CALL TO WAR FOR AUSTRILIANS IN THE STATES

All Deserters Are Told They Will Be Permitted To Return.

TOURISTS CANCEL TRIPS

Servians Have Not Yet Been Called to Their Native Land.

A TEST OF EXCHANGES

New York Market Condition "a Tribute to Sound Condition of Finance."

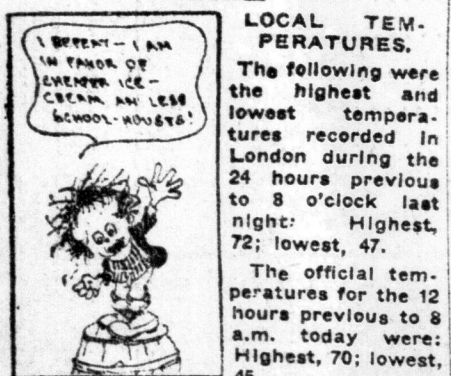

[Canadian Press.]

New York, July 30.—A proclamation calling upon all patriotic Austrians, Hungarians and Croats to forward their addresses at once to their nearest consulate, has been forwarded for publication to all pro-Austro-Hungarian newspapers throughout America by Charles Winter, who is in charge of the Austro-Hungarian consulate in this city. This is taken as an indication that a partial mobilization of Austrian forces has been ordered. The proclamation contains the amnesty proposal announced on Tuesday. At the consulate today it was said that returns were expected to be received this week from all Austrian subjects who have received special or individual calls to arms. These reservists, it was said, would be the first to be sent over, then will come the others who have answered the general mobilization call. No official word has as yet been received at the Serbian consulate here concerning mobilization calls. This was accounted for by the fact that all cable messages from Serbia must come through Italy and Austria and therefore may have been stopped in transit.

Off to the War

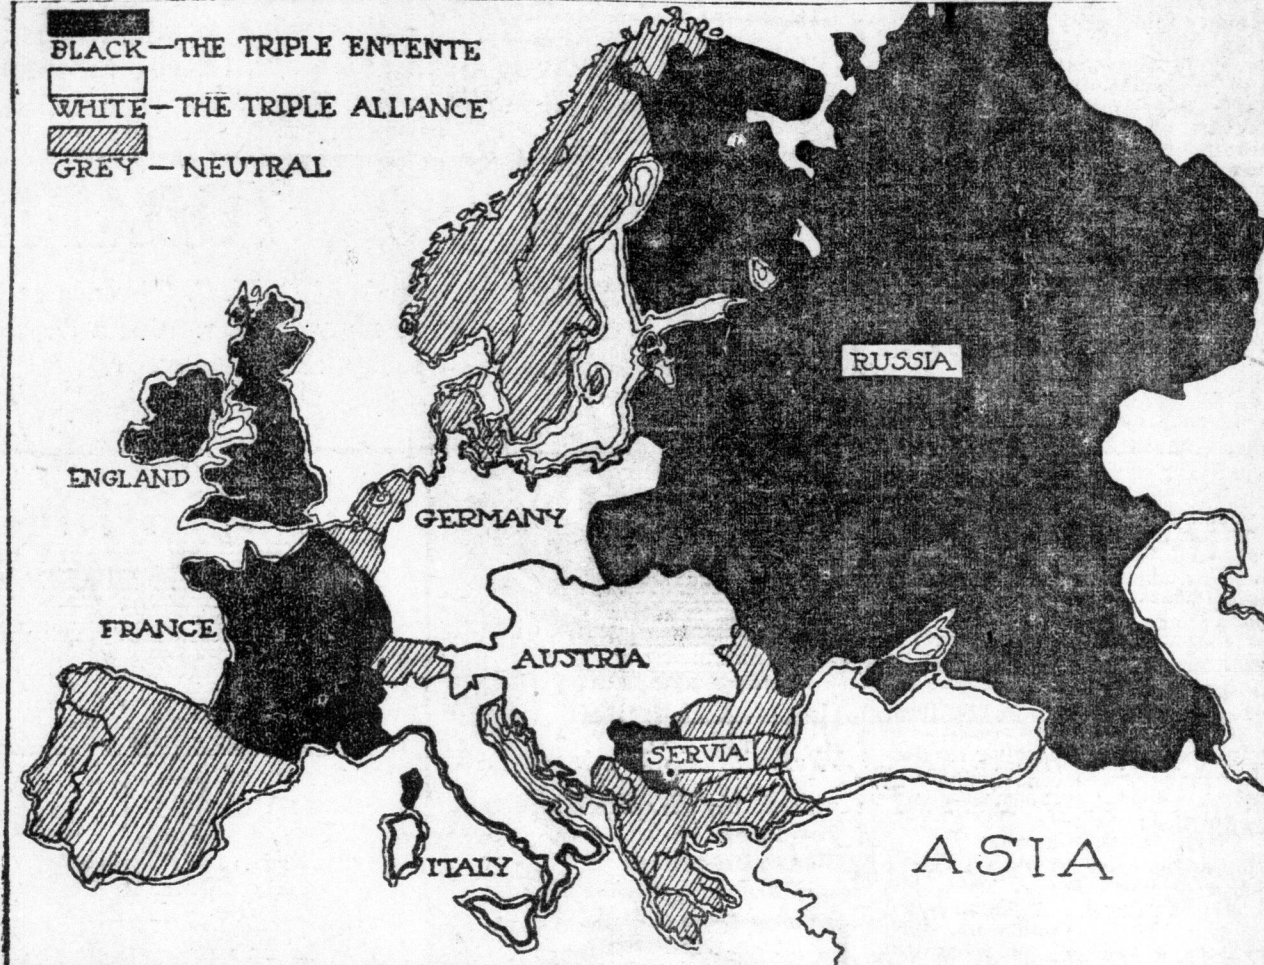

Thus far the war clouds overhanging all Europe have not affected the booking for European ports, nor is it believed that many bookings have been cancelled on account of it. About 400 Austrians and Servians sailed yesterday on the La Savoie, among them being Count Karolyi, leader of the Hungarian Independent party. Cable advices from London and Paris made public here today indicated that thousands of American tourists were awaiting developments before continuing trips eastward. Officials of the New York stock exchange today said that the closing of the exchange had not been considered because of the threatening conditions in Europe. The exchange yesterday experienced one of the most severe tests in its history. In commenting upon the stability of the market, H. G. S. Noble, president of the board, said that "the fact that the New York Stock Exchange stood alone with a free and unrestricted market for securities is a tribute to the sound condition of American finance." There is little danger of industries in this country suffering because of the threatened general war in Europe, according to employers in some of the large manufacturing trades.

HUNDREDS KILLED IN CLASH OF RIVAL ARMIES ALONG BORDERS OF SERVIA

BRITISH LEGATION IS STRUCK IN FUSILLADE UPON BELGRADE

[Canadian Press.]

London, July 30.—A newspaper dispatch from Rome says sharp resistance is being offered to the Austrian advance from the northwest by small detachments of Serbian troops left to impede their progress. The news comes from Nish, Serbia, by way of Saloniki. HUNDREDS ARE KILLED.
The Austro-Hungarian invaders followed the valley of the River Morava, and first encountered a body of Serbian troops at Semendria, on the Serbian side of the Danube. The Servians held their ground until nightfall and then retired. Both Austrians and Servians sustained heavy losses, several hundred soldiers being killed in the engagement.

FRENCH REGARD WAR AS CERTAIN

Crowds Withdrawing Savings Have Increased Threefold—Shortage in Change Paralyzes Retail Trade of Paris

[Canadian Press.]

