BILL.

An Act to facilitate the performance of the duties of Justices of the Peace, out of Sessions, in Upper Canada, with respect to Summary Convictions and Orders.

WHEREAS it would conduce much to the improvement of the administration of justice within that part of this Province called Upper Canada; so far as respects Summary Convictions and Orders to be made by Her Majesty's Justices of the Peace therein, if the several Statutes and parts of Statutes relating to the duties of such Justices in respect of such Summary Convictions and Orders were consolidated, with such additions and alterations as may be deemed necessary, and that such duties should be clearly defined by positive enactment: Be it therefore enacted by the Queen's Most Excellent Majesty, by and with the advice and consent of the Legislative Council and of the Legislative Assembly of the Province of Canada, constituted and assembled by virtue of and under the authority of an Act passed in the Parliament of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland, and intituled, "An Act to re-unite the Provinces of Upper and Lower Canada, and for the Government of Canada," and it is hereby enacted by the authority of the same, That in all cases where an information shall be laid before one or more of Her Majesty's Justices of the Peace for any territorial division in Upper Canada, that any person has committed or is suspected to have committed any offence or act within the jurisdiction of such Justice or Justices of the Peace, for which he is liable by law, upon a Summary Conviction for the same before a Justice or Justices of the Peace, to be imprisoned or fined, or otherwise punished; and also in all cases where a complaint shall be made to any such Justice or Justices, upon which he or they have or shall have authority by law to make any Order for the payment of money or otherwise, then in every such case it shall be lawful for such Justice or Justices of the Peace to issue his or their Summons (A), directed to such person, stating shortly the matter of such information or complaint, and requiring him to appear at a certain time and place, before the same Justice or Justices, or before such other Justice or Justices of the same territorial division as shall then be there, to answer to the said information or complaint, and to be further dealt with according to law; and every such Summons shall be served by a Constable or other Peace Officer, or other person to whom the same shall be delivered, upon the person to whom it is so directed, by delivering the same to the party personally, or by leaving the same with some person for him, at his last or most usual place of abode; and the Constable, Peace Officer, or person who shall serve the same in manner aforesaid, shall attend at the time and place, and before the Justices in the said Summons mentioned, to depose, if necessary, to the service of the said Summons: Provided always, that nothing herein mentioned shall oblige any Justice or Justices of the Peace to issue any such Summons in any case where the application for any Order of Justices is by law to be made ex parte: Provided also, that no objection shall be taken or allowed to any information, complaint or summons, for any alleged fact therein, in substance or in form, or for any variance between such information, complaint or summons, and the evidence adduced on the part of the informant or complainant at the hearing of such information or complaint as hereinafter mentioned; but if any such variance shall appear to the Justice or Justices present and acting at such hearing to be such that the party so summoned and appearing has been thereby deceived or misled, it shall be lawful for such Justice or Justices, upon such terms as he or they shall think fit, to adjourn the hearing of the case to some future day.

Preamble.

Where an information is laid or a complaint made before a Justice of the Peace, that a party has committed an offence, such Justice may issue a Summons to such party.

No objection allowed for want of form.

If Summons be not obeyed, Justice may issue Warrant,

II. And be it enacted, That if the person so served with a Summons as aforesaid shall not be and appear before the Justice or Justices at the time and place mentioned in such Summons, and it shall be made to appear to such Justice or Justices, by oath or affirmation, that such Summons was so served, what shall be deemed by such Justice or Justices to be a reasonable time before the time therein appointed for appearing to the same, then it shall be lawful for such Justice or Justices, if he or they shall think fit, upon oath or affirmation being made before him or them, substantiating the matter of such information or complaint to his or their satisfaction, to issue his or their Warrant (B) to apprehend the party so summoned, and to bring him before the same Justice or Justices or before some other Justice or Justices of the Peace in and for the same territorial division, to answer to the said information or complaint, and to be further dealt with according to law; or upon such information being laid as aforesaid for any offence punishable on conviction; the Justice or Justices before whom such conviction shall have been made may, if he or they shall think fit, upon oath or affirmation being made before him or them substantiating the matter of such information to his or their satisfaction, instead of issuing such Summons as aforesaid, issue in the first instance his or their Warrant (C) for apprehending the person against whom such information shall have been so laid, and bringing him before the same Justice or Justices, or before some other Justice or Justices of the Peace in and for the same territorial division, to answer to the said information, and to be further dealt with according to law; or if where a Summons shall be so issued as aforesaid, and upon the day and at the place appointed in and by the said Summons for the appearance of the party so summoned, such party shall fail to appear accordingly in obedience to such Summons, then and in every such case, if it be proved upon oath or affirmation to the Justice or Justices then present, that such Summons was duly served upon such party a reasonable time before the time so appointed for his appearance as aforesaid, it shall be lawful for such Justice or Justices of the Peace to proceed ex parte to the hearing of such information or complaint, and to adjudicate thereon, as fully and effectually to all intents and purposes as if such party had personally appeared before him or them in obedience to the said Summons.

