deskman at police headquarters, has lost his worried look of some days. The reason for the disappearance of his jolliness was the fact that his valuable bull terrier had been missing and, despite a diligent search, could not be recovered. Today his face was wreathed in smiles, for the bull terrier had been recovered. Last evening Sergeant Detective Power found the dog in a house in Paradise row, where the proprietor had been trying to locate the owner. John is a great lover of man's best friend and he knows a good one.

Taste in Rugs

Are Rugs just floor coverings, or are they half the costume of a room? The Wiltons at the Marcus Spring Opening were chosen for power of color and design. Chosen to be different, exclusive, not to be duplicated. As Marcus understand it, a Rug must do one of two things. Either be the show piece of the room or be a subtle background to bring out the full beauty of the central setting. Marcus' Wiltons convey taste. They accent your furniture to better advantage. They have a double guarantee and offer the fuller value that only Marcus' buying power can get you.

A LESSON IN VAMPING

The art of comedy-vamping lies in knowing what is not done in real life, and then doing it. So says the beautiful Madeline Hurlock, vampire of the Mack Bennett comedies.

"The popular idea of the vamp is a long, slinky lady with black bandolined hair, a bare back and many jewels. And the screen formula for corraling a man is to look into his eyes, a shrug and a slow head," explains Madeline. "Whether people believe such things exist, I do not know, but I know they like to see them."
Miss Hurlock's vamping is made doubly different when the eyes into which she must look belong to Ben Turpin.

Madeline continues: "To put a curly-haired blonde in a vamp role would never believe that a pair of baby blue eyes, a dimple and two pouting lips can bowl over the heart of a man. Yet we know this to be true. The combination of guilelessness, naivete and trustfulness of the blonde is just as deadly as the more deliberate wiles of the brunette."
Miss Hurlock engaged at present in luring, in a cinematic way, Harry Langdon to his downfall in a Bennett two-reel comedy, called "His New Mamma."

A CANDID FRIEND.

The Montreal Gazette says that the Sutherland amendment to the Address was a mistake. The Speech from the Throne contained no specific proposals, and the Opposition should have waited for the legislation itself, and attacked it, if objectionable.

GETTING TRADE FOR THE PORTS.

Now that various English ports, including Hull, have demonstrated an anxiety to establish better trade relations with the port of Vancouver, it would pay the Vancouver board of trade to suggest to these English boards an interchange of salaried officials who would act as trade agents for their home offices abroad.

SIX YEARS AGO.

Six years ago the German war lords began their supreme effort to win the war. That last desperate onslaught was made along a fifty-mile front, between Arras and St. Quentin, in the hope of destroying the British army.

WOMAN'S HEALTH RESTORED

She Claims Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound Did It After Everything Else Failed

Milwaukee, Wisconsin. "I feel that I ought to let you know about my case. I was ailing and could barely do my housework and washing was so run-down just from having one child. I took a lot of medicines and had doctors. Then I gave them all up and took Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound and I feel wonderfully good now. I do everything that comes along, and we all take your medicine as a tonic when we don't feel just so. I am thankful for what the Vegetable Compound has done for my health and for my family." - Mrs. MARY SARGENT, 944 28th Street, Milwaukee, Wisconsin.

Johnny ran back home as fast as he could go, completely ruined from head to foot. "Oh, whatever shall I do, Johnny?" cried his mother. "My eraser won't take that off and no amount of new clothes will cover your face. You'll be a black boy as long as you live." "Soak him in sour milk," advised Nancy. And Mrs. Cut-Out did and it took all the ink off. (To Be Continued)

5,000 NEW SETTLERS ON WAY TO CANADA

Four Liners Due at Halifax and Three Here This Week-end

Immigrants expected at Halifax over the week end number approximately 2,000, according to Canadian National Railway headquarters in Montreal. It is expected that at least six special trains will be required to carry the passengers to Montreal, Ontario and other western ports.

COULDN'T SLEEP HEART WAS BAD NERVES A WRECK

Mr. H. A. Reid, Upper Musquodoboit, N. S., writes: "I am very thankful for the benefit I have received by using Milburn's Heart and Nerve Pills. When I came home from overseas, in 1920, my heart was very badly affected by concussion, and my nerves were a dreadful wreck. I was very short winded, and could not possibly sleep at night, in fact, I was in such a condition I felt as if I did not wish anyone to speak to me. I thought I would try Milburn's Heart and Nerve Pills, and before I had taken two boxes I could enjoy a good night's rest as well as anyone. There are lots of returned men who are suffering the same as I did, and I feel sure that if they would only try Milburn's Heart and Nerve Pills they will receive the same relief that I have." INTERNATIONAL ISSUE IN HOUSE

All Members Object to Chicago Lowering Water of Lakes

Ottawa, March 26.—The diversion of water from Lake Michigan by the Chicago sanitary district was the subject of a protest by members of all political parties in the House of Commons today. As a member after member rose to speak it became clear that there was no division of opinion on the matter. T. L. Church (Conservative, North Toronto), brought the matter to the attention of the House by moving for definite and immediate action to prevent the illegal diversion of the waters of the Great Lakes through the Chicago drainage canal, and that action should be taken to prevent further waste and to secure specific enforcement of the treaty between Canada and the United States as to this matter. The opinion of an eminent authority that the St. Lawrence River and Lake Erie might be reduced some day to the level of a duck pond if the diversion continued, was cited by Mr. Church. Other members stressed the importance of preserving the lake levels for the movement of freight and the preservation of harbors. The boundary waters treaty between Canada and the United States was being used as a football to the detriment of Canada's commercial development, it was argued. That the situation was serious, was admitted by Hon. Charles Stewart, Minister of the Interior. On the motion of Sir Henry Drayton, former Minister of Finance, the debate was adjourned until all papers concerning the negotiations between the United States and Canada on the question of water diversion at Chicago could be laid on the table of the House.

The object of the bill is to protect the public against the buying of worthless stocks and requires that all dealers in stocks and bonds selling shares in any company must first get a license from the Government and have their prospectus examined before a license is granted.

Enjoys Happiest Summer in Years

Toronto Man Thanks Famous Herbal Remedy for Relief It Brought Him—General Health Much Improved and Much Suffering Relieved. "At last, a Summer spent without continual suffering," says Mr. H. Bowles, of 23 Pryor Ave., Toronto. "For the past two years I have been a constant sufferer from rheumatism, the pains shooting through my hips, ankles and shoulders so bad that I could hardly get around at times. Dizzy spells often came over me and everything would turn black before my eyes. "Pains through my whole body would often double me up when walking about, and it seemed that I could never straighten up with comfort. Sick headaches also caused me hours of suffering. Life was a continual misery to me, and nothing I took in the way of medicines or treatments gave me any noticeable benefit; that is, until I started taking DRECO, which proved to be just the remedy my system needed and readily responded to its corrective influence. "The rheumatic pains are rapidly disappearing, and my entire system is far stronger. I am able to get out and enjoy the Summer in comfort, free from suffering, and I gladly state that DRECO is the cause of my great improvement. I am continuing to take it as a tonic and system-builder, and know that further improvement will be mine." DRECO is specially prepared from herbs, roots, bark and leaves and acts on the kidneys, liver, stomach and bowels and purifies the blood. It cleanses the whole system and affords wonderful relief from rheumatic pains, gastritis, dyspepsia and all other forms of indigestion, arouses a sluggish liver and relieves constipation. Let it make your life a comfort by putting your system in the shape that Nature intended it to be in. DRECO contains no mercury, potash or habit forming drugs. DRECO is being specially introduced in St. John by Ross Drug Co., 100 King St., Moore's Drug Store, 105 Prince Edward St., F. W. Munro, 357 Main St., and in West St. John by Watson R. Dunlop. It is also sold in Fairville by T. H. Wilson, and by a good druggist everywhere.

American Styles For American Women!

But They'll Come From Paris Anyway, Says Designer Going There for This Purpose

(By Marian Hale)

New York—Hereafter American women will have an American fashion representative in Paris. She is Miss Yvonne Routon, a thoroughly American, thin-haired young woman, despite her French name, who has been a successful designer in New York. She is going to Paris to create styles for Americans, using American materials and with the American woman always in mind.

The reason for deciding on Paris for her American designs, according to Miss Routon, is Paris remains the style centre of the world.

"French women will determine what is to be worn," she comments, "until the women of this country give the time and thought to their clothes that the Parisienne does to hers."

"We must depend on Paris for ideas because the French have the originality and the skill about clothes which we have never cultivated—which we have always depended on France to supply for us."

"But the personality of the American woman is quite different from that of the French, and it should be interpreted in her clothes."

"To say we cannot have American styles for American women is ridiculous. But to expect to learn in a few years what France has studied for generations and has inbred in her people is equally so."

Materials Differ
One reason Miss Routon finds why French models cannot always be successfully reproduced in this country is because of the difference in materials.

"During the past few years American materials have improved marvelously," she says. "Our silks, velvets and cottons, though different in some respects from the foreign product, are capable of many original and interesting treatments which they do not receive because the French work naturally with their own manufacturers and design for them."

"I am going to concentrate my efforts on American materials and American women," she concluded, "because I believe they may become an unbeatable combination."

young friends for a delicious supper and the table was centred with the usual prettily decorated cake with all the added attractions within. After supper the guests were entertained with radio concerts. Those enjoying the jolly party were Opal Grey, Marjorie Clark, Audrey Gates, Edith Journeay, Edith Hill, Blanche Durant, Arcilla Ross, Marjorie Ross, Helen and Miriam Hopper, Ralph Ross, Hartley Ross, Charles Kohr, Charles Hill, Merritt Hill and Audrey Patterson.

Mrs. H. T. Walker, of Truro, N. S., has been with her daughter and son-in-law, Mrs. Guy S. Lordly and Mr. Lordly, for a week and will remain for a further visit.

Miss Kathleen McFadden, of Buctouche, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John McFadden, has graduated from the St. John Infirmary and is the guest for a short time of Miss Margaret and Miss Mary Ryan, Church avenue, Fairville.

Miss Hazel Dunlop, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. H. H. Dunlop, 180 King street east, is leaving shortly for Philadelphia for an extended visit.

The acids of fruits and vegetables are classed as carbohydrates as well as starches and sugars. This increases the number of carbohydrate calories without necessarily adding fattening foods to the diet.

Most bulky vegetables are classified as carbohydrates, but unless they are extraordinarily rich in starch they can be eaten freely.

Potatoes are one of the starchiest vegetables, but they do not make all people fat. If you can digest the starch by thorough mastication they may be used in moderation. One baked potato two or three times a week should be provided.

