UTTERLY DISCOURAGED.

By Ruth Cameron.

"I'm utterly discouraged. I've tried so hard to please him and I know he isn't satisfied."

"No-o," she said slowly after a moment of brooding retrospection. "I don't know that he has. But I don't believe he has said a word of praise for weeks and weeks. And I've tried so hard to do everything just as he wants it."

"KICKING. HE'S PRETTY NEAR SATISFIED. SILENCE WITH MOST EMPLOYERS MEANS CONTENT." "I can't tell you how much worry killer I've squeezed out of that sentence since."

HAIR COMING OUT--IF DRY, BRITTLE, THIN OR YOUR SCALP ITCHES AND IS FULL OF DANDRUFF--USE "DANDERINE."

Within ten minutes after an application of Danderine you cannot find a single trace of Dandruff or a loose or falling hair and your scalp will not itch, but what will please you most will be after a few weeks' use, when you will actually see new hair, fine and downy at first--yes--but really new hair--growing all over the scalp.

strand at a time. The effect is amazing--your hair will be light, fluffy and wavy, and have an appearance of abundance; an incomparable lustre, softness and luxuriance, the beauty and shimmer of true hair health.

A Public Scandal

Editor Evening Telegram. Dear Sir--Through the columns of your esteemed paper I would like to expose a public scandal which happened here recently. It is such a disgrace to our community in general and our representatives, or mis-representatives--Messrs. Devereaux, Morris and Howley in particular, that I cannot refrain from making the facts known to the public.

How many votes did you get here before, R. J.? Did you get 16 and Morris and Howley 14 each, out of 11 voters. You made the same mistake before, Mr. Devereaux, listening to your hee-lers, when the ballots were counted you saw how many votes you got at Riverhead. The man you appointed to run the mail has one vote the widow woman's son has one vote.

In the month of December, an old man named Richard Dobbin, a resident of this place, died. For many years he was mail courier between this place and Mall Bay, for which he received the magnificent sum of forty dollars ($40) per year. In the summer season while he was engaged otherwise, his wife used to carry the mail a distance of three miles in all weathers, twice a week.

There are several other matters we intend to make public in our next letter and we may have occasion to ask some questions of the heads of some of the Departments at St. John's if things go on here as they are at present. We are sorry to learn that Mr. Jackson has resigned from politics; he may rest assured that he has the best wishes of the people of Riverhead, St. Mary's, and we trust the

FOR THE WOMAN WHO THINKS AND FEELS.

Some women complain that they periodically suffer from dull and heavy feelings, or dizziness in the head, nervousness, pain and beating-down feelings which should not occur to the normal, healthy woman. But most every woman is subject to these pains at some time in her life, due to abnormal conditions in life, such as corsets, over-taxed strength, bad air, poor or improper food, wet feet, sluggish liver, etc. A regulator and female tonic made from active medicinal roots with pure glycerin, and without the use of alcohol, called has proven its value in thousands of cases, like the following: Mrs. DOVA M. MARTIN, of Auburn, N.H., Route 1, Box 34, says: "I thought I would write you in regard to what your medicine has done for me. I have used them for thirty years for female troubles and general weakness with the very best result, and they have saved me hundreds of dollars in doctors' bills. I buy the Favorite Prescription medicine in your bottles and take them together. I never feel any more of those 'beating-down' feelings, and I am now almost fifty years old; at forty-five I took your medicine, both kinds, and I passed that period very easily and left me fat and healthy. I feel like a young girl. If any lady comes to write me, I will gladly tell her more about the good work of your medicine."

DR. PIERCE'S GREAT FAVORITE DOCTOR'S BLOOD, The People's Common Sense Medical Remedy, newly revised up-to-date edition--of 1000 pages, answers hosts of delicate questions which every woman, single or married, ought to know. Sent free in cloth binding to any address on receipt of $3 one-cent stamps, to cover cost of wrapping and mailing only.

PERSISTENT COUGH.

Wherever soothing syrups fail to cure that persistent cough which exhausts you, MATHIEU'S SYRUP of Tar and Cod Liver Oil and other medicinal extracts will rapidly and definitely rid you from it.

AGAINST HEADACHE there is no remedy so active as Mathieu's Nerve Powders which contain no opium, morphine or chloral. 25 cents per box of 18 powders.

may succeed in his ambition to make his business a successful one. Before losing, I wish to say that every one, from the oldest resident to the youngest school child, is talking about the man who took the mails from the widow woman and made so small of himself to accept forty dollars per year when he is capable of earning a couple of hundred.

Yours truly, WATCHMAN. St. Mary's, Feb. 20th, 1913.

Lincoln Products.

In fair Nebraska Lincoln sits and sends forth mighty lions. Men gather fame by starts and fits, but whose so great as Bryan's? For twenty years this man might with holesom truths has fed us from the darkness to the light he peerlessly has led us. The town that gave us William B. to reconstruct a party, should be content and full of glee--but now she sings McCarthy's low other cities wear a frown, and think the outlook foggish; two peerless leaders from one town! Is Lincoln growing hoggish? Here in the town of Alsoran were thankful for the county if we can boast one foremost man who's known outside the county. We're thankful if a wreath of bay adorns one lonesome smarty; but Lincoln had her William J., and now she springs McCarthy! Oh, Lincoln, with your salty wells, and far more salty liver, your music from triumphant bells, may make the welkin quiver, but you'll be lonesome in your pride, lone you'll chant your ditties, for folks will say you should divide your fame with other cities. A peerless leader of your own, your luck was strong and hearty; it made some towns with envy moan--and now you spring McCarthy!

Dead Man Turns Up.

Mystery of a False Cablegram. An unfounded and mysterious cablegram from Canada has caused the family of an ex-Liverpool police officer such distress. The cablegram, supposed at the time to be based on a wireless message from the Allan liner rampan, reported that during a furious storm in the Atlantic Mr. Hunter, an inspector in the Grampian, fell down a companion-way and broke his neck.

The voyage had certainly been rough, he said, but neither he nor any other person in the Grampian had fallen or received injury. The origin of the report is shrouded in mystery, as no message of the nature alleged was sent out from the ship. The inspector's wife and family were overjoyed to learn of his safety, and the reunion was of an affecting description.--Daily Mail.

