KILLED HIS OWN SON
Drayman Ran Over His Boy and Crowd Tells of Tragedy.

NEW YORK, Oct. 2.—"Stop! You have killed your boy," was the cry which to-day informed Percy Greeley, a truck driver, that he had crushed his 8-year-old son to death.

Greeley rushed back, and, picking up his son's body, wept over it until a patrolman arrived and took him to the nearest police station. Greeley, employed by a blacksmith firm, was starting out at noon with a load of iron when a hoop which was rolling along the sidewalk dropped into the street. His boy reached between the wheels for it and his head was crushed by the rear wheel.

HOT SHOT FOR MURDOCK.
The Lance, local labor organ, says: What do the Brotherhood of Railway Trainmen think of Mr. Murdock, who took the stump on behalf of Mr. Graham of Brockville, and Mr. King of South Waterloo? Both these gentlemen were defeated, and why? A discredited trades unionist placed politics on a higher plane than unionism. Sic semper McGinnis.

STRIKE MENACES ASYLUMS OF ONTARIO

Attendants in Memorial to Premier Protest Bitterly Against Low Salaries—Pay Ranges from $20 to $30 a Month—Some Interesting Comparisons.

Serious developments are about to take place as the result of alleged neglect on the part of the Ontario Government to increase the salaries of asylum attendants. Information gathered yesterday by The World, indicates that the situation is extremely acute and indeed a general strike is threatened.

It appears that the attendants have long been complaining about the pay they receive, as well as the long hours that they are required to be on duty, but so far no apparent steps have been taken by the government to better the existing conditions. The embers of discontent are apparently about to burst into flame.

Male attendants, it appears, receive the salary of $20 per month to start with, with a maximum of not much more than $30 per month. Moreover, it is said that the working hours are exceptionally long, many of the attendants being on duty from 8 a.m. till 9 p.m. When it is taken into consideration that these attendants are practically taking their lives in their hands in following their daily vocation among people of unsound mind, some of whom are dangerous and liable to attack the attendants at any time, it is evident that strong men are required, and their remuneration should be proportionate.

Many Have Quit Service.
That there is evident dissatisfaction all around is shown by the fact that since the month of January last, no fewer than 72 attendants left the hospital for the insane on Queen-st. In the month of July alone, 17 quit their jobs. Besides there are only about half a dozen nurses still left in the building who have been there longer than six months, all the others having resigned. New nurses and new attendants are being taken on all the time, and apparently they leave again just as soon as the actual conditions are known. With regard to the attendants especially, it was learned by The World that these positions are rarely filled except by

Comrades Honor King's Prize Hero

"B" Company, Grenadiers, Presents Gold Watch to Pte. Clifford at the Armories.

A presentation to Private Clifford was made in the lecture room at the armories last night by Captain Osborne on behalf of B Company Grenadiers, Private Clifford being presented with a gold watch appropriately engraved as a token of appreciation of the honors he had brought to his company and regiment by winning the Prince of Wales' and the King's prizes.

In reply Private Clifford said that he appreciated their gift. He believed his comrades had just as good a chance to do what he had done if they would practice consistently.

LIBERAL SEAT PROTESTED.
STE. SCHOLASTIQUE, Que., Oct. 2.—G. Andre Fauteux, Conservative-Nationalist candidate in the division of Two Mountains, has contested the election of J. A. C. Ethier, Liberal, who was declared elected by acclamation, owing to certain technical irregularities in Mr. Fauteux's nomination papers. The protest was formally entered in court here to-day, Mr. Fauteux stating that as both candidates were present with their deposits on nomination day and as his papers were accepted at the time, a poll should have been held.

MIRTH AND MUSIC GALORE.
Most people go to the theatre for the pleasure derived from it. This week there is an abundance of mirth and music at the Princess Theatre where the big musical extravaganza "The Beauty Spot" is the attraction.

SIX HUNDRED MEN CLEARING UP AUSTIN

Thirty-eight bodies Recovered From Debris—Business Re-commencing—Dealer Sells Remnants of Former Stock for Souvenirs—Town Strictly Guarded by Military Force.

AUSTIN, Pa., Oct. 2.—With six hundred men recovered from the flood wreckage here to-day, the face of another, and a skull so badly charred that neither the sex nor the approximate age of the victim could be determined, the total number of known dead in the catastrophe that almost obliterated this community last Saturday, now stands at 38. All but one of the bodies were identified.

Also the expected number of laborer have not come in, there were approximately 600 at work clearing up the wreckage to-day, and the chaotic appearance of the village is fast being changed. Several families were enabled, with official permission, to take out what was of use of their household goods.

The first business enterprises since the destruction of the village appeared to-day when several storekeepers began to display their wares. One tobacconist salvaged a quantity of cigars, tobacco and cigarettes, but soon sold out his stock to tobacco users who had already begun to feel they had been deprived of the nicotine habit.

Toys and Notions for Souvenirs.
A merchant who carried a $20,000 stock of miscellaneous wares, furniture and musical instruments, to-day reached some small wares in his wrecked building, and on boxes, bureaus, improvised tables and a sofa or two, he had displayed a few toys, notions and

Turkey May Act in the Red Sea

LONDON, Oct. 4.—A report, which is without confirmation from other sources, comes from Vienna. It is to the effect that the Porte has ordered the Yemen expeditionary force to occupy the coast of the Italian colony of Eritrea supported by a Turkish flotilla in the Red Sea. Eritrea borders the Red Sea from Cape Kaabar to the Strait of Bab-el-Mendeb.

CABINET NOT READY TO FIX ELECTION DATES

Ontario Government is Expected to Break Silence To-day—Hearst Likely to Follow Cochrane.

The date of the provincial elections is still a mystery. Sir James Whitney's announcement that important matters would be discussed at yesterday's cabinet meeting was taken to mean that the date for filling the vacant seats in the legislature would be decided on. But it wasn't. It was discussed, however, and will be further discussed to-day. Several of the ministers had to leave the city early yesterday afternoon and that is why the cabinet couldn't go on deliberating.

Hon. Frank Cochrane was in attendance, feeling in excellent health after his fishing trip at Algonquin Park. As to his appointment in the Borden cabinet, he wouldn't impart any information. That point still remains uncertain, although it would be almost safe to believe that the portfolio of lands, forests and mines in the Ontario cabinet will soon be vacant. The presence of W. H. Hearst, M.L.A., in the parliament buildings yesterday strengthened this belief, seeing that Mr. Hearst is the most likely successor to Hon. Mr. Cochrane.

With regard to the probability of Hon. Frank Cochrane's transfer to the federal cabinet, Sir James Whitney said he had nothing to disclose. He thought any information relative to Mr. Borden's cabinet ought to come from Mr. Borden.

GROWTH OF WEST REFLECTED IN CABINET

Dr. Roche, Hon. Robt. Rogers and Premier McBride Likely Choices—Premier Hazen and Hector McInnes May Represent Maritime Provinces—High Office for Col. Hughes.

OTTAWA, Oct. 3.—The long-predicted shifting of representation from the east to the west will begin with the Borden regime. The new Conservative ministry will be made up of one less representative from Ontario and one less from Quebec, although Quebec is likely to lose only the solicitor-generalship, which, strictly speaking, is not a cabinet office. The increase will go to the western provinces, Manitoba, Saskatchewan and British Columbia will each be represented in the Borden cabinet, and after the coming redistribution Alberta may also have a minister. The Manitoba man is apparently to be Dr. Roche, while Hon. Robert Rogers goes into Saskatchewan, likely taking the Prince Albert seat. The indications are that Premier McBride will be the British Columbia minister.

Hon. Frank Cochrane, it is said to-night, may run in Victoria and Halliburton, Col. Sam Hughes taking a high permanent position under the government.

The maritime provinces delegation has been all but settled, with Premier Hazen of New Brunswick and Hector McInnes, K.C., of Halifax, as the choice.

It is also said that one of the Ontario seats may go to Richard Blain.

SPAIN STOPS A MOTOR.

MADRID, Oct. 3.—The Spanish cabinet met to-day and discussed the situation arising out of the monarchist revolt in Portugal. The minister of the interior explained the measures which have been taken to maintain Spain's neutrality.

He said that motor cars containing a large party of royalists were stopped on the Galician frontier, while trying to enter Portugal.

TURKEY'S APPEAL TO POWERS VAIN

Must Comply With Italian Demands in Tripoli Before Peace Negotiations Can Begin—Duke of Abruzzi Gives Tripoli Till Noon To-day to Surrender—Threatens Bombardment Otherwise.

