Owing to the extreme youth of these young criminals, nobody up to the present time has felt like taking the initiative in the matter of taking legal proceedings

Kilburn and Noble had crews picking on it for four days and then gave up, Noble going back to Seven Islands. The other two operators will be working through holes in the dam and building a front so that in the event of rain it will be easy to handle the lumber. The jam is only four days from corporation limits.

OUR NEW KING; HIS PERSONALITY He Knows His People; Is Trained Imperially; a Student of Affairs and Devoted to Duty FAMILIAR WITH EMPIRE Has Visited Corners That No Other British Monarch Has Trod.

The personality of the new king is the theme of frequent discussion in every land at the present time. Will his reign add fresh lustre to the annals of British sovereigns, as the reigns of his revered father and grandfather have done? Of course, there are some carpers and croakers who take pleasure in answering both of these questions in the negative. They are, the very men, who said precisely the same thing—though in even more offensive form—about King Edward when he was called upon to succeed his mother's throne. His majesty acquitted himself well as heir to the throne. The position of Prince of Wales is a delicate and difficult one, for, though the second personage in the empire, he sees in matters of government no locus standi at all. It is a position which calls for self-repression, and almost self-effacement, rather than for self-assertion. For there is not room in one realm for two kings, and should an heir-apparent show himself to the public as possessing the faculty of government in any remarkable degree, it is most probable that it would be found that he was exceeding his own and encroaching on the Kingly office. Nevertheless, there are certain tests which may be fitly applied to a Prince of Wales, with the object of ascertaining whether he possesses the potentiality of a good sovereign.

ROYAL MOURNING TAXES PARIS DRESSMAKERS Queen Mother Will Wear the "Little Widow's" Bonnet, and Will Not Use Heavy Crepe.

Paris, May 15.—The sudden demand for mourning in England has almost revolutionized the dressmaking trade of Paris for the time being. In many of the windows of the houses of fashion, materials in both black and white cloth, crepe de chene, chiffon, and so forth, have been practically depleted to meet the urgent demand from London.

Remedies are Needed

Were we perfect, which we are not, medicine would not often be needed. But since our systems have become weakened, impaired and broken down through indiscretions which have gone on from the early age, through countless generations, remedies are needed to aid Nature in correcting our inherited and otherwise acquired weaknesses. To reach the seat of stomach weakness and consequent digestive troubles, there is nothing so good as Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery, a glyco-coumpos, extracted from native medicinal roots—sold for over forty years with great satisfaction to all users. For Weak Stomach, Biliousness, Liver Complaint, Pain in the Stomach after eating, Heartburn, Bad Breath, Belching of food, Chronic Diarrhea and other Intestinal Derangements, the "Discovery" is a time-proven and most efficient remedy.

The genuine has on its outside wrapper the signature of Dr. Pierce's Pleasant Pellets regulate and invigorate stomach, liver and bowels. Sugar-coated, tiny granules, easy to take as candy.

Mr. Hibbard Finds Very General Spirit of Enthusiasm THROUGHOUT PROVINCE Large Number of Young Men Attended Agricultural Schools This Year, and Many Farms Offered for Sale a Few Years Ago Have Been Withdrawn from the Market.

W. W. Hubbard, secretary of agriculture, Fredericton, is in the city on business in connection with his department. He has been in answer to a question from a representative of The Telegraph, said that he had noticed recently a very general spirit of enthusiasm among the farmers of New Brunswick. He believed this was significant and went to show that New Brunswick farmers are gradually, if slowly, acquiring greater faith in the possibilities of their own province.

It is the most simple car to operate, can be used by your wife or children with perfect safety—and when you want to make a hurried trip to town or to your neighbors—it is always ready. The cost of oil and gasoline to operate an I H C Buggy is less than the cost of keeping one horse. It can be used when you would not dare to take a horse out and it never gets tired. With an I H C Auto Buggy you can travel from one to twenty miles an hour over hills, through mud, snow—over any roads. When you buy, get the car that has proved to be most—Practical—Economical—Serviceable—The one with the High Wheels and Solid Tires. You will find it the easiest riding and you will never have "tire troubles." A large wheel rolls over a bump or rut. A small wheel jumps over it. With solid tires you will never be delayed by punctures or blow-outs and you will save many dollars through not having to repair and replace worn-out tires. Solid tires are easiest on the roads. They do not flatten out and loosen dirt and gravel like inflated tires do. There are many other advantages of the I H C Buggies that you ought to know about. They have full elliptic springs (36 in. long by 1 1/2 in. wide) and a long base, insuring easy-riding qualities. The International Auto-Wagon has the same features of construction as the Auto Buggy and is a thoroughly reliable car for light delivery wagon purposes. FARM TOPICS