Half grapefruit, 4 tablespoons scrambled eggs, 1 cup cream of asparagus soup, 2 slices cold roast lamb, 1 tablespoon mint jelly, 2 tablespoons apple-celery and nut salad, 1/2 head lettuce, 1 cup tomato bouillon, 2 slices fried calves' liver, 2 slices bacon, 2 baked onions, 1 steamed parsnip, 4 tablespoons chocolate bread pudding, 2 tablespoons whipped cream, 2 tablespoons canned loganberries, 1 sliced devil's food cake, 2 slices whole wheat toast, 1 toasted bran muffin, 2 slices whole wheat bread, 4 tablespoons butter, 1 tablespoon sugar, 2 tablespoons mayonnaise, 1 pint whole milk.
Total calories, 8048. Protein, 324; fat, 1242; carbohydrate, 1462. Iron, .0181 gram.

The asparagus left from the stuffed eggs and asparagus tips can be used for the cream of asparagus soup. Use as much real cream as possible in the "cream." Cream is one of the best of the so-called fats. It is easily digested and quickly assimilated.

Nuts are an excellent food for the person who would gain in weight. If thoroughly masticated and accompanied by a bulky fruit which is subacid they are easily digested. Nut butters can be included in the menus as desired.

REPORT ON WORK OF TRAVELERS' AID

In the transient Home of the Travelers' Aid department of the Y. W. C. A. there were altogether 79 persons cared for last month. Four were girls from nine to 18 traveling alone. These girls were not well cared for at the Home by the matron, but wires were sent on their behalf and they were taken to the immigration office and arrangements made for their transportation. They were 12 women and children from overseas and four going back to England from Halifax and were detained by the United States Immigration. These cases entail considerable work, as telegrams have to be sent and relatives communicated with. In the case of a West Indian girl whose sister had failed to meet her, the Travelers' Aid worker was able to provide her with a warm coat to proceed on her journey, and placed her on the train for Sydney, after providing her with lunch and wiring her sister to meet her. A lady and little boy arrived too late for the Montreal, and the Travelers' Aid worker arranged to have her ticket changed for another steamer sailing from Halifax and wired the Travelers' Aid agent to meet her there. Since then word has been received of their safe arrival.

Mrs. Sevell, a passenger from England, detained by the illness of one of her children, when the child was sufficiently recovered, was taken to her home in Toronto. Another overseas passenger, Mr. Davis, being detained by sickness, his wife was cared for and after his recovery both were assisted in continuing their journey to the west.

From Gowns to Parasols and Hats Paris Turns to Ostrich Plumes

BY MARIAN HALE

New York—Birds of a feather ought to flock together, and draw up a petition, urging Fashion to place some restriction on the use of their plumage. For Paris has suddenly gone mad about feathers. And the way she is using them is going to make heavy drains on the winged population.

St. John Postal Employees Join in Protest To Ottawa

MORE PAY; ABOLISH THE BONUS

Say Time Has Come for Re-adjustment of Salaries Upward.

FORWARD VIEWS.

Montreal Acts; Toronto Civil Strike—Position of Civil Service Commission.

The St. John Postal Employees have gone on record as being in favor of the abolition of the bonus and a revision of salaries upward to meet present day living conditions, it was announced today, and have sent forward their views to the Premier and Post Master General.

Four different organizations are represented in the postal office employees and all were reported unanimous in their opinion that the time had come to readjust salaries to bring them in line with the cost of living and cut out the bonus altogether. In the message to Premier King they requested that the increase in salary asked for become effective on April 1, 1934.

Montreal Action. Montreal, March 27.—A resolution adopted at a meeting of the Montreal Postal Workers' Association, last night, for transmission to Premier King and the cabinet makes a "vigorous protest against the action of the Government in decreasing the bonus, which should be continued pending the immediate upward revision of salaries."

Speakers said that, although the need for national economy was given as the reason for decreasing the bonus, the Government proposed to spend $800,000 for a new tower for the Parliament Building and $1,800,000 for a Government building in London.

Say Strike Vote Galas. Ottawa, March 27.—Representatives of the Canadian Federation of Postal Employees are dissatisfied because they have found out that the civil service commission cannot deal with postal employees in revising salaries without reference to other employees in other departments doing similar work and are again referring to the strength of the strike vote which they say is increasing.

Toronto Strike Vote 90 P. C. Toronto, March 27.—Returns of the balloting on the strike issue by the various branches of the postal and public works services in Toronto, completed yesterday, show about ninety per cent. in favor of a walk-out next month in the event the Government not granting the workers' demands for a revision of salaries.

Newcastle Liquor Decision Monday. Case Against Vendor Causing Great Interest—Court Crowded.

(Canadian Press Despatch.) Newcastle, March 26.—The case against a local vendor, charged with violating the prohibition law, was concluded in the police court today. Leslie Mills and Gordon Mackenzie, who were called by the prosecution, swore that they gave money to Sydney Casey and he got them a bottle of gin, but they did not know where Casey obtained the liquor. Magistrate reserved decision until Monday next.

SIX HUNDRED HOUSES BURNED. Tokyo, March 26.—Six hundred houses were burned today in a fire which swept Yoshiyama, a suburb of Tokyo. Twenty persons were injured. Three thousand are homeless.

OPTIMISTIC ABOUT BUSINESS. Captain J. E. Masters, of Moncton, former president of the Maritime Board of Trade, arrived in the city last night from Moncton to attend the Masonic convention here today. Captain Masters was very optimistic regarding the prospects for a good summer in the Maritimes this year. In Moncton, he said, business was showing a brisker outlook and was improving daily.

400 BABIES CARED FOR, ONLY 4 DIED

Free Milk Fund Sometimes Unable to Meet Demands Upon It

One of the hardest duties that any one in St. John is asked to do is that which devolves on the Victorian Order nurses from time to time when they must decide that a baby can no longer receive milk from the free milk fund of the St. John Women's Council. At present there are 28 babies receiving milk, and about three-quarters of that number are receiving a quart a day, the remainder getting smaller amounts.

The first year in which the fund was operated it cared for 116 babies, and only one of these died. In the second year it reached 178 babies, and two were lost by death, and in the present year, which is not yet completed, there will be about 160 babies cared for with only one death up to the present time.

INFLUENZA KILLED 12,000,000 IN INDIA. (Victoria Colonist.) Returns of the 1921 census of India have just been made public and show that a small advance in the population during the ten-year period. The people of the Indian Empire number a little under 310,000,000, an advance of 1.2 per cent. as compared with more than 7 per cent. in the previous period.

DISASTER STRIKES AMALFI, SEAPORT TOWN OF ITALY. Famous Cappuccini Convent and Several Hotels Are Overwhelmed.

Rome, March 26.—Fifty persons have been killed in a landslide in the seaport of Amalfi, 23 miles southeast of Naples, according to a despatch from Amalfi to the Giornale d'Italia. The Exchange Telegraph says that the disaster at Amalfi was caused by the river Cannetto getting out of its banks, which was followed by landslides which destroyed the famous Cappuccini convent and some of the hotels and other buildings in the village.

RECOGNITION BY CANADA OF SOVIETS. Ottawa, March 26.—In the best interests of both countries, I have the honor to represent that Canada is prepared to recognize the Union of Soviet Republics. This is the reply which Lt. Hon. W. L. Mackenzie King sent to A. Yanoff, Russian agent in Canada, who asked whether the de jure recognition of the Union of Soviet Republics proclaimed by His Britannic Majesty's Government on Feb. 16 last comprehends recognition by Canada.

Man Who Lost House in October Sustains Another Heavy Blow. Royalton, Carleton Co., March 26.—Fire destroyed the potato house on the farm owned by Elisha Crawford in the Carleton county town of Royalton on this week. The dwelling house on this farm was burned last October. The potato house was used for storage purposes and contained household furniture saved from the last fire, a 6-cylinder Chalmers automobile, farm machinery, and all his camp supplies. Mr. Crawford does not live on the farm and had just closed his camp and returned home. The loss is a heavy one, as there is only very small insurance, which would not even rebuild the potato house.

Policeman in Subway Downs Thief With Fistful of Gems

New York, March 27.—Broadway and Forty-second street, one of the world's busiest corners, and 3:40 o'clock in the afternoon did not dismay young Moses Kildare. He crashed a brick through the glass display window of M. L. Goldstone's jewelry store, grabbed a fistful of diamonds and ran. But a few seconds later, when Patrolman Francis Murtha, made a flying tackle on the crowded subway platform. Kildare had much more respect for New York's busiest corner and the police.

A negro employe of the Goldstone firm started after Kildare and Patrolman Murtha and J. Murphy, who were on their way to report for duty, joined the chase. Some one tripped Kildare just as Murtha jumped upon him. They took the prisoner to the police station, where he was charged with burglary.

Cynic Parrot Turns Honeymoon In Feathers Into a Tragedy

Completely Exterminates Pair of Lovebirds While Ship's Cook is at Ball and Reaches Port in Brig Under Death Sentence and Using Bad Language.

(New York Herald-Tribune.) It is really an uncompleted double play, Mulligan to Lovebirds, to Pugh, who is the ship's butcher. The Mulligan to Lovebirds part of it is ended, and the Lovebirds are entirely ended, but Pugh is biding his time. He works in odd moments over an oil stone sharpening a knife, and in his eyes there lives a sinister gleam.

Mulligan Goes Into Action. There was a dance for the lesser part of the liner, which Pugh attended. Mulligan went into action; he became drastic. The resultant clamor caused the ship into a temporary bedlam, the centre of which was Mulligan, with murder in his heart. When Pugh came running the wicker cage was a halt in front of Mulligan's cage and he cocks his single-arcadic eye upon Pugh, the ship's butcher, and says in long-drawn-out French: "Beat it, you bum!"

HEAT DEVELOPS IN DAIL EIREANN

Conflicting Views Over Army Officers' Statement, But Cosgrave Wins

Dublin, March 28.—Conflicting views among the cabinet ministers concerning the status of the Free State army officers who had taken part in the recent mutinous movement and who later surrendered were revealed in the course of the debate in the Dail Eireann today. The debate was the outcome of the motion put by Tom Johnson, the Labour leader of the opposition, which was carried by the Dail this morning. Mr. Johnson in proposing his motion made known his dissatisfaction with the attitude of the Government in Ireland made previously by President Cosgrave, in which it was declared that the Free State's military position was normal and generally satisfactory.

Other ministers also spoke and the debate developed some heat. Sean McGarry, member for Dublin; Daniel McCarthy, parliamentary secretary to the President, said they had decided to resign their memberships but had been induced to postpone action. Mr. McCarthy declared the crisis had ended and for this they had to thank Mr. McGrath and the patriotic action of the alleged mutineers, who had the army behind them. If there had been firing during the recent raid on their office, Mr. McCarthy added, there would have been a bloody war which would have ended the country and for the Free State's committee would have been responsible.

