TRYING TO END THE CHOLERA BEFORE THE FLEET ARRIVES

Manila Authorities are Now Carrying on an Active Campaign—50 New Cases Reported Daily—Many Offer Services as Nurses

MANILA, Sept. 22.—The vigorous campaign for the eradication of cholera is rapidly preventing any appreciable increase in the spread of the disease. There is an average of about fifty new cases daily, although today promises to show a record materially lower. In official circles it is maintained that there is still a possibility that the city may be rid of the cholera before the arrival of the American battleship fleet.

FOURTY WERE INJURED IN A RAILROAD WRECK

Passenger and Freight Trains Collided on a Curve—Most of the Victims Were Methodist Preachers

WEEPING WATER, Neb., Sept. 22.—In a head-on collision last night in the yards at this place, between Missouri passenger train and a freight, thirty-eight passengers and three trainmen were injured. The engineer of the passenger train, rounding a hill, was unable to check his train before the crash came.

TOUCHED A LIVE WIRE

Girl received 2,800 Volts of Electricity Into Body

CHICAGO, Sept. 21.—Mollie Frank, twelve years of age, 2323 Emerald avenue, is alive and well after receiving into her body 2,800 volts of electricity, 500 volts more than is applied to condemned prisoners in penal institutions in New York and Ohio. Several companions last evening dared her to climb an electric light pole and touch a wire. She made the ascent, touched the live wire and fell unconscious to the ground. The girl was later revived, and she will recover, doctors say. A physician who attended the child added another argument to be used by the medical men who charge that persons who suffer the death penalty by means of electricity are not killed by the electric shock, but by the knife of the surgeon who performs the official autopsy, or by dissolution in the grave.

THE FOREST FIRES

ALBANY, N. Y., Sept. 22.—Colonel Fox, state superintendent of forests, left today for Hamilton county, in the Adirondacks, to investigate the forest fire condition in the vicinity of North Creek. According to reports received here the fire wardens are warning out every available man to fight the flames, but with the continued drought the fires are spreading despite efforts being made to keep them in check.

BOSTON, Sept. 22.—The convention of the United Irish League was opened in Faneuil Hall today with prominent Irish-Americans present from all parts of the country as delegates representing the various branches of the order in the United States. A distinguished trio of men who have made themselves notable by their work in behalf of the Irish cause in the British parliament and elsewhere in Great Britain, John F. Redmond, M. P., Joseph Devlin, M. P., and John Fitzgibbon, were present as representatives of the Irish branch of the league. The convention will last through the next two days.

BOLD ROBBERY AT MARYSVILLE

Fred. S. Williams' Store Entered Last Night

Large Quantity of Goods Taken—Louis Martel and Sterling Hazelwood are Now Under Arrest.

FREDERICTON, N. B., Sept. 22.—A bold robbery was committed at Marysville last night. The victim was Fred S. Williams, who conducts an extensive departmental store in that town, and the alleged robbers are Louis Martel and Sterling Hazelwood. Both are under arrest and some of Mr. Williams' goods have been found in Martel's room at Ford's Hotel, Marysville. Entrance was gained to the store by smashing the plate glass front door with a dead end, and when Mr. Williams opened up the store a scene of great confusion met his gaze. Boxes had been overturned and emptied of goods, drawers were open and Mr. Williams estimates that his loss will foot up to $150. The lot consisted of jewelry, cigars, dry goods, clothing, etc. The men charged with the crime were arrested by Police Constables Saunders, at Marysville, at 10 o'clock this morning and later transferred to the Marysville lock-up. Martel was released from Fredericton jail only a few days ago, and his general record is said to be bad. He was at one time a soldier. Hazelwood belongs to Marysville. The prisoners were later transferred to the jail here. Martel and Hazelwood were arraigned before Col. Marsh this forenoon and their charges were summarily tried by the magistrate they were remanded to jail till tomorrow morning.

ROOSEVELT PREPARING FOR HIS AFRICAN TRIP

Has Been Reading Nature Fakirs' Tales and is Now Well Charged—His Last Presidential Vacation.

OYSTER BAY, N. Y., Sept. 22.—Theodore Roosevelt's final summer vacation during his present term of office as President of the United States, came to an end this morning, when with his family and members of the executive staff of the White House, he departed on a tour of observation to the United States. At the same time Oyster Bay seemed to be the summer capital of the United States, a title it proudly has held for seven years. In several respects this has been an exceptional vacation for the President. He has entertained at Sagamore Hill more visitors than before and at the same time has done much more work than on previous vacations. The political situation, both national and state, has made a tremendous amount of work for him and kept the staff of the executive office busy day and night. But with all his duties of state and political work, the President has managed to find considerable time for recreation and has been in splendid health and much benefited by his vacation.

DENIED GREAT WEDDING; GIRL SHOTS HERSELF

NEW YORK, Sept. 21.—Seventeen-year-old Antoinette Alva is dying in a Brooklyn hospital and the police are searching for Pasquale Agnè, a youth of twenty, to whom she was to have been married soon. The girl has a bullet wound in her abdomen which the physicians say will prove fatal. They believe the wound was self-inflicted, but the police are anxious to interview Agnè. Apparently there has been a serious misunderstanding between the young couple growing out of plans for their approaching wedding. Antoinette and her parents wanted a big public wedding with much ceremony. Agnè, however, wanted to be married quietly by a justice of the peace or not at all. Antoinette is grieved deeply over the denial of her wish to have a "great wedding" and it is believed that in a fit of despondency she fired the shot which probably will end her life.

THOUSANDS TAKING UP WESTERN LANDS

Fifteen Hundred Homestead Entries in Three Weeks

At Leithbridge—Fog Hinders St. Lawrence Navigation—Regina Laborers Wanted More Money.

REGINA, Sask., Sept. 22.—Twenty-one laborers employed on strike yesterday and something in the nature of a free fight took place. The men claimed they were paid twenty cents an hour, but when paid off were given only from 13 to 17 cents per hour.

LEITHBRIDGE, Sept. 22.—Fifteen hundred entries for homesteads and pre-emption have been made here since September 1. Twenty-five hundred tickets have been issued to date.

WINNIPEG, Sept. 22.—That the Booth Fish Company will be reorganized is the opinion of the local officers of the company who have just returned from Chicago. In any event the Canadian industry will not be financially affected by the great crash and will go on unimpeded.

LEITHBRIDGE, Sept. 22.—Cardston Grain and Cattle Shippers' Association are complaining on a car shortage and a river soon. The elevators are full and cattle are awaiting shipment.

MONTRÉAL, Sept. 22.—The fog is so dense that it is seriously interfering with navigation. The Montreal and St. Lawrence are ready to sail, but it is still at her moorings, not daring to venture out. Four vessels are in the river, but are at anchor, the Hesperia, Montrose, Lake Manitoba and the Englishman. The ferry service is stopped, the trains are all behind time and the street cars are running slow. At noon it brightened up, but did not allow of navigation.

At five o'clock this afternoon the annual convention of the St. John City and County Sunday School Association will commence in St. Stephen's church. At eight o'clock there will be a platform meeting when Rev. Dr. C. H. Flannery and Rev. A. B. Cohe will make addresses. A. H. Chapman, president of the association, will preside. At six o'clock luncheon will be served and from seven until eight o'clock a conference on various topics will be held.