Or may issue Warrant in the first instance.

Or if Summons having been duly served, be not obeyed, the Justice may proceed ex parte.

Warrant to be under Hand and Seal of Justice. To whom it shall be directed.

III. And be it enacted, That every such Warrant to apprehend a Defendant, that he may answer to such information or complaint as aforesaid, shall be under the Hand and Seal of the Justice or Justices issuing the same, and may be directed to all or any of the Constables or other Peace Officers of the territorial division within

- which the same is to be executed, or to such Constable and all other Constables within the territorial division within which the Justice or Justices issuing such Warrant hath or have jurisdiction, or generally to all the Constables within such last mentioned territorial division; and it shall state shortly the matter of the information or complaint on which it is founded, and shall name or otherwise describe the person against whom it has been issued, and it shall order the Constable or other Peace Officer to whom it is directed, to apprehend the said Defendant, and to bring him before one or more Justice or Justices of the Peace, as the case may require, of the same territorial division, to answer to the said information or complaint, and to be further dealt with according to law; and that it shall not be necessary to make such Warrant returnable at any particular time, but the same may remain in full force until it shall be executed; and such Warrant may be executed by apprehending the Defendant at any place within the territorial division within which the Justices issuing the same shall have jurisdiction, or, in case of fresh pursuit, at any place in the next adjoining territorial division, within seven miles of the border of such first mentioned territorial division without having such Warrant backed as hereinafter mentioned; and in all cases in which such Warrant shall be directed to all Constables or Peace Officers within the territorial division within which the Justice or Justices issuing the same shall have jurisdiction, it shall be lawful for any Constable or Peace Officer for any place within the limits of the jurisdiction for which such Justice or Justices shall have acted when he or they granted such Warrant, to execute such Warrant in like manner as if such Warrant were directed specially to such Constable by name, and notwithstanding that the place in which such Warrant shall be executed, shall not be within the place for which he shall be such Constable or Peace Officer; and if the person against whom any such Warrant has been issued be not found within the jurisdiction of the Justice or Justices by whom it issued, or, if he shall escape, go into, reside or be, or be supposed or suspected to be in any place within this Province, whether in Upper or Lower Canada, out of the jurisdiction of the Justice or Justices issuing the Warrant, any Justice of the Peace, within whose jurisdiction such person shall be or be suspected to be as aforesaid, upon proof alone upon oath of the hand-writing of the Justice or Justices issuing the Warrant, may make an endorsement upon it, signed with his name, authorizing the execution of the Warrant within his jurisdiction; and such endorsement shall be a sufficient authority to the person bringing the Warrant, and to all other persons to whom it was originally directed, and to all Constables or other Peace Officers of the territorial division where the endorsement is made, to execute the same in any place within the jurisdiction of the Justice of the Peace endorsing the same, and to carry the offender, when apprehended, before the Justice or Justices who first issued the Warrant or some other Justice having the same jurisdiction; Provided always, that no objection shall be taken or allowed to any such Warrant to apprehend a Defendant, so issued upon any such information or complaint as aforesaid, under or by virtue of this Act, for any alleged defect therein in substance or in form, or for any variance between it and the evidence adduced on the part of the Informant or Complainant as hereinafter mentioned; but if any such variance shall appear to the Justice or Justices present and acting at such hearing, to be such that the party so apprehended under such Warrant has been thereby deceived or misled, it shall be lawful for such Justice or Justices, upon such terms

It shall contain name and description of person to be apprehended.

