LIEUT. MORISON GIVES LIFE FOR THE EMPIRE

Sussex Man Killed in Action on June 8—Member of the Bank of New Brunswick Staff at Sussex Before Amalgamation.

Special to The Standard.
Sussex, June 16.—Word has been received of the death of Lieut. Robert Morison, of Sussex, who left St. John attached to the 26th Battalion. He was killed in action somewhere in France on the 8th instant. Lieut. Morison was transferred after his arrival in England to another corps and at the time of his death was in command of trench mortar battery.

ANOTHER VERSION OF CHANCELLOR'S PEACE SPEECH

Report Sent Out Yesterday from Berlin by Semi-official News Agency Varies in Wording from Previous One.

New York, June 16.—Dr. Von Bethmann-Hollweg, the German imperial chancellor, in his speech in the Reichstag June 5 regarding peace, was quoted in the dispatches sent out from Berlin, by wireless to Amsterdam and London, as defending himself against charges that he was the "cause of the world catastrophe." In the version of the speech, as transmitted by wireless today from Berlin to Sayville by the semi-official Overseas News Agency, the chancellor answered reproaches made in certain pamphlets for attempting to reach an agreement with Great Britain prior to the outbreak of the war.

Attempts at Counter-Attacks Futile in Face of Relentless Charge of Czar's Forces in Volhynia, Galicia and Bukowina

Total Number of Prisoners Now Almost 170,000—Regiment of Youths Ford River in Eagerness to Come to Grips With Foe—King of Italy Sends Message of Congratulation.

The forward drive of the Russian armies in Volhynia, Galicia and Bukowina continues with apparently undiminished success. From the Pripet Marshes southward to Czernowitz the forces of General Brusiloff, according to reports from Petrograd, are throwing back counter-attacks and are advancing steadily against the Austrian armies. In thirteen days the Russians have made prisoner almost 170,000, and have captured immense stores of war booty, says the Russian war office.

Battles southeast of Lutsk, between Kozin and Tarnovka, and northwest of Buczacz, have brought further successes to the Russian arms. In an action of the Pluicheva river, south of Lurak, more than 5,000 men were captured, after the attacking Russians had forded the river.

The fighting continues northwest of Buczacz, where the Germans are co-operating with the Austro-Hungarians, but the Russians report the capture here, thus far, of 6,000 men from the Teutonic Allies.

Attempts of the Austrians and Germans to take the offensive on many sectors of the long front were repulsed, according to Petrograd. The Russian war office also chronicles the repulse of attacks in the region of Skul, southeast of Kovel, one of the objectives of the present Russian drive. Berlin reports the capture of 400 Russians during the attack on a German position north of Przewolka.

MESSAGE FROM ITALIAN ALLIES.

The text of the statement follows: "The supreme commander, the Czar, has received the following telegram from the King of Italy: 'I am in harmony with the whole Italian people in expressing the sentiment of profound admiration for the victorious development of the powerful offensive of your majesty's armies, and in sending to you the warmest and most friendly congratulations. Being convinced that the efforts thus happily commenced will lead to difficult success, I pray you to accept the assurance of my unchangeable friendship.'

On the front of the armies south of Polesie the fighting continues. The enemy has suffered heavy losses in encountering our troops. The following details of the operations in many sectors have been received:

"In the course of a powerful but fruitless counter-attack by the enemy in the region of Sokul, north of Rojitcha, we took prisoner twenty officers and 1,750 men.

"In the region west and southwest of Lutsk, during the pursuit of the enemy, our cavalry fought several successful actions. Northwest of Kremenez our bold soldiers of General Sakharoff's force, after a desperate fight, dislodged the enemy from his fortified positions on the River Pluicheva, between Kozin and Tarnovka, by a vigorous assault. One of our young regiments, led by Colonel Tataroff, after a fierce fight, forded the deep river which was up to their chins. One company was engulfed and died a heroic death, but the valor of their comrades and their officers resulted in the disorderly flight of the enemy. Seventy officers and 5,000 men were taken prisoner, and two guns, a great many machine guns, 1,000 rifles, cartridges and enormous reserves of barbed wire were captured in this action.

6,000 More Prisoners. We have captured 6,000 prisoners, guns and machine guns.

"An enemy aeroplane has dropped bombs on Tarnopol.

"Our brave Don Cossacks have taken prisoner seven officers and 600 men; the approximate total of yesterday's capture is 100 officers, 14,000 men and a quantity of war material.

"On the Drina front and farther south in the region of Polesie, there has been an exchange of artillery and rifle fire. Our artillery made a violent attack yesterday in the region of Divinsk. Enemy attempts to take the offensive in many sectors were

TO RESTRICT SPECULATION ON BERLIN BOURSE

All Transactions Must be on Strictly Cash Basis, and with Date of Delivery Strictly Prescribed.

Berlin, June 16, via London.—The managing committee of the Berlin Bourse today adopted the outline of a plan to restrict speculation which, although without official sanction of the Bourse, has grown remarkably active in recent months. The committee ordered that all transactions shall be on a strictly cash basis, and with the date of delivery strictly prescribed. Option and time trading will be prohibited, as will also the circulation privately of price lists.

The action taken by the Bourse today coincides with the wishes of the government and the leading banks, which regard it as inopportune that wild speculations should disturb the money market during the war. It was designed to obviate the still more rigorous measures contemplated by the government itself.

MARTIAL LAW AT SALONIKI

Greek Army Being Transferred to Volo, on coast of Thessaly, 100 Miles North of Athens.

Paris, June 16.—It is reported from Saloniki, says a Havas despatch from Athens today, that in consequence of the establishment of martial law by the Allies in that district and the taking over by them of the postal, telegraph, railway and customs administration, the Greek military base, as well as the troops occupying the forts around Than, have been transferred to Volo, on the coast in Thessaly, about 100 miles northwest of Athens.

New York, June 16.—A dispatch from Athens today to the New York Journal says:

"The Greek army is being transferred to Volo as the result of the establishment of martial law at Saloniki. 'British warships have bombarded Klenia Skrofa, in Asia Minor. The Turks, fearing that an attempt would be made to force a landing, rushed troops from Smyrna.'

New York, June 16.—A news agency despatch from Saloniki today says:

"The Germans continued their bombardment of the Allies' position between Lako Arzmandkallindir, it was officially announced today.

"The artillery violently shelled the position 200 projectiles of large calibre being fired at one point."

Refuses to Head Finance Board. Toronto, June 16.—Mr. John A. Paterson, K. C., announced today that he had refused the appointment of the Presbyterian general assembly to the chairmanship of the finance board.

The task of raising $1,631,000, the amount of the budget for next year, was one which required the undivided attention of the appointee to the position. He had too much business to look after to be able to discharge the duties of that office, in addition.

everywhere repulsed by our fire.

"Caucasus front: In the coast region the Turks made numerous attempts to take the offensive, all of which were repulsed.

"In the direction of Bagdad, on the 14th, the Turks took the offensive and occupied the village of Serpoul. They were afterwards ejected by our troops, and thrown back to their original positions."

CANADA PROUD OF GALLANTRY OF HER SONS, PREMIER SAYS IN MESSAGE TO GEN. BYNG

SPECIAL TO THE STANDARD.
Ottawa, June 16.—Canada's pride in the splendid work of her troops who, last Tuesday morning, re-took 1,500 yards of trenches from the Germans was expressed by Sir Robert Borden in the following message to General Byng, commander of the Canadian army corps in France.

REMOVING CAUSES OF COMPLAINT

British Government Daily Perfecting Mail Censorship System which Formed Basis of Protest by United States.

London, June 16, 4.30 a. m.—Sir Maurice De Bunsen, under secretary of the foreign office, and formerly British ambassador at Vienna, made the following statement today regarding the American note protesting against the interference with neutral mails which was forwarded to the French and British governments May 24:

"The note is being examined by the British and French governments in consultation. The views of the French government have not yet been received. This point in the memorandum was communicated to the United States ambassador here, April 14, explaining that the postal censors had perfected the organization of a separate department to deal with such matters, and in view of this improved organization it is possible to assure the government of the United States that in the absence of wholly exceptional circumstances the total delay caused by ordinary correspondence of neutrals, from the time the mails were unloaded on ships carrying them, until they were delivered to the censors of the British post office for transmission to their destination, would not, in the future, be more than three or four days.

FAY WANTS CHANGE TO RETURN TO GERMANY AND DIE FOR COUNTRY

New York, June 16.—Lieut. Robert Fay, sentenced to eight years in the federal prison at Atlanta for plotting to attach bombs to vessels carrying supplies to the Entente Allies, admitted today that he had written to President Wilson asking that he be deported to Germany, instead of being sent to prison. He is now in the Tomba in this city. In his letter Fay said he asked that he be returned to his native land, to "rehabilitate" himself by offering his life to his country.

The punishment he would receive for deserting from the German army, even to "aid" the German cause in the United States, he declared, would be more severe than the prison term to which he was sentenced.

"If my life has to be wasted," he said, "I might as well waste it for my country, and be of some use to somebody. So far as punishment is concerned, one day of drum fire is worse than ten years in prison."

some time to examine them and consult together. The answer does not in the least, affect the energy with which the British government are attempting to meet the practical needs of the situation in a business-like spirit by perfecting their organization, and thus preventing hardships to neutrals resulting from the application of principles."

Further Progress by the British Forces in Mesopotamia.

GAINS ALSO MADE IN GERMAN EAST AFRICA

British on North Bank of Tigris have Pushed their Trenches to Within 200 Yards of the Turks at Sannayat.

Around Verdun the French and German armies were inactive during the day, there having been only intermittent artillery bombardments. Paris says it has been confirmed that the French attack of Thursday on the slope south of Le Mort Homme resulted in the capture of German trenches on a front of about two-thirds of a mile.

While London claims further advances for the British forces in Mesopotamia, in the region of Kut-el-Amara Constantinople asserts the British have retired from within the range of the Turkish guns. The occupation of Imam Mansura, on the south bank of the Tigris river, and the pushing forward of British trenches to within two hundred yards of the Turkish forces at Sannayat, on the north bank of the Tigris, are claimed by London.

On the other hand, the Turks say the British camp has been removed from Felahie, on the Tigris, below Kut-el-Amara, owing to the activity of the Turkish guns against it.

British forces operating in the eastern part of German East Africa have made further advances, and have occupied two villages. Near the coast the British have taken Korogwe, and also have seized positions in Victoria Nyanza sector.

200 Yards from Turk Trenches. London, June 16, 5.35 p. m.—The British official press bureau today gave out a statement dealing with the operations in Mesopotamia as follows:

"On the north bank of the Tigris, east of Kut-el-Amara our trenches have been pushed to within 200 yards of the Turks at Sannayat.

"On the south bank, Imam Mansura has been occupied. This place is 2½ miles south of Masana.

"A successful punitive expedition has been made against the Arabs, who persistently cut the telegraph connection north of Hamar Lake.

"Two hundred cartloads of grain and some sheep were taken from the raid on hostile Arab tribes.

"Three of our Tigris barges were sunk by Turkish artillery on June 10.

"The imaginative Turkish communique of Thursday was founded on the above."

Push Forward in East Africa. London, June 16.—British forces operating in the eastern part of German East Africa have made further advances, occupying the village of Kilimanjaro and another village nearby. A large German force is confronting the British in this sector. Further south, near the coast, British have occupied the important post of Korogwe, and to the northwest have seized positions in the Victoria Nyanza sector. These announcements are made in an official statement issued tonight as follows:

"Kwedwa, six miles north of Handeni, has been occupied; also the village of Kilimanjaro, close to Handeni. A large German force is entrenched near the Handeni water supply.

"The important station of Korogwe and the wagon bridge over the Pangani river has been secured by the British.

"The Island of Ukerewe, north of the German post of Masana, on Lake Victoria, has been occupied, and two Krupp guns and stores taken."

London, June 16.—The official statement of the campaign in Belgium and France, issued by the war office tonight follows:

"Last night we successfully exploded mines in the neighborhood of the Sonchez quarries and Cuisy. An enemy mine was exploded near Oivency, but did no damage.

"Today the hostile artillery was unusually active immediately north of La Bassée Canal and in the Loos salient. Our trenches east of Zillebeke were shelled heavily for a short period this afternoon. The remainder of the front was quiet."

SIR JAS. AIKINS IS RE-ELECTED PRESIDENT

Of Canadian Bar Association—Hon. J. B. M. Baxter to Prepare Draft Act on Conditional Sales.

Toronto, June 16.—At today's session of the Canadian Bar Association the reports of the committee on legislation dealing with fire insurances and conditional sales were presented and referred to the council. A draft act on conditional sales is to be prepared by Hon. J. B. M. Baxter, attorney-general of New Brunswick, for consideration at the next annual meeting.

The association concluded its business with the election of officers as follows:

Sir James Aikins, re-elected president; Hon. C. J. Doherty, minister of justice, honorary president; vice-presidents: Ontario, E. F. B. Johnston, K. C.; Prince Edward Island, A. A. McLean, K. C.; Saskatchewan, Norman McKenzie, K. C.; Alberta, R. B. Bennett, K. C.; British Columbia, C. E. Corbould, K. C.; Manitoba, Isaac Campbell, K. C.; Nova Scotia, Hector Melville, K. C.; New Brunswick, P. R. Taylor; Mr. Fabre Suvayer, secretary.

Will Welcome Inquiries. "The British government has not been content with this mere assurance but every day is attempting still further to perfect the organization of censorship, and they believe that in the future American citizens will have less and less cause to complain of delays in the passage of their correspondence to neutral European countries.

"The British government wish particularly to emphasize a readiness to receive from American citizens inquiries regarding any particular delay or missing letters, together with particulars, such as the date of the sailing of the ship on which the mails were carried and in the case of registered letters the registered number on the package, in order that they may inquire into each case thoroughly, and immediately avert misunderstandings and detect lapses in the organization where such have occurred.

"They wish it realized in America that an enormous organization is needed to deal with the thousands of mail bags in a few hours, and the extent of success already achieved in dealing expeditiously with all this mass of correspondence.

"The American note embodies various difficult legal arguments, and in fact it takes the Allied government

CONVENTION BALKS AT WOMAN SUFFRAGE PLANK

All Goes Smooth until votes for Women Plank is Introduced—Adopted, However, After Lively Debate as Part of Party Platform Approved by Pres. Wilson.

St. Louis, June 16.—The Democratic national convention association finished its work today by adopting the party platform exactly as approved by President Wilson and submitted by the resolution committee, including the plank on Americanism and that favoring woman suffrage, but not until the harmony of its three days' session had been disturbed with a row over the suffrage plank.

Had told the convention that President Wilson himself considered it vital to party success, however, it was voted into the platform by a ballot of 584 to 1814. The entire platform then was adopted without roll call.

ARRESTED FOR THEFT OF RAILWAY TICKETS

C. H. Delorey and E. F. Delorey Locked Up Here for Offence Committed at Tracadie.

When the C. P. R. express arrived in the depot yesterday afternoon at 5.10 o'clock from Halifax, Conductor A. E. Brown handed over two men to the care of Policeman Roberts. The men are charged with stealing, and were locked up in the cells at the depot. Chief Tingler of the Government Railway Police will arrive this morning and take the prisoners to Tracadie for trial.

The men arrested are C. H. Delorey, aged about forty-five, and E. F. Delorey, aged about eighteen. It is said that they purchased tickets for Tracadie at the Tracadie station on Thursday. Later on they are credited with breaking into the station and stealing eighteen tickets. The break was noticed after the men had left Tracadie and they were not taken into custody until they reached Hampton, when Conductor Brown, having received a telegram, placed them in charge. At Hampton one of the men managed to throw the eighteen tickets out of the car window. The stolen tickets were picked up by the porter at the station and handed over to the station agent.

