JUST IN TIME TO SAVE LIVES OF MAWSON PARTY

Antarctic Explorers Exhausted Supplies

Lived on Hearts and Tongues of Sea-Elephants—English Army Officer and Swiss Scientist Lost Their Lives by Accidents on Ice

(Canadian Press) Christchurch, N. Z., Aug. 27.—Relief arrived just in the nick of time to save the lives of Dr. Douglas Mawson, the Australian Antarctic explorer and his five companions, who were left in March last on Macquarie Island, in the Antarctic Ocean, when the remaining twenty-four members of Dr. Mawson's expedition returned to Tasmania on board the Aurora from their south polar trip.

The six men were believed to have ample provisions to last them until the Antarctic spring, but the commander of the government steamer recently sent to their relief, reports that the explorers had exhausted all their supplies and that the men had been living for some time on the hearts and tongues of sea elephants. All of them were obviously in a very weak condition when the relief ship reached them.

Dr. Mawson's expedition was unfortunately in losing, by death, two of its members owing to accidents on the ice. Lieut. Nims, an English army officer, and Dr. Xavier Mertz, a Swiss scientist.

When the Aurora was sent to fetch the explorers back early this year, the vessel was forced to leave before taking on Dr. Mawson and five of his companions, forming one of the parties, as she was in danger of being crushed by the ice.

They were said to be well equipped and no fear was felt for their safety and the news brought by the commander of the relief ship today came as a surprise to all circles.

Under the new bank act, provision was made for a board of trustees of the gold reserve against the circulation but the banks were allowed to name the board themselves. They named it yesterday and the banks which now have authority to call for reserves from Canadian banking institutions are as follows:

The Bank of Montreal, The Bank of Commerce, The Royal Bank and the Trust Company.

Second to the provision for a circulation gold reserve was the provision made by the new act for a board of auditors to audit the books of all the banks.

Under the act at least forty auditors are to be appointed by the association, and afterwards approved by the Minister of Finance. The association did its part yesterday when it suggested the names of seventy or eighty accountants for the position of auditors. None of the accountants suggested are employed by the bank.

A PRESENTATION PARTY A number of girl friends called at the residence of Miss Rita Fitzgerald, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. W. Fitzgerald, on Guilford street, St. John West, last evening and presented her with several gifts, among them a handsome silver scallop dish.

Refreshments were partaken of and an enjoyable time was spent with music and dancing. Miss Fitzgerald is scheduled to take part in an important event soon. The presentations were made by Miss Jean Quinlan on behalf of the friends.

Thaw's First Appearance Before a Canadian Court

Chief Result Was Busy Morning for Photographers—Argument on Habeas Corpus Proceedings Continued This Afternoon

(Canadian Press) Sherbrooke, Que., Aug. 27.—Proceedings in the fight to take Harry Thaw back to New York were abruptly adjourned today until 2 o'clock this afternoon, while Thaw's lawyers and counsel for New York state were arguing as to Thaw's right to abandon his habeas corpus proceedings.

Mr. McKewen and J. N. Greenhill, Thaw's chief counsel, reached the court house shortly after 9 o'clock this afternoon and in conference with the judge, Crowds began to collect in the court room, waiting for developments. It was apparent that the first skirmish would be over the habeas corpus writ issue.

Hurrying from his chambers the judge instructed the sheriff that while he was undecided whether to grant the writ, Thaw should be kept in custody during arguments on the question.

Nearly all of the lawyers for both sides were in court when this announcement was made. The news spread swiftly and the crowd began to grab seats and standing room.

YOUNG COUPLE DIE TOGETHER

Bodies Found in Drifting Motor Boat

A SUICIDE PACT Boy Still Clutched Revolver in Dead Hand—Act Not Long Premeditated—Both Were High School Graduates This Year

(Canadian Press) Rockland, Maine, Aug. 27.—Speeding across the bay in his motor boat yesterday, Harry Dyer, a Vinal Haven fisherman, sighted a motor boat which appeared to be drifting seaward. Thinking it had been disabled, he ran alongside, and offered his assistance to the two persons seated in the boat. Getting no response, he looked at the occupants of the boat more closely and was horrified to find that both were dead. The girl, Miss Aggie Spear, aged nineteen, had been shot through the heart and left temple, and her garments were drenched in blood. The young man, Carl W. Perry, aged twenty, with the revolver still in his death grip, had shot himself in the mouth.

The boat, with its dead, was towed to shore by the police. A graphic solution of a mysterious disappearance which they had vainly striven to fathom, Perry was explained as the result of a suicide pact, and every condition pointed to mutual agreement to die. The weapon used was a .38 calibre revolver, and three cartridges were empty.

Evidence that the suicide pact was not made when the couple departed from this city was seen in the woodland souvenirs which the couple had gathered during their excursion, being a bagful of balsam tips, used in filling pliers. The couple were popular among their sets, and no recollections had been placed on their companionship. Both were graduates from high school this year.

LONG SERVICE MEDALS FOR I. C. R. VETERANS

Six Presentations Made This Morning by Terminal Agent L. R. Ross on Behalf of Minister of Railways

A number of railway veterans assembled this morning to receive their long service medals. These medals are presented to the employees of the government railways who have served for twenty-five years or more. L. R. Ross, terminal agent, presented the medals to six of the recipients.

Those who received the medals here are David A. Sinclair, who at the time of his superannuation was mechanical foreman; John Kerr, brakeman; W. H. Williams, conductor; Alexander Adams and Samuel H. Gibson, carpenters, and John Robertson, track foreman.

Mr. Ross in his address made special mention of the fact that the recipients of the medals were in the employ of the I. C. R. for over fifty years, starting with them as a fireman and ending as a locomotive foreman and has seen longer service than any other employee receiving a pension from the I. C. R.

The medals were very attractive, bearing the initials "I. C. R." and were presented to each recipient by a circular letter signed by the secretary of state, and expressing appreciation of their long and faithful service.

THE SLIT SKIRT IS HERE

It never does to count your chickens before they're hatched. The Telegraph had a story this morning to the effect that the slit skirt would stay away from St. John as a mouse usually has a habit of staying away from the fatted cheese in the trap, but a lady who registered from Boston showed the fashion of this today.

It was raining when she appeared in a hack outside the Royal today and the lobby was crowded with men of all sizes, creeds and views on feminine apparel. As the young lady stepped from the hack a man seated in the front row of chairs uttered a gasp.

"See Whiz!" he exclaimed, "did you see that?"