BOGOTA, Columbia, Sept. 22.—Dr. J. M. Marouquin, ex-President of Columbia, died here on Saturday.

ROUSING LIBERAL MEETING IN P. E. I.

Great Gathering Last Evening in Montague

Hon. Messrs. Fielding and Marcell, and J. J. Hughes, M. P., the Speakers—Gathering Tonight at Charlottetown.

CHARLOTTETOWN, P. E. I., Sept. 22.—Fifteen hundred people packed auditorium at Montague last night at the most enthusiastic Liberal demonstration in the history of Kings County. The speakers were J. J. Hughes, M. P., Hon. Mr. Fielding and Hon. Chas. Marcell. All three were in fine form, and delivered rousing speeches. They were cheered again and again, and judging from indications Kings County will again return Mr. Hughes triumphant. The finance minister first disposed of certain allegations made by Foster at Montague a few weeks ago with reference to the Wagner, Lodge, Henderson and Potts, and Marine and Fisheries departments. The achievements of the Laurier government, dealing with the wonderful progress of the country, as demonstrated by the increase of population, the value of lands, and the marvelous expansion of trade, recastigated the patriots effect he illustrated the force of the saying "wise expenditure is true economy," and appealed to the patriotic feelings of his hearers as he pictured the wonderful development of Canada, a development stimulated by construction of the National Transcontinental Railway, and improvement of the transportation facilities. The work of the tariff commission, the beneficial results of the British preference, the French treaty were given an able and eloquent review of the record of the Laurier administration taking up a number of points not covered by Mr. Fielding. His speech was marked by a lofty tone and broad statesmanship, and his closing peroration was a masterpiece of oratorical effort. Senator Robertson presided at the meeting, which will long be remembered at Montague. Fielding and Marcell are making a triumphant tour and are leaving splendid impressions behind. Tonight they close their campaign in P. E. I. by addressing a monster demonstration in Charlottetown arena, the largest building procurable.

TENDERS ARE CALLED FOR DREDGING IN COURTENAY BAY

MURDERER WAS LET OUT ON BAIL

And Very Naturally He Has Disappeared

Action of Brooklyn Magistrate Will Lead to an Investigation—The Hunt for the Missing Man.

NEW YORK, Sept. 22.—Following the death in a Brooklyn hospital yesterday of Mrs. Francis R. McCabe, 80 years old, wife of a manufacturer of building material, the charge of homicide was lodged against Samuel Mann, 38 years old, who is alleged to have shot her. When police notified Raymond street jail, where Mann had been confined, of this fact, they were met by the unexpected news that Mann had been released on bail of $50, a magistrate having accepted bail when told the man was held only on a charge of attempted suicide. The charge of felonious assault was dismissed, the magistrate said he was informed. A general alarm was sent out for Mann, but no trace of him has yet been found. Mrs. McCabe was shot in her father's home on August 29 last. She was married, and the police charge that Mann, during her husband's absence, annoyed her with his attentions and finally shot her when she refused to sleep with him. For a time it was thought the woman would recover. The release of Mann on bail has caused somewhat of a commotion in Brooklyn official circles, and it is said that a thorough investigation of all the circumstances will be made.

WAS MARRIED IN JAIL; HE MAY NOW BE SINGLE

Prisoner, Supposed Insane, is Declared Sound and Now Does Not Know if He Has a Wife.

CRIPPLE CREEK, Colo., Sept. 22.—Hans Albert, a violinist, of international fame, who has been held for several months within the jurisdiction of the county court on the charge of lunacy, was yesterday pronounced of sound mind and set at liberty. This decision, according to several attorneys, may cause the question to arise as to whether Albert is married or single, and if he was in sound mind when he, as a prisoner on July 28th, extended his hand through the bars of Grace Gadsel of Ottumwa, Iowa, while a minister on the outside pronounced the pair man and wife. The marriage was pronounced void as Albert had not received a certificate of the effect that he had been restored to reason and Miss Gadsel returned to her home.

MILLIONAIRE'S SON CONFESSES MANY CRIMES

Charles Boyle Admits Having Robbed Fifteen Men, and Attacked Several Women.

SAN FRANCISCO, Sept. 22.—Charles Boyle, a former student of Stanford University, son of Henry Boyle, a millionaire property holder of Seattle and Oakland, and of a family conspicuous in the most exclusive society circles of San Raphael, is alleged to have made confession to a number of crimes committed in Merion County last spring. According to Sheriff Taylor, who interviewed young Boyle in jail at Salinas, the prisoner admitted that he had held up fifteen men in the national hotel bar at San Raphael and seriously wounded a constable, that he had attacked a young woman with a club and other offenses which for a time alarmed a quiet community. Boyle, who knows of no motives for the young man's conduct.

Hon. Wm. Pugsley Proposes to Have Main Channel Dug This Winter—G. T. Pacific Preparing Plans for the Location of Terminals

The indications are that development work in Courtenay Bay will be carried on, on a large scale during the coming winter. In conversation with The Star this morning, Hon. Wm. Pugsley stated that the government is now calling for tenders for the first of the dredging. Mr. Pugsley remarks that some time ago he had secured an appropriation for dredging at St. John, and it is his intention to use a portion of this for the work in Courtenay Bay. What is now being done in the harbor will be continued during the winter months. There are a number of invaders unable to work at their summer-jobs because of the closing of harbors and rivers by ice. He believes that some of these would be brought to St. John by the owners and that the Courtenay Bay work might well be carried on during the winter months. He is in communication with the president of the Grand Trunk Pacific and Mr. Hayes is preparing preliminary plans for the location of the Grand Trunk Pacific terminals here. The definite plan of Courtenay Bay dredging will, of course, depend upon the location of these terminals and the first work to be undertaken by the government is the creation of a channel along the western side of Courtenay Bay, in line with the horizon made by Mr. Day and his assistants. It is for the dredging of this channel that tenders are now being called. No definite estimate of the work is being made by Mr. Day and his assistants. It is believed that the Department of Public Works will decide whether or not the prices mentioned are reasonable and if so instructions will be given for a immediate commencement of the work. Mr. Pugsley sees no reason why satisfactory progress should not be made in Courtenay Bay during the winter months. Later on he will submit to parliament a comprehensive scheme for the development of the harbor and will ask a further appropriation for the continuance of the work. Dr. Pugsley is attending the Liberal picnic at Monquash.

MANY PERSONS MET DEATH BY VIOLENCE

Murders and Accidents Still of Frequent Occurrence.

WASHINGTON, Sept. 22.—Andrew Lightfoot, a malato, an inmate in the Government Hospital for the insane, near this city, killed Patrick Maloney, an attendant, and Margaret Falena, a patient, and injured another person. Barber, southwestern agent of an automobile company, who is said to have inflicted the fatal injuries with his fists.

NEW YORK, Sept. 22.—Through the explosion of her gasoline engine, the sloop, Robert Falmer, belonging to Capt. Several of the passengers were burned by the escaping gas, but will recover.

