

HOME MANUFACTURE OF WINES PERMITTED IN DRY ENFORCEMENT BILL AGREED ON BY CONFERRERS

The 285 Liberalizing Amendments Made in Senate Are Accepted—$2,000,000 Fund Provided to Carry Out the Law—Burden of Proof on Government.

Washington, D. C., Friday.—The House and Senate conference on the prohibition enforcement bill reached a complete agreement Wednesday. The bill, which establishes one-half of one percent, as the maximum alcoholic content of beverages, was passed by the House July 22, and by the Senate September 5. The conference report will be acted on first by the Senate, to which it will be reported today and then sent to the House. The bill will be returned from conference without fundamental changes in its plans for district enforcement both of the war time prohibition law and the constitutional amendment by the Commissioner of Internal Revenue and the department of Justice. Provisions for manufacture and sale of industrial spirits and of spirits for sacramental and scientific use are retained but rigorous safeguards against manufacture and sale of drinks for any other purposes are provided.

The Senate conferees, however, succeeded in retaining virtually every one of the 285 liberalizing provisions adopted by the Upper House, which comprise mostly administrative features. The principal "liberal" amendment of the Senate permitting home manufacture and consumption of cider and light wines was approved as well as another Senate amendment extending application of the constitutional amendment to the Panama Canal zone.

In the principal conference dispute over imposition of the "burden of proof" in prosecutions, the Senate managers were successful, for the bill as agreed on provides that the government bear the "burden of proof" and prove its case in prosecuting those selling beverages by showing that the beverages contained more than the alcoholic limit of one-half of one percent. Manufacturers, however, as provided both by the House and Senate bills, must bear the burden of proof.

Nina Morgana Charmed Audience

Delightful Concert Given by Noted Singer at Imperial Theatre Last Evening—Programme of High Merit—A Musical Treat.

"First it was like a bird singing, then it was like the playing of a flute, then it was like the rushing of a glorious human voice with a soul behind it." This was one comment made upon the beautiful voice of Nina Morgana, the soprano of the Chicago Opera Association whose concert at the Imperial Theatre last evening proved an event of the greatest pleasure to all who were privileged to hear her.

The thanks of St. John are due A. C. D. Wilson and L. M. Leclair under whose management the concert was held for this musical treat.

The theatre was filled and while every number on the programme was heartily applauded, the perfect hush of appreciation which was most noticeable during the singing, spoke more loudly than even the applause.

The soloist is a coloratura soprano possessing a voice of peculiar clearness and freshness. Her technique is so remarkable that few except the musically trained would realize the years of study which lay behind the accomplishing of such a high level of performance.

The flexibility of her voice, the pureness of tone, the distinctness of enunciation and her interpretation are all wonderful. Her repertoire is perfect. While all the selections were beautiful, the Shadow Song from Dido was particularly lovely and Le Chte, an interpretation of dance moods on a poem of the 16th Century, was charming.

The playing of Alberto Bimboni, the accompanist, was marvellously sympathetic and it was clearly seen not only from his composition, Le Chte, but from his accompaniments that he is a thorough musician.

Mrs. Morgana, who has an attractive personality, was handsomely gowned and was generous with her smiles, giving four as well as the fourteen on the programme which follows: Nymphs and Shepherds, Purcell. I've been roaming, Horn. A pastoral, Cary. Le chte, Bimboni. "In quelle trine morbide" from "Mamma," Puccini. "The Song of the Mandolino," Bergamini. Shadow Song from "Dido," Meyerbeer. "Le bonheur est chose leger," Saint-Saens. Le printemps, Hahn. "Valser from "The Merry Widow," Gounod. He loves me, Chadwick. The Wee Butterfly, Mana Zucca. Behind the Hill-top, M. N. Redman. Welcome! Sweet Wind, G. W. Cud man. Alberto Bimboni, accompanist.

Gagetown, Oct. 2.—Gagetown people felt as if a new era had dawned when the "St. John train" came speeding around the cut and into the station here on Wednesday afternoon. Its three passenger cars glistening with paint and luxurious of green plush and plate glass. A number of passengers came up to Gagetown, including Mr. and Mrs. W. J. Fenton of Lower Gagetown, S. L. Peters, of Queensville, T. Sherman Peters and Miss Leaton, Mr. and Mrs. J. A. Alexander, whose marriage took place in St. John this week. STOMACH ON A STRIKE

"Pape's Diapensin" puts Sour, Gassy, Acid Stomachs in order at once!

Wonder what upset your stomach— which portion of the food did the damage—do you? Well, don't bother. If your stomach is in a revolt; if sick, gassy and upset, and what you just ate has fermented and turned sour; head dizzy and aches, back aches and acids and cruetate undigested food— just eat a tablet or two of Pape's Diapensin to help neutralize acidity and in two minutes you wonder what became of the indigestion and distress. If your stomach doesn't take care of your liberal limit without rebellion; if your food is a damage instead of a help, remember the quickest, surest, most harmless antacid is Pape's Diapensin, which costs so little at drug stores.

