TORONTO, Jan. 21.—Some time ago Mr. J. Clark, barrister, sent Messrs. George Wallace and J. R. Gordon, C.E., up to Algoma to prospect among the nickel lands of that district. A LONDONER'S EXPERIENCE.

Dr. G. H. Wilson Undergoes an Injection of Dr. Koch's Lymph.

Letter from the Doctor—The Great Cure and Thousands Who are Seeking Aid in the Hospitals.

The following interesting letter has been received by Dr. Butler, of this city, from his friend Dr. G. H. Wilson, who, in company with his brother, went to Germany to make inquiries into the great Koch discovery.

Berlin, Jan. 9, 1891.

MY DEAR DOCTOR,—True to my promise
I write you giving an account of my experiences since leaving home. We had a very pleasant time crossing, though it was rather rough for four days. We came directly from Liverpool to London, where we stayed for four or five days and visited some of the large hospitals, of which we hope to see more on our return. We took boat from Harwich to Hamburg, and were fortunate enough to be blocked up by ice at the mouth of the River Elbe for seven or eight hours, but succeeded in getting a train on landing, the same evening, for Berlin, and so we were not lost time.

I will not speak of the beauty of Berlin, as you have so recently returned from it, but will come to the all-absorbing point, tuberculosis and the Koch treatment. Since our arrival we have been very busy attending the hospitals for consumptives. It is impossible for you to conceive the number of these victims. The city is literally packed with them, from all parts of the world.
We are putting in most of our time at the Charity Hospital, University Polytechnic and from Von Bergmann's surgical wards for tuberculosis. Charity Hospital has upwards of a thousand cases of consump-tives in all stages of the disease. The inoculations are made daily, so we have every opportunity of watching the action of the lymph. In the morning we attend the University clinic. This is for the consumptive patients who have been in the Charity and other hospitals, also for outdoor patients, who come and are injected and go at once to their homes, and are visited about six hours by medical men appointed for the purpose, when the reaction usually begins, though it may be delayed for more than 48 hours. A large number of lupus cases are treated here, who are all in a very improving condition. This disease, like consumption, shows a marked improvement after a short course of treatment.
The same in the surgical wards for tuberculosis, especially of the hip joint, glandular swellings in strumous subjects, throat affections, etc. These wards are crowded like those of the medical men, so it follows that the sanitary conditions cannot be good while there is such overcrowding. All these patients are given the ordinary hospital diet, but no building up treatment is given. The lymph, but the improvement irrespective of these conditions is simply astounding. It is the opinion of a great number of leading German physicians that the mortality in tuberculosis has been reduced to a minimum, if not entirely stamped out. There are numbers of patients who have gained from 1 to 60 pounds in six weeks, losing fever, night sweats and cough. This lymph seems to have a particular action on the night sweat, which usually disappears after a few inoculations. What is also very interesting about Koch's lymph is its wonderful accuracy as a means of diagnosis. Now, I have watched it being injected every day in tubercular glands, and in each always followed by reaction where there was evidence of tuberculosis, and where there was none it had no more action than cold water. Wishing to study the action of it more fully, and feeling that I might have contracted tuberculosis by being among so many consumptives, I submitted myself to one of Koch's lymph injections for inoculation. He injected double the amount used in a consumptive in my back under the skin over the right lung. I went directly home and stayed in my room all day, taking no pulses and temperature every half-hour during the day, but no effect whatever took place, which proved the greatest satisfaction to me, showing that I am perfectly free from tubercular bacilli, and making it more evident to me its unsurpassed value as a means of diagnosis. Through the kindness of the British Association, Dr.
Sir Charles Tupper has received a supply of lymph, with the promise of all we require for both hospital and private use, and expect to be home by the 24th of this month. We will stay in London, about a week on our return to watch the treatment in the hospitals and see what success they are having.
It is being used in a number of them with great success. I met the physician from whom you took your course on the nose and throat. He is one of the leading ones in Berlin. I will conclude, hoping to soon be with you. Yours sincerely, G. H. Wilson.

A YEAR'S WORK.