WILL CARRY THE WEST

Liberals United and Confident of Victory.

Conservatives Can Hope for Nothing Better Than Even Break in Manitoba—May Only Carry Four Seats.

WINNIPEG, Sept. 21.—The dissolution of parliament finds the Liberals of the west united and enthusiastic in confidence of victory. Never have they entered an election with brighter prospects and while it is early yet to attempt an estimate of the final standing of the parties, they are confident of carrying twenty out of thirty-five seats in the four western provinces. In Manitoba there are still three nominating conventions to be held, viz., Winnipeg, Dauphin and Brandon. In the latter the two sitting members, T. A. Burrows and Hon. Clifford Sifton, will assuredly be elected and are practically in the field already. Winnipeg is indubitably, but reports connect the name of E. C. Cameron with the nomination, and he is regarded as the choice of the party, although no formal convention has been held. The Conservatives are holding back awaiting a decision among the leaders as to who is to be put up. There are several anxious for the distinction, among the number being ex-Mayor A. J. Andrews, but he is not popular with a percentage of the rank and file of the party. Hon. Hugh J. Macdonald is the selection of Hon. Robert Rogers as a straw man who could be set up with the hope of winning, and in the event of a Conservative success at the polls he would be expected to make way for the ambitious but crafty Mr. Rogers, who will not risk a chance of losing the substance to grasp at a shadow, knowing that should he resign from the provincial cabinet Premier Roblin would be only too glad to accept the opportunity to be rid of his ambitious rival for leadership. Mr. Macdonald, however, refuses to run, having had some experience of this kind once before, when he was trotted out against Mr. Sifton in Brandon. If ex-Mayor Andrews has the nomination of the Conservatives it should be an easy win for the Liberals, although Mr. Rogers has issued an order that the city is to be carried regardless of anything. In Brandon the Conservatives are having difficulty in finding a man who is willing to stand up to be knocked down. The machine has ordered that Hon. T. Mayne Daly police magistrate here, should accept the nomination in spite of his determination not to. He is regarded as the only man who has a chance of carrying the city. Mr. Sifton, The Liberals of Legar picked a winner in the person of Mr. F. Greenway, a nephew of the ex-premier, and a very able young business man. An even break is the best the Conservatives can hope for in Manitoba, with chances in favor of their carrying only four seats—Manitoba, Souris, Macdonald and Vancouver.

SOLVED WHILE HE SLEPT.

Take the case of Professor Lamerton, of Pennsylvania University. He had a dream long over a most difficult geometric problem, and to his amazement awoke one morning and saw the solution written on the wall directly in front of him. Oddly enough his classmate, Dr. Hilprecht, professor of Astronomy, had a similar experience. He dreamed that a tall, stout priest of the ancient god Bel stood before him and explained how means explain the various phases of his own temple at Nippur which he put together so that the mysterious inscription on the wall could be intelligible. Next morning the famous scientist carried out the dream described in the newspaper, and he deciphered the inscription at once, long as he had labored over it in vain.

MISSING CHECK DISCOVERED.

Of cases in which people have discovered missing articles by dream revelation, there appears to be no end. The other day a man who had lost a pocket watch and a very valuable ring, and who had been unable to find them for several days, dreamed that he had seen them in a box. He went to the box and found them there. The box, however, Mrs. Thompson valued highly by reason of sentimental associations. The police did little, and in a week's time the episode had faded away. But one night when the mistress of the house went to bed early she had a curious dream. "I thought I groined my way into the coal cellar," she said, "and stopping my finger tips touched my precious little box, which was hidden away among the fine coal and dust. Next morning I spoke to my daughter about the lost check, but she ridiculed the idea of my box of jewels in the coal cellar. And with that the matter dropped; no search was made. We looked up the dream as a mere freak of the sleeping brain. Nearly a year later, however, in the following August, Mrs. Thompson went into our cellar to see how much coal we had left, with a view to stocking up for the winter. She was astonished to see sticking out of the dust a little paper wrapped in newspaper. Picking it up and opening it, it was much puzzled to behold my missing box of trinkets. And the newspaper bore the very date of the burglary—September 30, 1907."

SAW HER FATHER'S BOAT WRECKED.

This premature dream occupies a large part of the psychological records, and the last case to be given is a very puzzling one. A Mrs. Spruit lived at Ballona, one of the sons of a sea captain in command of the Atacama, a wooden ship of thirteen hundred tons. She had arrived in Sydney in a leaking state, and was picked up cheap by a firm known as Cowlishaw Bros., for thirty thousand dollars, and then the Atacama was sent up the coast with a cargo of coal. The delivery of the cargo was completed.

DR. FOWLER'S EXTRACT OF WILD STRAWBERRY

Is a perfect specific for all bowel complaints. It has been in use in thousands of families for the past sixty-three years and we have yet to hear a complaint of not giving perfect satisfaction.

Do not let an unscrupulous druggist lead you into buying a cheap substitute insist on getting Dr. Fowler's. Price 35 cents. Manufactured by The T. Millburn Co., Limited, Toronto, Ont.

Mrs. C. W. Brown, Grand Harbor, N. B. writes: "I consider Dr. Fowler's Extract of Wild Strawberry to be the best remedy for Summer Complaint, as it cured me of a very bad case. I can recommend it highly to any one."

"When?" I asked.

DREAMS AND HOW THEY HAVE PROVED TO BE TRUE

"I ought to explain that my husband's throat was in a very delicate and dangerous condition, and he was under the care of surgeons. He told me that an operation had been unexpectedly performed upon his throat that day. His doctor looked into the throat and quietly in the office afterward for a little while. To save time, however, he resolved to wait in the barber's chair. But no sooner had he been lathered than he was seized with such a terrible choking and strangled cry that even the barbers were frightened, and sent for doctors and police. It was over an hour before Mr. Castle could venture into the street."

AN INCIDENT AT LOCKWOOD.

It is curious how home terrible catastrophe yields a corroboration of the awful massacre of Cawnpore. About a year before the flame of discontent spread among the Hindus, the wife of General Torrens dreamed that she saw her daughter, Mrs. Hayes, and the latter's husband, a captain in the army, attacked by the savage Sepoys, or native troops. A fearful struggle ensued in which Captain Hayes and his wife were killed. The circumstances of horror that make the history a long nightmare. Mrs. Torrens was deeply impressed by the vividness of that dream, and the next morning wrote to Bombay imploring her daughter and children to come home at once. And she wrote again and again, showing the profound impression made, and was altogether so earnest, emphatic and insistent that Mrs. Hayes felt obliged to let the British India Office know that Captain Hayes fell into the hands of a party of Mohammedan Sepoys, who first put his eyes and then killed him by inches with most fiendish cruelty. His wife, however, although suffering all the horrors of the siege of Lucknow, escaped with her life, and was taken home after the relief of the city by Sir Colin Campbell.

FOUND THE BOY XOF TRINKETS.

But the records of the Psychological Society contain no more curious dream case than that of Mrs. E. Thompson, of Indianapolis. One September day she left her house unattended for a few hours, while she went out for an afternoon's shopping. And in her absence, in came a couple of burglars who had watched her go out. They ransacked the room, taking with them all the portable valuables they could lay their hands upon. No end of trinkets, a little paper mache box containing jewellery of no great value. The box, however, Mrs. Thompson valued highly by reason of sentimental associations. The police did little, and in a week's time the episode had faded away.

