"Suppressed United Ireland" Once

ion of the Conservative Candidate or Nottingham—Parnell's Name Struck off the List of Edin-burgh's Citizens.

A Conservative Elected. (Conservative) was returned for Notting ham. He received 4.381 votes against 3,653 for Mr. Mellor (Liberal).

5,555 for Mr. Meilor (Liberal). *Suppressed United Iroland" Suppressed.

DUBLIN, Dec. 16.—Upon the application if counsel, acting on behalf of Parnell's dherents, the court here has granted an attroductory injunction restraining the ublication of the paper Suppressed United reland.

The Pope Going Into Politics.

ROME, Dec. 16.—The Pope has appointed a commission to organize and direct the movements of Catholic societies in Italy. This action is regarded as indicating the Pope's intentions, are to take a more active part in politics.

EDINBURGH, Dec. 16.—The action of the town council in striking Parnell's name off the list of citizens of the town was taken at a full council meeting to-day and the resolution for the erasure of his name was ordered unanimously.

Leaped for Their Lives.

Dublin, Dec. 16.—The Royal Hotel at Kilke, county Down, was burned last night. The proprietor and his family occupied rooms on the upper floor and could not descend by the stairs. One lad who was thrown from a window by his father was caught by a man on the ground, and escaped without injury. The proprietor and his wife then jumped. They received slight injuries. One girl jumped from an upper window and was so badly hurt that she will die. Other occupants were rescued with ladders.

The New Antt-Parnell Organ.

And the stands of the stands o

to make men like Dillon, O'Brien and Sexton a holocaust on the altar of his lust. He boasted that he could expel the 53 Justinians (McCarthyites), but he had undertaken a big contract. Mr. Healy accused Mr. Parnell of prostituting the fund for evicted tenants to employ hireling boys to break his opponents' skulls. Parnell was showing wonderful zeal and activity now, but where had he been the last five years? (A voice—"With Kitty." Laughter.) Continuing, Mr. Healy said that during that time Irish members, sorely pressed, had often come to him, saying: "For God's sake let's go to Parnell'; and he had had to confess his ignorance of Parnell's address. The only man that knew was Capt. O'Shea. (Laughter) When Smith-Barry was evicting tenants Mr. O'Brien spont days in London hunting for "Mr. Fox." Then, in desperation, he was compelled to beg Mrs. O'Shea to give him Party men.

beeking him to impart Gladstone's decision.

The Antis Jubliant.

Dublin, Dec. 26.—The anti-Parnellites are feeling very jubilant on general principles and on account of a dispatch received from Father Murphy, of Kilmanagh, announcing he had joined their forces, though a few days ago he was considered a fierce Parnellite. The rumor of a Conservative candidate is unfounded. The Tories are working hard for Mr. Parnell, even women, foremost among whom is the Marchioness of Ormonde.

THE STINSON CASE.

A New Way to Pay Old Debts-Stinson on the Stand.

[Special to the Advertiser.]

Hamilton, Dec. 16.—The Stinson election trial began this morning at 9 o'clock.

Mr. Stinson was examined by Mr. Osler as to his dealings with Col. Collier, who proposed to pay his old debts by betting on the election. He admitted having interviews with Collier with reference to the matter, but denied that he agreed to reimburse Collier if he was elected. He understood the colonel was to work for him in the ordinary way. He came dangerously near admitting that Collier acted as an agent.

Frank Fitzgerald, secretary of the Conservative Association, was being examined when the court rose for dinner.

town council in striking Parnell's name off the list of citizens of the town was taken at a full council meeting to-day and the resolution for the erasure of his name was ordered unanimously.

The Koch Remedy.

Berlin, Dec. 16.—Wm. Degan, the consumptive patient who was brought here by Dr. Wm. A. Taltavail, of New York city, has been admitted to the Augusta Hospital. He is under the treatment of one of Koch's assistants. Dr. Einborn is on his way to New York with five bottles of lympth for use in the German Hospital.

