A number of employes pledged to lockout continue to work, paying a fine to the federation fund for their breach of their pledge. There are now 65,000 hands idle, and the number will be increased (including dependent trade) to 150,000. The struggle is unparalleled in the history of the cotton trade. the history of the cotton trade.

The Emperor Washed Their Feet.

VIENNA, April 15 .- In compliance with an ancient custom the Emperor Francis Joseph yesterday washed the feet of twelve poor men at the imperial palace This custom is in imitation of the washing of the feet of the disciples of Christ, and of the feet of the disciples of Christ, and has been followed by the emperors of the house of Hapsburg from time immemorial. The poor men are carefully selected from among the respectable and deserving, and the attendants see to it that the feet are in no actual need of washing before the Emercy touches them

Revolt of Carlists.

Madrid, April 15 .- The Governmen has sent a force of troops to strengthen the garrison at Bilbao, the capital of Biscay. In anonymous communications addressed to the authorities there threats are made that the churches and other public buildings will be destroyed with dynamite, and mysterious hints are made of a coming deliverence from the yoke of the "foreign woman" who now rules over Spain. The Government is not sure that these menacing missives are sent by ordinary Anarchists. It is known that Bilbao has many Carlist sympathizers who detest Queen Christina and would seize any opportunity to arouse another Carlist revolution in Biscay. Civil and military authorities have been urged to be in readmess to meet any uprising with prompt and energetic repression.

The main cause of the weakness of the home battalions is stated to be the depletion of their best men for foreign and colonial service. Lord Wolscely likened the home forces to a squeezed lemon. The Duke of Connaught held that grown men would not join the service owing to the fact that wearers of the Queen's uniform are socially ostracised and also because soldiers are wantonly burdened with excessive sentry duty. In regard to methods of reform there was a general opinion that a subthere was a general opinion that a sub-stantial increase of the strength of home stantial increase of the strength of home battalions would come from more liberal pay and better pensions. Khedive vs. Sultan.

London, April 15.—Lord Salisbury has clinched his hold on the Khedive by inciting him to an open quarrel with the Sultan ning him to an open quarrel with the Sultan of Turkey. In response to the Sultan's invitation to Constantinople the Khedive intimated that the recall of Moukhtar Pasha, the Porte's delegate at Cairo, was first desirable. Moukhtar Pasha made the mistake of demanding a change in the Egyptian Ministry. The English Minister thereupon got the Khedive to wire to the Sultan that Moukhtar Pasha had arrogantly interfered in Egyptian affairs and ought to be with drawn. As a further proof of his acceptance of English dominance the Khedive will send his only brother, Mehemet Ali, now at school in Vienna, to finish his education in England.

Inefficient State of the British Army.

London, April 15.—The revelations made in the evidence on the state of the British army given before the Committee on Inquiry, presided over by Lord Wantage, have been the sensations of the week. These are of such a nature as will lead to the most active agitation in Parliament. A group of military members of the House of Commons have already seen War Secretary Staniope privately and extorted from him a promise that the Government shall not obstruct a full discussion and sequent technical approach and the spinion that there was hardly a single inflatury burracks at home effective.

Sad Sequel to a "Shooting" Expedition.

Though Not an Unusual One-James Ward Fires a Bullet, Which Pierces Young Freddie Wilson - The Circumstances.

A holiday—some small boys—one of them has a gun—and the usual result follows. In this case the victim is Freddie Wilson, the 14-year-old son of Mr. Malcolm E. Wilson, 14-year-old son of Mr. Malcolm E. Wilson, 226 Grey street.

Joe Steele, Freddie Wilson, Joe Tally, Will Steele, Jim Ward and Will Laundry are young boys who went on a shooting expedition yesterday morning. Jim Ward, aged about 16, carried the rifle. When walking on the G. T. R. track near the Port Stanley bridge, at the first concession, Ward saw a sparrow on the fence, and raising his rifle, aimed at the bird. "I'll get it first," said Freddie Wilson, as he made a dash for the fence. But he didn't reach it. Ward pulled the trigger just as Wilson ran in the line of the rifle, and with a cry the latter fell to the ground. The wilson ran in the line of the rifle, and with a cry the latter fell to the ground. The bullet had entered his right side towards the rear, and, passing throughin an obliquedirection, emerged from the front of his body. His horrited companions ran to the nearest house, whither the wounded boy was lady named Bennett, who died recently in Florence, Italy, left the bulk of her fortune to Victor Paget, son and heir of the Right Hon. At 11 o'clock last night the boy was sleeping quietly, and his condition seemed favorable. The wound is pronounced a dangerous one, and the result cannot yet be foretold. Ward had rented the weapon for the day from a local gunsmith. He naturally feels sorry enough over the consequences of the accident.