OBITUARY

Charles W. Belyea. News of the death of Charles W. Belyea of Kenora, Ont., came as a great surprise to his relatives at Glenwood, Kings Co., after an attack of pneumonia which lasted only six days. The deceased, who was 62 years of age, was born at Glenwood, being the youngest son of the late Benjamin Belyea of that place. In his early manhood he was employed on the river carrying deals from Nashuak when woodchests were used for that particular trade. About 35 years ago he decided to go to the west. He went as far as Kolora (then called Rast Portage) where he was very successful and became one of the leading men of that town. His first work was with the C. P. R., putting up telegraph poles and wires, and upon the completion of the line his ability was so strongly shown that he was appointed chief lineman of a large section of that company's lines, which position he held until about 10 years ago when he resigned his position and was afterward appointed inspector of lighting, which position he held up to the time of his death.

Mr. Belyea was one of the first aldermen of Kenora. He was well known along the river. He is survived by his wife, who was a Miss Brundage of Oak Point; one son, a student at McGill, and three daughters and one brother, Sylvester Belyea of Fredericton.

that burned shingles fell here and there in the town, and a dense cloud of smoke was observed on the horizon in the direction of the unfortunate village. Gagetown people are now planning to assist the people of Ormoco in any way that may be needed.

OUT OF COMMISSION.

The ringing current of the New Brunswick Telephone Co., Ltd., was on strike for a short time last evening. It was found that one of the wires had broken. Repairs were made and everything set right about half an hour after the break had occurred. About half the telephone bells in the city were out of commission for the time.

A NEW SYNAGOGUE.

At a meeting of Halifax Hebrew citizens held a few days ago plans had been prepared for the incorporation of a company to build a new synagogue with all necessary rooms for social welfare work. It was estimated that the sum of $20,000 would be required and on an immediate canvass for subscriptions to the stock of the company the sum of $12,000 was realized.

OMAHA SCENE OF LYNCHING NOW UNDER FEDERAL LAW

The above pictures show a couple of the scenes wherein Omaha citizens lost their grasp on law and order and resorted to the primitive law of death to the malefactor. In the Omaha case the victim of the mob proved to be a negro, and with him an accidental victim, a white man of twenty-three years. The Court House, valued at more than a million dollars, is a mass of ruins, due to the recklessness of the crowd. Mayor Edward F. Smith, thought by some to be a negro sympathizer, was a victim of the mob, and was for a time in danger of his life if thought by some to be a negro sympathizer, who wanted to lynch him. COUNTY COUNCIL MEETING HELD YESTERDAY AFTERNOON

Decided to Make Move to Have Medical Health Officer Take Over Duties of Coroner—Tearing Down of Old Court House Left to Buildings Committee—Endeavor to Have Nurses' Home Reconsidered Had Little Support

