

SUPREME COUNCIL SETS FORTH TO HOLLAND REASONS WHY FORMER EMPEROR SHOULD BE DELIVERED

Note to Netherlands Asking That William be Turned Over to Allies Cites the Many Barbarous Acts Committed by Germans With the Consent and Knowledge of the Former War Lord—Holland Urged to Do Her International Duty and Associate Herself With Other Nations to Prosecute for Crimes Committed.

Paris, January 18.—(By The Associated Press.) The Supreme Council's note to the Dutch Government, asking that the former German Emperor be given up to the Allies under Article 227 of the Versailles Treaty for trial, points out that if the former Emperor had remained in Germany, he would have been delivered up under the same conditions by the German Government. "Among so many circumstances," the note recalls "the cynical violation of the neutrality of Belgium and Luxembourg; the barbarous system of hostages; massed deportations, systematic devastation without military reasons; the submarine war," and declares, "for all of which acts responsibility at least moral, reaches the Supreme Chief who ordered them or abused his unlimited powers to break or permit others to break the most sacred rules of human conscience."

"The powers cannot conceive," it adds, "that the Netherlands would regard with less repugnance than themselves the immense responsibility weighing upon the ex-emperor. Holland would not be fulfilling her international duty if she refused to associate herself with other nations so far as she is able to prosecute, or at least not to impede the punishment of crimes committed."

The note points out that it is the duty of the Powers to insure execution of Article 227 without entering into an argument, because it is not a question of public accusation having through out a legal character, but an act of high international law imposed by the universal conscience in which legal forms are employed solely to insure the accused public guarantees such as have hitherto been unknown in public law.

It concludes by expressing the conviction that Holland, one of the first to claim a place in the League of Nations, will not desire to cover by moral authority violation of the essential principles of the solidarity of nations, and that all are interested to prevent the return of a similar catastrophe.

Drastic Changes In Reorganizing Dept. Of Public Printing

About Ninety Employees Will be Relieved on February 1st With Two Months Pay and Retiring Allowances.

Ottawa, Jan. 18.—(By The Canadian Press.) The re-organization of the Department of Public Printing and Stationery, now progressing under the civil service commission has reached a stage where the retirement of some members of the staff is necessary. About ninety employees will be relieved on February 1, 1920, with two months pay and a retiring allowance. The first of these employees includes those sixty years and over, about eighty-two employees of this age are affected. These are situated in the various offices and divisions of the department and the number affected in any particular room or office is small. The Civil Service Commission has almost completed its work of reorganization in the distribution office, and of this staff some members are to be transferred to other branches, while ten who are under sixty-five years of age are to be retired. The staff retained, it is believed, will perform the work of the office better than the unnecessary large force now maintained.

Liberal provision has been made for the employees who are to be retired. In announcing the names of those employees now retired, the Civil Service Commission points out that this is only the first list, as the re-organization report adopted by the Government recommends the retirement of about four hundred employees.

Paris, Jan. 18.—The Cabinet of Premier Clemenceau resigned today. President Poincaré tonight asked Alexandre Millerand, Governor of Alsace, to form a new Cabinet. M. Millerand will give his answer at noon Monday. The outgoing Ministry has been in office since November 16, 1917.

Manitoba Back To The Days of The Old Timer To Secure News of World

Winnipeg, Man., Jan. 13.—(By Canadian Press)—There does not seem much prospect of the people of this city getting a newspaper tomorrow, and the bulletins, containing the best of the world news, are being continued over the most part of the city and Manitoba. From last Friday afternoon there has been published less than five hundred words of news to the general public, except such bulletins as are placed outside the three newspaper offices. As the thermometer has shown 25 below zero, it is easily seen how little news has been circulated. In fact the public has only a bare idea of the outer world, and Manitoba does not know a cabinet minister has put up a strong defence of the Union government during the past few days. So far as Manitoba is concerned for topical knowledge it is back to the days of the old timer and the gossip at the post offices where bulletins are posted twice a day.

BOLSHEVIKS AND ANARCHISTS ON WAY TO RUSSIA

Disembarked Yesterday from the "Soviet Ark" at Hango and Placed in Box Cars for Their Final Journey.

Hango, Finland, Jan. 18.—(By The Associated Press.) The train having aboard the Bolshevists and anarchists, deported from the United States, was held here last evening until positive assurance was received from the Soviets that they would permit them to cross the Russian border, and that the Reds would not be molested. Grave rumors had come from the border that Berkman and Goldman and their comrades would be killed by the Russians, and while there was apparently no authority to confirm this threat, it was deemed advisable to take all precautions.

The "understudies" disembarked yesterday from the Barford and were placed in box cars fitted up with planks. Each car contained seven boxes of army rations. The supplies include bully beef, sugar and hard bread. The train was required to wait three hours while the Finnish authorities negotiated with the Russians. Goldman conversed with the correspondent for a few minutes before she trudged down the long path to the train, carrying part of her own baggage. Asked if she had a final greeting to send, she said, "I don't know whether I have." "Would you be willing to tell your feelings on departing?" "Naturally my emotions are conflicting. I am anxious about what is ahead in Russia; but naturally I am leaving very much behind in America."

TITLE BESTOWAL RECEIVES CENSURE

London, Jan. 18.—(Canadian Press Cable.)—The Saturday Review says such cynical and angry comment has been aroused in Canada by the conferment of a baronetcy upon J. Orr Lewis, of Montreal, and adds: "Our press and politicians ought to know this bestowal of a hereditary honor upon a Canadian is flying in the face of Canadian public opinion, the Dominion House of Commons after a long debate having passed a resolution condemning the bestowal of titles by the Imperial Parliament upon Canadians and refusing to recognize hereditary honours. They say now in Canada that all the war profiteers are leaving the Dominion and coming to London to get titles. These are your real democrats."

League of Nations Ignores Request Of Pres. Wilson

Paris, Jan. 18.—According to the Paris edition of the New York Herald, President Wilson asked for a delay by the League of Nations in the matter concerning the Saare Valley until the United States had appointed delegates to the league, but that, nevertheless, the Saare commission was appointed without reference to the United States.

Great Boom Expected In Road Work

Expected The Year Will Be An Active One In Carrying Out Good Roads Policy of Dom. Government.

Ottawa, Ont., Jan. 18.—According to plans now being made, this year will be an active one in carrying out the good roads policy of the Government whereby $20,000,000 is to be spent in the next five years in the betterment of highways. This represents 4 per cent. of the cost, each Province being eligible for the grant having to put up 60 per cent. Preliminary plans are now being received and all of the Provinces will be party to the expenditures.

Ontario projects a big highway from Windsor to the Quebec border, while Quebec's plans include roads from Hull to Montreal, and Montreal to Riviere du Loup and also to Sherbrooke. The Maritime and Western Provinces have yet to be heard from. The provinces will spend the money by contract, but the plans must be approved at Ottawa.

The following is the contemplated division of the $20,000,000 on the basis of population and the amounts, total, British Columbia, 1,251,935 1,877,932 Manitoba, 1,602,265 2,468,397 New Brunswick, 1,168,845 1,745,767 Nova Scotia, 1,468,720 2,206,080 Ontario, 5,277,276 8,115,912 Quebec, 7,478,420 11,212,630 P. E. Island, 663,455 996,182 Saskatchewan, 1,806,255 2,709,382

The grants will be made and the works directed by the Department of Railways and Canals, with A. W. Campbell as Highway Commissioner. Regulations governing the expenditures have been drawn up by an honorary advisory commission consisting of C. A. McGrath, Ottawa; J. P. Mullerke, Montreal, and Home Smith, Toronto.

NORTH LAND HAD HARD TRIP

Yarmouth, N. S., Jan. 18.—After encountering one of the worst storms of the season in the Bay of Fundy the steamer Northland, sixteen and a half hours out from Boston, arrived here today. The steamer ran into a terrific gale accompanied by thick snow but came through without damage. The steamer brought six members of the crew of the Nova Scotia schooner G. H. Murray, which was wrecked on the Caban coast, and who were landed at New York.

STMR. POWHATTAN REPORTED SINKING

Halifax, N. S., Jan. 18.—The steamer Powhattan, with four hundred passengers aboard, bound from New York to a French port, reported at 120 o'clock this afternoon that she was in distress 230 miles southeast of Halifax and required immediate assistance. The message gave the Powhattan's position as latitude 41.05, longitude 62.10, and stated that she was filling, and that the engine rooms had become flooded and her pumps choked. Later messages indicated that the White Star Line Cedric and the steamer Western Comet were proceeding to the Powhattan's assistance. The Cedric stated that she would reach the position given between 5 and 6 o'clock this afternoon.

Boston, Mass., Jan. 18.—The British freighter Yarmouth, which left New York for Havana yesterday with a cargo of liquor, reported in radio messages today that she was sinking. She gave her position as latitude 49, North, longitude 74, West, and said that she was twenty-nine miles northeast of light vessel No. 3. The message said forward ballast tank leaking into engine room. A heavy mist prevailed. The Yarmouth registered 735 tons.

M. DESCHANEL WAS ELECTED PRES. OF FRANCE

His Majority the Largest Given a Candidate Since the Election of Thiers, First Pres. After Fall of the Empire.

Verailles, Jan. 17.—(By Associated Press.)—Paul Deschanel was elected President of the French Republic today by 734 votes of the 899 members of the National Assembly voting. His majority was the largest since the election of Louis Adolphe Thiers, the first President after the fall of the Empire, who was chosen unanimously. The result was certain since the caucus of yesterday at which M. Deschanel was chosen the candidate of the Senate and the Chamber of Deputies, comprising all the various parties. The election took on, besides a holiday character, the atmosphere of a patriotic manifestation.