Ottawa, June 16.—The following battle report reached the minister of militia from Canadian headquarters at the front: "About midday on June 6th the enemy opened a violent bombardment on the left sector of our defenses. In the afternoon four mines were exploded directly under our front line trench at Hooge. GRASS CROP IN ONTARIO AND QUEBEC LIKELY TO BE RECORD ONE

Special to The Standard. Ottawa, Ont., June 16.—In spite of the apparently unending rain, Hon. Martin Burrell, minister of agriculture, sees the silver lining of the clouds. While there has been delay in getting in grain crops in Ontario and Quebec, he thinks there is no cause at all for pessimism. What is the big crop in the prairie provinces but grass for pasture and for hay is the most valuable crop in Ontario and Quebec. Mr. Burrell points out that this is the crop that is mainly responsible for our big dairy output and to a considerable extent for our beef. In addition to the large area of pasture grass about three and a quarter million acres of grass to produce hay which in 1915 was worth about $50,000,000. If to this is added the value of pasture grass it will be seen that the value of the farm products determined the value of the main production. With the present high prices for butter, cheese, beef and hay, grass is the controlling factor in Ontario and

Eye Witness Describes The Gallant Canadian Assault That Won Back British Positions

Western Ontario Battalion Bombed Its Way Up to the Line While Two Scottish and a Toronto Battalion in Brilliant Rush Captured the Positions—Several More Canadians Won Honors for their Gallant Achievement.

Ottawa, June 16.—The following eye-witness report reached the minister of militia from Canadian headquarters at the front:

"About midday on June 16th the enemy opened a violent bombardment on the left sector of our defenses. In the afternoon four mines were exploded directly under our front line system at Hooge.

"The companies of our Twenty-eighth Northwestern Battalion holding this section, suffered severely, and the remnants of the garrison were unable to hold the Germans in check when they launched an attack immediately after the explosion.

"The enemy occupied our front line but all his attempts to advance beyond this point were defeated by machine gun and rifle fire directed upon him from our support trenches and strong points.

At one point of the front a small party of the enemy succeeded in entering one of our advanced trenches, but was quickly ejected, leaving behind one badly wounded man.

"On June 15th all our batteries combined in a bombardment of German positions captured from us on June 2nd. The fire was continued until dusk and was resumed at midnight with increased intensity. At one o'clock in the morning of June 16th an attack was delivered by our infantry.

"On our left, the Western Ontario Battalion bombed its way up to our original line, although encountering considerable opposition, while two of our Scottish battalions and a Toronto battalion, in a magnificent advance, pushed rapidly forward until they had recaptured the whole of the high ground known as Mount Sorrel and Observatory Ridge. About 150 wounded Germans, including three officers, were taken prisoners.

"Assisted by our supporting battalions, our troops entrenched themselves on the approximate line of our original front trenches, which had been almost obliterated by the German bombardment of June 2nd. The length of the front recaptured was over 1,500 yards. Several attempts at counter-attacks by the German infantry were frustrated by our artillery fire.

ASSEMBLY CONCLUDES SESSIONS

Scarcely Quorum Present at Final Session—Rev. Dr. Frazer New Head of Montreal College.

Winnipeg, June 16.—There was barely a quorum present when the General Assembly resumed business this morning.

Rev. W. T. Wilkins, of Trenton, Ont., reporting to the committee on travelling expenses, said the assembly this year cost $15,240 for travelling expenses and administration. The attendance was the largest on record, there being 539 commissioners present, out of a possible 612. It was estimated the assembly meeting in Montreal would cost $12,000.

The question of Oriental immigration was raised by overtures from the Presbytery of Victoria and the Synod of British Columbia.

It was pointed out there were a large number of Hindus living in that province, and there had been some moral degradation owing to the fact that they were not able to bring in their wives and children.

The question was referred to the Home Mission Committee.

All the colleges of the church reported through special committees, and various recommendations were adopted. Attention was called to the appointment of a new principal of Montreal College, where Rev. Dr. J. C. Frazer succeeds the late Principal Scribner.

The assembly concluded its work at noon.

DUKE OF CONNAUGHT TO INSPECT ARTILLERY CAMP AT PETAWAWA

Ottawa, June 16.—His Royal Highness, the Duke of Connaught, will leave on Sunday evening for Niagara and on Monday will inspect the Niagara frontier force and the troops in camp.

Their Royal Highnesses, the Duke and Duchess of Connaught, and the Princess Patricia, are leaving on June 16 for the west.

Their stop will be at Petawawa, where the Duke will inspect the artillery camp. After stopping at Kemora camp they will arrive at Winnipeg on the 29th and will spend the evening there, reaching Camp Hughes on June 30, when His Royal Highness will inspect the camp and attend the field exercises. The party will arrive at Banff on July 7 and will spend some days there, after which going to Vancouver, where they will arrive on July 19.

A week will be spent at Victoria and the royal party will start on their home ward trip on July 27, reaching the capital again on August 2.

IMMINENT DOOM FOR THE KAISER

Plans to Escape from Revolution—Secret Passages and an Island Stronghold.

New York, June 15.—The inevitable deposition of the Kaiser and the precautions he has taken to ensure his personal safety in view of a popular revolution in Berlin are disclosed in a remarkable "Herald" article by Mr. F. Cunliffe-Owen.

The writer, until the outbreak of war, was a personal friend of the Kaiser, and owing to his acquaintance with eminent German-American financiers and others is closely in touch with the real conditions in Germany.

The Kaiser's failure to bring the present war to a successful issue means the disappearance of the Hohenzollerns from among the reigning houses of the Old World, he writes.

Neither in the Seven Years' War, nor yet in the beginning of the nineteenth century, when the First Napoleon laid so heavy a hand upon Prussia, were the people confronted by such appalling ruin as that which now stares them in the face.

National Ruin.

The German people are heartily sick of the war. Popular sentiment is in favor of its speedy termination, no matter at what cost. That intense aversion from any further continuance of the struggle prevails throughout the minor sovereign states of the German Empire, as well as in Austria, Hungary, Turkey, Bulgaria, and even Prussia, is an acknowledged fact.

All the confidence that prevailed in Germany in the ultimate victory of her cause and in the inevitability of her army has disappeared. The most cherished illusions of the people in this connection—illusions in which they have been reared from infancy—have reached the conclusion that any further struggle is hopeless, and that in the circumstances the only thing to be done is to secure an early peace on the least onerous terms.

Germany is face to face with the prospect not only of receiving no indemnities from the hostile Powers, but even of being called upon herself to pay overwhelming indemnities.

That she will be called upon to do so is not a matter of doubt. The expenditure already incurred by the Imperial Government in connection with the war is of such altogether phenomenal size that the revenues, even in the most prosperous years prior to the present conflict, would not be sufficient to meet the obligations. When one considers that even in the years immediately preceding the war the financial condition of the Imperial Treasury was already a source of profound anxiety to the Government, that the annual taxation had to be increased to an absolutely crushing amount, and that in 1913 the Government was obliged to have recourse to the extraordinary measure of imposing a heavy and graduated special levy on all capital and property, some notion may be obtained of the economic crisis that face the Kaiser and his Government.

Fear of Revolt.

Moreover, since the State has mobilized all specie—raw materials, industrial, and commercial securities, and even all feminine jewellery and silver plate, and since most industries are at a standstill, every foreign market being closed, there is nothing of any real value left among the people with which to pay the taxes.

That means bankruptcy, repudiation of the domestic war debt, if not of the entire internal nation debt, economic chaos, and consequent revolution. There is no escape from this, and since the longer the war continues the worse the ultimate ruin will become, the German people and their allies are eager for an immediate cessation of hostilities.

All are anxious to suspend further hostilities and to obtain the best terms possible from the enemy, and if the Berlin Government persists in continuing the struggle we are likely to witness in the very near future a secession from the Central Power alliance not only of Austria, Hungary, Turkey, and Bulgaria, but even of the southern States of the German Empire, each endeavoring to obtain an independent peace on the least onerous terms.

Nowhere in Prussia—in fact, nowhere in Germany—is the Kaiser the object of more profound resentment than in Berlin. He has for the last twenty-five years been so convinced

No Slackening of The Blocade, Decision of Conference in Paris

Conclusions Reached, However, Which Will Remove Misconceptions on Part of Neutrals—Entente Absolutely Agreed on Policy.

London, June 16.—As a result of the discussion of the blockade at the recent allied convention in Paris, conclusions were reached which will remove many misconceptions on the present neutrals, according to Lord Robert Cecil, minister of war trade, who attended the conference as British representative. What these conclusions were Lord Robert would not state, but he asserted the blockade would work better as a result of the conference. Asked if there would be a tightening of the blockade, Lord Robert paused for a long time before answering. Then he replied, with a laugh:

"There will be no slackening."

Further than that he would not commit himself. He said the main object of his going to Paris was to make sure that the Allies should agree absolutely as to the blockade policy. There was little to be done to achieve this he declared, and both governments, the British and French, were completely agreed as to what should be done. The conclusions reached, he added, would cause any change in the methods of blockade, but would make the stand of the Allies a strong one through the removal of misconceptions.

Lord Robert reiterated that the Allies did not wish to interfere with neutral trade, except such as was to the benefit of hostile countries.

GRASS CROP IN ONTARIO AND QUEBEC LIKELY TO BE RECORD ONE

Special to The Standard.

Ottawa, Ont., June 16.—In spite of the apparently unending rain, Hon. Martin Burrell, minister of agriculture, sees the silver lining of the clouds. While there has been delay in getting in grain crops in Ontario and Quebec, he thinks there is no cause at all for pessimism. What is the big crop in the prairie provinces but grass for pasture and for hay is the most valuable crop in Ontario and Quebec.

Mr. Burrell points out that this is the crop that is mainly responsible for our big dairy output and to a considerable extent for our beef. In addition to the large area of pasture grass about three and a quarter million acres of grass to produce hay which in 1915 was worth about $50,000,000. If to this is added the value of pasture grass it will be seen that this is the crop that mainly determines the value of the farm production. With the present high prices for butter, cheese, beef and hay, grass is the controlling factor in Ontario and Quebec agriculture. The abnormal precipitation of the past six weeks has given these provinces a growth of grass that promises to establish a record. People are apt to overlook the fact that in a mixed farming province abundance of rain is preferable to too little. With clearing weather farmers may yet adapt their grain growing to suit conditions. In place of oats there will probably be an increased acreage of buckwheat, millet and barley. Department officials report good growing conditions in the prairie provinces and exceptionally the prospects in the Maritime Provinces.

"HYPOCRITES" OPENS THE WEEK AT THE OPERA HOUSE

Allegorical Masterpiece Depicting the Search for Truth Said to be Wonderful Example of Modern Photography.

The latest Bosworth release, "Hypocrites," is a photo-drama written and produced by Lola Weber. Through the dramatic incidents of the play is wrought on a remarkable allegory, depicting the search for truth by one consecrated to the task, and the revelation of the real nature of the characters of the story as Truth shows them in her magic mirror. A brief prologue opens the play, showing the rage of the people in olden times as a monk endeavors to present to them his idea of truth. In modern times the same people, their hypocritical natures unchanged, treat with the same contumely, the leader who tries to show them the truth. For dramatic force and artistry this is one of the most remarkable films ever exhibited. Courtenay Foote, the well known English actor, Myrtle Stedman, Adele Farrington and Herbert Standish, are in the cast. Margaret Edwards, said to be the most perfectly formed woman on the stage, plays the striking role of Truth, a spirit.

"Hypocrites" is a wonderfully beautiful example of modern photography. It will be shown at the Opera House Monday, Tuesday and Wednesday.

Why one should be careful

Semi-ready Tailoring

Because so many Dealers use and abuse the name "Semi-ready" we emphasize the fact that the name is not an adjective but a registered trade mark.

That Semi-ready Tailoring is made only by the Semi-ready Company, and sold only where the sign "Semi-ready" appears prominently in the store.

That every Semi-ready Suit has its trade mark and the price sewn on the inside pocket of the garment.

"Semi-ready" is not a descriptive adjective—it is a trade name.

Herein are Related Facts and Fancies Concerning the Activities of Individuals and Organizations, the Home, Fashions and Other Matters.

SATURDAY'S POEM.

The Reason,
A magic melting of the last light snow—
A thousand thankful things begin to grow.
Across the fields, the maiden breezes blow,
And on them, wing the birds from southward ho!
The trickling streams a-down the hillsides flow,
The dainty violet we all love so,
In silvan silence condescends to show,
It's modest face. The whole earth here below
In vernal grace and glory is alow Come! let us all make merry for we know
The Spring.

A lazy lonesome cloud floats listlessly
Across a sky of azure, o'er the sea.
A soft gentle breeze sighs to me,
A leafy whispering in the maple tree
Is mingled with the robin's melody.
The babbling brooklets dance again
in glee,
And everywhere, as far as one can see
Gay flowers bloom, in vast variety, While round them flit the butterfly and bee.
Yes, all the world is fair as it can be,
A vivid sun glides the dying day,
A cool refreshing breeze wafts o'er the bay,
Above my head the maple leaves are gay
In flaming scarlet and bright gold array,
A tawny robin trills farewell lay
On hickory near, where daisies used to sway,
Bloom goldenrod, each like a sunlit
ray,
A bounteous harvest has been stored away,
And now upon a well-earned holiday
A thankful people meet to praise and prate
This Autumn.

The rising sun with rosy beams of light Leaps up upon a glorious gleaming height
For softly in the stillness of the night Snow-fakes came fluttering down on vale and height,
And now the worlds arched in glittering white,
The house-tops, hills and dells are covered quite,
The branches of the trees, once bare and slight
Are shining too, with neat caps tucked on tight,
Last season's burrs look sweet enough
to bite,
Oh! welcome downy snow, is pure, so bright,
This Winter.

Pass Home Nursing Course.

The work of the St. John Ambulance, as carried out in St. John, is very successful. This is especially true of the various nursing and first aid classes which are receiving instruction.

In a recent report, Miss Lillian Hazen, the secretary, referred to the interest in the first aid instruction, which is very thorough and which in the case of the home nursing class has aroused great interest among the women throughout the province, who are anxious to qualify as assistant nurses, if necessary, and who in any event will approach the care of those within the home more intelligently.

The course includes hygiene, care of the sick room, elementary care of the sick, diet, knowledge of what to do in contagious and infectious diseases, and so on. A large number attended this class.

The following names are in the recent pass lists of the home nursing classes, a number of whom made unusually high marks: Miss M. de Sores, Miss Mary MacLaren, Miss Edith Cummings, Miss Nettie Bridges, Miss
Marion Magee, Miss Kathleen Sturdee, Miss Estelle Payson, Miss Maude Mar-
gee, Miss Mand Golding, Miss Emily

How They Cooked in Shakespeare's Day.

Birds like swans and peacocks served with their feathers on, fish seethed in wine, puddings, pastries and dumplings, these are some of the viands we read of in Richard II's time.

Take for example, these recipes, typical of the rest, and quite sufficient to make us understand why the soldiers and buccanniers of the "Virgin Queen" were so universally victorious: for surely men that assimilate these dishes could triumph over anything on the department.

Conger in sauce—Take the conger, and scald him, and smite him well in pieces, and seethe him. Take parsley, mint, pellitory, rosemary, sage, bread saut, a little garlic, and of cloves a little. Take it and grind it well.

Strain it in vinegar through a cloth.
Cast the fish in a vessel, add the liquor and serve it forth.

"Tartee"—Take balled pork. Hew it and pound it, and add thereto eggs, raisins, sugar, powder of ginger, white grease and small birds there among.
Take prunes, saffron and salt, and make a crust in a dish; put the mixture therein, bake it well and serve it forth.

The Lady's Slipper.
Where Gosselle drooped her shoe
'Tis said in fairy tales of yore
'Twas first the Lad's slipper grew
And ever since in woodland bays
It marks where spring retreating flew,
Where speeding on her eager way
She left behind her dainty shoe.

Women Can Help By Thrift and Economy.

The Department of Agriculture at Ottawa is doing its best to interest both men and women in thrift and economy. As they say:

"Thrift will help us to win the war and the lessons we are receiving in thrift will do no harm when the war is over. Thrift means system under which all can thrive."

Since half the cost of living is the cost of food, the many suggestions offered in the book, "Production and Thrift," recently brought out by the Department of Agriculture, is of distinct value to every housewife and it would be an excellent idea if every woman would possess herself of one of the books which can be had by writing to the department.

Here are a very few of their suggestions:

1. When the importance of a food in relation to human welfare is borne in mind, it is pitiful when we consider how little sensible thought is given to the subject, and how many women, particularly in cities, are brought up without any real knowledge of this important office, and sometimes actually to despise a knowledge of domestic affairs.

