CAN'T BE OVERESTIMATED

London, Aug. 9.—The general feeling here is that the importance of the successful new battle cannot be overestimated. It is regarded as the turning point of the year's campaign, and perhaps even the turning point of the whole war.

WHILE RECOGNIZING THAT THE REAL TEST OF SUCCESS IN THE NEW BATTLE ON THE AMIENS FRONT IS YET TO COME, THE NEWSPAPERS ARE JOYFUL.

It was victory of a very remarkable character, says The Times. If the enemy, as Mr. Bonar Law suggested, intended to evacuate this country, it is an even more remarkable confession of defeat than the retreat to the Vesle, for nowhere has he fought harder than he did this spring.

THE CHRONICLE CONTENDS THAT THE PUSHING OF THE ENEMY FURTHER FROM AMIENS AND THE INITIAL PROGRESS MADE ON THURSDAY ARE OF VERY GREAT MOMENT, EVEN IF THE ALLIES ARE UNABLE TO ENLARGE THE EXTENT OF THE GROUND RECOVERED.

The Daily Mail says: "If to the most satisfactory results attained (the gain of much ground should be added, the position of the Germans in the bulge towards Montdidier would become distinctly awkward."

THE DAILY NEWS THINKS THAT LUDENDORF SHOULD HAVE BEEN IGNORED AT THE SPOT WHICH THE ALLIES WOULD CHOOSE FOR AN ATTACK.

SOLDIER NOT A SPY

Member of 133rd Battalion Denies the Rumor in Circulation

From Our Own Correspondent.
Simcoe, Aug. 8.—The manager of the Simcoe Agency of the Courier received yesterday the following letter, which we branded as unauthentic, and which was to the effect that Eric Mott of the 133rd, had been caught red handed as a spy, shortly after reaching England, and had gone before the firing squad.

The letter speaks for itself:
Purfleet, Essex, Eng.,
July 25th, 1918.
Dear Sir—Having learned that you may be able to exonerate me from that untruthful charge, I am taking the advantage of the opportunity to give you as much information as possible.

I enlisted as an English horn subject, but was born in the City of New York, and would have enlisted as an American subject but for the fact that I was not aware that Americans were accepted in the Canadian forces.

It so happened that I could speak a few words of German, as I had studied the language in school, but have now forgotten almost everything I knew about it.

Very likely the knowledge of this fact has led people to believe that I was an undesirable, but I am sure that if certain people would investigate matters before passing judgment, this rumor would never have gotten abroad.

I also patronized a certain pool parlor that was owned by a German, but I think I had as much right to do so as any one of my other fellow comrades. If you care, you may investigate the matter and look up my record. You will find that I have a record absolutely free of blemishes.

I do not know what object these certain people had in view, but I must say that whoever it was, should be more careful, because some day I may return to prove to them that I am alive and can get my own back.

My father and mother were both Americans, and the only trace of foreign blood in my veins is that of my grandfather, who was born in France. I think this is all I can tell you, and I hope that you will be able to clear the mystery.

Thanking you very sincerely for your kind efforts, I remain,
Very Respectfully,
Spr. WM. H. MOTT,
No. 790192,
Sixth Regiment, Essex.

Following our denial, on having seen charges for his assisted pay, that Mott had been shot as a spy, we have heard it claimed "Well he may be alive, but he will never get to France." But Mott has been to France, and has been released and returned to England and writes to say he is soon to go to France again. There is surely no grounds for any further doubt in the matter.

Most when in Simcoe, apparently failed to fall in with a soldier companion congenial to his temperament, education and ideals. He cut his own swathe, as it were, and aroused suspicion unawares. He writes splendidly, saves his money splendidly, and no doubt is serving his King splendidly. He can write a score of times more quickly than one writes a line of dope. Any further derogatory statements about him, should be heard with contempt and pity. The agency hopes, some day, to give Sapper Mott the "stad hand" of welcome home.

Thirty-seven young men of St. Melchior d'Assise, who are under arrest at Beauce in connection with the outrage against National Registration, were remanded till August 13th for enquet.

WOMAN SAVED MUCH SUFFERING

By taking Friend's Advice and Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound.

West Plains, Mo.—"I was all run down in health, had indigestion and terrible cramps every month so I was unable to do anything. I had tried every doctor in West Plains, also every remedy I could think of, without relief. One day when I was suffering greatly a friend was at my house and said, 'Why don't you try Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound?' So I did, and through it I found relief from my suffering and I really believe it saved my life. It does not seem as though I can say enough in praise of this wonderful medicine for the health it has brought me."—Miss CORA LEE HALL, West Plains, Mo.

Perhaps it may seem an extravagant statement to say that this remedy saved a life; but women like Mrs. Hall, to whom it has brought health, appreciate the danger and suffering they have escaped too well to doubt it! All who suffer should try it. Why risk life and health without it?

SPLENDID RACE MEET AT SIMCOE

A Big Crowd Attended the Track Events Yesterday Afternoon

OTHER SIMCOE NEWS
(From our own Correspondent)
Simcoe, Aug. 8.—There was a splendid offering at the races here yesterday, a bumper crowd and a good track. The whole program was run off without a hitch or accident, and the fans went home delighted with the afternoon respite from the daily grind of work.

Cream of Wheat and Sturgeon did not let the crowd away before 7 o'clock, and a better satisfied crowd never left the local track than that of yesterday. The local organization has had set backs in the past, but there is absolutely no kick regarding yesterday's results.

Domestic Police at Work
There were about three thousand in attendance, and from among these the six men from the civil section of the Dominion Military Police corps picked up thirty or thirty-five men of apparently draft age who were carrying the necessary papers. Some of them were taken to Hamilton, and next time bonded in $20 each to forward credentials before the 15th inst. Chief Canning assisted the visiting officers in the matter of giving assurances that many of those arrested were not of the military draft. The officers told the Courier that they would be around again, and next time would be able to offer no alternative to the $100 fine.

