BIG POTATO CROPS IN AROOSTOCK COUNTY

B. & A. Official Enthusiastic Over the Prospects Says Game Wintered Very Well and Many Sportsmen are Going to Maine This Fall.

BANGOR, Aug. 17.—George M. Houghton, passenger traffic manager of the Bangor and Aroostook railroad, returned Friday night from a several days' business trip in Aroostook county during which he got a good line on the potato situation in the garden spot of Maine, and also the outlook for the coming game season.

Mr. Houghton says that he never saw the potato crop look better or such fine tubers as those that have already been dug. The crop this year will equal, if not exceed, the crop of 1908, which was the largest in the history of potato growing in Aroostook county.

LIGHTNING STRIKES AN INDIAN FAMILY

The passenger receipts of the Bangor and Aroostook will, this fall, show a falling off, but in speaking of the conditions he said it was largely due to a decrease in the local traffic.

MONCTON TEAM VICTORIOUS.

MONCTON, Aug. 17.—The Moncton soccer team, which is now well ahead in the Maritime Soccer League, defeated Herbert, at Stratbrooke, Saturday, by a score of two to one. The game was fast and at times furious. Spectators flocking onto the field on one occasion when the Moncton team was awarded a penalty kick for alleged foul, gave the Monctons the winning point. The situation looked threatening for a few minutes, but order was restored without damage being done.

Dan Littlejohn is faithfully training for his boxing bout with Tom Foley, of Halifax, which takes place in the Victoria rink on Wednesday night, 24th inst. Littlejohn is already looking in good condition.

LIBERALS HAVE GOOD MAJORITY

The latest from Saskatchewan gives the Liberals 20, Conservatives 14, in doubt 4 to be held. The doubtful ones are: North Battleford, Flaxton, Liberal, leading by 136 with six places to bear from. South Battleford, Dewar, Conservative, leading by small majority, six places to bear from. Lloydminster, Liberal, leading by over one hundred with several places to bear from. As Lias is a resident of Alberta, there will be another election. In Weyburn where Mitchell is elected by 17 there will be a new election as one poll was not opened.

STRIKERS DO NOT ACCEPT THE ULTIMATUM

MONTRÉAL, Aug. 17.—The ultimatum of the C. P. R. that their employees must go back or lose their jobs, has had no effect so far. It was expected that a large number of the hands who would lose heavily by joining their seniority would return today, but as far as could be seen none took advantage of the offer. The C. P. R. still claims that the shops are working along nicely although much undermanned. The delay on the trains from the Empress show that the strike is hurting the C. P. R. The first Empress special from Quebec took from 3 1/2 till 10 to reach Montréal. At every station where there was a stop especially for water and when the engines and crews changed the waits were very long. There were not enough men at the stations for testing the wheels.

The regatta held at Brown's Flats on Saturday afternoon, under the auspices of the summer residents proved a grand success, and was witnessed by a very large crowd. The following were the winners: Boys' Swimming Race—Paul Short, 1st; Murray Sinclair, 2nd. Men's Swimming Race—Ed. Draper, 1st; P. Carvill, 2nd. Tab Race—Jas. Humphries, 1st; Paul Short, 2nd. MORE VISITORS THAN LAST YEAR BUT THEY SPEND LESS MONEY

Herbert McLeod Met Death in Petitcodiac River. Was in Swimming—Saw Lost His Life Near Newcastle Yesterday—Body Not Found.

MONCTON, N. B., Aug. 17.—In sight of three boy companions who thought his cries for help were intended only as a joke, fourteen year old Herbert McLeod was drowned yesterday afternoon in a small creek on the Petitcodiac River a few hundred yards beyond the city limits. He was a son of Neil McLeod, the well known local blacksmith, and went for a swim with three other boys named Watts McDonald, Joe LeBlanc and Chris Legere. Young McLeod said he would swim across the creek but had only taken a few strokes when he began to founder and call for help.

At first it was thought he was joking but as he went down and came up again his companions realized the seriousness of his case and one attempted to extend a stick to the drowning lad but he failed to reach it and before further aid could be extended he sank to rise no more. Coroner A. R. Myers considered the drowning accidental and no inquest was held.

NDWCASTLE, N. B., Aug. 17.—About noon yesterday Herman F. Seba was drowned while bathing off the Newcastle Marsh. Five others were with him. Seba and David Evans went out to bathe but the waves were so high that returning they had to battle against the tide and became exhausted. Seba sank. Evans was rescued by Robert C. York. The body was grasped for all the afternoon but has not been recovered yet. Seba was twenty-one years old and single. He was Swedish speaking. From his papers it appears that his father is John Seba of the Norwegian island of Trindal. Deceased was discharged from the ship at Nelson about three months ago and later worked at Hitchcock's mill here. He was sober, industrious and a Presbyterian.

Hotel Dufferin—The business this year has been as good, if not better than last year. Victoria Hotel—July held its own and August has been better than last year. People seem to be spending less money and to have their expenditures figured out pretty closely in advance. Clifton House—Found the number of guests has been about the same but it has slackened lately. Grand Union—The number of guests has been about the same but they have as a rule, been spending less money. Park Hotel—Business better than last year.