Bloodhounds Used.

To Capture Men Alleged to Have Stolen Foxes. Charlottetown, Feb. 10--Two men were arrested to-day charged with stealing a pair of black foxes, worth $10,000, from the ranch of Baybour & Carruthers, of Bloomfield.

One was at large in the woods near the ranch all day Saturday and was captured at night. They were returned to the ranch by parties unknown and left in a bag outside the ranch. When discovered the next morning one had eaten a hole in the bag and escaped. The other had his head out and was caught by sheer luck.

The return of the foxes is attributed to the vigilance of a number of men with bloodhounds who were put on the trail and constables with search warrants discovered traces which would almost warrant an arrest. The officers were given to understand that the foxes would be returned.

Servants as Wives.

Brides For Mistress's Sons. A woman at St. Louis with nine sons is marrying them off to her servants as the boys attain manhood and a position and the servants' proficiency in housekeeping and cooking. This matchmaker in the home who is Mrs. Tichack, wife of a wealthy marble merchant, declares, "If a girl is good enough to work in the household for five years she is good enough to marry one of my sons."

Each servant she employs serves this probation, and when one of them shows she has wifely qualifications up to her mistress's standard Mrs. Tichack recommends her to the available son of marriageable age next in line. Three of her sons have thus made successful matches. Three others are bachelors waiting for their mother to produce paragon servants as their mates, and the remaining three are minors.

If Your Child Needs a Physic.

If Its Little Stomach is Sour, Liver Sluggish and Bowels Clogged.

Mother! look at the tongue! see if it is coated. If your child is listless, drooping, isn't sleeping, well, is restless, doesn't eat heartily or is cross, irritable, out of sorts with everybody, stomach sour, feverish, breath bad; has stomach-ache, diarrhoea, sore throat, or is full of cold, it means the little ones' stomach, liver and bowels are clogged up with waste and needs a gentle, thorough cleansing at once.

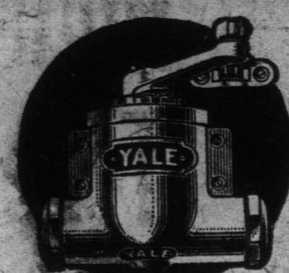

Give a teaspoonful of Syrup of Figs, and in a few hours the foul, decaying, constipated matter, undigested food and sour bile will gently move on and out of its little bowels without nausea, griping or weakness, and you will surely have a well and smiling child shortly.

With Syrup of Figs you are not dragging your children, being composed entirely of luscious figs, senna and aromatics it cannot be harmful, besides they dearly love its delicious taste.

Mothers should always keep Syrup of Figs handy. It is the only stomach, liver and bowel cleanser and regulator needed--a little given to-day will save a sick child to-morrow.

Full directions for children of all ages and for grown-ups plainly printed on the package.

Ask your druggist for the full name "Syrup of Figs and Elixir of Senna," prepared by the California Fig Co. This is the delicious tasting, genuine old reliable. Refuse anything else offered.

Evening Telegram

W. J. HERDER, - - Proprietor
W. F. LLOYD, - - - - Editor

WEDNESDAY, February 26, 1913.

Notes and Comments.

From the amount of space devoted to politics in the Government organs at present, it is quite evident to the casual observer that these papers have begun the political campaign, and are doing everything in their power to show reasons why the People's Party (sometimes called the Picnic Party), under the leadership of Sir Edward Morris, should be again honoured with the confidence of the electorate. The Evening Herald persists in its daily statement that "Morris is making good," but such statement is no proof that the present leader is really doing what the Herald alleges. Time and time again it has been conclusively shown in the columns of the Evening Telegram that Sir Edward Morris has obtained an unenviable notoriety for securing good things in the way of fees, picnics, &c., for himself and members of his party.

Of course, if that's what the Herald means by saying that "Morris is making good," we must allow that the statement is correct; but the average voter, the workingman, the man on the street, who feels the strain of increased cost of living mainly occasioned by the unprecedented extravagance of the present "business like" administration, knows that is the only direction in which the present leader has made good.

The leader of a political party should possess abilities and qualifications which the most ardent admirer of Sir Edward Morris cannot claim for him. He should be reliable, consistent, firm, judicious, "safe." He should be able to see the effect of his policy on future generations as well as its immediate results, and be firm and judicious enough to refuse extravagant requests of the electorate, when he, from his intimate knowledge of the finances and public affairs generally, knows that to accede to such would be fraught with the most serious consequences to the whole community. Such a leader is a statesman; he aims at future as well as at present good; he does not descend to questionable means of securing power, but fairly and frankly places the issue before the people and awaits their verdict.

The politician, on the other hand, readily promises anything and everything that may be asked for during the campaign, regardless of what the consequences may be. He is ever ready to make more promises during one month at election time than he can successfully perform during his term of office. Whether Sir Edward Morris is a statesman or a politician merely can be safely left to the judgment of a disappointed public to decide.

Is Sir Edward Morris reliable? Are his statements trustworthy? Let us see. (1) During the last campaign he assured the electorate that the five branch railways which he advocated could be constructed for four millions of dollars, and the people believing that, empowered him to construct the lines. Already six millions of dollars have been raised by loan for that purpose, and the end is not yet.

The Premier was only two millions of dollars in error in his calculation; that much we know, but we also know that an additional loan will still be necessary to complete his railway policy. Thoughtful financiers believe that this railway policy which, according to the Premier's showing, was to cost not more than four millions of dollars, will cost the taxpayers of this little Colony at least eight millions.

(2) Take the Old Age Pensions. As leader of the opposition Sir Edward Morris publicly declared on many platforms in the country that a substantial pension could be given every fisherman of sixty years of age; not only so, but stated that he could easily do it. The fishermen accepted his statement in good faith and supported his candidate, but now realize that the promise was made to catch votes, and that its fulfilment is yet to be accomplished.

(3) The Premier declared in the Assembly last session that he never had an interest, direct or indirect, near or remote in any timber or mineral wealth" in the Colony. Yet records show that at the time of making the statement he held a very large share in a certain timber concern.