Preferred Suicide To Double Murder. Paris, March 27.—(United Press.)—Dionisio, who he did not have the heart to execute a double murder, Prosper Dumortier, aged 38, committed suicide at Lille. He drank poison and shot himself. Dumortier, still conscious when the police found him, explained that he went to Lille from Paris to kill two persons who had caused his death in the front of Muppan's cage and works meticulously at his business of sharpening a long-bladed knife upon an oilstone. But Mulligan, though his body is captive, retains his proud and independent soul. WEST SIDE VOTERS HEAR CANDIDATES

McAvity, McInerney and Phillips Expound Progress Party's Platform

The first shot in the civic election campaign, so far as West St. John is concerned, was fired last evening by the Civic Progress Party when a meeting was held in the Oddfellow's Hall at which addresses were delivered by the three candidates on the party ticket, Messrs. R. A. McAvity, Ralph G. McInerney and Herbert Phillips, the first being a candidate for the mayorship and the latter two for commissionships.

Felix McMullin occupied the chair, and in introducing the candidates explained that the general purpose of the party was to make a clean sweep of City Hall by electing "new blood and young blood" to fill all the vacancies in the coming election. The hall was fairly well filled and the addresses of the candidates were punctuated with frequent applause.

Ralph G. McInerney, candidate for commissioner, dealt with the main plank of the party platform, that of doing at once necessary public works in St. John instead of postponing them until "times got better." False economy, he said, was often practiced and preached in the belief that it was true economy. In the present instance true economy pointed to the necessity for doing something in St. John in order to banish the hard times and depression which were driving our people to the United States.

Herbert Phillips explained the purpose of the Civic Progress Party, how it came to be established and what it hoped to do. It would not be sufficient, he said, merely to change the members of the City Council, but we must obtain a change of viewpoint. With that end in view and with the desire of stimulating the interest of the citizens in their own government, which he said was absolutely necessary in order to obtain truly representative government, no matter what the form or type of government, the Civic Progress Party had been formed. He dealt particularly with the power of money, when utilized both by private individuals and corporations and by communities. Governments could utilize the power of their credit, he maintained, to promote the best interest of all citizens even as individuals used credit to promote their individual interests by the expansion of their business.

AIR GLOBE-GIRDERS WILL COME TO CITY

Oil Sent Here For English Fliers on Round World Flight

There is one thing that is keeping different parts of the world interested at the present time, and that is the great air race round the world in which the MacLaren airplane of England is flying against the United States, the two flying in opposite directions. The great English machine will land at St. John, according to plans made and thousands of citizens will have the opportunity of inspecting the great racer. This information was received yesterday afternoon J. C. Chesley, agent of the Dominion Marine and Fisheries Department, who stated that he had received letters regarding the arrival of the great English round the world machine at St. John. According to the correspondence received by Mr. Chesley, the flying machine was to arrive in St. John on May 17, but this date had been postponed and the glazier will reach here on Friday, June 27.

English Started Tuesday

Great Britain entered the air race round the world against the United States at 12.10 p. m. Tuesday, March 25, when an amphibian plane manned by a trio of Royal Air Force aviators rose from Southampton water amid an escort of land and seaplanes and turned its nose towards the coast of France. The United States plane left California about a week ago. The MacLaren airplane descended near Harve, France, on Tuesday afternoon owing to fog. Squadron Leader A. Stuart McLaren, a modest Scotsman of 82 years, who is navigating the plane, is acquainted with his route from England to India, having been the first to make an air voyage between the home country and its eastern empire. But from India, through the Orient and across the Pacific, Canada and the Atlantic, he will be flying over strange lands and water.

A., left this morning to be present also at this meeting of the standing committee on missions for the N. B. and P. E. I. Methodist Conference. This committee usually meets in St. John, but it was thought advisable to have it convene in Fredericton this year owing to the presence of so many of the members at the capital. A layman who has passed through to attend the missionary committee was Thomas Moyle, of Prince Edward Island.

The late policeman had been on the force for about eight years and saw service in the Canadian Army during the war. He left duty about three weeks ago. The funeral arrangements have not been completed yet.

CHARLOTTE COUNTY MEMBERS SPEAK

Flewelling and Scovil Heard in Debate on Budget in Local House.

Fredericton, March 26.—Charlotte county had the floor this afternoon with its two St. Stephen members, J. M. Flewelling and J. W. Scovil speaking upon the budget. Mr. Flewelling is one of the Opposition front benchers and assumed the role of financial critic in a manner that showed he had given some attention to the statements made by the Government as well as the receipts and expenditures. He was not as severe as some other critics have been and he started out by making the usual charges of extravagance and reckless piling up of the public debt. He compared the debt of the province in 1917 with the debt today and showed how it had increased as he said, from $16,000,000 to about $30,000,000.

Pleads For Fair Deal.

Retrieving in distinct terms the action of the Federal Government in withdrawing the agricultural grant, he pleaded for a fair deal for the Maritime Provinces at the hands of the central administration. He commented briefly upon the improvement in lumber conditions and returning to the financial methods of the Government, claimed that the loan concerning which there had been so much satisfaction expressed was not as favorable as it had been pictured. The province would have to pay the principal at maturity in American funds and the interest every year would necessarily be in the same currency, and he estimated that the exchange would cost the province $1,000 per annum. Contending that the fishet damage should have been paid out of current revenue, he criticized most of the highway activities with the exception of the patrol system, which was a good thing but should be performed under better instruction.

John W. Scovil, the Liberal member hailing from the town of St. Stephen, replied to Mr. Flewelling. Mr. Scovil is a young business man of the border and his experience in politics has only been since 1920, but his ideas on public matters, expressed in an independent, fearless fashion, claimed the attention of the House. He made some comparisons between politics and business, claiming improvement for the latter, but the same old methods so far as the business of the country was concerned. "It is my opinion," said Mr. Scovil, "that partisan politics are carried too far. Business has a code of ethics, but politics seem to have none, for in politics people would stoop to methods which they would not employ in business."

As a more lengthy report of Mr. Scovil's speech appears elsewhere further reference is not necessary except that in his handling of political principles as well as the attention he paid to Mr. Flewelling, the speaker who preceded him, left nothing apparently to be desired. The speakers this evening were D. A. Stewart, of Restigouche, and O. W. Wetmore, of Kings county. Both of them are always vigorous in their own way. Mr. Stewart expressed his ideas in his usual graphic fashion, and Col. Wetmore, never antagonistic, dealt with the budget and other issues in his usual fair method.

Notices of Enquiry.

Mr. Wetmore, after congratulating the mover and seconder of the address, spoke of the benefits which the people of St. John and Kings counties had received from the Musquash development. The plant was now paying running expenses and something was being set aside for depreciation. The flood situation last spring had been very serious and the Government deserved much credit for the manner in which it had been handled. In regard to agriculture the farmers had experienced much difficulty in carrying on because of the falling prices and the high cost of labor. There had been altogether too much extravagance during the war and the people were paying the penalty. Complaint had been made that there was no market for dairy products, and while that might be true of some sections it did not apply to farmers living near St. John or Moncton, who disposed of their cream and butter at fair prices. Freight rates to the upper provinces were high, but farmers of New Brunswick had an advantage over the West in regard to shipments overseas.

As to Prohibition.

He was a prohibitionist first, last and all the time. He did not believe the act was enforced as it ought to be and was confident in St. John holders of beer licenses were selling liquor. Before any change could be talked of the act must be given a real trial. He did not think they ever will be cleared of the bootlegger. The trouble was caused by the easy way of making money, by bootlegger, vendor, doctor and Government. The future of the province he did not think was so very bad. The cry of over-taxation was not borne out by facts. The province had some great assets on which it would realize. He noticed a cut in liquor revenue of $90,000 but the reduction could be greater. Mr. Fawcett moved the adjournment of the debate, which was made the order of the day for 3 o'clock tomorrow.

MORE HEBRIDEANS COMING TO CANADA

Considerable interest has been aroused throughout Scotland by the sailing of 400 or more crofters from Barra and South Uist, Hebrides, this week, for Canada on the steamship Marloch. The Marloch will arrive in St. John on her next voyage from Great Britain to Canada. The Marloch will take 200 Hebrideans from Stornoway.

Many of these latest immigrants from the Hebrides are closely related to those who went out to the Dominion under similar conditions last spring. At least 80 families have sold out their crofts or small farms with a view to starting life afresh in the Canadian west. Many wives and children are selling to join husbands and fathers who preceded them overseas. Scottish newspaper comment on the emigration of the people from the Hebrides to Canada is entirely favorable to the scheme. Letters are being printed in the newspapers from Hebrideans already established in the Dominion, who speak well of their experience in their new homes.

PLAN FIRST AID CONTESTS.

A meeting of the St. John centre executive of the St. John Ambulance Association was held yesterday afternoon in the Red Cross depot immediately after the meeting of the provincial executive of the association. Dr. J. M. Magee, president, was in the chair, and the chief business dealt with consisted in arranging for the conduct of the local junior First Aid contests for the St. John cups. The committee to take charge of the contests was appointed as follows: Capt. D. V. Palin, for the cadets; Dr. G. B. Peat, for the Boy Scouts; Miss Dorothy Purdy, for the Girl Guides, and Miss Irene Barber to represent the St. John Ambulance Association. It was reported that there was a large enrollment in the home nursing class being taught by Mrs. Van Dorner, and that arrangements had been made to lengthen the course to seven lectures instead of six in order that special addresses might be heard from Miss Melkicjohn, who will speak on public health and from Dr. H. A. Farris, who will speak on tuberculosis prevention.

DRURY PUTS BLAME, IF ANY, ON SMITH

Newmarket, Ont., March 26.—Former Premier E. C. Drury places any blame for possible poor business methods of the treasury department of his Government on the former Minister of Finance, Peter Smith. Each minister, he declared, had always been held responsible for his own department and if there had been any details of the conduct of the treasury department warranting condemnation, the fault did not lie with the Government. Peter Smith, he said, was personally responsible for the conduct of all affairs connected with the financing of the province during the regime of the U. F. O. Government at Queens Park.

CAT SAVES LIVES AT PERTH BLAZE?

Awakens Tenants Above Regal Pharmacy—Loss is $12,000

Andover, N. B., March 26.—The Regal Pharmacy was completely destroyed by fire at Perth, early this morning, with a resulting loss of about $12,000. In the flat above the store an entire family were asleep. The mewling of a cat awakened them and they had but time to escape from the burning building in their night clothes. The fire started in the small store-rooms in the rear of the drug store and had gained such headway when discovered that nothing could be done to save the place from total destruction. Nothing was saved from the store and the family living in the flat above lost all their furniture and personal effects. The loss is estimated at $8,000 on the building and $4,000 on the stock of the store, in addition to the furniture loss. There is about $6,000 insurance in all. The furniture was not insured. Gerald Lovely, manager of the drug store could give no explanation of the origin of the fire.