At the meeting of the County Council yesterday it was decided to make a move to have the medical health officer take over the duties of coroner and the question of tearing down the old court house before winter was referred to the building committee with power to act. Councillors O'Brien and Hayes tried to have the nurses' home reconsidered but did not find much support. It was decided to promote legislation enabling county associations for the charitable work of the Victorian Order of Nurses. The resignation of Alex. M. Corcoran, assessor for Moncton, was accepted. The warden announced that Coun. Bryant would not be able to act as assessor of the voters lists in Lancaster in the future, and a motion was adopted releasing him from that office and appointing Coun. O'Brien in his place. The secretary said Mr. Galt had sent in his resignation as parish clerk of Lancaster, and Win. Skymas was appointed in his place. Coun. O'Brien moved that Louis Simms be appointed to the Board of the St. John County Hospital in place of Coun. Bryant, who has resigned. This was adopted. The secretary announced that the county housing commission wanted an advance of $500 to carry on preparation work, the money to be returned. Coun. O'Brien moved that an advance of $500 be made, the money to be returned when the commission received funds from Fredericton. Coun. Carson—Are any houses being built or likely to be built in the near future? Coun. Bullock—The money would be needed for detail work. If things worked out as with the city they would not get the money from Fredericton till January. It was agreed to loan the housing commission $500. Coun. Fisher said the two housing commissions should get together and exchange ideas, but evidently they were not doing so. Coun. O'Brien said things at the public hospital were about to take a serious aspect. Owing to the shelving of the proposition to build a nurses' home, there had become a question of the efficiency of the hospital. Contractors said there was not much building in St. John this winter, and that the home could be built for $151,000. The hospital commissioners did not feel that they should bring up the matter again, but he thought the council should reconsider the matter. Coun. Bullock—There is no motion before the meeting. Are we going to adopt the preamble of the housing commission? Coun. O'Brien—I move for a reconsideration of the scheme to build a nurses' home. Coun. Bullock—Such a motion must be made by the mover and seconded of the motion to give the matter the three months' notice. What about this housing commission preamble? Secretary—It was adopted at the last meeting. Coun. Hayes submitted the report of the finance committee, Section 1 recommended that $10,000 be advanced to the St. John County Hospital for maintenance for the year 1919. This was adopted. Section 2 recommended that legislation be promoted at next session of the legislature enabling assessments to be made upon the county or any of the parishes for charitable purposes. Coun. Hayes said Mrs. Harold Mayes and Judge Forbes had urged a grant of $500 annually towards the payment of the salary of Victorian Order Nurses working in the Parish of Lancaster. At present the county had no money available for such a purpose. Coun. O'Brien said the Victorian Order Nurses would have to discontinue their work in the parishes unless they received some money for this year. He wanted the council to assure the Victorian Order that if they carried on with their work the county would come to their support. Coun. Fisher wanted to know if the proposed legislation would apply to all the parishes. Coun. O'Brien said his idea was that the county should assess $500 to be distributed for charitable purposes as required. Coun. Bullock—The plea before the finance committee was for Lancaster alone, but it was understood that provision should be made to help the nurses in their work all over the county. The recommendation was adopted. Section 3 recommended that the county treasurer advance $2,500 to the Lancaster Highway Board to complete repairs on highway from Milford to Barnhill's Corner. Adopted. Coun. Jones reported that a sub-committee of the finance committee had examined the coroner's accounts and recommended that they be paid. He complained, however, that the coroner had not made the declarations required before proceeding to conduct an inquest, and recommended that the law in this connection be rigidly enforced in future. The coroner's accounts covered a period from Jan. 10, 1917, to Jan. 2, 1919, and he was ordered to present his accounts promptly in future. The special committee having considered the coroner's inquest recommended that owing to the large expense involved, as in the Harris case, $107, and the apparently unnecessary duplication and repetition of evidence at preliminary examination in criminal cases, that the duties heretofore performed by the coroners be delegated to the medical health officer. Coun. Jones said the new health act made the district health officer the holder of his office as coroner and J. P. for his district. The health officer for this district received $5,000 a year, and he should conduct the inquests which now cost the county between $500 and $600 a year. Coun. O'Brien wanted to know how the proposition would affect the position of coroners under the present law. Would an investigation by the medical health officer cost less than now? Coun. Jones said he had no doubt the health officer was getting $5,000, and nobody could be buried without a permit from the Board of Health. If there was any suspicion about a death, the medical health officer should investigate, and it would not cost as much as present investigations. Coun. Bullock—We should go slow. Insurance companies want a rigid investigation of deaths. Coun. Jones—The proposition is only in the nature of a recommendation. The recommendation to promote legislation embodying the proposed change was adopted. The special committee recommended that (except when the statutes of the directors of the county call for the payment of money) all supplies be furnished on the order of the county treasurer and that a copy of the requisition and vouchers covering the receipts of the goods be returned with invoices to the county auditor. Coun. Thornton said they had bills before them for the removal of the old court house for three years. They were only for small amounts, but they showed there was a slipshod system. If the coroner or registrar had died, who would touch that the goods had been received? Coun. O'Brien—If there has been any easy money getting it must have been in the City of St. John. In Lancaster when officials of the Highway Board want anything they have to get a requisition from the councillor. Don't create the impression that county officials can buy anything they like without oversight. The recommendation was adopted. Coun. Thornton said he had been unable to get a quorum of the court house committee. He had gone into the matter carefully. The county was not suffering from a lack of a court house. But something ought to be done. If the old building was not to be torn down, he did not think the building could be repaired, and as there was lack of work in the city now, they should have the building torn down. To put a roof on the building would cost $1,500. He moved that tenders be called for the removal of the old court house, the bidder to have all the material. Coun. Carson said if they did not intend to repair the building it could be left as it is without harm till they know what they intended to do. The stone was valuable and should not be given away. Coun. Thornton—Much of the stone is very small. The building must come down in the interests of public safety. Coun. Hayes favored tearing down the building, but not giving the stone away. If it wasn't valuable, they would not get much for it from the contractor. If it was valuable they might sell it later. Coun. Fisher wanted to know if the building should be left as it is till they decided what to do. To Coun. Jones Coun. Thornton said he had a report from the building inspector that snow and ice would make the building dangerous. Coun. O'Brien said there is a great deal of material in the court house which could be used in building a nurses' home. (Hear, hear.) Coun. Fisher said any danger from snow and ice could be taken care of at small expense. Coun. Thornton said the building could not stay there as it is in this winter. If the county council did not do something as commissioner of safety he would assume responsibility. Coun. Fisher wanted the opinion of an expert. Coun. Thornton—I have the opinion of the building inspector, isn't that sufficient? Coun. Bullock wanted to know why Coun. Thornton had laid his cards on the table at the outset. Now he said that as commissioner of safety he considered the building dangerous and intended to act on his own account. That was enough. Coun. Jones moved in amendment that the matter be referred to the building committee with power to act. Coun. Thornton—It is hard to get that committee together. Coun. Bullock complained that Chairman Thornton did not give sufficient notice of a meeting. The amendment to refer the matter to the building committee was adopted. Coun. Hayes again brought up the question of the nurses' home, and said it should have serious reconsideration, though the council appeared to be in a humorous mood. Coun. Bullock said he had no desire to buck the matter, and was willing to consider new developments any time. Coun. O'Brien said he had a communication from the labor standpoint which said there was little building work in the city, and the erection of the nurses' home would provide needed employment. After some wrangling the matter was ruled out of order and adjourned.