ROAD AND FENCE

BRACING A CEMENT END POST

In order to brace an end post securely, first plant the post 8 1/2 feet deep, says a writer in Indiana Farmer. Be sure that the dirt is well tamped around the post. Packing the first foot well is the most essential thing in making a post stand firm. Lean the post back about three inches. This leaning causes the post to pull to the ground, as it will do if it leans the other way. Then cut a notch about half way between the ground and top of the post for end of brace to rest in. Then plant a smaller post about six feet in front of end post for foot of brace to rest against, placing top side of lower end of brace six inches below the surface of the ground with a flat rock under it (to keep the brace from settling in the ground). Now pass three strands of well-galvanized No. 9 wire around the two posts, making six strands of wire to twist together. Fasten the ends of the wire together so they will not slip. Take a rod about 1 1/2 inches long, place between the six strands of wire and twist them together. Do not neglect to twist them tight, for this is the secret in making the posts stay in position. If my instructions are followed the fence stretcher is not made that will move the end post one inch at the top.

POTATO CULTURE PROFITABLE

Certain sections of country where Irish potato is best growing crop on the farm.

There are certain sections of the United States which, owing to climatic conditions, combined with the nature of the soil, better adapted to the growing of the Irish potato than probably any other farm product, and as this crop can be marketed at remunerative prices on an average of four years out of five, the farmers of what is known as the "potato districts" rely almost entirely upon this product for their money crop; therefore, it becomes necessary for them to secure as great a quantity of tubers as possible from each acre of land planted, from a minimum amount of labor and expense, in order to get the greatest percentage of profit obtainable.

CUTTING TIN WITH HAND SAW

A carpenter's kit of tools does not usually contain a pair of tin snips, and when he is putting on siding or finishing a fancy gable he finds it necessary to use some tin snips. This can be cut with the back of a hand saw. Place two pieces of material having straight edges together on a pair of horses. Nail another piece across the bottom of the parallel pieces and put the saw in between them. Place the tin flat on top of the pieces back of the saw and pry down on the saw handle, as shown in the sketch, and the back of the saw blade will cut as good as tin snips.

For Stings or Snails. Salt is a sure remedy for the wugs or snails, says the Ohio Farmer. Discretion, however, is always necessary in its use, as it is liable to kill or injure plants to which it is applied at all freely. We find ordinary air slacked lime just as sure to kill snails as salt, and probably much safer. Snails are night feeders, leaving their hiding-places and feasting on the leaves first reached (usually the lower ones) shortly after sundown. To destroy the pest dust the lower parts of the foliage of affected crops lightly with the air-slacked lime. The effect is immediate. Next morning you will find the remnants of the dissolved snails.

Value of the Berry Patch.

Where an old berry patch has been cleaned out is fine for a crop of melons or potatoes. Then it should be sown to cow peas or clover. Neither of these crops are fine for storing up fertility in the soil. An orchard may be started on reasonably thin soil if the proper care is given to stir up plenty of fertility for the use of the trees in producing their crops of fruit.

CONCRETE DYKE PROTECTS.

Mega Embankment Constructed at Cincinnati to Protect Farm Lands and Road Bed.

To prevent the Ohio river, during a flood stage, from sweeping away a road, bed and to protect farm lands, the city of Cincinnati is spending over

Building a Dyke.

$100,000 in building a concrete dyke along the sides of the roadway, says Popular Mechanics. The big dyke will be over a mile long when completed and represents one of the largest pieces of concrete work ever done in that vicinity. The concrete slopes at an angle of 45 degrees and varies in height from 15 to 35 feet. The illustration gives a scene at the laying of the concrete on the sloping sides of the roadway. The concrete is laid in strips of six feet wide so that men can work the surface conveniently. When one set of strips is sufficiently hard to bear the weight of the men the intervening strips are filled in.

FARMING MODERNIZED.

Agriculture Has Not Escaped Revolution of Machinery in All Kinds of Industries.

Agriculture has not escaped the mighty revolution of machinery that has swept all kinds of production within the last half or even quarter century. Many of our readers can remember the bull plow with the wooden mold-board; when the spike tooth harrow was considered perfection; when seeding and planting of all kinds were mostly done by hand; when the cradle gathered and the fall threshed wheat and other small grain.