The feeling among the Senators and Deputies was that, after the retirement of M. Clemenceau from the contest, to whom the Parliament was disposed to give evidence of the nation's gratitude, it was fitting that the new President should come into power with a vote that would give him the necessary authority to speak impressively for France. The general sentiment is that, while the President has not won the party by such outstanding services as those rendered by Premier Clemenceau, he is a man adapted for the position, and has proceeded with care, tact, and is above all a safe man.

The proceedings, as provided by the Constitution, were formal, giving little occasion for enthusiasm. When the vote was announced, however, the members of Parliament on the floor, the gallery and returned to the President-elect in a motor car. On the return, M. Deschanel was followed by a long cortege of parliamentarians. The procession was watched by thousands along the route through the park of St. Cloud and the Bois Du Boulogne, who cheered each car, crying, "Long Live Deschanel," and "Long Live the Republic."

FREDERICTON HAD TWO FIRES SUNDAY

Thistle Curlers to Visit Capital This Week—Starting Prohibition Campaign.

Special to The Standard. Fredericton, N. B., Jan. 18.—Upwards of six inches of snow fell here on Saturday in the worst storm of the winter. Accompanying the snowfall was a real blizzard and biting cold weather. The snow was particularly welcome to the lumbermen whose hauling operations have been about tied up for lack of sufficient snow.

The Thistle Curling Club of St. John is coming to Fredericton, six rinks strong, some day this week to meet the locals.

A brick building on Queen street, the upper side of which is owned by C. E. Stewart, formerly of St. John, was badly gutted by fire this morning.

The fire broke out in the upper floor of the Campbell side of the building in the quarters occupied by the family of C. E. Stewart, formerly of St. John, who is caretaker of the G. W. V. rooms, but at present is a patient at the D. S. C. R. hospital here, suffering from effects of war wounds. The roof was badly gutted and considerable damage done on the upper floor, while water soaked through to the lower floors and did much damage to furniture as well as to the stock in both stores.

Mr. Campbell had $2,000 insurance on his building, but it is doubtful if the amount will cover the loss, while the G. W. V. A. had their furniture insured, and other tenants had insurance that will cover their losses.

While the fire department were just getting this blaze under control an alarm was sent in for a fire at the double tenement house on King street, owned by Nathan F. Squires and occupied by Charles Allen, a discharged soldier, and Bartley Smith, a barber, formerly of St. John. The fire was in the downstairs flat occupied by the Allen family and was confined to the rear portion of that flat, although considerable damage was done by smoke and water to the rest of the building. Harry Allen, son of Charles Allen, was badly scorched about the head while trying to rescue a dog, which, however, perished in the flames. The building and Mrs. Smith, who only removed

Labor Opposes Intervention In Russian Affair

London, Jan. 17.—Arthur Henderson, leader of the Labor party in parliament, in a letter dealing with the Russian situation, is quoted today as follows:

"If the government, refusing even to consider repeated offers of peace from the Soviets, involves the country in war over vast areas of Europe and Asia, the Labor party will resist to the utmost such an unnecessary and reckless military adventure masquerading as a war of defense."

Ministers Are Not In Agreement

Clemenceau Opposes Any Dealing With Bolshevik Russia, While Lloyd George and Nitti Favor Limited Trade.

Paris, Jan. 18.—The Prime Ministers of the Allies it appears, were not in entire accord respecting the decisions yesterday upon a limited opening of trade with Russia.

Premier Lloyd George proposed the measure seemingly to conciliate the Labor forces of England. Premier Nitti supported Mr. Lloyd George, explaining that the decision would have a good effect upon political opinion in Italy, where a good deal of Bolshevik agitation is reported. Premier Clemenceau opposed any dealings with Bolshevik Russia, but finally said words that he would agree to such measure of trade as that finally announced. He insisted, however, upon writing the final paragraph affirming that the Allies had not changed their attitude toward the Soviets.

M. Clemenceau also remarked that he would soon be out of the Supreme Council, anyway.

CANADIAN GETS YEAR'S SENTENCE FOR SMUGGLING

Was Caught Bringing Automobile Load of Whiskey Across the Border Into U.S.

Burlington, Vt., Jan. 18.—Judge Harlan announced yesterday that severe penalties will be meted out to all persons guilty of smuggling liquor across the border of Canada, and as a warning he sentenced Joseph Brassard of St. Jean to a year in the New Brunswick penitentiary for having smuggled a quantity of whiskey into the United States.

ST. GEORGE MAN A SUICIDE

Lynn, Mass., Jan. 18.—James McGowan, 38, of St. George, New Brunswick, committed suicide today by cutting his throat. His body was found lying in his room by his daughter, Mrs. Mabel P. Jenkinson with whom he made his home. His throat was slashed from ear to ear with a razor. His health is believed to have been the cause of his act. He left a note saying that he was afraid that he was going to die suffering, so he would do away with himself. Mr. McGowan was born in St. George, where he has always made his home up to the time of his coming to Lynn. He secured a position on his arrival here with the General Electric Company but was unable to hold it but a short time because of his ill health. The body will be removed to St. George for burial.

DIVERGENT VIEWS HELD BY THE POLITICAL LEADERS IN BRITAIN ON THE RUSSIAN QUESTION

London War Office Understood to Influence Public Opinion on Bolshevik Menace in Direction of Churchill's Convictions—Should His Views be Accepted Allies Would Invade Russia for the Purpose of Destroying Bolshevism in Its Home—Lloyd George Says Such a Move Would Be An Act Against Russia and Only Solidify the Russian People.

Paris, Jan. 18.—(By The Associated Press.)—The communication concerning the Bolshevik menace, recently issued by the War Office at London, was, in consequence of a departmental policy, divergent from that of Premier Lloyd George, the Associated Press is informed upon first authority. Winston Spencer Churchill, the British Secretary of War, has himself told Mr. Lloyd George that he did not know about the issuance of the communication, but that he believed the Prime Minister underestimated the danger from the spread of armed Bolshevism.

It has been explained to the Prime Minister that the war office associates of Mr. Churchill, knowing how strongly he felt on the subject of Bolshevism, undertook to influence public opinion in the direction of their chief's convictions. If Mr. Churchill's views were accepted the Allies would invade Russia for the purpose of destroying Bolshevism in its home, while Mr. Lloyd George's view is that that would amount to war against Russia and would only solidify the Russian people.

WAR VETERANS' PARLIAMENT SET FOR MARCH 21ST

Annual Convention of Great War Veterans' Association Will be Held at Montreal—To Settle Question of Political Action.

Ottawa, Ont., Jan. 18.—(By Canadian Press.)—The annual convention of the Great War Veterans' Association is to be in Montreal on March 21, according to an announcement from the Dominion executive of the G. W. V. A. The Dominion Council has been organizing in an effort to secure further consideration of their claims by the Government. The date set for the meeting in March is earlier than usual. A series of Provincial conventions will precede the Montreal gathering, in order to secure a democratic expression of opinion from returned men on the question of more adequate re-establishment and the much-mooted topic of political action.

Special significance is attached to this event by the Veterans, it is stated, because of the present political situation and the dissatisfaction existing in respect to recent parliamentary action. The delegates at the Montreal convention will decide whether or not the G. W. V. A. will enter the political field. As the franchises of the organization throughout Canada now number 761, the assembly, which has been termed "The Returned Men's Parliament," will be of considerable proportions.

POLICE BREAK UP POKER GAME

Moncton Officers Snoop in Nineteen Dollar Jack Pot and Deck of Marked Cards in Raid.

Moncton, N. B., Jan. 18.—About 2 o'clock Sunday morning the city police raided the apartments of a young couple named Barnett, on Main street, and put an abrupt ending to a little poker game in which Barnett and his wife and three young men were engaged. All the party were arrested, but later given their liberty. Incidentally, the officers scooped in a nineteen dollar "jackpot," together with a deck of marked cards. Barnett and his wife are charged with keeping a gambling house, and the young men with being frequenters of the same. The parties will face the Police Magistrate tomorrow.

First German Ship In London Receives Attention

London, Jan. 18.—(Canadian Press Cable.)—The Corusia, the first German ship to enter London since the war started, has arrived from Hamburg and has been the object of much curiosity. She loaded foodstuffs and domestic necessities for Germany. Two other German steamers arrived later.

French Desire Further Information On Raising of Russian Blockade

Paris, Jan. 17.—There has been little comment as yet by the newspapers here on the decision yesterday of the Supreme Council partially to raise the blockade against Russia. This is due partly to the election, and partly to a lack of information as to how the interchange of goods can be carried out without recognizing the Russian Soviet government in some form.

The papers emphasize the fact that the interchange is to be through the Russian co-operative societies and express the belief that it will be by individual effort on the part of Allied countries.

The Echo De Paris treats the subject as a scheme of international financiers who are anxious to make money by trading with Russia, calling them "adepts of the Manchester merchants whose text is 'Peace on earth to whoever buys our goods.'"

NAVAL COMMITTEE HEARING REVEALS SECRETARY DANIELS OF U. S. IN UNHAPPY PLIGHT

"Don't Let the British Pull the Wool Over Your Eyes" His Orders to Admirals—Navy Failed to Co-operate.

Washington, D. C., Jan. 18.—Investigation by a Senate sub-committee of awards naval war decorations took a new angle today when Rear Admiral William S. Sims, the only witness heard so far, laid before the committee a long letter entitled "Certain Naval Lessons of the Great War," written by him to Secretary Daniels, arraigning many aspects of the navy department's conduct of the war.

Lack of full co-operation with the commander of United States naval forces overseas, the post filled by Admiral Sims throughout the war, was the general criticism made, but the letter contained also a statement that just before he left for London, Admiral Sims was told "not to let the British pull the wool over your eyes" and that the United States "would soon fight the British as the Germans."

For some reason which has never been explained," Admiral Sims wrote, "the Navy Department during at least the first six months of the war failed to put into actual practice a whole-hearted policy of co-operation with the Allies—a policy required for winning the war with the least possible delay."