ENGINEERS TO MEET IN FREDERICTON

Several members of the St. John branch of the Engineering Institute of Canada leave tomorrow for Fredericton where a point meeting of the Engineering Institute and the Engineering Society of the University of New Brunswick will be held to hear Samuel H. Millam, of Boston, speak on "Public Relations of the Engineer," and F. A. Bowman, M.E.I.C., of Halifax, on Friday night. Mr. Millam as a consulting engineer and also as an auditor and accountant, has been engaged in appraisals and inventories, public utility investigations and rate schedules. Mr. Bowman is vice-president of the Institute, and has recently returned from Montreal, where he attended the inauguration of A. Surveyor, M.E.I.C., as president of the Institute. The members of the branch will be the guests of the U. N. B. Club of Fredericton at dinner at the University on the arrival of the train.

THE WOES OF HALIFAX

Discussing civic affairs in Halifax the Echo says: "Nero fiddled while Rome burned and students of history have always had a poor opinion of Nero and his fiddling tactics. But in comparison with the city council the much maligned Nero was a poor fiddler. For three months the city council has had the consideration. In all that time the city has been without an auditor, but absolutely nothing has been done to relieve the present incumbent of his office or to make a new appointment. The net result is—Nothing."

Wigg—"What did you say when he told you to go to thunder?" Waag—"I said 'I'd been to 'Lighthin' and 'tain' and was satisfied."

in a fight with another dog, was assisted to a yard off the Row and put out of its misery when the officer killed

ed it with a shot from his revolver. Yesterday morning Police Constable Hughes was called to the residence of Mrs. E. D. Ring, 385 Haymarket Square, and shot a dog that had been sick with no chance of recovery.

It makes Spring Cleaning Easy

WITH THE Hoover, you will do your spring house-cleaning more efficiently, more quickly and at less expense. You won't need to take up your carpets or rugs. The Hoover will clean them on the floor. It beats out even the embedded grit so destructive to rug life, and makes floor coverings wear years longer.

Wherever The Hoover goes, it leaves a clean strip—an "immaculate pathway" of thoroughly cleaned rug, revived pile, and freshened colors.

Before you buy an electric cleaner, be sure to see The Hoover at work. Understand why the three principles of cleaning employed by The Hoover are all essential to thorough cleaning.

A demonstration in your home will be given gladly by any Authorized Hoover Dealer. It will entail no obligation upon you.

If you wish to purchase, $7.50 will place The Hoover in your home, and the remainder can be paid at an average of only a few cents a day.

The LABEL tells whether they are baked or not

When you think of beans, you think of baked beans. That's the way you have always prepared them and that's the way you want them—baked. You can tell whether the beans you buy are baked by reading the label on the can. Heinz Oven-Baked Beans are labeled baked and taste baked because they are baked—in ovens—with dry heat.

The Strain of Housework

A WIFE'S first duty is the efficient management of her home. And what a task it is! Meals must be served on time—the children must be cared for—social duties must be performed—a thousand and one unexpected details keep cropping up, demanding immediate attention!

Only a strong, healthy body can stand up to the strain! Only if the system is supplied with adequate nourishment can the wife keep up to the mark from day to day. "Ovaltine" is the ideal beverage for the busy housewife. It supplies her with the concentrated nourishment she needs, in a form that her system can assimilate easily and quickly, and without undue digestive effort. "Ovaltine" is prepared from ripe barley malt, creamy milk and fresh eggs, and retains all the health-giving, body-building essentials of these natural, tonic foods. It is super-nourishment, palatable and easy to prepare. One cup contains more nutrition than three eggs, seven cups of cocoa or twelve cups of beef extract. Make "Ovaltine" your daily beverage. Drink it at every meal, and before retiring. Taken between meals, too, whenever you feel tired and worn out, it will relieve all fatigue and give you new zest for your work. There's vitality and health in every cupful.

REDUCED $98,000 IN TWO YEARS

(Toronto Star) The Ottawa Government has made a reduction of over $480,000 in its main estimates as compared with last year.

It is a big sum. It enables Canada to balance her budget, it puts the country on a better footing, and, taking the last two years together, it tends to prove the insincerity of the Mackenzie King government has been piling up expenditures.

Those who never discuss public business except from the partisan angle will now, doubtless, hop over to the other side and accuse the government of parsimony and miserliness.

The people of Canada, however, are not so responsive to this sort of partisan "news-calling" as they used to be. The general view will be that this policy of economy is the course of prudence and sound national finance.

SPEAKS ON NATURAL RESOURCES OF N. B.

Dr. Bigelow Addresses Engineering Institute at Moncton.

Dr. Bigelow of Mount Allison University, Sackville, gave an address on the Natural Resources of New Brunswick at the supper meeting of the Moncton Branch of the Engineering Institute of Canada in the Barker House on Tuesday evening.

In his introductory remarks, says the Transcript, Dr. Bigelow said that, of course there was a natural resource of the province that was not being included in his paper—that of the workers. In this connection, he remarked that he had recently been reading "Sam Slick," and this writer had stated that the Nova Scotian had a wonderful Country, but that they wouldn't work it.

As far as he had been able to ascertain through the literature written by authorities from all parts of the Dominion, it would seem that it is a general opinion that New Brunswick is an ideal sheep province—the wool from this province after being graded in accordance with recent regulations was sold at the best prices on the Montreal market. Again, dairying, the making of Milk Sugar (an infant food) and the Bee industry have great possibilities.

A general survey of the province determining the percentage of different kinds of trees showed that although over one-third of our forest growth was hard woods, yet only a little over one per cent, or possibly two per cent, of this was cut for commercial use, while spruce and fir composed the great percentage of the cuts—Spruce 50 per cent, fir 25 per cent, and in smaller percentages, pine, cedar, hemlock and poplar.

In view of this, he stated emphatically that commercial uses must be found for hard woods, and that they must be used in the paper manufacture just the same as the soft woods are used for this today. He was quite certain that hard woods could be used just as well as soft woods for this industry, and so, naturally, she has been compelled to look to Canada for supplies. In 1923 our neighbors took to us more than 55% of our newswprint output.

It is a significant fact that no Canadian company exclusively producing newswprint has failed to meet its bond interest during the last eight years.

N. S. STEEL AND COAL CO. New Glasgow, N. S., March 27.—The annual meeting of the shareholders which was called for today at the head office of the Nova Scotia Steel and Coal Company, Limited, was adjourned until next Thursday at twelve o'clock.

GETTING AFTER DOMINION IRON

London, March 26.—A correspondent of the Daily Herald, alluding to the Newfoundland graft revelations, says that while it is up to the people of that dominion to deal with Squires, it is up to the people of Great Britain to realize that there are two parties of hold-overs and if the Premier of Newfoundland is guilty of taking bribes, the Dominion Steel Corporation is guilty of tendering them.

The correspondent proceeds to enumerate who are the British directors of this concern, and it is shown that they are also in the front rank of British's coal and steel barons.

SPORT NEWS GLEANED FROM WORLD'S CENTRES

HUGGINS SENDS 6 ROOKIES HOME

Giants Beaten Again—Sisler Five Times Up, Goes Hitless.

New York, March 27.—The melancholy days have arrived for the young baseball men who went south to glory as members of the world champions. Manager Huggins has announced that before this day sees the setting sun at least six rookies will go back to the minors with strings attached. The unlucky ones are expected to include Pithers Arguilo, Dumont, Newberry, Owen and Swenson, and Infelder Reo-Fern.

Yesterday was another sorry day for New York's baseball representatives. At Clearwater the Robins were smacked for the third consecutive day, this time by the Cardinals, who won 10 to 7.

Giants Lose Again.

Walter Johnston, pitching for Washington against the Giants at Tampa, cut down Groh, Frisch and Kelly while three men lingered on the bases, and although the Giants got away to a five-run rally after the second inning, they were hit by the second inning by hitting Geary soundly. Washington won 7 to 6 and the game marked McGraw's fifth defeat in six days.

Yankees regulars and rookies played a scoreless tie under a blazing sun at New Orleans. Wallie Schang returned to uniform and hitting practice after being out for a week with a cracked rib.

With three young pitchers from the minors, Huffing, Ulrich and Lefty Ross, taking turns on the mound, the Boston American League club gave the San Antonio Texas League an 8 to 6 beating yesterday. The Boston Braves battled to a 1 to 1 eight-inning tie with the Yankigans.

Sisler Hitless.

St. Louis Americans marked up their fifth victory over the Mobile club yesterday. Sisler went hitless in five at-bats.

Ray Kremer, pitcher from the Oakland club of the Pacific Coast League, signed a contract with Pittsburgh yesterday.

With four wins over the Toronto club of the International League, the Detroit Tigers will again meet the Leafs today. Yesterday's game with the Tigers won 18 to 2, was featured by six home runs, five of them by Detroit.

The Indianapolis team, which defeated Cincinnati, Washington, Brooklyn, and the Giants, lost to Cleveland 10 to 9 yesterday. Making his debut, Guy Morton, dean of the Indian hurlers, led Indianapolis to one hit for five innings.

The ace fell in the camp of the Chicago Americans yesterday, lopping off Jobb Manning innard, infielder, who came to the White Sox from Louisville, Ky. The barnstorming Chicago Nationals trailed by rain five days got the jump on the elements and took a five inning 4 to 1 win over Oakland before the storm broke yesterday. The White Sox will play the Philadelphia Nationals at Leesburg today.

FREDERICKSON IS TO HAVE BOXING

Billy Groff and Dick Hunt Announced for April 7 There.

Frederickson, N. B., March 27.—Frederickson is likely to have its first boxing bout in many years within the next few weeks.

It is understood that a license for a boxing bout has been granted by the authorities and that Billy Groff of Winnipeg, who has been here for some time, is being matched with Dick Hunt, welterweight champion of the Maritime Provinces, who is now at Halifax.

Details were said today to be about arranged for the bout to take place on April 7, Hunt having accepted terms today. It will be staged under the auspices of the Frederickson Baseball Club.

Hughes Has Recovered From Oil Poisoning

Lloyd Hughes has returned to the cast of Frank Lloyd's first National epic, "The Sea Hawk," following 10 days of severe illness caused by a cold, and oil poisoning, contracted during the filming of night scenes off the coast of California. After a night of unconsciousness and several days of extreme suffering, Hughes rapidly improved, but, because of fever blisters which broke out upon his face, could not return to the studios. But, returning to the Lloyd set, Hughes made up for lost time, especially in certain scenes laid in Penarth Hall, where he partook of a husky percentage of the "property" food in an effort to catch up on his eating.

Huggins Is Finishing For Fourth Pennant

Here we have Miller Huggins fishing off the wharf at St. Petersburg, Fla. While the diminutive leader of the Yankees is patiently waiting for a nibble at the ball, he is probably doting on his chances of landing a fourth championship.

No American or National League manager has ever won four pennants in a row. Seven times the National and twice in the American, has a manager landed three successive championships. Huggins is the only other American League manager aside from Huggins, to turn the trick.

MILLER HUGGINS.

