EXPOSITION OF A DESIGN A JOURNAL,

NTENDED TO ADVOCATE THE PEACE ABLE SEPARATION OF CANADA FROM IMPERIAL CONNEXION.

IMPERIAL CONNEXION.

THE permanent subjection of the Canadian Provinces to British rule has ceased to be the dectrine of any class of British Statemen. The termination of Colonial dependence can only be delayed so long as, split up into hostile parties, and torn by internal discensions, the people of Canada shall continue to weats their energies upon fruitless expedients and to neglect using the power, they inherently possess, of applying a heroic remedy to their manifold ille. But though delayed, union and organization of Canada.

That common purpose is already openly the anivalent of Canada already it warms the heart of the aspiring, cheere the third, and assists is sinking into oblivion asperities of every kind, whether growing out of irrational political attachments, or differences of religion and race. In toet, the predicted day and hour are at hand. Independence is the inevitable solution of the convulsions which now distrect the Province.

This desire for independence is no longer confined to a scattered few; it has its most ardent votarks among the agricultural and laboring masses. External causes have aided in producing this healthy political feeling.

ternal causes have aided in producing this healthy political feeling.
English Free-Trade is a death blow to the Colonial consession. The Canadian is no atranger to the fluctuations and temporary stagnations of commerce; nor is he tempted to despair, when suffering from their effects. But under the altered commercial system of Great Britann, he loses all hope of future prosperity. London and Liverpool become foreign, and not friendly, ports; and he turns to New York and Boston as the natural outlets for the oreducts of his industry.

New York and Boston as the natural outlets for the products of his industry.

The traveller who crosses the line which severs Canada from the United States is compelled to make painful comparisons. On the American side, he beholds well companied industry, timescales.

the other, must proceed from the unservine of the political institutions.

The enervating influence of Imperial rule is felt in every department of life. The intellectual inferriority of the Canadian Colonist to the American Citizen, is but soo well established by comparative statistics of art, esisues, literature, and education. The Canadian Colonist holds a very humble rank in the ratimation of the Metropolitan. The Ruman pride in presence of the Provincial is renewed in his case. He commands no voice in the Imperial Senate, and has, consequently, no share in Imperial Legislation, even when it specially affects his own Interests. Consigned to an obscurity which stilled talent and checks substition, be drags out a modely and discontented existence. His country is chickly valuable to British Statesmen, as affording facility for assailing a rivel maritime power; and his suit becomes the inevitable battle-field, whenever a content wrises.

for assalling a rival maritime power; and his suit becomen the inertiable halls-field, whenever a contest of the profession of a great revolution in a canda has been gradually moulded by circumstance to the contemplation of a great revolution in their relations with the Parent, State; to many acparation has appeared to be the only a chitton of the insumerable embarrasements brought upon this country by the total abandonment on the part of England of her old Colonial policy—and recent events have brought to meturity grinciples and yearsings which were already germinating in the breasts of a large majority of the people.

A Convention, elected by the materia, will assemble in August next. This Convention, called into existence by the present critical state of affairs, will inaugurate a movement, to terminate, it is hoped, in providing permanently for the peace and happiness of a distracted and suffering people.

The moment is desired opportune for the establishment, in the City of Montreal, of a Journal which shall advocate the peaceable emisucipation of Canada from the Imperial dominion, and the institution of a form of Government harmonizing with the remomination of a form of Government except a Culcuial, these boundaries must disappear, and contests interchange of products and the combination of a capital become as free and unrestricted as between adjuncing Commonwealths of the Union.

Those members of the Provincial Parliaments, (the Pilet's grands and Union. They are auxious to see her sharing in upporters,) Meson. Leelie, Bourset, Price, Morin, d. Nelson & Co., look then, it would n, through a different telescope to that of their m, for they certainly have admitted, in the language of their own "Protest," that " there are sells with which the Province is afflicted," and that their institution. The existence "of these evils" is a fact so notorious, that it has not only been adstact so more of the Province whose metortunes ate its reality; but even by the people of other countries. The present "ruin and decay as discernible in every department of trade, com ee, stocks, &c., is deeply deplored, not only by merchants of Great Britain, but by those of the United States; and the causes of such a di together with the remedy prop an dally discussed in the leading journals of both The oracle that owes its paternity t the present Inspector General, and which is made to utter his financial decrees, however, "denies the Maged fact of roin and decay." We return for a moment to the "Protest" of the purpose of offering a few remarks on the fol-

"Since rely, attached to the institutions of the Mother Country, as letely acknowledged, and convinced that these institutions are sufficient to assure us, by means of a wise and judicious beginning, a prompt and efficacious language for all the spile which the Province is afflicted, we believe that we ought to hasten to protest, in a public, and colemn manner, against the opinions put forth in that document."