Paris, July 30.—The French minister of finance declared today that he was absolutely opposed to a moratorium, which had been advocated in some quarters. He said a state of war alone would justify such a measure, and even then only in case of imperative necessity. The French public seems to regard a general war as a certainty. The crowds outside the savings banks today were three times as numerous as those of yesterday.

RUINED BY WAR, BROKER AND WIFE END LIVES

Berlin in a State of Panic and Money Will Advance.

[Canadian Press.]

Berlin, July 30.—Settlement dealings on the Berlin bourse were entirely suspended today and the brokers who gathered on the floor confined themselves to cash transactions. The most pessimistic rumors were in circulation, and many firms were in difficulties. The members of the bankers' association met and many of those present were in favor of closing the bourse, but as they were not unanimous the committee of the bourse resolved to keep the exchange open for cash trading. Exciting scenes were witnessed on

FOREIGN STUDENTS MUST LEAVE GERMANY

Arrivals in London Report Troop Trains On Way to Border.

[Canadian Press.]

London, July 30.—All foreign pupils at the big German schools were informed yesterday that they must leave Germany immediately. A number of English students left last night, and arrived here today. One who came from Bonn, on the Rhine, said that between that town and Cologne the train in which he was travelling passed eight trains loaded with German soldiers going toward the French frontier. The bridges and all the lines were closely guarded, and intense excitement prevailed in all the towns in the district where it was understood the schools were to be converted into military hospitals.

ASQUITH WILDLY CHEERED AS PARTIES ARE UNITED IN ORDER TO PRESENT UNBROKEN FRONT TO WHOLE WORLD

Halifax Garrison Ordered To Be Ready For War?

Mobilization Is Alleged To Have Taken Place Because of Activities, But Authorities Are Silent.

[Canadian Press.]

Halifax, N. S., July 30.—There are indications of the mobilization of the whole garrison of H. M. S. "Hercules," on the strength of a dispatch from the war office. The artillery was mobilized this morning, and it is understood that they will immediately man the different forts in the harbor.

No Information Given.

Whatever preparations are being made are being carried out very quietly. No information could be gained as to what was being done at headquarters, the officials stating that they had instructions to give nothing out for publication. The citadel, however, was the scene of much activity.

Held in Readiness.

By one o'clock the R. C. F. A. of both companies stationed in the citadel were mobilized and proceeded to the forts on the transport steamers. A special train will bring back the R. C. R. stationed in Aldershot this afternoon, and it is expected that when these arrive the infantry will be held in readiness.

Colonel Hodgins, divisional commander of No. 1 District, informed The Advertiser late this afternoon that he had not received any orders from Ottawa in reference to the mobilization of Canadian troops. He declined to discuss the situation, and would say nothing about the possibilities of such an order.

KEPT LETTER FROM DOCTOR; KNEW HE WAS GONE FOR GOOD

Witness Makes This Admission at Session of Blanche York Inquest Today — Says He Did Not Suspect.

[Special to The Advertiser.]
Toronto, Ont., July 30.—That Dr. Robinson, suspected of having performed the operation which caused the death of Miss Blanche York, wrote a letter to Damon B. Floyd after he left the village, from which Floyd deduced that the man would never return, and that Floyd kept silent about the communication when it might have assisted the police in their investigation are some of the facts elicited when Coroner Dr. Cowan's inquest was resumed here today.

Contents a Secret.
Crown Attorney Preston declared that the contents of the letter would not be divulged at present. Charles R. Jones, manager of the Toronto branch of the Sterling Bank, has just declared that he could not say whether Miss York's bank book with its balance of $57.04 was still in existence. Floyd, a Toronto merchant, was then called. He declared that he had anything to do with the final disappearance, and had been answered in the negative. He had merely given her medicine for an ailment of the stomach. "Did he say anything about an operation?" asked Crown Attorney C. H. Preston. "Not a thing."

Russia's Move Makes It Worse

[Canadian Press.]

Berlin, July 30.—Representative officials at the foreign office declared that the situation had grown worse today instead of better. They pointed out that the mobilization of the Russian army at a time when Austria-Hungary had not moved a man toward the Russian frontier, could only be interpreted in one way, and that was that Russia was determined to support Serbia.

It was added that France also was known to be making secret military preparations, and that although Germany had not yet mobilized it was questionable whether she could remain inactive much longer in face of the military preparations on her borders.

Winnipeg Hears Reserves Are Called

[Canadian Press.]

Winnipeg, July 30.—A grain exchange cable from Liverpool states British reserves have been ordered to mobilize and that the Aquitania, the largest of British merchant vessels, has been ordered to Portsmouth.

The price of wheat advanced six cents in Winnipeg in the first hour.

Remarkable Demonstration Marks the Announcement by Premier That Bonar Law Agrees To Drop Home Rule For Present—Situation "Unparalleled" in the Lives of British Statesmen.

"This Country, Which Has No Interests of Its Own Directly, Should Present a United Front and Be Able To Speak and Act With Authority of an Undivided Nation."

The War Situation at a Glance

The gravity of the international situation was recognized in all European capitals today.

Premier Asquith and Sir Edward Grey called on all parties in the British Isles to join together in efforts to avert the immeasurable calamity of an extension of hostilities to other countries.

The German Emperor conferred lengthily with the imperial chancellor and the ministers of war and marine, and later reserve officers received orders to mobilize.

Russia proceeded with her mobilization of a large number of troops.

President Moinere and the French cabinet decided to meet daily, and the French defensive forces took extensive precautionary measures.

Austrian invaders and Serbian troops came into conflict on Serbian territory and hundreds of casualties were said to have resulted.

The whereabouts of the main British fleet is unknown since its departure yesterday from Portland under sealed orders.

The German battle squadrons are concentrated at Kiel and Wilhelmshaven.

The French fleet has taken steps to prepare for eventualities.

Japan is said to have declared its readiness to join its ally, Great Britain.

In outlying British colonies the troops have been prepared for instant service.

A German gunboat hurriedly quit Cape Town today and went to sea.

The German and British fleets in the Far East have been concentrated at the chief stations.

All foreign students were ordered to leave German schools.

Stock markets in Europe have virtually ceased operations, and the leading banking institutions have taken measures to preserve their stocks of gold.

[Canadian Press.]

London, July 30.—While Austrian invaders and Serbian troops were fighting the opening stages of their war on Serbian territory today European statesmen and rulers were engaged in what they regarded as the almost hopeless task of trying to avert a general clash of the millions composing the armies of the great European powers.

Sir Edward Grey, a central figure in the controversy, owing to his strong efforts to keep the powers of the Triple Alliance and the Triple Entente from flying at each other's throats, was not able to give any cheering news when he spoke about the crisis to the members of the House of Commons.

SITUATION NOT LESS GRAVE.

The British Foreign Secretary said: "I regret that I cannot say the situation is less grave than it was yesterday. The outstanding facts are much the same. Austria-Hungary has begun her war against Serbia, and Russia has ordered a partial mobilization of her troops. This has not hitherto led to corresponding steps being taken by the other powers so far as our information goes."

"We continue to pursue our one great object of preserving the European peace, and for this purpose we are keeping in close touch with the other powers. In thus keeping in touch we have, I am glad to say, had no difficulties so far with the other powers although it has not been possible for those powers to join in diplomatic action, as was proposed on Monday last."

CONDITION IS UNPARALLELED.

Premier Asquith also spoke of the extreme gravity of the situation. When announcing to the House of Commons the postponement of the second reading of the bill to amend the Irish home rule bill, he said:

"We meet today under conditions of gravity, which are almost unparalleled in the experience of any one of us. The issues of peace and war are hanging in the balance, and with us is the risk of a catastrophe of which it is impossible to measure either the dimensions or the effects."

