ODDLY PLACED TRIMMINGS DISTINGUISH SPRING HATS

This hat for southern wear is typical of the new millinery styles in that its whimsically-placed feather trimming is the sole decoration, the crown and upper brim being quite bare except for a narrow band of grosgrain ribbon tied in a tiny flat bow at one side. The hat is a new model of fine white mill with a fancy feather ornament in coral pink, tied to the brim with black velvet. This hat was designed to match a morning frock of pink striped pique, worn with buttoned boots of white buckskin.

A DENIAL IS MADE TO DYA

Regarding Graft Charges in the Quebec Legislature.

[By Special Wire to The Courier]

MONTREAL, Jan. 21.—Emphatic denials of the allegations made here this morning by The Daily Mail that Hon. Louis Philippe Berard, member of the Quebec legislative council; Hon. Achille Bergevin, K. C., and J. O. Mousseau, M.L.A., has illegally accepted money from the promoters of the Montreal Fair Association of Canada for helping a bill to pass the legislature, were made to-day in Quebec by the parties concerned. Mr. Mousseau said the whole thing was a "put up job," and intimated that he would consult those concerned with him in the charges as to the advisability of taking action against those responsible for libel.

Mr. Berard repudiated the charge, of accepting a bribe.

The feeling among politicians here is that the easiest way to dispose of the matter, which has caused the utmost excitement, is to hold an inquiry.

Adam Beck May Get It

[By Special Wire to The Courier]

LONDON, Ont., Jan. 21.—Close friends of Hon. Adam Beck to-day stated there was a serious possibility of his succeeding Lord Strathcona as Canadian high commissioner at London. It is stated that quite recently Mr. Beck received a letter from Strathcona, in which he expressed the wish that he might be followed by Ontario's power minister. In recent years the two have become great friends, and Strathcona contributed a handsome sum towards the Alexander sanatorium at Byron.

Children's Work For the Hospital

The following is the report of the Children's committee of the W. H. A.:

During the year 1913, the Children's Branch of the Women's Hospital Aid has continued work in its various sections. Their aim is always to inspire and foster among the children, the desire to help the sick and suffering, and to encourage them to raise, by their own efforts, small sums of money to furnish comforts for the Children's Ward.

The membership has increased this year. A new branch having been established in the East Ward, under the able management of Mrs. Colquhoun. We are in hopes that the North Ward Branch may soon be at work also.

In February a travel talk given by Miss Bertha Smith of London, gave much pleasure to those who were able to be present, and helped the funds greatly. In March a bazaar was held in the centre city branch, at the residence of Mrs. G. D. Watt. Here very enthusiastic groups made guest towels, ties, handkerchiefs, etc., and realized about $30.

In May a concert was given by the Holmedale branch under the direction of Mrs. Hutton, Mrs. Vacey and Mrs. Sayer, which added over $22 and brought much interest in the children's work.

In midsummer a talent tea was given by those splendid workers, the Eagle Place Branch, under the direction of Mrs. Hawley and Mrs. Gordon, which swelled their earlier amount to a goodly sum.

At Christmas, the Children's branch made gifts of handkerchiefs to the children in the Isolation and General Hospitals.

The small yearly fee of five cents and the work accomplished by the children, which, very often is done in the long summer holidays, is doing wonders as an education, and will do more when the children can see the fruits of their labor in the children's ward.

M. T. COCKSHUTT, Convenor.

STORIES OF ENORMOUS WEALTH

The execution of Thomas Scott by orders of Louis Riel while Donald A. Smith was near at hand (and although the head of the powerful Hudson's Bay Company, he was practically a prisoner and absolutely helpless to bring any relief to the doomed man), was perhaps the most powerful ordeal ever passed through by the late Lord Strathcona.

Referring to this painful episode in Canadian history during one of his recent visits to Canada, his Lordship said he was sitting in his office a day or two after Riel had taken possession of Fort Garry with his half breed escort, when a Church of England clergyman named Young came to him in a terrible state of excitement, saying that a man was to be shot down at the fort within an hour. A few minutes before this an Oblate Father had come in and after passing the time of day with the commissioner went upstairs to another office. Thinking of the influence the priest might have with Riel, Lord Strathcona, in his own language said:

"I ran upstairs two steps at a time though I could not do so to-day and meeting the priest I said 'Do you know, sir, that a man is to be shot down at the fort?' When he replied he had heard it, I said: 'And you did not mention it when you came in; come down at once and see what we can do with Riel in the way of saving this man's life.'"

Lord Strathcona related that when they arrived and were ushered into French, which Donald Smith understood, and said: "Riel, is there no means of saving this man?" Riel replied, "Father you know there is no means of saving him."

"This is very interesting history," said the interviewer, and his Lordship replied: "Yes, but not to be published while I am alive."

Lord Strathcona also said he saw Scott move in his coffin after being shot, and Riel finished him with a revolver in his own hand.

Officers of Junior H. A.

At the annual meeting of the Junior Hospital Aid, the following officers were elected for the ensuing year: Hon. President, Mrs. J. H. A. new; President, Miss Edna Preston; 1st. Vice-president, Miss Nora Tomlinson; 2nd. Vice Pres., Miss Sara Raymond; Secretary, Miss Gertrude McFarland; Treasurer, Miss Anna Harold; Convenors of the Buying Committee: Mrs. W. J. Teldkamp; Miss E. Messacar; Convenors of the Visiting Committee: Mrs. H. J. Jordan, Miss Marjorie Street.