IF KIDNEYS ACT BAD TAKE SALTS

Says Backache is sign that you have been eating too much meat. When you wake up with backache and dull misery in the kidney region it generally means you have been eating too much meat, says a well-known authority. Meat forms uric acid which overworks the kidneys in their effort to filter it from the blood and they become sore of paralytic and loopy. When your kidneys get sluggish and clog you must relieve them, like you relieve your bowels; removing all the body's uric waste, else you have backache, sick headache, dizzy spells, your stomach aches, tongue is coated, and when the weather is bad you have rheumatic twinges. The urine is cloudy, full of sediment, chameleon color get sore, water outside and you are obliged to seek relief two or three times during the night. Other causes a good, reliable physician at once or see from your pharmacist about four ounces of Salt-Salts; take a tablespoonful in a glass of water before breakfast for a few days and your kidneys will then act fine. This famous salt is made from the finest of gypsum and sodium bicarbonate, and has been used for generations to clean and stimulate sluggish kidneys, also to neutralize acids in the urine so the longer uric waste, thus ending bladder weakness. Salt-Salts is a life saver for regular meat eaters. It is innocuous, caters to the taste and makes a delicious, delicious little-water drink.

Finally Succeeds In Her Efforts

St. John Woman, After Trying for Three Years, Takes Tanlac—Proved a Blessing, She Says.

"Since Tanlac has done so much for me I can't help but think of others who need it like I did and I feel that I ought to tell them about it," said Mrs. Henry Ryan, who lives at 253 Duke street, St. John, New Brunswick, the other day. "I have been trying for three long years to find a medicine or treatment that would overcome my troubles," continued Mrs. Ryan, "but all my efforts failed me completely until I commenced taking Tanlac. I lost my appetite first of all, and just had to force myself to eat enough to keep me going. In a very short time I would have had spells of indigestion. Finally my stomach got in such bad condition that gas would form something awful in a short time after meals. In fact, this gas was so bad at times that it almost cut my breath off. At other times I would have terrible cramping pains in the pit of my stomach. I was very nervous, too, and rarely ever got a good night's sleep. These troubles just kept getting worse all the time, and I got so weak and run-down I was hardly able to do my housework. Nothing I did seemed to do me any good at all, and I was very much worried over my condition. One day I was telling one of my neighbors about my condition, and she told me that she felt just that way for a long time, and that Tanlac had entirely relieved her of the troubles, and advised me to lose no time in getting a bottle. Well, I took her advice and commenced taking this medicine that very day, and the great relief I have gotten so far is simply wonderful. I never had such an appetite in all my life, and can eat just anything I want without suffering afterwards. Everything I eat digests perfectly, and I am never bothered with gas forming or those cramping pains in the pit of my stomach. My nerves are in perfect condition and I sleep like a child every night. The whole truth of the matter is, I am in perfect health again, and I will gladly tell the whole world that Tanlac is responsible for it, and that it proved to be a great blessing to me. My entire system has been greatly built up, and I can just feel myself getting stronger all the time." Tanlac is sold in St. John by Ross Drug Co., and P. W. Munro under the personal direction of a special Tanlac representative—Advt.

WORLD MUST BE REMADE, SAYS SIR ELLIS W. HUME-WILLIAMS

"Up to English Speaking People to Remake It," He Tells Members of the Rotary Club—Appeals for Aid to Re-habilitate Russia.

"The world must be remade, and it is up to the English speaking people to remake it," said Sir Ellis W. Hume-Williams, a leading member of the English bar, and a recognized authority on international law, while speaking to members of the Rotary Club at a luncheon given yesterday at the McAlpin Hotel.

Sir Ellis praised the characteristic American hospitality. He said England wants to see the spirit of comradeship become international in scope.

"The world should be remade by the Anglo-Saxon race, and we should work together toward that end," said Sir Ellis. "We have a common language, a common ideal, and a common democracy. You bring youth, initiative, power of organization and a tried determination and courage. We have behind us the experience of centuries, and we have learned lessons from our own mistakes."

