Dominion Presbyterian

Devoted to the Interests of the Family and the Church.

$1.50 per Annum.

OTTAWA WEDNESDAY, OCTOBER 27, 1909.

Single Copies, 5 cents.

Church Brass Work

Eagle and Rail Lecterns, Altar Vasce, Ewers, Candlesticks, Altar Desks, Crosses, Vesper Lights, Altar Rails, Etc. Ohandelier and Gas Fixtures.

CHADWICK BROTHERS.

Successor to J. A. Chadwick MANUFACTURERS

182 to 190 King William St. HAMILTON, ONT.

THE QUEBEC BANK Founded 1818. Incorporated 1822.

HEAD OFFICE, QUEEEC Capital Authorized - $3,000,000 Capital Paid up - 2,000,000 Rest - 1,000,000

Rest BOARD OF DIRECTORS: bohn T. Ross, Esq., President. Vesey Boswell, Esq., Vice-Press V. A. Marsh, Gaspard Lemoins, G. G. Stuart, J. E. Aldred hos. McDougall. B. STEVENSON, General Manager, BRANCHES, QUEBEC

Black Lake, Farnham, Inverness, Montmarny, Montreal, Que bec, Shavenegan, Falls Stanfold, St. Goorge, St. Rounald Victoriaville, Ville Marle, Three Rivers, Theorof Mines. BRANCHES, ONTARIO Ottawa, Pembroke, Sturgeon Falls, Thorold, Toronto.

AGENTS-London, England, Bank of Scotland, Yew Yorr, U.S. A. Agents' Bank of Scotland, New Yorr, U.S. A. Agents' Bank of British North America, Hanover National Bank of the Republic. Important to Form Good Habits!

> GET THE HABIT OF GOING TO THE

Standard Drug Store RIDEAU STREET, OTTAWA

FOR YOUR DRUGS

Quality is sure to be of High Standard.

BIRTHS.

2

At Ottawa, on Oct. 10, 1969, the wife of E. S. Houston, manager The Imperial Bank, Ottawa, a daughter. At Cornwall, Ont. on Oct. 9, 1969, to Mr. and Mrs. W. A. Mattice, of Ottawa, a daughter.

At Queen Charlotte. B. C., on Sept. 22. 1909, the wife of James Falkner, form-erly of Lancaster township, of a son.

At Morrisburg, on Oct. 3, 1909, the wife of James J. Logan, of a son. At Cornwall, on Oct. 13, 1909, the wife of Alexander McCourt, of a son. At Rostharm, Sask, on Sent. 30/1909.

At Rosthern, Sask., on Sept. 30, 1909, the wife of W. A. Munro, formerly of Morrisburg, of a son.

102 Lisgar street. Ottawa, on Oct. 109. the wife of Mr. Russell Black-twin daughters. At 10 burn.

On Oct. 2, 1909, at 54 Park avenue, to Dr. and Mrs. Wm. Watson, a son.

MARRIAGES.

At Sharbot Lake, Ont. on Oct. 14, 1908, by the Rev. Hilvard Smith, in St. An-drew's church. Myra Thomson, daughier of Mr. and Mrs. Jecome Thomson, to Herbert Massey Taylor, of Revina, Sask, son of Mr. and Mrs. Henry Taylor. At the residence of the bride's mother, "Maniehurst," Howick, on Oct, 14, 1908, by the Rev. R. L. Bailantyne, assisted by the Rev. W. M. MacKeracher, M.A., brother of the bride, Miss Christens, only daughier of the late lev. C. M. Mac-Keracher, of Howick and Riverfield, to the Rev. Wm. E. Wallace, M.A., of Coruna. Ont.

Coruna. Ont. At the residence of the bride's grand-father, Mr. Robert Hall, L'Orignal, Ont-hy the Rev. George Crombie, assisted by the Rev. William Crombie, of Oliver's Ferry. Ont. Alma Marv Christie, of Morin Flats, Que, to John Stewart Morrison, of The Laurentian Lumber Co., Montreal, son of the late Duncan Morrison, of Vankleck Hill, Ont.

DEATHS.

daughter, At the residence of her daughter, 21 Oscoole street, Ottava. Oct. 16, 1999, Mrs. Annie Nevins, relict of the late Josenh Nevins, aged 90 years. Suddeniv. on Oct. 18, 1996, Charles Robert Wehster Biggar. of 98 Kendal avenue, Toronto, in his 63rd year.

At his residence. Stonewall House, indas. Oct. 16, 1909, Robert McKechnie, his 75th year. At in his 75th year. At 100 Wilcox street, Toronto, on Oct. 17, 1909, Frances Tilson, beloved wife of Robert Cowan, sr., azed 33 years. On Oct 14, 1909, Huch Black, postmas-ter at Rockwood, Ont, In his 71st year.

At Fairfield, St. John Co., N. B., on iept. 29. John Robinson, ared 100 years. Seceased was born in Londonderry, Ire-and, and came to New Brunswick 75 ears ago. land.

Years ago. On the 17th, at 360 Peel street, Mon-treal, Martha N. Kerr, youngest daugh-ter of the late William Kerr, of King-sion, New York, and aunt of Mrs. James ston, Ross.

At Coldomo, Stenness, Orkney, Scot-land, on Sept. 27, 1909, Robert Leask, of Coldomo, in his 84th year.

At Prince Albert, Ont., Sept. 26, 1909, James McBrien, late Inspector of Public Schools for Northern Ontarlo.

LYMYER UNLIES OTHER BELLS SWEETER, MORE DUR-ABLE, LOWER PRICE, OUR FREECATALOOUR TELLS WHY. ndry Co., Cincinnati, O. to Cincinnati Bell Foundry Co., Ci

PLEASE MENTION THIS PAPER.

ST. MARGARET'S COLLEGE TORONTO

A "esidential and Day School for Girls

Under the Management of GEORGE DICKSON, M.A., Formerly Princi-pal Upper College, Toronto. Mrs. George Dickson. Miss J. E. McDonald, B.A. Principal.

University Matriculation a specialty-Resident French and German Mistresses, Music, Art, Domestic Science, Physical Education, Cricket, Tennis, Basket Ball, Tobogganing, Rink, Swimming Bath.

Write for Booklet and Record of the School to the Secretary.

ST. ANDREW'S COLLEGE A RESIDENTIAL & DAY SCHOOL FOR BOYS UPPER AND LOWER SCHOOLS TORONTO

Boys prepared for the Universities, the Royal Military College, and Bus llent Staff. Complete Equipment. New Buildings. Large Athletic Fields.

Careful oversight of Athletic and Physical Trainings with the object of fitting the boy for the work of life. Separate Lower School. During the ten years of its history, the College has net with remarkable ancess in attendance and efficiency of class room and general work. Autuum Term commerces September 13th, 1800. REV. D. BRUCE MACDONALD, M.A., LL.D.,

Calendar Sent on Application

PRINCIPAL

VICTOR RECORDS

It isn't any one thing, but ALL things combined that make VICTOR Quality.

Best Artists Caruso, Calve, Eames, Farrar, Gadski, Homer, Melba, Plancon, Schumann-Heink, Scotti, Sembrich and records exclusively for the Victor. Sousa and his band, Pryor's Band, and many famous instrumental solists make records only for the Victor. Harry Lauder, May Irwin, Vesta Victoria, Nat M. Wills, Clarice Vance, Alice Lloyd and Maude Raymond are among the leading vaudeville artists who make Disc Records only for the Victor.

Best Selections The choicest Masterpieces of the greatest com-posers, favorite hymns, the good old congs of heart and home, as well as the newest and most popular selections of the day.

Best Recording smallest flaw, the artists sing or play the selection over again until every part is absolutely perfect. The artists are just as particular as the Victor laboratory staff to have every selection perfect.

Best Materials The materials used in making Victor Records are the best that money can buy. The various ingredients form a scientific compound, particularly adapted to fine tone recording and reproduction, that was discovered only after long research and costly experiment by the Victor staff of expert chemists. Every Victor Record is carefully made by skilled workmen.

Best Reproducing tone-quality which puts Victor Record has that unequalided, sweet, clear, true-to-life, musical Victor Records in a class by themselves far above all competition.

Every VICTOR RECORD is a work of art.

Any Berliner-Victor dealer will gladly play any Victor Records you want to hear.

Write to us today for complete catalogues of the Victor Gram-o-phone and Victor-Victrola, and of 3000 Victor Records. 75

BERLINER GRAMOPHONE COMPANY, LIMITED, Montreal.

COBALT STOCKS!

Bought and Sold. Some Excellent

Low Price Stocks on the List now.

Wire, Write or Phone us.

All Bonds and Securities.

W. W. MacCUAIG. Room 111, City and District Bank Building, St. James St., Montreal

EMBOSSER AND ENGRAVER

Dominion Presbyterian

$1.50 Per Annum.

NOTE AND COMMENT

There is an epidemic of cholera at Seoul, Korea, more than 500 cases be-ing reported since the disease made its appearance. Thus far foreigners have escaned

The Wom a's Foreign Missionary Society of the Methodist Church is holding its two theth annual conven-tion at Los Angeles, California. The society has a membership of 120,000.

An English wag remarks that while the Pole has, without doubt, been found by one American or another, yet the first use of it is to hang up solled linen on it in place of the American flag.

The Moody Bible Institute of Chi-cago, is planning to hold its Mid-win-ter Convention of Christian Workers, December 2 and 5. Its purpose is to have Messrs. Chapman and Alexander in attendance. They will return about that time from Australia.

French-Canadians are being brought into British Columbia to take the place of Hindus in the Fraser River lumber mills. A party of one hundred and fifty men, with women and children, have reached New Westmirster, where cottages and boarding-houses have been built for them.

"Gypsy" Smith is conducting evan-gelistic meetings in the Seventh Regi-ment Armory in Chicago, this month. He will give three weeks in November to meetings in Cincinnati, returning to England for Christmas and opening his English Missions with the new year.

The wheat crop of the prairies is estimated at 120,009,090 bushels. Ac-cording to the general manager of one of the banks the total grain crop will give the West a purchasing power equivalent to seventy-five million dol-lars gold. The actual market value will, however, far exceed this.

There has been six million dollars less of internal revenue on whiskey and two million dollars less on beer collected in the United States this year collected in the United States this year than there was last. Evidently the dry wave is doing something, and those who say prohibition means more drink-ing will have a hard time squaring with the facts.

The pending negotiations for church union in South Africa embrace the Baptist, Congregational, Methodist and Presbyterian Churches. A sub-com-mittee's report on statement of faith has already been approved by the Gen-eral Committee having the subject in hand, and a report on policy has likeeral Committee having the subject in hand, and a report on policy has like-wise been favorably acted upon. An executive head is provided for to have general charge of the stationing of ministers, while the congregational right of call is retained. The minis-terial term of local service is to be without time limit.

without time limit. The Purists who called "Cablegram" a basfard word because in its parent-age the Anglo-Saxon "cable" was il-tegitimately linked with the Greek gram," are dissatisfied with "avla-tor" and "avlation," which have soar-tor" and "avlation," which have soar-tor and "avlation," which have soar-tor and "avlation," which have soar-tegram," and bird," and "vistor" for "wayfare," but there is no Latin very "avlate," but there is no Latin very "avlate," but there is no Latin very "avlation," just as "conservare" yields "conservare" and "conservare" yields "conservare" and "conservation." Usage justifies "cablegram" despite the blot on its etymological escutch-eon, and usage is likely to do much for "avlator."

OTTAWA

Local option is stirring the minds of the people of Manitoba as well as of Ontario, and there is a wide-spread movement towards this measure of pro-hibition. At the next municipal eleo-tions in Manitoba no less than fifty-eight municipalities will vote on the question, and there is a prospect of success in most of them. Voting will take place on December 31st.