(4) His manifesto contained the promise of cheaper coal, development of great areas, reduction of taxation, and numerous others, which to-day are unfulfilled. So much then for the trustworthiness of the Premier's statements.

Is the Premier consistent? Are the statements made by him at different periods of his immediate political past consistent or self-contradictory? Let us try him by two tests (time and space will not permit more).

(1) During his speech on Fog Free Zone Resolutions he, as Minister of Justice in the Bond Executive, spoke in the strongest terms in support of that measure, showing the great possibilities of the scheme in the way of fresh-fish trade, stock-raising, mail service, &c., &c., and yet a few months later, during his campaign denounced the scheme and made it the subject of ridicule.

(2) Since deserting the Liberal Party, Sir Edward Morris has referred to it as the party of stagnation, a party that did nothing for the country or its people, whilst only a short time before he said in the House of Assembly: "The Government has been able to reduce taxation annually to the extent of $250,000 and increase public services to the extent of $500,000 including grants for extension of coastal service, light-houses, &c.; that the people have lived better, and have been able to put away in the Savings Banks of the country something like five million dollars, not to talk of the amount they put away in their own homes. What has brought about this prosperity? There has not been more fish caught than there was forty years ago when there was one-third less population than there is to-day. How was it then that the people could live better, have more comforts and save more money with one-third more population, if it were not for the new industries started as the result of the development policy of the Government. As a people we are better off and one of the reasons for this is the policy of the Government of to-day." (Liberal Government.)

So much then for the reliability and consistency of the Premier. These and many other discrepancies have not escaped the notice of the electors who have made up their minds that if a public man who has made statements so much at variance as the above can, and will likely do so again if I suits his purpose; but "once bitten twice shy."

The Lintrose.

It is likely that the Reid Nfld. Co.'s ship, the Lintrose, will make her trial trip next week, and should leave for St. John's the first week in March. The ship should make her first trip from St. John's about the latter part of next month. She is said to be a splendid boat and will easily do 14 knots.

Grand Gynkhana.

Highly Successful.

The well advertised Gynkhana and Carnival was held in the Prince's Rink last night under favourable circumstances. The event was popular and proved a big success. Amongst the large concourse of spectators were His Excellency and Mrs. Davidson and suite. The spacious building was artistically decorated and brilliantly illuminated showing careful preparations of those in charge. Punctually at nine o'clock King Carnival (Mr. R. Harvey) appeared on the ice, which presented a glassy surface, attended by his courtiers. At the western end of the rink the King occupied the Throne. The grand parade was an imposing sight, the skaters passing down the middle of the rink in twos, fours and eights, alternately. Following the parade came the "Tandem Broom Race." This event comprised a gentleman seated on a broom dragged by a lady partner along the ice, and evoked much interest to the spectators. The winners were Miss E. Crowdy and Mr. H. Hutchings. The next item was the Maypole and Double Eight, the participants skating gracefully. The Needle and Cigarette Race and Musical Chairs created much amusement. The latter caused much laughter. The winner was Mr. B. Hayward. A "Sir Roger de Coverly" concluded the first part.

The Court of King Carnival was surrounded by courtiers, jesters, harlequins, armoured knights, peasants, geishas, soldiers, naval officers, aviators, brownies, clowns, Indians, cowboys, college graduates, Robin Hood and Maid Marion, babies, Arctic explorers, Arabs, Turks, gnomes, and times symbolizing Britannia, Erin and America. The costumes in many instances were very beautiful and some most original. Among these latter was "The Daylight Bill" impersonated by Wm. Heister. It certainly was one of the most original on the ice and was much commented on. The C. L. B. band discoursed an excellent programme of music during the evening. All who participated thoroughly enjoyed it. It is reported that a Bal-Masque will be given in April.

Wedding Bells.

On Wednesday evening, Feb. 19th, a pretty wedding took place in the Methodist Church, Port de Grave, when Mr. Thos. Loder, son of Mr. John Loder, Snook's Harbor, P.E.I., led to the altar Miss Leah French Efford. The nuptial knot was tied by Rev. Mr. Robb, and the bride was attired in a handsome costume of white poplin, with hat and veil to match and carried a beautiful bouquet. The bride was given away by her father, Mr. Samuel Efford; the bridesmaids were Misses Mary Ellen Morgan and Minnie Dave, who were handsomely attired, while Mr. George Dawe assisted the groom. After the ceremony the wedding party repaired to the bride's residence where a very sumptuous wedding repast was partaken of. Rev. Mr. Robb, the officiating clergyman, was one of the guests, and all spent a most enjoyable time. The groom's present to the bride was a beautiful gold watch and chain. Many handsome presents were also received from friends including the groom's parents, and President Coaker of the Fishermen's Protective Union. The activities were kept up till 4 a.m. next day and that evening the happy couple left for their new home. To the newly wedded pair the Telegram extends best wishes for a long and happy wedded life.

Reported Missing.

The Minister of Marine and Fisheries has received a communication from Laurencetown, N. D. B., asking for information as to the schooner Mercy which was frozen in at Red Bay for some time. Point Amour, which is 30 miles south of Red Bay, was wired to know if the craft was there. No answer has yet been received.

Warning To Sealers and to the Trade!

THE SUDBURY WATERPROOF SEAL AND LEATHER MANUFACTURING COMPANY, LIMITED, finds it necessary to state that they have lately heard of many complaints of the Waterproof and lasting qualities of boots pretending to be made of "Icegrain" leather. These complaints have been investigated, and have all been found to be made concerning boots which are not "Icegrain," and are not of leather manufactured by the Sudbury Company.

Warning is hereby given that the word "Icegrain" is the exclusive Trade Mark of THE SUDBURY WATERPROOF SEAL AND LEATHER MANUFACTURING COMPANY, LIMITED, and that every attempt to sell as "Icegrain" any leather or manufactured product of leather which is not manufactured by the Sudbury Company is a fraud and will be prosecuted as such.