LONDON, Oct. 3.—The lapse of another day leaves the Turco-Italian war without further development. There is no confirmation of the alleged bombardment of Tripoli, which appears unlikely to have happened, as it will yet be several days before the expeditionary force is ready to leave Italian shores. Apparently the Italian Government is apprehensive that the Turkish fleet may be able to hamper the passage of transports, and great precautions are being taken. The expedition will be started from ports in two seas, rather than from South Italy and Sicily, in order to minimize that danger, and evidently Italy is in a hurry to get the expedition on the way.

Another reason for the delay of warlike operations is the continuance of the Turkish cabinet crisis. Clearly, the old ministers are remaining in office against their will and are unable to formulate or agree upon any definite line of action. It is even reported that the minister of marine has resigned on account of flagrant disobedience of his orders to the fleet.

Meanwhile the pompousness of the powers continue without intermission. It is said that Russia is now supporting Germany in her efforts to bring about peace.

A report comes from Agosta that the Turkish transport Derna changed her name to "Eitel Frederick" and flew the German flag while running the blockade at Tripoli, and that her officers were proud of eluding pursuit.

But, it was pointed out in the report, she might have been captured two hundred miles from Tripoli, had not the Italians wanted her arrival at Tripoli and the landing of arms as a pretext to declare war.

Duke Turns Fiero.
CORFU, Oct. 3.—Vice-Admiral the Duke of Abruzzi has sent an ultimatum to the wall of Prevesa threatening a bombardment unless he surrenders the Turkish warships which have taken refuge in the harbor.

Turkey's Other Cheek Slapped.
CONSTANTINOPLE, Oct. 3.—Replies to the Porte's appeal have been received from most of the powers, but, as was expected, they afford little satisfaction. In effect the powers say they will be unable to offer mediation until

EARL GREY IN MONTREAL.

MONTREAL, Oct. 3.—Their Excellencies Earl and Countess Grey and the Ladies Sybil and Evelyn Grey arrived in Montreal this evening. To-night they attend a reception at the Mount Royal Club.

To-morrow his excellency will officially unveil the statue in memory of the late John Young, who did so much for the development of the port, and will then take a trip around the harbor in one of the harbor commissioner's tugs.

In the evening a banquet will be tendered his excellency at the Windsor Hotel.

ALD. DUNN WANTS CONTROLLER-SHIP.

It is rumored that Ald. John Dunn who has headed the poll in his ward for the past two years, will be a candidate for the board of control for the coming year. He has twice previously contested for a seat in the civic council.

DROPS 400 FEET SAFELY.

RASH SO BAD BABY
CAME NEAR DYING

Head Broke Out. Spread to Arms, Legs and Entire Body. Itched So
He Would Scratch Until Blood Ran.
One Box of Cuticura Ointment and Nearly One Cake of Cuticura Soap
Cured Him. Has Had No Return.

"When my boy was about three months old, his head broke out with a rash which was very itchy and ran a watery fluid. We tried everything we could think of, but he all the time, till it spread to his arms, legs and then to his entire body. He got so bad that he came near dying. The rash was itch so that he would scratch till the blood ran, and a thin yellowish scab would be all over his pillow in the morning. I had to put mittens on his hands to prevent him tearing his skin. He was so weak and run down that he took fainting spells as he was crying.
He was almost skeleton and his little hands
were thin like claws.
"It was about eight months when we tried Cuticura Remedies and I shall always remain a firm friend of them. He was cured more than twenty years ago, and there has been no return of the trouble. I shall be glad to have you publish this true statement
of his cure." (Signed) Mrs. M. C. Matland, Jasper, Ontario, May 27, 1910.

For more than a generation mothers have found a speedy, agreeable and economical treatment for their children's itchy rash in Cuticura Soap and Ointment. Although they are sold by druggists and dealers everywhere, a liberal sample of each may be obtained
free, from the Foster Drug & Chem. Corp., sole props., 23 Columbus Ave., Boston, U.S.A.

INDIAN FAMINE FEARED

But it is Not Expected It Will Reach Vast Proportions.

WASHINGTON, Oct. 3.—Altho there is a widespread feeling in India that a famine is impending in various parts of the country, Consul-General William H. Michael, at Calcutta, has advised the state department that a famine at present could not reach the proportions of those in the past. The worst evils of famine, he says, can be averted, as twenty per cent. of the soil is under cultivation. At the same time, there has been very little rain and the government is already moving large supplies
from districts where food is plentiful
to the famine-threatened zones.

GLADSTONE HOTEL CHANGES HANDS.

Additions are planned for the Gladstone Hotel. Coincident with the increase of the number of railway passengers who get off at the North Park-dale stations it has been found necessary to add more accommodation. The hotel, which is at present owned by V.
E. Lattinelli, will be taken over by an incorporated company. A syndicate of local men, headed by Thomas Slattery,
are included in the consideration.
Spoken to last night Mr. Slattery did not deny that a deal was on, but declined to say anything until it was consummated. "The hotel will not be anything done or said until the board
meets," he said.
The present proprietor admitted that the hotel could be considerably improved in size, but was not prepared to talk at present about the extent of the increase.

Welland City Railway Started.

WELLAND, Oct. 2.—At 9 o'clock this morning, Mayor Sutherland drove the first spike in the Welland City Railway, which will be rushed forward to completion.
Great preparations have been made and prospects are good for a fine
road for Welland County to-morrow.
Today was opening day, with good exhibitions in various parts. Speed contests will be held to-morrow.

Bizzness, Sinking Spells and Excessive Weakness Disappear With Use of

Dr. Chase's
Nerve Food

Nearly every woman will read with interest the letter of Mrs. Geo. Bradshaw, quoted below. It tells of years of great suffering from Nervous Headache and other symptoms arising from weak, watery blood and a starved and exhausted condition of the nervous system.

Mrs. George Bradshaw, Cozy Nook, Hartlowe, Ont., writes: "I am glad to state that I received benefits from Dr.
Chase's Nerve Food, which I failed to get any place else. I was troubled for many years, in fact from my early womanhood, with weak, watery blood, and given to dizziness. I suffered untold agonies from nervous sick headaches, dizziness and sinking spells. In fact, I was a semi-invalid for many years. I tried many kinds of patent medicines, and got no help, and tried every new doctor that came along, but all failed to help me. Doctors told me I had no blood, and that my heart and kidneys were diseased, and that I had so many complaints there was not much use in doctoring up one or two. Four years ago
I took six boxes of Dr. Chase's Nerve Food, and was glad to see I felt better, and then got six more, and they have cured me of many of my complaints.
When I began taking Nerve Food I weighed 110 pounds, and to-day I weigh 149, and am 45 years old."

HAMILTON
HAPPENINGS

COLLAPSE OF BIG TANK
CAUSED GREAT ALARM

With 15,000 Gallons of Water It
Crashed Thru Bristol & Co's
Warehouse.

HAMILTON, Oct. 3.—(Special).—A big tank containing about 15,000 gallons of water fell from the roof of Geo. E.
Bristol & Co's warehouse on Macnab-
st. north, this afternoon, and crashed thru three floors into the cellar of the John E. Brown building, immediately north. The falling of the tank was accompanied with a deafening report and the keenest apprehension as to the results of the accident existed until it was discovered that no one was seen injured.

The collapse of the tank's supports is given as the cause of the accident. The John E. Brown establishment suffered a damage to the extent of several thousand dollars, but the Bristol warehouse was not greatly damaged, and the management announced afterwards that their business would not be interfered with, and that goods will be shipped to-morrow as usual.

Boom in Assessments.
A population of 23,095, and taxable property to the value of $52,819,864, are the two big fact stories told by the figures of the Hamilton assessment department, which were today made public for the year 1912. The rapid growth of the city is indicated by the increase of 887 in the population for the past year, while the total assessment has been added to by $5,106,885 more than the 1911 figures. Assessments have been generally increased all over the city, and it is thought that the total increase will make a 25-mill tax rate possible next year.

The most conspicuous instance of a scaled assessment is in the figures for the Dominion Power and Transmission Co., which concern was last year taxed on $235,500. For 1912, if the present figures are allowed to stand, the company will have to pay on $447,000, an increase of $211,500. The plant of the Hamilton Electric Light and Power Co., a subsidiary concern of the Dominion Power and Transmission Co., was stated by Manager Hawkins on one occasion to be worth $2,000,000.

Dogs Are Vanishing.
A noteworthy feature of the assessment figures is the decrease shown in the number of dogs in the city, 800 fewer canines being found by the assessors this year than last.
While some objection has been made to individual increases, one complaint of an assessment too low has been made by Controller McGee, who claims that a piece of property on St. George st. which he bought for $4000, is put in at $1000 by the assessors. The city officials seem to think that the figures generally are fair, and that the complaint will make little change in them.