Here are some striking figures which should encourage temperance workers and cause them to continue to strive after a curtaliment of the liquor traf-fic: "Thirty-five years ago Toronto had a population of 70,000 and 300 bar-rooms. To-day it has 350,000 people and 100 barrooms. Thirty years ago On-110 barrooms. To-day it has 350,000 people and 110 barrooms. Thirty years ago On-tario had 1,000,000 people and 6,000 li-censes. To-day she has over 2,000,000 people and 2,300 licenses."

The British Post Office has purchas The British Post Office has purchased the wireless telegraph stations. It may be necessary for the Government to assume a monopoly of wireless telegraphy, and forbid any private persons using it, to prevent abuses and interference. Any boy who has learned a little of electricity, and whose father gives him money or the statement of the state little of electricity, and whose a gives him money, can construct a less telegraph station, and ma nuisance of himself, interfering proper messages. wire. make with

There will be not a little disappoint-ment and regret that Mr. John R. Mout has declined the offered position of secretary of the Federal Council of has declined the offered position of secretary of the Federal Council of Churches, Mr. Mott fears that work which he has planned in connection with the college department of the Y.M.C.A. and which he conceives of farreaching importance, might suffer were he to leave it at this time, and he therefore declines the secretaryship. He was looked upon as pre-eminently qualified for the duties of the latter office, says the United Presbyterian.

Germans are discussing with some seriousness an airship voyage to the North Fole, utilizing a dirigible bal-loon of the Zeppelin type, and going by way of Spitzbergen, the scene of Mr. Wellman's futile attempts. The Russian Minister of Marine will sond out three Arctic expeditions next year, not for polar exploration, but for the more practical purpose of acquiring information concerning the coasts and waters of that portion of the Arctic Ocean which bounds Russia in Asia. One ship goes from the Pacific to the mouth of the Lena, another from the Atlantic 15 the Taimyr peninsula, which will also be the objective of an overland party frem Saint Petersburg. Germans are discussing with some eriousness an airship voyage to the overland party from Saint Petersburg. Geology, climate and meteorology will be specially investigated.

It is reported, says the Missionary Review, that the pative Government of Mysore in India has resolved to in-troduce religious teaching into the Government schools and colleges, in consequence of the evil effects of a purely secular education upon char-acter and conduct. The plan of the Maharaja's Government for imparing religious instruction is as follows: The first half-hour after roll-call every morning is to be given on three days of the week to moral instruction, and this is to be common on the pupils of all religious persuasions; on the other two this is to be common to puplie of all religious persuasions; on the other two days of the week specific religious in-struction is to be given to Hindu pu-plis from the Sanatana-Dharma, to Mohammedans from the Koran, and to Christians from the Bible. Moham-medan and Christian attendance is op-tional, and the Government makes pro-vision for their religious teaching only uplis; but when the number is less, every facility will be given for sup-plying the religious instruction by voluntary aid.

Single Copies 5 Cents

An Indian graveyard will be crossed by the Grand Trunk Pacific in north-ern British Columbia, says the West-Land, and some twelve or thirteen graves will be disturbed. The SI-washes demand extravagant compensa-tion and the matter was referred to washes demand extravagant compensa-tion and the matter was referred to the Government, with the result that the rallway is to pay at the rate of $15 for the removal of each skeleton. $200 for establishing a new cemetery, and $1,000 as a peace offering to the surviving members of the tribe.

China's next move of international importance, according to a report from Washington, will be't the building of a first-class navy. China with a first-class navy, it is known to her states-men, will be as eligible a partner for a European or American ally as was Japan. The sum mentioned as the first outlay is $20,000,000. The ultimate sum is said to be as high as $200,000,000. The only naval possessions of China now are not in the second or third rank, as compared with any first-class nation. China's next move of international compared with any first-class nation. Diplomats who have learned of China's intention say that there will be less brow-beating if she builds even a sec-ond-class navy. There will be none at all when her naval strength approxi-mates that of Japan.

In two interesting and instructive apers contributed to the "Nineteenth entury" for September, Elliot G. Jol-in, C.S.I. (agent to the Governor-Gen-ral in Rajputana), and Sir Edward Cov Beat (Dentury Sector) papers Century vin, eral in Cox, of vin, C.S.I. vin, C.S.I. (agent to the Governor-Gen-eral in Rajputana), and Sir Edward C. Cox, Bart. (Deputy Inspector-Gen-eral of Police, Bomha Presidency), re-spectively, give the reading public their views on British rule in India. We hear so much on this subject that is emotional or injudicious that it is well that men who are, or have been, on the spot and have had special op-portunities of studying not only the history, but the laws, customs, and characteristics of the country and its diversified inhabitants, should express their sober and well-considered opin-ions. It may appear enlightened and plucky for some people to rail at the maintenance of British rule in India. But the caim, dispassionate student of history and of the general results of British Government in that great de-pendency has good ground in the in-terests of peace, prosperity and the due maintenance of just laws and civil-ized progress in arguing for its con-tinuance. tinuance

A Korean correspondent umberland Presbyterian of the A Korean correspondent of the Cumberland Presbyterian vrites:--"There was a curious story I heard of Leader Pai, of the Sang Simi group. They say that before he was born, his father and mother were devout Bud-hists, and that they often went up on the Dragon Gate Mountains near their town and spent weeks there in solitude and prayer. These moun-tains are held sacred by the Koreans their town and spent weeks there in solitude and prayer. These moun-tains are held sacred by the Koreans, and there are several monasteries on them. After Pai was born, even when a child, he, too, often weat off for days together to the mountain top and pray-ed and fasted along About four years together to the mountain top and pray-ed and fasted alone. About four years ago, he believed Jesus, and all of the heart hunger that had made him seek Buddha before has now been satisfied in Christ. His faith has given him a burning desire for souls. He is only an ignorant old farmer. He probably doesn't know a dozen Chinese charac-ters in all, but ha is head and should. doesn't know a dozen Chinese charac-ters in all, but he is head and should-ers above all the strong men of his country when it comes to preaching Christ. Day and night whenever he can get a moment from farm work, he is out in the mountain villages with a band of young men of his town and whenever I go into a new town, the first thing I hear is that Leader Pal has been there already. It seems as though God was getting him ready up there on the mountain tops all these years to give his old age to "take men alive," for Christ."

ORGANIC UNION OR FEDER-ATION. -- WHICH? BY REV. R. G. MacBETH, M.A., FARIS, ONT,

The next twenty-five years will be the most critical period in the history of Canada. By the end of that time the nature of Canada's influence on the future history of the world will have been largely determined. Beyond all other agencies the churches under the Headship of Christ will be respon-sible for the moral condition into which the Dominion will have settled during this fateful quarter century, and that sible for the moral condition into which the Dominion will have settled during this fateful quarter century, and that moral condition will decide whether or not our country is going to mould for God and righteousness the world that she will then be influencing immensely. Hence this is the most inopportune time in our history to thrust forward the explosive question of the organic union of certain of the churches. View-de in the most favorable light the question is one that would inevitably involve years of debate and unsettle-ment which, in a crisis time, would di-certation at hency favorable light the question is to the supreme work of evangelization at home and abroad. That the union would be a protracted question is told us in so many worda in the statement issued recently by the Joint Committee of the negotiating churches around the units your the

"In the event of the negotiating Churches agreeing to unite upon the basis herewith submitted, a number of matters will have to be considered, and many arrangements made for the carrying on of the united Church be-fore the union can be finally consum-mated."

One matter may be instanced as hav-ing been discussed by these commit-tees, viz., that of the Superannuation and other Benevolent Funds of the uniting churches. This is so immense a problem that even the Committee felt unable to see a solution uniting churches. This is no immense a problem that even the Committee felt unable to see a solution of it and hence they handled it only far enough to say that they would leave it over to be dealt with by the "United Church by such amalgamation or modifications of existing methods as may be found practicable." Thue, they make some suggestions, but they are very vague and generally hedged by the conven-lent but unsatisfactory proviso "if practicable." These Benevolent Funds as well as the Colleges and other de-pariments of the work are now heavily endowed on conditions made with the donors of gifts, and on this account, and others, one can easily see what confusion would result from efforts made to throw them into some new, form. We all know how difficult it is to re- grange organizations and funds in any one denomination and we won-der at the proposal of brethren who, knowing this, persist in asking us to face questions of amalgamation and re-adjustment in regard to the enormous interests of segnate denominations thermed his action to im-pugn the honesity of these brethren, but it is to wonder at their judgment. Will our people allow themselves to be threas into this dense jungle of combut it is to wonder at their judgment. Will our people allow themselves to be thrust into this dense jungle of com-plicated problems at a time when their own work is going forward splendidly and when that work is so greatly need-ed if this new land is to save herself and help save the world?

The one thing that would compel us at all hazards to take this step is a conviction that organic union of the churches is the will of God. Some in-deed have professed to read in our thords intercessory prayer in John 17. "that they all may be one," a clear in-timation that all flis disciples should be in one ecclesiastical organization. If that were the oase, then those who hesitate about going into organic union would be plainly disloyal to the Master. But few believe that our Lord there enjoins, even by implication, what we call organic union.

Those who have given much study to this matter say that Christ would not express that desire and at the same time tell His disciples not to interfere with people who were doing Christian work, even though they were not fol-lowing with them. He seemed there to indicate that people could be doing the same work without being in the same company, and hence we are not to la-ment too much because Phillips Brooks company, and hence we are not to la-ment too much because Phillips Brooks and D. L. Moody or the Archbishop of Canterbury and General Booth were not in one organization. To have forced them into one organization and method would have spolled their work, and it is the work that is important. When Christ prayed that all believers might be one as He and the Faher were one He did not pray for the aboli-tion of individuality but for unity of aim and purpose and will. There are many who honesty believe that unity of aim in doing the will of God is more impressively manifested by the co-oper-ation of men who belong to their chosen organizations than by the sometimes doubtful harmony of men impressively manifested by the co-oper-ation of men who belong to their chosen organizations than by the sometimes doubtful harmony of men who, though in one denomination, find it impossible to work together. There is much said about church work in the interests of the mission field, but Meth-odists in Japan and Presbyterians in India know that harmony is not al-odists in Japan and Presbyterians in India know that harmony is not al-ways conspicuous in fields where one denomination is supreme. And the same is true of our own country. It is an actual fact that there is ofter much more co-operation and less rivalry be-tween two Churches of different de-nominations in some of our own towns than between two Churches of the sime body. Unity of spur: between for good than the lack of it between for good than the lack of it between fourches that are nominally and out-wardly one. For these historical rea-sons many believe in a variety to suit different kinds of people, and they do onto believe that Christ prayed for the organic and outward union of all be-lievers in one fixed body.

<text>

the outward separation is no great calamity. Only when outward separ-ation leads one Church to despise or rival or hate another is it a calamity. But whether Churches abide esparate or are incorporated in outward unity the desirable thing is that they be one in Christ, that they have the same experses in His service, that they be as regiments of the one army, fighting a common foe and supporting one an-other, diverse in outward appearance, n method, in function, as artillery, in-fantry, cavalry and engineers, or even outry, but fighting for one fing and one cause and their very diversity once vividly exhibiting their real unity.

