British Submarine Lost With All Hands Off The English Channel

London, Jan. 22.—British submarine K-5, Commander John A. Chines, was lost with all hands on Thursday at the approaches to the English Channel, the admiralty announced this afternoon.

The complement of the lost submarine was not given, but vessels of this class carry approximately six officers and fifty men.

The disaster, the admiralty announcement states, occurred 100 miles off Land's End. The submarine, it is added, had a full complement of officers and men on board.

The K class of submarines is the latest type of British submarines, the vessels being 338 feet in length, with a surface speed of 24 knots and a speed submerged of nine knots.

Available naval manuals do not reveal the tonnage or dimensions of the K class of submarines. They are, however, what is known as "fleet" submarines, displacing some 1,700 tons when on the surface, with a length of probably 300 to 350 feet. They were built especially for cruising at sea with the grand fleet.

DOMINATION BY EUROPE NOT CAUSE OF WORRY

Hon. N. W. Rowell's Speech in New York

Recognition of Canada at Geneva Referred to—Britain Will Weather Storm, But No One Nation Can Save Civilization.

New York, Jan. 22.—The possibility of European domination of the League of Nations does not worry Hon. N. W. Rowell, former president of the privy council of Canada, as much as it does Uelcke Sam. In the course of an address before the Canadian Club last night, Mr. Rowell said:

"But you may ask, is there not a real danger of European domination in the present league? Not if we keep within the terms of the covenant and the non-European states take their fair share in the work of the league."

"The consideration which was finally accorded the views presented by Canada and other non-European states was one of the most hopeful and significant features of the assembly judged as a world organization. If the North American point of view as presented by Canada received such recognition, what would be the recognition accorded that point of view if it were presented by both the United States and Canada?"

"When one looks out upon the world in the face of the present social, industrial and economic disorganization, even now menacing our civilization, one is compelled to ask what of the future?"

"May I say to you that notwithstanding the sacrifices, the losses and the financial obligations of the war—for Great Britain loaned approximately as much money to other and more needy nations as she borrowed from the United States—Great Britain and the other self-governing nations of the British Commonwealth will weather the storm, and emerge, I trust, strengthened and purified by the fiery ordeal through which they have passed during the last six years. But while they may be able to weather the storm, no one nation alone can save civilization. The situation demands the co-operation of all nations able to help."

Charges Against Britain.

Washington, Jan. 22.—The charge that Great Britain is fostering religious intolerance and suppressing industry in Ireland in an effort to prevent self-determination in that country, was made by Miss Limerick of Dublin, before her commission of one hundred yesterday. TO DETERMINE LABOR POLICY ON UNEMPLOYMENT

National Conference to Be Held in England on Next Thursday—Comment in Advance.

London, Jan. 22.—The executive of the Labor party and the Trades Union Congress at a joint meeting yesterday approved the sub-committee's composite scheme embodying all the earlier proposals by organized labor on unemployment.

According to the Daily Herald, Labor's plan will be submitted to the national conference next Thursday, when Labor's policy on unemployment will be laid down.

The Central News understands that the sub-committee's report is not sensational and does not suggest violent methods. Briefly, it urges that the whole resources of the state must be concentrated on affording complete security against destitution and that the government's foremost obligation is to find for every unemployed man a means of livelihood.

The report blames the government for failing to impress upon the employers that any attempt to reduce wages or prevent a full day's work at a full day's pay would entail industrial strife.

SMILES, NOT TEARS AT THESE UNDERTAKERS' PROHIBITION MEN LOOK INTO THE MATTER AND FIND MUCH LIQUOR.

Chicago, Jan. 22.—Checking up today on liquor they seized at the undertaking parlors of Jackson & Harris, prohibition agents today reported a variety of various kinds. Smiles instead of tears were on the faces of visitors to the undertakers, neighbors noticed, and a squad of prohibition agents arrived today.

In a purple caulk, lined with light gray satin, three dozen quarts of high grade Scotch whiskey reposed; more whiskey was found in a body basket, the agents said, while the caulk cupboards lining the rear room of the establishment were loaded with cases of whiskey. Sam Harris, one of the partners, was arrested.

FORMER PASTOR CONFESSES IN MAIL ROBBERY

Inspectors Say He Admits Being Implicated in Theft of $185,000—Much Recovered.

Mount Vernon, Ill., Jan. 22.—Guy Kyle, former pastor of the Free Methodist church of Mount Vernon, arrested here in connection with the theft of thirty-one packages of registered mail, containing $185,000 in cash, on last Friday, confessed last night that he was implicated, so the post office inspectors announced.

Approximately $100,000 was recovered at the Kyle home, concealed in an egg crate and about $75,000 and $4,000 respectively in two garages of which Rev. Kyle is part owner.

Post office inspectors expressed the belief that $25,000 in negotiable securities, which also were stolen, had been turned to the robber, single-handed. Further examination of the former pastor was planned to learn how he became acquainted with the movement of the stolen money.

The theft took place early in the morning, while the money was being transferred from the post office here to the C. & E. I. depot for shipment to nearby towns to meet mine payrolls.

PAY TRIBUTE TO WORTH OF HON. A. L. SIFTON

Expressions by Premier Meighen and Sir Robert Borden.

Ottawa, Jan. 22.—Regarding the death of Hon. A. L. Sifton, the Prime Minister, Right Hon. Arthur Meighen said: "The members of the government will miss a very able colleague, a man of rare intellectual strength. His command of affairs and administrative capacity were exceptional; his knowledge and estimate of men equally remarkable. I never knew him to complain of the conduct of others. He determined his own course in quiet self-reliance, and once decided, he never doubted or varied."

His services to his country have been rendered in posts of great distinction and responsibility, but without ostentation and indeed with little publicity. We have lost a valued comrade."

Sir Robert Borden.

Sir Robert Borden gave the Canadian Press the following: "With deepest regret I have learned that the Right Hon. Arthur Sifton has passed away. By his death the country loses a public servant of the highest ability and of most conspicuous patriotism. From the time that he entered the union government, more than three years ago, he had never wavered in the high purpose which then inspired him. Among his colleagues his rare intellectual powers were universally acknowledged; in questions of difficulty, there was no one in whose judgment I placed firmer reliance, which I was head of the government."

As legislator, as jurist and as minister, he has had a most distinguished career, which was fittingly crowned by the great part that he took at the peace conference."

London, Jan. 22.—(Canadian Associate Press)—Many of the British papers publish appreciative sketches of the career of Hon. A. L. Sifton. The Times says that he was a man of unusual modesty, but was endowed with great sincerity, keen judgment and shrewdness, and enjoyed the confidence of all sections of the people of Canada.

Ottawa, Jan. 22.—The funeral of Hon. A. L. Sifton will take place here at three o'clock on Monday afternoon. The body will be interred in Beechwood cemetery.

As Hiram Sees It

"Hiram," said the Times reporter to Mr. Hiram Hornbeam, "read in the press that at a fire in an American city a lady wildly implored the firemen to save her baby. They did so—at risk of suffocation. The baby was a dog."

"Well," said Hiram, "I hope we ought to be thankful that woman did care for something—even a dog. Maybe they ain't got any babies in that town, she could adopt 'em. An' then you remember some feller said that the most he knew about people the more respect he led for dogs. If it was a good dog it deserved more'n some human critters we see every day. I'd 'know—this is a hard winter on a lot o' kids that ain't got any too much to eat 'er wear. I've heard some mighty sad stories lately—the wust of 'em is about women that's been deserted an' don't know where to turn. Now if I had to choose between savin' a dog an' a feller that 'ud go 'way an' leave his wife to keep the kids alive any way she could—I'd save the dog—'Yes, sir."

"But if you had to choose between adopting a baby and a dog?" queried the reporter.

"I'd take 'em both," said Hiram, "an' let 'em grow up together. But I'd keep the dog in a dog's place an' the kid in a kid's place. I wouldn't set up no altar fer dog-worship—By Hen!"

FRANCE MEANS TO MAKE GERMANY PAY FOR THE WAR

Guiding Principle, Says Premier Briand

Supports Resumption of Relations With Vatican—Fine Vote of Confidence Show of National Unity to Allies.

Paris, Jan. 22.—In a speech in the chamber of deputies yesterday characterized by its vigor and oratory, Premier Briand answered interpellations, and promised to make the collection of reparation from Germany the guiding principle of his administration.

The premier avoided a statement of any definite plan for carrying out the treaty and the restoration of France to its former economic position, but promised to devote all his time and energy to this purpose.

His remarks frequently were interrupted by applause, in which, for the most part, the members of the Right did not join.

Mr. Briand told the chamber that it must give the new government a clear vote of confidence "at this critical time when the policies of France probably will be pledged for the next two years."

After dealing with France's internal questions, he said he would support the project for resumption of relations with the Vatican. The chamber by a vote of 475 to 98, put the stamp of approval on the policies of the premier.

The size of the vote, which surprised many delegates, is regarded as not only an expression of confidence in the government but as a manifestation of national unity in the face of the forthcoming meeting of the Allies.

Editors' Comment.

Paris, Jan. 22.—Newspapers here expressed satisfaction with the vote of confidence given the Briand ministry, but there was a noticeable lack of enthusiasm. A majority held the view that yesterday's vote was an expression of confidence in the ministry, but in M. Briand, the champion of France in the approaching meeting of premiers. It was declared that the chamber made maximum authority to the man who will plead her cause, and that the Briand ministry was not judged on its declaration, but on the results of the results of the conference of premiers.

"Yesterday's long speech by M. Briand," said the Echo de Paris, "does not appear to give any more light than the ministry's declaration except on one point: Payment of a lump sum by Germany is not his policy."

Some newspapers manifested a certain veiled skepticism, the Petit Courrier, one of the most influential provincial organs, declaring: "What the nation finds it strange is that we should be obliged to negotiate ceaselessly with the Allies in order that they may help us to obtain the execution of a treaty signed by them. Therefore, if with the same methods, Mr. Briand succeeds in getting better results than have been achieved in the past, we may then say he has deserved well of his country."

IN PHILADELPHIA JAIL SHE PINES FOR MR. ZINZER

Case of Canadian Girl and What the Doctors Say of Her.

Philadelphia, Jan. 22.—Miss Beatrice Herbert, aged 29, now under arrest on charge of forcing her attentions on Wm. Zinzer, assistant manager of a tourist agency here, continues to pine for her "Will" between continuous puffs of cigarettes and tea drinking in her cell. No letters have been received at Washington concerning deportation papers for her return to Montreal.

According to records at the Philadelphia Hospital, where she was detained last September when she was previously arrested on charge of annoying Zinzer, she is the victim of a mental ailment. Physicians who examined her say she is perfectly normal on all subjects, save Zinzer.

As proof of this, they assert the shows evidence of a careful education, speaking and writing German, Spanish and French, in addition to being an expert stenographer. She also discusses the League of Nations and the Irish question in an intelligent manner.

In the language of physicians, when talking of Zinzer "she is just silly." Unless a request is received from the immigration bureau she will be kept in Moyamensing prison instead of being sent to a hospital, physicians say, while awaiting deportation papers from Washington. They fear she will make a break for liberty.

They soaked in petroleum the gorgeous vestments of the altar and afterwards set it afire.

GOOD ROLLER SKATING ACT AT OPERA HOUSE

The Hamiltons Give Scientific Demonstration of Difficult Feats—A Musical Offering and Other Acts Enjoyed.