"No nation since the time of Greece or Rome has done more than America to win a war. In England we will never forget what you did during the struggle, and the new democracies are looking for your guidance."

Sir Ellis then spoke of the labor troubles, which, he said, invariably follow every war. He predicted that the labor troubles soon would pass.

"No revolution ever flourished in free countries," said the speaker, "and there is no fear that either in this country or in England. The moment that labor men push their demands too high they kill production and also kill their own trade and business."

Sir Ellis has come to the United States to strengthen the Anglo-American bond of friendship and to study American conditions. Prior to his speech Sir Ellis declared that Russia needs assistance from the Allies, otherwise it will become the prey of Germany.

"The idea of leaving Russia to work out her own salvation is as consistent as witnessing and allowing a man to kill his wife," said Sir Ellis.

Sir Ellis is at present a member of the Government Committee on the Breaches by Germany of the Laws of War, compiling evidence on which German officers and men are to be tried in England for cruelty to British prisoners.

"The Germans will be tried by court martial according to English military law," said Sir Ellis. The tribunal will have the power of pronouncing the penalty, but the German defendants will be allowed to be represented by counsel and to produce their own witnesses." Sir Ellis said the English people were much more interested in these trials than in that of the Kaiser.

NEW BRUNSWICK MAY NOT WANT WERNER HORN

Department of Justice at Ottawa Learns the German Agent Has Been Pronounced Insane.

Fredericton, Oct. 2.—Werner Horn, the German agent who blew up the international bridge on the main line of the Canadian Pacific Railway between McAdam, N. B., and Vancouver, Maine, on February 2, 1915, may not be returned here after all to stand trial in the Canadian courts for his crime.

Horn is being held by the United States authorities at Jersey City, N. J., for extradition to Canada on a charge of subversion, and his papers were recently forwarded to the State Department at Washington, where it was expected they would be signed without hesitance, so that he could be sent to Fredericton for trial in the courts here, his crime having been committed in York county.

Following the appearance of Horn before Commissioner Carpenter at Jersey City, when he admitted having blown up the bridge, word has now been received by Hon. J. P. Byrne, attorney-general of New Brunswick, from the deputy minister of justice at Ottawa, that Horn has been declared insane. The attorney-general has been asked whether under the circumstances he wants extradition proceedings carried along. It is understood today that the reply to be sent forward by Mr. Byrne will be that under the circumstances this province will not press for extradition. New Brunswick does not want any in sane Germans on its hands.

"JIM"

JIM was a lineman before the war. It was difficult to find a uniform broad enough across the shoulders for him when he "joined up" in 1914.

Jim found army discipline hard at first, but picked up the "war business" very quickly. He was one of the first of the "trench raiders," a Canadian contribution to the art of warfare. Jim seemed to bear a charmed life. Time after time in the dead of night Jim jumped into a German trench, spreading fear and disaster, and returned safe and sound.

But one fell night his luck gave out. He stepped into a stream of machine gun bullets. When consciousness came to him again, far in the rear of our lines, he was horrified to find his right leg missing.

During the ensuing months Jim's progress was—Clearing Station,—Boulogne,—"Blighty"—and Home—Canada!

The shock of the operation left Jim pretty weak for a time. He was content to sit idly in a chair in the sun. But this grew tiresome after a bit. When he began to think about getting back to work he realized that a lineman with an artificial leg was rather impractical. That was his trade. He had spent years at it. And now he was barred from following it.

At this critical juncture, the Department of Soldiers' Civil Re-establishment came forward and with knowledge and experience pointed the way out.

After long and earnest discussion, it was mutually decided that the nearest thing to his old trade was that of a telegrapher despatcher. If Jim couldn't any more string wires on the poles he could learn to send the messages over the wires that the other fellow put up. So under the direction of the D.S.C.R. telegraph instructor Jim studied and perfected himself as an operator. This accomplished, the D.S.C.R. quickly found him a position.

Jim is all right now. He's contented as only a man who works can be contented. He is earning more money than before. His enthusiasm is high for the D.S.C.R., which gave him the training whereby he is again an independent and prosperous citizen. After all, it was for Canada that Jim fought and suffered—and Canada is only too eager to repay Jim and every man impaired in body or health through service to his country.

The records of the Department of Soldiers' Civil Re-establishment contain endless details in the matter of re-training ex-soldiers—a disabled farm laborer is now a machinist; a carpenter who lost four fingers on his right hand is now a draughtsman at a good salary; a former plasterer is now a printer. So it goes—a long and interesting record of men deprived of limbs or impaired in health—equipped with training and knowledge, now following new and suitable trades.