This is now the generally accepted lew of the famous text and hence view of the famous text and hence there seems nothing in history or Scrip-ture that specially urges us to accom-nish organic urges us to accomthe chart speciality urges us to accom-plish organic union. In addition to this it might be helpful, to many to have on the general question, the opinions of men who have for years given special study to the life and work of the Church and so we quote from a few whose words ought to have great weight. The first is Prof. James Den-ney, who in a recent article in the Brit-ish Weekly on the Church, has this paragraph without qualification: " "The standing criticism of the Church's unity is by no means so ser-ious. It is a sin and a scandal, un-doubtedly, when Christians are divid-ed from one another by unchristian tempers—when, either as individuals or as communities, they regard each other with suspicion, jealousy or dislike ---when they treat each other as rivals, whose interest is to cut each other out of neutral markets, instead of as allies whose primary duty is to combine un-der the same Leader against a common foe. It is unhappily true that such unchristian tempers do prevail. They break the unity of the body of Christ, and are as in which nothing can excuse. It is a scandal when those who call Jesus Lord unchurch each other. But the criticism of the Church by those who have none but the Papal idea of unity in their minds is beside the mark. It is not a sin that while some English Christians are Episcopalian, others are plish organic union. In addition to this it might be helpful, to many to have on the general question, the opinions of unity in their minds is beside the mark. It is not a sin that while some English Christians are Episcopalian, others are Congregationalists, Presbyterian or Methodist. The unity of the Church is not to be achieved by gathering all these into what the law would recog-nize as one entite morale; they may be one in the only sense which the New Testament cares for without having these into what the law would recog-nize as one entite morale; they may be one in the only sense which the New Testament cares for without having one and the same legal constitution. They may be one in the unity of the spirit, one in participation in the same supernatural life, without being one in organization. The body of Christ in the New Yestament is vitally one; all the New Yestament is vitally one; all the New Yestament is vitally one; all the New Yestament of the size each other's Joys and sorrows; but there is no such thing in the New Testament as one all inclusive Christian corpora-tion. Varieties of organizations are the necessary counterpart to the unity of the Spirit; the unity is shown to be real and effective in proportion as it subdues all these varieties to itself, shifting men through them and over them in brotherly love to each other, and in devotion to the common ends of the gospel."

and in devotion to the gospel." In view of Prof. Denny's pre-eminent place as a New Testament scholar the above statement is of unusual value.

above statement is of unusual value. Another name of special signific-mice the world over is that of Dr. Robertson Nicoll. Few men have real so widely or observed more close-ly the trend of history and there is perhaps no man whose opinions on all matters pertaining to the church are more extensively quoted. We this in the British Weekly a little over a year ago one of the famous letters of Dr. Nicoll over the signature of "Claudius Clear." He had invited lais readers to comment on the fol-lowing serve which had been a fav-orite vorse of Prof. Masson:--"It all the world were of one religion Many a living thing should die: But J will never forget my true love. Nor in any way his name deny!" Of the papers sent in, Dr. Nicoll says the best was clearly the following by C. F. Perry, which he quotes Ing by C. F. Perry, which he quotes in full: "Every religion has its own partic-ular phase of Truth. It could not be a "living thing" without it, for, as Car-iyie has reminded us, religions live not by their falschood, but by their futh. If the world were of one religion, we should lose something of God's great revelation. It may not be precisely correct to speak of sects as religions: but apart from that, no liberal mind can doubt that the Friend, the Bap-tist, the Presbyterian, indeed every branch of Christ's Church, has con-tributed to the widening of the realm of life, intellectual and spiritual. True uniformity-universai and complete -could never come about without the forfeiture of man's freedom, his or-iginal power to think and act, his individuality. You may have uni-formity where there is mechanism and death, but none where there is a-bounding life. In the varies indes of thought and warship these modes of formity where there is mechanism and death, but none where there is a-bounding life. In the varied modes of thought and worship, there is indeed essence of unity, but in so far as they are of God's Spirit they are living things, meeting the varied interests and temperaments and satisfying the need of the hearts of men.

Whenever and wherever attempts have been made to make the world of on religion, there have been serious losses—for tolerance, charity, the firm belief that Truth would triumph: all these and much elevated with the set of Whenever and wherever these and much else which are among the "living things" of God's world, have died, and the common states and the have died, and the common good has suffered.

Whilst this is true, we recognize that each heart may have its "true love" in whom it will rejoice to make its boast. There is the Church as well as the Kingdom, the local as well as the national, that personal appre-hension and faith which is the soul's special and record records.

special and prough possession. If there are twelve gates into the City, we can never forget the gate by which we entered.

City, we can never lorget the part by which we entered. With true spirit of charity we may pray for every land but our native land will always be our "true love." the land we love the most. We may say, "Grace, mercy and peace be with all who love Him" in sincerity and in truth, but in one place and company we may feel at home as nowhere else. There might be a condition of things monotonous, stereotyped, uniform, but the heart would still cling to its own because stereotyped, uniform, but the heart would still cling to its own because it is its own-well tried, understood, proved.

have world? Mine has opened its soul to me; therefore I love it."

.

After speaking of the tyranny of the Church which had striven to en-force unity of organization Dr. Nicoll exclaims,-

"How many living things have di under tyranny? Even when the body has lived, how often has the soul per-ished? It was not so long ago a tra-dition in business houses that the asdition in business houses that the as-sistants should do precisely what they were told to do, and that they should suggest nothing. Nowadays we are beginning to see that initiative is the life and soul of business and that the prosperous business is that in which everyone in his measure is an initia-tor. I came across a vivid description of the old tyranny in that curious and fare book the Memoirs of Lady Hes-ter Stanhope. "No one in her house-sold was suffered to utter a suggestion ter Stanhope. "No one in her house-sold was suffered to utter a suggestion on the most trivial matter—even on the driving-in of a nail in a bit of the driving-in of a nail in a bit of wood: none were permitted to exercise any discretion of their own, but strict-ly and solely to fuifil their orders. No-thing was allowed to be given out by any servant without her express dir-ections. Her dragoman or secretary was enjoined to place on ber table each day on Account of every person's em-ployment during the preceding twenty-four hours, and the names and busi-ness of all goors and comers. Her despotic humor would vent itself in

DOMINION PRESBYTEKIA such phrases as these: The maid en-tered with a message—The gardener, my lady, is come to say that the piece of ground in the bottom is weeded and dug, and he says that it is only fit for lettuce, beans, or selk (a kind of lettuce), and such vegetables.' Tell the gardner,' she answered vehement-iy 'that when I order him to dig, he is to dig, and not to give his opinion what the ground is fit for. It may be for mine. He must know nothing un-til I send my orders, and so bid him go about his business.'' Following limmediately after this quotation from Lady Stanhope, Dr. Nicoll says...'The enthusiasm of many good meu for amalgamating all our nominations, Methodists, Baptists, Presbyterians, Episcopalians and the rest, puzzles me. The day will come when a truly catholic creed will be rest, puzzles me. The day will come when a truly catholic creed will be wrought out, and then will the true unity of life be achieved. But if con-victions are laid aside for the sake of of victions are laid aside for the sake of chinor, we have not the unity of the Church, but the unity of the church-yard. J. G. Lockhart, who was not by any means an enthusiast, remarked that it was a great thing that men should be willing to abandon their warm firesides and throw themselves on the world for a principle, even though that principle seemed to others this, unimportant, and largely uninthough that principle seemed to others thin, unimportant, and largely unin-telligible. The hiding-places of a slothful neutrality very quickly turn into graves. There is something to regret about our religious and theo-logical disputes. All of us who have taken part in them look back with sorrow to things said in heat. Still how many a living thing would die were these controversies to cease! They must go on till by legitimate means we have achieved a worthy agreement." And then we have the following from agreement." And then we have the following from Dr. Jos. Parker in an address to his people in the City Temple, "I have seen unity manifesting itself in diver-sity; blessed he God we shall agree in love and charlty; we shall never agree to avoitie only on but we shall agree in political opinion, but we shall agree in patriotism and patriotism is the larger, and so piety is more than ec-clesiasticism. I do not even object to the multiplicity of churches and small denominations in one village providing it be conducted in true spirit and in forbearance. This man thinks the rorbearance. This man thinks the Psalms should be magnified and the other thinks that doctrine should be made more prominent, etc., but let it be in love and forbearance."

All these men of experience evident-see that where discord exists it is due to a wrong spirit and not to out-side distinctions. As to the Foreign Field most of us would be prepared to say that on new ground a larger meas say that on new ground a larger meas-ure of union might be achieved, but it will be remembered that the recent Federal Council of the Churches in Philadelphia refused to advise organic union in the mission fields. It was distinctly no fields. It was distinctly no-ticeable at the recent great Missionary Laymen's Congress in Toronto that the unity and co-operation of all the churches in the enterprise of mis-sions was frequently referred to with the manifest approval of the audi the manifest approval of the- audi ence. But it was equally evident that the organic union proposad was not presed and, if indirectly touched uppresed and, if indirectly fourned u on by any speaker, it met with pra-tically no response. At the sar Congress each church held an e thusiastic denominational Conventisame en-Convention and at each one a policy of aggressive work was adopted. Each church seemed to feel its responsibility for its share of work at this crisis time and it was clear that the representa-tive men who attended these denomtive men who attended these denom-inational Conventions did not consider inational Conventions did not consider the organic union proposed was not practical possibility to be even dis-cussed. They therefore ignored it and went on with their work, not the one church against the other but each eager to do its share against a com-mon enemy. A recent writer in the Presbyterian referring to the Congress pithly says, — "Here is the unity of spirit and the unity of endeavor that dwarfs a union of creeds. It is sate to say that a union of creeds today is chimerical; but here beyond question or cavil is a union of purpose and per-formance that is a good thing and 'be-roming well' among brehren.'' Becently the matter of a National dwarfs a union of creeds.

coming well among brethren. Recently the matter of a National Church in India has been discussed and we clip the following from a Mis-and we clip the following from a Mis-sionary paper: An Indian Nation 4 Church. — The Rev. J. R. Chitam ar is the professor in the Reid Methalit Episcopal Mis-sion College in Lucknow, and is recog-nized as one of the leading Indian Christians of North India, on account of his wise, moderate and kind efforts for the Christian cause. He recently for the Christian cause. He recently gave an address before the mission-aries and Christian Workers in Luckaries and Christian Workers in Luck-now on the above heading. The National Church he defines as one controlled on native lines, in which the Christians of India will manage everything themselves, independent of anything from without.

Christianity has been presented to adia in the western garb, with wide-India in the western gard, with wide-spread rituals and westernized church policy. It does not seem to appeal much to the masses, because they regard it as a foreign religion, propa-gated by foreigners; a religion that had its birth in the Orient is presented had us birth in the Orient is presented in an Occidental fashion to the Orient now. To develop a church on native lines does not mean giving up the truths of Christianity, but the strip-ping them of their western garments and clothing them in Indian garb which fits thom well. Much can a garb which and cooling them in thuan garo which fits them well. Much can and ought to be done to make Christian thought and doctrine more Indian. Why worship in the Western fashion? Why not use more of the Indian hymn tunes?