A feature of the new week-end bill at the Opera House last evening was the scientific demonstration of intricate steps and movements of the Hamiltons in their roller skating offering. Both are brilliant performers, and their clever work was thoroughly appreciated. They introduced many new and novel feats, which evoked appreciative applause in the audience.

From a musical standpoint the offering of Pippin and Pippin was in a class by itself. Both are good musicians, and after playing selections on the xylophone, the lady member rendered a pleasing solo on a violin. Her partner then performed on a kettle-drum, giving a clever imitation of a train starting, in motion, going away in the distance and returning. They concluded their performance with some popular hits on the xylophone.

Fad and Fancy won considerable applause in a comedy skit. They are good singers and their duets were features of their act. They also amused the audience with some repartee and antics.

them when found was a child, which in spite of the cold, was entirely without clothing.

Parsons told the sheriff that he caught his wife in a steel trap many years ago.

agriculture, making 6,698,410 acres at the disposal of the government. Of these 1,970,000 acres were ceded for agricultural

Several inquiries as to trade conditions in St. John were received by the Board of Trade this morning. Included in the list were inquiries as to the availability of raw materials for the industry here; number of motors registered

MARRIED IN WEST.

A wedding of much interest to friends in St. John took place on December 22,
1920, in Vernon, B. C., when Mrs. Mabel McLean of this city was united in marriage to William F. Austin of Armstrong, B. C.
The ceremony was performed at the Baptist parsonage by Rev. Dean McLean. The bride looked charming in a pearl grey broadcloth suit with tail to match and wore a corsage bouquet of sweet peas. The groom was in a dark suit and was served at the Kild malka Hotel, and Mr. and Mrs. Austin left on a short honeymoon trip to Vancouver and on their return will be in St. John for some time. The groom is an engineer on the Canadian National Railways. Among valuable and merrill presents was a check from the N. B. C. I. C.

AS BANKERS SEE IT.

A banker said yesterday that he thought the Province of Quebec was the best of all the Provinces of Canada at the present time, so far as the financial condition of the people was concerned. This he attributed to the habits of the French-Canadian people, which led them to lay aside money during the years of high wages recently, when money was plentiful. Reports from wholesale houses to the same banker showed that buying was being done slowly, and that cancelled orders in clothing, for instance, were in some cases being restored. Wholesalers are busy wiping out their inventories, and often writing out profits.

NEW SUIT BY BEMIS HEIR. Sister of Standard Oil Man's Widow Inherits $2,000,000 Estate.

White Plains, N. Y., Jan. 22.—Farrington M. Thompson of White Plains, counsel for Carrie E. Ryder of Chicago, has filed objections to the probate of the will of his client's sister, Mrs. Frances L. Bemis, widow of the Standard Oil Company vice-president. It was contended that Mrs. Bemis was not of sound mind to make a will by which she disposed of an estate valued at more than $2,000,000. Counsel also contended that the will was not a voluntary act of Mrs. Bemis, who left the sister $5,000, and demanded that the case be tried before a jury.

Mrs. Bemis died March 6, 1920, and temporary administrators appointed by Surrogate Slater have been in charge of the estate since the will was offered for probate. Mrs. Kittle F. Huntington, also a sister of Mrs. Bemis, who was bequeathed $35,000 in trust, filed action, and it has been reported that the contest was about to be settled. Most of the estate of Mrs. Bemis was inherited by another sister, a sister-in-law, brother-in-law and two nieces.

THE COST OF FOOD. (Toronto Globe). The Labor Department's monthly statement gives the average weekly cost of twenty-nine staple foodstuffs for a family of five at $14.84 in the middle of December, compared with $15.32 in November and $15.88 in October. The corresponding cost in December, 1915, was $14.73, and in December, 1914, it was $7.86. Retail food prices, therefore, were about the same last month as a year before, and they are almost double the figure in the first few months of the war. The index number of wholesale prices, covering food, fuel, and many other commodities, was 290.5 last month, compared with 292.7 for November, and 317.6 for October. The index number for the same article was 322.7 in December, 1919, and 317.5 for December, 1918.

So far as foodstuffs are concerned, the sharp decline in the prices paid to the primary producers is not yet reflected in the prices charged to the consumers. Perhaps at no time has there been a greater spread between the price paid the farmer for the greater part of his produce and the price charged over the counter. Farmers and consumers alike are equal in interest in ascertaining the causes, but they find no machinery for the purpose. The movement to bring them into direct contact will grow and expand if the process of distribution continues to cost more than is warranted by the service performed.

THE DRURY POLICY. (Ottawa Journal). Premier Drury uttered not only a truth that stands for good government in Ontario but a piece of wisdom that is good advice to the farmers if they regard it from nothing other than a selfish viewpoint when he said: "The farmers cannot and ought not to sort the country. To do so would be a sort of tyranny. We are in a minority and we must not attempt to do it, because we are a democracy."

IT would apply to a labor class, a manufacturing class, or any other class. The only possible place for the farmer in the public affairs of the province is in securing for themselves adequate representation in one or other of both of the old parties or in taking a leading place in the formation of some new party as Mr. Drury proposes.

THE RIGHT SPIRIT. (Toronto Mail and Empire). The London, Ont., unemployed who are going to technical schools while idle, in order to improve themselves in mechanical theory in their special lines show the right spirit. In the new period for industry, efficiency and skill will get first choice, and special training will be a greater asset than ever to a worker.

It was learned that the letter was sent as a test of Huffins' pornography in Knoxville.

THE IMPROVED ROADS.

We do not now hear any criticism of an advanced policy in the matter of good roads in New Brunswick. The experience of the last few years, since the Foster government adopted and has carried out such a policy has made converts of those who doubted if any improvement would result. Already the province has a greatly increased mileage of durable roads in good condition, and the pleasure and profit to the users of the roads have been so obvious as to silence other criticism than that of the political partisan. The public works department makes no pretensions to infallibility, but it does fairly claim to have been getting results to an extent never before approached in the history of New Brunswick highways. Its forward policy is to be continued, and the next few years will see a further great improvement in the road system. The people recognize more and more the economic value of good roads. They attract tourists. Hon. Mr. Biggs, Ontario minister of highways, told the Ontario Motor League recently that if Ontario spent $20,000,000 on highway improvement in the next five years the investment with interest would be returned from money brought to and spent in this country by tourists from the United States. Commenting on this the Ottawa Journal says:—

"There is no doubt that American tourists will bring millions of dollars to Ontario as soon as our roads are ready to accommodate them. And their coming will profit Canada in another way through the money they spend here. They will advertise this country where advertising will be of value. If tourist traffic is to pay for the highways, the requirements of tourist traffic in the matter of the character of the roads should have due consideration in the highway construction policy of the province."

Both Quebec and Ontario have profited largely in the last year from American tourist traffic. The same will be true of the maritime provinces when their highway systems have been brought up to the right standards.

IN SOUTH AFRICA.

A cable from South Africa says that some of the Nationalists, whose party, under Gen. Hertzog, demands a republic, are seceding from the party and going over to Premier Smuts. The cable says further:— "It is early yet to judge whether these secessions are very extensive, but unquestionably they are increasing, and General Smuts' frank straight-forward replies to criticisms, and his brilliant presentation of South Africa's status as a Dominion are having an increasing effect."

The following is a statement of the principles of the South African party, led by Premier Smuts, and rejected by the Nationalists:— "The people of South Africa do not desire to limit its future political development as a free people, and leaves the door open for the evolution of that freedom under Divine Providence. It recognises at the same time, that any far-reaching change in our form of government can rest only, just as the establishment of our present constitution of the national convention, on the broad basis of the united will of the people—namely, on the co-operation of all sections of the white population, and not merely on a parliamentary majority."

"With a view to giving effect to the strong desire of the people for peace and unity, and having regard to the sharp division of opinion on constitutional questions, it is accepted that it is not in the best interests of South Africa to agitate for any change in our form of government as laid down in the constitution; and that our constitutional development shall be left to the natural course of circumstances."

The British party has united with the South African party to support these principles as against Hertzog's policy of disruption. A result quite different from that of the previous elections is now hoped for. In the last house the parties stood: forty-four Nationalists, forty-four Africans (including three Independents who usually vote with them), twenty-five Unionists, and twenty-one Labor members. Although his own party was thus in a minority, Premier Smuts, by the exercise of rare statesmanship and consummate tact was able to retain the premiership, and in all critical moments to hold the support of the British and Labor parties. It is hoped the junction of forces with the British party will now bring him a clear majority. Of ten seats that went by acclamation he secured seven.

Montreal Herald:—"Premier Drury is evidently aiming at the leadership of a larger and broader party, but desires it to be clearly understood that he is in favor of the U. F. O. as an organization for the great good it can accomplish for the farmers. He is merely endeavoring to broaden out the political field of the party which sprung from the U. F. O."

Toronto Globe:—"The Toronto board of control can be trusted not to obstruct the payment of the city's share of allowances under the mothers' pension act. The law is a good one, public opinion is behind it, and the board of control should help cordially to carry it out."

CHILDREN AND SCHOOLS.

Holding parents strictly to account for non-attendance of their children at school is the policy of Magistrate Asquith of Ottawa. "By your apparent neglect these children will not have a decent chance to make their way in the world," he said to a mother the other day, and fined her twenty dollars because she was not sending her four children regularly to school. The sentence was suspended on the understanding that the children would be at school thereafter, but the magistrate declared that as far as it was in the power of his court to do so, he would see that every child was kept at school for the full time specified by law. Many parents are far too indifferent in this matter. They are chiefly persons whose own education was neglected, and who do not realize what it is they are denying their children when the latter are permitted to grow up in ignorance. It becomes the duty of society not only to have laws but to enforce them, in its own interest as well as in the interest of the citizens of the future. There is too much of frivolity and not enough of sane and well-trained thinking in our modern life. The result is a great loss of intelligence and efficiency, and the waste of brain against which Dr. J. D. Logan so vehemently protests. It is still true that there is no royal road to learning and the winners are still those described by Lowell, who, "while their companions slept, were telling upward in the night."

HELPING THE BOYS.

The boy-life survey to be made in St. John assumed a new significance for the general committee in charge when the members last evening listened to the address of Mr. J. M. Wyatt of the junior branch of the employment service of Canada. The address also showed very clearly the importance of pre-vocational and vocational training in the schools. The department of labor found that it could not provide a satisfactory employment service without taking into account the boys and girls leaving school, and so the junior department was established and the federal government pays half the cost of the bureau in different cities. A beginning has been made in Winnipeg, with the hearty support of educational, industrial and labor interests. The boy-life survey in St. John may today be held in the need of a branch here. The survey will reveal many needs, and the citizens should heartily assist those who are preparing to have it made next month. It involves a complete census of the boys from seven to eighteen years, and this will necessitate a house-to-house visitation throughout the city. The results, when tabulated, will be our boy problem. The meeting addressed by Mr. Wyatt was the second one held in the Board of Trade yesterday to discuss work with and for boys. The Rotary Club boys' work committee held a meeting in the afternoon and mapped out a programme of constructive work to be done by Rotarians. Next week the second boys' club in the city will be opened. The outlook for the boy is improving. More people are taking an interest in his welfare. And he will respond, for the boy is appreciative of kindness and a genuine interest in him, and his energies, directed into useful channels, will produce results in the highest degree satisfactory. Mr. Wyatt's visit to St. John was most opportune, and he will be welcomed when he comes again.