Lansdowne House—As a whole far exceeded last year's business for same period. Poor at first but much better lately. The passenger agents of the various transportation companies had reported the travel about the same as the hotel men. W. B. Howard, district passenger agent of the C. P. R. said that their business had been better than last year but not as good as they had hoped for. He gave the numbers that had been attracted to Quebec as one of the principal reasons why the travel had not been greater. George Carvill, I. C. R. ticket agent, had found the total business better than last year but could not say that this was due to the tourists. Their business had been very good during the last few weeks. C. E. Lecher, agent of the Eastern Steamship Company, said that without making a definite comparison the travel this summer seemed to be about the same as in 1907. A. C. Currie, agent of the Dominion Atlantic Railway said that the number carried by their lines was larger than last year. Their business had been better from the start of the tourist season. About July 1 and during August they had had a much larger number of passengers. While the total was larger he did not think that the number of those generally regarded as tourists was as large. There were great numbers of provincials returning to their old homes. They had noted the tendency towards a less lavish expenditure on the part of the passengers.

VICTORY OF ABDEL AZIZ OVER MULAI HAFID IS SAID TO BE COMPLETE

TANGIER, Aug. 17.—A wireless despatch received from Abdel Aziz, the Sultan of Morocco, announcing the victory of his troops over the troops under Mulaï Hafid, the usurping Sultan, in an engagement which was fought recently during the march toward Morocco City, says that the defeat of the adherents of Mulaï Hafid are estimated at 300 killed and 60 wounded. An immense amount of booty, including a large number of camels, was captured. The body was so great that the victors were obliged to sell at quarter the market price in order to get rid of it. Abdel Aziz at the head of a column defeated the Bohman tribe, who were supporting Mulaï Hafid, killing fifty of the tribesmen and taking 200 prisoners.

ANOTHER ESTIMATE IS SLIGHTLY SMALLER

WINNIPEG, Aug. 17.—Mr. W. B. Snow, the Chicago wheat crop expert, is in the city, having returned from a tour of the Canadian West, where he has been closely studying the progress. Mr. Snow believes the crop will not now go over possibly 100,000,000 bushels, though some indications show it may even go 100,000,000. This is a big cut from his first estimate but he seems positive that the conditions warrant it. Speaking of this Mr. Snow says that if the country could have harvested during the second week in July the yield would have been 100,000,000 bushels.

MARATHONS TURN THE TABLES ON ST. PETERS SATURDAY AFTERNOON

Eight to six was the score. The Marathons were the victors over the St. Peter's, and the "wise" ones, who could not picture a victory for the champions of the St. John Baseball League over the champions of the Inter-Society League were a disappointed lot.

The game was played on the Shamrock grounds Saturday afternoon and was the second game in a series for the city championship between two champion teams. The St. Peter's won the first game on August 1st, when the score was 12 to 7, and they were looked on as the superior team by many of the fans, and before last Saturday's game was played as the Marathons were the favorites in the betting. There were no even bets made, and what money that was wagered was nearly two to one with the Greeks on the small end. It is now up to those who wager to bet even money, as the Marathons stock has taken a decided rise.

Owing to the heavy showers of Saturday morning the grounds were a pretty wet condition and before the game commenced, but with a good supply of sawdust Manager Hanes of the grounds had the diamond and field put in fairly good condition for the contest.

There were over 1,200 people on the grounds to witness the game, and during the two hours and six minutes that the game was in progress there was plenty of excitement. The rotters were equally divided and the noise at times was deafening. The afternoon resembled one of the old time ones when the Shamrocks and St. Johns used to battle for supremacy.

The game was a good one from a spectator's standpoint, and while there were some most sensational plays there were also some very bad errors and bad base running that should not have happened, especially in a championship contest. For sensational one hand catches Donnelly, the St. Peter's first baseman, carried off the honors, while George Tius also captured a very difficult one. The relay plays from John Malcolm in centre to Copeland at short and the latter's excellent throwing to the plate caught Capt. Frank Dever on two occasions. Callahan, the St. Peter's star pitcher, received so much praise in the first game, was put in the box for the North Enders, but had to be taken out at the end of the third inning, for the Marathons found him no less than 9 times for good clean hits. His place was then taken by the box by A. Mahoney, a cot of much promise, and the Greeks only managed to get the youngsters to two safe hits in the next five innings.

Gilmour was the Marathons pitcher, and he pitched a good hard game, but he was found for eight scattered hits. Only three of these hits were made off him in seven innings and only one run was made by St. Peter's, but in the eighth Gilmour got slightly untidy, giving two bases on balls and was found for three singles, which allowed three runs. Two more singles were made off him in the last inning, and with assistance 'st any easy nut by Stubbs St. Peter's tallied two more runs. Barring these two last innings Gilmour's work was good.

Chase, the Marathons' second baseman, sat on the bench while Tius held down the base. Matters were evened, however, as J. McCormick, the St. Peter's second baseman, was unable to play.

Messrs. McAllister and McDermott were the umpires, and their work was all that could be desired.