Turning to the practical side of the question we were asked, "Does the Turning to the practical side of the question we were asked, "Does the National Church mean annihilation or abolition of existing denominations? or the amaigamation of the various de-nominations into one organic union? The latter, I for one hardly think feas-ble. Foreign money and exotic leader-ship are still in demand, first, because the people are poor to a large extent, and secondly, they are not sufficiently trained. India needs indigenous lead-ership. ership.

ership. "There cannot be one National Church unless all the churches in In-dia unite." This we do not believe to be possible. So long as men are ra-tional creatures, and so long as there is there is a considered there is heared tional creatures, and so long as there is lberty of conscience there is bound to be doctrinal differences between men. Why in the name of organic union should men be required to give up some doctrines which they honestly believe? Why do they insist on cloth-ing David in Saul's armor? Christ prayed for oneness in spirit in their at-titude towards men-absence of the spirit which makes people sey "I am titude towards men-absence or spirit which makes people say ' of Paul and I am of Apollos." ....T. It is sympathy, harmony, and oneness of spirit that should prevail so that Christians should stand shoulder to shoulder with their brother Christians shoulder with their brother Christians of all denominations ind preach the crucified Christ. Jus 'ook at Christ's own parables to illu 'at this truth. The ideal condition of the Christian Church is when "There shall be one fold and one shepherd." The Greek Church is when "There shall be one fold and one shepherd." The Greek word translated fold means flock; the flock may have many folds, but it is still one flock. Then again, "I am the vine, ye are the branches." All branches are not alike, and yet they are together in the same vine. With this kind of harmony and union among our various denominations Christian-tiy will be a stronger force in India this many our various denominations Christian-ity will be a stronger force in India than it has hitherto been. The found-ers of the National Missionary Soci-ers of the National Missionary Socithan it has mational Missionary, ers of the National Missionary, ety have been wise in mainta strictest loyalty to the churches.

Again, why should we force one par-ticular creed upon men? We cannot expect all our converts to accept the same creed if we give them liberty of conscience. "One man esteemeth one day above another; another esteemeth every day alike; let each man be fully

(Continued on page 13.)

The Quiet Hour

PAUL A PRISONER-THE VOYAGE. By Rev. J. M. Duncan, D.D.

This purpose, v. 13. A pilot, to be of ny real service, must know the port any real service, must know the port to which he is to bring the ship under bis charge. Let him be ever so well acquainted with the art of seaman-ship and ever so skilful in handling the wheel unleas he knows where the harbor to be reached lies, and the way to it, no one would entrust to his digo of passengers and freight. All voy-agers over the sea of life wish to reach the port of heaven. There is one Pill who knows where that port lies, an and Who knows where that port lies, and the way thither. Those who frust their lives to the guidance of Jesus, will surely reach, at last, the haven of eternal peace and joy: He will not suffer them to lose their way.

A tempestuous what, v. 14. Many a young man, who has just left the safe harbor of a sheltered home, to launch out upon life's uncertain sea, knows what it is to have the fierce storm of temptation to sweep down upon him with a force that threatens to destroy him. Every one so tempted more him. Every one so tempted may learn a lesson of courage and con-stancy from one who, early in life, was thrown amongst temptations him. stancy from was thrown many and s st temptations but he many and strong, but he through them all unscathed and un spotted. At the close of a useful and honorable life, he said that he had been saved and kept from evil, by having constantly before his mind, the beatitude, "Blessed are the pure in heart: for they shall see God." No young man's motto is better than this.

Could not bear up into the wind, v. 15. Botanists tell us that the fruits on the trees would have developed into new twigs and branches, only some force of nature interfered to prevent this. They were checked on their way, and their growth was stunted. But the life in the tree turned this to marvellous account. Out of the thwarted developments it brought forth the beautiful and delicious fruit.

Inwarted developments it brought forth the beautiful and delicious fruit. So God causes the disappointments and hindrances of life to work out for His children something far better than they would have obtained had everything gone smoothly. If we only knew how much we owe to the seem-ing ills of life, our complaints would be turned into songs of gratitude. They used helps, v. 17.—Early in the present year, the passengers and crew of the steamship Republic, salling out of New York harbor, were saved by the wonderful invention of wireless telegraphy, which enabled the operator to summon to the assistance of the distressed yessel other ships from miles away. In Paul's day mariners had only the sun and moon and stars to guide them, when land was out of sight. When these heavenly bodies were hidden, they had no human means of directing their course,—not sight. When these neavenip bodies were hidden, they had no humar means of directing their course,-noi even a compass. But, in modern, no no less than in ancient days, does safety at sea depend upon God. For He gave men the power to invent and improve the compass and to discover wireless telegraphy. He works through these "helps" and makes them effective. They all, in some way, reveal His power power. Be of good cheer, v. 22. It is said that an artist, when on his deathbed, called for his greatest picture. The secene was a shipwreck with dark clouds and raging seas, while the only light was a lurid one that added to the terror. "That cloud," said the dying artist, "is too dark; I must make it

*S.S. Lesson, October 31, 1909—Acts 7: 13-26. Commit to memory vs. 22-24. tudy Acts 27: 1-26. Golden Text— 27: 13-26. Commit to Study Acts 27: 1-26. Study Acts 27: 1-26. Golden Text-Commit thy way unto the Lord; trust also in him, and he shall bring it to pass.—Psalm 37: 5. brighter." And with the last touch of his brush, he c used a gleam of light to llumine the darkness. There is never a dark cloud in our llves but is brightened by some precious promise of God. There is always the light of hore and for it. Ministerme hope and joy in His pictures

I believe God, v. 25. People believe one another, or the business of life would be impossible. For example, the merchant takes in exchange for his goods a little piece of printed paper. He does so because on the bill is the promise of the Government or of sor bank to pay to the bearer in gold t amount named on the bill. But Go the But Govamount named on the bill. But Gov-ernments have sometimes been unable to may what they have promised, and becks have not seldom failed. But  $t_{-}$  as the beginning until now not one or God's promises has failed. We can be leve Him with the firm assurance that we shall never be disappointed.

THE UNCHANGING CHRIST.

Sweetest thoughts shall fail and learning falter, Churches change, forms perish, systems go; t our human needs, they will not But alter; Christ no after age shall e'er outamen! O changeless One, thou only

Art life's guide and spiritual goal! hou the light across the dark vale Thou tonely.

Thou the eternal haven of the soul! -John Campbell Shairp.

WANTED: A WORKER.

God never goes to the lazy or the idle when He needs men for His ser-When God wants a worker, He a worker. When He has work vice alls a done He goes to those who are to be already at work. When God wants a great servant He calls a busy man. Scripture and history attest this truth. Moses was busy with his flocks at Horeb. Saul was busy threshing wheat by Saul was busy searching for his Saul was busy searching for his father's lost beasts. David was busy caring for his father's sheep. Elisha was busy plowing with twelve yoke of oxen.

Nehemiah was busy bearing the ing's winecup.

1.1

ing's winecup. Amos was busy following the flock. Peter and Andrew were busy cast-ng a not into the sea. James and John were busy mending thale nets. Matthew was busy collecting customs. Saul was busy persecuting the friends of Jesus. William Carey was busy mending and making shoes.

Perfection is not produced by prun-Perfection is not produced by prun-ing alone, unless there be growth af-ter the pruning. But pruning is in-tended to promote growth by concen-trating the power of growth into the parts that need it most. When God prunes our lives and parts us from some unlovely trait or some unbecom-ing growth, his purpose is that we may be brought nearer to perfection. God's ways are good, even when they cause us pain. us pain.

O Lord and Master of us all. What e'er our name or sign, We own thy sway, we hear thy call. We test our lives by thine."

Whittier

If you have failed in your efforts to bring a friend to Jesus, keep on try-ing. Persistent faith is stronger than persistent unbellef.

LIGHT FROM THE EAST.

YOUNG

PEOPLE

By Rev. James Ross, D.D.

Wind-The prevailing wind in the eastern Mediteranean is from the northwest. This wind, which blows icearly all summer, and usually changes in August to the south, had continued longer than usual and hin-dered them. The autumnal equinox. a dangerous season for ships of that day, was at hand. Yet when the next a dangerous season for ships of that day, was at hand. Yet when the north-erly wind ceased, and a light breeze sprang up from the south, the sailors though their purpose was accomplish-ed, and they immediately set sail. But without a moment's warning the wind shifted, and a regular typhoon came down from the east by northeast solving the ship and whirling her round, so that it was impossible for the helmsman to make her keep her the helmsman to make her keep her course. These sudden hurricanes. which are still well known, are now called "Levanters" called "Levanters."

ų

Undergirding-Consisted in Undergirding—Consisted in passing stout hawsers around the ship, and then tightening them by twisting poles or spars into the slack of them. This is called among English sailors "frap-ping," and is still sometimes employ-ed. Several waterlogged Canadian timber vessels have been saved at dif-ferent times by being frapped. In Paul's ship the single mast caused a great strain on the centre. To lesson this, the great yard was lowered near the deck, and enough of the sail ex-posed to bring her as near the wind as possible. nassing as possible

MISPAH.

"The Lord watch between me and thee when we are absent one from an-other" (Gen. 31, 47) Two men, a heap of stones and a covenant vow, a compact of which God abiding between them was called to be the witness and seal forever. The suggestion, the need and the test were prompted by an immediate separation to be. The incident remains as a tok-en to the Christian hearts today who would have all earthly separations a true Mizpah of His presence and comfort. There are separations from which love is banished in exile; separations be-tween lives at variance by hatred and strife, diverging ways in the social sphere where the print of a humble Saviour's feet is not found; divisions between souls where no blood-bought covenent can scall nor page and trust covenant can avail nor peace and trust find place. Between these, no Mizpab scal, for God abides not. His watch-tower of protection rises not out of the midst in those separations where the will of His kindly spirit does not rule. rul rule. Wherever are set our Mizpah seals in the separations of life, in patient waiting in travel or in service let us not be far removed from the beacon of our Father's watchfulness, that His abiding love between us may span all chasms, heal all wounds, bridge every division, unite in Him all souls and make our hours apart from each other seasons of blest communion before one mercy-seat by grace and provision of mercy-seat by grace and provision of one Master and Lord who fills all volds by the mighty reaches of His unflag-ging interest.—Selected.

A neglected Bible means a starved and strengthiess spirit; a comfortiess heart; a barren life; and a grieved Holy Ghost. If the people, who are now perpetually running about to meetings for crumbs of help and com-fort, would only stay at home and search their Bibles there would be more happiness in the Church, and more blessing in the world. It is prosaic counsel; but it is true.—F. B. Meyer.

By the error of others the wise man corrects his own

"STUDY TO BE QUIET."

"STUDY TO BE QUIET." A great man of our own time has written abook in which he sings the praises of the strenuous life in lotty strains. The Bible commends the strenuous life when it says. "Be dill-gent." Whatsoever thy hand findeth to do, do it with thy might." There is another side to life which we cannot afford to overlook. The strenuous life, so far as it relates to worldy uursuits, may be, and often is, over-done. We need rest as well as labor. Quietness is as important as activity. Divine energy is still, and we may leave to be instant.' industrious and divinely quiet at the ame time. The Christian religion promotes quietness. "The kingdom of heaven cometh not with observation. It is not bolster-us, but restru."

ous, but restful. A Christian has a quiet mind. An-ger, fear, jealousy and deep grief dis-tract the mind. A guilty conscience is disquieting. "There is no peace to the wicked." "Conscience doth make cowards of us all." But the soul that trusts in the Lord is quiet. The Christian life is a quiet life. There is a loud life; a spectacular life, which is much in the public eye and the public prints. Some prefer a loud the public prints. Some prefer a loud life. Their manners are loud, their tastes are loud, and their talk is loud. a loud tastes are loud, and their talk is loud. A Christian, even though he may have vast estates, prefers a quiet life, a modest life. A quiet home is better than one of splendor and strife. The proverb says, "Better is a dry morsel and quietness therewith, than a house full of sacrifices with strife."

Quietness is necessary to good health. The prescription most fre-quently given by intelligent physicians quently given by intelligent physiclans is rest. Silence is an important factor in healing. Everyone needs quiet for thought and reflection. One who will think clearly must retire from the busy, noisy world. The man with a message worth hearing is the man who hear for a constant of the man who has for a season communed with his own soul in retirement.