"In this circumstances it is of vital importance in the interests of the whole world that this country, which has no interests of its own directly at stake, should present a united front."

ITALIAN COLONY HAS BIG PICNIC

600, Many From Out of Town, Attend Marconi Club Outing at Wonderland.

BEATS PREVIOUS RECORDS

Dancing, Fireworks, Special Musical Program Features of the Celebration.

Attended by more than six hundred citizens of London and visitors from Port Huron, Detroit, Hamilton and Toronto, the Marconi Club picnic, held yesterday at Wonderland, eclipsed by a wide margin all previous annual outings of that organization.

Four special cars provided by the London street railway carried a large proportion of the picnicers to the park in the morning. Other regular and special Springbank cars throughout the afternoon and evening stopped to discharge additional passengers bound for the big London Italian national outing.

Races, games, contests and a spirited tug-of-war were features of an interesting and attractive afternoon program. The tug-of-war, contested by teams representing the Marconi Club and the Italian Mutual Benefit Society, was won by the Marconi Club.

Fine Musical Program. Music during the afternoon and evening was provided by the Marconi Club band of 25 pieces. Much of the dancing in the evening was provided by the Ernest Cortese Orchestra. Few local picnics, it would be safe to say, could hope to equal the musical program provided. Professor Pasquale Venuta, author of the "Old Boys' Reunion March," and other compositions, was in charge of the Marconi Club band, which rendered a program of exceptionally fine selections. The dancing floor was built of matched lumber and surrounded by a palisade decorated with several hundred electric lights.

Fireworks Display. Under the direction of Eulio Bottieri, of the International Fireworks Company, New York, a branch factory of which firm is shortly to be established in London, a short program of one of the finest displays of fireworks ever seen in London was provided. The fireworks were set off from the north side of the river, and attracted attention from a great distance. Professor Bottieri will be in charge of the Western Fair fireworks display this year.

Addresses were given by Joseph Pambura, representing the Marconi Club, and Dominio Cusolito, representing the Italian Mutual Benefit Society.

Concluded by Banquet. On their return to the city the officers and members of the Marconi Club, the Italian Benefit Society, the band and orchestra, were entertained at a supper by Louis Peronick.

$5,183.67 CHURCH TAXES FOR GARBAGE REMITTED

Will Have To Pay Next Year, However—Hydro Property Exempt.

The court of revision will hold a meeting tomorrow afternoon to wind up the minor details of this year's taxes and assessments. In conformity with the opinion of the city solicitor, church garbages have been remitted in the sum of $5,183.67. The ruling of the city solicitor affects only the taxes for this year on the ground that the churches were not properly notified of the garbage assessment. The churches will have to pay the garbage tax next year. Only property of the crown and city property will be exempt from such taxation. The hydro property owned by the city will not be subject to taxation.

As the parade passes, they will fall into the rear as part of the parade.

Boulevard-City-Beautiful Scheme for Wellington Street

The proposed city beautiful plan for Wellington street on the north and south ends will doubtless go over until next year, as the work cannot be undertaken and finished this year. A partial survey of the street has been made for the purpose of ascertaining how much underground work will have to be done before the pavement is laid. This survey will be completed, and the estimate of the cost of asphalt pavement with double boulevards prepared and submitted to the board of control before the end of the year. It is recommended that next year's council and board of control will be made.

COMMISSIONER GOES OVER. & P.S.R.

Takes an Inspection Tour to See the Reconstruction Work.

EXPECT NEW STATIONS

Commissioners Look to Port Stanley and St. Thomas to Build Them.

A special train bearing Mayor Graham, Philip Pocock, M. D. Fraser, William Spittal, H. L. Buck, assistant engineer of the Hydro Commission, and newspaper men went over the London and Port Stanley railroad yesterday afternoon on a tour of inspection.

According to the way the contractors are making the grade, the road will be 23 miles from London to Port Stanley. The new 80 pound roadbed at the rate of a mile a day, and it is expected that by the middle of August the new steel will be laid as far as London. The Pere Marquette, having the contract for this work, has sublet the job to Marble & Barber. The steel has been distributed almost as far as West, and has been laid to a point this side of St. Thomas. Engineer Buck declared that when the steel is down on the old roadbed the force of men will go back and skeleton the track, line it up and ballast it. This is the only way the work can be done without interrupting the traffic.

MAKE PRESENTATION TO HELENA EMPLOYEES

Harry Ruth and Miss Acton Remembered by Their Fellow-Workers.

An enjoyable outing was held by the employees of the Helena Costume Company at Springbank on Wednesday evening. Leaving the city by special cars, the group arrived at the park on arrival at the park. MacLeod, was read by Margaret Kemp, referred to in the first articles presented, namely, for Miss Acton, a quantity of mending yarn, and a pipe for her husband to smoke while she repairs his household. The presentation included, in addition, a magnificent table service of silver cutlery and cut glass.

The girls between the girls' team was won by the best team. The trophy of Mae Meaden was the feature of the game.

NARROW ESCAPE FROM CROSSING FATALITY

Danger of Grade Crossings Once More Evidenced—Engine Hits Wagon.

Another level crossing fatality was averted by the narrowest of margins last night at the Maitland street crossing of the Grand Trunk, when a light engine, No. 2602 struck a gravel wagon in which James Smythe, 45, Roberts avenue, and J. Bolton, 7 Marmora street, were riding.

Both men jumped when the collision occurred and Bolton, who was driving, escaped entirely without injury. Smythe was not so fortunate, sustaining cuts on his nose, lips and chin. The wagon was slewed around by the force of the impact but neither it nor team attached were injured to any considerable extent.

The wagon was travelling south when the accident occurred. It had all but cleared the tracks when the yard engine, travelling quite slowly, struck the rear end. The watchman at the crossing claims that he attempted to stop the men in the wagon, but that his warning was ignored. He declares the bell of the locomotive was ringing at the time the collision occurred.

Dr. E. Seaborn attended Smythe and the latter was able to proceed home after his cuts had been dressed.

Boulevard-City-Beautiful Scheme for Wellington Street

The proposed city beautiful plan for Wellington street on the north and south ends will doubtless go over until next year, as the work cannot be undertaken and finished this year. A partial survey of the street has been made for the purpose of ascertaining how much underground work will have to be done before the pavement is laid. This survey will be completed, and the estimate of the cost of asphalt pavement with double boulevards prepared and submitted to the board of control before the end of the year. It is recommended that next year's council and board of control will be made.

NERVOUS DYSPEPSIA, GAS OR INDIGESTION

"Pape's Diapiesin" settles sour, upset stomachs in five minutes.

Time it! Pape's Diapiesin will digest anything you eat and overcome a sour, gassy or out-of-order stomach surely within five minutes.

If your meals don't fit comfortably, or what you eat lies like a lump of lead in your stomach, or if you have heartburn, that is a sign of indigestion.

Get from your pharmacist a fifty-cent case of Pape's Diapiesin and take it as soon as you can.

There will be no sour risings, no belching of undigested food mixed with acid, no stomach gas or heartburn, fullness or heavy feeling in the stomach, nausea, debilitating headaches, dizziness or intestinal griping.

This will all go, and besides, there will be no sour food left over in the stomach to poison your breath with nauseous odors.

Relief in five minutes from all stomach misery is waiting for you at any drug store.

These large fifty-cent cases contain enough "Pape's Diapiesin" to keep the entire family free from stomach disorders and indigestion for many months. It belongs in your home.

EXAMINATION RESULTS ARE ANNOUNCED

Many From Western Ontario May Enter Faculty of Education.