Freddie Wilson Dies from His Injuries
Freddie Wilson, the lad who was accidentally shot yesterday by young James Ward, died from the effects of his injuries about 11 o'clock this morning at the city hospital. He passed through the night well, but took a turn for the worse after daylight. Everything possible was done for the little sufferer, but the fatal bullet had pierced a vital part and medical skill was useless to save his life Coroner Ferguson inquired into the circum stances of the sad atiair, and decided that an inquest was unnecessary, as the shoot ing was clearly accidental. The remain have been taken to the home of his parents 226 Grey street.

The Dundas Center Church Service of Praise Eminently Successful—Miss Ziegler and the Mendelsschn Quartet Prove Good

Drawing Cards.

The Dundas Center Church service of praise last evening proved a most enjoyable way of spending a portion of Good Friday. So many took advantage of it that the church was crowded. Miss Detta Ziegler, of Berlin, made her first appearance before a London audience since her return from New York. Fine as her voice was before, the effects of careful study were evident in the increased artistic culture manifested last evening. She achieved a distinct success and met with a splendid reception at the hands of her old admirers. Her first solo, "Let the Bright Seraphim" (Handel), gave ample scope for the display of her powers. She was loudly applauded.

Said To Be a "Changed Man." HAMILTON, April 15.-Jack Bartram i still in the jail here, but it is likely he will still in the jail here, but it is likely he will be removed to either Brantford jail or Central Prison within the next few days. In an interview yesterday Bartram declared emphatically he was innocent of the murder of John Heslop. He declared he was never in the place, and could not now find his way to the Heslop homestead if taken to Ancaster. He spoke indignantly about the Indians Goosey and Douglas, whom he called liars. He said the Indians made up the story they told from the newspapers, and that he was not with them on the day before and the night of the murder. He declared that he hadn't seen either of the Indians since the Indian fair two years ago. Bartram also remarked seen either of the Indians since the Indian fair two years ago. Bartram also remarked that the Indians probably had less knowledge of the murder than he, and if the detectives wanted to find the guilty ones they would have to look in Ancaster village. Bartram declared his intention of being a better man when he left jail, but he says he will leave Canada and live in Michigan. Bartram reads his Bible diligently every day, and appears a changed man. day, and appears a changed man.

-TEROWNING London, Saturday, April 16.

"The facts in the London election case, pertinently remarks the Winnipeg Tribune, "would seem to indicate that the ends of political justice are not always served by appeals from revising officers to county court judges."

"In Glasgow," says Sir George Trevelyan, "the water has paid off the debt of par-chase, and the price of gas has been reduced one half, while the public streets are lighted for nothing." So much for municipal co-operation.

A good many people do not like the law which provides that all unclaimed human shall go to the medical schools as "subjects" for the students. The present system was indorsed by a majority of mem-bers on both sides of the House on the ground that the wellfare of the living necessitated the provision of dead bodies for the purposes of investigation, and to have no means for providing them would be to encourage grave robbery, as was the case in bygone times. The Toronto Week offers a new and novel solution of the question. It suggests that the devotees of the healing art should themselves provide a full supply of subjects, "Why," asks our contemporary, "should not every medical student and practitioner make it a point of professional honor and etiquette to be queath his body, when he is done with it, for the promotion of science?" A very reasonable question. Make your wills accordingly, gentlemen.

Dr. Goodwin, professor of chemistry in Queen's University, Kingston, speaking to workingmen in that city recently, drew attention to the fact that of all people Canadians can least afford to tamper with intoxicating beverages. There is quite enough champagne in our climate. "The climate," said he, "has a great deal to do with the ease with which the tippling habit is acquired. There is no question i my own mind of the truth of that as a general statement. What is comparatively safe in one climate is positively dangerous in another; and I believe that our Canadian climate is particularly perilous in this respect. I have come to the conclusion that while moderate drinking may be in-dulged in to a certain extent in European antries without a degree of danger, in Canada, at any rate, moderate drinking is Canada, at any rate, moderate drinking is to the born Canadian, as a rule, an impossibility. If that conclusion—the result of much observation—will be any help to you, I shall be very glad," There is much food for reflection in this declaration by a learned investigator.

FOUND GUILTY.

(Lindsay Post.)