It is stated that Dr. Cornet receives 10,000 marks daily for treating patients according to the Koch method at his private clinic.

ALDERMEN AND CIVIC REFORM. The proposition to reduce the wards of the city from six to three will be voted upon by the people of London at the coming municipal elections.

When the matter was brought under the attention of the Council last night, by the agency of a petition signed by over 1,600 taxpayers, there was a good deal of squirming on the part of certain aldermen, who seem to have the notion that the citizens who desire to ascertain the opinion of the people on this civic reform are engaged in a plot to get rid of the whole of the present

Board of Aldermen.
As we understand the facts, the Board of Trade and the citizens who agree with them that the time has come for the taxpayers to take action entertain no such idea as is credited to them by the aldermen who exhibited so warm a degree of temper in the Council Chamber. It may be that a reduction in the number of wards would result in the relegation to private life of more than one of these fearful aldermen, but the community would survive the calantity. The people must be permitted to judge what is best for them both as regards the number of the wards and the personnel of the Board of Aldermen. In any case, the change can, at the connectivens as are available for the people will be able to pick and choose use of clickes and some citizens as are available for the people will be able to pick and choose use of clickes and a party question, unless the petition proceedings last night was the people will be able to proceedings last night was the performance upon it. Some aldermen and some citizens, we find, are opposed to this reform. It may be acknowledged the some of the council for some aldermen and some citizens, as signed by citizens of the request is a unanimously indoned by those entitled to pronounce upon it. Some aldermen and some citizens, we find, are opposed to this reform. It may be acknowledged the some of the council for some aldermen and some citizens, we find, are opposed to this reform. It may be acknowledged the content of the wards of the extension of the council proceedings last night was a party question, but in that sense this is a party question, but in that sense this is a party question, but in that sense this is a party question, but in that sense this is a party question, but in that sense this is a party question, but in that sense this is a party question, but in that sense this is a party question, but in that sense the form of the council from the people will be able to promone upon it. Matters of Municipal Reform Before the City Council.

The Ward-Reduction Scheme Evokes Warm Discussion.

Ald. O'Meara Talks About "Flanne! Mouthed Scandal-Mongers."

License-Reduction, Ward-Reduction and the Frontage-Tax System To Be Voted on by the Electorate.

The citizens' petition asking that the aldermen submit to the ratepayers the uestion whether or not the wards of the question whether or not the wards of the city should be reduced to three caused considerable discussion in the Council Chamber last evening. The preyer of the petitioners was finally granted, subject to the opinion of the city solicitor touching the legality of the reduction. In introducing the matter Assistant City Clerk Kingston read the following letter from Mr. T. Herbert Marsh, which explains itself:

To his Worship the Mayor, and Aldermen of the city of London. Gentlemen:
I herewith beg to send you one of the largest petitions ever presented to a municipal council in this city, respectfully asking that you will submit to the electors at the coming elections the following question: Shall the number of wards in the city be reduced to three?

I may add that though this petition has been signed not only by business men and may be on signed not only by business number of the workingmen, and had there been greatly increased. I trust, therefore, you will submit the question either by bylaw, or otherwise, as you may deem best; and should there be any doubt of the legality of

Ald. Anderson then moved that the consideration of the petition be deferred for another week.

A question, but in that sense alone. The petition presented to the Council, which was signed by citizens of every class in the comminity, without respect to their social standing or proclivities in national polities, is the best possible justification for the belief that the movement is no more a party movement in the sense insinuated by the aldermanic objectors than is the movement for the reduction of liquor licenses. The Advertiser favors the people pronouncing on the proposition because of its merits, and our contemporary the Free Press no later than the 14th November last, gave its unqualified adherence to the movement. In its issue of that date the Free Press thus delivered itself:

"The true remedy for the money leakages is to reform not so much the personnel of the Council as the ward system ander which the pressure toward expenditure is fostered. Reduce the number of wards. Have three instead of six, or, better still, but one, with three to five aldermen, who would answer for the purpose of a general commission."

Ald. Anderson then moved that the consideration of the petition be deferred for another week.