Cataract is Hostile.
The city offer to confer with the Cataract Power Co. on the electrical matters other than the question of rates, has been turned down by the company. This morning the board of control received a letter from W. C.
Hawkins, general manager of the company, which concludes as follows:
"The only matter I had in mind was this question of uniform and equitable rates, which the board is unable to deal with this matter at present. I think there will be no need for any conference."
The letter is regarded as an intimation of the severance of diplomatic relations between the company and the city, and an omen of a rate war, which it is thought the company will declare when the city's plant is ready to do business.

Accused of Manslaughter.
The high court grand jury this morning returned an indictment of manslaughter against W. J. Waters, the insurance agent, who, it is alleged, caused the death of William Boyce by running him over with a motor car.
When arraigned by Justice Britton, Waters pleaded not guilty, and his counsel, J. W. Neat, K.C., moved for a postponement of the trial until January 15, on the ground that the defence was unable to get hold of a material witness. His lordship granted the motion, and the trial will be held on the date renewed by H. B. Whipple and C. F. Campbell.

James "Chuck" Fuller was this morning sentenced to 18 months in central prison by Judge Monck for assaulting and robbing an old man named Pat Garry.

Isaac Allen, a Toronto traveler, was this morning committed for trial by Magistrate Jelfs on a charge of uttering a bogus cheque. A colored man named Hanna, who had been arrested in connection with the case, was discharged, as it was shown that he had become innocently wrapped up in the affair.

all parts of the city. Erected in 1908.

C. P. R.'s Montreal Station.
ONTARIO, Oct. 3.—The Canadian Pacific Railway's huge operations at their Place Viger Station, in this city
are now nearing completion.
The operations, which include the building of a new station, the enlarging of the terminal yards, the constructing of a big steel viaduct and the remodeling of their Place Viger Hotel, has made necessary an expenditure of over a million dollars.

Atchison Shows Increase.
CHICAGO, Ill., Oct. 3.—The total income of the Atchison, Topeka and Santa Fe System for the fiscal year ending June 30, 1911, was $108,772,481, as against $107,543,250 in 1910, according to the annual report made public today. The total operating expenses were $28,286,000, and the fixed charges $12,712,219, leaving a balance of $21,371,067 against $20,408,784 in 1910.

The company's mileage operated was 3,200,000 miles, an increase of 433 miles in the year.

beautifully decorated for the occasion
with a wealth of bloom and the glow of electric lights. The table of honor was placed along the fireplace, and was beautifully decorated with red and white roses and lilies of the valley. At this table were seated the following: Sir Daniel and Lady Mc-Millan, His Honor the Lieutenant-Governor and Mrs. Cameron, Sir William and Lady Ruyet, His Grace the Archbishop of Rupert's Land and Mrs.
Matheson, Colonel and Mrs. Steele,
Chief Justice Howell, Mayor and Mrs.
Evans, Hon. R. P. and Mrs. Roblin, Mr.
and Mrs. J. A. M. Alkins, Hon. Hugh
J. Macdonald, Chief Justice and Mrs.
Mathers, Hon. W. H. Montague, Mrs.
Robert Rogers, Mr. Justice and Mrs.
Richards, Mrs. Kirkland, Consul-General and Mrs. Jones, Mr. Justice and Mrs. Perdue, Hon. Colin Campbell,
Hon. Robert and Mrs. Watson, Mr.
and Mrs. Hugh Sutherland, Mr.
and Mrs. T. L. Patton, Mrs. Nanton, Hon. Wm. and Mrs. Hespeler, Mr. and Mrs. C. C. Chipman, Capt. William Robinson and Mrs. D. K. Elliott.
Parties of six were gathered at the 69
odd tables scattered around the room,
each decorated with yellow chrysanthemums. On a table near the head table stood the magnificent solid silver banqueting set presented to Sir Daniel and Lady McMillan. The service consisted of a punch bowl of generous proportions on a base, two slender vases and two candelabra, each having five branches and shaded with pierced silver. They were all made of Canadian products and by Canadian artisans, and were from designs of the great and world-famous Cellini. Florence, and made in Winnipeg. On the table the punch bowl was the Mc-Millan crest, and on the other the following: "Presented to Hon. Sir Daniel Hunter McMillan, K.C.M.G., by Winnipeg friends, on the occasion of his retirement from the lieutenant-governorship of the Province of Manitoba, position which he occupied with great distinction for two years in 1911. This distinction was also presented a testimonial book of vellum, bound with 14-k. gold, and having the coat-of-arms and maple leaves on the front cover, wherein were inscribed the names of those contributors."

At New York.—The Highlanders
dropped a double-header to the Red Sox, Boston winning easily in each game. Hall was effective in the first, allowing but four hits and striking out nine men. In the second, Wood was almost invincible. Not a man got on base until the sixth when Williams walked. Daniels made the only clean hit off Wood in the same inning.
Chicago did the best thing, getting Daniels and Dean three times
each. Every New Yorker but Gordon struck out in this game. The second game was called in the eighth on account of darkness. Scores:

innings, darkness preventing further play. Johnson allowed but one hit in the champions' six innings. Plank got

Chorus Girl Was Plucky

Chased Chateaufort Thief and Held Till Police Came.
New women undergo the experience
Miss Beadie Lloyd of the Merry Whirl
Company, now playing at the Gaiety
Theatre here, had last week in Buffalo,
when a purse snatcher grabbed her moeb bag containing a snug amount of money and made off with it.
Now, ordinarily a lady in such circumstances would find herself so bewildered that she could not even pluck up enough courage to scream for help, but not so with Miss Lloyd, for she not only screamed for assistance, but set off at a rapid pace after the thief, who she had been placed in the alley.
In the meantime, several men and boys, who had followed the chase, came up to find the young lady guarding the thief, who turned him over to the police, but Miss Lloyd's troubles, did not end there, as the purse could not be found on the man, and it was only after a most diligent search with the aid of lanterns that it was found where it had been thrown further up the alley.
Miss Lloyd was commended by the officer of the law for her bravery in following the purse snatcher, even tho'
she did run into a dark alley, for had she not possessed indomitable courage,
and been able to run fast, the thief
surely would have made his escape.
Miss Lloyd is a Philadelphia girl, and altho her native city is called "Slow Town," she is "some sprinter," as she says, in tennis is her favorite pastime, and it is thru her experience in that outdoor sport that she cultivated
the art of running.

Col. Vancouver. Prof. Taylor will return during the winter in connection with the Toronto University, and will

Can Floa "Maine"

Engineers Confident of Success—
Engines May Be Serviceable.
HAVANA, Oct. 3.—An examination of the after section of the battleship Maine, comprising about one-third the full length of the ship, has removed all doubt from the minds of the engineers in charge of the work of raising the vessel of the feasibility of building a bulkhead in it and floating it out of the cofferdam. Consequently, the fitting of the bulkhead will be commenced as soon as the material for it is received from the north.

There is still a possibility that the engines of the Maine are in such condition that they can be restored to service and with temporary boilers permit of the wreck passing out of the harbor under her own steam. This course proposed is not to be adopted, however,
on account of the expense.
The next two months especially will be devoted to a continuation of the work of disassembling by gas blasts the shattered portions of the hull, from which more bodies may be recovered.
A portion of one of the forward magazines is now visible, but its condition
does not warrant a conjecture regarding the character of the explosion which sunk the Maine.

It requires 150 years to grow a 30-foot sap pole for telegraph purposes, but there are other poles which answer all purposes which are grown more quickly.

CANADA'S ATTITUDE EXPLAINED.

English and American newspapers and public men seem anxious to know the secret of Canada's stand against Reciprocity. To answer these enquiries a universal demand has sprung up all over Canada for the reproduction of samples of the famous editorial articles of The Montreal Star, which engrossed the Canadian public during the whole campaign period. There were fifty of these articles in The Star, of which we publish the following as types:

THE MEN WHO STAYED.

IN EVERY CORNER OF CANADA ARE MEN whose proudest boast it is that they "stayed with the game."

When they were young, there was probably a time at which they weighed in their minds the advisability of leaving the home land and allowing the hypnotic magnetism of the larger cities, the larger industries, the larger people and the larger opportunities of the American Republic to lure them finally away from the then struggling Canadian Provinces. In thousands of cases, better financial offers reached them from the South; and it takes a resolute patriotism to push aside the temptation that promises better pay.

In practically all cases, the prospects at home were not alluring. Until we were well into the eighties, it was possible to say that an independent Canada was itself an experiment. Our large cities were few and were not growing with any assuring rapidity. The West was empty. Winnipeg was a venturesome outpost on the shores of "an inland sea" of prairie almost as trackless and unfathomed as the wandering ocean it resembled. British Columbia might as well have been in another hemisphere.