As far as slit skirts are concerned, this of the Bostonette was the real thing, all right. A long raincoat did its best to hide the slash, but it succeeded only in a half-hearted way. The slit was about ten inches long, and although it could plainly be seen a length of silk hose stretched tightly over a slim ankle. The girl seemed amused at the sensation she had caused.

MORE TROUBLE FOR COLORED CHAMPION

JUDGMENT FOR $7,500

Bailiffs in Possession of His Home But Settlement Follows—To Become Citizen of France

(London, Aug. 27.—The Standard says the prospect of Jack Johnson, the American negro pugilist, appearing in London is becoming daily less hopeful. An unexpected incident has seriously affected the pugilist's plans.

This was the sudden appearance on Monday night at the house in Bayswater, where Johnson is staying, of a number of bailiffs sent by a firm of solicitors who got judgment for $7,500 damages for breach of contract against the pugilist last time he was here.

Johnson then broke his engagements with the Macnaughton syndicate muscle balls and skipped to Paris. Macnaughton then got the judgment against him. The bailiffs stayed at Johnson's house all night, but a conference on Tuesday morning resulted in a settlement.

Rev. F. B. Mayer, formerly president of the Baptists Alliance, who has been fighting against Johnson's appearance here, says he has not received Johnson's invitation to call on him, and discuss various matters in the presence of the newspaper men. Johnson however, conferred with another reverend opponent, Dr. A. J. Waldron, who, after a serious talk with the negro, said he was impressed by Johnson's simplicity and honesty, but agreed that Johnson was a man who must return to America.

Paris, Aug. 27.—The Journal says that Jack Johnson, the American pugilist has purchased a house at Joinville-Le-Pont, six miles from Paris, where he intends to reside for the requisite time to become a naturalized citizen of France.

Report That President Already Has Stepped Down

General Trevino Named as Successor—President Wilson's Message on Mexican Affairs Awaited With Intense Interest—Its Contents Predicted

(Canadian Press) Juarez, Aug. 27.—Advice from Mexico City have been received by army officials in Juarez and Chihuahua, that Huerta already has resigned. The resignation, it is stated, in Juarez, was sent in a sealed envelope to General Gamba and the contents of the note sent to Washington.

General Germaino Trevino, it is stated, already has been chosen as Huerta's successor, and will assume charge of the provisional government, as soon as he can reach Mexico City.

Washington, Aug. 27.—A new note from Huerta is now on the way from Mexico City to John Lind, at Vera Cruz. The administration is making every effort to get to Washington before President Wilson reads his address to congress. White House officials did not know of its receipt until the delivery of the president's address. They have no intimation of its contents.

President Wilson made one change in his message today. White House officials declared, however, it was a minor one.

Early in the morning, Secretary Bryan received a message from John Lind, saying there was no change in the situation at his end of the line.

"There is absolutely no change in the situation," said Mr. Bryan, as he left the White House.

"So far as I know, no, the president's message will be delivered to congress as planned at 1 o'clock."

Administration officials and diplomats declared they believed the only thing that could prevent delivery of the message would be a complete acquiescence by Huerta to the proposals of the United States.

Those best informed on the situation professed to believe that there was little chance for a change.

A great deal of interest was aroused here, by dispatches from Mexico City indicating that Huerta might turn his office over to General Trevino and take the field against the Constitutionalists. There was much speculation as to how far such a move would go toward satisfying the demands of the United States.

Administration officials were doing no talking early today, just waiting the developments of the hours before President Wilson started for the Capitol. There was a feeling of tension everywhere in official circles.

"We have done all we could and the position of the United States is clear to all the world," was the general expression of officials close to President Wilson.

The contents of the president's message were as closely guarded as ever and there seemed to be little hope that it might be given in advance to the newspapers as is the usual custom. It is known, however, to contain a steadfast refusal to recognize Huerta and to point out the course of the United States, which is said to be to remove all Americans from the danger zone, enforce a strict embargo on shipments of arms to all factions in Mexico, increase the troops along the border, to make the neutrality non-bound, and to regard armed intervention as a move of absolute necessity in the event of a failure to be friendly. The president studied to avoid the use of harsh words.

There was no indication early today of what John Lind's movements were to be. Whether he is to return to the United States on a battleship from Vera Cruz, or probably return to Mexico City, was dependent upon developments. William Bayard Hale, who, as a personal friend of the president in Mexico City, has been sending him reports on the situation, also was to leave for the United States probably today.

Business in congress today was almost completely subordinated to the reading of the president's address. All preparations had been made for the assembly of the house and senate in the house chamber, where the joint session was to be presided over by Speaker Clark and Vice-President Marshall.

ADMIRALTY PLANS FLOATING FACTORY FOR NAVAL BASE

(London, Aug. 27.—The British admiralty has issued specifications for a large floating factory for the Cromarty naval base capable of making any repairs to warships possible without going into dry dock.

To co-operate a floating dock for the newest vessel will be built 440 feet in length and 90 feet in breadth with square hull having many water tight compartments to be used for the bunkers and boiler. Turbines will generate the power to operate the plant aboard.

The superstructure measuring 420 feet, will cover the factory, the machine, the electrical and boiler shops, all of which will be operated by turbine current.

The names that have been suggested as likely are Dr. Jessop, M. P., A. C. Kingston, Mayor Merrit, and David Allan of Grimsby.

Mr. Lancaster informed the executive it would be time to consider the appointment made when the official announcement was made.

JUDGESHIP FOR A. E. LANCASTER, M. P., WILL BRING ON ELECTION

(Toronto, Ont., Aug. 27.—A despatch to the Globe from St. Catharines says that there will be a dominion by-election for the county of Lincoln at an early date, and that A. E. Lancaster, M. P., executive of the Conservative party held in the county on Saturday, it was taken as a foregone conclusion that A. E. Lancaster, M. P., would be elevated to the bench, and as soon as the formal announcement of his promotion is made, a convention will be held to nominate a new candidate.

The names that have been suggested as likely are Dr. Jessop, M. P., A. C. Kingston, Mayor Merrit, and David Allan of Grimsby.

Mr. Lancaster informed the executive it would be time to consider the appointment made when the official announcement was made.

FEW CONTRIBUTIONS FOR BRITISH OLYMPIAD FUND

(London, Aug. 27.—The appeal for a public fund of $500,000 for the purpose of re-establishing Great Britain's supremacy in sport at the next Olympic games, looks like ending in a fiasco. Although the fund has now been open ten days, the subscriptions amount only to $24,000, this small sum being made up chiefly by large donations. The response of the general public to the appeal has been negligible.