Notes
Walter S. McCall, president; W. Walsh, vice-president, and J. G. Kayser, secretary, of the local club, are to be congratulated on the results. And our friend, Mr. Moulton, was in the game, too.

It was not all the soft drinks on hand went on duty early in the afternoon.

And those Laurierites and Unloshes from all parts of the county and beyond mingled together, came together and actually treated one another. All the world is akin when there's a race meet in Simcoe. And Brantford sent her quota. Remember, boys, that visit must be returned.

And there were parsons and long-faced Kirk elders, Wesleyans and Aonathies there, all watching the noble animals contest with human eagerness and cunning.

"WHY, HOW DO YOU DO? I SEE YOU'RE UP OR RATHER DOWN, EARLY!" In answer to the British Tommies' remark, "I see you're moved," this young lady replies: "Yes so I have, but not willingly." The cause of her remarkable predicament, plus that of the house, was caused by a shell from a Boche Gun on the western front, which exploded near the foundation, causing the walls to cave in, and thereby bringing the attic down level to the street. As it is, the young lady can step out of the attic window right onto the sidewalk.

business temporarily, he had to see the races.

Spectacles Found in Cucumber Patch
Harry Nelson has a reputation for picking his cucumbers close, but he one would hardly have expected that one would require spectacles to find them. Such, however, appears to be the case, for Mr. Nelson recently found among the vines and returned to the owner, a pair of spectacles belonging to a prominent Simcoe merchant. A day or so ago the long constable informed us that he narrowly escaped having his buggy smashed by an automobile. This may have occurred while the spectacles were missing.

Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Kellum and child of Corith have returned home after a fortnight's holiday with Mr. and Mrs. M. Thorburn.

Odd Ends of News.
Through the collapse of the cement chute from the top of the tower at the canning factory, Bert Zimmerman received severe injuries yesterday morning. He was bruised and scarred about the face, and a spoke penetrated his shoulder. The unfortunate man was hurried by auto to Dr. McGilvery's office for medical attention.

NEWS NOTES

An inspector of the Manitoba liquor license department unearthed a secret bar, carefully hidden in a Winnipeg hotel. L. Harriman pleaded guilty to the charge of selling liquor and was fined $1,000, the largest fine ever paid in the province.

At Ottawa, Edward James Whitel, against whom a charge of manslaughter was entered, was remanded. Whitel, while driving his auto ran down and fatally injured two small boys, Weldon Ashie and Alex Apple.

SITUATION TO-DAY

By the Associated Press.
German lines on the Picardy Front, south of the Somme, have been badly broken by the savage thrust of the British and French armies.

A wedge has been driven into enemy territory to a depth of eleven miles along the Amiens-Chaulnes-Lafere railway, and early today the British were only a mile away from the Caumes-Roye railway, which forms the southward from Chaulnes, and forms the chief artery of supplies for the German troops fighting in the Montdidier sector of the front.

London announces that 14,000 prisoners and guns too numerous to mention, have been taken in the first twenty-four hours of the drive.

The result of this attack, loosed against the Germans on the Amiens front Thursday morning appears to have eclipsed those obtained by the Germans in the first day of any of the progress of the fighting south of the Somme. The Allies are going forward almost without serious opposition. On the north bank of the stream com. Le-Cornet, Malo, Quentin, Lethe Germans have held their lines strongly, but have lost Morlancon, their stronghold there, after hard fighting. The French, further to the south, have had their advance retarded at numerous points, but the towns officially reported to have been reached are evidence that the momentum of the Allied drive has not nearly spent itself.

From dispatches from the battlefield it now appears that the Allies attacked the Germans with little artillery preparation, the method pursued resembling on a grand scale that adopted by General Byng before Cambrai last November. Armored tanks in great numbers, through the German first line positions, in the German detachments, and throwing the whole defensive organization of the enemy into chaos.

Hardly had the German reverse along the Somme been reported than German detachments began to retreat in the Planiers sector. The new organization, only Petit Facout and Le-Sart, little villages on the extreme western tip of the Lys salient have been abandoned by the enemy, and are now held by the British. This is looked upon as the carrying out of a German withdrawal from the Lys salient, which has been forecast in recent dispatches. The ground held by the enemy in Flanders is very low, and is dominated by the Allied artillery, and a retirement there has been expected.

In its larger aspects, the success of the Allies south of the Somme constitutes a very serious threat to the German line, especially to the southward. The advance has not so far weakened the German position northward toward Arras, but the enemy finds himself in an embarrassing position around Montdidier and from that town southward at least as far as the Oise River.

PRESENT TIME FOR IMPERIAL POLICY

The Premier of New Zealand Urges Preference For British Trade

By Courier Leased Wire

London, Aug. 8.—(Canadian Press Despatch from Reuter's Limited)—Interviewed by the Daily Telegraph, Hon. W. F. Massey, Prime Minister of New Zealand, declared that the present time is the opportunity for a great Imperial policy and urged the adoption of a scheme whereby British ships and seamen be given preference and encouragement and steamer service be made more satisfactory. This might mean subsidies, but the public would not object.

Mr. Massey also advocated the encouragement of the investment of capital within the Empire by a lower income tax on such investments and the abolition of the double income tax. He said that Imperial preference will bring us nearer to free trade within the Empire than ever before.

In conclusion Mr. Massey remarked: "Let us take advantage of the present opportunity to increase production, both in Great Britain and the Dominions, the former producer of the manufactures and the latter the foodstuffs required for the Empire, thereby building up a strong and self-reliant, independent Empire."

CANADA MAKES 350 AIRPLANES A MONTH

The Total Output So Far is 2,000—2,150 Employed at the Factory

Ottawa, Aug. 8.—The number of Canadians who have joined the Royal Air Force and its predecessors, the Royal Naval Air Service and the Royal Flying Corps, since the outbreak of the war is not available for publication, owing to military reasons. The same secrecy, however, is not applied to the other activities in Canada in connection with the development and maintenance of the allies' air services.