This great nation-wide organization of the D.S.C.R. requires a considerable expenditure. To meet its expenses a part of the Victory Loan 1919 is to be used. But its maintenance, until every disabled ex-soldier is fitted with a vocation enabling him to earn for himself an adequate and independent living, is one of the most sacred obligations that Canada has to discharge. Support to the limit of your ability—the

CHICAGO WINS SIXTH GAME OF SERIES IN A SCRAP REPLETE WITH THRILLS AND LONG DRIVES

The person who was directed yesterday to slip up the pole at Redland park and measure it for the World's Champion batting, slid down the shaft a bit today and the measuring was postponed. The reason was that as the Chicago White Sox did not have today's game, for with it would have gone the championship, they became a lead of four runs, and by delivering one more rally in the tenth round won the game. Five runs to four for Cincinnati.

It was a contest replete with thrills and heartbreaks, varied by some wild holding, snappy base running, mighty clouds, mad catches, and, in short, practically everything relating to baseball. Cincinnati looked like a certain winner in the third and fourth rounds, in the course of which four Red Legs crossed the plate. In the fifth, however, the Sox turned two passes and a single into a rally, and in the sixth two doubles and two singles were the major factors in the three runs which tied the score. To Buck Weaver, sterling third baseman, who wielded a mighty stick in the game, fell the distinction of recording the winning run in the tenth. He was the first man up and doubled to centre, his second two-acker was hushed, and then began to chant encouragement to Ring, who had displaced Ruetheer as pitcher for the Reds. Jackson tried a bunt and missed, but on a second attempt the ball dribbled a few feet down the third base line, and while the ball was perfectly fished Jackson crossed the initial sack with time to spare. Weaver landing on third.

Felch, who had delivered two toughs in the sixth, struck out, but Gandil, who had previously delivered nothing, singled, and Weaver scored.

In their half of the tenth the Reds went out in order, and the day closed with the series standing four victories for Cincinnati and two for Chicago.

The Cincinnati team entered the field confident they had so drabbed the visitors that the last ounce of fight had departed from them. The latter, however, had been misled over the coin's unimpeachable fashion by Manager Gleason during the forenoon and they came on the field looking desperate rather than hopeful.

First Inning.
First half—J. Collins up. Ball 1, ball 2, ball 3, strike 1, strike 2. J. Collins opened hostilities by popping a high fly in back of second base that Rath captured. E. Collins up. Ball 1, ball 2, strike 1, strike 2. Roush came in fast and got E. Collins low fly. Weaver up. Foul strike 1, strike 2. Roush singled through Kopt into centre field. The Cincinnati shortstop could not quite get to it. Jackson up. Ball 1, ball 2, foul strike 1. Jackson sent an easy pop up to Groh. No runs, 1 hit, no errors.

Second half—Rath up. Strike 1, ball 1, ball 2. Rath hoisted to Rieberg on the third ball pitched. It was an easy out. Daubert up. Daubert bounded the first ball pitched to Kopt who tossed him out at first. Groh up. Strike 1, ball 1, ball 2, foul strike 2, ball 3. Groh doubled to right centre. It was a liner that landed between Felch and John Collins and was retrieved quickly by the latter. Roush up. Ball 1, ball 2, strike 1, strike 2. Roush singled to Rieberg but Groh was caught by over running third. Rieberg to Weaver. Roush's hit was over toward the second sack. No runs, 2 hits, no errors.

Third Inning.
First half—Schalk up. Ball 1, ball 2, strike 1. Ruetheer failed to get the ball over the plate. ball 3 Schalk walked. Kerr up. Ball 1. Kerr sacrificed Groh to Rath. Schalk going to second, it was a laid bunt. J. Collins up. He sent a high fly to Roush in short left centre. E. Collins up. Foul strike 1, strike 2. Duncan made a great running catch of Collins' liner in left centre. No runs, no hits, no errors.

Fourth Inning.
First half—Weaver up. Duncan took Weaver's line drive that went almost to the left field crowd. Jackson up. Rath went back almost to the grand stand and got Jackson's high foul. Felch up. Strike 1, foul strike 2. Felch singled through the box, the ball rolling to centre. Gandil up. Ball 1, ball 2, ball 3, strike 1. Kopt threw out Gandil stopping in time to get his grounder after starting for second. Cover the base. Felch went down. No runs, one hit, no errors.

Second half—Neale up. Neale tripped to right centre. There was an argument that Neale did not touch one of the bases but the umpires did not allow the claim. Rariden up. Rariden sent an easy bounce that E. Collins grabbed and tossed him out at first. Neale holding third. Ruetheer up. Ball 1, strike 1. Ruetheer doubled, Neale scoring. Ruetheer drove an easy one to Rieberg but the latter hit Ruetheer going to third. In his attempt to put him out and Ruetheer scored. Rath taking second. Rath stole third. Daubert up. Ball 1, ball 2. Daubert hoisted to Jackson and Rath was caught at the plate for a double play. It was a great throw of Jackson. Two hits, two runs one error.

