PREMIER SILENT ON IMPERIAL MEETING

Changes Made in Soldiers' Insurance and Pensions Regulations.

Ottawa, June 1.—At the opening of the House of Commons this afternoon, Hon. C. J. Doherty, Minister of Justice, moved that the agreement reached as the result of the conference between representatives of the House of Commons and of the Senate on the Judges Act, be adopted by the House. The motion was carried. Sir Henry Dwyer, Minister of Finance, introduced a bill to consolidate the Income Tax Act. The purpose of the bill, he said, was to provide for a reduction in penalties. The collection of income tax was a difficult matter, especially when such a tax was introduced. The average amount paid per taxpayer in Canada during the first year of the income tax Sir Henry said, was $294. In Australia it was $364. In the second year the average in Canada was $307 and in Australia $106. The third year the average in Canada was $345 and in Australia $110. Collectively this year were very gratifying and the first assessment already collected $39,000,000. The House concurred in Senate amendments made to the copyright bill.

Navy Consideration
Hon. L. Lapointe, (Quebec East) asked: whether, in view of the despatch in morning papers that naval defence would be one of the main topics discussed at the coming conference of overseas premiers in London, there had been any change in the intention of the premier, as announced to the House, that Canada did not desire that this subject should be taken up.

"I am not agreeable to the definition of my position by the honorable gentleman," replied the Premier. "There has been no change in my attitude, or in that of the government, in regard to the prime ministers' conference."

Pensions Report
On a motion by the prime minister, the House decided that a resolution based on the report of the pension committee, to give disabled ex-servicemen a special preference to employment in the government service, should be considered when the government amends the Civil Service Act is considered in committee.

Mr. Meighen had thought it better to embrace all amendments to the Civil Service Act, made this session in one bill.

Hon. Rodolphe Lemieux asserted that he would oppose the main bill which reverted to patronage. He would vote against it in toto. On the other hand, the resolution involved simple justice to the returned soldier to which he entirely concurred. He did not oppose mingling the two issues.

Soldiers' Insurance
The House passed a resolution, providing for amendments to the Returned Soldiers' Insurance Act, as suggested by the special committee on pensions, insurance and readjustment. The effect of this bill will be to make all returned soldiers, whether domiciled in Canada or not eligible for insurance. Another amendment provided that payments of insurance shall not exceed $1,000 on the death of the insured, and the remainder, if any, or the portion thereof to which any beneficiary is entitled, shall, at the option of the insured, be payable as an annuity. Another amendment grants to the insured the power of designating by declaration who will receive the benefit of his insurance, whether he be unmarried or a widower without children.

A bill based on the resolution received first reading.

A resolution to amend the Act to provide for the retirement of civil servants was discussed in committee by the House. It makes provision for the inclusion of employees in the service from year to year for an average of six months in each year. The six months' provision was an amendment agreed to by Hon. J. A. Calder.

Retiring Allowance
On the motion of Hon. W. S. Fielding it was provided that the retiring allowance should not be given to temporary employees, nor to any person whose duty did not require his constant attention.

Hon. Hugh Guthrie stated that there were many cases where men were about to be retired and would not be replaced.

The resolution was reported and the House second reading to a bill to amend the Retirement and Superannuation Act, extending the time within which retirement might take place within the benefits of the Act. The House then went into committee on these amendments.

The bill was subsequently reported and given third reading.

Cases Dealt With In Police Court

Second Hand Dealers Reported for Keeping Open Late
Win on Account of Daylight

A traffic case in which Max Dean is charged with operating a motor car without a license tag was taken up in the police court yesterday afternoon. The defendant pleaded guilty, but stated he had applied for a license over a month ago and was awaiting its arrival daily. In the meantime he had been running the car with last year's license attached to front, and a "license" applied for "tag" in the rear.

Police Constable Donahue, who reported the matter stated he had previously warned the defendant a month ago about operating the car without a license. This case was allowed to stand over until after the holidays.

H. A. Powell was heard in defence of three second hand dealers—Morris Lambert, Joseph Sekolaky and Maurice Kaschitzky, charged with having their places of business open later than the law allows. Mr. Powell contended that this was not the case, the city by-law had reference to solar lamps, and not daylight, and therefore had not been violated. He called D. H. Hutchinson of the Dominion Office to corroborate his statement.

Magistrate Ritchie dismissed the cases, at the same time advising the defendants to comply with the old provisions. "When in Rome do as the Romans do."

George Moses, charged with speeding at the corner of Richmond and St. John's streets, was fined $5 for speeding at the foot of Waterloo street hill.

Win Weber, Jr., who was accused of speeding at the corner of Main and Simonds streets, acknowledged his guilt, but claimed that he was justified by traffic conditions at the time in doing so. The case was postponed to give him a chance to procure witnesses.

Party Goes to Bergdoll "Castle."
With Major Carroll, Paul Smith, chief of corporation management, and A. G. Bentley, of the alien property office in Washington, Colonel Miller escorted the party to the "castle" at Fifty-second street and Wynantfield avenue.

German gardener perked his thumb at the Bergdoll mansion, when McDewitt and his companion inquired the whereabouts of Mrs. Bergdoll. A ring of the bell brought Mrs. Bergdoll to the door. She hastened to apologize for her appearance.

"I've been in the garden working," she explained.

"I represent Colonel Thomas W. Miller, alias 'property custodian,'" said Major Carroll. "I notify you that he, by virtue of his office, makes seizure of all the property in this country of Grover Cleveland Bergdoll, your son, held by you under a power of attorney given you by him and recorded by you in the office of the Recorder of Deeds in Philadelphia."

Mrs. Bergdoll dumfounded.

For a few seconds Mrs. Bergdoll was dumfounded, speechless with surprise. Major Carroll, noticing her apparent lack of comprehension of the words, proceeded to explain:

"You understand you are prohibited from administering his estate," asked Major Carroll.

"Then I have to move?" she asked, a quaver in her voice. "Well, when do I have to move? What do I do with my furniture?"

Major Carroll told her she was forbidden to do anything with the property without the permission of the government. A notice then was posted on the door by McDewitt, as evidence the property had been seized.

Colonel Miller sent a telegram to President Harding, notifying him the seizure had been accomplished, so far as Mrs. Bergdoll was concerned.

Colonel Miller, with Major Carroll, went to the North National Bank, the Northwest Bank, the Bank of Montreal, the National Trust and Insurance and Trust Company, Desautel & Co. The North-

BERGDOLL HOME AND HOLDINGS ARE TAKEN NOW

Slacker Deemed Enemy and Property is Seized by Order of the President.

HE MUST RETURN TO TRY TO GET IT

Mother's Possessions Tied up Also Till Ownership is Determined Through Courts.

Philadelphia, Pa., June 1.—Acting under personal orders from President Harding, and in accordance with an option of Attorney General Daugherty, Colonel Thomas W. Miller, alien property custodian, yesterday seized the realty and bank accounts of Grover Cleveland Bergdoll, notorious slacker of Philadelphia. The realty and accounts are valued approximately at $300,000.

The draft which the government came as the result of a series of conferences between the President, the Attorney General and Colonel Miller, authorized the seizure of property for authority to seize the draft designer's property.

The Attorney General, in conference with the President, submitted an opinion in which he said the alien property custodian not only was empowered legally to make the seizure, but that the proceeding seemed to be the logical one, in view of the manner in which Bergdoll was holding up the United States to the ridicule of other nations.

In order to make the seizure legal it was necessary to revoke the general war trade bond license, passed October 2, 1920. A new one was drawn up and ready to issue, so worried that Bergdoll, now in Germany, would be deprived of any assistance directly or indirectly from any person in this country.

Colonel Miller, wishing to expedite matters, made a hasty trip here from Chicago, arriving in this city, he was met by Major Vincent Carroll, his personal attorney, at the North Philadelphia station. They got in touch with the local United States attorney and United States marshal, both of whom previously had received instructions for the Attorney General as to the action contemplated by Colonel Miller.

Will Seek Out Other Holdings.

Colonel Miller explained that he would visit the office of Jas. M. Hallett, Recorder of Deeds, and there get a list of the properties of Bergdoll in this city and later serve notices in the names of the owners of the Bergdolls, instructing them that all rents should be paid to the government. Mortgages also will be collected by the United States government.

In taking the seizure, Colonel Miller explained, Mrs. Bergdoll is to have five days to prove the amount of property owned by her and the amount belonging to her son Grover. At the end of five days, if no information has been furnished to the government, Colonel Miller is empowered to allow a time extension, the length to be determined by himself. If she then refuses to say what is hers and what is Grover's, she can be jailed for contempt.

Seizure of the Bergdoll property is the first to be made by the alien property custodian since June 1, 1918. The entire property will be administered by Major Carroll from his office in 315 Liberty Building. The cash will be deposited in the United States treasury, with property of other aliens seized in the war.

Claims Dominion Anxious to Unload Its Surplus Cattle

Professor Wallace Alleges That is Reason for Agitation for Embargo Removal.