Yet these men "stayed with the game." They deliberately cast in their lot with Canada, and decided to fall or succeed as they and the others who stayed with them were able to make failure or success for the land they loved. They saw many of their old companions go to "the States," and heard the golden reports that came back of their marvellous good fortune in that vast land of opportunity. They witnessed Canadians climbing high in New York, in Chicago, in Boston, in Washington itself; and were often told what fools they were to forego the advantages that might come to them quite as surely as to these others if they would but "venture" upon the wider stream and into the fiercer competition. "Venture!" In their hearts, they knew that they were the true adventurers who had embarked their fortunes on an untried craft which must buffet northern seas and sail by reef and headland with little enough sympathy from the Mother Country itself and many a hostile wind from the very quarter to which their old school-mates and fellow townsmen had gone.

But they "stayed with the game." They believed in Canada; or, if they did not always quite believe, they hoped. They said—we will open up the West and bring to it the choice of the human race. And they sent out pioneer expeditions to explore that country; and men are reading these lines who can remember when they first heard of Brandon and Qu'Appelle and Pile o' Bones and the incredible story that wheat could grow much farther north in the West than we ever dreamed of here in the frozen East.

As Confederation found itself, and we began to feel the shoulder touch of brothers on all sides, and the ever-victorious swing of the steel swept over, the prairies and climbed the Rockies, and we were at last banded together in one nation, we told each other with mounting hopes to "thank God and take courage," for Canada was a reality and not a dream, and we had succeeded in making an independent nation out of the string of scattered provinces which the Britisher of the early Victorian age thought a burden and the American of '66 had tried to crush.

Then the men who "stayed with the game" worked all the harder. You could not now have bought them to surrender their nationality at any price. The days of hesitation were over. It is true that the "exodus" still went on; for magnetism is a quality of large bodies and there were many of little faith. But there was no question now of having the ship sink under us. If we would stick, the ship would go on. Prosperity began to smile on the land. The home-hungry world became aware of us; and the streams of home-seekers who flowed in through our ports and sought their level on the wide and fertile prairies increased. Industries grew and trade flourished. We convinced the always tardy United Kingdom that both our products and our custom were worth having. We saw the cities of Canada, which we had loved and believed in when they were small, quicken with new life and round out in a magical growth which we had hitherto only associated with those boastful American cities that had seemed so great a lure.

The time came when those who "stayed with the game" were sorry for the faint hearts who had given it up and gone where success seemed cheaper and more common. Then the "exodus" turned. We found that the tide of emigration on this Continent was toward Canada, and that our country had become the magnet of the hemisphere. People began to say that the "twentieth century was to be Canada's"; and all over the world men of vision realized that the fate of the immediate future was being brewed in the Canadian crucible. John Bull took a fresh look at us, and decided that we were "a likely lad" of which he could well be proud. Then he began to think of the matter a little more deeply; and he discovered that this Dominion which had been saved to the Empire by the men of unshaken faith who "stayed with the game," was to-day the sole hope of the Empire. If Canada was lost, everything was lost; and from that time nothing has been too good "at home" for the progeny of the men who "stayed with the game."

Then in the year of grace 1911, our next-door neighbor woke up. He is not usually so slow; but he has been so long accustomed to ignoring his little country cousin to the North that it took time for him to appreciate the fact that Canada held the destiny of the Anglo-Saxon race in her hands. It may be said to his credit, however, that the moment he woke up, he began to move. He reached for Canada at once—and only regretted that it could not be "sooner." He began by making us a present. He sent us a Trojan Horse. We are now considering whether we will take it or not. It we can once get that inside the walls and start our trade flowing into his markets and commence the obliteration of all evidences of so stupid and inconvenient a thing as a boundary line, he may yet make up for the time lost when he was asleep and we were growing. He may yet be in time to reap the golden crop which the men "who stayed with the game" sowed in hardship, in neglect, in bitter sweat and in a fierce determination that there should be a Canada for all time.

But what about the men "who stayed with the game"? Are they now to lose everything for which they have sacrificed and labored and dared and hoped? Did they "stay in vain"? Is all their effort only to result in preparing a fat land which the nation that slighted us, are now to come in and enjoy? Did we make Canada to give it away? Is it to be said that we only took a round-about and arduous path to the same goal as that reached by our friends who took their departure, twenty, thirty, forty years ago for better pay and an "American job"? If so, was it worth while to "stay with the game"? There are those to-day who tell us that the United Empire Loyalists were "fools." Perhaps they were; but were they any more foolish than we who "stayed with the game" will be if we now sell our birthright for a mess of pottage?

The men who "stayed with the game" are thinking of these things. They are wondering if the bribe which failed to buy them from the nation will buy the nation from them.—Montreal Star before the election.

THE AMERICAN MOTIVE FOR RECIPROCITY PACT IS DISCLOSED IN CONGRESS.

"WE ARE PREPARING TO ANNEX CANADA!"
In last night's session of Congress, which passed the Reciprocity pact, Congressman Clark, leader of the triumphant party, said: "We are preparing to annex Canada!"

That is the plainest statement of policy this Continent has heard since Montgomery started for Quebec.

"We are preparing to annex Canada!"
The declaration could not have come to us more impressively. It was not made by an irresponsible American "jingo" ranting in a bar-room or boasting in a country store. It was not even made by an obscure Member of Congress—important as that might have been—nor was it the chance revelation in private of the hidden hope of a great man.

On the contrary, it was the deliberate statement, uttered on the floor of Congress in the course of an important debate, of the official leader of a triumphant party which swept the Republic at a general election held no longer ago than last November.

If any man has a mandate to speak for the American people to-day, it is Clark of Missouri. He is the Democratic Congressional leader; and the Democratic Congressional party has, as we have said, just returned from the polls with the endorsement of the American people.

Nor is it a divided party. After Mr. Clark's pointed declaration of policy, the Democrats in the present House, whose course may be said to have been endorsed by the electors, voted with what is in Washington a rare unanimity for the proposal thus endorsed by their leader. Only three Democrats—and those strongly affected by local interests—bolted, and this in spite of the fact that the Bill was a Republican Bill, implementing a Republican agreement whose success would redound to the credit of a Republican President.

Thus Clark of Missouri, speaks for the majority of the American people much more certainly than Mr. Asquith can speak to-day for the majority of the British people. Asquith's support is divided. Clark's support is united. And yet if Mr. Asquith were to say, for instance—"We are preparing for the annexation of Holland"—what a tremendous excitement would break out at The Hague, and in all the capitals of Europe.

"We are preparing to annex Canada!"
We are told that Mr. Clark said this three times in the course of his speech in favor of the Taft-Fielding Reciprocity pact; and that it was greeted with rapturous applause by his supporters in the House. Annexation of Canada was the keynote of his rallying address; and it rallied his doubting followers like a trumpet call. They might have some hesitation over voting an agreement which possibly hit a local interest here and there; but they could have none over the launching of a programme whose purpose was to carry the Stars and Stripes to the Arctic Circle.

Patriotism in the Republican ranks dies hard. Their discredited party in Congress, already massacred by the American people at the polls, is divided on the question. But President Taft, who intends to go to the polls again next year, is straining every nerve to push through a scheme which he knows the people want. He has not been so outspoken as Mr. Clark; for he is a more practiced diplomat. He knows the effect that such words must have at Ottawa. So he leaves them to be inferred. But he fights night and day, and sends his Cabinet Ministers out on the stump to fight for this policy which his partner in pressing it through Congress confesses to be a preparation for the annexation of Canada.

Who doubts that this is at the bottom of the whole movement? Why have the Americans suddenly awakened to the importance—not, mark you, of the Canadian market, for they get precious little of that—but of diverting Canadian trade to the American market? Why have they, all in a moment, determined to press upon our acceptance the key to their market in natural produce. Is it because of any sudden and unselfish love for us; or is it because they realize that Canada stands to-day at the parting of the ways, and that if they are not turned definitely toward a commercial union with the United States during the next few years, it will be everlastingly too late to decoy us into the surrender of our national identity?

"We are preparing to annex Canada!"
Well, what has Canada to say about it? Are we preparing to be annexed?

Have we decided to surrender?

We have had a long fight against Annexation—we and our fathers. Some of us can recall sitting at the feet of our grandfathers and hearing them tell how their fathers left comfortable homes in New England and New York to "trek" into the Canadian wilderness and establish here a new nation. They did not want to be annexed. They faced hardship and suffering and even death to avoid it. They came north and built their log houses and starved through many a "black winter" to found Canada.