It need not be returnable at any particular time.

When and how it may be executed.

Backing of Warrant when taken into another jurisdiction.

Proviso: No objection allowed for want of form in the Warrant.

But if the party charged is deceived by the variance, the hearing may be postponed, and he may be committed or discharged upon Recognizance.

as he or they shall think fit, to adjourn the hearing of the case to some future day, and in the meantime to commit (D.) the said Defendant to the Common Gaol or any other prison, lock-up house, or place of security, within the territorial division or place within which the said Justice or Justices may be acting, or to such other custody as the said Justice or Justices shall think fit, or to discharge him upon his entering into a Recognizance (E.), with or without Surety or Sureties, at the discretion of such Justice or Justices, conditioned for his appearance at the time and place to which such hearing shall be so adjourned: Provided always, that in all cases where a Defendant shall be discharged upon Recognizance as aforesaid, and shall not afterwards appear at the time and place in such Recognizance mentioned, then the said Justice, who shall have taken the said Recognizance, or any Justice or Justices, who may then be there present, upon certifying (F.) upon the back of the said Recognizance the non-appearance of the Defendant, may transmit such Recognizance to the Clerk of the Peace of the territorial division within which such Recognizance shall have been taken, to be proceeded upon in like manner as other Recognizances, and such Certificate shall be deemed sufficient prima facie evidence of such non-appearance of the said Defendant.

Proviso: If he fail to re-appear, the Justice, after certifying his non-appearance on the back of the Recognizance, may transmit the same to the Clerk of the Peace.

Description of property of partners, &c., in any information or proceedings thereon.

IV. And be it enacted, That in any information or complaint or proceedings thereon, in which it shall be necessary to state the ownership of any property belonging to or in the possession of partners, joint tenants, parceners or tenants in common, it shall be sufficient to name one of such persons, and to state the property to belong to the person so named and another, or others, as the case may be, and whenever in any information or complaint, or the proceedings thereon, it shall be necessary to mention, for any purpose whatsoever, any partners, joint tenants, parceners or tenants in common, it shall be sufficient to describe them in the manner aforesaid; and whenever in any such information or complaint, or the proceedings thereon, it shall be necessary to describe the ownership of any work or building made, maintained or repaired at the expense of any territorial division, or of any materials for the making, altering or repairing the same, they may be therein described as the property of the inhabitants of such territorial division respectively.

Prosecution and punishment of aiders and abettors in the commission of offences.

V. And be it enacted, That every person who shall aid, abet, counsel or procure the commission of any offence which is or hereafter shall be punishable on Summary Conviction, shall be liable to be proceeded against and convicted for the same, either together with the principal offender, or before or after his conviction, and shall be liable, on conviction, to the same forfeiture and punishment as such principal offender is or shall be by law liable, and may be proceeded against and convicted either in the territorial division or place where such principal offender may be convicted, or in that in which such offence of aiding, abetting, counselling or procuring may have been committed.

Power to Justice to summon witnesses to attend and give evidence.