London, June 1.—Professor Wallace, of Edinburgh University, who drew such a gloomy picture before the entire embargo commission concerning the state of Scotland if the embargo was revived, was today cross-examined and expressed the opinion that the chief reason for the agitation for the revival of the embargo was that Canada was anxious to dispose of her surplus cattle, totalling last year 300,000 head, by dumping them in Great Britain, owing to the United States duty.

If the embargo was lifted, he feared that a similar agitation would arise in South Africa, which was full of cattle disease. The witness admitted, however, that there had not been a single case of cattle disease in Canada for years, but refused credit for this to Canadian inspection.

Accept Wage Cut

Over 50 Years Ago

A young man who practiced medicine in a rural district became famous and was called in consultation in many towns and cities because of his success in the treatment of disease. He finally made up his mind to place some of his treatments before the entire people and, moving to Buffalo, N. Y., he put up what he called his Favorite Prescription, and placed it with the druggists in every state in the Union and in Canada.

That was over fifty-five years ago. For fifty-one years this Favorite Prescription of Dr. Pierce's has sold more largely throughout the land than any other medicine of like character. It's the testimony of thousands of women that it has benefited or entirely eradicated such distressing ailments as women are prone to.

For over fifty years some of Dr. Pierce's home medicines have been selling over the drug counters, so that more than fifty million bottles have been sold during that time. This speaks well for the reliability and value of Dr. Pierce's standard home remedies. Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery is a blood tonic and strength-builder which contains no alcohol, yet has tonic qualities that have endeared it to the American public. Dr. Pierce's Pleasant Pellets, composed of May-apple, Aloin and jalap, have long been considered a reliable vegetable laxative, in the same way that Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription has long been recognized as a tonic for diseases peculiar to womanhood. More recently that wonderful discovery of Dr. Pierce's—namely, Anuria (anti-uric acid), has been successfully used by many thousands of people who write Dr. Pierce in unqualified terms of the benefits received—that their backache and other symptoms of kidney trouble have been completely conquered by the use of Anuria.

Being here as a member of the delegation and as a representative of a commercial organization and neither a Conservative, Liberal, Progressive or any other party, but one simply desirous of speaking to the sober judgment of yourself and colleagues, in support of what are stated to be special rights and privileges conferred upon the Maritime Provinces by Confederation, I will crave your indulgence for a moment or two.

Confederation was not an accident, but the result of the working out by might forces after experiences for many years with problems facing the Provinces of Ontario and Quebec. Such experiences, and especially those of a few years previous to Confederation, fully demonstrated to the official representatives of Ontario and Quebec the values of such a co-partnership, as a defence against possible invasion by foreign foes, for self-protection, for limitless expansion of population and material development, and for steady growth of intellectual freedom and force.

What Brown Said.

Hon. George Brown speaking at Toronto is reported as follows: But I would go further and say, that if all the objection urged against this scheme were sound and cogent, they would all sink into utter insignificance in view of all the miseries this scheme will relieve us of. We are attempting to harmonize our interests with the interests of other countries which have plunged other countries into all the horrors of a civil war.

Confederation was not the triumph of any political party, as the interest in the success of the peoples of the Colonies wishing to confederate, took precedence over such parties. The statement who were instrumental in accomplishing Confederation were no doubt equal to their trust. Their characters and abilities were sufficiently pure and great as to command the confidence of the people.

The interests, hopes and affections of the Maritime Provinces were centered in the Mother Country, and the result of co-partnership was solely due to the courageous patriotism and generosity of their peoples. The people of the Maritime Provinces, as far as possible, by their love, devotion and respect for the wishes of the Mother Country, a united country, which today raise the specter of supremacy of the British flag.

Position of Maritime.

The geographical positions of the Maritime Provinces were and are the most important factors in the usefulness of Confederation and the consequent values attached to an increased development of Canada's resources.

In the words of Hon. Mr. Cartier at Halifax: "I need hardly bring to your notice, that we in Canada have two of the elements of nationality, the personal and territorial elements—but we have that element which is absolutely necessary to make a Nation—that is the Maritime element with the assistance of equal rights to the Maritime Provinces with those of Ontario and Quebec Confederation was accomplished."

In the words of the same gentleman at St. John: "The enormous advantages which will accrue to the people of the Maritime Provinces in having a market of four millions of people for their products as against the small and scattered population of your Provinces."

Too Confiding.

In not requiring all the conditions such as those attached to the Intercolonial Railway, to be incorporated in the British North America Act, our Maritime Representatives may have been too confiding. Little realizing that the future political representatives of other portions of Canada, and as co-trustees of the Confederation pact, might not so seriously interpret its intentions in regard to this particular construction.

Hon. Mr. Galt in 1865 is quoted: "We may now look forward with hopeful anticipation of seeing the realization, not merely of what we have hitherto considered would be the commerce of Canada, great as that might become, but to the possession of Atlantic ports, which we shall help to build to a position equal to that of the chief cities of the American Union."

The fact was established, that the Maritime Provinces possessed within themselves, elements of greatness not possessed by Ontario and Quebec. I would like to ask whether there is any mathematician in this room who would like to attempt a computation of the values, which should accrue to the Maritime Provinces, in removing from Ontario the great and trying evils and dissensions, which threatened to plunge her into a most lamentable and disastrous state of disorder and confusion.

We have been too great and too generous with our confiding natures, believing that our many and vast resources would be as generously recognized and appreciated.

Intelligent Patriotism.

Healthy patriotism need not be solely sentimental; it must be intelligent. With all our English speaking race, whatever be its origin or its congeniality with other races, there is at bottom, a savage spirit—a brutal spirit—by which we seek to gain what is necessary to our power or to our interests, by might, and to hold it no matter may be the right.

We in the Maritime Provinces are no strangers to that spirit in the manner in which for fifty four years, and under the impetus of that spirit, the people of Upper and Western Canada, have encroached upon and practically ignored our rights and privileges, which were no doubt the essence of the Confederation contract.

They may have been permitted to enjoy these privileges, on account of the standard of some of our representatives, and who were willing to participate in a system of juggling, or to the desires of representative of other portions of Canada, to be relieved from any responsibility, of supervising other than the needs of the sections of Canada which they represented.

I submit that Canada as a whole requires such a supervision in order to maintain a healthy growth. What was the Senate of Canada intended for? In it was to be confidant of the protection of sectional interests. In the words of Sir John Macdonald: "Confederation was intended to be founded upon a just and equitable basis, upon principle which would be alike advantageous to all parts and injurious to none, by either kind of the promises made them, and stimulates them to great effort, in establishing proper values, to what was absolutely necessary, as a birth place for Confederation."

The needs of the present and the preparation for the future require a more careful analysis of our past actions, and in respect of conditions at present obtaining, and a rapid solution of the problem with which the Maritime Provinces are confronted today.

By far the greater portion of the people of Canada have no common ancestry in Confederation and a genuine sense of Canada, fortified by this seeming indifference, have practically ignored our rights.

Any suggestion, that the peoples of the Maritime Provinces will ever be content, with representatives, so sensitive to party interests and political passions, would be utter folly. We are always at the mercy of the majority but it's intelligence should protect us from any easily stated or possible peril. A quotation: "to confound the least, is the surest means of equaling one's self to the greatest, might be deemed opportune."

With representatives possessed of the blind fury of intense political passions, anxious for re-election, and sustained by their parties in anything which secures them—the present situation has been and will be full of danger.

There is an intellectual awakening in the Maritime Provinces and it's stimulants affect the well being and the prosperity of it's peoples.

It may have taken fifty-four years to demonstrate to our people their values in preserving Ontario and Quebec from domestic insurrection, but they now realize that in the growing power of Canada there are ever increasing encroachments upon their rights, and they lean toward an abso-

Delegates to Convention Are Entertained at Government House in Toronto.

Toronto, Ont., June 1.—Immigration of women was a subject of interesting discussion at the annual convention of the national chapter of the imperial order of the Daughters of the Empire here today with special reference to domestic service in connection therewith.

Lady Pope of Ottawa expressed the view that such work must be raised to the standard of a profession before the difficult problem of securing workers could be solved, the home was woman's domain, she declared, and must remain so, and it required as much brain power to conduct household affairs as it did to conduct more professional endeavors. Household work should be put on a business footing, Lady Pope said, so that inferior service would not command high wages.

Wants Training Schools.

Mrs. W. D. Spence of Calgary, I. O. E. representative, was reported as presenting a report recommending establishment of training schools in the various provinces for inexperienced domestic workers, and also recommending follow-up work to Canadianize newcomers to the court. Both of these recommendations were adopted by the convention.

In connection with the election of officers, which took place by ballot this afternoon, though the results were not announced, Miss Margaret Wise, national secretary, withdrew her name but was persuaded to reconsider the matter. Lady Kingsmill, Mrs. W. G. Hermon and Mrs. Arthur Van Kough were not withdrawn from the contest before the balloting began.

Life Memberships.