But the wooden mold-board plow, which was only a few degrees removed from the forked stick of the savage, has given place to the chilled steel share that cuts and turns a clean furrow to different widths and depths, and under this have been placed wheels so that now the farmer rides as he breaks his land instead of trudging weary miles in the yielding soil. Again, in many places, though not generally, plowing is done by steam and gasoline engines, and these will increase, as agriculture is put more and more upon a business basis.

The riding cultivator is known in almost every farm community. Wheat drills and corn planters put in by far the greater portion of these crops, and machines for planting potatoes and other root crops are by no means uncommon.

WARNING TO FRUIT GROWERS

Crown Gall is Warty Outgrowth or Excrescence Upon the Apple, Peach, Pear and Other Trees.

Crown gall is a term applied to certain warty outgrowths or excrescences upon the apple, pear, peach, raspberry, etc., forming chiefly on the parts below ground. On the apple these growths are more apt to occur on grafted trees at the union of the root and the cion, but they may form at any place where the roots have been injured in transplanting, etc.

The Saw Blade Cuts the Tin.

Experiments by the department of agriculture show that crown gall is caused by specific parasites. Every orchardist should carefully inspect all stock which he purchases for setting. All trees showing evidence of crown gall should be either returned to the shipper or burned, and future orders placed with nurserymen who can and will furnish trees free from disease. Under no condition should trees be planted which show growths of this kind upon the roots, for not only will it result in an unhealthy and unprofitable tree, but it will also endanger other plants.

HORTICULTURE

Prune and Train Grape Vine To Grow the Best Fruit the Vines Should Be Frequently Cut Back and Renewed.

The grape vine should be planted slightly deeper than it was in the nursery and cut back to a strong bud. Only one shoot should be allowed to grow.

The next spring it should be again cut back to a strong bud, the length of the cane varying with its size, says the Prairie Farmer. The terminal bud only should be allowed to develop and the cane should be tied to a stout stake as it grows.

The following spring the vines will be ready for a trellis. The favorite forms are known as vertical and horizontal. The vertical trellis consists of eight-foot posts set two and one-half feet in the ground at intervals of twenty to thirty feet. These generally carry two lines of No. 10 galvanized wire, respectively four and five and one-half feet from the ground. The end posts should be strong and well braced, and the wire should be so arranged that the slack can be taken up when necessary. The other posts need not be very large if twenty feet apart, but for thirty feet good-sized posts are desirable.

The horizontal trellis differs in having a 2x6-inch strip placed on edge horizontally at the top of the post, so as to form an arm two feet long, upon which three wires are carried.

The previous year's three shoots were grown on each vine. For the two-wire (vertical) trellis two of them should be placed on the lower wire and cut back to ten buds each. The other shoot should be cut off at the height of the upper wire, and a shoot from it should be trained in each direction. For the three-wire (horizontal) trellis, a shoot should be trained upon each of the wires, two in one direction and one in the other, and all should be cut back to eight buds.

The simplest and most satisfactory method of training the grape is by the Kniffin system. The fruiting arms are tied to the wires in the spring and new shoots as they come out are allowed to hang down.

To grow the best fruit, whatever system is used, the vines should be frequently cut back and renewed. Some prefer to renew all the canes each year, starting all of them from the main trunk of the vine, while others renew but once in two years.

INSPECTION OF NURSERY STOCK.

Representative Scott of Kansas is the author of a bill which provides for government inspection of nursery stock at point of entry to be designated by the secretary of agriculture. An appropriation of $100,000 is carried by the bill, which also authorizes the secretary to establish a quarantine against the importation or transportation in interstate commerce of diseased or infested nursery stock. The bill has been favorably acted upon by the house committee.

Taken on Gun Carriage to Westminster Hall for Living-in-State

Imposing Spectacle

Queen Mother Rode in First Carriage, Queen Mary Taking Second Place - "Big Ben" Was Told for the First Time on Such an Occasion.

London, May 17 - The body of King Edward VII, the Peacemaker, was taken with stately pomp this morning from Buckingham Palace on the first stage of the journey to the grave and now lies in state in Westminster Hall where hundreds of thousands will pay a last tribute to the dead monarch before the march through the streets of the capital, on Friday.

The procession from Buckingham Palace to Westminster Hall passed through double lines of red-coated soldiers, flanked by rows of stalwart policemen and a mass of silent black-robed humanity. The buildings along the route were heavily draped with mourning. The German and other embassies in Carlton House Terrace were covered with funeral pall of black and purple, relieved occasionally by green wreaths and bouquets of white lilies.

The first intimation that the crowd, which had been waiting for hours, had of the approach of the funeral cortege was the booming of the first of sixty-eight minute guns which were fired at St. James' Park followed by the tolling of "Big Ben," the great bell in the clock tower in the House of Commons, which heretofore has been heard only as it struck the hours, and by the roll of muffled drums.