Every side of the "Icegrain" leather manufactured by the Sudbury Company is stamped in many places on its inside with the word "Icegrain". Of this all manufacturers of boots and shoes are required to take notice. Sealers may protect themselves from imposition by demanding at the shops boots made of "Icegrain" leather. If any substitute is then palmed off on them it is a fraud, and persons who are so deceived are requested to communicate with the Sudbury Company. Further, all sealers' boots made of "Icegrain" leather can be identified by the stamp "Icegrain" which appears in several places on the leg of the boot and is easily to be perceived.

The Trade is particularly warned that every attempt to sell as "Icegrain" any leather or manufactured product of leather which is not manufactured by THE SUDBURY WATERPROOF SEAL AND LEATHER MANUFACTURING COMPANY, LIMITED, will be rigorously prosecuted.

The proprietors of the Trade Mark "Icegrain" are determined to protect the public and themselves against every effort to impose upon our people as "Icegrain" leather which are not the manufacture of the Sudbury Company.

The Waterproof and enduring qualities which have won such fame for "Icegrain" leather in the past will still be found in all genuine "Icegrain" leather, and in genuine "Icegrain" leather alone. These qualities cannot be imitated by any competitors. The Sudbury Company stands at the back of the "Icegrain" leather it manufactures. It cannot be expected to stand at the back of leathers which never saw their tannery.

United Service.

Another very large congregation assembled in St. Charles' Church last night, and the service was very hearty and impressive. The Rev. Dr. Curtis was the reader, and he displayed much pathos in all that he said. The lesson was read by the Rev. Mr. Matthews, who selected the story of the healing of the palsied man; and the address which followed by the Rev. Mr. Bartlett was based upon the same topic.

Mr. Bartlett drew some very timely and practical lessons from the incident, and dwelt with much emphasis upon the action of the men who carried the sick man to the Saviour. Their faith and perseverance had much to do with his healing. These men were not discouraged by the press of people; they looked higher than the crowd. They looked up, which is the right direction in which men should look; for in looking up we reach the higher and better things of life, and find that healing and strength which comes from above.

Mr. Bartlett spoke for fifteen minutes, and displayed great earnestness and the address was certainly one which carried conviction, and was fresh and inspiring.

Firemen's Annual.

The annual meeting of the St. John's Firemen's Union was held in the rooms of the L. S. P. U. last night with a large attendance. The matter of employing foreign firemen in the ships of the Red Cross Line was discussed and it was decided if the matter was not satisfactorily adjusted that all Union firemen working on Bowring's ships would strike. The following were elected:—

President and Delegate, F. J. Woods; Vice-President, M. McAllister; 1st Assistant Vice-President, W. Walsh; 2nd Asst. Vice-President, W. Aminson; 1st Treasurer, P. McGrath; 2nd Treasurer, J. Hanlon; Financial Secretary, W. Cullen; Marshal, William Squires.

McMurdo's Store News.

WEDNESDAY, Feb. 26th, 1913.

Cream of Lilies, the proper thing to prevent or cure chapped hands, lips and face and will do so effectually if honestly used. Useful at all seasons it is perhaps during the period of cold winds that characterize the latter part of February and March that its value is most conspicuous. People who use Cream of Lilies regularly never have any trouble with sunburned or chapped skin. We can strongly recommend it as an after-shave, and it has become a favourite with many gentlemen for that purpose. Price 50c. a crock.

Digestive Disks present a quick method of getting rid of flatulence, heart burn, and slight stomach troubles. One or two may be taken as needed. A box kept in the vest pocket will sometimes prove a friend in need. Price 15c. a box.

DR. LLOYD'S CONDITION. — We are informed by the Hospital authorities this morning that Dr. Lloyd had passed a fairly good night but that his condition had not materially improved since last report.

Fairville, Sept. 30, 1902.

Minard's Liniment Co., Ltd.

Dear Sirs,—We wish to inform you that we consider your MINARD'S LINIMENT a very superior article, and as we use it as a sure relief for sore throat and chest. When I tell you I would not be without it if the price was one dollar a bottle, I mean it.

Yours truly,
CHAS. F. TILTON.

mine' which was wrecked near the Zuyder Zee in October, 1793, while taking specie from English merchants to Hamburg.

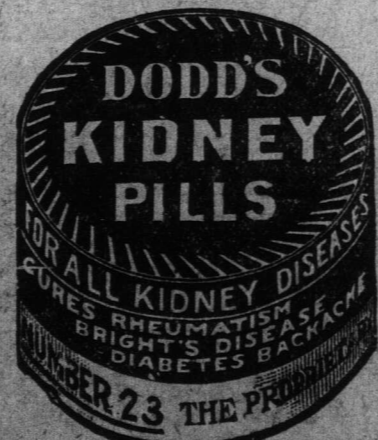

England being then at war with the Netherlands, the Dutch Government claimed the wreck, and £83,000 worth of the bullion was recovered. It was not until 1857 that Lloyd's secured equal rights in the treasure with a private company to which the Dutch had granted concessions. In 1858, with considerable quantities of specie, the frigate's bell was recovered. Since then it has stood in a chair and table made from the 'Lutine's' rudder.

Lost Ships.

A Bell Which Rings Out Good News.

The bell at Lloyd's, which is rung when a ship long overdue and reported lost, unexpectedly reaches port, is one of the sensation bells of the world. It was only a few days ago that its clanging announced the safe return of the Snowdon Range, a 2,000-ton steamship, which recently arrived in a battered condition at Queens-town, after being fifty-two days out from Philadelphia, and long reported lost. Her loss would have cost Lloyd's something like £100,000, and it is little wonder, therefore, that the underwriters cheered when they heard the bell.

The bell now used at Lloyd's, is of naval origin. It belonged to the 'Luouse and informed the police. A locksmith was sent for and the house searched without result. It was noticed, however, that a fire was burning under a copper full of linen. The neighbor, Bouvier, later again saw a moving light, and raised the alarm. Fifty people, armed with guns, and pitchforks, surrounded the villa, while the mayor telegraphed for gendarmes from Fontainebleau.