Making Woman's Work Lighter! Do you know that there are something like 60,000 patented articles, the purpose of each of which is to lighten some part of a woman's work? Do you know that great companies have scores of high priced experts doing nothing else but working out new ideas for the household? It is an education to walk through a modern houseware store; there is something new every day. Labor saving devices form a particularly important part in a woman's life during the hot weather. Merchants and manufacturers bring these new ideas to public notice through the advertising columns of the daily papers. Watch the advertising in the Telegraph and Times for suggestions for lifting some of the burdens.

THE STAR'S BILL A DANDY TONIGHT "A Desperate Chance" is a railroad drama by that strongly melodramatic company, the Kaleem people. To ride aboard a runaway locomotive is not a frequent privilege and those who see the landscape rushing past in a predicament of this kind will experience many a thrill if not a chill. The whole bill is good. It is one that will receive comment. See it tonight.

MANY IN RUSH TO SCENE OF GOLD STRIKE

At the present time there is an unusual demand at the local steamship offices for transportation to the nearest point of embarkation for Shushanna diggings, the new El Dorado of the Far West.

At least thirty going north from British Columbia and Puget Sound ports are carrying a good percentage of old-timers who have again been attracted to the north by the recent rich discovery in Alaska. Many left Victoria last night in the direction of the new fields.

A small herd of cattle is being shipped at Vancouver today, and upon their arrival at Skagway will be shipped by rail to Whitehorse and from thence by trail to Shushanna.

The general agent of the C. P. R. at Skagway has forwarded a report to the heads of departments, which states that the latest accounts point to a genuine strike of placer gold thirty-five miles from the Alaska-Yukon boundary, on the American side, a point between latitude 62 and 63. The report states that the natural and best route to the diggings is via Whitehorse, either by the Klondike trail or by Coffee Creek and Snag River.

SOME POLITICAL RUMORS (Woodstock Press, Conservative). It is expected that Hon. J. D. Hazen, minister of marine, will be home next week from an extended visit to the Canadian West. As a consequence some political rumors are prevalent. The Press has no inside information, but merely publishes these rumors as a matter of news.

It is said that O. S. Crockett, M. P. for York, will be appointed to the Supreme Court under the new Judiciary Act; that at the beginning of the new year St. John's will be the headquarters of Hon. W. C. H. Grimmer, M.L.A., for Charlotte, and attorney general, will go on the bench also, in succession to Chief Justice Barker, who will be superannuated; that in the event of Judge Landry retiring owing to illness, he will be succeeded by E. J. Robidoux, M. E. for Kent.

It is also said that Hon. H. F. MeLeod will continue as provincial secretary in the Fleming government, that Hon. George Clarke, M. L. A., for Charlotte, and speaker of the house, will succeed Hon. Mr. Grimmer as attorney general; that James Finner, M. L. A. for York, will be the candidate for parliament in succession to O. S. Crockett, M. P., and that Percy A. Guthrie will be the government candidate for the vacancy caused by the retirement of Mr. Finner.

Justice Murphy, however, decided that her marriage was merely a trick, which is accentuated by the fact that her husband cannot be found. Her deportation to Seattle will therefore proceed.

SANDED, AUTHOR. In reference to many strength, I believe it is now more generally acknowledged than ever before that the manly man stands back of all achievement in the world, a truth which any of us can easily verify if we but look about us with impartial eyes.

As a matter of fact, the man who is debilitated, unstrung and enervated cannot, for perfectly obvious reasons, expect to approach those real and masterful attainments which seem but a natural and easy accomplishment for him whose nerve force, brain power and manly strength are perfectly normal. Hence, while we acknowledge the debilitated, weakened man to be handicapped in every walk of life where real manhood counts, yet it would indeed be cruel of me to here so state the fact in public print were I not of the honest opinion that there is every hope for the unmanly man to restore himself to a state of health and vigor, if he but clear his mind of abnormal fear, and then make a firm square effort to redeem himself.

There are two specimens of humanity for which I have no earthly use. One is the man who, though now strong and vital, yet plunges into disipation and excess with the certain knowledge of his unmanly fate. The other is the man who, though knowledgeably debilitated and enervated, makes no effort to get away from his life of dissipation and wrong practices. As a matter of fact, there is no hope in either of these unfortunates. But for him who acknowledges his errors, who may come to me and say, "I have paid the penalty of my past follies, but I am THROUGH with my life of dissipation, and I am going to make a manly effort to restore myself," such a man, I care not what his physical condition may be, I can say in all truthfulness, "You, my friend, are on the right road to new strength and new manhood; for he really is, and there is no doubt about it.

I make a little appliance that I call THE VITALIZER, which I designed to aid just such men who seek manly strength. I am not offering this VITALIZER here for sale, but merely suggest that you, reader, take this opportunity to learn all about what this little appliance is doing today everywhere throughout the world; then, if you yourself wish to write me, I will gladly make some liberal proposition whereby you may have one to try. THE VITALIZER is fully described in one section of the free book which the coupon below entitles you to.

THE VITALIZER is made up in a very light form, weighing only several ounces, and you wear it on your body all night. It generates a great, pleasant FORCE which I call VIGOR and which flows in a continuous stream into your nerves, organs, blood and muscles while you sleep. I am satisfied in my own mind that I have access to a great POWER in this little VITALIZER which in the future will be more relied upon all over the world in the treatment of debilities and nerve weaknesses.

With special attachments which carry the FORCE of the VITALIZER to any part of the body, it may be used by women as well as men for the treatment of rheumatism, kidney, liver, stomach, bladder disorders, nervousness, lack of energy, etc. Therefore, please send for the book today, or, if you happen to live in or near this city, I should be very happy to see you in person. Office hours 9 to 5.

WHAT THE FREE BOOK TEACHES YOU The little free illustrated book of special private information referred to above, is meant really to be a self guide for all men through the years before and after marriage and onward to a ripe old age. It is written in perfectly plain language, entirely free from technical terms, so that any one may easily grasp the full power of its good advice from two or three careful readings. It attempts to point out a safe road to new manhood or new manly strength, and as such is dedicated to mankind generally. One part of this book fully describes my little VITALIZER referred to above.

Remember, as soon as the coupon below is received I agree to forward to you one copy of this illustrated booklet, absolutely free of charge and in a plain, sealed envelope, so that it will come to you privately, just as you receive any sealed mail.