Shall we stand by their graves to-day and pull down the flag they so hardily and heroically nailed to the rough-hewn pole that rose from the thatched roof of their pioneer's cabin?

Still the fight went on.
"Freedom's battle once begun,
Is handed on from sire to son!"

Those were hard years that followed the "trek" of the United Empire Loyalists; but they were endured. There was an Annexation Movement in 1812; and we mean no unfriendliness to our neighbors in recalling the fact that the men of the day gave their answer at Queenston Heights and Chateaugay.

But that is ancient history. Most of us to-day are more interested in Peace Missions and celebrations of a century which has not heard a hostile shot. There is no danger to-day that our neighbors would march against us. We are not recalling the old times to suggest such a thing. Friendship between the two great Anglo-Saxon unions of nations is at this hour the best international asset of both. We hold up both hands for friendship. We are glad that the old days are dead. But we are no more ready to give up to-day that for which our fathers were eager to die than were they when Canadian Independence had to be defended with bullets and not ballots.

But has the fight against Annexation ever ceased?

What did the denunciation of the Elgin Treaty mean if it did not mean the serving of notice on us that we must become American if we would share the American market? Later, James G. Blaine said the same thing in plain words. He declared that Canada could only get access to the American market by casting in her lot with the American people. That was frank; and Mr. Clark has shown us that the race of frank statesmen across the border is not extinct.

The McKinley tariff and the Dingley tariff preached the same doctrine. They meant to hit us; and they did hit us. There never was a moment when their blows were falling on us that we could not have purchased immunity by hoisting the white flag. If we had said that all our efforts for a long, hard and trying century had been in vain, and that we were ready to give up everything for which three generations of Canadians had suffered and struggled, that hostile tariff wall would have fallen as miraculously as did the walls of Jericho, and we could have entered the Promised Land.

But we fought steadily on against Annexation. We built our mighty transcontinental railway systems from the Pacific to the Atlantic; we dug our canals, and are to-day in the act of digging them deeper and planning new ones; we duplicated the American canal at the Sault; we maintained a tariff which enabled industries to grow up here and flourish under the very shadow of the powerful "trusts" and crushing combinations of the United States.

We pioneered and opened up the West. We equipped it for farming, ranching and trade. We conquered the Rocky Mountains and bridged the wilderness between Manitoba and arable Ontario. We made a nation of Canada; and we applauded Sir Wilfrid Laurier when he definitely shook that fact in the face of Europe. We succeeded in defending the land our fathers planted with the sacred graves of their dear ones. We have kept the faith. We have conquered. And now all that remains for us to do is to reap the harvest, so hard and costly and long in the sowing.

But there are gentlemen to the South who fancy themselves as reapers. They like harvests. They know a fat mineral country when they see it. They can tell a standing forest right across the boundary line. And there is very little in the way to obstruct their view; for they have cut down all their own forests and swept their land clean of much of its wealth.

All their arable land is gone. They depend on irrigation now for expansion. But as their eyes stray across the prairie boundary, they see an Empire of free and fertile country which is bound soon to support a population rivalling their own. Naturally, they want it. And, with them, to want is to reach out. We are not blaming them. Land hunger is common to all progressive peoples. The British have it; and so have the Germans.

The only question is—Do we want their hands to go back full? Will we still defend the citadel; or, will it begin to surrender piecemeal?

Are we, too, preparing for Annexation?—Montreal Star before the election.

Baseball Giants Almost Champions • Bowling Meetings And Scores • Turf Results on Three Tracks

Note and Comment

New York almost clinched the National League championship yesterday. The Giants beat Philadelphia, but the rival club would not go down before St. Louis. However, to-day will settle it, unless New York loses and Chicago wins, or no games are played.

The experts are flurried on the world's championship, and generally pick Philadelphia to repeat. To Cobb says: "I believe the Athletics will win the world's series of 1911. I am not picking the Athletics to win because they just represent the American League, for I honestly believe they have more strong points than the Giants."

They tell me the Giants will beat the Athletics because Catcher Thomas cannot stop their base stealing. "In order to get a chance to steal the Giants must get on the base first. In my opinion they will find this task extremely difficult when Bender, Coombs and Plank face them. The series with the Cubs are not unusually strong with the best and that a catcher like Archer can best their pitching. Thomas is Mack's best catcher and the way he threw out the Cubs in the world's series is proof of that. He could not be trifled with. Thomas has been throwing to bases this year better than ever unless I am wrong. He'll stop the Giants as easily as he stopped the Cubs. The Athletics are the best hitters in either major league. Depend upon it that they will find a way to solve Mathewson and Marquard. If Mathewson can break up their hitting and run game I'll be very much surprised."

The Toronto and District Football Association are celebrating the close of last season and the beginning of this at the annual banquet next Friday in the St. Charles Hotel. Also the T. & D. team alone scored a victory over the touring Canadians the orators will have an additional theme.

Racing within easy reach of New York began at Laurel, Md., on Monday, when the new mile track built by H. P. Brown, the well-known promoter, was shown open to the public. The plant has involved an outlay of $1,000,000. Brown has met with encouragement from the stewards of the Jockey Club, together with the percentage of owners, the best known horsemen in America. The track can be reached by trolley from Washington in less than half an hour, while from Baltimore it is one hour's journey by steam. Under the laws of Maryland open bookmaking is legal so that probably thirty paddlers will line up in the betting ring. August Belmont's horses were shipped from Toronto to the new track.

Having the official sanction of the New York Jockey Club the Laurel meeting will be extended to the end of the month, which will afford plenty of action for turnouts. Meanwhile there will be a conflict with the Maryland Jockey Club, which opens the usual fall meeting at Pimlico next Saturday and will continue until Oct. 25 inclusive. The stakes and purses at Pimlico are the same as those offered by Laurel.

The added money in some instances is $20, $30, $50, $100, $250 and $500, which in the value of the Bowie Handicap at two miles. Pimlico's betting ring makers will afford more for more late in the result that many price takers who have been idle this year will take up the club and state.

Chap. Brown has made a long determination to fight for recreation. He was the originator of City Park, New Orleans, which rivaled the Grand Central and the sport in Louisiana. Brown was crowded out of this venture in the Crescent City by the western city element before the crash came. Then he invaded Florida with a head and with ideas and a shooting. He interested several men with money and built Monte Carlo in Jacksonville which he sold to be built by him during two winter campaigns. The venture proved to be a gold mine and when racing was started in the commission in Florida last spring, Brown turned his attention to Laurel, where he has built an up to date plant with the financial assistance. Brown's enterprise at a time when racing was at a low ebb attracted the attention of the Jockey Club, and when he asked for a license it was granted as a matter of fairness, although it is said that some people, especially those of the Cuban Government, are not satisfied to confine his efforts to making Laurel a success, but are hurrying to have a new racetrack in Havana, Cuba. It will cost $300,000, it is said, and Brown has laid plans to bring up his money for a meeting that will open in November or December. He has received assistance and support and protection from the Cuban Government, and says he will induce many of the leading stables to race there. There will race too, so that horsemen will not be forced to remain inactive between fall and spring.

The Globe did observe a few days ago with that occasional lapse into the obvious, which has enabled it to maintain a reputation for sagacity in recent years.

To stir up the province at the present time with a drive by-elections, and then to do it all over again on a larger scale next June might be the Globe's idea of minimizing the agony.

INFLUENCE OF EXAMINATIONS ON EDUCATION.

At the recent meeting of the British Association a discussion took place in the educational section over the examination system.

The London Morning Post, editorially commenting on the discussion, mentions a remark by Bishop Weldon to the effect that he knew of at least one preparatory schoolmaster who tried to get boys for his school by offering what he called pre-preparatory scholarships.

The public should withhold its judgment, but in view of the danger signals which the dam gave when it was first used, the burden of proof is upon its owners and their engineers to show that what they did had the full approval of engineering science.

Oakes was so persistent that he waited too long, the train striking him and killing him instantly. The trolley was badly broken, but the driver and the conductor were injured.

METHODIST WORLD'S CONGRESS BEGINS

Continued From Page 1. Henry Haigh, Rev. S. S. Henshaw, Sir Robert W. Perks, bart., and Mr. R. W. Essex, M.P. The ecumenical conference meets once in every ten years and this meeting is the second one to be held on this side of the Atlantic, the first being the second ever held, was in Washington, D.C., in the Metropolitan Methodist Episcopal Church, from Oct. 7 to 20, 1891.

Two Hundred From Overseas. Two hundred of the five hundred delegates present will represent the eastern section, which includes all who cross the ocean, while the other three hundred will represent the western section, comprising the whole of the American continent. Dr. Chapman, secretary of the eastern section, is confident that fully seven-eighths of the eastern delegates will be present, which is an excellent showing when it is known that they pay their own expenses to make the long trip. Aside from the officials of the conference, there will be many distinguished laymen, who will occupy the gallery of the great church, the floor being reserved for the conference members.