The discussion in the London papers over the Ellicitzing of that constituency is getting rather warm. The ADVERTISER charges the Free Press with "betraying querimoniousness," and proves it to have been guilty of that very serious offense without going before a committee on privileyers.

BETTER THAN MONEY-COAXED IMMIGRATION. It is announced that the Dominion Gov.

ernment intends to devote a largely increased amount of public taxes to the promotion of immigration into Canada. During the last ten years it has spent two or three millions of dollars for this purpose. What is the result? That a greater num-United States than could be replaced by the new-comers-if, indeed, a proportion of the immigrants did not also take wing across the border. Surely it has been demonstrated that it is not a greater expenditure of money to coax immigrants to Canada that is needed, but more and better opportunities for our young men to make a living. Freedom to buy and to sell to the best advantage, to develop our great natural resources, and to find a ready market for greatly help this reform. We have the e British market now; let that not be forgotten. What we need is unrestricted

IF MERCIER, WHY NOT CARON? If the Caron charges are not investigated, ex-Premier Mercier can claim to be a much-abused man. Mercier bled the railway corporations for the uses of himself and his associates. That charge laid against Adolphe Caron by Mr. Edgar on his responsibility as a member of Parliament. He promises to produce evidence to prove it. Is a mere denial enough? Most assuredly not. This view is maintained by every independent Liberal and Conservative paper in the country.

TWO EXPERIMENTS.

What is known as University Extension will be a succe s or a failure just in so far as its promoters go the right way about it. The aim of the university teacher, and indeed of every true teacher, must be to educate his students, and that aim will attain the fullest fruition when the students are made to think for themselves. But how shall they think to the best advantage? On the answer to that question centers the subject of University Extension. In a recent article on the subject, Principal Grant relates how Queen's University at Kingston has succeeded in two experiments in this direction. It is acknowledged that is difficult to secure interest in university work among that numerous class of high school pupils who do not go forward to the universities or professiona olleges, and yet 5,000 out of every 6,000 have hitherto ended their studies on leavng the high schools of the Province. For the benefit of this class Queen's University even years ago arranged a special class of study by correspondence, and the pupils were permitted to go up for examination in due course. Recently special classes have been formed in neighboring cities, which are taught by college professor after the Socratic method. The teacher lectures in a measure, but rather in a conversational manner, and the pupils come pencil in hand, prepared to take notes and to ask questions. This, to our mind, is the better method of the two. The popular lecture, with its surface information, its brief biographical sketch, its sandwichedin anecdotes to keep the inattentive from dozing into indifference, is all very well in its way, but it is not a strong educative force. It rarely stimulates inquiry The teacher who sets his class to thinking who asks them to let no problem however difficult to the mind of a pupil it may appear, pass without present so complish far better results than if he contented himself with lecturing them. It would not surprise us if aniversity extension work carried out in this way, should largely supersede the popular lecture. The system can be made of immense advantage to many if judiciously gone about. There is no reason why in the near future, with the Western University in full working order, the university extension idea should not be a most popular feature. If Kingston can make a success of this class of study, why not London ?

CANADA PAYS THE SHOT. Mr. John Anderson, of St. Thomas, who has just passed his first examination as civil engineer, leaves in a few days for Butte City, Mont.—[London Free Press. Yes! Canada pays for the education of very many clever young men who im-mediately seek a wider sphere of usefulness in the more progressive territory across the border. Pull down the commercial barriers and give the workers in Canada a chance to make a living at home.

HOOD'S

Sarsaparilla

It would be difficult to find a man etter known in the vicinity of Burlington, Vt., than Mr. R. D. Wheeler of Winooski Falls, the efficient Deputy Sheriff of Burlington county. He says: "Dear Sirs: If Hood's Sarsaparilla cost

810.00 a Bottle

I should still keep using it, as I have for the past ten years. With me the ouestion as to whether life is worth living depends upon whether I can get Hood's Sarsaparilla. I don't think I could live without it now, certainly I should not wish to, and suffer as I used to. For over ten years I suffered the horrors of the damned with Sciatic Rheumatism for if ever a man suffers with anything in this world it is with that awful disin this world it is with that awful disease. It seems to me as if all other physical suffering were compressed into that one. I took about everything man ever tried for it but never got a dollar's worth of help until I began taking Hood's Sarsaparilla

I have taken it now pretty regularly for ten years and have no more pain and can get around all right. I have advised a good many to try Hood's Sarsaparilla." R. D. WHEELER, Deputy Sheriff, Winooski Falls, Vt. Hood's Pills Cure Liver IIIs

Capt. Ed. Hanlon, of the Pittsburgh team, fell in the opening game at Cincinnation Monday, injuring his left leg so seriously that deubts are expressed of his ever again being able to play ball. Under the most favorable conditions he will be laid un for a good many weeks.