HOFF OF NORWAY ALL-AROUND STAR

Has Bettered Last Olympic Marks in Pentathlon and Decathlon Events.

As the track and field events stand out as the feature of the Olympic Games, so do the pentathlon and decathlon championships stand out as the big events of the track and field program, and when the athletes of nearly every nation in the world gather at Columbus this summer it will be the all-around championships which probably will carry the most interest again. The United States had its Jim Thorpe in the 1912 Games at Stockholm to carry the Red, White and Blue shield to victory in both the big events. In 1920 competitions at Antwerp, there were Bradley, Hamilton, Legendre and Vidar striving for the honors, but they were beaten by representatives from Scandinavia. Lehtonen of Finland, winning the pentathlon crown and Lovland of Norway capturing the decathlon honors. This year it appears that the Norwegian, Christian Hoff, will be a contender, that it will be another Scandinavian whom the American contenders will have to beat in order to win the laurels.

From time to time reports have come across the Atlantic concerning the achievements of one Christian Hoff of Norway, and after summing up the performances that this lean Norse has accomplished, it is only too apparent that the United States will have to develop an athlete who can better the marks made by the 1920 winners in order to bring back the pentathlon and decathlon titles when they return from the invasion of France.

In the last Olympic pentathlon, Lehtonen finished first in the 200-meter run, second in the running broad jump, javelin throw and 1,500 meter run, and seventh in the discus, giving him a total of 14 points, which was a full 10 points better than Bradley of the United States, who finished second. Against the marks made by Lehtonen, Christian Hoff has made a better showing in the running broad jump and the 200-meter run, and while accurate figures are lacking in the discus and javelin events, the Norse is said to be accomplishing excellent marks in these two events also.

Lehtonen's best broad jump in the pentathlon was a leap of 6 meters, 63 centimeters, while the best pentathlon jump in the last Olympics was made by Hamilton of the American team, 6 meters, 86 centimeters, or 22 feet 6.8 inches. Hoff has done 7 meters 92 centimeters, better than 24 feet. Lehtonen's time in the pentathlon 200-meter run was 23 seconds flat, which was the best time made in the event, being equalled by both Bradley and Legendre. Hoff has traveled the distance half a second faster, being credited with 22.5-10 seconds. In the 1,500-meter run, the fifth event on the pentathlon programme, Lehtonen finished second in 1920 in 4:40 1-5, the best time being made by Lahtinen, who turned in a time of 4:36. What Hoff is able to do at this distance is not officially recorded, but his efforts at 800 meters, which he has covered in 1:55 6-0, indicates that he is able to beat both Lehtonen's and Lahtinen's marks.

As to the decathlon events Hoff has bettered the records made by Hamilton in the 400 meters, Vickholm of Sweden in the 400 meters, Nilsson in the high jump, Hamilton in the 100-meter hurdles, and the 100-meter hurdles.

The system in scoring points is different in the two events. In the pentathlon the contestant gets a certain number of points based on the merit of his distance or time, while in the decathlon the winner in each event gets the lowest number of points winning. Both of the all-around stars events will be spread over more than one day in the Olympic games. It is too much to ask any athlete to perform in all five or all ten events in one day.

Lieutenant Eugene Vidal of West Point, who competed in the decathlon at the last Olympic games and finished seventh, has been appointed coach of the pentathlon and decathlon candidates by the American Olympic Committee. Last year was his first as a coach of track athletes, when he took charge of the Cadets at West Point and organized a track team that was undefeated through the season.

Just who will represent the United States in the pentathlon and decathlon events in Paris of course will not be determined until after the national tryouts at Boston in June, but from records which have been made by various American aspirants to all-around honors, Osborn of the Illinois A. C., Bob Legendre, former Georgetown University star, Charles West, newly signed from Washington and Jefferson; Frieda of the University of Chicago, and Eddie Norton of the Illinois A. C., are the best prospects.

Hoff set a new world record for the decathlon when he accumulated 7,381.80 points with the following performance: 100 meters, 11 6-10 seconds; broad jump, 21 feet 6 1-8 inches; shot-put, 37 feet 6 1/2 inches; high jump, 6 feet 5 inches; 400 meters, 32 1/2-10 seconds; 100-meter hurdles, 15 6-10 seconds; discus throw, 100 feet 4 1/2 inches; pole vault, 10 feet 6 1/2 inches; javelin throw, 131 feet 3/4 inches; 1,500-meter run, 4 minutes 53 1-10 seconds. In comparing these marks with those available on Hoff it is seen that Hoff has the better performance in the pentathlon and decathlon events, while Osborn has made a better mark only in the high jump.

Frieda captured second honors in the national decathlon and Norton finished third, so these two men must be considered when the selection is made. The team to go abroad, however, Legendre has made some splendid marks. He has done 23 seconds for 200 meters, over 24 feet in the pole vault, 100 meters, 400 meters, 100 meters, 100 meters, and 448 in the 1,500-meter run.

The system in scoring points is different in the two events. In the pentathlon the contestant gets a certain number of points based on the merit of his distance or time, while in the decathlon the winner in each event gets the lowest number of points winning. Both of the all-around stars events will be spread over more than one day in the Olympic games. It is too much to ask any athlete to perform in all five or all ten events in one day.

WIN CHAMPIONSHIP FOR THIRD SEASON

Pender's Bowling Team Again Capture Commercial Cup.

The bowling team representing James Pender & Company clinched the championship of the Commercial League on Black's alleys last evening when they defeated a quartette from the Dominion Coal Company by a total of 1,894 to 1,293. This is the third year in succession that the Pender team won premier honors, and their victory is largely attributed to the interest they manifested in their games throughout the season. The individual scores follow:

An Irish soldier on sentry duty had orders to allow no one to smoke near his post. An officer with a lit cigar approached, whereupon Pat boldly challenged him, and ordered him to put it out at once. The officer, with a contrary of disgust, threw away his cigar, but no sooner was his back turned than Pat picked it up and quietly returned to the sentry box.

The officer, happening to look around, observed a beautiful cloud of smoke issuing from the box. He at once challenged if he should still continue to learn the correct now that he had become a Christian. Mr. Spurgeon replied that he saw no harm in whatever, on the contrary he urged the convert to consecrate his cigar and his talents to God's service; but, he added, "One thing I am very sure of, your next neighbor cannot be a Christian."

The question, "Can a cyclist be a Christian?" reminds a London correspondent one of the witticisms of the late Rev. C. H. Spurgeon. A man who was learning the cornet, became converted and wrote to Mr. Spurgeon asking if he should still continue to learn the cornet now that he had become a Christian. Mr. Spurgeon replied that he saw no harm in whatever, on the contrary he urged the convert to consecrate his cornet and his talents to God's service; but, he added, "One thing I am very sure of, your next neighbor cannot be a Christian."

Buenos Aires, March 26.—Ernesto Spalla, the Italian heavyweight, has challenged Luis Firpo to a return match of twelve rounds, the entire purse to go to the winner with a percentage to charity. Spalla's challenge is due to Firpo's statement regarding the Italian's showing against him on March 7. He says also that he wants to prove that his pretensions to the world's title are not without foundation. Awaiting Firpo's reply Spalla has resumed public training.

TO BUILD TEAM AROUND N. S. BOYS

Manager of Boston Maples Will Only Retain Three Canadians.

Sport writers announce, says the Halifax Mail, that Joe Sheridan, manager of the Boston Maples hockey team, has informed the players he would build his team around Nedder Hurley, Clary "Brick" Morrison and Ernie Mosher, three Nova Scotians, next year. The rest of the team, according to the writers, will be let out.

All three provincial boys have played great hockey in Boston this winter, especially Morrison, who is a wonderfully improved player.

HILTON BELVEA'S ENTRY APPROVED

Sanction of Canadian Amateur Oarsmen's Association Granted.

Sanction of the Canadian Amateur Oarsmen's Association for the entry of Hilton Belvea at the Royal Henley regatta was granted at a meeting of the executive recently in Montreal. In the minutes recording this decision, the good wishes of the association were extended to the local oarsman. It was pointed out at the meeting that the small amount of funds available from the Canadian Olympic committee would entail the raising of funds by the various clubs successful in qualifying to represent Canada.

It was also decided that the Canadian Henley be held at Port Dalhousie on July 31, Aug. 1 and 2. On the first day the programme contains all heats other than those designated for Friday. Friday's programme contains the following: 140 pound four, 140 pound single, Navy League eights; junior eight, senior fours, first heat and second heat 440 yards dash seniors, first and second heats 440 yards seniors. On Saturday the programme is as follows: High School fours, final 440 yards seniors, senior 140 pound fours, senior fours, senior singles (8:40 p. m. eastern time), senior 140 pound eights, senior doubles, senior eights, High School eights.

Whether Hilton Belvea will be able to get back in time for the Canadian meet and to limit his journey is problematical. The Olympic races conclude on July 16 and only by fast traveling could Belvea be able to reach Port Dalhousie but few days before the regatta—entirely too short to give his best, as was proved last year. He expects, however, to be in plenty of time to meet and defeat the British at the regatta which will be held one week later at Springfield, Mass.

SPALLA SENDS DEFI TO FIRPO

Italian Heavyweight Wants a Return Match, Winner Take All.

Buenos Aires, March 26.—Ernesto Spalla, the Italian heavyweight, has challenged Luis Firpo to a return match of twelve rounds, the entire purse to go to the winner with a percentage to charity. Spalla's challenge is due to Firpo's statement regarding the Italian's showing against him on March 7. He says also that he wants to prove that his pretensions to the world's title are not without foundation. Awaiting Firpo's reply Spalla has resumed public training.

DECLINES TO RACE AROUND THE WORLD

Major-General Patrick, chief of the Army Air Service of the United States, has declined a suggestion made by Lieutenant-Colonel L. E. Brooks, of the Royal Air Service, that the British and United States around-the-world fliers enter into a competitive race. The proposal was not made as a challenge, but solely in the interests of the sporting character and value as publicity propaganda.

General Patrick telegraphed Colonel Brooks, then in Ottawa, as follows: "Date of departure our flight from starting point so involved with laying down of supplies and schedule of steamer sailings that it is impossible to accede to your sports proposal. Our best wishes for the success of your daring undertaking."

Secretary of War Weeks reiterated yesterday that it was not the object of the army flight to race around the world or attempt to make any great speed.

"They are going out," he said, "to blaze a way that may be followed as a route around the globe much in the same manner as the Lewis and Clarke expedition once crossed this continent."

The official purpose of the American flight, as outlined by the War Department, is to gain for the Air Service added experience in long distance flying.

MANY BOWLERS ENTER TOURNEY

Maine to be Represented in World's Candlepin Championships in Boston.

Boston, March 27.—Maine will send a large delegation to the world's candlepin bowling tournament, to be held at the Arena from April 7 to April 19. The bowlers will arrive here April 18 and will compete in all three classes, individual, two-man and five-man teams.