The membership of the J. H. A. has been maintained, new members taking the place of those who have left the city.

Mother-in-Law Killed.

At Tallaght, County Dublin, John Sheppard and Michael Walsh were charged with the murder of Mrs. Morcella Walsh. The woman was found in her house with a revolver wound, and died later in the hospital. Walsh stated that he gave the revolver to child in the house, who let it fall, and it went off and killed the woman, who was his mother-in-law. Sheppard was discharged, and Walsh returned for trial.

IS STILL MISSING.

PLYMOUTH, Eng., Jan. 21.—The services of a number of aviators have been enlisted in the search for the British submarine "A7" which, with her crew of eleven, disappeared on January 16 during manoeuvres in Whitesand Bay, near here, and has not since been located. A number of hydro-aeroplanes attached to the British navy left to-day for Whitesand Bay.

WILL APPOINT COMMISSION.

QUEBEC, Jan. 21.—Mr. J. A. Mousseau, M.P.P., in speaking of The Montreal Daily Mail charges this morning, said that when the house met this afternoon a declaration would be made denying the accusation, to be followed by the appointment of a committee to investigate the charges after prorogation. The government members of the house refuse to believe the charges and say the whole thing is a blackmailing frame up that will eventually be exposed.

SCHMIDT'S JURY

NEW YORK, Jan. 21.—After two days and a half spent in the examination of more than 200 witnesses, a jury was completed this afternoon for the second trial of Hans Schmidt, the one-time priest, who slew Anna Ammuller, dismembered her body and threw it into the Hudson River. Though Schmidt confessed the crime, his defence is insanity, and the first jury failed to agree upon a verdict.

LORD STRATHCONA

It is given to very few men to attain to the age of over 93 years and to be able to discharge onerous public duties and to be the guiding head of one of the largest private fortunes in the world, almost until the last.

There cannot be poignant regret over the falling asleep of one so rich in length of years and attainment, but from all Canada, yes and the Empire also, there will be unstinted tribute to his worth and work. A poor Scotch boy, possessed of nothing save his own integrity and indomitable will, he rose from humble surroundings to be a peer of the realm and the personal friend of Queen Victoria, King Edward, King George and the notables of two continents.

Through it all he never lost his direct simplicity, or his kindly heart. From first to last, he was a broad-minded man, whose destiny it was to play a prominent part in a very large field indeed.

Although a man well known in the Hudson Bay service in whose employ he had risen step by step, he did not come into general public notice until he was 49 years of age. This was at the period of the first Riel Rebellion when his personal services at Fort Garry did much to allay a serious situation and to prevent the killing of more than one prisoner in addition to poor Scott, for whose life he also pleaded, but in vain. From this time on, he was always a man of recognized prominence.

What Canada owes to him, it would be impossible to compute. He was to a very large extent the backbone of that plucky and far seeing band of men, who foresaw the possibilities of the opening up of the great West by the construction of the Canadian Pacific Railway.

They had many periods of doubt and even despair, during the process of that colossal undertaking, but Donald Smith, as he then was, never lost heart. He threw all his means into the enterprise and what his energy and optimism stood for was frankly stated by Sir Charles Tupper when in a speech in London in 1897, he said: "The Canadian Pacific Railway would have no existence to-day, notwithstanding all that the government did to support the undertaking, had it not been for the indomitable pluck and energy and determination both financially and in every other respect, of Donald Smith."

It is true that his courage and faith made him a multi-millionaire, but his vast inheritance left him unchanged and his gifts to worthy objects were as munificent as they were continuous. His deeds in this regard amounted to many millions of dollars and his equipment and despatch of the Strathcona horse, composed of six hundred mounted men, to help Great Britain in the Boer war, alone involved a princely outlay. But it was not only to Empire, or McGill and other University objects that he gave, but also to the needy and afflicted, such as $1,000,000 for the building of the Royal Victoria Hospital, Montreal with $800,000 endowment; $1,000,000 to King Edwards Hospital fund; $50,000 to Queen Alexandra's unemployed fund, hundreds of thousands to Y. M. C. A. and benevolent objects.

A great and a true man has been called home and the world has been all the better for his abidance here.

MORE OBSTRUCTION PLANNED The correspondent of The Montreal Daily Mail, who is looking after parliamentary matters at Ottawa, outlines in that paper the Laurierite plan of campaign for the session.

He states with regard to the proposed appointment of new Senators from the West that it is the intention of the Opposition to oppose the same until a redistribution of seats has first been made. An amendment to this effect will be moved and of course voted down. Then the main proposal will go to the Upper Chamber and the Senators at a nod from Laurier will draw their snickersaacs and kill it.

The next dodge will be with reference to the Redistribution Bill itself. The Laurierites will move that the entire measure be submitted to a special committee of the House composed of both sides. The proposal will be in such shape that it cannot be accepted by the Borden administration and then the members of the Senate will once more do the guillotine act. The correspondent adds:

"The Liberals hope by this plan of campaign to so seriously embarrass the government that it will eventually be forced to appeal to the electors."