The following is the score in detail and the score and summary from the official scorers:

First Inning—F. Dever was the first man up and he went out, short stop to first, C. McCormick was the second, and he went out, pitcher to left, E. Mahoney singled to left, second and reached third on Rootes' error, but died on the third base when J. Dever struck out.

For the Marathons J. Malcolm opened with a nice two bagger to centre and advanced to third when Stubbs went out pitcher to first. Copeland followed with a single to left, and scored Malcolm. Bradbury followed with a single to left and advanced Copeland to second. D. Malcolm then landed a beauty into centre field. Copeland scored. Bradbury went to third and the batter went to second on the throw home. Tius and Clawson struck out.

Second Inning—Donnelly reached first on Copeland's fumble. A. Mahoney fled to second, forcing J. Dever to first. Dever's error and stole second. J. Dever dropped a fly from Copeland and Stubbs went to third. A wild pitch allowed Stubbs to score. Bradbury fled out to E. Mahoney, who doubled Copeland out and retired the side. Score, 8 to 4.

Ninth Inning—F. Dever drew a low on balls and stole second. C. McCormick hit safe to centre. Dever tried to score, but like in the fifth inning, he was caught at the plate. E. Mahoney went out, second to first. J. Dever hit safe to left and McCormick scored. J. Donnelly popped an easy fly to Stubbs, who muffed and Dever scored. A. Mahoney struck out and the game was finished with a Greek victory of 8 to 6.

Clawson singled to centre and Rootes singled to left. With the bases full Callahan pitched a base on balls and forced Tius across the plate. J. Malcolm hit out to pitcher and retired the side. Score 5 to 0.

Dever was enabled to make the first run for his side. Rogers went to first, being hit with a pitched ball, but he remained there, as F. Mahoney fled out to Tius on second base.

HUNDREDS WITNESS EXCELLENT FIELD SPORTS AT WESTFIELD

Witnessed by fully two hundred people, with the greatest of enthusiasm prevailing, the first annual field sports under the auspices of the Westfield Outing Association, were held at the picnic grounds on Saturday.

Those who attended as spectators were afforded the opportunity of witnessing some of the smartest work seen executed on an athletic field in this locality in years.

Frank Doody proved himself to be one of St. John's most able athletes by winning the medal presented by R. B. Paterson for the competitor winning the most points. Mr. Doody's prowess on the field has been noted for several years, but his splendid work Saturday made it evident that he ranks to the fore among St. John's athletes. His aggregate score was twenty-four, and in presenting the Paterson medal, R. B. Macaulay commented at some length upon this splendid showing.

The officials of the race were as follows: Starter—H. C. Creighton. Judges—R. M. Barich, H. B. Robinson, E. B. Church, P. A. Clark, W. A. Rowley, J. H. Doody, B. R. Macaulay, W. B. Howard, C. T. Kestis, J. A. Likely, A. Rankin, W. W. Allen, R. M. Magee, J. Keefe, A. Thompson, F. Crooby, J. Estey.

Clerks of Course—E. A. Inches, A. W. Estey, L. Allen, H. R. Nixon, G. M. Waters.

One of the most exciting features of the sports was the three-mile race, by Harold Sorell. The race was run for a cup presented by Murray Jarvis, who also instituted the race.

Longer than the life of Samson were the substance of Dr. Keirstead's fine address. He pointed out that physical strength comes from God, that it is strength comes from God, that it is strength in the world, that its loss is man's own fault, but that God gives an opportunity for man to regain his strength and emphasizes the importance of resisting the temptation to take the first wrong step. The Eden story lives again in the parable, and in saying that one he contributes to his own salvation. He cannot evade our responsibility for the use of our powers in the manner God desires. The speaker referred to the demoralizing effects of the drink habit and warned young men against the first indulgence.

Balser held the miners to one run in the first inning, but in the second game and another win resulted. Trotter pitched both for Springhill and was soverl good style by the Ramblers. The local boys have now fourteen wins against three losses. Five have been scored against the Springhill team.

ROAST BEEF INDICTED BY MEDICAL CONGRESS

Experiments Show That It Is Not the Solid Foundation of the British Army.

LONDON, Aug. 15.—The roast beef of old England received a severe blow at a sectional meeting of the British Medical Congress, at Sheffield, yesterday.

Lieutenant Colonel Davies, professor of hygiene at the Royal Army Medical College, Major R. J. Blackburn, Major G. S. Crawford, both of the Royal Army Medical Corps and Captain W. Sinclair, R. A. M. (India), in papers read at the section devoted to the army, the navy and ambulance work, all agreed that abundance of meat was quite unnecessary, and that cheese and fish, both of which were cheap, were excellent and nutritious food.

Major Blackburn said that experiments had rather upset the popular notion that roast beef was the solid foundation of the British army.

How "Tommy Atkins" might deal with such a change in his diet as that suggested was indicated by Lieutenant Colonel Potheringham, of Canada, who spoke out of the fulness of his own experience.

Lieutenant Colonel Potheringham agreed that cheese had an extreme value as an article of food. An attempt had been made to introduce it into the rations of the Canadian soldiers, but they were painfully not cheese eaters, and the savory item had to be abolished because of the abominable waste that went on.