VI. And be it enacted, That if it shall be made to appear to any Justice of the Peace, by the oath or affirmation of any credible person, that any person within the jurisdiction of such Justice is likely to give material evidence on behalf of the Prosecutor or Complainant or Defendant, and will not voluntarily be and appear as a witness at the time and place appointed for the hearing of such information or complaint, such Justice may, and is hereby required to issue his Summons (G 1.) to such person, under his Hand and Seal, requiring him to be and appear at a time and place mentioned in such Summons, before the said Justice, or before such other Justice or Justices of the Peace for the same territorial division as shall then be there to testify what he shall know concerning the said information or complaint; and if any person so summoned shall neglect or refuse to appear at the time and place appointed by the said Summons, and no just excuse shall be offered for such neglect or refusal, then (after proof upon oath or affirmation of such Summons having been served upon such person, either personally or by leaving the same for him with some person at his last or most usual place of abode) it shall be lawful for the Justice or Justices before whom such person should have appeared, to issue a Warrant (G 2.) under his or their Hands and Seals, to bring and have such person, at a time and place to be therein mentioned, before the Justice who issued the said Summons, or before such other Justice or Justices of the Peace for the same territorial division as shall be then there, to testify as aforesaid, and which said warrant may, if necessary, be backed as hereinbefore is mentioned, in order to its being executed out of the jurisdiction of the Justice who shall have issued the same; or if such Justice shall be satisfied, by evidence upon oath or affirmation, that it is probable that such person will not attend to give evidence without being compelled so to do, then instead of issuing such Summons it shall be lawful for him to issue his Warrant (G 3.) in the first instance, and which, if necessary, may be backed as aforesaid; and if on the appearance of such person so summoned before the said last mentioned Justice or Justices, either in obedience to such Summons, or upon being brought before him or them, by virtue of the said Warrant, such person shall refuse to be examined upon oath or affirmation concerning the premises, or shall refuse to take such oath or affirmation, or having taken such oath or affirmation shall refuse to answer such question concerning the premises as shall then be put to him, without offering any just excuse for such refusal, any Justice of the Peace then present, and having jurisdiction, may, by Warrant (G 4.) under his Hand and Seal, commit the person so refusing to the Common Gaol or Lock-up House for the territorial division where such person refusing shall then be, there to remain and be imprisoned for any time not exceeding ten days, unless he shall, in the meantime, consent to be examined and to answer concerning the premises.

If Summons be disobeyed by witness without just excuse, Justice may issue Warrant.

Justice may, on proof that witness will probably refuse to attend, issue his Warrant in the first instance. Witnesses refusing to be examined, may be committed.

VII. And be it enacted, That in all cases of complaints upon which a Justice or Justices of the Peace may make an Order for the payment of money or otherwise, it shall not be necessary that such complaint shall be in writing, unless it shall be required to be so by some particular Act of Parliament upon which such complaint shall be framed.

Complaint made to obtain an Order need not be in writing.

VIII. And be it enacted, That in all cases of informations for any offences or acts punishable upon Summary Conviction, any variance between such information and the evidence adduced in support thereof as to the time at which such offence or act shall be alleged to have been committed, shall not be deemed material if it be proved that such information was in fact laid within the time limited by law for laying the same; and any variance between the said information and the evidence adduced in support thereof, as to the place in which the

As to any variance between information and the facts or evidence.

If the party charged, be deceived by variance between information and evidence, the hearing may be adjourned and he may be committed or discharged upon Recognizance.

Proviso: If he fail to appear, the Justice may certify the facts and transmit the Recognizance to the Clerk of the Peace.

Complaint need not, in certain cases, be made upon oath.

Where Warrant is issued in the first instance, the information must be made on oath.

Time limited for information or complaint.

offence or act shall be alleged to have been committed, shall not be deemed material, provided that the offence or act be proved to have been committed within the jurisdiction of the Justice or Justices by whom such information shall be heard and determined; and if any such variance, or any variance in any other respect between such information and the evidence adduced in support thereof, shall appear to the Justice or Justices present, and acting at the hearing, to be such that the party charged by such information has been thereby deceived or misled, it shall be lawful for such Justice or Justices, upon such terms as he or they shall think fit, to adjourn the hearing of the case to some future day, and in the meantime to commit (D.) the said Defendant to the Common Goal or other prison, lock-up house or place of security, or to such other custody as the said Justice or Justices shall think fit, or to discharge him upon his entering into a Recognizance (E.) with or without Surety or Sureties, at the discretion of such Justice or Justices, conditioned for his appearance at the time and place to which such hearing shall be so adjourned: Provided always, that in all cases where a Defendant shall be discharged upon Recognizance as aforesaid, and shall not afterwards appear at the time and place in such Recognizance mentioned, then the said Justice who shall have taken the said Recognizance, or any other Justice or Justices who may then be there present, upon certifying (F.) upon the back of the said Recognizance the non-appearance of the Defendant, may transmit such Recognizance to the Clerk of the Peace of the territorial division within which such Recognizance shall have been taken, to be proceeded upon in like manner as other Recognizances; and such Certificate shall be deemed sufficient prima facie evidence of such non-appearance of the said Defendant.

