The Salvation Army Jubilee Self-Denial Campaign

May 15 to May 22

"SELF-DENIAL" is an expression so commonplace and so familiar that, like many other tremendously great things, it succeeds in concealing its own

"SELF-DENIAL" is the heart—the core—the centre of the life and work of the Salvation Army.

The Salvation Army filled a gap which none of the other churches and organizations in the country were able to fill, and it has been and is, in a multiplicity of ways, a great and beneficent agency.

MR. GASPARD DUBORD

159 Avenue Pius IX, Montreal. "For three years, I was a terrible sufferer from Dyspepsia and my general health was very bad. I consulted a physician and took his medicine and faithfully carried out his instructions; but I did not improve and finally the doctor told me I could not be cured. At this time, a friend advised me to try 'Fruit-a-tives' and I did so. After taking two boxes of 'Fruit-atives', I was greatly relieved; and gradually this marvelous fruit medicine made me completely well. My digestion and general health are splendid-all of which I owe to "Fruit-e-tives".

MARRIED FORTY YEARS

The home of Mr. and Mrs. Herbert W. Bent, Belleisle, was the scene of a very interesting event on Tuesday May 4th when the bride and groom of forty years were at home to their friends. The parlor was prettily decorated with potted plants and cut flowers and looked most inviting. The bride, gowned in a lovely dress of taupe broadcloth and silk (the gift of her eldest son during his in England as a soidier) looked very youthful and happy. They were assisted in receiving by their daughter Mrs. Rev. C. Gesner, of Advocate Harbor gowned in black silk. Mrs. John Bent also wore black silk, Mrs. Stanley Bent royal blue satin, while Miss Susie M. Troop, gowned in a dainty frock of white with blue trimmings looked very sweet as she welcomed the guests at the door. The gifts consisting of China and Silver, were very nice. Refreshments were served in the dining room which was trimmed in daffodills and potted plants. After a very enjoyable evening the guests at the hour of ten returned to their homes wishing the bride and groom many more years of happy wedded

GRAY-DORT The Motor Car Buy of the Year EVERYWHERE men are hailing the Gray-Dort as the big value of the year. The newest advances in automotive engineering and oldfashioned VALUE are combined in this car. Go over this car, feature by feature, and compare it with other light cars. Note the husky axle, the heavy crankshaft, the long springs, the big motor; the roomy tonneau, deep seats, French-pleated upholstery, hand-tailored Rayntite top, the side curtains opening with the doors; the graceful, clean contour of the Gray-Dort is aided by a new hood, with many long, narrow louvres and is completed by the wonderful Gray-Dort finish which we have been 60 years perfecting.