Fifth Inning.
First half—Rieberg up. Ball 1, ball 2, ball 3, strike 1. Rieberg walked. Schalk up. Ball 1, foul strike 1, ball 2, ball 3. Schalk also walked. Kerr up. Ruetheer appeared to be becoming unsteady. Strike 1, Kerr singled advancing both runners a base. J. Collins up. J. Collins flew to Roush and the latter's throw was so fast that Rieberg, who had started for home, turned back and held third. E. Dope For Today In World's Series

Cincinnati, Oct. 7.—Pitching selections for the seventh game of the world's series scheduled for Redland Field tomorrow were shrouded in uncertainty tonight, but it was generally believed that Manager Gleason of the Sox would send Eddie Cicotte, although beaten twice against the Reds in a determined effort to again turn the tide of defeat.

Sallee, who defeated the Sox four to two in the second game of the series, probably will be Manager Moran's pitching choice although he may decide to give Luque, the Cuban twirler, a chance to face the Cincinnati Sox. Sallee was batted hard in the second game, the Sox getting ten hits but only scored in one inning. "Today's game was a heartbreaker for the Reds to lose," said Manager Moran tonight. "We should have won it half a dozen times. But the strain of the world's series is beginning to tell on my players and they were a bit unnerved, but they will regain themselves tomorrow and wind up."

Kerr pitched more balls than either Ruetheer or Ring. He demonstrated his gameness when he pitched himself out of a couple of tight places and got some erratic support. It is possible that he will start Sallee tomorrow.

"The Sox have hit their winning stride and although tremendous odds are against us we are far from out of the race," said Manager Gleason. "The players have begun to hit and it will be a different story from now on. They slugged everything Ruetheer or Ring had today and will do the same thing to Sallee if he pitches tomorrow."

(Sackville Tribune.)
Never in the history of Mount Allison has the number of residence students been so great. More than 150 are now in residence. Of this large student body two very encouraging elements are the great number of returned men present and the large freshman class, which numbers about fifty-five in all.

Such a large student body promises well for the football season and the presence of a few former football players adds more to the hopes already fast forming in the minds of the athletic inclined.

Among these former football players possibly the most noteworthy is "Cruger" MacAfee, the captain of the Mt. Allison football team of 1915. "Cruger" seems to be quite hopeful of speed. Taking it all in all Mount Allison is counting on giving a good account of herself in the coming intercollegiate sports.

Others matters of a routine nature were discussed at the meeting.

The Little Belgian Queen of Song Lakes Canada

Miss Alice Verlet, known in her own beloved country as the "Little Belgian Queen of Song," loves Canada and its people. But her thoughts will wander back to her other home, Mlle. Verlet was living in her lovely little house near Brussels when the war started. Of course she was obliged to flee and her home was being well wrecked by the Germans. Mlle. Verlet's piano, her furniture, her records were all destroyed with that pitiful efficiency the Germans displayed in such cases.

But the house where she lived with the Grand Opera Company in Paris had a very different kind of tenants. After Mlle. Verlet came to delight America with her singing, her Paris home was rented to some American officers who, she knows, will treat her cherished possessions with a far different spirit.

Mlle. Verlet's concert in the Imperial on Wednesday, October 22nd, is something to look forward to both for St. John music lovers and for the singer herself. For Mlle. Verlet loves the Canadians and enjoys singing for them.

Board of Health Regular Meeting

Matters of Much Importance Dealt With Last Night—Typhoid Outbreak, Precautions for Influenza Epidemic Among Matters Discussed.

Much important business was discussed yesterday at the regular meeting of the Board of Health, with Chairman Jean Kelly in the chair and G. E. Blake, Mrs. J. Hooper, Dr. J. H. L. Brown and Walter H. Golding also present.

Dr. Brown, district health officer, speaking with regard to the present typhoid outbreak stated that the disease was occurring practically altogether in houses where there was not proper sanitary conveniences, notably at Clarence street and Alton street, near the Courtenay Bay cotton mill property, also in some badly housed districts near the sea front. He showed by red tacks on a sewerage system map of the city where the disease was most common, and at the time of making the report it was pleasing to state that the West End was practically immune.

Addressed Members Of Canadian Club

Last Evening Gilbert Grosvenor Told What National Geographical Research is Doing and Gave His Impressions of Maritime Provinces.

Gilbert Grosvenor, managing editor of the National Geographical Magazine, Washington, D. C., delivered a very enjoyable address before the Canadian Club last evening in Bond's, telling the members what the national geographical research is doing, and his impressions of the maritime provinces.