IX. And be it declared and enacted, That every such complaint upon which a Justice or Justices of the Peace is, or are or shall be authorized by law to make an Order, and that every information for any offence or act punishable upon Summary Conviction, unless some particular Act of Parliament shall otherwise require, may respectively be made or laid without any oath or affirmation being made of the truth thereof, except in cases of informations, where the Justice or Justices receiving the same shall thereupon issue his or their Warrant in the first instance, to apprehend the Defendant as aforesaid; and in every such case where the Justice or Justices shall issue his or their Warrant in the first instance, the matter of such information shall be substantiated by the oath or affirmation of the informant, or by some witness or witnesses on his behalf before any such Warrant shall be issued, and every such complaint shall be for one matter of complaint only, and not for two or more matters of complaint and every such information shall be for one offence only, and not for two or more offences, and every such complaint or information may be laid or made by the Complainant or Informant in person, or by his Counsel or Attorney, or other person authorized in that behalf.

X. And be it enacted, That in all cases where no time is already or shall hereafter be specially limited for making any such complaint or laying any such information in the Act or Acts of Parliament relating to such particular case, such complaint shall be made, and such information shall be laid within six calendar months from the time when the matter of such complaint or information respectively arose.

- XI. And be it enacted, That every such complaint or information shall be heard, tried, determined and adjudged by one or two or more Justice or Justices of the Peace, as shall be directed by the Act or Acts of Parliament upon which such complaint or information shall be framed, or such other Act or Acts of Parliament as there may be in that behalf; and if there be no such direction in any such Act of Parliament, then such complaint or information may be heard, tried, determined and adjudged by any one Justice for the territorial division where the matter of such information or complaint shall have arisen; and the room or place in which such Justice or Justices shall sit to hear and try any such complaint or information, shall be deemed an open and public Court to which the public generally may have access, so far as the same can conveniently contain them; and the party against whom such complaint is made or information laid, shall be admitted to make his full answer and defence thereto, and to have the witnesses examined and cross-examined by Counsel or Attorney on his behalf; and every Complainant or Informant in any such case shall be at liberty to conduct such complaint or information respectively, and to have the witnesses examined and cross-examined by Counsel or Attorney on his behalf.
- XII. And be it enacted, That if at the day and place appointed in and by the Summons aforesaid for hearing and determining such complaint or information, the Defendant against whom the same shall have been made or laid, shall not appear when called, the Constable, or other person who shall have served him with the Summons in that behalf, shall then declare upon oath in what manner he served the said summons; and if it appear to the satisfaction of any Justice or Justices that he duly served the said Summons, in that case such Justice or Justices may proceed to hear and determine the case in the absence of such Defendant, or the said Justice or Justices, upon the non-appearance of such Defendant as aforesaid, may, if he or they think fit, issue his or their Warrant in manner hereinbefore directed, and shall adjourn the hearing of such complaint or information until the said Defendant shall be apprehended; and when such Defendant shall afterwards be apprehended under such Warrant, he shall be brought before the same Justice or Justices, or some other Justice or Justices of the Peace for the same territorial division, who shall thereupon, either by his or their Warrant (H.) commit such Defendant to the Common Gaol or other prison, lock-up house or place of security, or if he or they think fit, verbally to the custody of the Constable or other person who shall have apprehended him, or to such other safe custody as he or they shall deem fit, and order the said Defendant to be brought up at a certain time and place before such Justice or Justices of the Peace as shall then be there, of which said Order the Complainant or Informant shall have due notice; or if upon the day and at the place so appointed as aforesaid, such Defendant shall appear voluntarily in obedience to the Summons in that behalf served upon him, or shall be brought before the said Justice or Justices by virtue of any Warrant, then, if the said Complainant or Informant, having had due notice as aforesaid, do not appear by himself, his Counsel or Attorney, the said Justice or Justices shall dismiss such complaint or information unless for some reason he or they shall think proper to adjourn the hearing of the same until some other day, upon such terms as he or they shall think fit, in which case such Justice or Justices may commit (D.) the Defendant in the meantime to the Common Gaol or other prison, lock-up house or place of security, or to such Justice may adjourn the hearing of cases, and commit Defendant, or suffer him to go at large, or discharge him upon his own Recognizance.