SAW THE ACCIDENT IN SLEEP.

An uncanny instance of what the scientists call a "preconceive dream" was recorded in Warrenton, Ala. The little daughter of a farmer named John King was lying sick unto death. Only the mother was by her bedside, King himself being out in the fields ploughing. A storm rolled up and soon the sick room was filled with flash after flash of blinding lightning. Mrs. King was startled; but the feeling changed to positive terror when the sick child awoke out of sleep, and sat bolt upright in bed with a sharp scream. "Oh, papa is killed!" At that moment the man had been struck dead together with his two horses, while taking refuge under a big pine tree. Mrs. King furnished the details for the benefit of psychology. Her husband had been ploughing only half a mile from the house, but no one witnessed the tragedy. Indeed, it was only King's dog that brought the news, excited and barking. His manner, together with the child's thrilling warning, convinced Mrs. King that something was wrong, and she went out to seek her husband, whom she found dead and terribly scarred.

FELT HER HUSBAND'S PAIN.

Professor Harlow S. Gale, of Minnesota University, relates the curious case of Mrs. Castle, of Minneapolis. "One June day," she told the professor, "I had been taking things early about the house, and fell into a nap on the sofa late in the afternoon. I awoke with a distressing sense of constriction somewhere about my throat or neck. It puzzled me greatly. I bathed my throat several times while dressing, and for some reason asked a friend, 'What are you who was stooping with me, whether by any change the high, stiff collar of her freshly laundered shirtwaist caused her any pain. I thought I might have felt a sympathy pain' in some way. When she said, 'No,' my thoughts turned to Mr. Castle. I feared I had lost something had happened to him."

"And when he came home about six the first thing he said was 'I was almost in a bad fix this afternoon'."

"When?" I asked.

A mysterious vessel, built for the Japanese navy, is at present in the Mersey, having been brought round from the Barrow yard of Vickers, Sons and Maxim. The vessel has been specially built to carry two 100 foot submarines inside her. She will be taken into a graving dock, her decks removed, her interior flooded, and then the submarines will be floated over her. The dock will be run dry, and the submarines will gently settle down in their water beds, and in their turn will be pumped dry. Then the decks of the transporter will be replaced, and thus she will carry the submarines to Japan.

Isn't it true that low prices alone fail to make clothing economical? Haven't you often noticed that a suit that was bought because it looked good, and was low in price, was rather unsatisfactory as an investment?

Our many patrons know that the suits we sell are genuinely good, and that in that genuine goodness lies their true economy. But if YOU are not one of our patrons you may not realize the difference between such suits as our 20th Century line and others.

The style may be the same or similar, but in the suits we sell there is something back of the outward and visible style—a firm foundation of solid worth—that keeps the suit shapely and retains its original elegance for an extremely long period.

KING'S VICTORY OVER SEAGRAM NOW ADMITTED

Nominated Amid Cheers
MAKES FINE SPEECH

Membership Will Afford Him Greater Scope—Letter of Resignation

WATERLOO, Ont., Sept. 21.—W. L. McKenzie King, Deputy-Minister of Labor, was unanimously elected to the North Waterloo Liberal convention held here this afternoon. The convention was largely attended and Mr. King's message of acceptance was received with prolonged applause. Mr. King spoke as follows:

My acceptance of the Liberal nomination in North Waterloo is a step which has not been taken without long and earnest consideration. My work of the past eight years, during which time the department of Labor has grown to be one of the most important departments of the government, has afforded me too many opportunities for public service and is too near my heart to be quickly and lightly parted from. Indeed, the serious responsibility involved in giving up a position of such great public usefulness has been realized so fully that were it not outweighed by the deepest of conviction as to what is at the present time a public duty, I would certainly not sever my connection with a department with which I have been associated from its very creation.

JUDGE SCORED JURY FOR ACQUITTING WOMAN ACID-THROWER

TORONTO, Sept. 21.—After an emphatic denial that she was the woman who threw carbolic acid in Edwin Chandler's face on Lee Avenue on June 1, was made by Mrs. Elizabeth Ellen Taylor in the sessions this morning she was acquitted. The woman asserted that she had no feeling against Chandler, though he is the father of one of her children and has refused to assist her. Chandler was nearly blinded by the acid.

"Mrs. Taylor," declared Judge Winchester, "the jury has acquitted you, although I cannot understand how they came by their verdict. If there is any one guilty, you are the guilty woman. I cannot see how the jury could return their verdict, if they have weighed the evidence and remembered their oath."

FRENCH RESPECT MEMORY OF BISHOP CARMICHAEL

MONTREAL, Sept. 21.—A compliment was paid the English-speaking people of the city this afternoon when the city council adjourned as a token of respect for the memory of Bishop Carmichael, who died early this morning. The motion was presented by Alderman L. A. Lapointe, leader of the French section of the council, seconded by Alderman N. Gleroux, and read:

"That this council has learned with deep regret of the demise of His Grace, Bishop Carmichael, and desire to offer to the adherents of the Anglican church of this diocese an expression of sympathy in their sad bereavement. That the members of this council desire to place on record their appreciation of the sterling qualities of the deceased prelate, and that as a mark of respect for his memory this council do now adjourn."

This was unanimously adopted.

Grand Opera Sumptuously Presented

IL TROVATORE

Miss Darling, Miss LeBaron
and Others Score Tremendous Hits

Whether the experiment of grand opera in St. John will be sufficiently successful financially to justify the continuance of such productions is yet to be seen. There is, however, no doubt as to the appreciative qualities of local audiences nor of the ability of the Boston Opera singers to provide a thoroughly satisfactory interpretation of the best of this class of music. From the merits of the production, it is safe to say that it may be anticipated that the standard compositions billed for the week will all be produced in a manner so enthralling and inspiring, and that St. John may hereafter be looked upon as a city in which the worthy efforts of accomplished singers are not lack due appreciation. This is St. John's first experience of grand opera, and although metropolitan surroundings are naturally not provided, the knowledge that annual engagements such as this may be enjoyed if the people do intense expressions, her generous support through the remainder of the present season.

The Opera House was last evening fairly well filled with the music loving residents of St. John. The entrance and halls had been prettily decorated and everything possible was done to mark as memorable the opening of this engagement. For their first production the singers had chosen Il Trovatore, the most popular and most characteristic of Verdi's compositions. From its initial presentation in 1852 Il Trovatore has always been well received, unlike certain other works by the Italian master it did not have to struggle for favor. The music, in its dramatic intensity, its variety, and its beauty, is equal to any found in those operas of the pure Italian school. Several of the numbers have become part of one's ordinary education, for who does not know the Miserere, the Anvil Chorus, and Hone's "Curious Incident?" The tragedy of Leonora, the strange intermingling of vengeance and love in the character of the gypsy, and the struggle of Manrico to win his more powerful rival, and unknown brother, afford many opportunities for dramatic impersonation of the strongest type. Miss Darling, who was heard a week ago at the opening of the exhibition, appeared as Leonora and sang with the honors of the evening with Miss LeBaron, who gave a magnificent interpretation of the somewhat difficult role of Azucena. Mr. Albert, who sang the part of Count di Luna, Manrico was effectively sung by Mr. Roland Paul, and the role of the Count's father, a lover of the count, was in every way satisfactory. The performance was enhanced by the effective musical support of a sixteen piece orchestra under the direction of B. E. Francini, this orchestra including a number of local musicians.