Admiral Sims' letter declared that he was much embarrassed in his relations with other Allied commanders by reason of the fact that, although there was long delay before the letter was received on July 21, 1917, that four coal burning American battleships he sent to guard the English channel against German submarines were long delayed before the request was even acknowledged and finally it was refused. In the following November, the letter said, the Chief of Naval Operations, then in Europe with Colonel House mission and immediately thereafter, called instructions to send the battleships.

"Too great desire to protect the coast of the United States at the risk of losing the war was manifested by the Navy Department," the letter declared. Enticing the German submarines to the coast of the United States was a dramatic way of arousing the indignation of the Allied cause even though American shipping suffered heavily thereby. Admiral Sims said he told the Department, "I am sure every vessel capable of steaming across the ocean be sent to the war zone. Risk of condemnation of such a course based on inaccurate information and fear would have been a negligible factor, the letter declared.

The damage from this fire was probably about $800 and probably $2,000 at the Queen street blaze.

Rev. F. E. Boothroyd, field secretary of the New Brunswick branch Dominion Alliance, who returned on Saturday from Montreal where he had been attending the annual meeting of the Dominion prohibition committee, will campaign in the northern sections of Sunbury and Queens county this week. He will be at Chipman Monday.

"If we can register sentiment," said Rev. Mr. Boothroyd, "prohibition will be carried in New Brunswick when the referendum is held. There has been a pretty general registration of female voters which will help. Of course, there are sections of the province in which prohibition will not do as well as in some others but taking New Brunswick as a whole, there is reason for confidence." Asked concerning the published statement credited to him that the referendum would be held in May, Mr. Boothroyd said that he had made no such statement and did not know when the vote would be taken. Probably a statement of his that it was unlikely that the referendum would be held before May, had been distorted.

Chief Inspector W. D. Wilson arrived here from Montreal where he had been in attendance at the annual meeting of the Dominion prohibition committee. The chief inspector was New Brunswick's representative on the executive. Others present from the province were Donald Fraser of Easterbrook, E. A. McDermid of New Castle, Rev. F. E. Boothroyd, field secretary of the New Brunswick branch Dominion Alliance.

Chief Inspector Wilson also attended the sessions of the Dominion convention of social service council.

MANY CASES OF RHEUMATISM NOW

Says We Must Keep Feet Dry, Avoid Exposure and Eat Less Meat.

Stay off the damp ground, avoid exposure, keep feet dry, eat less meat, drink lots of water and above all take a spoonful of salts occasionally to keep down uric acid.

Rheumatism is caused by poisonous toxin, called uric acid, which is generated in the bowels and absorbed into the blood. It is the function of the kidneys to filter this acid from the blood and cast it out in the urine. The pores of the skin are also a means of freeing the blood of this impurity. In damp and chilly, cold weather the skin pores are closed, thus forcing the kidneys to do double work, they become weak and sluggish and fail to eliminate this uric acid, which keeps accumulating and circulating through the system, eventually settling in the joints and muscles, causing stiffness, soreness and pain called rheumatism.

At the first twinge of rheumatism get from any pharmacy about four ounces of Jad Salts; put a tablespoonful in a glass of water and drink before breakfast each morning for a week. This is said to eliminate uric acid by stimulating the kidneys to normal action, thus ridding the blood of these impurities.

Jad Salts is inexpensive, harmless and is made from the acid of grapes and lemon juice, combined with lithia and is used with excellent results by thousands of folks who are subject to rheumatism. Here you have a pleasant, effervescent lithia-water drink which overcomes uric acid and is beneficial to your kidneys as well.

JUVENILE COURT.

St. John, January 17th, 1920. The Editor The St. John Standard, City.

"Dear Sir,—I am surprised at the action of the St. John Trades and Labor Council have recently taken to oppose the establishment of a Juvenile Court for the City and County of St. John based on statements that have apparently not been investigated or studied, for as far as I have been able to learn no Council in any of the cities of Canada where Juvenile Courts have been in operation for years, is opposed to it."

The Ontario Social Service Council, at its annual meeting last January, included the following among other resolutions: "The Council expresses its satisfaction at the reports which have been made to it of the good effect of the establishment of Juvenile Courts in several places in the Province and would urge upon municipal authorities throughout the Province the importance of establishing such courts which are desired for the reformation and reform of juvenile offenders rather than merely their apprehension and punishment."

In an article on "The Juvenile Court and the Community," Judge D. W. McKercher, of Winnipeg, says: "Judge King Dykeman, of the Seattle Juvenile Court, says: 'The welfare of children is a community responsibility, and the Juvenile Court exists only to safeguard its residue of failures.' Although they may not be able to agree with the Judge's statement that the sole reason for the existence of the Court is to safeguard the community's residue of failures, it must be admitted that such failure makes the Juvenile Court a necessary part of the social organism of every centre of population."

These are the opinions of well-known men who have been working in or studying the operation of Juvenile Courts, which have been in existence for years all over this continent.

The New Brunswick law is patterned after that of Ontario, and while it has been on the statute books that four most English speaking Province for a number of years, the above extract from the Act is not considered "un-British" or "un-Canadian" by the people which would cause anger and dissatisfaction," as was recently stated by His Honor Judge Forbes.

What powers granted to the court may be extended to other courts included in former laws and are no more extensive than of other courts along other lines, and the records of the court are not to be made public, and so it is presumed that these powers will likewise be used fairly and judiciously. It has been found necessary to include these powers so that the court may be able to deal with the brutal, neglectful, criminal parents and their children for their protection.

The probation officer will not be required to attend the court, but juveniles, their parents, and the court will assist them in their work, will look after investigating each case reported, making a full report to the court, and will look after the interests of the child.

It may be necessary as time goes on to add one or two more probation officers. Toronto has, I believe, six.

The services of a doctor to examine and determine the physical and mental health of each child will likely be found necessary in time, because it is not safe to let children with contagious diseases, with other children and feeble minded children should have special attention. It has recently been stated by Dr. C. K. Clark, medical officer, Canadian National committee for mental hygiene, that one-half of our criminals are mental defectives, who if properly treated when young could have been made completely happy and useful to society.

As the nurse has been attached to juvenile courts with splendid results. The expense of this will likely be looked after by interested societies as have been elsewhere.

No extra charge for court room or detention home is contemplated in the near future as there are suitable rooms for these purposes without further charge to the Municipality, in the Children's Aid Society Building. Eventually as the city grows, and the usefulness of the best inmates spread out, it will no doubt be necessary to secure larger quarters, but this cannot be chargeable to the Juvenile Court.

Through its operation there will no doubt be found more children who are now mistreated and neglected, but no thinking man will regret the relieving of the hardships of these boys and girls.

It is now apparent that the Provincial Institute which at East St. John is not all that is needed and it was suggested that a reformatory for some inebriated persons, such as Partridge Island, or a training school be provided for boys with advanced criminal tendencies and who do not stay at the school, also that the school take on still more of a parental nature for boys needing training and who are not of a criminal nature. This is a matter that should soon be dealt with as also the establishment of a home or school for the feeble minded but these are not chargeable to the Juvenile Court, as its opponents try to get the public believe, nor is it a municipal matter alone as these come under the jurisdiction of the Provincial Government.

At the time of writing I do not see where the Municipality will be called upon to expend increasingly enormous amounts for the reform of officials and for institutions in connection with the Juvenile Court as stated by its opponents other than as stated above.

Yours truly,
CHAIRMAN CROOKSHANK
Representative of Organizations desiring a Juvenile Court.

Liberal Leaders Leave Feeling of Disappointment

General Impression That They Had No Practical Message—Liberal Unionists Remain in Their Tents—Lapointe Aroused More Interest Than the Leader.

Hon. W. L. MacKenzie King was the guest of the Board of Trade and Commerce Council on a sight seeing trip around the harbor and Courtenay Bay Saturday morning.

Hon. Mr. King was accompanied by Hon. Mr. Lapointe and there were also present with the party H. P. Robinson, Wm. E. Golding, D. W. Ledingham, W. H. Golding, R. A. McAvity, H. C. Schofield, W. S. Allison, A. P. Patterson and L. B. Dufresne, chief engineer for the St. John Dry Dock and Shipbuilding Company.

The party went aboard the tug Slesbo, of the Furness, Withy & Co., Ltd., at the Eastern Steamship wharf, which took them around Courtenay Bay, then up the western side of the harbor, into the slip where the Empress of France is docked, around the government pier and back to the starting point.

The shipping men in the party pointed out the different steamers in port, telling the nature of the cargo and the destination of the vessels when loaded. Among the countries to which the boats are destined are England, Scotland, Ireland, Norway, Sweden, Belgium, France, Italy, Greece, South Africa, Australia and New Zealand. Mr. King said that the facts brought home to him the realization of the extent of Canadian trade with the Empire of St. John in handling it. He was greatly impressed with the number of steamers lying in the stream awaiting accommodation and remarked that instead of being compelled to be in a position of being a passenger on an additional ship of this kind St. John should have its mouth open to get every bit that was going. In reply to a question that was recently asked by the party, that about two dozen steamers had been diverted from St. John and the money paid to the port would be sufficient to provide for a good start on the long line of steamers that lie in the stream he remarked that it was just as effective a blockade as was put up in the time of war.

Hon. Mr. King left for Montreal with Hon. Mr. Lapointe in the afternoon.

Liberal Leader On Sightseeing Tour

Hon. Mr. King Greatly Impressed Saturday When Taken About the Harbor and Courtenay Bay.

As a result of the visit of the Opposition Leader and his boss to the city Premier Foster has been allowed to take the place in the grand old party's natural abilities and service in the past. Mr. King, however, during the visit, though they have not formally forewarned their inalienable right and happy duty to make from the right Mr. Foster whenever next they meet.

