Fire.-A fire that might have proved

Fire.—A fire that might have proved disastrous in no ordinary degree was yesterday raging in the swamp at the back of Mr. Michael Piggatt's, Elora Road, about three miles from Guelph. Some fifteen or twenty of the neighbours promptly turned out and with great difficulty succeeded in saving Mr. Piggatt's crops from utter destruction. Parties cannot be too careful in lighting fires in the bush during such an extraordinary dry scasson as the present, when everything almost is so easily combustile. Had the fire alluded to not been so promptly extinguished it is difficult to say where it ravages might have ended.

A CREE GRAMMAR AND DICTIONARY.—Say. Mr. Lacombe, of Fort Edmonton, Reskatchewan, who has for many years been a missionary among the Cree and Blackfeet Indians, has, with great labor, completed a grammar and dictionary of the Cree language, which he says is the most general throughout the North-West, and with which any one may make himself understood among all the tribes of that region. His object is to obtain Government assistance to print these valuable compilations, and this we think not an unreasonable request, as they will doubtless, be equally available for all missionaries. Mr. Lacombe has also translated some books of devotion into the Cree language.

BEFORE JUDGE MACDONALD

Court House, Aug. 7.

Leonard Elkington having elected to be tried without a jury was yesterday brought before his Honor Judge Macdonald on the charge of having embezzled certain I monies, the property of his employer, Mr G. B. Fraser. In the absence of the County Attorney, Mr. A. H. Macdonald acted as crown prosecutor. Mr. J. P. McMillan defended the prisoner. Messrs. G. B. Fraser and Jamos Wait having sworn to the same facts to which they testified at the Police Court; and Mr. McMillan in defence contending that it was ridiculous to suppose for a moment that Elkington had any intention of embezzling the money in question, His Honor held differently and found the prisoner's guilt clearly established. Mr. McMurchy coincided with the two persons speakers, and said that he would shall be the decision of the Reform and services, and deprecated any attempt by a comparative stranger to try and divide the party.

Day Before the Battle. the North Riding. Both paaties are busy mustering their full strength, and we expect to see a keen con-test. But we have every reason to believe that Mr. Higinbotham will win by a good majority. Our latest advices to-day are very encouraging. Our friends promise us a majority of over 50 in Minto, a small majority in Maryboro and Mount Forest, and larger ones in Arthur and Luther Drew's stronghold is in Amaranth, but the rowdyism he and his friends manifested the other night in that Township in their shameful treatment of Mr. McKim has caused a re ment of Mr. McAnin has caused a section there, and he will not poll such a large vote as he anticipates. As great interest is manifested by the people of Guelph in this election we will endeavour to get correct returns of the poll as often as possible.

we all know what was his object in doing so. The Doctor is not so enthusiastic about the great Protestant principles as to join an Orange Lodge for pure love to them. He had an object in view, and will the Herald be foolish enough to deny that in doing so he sought to gain the Orange vote. The Doctor rides the Protestant horse in East Garafraxa, but he doing so. goes into Peel, and carefully hides his Orange colours in the heel of his boot.

care how he accomplishes his object,
and so he has two sets of professions at hand, and tells the electors to take their choice of either, only he wants their vote.

South Waterloo Election.
The Galt Reformer states that the nomination in South Waterloo will take place at Preston on Saturday, 17th of August, and the polling on Saturday, 24th. As yet the Conservative party in the Riding has been unable to induce any one to become its candidate. We know not, however, what a day may bring forth. The Reformer adds that Mr. Alexander held a meeting in Galt on Friday last, and at Preston on Monday, and on both occasions he was met by Mr. Young, and completely "usedup." The Hon.

ELECTION NEWS.

On Monday the 12th inst., the non inations for North and South Went worth will take place by the respective Returning Officers. For the South Riding we understand they will be held at Ryckman's Corners; and for the North Riding, at Dundas.