Manrico, the troubadour, is sickly in childhood and is believed drowned. A gypsy woman accuses of causing the spell is burned. Her daughter, Azucena, intending to cast into the fire the sickly child, saves her own instead, and in the excitement disappeared, carrying Manrico, brother of him who afterwards became Count di Luna. In the opera the count is in love with Leonora, who in turn is enamored of Manrico. Rivalry between the two men ensues, a fight takes place, and Manrico is wounded. Leonora, believing him dead, prepares to enter a convent. News of her intention reaches Manrico at the Ezy camp where Azucena has told him the story of her early life. He hastens to the convent and secures Leonora to his castle, which is besieged by the count. Azucena is taken prisoner and calls upon Manrico to aid her. He goes to her assistance and the count's army is routed. Leonora, seeking her lover's life, promises to wed the count if Manrico is spared. He agrees to this. Leonora takes poison that death may release her from her promise, and hastens to Manrico's cell to tell him what she has done. Manrico refuses liberty at such a price. Leonora dies in his arms and the count orders the immediate execution of her lover. His forces Azucena to witness the young man's death and is horrified when she, unable longer to bear her sufferings, tells him with her dying breath that Manrico is his brother.

Perhaps the most compelling scene of all is that in the second act, in which Azucena relates to Manrico the story of her mother's death. This movement calls for an intensity of expression, a dramatic fervor, which makes the role quite a difficult one. Miss LeBaron, contralto, was equal to the exceptional part.

In every respect so profitable and pleasant, is not easily broken, but I shall carry with me into my sphere of duties a knowledge of the needs of the department and the service, and shall through the future lose no opportunity of furthering both.

In asking you to accept my resignation, I wish to express my deep appreciation of the helpful and pleasant relations which my association with you in the duties of the department has involved, and an abiding sense of gratitude to the members of the staff for their faithfulness and efficiency with which they have assisted me in the carrying on of my work.

I am, dear Mr. Lemieux,
Very sincerely yours,

The Honourable Rodolphe Lemieux,

AMUSEMENTS.

TREMENDOUS CROWDS AT NICKEL.

It was like the good old midsummer night at the Nickel last evening, despite the chilly air and the threatening skies and good-natured crowds filled the large auditorium from 7 until 10:30 o'clock. There is absolutely no abatement in the public interest in this form of entertainment and hearty applause greeted singers and dancers alike. The chief feature was Thos. A. Edison's newest hit, "The Lights of the Night," or "Coney Island after dark." All the attractions at this resort, the whole place illuminated after nightfall, the funny scenes and surf bathing were shown in detail and it was worth a great deal more than five cents to sit back and drink in the fun. Two Paths comedies of late vintage kept the laughs going, and the songs, "Polly Primrose," by Miss Felix, and "The Road to Yesterday," by Mr. Weston, were artistic successes surely. The orchestra rose to the occasion of a Conny.

COMPLIMENTS SHOWERED UPON THE BIJOU MANAGEMENT YESTERDAY.

If the management of the Bijou Theatre, the new Union street picture house, ever had reason to feel proud, it was last night, and it was the many complimentary remarks passed upon the good lot of pictures they are showing that caused the comment. We join the multitude that visited the Bijou in extending our congratulations and extend our warm wishes, which are: Such a crowd today that it will keep them busy standing, and we feel it in our bones that such will be the case. Never was any; let us repeat that Never! has such a realistic production of any of the old-time stories of fiction been presented to the picture loving public, as the picture "All Baba and the Forty Thieves," the picture presented last night and to be repeated today. In it are seen All Baba, the king of thieves, his tried and trusted band, their cave or repository filled with precious jewels of all kinds, money in heaps, boxes, and the whole picture depicting the story twice, hundred feet long, gorgeously colored. We won't tell the story, as to see the picture brings back recollections of childhood days most vividly. Two good comedies and an excellent drama complete the interesting picture programme and Miss Smith is heard in "Beautiful Isle of the Sea," and Mr. Higgins in "Good-bye, Sweet Heart, Good-bye." Much pleasure is guaranteed at the Bijou today, so don't miss it.

THE PRINCESS PROGRAMME A GREAT SUCCESS.

There was standing room only that met some of the patrons at the Princess Theatre last night when the citizens turned out in hundreds to witness the big vaudeville performance given in this popular family theatre. The musical team, Goldie and Good, who arrived yesterday from New York, proved to be all that was said about them in the advance notices. The team were loudly applauded after each selection and made a decided hit with the excellent manner in which they performed on the banjos, guitars, mandolins, piccolos, cornets, xylophones, musical bottles, accordions, musettes, organ pipes, bagpipes, etc. It is a musical act that has the best recommendations from the leading American booking houses. Mr. Courtain, the newly engaged baritone, made an excellent impression in a pretty illustrated solo entitled, "There Never Was a Girl Like You." This was Mr. Courtain's first appearance and he has made a decided success. The Broncho Buster is a wild western song that is nicely illustrated, and sung as only the ever popular Harry Newcombe can render it.

"The Isaacs Mother" is the title of a dramatic picture that is most pathetic, and deals with some very touching scenes. The Princess programme is an exceptional one that warrants big houses for the remainder of the week.

HAPPY HALF HOUR.

The new programme at the Happy Half Hour was witnessed by large crowds. Miss Holmes by request sang Bobolink, and, as before, made a hit. Mr. Buchanan sang Jean in his usual splendid manner, both singers receiving applause. The Steeple Chase Race was promised to be the most exciting picture ever seen here, and it is. To see a field of 20 horses start of jumping hurdles, fences and ditches with every few minutes a horse and rider down is certainly exciting. A number of local horsemen came to see this picture, and one said "It's worth a half a dollar, and I'd give five dollars to have seen the original race." Australian Sports and Pastimes is another picture that caught the crowd. In the chopping contest the audience were enthused, but when the "bucking broncho" contest, in which the horses are tamed, was shown the excitement was intense. The Fencing Master Sweetheart is a 500 foot colored picture similar to The Three Guardsmen. Prof. Titus sang If I Build a Nest Will You Share It With Me and Harry Lacey sang When the Nightingales are Nesting, Sweet Irene, both singers receiving generous applause. Owing to unexpected difficulties with the customs authorities Adette's lions were not on exhibition last night as promised, but it is expected that the difficulty will be overcome today or tomorrow and due announcement will be made through the press. Don't miss today's show, the last time tonight.

HIGH CLASS PICTURES AND SONGS AT THE UNIQUE TODAY.