Men Business. An hour during each afternoon session will be devoted to devotional exercises, reading of journal and the presentation of resolutions, etc., not on the regular program. To describe business is the slogan of the conference, and no appointed addresses will be permitted to occupy more than ten minutes. In the general assembly, matters before the conference, no member will be allowed more than five minutes and will not be permitted to speak more than once on the same subject.

There is installed for the convenience of the delegates a branch of the post-office in the church, where mail will be delivered and despatched to all parts of the world.

Among the many social events which will take place during the conference, which lasts from Oct. 4 to 11, will be a reception at city hall on Thursday of this week at 4.30 p.m., and on Saturday afternoon his honor the lieutenant-governor will give a garden party on the grounds of the Government House. Covers will be laid for 800 at a banquet to be given the delegates in Massey Hall by the Methodist Social Union of the West.

Arrived From the West. A party of 35 or 40 English delegates, who have been enjoying the scenery of the mountains, arrived in the United States yesterday in the charge of Rev. Blackburn Fitzgerald of Leeds, and are enthusiastic in their praise for Canada and her wonderful resources.

"Il Trovatore" at the Royal Alexandra. The Aborn English Grand Opera Company scored another success last night in the presentation of "Il Trovatore." Love, hate, envy, fear, jealousy, pity, despair, and, in fact, all the emotions, were presented, in striking reality, with a flood of harmony. The large audience listened in rapt attention, and the chain of events in the beautiful but pathetic opera were depicted wonderfully clear.

I finally used 'Fruit-atives' and after the first dose I felt so much better that I continued using these fruit tablets and they have entirely cured me.

"I certainly can recommend 'Fruit-atives' to anyone who suffers from headaches, biliousness or stomach trouble." Mrs. Isaac Van Sickie, 1000 York street, Toronto. STRIKE MENACES ASYLUMS OF ONTARIO

Continued From Page 1. men unable to obtain any other job, and just as soon as a vacancy elsewhere presents itself, they leave the asylum's employ.

A committee of the Canadian Union of Ontario is respectfully directed to a letter and forwarded it to the provincial government, a copy of which has been transmitted to The World, and this we repeat for the benefit of our readers.

A Striking Comparison. The attention of the prime minister has been called to the fact that the action of the Toronto police commissioners, which shows that Toronto, along with other great cities, is desirous of giving reasonable remuneration to those who are engaged by them to do work which is not always of an agreeable nature.

They get $20 a month and other perquisites, which would make their pay worth $38 a month or $40 a year, and they have had no experience was only receiving $120 a year more than this!

Notice the Comparison. A city policeman gets $1000 a year, works eight hours a day and six days a week after a few years' service. An asylum attendant gets $54 a year, works 12 hours a day and seven days a week, after 17 years' service.

Different in the United States. A comparison with the men engaged in the job of janitor in the United States shows that janitors at least double the remuneration that is paid by a wealthy province to its attendants in the asylums.

Lower the Standard. What sort of nurses do the Ontario superintendents procure for their $20 a month, rising after 17 years to $50 a month?

TURKEY'S APPEAL TO POWERS

Continued From Page 1. the Porte offers a basis of settlement along the lines of the Italian demands set forth in the ultimatum. The Austrian ambassador had a long interview with the grand vizier this afternoon, and it is announced that the Russian ambassador will visit him tomorrow, but it is questionable whether Said Pasha will be able to remain in office another day.

Will Preserve Status in Balkans. It is understood that Austria has given a guarantee to Turkey that the status quo in the Balkans will be maintained. Mehmed Pasha, son of Sheikh Alidekher, the last Algerian sultan, has asked Tripoli for the purpose of arousing all the Mussulmans in Africa to repel the Italian invasion.

Milmi Pasha resolutely refuses to enter the cabinet, as it is lacking a well-defined policy. Since Said Pasha took office the ministry has had three all-night sittings, in addition to prolonged deliberations during the day, and the grand vizier's inability to form a cabinet is causing the sultan great worry.

Agosta Takes It Seriously. AGOSTA, Sicily, Oct. 3.—The entire population of Agosta, augmented by that of Syracuse and the surrounding villages, gave an enthusiastic reception to the Turkish fleet which landed by the torpedo boat destroyers Lanciere and Garibaldi. Bands played, flags were flown to the breeze and the people cheered the refugees wherever they went.

The ones who were on the war vessels were mostly people of the lower classes. They give vivid descriptions of the long sufferings they went thru at the hands of the Turks. One of them, the proprietress of an hotel, said that for several days Mussulmans organized a strike to kill her and her family and to paint with Italian blood the houses of Tripoli. The refugees are being housed at the old Capuchin monastery, at the expense of the government.

Agosta are being provided with batteries with which to defend the port in case of a Turkish attack by the government also has caused to be erected several wireless stations connecting the harbor here with the headquarters of the general staff at the Ministry of San Domino.

The flagship Vittorio Emanuele left to-day for an unknown destination, but it is believed she is carrying a detachment of escort between Italy and Sicily for steamers transporting troops.

A dozen torpedo boats, the mining cruiser Iride and several coal boats are here awaiting orders.

Naval Manoeuvres. AGOSTA, Sicily, Oct. 3.—An officer of the destroyer Garibaldi, one of the blockading fleet, which has arrived here to recon, in an interview to-day said: "The Turkish steamer reached Tripoli because our instructions were to let her pass. Her landing of arms, being a census bill, was expected to result in the opening of hostilities.

The Derna could have been captured two hundred miles from Tripoli, which we discovered by the German who had changed her name to that of 'Eitel-Friedrich.' The Derna was captured by the Italian torpedo boat, which was captured by the Italian torpedo boat, which was captured by the Italian torpedo boat.

CONTRACTS NOT FINAL. Bestowal of Favours at Ottawa May Meet With Check.

OTTAWA, Oct. 3.—(Special.) The contracts which the moribund Laurier government has been trying to put thru long far to be made up of the railway line from Darmouth to Dean Settlement would cost approximately $2,000,000. This order-in-council has been passed giving to Mr. P. Davis, the Guyanese-Portuguese contractor, the contract for $1,500,000, and here the Nova Scotia Construction Company is favored, in both cases the government's status is lacking.

The Norton Griffiths tender for Courtenay Bay, which the department of public works has recommended to council, puts the price of the work at $1,000,000. It is believed not to have passed the order-in-council.

MAYOR ADDRESSES BUSINESS WOMEN. Mayor Deary addressed the first meeting of the Canadian Business Women's Club, held in the Faculty of Education Building last night, on various civic problems, dealing mostly with the city's water question.

His worship explained all the steps in the city's quest for pure water, starting with the old intake pipe and showing how the problem had thrust itself on the city council and what had been done in the past. He pointed out the great importance of the matter and urged that attention should be concentrated upon it, when the expert report would be ready it would be the basis of the discussion which would lead to the final settlement of the difficulty.

In the course of his address he touched on the hydro-electric scheme and explained how it had worked out. The surprise, he believed, should be heartily supported by the citizens; it was their enterprise, and its success depended on them alone.

When the business of the club was under discussion Miss Helen was appointed treasurer in place of Miss Smart, who retired from the position.

Need Food and Money. "We want food and we want money" was the appeal of Dr. Dixon, state health commissioner, in charge of the work to-day. "The food supply is getting low and I was informed that we must find a way to feed them."

The regular water supply has been re-established and to-morrow it is to be made available. The inquiry into the disaster will be opened on Friday.

With the almost hourly revision of the list of missing it is impossible to make an accurate statement of the dead. The feeling is expressed by the state officers in charge because of the non-arrival of several cars of supplies that have been reported on the way.

The Buying Price of Hogs

It is probable that the practice of sending out weekly the price which packers will pay for hogs the following week, has been the chief cause for the widespread impression that the price named is fixed through arrangement and understanding between the packers. In view of the recent attack made upon packers, a statement which will explain why a price is thus sent out, and the conditions associated with it, may serve a useful purpose.

For the most part the cattle and small stock (sheep, lambs and calves) which come to the Cattle Markets in Toronto are bargained for on arrival. If the market is favorable, the drovers make a profit. If the market is unfavorable, they suffer a loss. The price of cattle and small stock, therefore, is determined each market day by the ordinary competitive conditions prevailing upon public markets. The price which the drover pays in the country the next week is determined by his view of what he hopes to receive when the stock is offered for sale by him upon either of the markets in this city or in Montreal.