What Makes the Food Bill Large?
Very often the food bill of a household is excessive for the following reasons:

1. Poor cooking. This sometimes results in the waste of about one-third of the food used. Under this heading may be included badly constructed ovens, and lack of knowledge as to the temperature at which food should be cooked. Generally too much heat is used.

2. Loss through cooking excessive quantities.

3. Buying materials that are of small nutritive value.

4. Buying foods that are out of season, and consequently high-priced.
Select native products.

5. Buying materials that are of small nutritive value.

New Lamp and Candle Shades.
The fan for painted shades has extended to large lamp and smaller candle shades, which are painted a solid color and decorated with gay flowers; they make bright spots of color in the day time, but when lighted, throw only a circle of light down and a spot of light above, as they are not really practical shades. There is a new sort of Bristol board which is fairly translucent; this is painted black in such a way as to leave the figured and flowered pattern white and translucent when lighted, and blank white in the daylight. Some people are lining the shades with colored silks, so that the figures in the pattern are delicately intended when the lamp is lighted.

Must Count on Woman's Energy.
"The decision of national issues will be (after the war) in the hands of women as well as men," says Principal Gilbert Slater of Husk College, Oxford, in his book, "War and Peace in Europe." "For, while the advance of woman towards political power has in the past been slow in the extreme, it has been irresistible and steadily accelerating. The war itself has made this fact plain to the supreme

S. Rankin Drew is Youngest Director in Continuous Employment with Imperial. Director for "The Suspect," a new Vitaphone Blue Ribbon, released on Monday, May 22, is the youngest director regularly employed in the direction of motion pictures in the country.

A nephew of John Drew and son of Sidney Drew, S. Rankin Drew comes legitimately by his extraordinary ability in the dramatic field. Not only an actor and a director, Mr. Drew is a playwright and scenarist as well, and has been the successful author of several productions in both classes of dramatic writing.

"Mr. Drew plays
the part of Paul Karatoff, son of Karatoff, the military governor of Moscow.
Being wounded, he is nursed by Sophie, the daughter of a nihilist, who falls in love with him and whom he marries."

"The Purple Lady," a five-part Metro-Rolle production in which Ralph Herz is starred and Irene Howley is featured, will be released on the Metro program June 26. This play, which will introduce Mr. Herz to the silent drama, is a picture of the play of the same name by Sydney Rosenfeld. "The Purple Lady" was produced under the direction of George Looney, who recently joined the Metro directing forces.

The exterior scenes representing Italy in "A Woman's Honor," the Fox play, were filmed in Cuba.

Mae Murray, the Lasky star, is visiting New York on her vacation. Miss Murray's third Lasky picture, "The Dream Girl," is soon to be released.
Cecil DeMille directed it, from a story
by Jeanie MacLaren.

Joe Collins, now starring in William Fox pictures, is the daughter of Lottie Collins, the singer who composed and made famous the song, "Tara-ra-boom-de-ay."

COULD NOT BEND DOWN
COULD NOT WALK STRAIGHT BACK WAS SO BAD.
The bad back comes from the kidneys, and unless the kidneys are carefully watched and properly nursed, many serious troubles may follow.

Doan's Kidney Pills will cure all forms of kidney trouble, and cure the kidneys so that they will stay cured.

Mr. J. A. Lubinicki, Dauphin, Man., writes: "It is my pleasure to write you in regard to Doan's Kidney Pills which I have been using for some time for kidney trouble, which used to affect my back so that at times I could not bend down nor could I walk straight. I learned about your pills from your adman-and I bless the happy hour I thought of buying this medicine. One time a druggist persuaded me to buy—Kidney Pills, saying they were just as good, in fact he guaranteed they were.
I yielded to his advice, and what was the result? I had bearing down pains in my back for two days, so I took the balance of the pills, and the druggist told him to give me Doan's Kidney Pills as they would stop the pain in twelve hours at the outside. He told me he was sorry I did not use more of the pills, and lengthen the time to await results. I told him there was no need of waiting with Doan's Pills; they go right to the spot. No substitute for me."
Doan's Kidney Pills are 50c per box,
3 boxes for $1.25. See that our trade mark, "The Maple Leaf," is printed on both the label and wrapper.
Doan's are manufactured only by The T. Millburn Co., Limited, Toronto, Ont.

A new tax on moving pictures has been ordered by the city council.

Lionel Belmore is the latest to give up "picture work," as it is called. He was for years with Sir Henry Irving as stage manager. He has now returned from the movies to re-enter the profession and stay there. He will be with James T. Powers in Mark Swan's new play.

Charles Craig, a Fox player, more than six feet tall, finds that height is not an asset in playing military pictures especially when he has to pass part of his time beneath a tent roof.
He never realized before that tents are built so low.

Moore is Re-engaged by the Famous Players Film Company.

Owen Moore has been re-engaged by the Famous Players Film Company, under a long term contract, and will shortly be co-starred with Hazel Dawn, in an adaptation of a stage success on the Paramount Program, the title of which will be shortly announced. Mr. Moore, who has been a popular figure on the screen ever since the pioneer days of the motion picture and has been identified with several notable productions, has just completed a successful engagement with the Triangle Film Corporation.

In his previous connection with the Famous Players Mr. Moore appeared in support of Mary Pickford, and played opposite her, in the first photoplay in which she was starred by that company, "Caprice," as well as in several subsequent successful pictures. Their joint appearance under the Famous Players banner marked the first reunion of Miss Pickford and Mr. Moore since the old Imp and Bio-graph days when they first appeared together.

This is the first time that Miss Dawn and Mr. Moore have been associated together on the screen and it is confidently expected by the producers that the combination will be a happy one.

Miss Anglin a Frohman Star.
Margaret Anglin has entered into an agreement with A.H. Hayman whereby she will appear under the management of Charles Frohman company next season. She will probably be seen in a new comedy by W. Somerset Maugham, entitled "Caroline."

Pauline Frederick on the Art of Dressing the Hair.
The beautiful Famous Player star has a varied collection of wigs, which she uses in the widely different roles that she is called upon to portray in her motion picture work.

"What color hair do you wish this morning, madame?"
No, it is not an echo of the recent effort to introduce the fad of wearing pink, green and blue wigs. It is merely Pauline Frederick's maid questioning her with the customary greeting as she enters her dressing room at the Famous Players studio to make up for the day's stunt before the camera.

It is so much easier for an actress who plays a great many roles to wear different wigs rather than attempt to only resort to the practice where it suits the respective characters that Miss Frederick conceived the idea of purchasing several wigs of different shades, ranging from pure white to deep black. These are kept in her dressing room and are arranged by her maid to suit the particular character which she is playing on any given day.

It so happens that in two of her more recent photo-plays the star has played widely different roles, within the same production. In "The Moment Before" it was an adaptation of Israel Zangwill's play of the same name, she appeared as the white-haired duchess and as the wild gypsy.

"Look Out for Emily."
A. H. Woods has acquired the American rights to a French musical farce called in its translated title "Look Out for Emily." The piece ran for two years in Paris.

News Of The St. John Theatres Told In The Right Way

Who's Who and What's What in the Picture Game and on the Stage—Film Favorites and What They Say and Do.

May Robson as "Grammum."
Flora Finch as her daughter, "Mrs. Haslem."
Hughie Mack as "Jed Dorgan."
Two gay lively boys, two pretty girls, a deacon and his "too good-to-be-true" son, and don't you miss seeing "A Night Out." We would advise everyone to see this picture if possible.

"Grammum" was one of those unfortunate who are made to toe the line of rigid conservatism and to over-subdue their spirits during youth, often, when old age arrives, leap from the fetters of self-restraint and proceed to make up for lost time in enjoying the pleasures of life.

The part is well suited to Miss Robson and neither the spontaneous vivacity nor the idiosyncrasy of the elderly woman are lacking. Neither is the role the least overdone.

Flora Finch is delightful, as natural as life in her loving tryst over her mother. Others in the cast, all good, are Eva Taylor, the dancer; Jack Jack Story; Paul, Arthur Cosine, and George Cooper give a unique interpretation of the Goody boy Wald. This is one of the best comedies we have seen and abounds in humorous touches. The breakfast scene of the "morning after," I think was, perhaps,
the very funniest.

The director, who knows much of the demands of comedy, and deserves the open abundance in humorous touches. The breakfast scene of the
"morning after," I think was, perhaps,
the very funniest.

"An embarrassment of riches" surely describes the Imperial programme, three pictures, a new comedy, a new serial and an old friend. Peg o' the Ring is interesting from the very start. Frances Ford and George are great favorites in the cast, and the story is to be exciting certainly, as there are plenty of thrills in this opening chapter. The pictures shown of the circus, from the same series, are long and interesting, and to kids longing for a new show, and people actually seeing the big show, with acrobats, leopards and trained dog are all exceedingly entertaining spots in the main story.

It so happens that in two of her
more recent photo-plays the star has played widely different roles, within
the same production. In "The Moment Before" it was an adaptation
of Israel Zangwill's play of the same name, she appeared as the white-
haired duchess and as the wild gypsy.

"It's Davy," was heard all over the Imperial as the Veiled Lady unveiled

Com. Fisher Negotiating with Property Owners who Wish to Pay Half Cost to Have Concrete in Places Being Pe-paired.

The city council meeting was held yesterday at noon in order that the members might be free in the afternoon to attend the funeral of T. W.
Morrison, chief clerk in the public works department. The mayor presided and all the members were present.
Several matters were disposed of, and the draft of a proposed by-law relating to the erection of gasoline stands at the curb was placed before the council.

On the recommendation of the commissioner of finance the present manage and moving picture licenses were abolished and a special tax of thirty cents a seat, up to 1,000 seats, and fifty cents for each additional seat per annum, payable quarterly, was approved.

His recommendation for monthly payments of $3,000 by the chamberlain for the city's proportion of the municipal patriotic grant for the payment of $10 to L. W. Simms, interest on city debtors for which coupon has been lost; for expenditures to provide a good send-off to the 116th and 140th
Battalions and the Carleton Cornet Band, now in the 104th, and also a grant of $200 for the European Veterans' Association, adopted.

The bill providing for the change in the theatre tax was given its first and second readings. Com. Fisher protested against both readings at the same session, but, after some explanations by Com. McLellan, he withdrew his opposition.

The commissioner of public safety's recommendations that the action of the committee in authorizing the payment of $450 to J. M. Belyea for repairing the west side fire station, and the award of coal contracts, as already published, be confirmed, were adopted.

Paving for Market Streets.
Commissioner McLellan's recommendation that North and South Market streets be paved with concrete, the money to be loaned by the city and repaid out of the market surplus within three years was adopted. Commissioner Fisher objected as he thought the principle was a bad one.
He suggested that as South Market street was in fairly good shape, North Market street be paved this year, and let the other wait. His view, however, was not adopted.

On motion of Com. Wigmore, a case of a house on the city property at Loch Lomond to Alex. H. Campbell, he to make repairs, was authorized.

The recommendation of Com. Fisher that the claim of Thomas Drycott for $70 for part of expense arising from his wife's fall on an icy sidewalk, be granted, was adopted.

A by-law permitting the erection of gasoline stands for the sale of gasoline on the sidewalk subject to conditions which might be imposed by the council from time to time was given its first reading.

CONCRETE SPEAKERS IN MAIN STREET

Fisher that the claim of Thomas Draycott for $70 for part of expense arising from his wife's fall on an icy sidewalk, be granted, was adopted.

A by-law permitting the erection of certain stands for the sale of gasoline on the sidewalk subject to conditions which might be imposed by the council from time to time was given its first reading. The commissioner of public works reported that he was negotiating with property owners in Main street who wish to contribute half the cost if the city will lay concrete sidewalks in a place where repairs are being made.

The commissioner also drew attention to the need of repairs to the granite block pavement in Dock street, owner to faulty foundation and the sinking of the street in a place where a water main was laid. Commissioner Wigmore said that he had been watching the places where repairs are being made and, so far as he could see, there was not a particle of concrete from Market Square to Pond street, where there was supposed to be a three inch concrete foundation.

The commissioner of public works was given authority to spend $1,000 in making the necessary repairs on a stretch of 200 yards. Asphalt Mixer. Com. Fisher was authorized to purchase an asphalt mixer for $445, to be Buffalo, or $600 laid down in St. John. The N. B. Telephone Company was given permission to erect a pole in Main street. VALUATION IS INCREASED BY $2,243,200

Chairman of Board of Assessors Presents Report to Council—Assessment Rate $1.95.

E. Murray Olive, chairman of the Board of Assessors, presented the following report to the meeting of the City Council held yesterday at noon: "I beg to report having filed the assessment for the year 1916 in the Common Clerk's office this date, the assessable rate being $1.95. "The total increase in valuation over the previous year amounts to $2,243,200 and this is made up as follows:

	1915	1916
Land	$ 7,221,900	$ 7,356,200
Buildings	13,097,100	13,969,700
Personal estate	10,794,600	11,607,600
Income	5,253,600	5,678,600
Total	$36,367,200	$38,400,400
Increase		$ 2,243,200

"The total taxes amounts to $856,091.94, of which $30,243 is poll tax, $188,208.96 for county purposes, $576,781.41 for city purposes and $39,758.57 a special tax for patriotic purposes, which is fixed by an additional five per cent, added to the face of each bill. "The polls number 11,417, a decrease from the previous year of 183, and the non-polls are 3,188, an increase of 99 over the previous year. "I hope in the near future to be able to submit for your approval several changes which I shall recommend to improve the system and general working of this office."

FIRST SECRET SESSION OF THE FRENCH CHAMBER

Discussion of Questions Concerning Conduct of War, Especially Early Stages of Verdun Defence.

Paris, June 16.—For the first time during the course of the war the Chamber of Deputies this afternoon went into secret session, after a vote for the holding of such sittings had been passed, 412 to 138. The purpose of the secret sessions is the discussion of a number of interpellations concerning the conduct of the war, particularly the defensive measures taken at the beginning of the Verdun battle. It is expected that the secret procedure will continue for several days.

ROOM FOR 350 MORE CARS AT WEST ST. JOHN

C.P.R. Planning Busy Summer Adding to Facilities For Handling the Ever Increasing Traffic at This Port.

The C. P. R. are planning a busy summer at West St. John, preparing greater facilities for the next winter season. H. C. Groat, general superintendent, said that they would employ all the men they could get this summer, as they have a very extensive program mapped out. New sidings will be put in between St. John and Montreal, two of the more important bridges between St. John and McAdam will be repaired and strengthened, in order that larger locomotives may be used and heavier trains hauled over them. All the rails on the West Side will be taken up and replaced with heavier ones, a new track will be laid from the Bay Shore yards to the docks, giving them three main tracks from the yards to the docks, which will enable them to handle considerably more traffic in the same time. They intend to build switches and tracks to accommodate 350 additional cars at West St. John and as soon as the fall is made to Nov. 16, will lay tracks there, making that berth available for steamers this coming winter.

Another extensive undertaking that is to be carried out this season is the putting in of a large fresh water tank, of 20,000 gallon capacity, to feed the motors which in turn operate the elevators, and a salt water pumping plant for fire protection. There is a small tank on the site now near the elevator, but it has the drawback of being insufficient to keep the plant going long in case the city supply should be cut off. The new tank will run the motors for thirty-six hours continuously.

A "Cravenette" Regd. Coat is really two coats in one. It is absolutely showerproof for damp, rainy days. It is a comfortable, stylish coat for every-day wear. The fact that the "Cravenette" Regd. process makes the coat showerproof, renders the garment doubly useful. Whether you buy "Cravenette" Regd. Coats, Suits and Shirts ready to wear—or purchase cloth by the yard—always see that "Cravenette" Regd. Trade-mark is on every garment and on every yard of cloth. The Chandler Leads in Price and Style and Certainty of Service

NEVER before has the Chandler leadership been so obvious to so many people as it is now, at the height of the 1916 season. At a time when so many cars are "marked up" a hundred dollars or more, the Chandler leads with the same low price established eighteen months ago. In the midst of a horde of new types and styles of engines, "The Marvelous Motor" leads in certainty of service. Built in the Chandler factory ever since the first Chandler car was marketed this famous motor,—refined, more powerful, more flexible,—still leads most distinctly because free from any hint of experimentation or uncertain theory. And Chandler leads quite as clearly in beauty of body design, refinement of finish in every detail and luxury of upholstery. It is not surprising that many thousands of new owners have joined the Chandler ranks this year.