And if he fail to re-appear the Justice may, after certifying his non-appearance on the back of the Recognizance, transmit the same to the Clerk of the Peace.

and such Certificate shall be deemed sufficient prima facie evidence of such non-appearance of the said Defendant.

Form of convictions and orders to be as in Schedule, where no particular form is given in the Statute creating the offence.

XVI. And be it enacted, That in all cases of conviction where no particular form of such conviction is or shall be given by the Statute creating the offence or regulating the prosecution for the same, and in all cases of conviction upon Statutes hitherto passed, whether any particular form of conviction have been therein given or not, it shall be lawful for the Justice or Justices who shall so convict, to draw up his or their conviction, on parchment or on paper, in such one of the forms of conviction (I 1, 3) in the Schedule of this Act contained as shall be applicable to such case, or to the like effect; and when an Order shall be made, and no particular form of Order is or shall be given by the Statute giving authority to make such Order, and in all cases of Orders to be made under the authority of any Statutes hitherto passed, whether any particular form of Order shall therein be given or not, it shall be lawful for the Justice or Justices by whom such Order is to be made, to draw up the same in such one of the forms of Orders (K 1, 3) in the Schedule to this Act contained, as may be applicable to such case, or to the like effect; and in all cases when by an Act of Parliament authority is given to commit a person to prison, or to levy any sum upon his goods or chattels by distress, for not obeying any Order of a Justice or Justices, the Defendant shall be served with a copy of the Minute of such Order before any Warrant of Commitment or of Distress shall issue in that behalf, and such Order or Minute shall not form any part of such Warrant of Commitment or of Distress.

Power to Justice to award costs—not inconsistent with the Fees to be taken under 14 & 15 Vic., c. 119. or any other Act.

XVII. And be it enacted, That in all cases of Summary Conviction, or of Orders made by a Justice or Justices of the Peace, it shall be lawful for the Justice or Justices making the same, in his or their discretion, to award and order in and by such Conviction or Order that the Defendant shall pay to the Prosecutor or Complainant respectively such costs as to the said Justice or Justices shall seem reasonable in that behalf, and not inconsistent with the Fees established by law to be taken on proceedings had by and before Justices of the Peace under the Act passed in the Session held in the fourteenth and fifteenth years of Her Majesty's Reign, and intituled, "An Act to establish an uniform rate of Fees to be received by Justices of the Peace in Upper Canada, and to repeal the Act of Upper Canada passed in the fourth year of the Reign of King William the fourth, chapter seventeen, or with the provisions of any other Act or Law in force in Upper Canada regulating fees or costs in proceedings before Justices of the Peace, and in cases where such Justice or Justices, instead of convicting or making an Order as aforesaid, shall dismiss the information or complaint, it shall be lawful for him or them in his or their discretion in and by his or their Order of Dismissal, to award and order that the Prosecutor or Complainant, respectively, shall pay to the Defendant such costs as to the said Justice or Justices shall seem reasonable, and according to law as aforesaid, and the sums so allowed for costs shall in all cases be specified in such Conviction or Order, or Order of Dismissal as aforesaid, and the same shall be recoverable in the same manner and under the same Warrants as any penalty or sum of money adjudged to be paid in and by such Conviction or Order is to be recoverable, and in cases where there is no such penalty or sum of money to be thereby recovered then such costs shall be recoverable by

Costs so allowed shall be specified in Conviction or Order of Dismissal, and may be recovered by distress distress and sale of the goods and chattels of the party, and in default of such distress, by imprisonment, with or without hard labor, for any time not exceeding one calendar month, unless such costs shall be sooner paid.