Annual Reports of King Street
Presbyterian Church.

Success of Rev. Walter M. Rogers' Pastorate—The Various Organizations and What They Have Accomplished—Officers Elected.

The annual congregational meeting of King Street Presbyterian Church was held last evening. A good number of members and adherents of the church were present, and an agreeable and altogether interesting time was spent in listening to the reports and in electing officers. The pastor, Rev.
Walter M. Rogers, occupied the chair, and opened the meeting with prayer, after which Mr. F. Chesbrough was called upon for the report of the session. The report indicated that the church in this respect was in good condition. There had been no diminution in the membership during the year by death, and 30 members had been added, while the number removed from the roll was 26. The membership of the church now numbers 150.

The Sabbath school was in a healthy condition, as the report showed. The number of scholars added during the year was 63, while the number that left was 37, leaving a total on the roll at present of 200.
The receipts during the year amounted to $132.32 and the disbursements to $113.59, leaving a balance of $18.73 to the credit of the school.

The Young People's Society of Christian Endeavor, upon presenting its report, was tendered a vote of thanks for the part in which it had worked during the year.
The report showed that at the commencement of the year the society had 38 members—35 active and 3 associate.
It now boasts a membership of 56—48 active and 8 associate. The gain of 18 for the year. Although the society is not for the purpose of raising money, it made an effort in that direction and succeeded in raising $94.72, of which $49.00 was for the church, leaving a balance on hand of $35.72.
A treasurer's statement from the Women's Foreign Missionary Society showed contributions to the amount of $28.37 for the year.

Mr. John Hutcheon, treasurer of the church, presented the report of the managers as follows:

Balance on hand from 1890	$ 59.01
Subscriptions	59.50
Contributions by canvass	50.00
Mission collections	21.85
Augmentation fund	25.00
Ladies Aid Society	119.55
Y. P. S. C. E. Society	25.00
Total	$1,036.29

Salaries and pulpit supply $ 717.00
Missionary collections 4.00
Presbytery fund 4.00
Lighting and heating 63.50
Water account 62.25
Printing and stationery 30.00
Missions and interest 62.25
Repairs 19.07
Sundries 16.00
Balance on hand 1,036.29

After the adoption of the managers' report Rev. Walter M. Rogers vacated the chair, and Mr. George Logan was appointed to the position. Mr. Brown then rose and moved, seconded by Mr. Wm.
Main, a vote of thanks to the pastor for his untiring efforts for the welfare of the church during the past year, which was carried by a standing vote of the congregation.

Rev. Mr. Rogers thanked the congregation for this show of confidence, and said his efforts in the future, as in the past, would be to promote the interests of the church in every possible way.
Votes of thank were tendered Mr.
John Hutcheon, as treasurer, and Mr.
Archibald Black, as secretary.
The election of officers resulted in but few changes being made. The Board of Managers will be composed of the following: Messrs. G. W. Logan (chairman), W.
A. MacKay (secretary), John Hutcheon (treasurer), L. Seifman, J. Hatch, Turfitt, Dick, Stewart, G. G. G. and W. B. G. G.
Messrs. Hutchinson and W. Reid were appointed auditors for the coming year.
A vote of thanks was tendered the chairman and the meeting adjourned with prayer.

AN ENOCH ARDEN CASE.

The Two Husbands Meet-Pull Straws
for the Wife, and Win.

WILKESBAKE, Jan. 20.—The fall of 1883 Miss Margaret Williams, then a resident of Tamagosa, Schuyler county, was married to William Evans, a small grocery. Two years later, however, he then went to Colorado, his wife and her two children remaining in the home.

The husband promised to return, and as soon as he got settled in his new home, Fortune was against him, and he was unable to do so. In the meantime the wife and her two children remained in the home.

Western papers giving a detailed account of the death of her husband, Mrs. Evans denied widowhood and refused to take out an existence with her name in the Jenkins, of Newtown, said that the widow's heart was accepted as true.

They were married. They lived happily until Friday last. On the afternoon of that day there was a knock at the door.