We need quietness for our work. One might imagine that work and noise are inseparable, but they are not. If we will do our work well we must have a quiet mind. A mind distracted by deep grief or secret guilt is weak. Nature, for the most part, works in silence. Thunder and earthquake and storm are exceptions. The sun is quiet. Gravity is silent. The work of nature in decorating the world with beauty is silent work.

beauty is silent work. Quietness is essential to prayer and worship. Pray in secret. Make as lit-tie noise as possible in acts of worship. "The Lord is in his holy temple, let all the earth keep silence before him." When we seek fellowship with an earthly friend we do not take him into the noisy street or factory for conversation, but to some secluded spot where all is still. So when we would commune with God let us go into some silent place and speak to Him and listen to His voice.

When the inner life is in harmony with God there will be quietness and peace. Truth is quiet, error is noisy. peace. Truth is quiet, error is noisy. Lovo is quiet, but hatred and anger are violent. Wisdom is quiet, folly is clamorous. Strength is silent, weakness blusters. Humility is quiet, pride is loud. Courage is calm and confi-dent, cowardice is boisterous. Gooddent, cowardlee is bolsterous. Good-ness never sounds a trumpet before it, hypocrisy always does. Heaven is a quiet place, hell is an abode of dis-tracting din and confusion. When God is on the throne of the heart, reigning in materix and never and love all is in majesty and power and love, all is quiet and peace, but when the soul turns away from Him the storm rises. -N. Y. Christian Advocate.

My greatest sorrows are those of my own heart. Outward troubles serve ra-ther to steady than to disconcert me.-Rev. G. Paul.

"Do you feel that you love Chris."" was asked of an aged and dying Chris-tian. "Better than that," was the re-ply, "Christ loves me."

REV. ANDREW GAYADEEN.

By Rev. A. W. Thompson, M.A. Andrew Gayadeen, an earnest de-voted, faithful and successful native pastor of the Trinidad Mission, like the Rev. Lal Behari and other pioneer Indian workers to whom the Mission owes so much, is not a Trinidadian by birth, but by adoption. Young Trinidad's day to build up the church of Christ in this Island is now come, but the pioneer workers were all strangers from abroad. The, had strangers from abroad. The had come here seeking material olessings and had found other and better than they sought. They laid the founda-tions of the work, and now the native-tions of the work, and now the native-born are called to build thereen. The subject of our sketch was born at Sectapur, India, on the 5th of March, fifty-six Years ago. His par-ents were high-caste Brahmans, and the young lad was brought up ac-cording to the strict rules and cus-toms of his caste. When five years old he was sent to the Primary School, where he was the Primary School, where he was the Primary School, where he was taught to read fluently Hindi, the lan-guage in which he now preaches the gospel of peace and goodwill to his countrymen in Trihidad. At the age of fourteen years he was sent on to the Government Normal School at Lucknow. Here he remained for three years and qualified for his certificate as teacher, becoming at the same time proficient in Urdu, which is the language of the Mohammedars in India. in India.

As a Brahman he also mastered the acred Sanskrit language. Thus it came about that his early training both in language study in general knowledge fitted him fully for his future work, though and very in general knowledge fitted him very fully for his future work, though as yet he had never dreamed of being a Christian, much less a preacher of Christianity. It is part of a Brahman's education to make pilgrimages to the "sacred places." This is believed to confer very great merit. Young Gayadeen followed the beaten track of custom. He first went to Badinath to worship at the shrine of Vishnu, but whatever his expectations may have been. his

The inst went to Facinatin to worship at the shrine of Vishna, but whatever his expectations may have been, his experiences proved disappointing. His next pligrimage was to the schrine of Jagabinath, "where the crowds seemed to be greater, but the seriousness and sanctity less." While he thought on these things and brooded over his dismpointments, he heard of Trinidad. Many of his countrymen had settled there; and many were then discussing the ques-tion.—to go, or not to go. He quickly made ip his mind to go. Why, he probably could not say. Getting into touch with the immigration agent, he was conducted to Calcutta. In due time, along with nearly 700 others, he was conducted to Calcutta. In due time, along with nearly 700 others, he was placed on board a saling ship, which was quickly towed out to sea, and the voyage to far off Trinidad was begun. One hundred days later, the good ship came safely to anchor in the placid waters of the Gulf of the placid waters of the Parnia, off Port of Spain.

Parnia, off Port of Spain. A few days sufficed to get all in readiness, and the newcomers were despatched to the various estates to which they had been indentured. Gay-adeen was settled on a sugar estate four miles from Port of Spain. "Grow-ing canes" was a new and trying ex-perience for a young Brahman whose hands had never known toil, and it is not difficult to imagine what his not difficult to imagine what his thoughts and feelings must have been when first he took up the hoe to "beat his tost" his task.

He did not, however, lose heart, not He did not, nowever, lose neart, nor did he reglect the opportunities and privileges conferred by his caste of being a religious guide to his country-men, such he soon gathered around him a band of disciples who looked up to

A band of disciples who looked up to him as their guru. All this time he did not know Christ, and had scarcely heard His name. But one day a book came into his hands. It was called "The True Way." The missionary had visited the estate, and had preached Christ to all who would listen. When going away he distributed books and tracts. "The True Way" arrested Gayadeen's at-tention. He read it again and again, and then went and purchased a Bible, which he read with care. The truth took hold of him, and after a period of stress and storm he arrived at the cross where he found relief and cross where he found relief Deace.

*Y.P. Topic for October 31; Rev. Andrew

cross where he found relief and peace. Then came the struggle to confess Christ op-nly before all. He was a Brainman, worshipped by his diciples. They gave him of their best. If he became a Christian, many of them would give him of their worst. Over against that would be the friendship of the Christians, and might he not carn his bread as a Catechist? But the missionary was very uncompro-mising. "You must make a complete renunciation for Christ and look only to Him. I must not come in between your soul and your Savior. Neither now nor hereafter are you to apply for work as a teacher or catechist. If t think God and His work need you. I will call you. Go and pray over this and when you can follow Paul as Paul followed Christ, then come back." The three monthe that intervened were the real crisis in his soul's history. He taught his wife, prayed and waited till the love of Jesus made all clear to him. He returned to thank the missionary for his faithfulness and to ask for baptism, surrendering all the ask for baptism, surrendering all the most, and leaving all the future in the hands of Jesus.

After a time he was employed as a teacher and then as a catechist. When the College was opened, he took a high place in the first class and was ordained at Tunapuna April 3rd, 1896. Since that time he has labored at the Since that time he has labored at the Caroni centre as an acceptable preach-er, a wise administrator and a faith-ful worker. Our space is limited, and this is a mere sketch of a Brahman saved by grace, and made a preacher of the Gospel of peace. He is still in the vigor of manhood, and will, we hope, he long spared to fulfil his mis-sion sion.

Gouva, Trinidad.

DAILY BIBLE READINGS.

M.-A man chosen, 1 Sam, 16: 6-13 T.-A delightful experience, Isa. 12: 1-6. W.-A faithful ministry, 2 Tim. 4: T.—An eloquent man, Acts 18: 24-28. F.—A true-hearted man, Josh. 14: 6-

15

-Partakers of grace, Phil, 1: 1-11. S.-

PRAYER.

Blessed Christ, Thou didst come not to our genius and cleverness and learning, but to our love, our simplicity, our need, our brokenheartedness. To this man, said the high, the lofty one that inhabiteth eternity—will I look, to the man that is of a humble and contrite heart, and who trembleth at My word. May we be enabled to sup-ply the happy conditions under which Then will wildt our becate then Thu Thou will visit our hearts; then Thy coming-in shall be like the dawn of a summer day, and all that is within us summer day, and all that is within up will rejoice, as flowers are glad when blessed by the sunlight. We thank Thee for Thy holy book, Thy sacred altar, the place of common and public prayer, and the ground on which the rich and the poor alike can meet to call Thee Father, and to lift up their call Thee Father, and to bit up their eyes with a common expectation to the all-blessing and all-giving heavens. We usually say of such places and times, These are the miracles of God: these are the creations of love: these are the outcoming of the spirit of the cross of Christ.

It is only in this life that we can win souls for Christ.-E. M. Bruce.

Though an archer shoot not so high as he aims, yet the higher he takes his alm, the higher he shoots.—Leighton.

The life of man consists not in seeing visions and dreaming dreams, but in active charlty and willing service.— Longfellow.

Che Bominion Presbyterian

IS PUBLISHED AT

323 FRANK ST., - OTTAWA

AND AT

MONTREAL AND WINNIPEG

advance, $1.50.

PECIAL OFFER.-Any one sending up FIVE new names and $5.00 will be estitled to a FREE copy for twelve months.

The date on the label shows to what time the paper is paid for. Notify the publisher at once of any mistake in label.

Paper is continued until an order is sent for disco tinuance, and with it, payment of arrear-

Sen. ] all remittances by check, money order, or registered letter, male payable to the DO-MINION PRESBYTERIAN.

When the address of your paper is to be changed, send the old as well as new address. Sample copies sent upon application.

-----

Letters should be addressed :--

THE DOMINION PRESBYTERIAN, P. O. Drawer 503, Ottawa. C. BLACKETT ROBINSON.

Manager and Editor

OTTAWA, WEDNESDAY, OCT. 27, 1909.

The nuisance of automobiles on the "ublic roads in Great Britain may posibly be overcome by the building of roads exclusively for their use. A tax on gasoline is expected to provide the necessary money. This is a serious attempt to overcome a difficult problem.

A few days ago it was Lord Grey, now it is Lt.-Governor J. M. Gibson, of Ontario, who has broken over the bounds that doth hedge in governors, and he must also be pronounced guilty of militarism. In an address to the hoys of St. Andrew's College, Toronto, the other day he strongly advocated training in the use of the rifle, comparing it with goil playing to the serious discomfiture of the latter. But His Honor is an old rifle shot and evidently does not play golf.

The Dominion Presbyterian in past months has afforded full scope for the discussion of the Union question in its various aspects. It is well that our people should have before them the opinions of ministers and others for and against Union, so we make no apology for the space given Rev. R. G. MacBeth's caim and well considered plea for Federation rather than Organic Union. Rev. Alex. Henderson's criticism, also published in this issue. will be read with interest.

Rev. Mr. Allen's comments on the crowded condition in which many foreigners live in Winnipeg, to which he referred last week, seem to have been justified. One person has been fined for crowding twenty-five persons into three rooms, and another for crowding thirty-two persons into four rooms. Fancy 57 persons living in 7 rooms, in a country where there is so much room. There cannot be either proper sanitary conditions or decency where people live huddled together in such a manner.

THE DOMINION PRESBYTERIAN

THE NORTH POLE AND ITS VISITORS.

Our own Canadian, Capt. Bernier, has returned from the Arctic regions after an absence of fifteen months, and has an interesting story to tell of his experiences. Unlike Peary and Cook he does not claim to have readed the North Pole, though he had theories which seemed reasonable as to the best way by which that might accomplished. he His highest latitude was 8.40, and he has taken possession of territory hitherto unannexed in the name of Canada, though what use it will be it is difficult to conjecture, except as a possible hunting ground for those whose enthusiasm for sport may lead them to go so far. afield in search of game.