At a meeting of the Provincial leaders on Saturday it was decided to call a Province wide meeting for organizational purposes, probably during the time the Legislature is in session. Mr. King's plea to the Liberal Unionists to come into the fold, confess their sins and be forgiven, did not produce any great commotion; at the meeting to consider matters of organization the Liberal Unionists were conspicuous by their absence.

On the whole the impression left by the Opposition Leader has not been such as to cheer up the drooping spirits of the old line Liberals as they noted Mr. King's speech, and his attitude, boyish-looking and bald, of colorless personality, and inconspicuous manner, is too much of a contrast with the stately presence, magnetic personality and grand manner of the late leader to impress the general public or arouse the enthusiasm of his followers. Mr. King is fluent, and has a dramatic way of arousing the expectation that he is about to say something important and arresting; but the expectation is never realized—the orator rolls in the polished platitudes and highbrow generalities that smell of the midnight oil.

Out of the two hours' flood of Mr. King's oratory it is doubtful if his audience carried away a single concrete idea having a practical application to the problems of the day.

Mr. Lapointe was more effective from the old line Liberal policy of review. His theme and treatment fitted more into the mood of the gathering. While Mr. King was speaking the applause was never demonstrative. He moved his audience out of the tentative and expectant attitude. Mr. Lapointe gripped his audience from the start, and carried it with him. He gave a rousing impression, picking his words, while at the same time he was effervescent with epigrams. He hammered away at Union Government without restraint, exploding epigrams, and applying humorous stories in a way that provoked much amusement; but as he was mainly occupied in demolishing bogies about the Government of his own creation his electioneering efforts did not do much to clarify the political situation.

Probably both leaders have been so excited by contemplation of their own Liberalism that they realize their heads are in the clouds. At any rate neither had anything practical to offer their audience, and the public hereabouts know as little what the Liberal party proposes to do if elected as it did before. The net result of this oratory has been to deepen the impression that the Ottawa convention made a bigger mistake than was at first supposed when it threw the ancient lights out of the window to follow the young sparks, who are now the white hopes of the party.

Puzzled.

"Will you come and make a four at bridge, sir?"

"I'm exceedingly sorry, sir, but I don't play bridge."

"You don't play bridge, sir? What the devil did you join a golf club for?"

Inter-Society Debating Union

First Debate Held Yesterday When Debators Representing K. of C. Won from St. Peter's Y. M. A. — There Was a Large Attendance.

The St. John Inter-Society Debating Union held their first debate yesterday afternoon in the Knights of Columbus Hall, Coburg street. The debate was between St. Peter's Young Men's Society and the Knights of Columbus, and the subject for debate, Resolved: "That Eastern Canada, offers as many opportunities to the Young Men as Western Canada." The Knights of Columbus who supported the affirmative side of the question, were represented by Messrs. Fred Hazel and F. D. McGuire, while St. Peter's were represented in the negative by Messrs. John McDonald and Leo Dever. The judges were Joseph Harrington, W. J. Mahony and W. P. Shea.

The opening was marked by a large attendance and the clever arguments presented by the different debaters were listened to with much attention. At the conclusion of the debate, the judges were informed that a decision, Judge Ritchie addressed the meeting congratulating the speakers in their fine efforts which were, he said, a credit to the Debating Union.

At the conclusion of Mr. Ritchie's address, the decision of the judges was announced: in awarding the palm to the affirmative they suggested a resolution that a life of misery and unhappiness comes through mixed marriages. The losing of the Faith means destruction to the man or woman not being united through the Sacrament of Marriage. The Sacrament of Marriage is a great thing, the reverend father says, because in the Holy Church it defends the weak, advises and helps the sinful and shows the persons that are joined together what a great pillar of strength really is and what many graces and happiness are in store for those who through the great Sacrament give thanks to Almighty God for the life of sanctity it leads to.

The Hacking Cough Strains The Lungs.

The terrible, hacking, lung-wracking cough that sticks to you in spite of everything you have done to get rid of it is a great source of danger to your health, and the longer it is allowed to stick the more serious the menace becomes.

You can easily get rid of the cough or cold at its inception by using Dr. Wood's Norway Pine Syrup, a remedy that has been universally used throughout Canada for the past 30 years.

Mr. Samuel Matthews, Fort Erie, P. E. I., writes: "Last winter I caught a heavy cold, and was laid up for some time. I had such a hacking cough I could not sleep at night, and did not think I could ever get over it. One day a friend dropped in to see me and was surprised to see how bad my cough was. She advised me to use Dr. Wood's Norway Pine Syrup, so the next day I sent for a bottle and soon got relief, and by the time I had taken two bottles, my cough was all gone. I doubt there is anything to equal it."

Dr. Wood's Norway Pine Syrup is put up in a yellow wrapper; 3 Tin Pills, the trade mark; price 25c, and match and eable furs. The happy couple left after the ceremony on their honeymoon to Truro and other Nova Scotia points. The bride was on the teaching staff of the Sunny Brae public schools for five years.

BITRO-PHOSPHATE IS GOOD FOR THIN NERVOUS PEOPLE

A PHYSICIAN'S ADVICE.

Frederick S. Kelle, M. D., Editor of New York Physicians "Who's Who," says that weak, nervous people who wear increased weight, strength and nerve-force, should take a grain tablet of Bitro-Phosphate just before or during each meal.

This particular phosphate is the discovery of a famous French scientist, and reports of remarkable results from its use have recently appeared in many medical journals.

If you do not feel well; if you tire easily; do not sleep well, or are too thin; go to any good druggist and get enough Bitro-Phosphate for a two weeks' supply — it costs only fifty cents a week.

But less; chew your food thoroughly, and if at the end of a few weeks you do not feel stronger and better than you have for months; if your nerves are not steeper; if you do not sleep better and have more vim, endurance and vitality, your money will be returned and the Bitro-Phosphate will cost you nothing.

The Sacrament Of Marriage

Inspiring Sermon Delivered by Rev. Father Meehan in St. John the Baptist Church Yesterday Morning.

In the St. John the Baptist church yesterday morning a very inspiring sermon was delivered on "The Sacrament of Marriage," by Rev. Father Meehan pastor of the church. In beginning his sermon the reverend gentleman told of the many graces that are bestowed on a happy couple and of what a great Sacrament marriage is in the eyes of Almighty God. Father Meehan defined the Sacrament of Marriage as the greatest of the sacraments to that of Holy Orders. He also went on to say how happy the couple should be after being united in marriage. However how many cases are there where the world over where happiness and love does not exist and where this great sacrament is thrown over by the man or wife who have lost all regard for God and the things that are God's. How many cases are there where the man or wife loses all self respect and indulges in the vices of the world, who loses all control of themselves by being led astray by those people of vice and sinfulness who know not what the Sacrament of Marriage is or who has never attempted to throw over their life of vice and immorality brand who claim the weak man or woman of this world as their victims. In the Sacrament of Marriage there is strength itself and it inspires both men and women on to a greater love for God. Even those who have fallen away from the graces and sanctity of Holy Church are once again made pure through the tribunal of Penance, after living a life of misery and vice. How many happy marriages are brought to destruction by the scandal mongers and the gossipers who have nothing else to do but blaspheme their neighbors, create all sorts of trouble between the man and wife who are doing their best to serve Almighty God in the Sacrament of Marriage. The Rev. Father continuing said:

"Beware of those men and women who lead the life of vice and immorality, who are corrupted with all sorts of disease that this life has brought upon them." Father Meehan also impressed on the minds of his congregation that a life of misery and unhappiness comes through mixed marriages. The losing of the Faith means destruction to the man or woman not being united through the Sacrament of Marriage. The Sacrament of Marriage is a great thing, the reverend father says, because in the Holy Church it defends the weak, advises and helps the sinful and shows the persons that are joined together what a great pillar of strength really is and what many graces and happiness are in store for those who through the great Sacrament give thanks to Almighty God for the life of sanctity it leads to.

BORDEN HELD AS GREATEST CANADIAN PRIME MINISTER

War Chief of the Dominion Looms Larger in Retrospect As He Enters Upon a Prolonged Vacation.

(Written especially for the Canadian Section of The New York Sun.)

The announcement just made that Premier Borden, though not resigning (as was at first reported to be his intention), has entered upon a prolonged vacation, brings him once more into special international prominence—a prominence in which profound respect and deep and sincere sympathy are mingled.

The historian will not do justice to history and to Sir Robert Borden if he fails to appraise Sir Robert as Canada's greatest Prime Minister. Lacking the magnetism and picturesque quality of Sir John Macdonald and Sir Wilfrid Laurier, he probably would not have been so successful had he been Prime Minister in their day. In the piping times of peace Canada demanded magnetism and picturesque quality in her leaders, and it is doubtful if Sir Robert would have filled the bill. It is equally doubtful if either of them could have filled the bill in Sir Robert's time. Picturesqueness and personal magnetism or the art of jollifying, would have but a poor figure in the strenuous eight years of Sir Robert's Premiership.

With the single exception of Louis Botha he is the only Prime Minister who lived through and survived the war. He was able to accomplish his task because a sufficient number of his political opponents recognized that in him they had a leader whose every energy was devoted toward winning the war.

From the fateful 14th of August, 1914, until the present day not one sentence has crossed his lips that could be distorted into an expression of political partisanship. He could not display partisanship because he did not have it in him. The magnitude and momentous consequences of the matters at hand were too great to incline him that way.

with their opinions or policies or prophecies.

A Peerless Parliamentary Leader

As a parliamentary leader he was without a peer. Skilful and adroit in debate and in piloting Government measures through a critical House, as he was, he still retained the reputation of being "too much of a gentleman" to make a success as a parliamentarian or party leader. He had a very marvellously retentive memory, which enabled him on many occasions to confound his critics by quoting extracts from their own speeches.