After a prolonged search a plumber named Xavier Martignon was discovered hiding in the garden. He is a married man with three children. He explained that he had no intention of committing a robbery; he had only come there to wash his clothes. Inquiries showed that the plumber was in the habit of dressing up in woman's clothes, and in order that his wife might not pilage his wardrobe, he concealed it in the empty villa. He was washing it when interrupted by the villagers. A bundle of clothes found on the second floor contained sixteen chemises, other lingerie, two white blouses, a pink dressing gown, six pairs of stockings, eleven white petticoats, and two chest improvers. They were all seized by the gendarmes and the plumber was taken into custody.

"ANGELIC-CATHOLIC." — This is subject matter on which you write has already been dealt with in these columns, therefore we do not think a further reference thereto would answer any useful purpose.

LONDON, Feb. 25.

The Marquis of Sligo was found dead in bed in London, to-day. He was 63 years of age. His son, the Earl of Altamont, succeeds.

ROME, Feb. 25.

Two confidence men who are believed to be Americans, got $25,000 from James Sawyer, a Canadian tourist, in an unusual way. One man produced a fake cheque for $10,000 which he said was destined for the Pope, but he had no time to cash it as the Pontiff was waiting for him in audience. His accomplice immediately handed over $5,000. Sawyer followed suit, and then the crooks promptly disappeared.

LONDON, Feb. 25.

The newspapers are filled with suggested remedies for the impossible situation, ranging from free permission to the women to commit suicide to application of the birch rod, in the old-fashioned way. The Observer, in the course of a four-column editorial, hints at the nail on the head, with the suggestion that political leaders of both sides of the House should agree upon a public statement that they will not support any kind of a Woman's Suffrage Bill until the militants not only agree to, but actually discontinue operations, and renounce their course of action.

LONDON, Feb. 25.

The Pekin correspondent of the Daily Mail telegraphs that the Dowager Empress made the tragic statement before she died on Saturday:—"I and my boy (meaning the young Emperor), are alone in the world. We have scarcely a friend, and now I must leave him alone. How shall I find rest in the next world? What face shall I possess when I rejoin our ancestors in the Ancestral Temple, the last Empress of a ruined dynasty?" When she was no longer able to speak, she pointed in the direction of her boy and signalled to his guardian who knelt at her bedside. Apparently she intended to add a last appeal to the guardian.

LONDON, Feb. 25.

Lively scenes attended a suffragette meeting at the Pavilion Music Hall, where Miss Annie Kenny attempted to speak. Her announcement that Mrs. Pankhurst had been arrested, and her assertion that the absence of their leader would not deter a continuance of their militant policy, was greeted with "muscle-chairs" and "boos." The women made several efforts to eject male distributors, but were easily repulsed. Speeches were for the most part in dumb show, but Mrs. Drummond was heard to say that the arrest of Mrs. Pankhurst was the best blow the Government could have struck for the Women's cause. A hostile crowd assembled outside the branch offices of the suffragettes at Croydon, and threw eggs and tomatoes at the speakers and others who entered to attend a meeting of protest against Mrs. Pankhurst's arrest, that if the authorities let her, she would certainly starve herself to death.

Quinine? No! Pape's Best for Bad Cold.

First dose of Pape's Cold Compound ends gripe misery.

It is a positive fact that a dose of Pape's Cold Compound taken every two hours until three consecutive doses are taken, will end the Gripe and break up the most severe cold, either in the head, chest, back, stomach, limbs or any part of the body.

It promptly relieves the most miserable headache, dullness, head and nose stuffed up, feverishness, sneezing, sore throat, running of the nose, mucous catarrhal discharges, soreness, stiffness and rheumatic twinges.

Take this wonderful Compound as directed, with the knowledge that there is nothing else in the world, which will cure your cold or end Gripe misery as promptly and without any other assistance or bad after-effects as a 25-cent package of Pape's Cold Compound, which any druggist can supply—except no substitute—contains no quinine. Belongs in every home. Tastes nice—acts gently.

Making Good.

Mr. A. Elford of this city, but who for the past six or seven years has resided at Calgary, Alta., returns to his home in the far Northwest by the City of Sydney with his wife and child, who have been on a visit to friends here since the 21st of December last. Mr. Elford speaks in glowing terms of this new city of the great Dominion and says that he must be an inglorious man who cannot get work or do well there. In all there are about 30 Newfoundlanders there doing well, and some of them have means. Mr. Elford is a builder and contractor and is succeeding beyond his most sanguine expectations. His two sons out there are profitably employed and feel satisfied they will make their mark. Good mechanics can make big money there, and no man, no matter what his occupation, need be idle. This city which a few years ago had only a population of 15,000 has now 65,000 people, and is still rapidly growing.

His Father Dead.

Mr. J. B. McGarrigle, of the British-American House, who was about to proceed home to Margaree, Cape Breton, last week, owing to his aged father's illness, but desisted on learning that the old gentleman was getting better, yesterday had a telegram apprising him of his parent's death. Mr. McGarrigle was one of the pioneers of Margaree and was over 60 years old. Besides Mr. McGarrigle here, several sons survive the deceased, one of whom is Dr. McGarrigle, of Nova Scotia.

Mr. Thomas Leaves.

The Nickel vocalist, Mr. Réginald Thomas, left by the Almeriana en route to his home in London, England. He did not intend leaving for a few days, but as the Almeriana is the only steamer for England for some time, Mr. Thomas decided to take passage by her. His hosts and friends wish him every success. There will be the usual holiday programme to-day with an additional picture instead of the song.

Several People Ill.

Quite a number of people in the city are now ill of grippe and colds and are confined to their homes. His Excellency the Governor has been invalided with the prevailing malady the past couple of days and is being attended by a doctor. Mr. Martin, contractor and builder, is seriously ill at his home, LeMarchant Road, and Mr. R. G. Reudel, of R. G. Rendell & Co., is also confined to his room.

Fine Foxes.

Monday a fine black fox and also a yellow one, was brought here by train from Port Blandford and purchased by Mr. Ellis, manager of the Reid Fox Farm, for, it is said, $7,400. One of the animals' hind legs had to be amputated, as it became frost-bitten when caught in the trap. A fine black fox was also purchased a couple of days ago by Messrs. Curran and DeForest. It was captured near Bonar.