Replying to some remarks by Sir Herbert Holt in Montreal recently on the deficit in the operation of the government railways, the Ottawa Journal made a strong point when it said:—"What Sir Herbert seems to forget is that the condition of the National Railways, which is responsible for the deficit, is primarily the result of private ownership. It was private ownership that brought the C. N. R. and the Grand Trunk Pacific to parliament year after year for loans, subsidies and grants, and it was private ownership that finally drove them both to the wall. Public ownership has been compelled in the case of the National Railways to build upon the wreck of private ownership. So far it may not be a shining success, but at least it has been no worse a failure or a public disaster than the regime of private ownership which went before."

A recent despatch says:—"Admittedly China is far behind the times in many things, but the information came out today that China is about to establish airplane mail service between the cities of Tientsin and Peking. These cities are about as far apart as Chicago and New York."

Ottawa has again adopted daylight saving. Several other Canadian cities have done the same. St. John should make up its mind on this question.

LET GOVERNMENT ACT.

Stratford Herald:—"At the municipal elections several Ontario municipalities voted in favor of adopting daylight saving in the summer, and several others voted against its adoption. The wishes of the electors in this respect will likely be carried into effect the coming summer, with the resultant confusion in time, but it is about time that the government took a hand in this little controversy and fixed one lawful time for the whole province."

REALISM.

When I have filled my fountain pen and found some foolscap blank, I'll write a tale of threesome deeds, the threesome things they say; 'till be so dull the sport you reads will throw the book away. Some little ten cent human soul I'll analyze with glee, and hoist it on a twelve-foot pole, so all the world may see. And dead game sports who read my book will read their beads and wall, "Oh, let the public hangman cook so punk and fierce a tale!" But book reviewers, bulging-browed, will praise it, line by line; they'll say, "One book above the crowd stands forth, sublime and fine. The tale begins where it should end, and ends where it should start; no heroes through its pages wend, no villains grieve the heart; it has no action and no plot, no motive can be found; and yet the volume is the spot, its technique is so sound. This is no tale of blood and bones, but one in which we find the soul of stirring tales where villains get the hook, and virtue in the end prevails, wait till I write my book."

CANADA—EAST AND WEST

Dominion Happenings of Other Days

ADMIRAL KIRKE

After Admiral Kirke had taken Quebec from the French in 1629 and had made Champlain, the great Frenchman's prisoner, he proceeded to be very friendly with the man he had taken. In fact the two were very frequently out on hunting trips together and enjoyed each other's society very much in spite of the situation that existed between them. One was English and Protestant, while the other was French and Catholic—Alma the admiral had a profound respect for his illustrious captive.

But some of the others in the feet of the admiral were not so agreeable. One of these was a man named Michael who never was so happy as when they were together, but who never was so angry as when he had quarrelled, and he gave vent to his private spite upon the Frenchman.

For many months he had been eating free suppers at his father's expense, and fair Mabel thought it time to get a more on. One evening as they sat together in the parlor, she carried out her little scheme.

"Pardon me," said Mabel, "I have come here to tell you of God and to convert the Indians."

"Convert the Indians?" roared Michael. "You mean convert the bear?"

"That is false!" was the retort of the priest.

Matters were rapidly approaching their stage when blows were exchanged and the incident was closed, but it illustrates the attitude of some of the captors to the men of the old colony of France.

Several days later the engagement was announced.

Not Alarmed.

"We had to leave," said Mrs. Clinch-pend who said her husband couldn't stand the high altitude.

"Oh, imperiously returned Mrs. Sparrow, "our folks would stay, no matter how much it cost."

What They Said.

Joseph and Isaac went to hear Billy Sunday preach, and after service, as they were going home, Joseph said: "Well, Isaac, you think of him?"

"I didn't like him," said Isaac. "Too much hell, he said hell, hell all the time, and I don't believe there is any hell, Joseph."

"No hell?" asked Joseph, in amazement.

"No," answered his friend.

"Well, then Isaac," said Joseph, "if there is no hell, where is business gone?"

Down in Virginia, where bears roamed the woods, there once lived an old fellow whose wife made her custom of bric-a-bracs, pieces of stovepipe and scannings off the old man's head when she had nothing else to do. One day a neighbor rushed into the old man's yard and cried: "Jim, hurry down in the pasture; your wife is in a fight with a bear!"

"Not on your life," Jim replied, pulling at the stem of his cornucopia pipe, "that bear got himself into that fight and he can get out the best way he can."

LIGHTER VEIN.

Discovery.

She—I hear you skated into an airhole the other day.

He—That's what they call it, but I found it full of water.—Boston Transcript.

Spades Were Trumps.

He was an elderly son of the soil and he hid all the farmer's savings hoarded of rates, and taxes of every kind and description.

To add insult to injury, a perky little jack-in-office of a rab collector called on him one day for taxes he had already paid.

"Unfortunately the farmer could not find the receipt,"

"I explained this to him," he remarked to a friend of his later, "and would you believe it, Bill, the fellow began to bawl me."

"Did he?" said Bill. "And what did you do?"

"Do! Well, I remonstrated with him. 'You did. To what effect?'"

"I dunno, exactly, but the shovel got broke!"—From London Ideas.

For many months he had been eating free suppers at his father's expense, and fair Mabel thought it time to get a more on. One evening as they sat together in the parlor, she carried out her little scheme.

"Oh, I say, how funny!" she cried suddenly, as she turned over the evening paper.

"What is it?" he asked.

"Why, here's an advertisement in which it says, 'No reasonable offer refused.'"

"What's odd about that?" asked the other.

"O, nothing," she replied, coyly, trying to raise a blush; "but those are my sentiments exactly."

Several days later the engagement was announced.

Not Alarmed.

"We had to leave," said Mrs. Clinch-pend who said her husband couldn't stand the high altitude.

"Oh, imperiously returned Mrs. Sparrow, "our folks would stay, no matter how much it cost."

"No hell?" asked Joseph, in amazement.

"No," answered his friend.

A NAVAL HOLIDAY.

(Dearborn Independent.)

The rapidly with which the suggestion for a naval holiday is winning approval should be encouraging not only to the friends of peace but to all those who have hope for the curtailment of government expenditures. There is no doubt that the United States today holds the balance of power in the question of whether competitive naval building programmes are to continue. The only other nation which compares with us on the sea today are Great Britain and Japan. Great Britain leads us, but by so small a margin that should our present plan be carried out we will pass the ancient Mistress of the Seas within a relatively short time. Japan, building ships feverishly, claims that she is actuated purely by distrust of the naval programme of the United States. Therefore divert attention from the distresses and oppressions at home. They furnish occupation for an element that might be troublesome.

BOLSHEVIK WARS

(Vancouver World.)

The Soviet Government has arrived in Asia. It has forces in and about the Ukraine. It threatens Roumania, and is concentrating troops on the Baltic. There are indications of a renewal on the war on Poland. Except in his invasion of Poland Trotsky has been successful in most of his wars. But he has generally succeeded without much fighting. It may be necessary for Lenin and Trotsky to keep a certain number of soldiers lightly employed in these wars. The men are fed and clothed and sheltered. They do not undergo nearly so much hardship at the civilian, and their lives are probably safer. Occasionally they have a chance to pillage a town or district.

The Moscow Government might have more trouble at home without these foreign and frontier wars. The wars divert attention from the distresses and oppressions at home. They furnish occupation for an element that might be troublesome.

We smile at the antics of a dog which chases its own tail. What must the gods think when they see nations paralleling one another in naval building programmes which cost billions of dollars, but which do not change the balance of power?

It is said that for the next twenty-five years the annual budget of the United States government will amount to $2,000,000,000. This means that taxes will not be appreciably lighter for a quarter of a century, if ever said that unless some stern reduction in our expenditures is made.

It is well, of course, to begin by saving the pennies, but why stop there? Why talk about the necessity of cutting down the number of $2,000 clerks in Washington and overlook $25,000,000 battleships?

N. B. TOURIST ASSOCIATION.

The executive of the New Brunswick Tourist Association held a meeting yesterday and decided to carry on the work of the association until the convention in Sackville in June. C. B. Allan submitted a report in which he stated there were 300 members paid, of which 200 were residents in St. John. He also reported that the city had been asked for a grant of $800 and the provincial government for a grant of $5,000. The financial statement showed a balance on hand of about $800.40 and expenditures of $3,738.42, while the receipts included the provincial grant of $1,500; the city grant of $800, and fees amounting to $611.92. Those present were: The president, N. R. DesBrisay, C. B. Allan, secretary; B. L. Rising, W. S. Fisher, J. E. Secord, T. P. Regan and W. H. C. Mackay.

PROHIBITION SNAKES
Sussex Record.—Joseph Farmer, of Norton, recently captured four live snakes in a well on his farm. It is a very extraordinary time of the year to run across snakes in a well and the finding of them has caused considerable comment. As "Joe" is not in the habit of never has been seeing any kind of snakes but the "real live ones" there is no doubt that he made the capture as stated. These were genuine prohibition snakes.

FOOT AND MOUTH DISEASE BREAKS OUT IN ENGLAND
Worst Epidemic in Thirty Years in Midland Counties—Many Animals Destroyed
Birmingham, Eng., Jan. 6.—(A. P. by Mail).—What is described as the worst outbreak of foot and mouth disease for 30 years has occurred among the cattle in the midland counties.

The appearance of the disease was first noticed on December 29 at the Central Meat Market here. A number of cattle from country markets were found to be suffering and were immediately slaughtered but the contagion had already spread. The Board of Agriculture has since ordered the destruction of 400 more animals and the closing of the market. The midland counties are scheduled as infected.

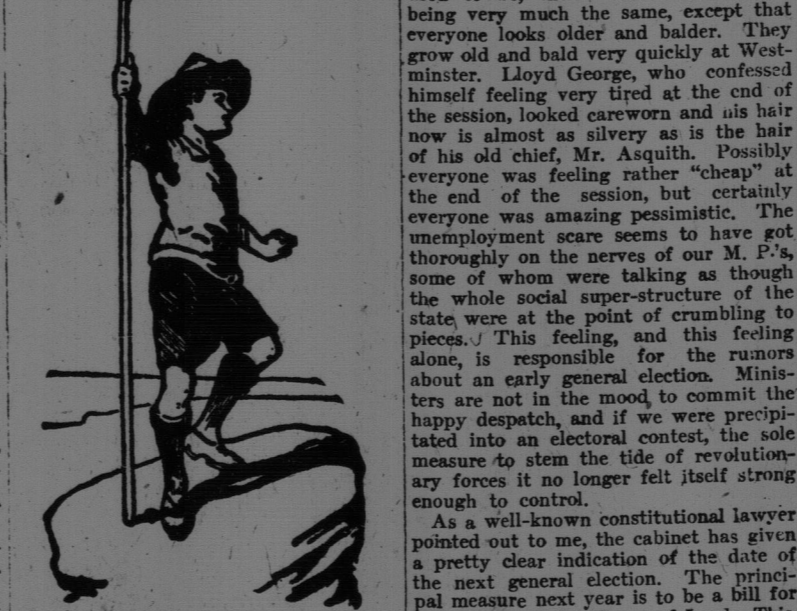

The first recorded case of the present epidemic occurred at Ripon on January 9, 1919. Since then, 27 separate outbreaks have occurred in as many different places, not traceably connected with each other.

WITH THE SCOUTS A VISIT TO THE BRITISH COMMONS

A Talk on the Court of Honor, Its Organization and Its Work.
London Gossip About Outlook for Election

Retirement of Mr. Lowther as Speaker Talked of—A Story of the Farrow's Bank Crash—Use of Drugs Grows.