CROWN OF DIAMONDS FOR DUCHESS OF FIFE London, Aug. 26.—The younger members of the royal family are combining to make one present to the Duchess of Fife on her marriage, and this is to take the form of a magnificent crown of diamonds. The design is composed alternately of dual strawberry leaves and thistles. It had been proposed to use colored stones for the thistles, but the royal bride prefers diamonds throughout, and her wish in this respect will be gratified.

Queen Alexandra is presenting to her eldest grandchild a beautiful diamond collar, and it is expected that she will wear this at her wedding.

TURNED BACK THE CLOCK The appeal to selfishness was successful in yesterday's vote on the building by-law, and St. John, the alleged city of progress, has turned back the clock.

It seems to have been easy for those interested in the construction of three-story wooden tenements to persuade a considerable number of the voters among the workers that rents would be lessened if no more three-deckers were erected. Those who knew better, and knew that the welfare of the city, both from the standpoint of safety from fire and the health of the people, would be best served by adopting the by-law, were yet selfish enough not to spare the time necessary to go to the polls and vote.

The reactionary course which has been pursued is much to be regretted. Rents will not be any cheaper as a result of yesterday's vote, neither would they have been higher had that vote been reversed. The citizens have, therefore, not only those who voted against the by-law, but those who refrained from voting for it, increased the fire risk and encouraged the development of slum conditions in this city, just that and no more. It is much to be regretted that there is so little public spirit, and that there are so many people who can be deceived and persuaded to vote against the best interests of the city. Obviously the friends of improved conditions must do some missionary work and organize before they can hope to make St. John a city of homes instead of a city of close packed tenements and fire traps.

CITY GOVERNMENT The citizens of Montreal are weary of the board of control and city council system of government. The mayor declares that, if a satisfactory administration is to be abolished, the present government consists of the mayor, thirty-one aldermen and four controllers. If the council were abolished there would be left only the mayor and four controllers, which means that the commission plan of government in some form would have to be adopted. The Star says that "while there are those who do not as yet wish to adopt such a drastic plan, there can be none who do not recognize the great importance of lessening the strength of the council by at least one-half." It would be found in the end, however, that even with a reduced council there would be the same friction between aldermen and controllers, and therefore it would probably be as wise a plan to have done with aldermanic representation apart from the board of control, and leave the administration in the hands of the mayor and controllers.

Frederick Personal (Frederick Mall) Rev. Neil McLachlan and family have returned home after spending their holidays at Epworth Park. Mrs. W. Holman of Fredericton is spending her vacation in Fairville with her mother, Mrs. B. Williams. Miss Teresa Burns of this city is spending her vacation with Miss McCormick, Chesley street, St. John. Miss L. Stears of Main street, Fairville, is here on an extended vacation. Miss K. Townsend of Church avenue, Fairville, is spending her vacation at Oromocto. Miss N. O'Brien of Fredericton, is spending her vacation in Fairville. Miss Agnes Kelly of New York is visiting friends here and will remain several weeks.

COTTAGE HOMES FOR BOYS There is a boys' farm at Shawbridge, Quebec, to which delinquent boys from Montreal are sent for a term instead of being locked up in a city institution. While the farm receives some public support, its main reliance is upon the goodwill of friends who generously subscribe to the funds. The reports from year to year have shown that while the experiment has been somewhat costly, the results have been most satisfactory, and boys trained on this farm rarely fall back into their old habits of life. It is now announced that a new experiment is to be made, and that the first sod was turned this week for the construction of a new cottage which is to be part of a well planned cottage home scheme, modelled after the best examples to be found in the United States and elsewhere, with such modifications as are necessary to suit climatic conditions. Each cottage is designed to accommodate twenty-four boys with a "father" and "mother." The directors of the institution hope to build up a series of these cottages in the next few years, making up a small village, which will have its own water supply and fire fighting apparatus, and be of course connected with the farm where the boys will be taught to work and to become useful citizens. There are of course educational classes, and the boy who is taken from undesirable surroundings in the city, even if he has been guilty of a serious offence, is given so good an opportunity to redeem himself that it would be an amazing fact if the great majority did not succeed in the task of character building and making of themselves good citizens.

Apparently the citizens of St. John would rather continue to crowd the population into unhealthy tenements in the city than take such action as would

BIRTHDAYS OF NOTABILITIES

WEDNESDAY AUGUST 27 Admiral Sir Charles Carter Drury, Royal Navy, was born at Rothbury, N. B., on this date in the year 1846. Entering the navy in 1869 he rose through all the ranks to his present standing in 1908. He has held many important posts and has received numerous decorations. He retired from active service in 1911.

The Rev. Adrian Gabriel Morice, who has spent many years among the Indian tribes of British Columbia and has written numerous books about western Canada, is fifty-four years of age today. For his scientific services he has been honored with membership in many learned societies.

LIGHTER VEIN

There is a delicious flavor about this story of a Virginia lady married to a man who, though uniformly unsuccessful in his hunting trips, boastfully spoke of his "killings." One day, returning after a trip with the usual accompaniment of an empty bag, it occurred to her that his wife would make fun of him if he returned without even one proof of his oft-boasted skill. So he purchased a brace of partridges to deceive his trusting spouse. As he threw them on the table in front of her he observed, "Well, my dear, you seem not so awkward with the gun after all."

"Dick," replied the wife, turning from the birds with a grimace, after a brief examination, "you were quite right in shooting these birds today; tomorrow it would have been too late." "I understand, Harry," remarked the acquaintance, "that your wife has started to practice economy. The missus was saying something about it last night."

"Yes," replied Harry, "she is practicing economy, all right, and if your wife is thinking of taking a turn in the same direction you had better get busy and head her off before it is too late."

"I don't understand you, Harry," said the acquaintance, "there is little likelihood of developments for some time."

JAPS AND GERMANS.

London, Aug. 26.—The revelation that the diplomatic negotiations which finally resulted in the Anglo-Japanese alliance first contemplated an Anglo-German-Japanese triple alliance and that Germany was largely instrumental in instigating them but was shut out by Japan, is made in the diary of the late Count Tadasu Hayashi, former Japanese ambassador to Great Britain, and twice foreign minister, part of which was recently published.

The Jiji Shimpo, of Tokio, printed portions of the diary, but the Japanese government prohibited further publication and the censor suppressed telegrams sent by foreign correspondents in Japan reporting details.