It was urged that the revision of the British ration should provide for a better supply of fish, which is a great cheese supplier would prevent a great deal of unnecessary drinking.

Buckets of cold water were also poured on alcohol in the same section by Major Fredmore, who, speaking from a long experience in India, advised that non-drinkers were far more immune from sunstroke than those who did drink alcohol.

Major Blackburn also pointed out that he had no brief for total abstinence, which he regarded as a healthful passage on deck and a stuffy cabin below, and the hotel at a health resort in the continent, where influenza perhaps is rife, will be replaced by sanatoria.

The various papers and speakers in the section agreed that alcohol was not good for long or sustained effort.

Dr. James Kingston Fowler, dean of the faculty of medicine of the Medical Society, of London, in the course of an address on the subject of "Medicine," which he followed by a general review of sanatoria for a variety of affections other than tuberculosis.

The advantages of an open-air life, combined with careful medical supervision, became better known, said Dr. Fowler, the sea voyage which so often means life in a windy passage on deck and a stuffy cabin below, and the hotel at a health resort in the continent, where influenza perhaps is rife, will be replaced by sanatoria.

NEXT YEAR'S TERRORS REVEALED BY PROPHECY

"Disaster on Disaster, Follows Fast and Follows Faster" in 1909.

LONDON, Aug. 15.—There is no falling off in the number of disasters predicted by "Old Moore" in his almanac for 1909.

The sudden striking down of a statesman, a very destructive city fire, a most terrible railway disaster, and a "violent storm in the office of a city newspaper" are some of the calamities predicted for January, but no hint is given as to the nature of the last-mentioned eruption.

Peasantry is earmarked for a dreadful theater or public building catastrophe in the Manchester district, April will bring disaster and death to a prominent financier, a tube accident in New York is predicted for May, and the discovery of mountains of silver ore in Mexico will upset the bullion market in June, a month which will witness alarming riots in Liverpool.

In July an earth tremor will shake Birmingham, there will be a railway disaster and an excursion boat calamity in the Irish sea.

Many members of Parliament will pass away in August, causing much election excitement, and there will be a terrible disaster in Hull or Grimsby, and "fashions will run very eccentric this month—with the ladies."

An awful earthquake in the West Indies is promised for September, and explosions may be expected in the north during this month.

The American coast is expected to scream loudly in November, but otherwise the month will be comparatively quiet, and the year will end with hard times on the east coast.

LONDON, Aug. 15.—Last night Lisbon was threatened with a total lack of water, the danger being due to a serious mishap in the canal of the aqueduct that supplies the entire city.

Toward evening the pipes were broken, and the water supply was cut off. The aqueduct, which supplies the entire city, was broken, and the water supply was cut off.

ST. JOHN STAR. ST. JOHN, N. B., AUGUST 17, 1903.

THE SASKATCHEWAN VICTORY.

On the promise to encourage rapid branch railway extension in portions of Saskatchewan when such extensions are required to give transportation facilities and competition, and to ensure continued development and progress.

Mr. George E. Foster is to speak in St. John this week and will make a strong appeal for the return to power of the Conservative party.

We have received no information that Mr. Herbert B. Ames, who is touring the west with his magic lantern, has provided himself with slides for his machine.

It may be wise to seek the ocean's foam, or go "where mountain breezes seem like wine."

It may be wise to camp, at fancy price, or lie where city maidens play beach pranks.

For years past the transportation question has been one of paramount interest and importance to the people of the west.

THE STOCK MARKET. There is much speculation in regard to the probable continuation of the bull campaign in the New York market.

MR. METZ IN NO NEED OF A WIFE. Controller Moved to Explanation Through Letter From Girl Seeking Marriage With "a Farmer."

NEW YORK, Aug. 15.—Respectfully but emphatically Controller Herman A. Metz serves notice upon all marriageable young women, here or elsewhere, that he is already blessed in the possessions of a wife, that he has no present thought of committing bigamy.

Mr. Metz was moved to these delectable utterances yesterday by the receipt of a letter which read: "Having seen your advertisement for a wife, I thought Metz, who I have always lifted a farm life, if more is desired address Miss Minnie Maurer, No. 128 Second Avenue."

It was not until a clerk came to the rescue that Metz, who had a great crush of business other than matrimonial to look after, remembered that a few days ago he had received a request from one Paul Bachmann, a farmer in High Falls, Ulster County.

THE VACATION ICONOCLAST. It may be wise to hunt for a breeze, and at a summer boarding table eat a hammock swung beneath one's back yard trees.

PARIS, Aug. 16.—Details of the looting of the convent school at Antony, and the brutal murder of the mother superior by masked assassins have just been published and form a terrible tale.

The convent school which has been established for nearly forty years, belongs to the recently disestablished order of St. Andrew and was under the supervision of Mother Stanislas, the former mother superior, who had recently been known as Mme. Larrrieu.