In January of last year, the Imperial Munitions Board, through Canadian Aeroplanes Limited, commenced the construction of aeroplanes for training purposes in Canada at the national factory, where the output of flying machines has now grown to a substantial total. The present capacity of the plant is 300 machines per month, which, with the spares turned out is equivalent to 350 machines monthly.

The construction of aeroplanes manufactured to the end of last May, together with the spares, was 2,000.

The number of employees engaged at this factory is 2,150, and recently the plant has been engaged in constructing a number of bombing planes for the United States Navy, showing how closely the two allied countries of North America are co-operating in their effort to beat the Boche.

The Imperial Munitions Board has placed a contract for the construction of an important number of the latest improved type of high-power airplane engines, to be used in equipping fighting planes for service at the front. This is a somewhat surprising development for a country so young as Canada in the airplane-making industry, as this particular design of engine represents the highest class of workmanship attained in any machine of this nature yet produced.

Engines Assembled.

No engines are manufactured at the national plant, but they are supplied from various outside sources and assembled and mounted there. The principal materials entering into the construction of the machines—apart from the engines—are spruce, fir and high grade linen, all of which are used in fabricating the wings. A large number of women are employed at the plant in this capacity.

The bodies of the machines are composed of a wooden frame covered with fabric. The seating space is protected by an aluminum frame and the propellers are made of mahogany. The board, up to the end of May, had contracted for the cutting of 40,000,000 feet of sawn spruce, 100,000,000 feet of clear Douglas fir for use in the construction of aeroplanes.

Further contracts have been made with approximately 70 miles in British Columbia for their total output for extensive periods of clear Douglas fir for use in the construction of aeroplanes.

In connection with the training of Canadian airmen, the Imperial Munitions Board has secured grounds, erected buildings and furnished equipment necessary for the carrying on of the work of the Royal Air Force at its various flying centres, including Camp Borden, Armour Heights, Leaside, Camp Mohawk and Beamsville.

Local News

SPEAKS AT CONVENTION

Ex-Ald. Geo. A. Ward left today for Scranton, Pa., where he will represent the local Typographical Union at the International Convention to be held in next week.

WATER RATES

The secretary of the water commissioners has completed the making out of the bills of water rates. The date set for payment is Sept. 1st.

GOOD FOR ROADS

The rain which fell last evening came as a Godsend to motorists. All the leading roads into the city had become so dusty that traffic was almost unsafe.

STILL ILL

Miss Dorothy Lane, daughter of W. H. Lane, Dalhousie street, who was taken to the hospital Friday morning last, is still in a very critical condition.

WALKED OUT

Owing to the extreme heat during the last few days, the employees of many of the foundries in the city have left their work.

BOYS THROWING STONES

Considerable trouble is being occasioned by the motorists on the Brantford Municipal Railway by boys throwing stones between the rails on Palmerston avenue. The stones catch on the fenders of the cars and necessitate the stopping of the car to remove them.

TUSOCK MOTHS

The tussock moth is making heavy inroads on the shade and fruit trees of the city. If a determined effort is made now, the pest may be stamped out, for it is very easy to locate the fluffy cocoons which hide the worm before it emerges to commence its devouring career.

RAIN FELL

After having missed the city and passed over the southern districts for two successive nights, and having showed prospects of showers for several hours, the elusive rain drops materialized last evening shortly before nine o'clock, and the gardens of Brantford received beneficial showers.

NEW BLIGHT

Many of Brantford's war gardeners report that a new species of blight or stem rot is evident on the late potatoes. The disease takes effect on the stocks about an inch above the ground, and so far no remedy has been found. Bordeaux mixture, the usual remedy for blights has apparently no effect on it.

GOES BACK OVERSEAS

Captain T. P. Best of the Y.M.C.A., formerly of this city, announced this morning that he is to leave for overseas on Saturday. He will stop in England for a short while, and then will proceed to France to inspect the Y huts at the front, and carry a message of good cheer to the boys in the trenches. This will be the captain's second trip to the war zone, having returned from his first visit about fifteen months ago.

PATIENTS IN HOSPITAL

There were eight city patients in the Brantford General Hospital during the month of July. They were kept at a cost of $105.

WANT MONEY

A letter has been received by H. F. Leonard, City Clerk, from the Secretary of the Children's Aid Society asking for $400 of the grant made the society by the City Council.

IS IMPROVING

Jack McKelvey, of the local semi-pro baseball team, who sprained his ankle in Hamilton last week, is progressing favorably and he may soon be back to his place on the team.

DAMAGE CLAIM

Mr. J. W. McEwen, acting on behalf of Mr. Arthur Hays, has written the city with reference to damage sustained when his delivery truck was driven over the bank at the southern end of Brock street. There is no objection for the public at this bank. A damage claim of $175 will be made against the city.

UNEXPECTED DIFFICULTY

Further examination has shown that the steel in the Nurses' Home is not sufficient to carry the third storey which the members of the W. H. A. proposed to have placed therein. The question of adding a wing to the structure will now probably be considered.

CITY LEAGUE BALL

When the Cordage meet Verity's in the city league, to-morrow afternoon they will be out to take a fall out of the league leaders at all costs and a lively encounter is promised. The Cordage club has been making headway of late, and is bent on hitting the ceiling before the end of the season. Verity's are still holding tight to first place. Pratt and Letchworth will meet the Motor Trucks in the other game of the afternoon.

SAILORS' WEEK

Ontario is asked to contribute $1,000,000 towards the maintenance of the dependents of the men of the Merchant Marine, and to aid the merchant sailors that are prisoners of war in Germany. This sum is the Province's contribution towards the fund to be raised by the Navy Leagues in the British Empire throughout the world. All over the Dominion the people will be asked to assist in the campaign to be known as Sailors' Week, which will be held from September 1st to 7th, inclusive.