APPEALS PRE-CONSIDERED

Department Has Indicated the Few Absolutely Plucked.

[Special to The Advertiser.]

TORONTO, July 29.—The results from the Department of Education for the public school examinations for entrance to the faculty of education, and entrance to normal schools were announced tonight.

The departmental report mentions that the appeal examiners have already re-read the papers of each candidate whose marks would in former years have justified an appeal. Where such a candidate has still failed, the statement of marks will be stamped as re-read, and no further appeal will be allowed. In all other cases of failure, appeals will not be refused if made before September 1, and accompanied by a fee of $2.

"But," the department adds, "it is most unlikely that such appeals will succeed."

BELGIUM TO HAVE 100,000 MEN READY BY THIS EVENING

BRUSSELS, July 29.—The military movements in Belgium are being pushed rapidly, and by tomorrow evening 100,000 men will be equipped and ready. The forts around Liege and Namur are receiving war equipment and the bridges are being mined.

A special train at Arlon, capital of Belgium, is being used to carry the garrison to the north.

There was a run on the banks today.

An international Socialist meeting held here tonight to protest against the war was attended by James Keir Hardie, Independent Labor and Socialist member of the British Parliament, and M. Jaures, leader of the Socialists in the French Chamber of Deputies.

Demonstrations in the streets followed the meeting.

Alex. McDonald Slipped Into Small Stream in Bid-dulph Township.

[Special to The Advertiser.]

LUCAN, July 29.—Alex McDonald, the two-year-old son of William McDonald, was drowned this evening when he strayed away from his home in Bid-dulph Township, six miles north of here, and slipped into a creek.

Although the water was very shallow, the little fellow was unable to pull himself out, and was dead when found five minutes later by his father. Every effort was made to resuscitate him, but without success.

SHOULD BRITAIN FIGHT.

THE Austro-Serbian war is primarily a matter for the two nations to settle among themselves. We naturally sympathize with the weaker party, for the disparity in strength is so great that for Austria to attack Serbia seems a piece of wanton cruelty. If left to themselves the contest would not be of long duration. Serbia and Montenegro, if the latter should join in the war, would fight vigorously, and do Austria great damage, but would not long be able to resist the superior force against which they would be pitted.

But the principals are not likely to be alone. Russia will very probably come to the help of the Serbians, and then Germany might come to the rescue of Austria. But why should the field of battle be further extended? France will doubtless fear that a Russian defeat would pave the way for an attack from Germany. But not necessarily, even if Germany and Austria defeated Russia, the victors would suffer so much that they would be glad to have peace, and would be quite willing to leave France alone.

The only thing that would draw Britain into the fight would be the desire to help France and preserve the balance of power among European nations. At the present time relations are especially friendly between Germany, Austria and Italy, on the one hand, and between Russia, France and Britain, on the other. But that relationship is not an alliance offensive and defensive. Because one or two of the parties get into a fight, there is no sense in all of them becoming entangled. France is not under any obligations to rush into a Russo-Germanic war. And if she does so, that does not necessitate Britain becoming involved.

The duty of Britain, we are inclined to think, is to help keep the peace. All her energies should be devoted to restricting the combatants to the fewest number possible, and in trying to restore amicable relations between them. But if they will persist in fighting it is not her place to interfere. She has no cause for antagonism against any of them. She should be the friend of all, and the advocate of peace. It will be wise for her to maintain her own strength, and keep her weapons of offence and defence ready for emergencies. If she does that, when the other nations get through fighting with each other, they will be quite ready to sit still, and heal their wounds, instead of attacking an empire that has been saving its money, and growing in strength.

Britain doubtless has a duty towards those with whom she has a quasi-alliance. But she has also a duty towards her own people. And that is the most imperative. Participation in a great European war would mean for the British people not only great loss of property, and vast expenditures of money, but it would mean loss of life, great suffering for the masses, and a grievous burden for the survivors to bear for generations to come. Nothing would justify that except a direct attack from some other nation. Until that time comes, Britain should keep out of the fight, but be ready for emergencies.

THE CASE OF KELLY.

A CAMPAIGN for the release of a Canadian, known as Convict No. 2551, in the Atlanta Penitentiary, is being conducted by a number of American papers. The case is that of William (Big Bill) Kelly, one time a hardy farmer from New Brunswick, and it was referred to in connection with a scandal laid at the door of the Conservative Government at Ottawa, which promised to see what it could do to bring about Kelly's release, and never took any effective action.

Kelly committed the offence of selling his goods in the market where he could get the best price. He followed the natural instinct, and traded in the most convenient centre. He smuggled, in other words, and an American sleuth trailed him and began to shoot at him. Kelly defended himself. He knocked the pistol from the officer's hand and gave him a thrashing.

Kelly made his escape back to Canada to his wife and ten children, and did not attempt to cross the border again. But he was to cross the border, despite his caution. Two secret service men followed him near the border, and then carried him into American territory, where he was "rail-roaded" to Atlanta for a long term. The fact that in those days there was prejudice against a "Canuck" brought a vicious revenge upon the old smuggler. His wife died while he was in prison; he is today a broken man, but his family still needs his support.

The American papers which have taken up his case are appealing to their readers to sign petitions for the pardon of Kelly, and the forwarding of such petitions to President Woodrow Wilson. One paper says that these petitions, if granted, "will do more for good-will along the northern border than almost any other step our Government could take." Both from a humanitarian standpoint, and for the sake of international friendship, it is to be hoped that Kelly may be allowed to return to his country again.

THE COST OF WAR.

IF THE powers are unable to localize the present Balkan war, and Germany, Great Britain, France, Russia and Italy are drawn into it, the cost will be the most stupendous in the history of the world's conflicts. It will be a staggering blow to all the nations, and with some of them progress will be set back many decades. Dr. Richet, the noted statistician of the University of Paris, calculates that a general war would necessitate a daily expenditure of $54,000,000. At this rate, if the struggle was to be as brief as the Franco-German war of 1870, the total cost would be close to $5,000,000,000. Mobilization orders from Berlin, Paris, St. Petersburg and Rome would mean that roughly 20,000,000 men would be called out, of whom at least half would be sent to the front. It would not take many weeks of provisioning these huge armies to bankrupt Europe.

While there is nothing to justify a war, such as has been launched in Europe, it is a general conflict would relieve the old world of its war fevers. War will cease when the making of it rests with the people, instead of with kings, emperors and professional soldiers, as at present, and the stupendous sacrifice of men and money might hasten that rule of democracy, which will crush the war spectre forever.

THE FRENCH TRIAL.

THE Calvaux trial is a little hard to understand in Western Ontario. Perhaps the dispatches have not been full enough to lay the whole case clearly before us; perhaps the case is just as well left in pronounced obscurity, when things like the Thaw-White affair are recalled. Besides, Parisians are as puzzling as women.

The French have not troubled to prove that Madame Calvaux had "brainstorm" or temporary paranoia, nor did the jury send her to a luxurious palace for a few years' quiet retreat from the maddening crowd. They just cynically turned her loose again.

By way of proving that she did not intend to kill Calmette, Madame showed that she had dental and social engagements to fill the immediately ensuing time. But did she expect to be at liberty for these, even if she only wounded Calmette? A doctor testified that the man might have survived with prompt treatment. This shows what an artistic shot Madame is, and the jury had the French taste for art. Madame made a nice embroidery on her victim, and anyway, he was an editor.

The tears and shouts, the applause, the brilliant exchanges of wit and cunning among barristers, witnesses, principals and audience, the kissing and hissing, have been breath-taking. The jury had the entertainment of their lives, the only drawback apparently being that they alone had to keep a silence and stillness of stone. Think, however, of that fifty-minute debate before they brought in the verdict. The picturesque intensity, and the comic or happy ending, are a show to the world.