NEWS AND COMMENT FROM THE FINANCIAL WORLD

REACTION IN IRON TOWARDS CLOSE

Broke Sharply on a Single Transaction, but Regained Some.

GOOD DEMAND FOR DOMINION WAR-LOAN

Tendency of Prices to Harden Again in Evidence, but Failed to Develop Very Far.

Special to The Standard. Montreal, June 16.—The hardening tendency of prices which developed around the close of the local market yesterday afternoon was again in evidence when business was resumed today, but the disposition of the market to broaden did not develop very far.

The Steel Group was conspicuous in the early trading for strength and later some enquiry for Bridge was noted at 233 to 225 after having been inactive for some days.

A further fractional decline in Smelters to 39 1/2 was one of the most notable changes but elsewhere they were of little consequence.

Kova Goods Steel which rallied from 128 to 127 1/2 at the close yesterday, went back to 126. Steel of Canada opened at 63 to 62 1/2 and held at 63, while Iron was pegged at 67 1/2.

Ontario Steel was a strong feature at 40.

The late rally in Cement yesterday to 73 1/2 was maintained, the high of the afternoon being 72 1/2. The Power Group remained quiet at 240 to 240 1/2 for Power and 80 for Cedars.

There was an investment demand for Ogilvie Flour Mills which lifted the price from 131 to 133 compared with 129 to 130 a few days back, while the Dominion War Loan continued in good demand at the top figure.

A rally in Iron to 65, a further advance in Ogilvie to 136 from the forenoon opening at 131, and a firm market for Bridge at 235 to 236 were features of the afternoon dealings. Near the close Iron reacted sharply to 67 1/2 on a single transaction, an eloquent tribute to the shallowness of the market for those shares, momentarily at least. At the close it rallied to 67 1/2.

Showers changes were slight. Textile was easier at 81 1/2, Cement lost at 72 1/2 to 72, other features better: Steel of Canada, 62 1/2 to 62 1/2 to 63 1/2; Shawinigan, 133; Quebec Railway, 29 1/2; Steamships, 29; Scotia, 198; C. P. R., 106 1/2; Ames, 81 1/2; Smart Woods, 41; Waynamack, 67; Canada Steamships, 64, 86 1/2.

ATLANTIC SUGAR HAS ORDER FROM BRITISH GOVT

Sir. Thos. Tait Becomes Vice-President—Exceptionally Good Showing in Matter of Sales for Year.

Special to The Standard.

Montreal, June 16.—Murray E. Williams of Montreal was this morning elected a director of the Atlantic Sugar Refineries Limited, together with R. Jamieson of New York.

The office of vice-president formerly held by F. H. Anson, who retired during the year, has been filled by the appointment of Sir Thomas Tait. The board is now made up as follows: D. L. Vane McElhobon, president; Sir Thomas Tait, vice-president; S. H. Irving, Hon. Wallace Nesbitt, K. C., Toronto; Hon. C. P. Beaudin, K. C., Victoria; E. Mitchell, S. J. Leburny, William Mulock, jr., Toronto; M. E. Williams and R. Jamieson.

No financial statement was issued at the close of today's market, but it was stated that the report presented to the shareholders was a very satisfactory one, and that an exceptionally creditable showing had been made in the matter of sales for the year.

It was also announced that the company had just closed an order for 5,000 tons of sugar for the British government.

NEWS LETTER FROM MONTREAL EXCHANGE

Montreal, Q., June 16.—Today's market was almost a repetition of yesterday's. Stocks, on a decline, are well taken, and from what we see lately, the buying has been better than the selling. The Dom. War Loan was again in good demand. It shows a big investment demand at present. The province of Quebec sold $4,000,000 million five per cent. today at 99.20, which is the highest price any bonds have been purchased at since the war started. Dominion Bridge was strongest stock on our list. The earnings of some of the subsidiaries of the company are enormous, and the return they will get will more than pay their dividends this year, and probably for a few years to come. We are advised from Hamilton that the labor trouble there is likely to be settled. Americans have been taking a big interest in our market lately. And any weakness in the New York market is liable to affect us probably more than before. It looked like a bear drive in New York towards the close, but it did not affect us to any extent. A bond market like we are having today is generally a forerunner to a good investment stock market, and we believe it will come.

SHARP BREAK ON WALL ST. EXCHANGE

Standard Stocks Yield 1 to Almost 2 From Early Best.

RESULT OF ALARMING NEWS FROM MEXICO

Foreign Exchange More Active, Concurrent Advances in Sterling and Francs—Bonds Irregular.

New York, June 16.—For the first four hours of today's session the market was left largely to its own devices, with few noteworthy price changes, except for some irregularity in specialties. In the final hour reports of an alarming character regarding Mexican affairs precipitated a moderate but general selling movement, rails and other standard stocks yielding 1 to almost 2 points from their early best, with greater declines in various speculative issues.

Throughout the morning and during the stagnant intermediate session important stocks varied scarcely more than a point. Dealings were professional to an extraordinary degree, and the trading element evinced greater bearishness, largely as a result of the breach between the railway managers and their employees.

The railroad group, aside from Reading and Norfolk and Western, was unusually inactive, minor rails, chiefly Lake Erie and Western, and Western, Toledo, St. Louis and Western and Kansas and Texas preferred were elevated 1 to 2 points on small transactions, and Louisville, and Nashville made further favorable response to the resumption of the regular seven per cent. rate of dividend. American Beet Sugar was the leading specialty, scoring an early decline of over two points, which it soon recovered, but as promptly lost later.

Coppers and zinc shares, the latter selling ex-dividends, were subject to persistent pressure.

Crucible Steel featured the so-called war issues with a substantial gain, but fell back with the balance of the list. United States Steel followed its course of the past week by manifesting some early strength, which was soon dissipated.

Total sales amounted to 350,000 shares.

Foreign exchange was more active, with concurrent advances in sterling and francs, while marks eased a small fraction. More gold was received from Canada, bringing the total shipments from that quarter to about 57,000,000.

Bonds were irregular, with a falling off of yesterday's heavy offerings of Anglo-French 5's, that issue, however, remaining heavy.

Total sales amounted to 350,000 shares.

CLOSING LETTER OF N. Y. MARKET BY E. & C. RANDOLPH

(McDOUGALL & COWANS.)

New York, June 16.—The market continued dull up until shortly before the closing when prices went off rather sharply without any evident explanation for the downward turn. The German chancellor, in a speech in the Reichstag, again called attention to the fact that Germany was ready to make peace, but the claimant that her military position was now stronger than it was when he previously made tentative peace overtures. He referred to the German success at Verdun and the failure of the Russian offensive. The Allies' report on both these operations are diametrically opposite to the chancellor's statement, which would indicate that the German people are kept in ignorance to some extent at least of the truth of the military operations. There was no news regarding the Crucible meeting before the close of the market. Disappointment on this score might have accounted for the decline in that stock. Announcement was made of a fifty per cent. dividend on Packard Motor Co. common stock. The democratic platform received some attention but was about as expected. President Roosevelt's refusal to comment on it, and reiteration that he was out of politics, tended to kill the hope that he would come out strongly for Justice Hughes. The political situation will from now on be an increasing influence in the market. Sales 366,877. Bonds $2,654,000. E. & C. RANDOLPH.

CITY OF QUEBEC SELLS BONDS TO NEW YORK FIRM

Four Million of 5 per cent. Sold for 99.20—Balance of $10,000,000 Authorized in 1915.

Special to The Standard.

Montreal, June 16.—Announcement is now made that the Province of Quebec has sold to a New York syndicate headed by Messrs. J. P. Morgan & Co., $4,000,000 ten year 5 per cent. bonds at 99.20. The bonds are the balance of the $10,000,000 authorized by special act of the legislature in 1915, the same syndicate having purchased $6,000,000 in May, 1915, and are a direct obligation of the province, and are payable in gold in Quebec, Montreal or New York. This price compares favorably with the figures issued recently sold, $9,000,000 Alberta 10-year 5 per cent. bonds at 95.63; $2,000,000 City of Montreal 20-year 5 per cent. bonds at 98.87; $4,000,000 Province of Ontario 10-year 5 per cent. bonds at 100.25, but the amount involved was much smaller, and Nova Scotia's bonds were free from provincial, municipal and local taxes and succession duties, concessions which made them more valuable.

SOME QUESTIONS FOR THE TELEGRAPH.

The politicians opposed to the Provincial Government, who met in Fredericton the other day, went on record as declaring that the present administration should be turned out of office at the earliest opportunity. Naturally that would be the opinion of these gentlemen, as they are particularly interested in securing the overturn of the Clark Government in order that their friends may be in control of the provincial treasury. But the gentlemen who attended that convention cannot, of themselves, turn the Government out. That operation would require a majority of the voters of the province, and before such majority could be secured it would be necessary to present good reasons for a change.

Can the Telegraph or the Times, or any of the other newspapers that have been agitating for the defeat of the Government supply those reasons? They have not done so as yet. They lack the courage to discuss provincial affairs on their merits, and their agitation is solely due to their unquenchable desire to be placed in a position where the havoc perpetrated before 1908 can be repeated. In the hope that this may be brought about they indulge in deception and misrepresentation, but they should at least have the manliness to furnish reasons for the change they advocate. For what cause should the people give up the honest and progressive administration they now enjoy?

Do they want a change because after the gentlemen now in opposition, had passed out of power their successors introduced a businesslike system of bookkeeping and adopted the Audit Act, under which frauds such as were perpetrated by the old government became impossible?

Do the people want a change because the Territorial Revenue is not honestly collected, with the result that that revenue has been practically doubled, as compared with what it was in the old government's time?

Is there occasion for disapproval of the Government's action in ordering a survey and classification of the Crown Lands, in order that their full value may be ascertained and the Government may know what land is suitable and available for agricultural settlement?

Do the people disapprove of the Government's action in smashing the iniquitous school book ring, cutting the price of school books in half and thus conferring an inestimable benefit on parents and children in this province?

Do the people want a change because the Government appointed the Public Utilities Commission to protect them from the greed of the monopolists?

Will the young men of New Brunswick vote for a change because the Government inaugurated the system under which these young men can acquire farms for themselves by small yearly payments which they are able to earn as they work the farms themselves?

Do the workmen of the province want a change because the Government has enacted a law under which protection is given to these workmen, and by which they can obtain compensation to the fullest possible extent, and at as little trouble as possible for any injuries they may receive in the course of their employment?

Do the residents of the River Counties desire a change because the Government has built the Valley Railway, the completed portions of which have proved of such inestimable benefit to those living in the districts through which the railway runs?

Do they wish a change because, at a time of unparalleled financial stringency, the Government has succeeded in carrying this great enterprise to a point where its final completion is now well in sight?

Do the people desire a change because the Government refused to listen to the importunities of a section of the opposition which demanded that upwards of three million dollars be thrown away in carrying the railway across the River St. John instead of taking it by the original and the better route for all parties concerned except a few land speculators?

Do the people wish a change because the Government had the courage to deal with the liquor traffic, and by the passage of the Prohibition Act have enacted legislation that will put a stop to the abuse for which that traffic is responsible?

Does the Telegraph imagine for a moment that the people blame the Government for taking this step in the interests of the social, moral and business welfare of the province?

Does the Telegraph think that the Government is worthy of censure because when they found that one of the officials in the principal spending department of the administration was improperly trafficking with contractors seeking contracts from the Government, they promptly dismissed him?

Do the people censure the Government because, when the Government discovered that improprieties were appearing in the Department of Public Works, the resignation of the minister in charge of that Department was promptly asked for?

Do the people think that, with a record such as is thus outlined, the province is being so badly administered as the Telegraph and its friends are seeking to make out?

Does the Telegraph think that the people have entirely lost their appreciation of what is good and proper administration and will, for a moment, listen to inventions and misstatements it puts forward as reasons why its friends, who proved so wholly faithless in the past, should be given a similar opportunity?

The Telegraph and its associates in the Carter-Veniot-Blair combination must furnish more serious material than they have yet produced before they can expect that right thinking people who form the large majority of the electorate of this province will listen with any degree of patience to suggestions from a source so unreliable as the Telegraph has shown itself to be in the past.

It is said that the next number of the Liberal Monthly will have as a feature the first instalment of a thrilling serial entitled "Gum Shoe Frank in New York"—written by C. S. Rogers and F. B. Carvell in collaboration.

If Roosevelt's announcement that he is "out of politics" is to be taken seriously the Progressive Party may as well go out of business. "The Srenuous One" has been the "case and works" of that organization since its inception.

ST. JOHN CADETS SHOWED UP WELL

Inspector Black Well Pleased With Appearance and Proficiency of Juvenile "Soldiers."

Capt. H. R. Black, inspector of the cadet corps of the Maritime Provinces, inspected the High School, St. Luke's and St. Andrew's corps yesterday, and was very much pleased with the showing made.

Yesterday morning at 9:30 he proceeded to the High School, where the boys were drawn up under command of Color Sergt. Dooe. On his arrival the boys came to attention and gave the usual salute. They were then put through the usual drill under the company officers and section leaders. They were also put through some physical culture exercises by the inspector. The principal of the school was present and took a keen interest in the work.

At 6:30 last night the inspector went to St. Luke's school room, where he was met by Rev. P. P. McKim, and several members of the vestry. The corps was drawn up under command of Color Sergt. Dooe, and went through their work in a very efficient manner. The inspection was concluded about 7:30 and the inspector immediately repaired to St. Andrew's hall where the boys of St. Andrew's corps were awaiting him. On his arrival the work of inspection was begun at once, as the time was somewhat limited on account of the corps having to attend the memorial service in the church in honor of Earl Kitchener.

The inspector complimented the boys of the three corps very highly on their work, notwithstanding the fact that they had not the proper facilities, or armory accommodation to carry on their drill. He expressed the hope that now that New Brunswick had taken the lead in recommending through the school authorities to Ottawa, that some form of physical and military training be provided in the schools of the province, better armory accommodations would be provided for the cadet corps.

A passenger who arrived in the city on the C. P. R. express from Halifax Thursday afternoon tells of an incident which took place in the parlor car at Moncton which resulted in the negro porter of the car becoming up-

MORE ST. JOHN BOYS IN CASUALTY LIST

Leonard Craig of Fairville Killed in Action—D. A. Porter and R. A. Phillips Wounded.

Every day is adding its quota to the already long list of St. John families with members of the circle in the casualty list. Yesterday word was received that one had paid the supreme sacrifice while two others were wounded and are now in hospital.

Private Leonard Craig, son of Mrs. John E. Kireh, Prospect street, Fairville, was killed in action between June 2nd and 4th, while fighting in the ranks of the famous "Princess Pats." Official word came to his mother yesterday morning. The soldier boy, a lad of 18, was a native of Zionville, York county, and had lived there upwards of four years.

He worked for T. McAvity & Sons for a short time, and was visiting his grandfather at Zionville when he enlisted. He went to the front with Lieutenant-Colonel P. A. Guthrie and was a member of the 12th Battalion before his transfer to the "Princess Pats."

The lad was at Sussex camp in training when he was only 15 years of age. A brother Harold is a private in the 104th Battalion, and another brother, Thomas, and a sister, Beatrice live with their grandparents at Zionville.

Private D. A. Porter, son of W. Alex. Porter has received word that his nephew, Pte. D. Arthur Porter, a member of the 15th Battalion, received a gun shot wound in the neck on June 4, and has been admitted to No. 8 hospital at Wimereux, France. Private Porter is a son of David Porter, Hammond River, and is about 25 years of age. He resided in the west for some time, but previous to his enlistment was in St. John manager of the Sussex Milk Company.

Sapper R. F. Phillips, son of Mrs. Sadie Phillips, 37 Peters street, was admitted to No. 22 General Hospital on June 5, according to official advice to his mother. Sapper Phillips, who is 21 years of age, has been at the front since the first Campaign. He is suffering from wounds in the left arm and left thigh and in the chin.

Little Benny's Note Book

Mrs. Wilson came over to see me this afternoon, and she was talking to her in the parlor and telling her how Mr. Wilson came home for supper last night bringing 2 men with him who they didn't even have snuff to eat for themselves, and she said, "That one thing my husband never does, absolutely never. William never brings anybody home for meals without first telephoning to me and finding out if its all right."