After studying this enticing maieure for a few minutes the Controller mopped his brow and in a tone of anxiety remarked: "Where was I last night? Oh, yes, I remember. H'm. But I don't remember having advertised for a wife. No, I'm sure I didn't. And what does this business about a farm mean? Can that be a ring at the fact that I live in Brooklyn? If more is desired—well, I have one wife and more isn't desired."

A TENNYSON GROWL. In Walter Crane's autobiography he gives an interesting picture of Tennyson. It was at a dinner party at the Rev. Stoddard Brooke's and he was reading to the company his "Ballad of the Fleet" in his deep, impressive voice.

REVENGE. "If you keep on annoying me in this way, I'll give you my wife as a new hat, and then you'll have to give yours one too!"—Figuere Blatter.

A CERTAINTY. I am no pessimistic crank who thinks all things are tainted. But one thing's sure—office toilet is blacker than it's painted.

NOT MUCH TO TELL. She—Tell me of your early struggles. He—There's not much to tell. The harder I struggled the more the old man laid it on.

C.P.R. ISSUES A NOTICE TO ITS STRIKERS

MONTREAL, Aug. 16.—Next Tuesday the striking C. P. R. men will have been out exactly two weeks and the company has decided on decisive action.

Saturday it issued the following notice, which is printed in both French and English, and posted up at different shops and other places:

"The company will, at 12 o'clock noon on Tuesday, August 18th, 1908, commence filling the vacancies in the shops, roundhouses and car department.

The seniority standing of the employees engaged or resuming work thereafter will count only from the date on which they start work.

Following the strike the company went on with its business as usual, desiring a conciliatory policy with the desire to attain its old employees, and wishing to give every opportunity to the men to return to work. No effort was made to fill their places as the different departments, although turning short handed, were, it is claimed, sufficiently manned to meet all requirements. Trains were said to be running as usual, both passenger and freight.

SUCCESSFUL WIRELESS TELEPHONE TESTS

PARIS, Aug. 17.—The naval lieutenant Colin, Jeanne and Mercier, the inventors of a wireless telephone apparatus which recent tests have shown to be superior to anything existing, have achieved remarkable success with their new instrument, communication with the wireless station at Raz De Seine Department of Finistere, a distance of about 310 miles. The transmitted words were somewhat faint, but could be plainly distinguished and the officers are confident that they can make great improvements in the apparatus, which has been the result of only four months experimentation enabling the exchange of conversation up to 500 or 700 miles.

J. DE WOLFE SPURR EXPIRES SUDDENLY IN UNION STATION ON HIS WAY TO CATCH A TRAIN

The death of James De Wolfe Spurr, one of St. John's most highly esteemed citizens, took place with tragic suddenness early Saturday afternoon on the train about the Union depot. The relatives of the late Mr. Spurr, although aware for some years that he was unable to be stricken by heart failure, were hardly prepared for his sudden end, as he had appeared to be in good health and spirits the evening before. Mr. Spurr's intention had been to attend the gathering of the Natural History Society held near Robbsey on Saturday afternoon. With this in view Mr. Spurr took a hurried lunch and went to the railway station to take the train for Robbsey. Soon after he had passed the gates of the station Mr. Spurr was observed to pause and lean heavily on his walking stick. He then walked a short distance farther and fell to the ground. Death was instantaneous. It is supposed that the unusual exertion and excitement attending the journey to Robbsey brought on the fatal attack of heart disease.

BODY REMOVED.

As soon as it had been ascertained that death had ensued the body was removed to 184 Germain street, the late residence of the deceased. The remains will be interred at the cemetery of the late Mr. Spurr family at Annapolis. They will be taken to Digby on Tuesday morning's boat. This evening the body was placed in a casket at the residence of the deceased. The executive of St. George's Society, of which he has been a member, will attend. The late Mr. Spurr was in his 85th year.

PROMOTER OF MILL.

He was the promoter of the first steam mill erected in the province and also was closely connected with shipbuilding and shipping from 1848 to 1855. He resided in Liverpool, England. For twenty years Mr. Spurr was connected with the Albert shalis industry and erected near this city extensive refining works in which oil was produced in opposition to the petroleum industry of the United States. In 1850 the deceased was president of the Board of Trade and in 1852 a similar office in St. George's Society. Between the years 1850 to 1853 he was chief game commissioner. In the early part of his life he was an enthusiastic angler and sportsman.

JUVENILE COURT IS A NECESSITY HERE

Rev. Warren McLeod, D. D., of Chicago, was the speaker in the Ludlow street United Baptist Church last evening. The reverend gentleman spoke on the subject of a juvenile court, in his text: "Come up into the mountain," etc.

He went on to say that it was necessary to have a plan for life's work. He declared that this plan was given to us by God, when we were born into this life. He said that many persons turn away from the plan. He took an example the juvenile court, which, when boys were tried, who broke away from the plan. He declared that every place throughout the entire world there would have a juvenile court, where boys could be tried. Such an institution was a necessity in a city like St. John's. He spoke of Jesus and His great deeds and work. He closed with an earnest plea for his congregation to follow the right path, and to pray that they might do better.

Dr. McLeod will be heard in the Ludlow street Baptist Church again on the 20th.

EXTRA PROGRAMME AT PRINCESS THEATRE.