A FALLING-OFF

Ontario birth rate is showing the effects of war. The returns made to the registrar-general's department for 1917 show that during the year there were but 82,666 births, compared with 96,255 in 1914. The records also support the common belief that during war times more males are born than females, while last year in the cities and towns 15,982 males were born to 14,913 females, or about 1,069 males to 1,000 females. There has been a steady falling off in the number of marriages during the war. Last year there were but 21,493, compared with 26,998 in 1913. The absence of so many healthy young men at the front might have been expected to increase the death rate among the people at home. Instead of an increase, however, there has been a decrease. There were 33,268 deaths in 1917, compared with 34,317 in 1913.

The following is the estimate of the July losses: Fires exceeding $10,000, $2,859,500; small fires reported, $70,660; estimate for unreported fires, $439,524.

He left here with the 125th and has been at the front for over a year. His many friends will hope for a speedy recovery.

The judgment of the Supreme Court of Canada establishing the validity of the order-in-council of April 20, cancelling exemptions, has been issued in pamphlet form, accompanied by a statement of reasons by the Chief Justice. Holland, Capt.; halves, F. Westacott, H. Tilley, S. Perrin; forwards, W. Vipond, Charlton, G. Holland, J. Richardson, Tony Johnston; reserve, Walter Smith. Toronto Scots are the only unbeaten team in the league, but the Brantford men are out to take their measure, and the game should prove a hummer.

MOTORISTS IN TROUBLE

Unrelentless warfare against speeders and other refractory motorists is being waged by Chief Slemin and his staff. In the police court this morning a lengthy list of automobile cases occupied the attention of Magistrate Livingstone. Judson A. Baker pleaded guilty to driving without lights, and was fined a fine and a toll gate on the Cockshutt road, pleading that he could not see the gate. He was fined $5.00 and ordered to pay costs totalling $24.80. R. P. Cusden, W. F. Patterson, Frank Harold and J. G. Richardson, $2.10 each for driving without lights, and Charles Bezzant, H. C. SAVING THE CREDIT OF OUR COUNTRY

Great Responsibility Rests Upon Army of Munition Workers

FACTS AND FIGURES
Some Reasons for "Speeding Up" This Wartime Industry

The position which the munitions worker occupies in the industrial life of the country is one which has not been well defined, or understood by the nation. War-time is a period of transition, bridging the gap which separates the old order of things from the new. Former standards have been set aside; new ones have not been as yet created. In the meantime the export trade, the foundation upon which the prosperity of every nation is built, has virtually ceased to exist. Manufacturers have little call for anything that is not required in the prosecution of the war. It therefore falls to the munition worker to keep the trade balance equal, and, as much additional expenditure is required to finance and fight the war, he must shoulder the additional burden. Not only must he keep the trade balance equal, but he must produce a good margin for war expenditures. In fine, he is called upon by his exertion and industry to create and develop the war-time export trade. If he fails to do his utmost this important source of national revenue is lost. In the case the war-time efforts of the nation would not only be crippled but the nation would face serious financial complications. Some idea of the importance of the munition industry can be gleaned when it is known that just prior to the war Canada's trade balance was some millions of dollars against her; to-day not only has she wiped off this debt, but her credit balance is more than three times the total figure of her indebtedness in 1913. Statistics show that much of this favorable trade balance was secured through the exportation of munitions during the past three years of war.

More than once the confirmed pessimist has been heard to point out that the munitions industry is but a transitory phase of the war, and that it will quickly wane with the end of hostilities. But it must be remembered that the end of the war is more or less problematical and that long after an armistice is concluded war armies will be kept in the field. It is known that the United States is not yet ready to meet any eventuality. Therefore, there is nothing to justify the munitions worker in relaxing his efforts, or in anticipating an Utopia of Peace, of which the dawn has not even broken as yet. For until the Germans make an abject surrender contracts and yet larger contracts will be made by the Allied governments for munitions of war. But they will be given to only those plants which have made quick deliveries and the plants can only do so if their workers give the company their heartiest co-operation and support. The plant whose employees slow down their output are taking the surest way to close down their work.

From an economic standpoint, the munitions workers have an even greater responsibility to meet; that of preparing the nation to weather the great period of re-adjustment, which must inevitably follow the close of the war. For every dollar's worth of work that they produce during this period of transition, they are laying that much up against the trying period of readjustment which is yet to come. When the war once reaches its belated end, each nation will be thrown upon its own resources and to the nation best fitted to cope with the crisis will come the great bulk of the export trade of the world. The nation whose balance of trade is unable to commercial expansion, will be the one to secure the best foreign trade connection. But this can only be done by laying by a huge credit trade balance to-day, and whether we do this or not depends wholly upon the great export producer of war-time—the munition worker.

IN FRANCE WITH R.A.F.

L. L. Saunders of This City, Writes Home From the Front

Mr. and Mrs. Fred Saunders, 11 Centre street, have received the following letter from their son, L. L. Saunders.

Somewhere in France July 5th, 1918
Dear Mother and Father:
Just a few lines to let you know I am well and also to keep up the good work. I have been writing letters for almost a day now. Seems a long time but it takes the better part of half a century to find enough news out of which to compose a decent letter. I hope the little army home are all well, including the two scrappers, Field Marshall Earl and General Lloyd. I mean General Nuisance. I have been receiving your packets of letters and must say they are most welcome. I am always interested in the larks of the wilds. I haven't had any mail whatsoever for about three weeks. That is because I have been writing without so much. I have settled for good or about three weeks along and behind the lines. It will be two weeks yet before I go over with a formation to scrap. I have done a bit of flying here, sometimes a couple of us will go up and scrap each other just for practice. I must say it is good practice as we both do our best to get on the tail of the other. While up to the lines with the battery I saw our squadron fighting a large formation of Hunns in the air. It was great to see it. Although some of our fellows were wounded the Hunns were hit red hot. Well, I will have to close now. I have just finished a letter to Grandmother. Now I will have to go out

Chicago Lost To Brooklyn, While Reds Beat Giants

Cubs Maintain Lead Over McGraw's Men in the National League Race

Brooklyn, Aug. 9.—Brooklyn defeated Chicago here yesterday by a score of 4 to 1, by bunching hits off Vaughan and Carter in three innings. Two wild throws by Piek helped them to win. ALLIES HAVE ADVANCED TO DEPTH OF 7 MILES

With the Allies Well Out in the Plains and Pressing Rapidly Forward, the Offensive Gives Promise of Menacing the Whole German Front From the Sea to Rheims—Average Advance is From Two to Four Miles. With Deepest Penetration Seven and a Half Miles.