THE BOY SCOUT.
freshments were served. The young people were chaperoned by Mrs. Christie, Miss Hamilton and Miss Trentoway. The scoutmaster, W. Stewart Allan, has received several requests for another such evening in the near future.

"For Patrol Leaders."
The Court of Honor.—The Court of Honor may be variously constituted, but however constituted, it should be the most important council in connection with the troop. It has seen considerable development during the last two years. It was originally designed to be a body to decide on punishments, to make awards, and to deal with any important matters in connection with the running of the troop. Side by side with the court, a certain routine business often developed, and it seemed to be rather unnecessary to have two separate constituted bodies whose functions largely overlapped, and whose affairs might be all the more easily administered if they might be combined. For this reason there sprang up what may be described as the scoutmaster in the chair. It is usually helpful to have the scoutmaster in the chair, but in some cases the chair is taken by a patrol leader, and the scoutmaster himself is a court member.

A court meets in two capacities, its executive capacity, or its judicial capacity. As an executive body it should meet every week, even if only for five minutes, to transact the ordinary troop business. A boy should be appointed secretary and he should keep minutes. After the minutes have been read and signed, each leader gives a brief report on the work his patrol has done during the week. If the leader cannot be present, he notifies his second that this is the case beforehand, and the second gives the report on behalf of his absent leader. If the chief scout's patrol form is used, the chairman can read this out and no further report is necessary. The Court of Honor then deals with questions in connection with the arrangements for the coming week, patrol competitions, summer camp, football and croquet, inter-patrol visiting, troop subscriptions, and many other things. If the scoutmaster has any announcements to make this is the occasion on which he makes them, and the leaders afterwards pass the information on to their patrols in due course.

Any member of the Court of Honor is entitled to ask the scoutmaster any question, unless such question is of a personal nature. Free discussion in the Court of Honor should be warmly encouraged. There is no time in which the scoutmaster has a better opportunity of getting into touch with the real feelings and aspirations of his boys.

Some scoutmasters may say that their patrols meet only one night a week and that there is therefore no time for the meeting of the C. of H. This is a mistake. Supposing that the troop parades on Tuesday night from 8 to 9. At 8.30 the patrols will be dismissed, and everybody will go home except the members of the court, who remain behind. This adds to the esteem in which the court is held by all the members of the troop.—From "The Patrol System" by the late Capt. Roland Phillips, the balance of this paper will be in this column on next Saturday.

Christmas in Downing Street.
It must have been on rare occasions in our history that a prime minister of England did what Lloyd George felt constrained to do this year, and spend a Christmas Day at 10 Downing Street. And the fact that cabinet discussions were constantly in progress with various representatives of labor and industry throughout the Christmas holiday speaks grimly for the gravity of the unemployment outlook.

DEAD FROM COLD ON ALASKA TRAIL
Nome, Alaska, Jan. 22.—Thomas Ward president and general manager of the Ward Copper Company of New York, was found frozen to death a few miles from Teller, Alaska, Jan. 12, according to word reaching Nome.

Ward left the company's mining camp in the Inner-Seward Peninsula with an Eskimo man and woman and two dog teams en route to Teller, a reindeer station on Grantly Harbor.

After reaching the top of the divide above Teller, the three became lost in the darkness. The Eskimos said they decided to go back to a cabin they had seen, but Ward proceeded on alone.

For the next two days, the Eskimos said, they were stornbound in the cabin and on the third day battled their way to the station, only to learn that Ward had not arrived. A searching party started out the next day and found Ward's sled and dog team on Dewey Creek. There were evidences that Ward has spent the night there. The temperature during the night had been 20 degrees below zero, and Ward was known to have only a robe to protect him from the cold.

Members of the searching party said Ward had evidently left his team on the morning of the 12th and started for Teller, 10 miles distant. He probably became confused, they said, and headed in the wrong direction.

Makes a Family Supply of Cough Remedy

Really better than ready-made cough syrups, and gives about $2. Ready and quickly prepared.

If you combined the curative properties of every known "ready-made" cough remedy, you probably could not get as much real curative power as there is in this simple home-made cough syrup, which is easily prepared in a few minutes.

Get from any druggist 2 1/2 ounces of Pinex, pour it into a 16-oz. bottle and fill the bottle with syrup, using either plain granulated sugar syrup, clarified molasses, honey, or corn syrup, as desired. The result is 16 ounces of really better cough syrup than you could buy ready-made and saves easily $2. Tastes pleasant and never spoils.

This Pinex and Syrup preparation gets right at the cause of a cough and gives almost immediate relief. It loosens the phlegm, stops the nasty throat tickle and heals the sore, irritated membranes so gently and easily that it is really astonishing.

A day's use will usually overcome the ordinary cough and for bronchitis, croup, hoarseness and bronchial asthma, there is nothing better.

Pinex is a most valuable concentrated compound of genuine Norway pine extract, and has been used for generations to break up severe coughs.

To avoid disappointment, ask your druggist for "2 1/2 ounces of Pinex" with full directions, and don't accept anything else. Guaranteed to give absolute satisfaction or money promptly refunded. The Pinex Co., Toronto, Ont.

CALLS PRESENT CONDITION A WORLD CRISIS

Italian Official Sees Good Sign in Reduction in Strikes — German Competition Being Felt.

Rome, Jan. 21. — (Associated Press Correspondence). — Business depression in Italy is characterized by Signor Olivetti, a deputy in parliament and industrial and economic expert, as part of a "world crisis." He attributes this situation not only in Italy, but in France, England and America, to the restriction of consumption and to limitation of money. He expresses the opinion that all countries must pass through this condition in order to attain economic reconstruction.

Signor Olivetti sees an encouraging sign in the fact that strikes and labor agitations are becoming less frequent and less serious in Italy. He says this indicates that the working men realize the difficulties through which all industries are passing. Nevertheless unemployment is characterized as grave and increasing.

German competition already is having a bad effect on Italian mechanical industries. Woollen manufacturers are operating only three or four days a week and hosiery and India rubber factories are working on reduced hours. No new ships are being laid down because of the uncertainty of future naval construction. The once flourishing automobile industry of Italy only just holds its own in the face of ever increasing obstacles to exportation and the diminution of the home market.

Both exports and imports have decreased in Italy, according to figures just made public covering a period up to last September. The decline in exports is attributed by Signor Olivetti to labor troubles, unfavorable exchange rates and the uncertain condition of foreign markets. The reduction in imports is ascribed to the exchange and unsteadiness in the price of raw materials.

THE CENSUS THIS YEAR.

(Toronto Globe.) Organization for the sixth census of Canada is proceeding. The census in the United States was taken last year, and the results, published in detail this month, show that the country's urban population, has at last overtopped the rural population, the figures being 54,718,093 urban and 51,890,739 rural. Towns and villages under 2,500 are classified as rural. In the last ten years urban population has increased 21 per cent, compared with 30 per cent in 1900-10 and 36 per cent in 1890-1900. The rates of rural growth in the same period were 4 per cent, 9 per cent and 12 1/2 per cent, respectively. There is some interest in comparisons with Canada. In this country in 1911 the rural population was 3,224,934 and the urban 3,621,799. In the ten years 1901-1911 the increase in the urban population was at the rate of 62.23, and in the rural population 17.16 per cent. If the urban growth has continued at the same rate relatively during the last decade the census this year will show that the rural population has been outnumbered considerably. Statistics of population yield valuable social and economic data, and the census this year will give a new stimulus to the discussion of the factors which they went their way, unheeding!

ONCE upon a time—more than once, in fact—a merchant stocked his store with fine merchandise in the expectation that the public would come and buy it.

But the public did not come. The merchant was puzzled. He looked at his store and could find no fault with its appearance. He went over his stock and considered his prices and was certain that both were right. His windows were well trimmed, and he knew that his sales clerks were competent and polite.

But the public passed by unheeding. And for days and weeks on end he was eternally asking himself—WHY?

The answer is clear. HE knew his store. HE knew his goods. HE knew his prices.

But nobody else did. He had neglected to use, with all the skill and judgment at his command, the only means of making known these facts to the widest possible audience.

He neglected his Daily Newspaper Advertising.

Is it not amazing that merchants whose whole business depends upon the cultivation of a wide local goodwill, and who are extraordinarily careful in their buying, are comparatively indifferent when it comes to that most skillful branch of selling—Daily Newspaper Advertising?

Many of them fail to use at all. Others just regard it as a task, instead of a test of their skill that, when they have once become interested in it, will return them pleasure as well as profit.

Good buying is the first principle of merchandising.

Good advertising runs it a close second.

Devote more time to your advertising. Call upon the publisher and advertising staff of this newspaper for assistance. You will find them able and willing to help you.

ADDRESSES ON ILLS OF WORLD

Hon. N. W. Rowell and Fletcher Brockman Speak at Methodist Missionary Rally.

(Toronto Globe.) The only hope for the world in the situation that confronts us is the reception and triumph of the principles taught by the Saviour of men.—Rt Hon. N. W. Rowell, P. C., K. C.

"If China is ever to be saved, Christianity will save it, and if Christianity does not save China she is lost."

Fletcher Brockman. Thus did Hon. N. W. Rowell and Fletcher Brockman in the above statements emphasize to the 3,000 people who packed Massey Hall in the topmost gallery at the Methodist Missionary rally last night, what they considered to be the greatest need of the Far East and the world.

An overflow meeting in the Metropolitan church was also addressed by both speakers. The financial objective for Toronto in the present missionary campaign is $200,000.

Mr. Rowell, who has recently spent some time in Africa, where he has had opportunities of studying the work of missions at first hand, spoke on the subject, "Are Missions a Success?"

Mr. Brockman, who has spent many years in the Far East, spoke on "The Far East as a Factor in the World's Future." In the course of their addresses both speakers bore eloquent testimony to the value of Christian missions as the greatest agency that has yet been found to shed the light of peace and good-will among the peoples in the dark places of the earth, and expressed the conviction that if the torch of human civilization is to be kept alight it will only be by the adoption at home and abroad of those principles that are the foundation of all missionary endeavor.

Must Have Something Better. "Unless the Christian Church gives them something better than they have got," said Mr. Rowell, in speaking of the missionary situation in Africa, "it does not bode well for the one and a half million whites and the seven and a half million blacks in the days that are to come."

The consecration of lives for service was urged by Mr. Rowell. "We have but one life to live," he said. "It may be long or it may be short. There is only one way that it is worth while living it, and that is in useful and unselfish service for our fellow-men."

Mr. Rowell devoted the first portion of his speech to a reference to his recent visit to Africa, and to a description of the conditions which prevail on that continent in the area south of the Zambezi.

In that great territory, about as large as our four western provinces, live a million and a half of European stock, and about seven and a half millions of natives and colored peoples.

The native population, which in the past had been divided into many groups and tribes hostile to each other, was now developing a national consciousness and a capacity of acting together. This was a fact of tremendous significance.

"A cup of Cocoa" Good at any hour of the day Baker's Cocoa is especially good in the evening a short time before retiring. Its flavor is delicious, its aroma most attractive, and it is conducive to restful sleep without being in any sense of the word, a narcotic. Absolutely pure and wholesome. Walter Baker & Co. Ltd. MONTREAL CANADA, BOSTON MASS.

These natives were asking for "something better," and unless the Christian church gave them something better it did not bode well for the white and black races.