THE ALERTS QUISHONE THE STARS. The amateur baseball season in this city opened yesterday with a well-contested game between the Alerts and the Stars. A game between the Alerts and the Stars. A blastering wind and chilling atmosphere prevailed, but in spite of these unfavorable circamstances a crowd of fully 600 spectators gathered in the old Tecumseh park to witness the match. The Stars had the advantage of professional taleut, Dunn, Comnors and Morkin forming part of their nine, but notwithstanding these elements of strength, the Alerts won by a score of 11 to 5 in six innings, the weather being too cold to continue the play. The Alerts naturally feel elated over their success and are saxious to secure a match with an outside club for May 24. Manager Thomas Dandle, No. 149 Mill street, will be happy to make arrangements for a game on that day. The Alerts have a game on that o make arrangements for a game on that lay. The Alerts have been reinforced by the addition of four good men—J. Player, J. Webb, W. Ball and G. Wylie—and are ready to tackle any amateur club that comes along. Following is the score of

THE TURF.

The entries for the Merchants and Manufacturers' $10,000 stake, to be trotted at the blue ribbon meeting of the Detroit Driving Club have closed. There are 16 nominations.

Some of the heaviest winners on the running turf have sold at ridiculously low prices. Ripple's selling price was $80, while he won over 100 times that amount. Badge stepped from the ring as the auctioneer closed his hands on the bid of $120, yet the Nursery east-off had won $63,000 during his career on the turf. Only $165 was necessary to secure Barnum, the "ticon horse," yet his turf earnings sum $49,485.

D. T. Pulsifer only counted out $210 to secure Tenny, who has since swelled his owner's bank account $88,590. Raceland left the paddock at a bid at $225 to win $92,608, while the $240 paid for Diablo returned to his owner alife competency, as his winnings foot up $45,652. On the other hand some very high-priced yearlings have proved rank failures. King Thomas cost $35,000, and Joe Blackburn $7,000, two brothers to Foxhall $12,000, and Bluebird $5,500, but they were no use as racchorses.

Smallpox is creating terrible ravages in Mount Olive Cemetery. N.B.—In buying ALABASTINE see that it is the genuine (Church's Alabastine). Many Kalsomines and so-called wall finishes are put up in similar form, but are in no way like Alabastine, as they are all dependent on glue to hold them to the wall, and always require removing from the wall before re-coating with anything. Alabastine makes a permanent porous stone-like cement, that hardens with age, and every coat added from time to time in keeping walls in repair improves them. It is made ready for use by mixing in COLD WATER.

Quite recently a business man in Toronto confessed to a newspaper reporter that his views and opinions were completely changed of late. "I am not a political or religious convert," said the merchant; "I am a convert to a great, a mighty truth—a truth that our people should know more about. Like thousands of others, I treated with contempt the fact that there was a remedy that could cure rheumatism. I thought when doctors failed to cure this terrible disease that no other earthly agency could relieve or take cure rheumatism. I thought when doctors failed to cure this terrible disease that no other earthly agency could relieve or take it away. A few months ago I found out the failacy of my reasonings and conclusions, and now candidly admit that there is a grand power that can do this work tto every sufferer's satisfaction and delight. I was induced to try Paine's Celery Compound, and it has entirely cured me. I suffered terribly for two years, and spent money freely with physicians. I was treated with electricity and other methods, but all failed to do me good; truly this Paine's Celery Compound is a most marvelous remedy."

Here we have the honest and fearless statements of one of Toronto's best known business men; in addition to this, hundreds of the best testimonials attest strongly the value of Paine's Celery Compound as a cure for the worst cases of rheumatism.

In every section of this broad Dominion the power and worth of this great remedy is well known. It comes to our people recommended by physicians, elergymen, lawyers, and our best public men. No other has given such universal satisfaction.

No need to suffer any longer, dear reader, this remedy will meet your case; if you are weak and nervous, it will build you up; if you are sleepless and irritable, it will give you are dyspeptic, it will give you are healthy and natural digestion and a good appetite. Paine's Celery Compound can do all this, and bring joy, hope and peace of mind.

MUSICAL AND DRAMATIC.

Madame Janauscheck has a new melo-drama entitled "The Harvest Moon," in which she is said to give a remarkably strong acting of a part that suggests both her Hortense and Lady Mansfield.