New York, August 8.—The Associated Press to-night issued the following summary of to-day's fighting: The historic battle ground between Amiens and Mont Didier again is the center of a mighty contest. This time the British and French are the aggressors, and under their fierce onslaughts in the first day's battle they have penetrated deeply the German positions over a front of more than 20 miles, reaching from the region of Braches to the neighborhood of Morlancourt. A Canadian division is taking part in the fighting.

From short, but intensive artillery preparations and aided by misty weather, the allied attack took the Germans completely by surprise, and they died almost everywhere pell-mell before the tanks, motor machine gun batteries, cavalry and infantry went against them. All the objectives set for the Australians, Canadians, Englishmen and Frenchmen were attained in remarkably quick time, and at last accounts on Thursday night the allied forces were still making progress. Wherever the enemy turned to give battle he was decisively defeated.

Great Captures

Thousands of Germans were made prisoners, large numbers of guns were captured, great quantities of materials were taken and a score or more of villages and hamlets were re-occupied. In addition heavy casualties were inflicted on the enemy. At its deepest point the penetration of the German line was about seven and one-half miles, eastward from Villers-Bretonneux to Framerville, while from two to five miles were gained all along the front from northwest of Mont Didier to the region around Morlancourt. The fighting extended north of Morlancourt to the Albert road, but no official details concerning it have been received.

Menaces Whole Front

Well out on the plains and pressing forward, seemingly with great rapidity, the present offensive of the French and British give promise of seriously menacing the entire German front near the sea to Rheims. If the drive should proceed eastward to any great depth it cannot but affect the armies of the German crown prince now fighting between the Aisne and the Meuse, and possibly bring about a stand-by them, even north of the Aisne, along the Chemin-des-Dames.

Weather Helped

The weather helped in the ad-

When his own forces north of Montdidier are in a rather precarious position as a result of the new offensive, it is apparent that Rupprecht will have to direct his campaign to cut off the cross-channel service.

On the Vesle front little fighting occurred on Thursday, except in the process of line-straightening operations on the north bank, where, under almost incessant rain of enemy shells, both the American and the French troops improved their stands.

The Enemy Flees. With the British Army in France, Aug. 8.—(4:20 p.m.)—Fighting their way through the Germans at dawn on a front of over 15 miles, astride the River Somme, British and French troops this afternoon reached points from four to six miles inside lines which this morning belonged to the enemy.

The Prussians and Bavarians fled before the advancing infantry and tanks, leaving many of their guns behind them. Large numbers of prisoners have been taken, both by the British and French and heavy casualties undoubtedly have been inflicted on the enemy.

Thus far everything has been accomplished with excessively small losses to the Allies.

Casualties Light. Of one entire British corps, for instance, two hours after the attacks began, only two officers and fifteen men of the ranks were reported as casualties.

The artillery has followed up the storm troops closely and now is hurling shells down upon the enemy forces which, taken by surprise, and fiercely attacked, must be in a more or less crippled condition. It is believed that reinforcements are on the way to help them.

What to-morrow holds for the enemy cannot be forecast, but the outlook is not a promising one under present conditions.

Moreuil, and the counter front adjoining Villers-aux-Érables, have been taken by the French, while the British have captured the Dodo and Mamme woods and Marcel Cave, after fighting and pushing a considerable distance beyond.

Especially hard fighting was experienced, and is still in progress, on the left flank of the fighting front in the neighborhood of Morlan-court.

The weather helped in the ad-

est chance to give battle. The prisoners that arrived later were not so clean, and they came forward, carrying wounded on stretchers.

The British army, which had started off with a thunderous roar, by 7 o'clock had quieted down to a virtual silence. This was because the artillery had ceased firing while it was being advanced to keep up with the infantry and the tanks.

It was the tanks which by 7 o'clock had rolled ponderously into Cevisey, driving out the enemy, and a few hours later, in a difficult manoeuvre, took the woods opposite.

The tanks crossed the Aisne and did excellent work here, too, with the infantry. On the peninsula between the Aisne and the Somme the British captured many guns.

Reports from the south say that things are going in splendid fashion there and that the French have been equally as successful as the British. Hastily organized counter-attacks have developed here and there along the line, especially north of the Somme, but so far all are reported to have broken down under the hot fire of the Allies.

It may be taken for granted that further enemy counter-attacks will develop, either organized from the forces now in front of the Allied troops or from fresh forces that Crown Prince Rupprecht undoubtedly will try to hurry up from other sectors. Further reports of heavy fighting may, therefore, be expected.

RUMELY KNEW OF MITTEL-EUROPA

Former Editor of New York Evening Mail Revealed Scheme

However ingenious German menfolk may believe itself to be, it is in certain respects even more ingenious. Nothing else can explain the sublime faith that animated the propagandists of the German secret service when they seriously believed it to be possible to change the judgment of the great majority of the people of the United States regarding the responsibility for the war and the violation of the integrity of Belgium. It was quite on a par with their conviction that the only possible explanation of the attitude of the great journals of the United States are due to "English gold." That publishers and editors could have and did exercise their own independent judgment and could not be bought over to disseminate contrary views proved quite beyond the comprehension of the Germans and pro-Germans in the Republic. Not all the collapse of the well-laid schemes and the entanglements of the United States into the war did they realize the ineptitude and crass folly of their own and their government's manoeuvres and intrigues.