Mrs. Jenkins went to the door, and when she opened it she recognized her husband and fainted. Husband No. 1, who had the state of affairs, so did No. 2. They did not quarrel, but sat down and talked the matter. Jenkins said he loved his wife, but was satisfied that Evans was a faithful husband. The woman was loath to part with either man.

"Well, you can't have two husbands," said Jenkins. "Let us decide the matter somehow."

It was then agreed that the two men should pull straws for the wife. Jenkins lost, and took his departure from the house. Evans was bound to marry the child, 18 months old, and human No. 1 said it should remain. Evans will now take his family West with him.

The Handsomest Woman in London

London, Wednesday, Jan. 21.

GET READY!

Tuesday and Wednesday, Feb. 17 and 18, have been selected as the days for holding the great convention of the Liberals of Ontario in Toronto. The Auditorium, which is capable of seating about 2,500 persons, has been chosen as the place of meeting.

No time should be lost by the Liberal associations of London and the West. Their presidents and secretaries should at once call the members together, and see that delegates are chosen. The Young Liberals will no doubt select their own delegates and turn out in full force. Before another ten days elapse all this preliminary work should be accomplished, and the minor arrangements will be rendered all the easier. East Middlesex Association has been called together in this city on Saturday afternoon, and the other associations in Western Ontario cannot do better than follow suit.

Hon. Mr. Laurier, Hon. Edward Blake, Sir Richard Cartwright, Hon. A. MacKenzie, Hon. David Mills and the leaders of the Liberal party generally, have expressed their wish to meet with as many of the representative men of the party as possible, and doubtless there will be a full representation from every city and riding. Full particulars can be obtained from Mr. Preston, secretary of the Provincial Reform Association.

A GOOD BEGINNING.

The new City Council has begun its work well. It went quietly to work, and elected its committees and representatives at the various public boards with dispatch. There was no disposition to wrangle or to infringe on the rules of order. It is not too much to expect that a body of men of more than average intelligence, such as we believe the new Council to be, shall continue to co-operate to secure the best possible management of civic affairs.

New blood has been infused into the Council, and increased energy and improvement in methods will be looked for. It has been asserted that at present there is something wrong with the system. No doubt the system could be improved, but the Mayor showed in his inaugural address that the Council of 1891 can do much good service for the taxpayers under the present system. The Council will have to devise ways and means to effect such necessary reforms as shall secure the best results for the citizens, while bringing the city taxation down to a reasonable rate.

If we were permitted to whisper a word of advice into the ears of the new aldermen, it would be this: Avoid all entangling alliances and "scratch-my-back-and-I'll-scratch-yours" tactics, and you will have nothing to regret and be all the stronger when you face the electors at the close of the year.

THE LANGUAGE OF THE FUTURE.

It is true that the whole human race had a common ancestor, then there must have been a time when there was only one language. In the course of time this one language ramified into thousands of branches. But the tendency is now in the opposite direction. Civilization kills out inferior dialects, and as the number of tongues spoken is constantly decreasing, the inquiry is being made as to what language shall be the final survivor. The language of the future, if it is a universal language, will almost certainly be one of those now spoken.

The claims of the English language to universality are briefly these: The British Empire and the United States together extend over an area of about 8,600,000 square miles, with a population of about 314,000,000. So that the sway of the English-speaking people extends over nearly a quarter of the human race. The importance of a language depends upon the political importance of those who speak it, and the greatest political powers of the world are at present England and the United States. At the beginning of the present century French was spoken by about 25,000,000; to-day it is the vernacular of about 214,000,000. German in 1800 was spoken by 27,000,000; to-day it is spoken by about 57,000,000. English at that time was the language of about 15,000,000, while to-day it is used by about 100,000,000. The increase of the French is 60 per cent. for the whole period; of the German 110 per cent.; of the English nearly 600 per cent. The English-speaking races occupy now one-fourth of the dry land of the earth, and own nearly two-thirds of the tonnage of the ships. More than one-half of the letters mailed and carried by the postal service of the world are written, mailed and read by the English-speaking population.

NO REASON FOR EXCITEMENT.