The hog situation is entirely different. After the manner of well recognized market conditions, there has been no public market in Ontario upon which hogs have been offered for sale. For thirty years 80 to 90 per cent. of the hogs on the Toronto Cattle Market have been delivered on the market for one buyer, and at a price agreed upon before the hogs were shipped. Five-sixths of the packing houses in Ontario have not only not bought hogs upon the Toronto Cattle Market, but they have not bought hogs upon any public market, because there have been no markets upon which hogs have been offered for sale. The Union Stock Yards Company at Toronto Junction are now endeavoring to establish a competitive open market upon which hogs will be offered for sale. Time only will determine the success or failure of this effort.

As, therefore, there has been no open market for hogs, the price which the packer pays for his hogs has had to be determined by a different method, and under different circumstances than the open market conditions have established for cattle and small stock.

The pressure of these circumstances has developed the practice which causes each packing establishment to depend chiefly for its supply of hogs weekly upon drovers who ship regularly to it. To establish this regularity, the respective houses have found it necessary, at the end of each week, to advise drovers the price they would pay for hogs shipped to them the following week. This custom is followed in Denmark and Ireland, the weekly price, however, being sent to farmers in place of drovers.

In accordance with these conditions, the officers of this Company determine on Friday afternoon of each week the price they will name to drovers for shipment the following week. This advice covers a price free on cars at the shipping point, or delivered into the yards at our factory, or for fed and watered hogs delivered on the Toronto Cattle Market. In reaching this determination we are governed by our reading of the domestic and export markets, by cable advices covering Danish and Irish killings, and cable advices telling of the quantity of American products which have been landed at the various ports in Great Britain. We also have to interpret from these conditions, which are common to the trade, how the judgment of our competitors will be affected by them, and what conclusions they will likely reach as to the buying price they will name for the following week.

Having decided the price we will name, we communicate it to drovers by telephone or telegram, to points East as far as Montreal, West as far as Chatham, and North as far as hogs are raised in sufficient quantities to give weekly deliveries.

In all the foregoing we have neither conference, understanding nor arrangement, directly or indirectly, with any other packer, nor have we had any such connection at any time during the past twenty years.

If other packers offer a higher price, we learn of it through telegraph or telephone communications from drovers in various parts of the country, who advise they are unable to buy at the price we have named because drovers from competitive houses are paying a higher price. Each packer in the trade doubtless has similar advices when the circumstances warrant it.

When such advices reach us, we determine our conduct by a variety of considerations, and we will, as will other packers similarly placed, refuse to follow the lead set by others, or accept such lead as inevitable, as we may have a favorable or unfavorable view of the market.

The effect of the decision either way is reflected in the volume of deliveries. If we or others similarly placed refuse to advance, while other packers are active, there will be a shrinkage of from 10 to 50 per cent. from the normal receipts of hogs. If we follow the advance, we will secure our normal quantity, with possibly some surplus added.

It is alleged that the trade generally await information as to the buying price named by this Company before sending out their own advices. On reflection it will be recognized that this is not an unnatural course to follow. By reason of the extent of our operations, the price named by this Company is known in every part of the Province, and authoritatively establishes the minimum price which can be paid. For necessitous reasons no other house can buy at a lower price. Inasmuch, however, as the aggregate purchases by other packers represent 70 per cent. of the total deliveries of hogs in Ontario and Quebec, there is no reason why, after our price is known, a higher price should not be named by some or all of our competitors, if their reading of the market differs from ours. As a matter of fact this is precisely what occurs, and probably there are as many weeks in the year when our price is exceeded and we must follow others, as when our price is accepted and others follow us.

We would welcome conditions which would establish the purchase of hogs upon public markets on an openly competitive basis. If packers could buy hogs after the same manner as cattle are now bought, they would always have the measure of their competitors, whereas under existing conditions we have to guess at their measurement. Moreover, when we desired to take hogs freely, we could do so, and when we desired to step aside from the market, we could do so. Under existing conditions no packer can afford to break with his regular shippers, and frequently has to take stock when he would prefer to leave it alone.

The tendency under the present method is for packers weekly to estimate how high a price they dare pay, rather than how low a price they will name, for it must be borne in mind that the aggregate capacity of the houses greatly exceeds the supply of hogs, and that practically the profit or loss of the operations of a packing house are determined by the volume of business secured. Therefore when we are seeking to determine each Friday evening the buying price we will name for the following week, back of all else is the pressure which demands quantity of hogs, and the anxiety felt that if we do not name a price high enough to command quantity, we may find our supplies cut off.

The popular view of commercial sagacity would suggest that the remedy for such difficulties would be found in an understanding being reached by agreement between the packers. The significant fact is that the packers have refused to do so. Probably no business in Canada is more completely free from either the letter or the spirit of what is known as a Trust, than this much-abused packing business. The real relation of the packers to the hog industry has been an honorable one of high merit.

Wheat Market Closes at Decline After an Early Bule in Prices

Absence of Nervousness Over Foreign Situation and Prospects of Clearer Weather at Home Give Weak Tone at Chicago.

CHICAGO, Oct. 3.—Promises of bright weather northward had much to do with making the wheat market to-day swing to a lower level. The change from continued storms would mean a removal of delay to threshing and forwarding a large part of the spring crop. In consequence, the close showed a decline of 1-4 to 3-8 cent from last night. The end of trade left corn 3-8 and 1-4 cent; oats off 1-4 to 1-4 and 3-8 cent, and hog products either unaltered or varying to 1-16 lower.

Wheat speculators quite generally reversed their position in the last half of the day, so that a price bulge due to wet and cold in the harvest fields along the Canadian line, gave place to a moderate depression in values. The selling movement had a further cause in the liberal increase exhibited by the total of the world's available supply. Besides, the Argentine frost reports were discounted by statements that the South American crop is not yet advanced to a critical stage, and that damage had been done. The slowness of hog business and of demand for cash wheat counted, too, against the bulls in all directions. War developments were ignored, seeming to have no special influence on foreign markets. Altogether the bears appeared to have things much their own way as the session drew to a close, except that the final tone was steady. Excessive prices reached for the December delivery were 31 3-8 and 36 5-8, with last sales 1-4 and 3-8 off at 27 3-8 and 27 7-8.

Corn weakened under profit-taking, and as a result of a fair weather forecast. In addition, a well-advanced crop was out with a statement announcing an improvement of one per cent in conditions since Sept. 1. December moved from 52 3-8 and 1-2 to 45 1-8, closing steady at 45 and 1-2 to 45 1-8. Closing steady at 45 and 1-2 to 45 1-8. Cash grades were in fair demand. Free realizing on the part of one of the leading houses, the oats crop started a number of orders to unload. The fact was noticed also that country offerings were larger. High and low limits touched at 45 3-8 and 47 3-8, with the close 1-4 down at 47 3-8 and 47 1-8.

Receipts of wheat at primary centers were as follows: Week Year To-day, week ago, year ago. Chicago 281 211 67 Duluth 281 277 400 Winnipeg 281 277 400 Minneapolis 281 277 400

WEATHER OUTLOOK

Recent Rains in Wheat and Corn Belts Have Caused Damage—Better Conditions Promised.

J. P. Bickell & Co. received the following from Logan & Bryan: "There was some start for buyers in wheat today with an advance checked by general selling by local holders and the decline followed. The market closed but little better than the previous day. One cause for bearish feeling in this trade to-day was the absence of any news from the west, and the commission men had to work hard to make a clearance. Goods for good cattle were strong at Monday's decline, but common rough stuff sold still lower, as will be seen by the many sales below."

Finley Barrel wired: "Wheat—The market opened steady to a shade firmer, but ruled lower during the greater part of the session, prices becoming weak. General lack of speculative trade was still a marked feature, and a discouraging atmosphere of the market was inclined to be strong, especially Winnipeg. There was a great deal of buying for cash, but business regarding deterioration of the crop, owing to unfavorable weather. The market was largely of a professional character, and we do not look for any marked change in prices at the moment."

Sentiment in Mining Markets Distinctly More Optimistic

Porcupines Continue To Improve But Realizing Checks Advance

Broader Speculative Demand Lives Up Exchanges, and Prices Respond Easily—Signs of Strength in Cobalts.

World Office, Tuesday Evening, Oct. 3.

The mining market continued a broad, active affair again to-day, speculation being in greatly increased volume in the main, and further improvement in prices being realized.

The outside buying demand for securities showed a disposition to expand still further, doubtless due to the feeling of confidence which has been engendered as a result of the advance of the last few days.

Coincident with this, however, a disposition to take profits put in an appearance, and this sufficed to check the movement in a number of instances, while in special cases prices suffered small declines. Net changes for the day were small.