Life membership in the national chapter were given to Miss Jean Arnold, president; Miss Margaret Wise, secretary; Mrs. Graham Thompson, and Miss Lucy Doyle, the last named being presented with a national chapter life membership.

A reception was held for the delegates to the convention at government house tonight.

Great Meeting Is Held At Woodstock

Mrs. Kuhring Reports Excellent Progress in Red Cross Membership Campaign.

A splendidly enthusiastic meeting at Woodstock this week was reported by Mrs. Kuhring of the Progress and Activities Committee of the Red Cross, who returned last evening from a short trip in the interests of the Membership Enrollment Campaign.

Mrs. Wendall P. Jones presided at the Woodstock meeting, at which the Countess of Ashburnham, one of the vice-presidents of the N. B. division, and Mrs. Kuhring were guests.

The Countess of Ashburnham made a short address, telling of the responsibilities of the Red Cross to the soldiers in hospital and of the peace-time policy which is for health in every nation.

On Peace Time Mrs. Kuhring, by request, spoke on the Peace-time Policy, explaining that the care of the soldiers will always be the first aim of the society, but that as the reserve funds decrease, each province must provide comforts for its returned men in hospital.

The returns from the membership enrollment campaign will augment the funds and also help with the needed health work in New Brunswick.

There is fine co-operation in Woodstock, prominent citizens and all organizations uniting to swell the list of members.

A meeting attended by representative people was held at Canterbury, Miss Bessie London presiding. The appeal to patriotism is being recognized.

LUMBER MILLS BUSY BUT CUT PILED IN YARDS

RECORD DRIVING ON ALL RIVERS

All Logs North of Woodstock Out of the River by June 1.

Fredricton, June 1.—The sawing of the winter's lumber cut is now in full swing all over the province in spite of the feeling that persisted on the part of the operators a few months ago that they would hang up their lumber rather than convey it to the mills in view of the fact that there was no market in any part of the world. The mills of Fraser's Ltd. are at present running, their pulp mill at Chatham and sawmill at Newcastle having started yesterday.

A feature of the operations this year is that all operators are running on a ten hour day. The return to the longer day was for a time this spring a much debated subject, and was argued by the unions with words and strikes that threatened to tie up the summer work but the scarcity of employment served as a weapon, in the hands of the employers, that was cogent enough to force their terms.

Work Will Be Short. In any circumstance the summer sawing will not be long in the case of most mills for much of the lumber was left in the woods and the total cut was the smallest for many years. The market for it is being done is not inspired by the prospect of an immediate sale but is being piled in the yards until such time as there is a market for it. None is being shipped that is not going to fill contracts previously arranged unless it is finished lumber and the market for that commodity is fast disappearing.

A record in the history of the St. John Log Driving Co., has been established this year in their having the resolution passed at the inauguration of the League of Nations Society last night, the nominating committee then appointed met today and took steps towards completing the organization. The following vice-presidents were nominated:

Thin Blood Like Skim Milk

JUST as milk is a perfect food, so is blood a perfect nourisher of the cells and tissues of the body.

But thin, watery blood is like thin, watery milk with the cream skimmed off, and you do not look for much nourishment in skim milk.

Impaired heart's action is one of the first results of a weakened condition of the blood. There is shortness of breath, the circulation of the blood is imperfect, you are easily tired and suffer from indigestion.

The heart is a tireless and prodigious worker so long as it is supplied with an abundance of pure, rich blood with which to replace its own waste.

To overcome this starved condition of the system it is necessary to supply to the blood in condensed and easily assimilated form the elements of nature which go directly to supply the nutritive factor in the blood.

These ingredients are found in happy combination in Dr. Chase's Nerve Food. Gentle though wonderfully potent in action, this restorative treatment feeds the blood, and through the medium of the blood sends new vigor and energy to every cell and tissue of the human body. The heart's action is strengthened and the feelings of fatigue and lassitude disappear.

A young man who practiced medicine in a rural district became famous and was called in consultation in many towns and cities because of his success in the treatment of disease. He finally made his mind to place some of his treatments before the entire people, moving to Buffalo, N. Y., he set up what he called his Favorite Prescription, and placed it with the druggists in every state in the Union and in Canada.

That was over fifty-five years ago. For fifty-one years this Favorite Prescription of Dr. Pierce's has sold more largely throughout the land than any other medicine of like character. It's the fact that it has benefited or entirely cured as women are prone to.

Pierce's home medicines have cured, so that more than fifty years ago that time. This speaks well for Dr. Pierce's standard home remedy. Discovery is a blood tonic and alcohol, yet has tonic qualities in public. Dr. Pierce's Pleasant Loin and jalap, have long been known in the same way that Dr. long been recognized as a tonic. FORMER CHIEF OF HAPSBURGS REACHES U.S.

Personal Cook of Ex-Empress Charles Arrived in New York City.

TELLS INTERESTING TALES OF ROYALTY

Found Emperor Very Democratic—Brings Royal Skillet and Recipes With Him.

New York, June 1.—Ludwig Urban of Austria arrived in New York yesterday on board the Cosulich liner Argosino from Trieste, and at the first opportunity gave the ship news reporters a great deal of very inside information about the private life of Mr. Charles Hapsburg of Switzerland, formerly the Emperor Charles of Austria-Hungary. Mr. Urban, who said he was at one time personal chef, or cook for Mr. Hapsburg when the latter was a monarch, accompanied his information with the statement that Mr. Hapsburg, when Emperor, was a very democratic sort of person.

Provided Around Kitchens.

It seems, according to Mr. Urban, that Mr. Hapsburg was at that time very fond of good things to eat and had little else to think about. He therefore spent a great deal of his time prowling about the royal kitchens, lifting the covers of the royal pots and pans and sniffing the royal soup and goulash. He developed a habit very annoying to Mr. Urban of dropping into the royal kitchen and asking what the royal palate would be tickled with on that royal evening at dinner. Mr. Urban said he would make some respectful rejoinder to this pleasantry, embodying the desired information, and Mr. Hapsburg would then sit on a stool and chat pleasantly with the cook.

Royal Skillet.

Mr. Urban was accompanied by his family, two suitcases, a book of receipts for dishes served to Mr. Hapsburg when Mr. Hapsburg felt more like eating good dishes than he does now, and a skillet in which Mr. Urban used to fry flap-jacks and eggs in the royal kitchens in Vienna.

Children Locked Up In Closet Ninety Hours

Paterson, N. J., June 1.—Missing ninety hours, Stella Weiner, 5 years old, and her playmates, Harry Barber, 7, were found today suffering from hunger and exhaustion in the clothes closet of a vacant apartment in which they had been imprisoned. They had been without food and water since Monday afternoon, when they disappeared.

After they had been fed, the children explained, they entered the closet when playing hide-and-seek, but had not closed the door. Soon afterward another playmate slammed the door, and they did not realize they were locked in until after she had gone.

Today Jacob Weiner and his cousin Samuel Miller, visited the vacant apartment for a game of cards. Hearing noises in a clothes closet, they opened the door and Warner found his little sister and her boy playmate half-conscious.

Russia's Recovery To Take 150 Years

Anarchy Leading to New Union Must Follow Bolshevism, Say Professors on Visit

St. Petersburg, June 1.—Even were the Russian Bolsheviks regime to collapse immediately, the dream of a new united Russia is impossible of realization for decades to come, in the opinion of political scientists, government officials and business men in the three Baltic states, Estonia, Latvia and Lithuania, having diplomatic missions at Moscow.

These men disagree on the time necessary to build up a new Russia, some saying it will take 150 years, while others believe fifty years will be sufficient. It is agreed, however, that the fall of the regime headed by Nikolai Lenin would be followed by a long period of anarchy, when ethnographic units after units of the myriad-tongued millions who made up the old Russian empire would break away and form separate states.

View of Professor.

This opinion was expressed to the correspondent by Professor Pihp, Estonian minister of foreign affairs, and a lecturer at Dorpat University, and dozens of other students who are in a position to view the Russian situation at close range.

Men in the foreign offices of each state admit the economic dependence of Estonia, Latvia and Lithuania upon Russia. The possibility of some kind of a loosely woven Slavonic federation which might join, in the future, these men say, that practically all of the ethnographic units of Russia would have to go through anarchy into independence before the three states that have a two-years' start on the others would consent to join in a united Russia.

BAKER FORTUNE IS OLD STORY

Bath Woman Alleges It is a Swindle and Was Exposed.

Bath, June 1.—If your name is Baker or ever was Baker, don't expect the fortune you expect from the estate of Jacob Baker, late of Philadelphia, for the coin does not exist. The story was exposed by Mrs. David L. Wilson, 885 Middle street, to whom the Baker fortune is an old story. It is declared by Mrs. Wilson to be a tale similar to the notorious Spanish fortune which has been offered thousands of times and which would send various amounts of money to some city in Spain to get out of prison the man who has a hidden fortune, only this Baker fortune is rated larger.