Sad Home Coming.

Master Michael Dillon, the eldest son of the late Captain Dillon, returned here yesterday on the s.s. Nascope, on which ship the stowed away. This poor boy, who is but just 15 years old, never knew of his father's death until he reached home, and his grief was pitiful to witness. The arrival of the boy also renewed the trouble of his widowed mother and the other children of the family.

Weather Improving.

At 7 p.m. yesterday the weather, which had been intensely cold and stormy since Sunday last across country, began to get finer. The mercury which was 10 below at Quarry yesterday, went up to zero and the snow and drift eased off. No 1 rotary, which was at the Topsails the past couple of days, started in at daylight this morning to clear the road so that trains could pass along.

LONDON, Feb. 25.
A new record of 3 hours, 5 minutes, for a monoplane flight from Paris to London, was made by the French aviator, Marcel G. Brindekone des Meslinas, to-day. He started at 9:15 a.m. from Paris; landed at Calais at 10:59; resumed his flight at noon, and reached London at 1:30, after crossing the Channel in a fog. The distance is 287 miles, so that during his actual flying time of 185 minutes, he flew more than a mile and a half a minute.

EPSOM, Feb. 25.
Mrs. Pankhurst has been remanded until to-morrow on a charge of setting off a bomb, which exploded and killed a man, and injured several others, while she was attending a public meeting. An attempt to smuggle dynamite into the building, while the case was in progress. An attempted suffragette demonstration outside the police court, failed. The disorderly women were outnumbered by the townspeople who vigorously rescued the prisoner as she passed into the building.

LONDON, Feb. 25.
Practically the whole of the war area in Thrace is covered with snow, and movements by the troops are impossible. No fighting is reported from any point. The possibility of trouble between Bulgaria and Roumania over Silistria is regarded as having been removed by acceptance of the mediation of the Powers, which was announced yesterday. All causes of alarm, with the exception of the differences between Austria and Russia over Albania, are now removed. A Vienna commentator in the Daily Telegraph, while again predicting a peaceful settlement, treats the divergence on this point somewhat seriously.

SYDNEY, N.S.W., Feb. 25.
Two members of the Mawson Antarctic expedition, Lieut. Nimmo and Dr. Mertz, have died. Dr. Mawson and six of his companions had been left for the winter on Adelie Land, a barren tract, because they were unable to reach the expedition's ship, the Aurora, before she was compelled to leave. Professor David, who was a member of Shackleton's 1909 expedition, which reached within 111 miles of the Pole, has received the following despatch from Adelie Land: "Dr. Douglas Mawson and several of his men missed the Aurora, which had gone to fetch them under the command of Capt. Davis. This happened owing to unfortunate circumstances. Lieut. Nimmo of the City of London Royal Fusiliers and Dr. Mertz, who was ski companion of Switzerland, in 1908, who were members of the expedition, are both dead. All the others are well. Dr. Mawson and the other six members of the party will probably winter in Adelie Land. Some very successful sledging expeditions have been made during the sojourn of Dr. Mawson and his companions in the Antarctic."

Many People Crossing
The ice between Bell Island and Portugal Cove is as level as a floor and perfectly safe to travel over, except in a couple of places. Yesterday Messrs. John Lee and H. Goldstone crossed over to the Cove with their pony and slide and returned to the Island with a heavy load of provisions. The food they are short of mostly on the Island is beef, pork, butter, cheese, and above all tobacco. Messrs. Lee and Goldstone brought over a big supply of the needful, which was eagerly bought up. There is a good supply of flour, and when the Bay is clear the s.s. Mary, now at Spaniard's Bay, will discharge a large cargo of foodstuffs at the Island.

Nascope Makes Quick Passage.
The s.s. Nascope, Capt. Melkie, arrived yesterday afternoon from Newcastle after a quick run of nine days. The ship encountered heavy westerly gales but despite this made an exceptionally quick passage. The Nascope left here three months ago for Mediterranean ports, fish laden, and after discharging proceeded to Newcastle, where she was docked and underwent a thorough renovation, having her engines overhauled and a number of plates and rolling chocks adjusted. She brought the following passengers: J. Higgins, W. Sinnott, M. Cummins, D. McFarlane and Mrs. J. Ledingham and child.

With the Puck.
The Wanderers and City team will meet again at the Prince's Rink to-night at 8.30. It is said there will be a change in the line up of the city team.
Owing to the Bruce being ice-bound the visitors will go by the City of Sydney to their homes.

Outfits Damaged.

Yesterday afternoon a resident of Torbay, in charge of a horse, and who was celebrating, ran amuck on Duckworth Street. He collided with another team, with the result that both outfits sustained much damage. The occupants of both teams were thrown on the ground but were uninjured. The Torbay man, who was incapable of taking charge of his horse, was taken into custody by Constable Kelly and brought to the station.

Sealing News
The Nascope has her sealing coal on board which she brought from Newcastle. Her crew will begin to sign on March 10th.
The Viking's crew are signing to-day.
The Lloydsen is now being outfitted for the Gulf sealishery at Bowring's premises.
The crews of the Eagle and Ranger will sign on Monday and Tuesday next. Steamship owners will not sign any scaler who has not been vaccinated within seven years.

Dogs Destroy Poultry.
Hungry dogs of late are prowling around Quidi Vidi and adjacent roads and are playing sad havoc with the poultry which some residents are trying to raise. Sunday last some fine hens were killed by these brutes, including some laying Plymouth Rocks. These useless curs are unlicensed and the police should set about wiping them out.

3,000 War Medals.

Relics of Famous Fighters to be Sold.

A remarkable collection of nearly 3,000 medals, won by officers and men in the various wars of British history, is to be sold in the near future, unless it is saved for the nation either by a government grant or by a public subscription.

The collection has been acquired during the last thirty years by Dr. A. A. Payne, of Sheffield, and is now housed in the Nappin Art Gallery in that city. Over five hundred of the medals were awarded to officers of all ranks, and many were won by members of the peerage; some of them belonged to the House of Guelph. Every regiment present at Waterloo is represented as are also the Hanoverian and the Brunswick armies.