Meantime the controversy between Peary and Cook goes on. Why should they not both have reached pole? It is the second the It is true that it would be rather remarkable if, after all these years of effort, two explorers should have reached the goal independently. within a few months of each other, but there is nothing impossible about it. The glory consists in having been the first, and if Cook got there, as he alleges, and as Queen Alexandra, Greely the Arctic explorer, Knud Rasmussen, the celebrated Danish explorer and many other scientists think, Peary who has made a number of attempts, is deprived of that glory. The only reasonable ground one can see for doubting whether Cook got there, is the fact, if fact it is, that he said he reached the top of Mount McKinley when he really did not. He now announces that he is organizing a party to go there and procure the records he says he left. If he can prove his veracity as to Mount Mc-Kinley there will be the more reason to believe that he reached the North The two Eskimo who were Pole. with him have been interviewed by friends of both Cook and Peary and have told each the story which they wished to hear (doubtless an Eskimo characteristic) so their evidence appears to have become valueless, and proofs must be sought elsewhere. Peary has not conducted himself in an agreeable manner. It was a spiteful proceeding on his part to refuse to allow Harry Whitney to bring Cook's records and instruments on board the Roosevelt; so they had to be left in Greenland and will not be available till next year. His treatment of Capt. Bartlett too, is inexcusable. He allowed him to accompany him as far as latitude 88 degree, and when within measurable distance of their goal, sent him back to the ship, in order that he might have the glory of reaching the pole all to himself. It is also stated that he helped himself to some of Cook's provisions at Etah. Nor is his treatment of Iverdrup ten years ago forgotten.

The whole matter resolves itself into a question of personal veracity. It is unfortunate that scientists should so far forget themselves as to enter into a controversy that would be discreditable to the factions in opposing athletic teams.

After all, it may be asked, cui bono --what good will the discovery of the pole do? At one time it was thought that something of scientific or physical interest would be found. Neither Cook nor Peary tell us of any important discovery. The revolution of the earth on its axis was no more evident to the senses there than elsewhere. It may have been a novel sensation to see the polar star directly overhead, to know that all points of the compass had disappeared except south, and to be in a spot where there was only one day, and one night, of equal length, in a year. But these things were known before. No land was found, and if there was it would not be fit for colonization pur-The pole is not likely to beposes. come a summer resort, or a destination for excursions, even when flying machines have reached greater perfection. If Scott, who now feels encouraged to press on, should reach the South Pole, where there is supposed to be land, we will give him the glory, but after that the money, and the time, and the effort expended in these attempts to reach the ends of the earth may well be diverted in other directions which will be of greater service to humanity.

ñ

UNREST IN SPAIN.

King Alfonso of Spain is learning by sad experience the truth of the saying, "Uneasy is the head that wears a crowh." He is virtually a prisoner in his palace, for some of his subjects have vowed vengeance against him for having permitted Prof. Ferrer, a revolutionary leader, to be executed; and in other countries indignation meetings are being held and strong resolutions passed condemning the shooting of Ferrer.

With the merits of the Ferrer case we are not familiar, but we assume that he had a fair trial and his fate was the result of due process of law. The King might of course have intervened to save his life, for executive clemency can be and often is exercised, but Alfonso does not seem to have considered that this was a case which called for clemency. And so because the law was allowed to take its course the King's life is in peril. He had a narrow escape on his wedding day. Perhaps he will not escape so well at the next attempt.

the next attempt. As a further result of the condition of affairs a crisis has occurred at the Spanish capital. The government has been upset and a new premier and a new set of advisors assume control. Whether these changes will amount to a revolution or not remains to be seen, but the King and his queen, who is a nelec of King Edward of Great Britain, must be having a very uncomfortable time.

Mr. James H. Ashdowh, a merchant of Winnipeg, has given the munificent sum of $100,000 to Wesley College, in that city. The writer remembers when Mr. Ashdown commenced business as a working tinsmith in a little log shop on a side street in the Manitoban capital. He afterwards branched out into the hardware trade, and by industry and integrity has built up a large and prosperous business. It is satisfactory to see him devoting a portion of his wealth to the cause of education. Oth ers might well follow his example.

Friends are reminded of the Queen's University Alumni Conference, commencing Monday, ist November. A good programme has been arranged, and a large attendance is expected.

CHURCH UNION-THE BASIS.

By Rev. Alex. Henderson, M.A.

The London "Advertiger" of the 18th instant contained the following:

At St. Andrew's yesterday morning Rev. Dr. Ross took as his subject, "The Basis of Church-Union." He outlined the Calvinistic doctrine, touching upon total depravity, unconditional election. particular redemption, irresistible grace and perseverance of the saints, the five points in dispute.

Dr. Ross pointed out that with the exception of "particular redemption," all the other points menutoned are in the basis of the union. Particular redemption was, he thought, one of the least important points, and was more an outgrowth of the other parts than something justified by Scripture. It was the result, he said, of logic, and while there were a few texts that could be quoted in favor of it, there were many against it.

From the inception of this movement I have been rather opposed to it, not that I have any quarrel with, or prejudice against my Methodist brethren, but because I, like the late Dr. Potts, could not see how such a union could be brought about without the sacrifice of principles of religious belief on either side; believing as I do that such sacrifice ought not to be made, and could not be made without serious moral and spiritual loss to the church and to the world both now and in future generations. As a member of the Union Committee, Dr. Ross should know whereof he speaks-and he does not usually speak rashly. His utterances, therefore, on this question are worthy of consideration.

Assuming the above report, though brief, to be fairly correct, I gamber that his hearers are given to understand that so far as the doctrines of the Presbyterian Church are concerned, there is, except on one point, to be practically no change; or in other words that the system of doctrine known as Calvinistic, is the system of doctrine set forth in the basis of unlon, upon which in the basis of unton, upon which this be really so. I shall treatly rejoice; for I have no prejudice against union, but I think I have, and I hope I shall continue to have unwavering loyalty to divine truth (as I understand it), and to the honor of the Moss High. To all christian brethren who may differ from the indoctrine I heartily accord the same liberty and motive.

same liberty and motive. But this view implies a great change from the teaching that I have known as characteristic of Methodism, that with all due respect to Dr. Ross, I must hesitate to accept his view of the "basis" until I hear it indorsed by my Methodist brethren: this all the more that in reading the "basis" for myself I have not yet discovered what Dr. Ross seems to have found in it.

1. I find what is. I presume, meant for the doctrine of depravity; but it is not altogether the doctrine of the Presbyterian faith.

2. I find election, but not necessarily unconditional election. I see nothing inconsistent in it with the doctrine of an election founded on repentance, faith and perseverance therein; foreseen as the condition of it.

3. I find grace, but not irresistible grace. I do not care for this expression-"irresistible" grace. I much prefer to say "efficacious" grace.

4. "That the believer's hope of continuance in such a (holy) life is in the preserving grace of God" (Basis, Art. xil.). If this is what is intended for the Perseverance of the Saints," it appears to me a shallow delusion. I find nothing in it contrary to the view that a sinner converted and regenerated may in time fail away so as to be finally lost.

hnany rost.
5. As to represent the end of the

The object of this letter is not to discuss the rightness or wrongness of either side of the above doctrines; but I may be permitted to say that the greatness of this issue-Union-with the mighty and far reaching consequences that may result from it for good or ill-consequences that shall be forever beyond our control, demands that the utmost candour should obtain between the negotlating parties. If it is not to be a mere paper union, if we are "all to speak the same thing," through creed, we must first come to be "all of one mind." The basis of union, or doctrinal confression must be a straight forward, honest statement of divine truth, and not an agreement come to by an understanding to maintain silence on points where we may be aware of difference. One of the ostensible objects of the negotlations is to constitute a church that will be great, and strong as a regenerating power in the world. If so, she must bear witness to the truth. Her ministry must have a distinct message to the world founded on the Word; and a creed constructed mainly out of an attempt to blend Calvinsite and Arminian, or any other sets of discordant views, will never make a church, either great, strong, or influential. Whether the time is yet ripe for the different churches to gather around the Divine Word and construct a testimony from it-independent of Prestimony from it-independent of Prestime of an attempt to blend for an interd of Congregational bias instead of an attempted blending of all tree, is yever goubtito.

London, Oct. 21st, 1909.

WINNIPEG AND WEST.

Rev. D. Woodside, pastor of the Presbyterian church at Franklin, Man., has resigned his charge to accept the pastorate of the Sherman avenue church in this city.

The call of Knox Church, Brandon, to the Rev. Geo. Edmison, of Russell, Man., was sustained by the Brandon Presbytery and will be forwarded to the Presbytery of Minnedosa. The call was unanimous.

The induction of Rev. R. S. Laidlaw, as pastor of Saint Pau's church. Brandon, was conducted by Rev. J. S. Muldrew, of Souris, assisted by several other members of the Brandon Presbytery. Following the induction a reception was held in the Sunday school rooms, when Rev. and Mrs. Laidlaw were welcomed by a large number of the members of the congregation.

Earl and Countess Grey and party attended the morning service at Knox church on the 17th inst., when Rev. Dr. Du Val preached a strong sermon`on "The Turkish Empire, History and Diplomacy." The preacher, after outlining the features of some of the prominent intrigues in which Turkey had been a controlling figure, said that it was a blot on Christian civilization that such things should be allowed to continue.

At the evening service Dr. Du Val dealt with the execution of Ferrer at Barcelona on the edict of a court martial. He praised the spirit which revolted at the horrors of despotism and the humanity which sympathized with a suffering fellow man.

GLIMPSES OF BAZAAR PREACHING

The Eev. D. F. Smith sends to Rev. Dr. MacKay, F. M. Secretary, the follewing brief notes of addresses given by natives in the Bazaar. They give glimpses of Missien work in India. Much preaching is done in the open, on the street, by the village well, anywhere—wherever an audience can be found. It requires much readiness in reparties to answer promptly and effectively the questions and remarks that come from the crowd. Experlence cultivates such readiness, and it is still true—"it shall be given you in that Sections what ye shall speak."

"Pandi. Ram Charn was the first speaker. He said,—you call me Pandit, and Maharai, and Brahmin, and say well, for so I am, but let me tell you how it is possible to be a Pandit. I went to 'Kashi' (Benares) and studied with the greatest Pandits in Hindustan (India). But not for that reason do I count myself wise, because the greatest wisdom is this,—that God through His word has revealed: His love in Jeeus. By accepting that revelation of God in Jesus all will become Pandits.

You call me Brahmin because I was born in that caste. Let me show you who are Brahmins. They and only they who know "Brahm" can be Brahmins. But you may all become Brahmins, because it is written in the Bible. To as many as received Him to them gave He power to become the sons of Ged, even to them who believe in His name.

in His name.' Hira, a compounder from the hospital said,--We are all like travellers and this world is like Sara (resthouse) and we are here only for a night, and when we pass from this world we go alone. In that other world the place in which we abide will be the place which the road on which we are now travelling leads to. If we travel on the road called sin we will arrive in the place prepared for sinners. In the hospital every day from one to two hundred patients for treatment-and what do I see. It is that the sickness of many is brought on by their breaking God's laws. God is calling you to turn from sin and to place failt on the Lord Jesus Christ and 'o bring forth fruits worthy of repentance, that you may inherit the place prepared for those that love Him.

The third speaker said—My name is Feroz Khan, and from my name you know that I am born a Mohammedan. At once one from the crowd said—"iff you were a Mohammedan why did you leave the religion in which you were born." Listen and I will tell you. I read in the "Quran" that Jesus Christ the Son of Mary, is holy and undefiled and is called the "Ruh-ul-allah" (The Spirit of Gol). It is also necessary for every Mohammedan to read and ancept four books, the "Tauver" (Paalms), the "Injli," (The Gospel); and also the "Quran" (Koran). I read these four books and for that reason I am here to-day, to give witness that not "Mohammed" tor "Huslan," nor any other, but the Christ of the Gospel is able to save and keep from sin."

Rev. J. F.' Macfarlane, of Warkworth, Ont., eccepts the call to Zion church, Hull, and his induction will likely take place in November. Mr. Macfarlane was born near Kingston, and studied at the Kingston, collegiate, having as classmates, amongsi others, Messrs. Jackson and Pred Booth of Ottawa. He graduated at the university in 1880 and two years later graduated with honors in theology, gaining his B.D. In June of 1892 he entered upon his first pastorate at South Mountain, remaining there for more than ten years. Warkworth was his next charge, and the seven years he has been there have been marked by wonderful progress. Mrs. Macfarlane has also been an active church worker.