With a reputation for aloofness he was, nevertheless, a charming companion when he had a few spare moments which he could devote to a congenial conversation. He held no animosities, and seldom criticised any person, even a political foe, unkindly. He was exceedingly thoughtful, and even when distraught with business or political cares he would still take time to write personal letters or messages of congratulation or condolence.

It will always appear to me the irony of unkind fate that thrust him into the Prime Ministership of Canada in the most exacting and distressing period of her history. He was not built for the buffeting and turbulence of strife. He was essentially a student, and had a competence which would allow him to devote the rest of his days to the congenial company of books. He could easily have become a recluse, but events forced him into a position, where he had to "ride the whirlwind and direct the storm." He did his work and did it well. He held himself out in his country's service. It did not occur to him, though it sometimes did to others, that he was wearing himself away in the service of a carping and too often ungrateful people.

Among Canada's Immortals

He recognized that the total strength of all the people of Canada were similarly minded would require to be mobilized to accomplish the defeat of the enemy, and he started out to bring about such mobilization. Enormous difficulties had to be overcome. The sometimes silly—and always senseless—fetters of party names and shibboleths in Canada was itself an almost insuperable obstacle; but by dint of sheer pluck and persistence he accomplished his object at a moment when his nearest political friends had abandoned all hope of success. That alone entitles him to a place among Canada's immortals.

With the moxie aggression of Ministers, secured on a fifty-fifty basis from his political friends and opponents, he swept the country in 1915. He held them together, and to-day the Liberals who accepted portfolios with and under him, and Liberal members who support his policies in the House, are unanimous in their appreciation of his work and worth and firmness. He has completed the work at hand and is entitled to honorable discharge, but it will be a great regret to him if the Unionist party, which he brought about, cannot remain united under a leader of its own choice.

Thoroughness is a word I dislike to use, but it is probably the only way in which can be described one of Sir Robert's greatest characteristics. He had an "infinite capacity for taking pains." He was not an orator, for the reason that he was exceedingly careful of the spoken word. He measured and weighed his views before he put them on the market. He was quite as careful and scrupulous with his pen, and consequently none of his critics can say "here and here" and here is an indiscretion." His supporters on the hustings and in Parliament were called upon to explain or apologize for an indiscretion in word or deed on the part of their leader. Few men could see as far into the future, and fewer still fortified themselves so well against the mischance of having future events play ducks and drakes

Children Cry for Fletcher's

CASTORIA

Fletcher's Castoria is strictly a remedy for Infants and Children. Foods are specially prepared for babies. A baby's medicine is even more essential for babies. Remedies primarily prepared for grown-ups are not interchangeable. It was the need of a remedy for the common ailments of Infants and Children, that brought Castoria before the public after years of research, and no claim has been made for it that its use for over 30 years has not proven.

What is CASTORIA?

Castoria is a harmless substitute for Castor Oil, Paregoric, Drops and Soothing Syrup. It is pleasant. It contains neither Opium, Morphine nor other narcotic substance. Its age is its guarantee. For more than thirty years it has been in constant use for the relief of Constipation, Flatulency, Wind Colic and Diarrhoea; allaying Feverishness arising therefrom, and by regulating the Stomach and Bowels, aids the assimilation of Food; giving healthy and natural sleep. REMARKABLE PICTURE OF BOMBING PLANE OVER WASHINGTON

"I AWAIT MY DEATH," SAYS PRIMA DONNA, MARIE BRANDT, WRITING OF CONDITIONS IN VIENNA

The world has been so surfeited with the sorrows and horrors of war that the pitiful tragedies of peace fail to stimulate its jaded nerves.

Ships sunk with hundreds of lives, thousands maimed and killed in the grand total of four years—what is there left with power to startle or appal? Who will be aroused by tales of starvation and freezing in Europe?

The public reads such stories with a "too bad" or "I wonder if it is really true" and passes on to their heads. It is so humiliating to become such a beggar as we are now, when formerly Austria was such a happy, rich country.

"I await my death quietly. I am old enough and had a nice life for which thank God every day."

Such resignation is not uncommon among gentle folks in Vienna at this time. The writer has just returned from a residence of many months in the city. He knows that conditions are accurately described in the letter and he knows of one splendidly brave lady who expressed herself in almost the same terms as Mariane Brandt.

Her daughter had served as a nurse in the war, and on account of hard work and insufficient food had become completely broken down. She could take no nourishment when removed to the hospital. Finally a way was found to send her to Switzerland, where she could have plenty of food and rest. But her digestive organs had been too long and too much abused. She could not assimilate anything and came home to die.

The mother's waiting is no better off. She too is waiting death by slow starvation. She said recently to a friend: "I am not afraid to die, but oh, it takes so long, so long."

Where Suffering is Great.

It is the middle class, the educated class, which suffers most. Professors, men, teachers, doctors, public officials and salaried men generally had not had their incomes increased at all proportionately to the decreased value of the crown, which is now less than a cent. Many of the lesser nobility who had their incomes reduced or cut off entirely suffer in the same degree. Their monthly incomes are being received from the government in instances, of a family of five subsisting on less than $7 a month! And prices for them are even higher than our prices.

Sitting with official of one of the State Departments in a coffee house one day, the milk question was mentioned.

"Milk," said he. "What is that? I give you my word that not only have I not had any milk in six months, but I have not even seen it in that time. A merchant who was not hampered by his wife's whims, went to a hotel. They said they had no milk, but they had ordered dinner at home and they felt that they must rest. It was a small piece to be sure, not any larger than the palm of the hand, but it was the first they had been able to obtain in three weeks and it was too much of an occasion to ignore."

And No Fuel Either.

But even if there were plenty of food there is no fuel to cook it. The coal ration in November was about 15 pounds a week per family, not more than half a scuttles full. The gas allowance was one metre a day, with the prospect that there would soon be no coal to make gas.

What is called the "Iron reserve" of wood had been served out early in November in 11 districts of the city. People were already beginning to attack coal and wood wagons in the street and tear down wooden fences. A little seamstress the writer knew of had a sick mother, had burned the kitchen furniture to do a little cooking for her. Thousands had doubtless done as she did.

The damp and chill of the grave is in all habitations. It is estimated that there are 500,000 homeless in Vienna and that one-third of them are without any heat at all, or fuel for cooking. These and others who must make do with what fuel they have got their meals, many of them in what are called "middle class kitchens."

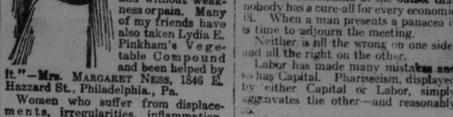

In these a meal is served at three and one-half crowns. The management succeeds in getting enough food to give a moderate meal to between 200,000 and 400,000 persons. No one

"I SUFFERED SEVEN YEARS" CHURCH HAS A CHANCE TO ACT AS MEDIATOR

Was Eventually Cured by Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound.

Philadelphia, Pa.—"I suffered for seven long years with a lame back, irregularities and pain. I had one physician after another but they did me no good. I read about Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound and gave it a trial and in a short time I felt benefited and am now feeling fine, and without weakness or pain. Many of my friends have also taken Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound and been helped by it." Mrs. MARGARET NESS, 1846 E. Hazzard St., Philadelphia, Pa.

Women who suffer from displacements, irregularities, inflammation, backaches, headache, nervousness or "the blues," should not rest until they have given this famous restorative remedy, Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound, a trial. If complications exist, write Lydia E. Pinkham Medicine Co., Lynn, Mass., for special suggestions. The result of its long experience is at your service.

After the last word has been said about the labor question, it all comes back to this—the most important thing is to give the other man a square deal. Capital and Labor will move each other well enough to give each other a square deal. They have been fighting each other long enough to get very close together unless an intermediary brings them together.

There are some who declare with passionate utterance that Labor has no right in common with Capital—that Labor will go its own way until it has mortgaged Capital and Labor, simply together.

The history of women in industry is the story of a great industrial readjustment. Not only was women's work cut from the home to the factory but the kind of work which they did was greatly changed, and at the same time their monopoly of traditional occupations was destroyed.

Under the old domestic system the work of the women was to spin, to do a large part of the weaving, to knit, and in general to make most of the clothing worn by the family; to cook, to do the cleaning and to perform other duties of the household.

But machines came in to aid in all these industries—machines which in some cases brought in their train new operatives.

One kind of spinning is now done by men only. Men make the threads which women's suit-makers make their dresses and even milliners are common. Men make our bread and do much of the work of the kitchen of the home. Men, too, have learned to clean our houses by the vacuum process, so that it is not altogether fair to insist that women have been crowding men out of industrial life.

On the other hand, women have taken the places of men in the mines. The war has greatly accelerated this movement, because women were compelled to take men's jobs, and they are now very slow to leave them. Furthermore, the killing of maiming of approximately ten million men during the World War has had the effect of creating a new demand for women workers.

This situation will affect not only industrial life but domestic life—indeed, there is no phase of Canadian life, economic, political, social or religious, that will not be influenced by this new condition of things.

There are about 100,000 "migratory" workers in Canada—men who work in labor camps, and whose labor is in the harvest fields and whose labor is of a temporary character.

Society is so organized that it requires an army of men and women who have no permanent homes, but who go from place to place as industry calls them. Naturally, such a condition is abnormal and has its own peculiar temptations.

Work is abundant for the migratory workers during the industrial year, but in the winter comparatively few have anything to do excepting when times are unusually good and when practically everybody who wants a job can find one.

Ordinarily the community is afraid of the "migrant" because he is like a hobo, and he has a reputation for being radical. Indeed this reputation has apparently been justified, particularly on the Pacific Coast, because of the W. W.'s have used their utmost endeavors to win him to their philosophy. As a matter of fact, however, it would be important intelligently to direct this group of workers, but the fact is, for the most part, that these men are big hearted, warm hearted and genuinely human and what they need most of all is sincere friendship without paternalism.