One of the consequences of the investigation carried on by the United States authorities into German activities was the arrest, under the Espionage Act, of Dr. Edward A. Rumely, the late owner and editor of the New York Evening Mail. The exposure did not come as a surprise, since it has been a matter of common knowledge for the last three years that the Evening Mail had been acquired in the interests of the German propaganda. Dr. Rumely's arrest has revived the demand for a congressional investigation, but, as the New York World pointed out the other day, the time for Congress to have taken action was in the fall of 1916 or the spring of 1917, on both of which occasions documents were made public disclosing the efforts of the German propagandists to secure the control of Congress, and even the Presidency. But at that time the legislators were too much in dread of the German vote to take measure-that might antagonize it.

The New York Herald is publishing a series of articles, contributed by Frank Parker Stockbridge. One of them narrates a highly interesting and significant conversation with Dr. Rumely at his own invitation, in September, 1914, shortly after the outbreak of war. After carefully preparing Mr. Stockbridge by means of a most suspicious dinner, the doctor in due course broached the subject of the war and of the American attitude. The conversation takes several columns to recapitulate, and includes the usual rings of defense set up for German action and the Belgian invasion. Rumely, however, at last disclosed that the real German purpose was to establish an empire of Mittel-Europa, stretching from the Belgian coast on the North Sea to the Persian Gulf. He further frankly admitted to Mr. Stockbridge that Germany had merely been waiting for the day to come when it could realize its dream of the "freedom of the seas" and a "free route to India."

Dr. Rumely appears to have listened with exemplary patience to Mr. Stockbridge's objections and arguments, describing him as another American idealist. America, he said, must learn that the weak can not ob-

SO EASY! LIKE ROLLING OFF LOG

Sore, touchy corns stop hurting, then lift right out with fingers.

You corn-plastered men and women need suffer no longer. Wear the shoes that nearly killed you before, says this Cincinnati authority, because a few drops of freezone applied directly on a tender, aching corn stops smartness at once and soon the corn loosens so it can be lifted out, root and all, without pain.

A quarter ounce of freezone ointment is little at any drug store, but is sufficient to take off every hard or soft corn or callus. This should be tried, as it is inexpensive and is said not to inflame or even irritate the surrounding tissue or skin. After you lift away the troublesome corn Stockbridge's skin underneath is as pink, firm and healthy as the palm of your hand.

Music and Drama

THE REX.

Winsome Alice Joyce, who will be long remembered by all who saw her in "Within the Law," appears at the Rex the last of this week, in a powerful screen version of Robert W. Chambers' novel "The Business of Life," a present day story dealing in graphic fashion with present day problems. Miss Joyce is seen here at the height of her ability, and is supported by a powerful Vitaphone band. Neddie de Courcy trio give a most stirring offering interspersed with frequent flashes of genuine comic comedy, an act which is bound to take well with all. William Haines and Edith Johnston are seen in the third episode of the thrilling western serial "A Fight for a Million." A sure-fire comedy, featuring Lonesome Luke, completes an ideal program to divert the attention of all from the heat.

THE BRANT.

If matters not whether you are thirteen or ninety, if there's anything that can carry you back to the days of your childhood, it's the Paramount production of "Uncle Tom's Cabin," which heads the program at the Brant the last of this week, with dainty Marguerite Clark in the dual roles of Eva and—imagine it!—Topsy.

Frank Losee, noted for his character role in countless former pictures, is Uncle Tom, and all the other well known characters, Marks, Aunt Ophelia and Legree, appear on the screen as visualized as they have seldom been upon the stage. The film version of Harriet Beecher Stowe's immortal classic is truly a notable one. The Five Jolly Tars present a clever singing and comedy offering which culminates from beginning to end. Pearl White is seen Quality is the chief consideration when buying a Piano.

In the Bell Piano, made in Canada for over 60 years, you will find strength of construction, durability and beauty of tone.

It should not be necessary to publish recommendations of the Bell Piano which has found its way into so many Brantford homes, still for the benefit of newcomers from the United States and other countries, we quote letters from two of the leading musicians of this city who have used the Bell Pianos in their institutions.

"After a year's use of the Bell Grand, purchased for my personal use, and several years' use of the Upright Bell Pianos in my classes, I can most heartily recommend them for purity of sweetness of tone, and their quick responsive and light touch. These qualities combine to make Bell Pianos a delight to student and teacher."

struct the progress of the strong. His Friends, he continues, are sure that if the people of America really understood German war aims they would have more sympathy with Germany in the war. Dr. Rumely went on to explain that he could get the exclusive right to obtain real, official, and authentic news from Germany for distribution in the United States and asked Mr. Stockbridge for his opinion on the prospect of selling this to American newspapers. Mr. Stockbridge told him gently and solemnly a few rudimentary facts about the newspaper business and about the fatuity of expecting to change American opinion regarding the conduct and ideals of Germany. "You," he said to Dr. Rumely, "are looking in exactly the opposite direction from America. You can't make America turn around."

Mr. Stockbridge, however, with a touch of humor, suggested that the doctor might get a German member of Congress to spread some of his stuff in the Congressional Record and have it circulated free of postage. The doctor, who, like other Germans, is quite impervious either to irony or humor, thanked him, and Mr. Stockbridge said good-night. His friends laughed at the idea of a German propagandist in these now far-off days of 1914, but much has happened since then to convince even the most sceptical that it held a very real and dangerous menace to the American continent.

CHOLERA INFANTUM

Cholera Infantum is one of the fatal ailments of childhood. It is a trouble that comes on suddenly especially during the summer months and unless prompt action is taken the little one may soon be beyond aid. Baby's Own Tablets are an ideal medicine in warding off this trouble. They regulate the bowels and sweeten the stomach, thus prevent all the dreaded summer complaints. Concerning them Mrs. Fred Ross, South May, Ont. says:—"I feel Baby's Own Tablets saved the life of my baby who had cholera infantum and I would not be without them." The Tablets are sold by medicine dealers or by mail at 25 cents a box from the Dr. William Medicine Co., Brockville, Ont.