Then a guardman with sword reversed came down the Mall at measured tread, two other guardmen following close behind. Then came the officers of the headquarters staff, the army council and the board of admiralty. As those appeared, the Duke of Cornwall and Prince Albert, two little figures in the natty uniforms of naval cadets, followed their father, King George. King Frederick, of Denmark, and King Haakon, with the Duke of Cornwall and Prince Albert, followed their father, King George. Amatite ROOFING
Needs No Painting

MOST ready roofings require special painting and coating, and unless this is done regularly, you are sure to have leaks and trouble right along.

If you use Amatite, nothing of the sort is required. You will have real roof protection without painting of any kind.

Amatite is made to stay waterproof and give protection year after year, without any thought or care on your part.

First - Because it is waterproofed with Coal Tar Pitch.

Second - Because it has a real Mineral Surface.

Amatite, owing to these features, is the most economical roofing made. Its first cost is low, and you are saved all future expense for repairs or paint because it will need neither.

If you haven't seen Amatite, write for a sample to-day. From it you will very quickly understand why it doesn't require painting; why it does not leak; and why it saves you money.

MORSE'S ONLY HOPE NOW IS PRESIDENT TAFT

Washington, May 16 - Charles W. Morse was today denied the privilege of filing an application for a writ of habeas corpus by the Supreme Court of the United States.

New York, May 16 - "That finishes the matter so far as the taking of legal steps is concerned," it was said at the offices of Martin W. Littleton, counsel for Charles W. Morse, when information reached there today of the Supreme Court's denial of a writ of habeas corpus for Morse. Mr. Littleton is in Europe, having sailed for London last week on a business trip. Beyond saying that no further court proceedings were possible, Mr. Littleton's representatives said they did not care to make any statement on the case at this time.

The popular belief that a drowning person rises to the surface three times is unfounded.

Bruce's Giant Yellow Intermediate Mangel

This Grand Mangel, which we introduced in 1891 is without a doubt the favorite in the world. The roots, their uniformity, its handsome shape, bright smooth yellow skin, flesh of the most solid texture, nutritious and splendid keeping qualities, make it one of the most valuable introductions of recent years. While in point of size they will not equal the best of the long varieties, yet in the yield per acre they frequently produce as much, and in richness they far exceed the best long varieties, added to which they are much more easily harvested, about half of their length being above the ground. We have kept our stock fully up to the original high standard, and it will pay every grower to procure our grand strain of this unequalled variety. 1 1/2 lbs., 12c.; 1-2 lb., 18c. 1 lb., 30c. Postage paid.

"Now, children," said the teacher: "you have been making too much noise. Let us see if we can all be quiet. Just see how still you can be—so still you can hear a pin drop."
The teacher waited expectantly. The pupils responded in a body. After several moments of profound silence in which not a sound was heard from pencil book or paper, the boy in the back seat called out: "Let her drop, teacher."—Lippincott's.

"NOTHING IN IT"
That is What Surveyor-General Grimmer Says About New Brunswick Prohibition of Pulp Wood.

The following article which many New Brunswickers will read with surprise, is reproduced from "The Paper Mill and Wood Pulp News" of New York (Correspondence of The Paper Mill), Ottawa, May 4, 1910:—"Absolutely nothing in it!"

This was the pronouncement of Hon. W. C. H. Grimmer, surveyor-general of New Brunswick, today, concerning a dispatch from Washington to the effect that in all probability New Brunswick would follow in the wake of Quebec in prohibiting the export to the United States of wood pulp from the crown lands within its boundaries.

"No, there's absolutely nothing in it," repeated Mr. Grimmer. "The Legislature of New Brunswick passed a resolution stating that the prohibition of wood pulp from the crown lands of the province would be designed to give the government no intention of following Quebec's example."

From the general tenor of Mr. Grimmer's remarks, it was assumed that there is little probability that the export of wood pulp to the United States will be prohibited by New Brunswick. MCL.

The impression in New Brunswick has been that the local government would restrict the export of crown land wood. Indeed after the tariff settlement with Washington some weeks ago it was expected that the New Brunswick government would act without delay. If Mr. Grimmer is correctly quoted the government has no intention of following Quebec's example.