If Mr. Anson G. P. Dodge had Mr. Anson G. P. Bouge had defeated, he would have been d by the Mail "The Yankee ge;" but being elected, he is da truly liberal man. Mr. Pat. on, of West Hastings, being decalled by the Mail "The Yankee Dodge;" but being elected, he is called a truly liberal man. Mr. Patterson, of West Hastings, being defeated, is called "Yankee Patterson" by the Mail. Soft soap and scurrility go hand in hand in the Mail office.

Mr. McDougall has issued a farewell address to the electors of the North Riding of Lanark, in which he talks of retiring into private life.

Four elections take place in Ontario to day: South Grey, Kent, South Ontario and Welland, all at present held by the Ministry. In Quebec, Missisquoi and Brome are to be poll-ed, both Administration constitu-encies, but contested now.

nesday, and the same day Mr. Mackenzie held a splendid meeting in Brooklin in the interest of Mr. White, who is opposing Gibbs.

In New Brunswick the first poll was held yesterday for the county of St. John, which returns two members Mr. Burpee and Mr. Palmer, the two most Liberal candidates, have been elected by large majorities; and Messrs. PROVINCIAL EXHIBITION.—A few days ago we noticed a meeting of the Local Committee of the Provincial Exhibition to be held here in September, at which it was determined to inform the Association at Toronto that the County Council would grant $1,200, and the City Council $5,000, towards the expenses of the Exhibition. A letter was received on Saturday from the Association, appointing yesterday as a day of meeting, and so, by the morning train, the President, Secretary and Troasurer of the Associacame here from Toronto, and met with the Local Committee. A very fair number were present, and a general discussion ensued. At the adjourned meeting at four o'clock, the officers told the Committee that the Association would have over $2,000 to fit up the interior of the buildings, and it would be done better by the Local Committee than the Association would have selves; also advising the Committee to proceed at once with the buildings. We now have the opportunity of assuring the people generally that all arrangements are concluded, and that everything will now progress fairly towards the holding of the Exhibition. The contractors for the building will go on at once.—Hamilton Times.

The Herald and Dr. Orton.

The Herald denies our statement that Dr. Orton has joined an Orange Lodge for electioneering purposes. The Herald is not at all squeamish about denying anything when it is not convenient to admit the fact, or when an acknowledgement of its truth would injure its cause. But we had good authority for making the statement, and we now repeat it. We did it on the strength of a communication from a respectable farmer in East Garafraxa, who states that Dr. Orton joined an Orange Lodge at Marsville not many weeks ago. Now, we all know what was his object in

"You seem wearied, George," said Harry, as his companion leant his head against the window shutter.

"I am wearied," replied George. "The long hours and fagging work I have had of late leave me with a want of energy when evening comes; but if we had tea I should be all right; and here comes Carry with the refreshing beverage."

"And how long will this fagging work last?" aked Harry, when they were seated, and Carrey, with pretty grace, had handed them their filled cups.

"Gan't say," replied George. "Till I am used up, I suppose. I am a stronger fellow than most of the teachers I see, and hope to stand out for a good while."

"Oh, I didn't mean that. You are not to remain for ever in the drudging departments, but shall ere long reach a position of ease and learned leisure."

"By what road?" langhed George.

"By the road of your own merits," answered Harry. "You are fit to be Rector of the Academy or the High School, and why should you not become either?"

"Why, indeed?" echoed Carrey, in a tone full of assurance, at which George laughed outright, and looked amused and incredulous.

Any organ of the human structure unduly exercised is taxed at the expense of the rest. The brain burdened with care, grief or hard study, will withdraw a portion of the nervous element, which may be required to promote healthy muscular action, from the heart, lungs, stomach, etc., and thus cause them to degenerate and to become incompetent to perform their duties, so that disease follows. Consequently, although Fellows' Compound Syrup of Hypophosphites will surely our many diseases of these organs, patients must abstain from excessive indulgences or such habits as cause or perpetuate the malady, if they would remain healthy after discontinuing its use.
