The Best Missionary Meeting I ever attended, was what one said concerning our last Missionary meeting. Those who allowed the rain to keep them away missed a blessing. Next month the Missionary Committee of the B. Y. P. U., have charge. They are expecting a returned Missionary to address the meeting. We may look forward to an interesting service.

The following of our young people took teacher's certificates at the last annual examination: Grade C, Frank Layton, Olie Smith, Sadie Richardson; Grade B, Harry Bentley, Ernest Haverstock; Grade D, Lulu Wiswell. We congratulate them on their success.

Our young Bro., Ernest Haverstock, is in charge of the public school at Penant, in this County.

Church Members ought always to be alive to the importance of interesting every one in the work of the Church. As members, our constant aim should be to build up the church. Always speak well of your church. Don't allow others to speak ill of her in your presence. Stand by your church, and do not follow her afar off. That is the way Peter went astray. Stir up your church to deeds of love and greater service, but never stir up envy or strife. It is usually the members who do the least that make the most trouble. The Church of Jesus Christ needs whole hearted service. Be one such church member.

Are you interested in Mission Work? Do you read Sec'y. Manning's articles in the "Messenger and Visitor" each week?