Nonsent, all men do, sed Mrs. Wilson.
Dont Judge all men by your own husband, please. I want to have a pretty good nollidge of wat my husband does and wat he dussent do, sed ma.
Wich jest then pop came in, and who was with him but a fat man with a little red mustash, pop saying, Good evening, mother, howda do, Mrs. Wilson, mother, I've brast Mr. Blossom home for supper, Mr. Blossom meet my wife.

Charmed, howda do, howda do, sed Mr. Blossom.
And also Mrs. Wilson, a nayer of ours, sed pop.
Delited, howda do, sed Mr. Blossom.
How are you, hee hee, sed Mrs. Wilson.
I suppose therog plenty to eat in the house, my dear, sed pop.
O, serten, serten, jest make yourself rite at home, Mr. Blossom, sed ma.

Hee hee hee, sed Mr. Wilson.
My goodnie, Blossom, the ladies must have sum-joak that we are not on to, sed pop.
Looks that way, looks that way, sed Mr. Blossom.
Nonsent, theres no joak, how reedickilus, sed ma.

Hee hee, sed Mrs. Wilson, trying to stop laffing by sticking her handkerchiff in her mouth, and pop sed, Come on, mother, out with it, wats the big laff?
William dont be reedickilus, its jest a stilly way Mrs. Wilson has of acting, sed ma.

O thank you, thank you so much, sed Mrs. Wilson. And she got up mad and went home, and ma went out in the dining room to set a place for Mr. Blossom and we all went in and ate supper, Mr. Blossom having sutch a big appetite you couldnt tell whether he was so fat because he ate so much or whether he ate so much because he was so fat.

passengers in the car. This was not the finish, for the passengers in the car took such a dislike to the porter that when the train arrived in St. John not one of the number offered the porter a tip, and he not only became unpopular but he lost a few dollars by his actions.

Presentation To Lt. Gilmour.
Lieut. Gilmour, of 115th Battalion, was the recipient of a beautiful set of pipes and case, suitably engraved, yesterday afternoon. The presentation was made in the store of A. Gilmour on King street by E. J. Doherty on behalf of the employees of the firm. Lieut. Gilmour, although taken by surprise, made a most reply, thanking the staff for the kind remembrance.

The First Pictures and Full Text of Consecration Service At Seaside Park on Tuesday

The above picture shows Sir Sam Hughes presenting the King's colors to the 115th Battalion, Leont March kneeling was in the act of accepting the standard when the picture was taken. Lieut-Governor Wood can be seen standing directly under the Union Jack held by Mrs. Wetmore. Col. Wedderburn is the tall figure in the front wearing crepe armband. Other figures recognizable are Lance Corporal P. Colthurst wearing the surplice, Brigadier General McLean to the right of him, and Major Jones.

The consecration and presentation of colors to the 115th Battalion at Seaside Park on Tuesday will long be remembered by those whose privilege and pleasure it was to attend.

It is doubtful if the solemnity and sincerity of such a sacred ceremony ever appealed so strongly as it did on that hallowed field at Seaside.

Thousands bared their heads while Lance Corporal P. Colthurst read the form of service for the consecration of colors which was prepared by the Right Reverend the Bishop of Fredericton and is as follows:

Form of Service for the Consecration of the Colours by the Right Reverend the Bishop of Fredericton.

The choir will sing the following hymn, in which all present are requested to join:

Sir Sam Hughes At Seaside Park

Mrs. Travers, regent of the Brunswick Chapter, I. O. O. E., talking to Sir Sam after the presentation of band instruments to the 140th.

Christ have mercy upon us.
Lord have mercy upon us.

All present are requested to join audibly in saying the Lord's Prayer.

Our Father which art in heaven, Hallowed be thy Name. Thy kingdom come. Thy will be done on earth, as it is in heaven. Give us this day our daily bread. And forgive us our trespasses, as we forgive them that trespass against us. And lead us not into temptation; but deliver us from evil. For thine is the kingdom, the power, and the glory, For ever and ever. Amen.

Almighty and everlasting God, we are taught by Thy Holy Word, that the hearts of kings are in Thy rule and governance, and that Thou dost dispose and turn them as it seemeth best to Thy godly wisdom: We humbly beseech Thee so to dispose and govern the heart of George thy servant, our King Governor, that, in all his thoughts, words and works, he may ever seek Thy honour and glory, and study to preserve Thy people committed to his charge, in wealth, peace, and godliness: Grant this, O merciful Father, for thy dear Son's sake, Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

O God, the protector of all that trust in Thee, without whom nothing is strong, nothing is holy, increase and multiply upon us thy Mercy; that Thou being our Ruler and Guide, we may so pass through things temporal, that we finally lose not the things eternal: Grant this, O heavenly Father, for Jesus Christ's sake, our Lord. Amen.

Then shall the chaplain lay his hands upon the Colours, and say:

In the Name of the Father, and of the Son, and of the Holy Ghost, we do dedicate and set apart these Colours, that they may be a sign of our duty towards our King and Country in the sight of God. Amen.

O Lord, who rulest over all things, accept, we beseech Thee, our service this day. Bless what we have blessed in Thy Name. Let Thy gracious favour rest on those who shall follow the Colours now committed to their trust. Give them courage; and may their courage ever rest on their sure confidence in Thee. May they show self control in the hour of success, patience in time of adversity; and may their honour lie in seeking the honour and glory of Thy great name. May they walk worthily of the vocation to which they are called, in dependence on Thy blessed will, and mindful that without Thee they can do nothing. Guide the counsels of those who shall lead them, and sustain them by help in the time of need. Grant they may all so faithfully serve Thee in this life, that they fall not finally to obtain an entrance into Thy heavenly kingdom through the merits of Thy Blessed Son, Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

The Blessing.

The blessing of God Almighty, the Father, the Son, and the Holy Ghost, be amongst you and remain with you always. Amen.

KITCHENER MEMORIAL SERVICE PACKED ST. ANDREW'S CHURCH

Appropriate Drappings Added to the Solemnity of Impressive Function Held Last Evening—Mr. Justice McKeown Delivered Eloquent Address on Kitchener's Life and Work.

St. Andrew's church was crowded to the doors last night at the Kitchener memorial service, held under the auspices of the Evangelical Alliance. The church was draped in mourning and a picture of Earl Kitchener was hung on the organ and draped. The Union Jack was placed on the front of the pulpit and the rest of it was covered with black. Rev. F. H. Wentworth acted as chairman and representatives of the different denominations, headquarters staff, and the various military units quartered in the city sat on the platform.

The band of the 115th was present, detachments from the 115th and 140th and St. Andrew's Boys Cadets. The order of service was as follows: God Save the King and selection by the band of the 115th; invocation and Lord's Prayer in which the congregation joined, led by Rev. J. C. B. Appel; Scripture reading, Revelation 20:11 to 21:1, Rev. Gordon Dickie; prayer, Rev. W. H. Barraclough; offering hymn, "God moves in a mysterious way His wonders to perform;" address, Mr. Justice McKeown; hymn "Now the laborer's task is o'er;" benediction, Rev. R. J. Haughton; last post, bugler from the 140th.

Mr. Justice McKeown, who has a reputation as one of the ablest orators this part of Canada has produced, well sustained that reputation last night in his address to the memory of Earl Kitchener.

He said he could only undertake to give the barest outline of the life of the man they were met to mourn. For these reasons he was and lament. He had made a name for himself which would live as long as the Empire; yes, as long as history was written and read. He was known and loved in the British Isles, he was honored in our own beloved land, although he had never come in personal touch with us in Canada. But the place and portion of the Empire where he was best known and loved was the eastern portion of it. In India, that land of mystery, whose princes were sovereigns in their own right, where magnificence and splendor reigned, he had lived and moved the most magnificent and mysterious figure of them all. In South Africa, in the days of the reconstruction after the war, his was the central figure, and in dealing with him the Boer leaders caught a glimpse of the destiny of the Anglo-Saxon race.

But perhaps the place where he was best known of all was Egypt. At Omdurman he had broken forever the power of the Bedouin chiefs, and to this day the younger members of the tribe were quieted when they thought of breaking out of bounds by pointing to the edge of the desert, and the words "beyond that line rides Kitchener."

At the palace in Cairo the Khedive recognized Kitchener as his master and bowed to the will of the British Crown as represented by the Sirdar. He was recognized as the one man in that country of intrigue and falsehood, who always spoke the truth, and he wore all through his life the white flower of purity and truth. His main hold on the peoples of those eastern countries was the fact that he always dealt justly with them, told the truth, and never took a bribe. For these reasons he was and lament. He had made a name for himself which would live as long as he was called to the task of creating an army, he issued his call and it was answered from every part of our far-flung Empire. He knew that it would take a long time to create and train the army which would be needed for the task before it, but he undertook the task confident that it would be accomplished. The greatest mistake which was made by the German statesmen was their failure to understand the nature of the ties which knit the component parts of the British Empire together. They failed to understand that the policy of justice and truth which had been pursued by the British representatives in the outposts of the Empire, had inspired such confidence in them that when Kitchener issued his call those people of the East who knew him best rallied as one man to the standard, and the Germans found men from India, South Africa and all portions of the Empire facing them on the fields of Flanders. In this country the answers was to be expected for we were of the blood, but when the people of India and Africa, who were not of our blood, came there must be a reason, and that reason was found in the policy which had been inaugurated and carried out by such men as Kitchener.

The Empire builders of Britain had builded better than they knew, and the structure which they had labored so hard to rear was going to stand. Von Hindenburg has said that the Germans would win this war because they had greater nerve than the Allies. They forgot that there was a greater force than mere brute or nerve force which was exemplified in the proverb: "Lies is he armed that hath his quarrel just," and that power of spirit and conscience was on the side of Britain and her allies.

In conclusion he referred to the ancient Roman legend of a knight who threw himself into the Tiber when it had broken through the forum and threatened to overflow the city. The people of the city imagined that they had offended the Gods and they were going to punish them in this way, but the body of the knight stopped the flood, and the city was saved. Might we not adopt the legend and say that Britannia should always rule the waves so long as Kitchener's body lay within the ocean's depths.

Social Notes of the Week

By those fortunate enough to be present Tuesday afternoon will long be remembered by friends of the 140th and 15th Battalions and indeed thousands of citizens in general, the occasion being the military inspection of these units by Major General Sir Sam Hughes in the large field at Seaside Park just above the banks overlooking the beautiful blue waters of the sea. The scene most impressive, from the splendid soldierly appearance of the men below to the thousands of men, women and children who thronged the banks and points of vantage to witness this important event.

While awaiting the arrival of the Minister of Militia the people enjoyed at the different forms of amusement to be found on the grounds. The booths and stalls were kept busy during the entire day. Before the arrival of Sir Sam Hughes the 140th Battalion, under the command of Lieutenant Colonel J. O. D. E., with Mrs. Watmore bearing the standard. The battalion came to attention and to the music of the band the men presented arms and the minister returned the general salute. At this point, at the command of "quick march" the 15th Battalion, headed by Col. Wedderburn, marched into the field and took up their position to the left of the 140th Battalion and, coming to attention, gave the general salute which was returned by the Minister of Militia. The inspection of the units then took place after which the 140th formed a square to view the presentation of band instruments which was made to the battalion by the minister on behalf of the Daughters of the Empire. Mrs. J. B. Travers, the regent of the Brunswick Chapter, in a few well chosen words addressed the men and Col. Beer made a fitting reply for the kindness shown them. The 140th then marched up on the south side in military order and afterwards took up its position at the rear of the 15th.

The presentation of colors to the 15th then followed. The ceremony was particularly impressive. The drums of the bugle band were placed in a pyramid, leaning on either side were two standards bearing, one the King's colors, the other the regimental colors. Behind the drums stood Lieut. March and Lieut. Steeves who after the consecration by the Rev. P. Colthurst received the standards from the Minister of Militia while Lieut. Governor Wood read the address of presentation, which was followed by great cheering. Colonel Wedderburn replied briefly and thanked the ladies of the I. O. D. E. The battalion then marched past the saluting post in company column and after the salutes lined up in front of Major General Hughes and were addressed by him. After hearty cheers for Sir Sam three cheers were given Col. McLean and Lieut. Governor Wood.

The memorial service in honor of Earl Kitchener which was postponed from Tuesday took place in St. Andrew's church last evening at eight o'clock and was well attended.

Many friends in St. John were delighted to hear that Major Frank C. Magee is progressing favorably and that he will be moved to England for treatment as soon as he is able to travel.

Brigadier General McLean was host at luncheon at the Golf Club on Tuesday in honor of Major General Sir Sam Hughes. Those present were Major General Hughes, Lieut. Governor Wood, Major Hayes, Major General Powell, Lieut. Col. G. W. Fowler, Lieut. Colonel Wedderburn, Lieut. Colonel Beer, Lieut. Col. Bullock, Lieut. Col. Sturdee, Major Stetham, Major Jones, Captain Watmore, Capt. Coyne, Capt. Logan, Capt. Milley, Senator Thorne, Justice MacKeown, Judge Armstrong, Messrs. Foster, Fred. R. Taylor, W. H. MacKay, James F. Robertson, Stetson A. Ambrose and J. V. McLeellan.

Senator Thorne, Mr. George McAvity, Dr. Skinner and three Montreal gentlemen friends left on Thursday on a fishing trip to the Miramichi.

Mrs. J. L. McAvity and Mrs. F. J. G. Knowlton returned to St. John on Monday after spending three months in England. Col. McAvity has had an extension of his sick leave of thirty days and is expected to return to St. John and Mrs. Ronald McGowan in England. Lieut. Knowlton is convalescing in the hospital at Ramsgate.

Mr. and Mrs. John Sayre are being congratulated on the arrival of a little son at their home on Monday.

Mrs. Morrissy arrived home from England on Sunday last and received a warm welcome from her many friends.

Many guests from St. John attended the annual closing exercises at Netherwood, Robesay, on Thursday.

One of the most fashionable weddings of the season took place at St. Paul's (Valley) Church on Wednesday afternoon, when Miss Beatrice Muriel Gandy, daughter of Mrs. and the late Mr. Barton Gandy and Mr. George Freeman Rowe, of Bangor, Me., were united in marriage by Rev. Canon Daniel, assisted by Rev. H. G. Alder. The church was beautifully decorated for the occasion with white lilies, dahises and palms, and made a fitting background for the ceremony. At four o'clock the wedding party entered the church and was met at the altar by the vested choir which sang "The Voice of the Bridegroom." The groomsmen were Mr. H. Allison, and the ushers were Messrs. Dean and Arthur Gandy, Mr. Sidney Jones, Mr. Frank Gould, of Bangor. The bridesmaids were Miss Gladys Hegon and Miss Gwendoline Gandy and were crowned alike in becoming pink embroidered silk crepe de chene gowns with ribbons of pink satin piped with robin egg blue, the bodices trimmed with the finest of the material and at the throat treated lace. With these gowns were worn picture hats of pleated pink maline and pink crepe de chene with a single pink rose at the side. Shower bouquets of pink sweet peas completed these stylish costumes. After the bridesmaids came the bride, with her brother, Mr. Chester Gandy, who gave her in marriage, in a beautiful wedding dress of heavy white corded silk, with panel of beaded Brussels net on the skirt and beaded front in a bodice of the silk, with sleeves and neck of white Georgette crepe. The train fell from the shoulders and to complete this beautiful costume, a shower of white roses and lily of the valley was carried. During the ceremony "O, Perfect Love," was rendered by the choir with Mr. Percy Bourne at the organ and the conclusion Mendelssohn's Wedding March was rendered with splendid effect. After the service the guests drove to the residence of Mrs. Gandy on Wright street, and were received on the lawn by the wedding party and delicious refreshments were served. A happy incident occurred when from an upper window the bride tossed her bouquet which was divided for the occasion and given to the guests and the rose in which the lucky girl's ring had been concealed was caught by one of the bridesmaids, Mr. and Mrs. Rowe left for an extended wedding trip to Upper Canada cities and on their return will reside in Bangor. The bride's traveling suit was of navy taffeta with which was worn a white leghorn French hat of the poke bonnet shape, trimmed with a wreath of pink and blue forget-me-nots and navy blue velvet.