DIXON GUILTY ON ONE CHARGE

Judge Will Submit Case to Attorney-General--Afternoon Session of County Court

At the afternoon session of the court, the case of the King vs. Robert Dixon was taken up before his honor and the following jury, Wilfred C. Day, John S. Russell, Bayard Stillwell, Charles A. Conway, Weston Evans, Frank S. Alwood, G. Heber Arnold, George T. Calhoun, Frederick Selby and Thomas G. Keirstead and Percy J. Steele. Thomas Dillon was stood aside by the crown and William Gibbon was challenged by the accused.

The prisoner on being arraigned pleaded not guilty to the charges contained on the two counts in the indictment that he "did on July 23 last attempt to murder Adam MacIntyre and that he did on the same day attempt to assault Mr. MacIntyre with intent to do grievous bodily harm."

Adam P. MacIntyre was the first witness for the crown and told of the prisoner coming into his office and drawing a knife. Edmund Chase, a city marshal, told of taking the knife from Dixon. Officer Alex. Crawford told of the arrest, and G. Earle Logan, who was present in the chamberlain's office at the time Dixon came in, told of hearing the accused threaten "to get" MacIntyre at either dinner or supper time. Dixon was not represented by counsel and handled his own case. He said that Mr. MacIntyre robbed him of his share in his father's property and at one time intimated to the court that if he got a "sackknife" he would report the matter to the minister of justice.

The jury retired at 8:40 and returned at 3:48 and after an hour and a half on the first count and guilty on the second. He will be sentenced later. His honor intimated that he would submit the matter to the attorney-general.

In the case of the King vs. Boylen, Mr. Harvey moved that a bench warrant be issued for his arrest. The accused is out on bail and did not turn up at the opening of the court. E. S. Ritchie is defending.

At the conclusion of the county court yesterday afternoon Judge Jonah held a session of the Special Trial court and the case of the King vs. Phillip Home, charged with non support, was taken up. C. H. Ferguson appeared for the crown and the accused in person. After the prisoner's wife and Mrs. Sophia Fenwick and Deputy Chief Police Jenkins testified, the court suggested that the parties get together with a view of becoming reconciled.

DOCTORS PLEAD GOOD FAITH IN SCOTT ACT CASES

Sussex, N. B., Aug. 26.—The cases of alleged violation of the Canadian Temperance Act on the part of several prominent local physicians still hold the centre of attraction here today. Standing-room was at a premium at both sessions before Magistrate Folkins today.

This afternoon the second case against Dr. D. H. McAlister was heard in the evidence against the doctor for not content with taking Dr. McAlister in once, returned to him a few days later and succeeded in procuring a prescription for eight ounces of whiskey. Gjerde was the first witness called. He said that on August 12 he obtained a prescription for whiskey from Dr. McAlister without the formality of a physician's examination, without saying that it was for medicinal purposes.

C. H. Fairweather told of filling the prescription with eight ounces of Scotch whiskey.

The defendant sworn, said that Gjerde had called, and as he had been asked before asked him how he was feeling and received the response that he was better. Witness said that the doctor told him a story about going out to look over some lumber areas similar to the late related to him by Dr. Gjerde. "The defendant said," "I believed in good faith when he prescribed the ten ounces that it was the proper thing to do, witness replied, "Yes," and after the conversation he and I had in regard to his proposed travels and coupled with the fact that he had not used the previous prescription, I would have, if I had it in the office, given him liquor even without a prescription."

This completed the evidence in this case. Another case against Dr. John B. Gilchrist will be heard tomorrow morning and it is expected that the arguments of the attorneys will be made in the afternoon. In the meantime the residents are awaiting with interest the result of the hearings. It is said that one of the doctors reported has paid a fine of $20 rather than have his case aired in the place court.

SLAVERY IN PHILIPPINES.

Washington, Aug. 24.—Not only peonage but chattel slavery in the strictest sense of the word is flourishing today throughout the Philippine Islands, according to a special report made by Commissioner Dean C. Worcester, Secretary of the Interior, to the Governor-General.

The report is the outcome of a request for information made to the War Department by the senate on May 1, when Senator Borah read a letter from Commissioner Worcester stating in a general way that slavery existed on such a scale as to make it one of the most serious problems confronting the government. Dean Worcester's report is all the more interesting because the war department reported to the senate that it had no information concerning slavery in the islands.

Channel Swimmers Failed.

Cape Grisey, Aug. 26.—Jabez Wolfe, abandoned his attempt to swim the English Channel this afternoon and returned to the French shore on board the accompanying boat.

Dover, Aug. 26.—Henry F. Sullivan, of Lowell (Mass.), failed in his attempt to swim the English channel today. He entered the water near the South Foreland at 6:45 o'clock in the morning, and left the water at 4:03 in the afternoon when within six miles of Cape Grisey, France.

FUNCTION OF PRISON FARMS

(Ottawa Journal).

The Toronto World notes that a small municipality in Washington state has established a farm to which the man who has failed to support his wife or family is relegated. He is made to work, for which he is given board and lodging and a dollar and a half a day, which is sent to his wife. But what of the man who is anxious and willing to work and can't find employment, asks the World? He surely is at least as worthy of a job as the shirker.

At the present time it is one of the problems of life for the individual to find work and to retain it. In this country work seems to be reasonably plentiful, notably so at certain times of the year. So the man who complains that he cannot find work seldom gets much sympathy. His idleness is put down to some fault on his own part, laziness, profligacy, slothfulness or indifference.

The man who refuses to support his family deserves punishment. He commits an offence against the law, more grievous than that of the idle individual who has no wife or family depending on him. But his wife and family have done no wrong. So the law does its highest duty in providing that they shall not suffer, and this is done by making the culprit work for them under the eye of the law. Being used to the ways of idleness, he suffers through being made to work, which experience also tends to make a useful citizen of him. In so far as an idler's wife and family are concerned, putting him in jail is the worst possible punishment, for while there he is certain to receive no aid, and they are certain to receive no aid. The prison farm for idlers or idlers is a fine thing.

A DOUBLE HONOR FOR PRINCE EDWARD ISLAND

(Charlottetown Patriot)

A double honor has been bestowed upon Charlottetown and the Island generally. E. T. Higgs, merchant has been elected president of the Maritime Board of Trade and R. L. Cotton, journalist, has been elevated to the important position of President of the Maritime Press Association. We rejoice in the honors bestowed upon these two worthy citizens of Charlottetown. Mr. Higgs is one of the rising young business men of the province. He has long been identified with boards of trade, having been secretary, vice-president and president successively of the Charlottetown board. He is alert and active, has a thorough grasp of business conditions, transportation matters, and is in every way fully qualified for the high and responsible position to which he has been elevated. We heartily congratulate him upon his well merited recognition at the hands of the Maritime Board of Trade.