Will Calvaux himself proceed to be the hero of France, say the next Premier or President? He is well advertised. Perhaps the sons of Calmette may have something to say.

Without decoration what is celebration?

Cheers for war mean tears for widows.

Justice would demand a trial of those French judges and jury.

Because he married a French maid, a Pittsburgh man loses seven millions of an inheritance. She is just the dearest woman.

In Canada and the United States there are thousands of Europeans who graciously consent to work for high wages between wars.

The sound of battle stirs the blood, but the big conflict that threatens Europe would cost everybody several dollars per stir.

When a man wants to kill an enemy in France, henceforth, he has only to have a woman do it for him, put the deed in his wife's name, so to speak.

BIG DAY FOR THE EDITOR.

heads that he was on the warpath, and everyone he met insisted on paying all he owed. One man wiped out a debt of ten years' standing. On returning to the office he found a load of hay, fifteen bushels of corn, ten bushels of potatoes, a load of wood and a barrel of turnips.

WHAT IS NEEDED.

[Montreal Mail.]
 Dr. Horner, of Cleveland, says the race needs more old-fashioned love and less eugenics. That seems about right. What did the two people at the stilt ever care about eugenics?

THE BEST PHYSICIAN.

[Baltimore Sun.]
 Old Mother Nature is a splendid physician. Give her a chance and she will work the most remarkable cures. Every delicate child, every invalid, should bear this ever in mind and take courage. If all others were removed, the work of the world could be carried on satisfactorily today by those who at some time or other were scheduled to die and refuse to do it.

THE CRY OF THE DREAMER.

[John Boyle O'Reilly.]
 I am tired of the planning and toiling, In the crowding hives of men; Heavy-laden of building and spoiling, And spoiling and building again. And I long for the dear old river—Where I dreamed my youth away—For a dreamer lives forever, And a toiler dies in a day.

I am sick of the showing seeming Of a life that is half a lie Of the faces lined and scheming In the throng that hurries by. No, no; from the streets' rude bustle, From the trophies from mart and stage, I would fly to the woods' low rustle. And the meadows' kindly page.

Let us dream as of yore by the river, And be loved for the dreamer's sake—For a dreamer lives forever, While a toiler dies in a day.

MEAT MONOPOLY IN AUSTRALIA.

[Kingston Whig.]
 Swift and Armour, of Chicago, have invaded Australia and for the purpose of controlling its meat trade. Already they have extensive plants in operation in Northeast and South Queensland, and the price of meat has advanced 100 per cent in the last six months. Already the consumers are realizing what a monopoly of the beef trade means.

A SENSIBLE PAIR.

[Baltimore American.]
 A newly-wedded couple in Kansas have gone south, the bridegroom to take a course in farming, and the bride to study domestic science. The plan may not be so romantic as other ways of spending the honeymoon, but it seems to hold more practical possibilities of permanent happiness.

THE SERENADE.

[By Alfred Tennyson.]
 Queen rose of the rosebud garden of girls.
 Come hither, the dances are done, In glows of satin and glimmer of pearls,
 Queen lily and rose in one; Shine out, little head, sunning over with curls.
 To the flowers and be their sun.

There has fallen a splendid tear From the passion-flower at the gate. She is coming, my dove, my dear! She is coming, my life, my fate! The red rose cries, "She is near, she is near;" And the white rose weeps, "She is late!"
 The larkspur listens, "I hear, I hear;" And the lily whispers, "I wait."

She is coming, my own, my sweet; Were it ever so airy a tread, My heart would hear her and beat; Were it earth in an earthly bed, My dust would hear her and beat.
 Had I lain for a century dead; Would start and tremble under her feet, And blossom in purple and red.

Voice of the People

Living and Preaching.
 To the Editor of The Advertiser:
 As an outsider, beholden to no church and regarding all religious systems as landmarks in the spiritual developments of humanity, allow me a little space to write a word or two in regard to the controversy which has been developed between two widely different premises. With reference to the views of either party, I have no particular concern; but I wish to point out one or two facts which seem to me all important. In the first place, Mr. Norwood is to be commended for his dignified silence, which is a tacit avowal of his own strength and also of his active belief in the religion from which that strength arises.

Secondly, people have written stating how greatly they have been helped by the pastor to live fuller and better lives, how much the practicability of his religion has helped them to live sympathetically, and how successfully he has imparted to them his own righteous enthusiasm. No higher tribute is possible and there cannot be anything seriously amiss with Mr. Norwood or his views if such beneficial results are obtainable. It is harder, but better, to preach one, and this is apparently what Mr. Norwood does. If this clergyman does not believe in hell, he is merely a noble, live himself with those who would men and women who, having no vindictiveness within themselves, cannot therefore attribute any to the God who made them. But the point is not the point. The main thing is not "What does he say?" but "What does he do?" If Mr. Norwood can reach the individual members of his congregation and inspire them with the undeniable fact that human love is but a reflex of divine love and the mainspring of all great endeavor, he is living the Christ life and doing the Christ deed. That is an inconceivable nothing in one sense, but everything in another. When the Rev. R. J. Campbell, of the City Temple, London, published his "New Theology," the outcry in the camp of orthodoxy was great. "He has come to destroy," they shouted, simply because he laid emphasis on love and love instead of fear. He flung an inspiring optimism broadcast to the world instead of stifling himself in the pessimism and gloom of St. Paul. And what has been the result? Walk into the City Temple at noon on a week-day. Go early or you may not get a seat. In that eager-faced congregation, men and boys, young and old, are sitting and listening to a gray-haired man, clad in an Oxford M. A. gown, telling them in a soft voice and simple words not how to sin, but how to live nobly, live sympathetically, live Christ-like. Men, and women, too, frequently miss their dinner to listen to this God's gentleman, who "is actually qualifying for sainthood." See, too, the other side of the picture. At the close of the service all who wish may see him sitting in a room, and he will come face to face with him, is his broad forehead, his thick silver hair, the firm chin beneath a large and mobile mouth for what that man realizes the beauty of the man's character, the magnificence of his religion and the reason why all those men and women are drawn inside the city temple at the noon hour. And the Rev. R. J. Campbell believes in the God of love, of life, of heaven and knows nothing of a God—of such there be—of revenge, of death, of damnation. If any man, or dained minister or not, lives in such a way as to fire those with whom he comes in contact with high enthusiasm and high purpose and leaves them serenely facing the stars, unmindful of the stones and ruts along the earthly road which so often wound men's tired feet—then that man, not only worthy of the religion of his religion of Christ, and to all such I inscribe the following poem:

The Christ.
 As when a soft light slowly tops the
 Of erstwhile darkened earth and we may scan
 The greater glories in the distance—dim—
 So came this Son of Man:
 No pompous note resounded thro' the air,
 The stately, mighty and the proud n'er came—
 No kingly crown did any seem to bear—
 Full-flashing Jewell'd flame!
 No gilded chamber sheltered Mary's woe
 When to the world she gave her only son—
 What wealth were there for empty wealth to show
 Dawn of our hope begun?
 Thus by a manger in some cattle shed,
 God and the virgin kept their holy trust—
 Thence to a wounded, sin-sore world was led
 Frail man's immortal Christ.
 Armed with a mighty love beyond our kin,
 His Father's seal of duty as His right,
 Fearless He preached His faith to erring
 men,
 Lifting from sin to light,
 His chosen turned, disdaining Him and said:
 "He speaks such things as are not right nor true."
 The world has judged! He made a road to tread
 For all—for me and you!
 This Christ-like way leads past the wooden cross,
 From whence His spirit pass'd beyond our earth—
 Thus did He prove His faith and taught thro' loss
 The higher, nobler birth.
 Gone from the fleeting pageant of a day,
 Enthroned in glory by His Father's side,
 He, ye men, in pleading accents say—
 "Take Me to be your guide!"
 Thus will He speak until the latest day,
 When right is might and truth shall sweetly reign—
 Then shall He come to rule with mild-