Among those noticed at the wedding were Mrs. Gandy, mother of the bride, in a becoming costume of black satin with sleeves and vest of beautiful chandilly lace over white silk, the bodice trimmed with white shadow lace, hat of purple maline trimmed with violets, white feather ruff and carried Killarney roses; Miss Rowe and Miss Ethel Rowe, sisters of the bride, the former in a modish gown of white embroidered net over white silk with bolero of purple taffeta, picture hat of white net and crepe de chene with wreath of beautiful purple pansies and the latter in a most becoming costume of forget-me-not blue taffeta with sleeves and yoke of white Georgette crepe, large hat of pink crepe de chene trimmed with plajans of pink satin, pink shoes and stock hose. To complete this attractive costume a white fox fur was worn. Mrs. Howell of Bangor, black embroidered crepe de chene over white satin with touches of white thread lace on the bodice, purple violet toque and wrap of Paisley design. Mrs. Jones, Bangor, taffeta costume in Persian colors, grey feather ruff and black toque. Miss Harriet Jones, Bangor, navy blue silk, black lace hat trimmed with pink roses, grey ostrich ruff. Others present were Mrs. F. Allison, Mr. and Mrs. Robert Patterson, Mr. and Mrs. George B. Hegan, Miss Hegan, Mr. and Mrs. Ewing, Miss Ewing, Mrs. J. M. Ford, Miss Muriel Ford, Mrs. Russell Sturdee, Miss Sturdee, Mrs. George Kimball, Mrs. Kimball, Mrs. Gordon Sandoz, Miss Phillips, Mr. and Mrs. Fred. Daniel, Canon and Mrs. Daniel, the Misses Schofield, Mrs. McDermid, the Misses McDermid, Miss Penney, Miss de Soyres, Mrs. F. de Forest, Miss Keeler, Mrs. Frank Young, Mrs. Wm. MacLauchlan, Mrs. R. MacKenzie, Miss MacKenzie, the Misses Jack, Miss Marjorie Lee and Miss Wright. Hearty wishes for the future of the hosts of friends in St. John follow Mrs. Rowe to her new home in Bangor.

Lieut. Col. Hay, reported missing this week in the official lists, has many warm friends in St. John who will anxiously await further news of his whereabouts.

Is the Empress Theatre, Amherst, on Sunday evening last Mr. S. C. Hurley delivered an interesting lecture on "The Price That Belgium Paid" under the auspices of The Daughters of the Empire. The proceeds for the Belgian Relief amounted to about $34.

A delightful bridge was given by Mrs. James F. Robertson, Robesay, on Wednesday afternoon for the purpose of raising money for Miss Joyce Wishart's hospital work in England. Many from the city valued themselves of the opportunity to enjoy the beautiful day in Robesay and at the same time to help such a worthy cause. Mrs. Robertson received in a becoming gown of blue silk and georgette crepe. The beautiful residence had been lavishly decorated for the occasion with white lilies and quantities of lily of the valley. Fifteen tables were formed and bridge enjoyed until the tea hour. In the dining room Mrs. Walter Truesman, in navy blue and grey striped silk crepe with sleeves of blue silk, navy blue hat trimmed with white velvet flowers, and Mrs. T. E. G. Armstrong, in blue and white silk with white hat trimmed with blue silk, presided at the prettily appointed tea table which also had for its decoration white lilies. The winners were won by Mrs. Stewart Skinner, Miss Gilbert and Miss Florrie Gilbert and by Mrs. Walter Harrison and Mrs. T. E. G. Armstrong large bouquets of white lilies were presented. In each case being the winners' anniversary. Among those present were Mrs. Keator, Mrs. Malcolm Mackay, Mrs. E. Atherton, Mrs. Smith, Mrs. Buby, Mrs. A. H. Hamilton, Mrs. R. T. Pughing, Mrs. F. E. Sayre, Mrs. Stewart Skinner, Mrs. A. C. Skeelton, Mrs. Richard Hooper, Mrs. Forbes White, Mrs. Hazen Grimmer, Mrs. C. B. Allan, Mrs. Fred Peters, Mrs. Leonard Taylor, Mrs. F. J. Jones, Mrs. H. B. McKean, Mrs. Daniel Mullin, Mrs. Payson, Mrs. Leonard Taylor, Mrs. Pugsley, Mrs. Simon Jones, Mrs. Harold Schofield, Mrs. Robert Thomson, Mrs. Wm. Allison, Mrs. Walter Harrison, Mrs. Rathwell, Miss Scammell, Miss McKean, Miss Jean Daniel, Miss McDermid, Mrs. K. Distover, Miss Brock. The proceeds amounted to about $65.

The Misses Miriam and Grace Hatheway are at present in England, having moved to their father, Mr. Frank Hatheway.

Mrs. George F. Smith is the guest of her sister, Mrs. George McLeod, at Pictou, before taking up her residence at St. Andrews for the summer months.

Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Adams motored to Sussex Saturday last and are expected home on Monday.

Mrs. Wm. MacLauchlan, Wright street, is the guest of her son, Capt. R. MacLauchlan, at Sussex.

Judge McInerney has purchased the beautiful residence of Mrs. H. A. Austin on Mount Pleasant and with his family will soon reside there.

Mrs. Wm. Hason and Miss Laura Hason have moved to their summer residence, at Duck Cove.

Mr. and Mrs. F. T. Short will occupy the summer home of Mr. and Mrs. Hugh Mackay, at Robesay, for the month of June.

A mixed tournament was enjoyed at the tennis courts on Wednesday afternoon. At the tea hour the hostesses were Miss Mary McLaren, Miss Kathleen Coster and Miss J. Bridges. Those present were Lieut. and Mrs. Jarvis, Mr. and Mrs. Samuel Gregory, Miss L. Raymond, the Misses Sturdee, Miss Magee, Miss Doris Sayre, Miss Dorothy Jones, Miss Doris De Yober, Miss C. McInerney, Miss Nita Carrite, Miss Chapman (Moncton), Miss Jean White, Miss Brander, Major Stetham, Lieut. Short, Lieut. Charles Pitt-Randolph, Lieut. Pickard, Lt. Brydon Milledge, Mr. H. Ellis, Mr. Guy, Mr. Mercer, Mr. Alward, Mr. Roy Leavitt and Mr. Downer.

Mr. and Mrs. J. Pope Barnes, Miss Jean White and Mr. White motored to Woodstock on Thursday and will return on Monday.

Several of the lady members of the Golf Club enjoyed a putting and approaching match on Thursday afternoon. The prizes were won by Miss Frances Stetson, Mrs. Harold Schofield and Mrs. Richard Hooper.

Mr. and Mrs. Daniel Mullin and family will occupy a house in Rotheray Park this season.

Miss Alice Ketchum, since her return from New York, is residing on German street, and will leave for Newcastle in the near future.

Mrs. J. Morris Robinson and Mr. and Mrs. C. Belyea will occupy Mr. Belyea's summer residence on the Washdenook this summer.

Mrs. Moore, wife of the rector of St. George's church, Toronto, is visiting her son, Mr. Hollis Moore, of the Bank of British North America.

Mrs. Warren sails for England from New York next week and will return to St. John in the autumn.

Mr. and Mrs. John C. Belyea and child are visiting Mr. J. Harrison, at Parrsboro, N. S.

Mr. Chester Gandy entertained the town guests at the Gandy-Rowe wedding and a few friends at a delightful sail on the St. John river in his private motor yacht, the Bonsei, on Thursday afternoon. The day was ideal and the sail was much enjoyed by those present. The party lunched at Belyea's Point and enjoyed their evening meal at Purdy's Point. Among those present were Mrs. Gandy, Miss Gandy, the Misses Rowe (Bangor), Mrs. Howell (Bangor), Miss Harriet Jones, the Misses Hegan, Miss L. Kimball, Mrs. F. Young, Mr. Sidney Jones, Mr. F. Gould and Messrs. Gandy.

Mr. and Mrs. George McA. Billard have taken up their residence at Woodman's Point for the summer months.

Mrs. George A. Fraser, who has been the guest of her father, Judge Wedderburn, and Mrs. J. F. Fraser, returned to her home in East Orange on Monday and was accompanied as far as New York by Mrs. J. Fenwick Fraser, who will be absent about two weeks.

Mrs. Gustav Kubring is visiting in Toronto.

It was with great pleasure that friends of Mr. F. C. MacNeil heard this week that he had so far recovered from his recent accident to be able to resume the rehearsal of the society drama, "The Importance of Being Earnest," soon to be presented under the auspices of the Royal Standard Chapter, Daughters of the Empire.

A very delightful tea was given by the members of the Royal Standard Chapter, Daughters of the Empire at the Sign of the Lantern tea room yesterday afternoon, in honor of Mrs. R. Wallace, one of the chapter's most valued members who is soon to leave for her new home in Hamilton, Ont. Mrs. James H. Frink presided at the daintily appointed tea table. After tea had been served Mrs. E. Atherton Smith in her usual charming way spoke in kindly words of the regret the members felt at having Mrs. Wallace sever her membership from the chapter, and called on Mrs. Alice, who was present on behalf of the members a handsome travelling bag as a slight token of esteem from her fellow workers. Mrs. Wallace in a few well chosen words thanked the members for their beautiful gift as well as the kind thoughts that prompted it.

Far From The Firing Line The Shell Makers and Builders of Ships Are Doing Much to Win The War

By Gerard Finless, in London Express.
The second day of our visit to the great shipyard "hurrah-party"—as the sailors insisted on calling us a day over cobbled wharves and among steel hawsers and other devilish traps of their setting—in a different scene altogether. We now enjoyed the privilege of seeing the man behind the man behind the gun at his work.

Again the place was ten a.m. sharp. Strong as it was before the war, and they "did their bit" manfully, heedless of consequences.

Now these are rather striking facts to be borne in mind: First, the British Navy is nearly twice as strong in Dreadnought ships as it was when war broke out. It has also added an undreamed quantity of monitors, and how many light cruisers, destroyers, submarines, and other vessels of new and original type it skills not to inquire. It is still clamorous for more. Second, the British Army is now the largest in the world as it was before the war, and it requires to "push up" ten times the amount of ammunition that any expert thought necessary to provide until experience taught him. That is to say, that our munition workers are called upon to provide one hundred times the amount they were previously organized to produce.

There are many inventions besides which must be turned out by the hundred and the thousand for the service of Moloche by sea, air, and land. Also, the mercantile marine must be replenished and boats and clothing furnished to our allies. It is, then, no wonder that the whole land hums like a hive, or that the butters of labor are spread sometimes rather thinly on the bread of industry. However, let us see what is going on.

No wonder they have not been able to keep up with their orders for merchantmen. The warship work, added to the loss of men by enlistment, has meant a complete reorganization in a time of severest stress, and the same is true of all the other yards. But the skilled captains of industry have grappled manfully with their difficulties, and work goes forward again. It is only fair to say here that, when complaint is made that ships are delivered behind time, the period allowed by the Admiralty has in some cases been preposterously short. Who told that the thing is impossible, my lords have replied that there is no such word as impossible, and that it has to be done. Which is good and wholesome doctrine, and results in the thing being done as nearly as possible in impossible time.

The Shellmakers.

One ship in her bones is very like another—though the skilled eye detects significant differences—and the same thing was going on in all the yards we visited. The very monotony made its impressiveness. At length, however, we got into a different atmosphere—in some parts a sultry one. Here it was no longer a question of ships, but of shells. No fewer than ninety different kinds of shell are being turned out in these works alone. The workpeople who before the war numbered eighteen hundred are now twenty-five thousand. Many of them are women and girls, transformed from ministering angels into gentle furies of retribution.

I am afraid to say what is the enlarged area covered by the shops. At certainly ten times its original size, and they are planning more. That is a thing to remember about war. In peace a prudent man plans for the future. In war there is no future only present, and you go "all in" for the needs of the moment. The only safe theory to build on is that the war will last for ever. Of course it won't, but no one can safely profess who has a part of time it may consume. It is never safe to ease up and say, "Now we have six months' supply; the war must be over by then." There is the cost of the war will not end with the war itself, and therefore we shall, if we are wise, be found preparing for next year when the last shot is fired.

Now every shell supplied to the British Navy and Army is of forged steel, beautifully turned, finished, and polished. It must fit the gauge to some absurd decimal of an inch. With fuses one must be almost more particular, if possible, and one of the chief delays in the munitions supply is the difficulty of getting gauges. Few people would have thought of that.

Who Sweeps a Floor?

A twelve-inch shell hissing hot from the forge is an uncanny bit of baby, but these men swing them about, punch them in the vitals; out them like cheese with wonderful hydraulic instruments; load them on trolleys and send them on for further adventures, such as having their noses pinched in and their sides planed till they shine like silver. They seem too handsome a present for Fritz. I dare say he agrees with this opinion. Incidentally, I noted divers ways of "doing your bit." Not a few youths spent their time in scraping soap for lubricant purposes—"Who sweeps a room for Thy laws."

What about the men and women who are fighting our battles as truly as those of one or in the trenches, if at least Fritz? There were complaints of lost time, it is true, and there was not opportunity to test them. But this I will say—that the men did not look as if they were getting fat with high wages and idleness. I fancy, judging by appearance, that the workmen are strained pretty nearly to the limit of human endurance, and I suspect that insufficient allowance is made for the fact by their critics.

Many of those in the prime of their youth and strength are in the fighting services, and the percentage of elderly men is very large. So is that of apoplexies, or, at any rate, of ailments. They are making a heavy draft on their balance at the Bank of Life, these workmen, and if they earn four years' wages in one just now, it may very well be at the cost of shortening their working lives by double that number of years. Moreover, the hours worked are such that a very little "law" taken as a result of over-fatigue or being "queer" may total up to a formidable amount of lost time. No doubt there are slackers and shirkers here as elsewhere; but we ought to be very chary of bringing a railing accusation against those men.

It is, however, regrettable that more of them do not husband their earnings better. But can we expect them to be wise in all things? Taking it by and large, I believe the message which the chairman of the largest concern we visited wished us to convey to the public is true—"Tell them that all we are doing is to push up the price of the whole weight of British industry, of employers and employed alike, working one man behind the others, and asking them to give them all they need, Bismarck said that unless he gave the man whom he sent out to fight the very best weapons and material which they could buy, he should feel himself a murderer. In a democracy the whole people are murderers, particides, and fratricides, if they do not act up to the spirit of Bismarck's saying. Our men the getting of the best which brains can evolve and skill can construct. A partner of one of the firms visited told me that Fritz's submarines as compared with ours are as a Ford car to the finest Rolls-Royce. That is cheating to our men, and will be a trifle of disquiet to Fritz if he comes to hear of it.

Cheap and nasty construction may be responsible for the fact that the bones of many a Boche are strewn the ocean floor. Of the long tale of U-boat disasters which have followed, never returned, many a one may have perished not by the hand of his enemy, but of his own imperfections. We do not play with men's lives so. The stuff we send is good enough. It is up to the laborer to see we send enough of it.

SAVING THE SETTLER FROM CROPLESS LANDS.

The opening up of non-agricultural lands to settlement has produced some of the most far-reaching and pitiful tragedies in the Dominion of April. Every province has communities which have been permitted to move to a place of bad location. Their subsequent history is an unbroken line of bad crops, poverty, suffering and human demoralization. Too poor to move away, the farmer and his family resign themselves to a pitiful life of living, giving their time and efforts for practically no return.

Every province and the federal authorities have made such blunders in times past, nor is there satisfactory evidence that the provincial government reform has been brought about. Farmers still are allowed on Federal and provincial homesteads, which are impossible for field crops. The policy was, of course, more the result of laxity in classification and not a deliberate effort to send settlers to useless lands. The laxness, however, is growing in public disfavor and the tendency of all governments now is to protect the settler and to conserve rocky sandy areas for their natural purpose of growing trees.

Several survey parties are engaged on soil examinations this summer and such work is bound to achieve higher importance in the eyes of government. One party, composed of Messrs P. C. Nunnick of the Commission of Conservation and Walter Graham of the Experimental Farm, Ottawa, are in New Brunswick, co-operating with the provincial government in a scheme of land classification. The project deserves the hearty support of conservationists everywhere for the benefits are far from local.

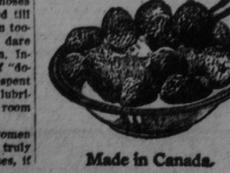

THE POLICE COURT.