Mrs. Wilson's great-grandfather was a John Baker of Revolutionary fame and her father, Frank Burns, often used to have communications regarding this alleged fortune from Bakers and "was Baker" all over the United States and Canada. That is how she knew the story which offered so many opportunities for fraud that the mayor of Philadelphia asked the best of legal aid to look up the "estate" and the facts were made public.

Through hundreds of letters asking information the mayor learned that widespread publicity had been given to a report that heirs of a man named Baker had a claim to $300,000,000 in Philadelphia real estate, including the site of the city hall.

The Investigation.

The mayor's chief counsel for the bureau of legal aid in the investigation and he found there was an estate of Jacob Baker, a revolutionary veteran which was handled in the orphan's court of Philadelphia county. The records of the court show it was disposed of about 1847 and the estate valued at about $6000 or $7000, as set forth in the account of the real estate in the city of Philadelphia.

The fake Baker estate which has been used as a bait throughout the entire country, was supposed to consist of a 99 year lease on certain real estate in the city of Philadelphia, part of which is now occupied by city hall, and additional real estate situated in the city of Chillicothe, Ohio.

Persons named Baker or related to persons named Baker, throughout the country, have been receiving letters asking for subscriptions to "create a fund for the hundreds of millions lying loose, awaiting Baker claimants."

The persons who use this notorious estate as a means of obtaining money declare that the 99-year lease has just expired and that this enormous estate is about to be distributed. The records disclose no lease, or any such property right. The orphan's court reports the whole matter to be a fraud and the register of wills office in Philadelphia county has gone so far as to print a postal card to this effect for distribution to all inquirers.

Mrs. Wilson says this fake is at least 20 years old and crops up in different communities every few years.

Standing By Treaties.

Those who object to Lloyd George's warning to the filibustering Poles in Upper Silesia cannot have much regard for the sanctity of treaties. "What's the connection between 'friends'?" asked an American practical politician when it was pointed out that certain action which he decried would be unconstitutional. And in much the same spirit there are many influential Frenchmen who would let the Poles have their way in Upper Silesia despite the Versailles treaty, because France is a traditional friend of the Poles, and they are incensed against Lloyd George because the British premier insists upon the observance of the treaty by the Poles not less than by the Germans.

Doctor Stabbed To Death At Party

Montreal, June 1.—Two men and two women were being held this morning by the police for the coroner's inquest in connection with the death last night from wounds of Dr. Ramsey Rankin, of Stratford, Ont.

Dr. Rankin was the son of J. P. Rankin, at one time mayor of Stratford, and also a member of parliament for North Perth. He was a great amateur hockey player, figuring prominently on his home team and with McGill.

All at a Party.

From information gathered by the police, it appears that a party took place last night at 824 St. Catherine street, west. People in the building state that around 11 o'clock last night somebody rang the door bell of one of the apartments. The door was opened and a quarrel began immediately in the hall. It is thought that Dr. Rankin was first stabbed with a knife and then thrown through a door, the glass in which cut him in several places.

Seaplane To Bomb Radio Run Warship

Land Craft Withdrawn in Deception Test Miles off the Atlantic Coast.

Washington, June 1.—Four Marine Corps Martin bombing planes will be used to test the ability of land planes to bomb warships in the problem against the radio controlled battleship Iowa off the Virginia Capes on June 25, the Navy Department announced tonight after the War Department had served notice that no army land type airplanes would participate in the problem.

The army, however, will use seven seaplanes and four airships in the experiment decision to withdraw its land planes was reached, it is understood, because the War Department did not consider it advisable to use them unless the Iowa was within thirty miles of shore. Naval members of the joint army-navy committee in charge of the experiment, on the other hand, are said to hold that the tests to be of any value should be conducted at least sixty miles from the coast.

Commander Off Ship.

Under the conditions of the problem the Iowa, controlled by radio from the battleship Ohio, five or six miles distant, will be somewhere between Cape Hatteras and Henlopen, from fifty to one hundred miles off shore, and steaming toward land, when the air forces will be sent to bomb her.

By means of a gyroscopic compass the Iowa may be set on a given course and by a special radio signal the vessel may be brought to a dead stop. The control system, which is distinctly American, it is said, can be shifted to aircraft, allowing the vessel's controlled to be maneuvered from any height in the air, either from airplanes or dirigibles.

Eel Stew Was So Good Striker Ate

Prisoner Couldn't Resist Appeal of Warden's Savory Dish.

Minneapolis, June 1.—At the jail last night there was a space of an hour and a half when no one, from the warden down, cared to prophesy that prisoner Charles Marshall would live till dawn.

Yet all that mattered with Charles Marshall was that he had been eating eel stew. As the jail physician explained to Warden Johnny Dunbar, there is nothing inherently deleterious in eel and no quality about them which, per se, makes them unsafe for human consumption. But when a man who has been on a hunger strike for seven days wraps himself around a whole gallon of eel stew it might be different.

It was ten days ago that Charles Marshall of East Houston street, in populous Manhattan, was committed to the jail to await trial on a charge of burglary. A week ago he announced that he had gone on a hunger strike. He had served one term in Sing Sing, he said, and in preference to returning there had decided to commit suicide by fasting.

Let Prisoners Decide

There are jails where they forcibly feed prisoners, but Minnesota officials simply told Marshall that the grass and weeping willows in the country cemetery were at their brightest and greenest.

"At all events," one of them said, "you have thrown a little jazz into the life here, which has been awfully dull since Dr. Wilkins hung himself from that steam pipe over your head two years ago. In the meantime you have interrupted our game."

Perhaps one way to cure a hunger striking prisoner is to take him less seriously than he would be taken. But Warden Dunbar began to worry. The man had fasted seven days—or up to yesterday—when the sheriff brought him of his own great skill as a stealer of eels.

Made Eel Stew.

So he made an eel stew and let the steam and savor of it percolate through all the jail corridors. Then he had a specially delectable portion of it ladled out to Paddy Flynn, cell-mate of Marshall, and of such effect that he ate a good meal that when he addressed himself to an eel stew some people passing in the street know something important is going on.

And after Flynn had been constructing eel stew for fifteen minutes Marshall surrendered.

How much shall I give him to eat?

"Whatever he wants," said the jailer.

And that is why, for an hour and a half last night, there was considerable doubt as to whether Charles Marshall of Manhattan would ever greet another dawn.

A free motion of the bowels is a sign of good health. It is not alone because you have less tire trouble. It is not alone because the car rides easier and you have a feeling of security and comfort. It is not alone because you get greater pleasure in riding the car. It is obtaining all four of these desirable features that makes you such a loyal and enthusiastic friend of DOMINION TIRES.

When the bowels are a source of constipation, the system is out of order, and the blood is not properly purified. This leads to various ailments, such as indigestion, headache, and general weakness.

These pills, being pure and gentle, will restore the normal action of the bowels, and thus bring about a general improvement in the whole system.

Mr. H. Barrows, Esq., writes: "I was troubled with constipation and headache, and a friend told me of Dr. Williams' Pink Pills. I got two boxes and they did me a world of good. I have great faith in Dr. Williams' Pink Pills, and all dealers or mail order houses will supply you with them."—L. M. Barrows, Esq., St. Louis, Mo.

RACE WAR ONCE MORE TAKES ITS TOLL IN SOUTH

Many Dead in Fight Between Negroes and Whites at Tulsa.

TROUBLE STARTED OVER AN ARREST

State Troops Called in Effort to Bring Peace Again.

Tulsa, Okla., June 1.—Continuous gunfire broke out shortly after daylight near the negro quarters of Tulsa, the scene of all night race disturbances in which hundreds of armed white men and negroes took part and which resulted in the death and injury of an unknown number of persons and the calling out of the Oklahoma National Guards, to put down the disorder.

The firing came from a spot where throughout the early morning 800 white men and 1,000 negroes faced each other across railroad tracks. First reports to police headquarters said that the bodies of from six to ten negroes could be seen lying in a space described as "No Man's Land."

Railway Men Killed

The police also had a report that three railway switchmen and a brakeman had been shot to death.

The trainmen were killed, it was reported, because they refused to permit members of the opposing crowds to ride upon a switch engine passing between the lines.

Officials had hoped that with the coming of daylight the trouble, which began over the arrest of a negro late yesterday for an alleged attack upon a white girl, would die out.

The negro was taken to the court house and lodged in the jail on the upper floor of the building.

Early in the night motor cars containing armed negroes appeared on the streets headed for the court house. A crowd of 200 negroes surrounded the building. Armed white men began gathering.

Sent For Troops

The crowds soon reached such proportions that the authorities sent to Governor Robertson for troops. The adjutant general ordered out three companies of guardsmen here and sent instructions to commanding officers in a number of nearby towns to be prepared to rush men here.

The local guardsmen were thrown about the court house and prevented the crowds from breaking through.

A fire broke out in the negro section early this morning, but it was found that the flames were confined to a barn.