 O thou uncompromising collection of rocks and roots and clay, Is I view thee with a sinking heart. Is there perhaps a way
 To make thee bloom? I doubt it. Upon thy sterile breast
 I've scattered soil and nitrate, but thou'st withstood the test.
 One crop alone thou'lt yieldst me, one crop alone succeeds:
 The winds of heaven plant it. 'Tis weeds and weeds and weeds.
 Weeds of the fields and wayside, weeds of the woods and street.
 They flourish like the bay tree, within thy 80 feet.
 And when across the ocean the wind of winter roars,
 It bears upon its pinions rare weeds
 from some far shore.
 And scattering all the neighbors, straight to my yard they fly.
 And raise a brood of children that never, never die.
 Ah, no! they're all immortal, and blow
 it cold or hot.
 'Tis all the same, both wild or tame,
 they'll grow in my back lot.

[Ottawa Journal.]
 A noted scientist now discovers that the high cost of living is increasing feeble-mindedness. We can't exactly credit it, but it would have the opposite effect. It makes a man become mighty sharp to scratch out a living these days.

POVERTY AND SHAME.

[Rochester Herald.]
 To assume that poverty alone is capable of driving women to shame, is to indict the morals of every poor woman or girl in the world. The known fact is that it is not the poor and hard-working, as a rule, but the rich and the idle whose lapses from rectitude are most frequent.

WAR'S COSTS.

[Ottawa Free Press.]
 Those who jauntily talk of civil war in the British Isles would do well to remember the experience of the United States. The cry there was: "On to Richmond in a week!" It took five years of fratricidal strife and a river of blood flowed before Richmond was reached, and the Stars and Bars hauled down from the southern capital.

THE NARROW PATH.

[Salmon (Idaho) Herald.]
 With an ice cream emporium on each side of Main street, there is nothing left for the young man with a girl, except to keep in the middle of the road. One of the local ministers is to preach a sermon on that subject next Sunday.

 He had refused to buy her a new dress, yet she made no complaint. "You don't call me a brute any more," he said, tauntingly.

 The Actress—Hadm! I better have my jewels stolen again? The papers don't seem to know I exist.
 Her Press Agent—Old stuff, my dear young lady. Old stuff! I'm arranging for you to lecture on the Domestic Arts, giving demonstrations of scrubbing, dish-washing, and so on, in your newly-imported Poiret gowns and a hennipette wig!

ROTTEN BAD TASTE.

[Ottawa Free Press.]
 The announcement that Colonel the Hon. Sam Hughes has decided not to send any Canadian army officers to the British manoeuvres this year because "the critical position in which the army may be placed by an outbreak or rising in Ireland" is, to say the least, in rotten bad taste. But then what does Colonel Sam care for good taste?

DAILY PAGE FOR ADVERTISER WOMAN READERS

Cynthia Grey's Mail-Box

[Correspondents are requested to make their inquiries as brief as possible, and to write on one side of the paper only. It is impossible to give replies within a stated time, as all letters have to be answered in turn. No letters can be answered privately.]

Cleaning Velvet Pumps.

Dear Miss Grey—I am a daily reader of your column and would be pleased to have your information on the following queries:

1. How would you clean black velvet pumps?
2. Which is the most difficult, to go through for a school teacher or a music teacher?
3. How far should a girl of twelve years be advanced in a town school? Hoping to see the answers in print soon. I remain, BASIFUL.

Ans.—1. Velvet pumps are almost hopeless things when one tries to clean them. Thoroughly beat the dust from them; then with a stiff brush rub the pile up the wrong way; sometimes a sponging with chloroform or ether helps to restore the velvet; but both are disagreeable to use.

2. Now, my dear, you must have known this to be a foolish question before you asked it. For either professional special talents and gifts are necessary, and plenty of study and application as well.

3. The average girl is generally beginning to think of the entrance examination at this age, although she may not try for a year or two.

A Girl's Name.

Dear Miss Grey—As I see by today's Advertiser a request from Ruth, for the words of the song "Mary of Arkyie," I am sending same. Would you also answer these few questions for me?

What does the name McAlpine mean?

Also do you think it fit for a girl's name?

What do you think of my writing?

Hoping to see an early reply in your column, I remain, JUANITA.

Ans.—Thanks for sending us the song.

1. I leave this for some of our Scotch readers to answer. Do any of the McAlpine clan mean the mean? Or is it what you mean, "McAlpine Brown" would sound feebly, "McAlpine" of course, with "Jessie" or "Christina" or "Annie" or any other feminine name before it, would make the name all right.

2. Very neat and legible.

Copies Long Poem.

Dear Miss Grey—Am sending the words of "The Last Great Change," which, judging from the theme expressed in the few lines given by your correspondent is perhaps the song wanted.

Thanking you for past favor, I remain, AN OBSERVER.

Ans.—The thanks should all be on our side, "Observer," because this was a long poem to copy. Our reader who desired it will be pleased, I'm sure.

To Change Her Name.

Dear Miss Grey—I am in trouble again, and I do hope you will be able to get me out of this tangle, as I seem to be worried over this matter.

1. Is it had luck for a girl to put on her wedding dress at 11 a.m., and her bridal veil (which is not made yet), and then look at oneself in the glass? Do you think there is anything in such whims?

2. Please suggest a wedding supper for about thirty-five—not too expensive and a few decorations.

3. Is it the bridesmaid's place to remove the bride's glove? With a bridal veil and orange blossoms, is it proper for the bride to have a bouquet? Also should the bridesmaid have one, too?

4. If a man puts up post bills for the coming Old Boys, and gets a ticket for couples tendered, will that ticket admit him to all the shows—four of a family?

5. Should the bride just place the knife in the cake, or how should it be done?

6. Who should receive the gifts? As couples tendered, will that ticket admit him to all the shows—four of a family?

7. Should the bride just place the knife in the cake, or how should it be done?

Mutton Patties.—Mince cold mutton, fat and lean together, and season with salt and pepper; if the mutton is lean, add a piece of butter and warm all together in a saucepan with a little water to make it moist; put it in patty pans and cover the top with mashed potatoes; put a bit of butter in a little dish in the centre and bake in the oven to a delicate brown—about 10 or 15 minutes; serve hot in the patty-pans.

Scrambled Eggs.—Put four table-spoons sweet milk into a saucepan, add a lump of butter, pepper and salt; place over the fire and break in, one at a time, three eggs, stirring rapidly or they will stick; do not cook longer than two or three minutes; serve at once on butter toast. This will serve four or five people.

INTO HOOPS OR TURKISH TROUSERS?

FRENCH FASHION DAME ISN'T SURE WHERE SHE'LL LAND — AS PARIS PICTURES SHOW.

BY MAYBELLE MORTIMER.

These pictures, direct from Paris, are the gowns that are worn by the society woman of France's capital. They all show the popularity of the crepe and they also show no widening of the skirt about the feet.

OUR FOLKS' CORNER

Let us hope you have not forgotten to provide for the needs of the family dog, cat, bird, or goldfish, before you leave for your own vacation. We always like to see DUMB ANIMALS, things, and seek the best of them.

In people, but really it is surprising the number of nice, kindly folks (or at least those generally so counted), who close their house, turn out the family pets to the mercy of the neighborhood, and then return without a pang, to the lakeside or country. Do they never give a thought, or wonder, to what befalls the poor dumb things left behind?