In other words it is to be a dirty and a persistent scheme of block, block, block, without the slightest regard to the merits of any bill, or the interests of the people. If Laurier and his associates think that by such a course they are going to rehabilitate themselves in the confidence of the people they must consider common sense and ordinary decency are at a very low ebb in this Dominion.

MR. WHITE SPEAKS Hon. Mr. White, Minister of Finance, made a notable speech in the Dominion House yesterday in continuing the debate on the Speech from the Throne. He pointed out that of seven members elected in bye-elections during recess, six had been Conservative, and he considered this a very cogent illustration of how the two parties stood in the matter of popular approval.

Referring to the "Blue Ruin" talk of Liberals, he showed that the revenue during the first year of the present Administration had been $136,000,000, and this year would be about $170,000,000. The total trade last year reached one billion dollars, and this year even that immense sum would be exceeded. Immigrants had been reaching our shores at the rate of from one thousand to twelve hundred a day. He clearly demonstrated the extravagance and the bungling of Hon. Mr. Fielding when he was Finance Minister. In thirteen months he had borrowed more than one hundred million dollars, whereas the borrowings of the present Government had in all during two years totalled $43,000,000, of which $10,000,000 was required to meet maturing loans. Moreover, the net debt had been reduced from $321,000,000 to $303,000,000.

Mr. White twitted Sir Wilfrid Laurier with having dropped his free food fad in his speech of the previous day. If Sir Wilfrid demanded that farm products be placed in the free list he might hear from his friends in the mixed farming provinces. The placing of foodstuffs on the free list would affect 6985 industrial establishments having a capital of $183,000,000, employing 52,000 persons and having an annual output valued at $245,000,000.

Mr. White said that if the Laurier Administration had devoted to encouragement of agriculture a fraction of the sum expended on the National Transcontinental Railway between Winnipeg and Moncton the country might not have been called upon to face the problem of the high cost of living. He declared that the present Administration favored a policy whereby life on the farm would be made attractive and the love of the cities would be counteracted. Moreover, he said, the estimates for agriculture this year would be higher than ever. To consider the revision of the tariff downward in such a year, said the Finance Minister, would be to dislocate industry in the country. "As far as I know there is no public opinion in favor of a general revision downward."

NOTES AND COMMENTS

Sir Wilfrid Laurier's bad break with regard to Reciprocity doesn't seem to have done him any good. He keeps blundering away with regard to almost every subject he touches.

The Hydro-Electric has made good in Brantford, just as it has elsewhere, no doubt to the Brantford Expositor's great disgust, for that paper wanted the citizens kept in the hands of a private monopoly.

RED LETTER DAY

The Christmas time has passed away; we're now approaching ground-hog day—that day momentous, fraught with fate, when from his underground estate the groundhog comes and casts his eyes upon the bleak midwinter skies. And if the sun is shining then, he goes into his hole again, and says, "Ods Fish!" The storms will roar and whoop around for six weeks more! But if dark clouds obscure the sun, the groundhog says: "Now spring's begun, and I'll forsake my dingy lair and breathe again the open air." So let me live and train my soul that when the groundhog leaves his hole he will not find me unprepared, nor by his stern decision snared. If winter's due to last a while, may I be found with zoodily pile of coal and kindling for the grate; and if the spring is coming straight, may I be fixed with rakes and hoes, and garden seeds, and things like those. The prudent man plans in advance, and then whatever luck may chance he is not in a corner caught, but he is Johnnie on the spot. So do not sit and twirl your thumbs, but when the stately groundhog comes, predicting weeks of cold or heat, be sure he'll find you on your feet.

CANADIAN BIRTHDAYS

Wednesday, Jan. 21.

The Hon. Jules Allard, Minister of Lands and Forests in the Quebec Government, who is fifty-five years of age to-day, was born and brought up at St. Francois du Lac, P.Q. He is a lawyer by profession but has long taken a considerable interest in public affairs, beginning by being a school commissioner in his native village, he rose to be mayor and then was elected to the Legislature. For a time he led the government forces in the Legislative Council. His abilities were recognized by Premier Gouin a few years ago and he was given the portfolio of colonization and public works. Later he was shifted to the department of agriculture and five years ago to his present office.

It is upon such lives as his that the foundations of our great Empire have been so well and truly laid. With all, he was one of the humblest, sincerest and most unassuming men I ever knew."

The Times prints two columns of an obituary notice of Lord Strathcona, as well as half a column of editorial in which it characterizes Lord Strathcona as a supreme instance of a successful business man, whose devotion of all his energies to a task imperially important as a shining example of public spirit and self sacrifice.

The lateness of Lord Strathcona's end, prevented the majority of the London papers announcing the sad news in their regular editions. The Daily Express, The Daily Chronicle, and The Times, the latter published at a a.m., were the only papers which announced the fact in their first editions.

The Express printed half a column obituary notice, while the sketch in the Daily Chronicle filled two columns, and was accompanied by a column of appreciation by Mr. Hamar Greenwood, M.P., who though a Canadian-born, first met Lord Strathcona in London, as he had been appointed High Commissioner. Mr. Greenwood recalls that only a week ago, Lord Strathcona personally called upon Sir Edward Grey, the foreign secretary and formally protested, on behalf of Canada, against the treatment of the Canadian Pacific Railway by Austria.