Mr. Grosvenor, for the past twenty years has spent his summers at the Bras d'Or Lakes, Cape Breton, and has travelled extensively throughout Nova Scotia and New Brunswick, so his statement is important that St. John has a natural sea front, that the streets and squares of the various towns have real grace, that the New Brunswick game laws are patterns for the entire continent, and that the waterfalls, rivers, lakes, bays, coastal scenery and other natural advantages are attractions equal to any afforded in North America and superior to the much-advertised resorts of the Old Country. He appreciated the appeal that had been made by J. T. Hawke, of the National Geographical Magazine, before an other local audience, when that gentleman advocated an advertising campaign for these garden provinces. The names of the Canadian railways, representing but 30 per cent of the capital that the country has received from its tourist traffic.

Y.W.C.A. Convention Closed Yesterday

Visiting Secretaries Delivered Excellent Addresses Yesterday Afternoon — Public Meeting Held in Red Triangle Rooms Last Evening

The members of the Board of Directors of the Young Women's Christian Association had the benefit of listening to three splendid talks yesterday from the three visiting Secretaries, who spoke on "What Share the Association Has in the Reconstruction of National Life," "The Field of the Association," and "Aims and Policy of the Association." These addresses were helpful and inspiring. After the meeting a quiet hour was spent.

A public meeting in connection with the sessions of the council was held last evening in the Red Triangle rooms, and brought to a close a successful convention. Miss E. S. Jones presided. The meeting was divided into four groups and heard interesting talks on the work of the association. Miss Harcourt led the physical culture group and spoke of the great influence this work had on the girls. As women are now to have the vote, the speaker urged that girls and women should study the laws of the country, especially those relating to the curfew and those respecting minors. Miss Harcourt also spoke of well-balanced meals, the care of the hair, the skin and other matters relating to good health.

Miss Jones spoke of the mental side of the association work and urged the need of cultivating the eyes to observe. She also asked that a study of good poetry be made. The memorizing of good poetry was also good for the development of the mind.

The meeting closed with the singing of a hymn.

Addressed Members Of Canadian Club

Last Evening Gilbert Grosvenor Told What National Geographical Research is Doing and Gave His Impressions of Maritime Provinces.

Gilbert Grosvenor, managing editor of the National Geographical Magazine, Washington, D. C., delivered a very enjoyable address before the Canadian Club last evening in Bond's, telling the members what the national geographical research is doing, and his impressions of the maritime provinces.

Mr. Grosvenor, for the past twenty years has spent his summers at the Bras d'Or Lakes, Cape Breton, and has travelled extensively throughout Nova Scotia and New Brunswick, so his statement is important that St. John has a natural sea front, that the streets and squares of the various towns have real grace, that the New Brunswick game laws are patterns for the entire continent, and that the waterfalls, rivers, lakes, bays, coastal scenery and other natural advantages are attractions equal to any afforded in North America and superior to the much-advertised resorts of the Old Country. He appreciated the appeal that had been made by J. T. Hawke, of the National Geographical Magazine, before an other local audience, when that gentleman advocated an advertising campaign for these garden provinces. With regard to the suggestion of Dr. Mabel Hanington, Mrs. Hooper was in favor of having teachers' classes where lectures along hygienic lines would be given, later to be given to the school children in the form of entertaining stories.

Dr. Hanington wrote concerning a free dental and optical clinic for the school children, the doctor stating that some 20 school children per month fall in their attendance through imperfect vision.

In this connection it was stated that several local dentists were willing to give their services free when the clinic opened.

Twenty dollars was voted towards the rental of a child welfare film to be used by Dr. Roberts, minister of health, at a meeting of the Women's Institute.

With regard to the uniforms of the High School Cadets, it was thought that Colonel Shaw, inspector of cadets, be asked to confer with the cadets themselves regarding the matter of using the discarded military uniforms. The usual financial routine business was transacted and one man from Brussels street was heard regarding a prosecution of his case for violating the sanitary by-law.

Pyrene liquid is a chemical of purely organic materials, having an aromatic odor and a high specific gravity. As it touches the fire Pyrene liquid is converted into a dense white gas blanket, which surrounds the fire and smothers it instantly.

Pyrene is non-damaging and non-corrosive. Pyrene does not freeze at 70 degrees F. below zero, and is good until used, because it does not deteriorate, neither does it evaporate, being enclosed in a sealed cylinder.

The Pyrene Extinguisher is easily operated and may be refilled as easily as a kerosene lamp.

Paris-Inspired Chapeaux

The intangible "little touch" gives your chapeaux "chic." Perhaps it is a striking color-note—a bit of orange, oddly tucked in under the brim—or an unusual line or quirk to brim or crown. Be it these or any others, that touch is the work of the artist, and stunning hats are, indeed, the handiwork of clever fingers and artistic imagination.

We invite your inspection today of our large collection of Charming Hats. Our Messrs. H. G. and J. H. Marr personally selected them in New York last week and they certainly are most charming hats, only the one of each style too.