Of course you may have difficulty in securing someone to look after the pets, but it is surely always possible to obtain a lodging for them at a reasonable price. Better far to pay a little than to let the poor unfortunate neighbor family, who, not able to go away themselves, may already be taking care of the Smith's cat, the Brown's terrier, and the Jones' orange tabby. It is not only the matter of feeding the pets three times a day, or of bathing the dog, or the cat, or the bird, but the matter of their care, and the heavy responsibility, as well. Picture the tears of Mrs. Smith, did she come home to find that the Jones' cat had eaten up her "dear little bird," or the excitement of Mrs. Jones if her darling Tango pussycat had got the worst of an encounter with "that horrid feline" who lives in the next house.

Yes, it would be the means of estranging the entire neighborhood, and the poor, dear, willing woman, who had so kindly volunteered to look after the dog and the cat and the canary, would be disgraced for the rest of her life.

Yes, by all means, make proper provision for the domestic creatures; secure a boarding-house for them with the next summer may bring forth. LONDON BEAT BROWN AFTER PLAYING ELEVEN INNINGS

Heavy Hitting in Eleventh Gave Tecumseh's Verdict Over Brown.

REISLING IN GREAT FORM

Only Two Erie Players Reached First Base After the Fifth Inning.

[Special to The Advertiser.]
ERIE, July 29.—Reisling and Brown engaged in pitching duel here this afternoon, which ended in a victory for the London manager when Brown weakened in the eleventh, and five hits were secured. The final score was 5 to 2.

Yankees Had Luck.
Reisling had the better of his younger opponent through the first ten innings, but luck broke well for the Yankees and they succeeded in showing two runs over. Bad base running on the part of Brown cost him the game in the fifth. He led off with a double that would have been a triple had he exerted himself. He then failed to get further than third on Dawson's single, and refused to attempt to score on Scott's fly to Riley.

How Erie Scored.
In the second inning Erie scored when Whitcraft let Gygis's high fly drop. Gygis reaching second. He scored on Patton's double to left, after Harris had sacrificed him to third. Colligan was credited with a hit in the fourth when Reisling, Mullin and Snyder let his fly drop safe in front of the plate. He went to third on Harris's single to left, and scored on Patton's fly to middle.

Reisling Great After Fifth.
From the fifth to the finish Reisling had the Yankees at his mercy. Only two men reaching first, one on a hit and another on an error. This was the ninth, when Harris singled with two gone, stole second, and went to third on Mullin's error.

London's Run Earned.
London hit Brown hard at times all through, runs being earned in the first, second, third, fourth, fifth, sixth, seventh, eighth, ninth, tenth and eleventh. London's single and double in the fourth, with his second single and Biebauer's double, Brown gave evidence of weakening in the tenth, but he blew Harris out of the box, and scored a triple over Dawson's head, scoring the rightfielder, and crossed himself when Snyder squeezed him in. Reisling singled after Whitcraft had sacrificed him, and Dawson watched London's drive. The Yankees played a fast game in the field, catching a fly ball and a strike by Patton featuring Mullin's stop of Gygis's hot drive over third featured for London.

Baseball these days is about as exciting as a yacht race in a dead calm. Two players fell asleep on the bench at Yankee Stadium in St. Louis.

Max Nordau says that sport is the world's ruling passion, but it is evident Max hasn't examined the baseball attendance reports this year.

DETROIT, July 26.—Six heats, four of them as desperately fought miles as ever were witnessed, failed to decide the Merchants and Manufacturers' Stake topkiper on today's Grand Circuit program, and the race went on to tomorrow, when three heat-winners will go to a finish. When darkness put an end to the struggle, two horses won two heats each, and another one. The winner of the first heat, Linda Wrona, completed two in straight wins, and the third in four.

Opening the M. and M. Rythmell, scoring fourth from the pole, shot to lead. Rythmell and Linda Wrona, Peter Scott, McCloskey, Mahomet Watts and the Classman, contending every inch of the ground, broke at the first turn. She ran a quarter of the race, and broke at the second, a distance flag when Linda Wrona flashed under the wire to win. Peter Scott, who kept his mare in front all the way. King Classman lapped Peter Scott, who had reached the half in the third heat. Linda Wrona led to the half in the third heat, then Peter Scott rushed to the front, and she slipped away. King Classman came strong in the stretch and caught her.

In the fourth heat, Peter Scott showed in front until well down the stretch. Linda Wrona, who had won the first heat, and Gregor, and dropped back to sixth place. Mahomet Watts, King Classman and Linda Wrona. Gregor showed wonderful speed nearing the wire, and five horses were well bunched when the heat was over.

NEW YORK, July 29. — New York today made it two out of three from Pittsburg by winning in the ninth inning by a score of 1 to 0. The game was a tight pitchers' battle, between Tesreau and McQuillan, but the latter weakened in the ninth. Doyle let off with a double, and McQuillan and Mowrey collided going after Burns bunt, the batter getting a scratch hit. Robertson fouled to Gibson, but Fletcher drove in the winning run with a single to centre. A steady rain fell a

A Western horseman at the track yesterday was discussing remarkable poker games. He told of one instance where the bitter was bit. "I saw recently one of the players was a heavy loser, and when the seance broke up he, with marked reluctance, handed over to one of the players a check for his losses, and the recipient of it knew full well that it would be stopped next morning.

Then, over a bottle or two, an idea struck him.

"Say, old fellow," he said, sympathetically, "that's no game we had just now. I didn't want to win your money. See here! I'll tear up your check right now.

Which he proceeded to do, to the delight of the loser, and after swearing eternal friendship they parted.

Next morning the winner met his friends.

"Got the money, you fellows?" he exclaimed. "And now we whack up."

"Got it!" queried one.

"Why, I saw you tear up his check!"

"Yes, I tore up the dummy, 'cos I knew for a certainty he'd stop the real one if I didn't."

WARRANT ISSUED AGAINST DOCTOR

Detectives Have An Important Clue to the Tamworth Case.

BODY OF A BABY FOUND

Inquest Shows That Blanche Yorke Died as Result of Illegal Operation.

[Special to The Advertiser.]
TAMWORTH, July 29.—A warrant charging murder was issued tonight for Dr. C. T. Robinson, in whose home was found the body of Blanche Yorke, the pretty Tamworth dressmaker, whose disappearance on July 8 has aroused the entire province.

Moreover, it is believed that the missing physician will not remain long without the pale of the law. Detective Inspector Miller, who has been working on the case, left the village hurriedly at 10 o'clock this evening. Along with this comes a report that the machinery of the provincial police department has been moving rapidly within the last two days, and that the whereabouts of the young physician are known.

The Little Village of Clonmel has been the scene of one of the most harrowing crimes in the history of the province, was in mourning today. All the streets were closed to the blinds of the houses were drawn. There was no business done. Villagers gathered in small groups on the streets and conversed in whispers about the murder of "Happy" Blanche and of the finding of her hacked corpse in the small shed adjoining the home of the quiet and popular young physician, who has been practicing here since he left the hospital at Kingston, where he was house surgeon, and established for himself an excellent reputation.

Dead Babe Also Found.
With the removal today of the remains from their hastily-constructed hiding place, came another phase of the case which made the tragedy increasingly sad. Beside the body of the young woman was the corpse of a child, normal but prematurely born, and also several obstetric instruments.

Inquest Adjourned.
A coroner's jury, under the direction of Dr. Cowan, of Napanee, sat all this afternoon and evening hearing evidence in the case. Many witnesses were summoned, and it was necessary to adjourn the hearing until tomorrow morning for further evidence. Testimony was taken first for the purpose of establishing identity and then to learn the means by which the young woman met her untimely end.