When, in its dying hours, the London City Council of 1890 came to the resolution to submit a frontage tax bylaw to the electors, the ADVERTISER objected, because the Council itself had not taken proper time to consider the matter, and as there were already two bylaws to be voted on, there was prospect that confusion would reign at the polls.

The outcome verified this assumption. There was trouble at the booths, and some of the aldermen last night asserted that electors who did not favor the principle voted for it. That the frontage tax system was not comprehended even by the aldermen was shown in subsequent discussion.

The law enables the Council to enact a bylaw governing the frontage tax system in one of two ways.

1. The Council may pass a bylaw providing that all future expenditures for permanent street improvements shall be by special assessment on the property benefited.

2. The Council is authorized to pass a bylaw providing for permanent street improvements being effected in certain localities unless two-thirds of the property owners affected, representing one-half the property, shall petition for the making of improvements on the frontage tax system. Similarly, a petition for the making of improvements on the frontage tax system must be signed by at least two-thirds of the owners of property affected, representing one-half the value.

Thus, in view of the hurried manner in which the frontage tax bylaw was placed before the people, it seems open to the aldermen to adopt either one or other of these methods, as in their wisdom they may deem proper. A sense of fairness would dictate the adoption of the local option system for the time being, leaving it open to take further action by appeal to the people at some future time.

WOMEN AS SCHOOL TRUSTEES.

Three women have been elected members of the Toronto Board of School Trustees, and it is the intention to increase the representation to at least half a dozen.

London is behind in this matter. There is not a woman on the School Board, though there is no public matter in which women are more interested than in the proper education of the young. Besides, over 60 of the teachers in the schools of this city are women, and it seems only fair that in considering their interests the Board should have the assistance of members of their sex.

It is to be hoped that steps will be taken before next municipal election to secure a fair representation of both men and women on the Board of Education.

THE LEAVING EXAMINATIONS.

The arrangements are now completed for what is known as "leaving examinations" at the high schools and collegiate institutes. The joint committees appointed by the University Senate and the Minister of Education have selected the examiners who are to conduct the examinations, and as the papers are likely to be uniform for all the schools the same standard will prevail over the whole of the Province.

These leaving examinations are intended to take the place of entrance or matriculation examinations for the Provincial University, and doubtless they will also be accepted at all the other universities and colleges in the Province. A good purpose will thus be served, as it will no longer be necessary for students to make the journey to Toronto or elsewhere to write their papers; and we may confidently expect a large increase in the number of students who will write, if not in the number who will enter upon a university course. The mere fact of a young man or woman having succeeded at a leaving examination will be of no little practical value, even if they go no farther, in securing for them employment which calls for evidence of scholarship and intelligence, and regarded from this point of view the scheme possesses a merit which is sure to be received with favor. We are also of opinion that many students will be led to pursue their high school studies for a longer time than many now do, as they will naturally desire to attain a standing such as the examination will give.

The Minister of Education, has, we think, done wisely in commending this examination to the University authorities, but we think he might safely take another step and provide for a leaving examination for pupils of the public schools as well. Suppose the standard to be the one now required for entrance to the high schools, the boy or girl holding such a certificate, and it might besides encourage pupils to continue in the public schools long enough to procure the certificate.

PERSONAL AND GENERAL.

—Mr. Cornelius Donovan is the new separate school inspector for Western Ontario. He will hold the position for three years. Hitherto Mr. Donovan has inspected the schools in the eastern portion of the Province. He is an experienced educationist, and has many friends in the West.

—What a winner William Ralph Meredith would be if by sitting still he could beat the wicked hustlers who surround Oliver the Good!—(Toronto Telegram (anti-Mowat).)

But victories cannot be won in that way. The hustler, the man who is not afraid to state his whole case to the people at all times, generally wins, and he ought to win.

—It was a happy thought of Mr. Kingston, assistant city clerk, to recommend that the Council proceedings should be gathered up and properly indexed. The transactions of the corporation in 1890 are so prepared. There must have been a deal of labor in the compilation of the little volume, but it is now worth something to busy men.