They look with suspicion upon most of the agencies with which they have been dealing. They need to be made to feel that at least the Church stands for them and is ready to help them, but their interest on the part of the Church must be intelligently provided for, and that so far as possible their loneliness may be strengthened.

Whatever the coming social system may be there must still be justice and brotherhood in the world—and it is the business of the Church to see to it that these prevail among men.

It is the business of the Church to preach the great fundamental principles of Jesus, which are eternal, and then to permit every man to apply them for himself in his daily life.

This does not mean that the Church should have no message regarding the social evils of the day. The social evils of the day are a moral question, the Church must frankly and openly stand for the right and against the wrong consequences to itself may be. And most labor issues have a moral and ethical bearing.

The world is turning to the Church for guidance in the present industrial conflict. Everything else has failed as a solvent—science, law, culture, politics, finance, sociology. Christianity has not failed—it has never been tried!

Let us give it a chance. Let us give it free rein. And let us back the Church to the limit as the logical mediator between quarrelling factions in the industrial field.

How I Cured My Rheumatism

BY PETER SAVALLA

I threw away my crutches in seven days, in two months, I was a well man—and I have never had a twinge from rheumatism since. This is what the remedy, which I obtained from my uncle in Greece, did for me. I went home to Greece, did not get broken in spirit—sick, I returned to this country in two months, absolutely free of every trace of rheumatism.

The whole story of my life in America—how I became crippled with rheumatism and how I found the treatment which cured the disease and drove it out of my body home. I will gladly tell you FREE.

It makes no difference how swollen or distorted your joints may be; how severe the pain or how disconcerting you are; I feel sure that I have the means of helping you to find relief in a few days and a lasting cure in just a few weeks.

Send no money. Just write me personally. Say—"Tell me how you cured your rheumatism, and how I may cure mine." Address your letter or note card to Peter Savalla, 59 St. Peter St., Montreal, Can.

MR. KING'S ATTITUDE.

"Attitude is all important," says Hon. W. L. Mackenzie King in reply to the charge that he has no definite programme to put before the country. Practical policies and concrete measures are all very well; but attitude is all important. The Liberal party has the correct attitude, and that is all the public have any need to know.

Mr. King is not the first politician who has struck an attitude for the edification or admiration of the people. But he is probably the first to arrive at the conclusion that a political party's aspirations and purposes find their fullest expression in an attitude. Mother Grandy has always been noted for her correct attitude, but nobody has ever accused her of doing anything for progress.

Webster gives the following definition of attitude:

(1) The posture or position of a person, or the manner in which the parts of his body are disposed, particularly in relation to some purpose or emotion; as, a threatening attitude; an attitude of entreaty.

(2) Figuratively, position resulting from feeling, mood, or condition; as, a nation's attitude; one's mental attitude.

To strike an attitude; to pose for effect.

Synonyms: situation, standing, position, posture, pose.

When Mr. King says the all important thing for a political party is attitude, without defining the object or objects of the attitude, he leaves his meaning as obscure as the utterance of a Greek oracle. Apparently Mr. King is trying to found a new school of politics which will confound the metaphysicians. He would have us believe that the attitude of his party is far more important than the principles, policy or purpose to which the attitude is taken. If his peculiar statement has any meaning at all, it means that Mr. King's attitude to a thing determines the thing itself; that in his philosophy the relative embraces the absolute.

Apparently Mr. King is a disciple of Berkeley and Spinoza, and believes that his great attitude of mind determines the existence of things in this world. On the other hand he may be a super-man, whose attitude by some mysterious alchemy determines his purposes, policies, or emotions. In that case his superior attitude of mind is no doubt above the need of defining the principles or policies to which he has taken an attitude. It is possible, too, that under his super-guidance the whole Liberal party has been led up the Olympian heights so far above the plane of practical politics that its attitude springs, like Minerva from the head of Jove, full bodied, and fully armed with a splendor of wisdom that makes explanation of any kind superfluous. And in that case it is probably the misfortune of the rest of us that we labor under the disadvantage of not knowing what our attitude is to a principle or policy of which we have no knowledge. Unlike Mr. King we cannot understand a friendly attitude without having formed a conception of a friend; we cannot grasp the relation of things without some knowledge of the things related.

If Mr. King's idea that attitude is all important to his party is to be taken seriously, it follows logically enough that he has no notion of leading his party anywhere. According to Webster attitude is a static condition; it is a position, standing, position, posture, pose. It is not progress, it is not movement. Mr. King has struck an attitude. He declares the Liberal party stands for stability in government; that is for a government without purpose or object, except it may be the perpetuation of existing conditions—a negative policy unlikely to make any strong appeal to the masses of the people who believe in the possibility of a better life. Mr. King also stands for national unity, but for what purpose or object, except the election of himself to power? People do not unite for nothing. The men who formed Union Government had reason to talk of national unity; they had an object in trying to unite the people—a purpose whose importance overshadowed the interests or objects of any section of the people. Apparently national unity with Mr. King is merely an attitude, not a purpose broader than his personal and party ambitions; possibly not understanding their meaning; perhaps he has a vague idea of establishing national unity, but some sort of national uniformity—the unity and stability of stagnation. If he has more than a personal and party purpose, it will need a united effort on the part of the people to find out what it is.

MR. VENIOT IN TROUBLE.

While Hon. Mr. Veniot, according to his own account, is as busy as a bee in clover giving the people of the Province such fine highways that the farmers' movement has obtained a start, he is in the unfortunate position of being unable to secure a decent railway service from the Caraquez Railway in his own constituency. His efforts to deal with the situation having come to naught, the County Council of Gloucester has taken up the matter and will start an agitation to induce the Dominion Government to take over the railway, or the Provincial Government to take action to make the company live up to the terms of its charter. Mr. Veniot put through an act at the last session of the Legislature which he claimed would enable him to compel the company to give a reasonable service. Last week he gave the Gloucester County Council an account of his efforts to deal with the situation; he made a thorough examination of the railway, and wrote to Superintendent Burton, saying he had found some improvement but did not consider further improvement 45 miles in six hours a satisfactory service, though the condition of the roadbed might not warrant higher speed. He told the superintendent that unless more energetic measures were taken to improve the road he would be compelled to take action under the Act of the Legislature. The Superintendent did not reply to this letter, but some time later Mr. Veniot learned that the Caraquez Railway had petitioned the Federal Government to veto the Provincial Act, claiming, among other things, that it was ultra vires, as it gave the Provincial Government consociatory powers. No action has been taken on this petition, which Mr. Veniot claims tied his hands.

On December 10th Mr. Veniot wired Ottawa asking the Government to acquire the railway, as the conditions on the road pointed to a stoppage of the service, which would isolate 25,000 people, and cause great business loss as well as suffering. The Minister of Railways replied that the Caraquez Company had refused the offer of the Government, and that the Provincial Government, and that it was ultra vires, as it gave the Provincial Government consociatory powers. No action has been taken on this petition, which Mr. Veniot claims tied his hands.

return, but they will have to come back in sackcloth and ashes and do penance for a time. Being high-spirited men who left their party for principle they will hardly accept Mr. King's leadership on such conditions. Mr. King has some knowledge of the art of conciliation; at any rate Premier Foster was allowed to officiate as chairman of his meeting without his right to the seat being challenged, as it was at the Liberal meeting in the Seaman's Institute. But it does not appear that his presence at the organization meetings on Saturday was the signal for many Liberal Unionists in this city to attend and find out where they fitted.

WHAT THEY SAY

The One Sure Way.

(Philadelphia Inquirer.)
All one has to do now to make a bottle that is non-refillable is to pull the cork of a full one.

Finger Wagging.

(London Daily Mail.)
There has been enough solemn finger-wagging at the Germans, who have come to believe that it is safe to defy the Allies. As the result we have stand. The wise and merciful course is to tell them plainly that if within a fixed time limit they do not comply with the Allies' conditions and fail the Treaty terms the blockade will be renewed.

A Simple Task.

(St. Louis Globe Democrat.)
There is only one practical thing to be done in this very great and very grave crisis, and that is for the Senate to exercise its constitutional powers and duty and confirm the Treaty with such reservations as can be agreed upon by two-thirds of that body. That can be very quickly done. What America wants and supremely needs is ratification; what the world wants and supremely needs is American participation, in the application of the covenant. Only by getting together can this be accomplished.

Unsportsmanlike.

(Halbourn Argus.)
Quarrelling with the umpire is always regarded as most unsportsmanlike and contemptible, and when the quarrel is pushed so far that every one in the community is involved in hardships and loss, those who "klick up the dust" for a small personal gain cannot expect to be held in very high regard. If there has been one thing to bring discredit on the militant section of unionism, it is its utter carelessness about public rights and the recklessness with which it will enter upon strikes of wage-earners.

Clever Miss.

"Mr. Graboom spent thousands of dollars on his daughter's education. She attended some of the most expensive schools in America and Europe. She was taught to sing, to paint, to play various instruments, and to speak three or four languages."
"Fine."
"But let me tell you how shamelessly she repaid her father's tender care. She came back home and married his chauffeur!"

Had No Limousine.

"Pa, how much money did Croesus have?"
"Oh, I don't know. About enough to live in what is at present middle-class style, I guess."

Diamonds in 1920

Our advice to those who are intending to buy diamonds is to make the purchase at once. All indications are that the great demand of the past few years will continue in 1920 and the limited supply of gems not be materially increased.

We are advised by those in closest touch with the situation that diamond prices will be much higher a year from now, and that the first of a series of price advances may be looked for within the next few weeks.

You are cordially invited to inspect our stock.

Caraquet And Gulf Shore Railways

Municipal Council of County of Gloucester Ask Federal Authorities to Acquire Control of Road and Make it Part of C. N. R.