UNITED STATES IS LOSING THE BEST FARMERS OF CANADA
United States Nothing But An "Agricultural School" for the Dominion, Declares Washington Correspondent.
(Washington Correspondence of Boston Transcript.)
Washington, May 19—While the Congress of the United States is wasting its time with needless investigations and oratory and dawdling over the legislative technique of conservation, Canada is draining the West of thousands of this country's best agriculturists. It may be, and probably is, a coincidence that the greatest activity in the Canadian immigration of a time when the United States government has tied up countless acres of farm land for fear that unscrupulous capitalists will seize upon the privileges which belong to the people, nevertheless the fact remains that Canada is making the most unprecedented exertions to attract American settlers to her great North-West. No less than 40,000 American men have gone to Canada in the last eight years ending March 31, 1910. About 50,000 more in 1909, the number gradually increased to about 60,000 in 1908 and in 1910, when the immigration of Americans to the United States was at its lowest ebb. The Pinchot controversy, the number leaped to 103,000. Of a total Canadian immigration of 1,424,868 in the last eight years, more than thirty per cent came from the United States. Only thirty per cent of this new population of nearly a million and a half came from England, eight per cent from Scotland, and two per cent from Ireland. Italian, Hebrew, Scandinavian and Russians furnished a total of only eleven per cent; and of all this large number the preponderating majority were classified strictly by races, seventy-three per cent of the immigrant arrivals in Canada in the last eight years belong to the Teutonic and Celtic races of northern Europe. In the United States, however, the Slav and Celtic races of southern and eastern Europe and southwestern Asia. During the same period only twenty-three per cent of such arrivals in the United States were of Teutonic and Celtic extraction from northern and western Europe, while seventy-seven per cent were of the Slav and Celtic races of southern and eastern Europe and southwestern Asia.

PERPETUAL YOUTH
Let Me Tell You How To Regain All Your Old Vim, Vigor and Manly Strength. Be a "Health Belt Man"; Feel Young for Balance of Your Life. Age Doesn't Count if You Have the Vitality.

"I could shout for joy. After years of Weakness and Debility, your Wonderful Health Belt cured me. I am a Man again. Use my name as you see fit."

"LEON TURPINAT,"
"Stellarton, N. E."

Perpetual youth. That is precisely what I mean. I say as man to man, give my Health Belt a reasonable chance and it will carry you through any business, mental or physical strain you may be under. It doesn't stimulate; it simply adds the electro-tonic element to your bone, nerves, tissue and blood. My Health Belt is essentially a strength-giver. If you are nervous and lack manly vigor you are passing away thousands of brain cells every day. Ask your physician if this is not true. I stop this awful weakening process. You wear my Health Belt nights; while sleeping a great stream of soft electricity passes into your body at the small of the back; it cures backache in one application; you feel better immediately; inside of an hour; two months will make a new man of you. No drugs; no privations; no restrictions, except that you must give up all dissipation. Follow my advice and I promise you will feel younger and look younger. Let me restore your vitality and you will be able to face the world with new ambition. The Health Belt cures other ailments, too. A positive remedy for rheumatism in any part of the body, sciatica, lumbago, kidney, liver, stomach disorders.

YOU CAN PAY WHEN CURED
If you're sceptical I'll prove it first. I'll take all the risk by letting you have the Belt on Free Trial, not to be paid for until cured. Send it back if it doesn't do the work.

CHAPTER OF ACCIDENTS
AT PORTLAND, MAINE
Crushed to Death; Woman Fell Under Engine and Lost an Arm—Other Casualties.

Portland, Maine, May 17—The approach of the comet's tail was noted by strange happenings in Portland today. George hired a truckman and hauled away a house on Morning street, a couple of carpenters' tools belonging to the workmen. He sold the tools to the man but was arrested later. Mrs. Carrie Buell fell backwards from the piazza of a cottage at Peek's Island, a distance of eight feet and struck a rock, losing a two-year-old daughter and Daniel Herfell from a second story window and a leg from a first story window.

Portland, Maine, May 17—The board of aldermen today to request Mayor Gaynor declare June 18 a legal holiday that city workers may attend the reception to be given by Theodore Roosevelt upon his return from abroad. Mayor Gaynor's attitude on the measure is not known.

Intermediate Mangel
It is without a doubt the favorite of all cattle men at the present day. Its large size of the roots, their uniform roundness, bright smooth yellow skin, and splendid keeping qualities, make it one of the most valuable roots of recent years. While in point of quantity they will not equal the best of the varieties, yet in the yield per acre they frequently produce as much, and in cases they far exceed the best long varieties, added to which they are much easier harvested, about half of their weight above the ground. We have our stock fully up to the original standard, and it will pay every grower to procure our grand strain of this standard variety. 1 1/2 lb., 12c.; 1-2 lb., 18c.; 1/4 lb., 25c. Postage paid.