A question was raised whether the act of Parliament respecting the amalgamation of South London would affect the proposed in the armore respecting the amalgamation of South London would affect the proposed in the system and row division of the wards other city. Ald. Jones contended that as far as No. 6 ward was concerned the petition proposed the right and proper thing. "Ald. Anderson the wards of the city. THE COUNCIL DEFENDED.

Anderson the amalgamation of Parliament respecting the amalgamation of Parliament respecting the amalgamation of South London wo the citizens' petition now suggests, the free Press reached this conclusion of the whole matter:

"Until this is done, not only will the best men not go to the Council, but there will be no let up in the potty outgoes with a large aggregate, no matter who is in control."

The weakness of the opponents of the reform here pleaded for is exemplified by their attempt to lead into false issues.

PERSONAL AND GENERAL.

—A New York specialist, who has just ceturned from a visit to Dr. Koch, says emphatically to consumptives: "Don't go to Berlin. Just now it is, of all places, the place to keep away from."

Have nothing to say personally against them. They have done one great job, and the engineer apent over one-shird of his time at the work. —Potato growing from."

—Potato growing experiments in France show that the erop from whole seed is about 700 pounds per acre more than that from out seed, allowing for the difference in weight between the two sorts. The moral is plain that the best results in potato growing are to be obtained by using uncut potatoes for seed.

—The election for Kilkenny, which will show the strength or weakness of Parnell, takes place on Monday next. Sir John Pope Hennessy is the candidate who opposes Parnell's programme. It will be supported by Mr. Vincent Scully, who has the sympathy of the Tories, but they are avery short crop in the region.

Fred E. Anderson, oldest and only son of the Wyoming postmaster, who left therefour years ago for the West, arrived unexpectedly at his parents Friday evening, giving them a pleasant surprise. Since loaving there he has visited Denver, Omahan and other Western cities, and for some ime past has resided in Pomona, Cal, here he is doing well. On his way home visited New Orleans, Mexico and thern cities. He intends remaining e until February.

ing the petition is that the old Tories may be crowded out of the Council. There are some old chaps in there, they say, that cannot be got out any other way—such men as Skinner. Boyd, Taylor, Wallace and Bartlett. I am opposed to the measure, but think it only right that the petition should be handled by the people."

Ald. Thomas unburdened himself of a long complaint respecting the usage of the Council by the press. "It was stated time after time," he said, "in this Council Chamber that the price paid by this Council Chamber that the price paid by this Council Chamber that the price paid by this Council of 29½ and 29½ cents per night per light for electric lighting was the cheapest light in Canada. This statement never appeared in the papers. There was a nigger in the fence. It has been charged that the aldermen's hands had been greased. That the awarding of the electric light contract was one of the paid jobs. I would like to see the statement in the papers now." In support of his complaint he recited a story of the inaccuracies of the Free Press. "There are two places of amusement in the city. At one of them an entertainment was announced and one of the bands engaged. It rained, however, and ment in the city. At one of them an enter-tainment was announced and one of the bands engaged. It rained, however, and the band's engagement was canceled, but in the morning Free Press I read a third of a column describing how the band discoursed sweet music and everybody was pleased. A similar thing happened at a different place on Saturday afternoon, and on the follow-ing Monday morning the Free Press con-tained an account of how the band played and how the people enjoyed themselves." and how the people enjoyed themselves."
Ald. Bartlett recorded himself as opposed

Ald. Wallace took a different view of the matter. "I am in favor of granting the request of the petitioners. If there has not been some grievance there would be no petition here. The way in which the taxes have been run up has given cause for com. ve been run up has given cause for com-

And. Anderson said that he was opposed to the granting of the request because of the way in which the thing had been sprung upon the Council. He contended that not one-tenth of the people signing the petition knew what they did.

Public Meeting of the London West State of the problems and of the problems of the Complete of the Complete of the Complete of the Complete of the State of the S to the people quite right. They were there to watch over the public interests and did not think such would be forwarded if they complied with the petition. It was quite plain the ratepayers would not be benefited by amalganation. Their rate of taxation would be much higher and their poperty would not be increased $1 is value.