Confiscate Arms

Soon after the first appearance of the negroes last night the streets were filled with shouting, gesticulating men. Suddenly there was a rush for sporting goods houses and hardware stores where the crowds broke in and armed themselves with whatever weapons they could find. Guardsmen were used to disperse the rioters at the stores and a military order confiscated all stocks of arms in the city until the disturbance could be put down.

As the dawn broke sixty or seventy motor cars filled with armed white men formed a circle completely around the negro section. Half a dozen airplanes circled overhead. There was much shouting and shooting. A row of houses along the railroad tracks was fired but lack of wind prevented the flames from spreading. A party of white riflemen was reported to be shooting at all negroes they saw and firing into houses.

The negroes were said to be returning the fire desperately. Late reports placed the number of dead in the neighborhood of fifteen.

BATTLE IN SILESIA

Constantinople, June 1.—Guerrilla warfare between French and Turkish Nationalist troops has been renewed in Silesia.

The Turkish troops are preparing to recapture the city of Antab, from the French, while Nationalist leaders are being arrested by the French authorities.

POSSESS GOOD HEALTH

By Looking After THE BOWELS

A free motion of the bowels, once or twice a day, should be the rule of every one, as half the ills of life are caused by allowing the bowels to get into a constipated condition.

When the bowels are allowed to become constipated, the stomach gets out of order, and the liver does not do its work properly on account of holding back the bile so that it does not pass through the bowels, but is allowed to get into the blood, thus causing a poisoning of the whole system.

If you would escape constipation, sick and bilious headaches, heartburn, floating specks before the eyes, coated tongue, foul breath, the nasty irritable, bleeding itching and protruding piles, you should keep your liver stirred up by the use of Milburn's Laxative Pills.

These pills, being purely vegetable, keep your liver working actively, helping it to resume its proper functions, and thereby removing the bile that is circulating in the blood and poisoning the whole system.

Mrs. H. Barrows, Enfield, N. S. writes:—"I was troubled with sick headaches and constipation. One day a friend told me of Milburn's Laxative Pills. I got two vials, and found they did me a world of good. I therefore have great faith in them."

Milburn's Laxative Pills are 30c. a vial, at all druggists or mailed direct on receipt of order by The T. Milburn Co., Limited, Toronto, Ont.

Sing Sing Ousts Contended Convict

Forced to Go Home After 30 Months as Voluntary Prisoner When Sentence Over.

New Castle, Del., June 1.—Holding the door of an outbuilding closed and shouting for help, Miss Eva Zebby and Miss Bertha Barnes, today imprisoned Charles Bennett, 25, just after he shot and killed Louis Duncan, 55, a retired merchant.

Two men heard the girls' cries and took charge of the prisoner until the arrival of the police. Bennett was held without bail by Mayor Cramer.

Bennett, who a few months before was released from the county workhouse, visited the Duncan home this morning. On entering the house he opened fire with a revolver. One bullet hit Duncan in the shoulder and a second struck near his ear, instantly killing him.

Bennett is alleged to have spent a night at the Duncan home about two weeks ago and to have secured a number of cashed checks signed by the murdered man. From these signatures, it is said, Bennett made a copy and forged a check for $140.

The cashier of a New Castle bank noticed deviation in the signature and phoned Mr. Duncan, who declared the check a forgery.

It is alleged Bennett threatened to "get square" with Duncan for stopping payment on the check.

Passengers' Rations Cut When Ship Delayed

Packet Forty-Four Days at Sea Before Coast Guard Cutter Meets It.

Norfolk, Va., June 1.—Out from Cape Verde since April 15, the auxiliary packet Senator has been picked up by the coast guard cutter Manning, 236 miles east of Cape Henry and 245 miles off New York.

The Senator encountered rough weather and the food supply was greatly diminished. For fifteen days the sixty-nine passengers were allowed only half rations, and drinking water was also served in half portions.

The Manning reported by wireless that she sighted the Senator late Friday in latitude 37.34 north, longitude 70.15 west. The passengers were not ill and none of them wanted to leave the Senator, which is bound to New Bedford, Mass.

The latest message from the Manning read: "Relieved" American schooner Senator of New Bedford, 45 days out. Short of provisions, 59 passengers. All well."

The Manning turned over to the Senator a plentiful supply of drinking water, three whole beefs, several barrels of flour, butter, lard, salt meat and potatoes.

The Senator carries no wireless, and had it not been for her accidental meeting with the Manning, her passengers might have suffered serious consequences for want of food.

Fredericton Teachers May Quit Posts

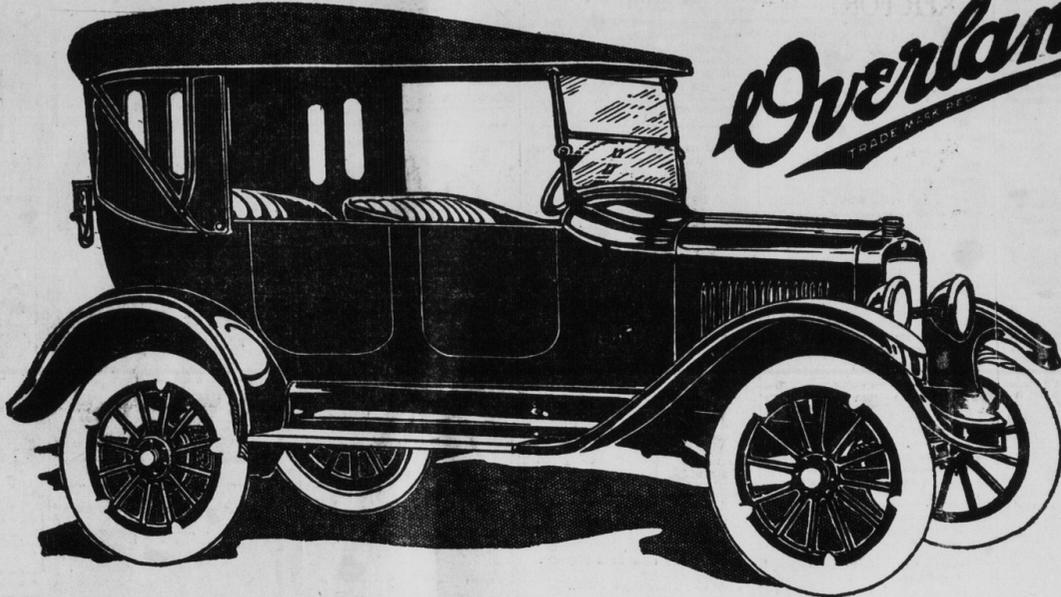

Fredericton, N. B., June 1.—A number of Fredericton's school teachers are said to have forwarded a notification to the Board of School Trustees which virtually amounts to a notice of resignation unless certain salary demands which have been made are met. It was said this afternoon that a special meeting of the trustees will be held to consider the matter within a few days. Meanwhile those in official positions who could be reached today were reticent to discuss the situation.

"GOD SAVE THE KING"

Tomorrow, the 3rd inst., His Majesty King George will celebrate his 56th birthday, and from the people of the whole Empire, with the possible exception of some parts of Ireland, will go up the warmest wishes that he may be spared to see very many more.

King George was in one respect unfortunate in that he had to follow the ablest and most far-seeing diplomat in the world in the person of the late King Edward.

The answer given to the Maritime Province delegation, which went before the Government yesterday was of course in the usual stereotyped form, that the matters referred to would receive due consideration.

THE GOVERNMENT'S ANSWER

The answer given to the Maritime Province delegation, which went before the Government yesterday was of course in the usual stereotyped form, that the matters referred to would receive due consideration.

Premier Meighen gave the deputation to understand that their request would be attended to if it was possible to do so in justice to other parts of Canada.

Suing Sydney For Lack of Assistance

It is idle for Mr. Meighen to say that there is no desire to rob the Maritime Provinces of the same chance to do business as other parts of Canada get.

Forty-One Hollanders Alleged City Gave No Help When Out of Work.

Sydney, N. S., June 1.—Because they allege the authorities failed to give them relief when they are destitute, forty-one Dutchmen today entered suit for damages against the city of Sydney.

alterably opposed to any concessions, even in matters of simple justice, being made to the Maritime Provinces, and will never consent to those getting any consideration in regard to anything that will not equally benefit themselves.

FINANCIAL RECOVERY.

One of the most remarkable features about the British situation is the financial recovery the country is making in spite of industrial stagnation and unexampled unemployment.

If capital is wanted for sound investments, it can be secured in Great Britain upon as good terms as anywhere. The oversubscription of 7 1/2 per cent. issues of debenture stock for industrial concerns rather upsets our preconceived ideas of the condition of affairs over there.

Also when the Governor of the Bank of England states that gradual emergence from the troubles of the past 12 months is now clearly visible we know that he is not speaking without good ground, and that he is not trying to bolster up a shaky financial enterprise.

Financial deflation and reconstruction will very rapidly be followed everywhere by industrial recuperation, and the period of recovery from depression always releases more energy and pleasure in expending it than even the full tide of prosperity.