STORIES POETRY

The Inglenook

BARBARA'S DONATION.

By Elizabeth Van Nest.

If the young minister had been of a sanguine, easily satisfied temperament he might have accommodated himself to circumstances and drifted along as his predecessors had done. But James to circumstances and drifted along as his predecessors had done. But James Morgan brought the enterprise of a modern theologian to the little hamlet, straggling down either side of a high hill, on a summit of which perched the church, like a snow temple.

As the church occupied the centre of As the church occupied the centre of the village, the young minister reasofi-ed that it ought to be the centre of interest also. But, try as he would, he could not awaken the devotional spir-it. His parishioners were niggardly in their offerings, the attendance waa small and interest slight. His sermons were lost on the slow thinking wor-shippers; his musical departures were a failure. failure

But the Rev. Mr. Morgan did not despair. He had the square jaw that despair. He had the square jaw that accompanies the aggressive nature. The elasticity of his hopes was phe-nomenal. He simply would not be discouraged. He had accepted the call in full knowledge of the drawbacks. The score of shabby houses classed under the name o fMaywood repre-sented only a tithe of the church mem-bership. It was the prosperous farm-ers whose indifference he must change and conquer with his eloquence.

So James Morgan brought to Maywood a large stock of air castle mate-rial with which he beguiled his leis-ure. He would institute many reforms. rial with which he beguied his leas-ure. He would institute many reforms. The church should escape from an enveloping mortgage and, assuming a paying basis, make many missions glad from its plenty. It should be the mainspring, social and ecclesiasti-cal, on which the village turned. He even proposed that the parsonage be let and the proceeds devoted to the county hospital, a proposal that met with unanimous approval, and the minister took up his residence under Widow Fleming's roof. Until the end of the first quarter things moved smoothly. The new min-ister found work to do wherever he looked. And, being generous, he for-got to be cautious when need pulled at his pures strings. Hardly realizing it, he at length found his generosity must be governed by his'means until he received his first quarter's salary.

he received his first quarter's salary. But at the end of the second quarter the first quarter's salary was still un-paid. With a board bill two weeks in delinquency the minister, blushing and stammering, informed his parishioners Stammering, informed his partisilioners of their negligence. While their profuse excuses satisfied him, he could not see his way clear to satisfy Mrs. Fleming. The fact that wheat was a failure would not recom-pense her for his board and lodging. Therefore the Rev. Mr. Morgan did the only thing possible from this point of view. He went to the city next day with a mysterious package. Shortly after the doctor drove three miles to borrow his microscope and was in-formed that he had disposed of it. "I have so little time for -experi-ments, you know," he explained, with heightened color. "I could use the money to better advantage."

money to better advantage." From this emanated a rumor that at length reached Barbara Dean's ears. The new minister was so philanthropic he had given up his pet hobby to aid the a poor. A wee and timid question mark set A wee and timid question mark set tiself upon her heart. Perhaps she had been hasty. There was none quite like him—so big, so firm, so brave. It was very singular that he had not asked again—he who in theory scorned de-feat. Pretty Barbara did not know that the hope crushed by her laughing was the only inelastic one in his stock of dreamy. A of droama

As the third quarter drew to a close As the third quarter drew to a close without remuneration the minister mentioned the fact again, this time with fewer bushes and a graver air. His needs were urgent. Day after day he scanned his mail anxiously for the expected check, only to be disappoint-ed. But, appreciating the hard times, other trips to the city with mysterious Deckages were made packages were made packages were made. Returning from one of these visits one night, Mr. Morgan was surprised to see a motley collection of teams and vehicles around Widow Fleming's gate. Lights shone from every win-dow of the cottage, including his study and bedroom. The minister was tired and in no mood to participate in a surprise party on his landlady. But knowing her limited space, it would be churlish to demand privacy. He must here a partments into his with minis-terial welcome. Forcing the weariness terial welcome. Forcing the weariness from his face, he ran lightly up the steps and opened his study door. Ranged around the wall was a solid row of chairs, from which smiling faces glowed upon him in welcome. Overrunning the centre table and piled on the floor was a collection that at first seemed to be the stock of a gro-cery store. He singled out a sack of flour and various stone jugs with corn-cob stoppers as he picked his way to a small oasis of bare floor beyond. But, stumbling against one of the a small cashs of bare floor beyond. But, stumbling against one of the bulging packages, the paper burst and a stream of walnuts poured forth. "Pardon me!" he gasped, trying to repair the damage on his knees. "Very awkward of me, I'm ance." The silence was -xtentous, and. flushed with con'r o, the minister looked up straight and bar and the looked up straight and bar and was his undoing. The walnuts slipped from his grasp and, striking anther bag, liberated a pack of pop-corn. He stood up guiltilly. "Please forgive me, Mrs. Fleming," he apologized. "I am sorry if my awk-wardness has disclosed your gifts too soon."

"They're not Miss Fleming's," cor-octed Deacon Brown." They're yours.

We thought we'd give you a donation 'stead of money, times are so hard.'' The Rev. Mr. Morgan unconsciously backed a step. "For me? But, deacon, I have no use for these-er-raw com-modities. It is very kind of you-but -but'--but'

-but"-"Besides this, there's a side of meat and a firkin of butter outside," put in Mrs. Fleming proudly. "Now that you've seen them Td better take the molasses out too. It's so warm in here," picking up two of the jugs. "By all means," said the minister. wiping his forehead, and in the gen-eral conversation that ensued he found himself near Barbara Dean. "I did not expect to see you," he said in a low volce.

"I am spending a few days with Cousin Bess," she answered. "Are

"I am spending a few days with Cousin Bess," she answered. "Are you so devoted to Maywood that you have forgotten your old Triends?" "Only those who wished to forget me," significantly; then, with a de-spairing glance at the loaded table. "What shall I do with it?" he asked. "A family of ten could not consume that perishable stuff before it spoils. Why did they bring so much?" "The unwritten law of a donation party is that none may attend without bringing a present," she said com-posedly. "Then what special donation must I thank you for," ironically—"the sack of flour?"

of flour?" She laughed. His dismay was so comical. She did not know the desper-ate state of his finances. "I did not bring anything," she said. "I could not-to you." Something in her voice lent sudden flexibility to his most inelastic hope. With her love to cheer him on he would yet make of Maywood his ideal

"Come with me a moment," he said leading her to the deserted window nearest the church. "I had bright nearest the church. "I had bright dreams when I came here, Barbara," he went on. "I have learned to love the church and the people. If I go away now my work will be wasted. But I think I shall go when my year is up," up," "Where?" she asked quickly.

SKETCHES

TRAVEL

church.

"Where?" she asked quickly. "Anywhere-to any church that pays a salary," desperately. "That collec-tion represents my, work for nine months. It is not enough, Barbara. You said that no one may attend a donation party without a present. I am waiting for yours. If you want me to stay here you must do your part. The deacons and elders have looked after the needs of the material man. You must provide for his spiritual nature." nature.

She played with the widow's curtains nervously. "You said would not ask me again," she best she reminded.

minded. "I have not. You did well to say no," bitterly. "If my work is worth only butter and flour you are justified in forgetting me as quickly as possi-ble. Maywood can keep its donation.

ble. Maywood can keep its donation. I shall leave at once." A change flashed across her pretty face. The mischief vanished, and in its place stole a tender blush. "Don't be hasty, James," she whispered, with a furlitye glance over her shoulder. "Perhaps with my donation we can use the rest. When will the parson-age be empty?" "Til give the tenant notice tomor-row," he answered happily. Then, under cover of the widow's voluminous curtains, with the church looking on in solemn witness, he accepted her do-nation with a kiss.

nation with a kiss.

ANTS HAVE COMBS.

No creature is more tidy than an ant, who cannot tolerate the presence of dirt on her body. These little creatures acutally use a number of real toilet articles in keeping themreal tollet articles in keeping thefj-selves clean. No less an authorfly than Dr. McCook says their tollet articles consist of coarse and fine toothed combs, hair brushes, sponges and even washes and soap. Their salva is their liquid soap, and their saiva is their liquid soap, and their cort tongues are their sponges. Their combs, however, are the genuine ar-ticle, and differ from ours mainly in that they are fastened to their legs. The ants have no set time for their toilet operations, but stop and clean up whenever they get solled.—St. Nicholae Nicholas.

A DOG'S ATONEMENT.

A Chicagoan has a retriever, Jack, who has been trained to fetch slip-pers. Jack, one day, was bad, and they turned him out of the room. Ashamed and dejected, he went away, he knew that he pleased his master by fetching slippers. Therefore, to be microcontent the heavent atone for his misconduct, he brought all the shoes and slippers he could find, and laid them in a heap before door finally, there sat Jack, looking up wistfully and wagging his tail. hile beside him lay some thirty shoes and slippers

FAMOUS BRITISH OAK

In the village of Polstead (Suffolk) stands a famous oak, which the rector has proved by researches to be 2,000 years old. It has a girth of thirty-six feet, and has always been known as the Gospel Oak, as under it the first Christian missionaries preached to the heathen Saxons thirteen centuries ago. Each year this is commorated by a special service under the tree—London Evening Standard.

10

THE VIKINGS.

By Dr. Oscar Montelius,

During the second century emigra-tion from Scandinavia was noticeable and the Viking period of the ninth and tenth centuries was a continuation of this emigration, but by different means this emigration, but by different means and in other directions. The spirit of travel is not yet dead in the Swedes, and they have peopled large portions of the present United States. The earlier migracions had been to the south, by the transcontinent 1. route through Germany and Austria, those of the Vikings included northern Cer-many, England, Scotland, Normandy and Russia. and Russia and Russia. In the earlier times the Scandinnvians were much at home in northern Ger-many, for they were akin in blood to the people, but such war the admixture of southerners with the Germans in the earlier centuries of the Christian era that they found themselves in a way in a forsign country. Some of these travels were truly remarkable. The Vikines, skilled in the handling way in a forsign country. Some of these travels were truly remarkable. The Vikings, skilled in the handling of their boats, which had sails, cross-ed the Baltic, sailed up the Dwina river, till at a convenient place there was a short "carry" to the Dnieper which they followed down to the Black Sea. Coasting Crimea into the Black Sea. Coasting Crimea into the sea of Azof, they followed up the Don to another convenient place across Don to another convenient place across which they transported their boats to the Volga, down which they sailed to the Caspian. When one considers the times and the means, such journeys were wonderful, and betoken remark-able knowledge of the geography of eastern Europe eastern Europe.

In Russia the Vikings met the Arabs, In Russia the Vikings met the Arabs, just as one may meet to-day at Nizhni-Novgerod the people from the south, and many Arab coins came into the possession of the Scandinavians. As many as 20,000 such coins have been exhumed in Sweden, and it is thought that from the stock of money all the silver was produced which these people used for their expandents. The again silver was produced which these people used for their ornaments. The quan-tity of silver and number of coins are evidences of the great amount of the trade. One of the interesting items relating to this journeying is the story of an Arab. Ibn, Fozlan, who in the tenth century describes the death of a Scandinavian merchant in the interior Scandinavian merchant in the interior of Russia and tells how he was buried with ceremonies in his ship, a close confirmation of the customs that have been observed so ôtten in so many of the graves of Sweden.