Irregularly follows improvement, the resumption of the upward movement early in the day attracted a good deal of selling, and this proved a sufficient check to the advance in the majority of instances. Thus Hollinger, which sold early as high as $21.45, was off in the late trading to $21.15, a loss of 30 points from the top figures. Irregularity of like nature was shown elsewhere in the list.

On the other hand there was no lack of firm features in the list. Dome Extension proved the outstanding example of this, the shares scoring another good gain of 70, and closing strong, with the figure bid. The range for the day was 67 1/2 to 70.

Front-taking carried Vipond down from the top price touched yesterday, the stock to-day getting back to 44 1/4, but later recovering to 46 again.

Doble was a strong point, scoring a sharp advance at 170, a gain of 14 points for the day. Rea was rather erratic, and after settling as high as $2.57, dropped back to $2.59, and closed on offer there.

Big Dome at $28 a Share.

A sale of Big Dome was put thru at $28 a share. This was of course for a right-hand stock, not carrying the chance to subscribe for the new stock issue, which is being apportioned in the proportion of two of new to five shares of old stock.

In the Cobalts, there was strength in Cobalt Lake, which touched 28, and La Rose, which got above 44 and advanced 700 was firm, a small advance.

Sentiment on the street showed up more favorably than for some time, the incoming of a broader speculative movement being looked for in the near future.

GOLDEN SIDEWALK EXCITING WONDER

Big Discovery on Dome May Now Be Located on Dome Extension.

Mr. Geo. Monteth of the Monteth Fur Co., Church-street, came down from Porcupine yesterday, and has something important to say about affairs up north.

"I went up to Porcupine," said Mr. Monteth, "principally to see the Big Dome strike, known as the 'Golden Sidewalk' vein. It is being visited by hundreds of people, and all who see it are struck with wonder. Mining men from Nevada, California, Alaska and other sections say that in all their experience they have seen nothing to equal it. It is about seven feet wide and where the open cuts have been put in you can see bars of solid gold as wide as your hand, while all thru it nubs of gold are to be seen as large as matchheads.

Millions of Dollars.

"There is no doubt whatever that this new vein will add many millions of dollars to the asset value of the Dome Mines Co. property. The vein is covered with about six feet of earth overburden and at various points open cuts have been put in to trace the vein. In this way it has been followed up toward the Dome Extension and the last open cut is so near the Dome Extension line that there is no doubt that it continues strong and rich across the line into that property.

"It was down in the last open cut where the vein is covered with about seven feet of earth overburden. The vein continues strong and shows a wonderful enrichment at this point. It would be useless to say how much it would sample per ton, as the vein is simply saturated with fine particles of nubs of gold. It would go thousands of dollars to the ton.

Dome Extension Seeks Vein.

The Dome Extension is getting a diamond drill, and it is now about in place for work to test the vein on the Dome Extension side, and when it is located it is proposed to mine it from the present main shaft. It would go thousands of dollars to the ton.

"I went up to the north end of the property and saw the vein that the North Dome has opened up. It is about six feet wide on the surface and is certainly a very fine vein, carrying ore of high milling value. It unquestionably runs into the north lot of the Dome Extension, and it would go thousands of dollars to the ton.

At the Bewick-Moreing.

"To the east of the Bewick-Moreing people have sunk 42 feet on a vein which measured about six feet at the 100-foot level. This vein is certainly a very fine vein, carrying ore of high milling value. It unquestionably runs into the north lot of the Dome Extension, and it would go thousands of dollars to the ton.

Surprising Value.

"Development work on the properties all round Dome Extension is disclosing surprising values, that are carried in every instance in strong veins. The most important by far, however, is the great lead that comes in from the Dome Extension, which is undoubtedly worth millions upon millions of ore. When the direct railroad service is inaugurated and the people can go in and see it, it is likely to cause a furor throughout Canada. It will bring a great amount of prospectors into the area, and it is likely to be to Canada what the great Comstock lode was to Nevada."

DOMES SENDS ENGINEER INTO THOMAS TOWNSHIP

Big Porcupine Concern Looking Out For Properties to Add to Its Large Holding.

Porcupine, Sept. 30.—(From Our Man Up North.)—Thomas Township is attracting attention from no lesser lights in the mining world than the Big Dome people. An engineer has been sent in to examine the St. Pierre property, two lots near the Foster five claims.

It is known that the Dome interests are ready to buy several ways to lots where the leads appear to be strong on the surface, and no doubt if good working options can be secured a number of properties will be taken up by the concern.

Thomas Township attracted the attention of the Dome interests because of the fact that the Thomas Township called forth critical inspection from the Dome people, in the same belt that extends thru Langmuir to the north and west. The Dome interests are known to have examined lots in that section and made offers for the same. No deals have been closed, except that of the Jewey-Woods in Cripple Creek.

It may yet mean that the Dome mining company will buy the 200-acre mill site for more stamp mills, or to make a milling body for the big one under construction.

Gold Movements.

LONDON, Oct. 3.—A bill amounting to $33,000 was taken into the Bank of England to-day and $160,000 was withdrawn for shipment to Egypt.

"I went up to the north end of the property and saw the vein that the North Dome has opened up. It is about six feet wide on the surface and is certainly a very fine vein, carrying ore of high milling value. It unquestionably runs into the north lot of the Dome Extension, and it would go thousands of dollars to the ton.

"To the east of the Bewick-Moreing people have sunk 42 feet on a vein which measured about six feet at the 100-foot level. This vein is certainly a very fine vein, carrying ore of high milling value. It unquestionably runs into the north lot of the Dome Extension, and it would go thousands of dollars to the ton.

Surprising Value.

"Development work on the properties all round Dome Extension is disclosing surprising values, that are carried in every instance in strong veins. The most important by far, however, is the great lead that comes in from the Dome Extension, which is undoubtedly worth millions upon millions of ore. When the direct railroad service is inaugurated and the people can go in and see it, it is likely to cause a furor throughout Canada. It will bring a great amount of prospectors into the area, and it is likely to be to Canada what the great Comstock lode was to Nevada."

Upward Movement Carried Further in Toronto Stock Exchange

Early Advances Are Wiped Out New York Market Closes Lower

Profit-taking in Wall Street Checks Further Upward Swing—Strong Tone to Toronto Market.

NEW YORK, Oct. 3.—The limited demand for stocks at the present range of prices was shown clearly by the course of today's trading. The market developed a downward tendency after the early advance to indicate that for the present at least the recovery of late last week was not to be carried further.

Brokers said today that investment buying was on a smaller scale than after the severe decline in 1907 or the slump of midsummer of last year. This condition is attributed to the fact that various disturbing questions, chief among which is the intention of the government in regard to enforcement of the anti-trust law, remain unanswered.

World Office, Tuesday Evening, Oct. 3. An energetic public demand in the face of rather restricted offerings inspired a further upward swing in prices in the Toronto stock market today.

MONTREAL, Oct. 3.—Three tenders for the pre-filter of the filtration plant, varying in amount from $25,000 to $34,000, were opened today by the board of control.

TIMBER ADRIPT IN LAKE. A boom of about 1000 pieces of 40-ft. timber, which was to be used by Contractor Cummings to build the city's new dock in Ashbridge's Bay, was broken Monday by the strong east wind.

I., Oct. 3.—Having raised $200,000 for the purpose of celebrating Columbus Day by an exhibition of fireworks, the Italian Professional and Business Men's Association decided today to donate the money to the Red Cross fund to be used in the care of Italian soldiers in the present war.

Chinamen Were Liberated. The case of the officials of the local Chinese Tong Society, which were charged with the theft of $281 of the club's funds, was terminated yesterday in the sessions. The two men were discharged, Judge Winchester saying that it was an action for the civil courts to decide.

An interesting display of Oriental Rugs starts to-morrow morning. # Great China Sale

Begins To-morrow in the Basement

To the success of this great China selling event the Potteries and Art Centres of England, France, Austria, Italy and Japan have contributed of their wealth and beauty. First and foremost the Dinner Table—"The festive board"—will be replenished and enriched by this wonderful collection.

The hard and serviceable ware of the well-known English Potters is here with its clean, glassy surface and sharp ring, and you may buy it for about half the usual price, for we've been planning for this sale for months, and have spent thousands of pounds sterling to the very best advantage securing many "plums" in recognition of the large orders and prompt cash.

Then from the Continent comes not only elegant Tableware, but a great exhibition of Ornamental and Decorative China and Marbles, including many pieces by celebrated artists, as well as those collected from the great industries established under ancient and honorable names.

Here's a brief recital of some of the attractions of the opening day. You are invited, and with the invitation reminded that ours is perhaps the most lofty basement of any store in America with pure air, good light, and frequent elevator service.