The New Brunswick Executive of the Self-Determination for Ireland League of Canada, has put itself on record as willing to give hearty support and assistance "to the end that in the very near future, the people of Ireland may be accorded that free and full measure of self-government which has made this Canada of ours a nation among the nations of the world."

It is very gratifying to note that the suggestion thrown out in The Standard yesterday that additional shifts should be employed on the street paving work will probably be adopted.

THE LAUGH LINE

She Knew It. "No, Harold," said Miss Goldie, "I can never be yours."

"Never?" he cried in despair. "Never!" she answered coldly. His mood changed.

"Oh, very well," he sneered. "There are others."

WHAT OTHERS SAY

A Trip for the Home. An advantage rug-beating has over golf is that not so many designs, or clubs are necessary.—Kingston Whig.

Think of Montreal. The crimes and blunders committed by Governments are due much more to the people who do not vote than to those who do.—London Daily News.

The Men Who Went First. Opponents of the militia are persistent in maintaining that the money spent in the annual training of rural battalions is largely wasted.

A Wise Dream. The more that the people look over the Shaughnessy plan for solving the railway problems the more they come to the conclusion that it is a very fine scheme to think about, provided that it goes no further.

Vandalism. Dr. Murray McParlane told the Limber commission that he found Lake Temagami, which he had visited for years, badly damaged by the high water.

Some Family. "Bakery Forced Sale—Owner's wife in hospital. Four children to care for; including brick oven, four and other stock."—An ad. lamp.

Why Waste All That Tea? "Mrs. W. P. Perkins, assisted by some of her friends, will pour tea Friday afternoon on her spacious verandah."—Small Town Paper item.

Preventive Measures. "Why are you so anxious to play bridge?" "Somebody will play the piano if we don't."—Louisville Courier-Journal.

Not only Lake Temagami, but many another lake has suffered in this way, and while utility must be considered in a practical world, yet it should be the business of somebody to see whether all this destruction of the natural beauty of our wilderness lakes is necessary, or whether much of it could be avoided and much of it remedied.

Anyone who has known a beautiful lake and who has gone back to it to find it wronged and spoiled, will share the feelings of Dr. McParlane and join with him in the protest he has made.

A BIT OF VERSE

BANDSMEN OF THE DARK. Let others praise the nightingale, Or e'en the glorious lark, I tune my humble lyre to sing The bandmen of the dark.

I do not sing the mooping owl Or cruel whip-poor-will, I sing those birds whose wild delight Forbids them to be still.

Soon as the shades of evening fall Their orchestra begin, With flutings soft and flings shrill, And throbs of violin.

"Strike up, strike up," the leader cries, The patriotic strain, And when they once have played the air They play it through again.

A thousand wild performers play, All mad, yet all in tune; In proper time they drum, they trill, And sound the deep bassoon.

All native born; when Cartier first Saw Hochelaga's height, These bandmen gathered on the shore And played the living night.

All patriots true; when winter wild With snow fills all the sky, They do not, like their feathered friends, To sunny southlands fly.

O bandmen, skilled! we under-rate The lyric skill and thee, Because, like Nature with her gifts, Thou scatterest music free.

My readers all! no old world theme My rustic verses clog; As you perceive, I'm using the praise Of tree-toads and of frogs.

—James Lawler.

Slim Chance. "What shall we do tonight?" asked a college freshman of his roommate.

"We'll toss up for it," was the reply. "All right," agreed the first. "If it's heads we'll go to a dance; if it's tails we'll take in the movies, and if it stands on edge, we'll study."

Very Likely. He—"There's an awful rumbling in my stomach—like a cart rumbling over a cobblestone street."

Benny's Note Book

BY LEE PAPE

I ran all the way home yesterday hoping I wouldn't be late for supper again on account of having bin late so often lately, and I opened the front door and peeped in, and everybody was back in the dining room eating already, me shutting the door again easy, thinking, Heck.

Ill hide and you ring my front bell and whoever comes to the door tell them I was unavoidably detained, and then they'll expect me to be late and then Ill go in a little later and it will be all rite.

And I hid in the next store vestibule peeping out, and Puds rang the bell and ma opened the door, Puds saying, How do you do, Mrs. Potts, Benny is being unavoidably detained.

All Worried Women Need Rich Blood

If the Blood is Not Kept Pure
Health Will Break Down.

It is useless to talk a hard working woman to take life easily and not to worry. To do so is to ask the almost impossible. But, at the same time, it is the duty of every woman to save her strength to meet any unusual demands. It is a duty she owes herself and family for her future health may depend upon it.

To guard against a complete breakdown in health the blood must be kept rich, red and pure. No other medicine does this so well as Dr. Williams' Pink Pills. This medicine strengthens the nerves, restores the appetite and keeps every organ healthily toned up. Women cannot always rest when they should, but they can keep their strength by the occasional use of Dr. Williams' Pink Pills. Among those who have found benefit from this medicine is Mrs. Cora Conrad, Broad Cove, N. S., who says: "My system was very much run down, and my blood poor and watery. I suffered a great deal from headaches and dizziness; by appetite was poor, and I tired easily. I decided to try Dr. Williams' Pink Pills and have every reason to be glad that I did so. Soon I felt better, and under the continued use of the pills the headaches and dizziness were gone, and my blood seemed in a better condition than before. For this reason I recommend Dr. Williams' Pink Pills."

You can get Dr. Williams' Pink Pills through any dealer in medicine or by mail at 50 cents a box or six boxes for $2.50 from The Dr. Williams' Medicine Co., Brockville, Ont.

JUNE WEDDINGS

Clark-McCafferty.
A very pretty wedding of interest was solemnized in St. Peter's Church at 8 o'clock yesterday morning, when Rev. STYLE NOTES

Ribbon loops like shavings are a smart new summer dress trimming.

A dress buyer now in Paris writes that "every smart woman is dressed in rags," meaning the various panels, points and such cuts that suggest the movement in vogue for the moment.

The fashion for frills at waists and neck is being revived in Paris, and many of the newest tailor-mades are accompanied by frilled blouses made of white organdy, crepe de chine, or the finest handkerchief linen.

Paris skirts are now from seven to ten inches, for evening anywhere from ten to two, but it is harder to make a ruling for these, as hemlines are so irregular that a dress may be two inches from the floor at one side and ten at the other, while a few strictly tailored coat dresses keep shorter skirts, as do tailored suits.

South End League Opens On Monday

Initial Game Will Be Played by St. Peter's and Royals Intermediate Teams.

The South End Intermediate Baseball League will open Monday night with the initial game to be played between the St. Peter's and Royals teams of the St. Peter's Baseball Club, and the Royals, last year's champions. His Worship Mayor Schofield has promised to open the league in the official manner by pitching the first speedy one across the pan.

There will also be five teams in the league this year—the Beavers, Imperial Oil, St. Peter's, Sugar Refinery and Royals. The captains of the five teams met on the South End grounds last night and drew up a schedule for the season, which will call for three games a week.

There will also be a Junior South End League this year, composed of four teams, who will play two nights a week and on Saturdays, probably in the morning. The entire league will be left open for special and postponed games.

The members of the South End Intermediate League executive were at the grounds last night and took a tour of the large crowd of ball players to secure their assistance in leaving a shack situated near first base, some distance back from the diamond. The intention is to enlarge the building and fit it up into a commodious check room for next year's open air rink on the South End.

America's Champion Woman Golfer

English Golfing Authority Compares Visitor's Style With That of Opponent.

London, June 1.—Miss Alexa Stirling of Atlanta, Ga., America's champion woman golfer now in England as one of the representatives of the United States Golf Association to compete for the British Women's championship title at Turnberry, Scotland, on May 30, made her first appearance in English competition recently at Stoke Poges in the annual match between ten of the best women players and ten leading male amateurs. Each woman was allowed half-stroke a hole, Miss Stirling was defeated by R. H. de Montmorency while the British women's champion, Miss Joyce Wechered and Miss Molly Ogilvie to mention only two English lady golfers who are advancing steadily to the standard set by the British lady champion.

An English golfing authority writing in a London Daily gives his impression of Miss Stirling's game on and compares her style of play with that of the British champion, Miss Letich, as follows:

"The real interest was centered in Miss Stirling as a chief representative of the great American golfing public. Her reputation and position in the States is analogous to that of supreme in their own spheres. Perhaps the gulf between Miss Stirling and her American contemporaries is greater than between Miss Letich and Miss Joyce Wechered and Miss Molly Ogilvie to mention only two English lady golfers who are advancing steadily to the standard set by the British lady champion.

"Having seen Miss Stirling play on a course which is not dissimilar to many of the first-class United States inland courses, there can be little question that she is far superior in sheer golfing science to any other American lady who has honored us with her presence. But that does not mean to imply that she is the equal of Miss Letich. Frankly, I do not think she is, and for one very simple reason, Miss Stirling lacks the "grace" to me a somewhat indistinct, but expressive phrase, that produces length, and which is so characteristic of Miss Letich's game.