CONGRESSWOMAN AIDED GERMANY

Jeanette Rankin Played Part of Pacifist All Through Her Career

Miss Jeanette Rankin, representative from Montana, is the pioneer woman legislator on this continent. She is the first and only Congresswoman in the United States. Since her election women members have been sent to the Provincial Legislatures of Alberta and British Columbia and to a number of State Legislatures of the neighboring Republic. Miss Rankin has announced that she will, at the forthcoming election, stand for election to the United States Senate. This decision places her stewardship as a public representative before her electors for review and judgment.

Her case is unfortunate. She opposed the entry of the United States into the war. She opposed the President's conscription bill. She played the part of the "pacifist." On this record she faces firm and vigorous opposition.

The Helena Independent, one of her strongest press supporters in the past, announces that it proposes to "fight her election at every turn." Other papers, regularly supporters of the party she represents, also repudiate her. The Independent states its case as follows:

"The Independent, which heartily favored and ardently supported the election of Miss Jeanette Rankin two years ago, is positively opposed to her election to the United States Senate, or, had she filled her term, would have opposed her re-election to the House of Representatives.

A Member of Her Army. "Jeanette Rankin was, consciously or unconsciously, a member of the Hun army in the United States, pledged to prevent this country from making preparations for declaring war against the Imperial German Government until the beasts of civilization had opportunity to wipe up England and France."

"Jeanette Rankin did not have the womanhood or the courage to vote for war against a tribe of barbarians who waged war on helpless women.

"Jeanette Rankin failed the people of Montana in a crisis and misrepresented them before the civilized world.

Jeanette Rankin was the creature and the instrument which sought to keep the United States from entering the war until the beast had wiped up the noble French people and all but shot the population off the British Isles.

"Jeanette Rankin was the dupe of the Kaiser, consciously or unconsciously, when she introduced her resolution declaring the United States in favor of an Irish Republic a scheme devised by the traitorous Sinn Feiners to help Germany.

German Propagandist. "Jeanette Rankin was the dagger in the hands of the German propagandists when she came to Montana and did everything a person should not do to keep peace in a mining camp supplying material for the war against the unspeakable Huns.

"Jeanette Rankin was the dupe of the Kaiser when she advised the coal miners at Klein, Montana, to stay out and mine no more coal.

"Jeanette Rankin does not represent Montana—that is enough—and if the 35,000 Montana boys in France have a chance to express themselves they would be solidly against a crying schoolgirl who wanted to starve her country, but who could not vote for war.

"For these reasons the Independent will fight Jeanette Rankin at every turn."

SOUKHOMLINOFF GERMAN VICTIM

Ex-Czar's Minister, Once Millionaire, Now a Porter

Stockholm, Aug. 9.—W. A. Soukhomlinoff, formerly a millionaire, the Czar's Minister of War at the outbreak of the war, one of the biggest men of the old Russia, is now working as a porter in a little municipal office of the Bolshevik Administration at Petrograd, where he sweeps the floor, runs errands for the clerks and heats the water for the secretary's tea.

And Mme. Soukhomlinoff, once brilliant and beautiful, the power behind the throne, the confidante of princes and grand dukes, is now selling programmes in a Petrograd moving picture theatre. Thus both are trying to earn enough bread to keep them from starving.

At Petrograd when he had deposed Kerensky and had investigated the papers and documents found in the archives of the Foreign Office at Petrograd, Soukhomlinoff, the new government accused Soukhomlinoff of bringing about the war by deceiving the Czar and nullifying the Czar's order concerning the demobilization of the Russian army.

Disclosures Were Sensational. Soukhomlinoff was tried in open court. Disclosures made by witnesses were of most sensational character. The press of the Central Powers and pro-German newspapers in neutral countries devoted columns to the wash of dirty linen. Soukhomlinoff was found guilty and sentenced to a long term of imprisonment.

Trotsky, then Minister of Foreign Affairs, used the disclosures made at the trial as a bomb to throw at the allies. He laid bare alleged secret treaties entered into by the allies, which were said to disclose their plans for conquest and spoliation. At that time Trotsky declared similar disclosures could be made regarding the rapacious designs of Germany, but these were never uncovered for good reasons, perhaps known only to Trotsky and his associates.

At any rate it seems very queer that Soukhomlinoff, who was sent to prison for a long term, is free again, and is sentenced less than a year ago.

Many Theories About Him. It is claimed that he was liberated as a result of a general amnesty. However, no one here heard of any such amnesty before. It is possible German influence liberated Soukhomlinoff. The Germans could well afford to exert themselves in behalf of a man who had made "disclosures" at a time when they could be used to the detriment of the allies.

And why should Soukhomlinoff be given an official position with the Bolshevik Government, even if it is a very humble one? Why should Trotsky send Soukhomlinoff to prison as a traitor, then liberate him after a few months and take him back into the government service?

There are Russians who believe the whole trial of Soukhomlinoff, with its so-called disclosures and sensational, was a melodrama staged for political purposes, a frame-up engineered by German propaganda.

ZEPPEL CREW KILLED. Amsterdam, Aug. 7.—Captain Strasser, one of Germany's most successful squadron commanders in Zeppelin attacks and the entire crew of the Zeppelin which led the attack toward the British east coast on Monday night, perished when the dirigible was shot down over the North sea. An official dispatch from Berlin, dealing with the attempted raid on the east English coast was received here today. It said the raiders caused heavy damage in bombing attacks, but that Strasser and his crew probably met with a heroic death.

HAD RATHER TAKE BEATING THAN WORK

Toronto Man Felt Drowsy All the Time Before Taking Tanlac—Feels Fine Now

"When I began taking Tanlac I was actually too weak and rundown to stand on my feet or even to do a pick of work, but I am now putting in full time on my job and feeling better than ever," said William Costly, who is employed in the ammunition department of the Fairbanks-Morse Company and lives at 24 Rutledge Avenue, Toronto, "the other day."