"They must have something more than the materialistic side—they must have the nobler, better side of our civilization as well," said the speaker.

Mr. Rowell gave some interesting details of meetings he had had with a certain native chief, a man over six feet in height and who, in spite of his ninety years, had a mind as clear and a foot as firm as twenty years ago.

The man told him of talks he had had with David Livingstone.

"I said to this chief," Mr. Rowell remarked, "one hears a good deal of discussion about the effect of Christian missions. I would be glad if you would give me your opinion on Christian missions, as I want to take it home to tell my friends in Canada."

He made this answer, full of pathos and meaning: "If the missionary had not come we would not have known the way. Forget everything else I may say to you tonight," said Mr. Rowell. "Carry that thought home with you from that great black man in South Africa."

Mr. Rowell declared that this man was not only known as the greatest of native chiefs, but was the real prohibition leader in South Africa.

"He told," said Mr. Rowell, "when he came to the throne in 1872 he prohibited the importation of liquor, within his territory, and he has maintained that prohibition up to the present time."

The speaker said the impression left on his mind by his recent visit abroad was that there had been a marked recession since the close of the war in the moral enthusiasm of the people.

"I am sorry to have to say to you," he declared, "and yet I am firmly convinced it is true, that the church today has not the power that it had before the war. I am convinced that religion, as we understand it, has less hold upon the people than it had before the war."

"Men's faith had been staggered by the horrors of the war, and they have been unable to comprehend, or understand, the situation in the light of what they thought of a Father's Love who guided by on the other side, or the part of playing the Good Samaritan, and lending a helping hand. No nation can call itself Christian and in the light of the world's need, and the world's misery, play the part of the priest and the Levite and pass by on the other side."

U. S. WILL ENTER NATION'S LEAGUE SAYS MR. ROWELL

Took Two and a Half Years to Enter War and Are Repeating—Tells Educationists They Have Great Part

That the United States will eventually join the other nations in some form of a League of Nations, in order to avert the repetition of another world war, and make sure of the success of the "Great Experiment," is the opinion of N. W. Rowell, one of the Canadian delegates to the recent assembly of the League of Nations, as expressed to a gathering of educationists at Convocation Hall in Toronto this week.

In the course of his address, Mr. Rowell said that he had been asked many times "Will the United States come in?" My answer is, "I do not know."

That question can be answered by the government and people of the United States, and by that government and people alone, and the less we or any other nation undertake to advise or criticize the better for all concerned.

May I, however, remind you that we asked exactly the same question during the first two and a half years of the war, while the people of the United States discussed and debated that question among themselves, but finally the judgment and conscience of the people triumphed over all opposition, and the United States came in.

She threw herself into the conflict with such energy and enthusiasm, particularly during the year 1918, as to remove all doubt as to the final issue. And she made an invaluable contribution to the decisive victory which crowned the efforts of the Allied and Associated Powers.

"I believe we are passing through the same experiences in reference to the peace and the League of Nations, and that when the discussion and debating of another world war is averted, and the other nations in some form satisfactory to all concerned in order to avert a repetition of the awful horrors of another world war, and to make sure the success of this great experiment of a League of Nations for the preservation of the world's peace."

Mr. Rowell pointed out that Canada entered the war at the very beginning, not because she feared an attack on her own shores, but to help to defeat a military autocracy which threatened the liberties of Europe, and the peace and security of the world.

Canada did not become a member of the league because of what she might get out of it, but because of the assistance she might render toward the preservation of peace and liberty her sons had died to win.

"If we continue our co-operation with the same energy," said Mr. Rowell, "the same enthusiasm and the same unselfishness as characterized our war effort, Canada will retain the place of leadership her soldiers have won for her. No nation can be truly great unless she is great of soul. One cannot feed the soul of a nation on the husks of national selfishness. The soul must be nourished by the pursuit of great national ideals."

"To it is supreme task the teachers of Canada are called, and on the fidelity with which they perform this task will depend in a large measure our national future."

"Shameful Neglect" Of U. S. Disabled Dough-Boys

Not niggardliness but mismanagement is behind the fact that thousands of disabled soldiers of the Great War "are still waiting, exploited, neglected, forgotten, for the draft of honor to be redeemed." The Public Health Service, according to Harold A. Littledale, of the New York Evening Post, is months behind in dealing with urgent appeals from disabled soldiers needing treatment, as is also the Bureau of War-Risk Insurance in payments.

TAFT SPEAKS ON DISARMAMENT

Almost Indispensable, He Says, on Account of Burden of Debt—Has Hopes in Harding.

Hamilton, Bermuda, Jan. 7.—(Associated Press Correspondence).—Former resident William H. Taft, who is pending a month here, said in an interview here today that "the enormous burden of debt of every country makes almost indispensable the necessity for disarmament."

"I am very hopeful that under Mr. Harding we shall reach a conclusion with the leading nations for an association of league which shall mark the advance towards the war-torn world."

"I never have had the slightest concern over the relations of the two countries. We form the strongest union for the world today. We have got into the habit of settling all our differences by means of negotiation and arbitration."

CONTROL OF FOREST BY TRAINED MEN

Ontario Places Administration of Forests on Crown Lands Under Practical Foresters.

The opportunity for the beginning of a new era in the forestry situation in Ontario was created by the recent announcement of the provincial government that henceforth the timber administration on crown lands will be under the provincial forestry branch, instead of comprising a separate organization, in which no foresters were employed.

VOCATIONAL EDUCATION

Delegation at City Hall Asks Council to Approve Estimate of $25,000—Forecast of Change in School System—No Action Taken.

Asking the city council to approve the estimate of $25,000 as the city's proportion for the operation of vocational schools in St. John, a delegation from the vocational board and others interested in the matter appeared before the mayor and commissioners in committee this morning. Those present included Dr. A. F. Emery, chairman; Thomas Nagle, Mrs. W. Edmond Raymond, members, and A. Gordon Leavitt, secretary of the vocational board; Dr. H. S. Bridges, superintendent of education for the city; Fletcher Peacock, superintendent of vocational education for the province; Major Lawson, director for St. John, and Alexander Wilson, G. K. Ganong, and A. H. Wetmore. The mayor and all the commissioners were in attendance.

Major Lawson told of the aims of vocational training and referred to the progress made. He said there was some criticism last year that people in a position to pay had been included in the classes. He said this was done to advertise the plan, but would not be continued. He said it was finally planned to take over the evening classes now being conducted by the school board and to open some day classes next fall. The plan of the board was towards the obtaining of a building for carrying on the work.

He submitted a list of the names enrolled in the various classes. Regarding the names in the motor mechanics class, Mr. Thornton said that there were some of barristers, physicians, etc., on the list. Major Lawson said that there were two classes of twenty each, but others were admitted to lectures if there was accommodation.

The Estimates.

Regarding teachers' salaries, he said they would pay the domestic science staff about $1,400; male teachers would get $2,000 to $3,000. He said that a director would cost $3,000 to $4,000, and a supervisor about $2,000, as soon as the scheme was in full operation. The estimate for these two officials this year was placed at $5,000. He spoke of the necessities for other expenses. Major Lawson noted several instances where pupils had benefited by several of the courses.

Mrs. W. Edmond Raymond reported that many ladies had profited by the instruction. She thought there should be no distinction in selecting the pupils for the classes in home-making—it was a profession, she said, one of the highest in the world, in which the girl or woman received very little encouragement from either without or within. From within, she said, she meant the husband. She urged the council to support vocational education without class distinction.

W. K. Ganong said that our boys and girls, by going away to get a training, would naturally stay away, and the progress of the city would be blocked. He said that the training could be given here well as in any other place. He expected in the near future to assist in their own factory by introducing the matter of home-making instruction.

The mayor read the resolution passed by the Retail Merchants' Association yesterday calling upon the council to restrict public expenditures.

A. H. Wetmore spoke in favor of technical training. He said it was necessary in order to compete with the technically trained from other sections of the country.

Move Towards New System.

Fletcher Peacock spoke in favor of technical training. He said that more than was asked for St. John this year. He said that in Halifax upwards of 1,100 pupils received vocational training in the evening classes.

Mr. Peacock said that in parts of Ontario the high school education was divided into groups including classical, agricultural, industrial and commercial, and he thought the board of education here was tending towards that end. In this direction the government had offered aid to any community desiring to include a commercial course in the high school as now being provided for in the new school being erected at Milltown, N. B. They would pay twenty-five per cent of cost of erecting; fifty per cent of the cost of equipment and sixty per cent of the cost of salaries.

In reply to the mayor, Dr. A. F. Emery said some of the school board while not directly opposed to vocational training, preferred to leave the matter in the hands of the common council.

Replying to Commissioner Fink, Mr. Leavitt said that the first move towards vocational training had been made by the school board on resolution of the common council, following a request from a citizen's committee and in accordance with the vocational training act.

Alexander Wilson said that while he was against extravagance, he did not consider education of any kind as extravagant.

Technical Training and Production.

The mayor said that while personally opposed to technical education, he thought they should go the whole way and not "dilly-dally." He said that technical training in some places was causing people to leave the real production—agriculture—and in his opinion, three-quarters of the present unrest was due to this fact. He said it was up to the factories to provide some sort of classes in their own establishments for their own protection. He asked if it would be better to carry on as at present or wait until the present conditions passed when a real thing, such as at Halifax, could be provided. He said before considering the matter further, he thought the council should hear the other side of the question outside of one or two departments in which work had been

STORY ABOUT HENS ENGAGES COURT

Policeman Tells of Finding Some Cooked and Some Plucked—Police Matters.

A case in which the theft of thirty-four hens was the main issue occupied the attention of the police court this morning. Thomas Carey and his stepson were charged with acting together and stealing nine hens from Robert Brown, Millidge avenue, valued at $18; and also on suspicion of stealing twenty-five hens from M. Budovitch, Douglas avenue, valued at $60. Carey pleaded not guilty to both charges, while the lad admitted the first charge. Mr. and Mrs. Robert Brown gave evidence. Sergeant Rankin had notified Policeman Killen of following footprints to the accused's back door, and on going inside said he found two cooked hens in the pantry, and two plucked hens in a clothes bag. The accused and his stepson were in the woods at the time. He went to the woods, and the accused said he had divided the hens with another man.

The stepson, a lad of twelve, said he went to the hen-house with his stepfather, who took nine hens and killed them down in the woods nearby. He said his stepfather came in one night with eight hens and he said he had divided them with another man.

Sergeant Rankin corroborated the evidence of Policeman Killen.

The case was postponed until Monday. The boy was allowed to go home.

A case against Leonard Dryden, charged with having liquor in his possession other than in his private dwelling, was resumed, and he pleaded guilty and was fined $200.

Dominion Official Offers Assistance After Work of Boy Survey is Complete.

At the board of trade last evening, the general committee representing the Rotary Club, Y. M. C. A., Improvement League and Boy Scouts, having to do with the boy life survey of St. John to be made next month, held an important meeting with Dr. Spangler, vice-president of the Rotary Club in the chair. Reports were to have been received at this meeting from representatives of the various organizations showing how much each would be able to supply for the making of the survey. Several of the organizations were not represented but those which were present showed a nucleus of 200 who would be available. It was suggested that certain groups or persons might become responsible for certain portions of the city, thus simplifying the matter, as those who undertook a section would provide their own workers. It was resolved to hold another meeting next Wednesday evening and representatives

HOW TO MAKE MONEY IN "HARD TIMES"

A secret of that "INDEFINABLE SOMETHING" that enables one man to push ahead and win while twenty others may fail.