In the Police Court yesterday John Colohan was remanded on the charge of striking a horse. A fine was allowed to stand against Dr. C. M. Kelly for allowing his automobile to stand in front of the military hospital for eight hours. Richard Deane, for placing rubbish in front of his house; Andrew Watson, for driving a coach on the night of June 9th without lights; J. Blake Ferguson and Harry Jackson, for turning the corner of Adelaide and Main streets, June 15, without sounding their motor horns; Smith Reid and H. Mont Jones, charged with allowing their cars to stand on the south side of King Square, were fined, but the fines were allowed to stand. Charles Forster, for the Purdy Bottling Company, charged with driving a car without a chauffeur's license, said he had applied for one last Monday, and was let go.

Algonquin Hotel Opening.

H. C. Groat, general superintendent, and C. G. Kirby, divisional engineer of the C. P. R., returned from St. Andrews yesterday where they were completing arrangements for the opening of the Algonquin Hotel for the summer season. The hotel will be opened next week and the double train service between Montreal and St. Andrews will be resumed on Monday.

AN OFFICER'S SEVEN YEARS TORTURE THREE ACTS OF GALLANTRY

Second Lieutenant of the 12th Battalion K.R.R. Prevents Casualties by Causing Casualties.

The "London Gazette" of yesterday announced that the King has awarded the Albert Medal to a number of officers, non-commissioned officers, and men serving in France, in recognition of their gallantry in saving life. Perhaps the most remarkable case is that of Second Lieutenant Thomas Barnard, 12th Battalion, K.R.R., who on three occasions, while in charge of parties under instruction from Severe Headaches and Indigestion, I had belching gas from the stomach, bitter stuff would come up into my mouth after eating while at times I had nausea and vomiting, and had chronic constipation. I went to several doctors and wrote to a specialist in Boston but without benefit. I tried many remedies but nothing did me good. Finally, a friend advised "Fruit-A-Tives." I took this grand fruit medicine and it made me well. I am grateful to "Fruit-A-Tives" and to everyone who has miserable health with Constipation and Indigestion and Bad Stomach. I say take "Fruit-A-Tives" and you get well.

LIVING ON MULE FLESH

How the Garrison of Kut Fought to the very End—Soldiers too Weak to Carry their Kit.

By EDmund GANDLER.

Special Representative with the Expeditionary Force in Mesopotamia. At the Front, Mesopotamia, in Whera, May 9. The first four British officers from Kut arrived here today. They are Captain Maclean (8th Punjab), Lieutenants Bullock and Puri (2nd Norfolk), and Hinds (10th Royal Fusiliers). All have been in hospital for periods varying from December 25 to the beginning of April. The real privations of the sarrison began in the middle of February, especially in the hospital. When the milk gave out the hospital diet was confined to corn flour or rice water for the sick and ordinary rations for the wounded. On April 21 the 4-ounce grain ration gave out. From the 25th to the 26th the sarrison subsisted on the two days' reserve ration issued in January, and from the 26th to the 29th on supplies dropped by aeroplane.

The troops were so exhausted when Kut capitulated that the regiments who were holding the front line had remained there a fortnight without being relieved. They were too weak to carry back their kit. During the last days of the siege the daily death rate averaged eight British and twenty-one Indians.

All the artillery, cavalry, and transport animals had been consumed before the sarrison fell. When the sarrison fell the sarrison drivers ofillery horses had formed a new unit styled "Kut Foot."

Veteran Slaughtered.

One of the last mules to be slaughtered had been on three Indian fronts.

ter campaign, and were the ribbons round his neck. The supply and transport butcher had sent it back twice, refusing to kill it, and in the end it had to go with the machine-gun mules.

Main flesh was generally prepared, and horse and mule fat supplied good drip plasma, also an improvised substitute for lamp oil. The fuel of crude oil used for cooking lasted the whole of the siege. This gave out rath times, and the regiment took very easily distinguishable, being as black as chimney sweeps from the smoke and stunts of the oil ranges.

The tobacco famine was a great privation, but the garrison did not find the enforced abstinence cured their craving, as every kind of substitute was there. An Arab brand, a species similar to that smoked in Indian hotels, was exhausted early in April. After that time leaves were smoked or ginger or baked tea dregs. In January the British force entered Kut a large consignment of warm clothing had arrived, the gift of the British Red Cross Society. This was most opportune, and probably saved many lives. The garrison had only the summer kit they stood up in.

Different units saw very little of each other during the siege. At the beginning indirect machine gun and rifle fire, in addition to shells, swept the whole area day and night. The troops were kept in the dugouts for important defence work. During the late phase, when the fire slackened, officers and men had little strength for unnecessary walking. Thus there was very little to break the monotony of the life in the way of games, exercise, or amusements, but on the right bank two battalions in the liquorice factory, the 110th Mahattas and the 120th infantry, were better off, as there was dead ground here—a pitch of about fifty by twenty yards—where they could play hockey and cricket with pick-handles and a rag ball.

They also fished, and did so with success, supplementing the rations at the same time. Two companies of Norfolk joined them in turn, coming by ferry at night, and they appreciated the relief. The artillery fire was fairly constant until March 22, when the Turks fired some thousand rounds in quick succession. After this they reserved their ammunition for the evening bombardment, generally between four and six. Their shelling was mostly confined to the town and fort, where the Union Jack and observation post offered a good target with a battery of five-inch guns and headquarters adjacent.

They had some naval guns, but the majority were 40-pounders. On the right bank they had a species of trench mortar christened by our soldiers "Petrol-bomb." She fired very noisy 18-inch bronze shells always in the same place, but never hit anybody. On January 21 the hostilities aeroplane was sighted. From February 15 to March 22 aviators of Norfolk joined them in turn, coming by ferry at night, and they appreciated the relief. Rids Poisons From the Blood, Clears Up the Complexion

Sallow Skin, Pimples, Pains and Aches Are Soon Gone When Dr. Chase's Kidney-Liver Pills Are Used.

The doctor feels your pulse and looks at your tongue, but at the same time he is reading your condition in your face. The yellow complexion tells him that your liver is not doing its work, the pimples tell him that the kidneys are not properly purifying the blood, he realizes that the bowels are constipated and the system overloaded with poisons.

You can apply this test in your own case and may be able to add other symptoms such as headaches, pains and aches through back and limbs, spots of blotchiness and indigestion. If you have not used Dr. Chase's Kidney-Liver Pills you will be surprised to find how quickly they will rid your system of poisonous impurities and thereby remove the cause of pimples, sores and skin troubles.

Dr. Chase's Kidney-Liver Pills, one pill a dose, 25 cents a box, all dealers, or Edman, Bates & Co., Limited, Toronto.

Dr. John N. B. writes: "I am glad to say I have used Dr. Chase's Kidney-Liver Pills with splendid results. I was greatly troubled with constipation and pimples on the face. I tried other remedies and used liquid arsenic three times a day for a year to get rid of the pimples but received no benefit. I began the use of Dr. Chase's Kidney-Liver Pills and it was not very long before I was completely cured. The pills acted on the bowels, kidneys and liver and cleansed them of all impurities. I think they cannot be beaten as a means of ridding a person of that tired aching due to weak kidneys, and I would not be without them in the house for any money."

"Hidden and Sinister Forces"

at Work—Riding Roughshod Over the German People.

So far as its activities are reflected in the press, the wheels of the great German machine seem to be creaking and grinding.

The revolt of the rich against what they assume as a harsh and arbitrary method of taxing their wealth, the storm of protest aroused in South Germany by the efforts of Prussia to draw to itself all available supplies of food and money, and the Government's obstinate refusal—the phrase significantly enough, is from the "London Gazette"—to permit any discussion of war aims, are all contributing, according to the Berlin "Tagblatt," to the letting loose of certain sinister forces which can lead to nothing but disaster.

Internal Domestic Chaos.

The "Tagblatt" is exceedingly frank in its discussion of the position. The different parties in the Reichstag have shown themselves to be paragons of wisdom and moderation, but they have adopted more taxes than were demanded of them. This is most regrettable, as such a procedure is not the business of the Reichstag.

The fact is that the empire's system of finance has not itself fixed in a definite line. The direct taxation of the revenues of the empire, which constitutes the sole real fiscal reform that is necessary, is being hampered by imposts on private fortunes levied according to the most arbitrary notions.

This is a course that can only hasten the action of certain hidden and sinister forces, which will surely make their presence felt with more or less—and perhaps rather with more than usual—violence.

The direct cause of these dangerous conditions—the circumstance that while the German people, as a whole, are beginning to suffer more acutely day by day from the internal domestic chaos, the external situation, as represented both by politicians and Government functionaries, continues its triumphant course, riding roughshod over the desire of the people for enlightenment.

This way disaster lies.

The "Obstinate Reichstag."

Even more remarkable, in view of its official position, is the comment of the "Colonial Gazette," between the lines of which may be read a good deal that the "Tagblatt" would doubtless regard it as "disastrous" to reveal.

Quite recently, on the occasion of the last sitting of the Budget Commission of the Reichstag, a demand was made for a free and public discussion of the German war aims.

This demand was not granted, simply because the Government, obstinately enough, wishes to confine itself strictly to its own point of view in this matter. By maintaining such an attitude we are only weakening our own situation. We present to our enemies and to neutrals the appearance of being weaker than we are in reality, more especially as the details of our food policy and its new organization, which is now being carried out amid such painful difficulties, are openly and widely discussed in the German Press.

Thus it comes about that foreigners form an idea of our condition which is far more gloomy than they in fact are. Were the Government to allow an open public discussion of the situation among competent persons, the picture would be avoided and the enemy would be deprived of all foundation for their hopes of a speedy victory as the result of starvation methods.

"Cut Down the Food Hogs."

On the heels of the new Food Dictator's tacit admission of helplessness the "Vossische Zeitung" brings forward an indictment which is scarcely calculated to help us but to help them.

At the moment when provision stores are being raided for concealed food and the owners severely punished, and while those who have not enough money to evade the law are standing in long queues for food, the hope of being able to obtain even the smallest proportion of the rations allotted to them by the food cards, the rich are surreptitiously buying food-stuffs at outrageous prices, thus depriving others of their fair share.

We know of one case where a farmer sold two acres in the market at Koblenz for the sum of 49. In another instance two men from Kiel drove round the neighborhood of Lütjensberg in a motor-car inquiring where they could buy hams. From one farmer they purchased a ham weighing about 40 lbs., and paid 410 for it—a price for which in normal times they could have obtained a prize pig.

Yes! knowing as they do, that those human food-hogs abound everywhere, there are still presumably sane persons who doubt the wisdom of appointing a dictator who will cut down these gentry in their prime.

The Final Phase.

The military organ, "Der Tag," while deprecating the frequency with which the Entente Powers have cried "victory" in the time, and that we are on the eve of the last and decisive stage of the great war—

"Wolf, wolf!" has been so often cried by the Entente Powers that we have a right to be somewhat sceptical with regard to the recurrent reports that a co-ordinated attack on all fronts is really in contemplation.

Internal Domestic Chaos.

The "Tagblatt" is exceedingly frank in its discussion of the position. The different parties in the Reichstag have shown themselves to be more Papist than the Pope; they have adopted more taxes than were demanded of them. This is most regrettable as such a procedure is not the business of the Reichstag.

In another instance two men from Kiel drove round the neighborhood of Lütjenberg in a motor-car inspecting where they could buy game. From one farmer they purchased a ham weighing about 40 lbs., and paid £10 for it—a price for which in normal times they could have obtained a prize pig.

Yet everywhere as they go, these hungry food-hogs abound everywhere, there are still presumably sane persons who doubt the wisdom of out appointing a dictator who will cut down these geese in their prime.

The Final Phase.

The military brass, "Der Tag," while depressing the frequency with which the Entente Powers have cried "victory" thinks that there really is something in it. It is time, and that we are on the eve of the last and decisive stage of the great war. "Wolf, wolf!" has been so often cried by the Entente Powers that we have a right to be somewhat sceptical with regard to the recurrent reports that a co-ordinated attack on all fronts is really in contemplation.

All the same, there are signs and portents that there is something in the wind this time. In the nature of the case, the English troops must soon come into action, therefore the noticeable silence which prevails on this point strengthens our belief.

The Paris conference and the Chancellor's speeches on the peace conditions lead us to suppose that we stand before the decisive and final phase of the war. We must brace ourselves for a last attempt on the part of our enemies in the west; also, perhaps, for an advance of the armies in Salonika. In such an event, it might well be that this summer will see military decision and the preliminary condition of peace.

True Words Spoken in Jest.

Meanwhile a view of the matter which does not seem to have occurred to "Der Tag" is put forward by the Berlin "Post":

The dread day has at length arrived when it behoves all good Germans to appeal to the Kaiser that he graciously stop the war. The German cause is hopeless; then why waste more blood and treasure to combat a foe who is unconquerable?

We have been moved to pen this paragraph of despair at the news brought by a neutral friend who has visited the English-French front, that the Entente armies have been reinforced by the gallant troops of the Prince of Monaco!

As an independent Sovereign allied with France, England and Italy, the Prince of Monaco not only has a general staff, he also owns an army. Only half of the army which numbers 500 men all told, has as yet appeared on the war front. When the remaining 500 warriors arrive it will be too late for Germany, we fear, to think about giving up the struggle, for against the prowess of so mighty a host our generals will not be able to stand.

Prince Albert of Monaco has as yet not made his appearance at the front. Every day, however, he is informed telegraphically about the heroic exploits of his forces. This task as may be imagined, needs an important Government Department for its proper fulfilment. It has, therefore, been entrusted to the Monegasian Field Telegraph Department, at the head of which stands M. Martin—in civil life kitchen chief on the Prince's pleasure yacht.

Next to the Kaiser, probably the men least to be envied in the German Empire today is the new Food Dictator, Baron von Batocki—statisticians have discovered, it should be noted, that every third person who passes along the Wilhelmstrasse is a baron—is not so much a Minister as an offering to a hungry, desperate, and revolutionary mob.

He has been set a task which is doubly impossible—first, because even were he able to set free all the hoarded foodstuffs in Germany, it would merely provide a temporary amelioration of the position; and, second, because he will not be able to do this, since it is a notorious fact that the Kaiser and his immediate circle are plunged up to the neck in this food-courier scandal, and it is absolutely certain that Baron von Batocki does not propose to risk his neck in exposing them.

"Recalcitrant Elements."

His first public utterance on the subject of his duties, takes the form of an interview which is published in all the Berlin and a good many other newspapers. In brief, his statement is as follows:—

"What I have any fixed programme for the solution of this extremely heavy task I cannot declare, but that does not mean that for my personal guidance I have not formed certain tangible conclusions in regard to the main questions, nor that I have not placed certain aims clearly before me, how far I shall be able to attain these, the future alone will show.

"I sincerely trust to receive the support of the German Press even in such cases where I may have to come into contact with recalcitrant elements, or where the demands on the spirit of sacrifice may appear to be in excess of the capacity for sacrifice.

"That Germany's victory is as sure in the domain of the food supply as it is in the strictly military sense, I have, however, no doubt whatever.

That, no doubt, is strictly correct for the sun of Germany's hope of victory is already set, never to rise again; but what else could this poor whippersnapper say?

Those Interested Groups.

The fact that he is expected to fight "certain interested groups" is insisted on by the Berlin papers with an iteration which the baron must find scrupulously painful, knowing, as he does, the sinister suggestion which underlies it. Provincial comment is to much the same effect, as witness for instance, the Munich "Neueste Nachrichten."

It is difficult indeed to cast the horoscope of the new Food Dictator. He has to try his strength on the severest task that is at this moment to be performed in Germany—"that is to say,"

since to seventy million souls of their food supply.

One thing we must say—even the very finest system of war rationing cannot create more food material than we possess. Much depends, however, on the distribution, and what we expect, therefore, from the new official is a thorough organization of the whole of our food resources; without compromise or narrow-minded considerations in favor of certain interested groups; a vigorous administration that shall draw every ounce of available products from the empire's territory, and establish the distribution of indispensable articles of food on an equitable basis.

Back to First Principles.

The "Neueste Nachrichten" of Leipzig frankly disavows any hope of rescue from the new Dictatorship. The ancestral ancestors of the Germans, it suggests, fed on nuts, and the present generation (whose morals, manners and customs show little improvement on those of the anthropoid ape) must revert to the habits of antiquity.