We again direct the attention of the readers of this paper to the excellent pictures shown at the Unique Theatre. The leading picture today is called The Fighting Paron, and is in every way worthy of all the praise it has received. A person who in his youth learned the many art found that event in his ministerial life that the knowledge of how to use his fists was very useful to him. The Multinomial Falls is another beautiful picture of picturesque Oregon. The scenery in this picture surpasses all description. The Cobby Wife is another dramatic comedy which interests and amuses all spectators. The last picture is called Crocuses and is the only picture of its kind in the world. See L. Miss Power is singing that beautiful ballad Thos Songs My Mother Used to Sing and Miss Octavia that popular song Hoo Hoo.

FARLEY AND DUGAN AT THE CEDAR THEATRE.

The management have per chance secured the services of the clever team, Farley and Dugan, two high class electrical pedestal clog dancers. This team made their first appearance last night and had to respond to several success. Special mention may be made of the thrilling picture drama, Love and Hatred. Mr. Wallace will have a new song tonight. Admission the same, 5 cents.

THE STAR, ST. JOHN. N. B., TUESDAY, SEPTEMBER 22, 1908

Christmas at Rory's Hope

By HOPKINS MOORHOUSE.

To find it one must go far northward, beyond the country of the Cree, beyond the broad and by way of the long Buffalo Lake up to where the Portage la Loche rises between the long chain of waterways southward and the flow of rivers that sets toward the Frozen Ocean; then miles and miles through the deep winding valley of the Clearwater where pine-clad hills are high and open to the Forks of the Athabasca; after that, leagues along the broad reaches of the mighty river and straight away into the wilderness that stretches ever northward to the "Meeting-Place-of-Many-Waters"; and there, where the lonely waters of the "Lakes-of-the-Winds" lave the granite rocks, it will be found—the island of Bay and the Fond du Lac. There alone in the country of the Chipewyan for seven years lived old John Hawkin, his Cree, four years before, his dogs had travelled many weary miles southward to Fort Carlton to meet the winter-packet.

Twelve days' journey further still into the North, beyond the borders of the Barren Grounds and far across wintry wastes to the desolate shores of the Great Slave Lake lay the way to "Rory's Hope." There alone, at this little lost fur-trading post, for sixteen years had lived old Roderick MacQuinn in the company of the Indians and the Dog-Ribs. Once, three years before, his dogs had dragged his sled south and east, many weary miles over the frozen distances to the Fort at Fond du Lac.

And at that time these two old traders had agreed that three years hence they would meet, God willing, and spend Christmas Day together. For three years now, each had been looking forward to this. For great friends they were, and younger days when sides by side they worked for the company as clerks at old Fort Garry, two thousand miles to the south; that was before the remotest wife had called both from the far-off busy world of man and their own. And great friends they were now when the years had laid upon their heads and sifted in their hair the silver-dust that does not melt away; and the friendship of their later years had grown mighty in the dreary isolation, the snows and the pine trees stretched across an icy sky.

Big-framed, broad-shouldered, bright eyes and red of cheek was the Englishman, John Hawkins. His work was always well done, the company knew what they were about when they made him Factor at Fond du Lac. His store within the stockade was filled with blankets, colored cloths, guns, ammunition, bright handkerchiefs, ribbons and staples of Indian trade. His storehouse the pelts accumulated till the beams hung myriads of skins, worth many a gold-piece in the market of London City—marten, muskrat and dark otter, fishers and black foxes, bears and beavers. The Indians came in blanket robes and gilly-white capotes; the pointed poles of a wigwam or two would rise on either side of the outer palisades, while the Indians stayed and smoked; by and by they would go away. From the tapering staff, day after day, the red flag flew in the cold north blast.

Throughout the long, rigorous winters it was so; throughout the short, hot summers, too. In the summer the harsh cry of the "wavy" kept time to the hepping of the waters on the rocky shores of Athabasca; the pine islands rustled in the western breeze—nothing else moving over the eight thousand square miles of crystal sea, perhaps at long intervals the canoe of a Chipewyan might glide along the bay-indented shores or cross some traverse of the open lake. In the winter—only the "winters" themselves could really know that that was! Late dawn, a few dark nights; tempests sweeping and roaring and howling through stunted pine forests while wreck and drift hurled across the frozen lake! Landscape and life alike a drear monotony without excitement, each day just a little taken from the dreary prospect before added to the hopeless separation behind! Whirls of storm and the haunting howl of solitude! Firelight and memories of far-away Scotland, green and English lanes, primroses, and heather! Roderick MacQuinn had known these things for sixteen years and for seventeen John Hawkins.

The one bright break in the long winters for the Factor at Fond du Lac was when he journeyed two hundred miles to Fort Chipewyan at the west end of the lake to meet the winter-packet. There the huskies of the voyagers from the far Yukon and the distant Peace River country came together and fought; there the voyagers themselves sat and smoked and told stories of the long trails while they walked and there among

SUSSEX FAIR HAS STARTED

SUSSEX, N. B., Sept. 21.—Wet, disagreeable weather attended the first day of the Sussex exhibition. Proceeding tomorrow evening will be favored by fine weather.

This evening the public were admitted to the grounds and buildings, although many exhibits were not in position. The architectural section of the exhibition is particularly good. There are already many exhibits of live stock on grounds.

In the main building the industrial exhibits occupy greater space.

The Sussex Mercantile Company has two berths, one devoted to pianos and organs, the other to plumbing, ranges, stoves, etc. The exhibitor, Messrs. King, Aabel & Co. of Sussex have made here a feature of the exhibition, a fine exhibit of fur garments. King, Aabel & Co. of Sussex have made here a feature of the exhibition, a fine exhibit of fur garments.

Many of those on the Pike at the St. John exhibition are here. Mrs. General Tom Thum and Lilliputians are also here and gave their first performance this evening. The fair will be in full swing tomorrow.

An accident to the electric lighting plant left the buildings in darkness a half hour tonight. The attendance, considering the drawbacks, was good.

The cattle judging will begin tomorrow morning. Holsteins in the afternoon, Ayrshires Wednesday morning, grade Jerseys in the afternoon, horses on Thursday.

The judges are: W. F. Hurlin, Quebec, dairy cow; Thomas Dreyfuss, Allan Corner, Quebec, beef cattle; Allan Corner, Quebec, Dr. J. Standish, Walkerton, Ont., horses; A. G. Smith, Walkerton, Mass., poultry; K. C. F. Alward, Havelock, agricultural produce; John C. Miles, St. John, paintines; Mrs. McLellan and Miss Chisholm, St. John, ladies' work.

The exhibit of cattle is the largest ever seen in Sussex. The cattle pens are filled and the horse stalls are used for cattle. The other stock is up to the average in numbers.

ALEXANDER MCCURDY.

Accompanied by J. M. Graham, whose popularity with the people is only second to his own. Sir Wilfrid left London at 2:30 this morning and arrived in Tilbury shortly after ten o'clock. He was received at the station by a large number of friends. A civic address was presented to the premier by Rev. J. S. Richardson, to which he replied briefly in both English and French. In the course of the morning Sir Wilfrid met a large number of prominent gentlemen of Kent and Essex, who were in the vicinity of the station. The whole town was beautifully decorated. The fact that there is a strong feeling in both English and French in the vicinity of the station to make two speeches, one in English and the other in the language of his own province, both were in English and French. There is no need of anyone suffering long with this disease, for to effect a quick cure it is only necessary to take a few doses of Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy.