On Patriots' Day, the Maine delegation will attend the finish of the B. A. A. Marathon race and also the Red Sox-Athletic game in the afternoon.

Outside bowling centres are making up special parties, for plenty of zip and pep is assured when these out-of-town bowlers compete for the handsome prizes offered in the tournament. The many fine features in connection with the Midway provide plenty to catch the fancy of the women and children.

BANGOR "FIVE AGES" LOSE TO TROJANS

Visiting Basketball Team is Outclassed by Local Maritime Champions.

The Trojans, senior basketball champions of the Maritime Provinces, continued their good work last evening when they defeated the Bangor "Five Aces" by a score of 55 to 19. The game was played in St. Vincent's gymnasium and was witnessed by a fair sized crowd of fans. The locals' great combination playing, accurate and snappy shooting and aggressive play proved too much for the visitors from Maine and they were practically on the defensive throughout the game.

The visitors held the score down in the first half to 18 to 9 while in the second half the Trojans counted 37 points to the Five Aces' 10. Gordon Wilson opened the scoring with a dazzling dash, but the Trojans were back and for a while the score crept up on fairly even terms when toward the close the locals spurred and drew level with the Trojans.

In a preliminary game, the Central Baptist team, junior provincial champions, defeated the Young Judeans, a local team of Jewish boys who did very well considering the lack of practice they have been able to obtain this season. The score was 20 to 6.

Following the game, Miss Audrey Kerr, sister of Les Kerr, entertained the visitors at a private dance in the Victoria Gardens. The two teams also were entertained at a dance in the Jewish Hall.

SPALLA SENDS DEFI TO FIRPO

Italian Heavyweight Wants a Return Match, Winner Take All.

Buenos Aires, March 26.—Ernesto Spalla, the Italian heavyweight, has challenged Luis Firpo to a return match of twelve rounds, the entire purse to go to the winner with a percentage to charity. Spalla's challenge is due to Firpo's statement regarding the Italian's showing against him on March 7. He says also that he wants to prove that his pretensions to the world's title are not without foundation. Awaiting Firpo's reply Spalla has resumed public training.

DECLINES TO RACE AROUND THE WORLD

Major-General Patrick, chief of the Army Air Service of the United States, has declined a suggestion made by Lieutenant-Colonel L. E. Brooks, of the Royal Air Service, that the British and United States around-the-world fliers enter into a competitive race. The proposal was not made as a challenge, but solely in the interests of the sporting character and value as publicity propaganda.

General Patrick telegraphed Colonel Brooks, then in Ottawa, as follows: "Date of departure our flight from starting point so involved with laying down of supplies and schedule of steamer sailings that it is impossible to accede to your sports proposal. Our best wishes for the success of your daring undertaking."

Secretary of War Weeks reiterated yesterday that it was not the object of the army flight to race around the world or attempt to make any great speed.

"They are going out," he said, "to blaze a way that may be followed as a route around the globe much in the same manner as the Lewis and Clarke expedition once crossed this continent."

The official purpose of the American flight, as outlined by the War Department, is to gain for the Air Service added experience in long distance flying.

London, March 27.—(A. P.)—On the women's sport horizon no coming event is exciting so much as the renewed rivalry between the two golfing peresses of Britain, Joyce Wethered and Cecil Leitch, except perhaps, the prospective tennis battles at Paris and Wimbledon between Suzanne Lenglen of France and Helen Wills, the young American champion.

Since the triumph of Miss Leitch, 9 and 7, in the finals for the women's championships of 1922, Miss Wethered has been supreme among women golfers. Meanwhile, she has been in retirement with an injured arm. Her return to the links will be made March 28 when she meets Miss Leitch on the famous Walton Heath course. It will be their seventh meeting, each having won three matches from the other. Four days later they will be in opposition again as captains of contending county teams at Northwood. In the spring they may once again fight out the finals of the British women's open championships.

OWNER OF SINGLE G. SUES FOR $3,000

Claims That Amount for a Big Race Held Three Years Ago.

Hartford, Conn., March 27.—An echo of the famous Single G-Peter Manning race, the so-called "battle of the century" that ended in a fiasco and nearly disrupted the Connecticut Fair Association's board of directors, was heard this week when William T. Egan, attorney for W. G. Barfoot, owner of Single G, placed an attachment on Charter Oak Park to recover $3,000.

The race was held in connection with the Grand Circuit meeting of the fair association at Charter Oak Park three years ago. It brought together the two champions of the turf, Single G, pacer, and Peter Manning, trotter. The race was that was not at all satisfactory to the thousands of spectators, or to the association. The trotter led the pacer to the wire in the first heat in under a minute, but they stepped a few seconds faster in the second heat. Both horses doing a mile in two minutes, it was claimed.

At a meeting of the association held a few days after the race, the $3,000 due Single G for the battle of the century was ordered held up, pending an investigation. The directors announced that the race was unsatisfactory.

NEW RACING PLANT IN CONSTRUCTION

Work on New Track is Progressing—Open Next January.

Miami, Fla., March 27.—(United Press)—The new racing plant of the Miami Jockey Club will be ready for operation next January, officials stated in announcing that reservations had been made by the Sinclair, Loft, Whitney, Cosden and Vanderbilt stables.

Altogether there will be seven stables, with 30 single stalls, and 13 stables with 60 stalls. Actual work on the new track is progressing nicely, although it will require at least six months before the track will be ready for use. The front stretch and the two turns are being made 80 feet wide, and the back stretch 65 feet wide. This width is because of the ruling of the American Racing Association, that each horse be allowed five feet at the post.

Every effort is being made to have the track completed by November 1. The season on the Maryland and Kentucky tracks close at that time, and owners will be ready to ship in their string of horses then.

BOY CONSTRUCTS A NOVEL GRANDSTAND

Only Eleven Years Old, But Has an Eye for Business.

Dallas, Texas, March 27.—(United Press)—One of these days, within the next twenty years, certain magazines that feature successful business men's careers may have occasion to point with pride to the achievements of Thomas Haggard of Dallas.

Just now Thomas is 11 years old, but already he shows the foresight of a successful financier. For Thomas has capitalized his brains and a big oak tree into a thriving business venture.

The venerable oak, with large, spreading branches, stands just outside the fence surrounding the Dallas Texas League baseball park. From these branches, Thomas, who is an ardent baseball fan, and his playmates, have watched all the games played in the park and cheered their favorite players.

Suddenly, Thomas conceived the big idea. Why not nail short planks in the branches, thereby affording fairly comfortable seats, and charge the oak tree concession and take 10 cents admission, or rather, 5 cents?

"This Thomas did. Seats are accessible by means of a long ladder. Thomas cleared away the hiding branches and nailed up the planks for choice seats. His own "office" is a board at the lower fork of the tree, where the ladder reaches. Each youthful fan pays Thomas a dime and then scrambles for the best available seat in the tree.

During the baseball season Thomas does a good business, averaging a dollar or more a day. On Saturdays, when the boys don't have to attend school, the big tree is dotted with shrill-voiced fans.

Thomas' success has not been easily acquired. His two good fists have prevented other boys from taking over the unusual concession. If any boys attempt to "crash the gate," Thomas from his perch hauls up the ladder and because the tree trunk is slippery, with no friendly limbs, it is next to impossible to "crash the gate." Thomas' battles are frequent, but so far he remains the sole magnate in charge of the big tree.

CRITIC SPILLS SUPERLATIVES IN WRITING OF FAIRBANKS' LATEST

Says "Thief of Bagdad" Surpasses Any Picture Made So Far.

(By MAURICE HENLE.)
New York, March 27.—After keeping all his superlatives carefully packed away in mothballs for a long time this reviewer is forced, unwillingly, to bring out once more those dread bugbears of the reading public.

It is far more enjoyable to suffer a thousand deaths than to say a picture, a play or a book is "wonderful," "great," "best."

But after seeing a first-night showing of "The Thief of Bagdad," starring Douglas Fairbanks, I'm forced to admit that, pictorially at least, the picture so far surpasses anything heretofore made, as to make comparisons unnecessary.

Doug is a brave actor. Make no mistake about that. He risks having his individuality drowned in a maze of wonderful sets. So gorgeous are these sets, indeed, that they make the progress of "The Ten Commandments" look like a shanty-boat on the Ohio river.

"The Thief of Bagdad" is a fairytale, a fantasy. Through the medium of trick photography, a magic carpet flies through the air, a dashing white horse rides on the clouds, soldiers spring from nothing at all.

He takes what he wishes when he wishes. But one day, while in the castle to steal, he sees the princess, and the evil in him dies. To win her, the Holy Man tells him to get the Magic Chest of Nafir, and it is while on the quest for the chest that Doug's adventures fall.

Of course, the picture will set the children of all nations howling in glee. But it will do more—it will entertain the adults not alone for its pictorial worth, which defies description, but also because Fairbanks and his director, Raoul Walsh, have deliberately put into the film, food for thought.

The point they bring out, as was brought out in the story of the thief, is that to gain happiness, one must earn it.

So off Doug goes, through the Cave of Fire, the Cave of Monsters, till he comes to the Old Man of the Midnight Sea. To get the chest he must dive to the bottom of the ocean, and here again is a truly wonderful bit of photography. Down, down, down Doug goes. It looks like he is going through water.

Finally he reaches the bottom, where he finds a magic key which opens a door that houses a winged horse. Off Doug goes on the horse riding on the clouds until he reaches the moon.

But isn't that enough? To illustrate this truly great fantasy? It isn't meant to be anything more than that. At times Fairbanks, alone in a great sea, looks the size of a pinpoint; these are the moments when his personality nearly is swallowed by the costly sets. But Doug survives.

There is more action in the last half than the first part of the picture. The beginning is occupied in defining his love for the princess and his determination to be with her.

In massiveness of mob action, "The Thief of Bagdad" is comparable to "The Birth of a Nation." In pictorial splendor it outclasses anything that has made. If it lives in screen history, it will be on that point. It is worth seeing for that feature alone.

That is why we add "The Thief of Bagdad" to our list of pictures worthy of the public's attention.

NEW O'NEILL PLAY IS BRANDED POOR

"Welded" is Not Enthusiastically Received at Premiere.

(By Alice Robe.)
New York, March 27.—(United Press.)—Those devotees of Eugene O'Neill who see in the author of "The Hairy Ape" and "Anna Christie" the dramatic Messiah who is leading the American theatre out of limbo have a grievous disappointment in "Welded."

The premiere of the play in which Doris Keane and Jacob Ben Ami appear was awaited with such eagerness that standing room was at a premium. From the theatre standpoint a damning thing to say about a drama is that it is a good reading play. That is, however, where "Welded" belongs, in the library, and even there it is a somewhat dubious supplement to the Brownies, as it is reiterative psychology of two people of whom we are a bit weary after the first two acts.