Among the famous men whose medals have found a resting place in Dr. Payne's cabinets are Field Marshal Viscount Gough who commanded the troops in the China campaign and was afterwards Commander-in-Chief in India; Lord Gambier, who was awarded the gold medal for the "Glorious First of June"; Vice Admiral Sir Charles Richeson, who took De Winter prisoner at Camperdown in 1797; and Admiral Sir Thomas Usher, who conveyed Napoleon in the Unadanted to Elba. Dr. Payne asks £26,000 for the collection, but should it be secured for the nation, the price would be reduced.

One Dose Makes Indigestion Go.

Heartburn, Gas, Dyspepsia and all Stomach distress ended with "Pape's Diapepsin."

You don't want a slow remedy when your stomach is bad—or an uncertain one—or a harmful one—your stomach is too valuable; you mustn't injure it with drastic drugs.

Pape's Diapepsin is noted for its speed in giving relief; it's harmless; it's certain unfailing action in regulating sick, sour, gassy stomachs. It's millions of cures in indigestion, dyspepsia, gastritis and other stomach trouble has made it famous the world over.

Keep this perfect stomach doctor in your home—keep it handy—get a large fifty-cent case from any drug store and then if anyone should eat something which doesn't agree with them; if what they eat lays like lead, ferments and sours, and forms gas; causes headache, dizziness and nausea; eructations of acid and undigested food—remember as soon as Pape's Diapepsin come in contact with the stomach all such distress vanishes. It's promptness, certainty and ease in overcoming the worst stomach disorders is a revelation to those who try it.

Where Ruined Merchants Are Cared For.

Gratitude as well as benevolence, has played an important part in the founding of our many charitable institutions. In the history of homes for the poor and distressed are to be found a number of splendid examples of men and women who, actuated by their gratitude for some good fortune which has befallen them, decided to share their wealth in perpetuity with their less fortunate brothers and sisters by founding a home for their benefit.

In the annals of charity, however, it is doubtful if there is a more romantic story than that concerning the foundation of Morden's College near Greenwich, which has lately been advertising for "gentlemen" in reduced circumstances desirous of becoming inmates of the college home. The latter has accommodation for forty one inmates, who must be men of good character, either widowers or unmarried, and not under sixty years of age, who shall have been either merchants or manufacturers or have been engaged as principals in some wholesale trade or business for not less than ten years, and who, from misfortune or accident, have become reduced in circumstances.

Morden's College was established by Sir John Morden, Bart., who died in 1708, and who founded the college eight years before his death. He himself was a merchant who, through singular circumstances, thought himself a ruined man.

Sir John, after living for a number of years in Turkey, amassed a considerable fortune, and, deciding to return to London, placed the whole of his merchandise on three ships; but, like the missing vessels of Antonio in "The Merchant of Venice," they did not turn up, and after a time were given up for lost. The consequence was that the once wealthy merchant was reduced to great poverty, and it was only by acting as agent for certain tradesmen that he was able to earn a livelihood.

For ten years Sir John thus struggled on, and then, to his great amazement, one day came the news that his long-lost ships had arrived in port. In the joy of the moment he vowed to build an asylum for decayed merchants.

He purchased from the Crown the manor of Old Court, Greenwich, and on what was known as the Great Stone Field he erected a college from designs by Sir Christopher Wren. The original college consisted of a chapel in the centre and apartments for twelve residents, who dined together in a common room. Since those days, however, it has been considerably altered, and, as already mentioned, there is now accommodation for forty-one inmates who not only are provided with separate sets of apartments, with furniture, if required to the value of £25, together with attendance, coals, wood, and light, but have an allowance of £105 annually, with an extra £5 for per-sonal laundry. In addition to the resident inmates, it might be mentioned that the trustees of the college pay 125 out-pensioners sums of £80 each, and six pensions of £30 each annually to widows of decayed merchants.

Altogether the founding of the college cost Sir John £10,000, and for a couple of centuries "poor, honest, and discreet, merchants who have lost their estates by accidents, danger, and perils of the seas, or by any other accidents, ways, or means, in their honest endeavour to get their living by way of merchandise," to quote the original wording of the deeds of the endowment, have been thus cared for by the munificent bequest of the generous-hearted Sir John Morden.

All That Was Left of Them.

Metuchen, N. J., Feb. 12.—It was a half frozen army of sixteen suffragettes reduced by cold and exposure to that number from an original 200 who left Newark, N. J., this morning, that struggled into this village shortly after 6 o'clock to-night to make its first 286 mile march to Washington to carry a message to Woodrow Wilson on the day of his inauguration as President. From town to town, as the first day or arduous tramping wore on hikers in tens and twenties unostentatiously left the ranks and sought warmth indoors and then confessed themselves deserters by boarding trains for their homes.

"Interesting and Instructive."

Mr. Howley's Lecture Reviewed by Mr. English.—A Hint to the Ladies.

Editor Evening Telegram.

Dear Sir.—The audience which greeted Mr. Howley's lecture on Monday night was well rewarded, for the lecturer made the fascinating subject of natural history both interesting and instructive. According to custom the newspapers in reporting the lecture said in the usual stereotyped style that a fairly large audience attended. Why newspapers should in this manner step aside from the path of truth, I do not understand. Now big and small are relative qualities; even recognizing this I cannot see how an audience of about one hundred can be said to be fairly large where a football or hockey match can attract thousands. It is no reflection on Mr. Howley that a larger audience did not attend his lecture, for the matter is untruthful. The fact of the matter is we have not yet attained to that degree of culture where lectures on such delightful subjects as natural history, can attract us. We may as well face the truth and the sooner we are honest enough to admit it, the better for ourselves. I know the truth is often disagreeable and to tell it openly is not the way to seek popularity, but for the good of the community it is best to speak it.