"Now, Miss Letich takes the club back desperately quick and brings it down with the maximum of speed, with the result that the head of the club and the ball meet in a resounding crash. With Miss Stirling it is more of a sweep than a blow. In Miss Letich's case the follow-through is restricted. As regards the grip, where strength of fingers and hands has to be taken into account, the methods of the two champions are quite different. Miss Stirling uses the overlapping grip with the left hand well over the club, while Miss Letich employs the old Scottish grip with both thumbs round the shaft.

Humorist Won Classic Derby

Viscount Astor's Craig An Era Was Second and Jos. Watson's Lemoners Third.

Epson, Eng., June 1.—Humorist won the classic Derby run here today. Viscount Astor's Craig An Era was second, and Jos. Watson's Lemoners was third. Twenty-three horses started.

The betting quotations for the Derby were: Humorist, 5 to 1; Craig An Era, 5 to 1; Lemoners, 8 to 1. The fourth horse was Alan Break.

Humorist was closely pressed by Craig An Era and got some only by a neck ahead of that horse.

Jos. Watson's Lemoners, in third place, was three lengths behind Craig An Era, while the favorite, Alan Break, owned by Sir J. Buchanan, was fourth.

There was a false start before the horses got away, and it was 2.30 o'clock before they were off.

The Derby was won by J. B. Joel's chestnut colt Humorist, by Polymelus, out of Jest, the latter being the stout mare who won both the one thousand guinea and the Oaks, for the second time in 1912.

Jest was also bred by Mr. Joel, her sire being the famous Sunbridge. Polymelus, who headed the list of winning sires as far back as 1915, achieved that distinction again last year and is evidently in for another very successful season with his winning progeny.

Mr. Joel, who made his millions in the Rand, has been a successful breeder of thoroughbreds for a number of years, having won the Derby with Sunstar in 1911, another great horse he owned being Your Majesty, who won the St. Leger, in 1908, and he won the same race with Black Jester in 1914.

Old Timers Lost To The Nationals

In a game replete with strenuous playing, complete base running, and a perpetual clash of old time strategy with present day science, the North End Nationals, succeeded in defeating the "Old Timers" by the narrow margin of one run brought in in the last inning after the score had steadily risen to the tie of 21 to 21.

The action was out by Jones enabled McLeary to cross the plate with the winning run. The game was played on the Victoria Square diamond.

An outstanding feature of a game which featured from the outset and which held the features of a large number of fans in alternate spasms of excitement and laughter, was the home run bingle starred by Earle.

The batteries for the winners were: Armstrong and Earl; for the losers, Black, Cheeseman and Perry.

The line-up was:

Nationals	Catcher	Old Timers
E. Earle	Pitcher	A. Perry
J. Armstrong	First Base	H. Black
A. McLeary	Second Base	F. Holdman
H. Jones	Third Base	H. Chase
S. Leary	Short Stop	Arch Roberts
R. Roberts	Outfield	A. Cheeseman
R. Black	Right Field	Fred Newburg
A. Vowles	Left Field	W. Jones
E. Pitt	Umpire	F. O'Dell

The Old Timers carried a string of players who were the idols of the fans in other days, amongst others were Roberts and Jones of the old Algonquins. Black who used to pitch for the still famous Roses, and Chase who also played for that team.

difficult courses, where nature and man's cunning have full sway, this plan may meet with success. To steer clear of sandy wastes, while your more powerful and dashing opponent is getting into them, has won many a championship.

In Which She Excels.

"Probably the shots in which Miss Stirling really excels are the three-quarter iron and mashie strokes. She hits the ball firmly and covers the flag the whole way. Some of these shots were a real joy to watch, because, as a general rule, ladies are woefully inefficient when an iron club is placed in their hands.

"Perhaps it was asking a little too much of her to meet Mr. R. H. de Montmorency, plus three, on a course that he knows upside down. For eight holes and the best part of the ninth Miss Stirling played amazingly well; so well, in fact, that Mr. Montmorency was fighting with his back to the wall. At this point she was 2 up, and the issue, so far as Mr. Montmorency was concerned, was had the "fisher" done. Then came an extraordinary, swift, and astonishing collapse, and Miss Stirling lost six out of the next seven holes, although she was in receipt of a stroke at four of them. The prospect of a keen and desperate finish vanished like snow in sunshine.

"Miss Stirling, who since her arrival in England has been playing a good deal at Hoylake and Turnberry, developed a blister on her left hand during the match, which became more painful as the game proceeded. This may have had something to do with her otherwise somewhat startling collapse. Anyhow, she complained of feeling feebly tired when the game was over.

St. Georges Tie With St. Roses

Intermediate League Game in West End Last Evening Went to Score of 10 to 9.

By defeating the St. Roses on the Queen Square diamond last evening in the West End Intermediate League, St. Georges' team proved masters with the Patriotic aggregation and won the five-inning game by a score of ten to nine. About 800 fans witnessed fairly good baseball, and while the St. Roses managed to make six runs in the first two innings, the West-Enders were able to get eight men across the plate in the last two innings and captured the game. The hitting was pretty heavy at times, five singles for two bases and two triples being made during the game.

Inter-Scholastic Track Meet June 11

Will Be Held at Rothersey Collegiate School's Campus—Strong Teams Entered.

Saturday, June 11th, is the date that has been set for the Inter-Scholastic Track Meet, which will be held on the Rothersey Collegiate School's campus this year. Strong teams from the Rothersey Collegiate School, the St. John High School and the Rothersey Consolidated School have already been entered, and it is anticipated that a team from the Aberdeen High School of Moncton will be countered in a Frederick High School of Moncton in this popular event, and several records established by the capital's young athletes.

The trophy for which the teams will compete has been put into competition by the Rothersey Collegiate School, and is open for competition to any high school or collegiate school track team in the province.

The rules governing the competition were drawn up by a committee composed of representatives of Rothersey Collegiate, the St. John High School and the Aberdeen High School of Moncton.

The wisdom of the East. Some Chinese proverbs collected by Roy Chapman Andrews and handed on by him to recent meeting of the Dutch Treat Club in New York City.

If you bow at all, bow low. A man thinks he knows—but a woman knows better. Free sitters at the play always grumble most.

I have seen not one who loves virtue as he loves beauty. Only imbeciles want credit for the achievements of their ancestors.

The faults which a man condemns out of office he commits when in office. No image-maker worships the gods. He knows what they are made of. One more good man on earth is better than an extra angel in heaven.

It is not the wine which makes a man drunk—it is the man himself. If you suspect a man, don't employ him—if you employ him, don't suspect him.—The Independent (New York).

New One Mile Record Is Set

Halifax String of Six in Charge of "Red" Hanafin Entered at All Meets.

New York, June 1.—A United States one mile horse racing record of one minute, 35.25 seconds was set today by Audacious III winning the Mincks Handicap at the Belmont Park race track. The previous record, a fifth of a second slower, was held by the famous Man O' War, and was made over the same track a year ago.

On The Other Foot. "When these nations fully realize the facility of competing with us to gain naval superiority, they will gladly and quickly agree to the limitation of naval armaments and not before."

Thus spoke John Mays Hammond at Philadelphia last week. The nations referred to were Great Britain and Japan.

Great Britain does not have to compete with the United States to gain naval superiority. She already has it in overwhelming measure. The nation that is competing to deprive her of it is the United States—Vancouver World.

RAIL STOCKS ON WALL STREET IN HEAVY SESSIONS

Wage Cut Fails to Bring Any Strength to Transportations.

SPECULATIVES ARE INACTIVE AND LOSERS

Sterling Rallies Four Cents on Strong Foreign Exchange.

New York, June 1.—Shares of re-negotiated value were relatively steady in the stock market today, but speculative issues recorded additional losses.

Increased depressing in essential industries, notably the steel and motor was marked by further curtailment of operations, lower price schedules and more readjustment of dividend.

Food specialties, such as sugars, were heavy. In the list, as a whole, gains and losses were confusingly mixed and the irregular close sales amounting to 515,000 shares.

Transportation stocks derived little or no benefit from the cut in wages ordered by the Railroad Labor Board.

Money Market Changes

Indications in the money market followed the recently set course, call loans opening at seven per cent, and rising to 7 1/2 in response to the usual beated demand.

The foreign exchange market was strong. Sterling rallied four cents from its recent low and continental rates advanced to 35 points, the Dutch rate showing especial improvement.

A new low record of 86 3/4 for Liberty 2 1/2's featured the bond markets. Liberty Liberties were mostly low, but Victory notes strengthened.

Quincy, Ill., June 1.—Six thousand radium, which was accidentally swallowed by a patient in a local hospital, was recovered by surgeons in the record time of two hours by a stomach incision.

"Where is my umbrella?" fumed father, just as he was ready to rush off to the city. "Somebody's taken it!"

"Little Willie looked up at his dad. 'I expect Mr. Smith took it, father,' he said."

"Mabel, the beautiful grown-up daughter of the house, blushed crimson."

"Oh, Willie," she cried, "how can you say such a thing?"