5 XVIII. And be it enacted, That where a conviction adjudges a pecuniary penalty or compensation to be paid, or where an Order requires the payment of a sum of money, and by the Statute authorizing such Conviction or Order, such penalty, compensation, or sum of money is to be levied upon the goods and chattels of the Defendant, by distress and sale thereof; and also in cases where, by the Statute in that behalf, no mode of raising or levying such penalty, compensation or sum of money, or of enforcing the payment of the same, is stated or provided, it shall be lawful for the Justice or any one of the Justices making such Conviction or Order, or for any Justice of the Peace for the same District, to issue his Warrant of Distress (N 1, 2) for the purpose of levying the same, which said Warrant of Distress shall be in writing, under the Hand and Seal of the Justice making the same; and if, after delivery of such Warrant of Distress to the Constable or Constables to whom the same shall have been directed to be executed, sufficient distress shall not be found within the limits of the jurisdiction of the Justice granting such Warrant, then upon proof alone being made upon oath of the handwriting of the Justice granting such Warrant, before any Justice of any other territorial division, such Justice of such other territorial division shall thereupon make an endorsement (N 3) on such Warrant, signed with his Hand, authorizing the execution of such Warrant within the limits of his jurisdiction, by virtue of which said Warrant and endorsement the penalty or sum aforesaid, and costs, or so much thereof as may not have been before levied or paid, shall and may be levied by the person bringing such Warrant, or by the person or persons to whom such Warrant was originally directed, or by any Constable or other Peace Officer of such last mentioned territorial division, by distress and sale of the goods and chattels of the Defendant in such other territorial division: Provided always that whenever it shall appear to any Justice of the Peace to whom application shall be made for any such Warrant of Distress as aforesaid, that the issuing thereof would be ruinous to the Defendant and his family, or whenever it shall appear to the said Justice, by the confession of the Defendant or otherwise, that he hath no goods and chattels whereon to levy such distress, then and in every such case it shall be lawful for such Justice, if he shall deem it fit, instead of issuing such Warrant of Distress, to commit such Defendant or other person to the Common Gaol, or lock-up house within the territorial division within which such Justice or Justices shall then be acting, there to be imprisoned with or without hard labor, for such time and in such manner as by law such Defendant might be so committed in case such Warrant of Distress had issued, and no goods or chattels had been found whereon to levy such penalty or sum and costs aforesaid.

Power to Justice to issue Warrant of Distress, in cases where pecuniary penalty &c. has been adjudged.

If sufficient distress be not found within limits of his jurisdiction, the Warrant may be endorsed by a Justice of another territorial division, and the penalty &c. may be levied under such endorsement in such territorial division.

Proviso: When the issuing a Warrant would be ruinous to Defendant, or when there are no goods, Justice may commit him to Prison.

50 XIX. And be it enacted, That in all cases where a Justice of the Peace shall issue any such Warrant of Distress, it shall be lawful for him to suffer the Defendant to go at large, or verbally, or by a written Warrant in that behalf, to order the Defendant to be kept and detained in safe custody, until Return shall be made to such Warrant of Distress, unless such Defendant shall give sufficient security, by Recognizance

Justice, after issuing Warrant, may suffer Defendant to go at large or order him into custody, until Return be made, unless he gives security by Recognizance, and if he fail to re-appear, Justice may transmit Recognizance to the Clerk of the Peace.

or otherwise, to the satisfaction of such Justice, for his appearance before him at the time and place appointed for the Return of such Warrant of Distress, or before such other Justice or Justices for the same territorial division as may then be there: Provided always, that in all cases where a Defendant shall give security by Recognizance as aforesaid and shall not afterwards appear at the time and place in the said Recognizance mentioned, then the said Justice who shall have taken the said Recognizance, or any Justice or Justices who may then be there present, upon certifying (F) on the back of the Recognizance the non-appearance of the Defendant, may transmit such Recognizance to the Clerk of the Peace for the territorial division within which the offence shall be laid to have been committed, to be proceeded upon in like manner as other Recognizances, and such Certificate shall be deemed sufficient prima facie evidence of such non-appearance of the said Defendant.

In default of sufficient distress, Justice may commit Defendant to Prison.