TILBURY, Ont., Sept. 21.—To speak of the premier's tour as a triumphal procession is to use a trite phrase that not too aptly describes the remarkable series of demonstrations which have taken place since he entered upon the campaign a fortnight ago. The send-off given him by his supporters at Sorel was great. He had this afternoon in Brossard, and the Liberals of Middlesex and Lanark counties themselves in the reception of the chief. Today it was the turn of the electors of Essex and Kent to extend a welcome to Sir Wilfrid, and it is safe to say that never in the history of these two prosperous counties has a gathering been so magnificent as that which welcomed the premier this afternoon. It would be difficult to estimate, but it is not straining figures to say that fully eight thousand were in the park during the proceedings, while thousands more remained in town, content with having seen the chiefstain and the procession and cheer him as he passed.

DISCOVER CELESTIAL SMUGGLING SYSTEM SEVEN WHOLESALE GROCERS IN COURT

OTTAWA, Sept. 21.—A system of smuggling Chinese into Canada has been discovered. Last spring Halifax called attention to the number of Chinese who were arriving from Mexico with certificates from the Chinese minister in Mexico or from one of the governors of a Mexican province. The matter was investigated and the custom authorities became convinced that there was something wrong. The result was that a party of ten Chinese on the steamer, Montreal, which was bound for Montreal, was held in Montreal Saturday, examined and found not to be merchants though they were certified as such. The Chinese in bond from New York and two from England with letters from the consular office, stating that they were British citizens, were held up at the same time. All have been refused admission and will be deported at the expense of the steamship companies. It is estimated that two hundred Chinese have gained admission to Canada on these certificates and the country has been defrauded of a hundred thousand dollars in head taxes.

Then came Niagara Falls and he had to tell his Sorel friends that they take a back seat following the way the demonstration at Stratroy, which he entered upon the campaign a fortnight ago. The send-off given him by his supporters at Sorel was great. He had this afternoon in Brossard, and the Liberals of Middlesex and Lanark counties themselves in the reception of the chief. ## SEVEN WHOLESALE GROCERS IN COURT

TORONTO, Sept. 21.—Seven wholesale grocers were this morning brought before Chief Justice Sir Glenholme Falconbridge at the special assize, charged with forming a combine in restraint of trade, known as the Grocers' Association of the city of Hamilton. The case, which has already been adjourned several times, was again laid over and will not come up until Oct. 19, when his lordship will be able to devote a week to it. The defendants were Henry C. Beckett, George E. Bristol, John I. Davidson, T. B. Escott, W. S. Craig, J. P. Eby, T. Kinross and the Dominion Wholesale Grocers' Guild, all charged with having during the years 1888-1905, at the city of Hamilton, and in other cities, combined and agreed with the Cordova Sugar Refining Company, the Acadia Sugar Refining Company, and about one hundred wholesale grocers in Canada, to limit the facilities in producing, manufacturing and dealing in sugar, tobacco, starch, canned goods, salt, cereals, and other articles to the restraint and injury of trade, enhancing the prices of goods in question and reducing competition.

At the conclusion of the trial of Mrs. Elizabeth Taylor, who was found not guilty of aid throwing, Judge Winchester made some striking remarks in reference to the jury's verdict. "The jury have found you not guilty. How they arrived at that verdict I do not know, for in my opinion there was a guilty woman, I say, if there was an evidence, she was one. How any jury who respects their oath can harmonize that verdict with the evidence I cannot understand."

Edward Chandler, who nearly lost his sight by the acid, was an old flame of the woman, and she had a child by him, but he refused to help her.

PRINTING BY WIRELESS

Messages Written on Typewriter in One Room Copied by Receptive Machine in Another

LONDON, Sept. 21.—Hans Knudsen, the Danish electrical engineer, today gave a practical demonstration of his new method of working a typewriter by wireless telegraph. Knudsen claims that the inlay type composing machine can be used in a similar fashion, and, although today's demonstration was made with apparatus in a more or less experimental stage of construction, the vista of almost magical attainment. Many people present at the demonstration, which was held at the Cecil Hotel, wrote on the wireless typewriter in one room, and their words were immediately reproduced in a neighboring apartment in a precisely similar way. Knudsen claims to be able to operate a typewriter in a wireless machine in the same way, and he also demonstrated the operation of sketches and photographs by wireless. He also demonstrated the operation of a special form of the same machine.

Anty Drudge Tells Why Mary Doesn't Object to a Big Wash

Father—"Just look at the condition of the kids' clothes! Where do you suppose they pick up the dirt? You'll have Mary making an awful kick about the heavy wash."

Every mother knows what a lot of fun the baby gets out of crawling about the floor and making its tiny self just as dirty as a little pig.

But every mother has looked with alarm at the array of baby clothes to be washed on Monday morning.

And every one has seen with despair how the delicate little garments are cooked to pieces in the destructive washboiler.

But all that was before the Fels-Naptha wash-water became known.

The Fels-Naptha way means that baby's soiled clothes are cleansed quickly in cool or lukewarm water without the roasting fire, summer or winter—without the seething suds, without the terrific back-breaking rub, rub, rub.

What's the result? Why—Fuel saved, Temper saved, Time saved, Fabric saved.

Insist on the red and green wrapper, and follow the printed directions.

BRITISH TRIUMPH IN TURKEY.

King's Congratulations Destroy German Influence—Bad Week for Germany—Powers Freeze Moroccan Fervor.

LONDON, Sept. 22.—These are interesting days in the great game of European politics. Important moves are being made by week-end.

First there is King Edward's remarkable message to the Sultan of Turkey. Its terms are almost insulting to that muzzled and almost deposed monarch.

Germany's favored position in the near East has entirely disappeared. Britain today is able to abandon utterly her growing suspicion of the past few years that Germany was secretly endeavoring to stir up the Moslem world against her.

The second incident is the reception by the Powers of the French-Spanish note with regard to the recognition of Mulai Hafid. The terms of the note are so completely self-annihilating that its acceptance by all the Powers save Germany were a foregone conclusion.

It is difficult to see what grounds the Kaiser can find for criticism, and it is scarcely believed that he will attempt to pick flaws in it. His presumptuous and premature interference in the Moroccan situation was so coldly received everywhere that he will abandon his recalcitrant attitude.

Finally, we have had this week a perfect deluge of peace talk from the German government. The diplomatic work is frankly unimpaired by it. It is at a loss whether to accept it at its face value or look for some keep purpose underlying it.

STORY OF GOUNOD'S FAUST

Charles Francois Gounod was born in Paris in 1819. He studied music in the Conservatory, under the direction of Halévy, Levasseur and Paër.

"Faust," grand opera in five acts, words by Barbier and Carré, founded upon Goethe's tragedy, was first produced at the Theatre Lyrique, Paris, March 15, 1869.

The story of the opera follows Goethe's tragedy very closely, and is confined to the first part. It may be briefly told: Faust, an illustrious student, satiated his human knowledge and desiring of his ability to unravel the secrets of nature, summons to his aid Mephistopheles to his assistance.