It is really amusing to see Mesars. Price, Nel-son, Leslie, Sourcet, Morin, and Drammond adopting and using the language, " Sincerely at acologies and tacked to the institutions of the Mother Country, &c., &c., particularly the two first-named genue-men, who so highly lauded "the institutions of the Mother Country." In 1837.4 the one imprisor on a suspicion of treason, the other, raising the gentlemen thought and wrote then as they have now done, " that by means of a wise and judi m," the eyils of which they complaine remedied. They obtained the book de ired—they embarked in the great work of Re form, and what did their laboured and bolateron close 3" Was it directed to the improvement the country in those measures best calculated t develope its resources and promote its prospering ?
The history of their Parliamentary labours still exists, to show nothing but the selfishness, the exists, to show nothing but the selfishness, the personal aggrandisement, and the ambitious views of those who " were so sincerely attached. to the institutions of the Mother Country." With much of the pertinecity and shrewdness of Cromwell, and but a small share of his firmness and aggicity—they made speeches, lived well, and obtained those pasts of heticur and profit which associage—they made speeches, lived well, and obtained those posts of horizon and profit which their ambition desired.

The Conservative organization, long and justly dissatisfied with such a state of things, sought and obtained a change in the overthrow of their political ensemies, and were mahered into power, destined, like their predecessors, to exercise "a wise and judicious legislation." And what were the state of the state o sburdly magisterial tone towards the people which they have of late affected. Mr. Baldwin, in his letter to Mr. Perry, was the first offender in this way. He styles the Annexation discussion the fruits of that policy which distinguished then administration? With the exception of some few improvements which followed their legislation, the same selfish and ambitious views, which divided the interests of the Reform party, retarded these smectments which the country so impericially demanded, brought disunion into their councils, and proved their utter incapacity to administration the Government. The Baldwin and Lafontaine Dynarty were again brought forward to perform one of the twelve labours of Hereples in cleaning the Angean stable, a performantial in which the Pilot bore a conspicuous and effect twe position. The promises of "a wise and judicious legislation" were echoed from one end of the Province to the letters. The Pilot predicted the millenium of that political regeneration which was to predict the perform of M. L. H. Lafontaine, and Oxford (not Oxford in England) fear its representative to improve, in the financial department, the resources of this mighty Province. And we would sak the French Canadians who triumphed in the return of M. L. H. THE conduct of some of the pseudo-liberal State men of Canada is pretty well shown up in the following extract from the New York Nation; it is mighty fine, indeed, to find gentlemen who made the Repeal of the Union between England and Ireland, which would have been virtually Ireland's independence, the hattle cry at Canadian elections, in order to catch the votes of the confiding Irish, now talking of supporting "any Administration !" It was mighty fine in Her Majesty's present Inspector-General to flourish orange and green placards in the eyes of the electors, and offer a solemn prayer to heaven that those colors might never unite, and now declare himself ready to support " any Administration," even, we suppose, if it contained half-a-dozen Orangemen. Ah i but the day of this wheedling the electors, and inflaming their passions, is gone by; the people have begun to reason for themselves, and to find out that they are no gainers by helping furious partizans into place and power As the Nation truly says, but for the people, these sucking Statesmen, the would-be great men of Canada, would be still vegetating in obscurity; now they afford a crying exemplification of the ancient adage of "beggars set on horse-back riding to the devil"-which would be of very little consequence, were they not, unfortunately, galopping over the people in the race;-From the New York Nation, Nov. 10. That the Colonial state, like the state of non-age must end sooner or later for the Canadians, so the Montreal Wifness observes, is self-avident. When ther it has now ended, as the Dromato Independent, the Montreal L'Admirs, and M. Papinnau contend.

the Montreal L'Avenie, and M. Papiasau contendis, perhaps, debuteable on European grounds, though it is hardly an on American. Sevenieen States have been added to this Confederacy within half a century, all of them far; behind, Canada in numbers and resources then, yet all of them far beyond her in growth and wealth now.