The play is really a psychological study of the sex attraction between a dramatist and an actress. They have been married for five years. The wife turns home after a stay in the country, where he has been writing a play. The rupture of their union is interrupted by a knock at the door. It is the long-time friend—a manager who has made both their careers successful. The interruption of the ardent meeting precipitates the quarrel, with all its little destructive criticism, one of the other.

The wife, to revenge herself for his insults, lies and tells her she has been the stress of the manager during his absence.

He swears to degrade their love lower than she and rushes off to a woman at the door. The wife turns to the manager, who has always been "nobly" in love with her. Sensing that her offer of love is merely her revenge on her husband, he sends her home.

The street woman, outraged that she should be regarded as a symbol of degradation, sends him also unswayed of her home as she, at a further discursive combat, both agree that their hate and love hold them irrevocably together.

It is a mistake which even the "fans" for the staging of the innermost secrets of matrimony must admit, that eavesdropping is not always interesting and exciting. There are moments in this play which are intimate—but the drama as such will stand condemned on a more deadly charge—dullness.

A flash of genuine realism, a touch of sincere human drama, excellent written by O'Neill and splendidly played by Catherine Collins, was staged in the sordid room of the "little sister" of the streets. There was poignant revelation of life's tragedy in the inarticulate philosophical utterances of this "home-gone" girl, who confessed her love of her man.

O'Neill's deep study of life is revealed constantly in the long dissertations. But the psychological analysis of marriage as exemplified by these two people is no more drama than a page from Freud.

The play is presented jointly by the Selwyns and the Provincetown Players, at the Thirty-ninth Street Theatre.

"Icebound" A True-to-Life Picture

(By Jack Jungmeyer.)
Hollywood.—Of how many films might it be said, were they to be examined ages hence, that they presented, with fair accuracy, a character phase of this century of American life?

"Icebound," as William de Mille has translated it from Owen Davis' prize play for Paramount, has such authenticity, even in its slight caricature. It displays, with a minimum of theatricalism, and without truckle to the assumed public demand for screen distortion, the bleak, austere angles of New England farm life, the matrix from which sprang Owen Davis' Yankee virtues, now on the wane in softer and more tolerant existence.

Meagre loves, mean impulses, inflexible pride, frigid hearts and bilious souls fashion the drama worked out by Lois Wilson, Richard Dix, Helen Dubois, Edna May Oliver, Vera Reynolds, Alice Chapin, John Daly Murphy and others of the excellent cast.

Dix is a young soldier just back from France, receding against the flinty, colorless existence of his home folk. He wants to hear laughter. To see girls with lace at the throat. Wants light banter instead of mean bleating. His mother, Alice Chapin, stern head of the "Jordan" family, typifies everything against which he rebels. The drear landscape, against which the picture builds, is no more ice-bound than "Mrs. Jordan" against her last born, when he accidentally sets fire to a neighbor's barn and faces jail. Faces jail to the jealous delight of his brother and sisters and all save Lois Wilson, family friends, from whom he wins a timid love.

De Mille emphasizes his honest character explorations in "Icebound" by the family death watch as "Mrs. Jordan." Women of that type have soldierly statures, college presidents and canny business men—but seldom romantic lovers.

Alice Chapin etches a memorable figure of harsh maternity in "Mrs. Jordan." Women of that type have soldierly statures, college presidents and canny business men—but seldom romantic lovers.

Richard Dix takes his cue from her character to play his logical, restrained and slowly awakened lover, minus all heroics.

Lois Wilson shades her exacting role with fine understanding, creating the only thawing figure in an icebound group.

BROWNIES HAVE SPECIAL WORK

Training by Brown Owl Leads to Success in Guides' Work.

This would seem an opportune time to point out the difference between the Brownie and the Guide, says the Vancouver Province. Is the Brownie a Junior Girl Guide? Baden-Powell says "No." Is she the so-called "stupid" girl, whose slowness, by the way, is generally accompanied by tenacity in retaining impressions? Again, most emphatically, "No." The classification is purely a psychological one; and any such erroneous ideas of Brownie fundamentals should—for the sake of the movement—be eradicated.

The Brown Owl, who is sure of her ground knows that it is her inestimable privilege to be allowed to set the "corner-stone" of the Guiding. The Brownies are not Guides—the Guides a supplement to the Brownies. Without the Guides to fall back on, the Brownies would have to disappear at the age of 11 years, when the psychological difference of their age precludes them from the benefits to be derived from the Brownie training. The wife would lose the incentive which all we mortals need to keep our ideals bright and untarnished.

From Brownie to Guide.
Now, while an ordinary company captain would possibly make an indifferent Brown Owl, and a Brown Owl would probably make an utter failure of the Guides, a good Brownie is bound to make a splendid Guide. The explanation is simple. For, whereas the girl may be enthused with one of the other phases of the movement, and would have to change her methods and change from one sphere into the other, the Brownie has nothing to change. The natural evolution occurring at this age requires a new line of activities. Her ideals remain the same, but her outlook has changed with her physical and mental changes; and from the Brownie has emerged a Guide. The

DECIDES FOR PRO. LEAGUE IN N. B.

Three Teams So Far Definite—St. Peter's Announcement No Team.

There will be no St. Peter's baseball team this year, according to a definite announcement given out this morning by the management.

At a meeting of those interested in the formation of a Class D League, held last evening in the G. W. V. A. hall, three teams signified their willingness to enter, namely, Fredericton, Moncton and the G. W. V. A. of this city. W. E. Vaughan was present as a representative of Fredericton, J. H. Sweetman representing Moncton, J. V. Shea representing the G. W. V. A. and G. McGovern representing St. Peter's. Mr. McGovern expressed doubt if St. Peter's would enter the league. The other representatives said they were ready to proceed with organization.

A report was received and considered from Milltown and St. Stephen that these places were desirous of entering a combined team.

After discussion, it was finally decided that a meeting be called at St. Stephen for Wednesday, April 2, to ascertain with definiteness what could be expected from these two border towns in the way of support for the league, and Messrs. Vaughan and Joe Page, president of the Eastern Canada League, were asked to attend this meeting and report back to a final meeting to be held in St. John on Friday, April 5. Mr. McKnight and Mr. Page assented to this arrangement and until this report is received final organization of the league and the drawing up of a schedule will be postponed.

Mr. Vaughan presided at last night's conference and A. I. Machum acted as secretary. J. V. Shea represented the War Vets.

Madame Olga Petrova is planning to make a motion picture of her play "Hurricane" in which she is now playing at the Frolie Theatre in New York. Madame Petrova wrote the play and she will use her own money for the film version playing the leading role herself.

K. OF C. BADMINTON TOURNAMENT ENDS

Alfred Kane and Bernard Ryan are Victors After Interesting Series.

Playing a game that would have done credit to much more seasoned players, Bernard Ryan and Alfred Kane won their way through the semi-finals and finals of the doubles badminton tournament in the Knights of Columbus courts last evening and emerged victors of a most interesting series. Although the Knights have been in the game for over some fine material amongst their membership and the present indications are that they are likely to produce some players of championship calibre.

The final rubber of the tournament was a hum-dinger, the third game being necessary to finally decide the issue. Messrs. Ryan and Kane were pitted against W. A. Maher and J. J. Jennings, who had also won their way through the semi-finals. The first game went to Kane and Ryan after being fairly even until near the end. Their opponents rallied about the middle of the second game after the champions had gained a considerable margin in the scoring and won out by a close majority.

The third and final game found both teams in fighting fettle, but the Kane-Ryan combination outplayed their opponents and their victory was easy, although there were some exciting periods in the contest.

As the results of the games last night were as follows:

Semi-Finals.
W. M. Ryan and Dr. J. B. Gosnell defeated George Gallagher and Chas. Meredith.
W. A. Maher and J. J. Jennings defeated Bernard McCarthy and George Murphy.

Final.
Alfred Kane and Bernard Ryan defeated Fred Condon and Edw. McClelland.
E. J. Wall and W. J. Power defeated J. L. Sugrue and C. P. Oranran.

Grand Semi-Final.
Kane and B. Ryan defeated Gosnell and W. M. Ryan.
Maher and Jennings defeated Wall and Power.

Final.
Kane and B. Ryan defeated Maher and Jennings.

A large number of the members watched the games with interest and the excitement at times ran high. Plans are already underway for another tournament, which will likely see more teams in action than in the first, when twenty couples started.

BREEDING OF WORMS FOR ANGLERS GIVES BRITISHERS LIVING

Butt Ends of Cigarettes and Cigars Provide Odd Occupations.

There are many unusual businesses followed by those in pursuit of daily bread, writes "E. B." in the "London Daily Mail."

Perhaps the most extraordinary is the breeding of worms for anglers. There are several "wormeries" in Nottinghamshire, and the wriggly bait is reared with as much care and attention as is lavished on many pampered pets of animal lovers.

Then there is the "butt-ender," to be seen any day in the city, his eyes darting hither and thither as he searches the pavement or roadway for cigar stubs or cigarette ends. In the evening he orders the tobacco in cheap lodging houses, where it finds a ready sale. Others make their living by sifting the sweepings from underground stations and similar localities. The tobacco collected is sold for a few coppers to manufacturers of insect killer.

Walking stick farms form profitable industries in several cases. Street sticks take about four years to mature, but those with handles need rather longer time before they are ready to cut, as the first growth is trained along the ground before the sapling is allowed to shoot up vertically.

An echo from the dim past comes from Brandon. More than two thousand years ago our primitive forefathers discovered the suitability of the local flint for warlike and agricultural implements, and the little Suffolk town became famous for its arrow heads, its axes and its plows.

Brandon was in those far-off days the Birmingham of the ancient Britons. Today it has fallen from its high estate and now the seat of England's oldest industry turns out only a few tinder boxes and flints shaped for building and decorative purposes. The mere mention of the quill pen brings to mind the dignified and stately world of a bygone day; romance, the minutest and courtly grace. In its original state the goose quill is soft, pliable and full of pith. It is softened by insertion in clay and then goes through the process technically known as "ditching." This means being held for a few moments in a glowing coal fire and pressed on a hot iron plate. Held once more in the fire, the quill springs to its normal shape, and after polishing is ready to be cut.

Within recent years much has been done toward the recovery of waste products, and chemistry is man's ally in this direction. One of the most remarkable instances is the saving of soap-suds, which formerly ran to waste. Mixed with lime the suds become solid, and after conversion into bricks they are dried and heated in retorts, subsequently yielding a gas of exceptional illuminating power.

BRIDSON GREENE AFTER MAT TITLE

Wrestler Well Known Here Disputes Tommy Record's Claims.

Just when Tommy Record of Somerville was all smiling like a child for photograph taking, along comes the manager of Bridson Greene of Medford and spoils it all, says Doc Almy in the Boston Post.

In a loud, rough voice said manager informs us, and the public at large through us, that Record is the dearest welterweight mat champion of New England that we ever said kind words about.