A Voice—We would have water and fire protection.

Continuing Mr. Spence said they had all the water they wanted. He, for one, would be willing to go in for amalgamation if reasonable terms could be procued. As to the requisition, the councilors understood the question better than those signing. It was different from the prohibition petition. The latter left the matter to the votes of the people, but the other case meant union with the city.

Mr. D. C. Macdonald—Talk a little sense. That bylaw would have been submitted to the people—and carried, too.

Mr. Spence held there was no parallel between the cases at all. The Council was prepared to stand or fall by their actions. "Then fall!"

Mr. Spence—There was not much to fall from. They had served the best interests of the village, and he contended they had sawed London West $1,000 on that action. Some cross-firing started between the speaker and Mr. W. Smith. Mr. Spence remarked casually that Mr. Smith would querrel with his own mother; that he whole was an old blather. Mr. Smith would have been astisfactorily advantageous circumstances; the bungling extravel the sort of their and a pood word for anybody, and an electric light, would not be provided to the peaker and Mr. W. Smith. Mr. Spence was called the municipal ship, they had found things in bad shape with a bank account of $600 on gainst them and nelectric light, would have the condition of the case of the provided of the peaker of the peaker of the able for the debt of the village as anything eise.

Treasurer Nichol (excitedly)—Does Mr. Bartram say that the statement furnished by the treasurer is incorrect or that the builders and contractors greased their fingers?

Mr. Bartram said the school cost too much. There was some talk about contracts which were higher than others being accepted.

much. There was some talk about contracts which were higher than others being accepted.

Mr. Wm. Smith stoutly affirmed that if last year's Council had managed the civic affairs the past year, the village would have been bankrupt. He considered Mr. Duff as one of the straightest fellows in the Council. More united work was needed in the local legislative body, however. Mr. Smith resumed his seat amidst applause.

Mr. Spence started on the smalgamation requisition business again. He was sure many who had signed it did so under the impression that it only called for a public meeting. They were conserving the interests of the ratepayers in not then submitting it to a vote.

Mr. Macdonald maintained the Council had no voice in the matter at all. As soon as the perition was presented it was their duty to put it to the people to vote on.

Chairman Ramsey, of the Board of Health, knew perfectly well what he was signing when he attached his name. He did not see why they should not entertain it and then grant the prayer of the prohibition petition. The Council had done very well with that exception.

Mr. Lacey said there were only two in favor of it at a public meeting.

Mr. Macdonald moved a hearty vote of thanks to Reeve Lacey for the efficient manner in which he had filled the position of reeve and acted as chairman for the evening. Carried unanimously.

of reeve and acted as chairman of reeve and acted as chairman of the large. Carried unanimously.

Reeve Lacey made a suitable reply and the meeting broke up.

"Run down when you have half, a day to spare, for the hours drag on so dearly. Oh. Cytherea, you can't think how drearly!" She went. Immediately on her departure, Miss Aldelyne sent a note to the Old House, to Manston. On the maiden's return, tired and sick at heart as usual, she found Manston at the station awaiting her. He asked politely if he might accompany her to Kuapwater. She tacitly acquiesced. During their walk he inquired the sparticulars of her brother's illness, and with an irrestible desire to pour out her trouble to someone, she told him of the length of time which must elapse before he could be strong a again, and of the lack of comfort in lodguagath, and of the lack of comfort in lodguagath. Manston was silent awhile. Then he said impetuously: "Miss Gray, I will not mimee matters—I love you—you know it. Stratagem is fair in love, and I am compelled to adopt it now. Forgive me, I cannot help it. Consent to be my wife at any time that may suit you—any remote day you may name will satisfy me—and you shall find him well provided for."

For the first time in her life she truly dreaded thus selfishly, and shrank from the not voluptuous nature of his passion for her, which, disgulse it as he might under a quiet and polished exterior, at times radiated forth with a scorching white heat.