WHICH MAN IN THE PICTURE BELOW IS YOU?

EMPLOYMENT MEN WANTED. A man may be a great success in "good times" when the going is easy, but a COMPLETE FAILURE in "HARD TIMES"—the man worth while is the man who can face the great depression of "hard times" WITH A SMILE and still win. The constant worry, anxiety, stress and nervous strain that a man is under in "hard times" weakens his brain and "WILKS" his power, and takes the life and driving force out of his blood, without his fully realizing what has happened to him—he knows SOMETHING IS WRONG, that he is not GETTING AHEAD as he should, but he doesn't know why. IF YOUR BANK BALANCE IS NOT UP TO THE MARK; if things are not coming your way; look into your physical condition. YOUR BRAIN CANNOT WORK RIGHT—think the thoughts that bring SUCCESS—when YOU LACK BODILY AND MENTAL VIGOR—a great business man has said that "indefinable something" that wins is often nothing more than an "IRON WILL" supported by IRON BLOOD. IRON IS THE MASTER PRINCIPLE OF THE BLOOD and blood is life. If you are starved, your brain cannot work right. Without iron in your blood, your brain becomes dull and heavy. YOUR INTELLIGENCE IS POOR; YOU MAKE BAD DECISIONS; DO FOOLISH THINGS; YOUR MEMORY OFTEN FAILS—no matter how smart you may be by nature, you are certainly NO MATCH for the STRONG, IRON BLOOD MAN with plenty of iron in his blood. At the same time, the strong, vigorous fellow always has a decided advantage over a weak, listless opponent. WITHOUT IRON IN YOUR BLOOD, YOU LOSE ITS POWER TO CHANGE FOOD INTO LIVING CELLS AND TISSUE and nothing you eat does you the proper amount of good—you do not get the full strength out of it. In fact, sometimes the more you eat the Apply a little of this fragrant, antiseptic cream in your nostrils, let it penetrate through every air passage of your head and you will feel the swollen, inflamed mucous membrane giving you instant relief. In addition to this guidance, the Junior office, by means of pooling the demand as well as the supply, was able to secure the best opening for the individual boy or girl just leaving school or had been at work for several years. In addition to the placement work, the Junior office kept in touch with the young worker and encouraged him to take advantage of further training which would make him more skillful and more efficient in his work.

The federal government would provide fifty per cent of the cost of an employment bureau for this purpose. Negotiations have been under way for the establishment of an employment bureau for adult workers and it may be that, as a result of the survey that is being planned, a special effort will be made to see that both a senior and a junior office of public service will be established in the city. Mr. Wyatt said that, as principal of a school in the city of Vancouver, it had been his aim to have a system to connect the boy and girl leaving school at an early age with a vocation. As chief of a juvenile court in the city of Toronto for the juvenile court, it had been impressed upon him that a great deal of juvenile delinquency was a result of the fact that the young people were not properly linked up with a vocation and were without proper supervision during the years from fourteen to eighteen. His whole address was heard with the keenest interest by the committee.

Dr. Spangler, in expressing the appreciation of Mr. Wyatt's visit and his address, said that those present must all be filled with a sense of enthusiasm for the work in hand. What Mr. Wyatt had said would be of the nature of a revelation to a great many people and in behalf of the Rotary Club, he said, he could guarantee that if Mr. Wyatt should visit St. John on a Monday at any future time the Rotary Club would gladly defer any other programme it might have in order to hear the address from him. Mr. Wyatt, in reply, said that he felt that he could be of most use to the citizens after the survey had been made and its results tabulated. He suggested that the figures and facts should be laid before a committee representing education, industry and labor and that committee asked to co-operate in the development of waterway improvements and changes the survey might show to be in the interest of the boys and girls of St. John along educational lines.

WILL CURB THE UNRULY ELEMENT

Montreal Authorities Will Furnish Meals for Needy.

(Canadian Press Despatch.) Montreal, Jan. 21.—An announcement that the real unemployed and needy of the city would be given meals at a city refuge any time of the day or night and that the unruly element which has been fomenting disorder here will be checked was made this afternoon by E. R. Decarie, chairman of the civic administrative commission. The statement was issued following the storming of one restaurant by unemployed men, the attempted raiding of another and demonstrations of 600 men in various parts of the city. The administrative commission offered all the unemployed work at snow shoveling. Many accepted and continued at the work in face of protests from their leaders that the city was only offering a starvation wage. In a statement issued this afternoon, E. R. Decarie, chairman of the civic administrative commission, expressed his disapproval of the unruly element and the disorders arising from unemployment here. J. Thompson, the chairman of the executive committee of the Unemployment Association, admitted today that the demonstrations and the raids on restaurants were not officially recognized.

Victoria Lady Who Suffered from Pains in the Back, Tells of the Relief She Found From Dodd's Kidney Pills. "Both my husband and myself have obtained great relief through using Dodd's Kidney Pills." So says Mrs. M. Stephenson who lives at 1919-1/2 Belmont avenue, this city. "For two years on and off," she continues, "I have taken these pills for pains in the back and found great relief. I've taken them too with hot lemonade for a cold and got splendid results. I feel it my duty to tell what a splendid remedy Dodd's Kidney Pills are. I always recommend them to my friends. Dodd's Kidney Pills are purely and simply the best of their kind. They act directly on the kidneys, strengthening them and putting them in condition to do their full work of straining the impurities out of the blood. Dodd's Kidney Pills have been in use in Canada for more than thirty years. They demonstrate their worth in the most serious forms of Kidney Disease, such as rheumatism, dropsy and diabetes. They have also done splendid work in strengthening weak kidneys to ward off serious diseases. Ask your neighbors if Dodd's Kidney Pills are not the best Kidney Remedy."

CANADIAN COLORS MAY EMBARRASS THE SWISS NAVY

(Canadian Press Despatch.) Berne, Jan. 21.—The announcement just made that the Canadian government has introduced a merchant marine flag showing a white cross encircled by a ring on a red ground has caused consternation in Switzerland. The Swiss flag is a white cross on a red ground, but without any ring around the cross, and the Swiss press and public are asking their government whether Canada cannot be prevented from having a merchant marine flag so closely resembling the Swiss flag, especially as Switzerland hopes one day to have her own merchant marine, in view of her long cherished project of having a Canal connecting the Rhone or one connecting the Rhone with Lyons and Geneva and also utilizing the Rhone.

Lessening the Life Toll

THE value of the lighthouse is especially appreciated by seafaring folks. Many fascinating stories of averted disasters originate from these structures the world over. Their first purpose, however, is preventing the loss of human life. In this they are closely connected with the purpose of Milburn's Heart & Nerve Pills, around which there are also interesting facts of averted disasters. People to-day are using Milburn's Heart & Nerve Pills as their "Lighthouse" on which to steer a course for good health. There are very few to-day taking an active part in any walk of life who do not require, at some time or another, an additional food for the Heart & Nerve system, for without these properly carrying out their duties every other organ in the body must suffer. The effects of weakened Heart & Nerve centres vary. With some, the heart thumps harshly and irregularly. They feel irritable and are easily excited. Others are afflicted with sleeplessness at night, and drowsy sensations during the day. If you feel unfit in any way, you owe it to yourself and friends to try a box of MILBURN'S HEART & NERVE PILLS. Price 50c. a box at all dealers, or mailed direct on receipt of price by The T. Milburn Co. Limited, Toronto, Ontario.

HEAD OF G. W. V. A. ADDRESSES VETS

There was a large meeting of returned soldiers in the G.W.V.A. hall last evening to hear R. B. Maxwell, Dominion president of the G.W.V.A., who in his closing remarks, said that although pessimism and hard times seemed prevalent in Canada at present, he could see the blue sky of a bright future through a rift in the clouds. He was enthusiastically received by the veterans who listened to his remarks with deep interest. Mr. Maxwell is enroute to Capetown, South Africa, where he will attend the Empire Conference of ex-service men and will sail this morning on the C.P.O.S. liner Minnedoua. In his address last night he dealt briefly with the history of the association and the work it is doing for all returned men and denounced the $2,000 gratuity scheme as absurd, both as to its proposed method of distribution and on the head of the tremendous expenditure it would necessitate. Dr. G. Corbet, first vice-president of the local branch, was in the chair and on the platform also was His Worship Mayor Schofield, Commissioner Bullock, Hon. R. J. Ritchie and W. F. Hatheway. A vote of thanks was tendered Mr. Maxwell after which Mayor Schofield, Hon. R. J. Ritchie, Commissioner Bullock, W. F. Hatheway and W. J. Brown, president of the local branch, made short speeches. Guest of Mayor. Mayor Schofield gave a dinner at the Union Club last evening in honor of Mr. Maxwell. Besides His Worship, the following were present: Commissioners Jones and Frink, J. L. McAvity, G. G. Corbet, Rev. G. A. Kurling, P. J. Newcombe, J. G. Dryden, S. C. Tippet, F. G. Gardner, G. Earle Logan and Alex. I. Machum. Mr. Maxwell delivered a short address on the objects of the association and spoke about his proposed visit to Capetown, where he represents the Dominion in the Empire Conference of returned men which will be presided over by Earl Haig. Mr. Logan proposed a threefold toast to J. L. McAvity, as the founder of the New Brunswick unit at the front; to S. C. Tippet as the father of the G.W.V.A. in St. John, and to His Worship, Mr. McAvity and Mr. Tippet spoke briefly. His Worship asked Mr. Maxwell to convey his good wishes to General Smuts, the man who is trying to keep the empire together.

CUT IN WAGES BY CANADA COTTONS

(St. Croix Courier).

Canadian Cottons, Ltd., with mills at Hamilton, Cornwall, Marysville, St. John and Milltown, N. B., giving employment to some thousands of workers, have, during the past few days, advised all employees a beginning Monday, January 24th, a wage reduction of 1 1/2 per cent will go into effect.

The local management claim that they have delayed taking action along these lines just as long as it was possible for them to do so. During the last few weeks, however, in order to prevent the wholesale cancellation of orders, they were forced, they say, to accept a reduction of nearly 30 per cent on all goods for delivery later than January 1st.

These orders, of course, were entered some time ago at the higher rate. Orders for new business, they say, are now being taken at an even greater reduction.

By accepting these discounts, the management believe that it will be possible to keep the Milltown plant, which, fortunately, is equipped for special work, running on full time. All the other mills owned by the Canadian Cottons Ltd., are at present operating on the three to five days' schedule.

The company's desire, they say, to accept their share of the losses caused by the sudden drop in prices, and to do everything in their power to keep the looms going, and to maintain a full time schedule for all employees.

MONCTON FIRE

Moncton, N. B., Jan. 21.—The coal shed adjoining the blacksmith shops of the Canadian National Railways, was destroyed by fire this evening.

LOCAL NEWS

Mrs. W. W. White has received from the DeMontois Chapter, I. O. O. F., a check for $175 to pay for one furnished room in the nurses' new home.

Mr. and Mrs. George Carville have announced the engagement of their daughter, Margaret Lucinda, to Engr. Lieut. Commander Charles Grigg Parkyn, R.N.R. (ret.) of Saskatoon, second son of the late John Parkyn, Esquire, of Hedden Hall, Monmouthshire (Eng.). The marriage will take place early in the month of February.