Furthermore, to prove it, said manager, aided and abetted by Greene, guarantees that on short notice the Medford wrestler will throw Record faster than Thomas can get up. On looking this through carefully it would appear that the Medford delusion is out for a record and no mistake.

However, it is up to Tommy to say a few words for himself in defence of his little claims and as he is to back of the footlights Thursday night at the Grand Opera House, undoubtedly he will do so. Record will be third man in Paul Bower's tourney and in view of the rough evening scheduled, if Tommy has any speech to make, it would be well for him to breeze up as a preliminary to the rest of the show.

"Savage" Toole, the grappler who takes so much delight in bending iron bars just to show his strength that he and metal fences are poor combinations, is slated to tie the bowknives in Nick Boshes in the opener match.

YOUNG MEN TO BE ORDAINED PRIESTS

Ceremony In Cathedral On April 5—One St. John Native.

No less than six New Brunswick boys will be elevated to the dignity of the priesthood at the Cathedral of the Immaculate Conception here on Saturday, April 5, by His Lordship Bishop LeBlanc, of the St. John diocese.

One of the young men to be ordained is from St. John, Alphonse Harris, son of Robert Harris, city marshal. He is now completing his theological course at Holy Heart seminary in Halifax.

Three more of the candidates are from Holy Heart, Michael Johnson, of Newburgh, Carleton county; Camille LeBlanc, of Barabois, Westmorland county, and Albert Lemagnez, of Grand Digue, Kent county.

The ordination of these young men will be of particular moment on account of the fact that it is a rare occurrence for so many to be made priests at one time in this diocese.

WOMAN AND MAN ARRESTED

Her Case Is Postponed After Evidence of Man Is Given.

A young woman named Lillian Lobb appeared in the police court this morning to answer a charge of vagrancy. She was arrested in Prince William street late last night in company with a young man named Roy Wadlin, who was charged with being drunk and having liquor in his possession. Police-constable Coughlan testified that he met the accused with the young man at 1215. The man was intoxicated. A long neck of whiskey was found in his pocket.

E. J. Henneberry, who appeared for the defendant, questioned the witness. He said the accused told him she was taking her companion to a hotel. She acknowledged that she was drunk, but said that she was not.

Gregory Lobb testified that the young woman was his wife. They had been married in 1915, but he said he lived with her only a short time.

E. J. Henneberry contended that under the charge of vagrancy the authorities would have to prove that the intention was to commit some offence. The fact that she was walking on the street and had informed the officer where she was going would eliminate any charge of being a vagrant.

Magistrate Henderson said that it had been established that she was a married woman, and that she was walking in the street with a man in possession of liquor. He said that the man who had a bottle of liquor in his possession, he said he would give Mr. Henneberry an opportunity to offer evidence for the defence and he would weigh the evidence and consider what would be in the best interests of the young woman. The case was then set aside for the present.

The young man who figured in the case was then called. He acknowledged that he had been drunk and that he had liquor in his possession. He said the bottle had been given to him by a man. He said his home was in Beaver Harbor. Magistrate Henderson said he would accept this explanation as to how the liquor came to be in his possession. He struck the minimum penalty, $8 or two months in jail for drunkenness, and $20 or three months in jail for having the liquor.

COME IN ON BLIND BAGGAGE

Three Boys From Moncton Finish Journey In Police Court.

Three boys were marshalled into court this morning and lined up before Magistrate Henderson. They were arrested in the Union Station last night on a charge of stealing a ride on a C. N. R. express train from Moncton to St. John. C. N. R. Police-man Morrissey explained that they had been caught riding in a "blind baggage." All three were questioned as to their home and asked why they had come to this city. One of them said they had been unable to find work in their own town so decided to come to St. John.

They were warned that they could be sent to the Boys Industrial Home if under sixteen years of age and to jail if they were over that age. They were then sent below until their parents could be communicated with and arrangements made to send them back home.

PHONE MEETING CONTINUED.

The convention of district superintendents of the New Brunswick Telephone Co. was continued today. This morning the rate schedule was under discussion and this afternoon different phases of accounting were to be discussed. At noon the men were the guests of the company at luncheon at the Hotel Dunlop and tonight they will be the guests of the employees at the masquerade ball to be held in the assembly hall of the telephone building.

MAY MEET NEXT WEEK.

Hon. Dr. E. A. Smith, chairman of the New Brunswick Electric Power Commission, left at noon today for his home, Shediac. He said that he expected a meeting of the Commission would be held next Tuesday in Fredericton.

LOCAL NEWS

TWO DEALT WITH

Two men were fined $8 and in default of payment two months in jail by Magistrate Henderson in the police court this morning.

THE BANK CLEARINGS.

St. John bank clearings this week were $2,330,380; last year $2,666,792; in 1922, $2,815,662. Halifax clearings this week were $2,303,579. The Moncton figures were $741,459.

HERE'S A BIG ONE

The daddy of all hen's eggs was brought to the Times office this morning by S. W. Jones of Westfield. It was laid by a white Leghorn and measured 6 1/2 inches round one way and 8 1/2 inches the other.

TWENTY YEARS AGO.

In items of news of 20 years ago the Montreal Star prints this one: "The Montreal Board of Trade, the Board of Railways and Canals, paid a visit to the Board of Trade this morning. He was accompanied by the Hon. H. J. McCowan, C. J. Miskin of St. John, N. B., and J. Peters of Moncton."

PARKING STAND CLEARED.

The street cleaning department yesterday made a clean sweep—or rather a clean cut—of the ice on the south side of King Square, a spot rather dilatory in melting away as a rule. Auto-trucks carried the tons of ice to the wharves. This makes the parking place safe and convenient for automobilists and gives the square quite a summerlike appearance.

PRIZE WINNERS.

The Carleton Cornet Band's fair was continued successfully last night. The prize winners were: Miss Brown, ladies' bean-toss, glass flower bowl; Harry Scribner, gentlemen's bean-toss, glass jar; C. A. Maxwell, bowling ball tray; G. Ferguson, air gun, silver dish. The door prize, a piece of bacon and a ham, was won by ticket 44.

LIQUOR CHARGE.

George White was summoned to the police court this morning to answer a charge of selling liquor to Rupert Barton in a drug store in West St. John yesterday. He pleaded not guilty. Barton said he was a mate on the schooner Frederick A. and yesterday had entered a drug store and asked for some whiskey. He said he received a plain bottle and paid $2.50 for it. He said he had no prescription. As the defendant wished to be represented by counsel the case was set aside until this afternoon at 3 o'clock when arrangements were made to have a deposit of $200 put up for his appearance and he was allowed to go.

Norman P. MacLeod, inspector of federal taxation, announced today that the income returns covering estates, employees' salaries and dividends, due to be filed on before Monday, March 31, were coming in in large numbers, out there were still many which had not yet been filed. He expected that many more would be sent in during the next few days. Forms, he said, were available at any post office. The forms to be filed by individuals and incorporated companies must, according to the law, be filed before the end of April.

ENJOY VISIT OF GRAND MASTER

Oddfellows Have Pleasant Evening in Simonds Street Hall.

Peerless Lodge, I. O. O. F. hall, Simonds street, was thronged last night with Oddfellows and Reebahs to welcome the Grand Master, W. A. MacKay of Truro, who was paying an official visit to the St. John lodge. W. R. Sanderson, district deputy master, was in the chair and extended an official welcome.

In his address the grand master outlined the many benefits which might be derived from membership in the order and said that progress was being made in all parts of the Maritime Province and Newfoundland. He referred to the home for children recently opened in Pictou and said that in this home families were kept together and were brought up as nearly as possible under home conditions. The first children in the home were from a family in Newfoundland. But for this home they would have been separated and scattered. Provision was also made for aged Oddfellows. During the present summer some extensive additions were planned. This home was formerly the Lord Strathcona Mansion and is for orphan children and aged Oddfellows.

A short address by M. D. Brown, songs by H. Robson and E. C. Tremaine and musical selections by a trio composed of W. R. Green, K. Fairweather and F. W. Stanton added to the enjoyment of the evening.

The 180th anniversary of the order will be celebrated on April 10, in the Golden Rule Lodge room when Sapphire Lodge will be the hosts. The Grand Master will leave today for St. Stephen where he will visit Merians Lodge.

CHAMPION WILL TRY CAIN'S RIVER

Expect Fly-Caster Among Sportsmen Early Linked Up With Guides.

W. Harry Allen, York County guide and huntsman, has just returned after another of his American trips, during which he lectured and showed pictures of New Brunswick's fishing and hunting haunts. He showed numerous moving pictures of scenes in our famous wildwood. He will return to St. John in a few days.

Mr. Allen, when asked by The Times if he expected an early salmon season this spring because of the comparative mildness of the winter, said it was possible fish might be running a week or so earlier, but no high freshets were anticipated. There was not nearly so much snow in the woods, as there was this time last year. However, such streams as Cain's River—susceptible to normal conditions—would be fully navigable throughout its course.

Correspondence is at present passing between the well-known guide and a party of moving picture magnates in New York and Boston with a view to floating down the Cain's River at the outset of the salmon season about the middle of May. The party will be joined by theatre men in Fredericton and St. John. The picture men from the States will probably have the trip photographed for their travellagues, shown all over the world.

Frederick Peet, laundry capitalist of Chicago and champion fly-caster of the United States, W. E. Kidder of Kalamazoo, Mich., manufacturer of Packard bodies and various other side lines of the automobile trade, and manufacturer lumberman J. C. Boyleston of Florida, retired lumberman and noted sportsman, and several other Americans have booked guides and are camping out with Mr. Allen for the May salmon fishing on Cain's River.

GOOD CROP OF BRIDES.

The growing number of "shower" parties among the blushing maidenhood of the city indicates that next June's crop of weddings will be up to the average, if not above. In the late rental campaign a large number of cosy flats and apartments were set aside against the happy events of the first month of summer.

As Hiram Sees It

"Well, sir," said Mr. Hiram Hornbeam to The Times reporter, "I went to a feller in the Settlement yesterday an' ast him if he wouldn't put a few dollars in a little in my trunk—just to see if it didn't make us all rich. What'd you s'pose that feller said?"

"The usual talk about hard times, I s'pose," said the reporter.

"No, sir," said Hiram—"he didn't. He looked at me as if I was a s'picious character an' wanted to know what was gittin' out of it. Kin you beat it? That feller he knowed me all his life—an' knows I haint never took nothin' that didn't belong to me—but the very first time that come into his mind was that I was tryin' to grab some of his money. When I got done tellin' him what I thought of critters like him he cawted some—but he said we couldn't never make nothin' pay in the Settlement—an' it was no use to try. He said if he could sell out he'd move away. What kin you do with critters like that?"

"Buy him out," said the reporter, "and let him go."

"No, sir," said Hiram—"I haint got no spite agin' any other place. I wouldn't feel right if I helped to unload him onto one. We'll hev to put up with him."