The management of the Princess Theatre are making an extra effort to please the public this week, and will commence with a selected vaudeville and moving picture programme. Madame Demby, a high classed vocal artist, has been engaged to sing very pretty and difficult solos. Morris Smith, a black-faced comedian who recently with the Decker and minstrels, will be seen in an entire change of specialty.

The moving picture part of the programme is one of the best ever offered to the public and will be shown today for the first time in the eastern provinces. The Tyrant Feudal Lord is a feature subject of highest order, depicting vividly scenes of touching pathos. The costumes are superb, and the settings of castles in medieval age magnificent, with dramatic effect well executed. A feudal lord living in licentious rivalry ignores his family's interests. The arch man makes futile efforts to arouse the compassion of the lord, and in desperation sends a family of soldiers to the aid of the lord to rout the pleading populace, and the lord himself strikes down the priest. The spirits run the gamut of the palace, and his parishioners now haunt the bearable for his master. The arch man's experience are repeated with such frequency and are so intense that they cease the genius of the lord. Excellent photographic detail and perspective, steadiness and dramatization.

The Saw Mill is the title of a very instructive series of views explaining the milling industry, and shows with much distinctness the lumber as handled from the forest to the saw mill.

Two exceptional amusing films are entitled The Substitute Automatic Servant and The Mystery of the Basket. Next week Passion Play will be shown.

SIX

The Ugly Duckling

By JAMES SPRAGUE

(Copyrighted, 1937, by P. C. Eastment.) There was a decided tendency among the scholars of the summer school to overlook little Miss Snell. But pretty Miss Blasco defended her.

"She may be trumpy," she declared, "and I never saw such clothes. But she is nice when you know her."

Most of the scholars at the summer school were teachers, who were making up in six weeks' course the deficiencies of early education, or preparing for higher grades.

In winter little Miss Snell taught in a district school. Her summer school experience marked the first milestone of travel. Never before had she been out of her native township. Never before had she met such wonderful girls as these who came from the big cities, with all the dalliances of city governing and city growing.

At home Miss Snell had considered her one thick suit and to learn dress as a sufficient and elegant wardrobe, especially as it was supplemented by six white waists, two of which were embroidered by her own hands, one in a plain daisy pattern and one with chrysanthemums.

At the summer school, however, even the embroidered waists seemed inadequate as compared to Miss Blasco's delicate lingerie blouses, with their short sleeves and frilly effects. Miss Snell's waists had linen cuffs and stiff collars, which emphasized the plainness of her little, pointed face, her straight haired hair, her spare, girlish figure.

"It's too bad," Miss Blasco said, the night of the first reception given by the faculty to the summer school scholars. "It's too bad, I don't believe she is having a good time. You go over and talk to her."

"You are trying to get rid of me," Owen Marvin complained. He was principal of a high school at home and was unmarried. He had never seen a girl quite so knowing and engaging as Miss Blasco, and he was beginning to think seriously of asking her to marry him.

"No, I am not," Miss Blasco's blue eyes sparkled. "But I hate to see any one look so lonely and that poor little thing. Come on." And she swept away, all her pink chiffon frills and daisies, there was nothing for him to do but to follow.

Miss Snell brightened up as they came toward her. She thought she had never seen anything so pretty as Miss Blasco. "You look like a pink rose," she said, as Miss Blasco dropped into a big chair beside her and introduced Owen Marvin.

"He lives in the next town to you," Miss Blasco explained, "and I think you ought to know each other."

"Oh," said little Miss Snell blushing, "I have heard of you so often, Mr. Marvin."

He had not heard of her, but he murmured polite acknowledgments. Miss Blasco slipped away presently, and she found himself rather enjoying the rapid attention with which this mouse of a girl accepted all his statements. Miss Blasco had a way of making him feel uncouth and clumsy, but to Miss Snell he towered as a giant of intellect and she seemed to hang upon his words.

They ate their ice cream together, and it was not until Miss Blasco came back, radiant and rosy, that he discovered that Miss Snell was exceedingly unattractive in appearance.

"Why don't she dress herself right?" he asked with a decided sense of irritation, as he took Miss Blasco home.

"Oh, you men," Miss Blasco said, as they came to Divinity Hall, which in summer served as the women's dormitory. "Oh, you men, you make us so frivolous."

"Well," he said, "why can't she have some things like this," and he touched a little awkwardly the filmy dress of Miss Blasco's wrap.

"Miss Blasco drew back. "Go away little boy," she said, "I'll see you in the morning." And away she ran to the moonlight.

"And he needn't think he is going to make love to me," she confided to Miss Murray, who roomed with her, "because I am engaged already. What?" she said, "that trumpy little thing!"

"It's her clothes," Miss Blasco explained. "You walk, Clara, I'm going to play fairly godmother. I owe her something anyway. When you were away last week and I had one of my splitting headaches she came in and was as sweet as she could be. She took care of me like a born nurse and I turned everybody else out. You know what a bear I am when I have a headache, Clara?"