The second editions of the other newspapers published the fullest appreciation of the life of the great Scotch-Canadian.

strict peopled by notabilities. He also had a large establishment at Glencoe, Scotland, close to the scene of the famous massacre of William III's time and overlooking the island where the murdered clansmen were buried. The Royal Society of Arts recently presented Lord Strathcona with its Albert Medal in recognition of his services towards the improvement of railway communication.

A Great Blow.

The death of Lady Strathcona in November last was a great blow, but even then the venerable High Commissioner's force of will asserted itself. He insisted on attending the funeral, and a week later presided over the Hudson Bay meeting. This was his last appearance in public. The meeting in December at the Mansion House under the presidency of the Lord Mayor to further the scheme for the Dominion Exhibition at the Crystal Palace next year was without the presence of Lord Strathcona, who had been the first to take an active interest in the project. His lordship all the same had booked a number of immigrants for the next few months. Less than ten days ago he wrote to correspondents. Although he was then suffering from a cold, he hoped to be about again in a few days. Colonial Secretary Harcourt, referring to Lord Strathcona recently said "He wears 'the laurels, or rather maple leaves, of unselfish, industrious life, which make the crown of ripe and honored age."

Life of Strathcona.

The late Lord Strathcona was the son of Alexander S. Smith and his wife Barbara and was born in Forres, Morayshire, Scotland, on August 6, 1820. He was educated there and in 1838 came to Canada as an employee of the Hudson Bay Company. Donald Alexander Smith as he then was spent thirteen years on the Labrador coast and was afterwards stationed in the Canadian northwest, with whose after-history and development he had much to do. Ultimately he became a chief factor of his company and subsequently was made its resident governor and chief commissioner in Canada.

Mr. Smith first came into prominence as a public man during the Reill rebellion in the Red River district of Manitoba and as special commissioner of the Dominion Government inquired into the disturbances. For his exhibition of tact he was thanked by the Governor-in-Council. He was returned to the legislature of Manitoba for Winnipeg and St. John, was called to the northwest territorial council and was later returned as a member for Selkirk in the House of Commons. He was defeated at a bye-election for the Dominion House in 1880, but was returned as member for Montreal West in 1887. After serving as a delegate in 1896 to the Manitoba Government in reference to the school question, he retired from political life and was appointed as Canada's high commissioner to London, in which position he has won the admiration of the British Empire. At the outset of his political career Sir John Macdonald, but went over to the Liberals during "Pacific scandal" in 1873 though he gave his old leader independent support at times.

Probably the deceased commissioner's greatest work was that done in the field of railway development and it was in acknowledgement of his labors for the Canadian Pacific Railway that he was created Baron Strathcona and Mount Royal in 1897 by Queen Victoria, a knighthood having been conferred on him in 1886. He was appointed a G. C. V. O. in 1908 while honorary degrees of doctors of law have been conferred upon him by Cambridge, Yale, Aberdeen, Laval, Toronto, Queens, Ottawa and St. Andrews Universities.

Lord Strathcona was one of the largest shareholders of the Canadian Pacific Railway and the Bank of Montreal to mention two of the largest enterprises with which he was connected.

His lordship during the South African war raised and maintained a corps of horses which bore his name. Millions of dollars have been given away by Lord Strathcona in educational and charitable work especially in Montreal. He gave $1,000,000 to the King Edward Hospital funds. Lord Strathcona married Isabella Sophia daughter of Richard Hardisty who only predeceased him in November last. He will be succeeded by his daughter, the Hon. Mrs. M. O. Wloard.

Land Purchase Arrears.

The guardians of Ballymahon, County Longford, have refused to contribute to the sum of one thousand pounds, the amount which the county is in arrears owing to the default of tenants purchasing their holdings under the Land Acts. The guardians protested against the payment of arrears out of the county rates, and asserted that tenants who did not pay their land purchase annuities should be evicted.

A Big Pay Roll.

About 70 unemployed have already been taken care of by the civic authorities and the pay roll amounts to $1600 per week. The board of works will further take up the situation tonight.

TWO OFFERS RECEIVED

Street Railway Bondholders Meet in Toronto City Today.

They Still Want Mr. Stockdale Retained as Receiver.

[By Special Wire to The Courier] TORONTO, Jan. 21.—At a meeting of the Bondholders of the Grand Valley Railroad held to-day at the Trust and Guarantee Board room, E. B. Stockdale occupied the chair. Mr. Worrell, chairman of the bondholders committee stated that the bondholders were perfectly satisfied with the receivership of the road being retained in the hands of Mr. Stockdale, although willing to have a joint receiver if found advisable on behalf of National Trust Co. or other interests. Mr. Stockdale was giving every satisfaction. No motion was made on the question. Mr. Stockdale stated that at 11:15 this morning he had received an offer for the purchase of the road. He had not had time to go into the figures and thought it was inadvisable to make public the name or amount offered. Mr. Stockdale after the meeting told The Courier the offer was from Mr. Kellett of Brantford. He refused to divulge the figures. He also stated he was negotiating with another responsible concern for the purchase of the property and expected to receive an offer to-day or to-morrow. He had also been in negotiation with some other responsible concerns. He thought that probably three offers in all would be received for the road.

On motion the following committee of bondholders was appointed to consider in detail the Kellett offer and any other offers that may be made. Worrall, Stark, Owen, Wallace, MeMaster, Vickers, Davies and G. H. Muirhead.