"Well, sis," returned Willie, "when I was saying good-night to you last night, I heard him say, 'Mabel, dear, I'm going to steal just one.'"

COAL MEN NOT LIKELY TO TAKE NEW PROPOSAL

Expected They Will Refuse Offer Made by Premier Lloyd George.

TROUBLE WITH RAIL WORKERS SETTLED

Premier Protests at Unfounded Report That He Threatened to Close Mines.

London, June 1.—Indications point to a general rejection of the government's new proposals in connection with coal settlement. Some of the miners in South West Scotland, Derbyshire, Yorkshire and other large coal fields have already declined to accept the proposals. In a statement, however, Premier Lloyd George, secretary of the union, virtually offers to drop the idea, which heretofore has been a statement, provided the owners are willing to offer a 10 per cent wage standard. He suggests 80 cent above the 1919 scale as the standard, to which the owners are not likely to agree.

Settle Read Trouble. It is now expected the trouble which has arisen in some corner of the coal industry will be quickly adjusted.

Lloyd George in a letter to F. Hodges, secretary of the union, against the latter's suggestion that the government threatened to close the mines to compulsory arbitration. The Premier pointed out that the union's demand for a 10 per cent wage standard in certain districts to the hostility of the miners against the government proposals.

Hodges, secretary of the union, made such an assertion as a result of fact.

He says, however, that such a suggestion was not in the minds of the miners' representatives at the conference with Mr. Lloyd George on Saturday.

"Our mission is to represent man inside, in having justice to help the world to realize the value of manhood, which is not from the 'scrap heap' by simply forgetting him as a man, instead withholding from him the education which is his birthright. Therefore, we can help him inside to seek, regain or keep success; help him to see how his success and help in his progress will be the social prejudice and ostracism which a prisoner meets after he is released, we shall not work in vain."

Liquor Inspector Cannot Interfere

Injunction Restraining Officials from Interfering With Storing of Liquor Sustained

The injunction restraining the Attorney-General and the Chief Liquor Inspector from interfering with the storing of liquor for export trade in bonded warehouses established in this city by the W. E. McIntyre and J. J. Bradley, wholesale liquor firms of Montreal, was sustained by Mr. Justice Grimmer in the Chancery Division of the Supreme Court yesterday afternoon.

The argument in the petition of the Attorney-General and the Chief Liquor Inspector that the injunction be rescinded or varied, was begun by Dr. W. B. Wallace, K. C., on behalf of the Attorney-General, and by W. M. Parsons, K. C., on behalf of the Chief Liquor Inspector, on the opening of the court at 11 o'clock yesterday morning.

The Bradley Company was represented by Dr. F. R. Taylor, K. C., and William G. Pugsley, Jr., K. C., of Ottawa; while the McIntyre Company was represented by Dr. J. B. M. Baxter, K. C.; M. G. Teed, K. C., and J. D. P. Lewin.

Affidavits Presented.—Affidavits were presented by Dr. Wallace, giving statements of the C. B. Lockhart, Collector of Customs, Sub-liquor Inspector Crawford, and Chief Inspector Hawthorne in connection with the matter. The latter said there had been no request to him to inspect and approve the sites chosen for warehouse purposes.

Regarding the granting of the injunction, Dr. Wallace contended that the attorney-general in his official capacity could not be enjoined, that he was not a necessary and proper party to the suit as there had been nothing in the affidavits presented by the liquor companies to show he was attempting to do anything in the matter. It was also contended that notice of action must be given to the inspector and that no injunction should issue as the question was simply hypothetical and there was no issue to be tried.

Powerless to Interfere.—As a result of yesterday's hearing the prohibition authorities remain powerless to interfere in any manner with the storing of liquor in bonded warehouses for export trade. The removal of the liquor stored in several C. P. R. cars in the city awaiting the decision of the court will in all probability be proceeded with at once and the bonded warehouses secured by the liquor companies will soon be filled to capacity with an array of liquors suited to the enormous demand anticipated by the wholesalers.

It is said that the decision of the court in July will be a matter of little moment to the liquor dealers. It is during the month of June that they propose to reap the golden harvest, as Ontario, Nova Scotia and the Western Provinces will all be dry by July, and it will be illegal to export liquor to those areas then.

Enumerators Had Wonderful Time

Thirty-Six Are on the Job Securing 1921 Federal Census—Task is Difficult

Thirty-six enumerators set out yesterday morning on the task of securing the 1921 federal census of the city. Each man has been assigned a special territory and will only report to the Census Commissioner, W. S. Clawson, at the census headquarters on the corner of Union and Smythe streets, when he has completed his task.

Chance to Help.—Citizens of the city may help in many ways to make the difficult task facing the enumerators an easy one. The last time the census was taken many expressed surprise that the city's population was not rated larger than it was, but this may be accounted for to some extent by the fact that all those who work in the city, but whose homes are situated in Rothesay, Hampton, or other out-of-town points, are classed as citizens of these points and not of St. John.

On the other hand, it is feared that in this census many citizens who are bona fide residents of the city may not be so enumerated in view of the fact that they are spending the summer in country homes. The enumerators wish it to be known, however, that if they hand their names into the city, they will not have to bother with the census taker in the country. Those who may do this are all well, while living in the country at the present time, have their permanent residence in the city.

Those in the Country.—A man and his family who sublet their city house for the summer and move to the country, should advise the enumerators of this fact, and they will be enrolled as citizens of St. John. All will naturally join in assisting to make the population of the city as large as possible.

N.B. Power Co. Makes Splendid Offer

Ready to Adopt Standard's Suggestion to Help Unemployed

The suggestion in the editorial columns of The Standard yesterday that two or three shifts of men be employed on the Brussels street paving job to furnish work for the unemployed, is being received with favor by all who are interested in a solution of the unemployment problem, when interviewed.

The Standard endeavored to get in touch with the contractor having the work in charge to urge the workmen of the suggestion upon their consideration, but the manager was out of the city and his view could not be had. There is a feeling among those who are following up The Standard's suggestion that the contractor will adopt it.

Power Co. Favors Scheme.—General Manager Thomson, of the New Brunswick Power Co., which will have to employ and help many men on the Brussels street work, when interviewed, expressed himself as most favorable to the suggestion of The Standard's, and said his company would gladly put on one or two extra shifts, whatever the contractor agreed upon, so as to furnish work for more of the unemployed. Furthermore, Manager Thomson has promised The Standard that the company will make Brussels street as light as day, in so far as electric brilliancy can do it, for the night shift without any expense to the contractor.

Five Deacons Were Elected

Interesting Service in Ludlow Street Baptist Church West St. John Last Evening

An interesting event took place at Ludlow Street Baptist Church last evening when five deacons were elected at one of the Netherwood School gatherings held in the church for many years. According to the constitution, seven deacons are to carry on the work of the church. Five having passed away within the past ten years John F. Ring and Everett J. Ring were the remaining two.

A short devotional service took place before the election. Rev. Isaac Brindley conducting this service.

Deacons John F. Ring, Renwick J. Anderson and Roy C. McKinney acted as scrutineers.

The ballot, which was a secret one, resulted in the election of the following: Edgar W. Christopher, William Fulton, George T. Ring, R. Hunter Parsons, Renwick J. Anderson. The two first named are elected for three years, Mr. Parsons and Mr. Anderson for two years.

During the evening, plans were perfected for the entertainment of the Southern Association of the Baptist Church which meets at the Ludlow Street Church the last of June. About fifty delegates are expected to attend this gathering.

Minnie Ferris On Charge of Theft

Is Alleged to Have Robbed Halifax Church of England Institute

Detective Atkins of the Halifax police department returned to that city on the late express last night. He had in his custody Minnie Ferris, the young girl arrested here for a theft alleged to have been committed by her in Halifax some few days ago.

Early Morning Entrance.—According to the officer's story, Miss Ferris, sometime known as "Billie," may also have to face the charge of forgery when brought before the Nova Scotia courts. She was formerly employed with the Church of England Institute on Barrington street, but resigned her position some three weeks ago.

A few days later the till of the Institute was found rifled of some $4, all the petty cash being in favor of a number of different young ladies in the city in payment for money, and cashed at the bank. The description of the thief who had passed the check under different names answered to Miss Ferris and it was soon found that she had left Halifax for St. John, whereupon she was ordered held for the Halifax police. The girl, who is possessed of a pretty countenance and attractive figure, protests her innocence.

Overdrawn Accounts.—Nothing seemed to have disappeared at the time but the cash, but a week later, the head of the institute was surprised to be informed by the bank that his account had been overdrawn by over $150. On looking up his check book, he found that some five or six checks had been torn from the back of the book.

Getting in touch with the bank, he found over a half a dozen checks made out in favor of a number of different young ladies in the city in payment for money, and cashed at the bank. The description of the thief who had passed the check under different names answered to Miss Ferris and it was soon found that she had left Halifax for St. John, whereupon she was ordered held for the Halifax police. The girl, who is possessed of a pretty countenance and attractive figure, protests her innocence.