"Indeed I do," said Miss Murray, feelingly. "Well, she didn't seem to mind. She hung over me, and sat up with me, and it was when I made her put on my blue silk dressing gown and she had her hair done that I discovered that she was pretty."

"I can't imagine it," said Miss Murray. "She is, and she has such a pretty attentive way of listening. And she has been awfully left out by the other girls here, and I am going to take her in hand."

things, and I know I am different, and I think it is dear of you to help me."

"Question one," said Miss Blasco. "Can you afford to lose any money on new things?"

Then it developed that Miss Snell was not poor, but because life on her father's farm would have been dreadful in its monotony otherwise. But her father never limited her expenditures.

"Oh, joy," murmured Miss Blasco. "I'll dress you up, little lady, until you won't know yourself. And our first appearance shall be the next reception."

"If you look like that next Friday he'll love you on the spot, my dear."

"It is you he loves," whispered little Miss Snell, "and he is charming, and I think you will be a wonderful couple."

"No, we won't," said Miss Blasco, decidedly. "I'm going to marry a doctor who lives in New York, and he is the dearest fellow in the world."

The next Friday Owen Marvin, wearing a little disconsolately through the empty rooms of the reception hall, came upon a little figure in white. His footsteps made no sound on the thick carpet and, unobserved, he studied her. She wore a charming white net gown. Her fair, curly hair was twisted about her head in a shining coronet, and as she stood on the tip of her white slippers and surveyed herself in the big mirror, she was dainty, exquisite.

"I beg pardon," Owen apologized, as she turned and caught sight of him, and then he said, quickly, "Why—It's Miss Snell."

She came forward, blushing. "Don't you think my gown is pretty?" she asked. "Miss Blasco told me where to send for it, and she sized my hair. But he did not join in her enthusiasm."

"She's something of a coquette," he said, "and very fond of admiration. 'Every girl is fond of admiration,' Miss Snell defended, all pink and white. "Don't you think so?"

"Yes," said Marvin, and went over to the entrance of her man. Miss Blasco that afternoon had told him of her engagement, and his pride was hurt. He decided that Miss Snell appreciated him, and that she was pretty.

He walked with her through the fast-filling rooms. Admiring glances followed them. It was not easy for the teachers to understand the transformation of Miss Snell, and Miss Blasco was glowing.

"Isn't she a success?" she said to Miss Murray. "I told you she was pretty. You can't always tell when your ugly ducklings are going to turn out to be swans, my dear. And clothes make such a difference."

"Her first name is Lily," she told Marvin, as they stood together for a moment, while Miss Snell talked to an astonished professor of English, who told Miss Blasco that he would like to see her, and she went through the room by the side of her handsome cavalier, and out upon the moonlighted campus.

"Yes," said Marvin, and went over to the entrance of her man. Miss Blasco that afternoon had told him of her engagement, and his pride was hurt. He decided that Miss Snell appreciated him, and that she was pretty.

He walked with her through the fast-filling rooms. Admiring glances followed them. It was not easy for the teachers to understand the transformation of Miss Snell, and Miss Blasco was glowing.

"Isn't she a success?" she said to Miss Murray. "I told you she was pretty. You can't always tell when your ugly ducklings are going to turn out to be swans, my dear. And clothes make such a difference."

SCOTT EMERGES MORE TRIUMPHANT THAN EVER

REGINA, Sask., Aug. 16.—The smoke of the battle has now cleared from the recent election and the electors have endorsed the progressive policy of the Scott administration in most emphatic terms.

Indeed the magnificent victory of the Liberals over a solid and aggressive Conservative organization of the entire Dominion who made a set on Saskatchewan as a stepping stone to success, topped for in the federal elections is one of the greatest tributes to Premier Scott and his policy ever given by a Canadian province to its government.

Mr. Scott comes back triumphant with a greatly increased majority as an answer to the campaign of personalities, abuse and charges of malfeasance in office waged by his opponents. The standing of the party tonight is twenty-five government to fifteen opposition.

Is Atoned For The defeat of Ministers Calder in Milestone and Motherwell in Qu'Appelle is atoned for by splendid Liberal victories in Saskatoon and Regina cities. Besides there are excellent reasons underlying such a defeat in Milestone the majority of electors are farmers from the States and are on lands colonized by the Hudson Land Co., the president of which is a prominent Conservative, who has great influence with the farmers and who succeeded in arraying against Calder.

In North Qu'Appelle, Motherwell was opposed by every device the Conservative organization could suggest. His opponent had a personal grudge against the minister and set out to defeat him at any cost, and being immensely successful he succeeded. The Conservative candidate is a quarter breed, too, and arrayed all breeds on his side.

HOST OF MANITOBA REBELS. The other hand, there never has been any government in Canada which had such a host of political hangers on and hoodlums as the provincial government of Manitoba, and they were moved up wholesale to the assistance of Mr. Haultain in Saskatchewan to the detriment of the hot fight. Otherwise there would have been no fight at all.

It is eminently in the public interest that Mr. Scott's government should have been sustained. Mr. Scott is unquestionably the ablest young man in public life in Canada. He has many years of valuable public service ahead of him. His government is clean and progressive, and the great responsibility of laying on a sound foundation the institutions of a province like Saskatchewan has been borne by him and his government with conspicuous ability and success.