Whereas the County of Gloucester is justly famed for the vastness and variety of its natural resources, and Whereas the said natural resources remain undeveloped solely by reason of the inadequate transportation facilities afforded to a large portion of the county, and Whereas the Caraquet and Gulf Shore Railways were built for the purpose of providing such transportation facilities, and Whereas the said Caraquet and Gulf Shore Railway has not only failed to provide such adequate facilities, but has for a number of years past steadily declined in efficiency until at the present time it cannot either provide proper transportation facilities for the business of the County or safe means of travel for its people, and Whereas the said condition of affairs is having the effect of discouraging the young men of the County so that they are looking to other fields in which the future holds out more promise of advancement, and Whereas it appears that nothing can be expected from the present owners of the said railway in the way of betterment of the service, as past experience has afforded ample proof of their intentions and capacities, and Whereas at the last session of the legislature of the Province of New Brunswick, an Act was passed providing means to compel all Provincial railways to provide reasonable and sufficient service to the territories traversed by them, and Whereas the present owners of the said Caraquet and Gulf Shore Railways have petitioned the Federal authorities to veto the said Act, under claims which cannot be substantiated:—

Be it therefore resolved by the Municipal Council of the County of Gloucester, in annual session assembled, that the Federal authorities be respectfully prayed to take immediate steps to acquire control of the said railway and make it a part of the National Railway System; or allow the Act of the Legislature before referred to, to come into immediate effect.

And further resolved, that copies of this resolution be forwarded to Sir Robert Borden, Prime Minister of Canada; to Hon. C. J. Doherty, Minister of Justice; to Hon. J. D. Ross, Minister of Railways; to Hon. W. E. Foster, Premier of New Brunswick; to O. Turgeon, Esq., M. P.; to Hon. J. P. Byrne, and to Hon. P. J. Veniot; and to the town and city councils of all towns and cities in the province; to all Boards of Trade in the Province; to the Manufacturers' Association; to the Retail Merchants' Association; to the Wholesale Association; and to the Maritime Travelers' Association.

She Had Suffered For Twenty Years

Mrs. Doyle Eats Anything, Sleeps Sound and Is In Better Health Than in Years.

"I certainly have cause for being grateful to Tanlac since it has overcome a case of stomach trouble that had bothered me for twenty years," said Mrs. Annie Doyle who lives at 240 Paradise Row, St. John, New Brunswick.

"For the past twenty years I have hardly known what it was to eat a good meal without being troubled afterwards," continued Mrs. Doyle. "I would bloat up with gas until my heart palpitated something awful. What I ate soured on my stomach and caused me to have a heavy, distressing feeling all the time. I got several dizzy sometimes and often I had fearful headaches. I was so nervous that the least noise out of the ordinary startled me. My blood was in bad condition and I had a continual pain in my side. I was so weak that I could not do my housework and I got so little pleasure in life that I had lost nearly all interest in everything. "After I read in the paper how a minister had received great benefits by taking Tanlac I made up my mind to try it myself. I began to feel better after the very first few doses and I continued to improve until now all my twenty years' troubles have all disappeared. I can eat anything I want and digest it without the least trouble. As gas has quit forming I am no longer bothered with palpitation or with dizzy spells. That pain in my side has left me and the headaches are a thing of the past. My blood is in fine condition and I am sleeping better than I did. My nerves are steady as can be. In fact, I am never troubled in any way and I have gone back to doing my housework. I have every confidence in Tanlac for it has put me in better health than I have enjoyed in years."

Tanlac is sold in St. John by Ross Drug Co. and F. W. Munro under the personal direction of a special Tanlac representative.—Adv.

OBITUARY

Millard Caird Noble.

The many friends of Millard Caird Noble will learn with the deepest regret of his death which occurred yesterday in the Lancaster Military Hospital after a short illness. His death was a surprise and shock to his parents, Mr. and Mrs. William Noble, of 82 Stanley street, as well as a host of friends.

The funeral will be held tomorrow from his residence. There will be a private service at the home at 2:30, and another service at the Knox church at three o'clock. Members of the Masonic lodges and the Great War Veterans' Association will attend in a body.

The deceased was an extremely popular young man and a well-oversaw the first Field Ambulance Corps under Major Duval saw considerable hard service on the front lines and was invalided home through illness in 1916, and his death is said to have been the result of his work overseas. A brother also died while in the service and the bereaved parents have the sincere sympathy of many friends.

At the time of enlisting to fight for King and country Millard C. Noble was employed with the C. P. R. in the passenger department, but since his return home has been chief manifest clerk with the customs. It was only about three weeks ago that his illness caused his removal to the Military Hospital and his condition was not thought serious. He was beloved by a large circle of friends and was popular with all who had the pleasure of his acquaintance.

Mrs. Sarah Parry.

Gagetown, N. B., Jan. 18.—The death took place in St. John early Saturday morning, from heart failure, of Mrs. Sarah Parry, for many years a resident of this vicinity. Mrs. Parry was born in Wales, and she and her husband, who has been dead many years, came to this country as young people. Had she lived until this week she would have been seventy-nine. She is survived by two sons, William Parry, a veteran of the South African and the Great War, and Thomas Parry, both of Gagetown; and two daughters, Misses Sarah and Kate Parry, of St. John, with whom Mrs. Parry had spent the past half-year.

The funeral took place on Tuesday afternoon, on the arrival from the train from St. John. The service was conducted by Rev. H. T. Buckland, rector of St. John's Church, of which Mrs. Parry had been a devoted member, and interment was made in St. John's churchyard, in the presence of a number of relatives and friends. The pall-bearers were George DeVeber, Archie McAllister, C. A. McKague and James McAllister.

WAS SOME HORSE.

There is a story going about, telling of the adventures of a man who purchased a horse recently. Now everybody likes a horse that can travel, but in this case the man feels that he got more than he bargained for. He started out gaily, and the horse went faster and faster. The driver endeavoured to check the animal, but, like the man with the cork leg, "We got agoin' and couldn't stop," apparently. Finally, after running for a long distance on the road to Moncton, the driver at length succeeded in turning the racer homewards. When they reached St. John, as in John Gilpin's famous race, they passed their goal, as they went straight through the city, and only at Millidgeville was the end of the course reached. It is understood that the owner has a part of the sleigh and some robes, but whether he still desires to drive with that horse again is questioned.

A RECORD NUMBER.

A record number of persons were registered Saturday evening for the Vocational School, the number reaching seven hundred and seventy-one.

FRENCH SERVICE
The trade name of Fracanda Line has been adopted by the Compagnie Canadienne Transatlantique, Limited, since the official name proved rather too big a mouthful for practical purposes. The name, it will be seen, is a combination of France and Canada, the two countries which are linked up by the service. The Compagnie Canadienne Transatlantique, Limited, is managed in Canada by the Canada Steamship Lines, and in France by La Compagnie Generale Transatlantique, which latter company also found it necessary to adopt the name of French Line for English-speaking countries.

FORWARD MOVEMENT.
A feature of the Forward Movement is the part being taken by laymen, and last evening at St. Mary's Church the pulpit was occupied by Horace Porter, who gave an address upon this great movement of the churches. Mr. Porter spoke in an earnest manner and made a good impression on his hearers. During the offertory a duet was rendered by Miss Marjorie Lane and Miss Eva Mitchell.

St. Patrick's Team Won From Quebec

Toronto, Ont., Jan. 18.—Notwithstanding the fact that St. Patrick's are practically out of the running for the first half championship in the league race, one of the largest crowds of the season turned out here on Saturday night to see the Irish hand Quebec an 8 to 3 defeat. Matto and Progers lined up with the locals and both made good. Matto, the former Tiger star, was every bit as effective as he was in the O. H. A. and he made himself solid with the fans by fearless efforts. Canadians and Ottawa are having a close battle for first half honors but the acquisition of Matto and Progers means that St. Patrick's will likely be the teams to beat for the title in the second half.

PRINCESS MARY BOX REACHES ST. JOHN

Duplicate of the Christmas Box Presented to All British Soldiers Received by Natural History Society.

A duplicate of the Christmas box which Her Royal Highness the Princess Mary presented to all the men of the British army has been recently presented to the Natural History Society through the medium of the Under-Secretary of State and the Private Secretary of the Post Governor. The box is neatly made of brass and contains the Christmas and New Year's cards which the Princess sent to the troops in 1918 and 1919. An embossed bust of the Princess is on the cover of the box, as well as the names of the Allies—France, Russia, Belgium, Japan, Montenegro and Serbia.

The box will be highly treasured as one of the souvenirs of the Great War, and a noteworthy example of the work of the women of the British Empire, from the highest to the lowest, who kept green in their memory by such kind deeds the men who were fighting for home and loved ones on the bloody fields of war.

An excellent photograph of Princess Mary, and a chart showing the number of men who received her Christmas box, accompanied this interesting souvenir.

MONCTON TALKS TELEPHONE RATES

Board of Trade Discusses Application of N. B. Telephone Co. Asking for An Increase — Want to be Shown.

Moncton, Jan. 16.—At a meeting of the Moncton Board of Trade this evening for the purpose of considering the application of the New Brunswick Telephone Company for an increase of rates, no definite action was taken for or against the proposed. The general feeling, however, was that the company was entitled to a reasonable increase, but more information is desired as to what is meant by "measured rates." If "measured rates" means that places within a radius of a few miles are to be classed long distance, the board was unanimous in the opinion that this phase of the application should be opposed.

The Voice of England

Never so high the voice of England rose As in her glory. Nor spoke so clear and far, as when her breath Came mid the throes of worlds in smoke and flame. And in the storm of war and chill of death Was never still, but kept on living warm. Then, while at grips with fate and desperate, Ever so true and well tuned she her lips. That, like some holy bell, they seemed to flight The eleven-footed Majesty of Might. With grim proctors of the Powers of Hell Arrayed against the Right.