The opera was first produced in London at the Lyric Theatre, on January 22, 1884, and in Germany as "Margarete."

The first act is in the nature of a prelude, and opens with a long solo by Faust, in which he laments the unsatisfactoriness of life.

The second act is in the nature of a prelude, and opens with a long solo by Faust, in which he laments the unsatisfactoriness of life.

The third act is the garden scene, full of fascinating details and breathes the very spirit of poetry and music combined in a picture of love which has never been excelled in tenderness and beauty on the operatic stage.

The fourth act is known as the Cathedral, and opens with a scene for Marguerite, who has been taunted by the girls at the fountain ("Nacosse eran la le crudel"), which wakens her love and fate.

The fifth act is the most dramatic of the opera, and opens with a scene for Marguerite, who has been taunted by the girls at the fountain ("Nacosse eran la le crudel").

The sixth act is the most dramatic of the opera, and opens with a scene for Marguerite, who has been taunted by the girls at the fountain ("Nacosse eran la le crudel").

WRIGHT TAKES AERIAL RECORD FROM BROTHER. Wilbur's Great Triumph. COVERS 61 MILES. In the Air an Hour and a Half—10,000 Feet.

LE MANS, Sept. 21.—In the presence of the officials of the Aero Club of Sarthe, General Bessiere-Huyter, commander of the fourth army corps, the American ambassador, Henry White;

Finally, at 6:15, after the direction of the starting rail had been changed to a point in the track of the bridge, which was then blowing gently about four miles an hour, the aviator got away nicely, sailing majestically up the field amid thundering cheers.

After rounding the upper turn Wright swept back to where the thousand were gathered and began describing ellipses. Round and round he went with the regularity of clock-work, the steadiness of a railroad train.

The crowd was at once delighted and amazed at the remarkable stability of the aeroplane. Wright at first manifested extraordinary prudence, flying so low that he seemed almost to skim the earth, but on the thirteenth round he rose to sixty feet.

Only a mad chase the crowd broke through the lines and rushed forward, only being prevented from bolting the American in triumph on their shoulders by charging cavalry.

ROSSLYN TESTING ROULETTE SYSTEM. Begins Gambling Test Against Sir Hiram Maxim in London.

LASTS SEVERAL DAYS. LONDON, Sept. 21.—Sir Hiram Maxim, the inventor, and Lord Roslyn began an unusual gambling contest in London today as a result of correspondence in which Sir Hiram contended that it was impossible for Lord Roslyn or any other system to win at roulette against the Monte Carlo bank.

The operations were begun in a Piccadilly club, Sir Hiram conducting the game as played at Monte Carlo. Lord Roslyn started to play with $50,000 in dummy money. The bank had an equal amount.

The agreement is that if Lord Roslyn finishes with cash in hand Sir Hiram will admit that the system is practical. The game will continue for several days. At the end of the first day's play Lord Roslyn had lost $500.

MIXTURE OF BUSINESS IN THE POLICE COURT

In the police court this morning John Flaherty was proven guilty of using abusive language to Wm. Gibbs in Turner's restaurant on Union street, last Friday night. He was fined $3 or two months in jail.

There were no less than six drunks to be dealt with. One of these was a young man who was arrested on Reed's Point Wharf early this morning. When Policeman Chavanaugh found him his head, shoulders and arms were hanging over the wharf. It was a timely rescue. The young man has been before the court on several other occasions, and was remanded to jail.

Annie Ankettelle was fined $10 or four months in jail for being drunk and profane on Sheffield street.

Patrick Birmingham was found wandering about King Square about 1.30 o'clock this morning and when the old man who is no stranger to the county jail, gave his reasons for being out late, there was much amusement in the court room. He said he arrived on the late train from Plaster Rock, had two dollars in his pocket, and was enroute to Chipman.

The only reason that he did not secure sleeping quarters at the Salvation Army home was that he was afraid to go near the door because of a vicious bull dog that was on duty. Birmingham exhausted himself with a long speech, and nearly fainted when the magistrate fined him $5 or two months jail with hard labor.

Vincent Caples was before the court charged with not moving his cart off King street when ordered by the police. The magistrate spoke on the cartage hire business at some length and said he heard that the surly wagons now are kept in dark alleys where they receive their passengers for out the road. He said that the mayor would be communicated with, and if these drivers lost their licenses it will be their own fault. The case was set over until tomorrow morning at eleven o'clock. Two other drivers are reported and will be dealt with at the same time.

MADE A PRESENTATION TO MR. WM. TAYLOR

Supt. of Grounds and Buildings at the Exhibition Receives an Expression of Good Will

During the preparation for the exhibition and while the fair was in progress, Mr. William Taylor, superintendent of grounds and buildings, was, as usual, a great favorite with the exhibitors. Always obliging and ever ready to help he found many opportunities for assisting holders of space in their work and during the week was constantly in readiness to do all in his power for the comfort of visitors. Mr. Taylor's efforts have already been recognized by expressions of thanks, but some of the exhibitors have adopted a more tangible method of displaying their feelings.

Yesterday a purse made up by the exhibitors was left at the Star office with the request that it be forwarded to Mr. Taylor as an expression of the regard in which he is held and as a small acknowledgment of the obligation under which exhibitors are to him. The purse was this afternoon forwarded to Mr. Taylor from the Star office and the only wish of the donors is that it had been very much larger.

BIG CROWD ATTENDING LIBERAL PICNIC AT MUSQUASH

Three Hundred Went Down From St. John—All Conditions Favorable for an Enjoyable Time.

The Liberal picnic at Musquash today opened with beautiful weather and everything looked bright for a large crowd and a pleasant day. Over three hundred passengers left on the special train from St. John and large crowds from the country surrounding Musquash were present. At two o'clock the forenoon. Before eleven o'clock over six hundred people were enjoying themselves on the grounds, and it is expected that the numbers will exceed a thousand early in the afternoon.

The Carlton Cornet Band accompanied the party from St. John. Upon arriving at Musquash the visitors found the grounds prepared and all arrangements completed for the function. A large tent was erected in which the speeches will be delivered, and long tables were set on the grounds in readiness for dinner. An excellent meal was served and the children present were treated to candy and peanuts. A pavilion was erected for dancing and this was in constant use, while good music was furnished. At two o'clock speech making began. Addresses are being delivered by Hon. Wm. Pugsley, Hon. A. McKeown and R. H. McAlpine.

The trains carrying the crowd from St. John and other points stopped at Spruce Lake and Peregoy, and brought numbers from both places. Among those who are from St. John are: Dr. McFarland, Dr. A. D. Smith, Edward Sears, Alderman Scully, Fred Miles, A. B. Holly, J. R. Montgomery, Thos. L. Hay, C. E. Blum, E. E. Flood, J. V. Russell and James Lowell.

SIR FREDERICK BORDEN PREDICTS LIBERAL SWEEP

Sir Frederick Borden passed through the city this morning en route for his home at Canning. He spoke of opening the campaign in his county over a week ago and of the enthusiastic feeling among the Liberals to win in the fight. He had no doubt of the results in the Maritime Provinces and thought that Laurier would find equally as strong support in Ontario as at the last election.