The legislation of Mr. Scott and his government shows the highest conception of their responsibilities in providing for all the requirements of the future people of Saskatchewan. They have provided for a sound and liberal system of education, embracing common schools, a normal school and a university. The municipal system has been placed on a sound foundation. Abuses of various kinds have been checked, a progressive policy has been followed with regard to public improvements, and generally almost everything has been done that could be suggested as being desired in the public interest.

It is true that Mr. Scott has some enemies. While he was in the House of Commons he conceived it to be his duty to attack the C. P. R. and some of the leading men connected with that corporation. Speaking generally he has been against corporations when the latter were, in his judgment, against the interests of the public.

FOUGHT HONESTLY. At the late session it was found necessary to curtail the sale of liquor to a very material degree owing to the fact that drinking clubs were being established in the small towns throughout the province where there was practically no restriction of any kind. These places were abolished by legislation.

As a result of the attitude of Mr. Scott he has made some enemies, and they do not hesitate to use strong measures in endeavoring to defeat him. His tactics, however, have been taken in the interest of the people whom he represents and it will be found that the people of the province will appreciate his services.

As far as the rest of Canada is concerned, Mr. Scott is a man whose people take a patriotic interest in the affairs of the great province of Saskatchewan and whose public business is in safe hands as long as the Hon. Walter Scott remains in power.

RECALLED CONSCIOUSNESS. Upon arriving there he regained consciousness sufficiently to speak a few words, but these, according to the hospital authorities, were to the effect that he preferred to say nothing in explanation of his condition to his brother, Captain Hains. The latter and his brother, who had calmly awaited arrest on the club float, were less reticent.

To Police Captain Ruthenberg, who questioned him as to his motive, Captain Hains told of Annie having broken up his home and that the course he had taken to punish him was the only one he considered open to him.

The captain then asked for a telegraph blank and wrote the following despatch to his father: "Have shot Annie. Come to Flushing police station."

The general lost no time in answering his son's summons. As soon as he reached the police station he was conducted to the cell to which the captain and his brother had been committed by Coroner Ambler, and the three had a long consultation together. The general then left for New York, refusing to make any statement.

Annie died at 115 without having regained consciousness except during a brief period when first received at the hospital. No auto-mortem statement could be obtained from her.

Divorce proceedings instituted by Captain Hains in which it was said Annie's name figures were pending at the time of the shooting.

I., tonight, was overcome with horror and amazement when she saw at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Charles H. Libbey of 85 Crest avenue, Winthrop, this evening, that it cannot be that Peter would do such a rash thing as that. Mrs.

AGED LADY HAS A COMFORTABLE HOME

It has been learned on good authority that Mrs. Mary Taylor, who told such a heart rendering story in the police court a few days ago about being turned out of home by her children and that she wished to go to the Alms House, was handed out of the Alms House to the court. The old lady is said to have a comfortable home with her son, but a few nights ago wandered away. It was thought that she had been spending the night with a daughter and nothing was known of her arrest until it was seen in the papers. When liberated from the police station the old woman returned home to her son and denied that she had been at the police court. Her son is a respectable young man and feels his mother's action keenly.

IN THE COURTS

COUNTY COURT.

In the county court chambers this morning before Judge Forbes the examination in connection with the judgment in the case of Vaughan Electric Co. v. The Hampstead S. Co., was begun. Mr. A. H. Hannington, K.C., appeared for the plaintiff company and Mr. L. A. Curry, K.C., represented the defendant company.

The first witness was Mr. R. Keille Jones and his evidence was not completed when court adjourned until Monday next at 11 a. m. Mr. Jones stated that he had subscribed $1000 cash to the company. The first year that the company was in existence $1000 of 6 per cent. was declared. From that on the company went steadily behind, no dividend being declared after that. Captain Fred Malt was manager, secretary, treasurer, and captain from the formation of the company until 1907. In December, 1906 a mortgage of $6000 was put on the Elaine. During the year the company was in existence $20,000 was spent on new machinery.

Mr. Curry—"The steamers Elaine and Hampstead were sold under the mortgages of $6,000 and $16,000."

Mr. Hannington—"I don't think so, Mr. Curry. I am of the opinion that the new company has no good title."

Mr. Curry—"I think it has."

In continuing Mr. Jones said that the Elaine was purchased for $13,900. It was paid for by cash, enough having been subscribed. The Hampstead carried the Maltre family debt $8,500 into the concern. That was taken to pay for the steamer Elaine. Mr. Jones said that he bought in Dr. Houston's camp simply for Mr. Curry and did not buy it for the company.

Mr. Hannington—"I can produce half of the people along the river who will say that you said you bought them for the company." At this juncture it was agreed that Mr. Hannington could go to the office of Curry & Vincent where he could have a private room to go over all the books in connection with the Hampstead S. S. Company.

The Elaine and Hampstead were sold by the old company to the new company, which is composed of the same stockholders as the old company was with the exception of a few who were dropped. Mr. Hannington claims that the new company has no title to the steamers Elaine and Hampstead.