Mr. Cotton is a newspaper man of note, and is now proprietor of the Maritime Stationer, Sunnyside. He is full of business and vim. He has long been a member of the press association and last year was elected vice-president, and this year occupies the proud position of president of that most important organization. We believe Mr. Cotton will make a most capable president and will discharge his responsibilities in such a manner as to reflect the highest credit upon the press association and himself. He has a capital knowledge of journalism and contributions affecting the press in the maritime provinces; therefore, Charlottetown and the province at large, are doubly honored, and we again heartily congratulate both Mr. Higgs and Mr. Cotton on the honors they have gained.

A ROAD LESSON FROM THE WEST

(The Missoulian)

If we stop to contrast the condition of the public highways in Missoula county at present with their condition four years ago, we bring to notice some of the best and most practical hoisting that has ever been done in this community or for it.

The road policy of the county commissioners has been progressive, but it has not been extravagant. A systematic plan of highway improvement, decided upon four years ago and consistently followed ever since, has given to Missoula county as fine roads as can be found anywhere in Montana. The community has not felt the expense of this work, but it has received the benefit.

The Missoulian has referred lately, more than once, to the enthusiastic expressions of approval for Missoula county roads which came from the hundreds of automobile tourists who passed over these highways at the time of the meeting of the good-roads congress in Kellipell. We do not believe there was ever anything which did this country more good, in the line of publicity, than the advertising of our roads by men from all parts of the state who were the delegates to the congress meeting.

It is this sort of hoisting which is practical and helpful. The county commission has taken up the road work in a business-like way. Whatever roads have been built, have been built permanently. Whatever money has gone into road-making has been spent to get permanent returns. It has done the county much good.

It is possible to get to almost every part of Missoula county now over good highways. The continuance of the present policy of the commissioners will mean that, in another year or two, there will be no part of the county without a good road. This means that the farmer and the wood-hauler can get to market with their products at much less cost than before. It means, too, that the tourist can enjoy the splendid scenery and climate of western Montana with a minimum of effort and that the tourist travel here will be greatly increased.

TO VISIT PROF. BELL (Sydney Post).

Prince Albert of Monaco, ruler of the little European principality, known the world over for its famous gambling casino, Monte Carlo, will visit Belmont, Prof. Graham Bell's home, at Baddeck in the near future, probably coming to Sydney for a few days. He is now at Halifax, and will leave for Baddeck in the near future.

For twenty-six years the Prince has been engaged in the study of the depths of the North Atlantic ocean. He is still enthusiastically taken up with this oceanographic study, and, as stated above, is now at Halifax with his scientifically equipped yacht, the Hiramella, having arrived from the Azores, about a week ago. Prince Albert is now sixty-five years old and states that though he loves the ocean and the investigation work he has been pursuing, he will soon have to bring his work to a close.

HANDS COVERED WITH PIMPLES

Itched So Kept from Sleeping, Passed the Nights Scratching, Cuticura Soap and Cuticura Ointment Stopped the Itching at Once and Entirely Cured.

69 3rd Ave., Villa Ennard, Montreal, Que.—"My trouble started with small pimples on my hands, which I rubbed so that I kept me from sleeping, and I passed the nights scratching it. I did not know what to do with myself. I became so discouraged that I did not have the heart to do my work. My hands were all covered with little watery pimples. For three weeks I had my hands done up to keep them from touching the bed, for I tossed and scratched so that I made them all bloody on the bed-board. I had suffered for three years like this when I saw an advertisement for Cuticura Soap and Cuticura Ointment. I decided to send for samples of them.

"As soon as I received them, I applied the Cuticura Ointment and washed my hands with Cuticura Soap as night before going to bed. This stopped the itching at once. I continued to use them, using now quite two boxes of Cuticura Ointment with the Cuticura Soap, and I was entirely cured. My husband had a burn on one of his hands. He anointed it twice with Cuticura Ointment and has not felt it since. We have great confidence in Cuticura Soap and Ointment, and I assure you I shall tell all who suffer with the same disease about them." (Signed) Mrs. Roger Herbert, Dec. 28, 1911.

Cuticura Soap and Cuticura Ointment are sold by druggists and dealers everywhere. For a liberal free sample of each, with 25-cent book, send post card to Foster Drug & Chem. Corp., Dept. 312, Boston, U. S. A.

It was feared that he might attempt suicide if he were committed to a cell. Several cases of this kind of delirium have emphasized the need of a padded cell at the police station. Chief Clark is strongly in favor of having one.

WHEN THE MOSQUITO IS BITING Dr. Hastings, Medical Health Office, Toronto, advises that the following solution rubbed lightly on the hand and face before retiring, will keep away the most insistent and blood-thirsty mosquito.

Another good expedient for those who do not mind the odor of carbolic acid is to hang at the head of the bed a cloth moistened with solution of the acid. To relieve itches after a mosquito bite the punctured spot should be rubbed with a moistened piece of laundry or ordinary castle soap. Household ammonia is even more effective, while almost any alkali is good.

BIG SALARIES IN BRITISH CABINET

But Ministers Could Make As Much in Professions

There Are Perquisites—However, There is No Need for Any Going on Lecturing Tour—Sir Rufus Isaacs Gave Up More Than He Receives in Office

(Times' Special Correspondence)
London, Aug. 17.—Up to date, no cabinet minister in this country like the American Secretary of State, has threatened to go on the lecture platform, on the ground that his official salary is inadequate to his needs, although the Rt. Hon. David Lloyd George recently assured an investigation committee that he was a poor man on the £20,000 a year which he receives as chancellor of the exchequer.

Ministers of the crown in this country are in receipt of salaries and enjoy "perquisites" which make the monthly of American ministers water if they knew about them. On of them draws an actual stipend of $50,000, or as much as the presidency of the United States was worth until a few years ago, while another gets $30,000 a year and fees in addition which more often than not amount to more than his official pay. Three others live rent free, at the expense of the public, and one of these, the first lord of the admiralty, has at his disposal besides a private yacht which costs the British taxpayers something like $50,000 a year to keep up.