Mr. Vickers gave notice of motion that at the next meeting of bondholders he would bring up a resolution that all bondholders rank on a parity one with the other. He thought it would end expensive and endless litigation if the first bondholders were to rank ahead of the second bondholders. There was apparently adverse sentiment of several present against this motion although it carried.

The meeting adjourned to meet again on February 6th, to receive the report of the special committee appointed to consider offers made for the road.

Mr. Stockdale stated that he thought if a sale were through there would be a small surplus for distribution amongst bondholders.

Brantford bondholders present were H. F. Yates, W. R. Turnbull, G. H. Muirhead and R. H. Reville.

A WINDFALL FOR QUEBEC

Strathcona's Estate in That Province Estimated at Eighty Million.

[By Special Wire to The Courier] QUEBEC, Jan. 21.—The death of Lord Strathcona will have a material effect on the revenue of the province for the current year. It is understood that the immense buildings of the late high commissioner will fall under the succession law of Quebec, and calculations are easily made that the revenue from the estate will amount up to millions of dollars.

It is said it was anticipated that the value of the holdings was about $80,000,000, and if so, the succession duties at eight per cent would amount to $6,400,000. This amount will very likely be modified when the value of the estate in Quebec is known, as this very point has arisen over the judgment of the Privy Council in the Cotton case. At all events the province is expecting to benefit to the extent of several millions by the death of Lord Strathcona.

His Western Estate. WINNIPEG, Man., Jan. 21.—Profound regret was expressed in the Legislature last night when the members were apprised of the death of Lord Strathcona and public tributes were paid from the floor of the house by the government by Sir Rodmond Roblin, and for the opposition by their leader, T. C. Norris.

It is estimated that the holdings of the late Lord Strathcona in Winnipeg, will total over $2,000,000. In Silver Heights he held over 800 acres of valuable property. He owned Fort Garry Court at the corner of Main and the Broadway Block on Broadway and several other valuable properties both in the city and throughout the province.

Looking Into System Col. Ross, city clerk at Sudbury, is in the city looking into the system in existence in the local city clerk's department.

AN EPOCH IN CENTRAL BRITISH COLUMBIA.

On Tuesday, January 13th, the laying of steel on the Grand Trunk Pacific Railway reached Prince George, the coming city of Central British Columbia, situated at the junction of the Fraser and the Nechaco Rivers. This was a momentous event, as it gives Prince George the first rail connection it has had with the outside world. It is interesting to note that up to date the Grand Trunk Pacific Townsite and Development Company have sold in their town of Prince George 3,171 lots. Total value of same being $2,322,003.33.

Owing to the large area of agricultural lands in the district surrounding Prince George and the vast territory of unknown possibilities that are in the immediate vicinity, will make this an important city, and a great distributing point for the entire Central British Columbia region.

Shaughnessy Says "Canadian League Baseball Will Be Innovation to The Erie Fans"

Ottawa Manager Does Not Hesitate in Claiming That Americans Will be in Faster Baseball Circuit Than They Have Ever Been — "Shag" Knows Conditions in United States—Erie was in Same League When He Won 1912 Pennant for Fort Wayne.

(London Free Press.)
Manager Frank Shaughnessy, of the Ottawa Canadian League Club, winners of the 1912 and 1913 pennants, in speaking about the Erie territory, which was awarded to the Canadian League, said:
"Erie baseball fans do not need to fear that they will not be able to see ball of high order when the Canadian League is introduced to them this coming season. I managed the Fort Wayne club, which won the pennant of the Central League in 1912, when Erie saw class 'B' ball and it has been my experience since playing in the Canadian League that, despite the fact that this league was only a class 'C' league last season, it was equal, if not a faster article than dished up in the 12-team Central League, from which Erie was dropped last season. Fast class 'B' will be an innovation to Erie fans."
It was learned from Shaughnessy who is well known by Erie baseball fans, that the kind of baseball that the Canadian League will play this season with a higher salary limit and of class "B" character, will be a huge success in the only American city on this big circuit, which commands an aggregate population of nearly one million people. The introduction of Toronto with a population of 500,000 makes it possible for much improved baseball in this league, and gives the league a standing which is envied by all minor organizations. At the annual meeting of the National Association of Professional Baseball Clubs, held at Columbus, Ohio, the Canadian League came in for a great deal of praise from the 600 delegates from all the corners of the continent.
Five clubs in the league last season made money and, while three stood to lose on the season, the drafts of players made it possible for an even break in most cases.
The fact that about $8,000 was distributed among the clubs on sales and drafts from higher classification clubs shows with what esteem the league is held by the majors and greater minor leagues.
Secretary J. H. Farrell, of the National Board in his latest bulletin notified the award of the Erie territory and transferred the Guelph franchise and players to Erie.
Owner George H. O'Neill, of the club, will be in Erie shortly when it is expected that final arrangements will be made to secure William Quinlan, the former manager of the Erie Inter-State club, to manage the 1914 Erie Club in the Canadian League. His knowledge of conditions and his baseball ability will also add much to place the game on this circuit in a promising light before the fans of Erie. The dissection which was raised in Erie at the offer of the League baseball is gradually abating and the day is not far off when the new venture will be received with open arms.
The Canadian League is staple and here to stay and will provide an opportunity, something which is an unknown quantity in Erie, as the three past seasons have seen three different organizations making an attempt to give Erie baseball. In 1911, Erie was in the Ohio and Pennsylvania League of class 'C'; in 1912, they were included in the Central League, finishing second, while in 1913 they were with Youngstown, the mainstay of the Inter-State, which blew up before the end was reached.