Her foot was as the root of her own oak. And turned not back. Nor when the tempest broke, bowed she her head. Or let her courage slack. Her only dread Was fear of shame cast on her ancient name. And to the last she kept her honor pure. As in the stately days of Agincourt.

Yet though the voices of her myriad dead To us seem dumb, though their beloved feet, Which were so firm once more to meet and tread. Upon the English shore, come not again. Their glory still survives, a living voice. Strong, proud, supreme, music of gallant lives Unhushed by fear, and bidding us resolve. With Death, that he has found so high a theme.

To score to triumph-song that shall ring for evermore in England's ear. —Fred G. Penney, in United Empire

MANY ENJOY SKATING
 Many persons taking advantage of the cold snap over Saturday evening visited Lily Lake yesterday and enjoyed themselves immensely in skating over the pond. The lake has attracted large crowds this season and lovers of this sport are fortunate in having such a magnificent rink free, on which to enjoy themselves.

PANTRY SALE.
 A successful sale of home cooking and canned articles was held at the Lyric Theatre on Saturday morning. The proceeds are for the funds of the Women's Institute, under whose auspices it was held. The committee in charge consisted of Mesdames T. N. Vincent, Fred McLean, J. H. Doody, A. J. Malsby, John Black and Frank Howse. Mrs. J. V. Lawlor, the president, was also present.

LECTURE POSTPONED
 The lecture which was scheduled for last evening in St. Vincent's Auditorium, Cliff street, was postponed and will be delivered next Sunday night. The speaker will be Hugh F. Hamilton of Montreal, N. B. who will deliver a most interesting discourse on "Father Damien's Mission to the Lepers of Hawaii." This subject will be just as interesting to the audience as it was to those who have read the book and the sacrifice he made amongst the lepers of the South Seas.

PROCEEDS FOR W. A.
 The Women's Auxiliary of St. James the Less Church, Renfrew, held a pantry sale, Saturday, at the Imperial Lobby.  On Saturday evening a largely attended concert was given at the Seaman's Institute, arranged by the Y. W. P. A. with Miss Amber Teed and Miss Laura Thompson as concerters. The programme was voted one of the best this season, and was greatly appreciated by the seamen present. The numbers were as follows: Reading, Norman Magnusson; violin solo, Harrison Morgan, accompanied by Miss Helen Morgan; recital from Shakespeare's King John, Mr. and Master Norman Magnusson; song, Mrs. L. Leitch; reading, Mrs. G. K. Shells; song, Miss Gladys Dykeman; accompanist, Miss Beattie Irvine.

SHOULD BE RECOGNIZED.
 Some five or six months ago Douglas Thompson, a returned soldier, jumped over the wharf near the Sugar Refinery and saved from drowning a boy who had fallen over. It was an act of bravery which was witnessed by a number of citizens. Friends of the brave young man thought that there should be some recognition and placed the matter before Mayor Hayes, who, it is said, promised to do all he could. Last night friends of Mr. Thompson called The Standard's attention to the fact that Thompson had not heard anything further, and while not looking for a medal his friends believe it is time something had transpired.

CITY COUNCIL AND BOARD OF TRADE DELEGATES RETURN FROM OTTAWA

Went With R. W. Wigmore, M. P. to Press the Port and Railway Needs of St. John on Members of the Government—Met Ministers of Railways, Public Works and Marine and Are Most Encouraged Over Result of Interviews.

The delegates from the City Council and Board of Trade, who went to Ottawa on Wednesday last with R. W. Wigmore, M. P., to press the port and railway needs of St. John upon members of the Government and upon President Hanna, of the Canadian National Railways Board, returned to St. John by Saturday afternoon's train. They stated to a reporter that upon arrival at Ottawa they met Dr. Barnhill, of the C. N. R. Board (who had just returned from Toronto), who gave them much encouraging information upon the railway situation with respect to St. John and the lower provinces generally.

Immediately afterwards, the delegates met Hon. Dr. Reid, Minister of Railways and Acting Minister of Public Works, and also several members of the Cabinet, at the former's office, when conferences were arranged by Mr. Wigmore with Hon. C. C. Ballantyne, Minister of Marine, Hon. Dr. Reid, and President Hanna, of the C. N. R. Board.

The conference with Hon. C. C. Ballantyne took place at 3.30 Thursday afternoon, when the port situation was thoroughly and frankly discussed, both with relation to harbor commission and such necessary works as the extension of the Negro Point breakwater, the further equipment of the Government berths and the establishment of direction-finding wireless stations in the Bay of Fundy for the help and protection of ships entering the port. Among the subjects brought before the Minister, in connection with the harbor commission plan, was that of the status of the ferry. Impressed with the arguments presented, the Minister assured the delegation that he would take the subject up with the Cabinet Council on Tuesday and would arrange for the passing of an order that would fully protect the ferry interests of the harbor. He declared himself strongly in favor of Negro Point breakwater extension and stated that he would give his support to the Minister of Public Works should it come before Parliament. He emphasized the fact, however, that the Government was faced with a serious financial situation in the matter of carrying out new public works, due to the many demands arising out of the war which the Government had to provide for. He expressed his appreciation of the importance of St. John as a national port and hoped that it would be possible at the coming session to take action that would enhance its value to Canada as a national asset. It was after 6 o'clock before the interview with the Minister of Marine came to a close.

The interview with Hon. Dr. Reid and President Hanna took place in the Chateau Laurier at 8.30 o'clock Thursday night and lasted over an hour and a half. Mr. McLeod, engineer of the C. N. R., was present. Both the harbor and railway situations were discussed and the delegates were assured that the Government was most anxious to see St. John developed as a national port.

THE SOUTH END SKATING RINK
 South End Improvement League Making Great Improvements to Their Free Skating Resort.

The South End Skating Rink which has been the attraction for many in the southern district and other parts of the city is rapidly rounding into shape and before the season has drawn to a close the South End Improvement League will have a large and beautiful open air rink to show for their efforts. It is the intention of the executive of the League to procure, if possible, the services of one of the leading musical organizations of the city to render selections for the skaters at least twice a week. Preparations are being made for the erection of a band stand which will probably be finished in a few days' time. At the present time the progress of the league has been so successful that two separate waiting rooms have been erected to accommodate the patrons of the rink.

Lawson, originally set for the 23rd instant, will be delivered at a later date. The lecture for the 30th instant will take place as scheduled.

Large Audience At Centenary Church

Evangelist James Dixon Preached Forceful Sermon After Regular Service Last Evening—Special Music Also Greatly Enjoyed.

Centenary Church was well filled last evening with a large congregation who listened with deep attention to a striking and forceful sermon preached by Evangelist James Dixon. The text was taken from Matt 27-4, 5: "I have sinned in that I have betrayed the innocent blood. And they said what is that to us? See thou to that." And he cast down the pieces of silver in the temple and went and hanged himself.

Speaking of the tragic ending of a life of promise, Rev. Mr. Dixon said that the story of Judas ought to be a lesson to all to guard against his dreadful fall. Judas was highly privileged. He was one of those whom we consider fortunate in that he lived in the time of Christ and was able to see Him and hear Him speak. More than that, he was one of the chosen twelve, entering into the inner circle of Christ's fellowship. Judas was a man to whom there was no good for, if not, he would not have followed Jesus.

His worth was also acknowledged by his fellow men for he was appointed by them to be the treasurer of the little band.

The fall of Judas is a tragic piece of history—from the companionship of Jesus he "went out into the night." His sin did not begin there, he did not all at once turn his back on Christ. It was the love of money, the inordinate desire for wealth which was called the "root of all evil," that made Judas generous and fault-finding so that he criticised the action of the women who broke the precious box of ointment over the feet of the Saviour. Judas was leading a double life for he was at the Last Supper when he had already made arrangements for the great betrayal. When he sold his Master he sold himself, his faith, his happiness. Sin never gives all the happiness that it promises while it prevents us from enjoying peace with God through Jesus Christ.

Illustrating what faith means, the preacher told how the memory of his mother who died when he was a young lad had restrained him from evil habits and that it was his faith in her as living in another world which had kept him from a life of sin. When wounded and given up for dead on the battlefield his faith had enabled him to stand firm to face with our own hearts in singing the hymn: "My Jesus I Love Thee."

Lessons were drawn from the fact that Judas got from his bargain thirty pieces of silver, cold cash, but that the silver became fire to him, burning his soul. He got loneliness which will come into every life for all will have to stand alone to face with our own hearts on our own.

The words of the preacher in closing contained the prayer that all might know the joy of fellowship with Jesus and His power to save from sin and lead those who love Him into His everlasting Kingdom.

The service was conducted by Rev. George Morris, Rev. G. A. Dawson made the invocation, candy table was in charge of Frances Tilton and Elinor Matthews, and a home cooking table was in charge of Frances Gale and Jean Matthews. Over one hundred dollars was realized for the funds of the Corps of Guides. Trinity has the first troop to be formed in the city, and its twenty-six members are enthusiastically taking up the work.

NEW DATE FOR GOGORZA CONCERT.
 The Signor DeGogorza concert postponed from last Thursday on account of the artist's indisposition with laryngitis will be given in Imperial Theatre the week of April 19th, exact day to be decided later. As an alternative date Signor Gogorza's manager suggested February 16th or 17th, as the only remaining open spots, but these are reserved by the Imperial for the Loyalist Chapter, I. O. O. F. Revue, and cannot be changed as Lent comes in the 18th. Throughout the Lenten season the Spanish artist is specially engaged and has some important work with other stars in the Victor studios. Therefore his Easterlike appearance here will doubtless add to the gaieties of the season. Ticket holders desiring to return their seats in the meantime may receive their admission money back by applying at the Imperial box office today and Tuesday during the theatre hours. Otherwise their tickets will be duly honored on the new date.