Mr. William J. Bryan, for example, instead of being secretary of state for Uncle Sam, had Prime Minister Asquith's job, he would be drawing more than three times his present salary, and would also enjoy, rent free, an uncommonly comfortable as well as historic official residence.

The premier of England, it is true, is an unpaid job, the only real perquisite in connection with it being its holder's privilege of occupying the famous mansion, No. 10 Downing street—no other goal of suffragettes and Scotch ballies—which often has been described, and perhaps justly, as "the most interesting house in the world." Whoever becomes premier when a new administration comes into being, however, seldom contents himself with that office, but takes unto himself also the portfolio of some other minister of the crown, usually, as in the case of Dr. Asquith or Mr. Balfour before him, that of first lord of the treasury, which carries with it the yearly emolument of £500 of "the best," as they would say over here, meaning sovereigns, or $25,000 a year.

Moreover, he immediately enters upon a life annuity amounting to $25,000 a year. The present holder of this office is, of course, Lord Haldane, who was secretary of state for war before his elevation to the woolsack, and who is to present, by special invitation, at the great gathering of the American Bar Association in Montreal.

Nobody ever has accused the lord chancellor of having a map. Besides sitting, clad in wig and gown on the woolsack as speaker of the House of Lords, he sits as a judge in that house, in the privy council, the court of appeal, and the chancery division of the High Court of Justice. He has the appointment of all justices of the peace throughout the kingdom, and all the judges of the superior courts except the lord chief justice, who is nominated by the prime minister. Incidentally owing to the fact that the lord chancellor is in the shape of an ecclesiastical "patronage" the present one controls no end of crown livings, and he is supposed to be the general protector of all infants, idiots and lunatics, and is the guardian of all the charities of the kingdom.

Perhaps most important of all the lord chancellor's functions, however, is his custodianship of the Great Seal of England. This seal, the specific emblem of sovereignty, is attached only to the most important class of public documents, such as writs summoning parliament, treaties, and official acts of state. A new one is made for each sovereign, the old one being solemnly broken, and this seal is delivered to the lord chancellor on his appointment and relinquished by him on his retirement (he resigns when the party of which he is a member goes out of office). Never, in fact, is the lord chancellor supposed to let the great seal go out of his possession, and this was Lord Haldane's chief difficulty in accepting the recent invitation to visit Canada.

The first lord of the admiralty or the "Tuler of the King's Navies" as W. S. Gilbert, who was fond of poking fun at high dignitaries called him, as a matter of fact, is not actually the whole "ruler" of Britain's sea forces. The real boss of the navy was the lord high admiral, who no longer exists but whose ancient office is "in commission," to use the phrase once more—the commissioners in this case consisting of the first lord of the admiralty and four sea lords, in the persons—at present—of one admiral, one vice-admiral and two rear-admirals of the fleet, who each gets £1,500 or $4,500 a year—all, that is, excepting the third sea lord, Rear-Admiral Bridges, who is also controller and receives £7,750.

The first lord of the admiralty, as a "Tuler of the King's Navies" can make suggestions to the sea lords, but he cannot order a change of policy on their part; it tries to they resign and there is no end of pother. The first lord, now the Right Hon. Winston Leonard Spencer Churchill, is the only one of the rooms at the admiralty which the present first lord, who has a house in Eccleston Square, utilizes personally, the others having been turned over to the clerical force of the department.

Mr. Churchill makes frequent use, however, of that other "perquisite" of the first lord of the admiralty, the steam yacht "Enchantress," on which he and his private minister recently returned after a cruise in the Mediterranean.

WILL BUILD STONE CHURCH

(Moncton Transcript.)
At a largely attended meeting of the First Baptist church last evening it was decided to proceed with building a church entirely of stone. The building committee at a meeting last week decided to recommend the acceptance of the tender of J. M. Clark, of Summerside, P. E. Island, for a brick building with stone trimmings, at a cost of $32,500. As the cost of the stone church when completed, will be about $75,000, the building committee did not see their way clear to recommend a stone building. Since then, it is understood, some of the larger contributors, feeling that it would be a mistake to build of brick, have expressed a willingness to increase their subscriptions for a stone structure, and it was therefore considered preferable to go ahead with the more costly building.

The stone building will cost about $10,000 more than the brick, the lowest tender for stone being from James Read, of Yarmouth, for $62,470. This does not include the cost of heating, lighting, seating, etc.

THEY ATE BEAR MEAT

Fredericton Mail: A party composed of Messrs. William Walker, B. J. Griffiths and W. A. Lindsay had quite an interesting experience at their camp at Carlow on Saturday. They drove out to spend Sunday and found the camp occupied by four men from Maugeville. The visitors had just shot a large bear which they had found sneaking around the camp. The Fredericton men procured a butcher knife and an axe and took hold and helped skin the animal. They had juicy bear steak for dinner the next day and brought a quarter of the meat to the city the next day for distribution among their friends.

An Instantaneous Wrinkle Remover

(From Eastern Styles.)
The average woman is always surprised to learn, after experimenting with all sorts of patent so-called "wrinkle removers," that the most effective remedy in the world is a simple face wash which she can make herself at home in a jiffy.

She has only to get an ounce of pure powdered exfolite from her nearest druggist and dissolve it in half a pint of witch hazel. Apply this refreshing solution to the face every day. The result is charming—marvelous. Even after the very first treatment the wrinkles show less plainly and the face has a nice, firm, comfortable feeling that is thoroughly delightful and lends self-confidence in one's appearance. This harmless home remedy is used by thousands of women to obliterate the unwelcome traces of time.

SAVED FROM OPERATIONS

Two Women Tell How They Escaped the Surgeon's Knife by Taking Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound.

Swarthmore, Penn. — "For fifteen years I suffered untold agony, and for one period of nearly two years I had hemorrhages and the doctors told me I would have to undergo an operation, but I began taking Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound and am in good health now. I am all over the Change of Life and cannot praise your Vegetable Compound too highly. Every woman should take it at that time. I recommend it to both old and young for female troubles." — Mrs. EMILY SUMMERSGILL, Swarthmore, Pa.

Baltimore, Md. — "My troubles began with the loss of a child, and I had hemorrhages for four months. The doctors said an operation was necessary, but I desisted and decided to try Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound. The medicine has made me a well woman and I feel strong and do my own work." — Mrs. J. B. PICKENS, 1299 Sargent St., Baltimore, Md.