WOODSTOCK A. A. A. ANNUAL MEETING

Industrial City Amateur Athletic Association Enjoys Another Great Year.

WOODSTOCK, Jan. 21.—The annual meeting of the Woodstock Amateur Athletic Association was held last evening. There was a splendid turnout of members who were very enthusiastic over the prospects outlined in connection with the coming year's entertainment and social functions to be arranged for later by committees, having this work in hand.

Some splendid prizes have been donated by Mr. E. W. Nesbitt, M.P. Captain Bert Millman, and Mr. A. M. Mair for a series of social card entertainments. A pool and billiard tournament is to be run off during the winter and spring months, and everything points to increased activity in the social side of the association's life. They do not purpose abandoning their efforts to promote good sports in Woodstock, despite the fact that the athletic grounds were recently sold for industrial purposes, and the association will give consideration to plans for the promotion of real sporting events at future meetings.

The following officers have been elected for the coming year: President, Captain Bert Millman; vice-president, Harry McIntosh; treasurer, E. F. Fidler; secretary, Frank Hyde; assistant secretary, W. Rowland; management committee, W. H. Martin, D. V. Campbell, W. J. Salter, Reg. Stone, M. Graves; auditors, F. J. Ure, R. T. Whitelaw. The treasurer's report was the most satisfactory given for many years. Several new members were enrolled.

FORD AND CAMNITZ GOING TO FEDERALS

Two Major League Pitchers Sign With the New Organization.

CHICAGO, Jan. 21.—The Federal League signed two big league pitchers yesterday—Russel Ford, of the New York Americans, and Howard Camnitz of the Philadelphia Nationals. The news of their signing came from managers of the Federal League teams and though other players, it is believed, were lined up yesterday for the new league, no official announcement was made to that effect.

Negotiations with Al Demaree, the New York Nationals' pitcher, were ended soon after they were begun when Demaree informed Joe Tinker over the telephone he had already signed a Giant contract. The Federals also made an offer to outfielder Wolter of the New York Americans. Ford will probably be added to the Chicago roster and Camnitz either to Pittsburgh or Indianapolis.

Stephen Cusack, formerly an umpire with the National League, was also signed by the Federals.

GUELPH, Jan. 21.—The Guelph Union Curling Club are winners of District No. 10 for the Ontario tankard competition, which was completed here yesterday afternoon. Mahoney, who defeated Tauburn and Beck of Blampton. This left the final to be played between the local clubs. The result was a win for the Unions by 7 shots. The score:
Royal City: C. R. Crow 15; R. Mahoney 12. Total 27.
Guelph: F. R. Johnston 17; J. A. Lillie 10. Total 27.

THEY VISITED WESLEY LEAGUE

Cainsville Epworth League Rendered an Excellent Program.

The Epworth League service of Wesley Methodist Church was taken Monday night by the Cainsville Epworth League. The visiting league gave a very enjoyable program consisting of vocal quartettes and solos and a splendid reading given by one of the young ladies. Rev. Mr. Morrow, their pastor, was also called on for a reading, but he said he had never taken any lessons. However, he supposed it was better to be a "natural born reciter" than to be a "natural born fool." He gave the "Burial of Moses" and there must have been more than one who only wished that they had the talent of Mr. Morrow. The programme was completed with a "Medley" by the young ladies. This proved to be one of the features, and one that will long be remembered by Wesley Leaguers. The Wesley Young Ladies had a contest prepared which proved very interesting, and had the desired effect of making the visiting league more acquainted. A very dainty lunch was served in the 3M Bible Class room. Small tables were arranged very invitingly and all enjoyed this part of the programme.

Rev. Mr. Morrow then on behalf of the Cainsville League expressed his thanks for the invitation to come up to Brantford and assured Wesley that they had enjoyed themselves, also expressing a wish that in the very near future they would have the pleasure of having Wesley Leaguers down at Cainsville. Rev. Mr. Liddy then on behalf of Wesley thanked them for their invitation and said he did not think it would be very far distant before they would see Wesley as the programme they had put on was certainly enjoyed by them all. The meeting was closed with the united singing of "God be with you 'till we meet again." Rev. Mr. Morrow pronouncing the benediction.

IF HAIR IS TURNING GRAY, USE SAGE TEA

Here's Grandmother's Recipe to Darken and Beautify Faded Hair.

That beautiful, even shade of dark, glossy hair can only be had by brewing a mixture of Sage Tea and Sulphur. Your hair is your charm. It makes or mars the face. When it fades, turns gray, streaked and looks dry, wispy and scraggly, just an application or two of Sage and Sulphur enhances its appearance a hundred-fold.

Don't bother to prepare the tonic; you can get from any drug store a 50 cent bottle of "Wyeth's Sage and Sulphur Hair Remedy," ready to use. This can always be depended upon to bring back the natural color, thickness and lustre of your hair and remove dandruff, stop scalp itching and falling hair.