Body Nude, With Legs Off.
The evidence showed that the corpse was found nude. The legs were severed below the knee and were found in the furnace badly burned. It was pointed out that in an effort to hide the body it had been sewn in a mattress and later buried in a hole which had seemingly been scooped out of the ground by hand. A number of suitable instruments, the spot being covered with wood to deceive any searchers.

Dr. W. T. Connell, pathologist at Queen's University, who performed the autopsy, stated that death was caused from hemorrhage due to an illegal operation. There were no external marks of violence.

The first witness called was Bruce Richardson, who told of a search of the premises, when it was necessary to place the furniture of Dr. Robinson in the hands of the bailiff. The place was in great disorder. This was corroborated by J. Taylor, furniture dealer. To Crown Attorney C. H. Preston this witness also stated that he had questioned Dr. Robinson about the disappearance of Miss Yorke, and the physician stated that he could not imagine what had become of her.

Dr. H. W. Wilson, coroner at a report that Miss Yorke had called upon him with reference to her condition.

A Companion's Testimony.
Miss Agnes Walsh, daughter of Miss York, employed, told of walking with the dead girl toward Dr. Robinson's office on July 8. Blanche told her she was going to get some medicine, and would return. Another witness told of seeing Miss Yorke in a room at the residence of Dr. Robinson, and the physician stated that he did not know where the physician was.

Dr. Robinson is known to have been in Kingston for several days during the week of July 13, and to have gone on the steamer America on July 16 to Cape Vincent, N. Y. He was a house surgeon at Kingston Hospital in 1912.

NEW DUNDEE FIRE SWEEP LOSS WILL TOTAL $25,000 WHOLE TOWN THREATENED

Flames Started In Millinery Department of Big General Store and Quickly Spread Through Frame Building.

[Special to The Advertiser.]
BERLIN, July 29.—Fire of unknown origin caused a loss of $25,000, and the village of New Dundee tonight, and for time threatened to completely destroy the whole place, which is without fire protection.

The flames were first noticed shortly after 5 o'clock in the millinery department of Buck & Lautenschlager's store. They had made a headway, and it was not long before they were sweeping through the whole of the two-story frame block. From there they leaped to the Union Bank, and next the frame block owned by Charles Mayer was destroyed.

Calls for help were sent to Galt, Ayr and Hespeler. Not until 10 o'clock to-night was the fire checked.

No Fire Protection.
The village, being without fire protection, the flames soon made rapid headway on the old frame structures, and the adjoining buildings were in constant danger of destruction.

The fire departments from Ayr and Plattville arrived in an hour's time. The brigade, towed by a small roadster, hand-engine, and a small roadster, and the Ayr department brought a steam engine with five relays of hose, and Water was pumped from the dam, and three streams checked the blaze from spreading.

Hespeler Started.
The Hespeler brigade also started on the road, but because of assistance, a volunteer bucket brigade fought the flames, and the valiant work of the fire-fighters and the assistance of the neighboring fire departments elicited the admiration of the hundreds of people, who came from many miles around.

The loss on the building and contents of Buck & Lautenschlager is $17,000; $12,000 of this stock and is partly covered by insurance.

The hotel loss is about $7,000, with no insurance. The bank suffered a big loss in fixtures, and the books and papers were safely locked in the vault. Only a small part of the contents of the store and hotel was saved.

SERBIAN WOMAN TO RAISE CORPS OF NURSES IN LONDON TO BE ENTIRE MACHINERY OF RUSSIA SOON

Only a Miracle Can Prevent War, According to St. Petersburg.

WILL STAND BY SERBIA
Exchange of Views Proposed Before Hostilities Broke Out.

[Canadian Press.]
LONDON, July 29.—Mme. Groultch, the American wife of the Serbian Assistant Secretary of Foreign Affairs, Slavko Groultch, is expected to come to London to raise a corps of volunteer surgeons and nurses for war service. She notified a London friend yesterday that the Austrians had prevented her from crossing the border to join her husband in Belgrade. She wrote from Siles-Maria, Engadine, Switzerland.

"I am wild with anxiety for Slavko, but feel I can really be of more use outside the lines than within them at the present juncture. If I hear that war has broken out I shall at once return to London to raise a corps of surgeons and nurses; otherwise I will wait instructions here from Slavko. At present he can get no news through on this side, but I hope he will be able to reach me by way of Greece in a day or two. The suspense is terrible."

Her friend, who was formerly Miss Mabel G. Dunlap, of Virginia.

The proposal attributed to Austria to discuss terms when Belgrade has been occupied is regarded as impossible. It is pointed out that before the opening of hostilities, Russia proposed to Austria a direct exchange of views, which Austria rejected.

The foregoing St. Petersburg dispatch was passed by the censor without revision, a fact which is considered highly significant.

ENEMIES OF CZAR HOLD A MEETING IN OTTAWA CITY

Two Thousand Poles and Ukrainians Discuss Russian Tyranny.

[Canadian Press.]
OTTAWA, July 29.—Crying revenge against the "tyranny and oppression" of Russia, about two thousand Poles and Ukrainians, members of the revolutionary parties of these former principalities, held a mass meeting here tonight. The Ukrainians formerly numbered about half the inhabitants of Russia, but are now scattered all over the world, about three hundred thousand in Canada.

In view of the present imminence of war in Russia, the present meeting is exceptionally significant. Much enthusiasm was shown by the members present, and a furtherance of steps against the Czar and his ministers, Russia enter the Austro-Serbian imbroglio, were discussed.

DEATH OF GODERICH MAN

[Special to The Advertiser.]
GODERICH, July 29.—Thomas Johnston, proprietor of the Colborne Hotel, died last night. A year ago Mr. Johnston contracted pneumonia from which he never fully recovered. He is survived by his wife and three little girls, also four brothers and three sisters, John and Hugh of Goderich, and James of Chicago, and H. Stowe, of Toronto. Mrs. B. J. Saults and Mrs. Robert King, Goderich; Mrs. W. Ernest, of Toronto. The funeral will be held on Friday afternoon.

While the vast enterprise of double tracking the line Canadian Pacific system is one that cannot, in the nature of the case, be fully realized for years, yet when it is stated that there will be shortly 1,095 miles of double track between Port Arthur and Goderich, leaving gaps of only something less than 165 miles—one gets a realizing notion of the work involved, of great distance covered, and of the courage and persistence involved in this large and noble undertaking of duplicating the whole system, which comprises some 12,000 miles of track. Of course the chief consideration is the west, whose rapid development called for whose rapid policy; but the east will be treated in time, especially the lines which connect large centres and populous, and promise bigger business. The cost will be so enormous that the double tracking, too, will be built in a vastly different way from the original railway, which was put in place in a tremendous hurry. The rough in the double tracking will offer a better railway, in every respect both as regards the weight of rails, the strength of bridges, and the perfection of the track applied, the new railway will work out for immediate relief.

MOVEMENT TOWARD CO-OPERATION IN ALL ELECTRIC SUPPLY COMPANIES.

[Canadian Press.]
TORONTO, July 29.—A movement has been put on foot by privately owned electric light and power companies to co-operate in the purchase of electrical equipment and supplies. These companies are members of the Canadian Electrical Association, of which the general office is in Toronto. The capital represented is over two hundred millions of dollars, and the various undertakings having membership in the association stretch across Canada from the Atlantic to the Pacific.

An office of the association was asked today if this move in co-operation was a stepping stone towards the formation of a vast combine, but he said nothing was further from their thought.