—Mr. E. L. Godkin, in the February number of the Forum, undertakes to prove that the expedition to relieve Emin was clearly a piratical undertaking, since it was the sanction of no Government and its leader was responsible to no power. In the course of the argument Mr. Godkin shows that the sympathy for Emin which caused the expedition to be undertaken was a sentiment born of the Gordon myth, and he points out the curious fact that the people of Africa, owing to the slave trade, have always been regarded as fit spoil for pirates even by civilized nations who hold no such notions about any other savages. Mr. Godkin expresses the highest admiration for Stanley's courage and endurance, and approves of his conduct of the expedition. It is its legal character only that he criticizes. In view of Mr. Stanley's recent declarations the charges now made will cause immense interest.

OTHER NEWSPAPERS.

OLD AGE DOES NOT HANDICAP THEM.

New York Sun.
"Gladstone will not give up politics on account of his age," said a Londoner the other day. "Many Englishmen remain in public life until they are very old. Gladstone knew Palmerston, who, when over 80, was Premier of England and lived to be 90. He knew Lord Lyndhurst, an American by birth, who, when over 90, was Chancellor of England. He knew Brougham, who, when an octogenarian, was still active in politics and as a writer. Why, in England, public men are hardly considered at their maturity till they are at least 60, and under that age he is apt to be somewhat flighty. By putting or keeping up the advantage of their long experience of life with its ups and downs, and of affairs with their out and ins. Gladstone is quite as able to take the Parliamentary leadership of his party at this time as he ever was at any other period of his life."

WHERE IS MR. MEREDITH?

Toronto Globe.
The Provincial elections in East Durham, North Perth, and North and South Norfolk take place next Friday. An incident in the campaign in East Durham is a fine object lesson for the electors of the other three constituencies. There an Equal Rights candidate, Mr. Campbell, is fighting the nomination of the machine, Mr. Collins. On the side of Mr. Collins and Mr. Birmingham is found Mr. James L. Hughes, who in June last was an ardent supporter of Mr. Mowat. The Reformers who voted for Mr. Hughes on that occasion, but who were happily too few to elect him, have now had their eyes opened. The electors of North Perth and the Norfolk should bear in mind that with the collapse of the religious movement against Mr. Mowat and his colleagues the single case against them in the Opposition, in fact, has no longer any battle ground, and to elect its candidates would be a mere waste of votes.

A Sure Cure for DYSPEPSIA

A Medical Triumph! A Very Bad Case!

HOW THE HEALTH OF ONE OF BELLEVILLE'S CITIZENS WAS RESTORED.

Remarkable Cure of Dropsy and Dyspepsia.

MR. SAMUEL T. CASEY, Belleville, writes: "In the spring of 1884 I began to be troubled with Dyspepsia, which gradually became more and more distressing. I used various domestic remedies, and applied to my physician, but received no benefit. By this time my trouble assumed the form of Dropsy. I was unable to use any food whatever, except boiled milk and bread; my limbs were swollen to twice their natural size; all hopes of my recovery were given up, and I quite expected death within a few weeks. NORTHROP & LYMAN'S VEGETABLE DISCOVERY having been recommended to me, I tried a bottle with little hope of relief; and now, after using eight bottles, my Dyspepsia and Dropsy are cured. Although now seventy-nine years of age, I can enjoy my meals as well as ever, and my general health is good. I am well known in this section of Canada, having lived here fifty-seven years; and you have liberty to use my name in recommendation of your VEGETABLE DISCOVERY, which has done such wonders in my case."

British Grain Trade.

LONDON, Jan. 19.—The Mark Lane Express, 24th weekly review of the British grain trade, says: "English wheat was dearer, although the inquiry was first of all foreign wheat was first. The cessation of Russian wheat shipments was not by increased demand, but by the fact that the Russian pool corn advanced 10 per cent, and at Leeds it went up 6d. Foreign white wheats were firm; red wheats were dull. Flour was firm, although it did not sell briskly. Corn was lower. Corn took a turn in the buyers' favor. Beans and peas were steady. Demand advanced."