Everybody uses "Wyeth's" Sage and Sulphur because it darkens so naturally and evenly that nobody can tell it has been applied. You simply dampen a sponge or soft brush with it and draw this through the hair, taking one small strand at a time; by morning grey hair has disappeared and after another application it becomes beautifully dark and appears glossy, lustrous and abundant. DEAD SEVERAL DAYS, IS LIVING AGAIN

Dr. Ricketts, of Cincinnati, Explains New Surgical Operation.

DETROIT, Jan. 21.—"Operations upon the heart and lungs, within a very few years will be performed as commonly and as successfully as operations upon the abdominal cavity," said Dr. B. Merrill Ricketts, the eminent Cincinnati surgeon and pathologist, in explaining his method of producing artificial respiration by mechanical means, the essential factor in operating upon the thorax, before the Wayne County Medical Association here last night.

"I have sewed up stiletto wounds, taken bullets from the heart and patients have recovered," said Dr. Ricketts, who also demonstrated his intra thoracic operations on a dog, which was first put completely under the influence of ether with the anaesthetizing apparatus. This apparatus would resuscitate people who had been drowned and restore patients who had been poisoned by any of the poisons which cause paralysis of the respiratory muscles. In one case of morphine poisoning, the apparatus, which was so simple that any doctor could make it for himself, was used for four days before action of the respiratory muscles was restored.

"Within a few years," he said, "I believe that every factory, every drug store, every ambulance will be equipped with this apparatus and many lives will be saved by its use."

BERLIN STRIKE FAILS

BERLIN, Jan. 21.—Ald. H. A. Hagen, chairman of the milk strike committee of 1913 council, attributes the failure of the strike ordered by the city council last December to a failure of the majority of the members refusing to stop using milk at eight cents per quart. Only three members out of 16, he says, complied with the order passed unanimously by the council.

Comment on British Football Situation

(By Tom Watson)

What do I see before my eyes?—Sunderland beaten by Aston Villa to the tune of 5-0! It seems incredible yet there it is in black and white. The "Villans" must all at once have risen from their apathy, and Sunderland is the first club to feel it. In this mood the Villa might quite well be relied upon to retain the English Cup. Another striking result is the victory of Preston North End over Sheffield Wednesday, also by a map hand. This is one of the surprises of the season. A feature of the day's results lies in the fact that all the three leading clubs in the first division of the English League were beaten. Blackburn, the top notchers, fell at Middlesboro, and the Teesiders are in a sense, revenged for that cup defeat a week ago. Another big surprise is the defeat of Manchester United at home by Chelsea. This result simply stuns. It was certainly a bad day for the leading clubs, and as all the first three fell, their positions on the table remain unchanged.

Harry Lauder's "Pet Ponies"

"My pet ponies," says Harry Lauder, "there's a scandal for you! For ten years I worked among them and tended and fed them, and it's shameful the way they are treated in the mines everywhere. Little to eat, kicks and cuffs while they're eating it, worked until half their skin is rubbed off them—it's dreadful, the poor animals! There ought to be government inspectors appointed, and I've wasted a fortune in stamps writing to everybody I thought could help me in Government positions."

But yesterday I had my lunch with the Chancellor of the Exchequer, Mr. Lloyd George, and he was most sympathetic, and introduced me to Mr. McKenna—and he's a Scotsman—and there was Mrs. Asquith and I told them all about the pits and the horrors I knew of them, and it's given me hope to see how they listened to me—and there may be those inspectors yet."

George V. Successful Farmer

The crowned heads of Britain, for many years, have recognized the fact that agriculture is the basis of a country's prosperity. For several years past many of the big prizes at the Smithfield Show in London, have been awarded to the farmer sovereign, whose exhibits are always a feature of the show.

upsetting their troughs and shaking the flour from their "becces," that the in any way "assisted" as the whiteness spick-and-span Gilbey Hall might have been an Irish fair; and so it continued.

Even as far back as 1800, King George III was an exhibitor at the great show, but failed to secure a prize. Six years later, the Duke of York was successful, Queen Victoria won many trophies, being awarded the Champion Cup for the best beast in the show in 1833, 1839, 1890, 1895 and 1899 and it may be incidentally mentioned, that by her command no exhibit that has not been bred on one of the Royal farms has been exhibited by the Sovereign, since the year 1890.

The King was highly amused at the scene and spent quite a long time in inspecting the various breeds. He expressed amused wonderment at the gigantic proportions of the champion crossbred, which weighed the vast amount of seven hundred weight at less than nine months old. The question of color especially interested him. He asked if the black patches were any disqualification and if the very vivid red of the Tamworths was in any way "assisted" as the whiteness of the white pig is assisted by flour.

King Edward won the championship of the cattle section in 1874, and the Cup for the best pen of sheep in 1885, while our present King won the championship for pigs in 1895, and the Prince Consort a gold medal for pigs in 1890.

Mr. Carpenter and Mr. and Mrs. Hoggard spent one evening last week at Mr. Thos. Woods.

At the recent show, Windsor, Sandringham and Balmoral were all represented, the royal entries totalling thirty-five. King George inspected all his entries, and, indeed, handled many of them.

Mr. Mingle lost a fine horse one day last week. Several from here attended the funeral of Mrs. John Fiddin at Kelvin on Friday afternoon.