The fund for the starving children in Europe which is being collected by the provincial Red Cross Society is gradually mounting. The latest donations are a specially generous one. It amounts to $73 and, being the second contribution from Butterworth Ridge brings the subscription of that community up to, and beyond the $100 mark. The total amount contributed by the Province of New Brunswick has now gone beyond $18,000.

What is said to be the longest spruce ever cut in New Brunswick in recent years was yarded at the Two Brooks camp of Benjamin Underhill on the Upsalquitch river recently. This tree scaled 1,507 feet, made up of five logs as follows, 422, 444, 397, 150, 64. The scaling was done by John Farrer, of Campbellton, and James Conwell, of St. John. It was yarded by one horse, which in itself was quite a feat.

Of much interest to friends in St. John will be the announcement of the engagement of Mrs. Geoffrey Wheelock, now in Shanghai, China, to Mr. Dalgleish, also a resident of Shanghai. Mrs. Wheelock's marriage is to take place on February 8 and at the end of March, with her future husband, she will leave to visit Mr. Dalgleish's mother in England and later, sometime in the early summer, they will arrive in St. John to visit Judge and Mrs. Grimmer.

The High-Y club of the Y. M. C. A. had a grand and glorious party last night. Lily Lake was the scene of the first part of the evening's entertainment. The members of the party had a splendid time skating or tobogganing. They returned to the Y. M. C. A. building and refreshments were served. Mr. and Mrs. Nelson McEwen were the chaperones and the committee in charge of the arrangements for the party was as follows: William Curran, Jarvis Wilson and Ronald Smith.

Asked for His Reasons for carrying Life Insurance with The Manufacturers Life, one of our large Policyholders cogently replied: 1st.—In case I do not accumulate a competence, or meet with reverses in business, I know my wife and family will not become objects of charity, as my Life Insurance will supply sufficient funds for their needs. 2nd.—Life Insurance is always the first asset realized on—so, if at my demise, the time is not opportune to dispose of my other assets, my Executors will not need to sacrifice same to obtain ready money. 3rd.—It is the only way I can make absolutely sure of providing for my dependents. 4th.—It is the very essence of good business. CANADA LIFE BUSINESS IN 1920 President Reviews Financial Statement

The unusual demand for life assurance which developed in the previous year continued without abatement almost through 1920 and our own investment was enabled to issue $52,500,000, thereby making a new high record for any year. The total amount of life assurance in force up to $277,000,000. These results are brought about by a growing and stronger and better equipped field organization, concentrating more forcefully upon a better informed public, who are more and more coming to buy life assurance upon a reasonable business basis.

Business in Great Britain. The general expansion in our branch organizations continues and each has had its full share in the expansion of the year. Opportunity was taken to visit with the General Superintendent many of our offices and a most encouraging optimism and activity was found in every branch. I spent some months in Great Britain, accompanied by the Treasurer, and made an exhaustive study of the conditions affecting our business on that side of the Atlantic. As some of you know, we have a very attractive and a very profitable business in London, with offices in England and Wales, Scotland and Ireland, which has this year paid for $3,600,000, or over twice as much as in 1919. Various forces have contributed to this phenomenal success, the outstanding being an effective agency plan and the great appeal this company is able to make to the British public through its liberal policy contract and its bonuses to the assured. Ours is one of the very few life corporations that have been able to carry during the war period and after without reducing or passing altogether the usual bonuses to their members. This is a great source of strength to us, and as our advantage is likely to continue through a high earning capacity and a low death loss, we anticipate with much confidence a very large accession of new business in Great Britain. We shall look to that country next to Canada for an important share of our total expansion and will gradually and advisedly enlarge our facilities to a favorable opportunity to enter Hawaii, under most promising conditions, and we have received from that agency since September first over $750,000.

clients impressions which are full of interest and suggestion to the management. Our ultimate aim is that this company shall be represented in the field only by those who are giving their entire service, and who have armed themselves with the knowledge to be obtained through this course of study. We believe that today life insurance should be sold only by experts.

A Thorough Examination. In addition to the regular annual inspection by the Canadian insurance department, the company has recently been submitted to a most thorough and exhaustive examination at the hands of the Insurance Commissioners of Michigan, Illinois, Pennsylvania and Minnesota, whose representatives jointly and concurrently spent several weeks in the home office. Every possible facility was afforded them and a minute inspection was made of all books and records, of all assets, and of all office systems. The result was altogether satisfactory to the commissioners and gratifying to your officers, and is summed up in the final paragraph of their report, as follows: "We find that the Canada Life Assurance Company is in excellent financial condition, and that its affairs are being managed economically and efficiently."

"To deal with the many different departments conducted by responsible officers and men. "All evidence goes to show that the investments of the company are carefully selected. The foregoing report shows that the investments have been distributed over a wide range of suitable securities. "We have had the co-operation of the officers of the company and the information asked for and data furnished in fact, every assistance has been rendered to make the examination thorough and complete."

Surplus Earnings. As the last of our war claims was provided for in the previous year, and as we have in the past twelve months been free from epidemic, there has been no unusual factor affecting the death rate adversely, so that we have returned to a normal, and more properly a subnormal, loss, as the actual deaths have been only 55 per cent. of those expected. The saving from this source again shows a very material increase and has an important part in the creation of net surplus earnings of $2,153,000 for the year. This sum again constitutes the largest earning in the history of the institution, and enables us to continue without hesitation the present rate of distribution to our policyholders, and to pursue the active program which is bringing us such a gratifying influx of new members. This renewed demand for mortgage loans, which has been the result of successive executives following a clearly defined course for nearly three-quarters of a century, adds unique stability to our policy contracts, at the same time giving more than usual courage to those who sell them, and much confidence to those who buy.

The Interest Rate. One of the chief contributors to surplus is, of course, the interest income, and you will be gratified to learn that we have again been able to increase the average rate upon our investments to 6.10 per cent. Throughout the year it has been possible to acquire securities of undoubted value at prices to yield uncommonly high rates. We advise ourselves of the opportunity to buy $2,000,000 of very excellent mortgages on a basis to yield approximately 8 per cent. net. The security was all thoroughly inspected by our own officers and found to be ample and attractive. There has been a renewed demand for mortgage loans, a very considerable number of which are required to cover accumulated losses on our banks. Interest payments on these mortgages are being made promptly and the interest is being paid in full. This is the case, those lending upon mortgages are relieving the demand upon our banks. Interest payments reflect to some extent another good failure in certain sections which have suffered similarly before, and the actual price of wheat, which is so much below that anticipated. Our borrowers, however, have on the whole their obligations as promptly as we can fairly expect of them, and, as usual, we have not included in the asset described as "interest outstanding" any sums in arrears which appear to be of doubtful collection. While the overdue interest is somewhat larger than a year ago, it is reassuring to know that a large portion of it became due only in December; in fact, 47 per cent of the total arrears pertain to the last six months.

To avoid the loss incident to the transfer of our funds from Great Britain under present exchange conditions, advantage has been taken of the favorable market there and short-term securities with an average yield of 6.45 per cent. to the amount of $11,500,000 have been purchased in London. Forty-one per cent. of these are obligations of the British Government, the remainder being made up of various securities having in mind the heavy payments, $2,723,000, involved in another quarterly distribution of profits to policyholders. Usually the periods of division have left little margin of income for investment, but this year we have increased our investments on this account during the year we have never before. We have concurrently taken advantage of a rising market to add to assets in our history. The expansion lies in the increased income from all sources. Your assets have again been valued most conservatively. True, there are some items included on the price lists authorized by the Minister of Finance having in mind their permanency and

THE PRESIDENT'S ADDRESS Mr. HERBERT C. COX REVIEWS BUSINESS OF 1920 CANADIAN CONDITIONS FAVORABLE FOR FUTURE

In the early part of the year general business conditions continued much as they had been in the previous twelve months. Bank deposits were growing; commercial credits were increasing, although under keen scrutiny; manufacturers were placing enlarged orders for raw materials, wholesalers and retailers were striving to improve their working labor through the strike or less forcible means, was demanding and receiving higher wages; the cost of all commodities—necessaries as well as luxuries—was still holding at high level. In short, Government and the public were on guard, and the time was passing all the time protesting against the prices they were called upon to pay. In the early summer the realization seemed suddenly to come that the way to secure reduced prices was to cease buying. The thought came, and one commodity after another has felt the full force of public disapproval. As a result we were immediately plunged into that readjustment which had contemplated but had looked for somewhat later. The reaction was first felt perhaps in the motor trade, followed by leathers and textiles, and later others. As public buying ceased, cancellations—against which there appears to be no adequate protection—poured in upon the manufacturer who, in turn, where possible, passed them on to the producer of raw materials or ingredients. The stock markets, already affected, reflected the aggravated conditions, and the course of securities in general was markedly downward. The usual preparation for the moving of business from one organization to another in ordinary conditions, but in the early fall factors entered into the situation, bringing a more severe curtailment of facilities and a widespread decrease in activity. The inevitable laying off of labor, and the consequent distress, which has not yet felt the pinch, but latterly such employment has been more difficult and many skilled workmen find themselves partially or wholly out of work.

Health Conservation. There have been held in Canada during the past year many important conventions and conferences. Some of them looking to the betterment of the health of the Empire and kindred subjects, while others have had as their objective the conservation of public health. The latter is of moment to the life insurance companies, as anything which tends to impair the standard of health and morals bears directly upon their success. The companies themselves are endeavoring to give the national health through their medical examinations, which embrace a growing percentage of the population, and through the inclusion of various insurance companies. The examinations are brought under the supervision of the Government, and the results are reported to the appropriate authorities. The companies are also maintaining their own medical departments and placing their doctors at the disposal of their members without charge. All efforts bearing upon improved health, whether made by permanent or temporary agencies, are followed with keen interest by insurance executives. Fresh air, properly directed exercise and mental recreation are excellent aids in this direction which have been made available to our members through the medium of our military regiments and their prototypes in other countries. It is very desirable, apart altogether from the actual assistance in the form of natural resources and physical recreation, that every possible encouragement and support should be given to the Government in these respects, even though such support may and does entail considerable charge upon more than one pocket, and upon national health are well spent.

Housing Problems. Intimately associated with this question of health is the matter of proper housing facilities in town and country for ever-increasing populations. The Government, through its various departments, City Councils and Housing Commissions. In the meantime the life insurance companies in numerous individual cases by loans which enable the building of the home.

The Exchange Rate. The exchange situation and the causes leading up to it are so familiar to all that lengthy comment is undesirable, but it may be said in passing that the obvious remedy for Canada lies in the decrease of our purchases and the increase of our exports abroad. It is unfortunate that the capacity of Great Britain has recently not been such as to enable her to take her rightful share of the business offering from this country, as both would have benefited had it been possible for her to do so.

Effect Upon Loan Business. One effect of the adverse exchange and the high interest rates prevailing in Great Britain which will be increasingly felt in Canada is the possibility of retaining British monies borrowed by our loan companies upon their debentures for investment in mortgage loans in this country. The margin between the rates demanded in England and those obtainable on proper security here is so narrow as to render the profit on such transactions extremely small and unattractive. As a consequence the loan and other companies depending upon borrowed funds for their investment of sources must look in much greater measure to the increasing of their deposits and to the sale of their debentures at a rapidly changing rate. In the latter direction they will still be seriously handicapped for some years by the competition of long-term Government and municipal securities, which can only be obtained at unusually high yields. Without disparagement of these institutions, which are bearing the burden of a condition for which they are in no way responsible, it is fair to assume that they will not be able to keep up as they have done with the demands of a rapidly expanding country for mortgage loans or farm development. The other great source of supply for this purpose—the life insurance companies—will therefore have to be prepared to undertake a larger share of the business which has hitherto been the province of the banks and other financial institutions. It is not to be assumed that they will not be able to keep up as they have done with the demands of a rapidly expanding country for mortgage loans or farm development. The Western Crops. Weather conditions have affected crops in general, but the area under cultivation was somewhat smaller than in 1919. The winter was unusually severe, and stock losses were heavy. The winter crops, such as wheat, were generally better than last year, but the spring crops, such as corn, were somewhat smaller. The total crop of wheat was estimated at 1,000,000 bushels, and the total crop of corn at 500,000 bushels. GROUP INSURANCE Employees of Many Firms Now Insured in the Canada Life.