But whether at not Consensing growth and wealth now.

But whether at not Consensing growth had a holy of them in Canada eleast of all the quasi "Reformers" who now purport to rule it—have any right to put their bas upon the sebute, or to indict disabilities on those wise take the affirmative in it. The Present Ministry in Canada over everything to the People, and nothing to the People, tive in it. The Present Ministry in Canada owe everything to the People, and nothing to the Crowns. Poor, but able, professional men, the secola found them in their glientless offices and genderless journals, adopted them, equipped, armed, and fought far them; sayted them in their high places, and drew them in triumph into power. Why does he farmer of Canada obtain a largher price for his produce in the country of Strother Jonathan than in his own? Aye, and we such a place is a piece of downright folly, and just like the usual doings of a Canadian Governship has it become necessary for enterprise which always makes a mess of everything. ask, why has it become necessary for enterprising proprietors to discontinue or suspend the publication of their Religious Newspapers? What cause has rendered it necessary for the InspectorGeneral of the Province to try and effect a loan of money from the great English Banking Houses, and what he prevented him from effecting that loan? The Pilot, in its wisdom, aided by the financial labors of its retired parent, can certainly furnish a seply to these queries.

The friends of Annexation believe that, though prostrated Canida can, by the fostering care and

And when our contemporary spoke of "such men as Lord Sydenham, Sir Charles Bagot, Lord Metcalfe, and Lord Elgin." why did he forget to tell his readers that Sydenham and Metcalfe spent private fortunes, in Canada, double the amount of their official in-comes, and that the people here have a decided objection to be saddled with needy Governors, who only come out to save money at their expense.

THE HON. HENRY SHERWOOD,-It is said in Toronto that this gentleman has made it known to the Ministry that he will have no very strong tempt to chain the " tail" of the old Tory party o the Reform " rump."

IMPORTANT TO THE PUBLIC. JOHN McCLOSKY,

ILK AND WOOLLEN DYER AND CLOTHES LLEANER, FROM BELFAST.

No. 33, St. Levis Street, near Donagunas' Hotel,

DEGS to return his best thanks to the Public of Montreal, for the kind manner in which has been patronised for the last four years, and now craves a continuance of the same. He will carry on his Trade as formerly in all its branches, viz: — Dying all kinds of Silks, Satins, Crapes, Woollens, &c.; as also, Scouring all kinds of Silk and Woollen Shawls, Moreen Windew Clarains, Bed Hangings, Silks, &c., Dyed and Watered. He begs to state he has procured a new Patent Watering Machine for Watering Silks.
Showkeepers, Tradesmen, and others, who may require anything done in the above line, will find it greatly to their advantage to call on him. He also engages to renew the colour of all sorts of Woollen Cloths that has lost them, and to make the cloth look as when new. All kinds of Stains, such as Tar, Paint, Oil, Grease, Iron Mould, Wine Stains, &c., carefully extracted.
N. B.—As minny of my customers are of opinion that I have opened another Establishment in Notre Dame Street, I wish to correct the mistake, by informing them that I have nothing to do with any place but the above, and that I have leased the same for six years from the lat May.

AN ACCEPTATE TRAVELLER.—A gentleman trained Randell, a solicitor in Southampton, was in the habit of taking a tour every year, which occupied him two or three months. He would leave Southampton suddenly, scarcely acquainting his confidential clerk that he was going, and no one would know anything about him until his glerks would receive a letter from him added perhaps from St. Petersburgh or Vienna. About two months since he left Southampton suddenly and secretly, according to his sual practice, and no one knew of his whereabout until his clerks received a letter, about a fortnight since, from him from Canada; since which information has been received that Mr. Randall was taken ill of cholera, died, and was buried in 12 hours, in America.