Perhaps the King chiefly differed from more specialist exhibitors, in the particular interest he took in the men who tended his stock. As he stroked the forehead of his beautiful short-horn heifer he inquired of the herdsman how many years he had served at Sandringham, and if ever a Scotsman rolled his "rs" it was that herdsman when he replied with obvious pride, "Nearly thirty years." But in those thirty years he had never seen Windsor so unrivalled.

Mr. James Squire spent a few days of last week with his brother at Almer.

Someone propounded the theory that the soil of Windsor, which used to produce the best English oak trees, must have similar properties in stock production. Out of twelve entries from Windsor, Herefords and Shortorns—of which the first two are sometimes supposed to need west-country air—came seven first prizes and two seconds. The Sandringham farm won a few firsts; principally in small classes for small cattle, heeries and crossbreds of this breed.

Mrs. Purdy is spending a few days with her sister near Tillsonburgh.

The King again and again laughed heartily throughout his extended tour of the show. He merrily urged his shepherds who were holding his pen of Southdowns, to use their best devices when it came to a contest with the pen of Hampshire which were known to be dangerous rivals, as they proved.

Mr. Reginald Freeman of Caledonia has been spending a few days with friends in Kelvin.

The immense zeal of the guardians, of some of the stocks to show their animals to the best advantage before the King produced an almost embarrassing situation in the Kilbey Hall, which was devoted to machinery and pigs.

Mr. and Mrs. Eber Johnston and daughter of Boston has been spending a few days with their aunts in this section.

As soon as the King, accompanied by Sir Bowen Bowen-Jones, this year's president, appeared in the hall almost all the prize pigs were roused from their recumbent ease by vigorous slaps with flat "bats" that are the technical name for white pigs and black pigs and red pigs and one started such a chorus of protest some

MOTHER! IS CHILD'S STOMACH SOUR, SICK?

If cross, feverish, constipated, give "California Syrup of Figs." Don't scold your fretful, peevish child. See if tongue is coated; this is a sure sign its little stomach, liver and bowels are clogged with sour waste. When listless, pale, feverish, full of cold, breath bad, throat sore, doesn't eat sleep or eat naturally, has stomachache, indigestion, diarrhoea, give a teaspoonful of "California Syrup of Figs," and in a few hours the foul waste, the sour bile and fermenting food passes out of the bowels and you have a well and playful child again. Children love this harmless "fruit laxative," and mothers can rest easy after giving it, because it never fails to make their little "insides" clean and sweet. Keep it handy, Mother. A little given to-day saves a sick child to-morrow, but get the genuine. Ask your druggist for a 50-cent bottle of "California Syrup of Figs," which has full directions for babies, children of all ages and for grown-ups, plainly on the bottle. Remember there are counterfeits sold here, so surely look and see that yours is made by the "California Fig Syrup Company." Hand back with contempt any other fig syrup.

TAYLOR'S IS SEALED TO-DAY

Dr. Bruce Smith
 His Third Examination of Prisoner

Issues Statement
 in regard to Sheriff's Effect.

A signed statement, the fate of James Taylor this morning by Dr. Bruce Smith, who arrived here hurried here from Kingston and made the examination of the prisoner's cell last night. The confirmed this opinion was sane, although a doctor's statement.

The examination was secret, and accordingly issued the following to the Sheriff.

Acting under instruction Minister of Justice, I visited the prisoner, James Taylor, on January 21st, for the purpose of making a statement regarding the mental condition of the prisoner. I have made examinations of this prisoner's mental condition and tests ordinarily used for the mental condition of a prisoner.

As a result of my examination I report that James Taylor is sane.

From the revolting details of the crime, as related to me, I do not believe that there is any possibility of a sane man committing such a heinous crime as that known as Sadism. It is a degenerate.

The effect of alcoholic on the brain of a degenerate is to establish a habit of committing such crimes as that known as Sadism. It is a degenerate.

R. W. BRUCE SMITH
 Accordingly the execution of James Taylor will take place to-morrow at 8 o'clock, all preparations being made this week.

The authorities at the jail necessarily been under a strain of the task which must be within the walls of the building, to say the least, regard of the most unpleasant in official life, and become acute as the fatal day draws near.

Hangman Loquacion
 According to Jack Holme here for the hanging of James Taylor to-morrow morning, capital punishment as it is carried out in this province.

House Adjourns
 After Speeches by Borden and Sir Laurier.

OTTAWA, Jan. 22.—Parliament adjourned almost immediately after prayers yesterday as a mark of respect to the memory of Sir Wilfrid Laurier. The proceedings were brief and impressive. President Borden and Sir Wilfrid Laurier, who were seated at the head of the table, adjourned for twenty-four hours. The death of Sir Wilfrid Laurier, which followed the death of Mackenzie Bowden, and in the fourth of his memorable tributes to the nation to which he was appointed. Charles Tupper, who had succeeded Sir Wilfrid Laurier as Premier, said: "I speak of Sir Wilfrid Laurier as a Canadian, and not as a British subject." "because, although born in England, he spent his life in Canada."

His Work Was For Canada
 Premier Borden arose when the day was called for and called attention to the fact that all members of the House should pay tribute to the memory of Sir Wilfrid Laurier, a Canadian who passed away to-morrow. "I speak of Sir Wilfrid Laurier as a Canadian," he said, "because, although born in England, he spent his life in Canada."