Notwithstanding payments to policyholders during the year amounting to $8,254,883, the assets were increased by $6,756,668. The assets of your company are in the very best class of investments. For instance, bonds of the Dominion and Provincial Governments now represent 22 per cent. of the total assets, having been increased by three million dollars during 1920. Mortgage loans, another very high class of investments, were also increased by three million dollars, and represent 33 per cent. of the assets. A particularly good feature of the year was a decrease in the percentage of loans on policies from 14.02 to 13.60 of the assets. While, of course, this is a perfectly good security, it is a satisfaction to note that policyholders appreciate the advisability of paying off their loans. Frequently a policyholder will pay off a little at a time, thus gradually reducing the indebtedness, and the Company is always ready to assist by accepting these annual payments whenever convenient. In the meantime, while the loan exists, there is an easy and convenient way, open to most policyholders in good health, to "insure" the loan, so that it will not be deducted from the face of the policy if death occurs within a certain time, and while the loan is being paid off. A letter to the Home Office at Toronto will bring particulars as to this.

This is another line of business which all the life companies active in Canada share in a common campaign of publicity to the public mind as to the value of life insurance. The Association of Provincial Insurance Superintendents held its thirty-first annual conference in Winnipeg in October, and invited the companies to join in their discussions. There is evident throughout the proceedings a desire to fully seized of all facts and suggestions bearing upon the business coming within their jurisdiction, and also a wish for uniform insurance legislation in all the Provinces, so far as may be possible. The indications are most encouraging, and it is felt that much more will be done in the future. The companies from both the Provinces and the United States are to be congratulated for their cooperation in this regard.

During the past year a large number of Companies have secured Group Insurance protection for their employees. Toward the end of 1920 the applications for Group Insurance were coming in at an increasing rate which bode fair for steadily-increasing volumes for 1921. The Group Policyholders of the Canada Life now include many varied branches of trade and industry, such as—Printing Plants, Lithographing, Leather Making, Furniture Manufacturing, Iron and Steel Foundries, Machinery, Jewellery, Rubber, Oil, Dry Goods, Boots and Shoes, and other lines of business; also special groups, such as Civic Employees, Club Employees, etc.

Nearly all employees have shown great interest in Group Insurance from the time this plan came to their attention. Many have welcomed the Group plan as a much-needed service for employees and their dependents. There are many employees unable to get personal insurance themselves. Many others are not insured because they do not fully realize their responsibilities to their dependents. The Group plan presents an opportunity to the employer to place them all in the insurable and insured class, as every worker and producer ought to be. It also serves as a reward for service and an incentive toward greater co-operation and better stability in employment. Group Insurance is appreciated by employees, particularly by the better and steadier class of workers, which is a class every employer wants to secure and to hold. Their appreciation grows when deaths occur and they see the funds paid to the widows and mothers, or other beneficiaries, who are generally in great need of the ready cash.

The Group contract of the Company has been drawn up to include every up-to-date feature that is of value to employer and employee. It is one of the most liberal contracts on the market. The premium rates are very low—the year's premium usually amounting to an average of two or three cents a day per employee for each $1000 insurance. There are no lower rates obtainable anywhere. When deaths occur the claims are paid promptly so that the fund becomes quickly available at a time when most appreciated. All employees who have joined their Group Insurance with the Canada Life are entirely satisfied with the service that the company is in a position to give. The business of providing Group Insurance for employees is likely to continue until all industries of any account are covered. It is being rapidly extended to include Government and civic employees in various parts of the country. Notwithstanding the present period of readjustment in values and the temporary depression in some lines of trade, it is constantly increasing in volume and amount. The new spirit of responsibility in industry to some extent accounts for this. There is abundant evidence of its appreciation by employees, and the verdict of most employers is that it has proven to be an important factor in stabilizing employment and improving relations between employer and employees.

LIBERAL MEETING

Ottawa, Jan. 22-The national Liberal organization committee yesterday afternoon considered plans of national organization and finance. Hon. George P. Graham attended the meeting and this gave rise to considerable comment in political circles.

AT PLEASANT POINT.

A very pleasant evening was spent at the Pleasant Point Sunday school hall on Monday, when the "Golden Rule" class and teacher, Mrs. Ernest Arbo, entertained W. Earle and class of small boys. Games and music were enjoyed, after which a bounteous luncheon was served to the kiddies by the class, assisted by several ladies of the Sunday school.

On account of the arrival of passengers for the Minnedosa, the full concert party was not present at the Seaman's Institute last evening, but a programme was rendered by Mrs. Seeley, W. Haines, W. G. Smith, J. Cody, P. Facey, F. Baker and J. Jones.

In the police court, yesterday afternoon, the Max Williams diamond pin case was further postponed until next Tuesday morning. The Theodore Saunders case, in which it is charged an annoyed woman on a train, was continued.

JAP TROOPS ARE CHARGED WITH MANY OUTRAGES

Shot and Burned Indiscriminately, Say Missionaries

Explanation by Imperial Staff Officer—Canadian Missionaries Investigate—Christian Males Shot and Bodies Burned—Outlawry is Charged by Japanese.

Tokio, Dec. 20.—(Associated Press Correspondence)—Charges that the Japanese troops sent into the Chinese district of Chientao, a Manchurian community just over the Korean border, indiscriminately shot hundreds of the villagers without semblance of trial, burned villages, schools, churches and crops, are made public by Canadian missionaries stationed in Manchuria and Korea.

Replying to these charges, Lieutenant Colonel Hata, of the Japanese Imperial staff, at the Japanese War Office said that the Japanese soldiers had burned churches and schools only after evidence had been obtained that they were being used as centers of intrigue by Korean malcontents.

One of the missionaries, Dr. S. H. Martin of Newfoundland, a physician attached to the Canadian Presbyterian Mission at Yongjung, who visited the village of Norabawie, on October 31, two days after the Japanese went through that district, states:

Cheapness in the disguise of Economy has often played havoc with an otherwise well appointed Tea Party.

"The facts recorded below apply to the whole district of Kando or Chientao, in the southern part of the province of Kirin, China.

"Japan, under the strongest protest from China has sent over 15,000 men into this part of China with the seeming intention of wiping out of existence, if possible, the whole Christian community, especially all young men.

"Village after village is daily being methodically burned and the young men shot, so that at present we have a ring of villages surrounding this city that have suffered from fire, wholesale murder or both.

"At daybreak a complete cordon of Japanese infantry surrounded the main Christian village of Norabawie, and, starting from the top of the valley, set fire to the immense stacks of unthreshed millet, barley and straw and then ordered the occupants of the houses to step forth, in each case as father or son stepped forth, he was shot on sight, and as he fell on his face, perhaps only half dead, great piles of burning straw were thrown on top of him.

"I was shown the blood marks on the ground caused by the bayonet thrusts inflicted on the men as they strove to rise from the flames, in spite of the fact that they had been shot three times at close range. The bodies were soon charred beyond recognition. The mothers, wives and even the children were forced spectators of this treatment of all the grown males of the village.

"As we approached the nearby villages we found only women and children and some white-haired men. The women with young babies on their backs were walking up and down wailing.

"Photographers among which were old men tearing their hair and crying while mothers and daughters were recovering bodies or unburied treasures from the burning ruins. So many women were crying and I was so angry at what I had seen that I could not hold my camera steadily enough to take a time exposure.

"We have names and accurate reports of 22 villages where murder and fire have been used. One village has had as many as 145 inhabitants killed. Houses have been burned with women and children in them. At Sonungung 14 were stood up in front of a large grave, then shot and their bodies destroyed with burning wood and oil. This is typical.

"A Canadian's Observation. The Rev. W. H. Foote, Canadian Presbyterian missionary at Yongjung, names several villages in which the homes, schools or churches of Christian natives were burned and says that in one of them 25 people were shot and the bodies burned. Those cases he declares are 'absolutely authentic,' the premises having been inspected by four missionaries and a custom officer.

Quoting Koreans as his authority, he says that 28 persons were shot and seven burned to death in their houses at Cheng San; that 50 were shot at Lin Tong Ja and that these were all Christian villages.

"The soldiers and commanding officer who go to these places," asserted Mr. Foote, "as a general thing have no conversation whatever with the people but do their diabolical deeds and pass on. Ku Sei Tong is the only place where any reason was given to the people at all for the action. A Korean accompanied the soldiers and told the people that the officers said he had evidence that the owner of the house had collected money for Korean patriotic purposes. If only the offenders suffered, even the Koreans would be seriously object; but it is because the perfectly innocent and helpless are done to death without even an opportunity to say a word in their own behalf that the injustice and hardship appears."

A Ghastly Scene. Describing the action of the Japanese soldiers at Kan Chang, Rev. Mr. Foote said that the young men of that village were "herded" front of a Korean house and without even a form of examination, shot down, 25 in all. Then the bodies were heaped together in two piles and covered with wood and a burned. While the fuel was being placed on them, some of the wounded still were able to raise but were beyondnetted to the ground and met their fate in the flames.

"I know these people well," Mr. Foote continued, "they live in an out-of-way place. The land was not fertile and firewood is scarce. They were a quiet hard working people, who struggled hard to make a living. Their church and school, their Bible and hymn book, their Sunday worship, and above all, their Saviour, were their joy. They were not patriotic soldiers and disapproval of the church taking part in politics."

Miss Emma M. Palethorp, of Ontario, a member of the Canadian Presbyterian mission at Yongjung, tells in her statement of the execution of five men from the village of Suchilgo, who she says, were led by the Japanese soldiers to the top of a hill about three miles from Yongjung and there put to death.

"In the top of the hill," she declares,

Smoke Master Mason It's good tobacco. MASTER MASON—ready rubbed—for those who like it that way is the same good plug tobacco cut and rubbed ready for the pipe—it is put up in tins and foil paper packages.

There is quite a large hollow not visible from the road or village. The victims were made to sit at the bottom of the hollow with their hands on their heads. It is reported by an eye witness that two swords were broken and then the awful work was finished with bayonets. Then the loose earth was pulled down from the sides of the hollow to cover the mutilated bodies.

He said he was confident that the Japanese soldiers had not been guilty of the barbarities with which they had been charged. A visiting clergyman was conducting an experience meeting at a colored church in the south, and a woman arose and bore witness to the preciousness of her religion as a light bringer and a comfort giver.

One man against six is the status in Vitagraph's Tom Terriss production, "Dead Men Tell No Tales." The six plotters blew up a sailing vessel to steal a cargo of gold from Australia. They made their plans carefully so that none of the several hundred passengers and crew could escape alive; but one man foiled the plotters. He tracked them to Rattray Hall and single handedly bested the lot. An all-star cast was engaged to make the picture, nearly all of whom are Londoners selected by Mr. Terriss, the eminent British producer.
