STATED ARD,

To L Oh, gaze upon you brilliant star, And give a thought to one, Who, the lin distant lands afar, Will think of thee and home.

And thou wilt not farget the hours, Which we have spent together-Moments like sunshine, mid the flowers That fall in wintry weather.

A cloud is gathering o'er it, Curfortune was but now as bright,

But see, the cloud hat a passed away, It shines as bright as ever -Farewell -1 can no longer stay, We part, but not forever.