Meat is scarce. Only those, however, whose tastes have been vitiated can consider this scarcity as an evil. The habit of regular meat-eating has only been imported among us during the last ten years from England—God punish her!

Among our ancestors meat was never considered as the main sustenance. Nay, in the grey days of antiquity man was a vegetable feeder, a nut eater. Let us then return to the bill of fare of our fathers.

We have peas, beans, and lentils in abundance. It is not at all necessary to cook these things with beef, mutton, or veal; a lump of fat bacon will do so well. If bacon be not available, butter can replace it, and if that is scarce the oil pressed from nuts is equally palatable and nutritious.

In any event, let us avail ourselves of every scrap of our natural resources, and we shall yet be able to jeer at the beef-eating animals, the brutish tribes of England when they lie beaten and squirming at the feet of our matchless warriors.

Only those must be no whining in Germany, meat or no meat.

ALL ONE WEEK REMAINS UNTIL THE STANDARD TRAVEL CLUB CLOSES

The official "Cologne Gazette" includes in a torrent of vituperative indignation over the fact that the "bloody English" have dared to incarcerate Roger Casement in the Tower. It is not inappropriate to designate that monstrous mass of masonry the Tower of London as the matriculation of all that is wicked and traitorous in the English national soul. Deeds of savagery and cruelty such as the history of no other European people can show have been enacted there.

"The Tower is the history of England, and it is therefore no wonder that every one of its grey stones should be drenched in blood, that its secret passages should be haunted and rendered uncanny by the sounds of sighs and groans, the phantasmal echoes of the cries uttered by the innumerable victims of English barbarity, just and unjust, who were tortured within those grim walls because their natures were of a nobler type than the generality of their countrymen.

The Tower represents the materialized prototype of that love of theatrical display peculiar to the English, which is as strong at the present day as it was in the days of the Richards and Henrys of the middle ages.

Every public act of an Englishman, every word he utters, every gesture, every movement is a theatrical function, an act performed for purposes of effect and to impose on gullible spectators.

A Splendid Way To Reduce One's Weight

There is, perhaps, no one thing that should be of more benefit to us than the habit of eating less. The tendency of some of us to put on too much weight after we have reached the age of 25 or 30. However young our face may appear, our figures "give us away."

The cause of this over-stoutness is that our stomachs convert the food we eat into fat because there is not enough oxygen in the blood to produce proper combustion. The distinguished pianist, is an authority on and a collector of old coins. He once received as a fee for ten minutes' performance an Italian coin of the twelfth century $600.

Don't Endure Itching Skin

We urge all skin sufferers who have sought relief in vain to try this liquid wash, the D. D. Prescription for Eczema. All skin diseases yield instantly to its soothing oils. Its ingredients, oil of wintergreen, thyme, and glycerine, have been used by doctors for years in the cure of the skin. The liquid form carried these healing ingredients down through the pores to the root of the disease.

Come to us and we will tell you more about this remarkable remedy. Your money back unless the first bottle relieves you. D. D. Soap keeps your skin healthy. Ask about it.

Members Should Spend Every Minute of Their Time From Now On — The Prizes Are Still to be Won and Every One Has a Chance — Prospects are for the Finest Trip in the History of Canada.

This Travel Club of ours is not over by any means. The first prize is still to be won and there are eight or ten in the game, any one of whom may yet come out on top. Several of the girls who have not so far taken the leading position are plugging away to beat the band and there is every prospect of a surprise before the affair finishes on Saturday of next week. One thing all members must bear in mind. There will be no subscriptions received later than eight o'clock on Saturday evening next. This will be positively the latest hour at which business may be entered and there will be no excuses for delays in the mails or for any other reason.

More information is being received every day with respect to the trip, which promises to be the finest thing of the kind ever undertaken in Canada. Indeed there are requests from people, many of them, in different parts of Eastern Canada and the United States, for permission to go along on this train with the newspaper party and the prospects are that the girls who are fortunate enough to win will have the time of their lives. Starting on Saturday, July 15th, the party will return just one month later and in that time will have covered more than ten thousand miles. It will not be a tiresome trip, for though there will be some days when the party will be hoarse doing at different points along the line both east and west, the train journey will afford ample rest between the spells of excitement, and on the steamer the party will have opportunity to recuperate from the frivolous times enjoyed on the westbound run.

WILD THINGS OF THE FOREST ROAM IN SAFETY in this land of a thousand lakes

[By G. W. BARTLETT, Superintendent of Algonquin Park]

Nature lovers mourn the passing of wild life under the iron heel of industrial progress and the profound concern of these lovers of out-door life would certainly be justified if there were no national reserves within the broad Dominion.

Among the most popular of these glorious national heritages of the people is the Algonquin Provincial Park, 174,475 acres in extent, situated two thousand feet above the level of the sea, up in the "Highlands of Ontario." This lovely region, set apart by the Ontario Government in 1893, remains today unspoiled, a perfect refuge for the creatures of the forest, and an ideal pleasure-ground for the people.

It is almost impossible to walk for half an hour from any of the camps or hotels without seeing one or more deer, or coming across a beaver dam or other evidence of the existence of wild things.

At the time this territory was set aside for a breeding ground and preserve, all kinds of fur-bearing animals in this section had become almost extinct. Today they have not only filled the park, but have so overrun its boundaries that many delicate townships are now well stocked with game.

Around the City

A Total of Five. The local and military police yesterday arrested a total of five drunks.

Water Main Burst. The water main on Brussels street was broken last evening and caused a heavy flow of water on the street. The water department made repairs.

Five Fires Extinguished. The police were called on last night to extinguish five fires which had been lighted on Brussels street by some boys who were celebrating a wedding.

Back From Fishing Trip. Messrs. A. D. G. Vanwart, R. Baxter, E. J. Purdy, H. T. Harrison and J. W. McLaughlin returned to the city last night on the Boston train after spending a few days angling on Disappointment Lake.

Abusing a Horse. Fred Dalgle was arrested on the Marsh Road about ten o'clock last night by County Policeman Saunders, and lodged in the county jail. He is charged with being drunk, profane and driving a horse owned by W. Head, a livery stable proprietor in Fairville. The county officer followed Dalgle from Coldbrook on a motor cycle and states that the man was driving at the rate of seventeen miles an hour. He placed Dalgle under arrest near the One Mile House.

The Estey Case. The case against Wesley H. Estey, formerly of this city, charged with being a fugitive from justice in Canada, was heard in court in Boston on Wednesday. The prisoner was remanded to jail until Monday next when judgment will be delivered. Estey is wanted in St. John for stealing over two thousand dollars from Charles A. Clark of the City Fuel Company. It is not expected that he will be brought from Boston for a couple of weeks yet.

Cadets Inspected. An interesting ceremony took place at the close of the Kitchener memorial service last night. Brigadier McLean expressed the wish to inspect the boys of St. Andrew's Cadet Corps. The boys were lined up in the street, and the Brigadier, accompanied by the inspector, and Major Magee, walked down the line, the Brigadier inspecting each boy and speaking to him. He expressed himself as very well pleased with the appearance and work of the boys, and congratulated the officers on the degree of proficiency which had been attained in the various movements.

Automobile Accident. While motoring on the Loch Lomond road, about five miles from the city, yesterday morning at 11:30 o'clock, something went wrong with the steering gear of Frank Rafferty's car, and the automobile went into the ditch and turned over. At the time of the accident Ernest Moray was driving the car and the other passengers were Mrs. Rafferty, Miss Bowes and the Misses Kain. All of the occupants were somewhat bruised, but Mrs. Rafferty and Miss Bowes were injured more than the others. A telephone message was sent to the city and Dr. Baxter quickly responded to the call and attended to the injured.

Commodore Entertains R. K. Y. C. The summer season of the R.K.Y.C. was opened very auspiciously last night when Commodore Frank P. Starr entertained the members to dinner at Bond's. The members were out in force and were most enthusiastic over the prospects for the coming season. Four of the charter members of the club were present, Messrs. Howard Holder, Fred Heas, W. A. MacLachlan and T. T. Lantlam. Among those who took part in the speech making were Judge Armstrong, Dr. A. Pierce Crockett, Vice-commodore Walter Logan and William Murdoch. Music was provided by Bond's orchestra. The gathering broke up about midnight by singing "Auld Lang Syne," everybody voting it a most successful evening.

GENERAL McLEAN AND COL. POWELL TO GET BRIGADES AT VALCARTIER

GENERAL H. H. McLEAN.

CIVILIANS TO BLAME FOR ROW LAST EVENING

Slackers Incited Soldiers to Fight, but Prompt Action of Military and Civil Police Averted Serious Trouble.

A mixup among soldiers of the 140th and 115th Battalions, on Charlotte St., near the King Square, caused no little excitement for about fifteen minutes last night. From what could be learned of the affair, it all started when a private of the 140th assaulted Sergt. Brown of that battalion who was doing military police duty. A picket of the 115th was near at the time and Sergt. Brown handed the private over to them.

The local police appeared on the scene and offered to take the man in charge but Sergt. Brown wished the soldier to be cared for by the picket. The man was marched towards police headquarters and a large crowd of soldiers and civilians joined in the procession. There were cries from some civilians, to soldiers of the 140th, for them not to allow the 115th to take the man. A number of 140th privates, outnumbering the picket of the 115th, interferred, with the result that a fight ensued and, for a time, matters were lively in the King Square.

When the crowd reached a point near the court houses on the corner of King street and Sydney street, a picket of the 140th, which had been stationed near police headquarters, arrived. The soldier who was the chief cause of the trouble, and a comrade who had interferred, were handed over to the 140th picket and were marched to the West St. John barracks. A large crowd followed the picket with their prisoners, through the square, and along Charlotte street, shouting and causing a great deal of disorder. The picket continued towards the ferry dock and the trouble was over in a very short time.

Some civilians in the crowd were making a great deal more disturbance than the soldiers by inciting the men, and it was during that time that a soldier was heard to shout, "Come on you slackers, get into the uniform and then you can say something." A few brutish blows, and one of the soldiers losing his cap in the racket, was all the damage done. Some person telephoned to the 115th barracks that there was a riot on Charlotte street, and this call brought an officer and about fifty men on the double to the scene, but when they arrived all was quiet and their services were not needed.

DEserter FROM 26TH GETS TWO YEARS TERM

The trial of Pte. Otty M. Thorne, No. 34451, on the charge of being a deserter from the 26th Battalion took place yesterday at Gagetown, before Police Magistrate Sherman Peck. He was found guilty and sentenced to two years in the Dorchester penitentiary, the full penalty of the law. Pte. Thorne, it will be remembered, was tried before Judge Crockett in connection with the death of a man named Akery and was sentenced to one month in jail which expired yesterday. Capt. G. Earle Logan of the headquarters staff prosecuted the case of desertion from the army, with the result above stated. It is the intention of the military authorities to prosecute all cases of desertion in future, and the probability is that any who are caught will be given the full penalty of the law.

Popular Promotions Come to Well Known Military Men.

Announcement Made of Manner in Which Maritime Units will be Brigaded at Great Canadian Training Camp and at Aldershot.

Lieut.-Colonel Powell, A. A. G., New Brunswick command, will be in command of a brigade at Valcartier, according to a despatch received at headquarters yesterday. Brigadier-General McLean will be in command of the New Brunswick brigade, consisting of the 115th, 132nd, 145th and 165th Battalions. Lieut.-Col. Allison Borden will be in command of the Highland Brigade at Aldershot. This brigade will be made up of the four Highland regiments which have been recruited in Nova Scotia during the last six months.

Lieut.-Colonel Powell will be the Brigadier, commanding a Maritime Province brigade, viz.: the 10th Battalion, stationed at Charlottetown, P. E. I., under command of Lieut.-Col. A. E. Ings, who went to the front second in command of the 6th Canadian Mounted Rifles. The 10th, stationed at Truro, commanded by Lieut.-Col. R. Inns. The 11th, at present in Windsor, commanded by Lieut.-Col. H. B. Tremaine, and the 140th, under command of Lieut.-Col. Beer. The promotion which has fallen upon Lieut.-Col. Powell is popular, both by the military men and the public in general. Col. Powell has taken a deep interest in affairs military since boyhood, having enlisted in the Canadian militia at the time of the Northwest rebellion. When the South African war broke out Lieut.-Col. Powell was one of the first to enlist, crossing the ocean with the first contingent as captain in the S. A. Constabulary. He remained in Africa for five years, and on his return to Canada was promoted to a captaincy in the Canadian Dragoons.

As a reward for faithful services and strict attention to military discipline he was appointed in 1910 D. A. A. and O. M. S. of the Maritime Provinces command at Halifax. In 1911 he was transferred to the permanent staff. In February he was appointed A. A. G. of the troops in New Brunswick. He will leave with Brigadier-General McLean sometime during the latter part of next week.

JUST RECOGNITION FOR THE PHYSICALLY UNFIT WHO' STOUT-HEARTED MEN

Recruiting Association Purchasing Buttons to be Worn by All Who Have Failed to Pass for Service.

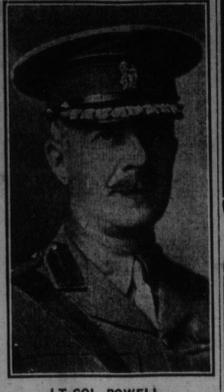

The New Brunswick Recruiting Association has purchased buttons like the accompanying cut to be presented to each recruit who fails to pass the medical examination at any of the authorized recruiting offices. A and R, mean "Applied" and "Rejected." The person applying and who fails to pass the examination will have his name, address and age recorded in a book kept for that purpose. Besides the name the number on the button will be recorded in case it should be lost by the rejected party. This will be the means of knowing what young men have honestly tried to pass the examination. All the recruiting offices will be supplied in a few days throughout New Brunswick.

MORE WEDDING BELLS FROM DOUGAN'S HOUSE

Recent Police Raid Appears to Have Stimulated Nuptial Ambitions of Bashful Sweethearts.

Dan Cupid appears to have been much in evidence in the John Dougan house in Union Alley. Early Thursday morning the detectives made a raid on the house, charged Dougan with being a proprietor of a hawdy house, while three women and a man were arrested for being inmates. The case was quickly handed in the police court when one of the women and a male companion were married in the court. All but Dougan were then allowed to depart. Yesterday afternoon one of the women who had been mixed up in the case was arrested on Hanover street for being drunk. From what could be learned last evening the woman,

BETTER ROADS HERE THAN IN MAINE STATE

T. P. Regan Speaks of Condition of Highway Between St. John and Boston—Home After Auto Trip.

T. P. Regan, the president of the New Brunswick Automobile Association, arrived in the city Thursday night after a motor trip to Boston and return. Speaking about the condition of the roads, Mr. Regan states that owing to the many days of rain in Massachusetts and in Maine the roads in that part of the country are in very bad condition. In some parts of Maine they are almost impassable. At one place he saw no less than four automobiles stuck hard and fast in the mud, at another point a couple of cars had been ditched, and still at another section of the Maine highway there was so much water on the road that it was found necessary to motor for a short distance on the railway tracks. So bad were sections of the road that on two occasions Mr. Regan was obliged to divert from the main highway to a road about two miles round to get on the highway again. Speaking about the road from St. Stephen to St. John, Mr. Regan states that with the exception of a couple of places east of Le-preaux and St. George, the road is good. The Government, he says, have started to repair these bad places and when this work is finished the entire road will be far superior to any in the State of Maine at the present time.

A FAVORITE IN ST. JOHN.

May Robson, seen at the Imperial this change of programme in "A Night Out" (Vitagraph five-reeler) will be pleasantly remembered by St. John folks as in "The Rejuvenation of Aunt Mary" and also this selfsame play "A Night Out" some years ago in the Opera House. The production in pictures is a sort of amplified and much elaborated version of the story by Charles Dazey and sent bumper crowds away from the Keith house yesterday just bubbling with merriment. Such productions do one good these somewhat melancholy weekdays.

SNOW-FLAKE VOILES.

These very stylish materials are being shown by F. A. Dykeman & Co. in abundance of patterns. They have been fortunate in securing a clearing line from manufacturers in New York. These materials make up very pretty for summer frocks, they drape so nicely and have such washable qualities. They come in natural and white. The regular price for white is 45 cts., sale price 39 cts. Natural, regular price 40 cts., sale price 25 cts.

FISH.