XX. And be it enacted, That if at the time and place appointed for the Return of any such Warrant of Distress, the Constable, who shall have had execution of the same, shall return (N 4) that he could find no goods or chattels or no sufficient goods or chattels whereon he could levy the sum or sums therein mentioned, together with the costs of, or occasioned by, the levy of the same, it shall be lawful for the Justice of the Peace before whom the same shall be returned, to issue his Warrant of Commitment (N 5), under his Hand and Seal, directed to the same or any other Constable, reciting the Conviction or Order, shortly, the issuing of the Warrant of Distress, and the Return thereto, and requiring such Constable to convey such Defendant or other person to the Common Gaol or lock-up house within the territorial division for which such Justice shall then be acting, and there to deliver to the Keeper thereof, and requiring such Keeper to receive the Defendant into such Gaol, prison or lock-up house, and there to imprison him, or to imprison him and keep him to hard labor, in such manner and for such time as shall have been directed and appointed by the Statute on which the Conviction or Order mentioned in such Warrant of Distress was founded, unless the sum or sums adjudged to be paid, and all costs and charges of the distress, and also the costs and charges of the commitment and conveying of the Defendant to prison, if such Justice shall think fit so to order (the amount thereof being ascertained and mentioned in such commitment), shall be sooner paid.

Imprisonment for a subsequent offence, to commence at expiration of that for previous offence.

XXI. And be it enacted, That where a Justice or Justices of the Peace shall, upon such information or complaint as aforesaid, adjudge the Defendant to be imprisoned, and such Defendant shall then be in prison undergoing imprisonment upon conviction for any other offence, the Warrant of Conviction for such subsequent offence shall, in every case, be forthwith delivered to the Gaoler or other Officer to whom the same shall be directed, and it shall be lawful for the Justice or Justices issuing the same, if he or they shall think fit, to award and order therein and thereby, that the imprisonment for such subsequent offence shall commence at the expiration of the imprisonment to which such Defendant shall have been previously adjudged or sentenced.

If information be dismissed, costs may be recovered by

XXII. And be it enacted, That when any information or complaint shall be dismissed with costs as aforesaid, the sum which shall be awarded for costs in the Order for Dismissal may be levied by distress

(Q 1) on the goods and chattels of the Prosecutor or Complainant in the manner aforesaid; and in default of distress or payment, such Prosecutor or Complainant may be committed (Q 2) to the Common Gaol or other prison or lock-up house in manner aforesaid, for any time not exceeding one calendar month, unless such sum, and all costs and charges of the distress, and of the commitment and conveying of such Prosecutor or Complainant to prison (the amount thereof being ascertained and stated in such commitment), shall be sooner paid.

To all or any of the Constables, or other Peace Officers in the said (County or United Counties, or as the case may be) of _____

Whereas on _____ last past, information was laid (or information was made) before _____ (one) of Her Majesty's Justices of the Peace in and for the said (County or United Counties, or as the case may be) of _____ for that (ſc., as in the order of dismissal,) and afterwards, to wit, on _____ at _____, both parties appearing before _____ in order that (I) should hear and determine the same, and the several proofs adduced to (me) in that behalf being by (me) duly heard and considered, and it manifestly appearing to (me) that the said information (or complaint was not proved, (I) therefore dismissed the same, and adjudged that the said C. D. should pay to the said A. B. the sum of _____ for his costs incurred by him in his defence in that behalf; and (I) ordered that if the said sum for costs should not be paid (forthwith) the same should be levied on the goods and chattels of the said C. D., and (I) adjudged that in default of sufficient distress in that behalf, the said C. D. should be imprisoned in the (Common Gaol or Lock-up House, as the case may be) at _____ in the said (County or United Counties, or as the case may be) (and there kept at hard labor) for the space of _____, unless the said sum for costs, and all costs and charges of the said distress, and of the commitment and conveying of the said A. B. to the said (Common Gaol or Lock-up House, as the case may be) should be sooner paid; (*); And whereas the said C. D. being now required to pay to the said A. B. the said sum for costs, hath not paid the same, or any part thereof, but therein hath made default; These are therefore to command you, in Her Majesty's name, forthwith to make distress of the goods and chattels of the said C. D., and if within the space of _____ days next after the making of such distress, the said last mentioned sum, together with the reasonable charges of taking and keeping the said distress, shall not be paid, then you do sell the said goods and chattels so by you distrained, and do pay the money arising from such sale to me (the Justice who made such order or dismissal, as the case may be,) that (I) may pay and apply the same as by law directed, and may render the overplus (if any,) on demand to the said C. D., and if no such distress can be found, then that you certify the same unto me, (or to any other Justice of the Peace for the same County or United Counties, or as the case may be) to the end that such proceedings may be had therein as to the law doth appertain.