Mr. Howley showed good seed on Monday night, but it is to be regretted that there was not more ground to receive it. The study of nature no matter in what branch you take it whether it be among the rocks, the fauna or the flora, cannot but have an ennobling and refining influence as expressed by the lecturer. Whilst I have nothing but admiration to express in regard to the treat bestowed upon us last Monday night, there are one or two points in the lecture wherein I beg to take issue with the learned gentleman, notably that in relation to the construction of beaver dams. Mr. Howley says that beavers always build their dams not in a direct line across the stream, but in a curved manner, the convex side always being up stream. Mr. Howley is quite in error here. I have seen a great many beaver dams in this country and over a great deal of northern Canada, and my observations have shown me that the clever little builders invariably construct their works with due regard to economy, that is where the least amount of work will do the greatest good. They build as straight as possible, taking advantage of natural obstructions, and very frequently with the concave side of the dam up stream. Often where the banks are low they will continue the construction in an arc up stream and towards higher ground. Whilst on the subject of beavers, I will relate something which came under my own observation, as it goes to show how cunning the little fellows are. A hunter had set a trap on a beaver dam and beneath the water. Did the beaver get into it? Not at all. That very same night the trap was covered by the creatures, and buried beyond all possibility of doing mischief. They heaped sods and sticks and stones over the treacherous instrument. Such intelligent creatures must have a keen sense of humor. We can just imagine the mirth of the little animals as they talked over how they outwitted their enemy.

Now in regard to caribou or deer, I am not quite clear whether Mr. Howley said they are distinct from the deer found in the Arctic regions, as I have no notes on the lecture and have to rely on memory. It appears that he draws a distinction. I do not think the distinction is well founded. Naturalists tell us that the deer of the Arctic regions is the rangifer tarandus, and that I believe is the name of the deer of this country. I have seen the deer of this country and even more intimately have I observed the deer which roam over the wastes of the Arctic regions, particularly in northern Baffin Land. From my personal observation, though not the observation of a naturalist, I am convinced that they are identical. Both male and female among Arctic deer have antlers, and they are ever so large as our deer. The only difference that I could observe is in the texture of the coat. That of the Arctic deer being softer and thicker. Before concluding, there is a word of advice I would most respectfully offer the ladies for whose benefit the lectures are being delivered. Do not wear heavy gowns, and do not go so dry that there would be grave danger of setting fire to the hall were the heat to be turned on. Monday night the place was insufferably cold. Another improvement would be to place that little lamp on the lecturer's table by an electric bulb, or if that is not practicable try to have a tall lamp that will shed some light on the reading without putting the lecturer to the painful necessity of bending down to the light in an effort to read. I know the ladies are not altogether to blame for this latter, as I have observed the same condition for years past. The same little story holds lamp, or one greatly resembling it.

Yours truly,
ARTHUR ENGLISH.

S. O. T. at Great Burin.

Editor Evening Telegram.

Dear Sir.—Please grant me space in your paper to inform you of the work that the S. O. T. Society of Great Burin has accomplished. We have a beautiful building with division room up stairs, also a room on the under floor to be used for tents and other special occasions. This building is 60 x 35 feet with first-class requirements. We have again installed our officers for the ensuing term, namely: H. Hollett, W.P.; S. W. Hollett, W.A.; W. M. J. Walsh, P.S.; J. Walsh, R.S.; C. Hollett, Treas.; Wm. Reril, A.R.S.; Wm. J. B. Emberley, Con.; J. Adams, A. Con.; J. C. Emberley, J.S.; A. Walsh, O.S.; T. Darby, Chap.; O. Hollett, P.W.P.; C. Snow, S.Y.P.W.; Wm. Darby, H. Adams, Wm. Wags, three Greecs. Our number of members at present is 82, while at Great Burin and Shallow there are 52 families, and 46 of these are temperance homes and the remaining six are well-wishers of the temperance cause, and in the very near future we hope to be able to record every home in our vicinity a temperance home. Our ranks were broken by death during the past year 1912, and we are thankful to be able to report their places filled with men of grit coming forward and signing the pledge. Our increase in membership during the past year has been 10. We held our annual parade on the 29th of January, with flying banners and band playing. We marched boldly forward, greeting friend and foe. We left Great Burin for Burin Bay, by way of motor boats and landed at Burin Bay; thence we marched to Government wharf, Burin north. Embarked again on motor boats and away we sped amid cheers and band playing. We landed safely at Great Burin, where we refreshed. After we had partaken of the good things, some little entertainment took place such as singing, recitations and a few selections from the band. On the 6th of February we held our temperance public meeting consisting of dialogues, recitations, singing, etc. Solos by Miss Carrie Hollett, Etta M. Hollett, T. Reril; also a quartette by Bros. W. J. B. Emberley, Robert Toklett, Fred Hollett and Gabriel Hollett, and an address by Rev. Mr. Godfrey, who enjoyed the proceedings of the evening, after which the meeting closed by singing the National Anthem.

On the 17th inst., the Grand Division met for the election of officers. The officers elected were as follows: W. J. B. Emberley, G.W.P.; W. Revil, G.W.A.; J. C. Dancy, Treas.; S. J. Adams, G.S.; J. Walsh, G.C.; W. M. Hollett, G.S.; T. Darby, G.S.Y.P.W.; Wm. F. Darby, G.P.W.P. Our motto is down with the demon of intemperance, and up with the flag of prohibition. Will you help us?

Cargo Set on Fire

By Water, and When Thrown into the Sea Jumps Back on the Steamer and Sinks it.

London, Feb. 8.—The story of the "Demon Cargo" of the steamship Hardy, was written into the records of the King's Bench yesterday, through the testimony of her captain. On a voyage from Treport with a large cargo of mineral waters, consigned to a London firm, water reached a quantity of metallic sodium, which was also a part of the cargo, setting it afire.

The captain, not being aware of the nature of the sodium, played the hose on it with the result that two tons of it were set afire and there was a series of explosions. Non-phased, the captain ordered all of the cases of the sodium heaved into the sea. When this was done the force of explosion of the sodium in contact with the water, caused several of the cases to jump back again aboard the ship, and the vessel itself caught fire. There was another explosion in the cargo which caused the vessel to break amidships and sink. The mate was drowned but the captain and crew were saved.

The story came out in an action for damages against the steamship company for the loss of the mineral water. The court awarded the plaintiff $5,000 damages with costs, and remarked to the captain that he seemed to have had the "devil" among the sailors when the water got in."