Parties wishing to subscribe will please hand in their names and street addresses to the business office at their earliest convenience.

A Chineso drama was lately produced in Melbourne, the plot of which discusses a slight unpleasantness between a British missionary and the Chinese. The former is worsted, and condemned to death by being laced in a spiked barrel, his eyelids cu off, his face turned toward the sun-kindly out, his face turned toward the sun-kindly kept from setting by some local Joshua—and he is allowed to expire slowly to "the "darndest music ever yet heard," according to the Australian Bulletin, and which must have made the wretched criminal glad to die.

THE BUSINESS OUTLOCK.

Anomalous State of Affairs in the States

—Commercial Agencies at Variance
in Their Figures.

New York, April 15.—Dun, Wiman & Co,'s weekly review of trade says: During all this year business has been curiously sectional. Western cities are gaining and doing the largest business ever known. The South all the year has been struggling with unfavorable conditions, doing less business than a year ago. The East has been doing a large business—rather less than a year ago on the whole, but especially less than unity traders expected. Yet the volume of trade in the whole tountry has been larger than in any previous year. Failures for the last seven days for the United States, 191; for Canada, 35; total, 226; against 208 last week, and 218 the week before. For the corre-

SURPRISE SOAP reduces the work so much that you would almost believe there must be but four or five to wash for.

Mrs. Duncan McKay, Paris, Ont., writes: SURPRISE SOAP is the best soap I have ever used. I can do a large washing for ten of a family, have them all out by dinner time, and cook for them as well and not feel tired when I am through.

The peculiar qualities of SURPRISE SOAP

makes the wash day so easy, so simple, that even the largest wash can be done in two or three hours.

Messrs. Brener Bros., the successful manufacturers of Nos. 182-190 Horton street London, are in the field with a new leader, which has been happily named "THH PATROL." They intend to make this cigar popular wherever the Union Jack and Stars and Stripes float. It is a Cuban hand-made cigar, of which the filler is all Havana, mild and fragrant. The label, which is the design of the Patrol Co., is strikingly original. The words in which the names of the manufacturers occur at appropriate intervals. Nothing in the way of at label that is so simple, and at the same time so rich and attractive, has been originated, and it would be impossible to present to the trade a more clegant package. "The Patrol," cigar is certain to win instant recognition, and to increase largely the annual output of its manufacturers.

It had Wings.

The popular biscuit and confectionery traveler, Mr. Jos. Wilcox, of London, tells this fish story. He states that whilst fishing through a hole in the ice at Pond Mills recently he hitched on to what appeared to be a gigantic sucker. With the aid of a companion he succeeded in landing this enormous specimen of the finny tribe, when, strange to say, after giving a few vigorous flaps, the fins of the monster suddenly developed into wings, and it flew away in a southerly direction. Not having a gun, Joe says he could not stop it. Were we not certain that Mr. W. is a gentleman of undoubted veracity, and that this is afish story, and backed up by a lay clergyman named Ambrose Clary, who states that while performing his duties of mail clerk on the St. Clair branch he saw the flying fish pass over in the vicinity of Melbourne, we would be inclined to doubt the above adventure.—[Alvinston Free Press.]

WONDERFUL EVENTS.

CERTAIN WONDERFUL EVENTSTHAT occur from week to week are recorded in our doily press, and create much surprise and call (a: comment amongst all classes of our population. Our people are quick to discern grand and worthy deeds; they feel that in some degree men and women are made better; and that notwithstanding the fact that the world is evil, there is still something worth living and working for. Certain newspapers have informed us of great and mighty cures, which to one class in particular these recorded events have proved a blessing, and brought comfort and cheer to many despondent hearts. Week after week we have had proof of men and women—old and young—who were saved from the dark tomb through the power of a remedy that not one paper in Canada had the generosity to mention the name, save the ADVERTISER, simply because they were not paid for advertising this remedy. This shows a most wonderful pocuniary principle
on the part of an otherwise generous gress

One Price Only.

Hubert Ashplant, having for some years past felt dissatisfied with the bantering two-priced system of dealing, which has so long been prevathe price of the price only, and at such low cost that no customer can fail to see good value. While obliged to meet a demand for all grades, I shall not study the shoddy or sheepskin lines, but cultivate such goods as can truly be recommended.
I am daily opening out new and stylish spring goods. These new lines are bought right and are all being marked at lowest possible cash prices, and is the course of a few days all goods previously in stock will be re-marked in plain figures on the same system. I believe this onetopic of the price of