"My trouble started about four years ago," he continued, "when I first noticed that my appetite was failing. I soon got so I didn't want to eat a thing and would bring half my lunch back home, and more than once I have actually gone for two days without eating a bite. What little I did manage to force down would soon sour on my stomach and cause me to belch up so much gas and undigested food that it would almost turn me sick. I had a dull pain right in the pit of my stomach most of the time and was so badly constipated that I just had to take some thing for it all the time. I felt mean and drowsy and good for nothing, and sometimes would actually rather have taken a beating than go to my work. I have been on the night shift now for some time, and after knocking off in the mornings I would feel so exhausted that I could hardly drag one foot after the other. I was getting worse all the time, and when at last I became so weak that I had to stop work entirely for a couple of days I knew it was time I was doing something to save me from having a breakdown."

"I had been reading so much about Tanlac that I decided to try it and sent right away for a bottle. Before I had finished it my appetite came back, and I was eating and enjoying my meals like any normal person, and my misery and my head-ache was completely gone. That meant, tired feeling left me, too, and I was back on my job again. I have taken only two bottles so far, and feel just fine all over. Why, I can work all night now, and don't feel tired a bit when I knock off to go home. And it has made the greatest difference in the way I can turn out my work, too, for now it is a real pleasure and I can do anything with a friend in need is a friend indeed, and that is exactly what Tanlac has been to me."

Tanlac is sold in Brantford by Robertson Drug Store, in Paris by Apps Ltd., in Vernon by A. Yeomans, in Middleport by William Peddie, in Onondaga by Neil McPhadden.

GEN. MANGIN THANKS AMERICAN TROOPS Proud of Having Fought With Them for Deliverance of World

By Courier Leased Wire With the French Army in France, Aug. 8.—(By the Associated Press.) General Mangin, who was in direct command of the Allied forces in the drive against the German right flank south of Soissons, has issued an order of the day, thanking the Americans for their brilliant participation in the battle which caused the German retreat between the Marne and the Aisne. It says: "Ninety-one cannon, 7,200 prisoners, immense booty and ten kilometres of reconquered territory are your share of the trophies of this victory. Besides this, you have acquired a feeling of your superiority over the barbarian enemy against whom the children of liberty are fighting. To attack him is to vanquish him."

"I am proud of having commanded you during such splendid days and to have fought with you for the deliverance of the world."

OTTAWA SWEPT BY BAD HAIL STORM Blizzard of Unprecedented Fury Passed Over the Capital Wednesday

By Courier Leased Wire Ottawa, Aug. 8.—A hail storm of unparalleled ferocity passed west of the city between six and seven o'clock on Wednesday evening, leveling crops, uprooting trees and carrying away fences and roofs of buildings.

The storm belt was about three miles in width. It broke in the Gattineau Hills and the apex struck the Connaught Park Jockey Club and the River Mead. It then spent itself among the fields of Carleton County, after creating havoc in Westboro village and vicinity.

The size of the hail stones that fell in some places was the cause of much wonder, many residents declaring them the largest that have ever fallen in this district. J. H. Murphy of Westboro stated that he found some stones on his property that measured six and a half inches in circumference.

When the storm struck the parsonage house of the Connaught Park Jockey Club, it wrecked the building, hurling the roof out onto the track and crushing the side walls in. Sections of the roof were torn off the stables in many places. Two hundred yards of the high fence were ripped completely off the posts.

SOLDIER SIX FEET SEVEN IN HEIGHT

Pte. George Moore, of Vancouver, Second Tallest Man in British Army

(Port William Times-Journal) To announce that this morning Private George Moore, of the Canadian Engineers, Vancouver, with forty-one others, passed through complete training at Niagara before proceeding overseas, would appear to be less than an ordinary news item, but when it is said that the same Private Moore stands six feet seven and a quarter inches in his stockings feet, the item becomes more than usual interest.

Second Tallest Man in Army. "I believe I am the second tallest man in the British army," said Private Moore this morning, as he swung his tall height along the Canadian Northern platform at Port Arthur. "I thought I was the tallest, but I am told there is one man in the Innisfree who stands six feet eight and a quarter inches tall."

"I shall be an easy mark if I am put sniping, shan't I," he said, with a hearty laugh. "No, I have not yet found anyone I have to look up to," he added.

An Africaner. This is not Private Moore's first taste of war, for he wears the South African ribbons on his tunic. Indeed he is a South Africaner, having been born there, where his parents and brothers still reside. "I am the only abnormally tall member of the family," he said, "but my father is six feet two and a half and he is the shortest of eight brothers."

A few years ago Captain Ames, of the Royal Horse Guards was the tallest man in the British Army, standing six feet six inches in height.

FIGHTING FOR HAPPINESS

When you get into a frame of mind that makes life seem one tiresome duty after another, with no pleasure in it, when life itself seems to take all the joy out of life and you worry over things that are really not worth worrying about, then your nervous system is becoming exhausted, and you are on the way to a general breakdown in health. In this condition your health and happiness is worth fighting for and good, rich, red blood is what your system needs. NEW GOVERNMENT. By Courier Leased Wire Kandalaska, Aug. 7.—(By the Associated Press.)—The Government of the "Country of the north," recently established at Archangel after a revolution against the Bolsheviks, has addressed a proclamation to the people of the district, declaring the Bolshevik regime at an end and announcing that the new government had taken up the duty of governing the region.

"The power of the Bolsheviks is ended," the proclamation begins. "Because of the treason of the country committed at Brest Litovsk because of famine, the failure to recognize the rights and liberties of the country, illegal shootings and constant arrests, the power of the so-called Soviet, of traitors and criminals, is past. The representatives of the so-called peoples government have fled."

"At the present in the interests of all Russia, we take upon ourselves the duty of governing the country of the north."