Since we guarantee that all testimonials which we publish are genuine, it is not fair to suppose that if Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound has the virtue to help these women it will help any other woman who is suffering in a like manner.

Equal Heat In Every Part of The Gurney-Oxford Oven

Every woman well knows the bad results from constantly opening the oven door to move a cake to another shelf or turn a pan of biscuits. Often the shifting or the cold air striking in proves utterly disastrous to her baking.

The Divided Flue on the Gurney-Oxford range equally distributes the heat to all parts of the oven which is regulated to the exact temperature required by means of the Economizer.

This wonderful time-labor-and-money-saving device controls the heat of the whole range.

It is worked by a small handle which moves around a series of six notches. The housewife soon learns that by moving the handle to No. 1 she has a very hot oven, to No. 3 a moderate oven, and that No. 6 checks the fire so as to burn scarcely any coal while she goes out shopping. On her return she simply moves the handle to the number that gives the required heat and the result is prompt.

Of inestimable value also is the Broiler Attachment and the Special Grate.

For years stove experts have been working out woman's problem in the kitchen and the Gurney-Oxford range is the solution.

COSTLY LODGINGS
 As a result of the number of fires that have been breaking out in the North End lately, the police have been keeping a close watch over all the barns and sheds in the district. STOLE TO BUY LIQUOR
 Archibald Parker who was arrested last evening charged with stealing $8 from Charles Raynor, a sailor on the steamer St. George, said that he had taken the money to buy liquor when he was brought up in court this morning. This brought a severe lecture from the bench. Parker promised to make an order out to Raynor for the D. A. R. which he is employed. The magistrate suggested that it would be well if some such arrangement could be made but in the meantime remanded Parker to jail.

He started in quite confidently to tell who gave him the liquor which brought about his arrest, but seemed to suddenly become forgetful, and after wandering about for a few minutes was told to sit down. He was remanded.

Establishment of Moving Picture Studio Here Would be Great Publicity Feature; Would Circulate Money Also

A gentleman who is interested in the moving picture business and familiar with all its details talked with the Times this morning about the possibility of the Vitagraph Company of Chicago establishing a studio in St. John. The matter was dealt with in an interview with the representative of the company in this morning's Telegraph. The gentleman who spoke to the Times about it pointed out that the establishment of such a studio would not only prove a most valuable advertisement of the city and province, whose scenes would be reproduced in connection with the photoplays, but it would bring to the city a large staff of people and cause a large expenditure for materials and supplies of one sort and another. The chief benefit, of course, would be in the publicity given to the city and province hereabouts, which could not fail to attract a great many tourists. This gentleman expressed the opinion that the board of trade might very properly interest itself in this matter, and encourage the company to consider St. John favorably as a location for one of its studios.

The reported endeavor on the part of outsiders to purchase the Prince Rupert, now on the St. John-Digby service, found no confirmation from H. C. Groat, general superintendent of the C. P. R., who returned today from Boston, where he attended an international convention of time-table men.

"I have not heard about it," was Mr. Groat's answer when asked about the Prince Rupert matter.

The general superintendent said that the matters brought up and decided upon at the time-table convention in Boston would have no effect on the Canadian Pacific time tables. "The talk was chiefly technical and was of interest mostly to American railroads," he said.

Regarding the trackage on the West Side, near the grain elevators, ground for which was granted by the city council two weeks ago, Mr. Groat stated that it was the purpose of the railroad only to build four tracks adjacent to the cattle pens for the accommodation of the street cars. There was no project on foot to establish switching yards on the site, he said.

MATCH BRIGANDS ARE FRUSTRATED

Law Requiring Only Safety Lighters in Public Places is Rough on Man-About-Town—Must Buy His Own Stock Now

A rude jolt has been dealt the St. John match pirates. For some time past the only people in St. John who have been buying matches have been the hotels, restaurants, saloons and individual householders. The man-about-town has replenished his stock from that hospitable source by the other places. If one of these ran out of matches any time all he had to do was to walk into the nearest hotel or restaurant, grab a double handful of lucifers and walk out again, supplied for a week.

This morning, as if by concerted agreement, nearly all the hotels and restaurants had generous displays of matches on their counters, but they were of the "strike-on-the-box" kind. A strip of phosphorus hung alongside for the matches to be struck on. Unless he had a match box in his pocket the match fiend had to content himself with only one lucifer and strike it when he took it.

"Works like a charm," said one unusual thing for us to get through two and sometimes three large boxes of "strike-anywhere" matches a day. Now the one box looks likely to last us a week."

The explanation of the change is to be found in the enforcement of the fire laws which prohibit the use of any but safety matches in public places.

MAJORITY AGAINST NEW BUILDING LAW
 NEARLY A THOUSAND

The official count in the referendum of yesterday dealing with the proposed by-law regarding the erection of three-decked houses in the city which was completed this morning at City Hall, showed the number of votes against it as being 1,426, as opposed to 488 in favor of it. The count published in the Telegraph this morning was correct with the exception of one vote in Sidney ward to be added against the by-law, making the total vote polled, 1,406, was very small, and showed that but little interest was manifested actively by the major portion of the citizens. Whatever organization was in evidence was in favor of the "no," and in every ward the greater number of scores were placed through the "yes" on the ballot signifying that the voter wanted the law allowing the erection of three-decked houses to continue unchanged.

The official count was:

	For-law.	Against
Sidney	29	58
Duke	57	60
King's	82	104
King's	81	83
Wellington	65	162
Victoria	46	148
Victoria	89	91
Dufferin	22	159
Landdowne	29	100
Lorne	28	209
Stanley	10	110
St. John's	24	78
Brooks	11	43
Total	488	1426

Crack American Billiard Player Fails to Recognize the English Game Under Same Name

Jimmie Moran, one of the crack billiard players of the United States, arrived at the Royal today and registered from New York. He and his wife are up here on their vacation. To pass the time Jimmy strolled into the billiard room and stood looking on at a billiard game in progress.

His face grew more and more mystified as the game proceeded and the scoring evidently was beyond him. Finally he turned to a man at his side.

"Pardon me," he said, "but would you mind telling me what they call that game?"

"Billiards," answered the man accosted.

Jimmy went back to the bar and hailed a friend.

"So," he said, weakly, "is this an asylum, or am I the only crazy galoot here? Here am I, with a record of 310 to my credit at the Waldorf tournament in New York, looking at a game I never heard of before, which they tell me is billiards! The cues are long and narrow, the tables big with pockets and the players play with an accent! Robert, the going house!"