It was a comparatively simple matter for the Vikings to coast and hence it is not strange that they skirted Nor-It is not strange that they skirted Nor-way to the northern ocean and into the White Sea, where they made land-ings at Archange. Swedes and Nor-wegians together went to England, to Scotland and to the Isle of Man. A sume smeaks of a Swede who had have Scotland and to the Isle of Man. A rune speaks of a Swede who had been to England and had returned. There were many of these emigrants to Northumberland| They occupied Scot-land and Ireland, and were in the Manxland for two eventuries, taking with them possibly that form of the Swastika which is to-day the emblem of the island, the three running legs. the trisule. In all of these countries there are many evidences of the oc-cupation of them by the Scandinavians. they had coasted to the north, so Vikings skirted the shore to the As Gibraltar and even to the Adriatic. A lion that guards the arsenal in Venico lion that guards the arsenal in Venico has carved on his side a Scandinavian rune, showing the presence there a thousand years ago of men from the north. It is said, indeed, that the Vikings went once on an expedition to conquer Rome, but someone misin-formed them as to the location of the Imperial City, so that it was only one of the smaller places they got for their of the smaller places they got for their pains. A rune tells of a man with five sons; one died in Greece and others lived in Constantinople.

From Ireland to Iceland was only a short distance for these skilled sail-ors, and the Scandinavians settled the country, which before that time had been merely the retreat for a few re-ligious recluses. From Iceland to Greenland and thence to Vinland were the further voyages of the Vikings.— The American Antiquarian and Oriental Journal.

COURTESY.

A new and rather awkward states-man, still unused to the life about him, was taking ica at the house of a lady, and was suddenly overwhelmed with mortification by beset with mortification by breaking the beautiful Sevres cup from which he had been drinking. But before he could frame an apology its mate met with an accident in the hand of the hostess, an acclient in the hand of the hostess, and she turned to the servant with a quiet order: "Never put these cups on again; they're too brittle for use." She considered the sacrifice of a costly cup, nothing in comparison with the com-fort and self-respect of a guest; and yet many persons seem to think that beinging the blunders and ignorance f others into notice is a proof of their own superiority. The democracy that teaches the finest and truest courtesy is Christianity.

AUTUMN LEAVES.

In the hush and the lonely silence Of the chill October night Some wizard has worked his magic With fairy fingers light. The leaves of the sturdy oak trees

red

Are splendid with crimson and And the golden flags of the map Are fluttering overhead. the maple

Through the tangle of faded grasses There are trailing vines ablaze. And the glory of warmth and color

And the glory of warmin and color Gleams through the autumn haze Like banners of marching armies That farther and farther go; Down the winding roads and valleys The bougas of the sumacs glow

So open your eyes, little children. And open your bearts as well, Till the charm of the bright October Shall fold you in its spell.

ON RAINY DAYS.

"I've fixed up for the children," apo-"I've fixed up for the children," apo-logized a friend when I happened in. one rainy day, and found her arrayed as if for a party. "They have got so they expect it now; it is as much a matter of pride to them as a new dress for themselves would be. When a rainy day fairly sets in I don my party gown and hold a reception for the children. Occasionally I allow them to children. Occasionally I allow them to invite several of their little friends to invite several of their little friends to supper, and at these times I plan an entertainment a triffe out of the or-dinary, and allow the children also to 'fix up,' as they call it. A rainy day is never a dull one in our home; in fact, I think it is rather looked for-ward to by all of us."

This idea of dressing up for the sake of one's children is an excellent one, as it not only gives them a sense of pride in their mother, but also teaches them to practice those little acts of courlearned nowhere so readily as in home. the

The mother who allows herself to drop into disorderly, untidy habits of dress, and employs a rainy day, when no company is expected, to wear shabby apparel, or fail to arrange her hair becomingly; in a word, the mother who wears her working regalia all day bewears her working regain all day be-cause it is a little less trouble, will soon find her children developing equ-ally lax habits. Mother sets the ex-ample which all observing children are bound in time to follow. The custom of dressing up only when

The custom of dressing up only when company is expected, or when the weather is fine, is a bad one to get into. It fosters a feeling of disrespect in the children for the mother who has so little consideration for those of her own household as to allow them to view her in clothes in which she would be ashamed to have her next neighbor see her arrayed.—Helen Richardson, in The Housekeeper. do

SAFETY FOR CHILDREN. Mothers should never give their little ones a medicine that they do not know to be abso-lutely safe and harmless. The so-called soothing medicines contain opiates that stupify the child without curing its ail-ments. An over dose of these medicines may kill the child. Baby's Own Tablets is the only child's medicine that gives the mother the guarantee of a gov-ernment analyst that it contains no poisonous opiate or harmful drug. The Tablets cure consti-pation. indigestion, wind colic, diarrhoea, destroy worms, break up colds, and make teching easy. Sold by all medicine deal-ers or by mail at 25 cents a box from The Dr. Williams Medicine Co., Brockville, Ont. *****

SAFETY FOR CHILDREN.

11

* * * * * * * . MAY OR MUST.

.

Elsie had brought an acquaintance ome from school with her, and Mrs. arkin heard them talking together Parkin their dolls.

"Will you plase see what time it is?" asked Corinne, the little visitor. "Oh, it isn't time for you to go yet!"

"On, it isn't time for you to go yet: answered Elsie. "Well, I want to be home by half-past five," was the reply, "because if I am, mamma is going to let me set past live, was the teppy, the teppy I am, mamina is going to let me set the table and help her get tea." "Do you like housework?" asked El-sie, "I just hate it!" "Oh, I love to dust and set table and the help. I have be made her make beds! . Mamma let me make her bed yesterday because I stood ten in spelling."

"I thought making beds was awfully nard," returned Elsie. "I never did any but my mother said the other day that I'd got to make my own pretty soon."

"You'll like it," Elsie went on, hap-ly. "It is fun to see how smooth Fily. "It is fun to see how smooth you can make the bedclothes, and pat

Filly. "It is run to any you can make the bedclothes, and pat you can make the bedclothes, and pat out the pillows." "You don't like to sweep, do you?" queried Elsie. "Mamma made me run the carpet sweeper round the library last Saturday, because I got some lit-ter on the floor, but 'twasn't any fun." "Oh, I think that's nicer than any-thing?" broke out Corinne in a sur-prised voice. "Mamma lets me run the sweeper round all the rooms Sat-urday morning, if I've been real good. Sometimes I play I'm taking my little baby sister out to ride. It is fun to see how much brighter the carpet is where you've been, too. Last time the bright streaks I made was where the grass had been cut." "Maybe I'd like that," responded Elsie. The doorbell put an end to the talk as far as Mrs. Parkin was concerned. and the little visitor soon went home. Elsie's mother thought things over that evening and resolved that she would say "may" oftener and "must" less. "It never occurred to me to treat little household dutics as privil-egos," sho said to horself. The next Friday Elsie brought home an unusually good school report. Now was Mrs. Parkin's chance. "You have been such a good scholar this week," she said, "I am going to tet you help me bake to-morrow." She smiled, yet she wondered how her lit-tle girl would take the profiered ze-ward. She need not have fared. "Oh, and may I stir the molasses in-to the gingerbread and cut out the cookles?" Elsie cried. "Yee, "a binder.

The doorbell put an end to the talk

"Oh, goody!" was the response. The "helping" was really a hinder-ing but Mrs. Parkin overlooked that part of it, feeling that she had made a gain in the right direction. Aftera gain in the right direction. After-ward when Elsie was "allowed" to use the carpet sweeper in the sewing-room, and went to her task with alacrity, her mother was thankful for the unconscious assistance of little Corinne.

CHURCH WORK

Ministers and Churches

OTTAWA.

Mr. Thompson, of the Montreal Presbyterian College, was the preacher in St. Paul's Church on Sunday, It is expected that at an early date this congregation will secure a successor to Dr. Armstrong.

to Dr. Armstrong. The installation service in connection with the induction of Rev. Dr. Armstrong, late of St. Paul's, into the Presidency of the Ottawa Ladles' College, will be held in the Sabbath School Hall of St. Andrew's Church, Ottawa on the evening of Nov. 1st, at so'clock. Rev. Dr. Herridge is to give the address of the evening. All the Presbyteries of the Synod of Montreal and Ottawa will send representatives. Rev. N. H. McGillivray, of St. John's. Cornwall, will represent the Presbytery of Glengarry and conveying greetings.

ings. At the morning service in the Glebe Church, Rev. M-. Milne, pastor. preached from the text Happy is the People Whose God is the Lord. He dwelt on the material resources of Canada, of its abundant harvests and its general prosperity. He referred to the great influx of immigration, and said that while this latter was a cause for a rejoicing it was also a so different from there from other lands whose customs and ideals were so different from those of the people of this country was a thing which needed great thought. There should be great efforts put forth to instruct them into the ways of this country and of Christianity.

On Sunday evening Rev. Dr. Herridge preached an eloquent Thanksgiving sermon in St. Andrew's Church to a large congregation which included Earl Grey and party from Government House. In the course of his sermon Dr. Herridge said it coull be nothing short of a catastrophe if the rampant military spirit of Europe was allowed to become fastened upon this continent. No country better holds the golden mean between thraldom and lawlessness than Canada. Referring to the French Catholic Canadians, and English speaking Protestant Canadians he said that no one but a bigot will regret the enrichment given to Canadian annals by two great races and two great forms of Christian creed.

ian creed. Obedience to God's will is the condition of a Nation's True Greatness, was the subject of Rev. Dr. Ramsay's Thanksgiving service in Knox church on Sunday. "The forces," he said, "that give virility to a people are not so much material as spiritual. Today we are supposed to give thanks to God for the success of this season's labor, and with larger crops than ever before in the West, as well as great prosperity in every part, we have reason to be thankful. But the discoverles which have proven that Canada is more than a few acres of snow have upset our judgment of the relative values. It is not the man of lofty character, but rather the millionaire that is idolized. We have gone far in the belief that luxury assures happiness but this text tells us that it is the seeds of a nation's death.

On Oct. 11 the congregation of Avonmore met for the purpôse of making choice of a pastor. Rev. W. D. Bell, moderator pro tem, wrote the namos of the candidates on a blackboard, 12 in all. A vote was taken and the result was that Rev. G. D. McPhee, B.A., of Belfast, P.E.L, was the choice of the congregation by a large majority. This choice was made unanimous by a standing vote. The stipend is $1,00%, payable monthly, and four weeks' vacation.

EASTERN ONTARIO.

Mrs. Rev. Keith, of Prescott, who has been seriously ill for over a month with typhoid fever, has been pronounced out of danger, and though still very ill is on the road to recovery.

Rev. A. G. Cameron and wife of Brockville, spent a brief holiday at Fitzroy Harbor, renewing acquaintance and taking a needed rest. Mr. Cameron conducted the Presbyterian church service last Sunday night.

The re-opening services of St. Andrew's Church, Appleton, were conducted by the pastor, Rev. Mr. Henderson, and proved most successful. On Monday evening a social was held at which an attractive program was presented. The proceeds amounted to over 180.00.

over 360.00. The Brockville Presbyterial Union of the Young People's Guilds will hold its annual convention in St. Paul's Church, Winchester, on Monday evening, November 1st, and all day Tuesday. The principal speakers who will be heard at the sessions are Rev. Dr. MacGillivray, Toronic, and Rev. A. E. Mitchell, Hamilton.

Rev. Wm. Mackenzle, of Douglas, and Rev. Dobbin, of Braeside, exchanged pulpts on a recent Sunday. Mr. Mackenzle, as representing the Presbytery of Lanark and Renfrew, urged on the congregation of Braeside, Dewars and Sand Point an increase in their givings that the Augmentation Fund may be relieved to the extent of its grant in support of ordinances at the places above mentioned.

The W.F.M.S. of the Spencerville Presbyteran Church held its annual thankoffering meeting in the church on Thanksgiving evening. A short musical program was rendered by the choir, with duets by Mrs. and Mr. Chas. Smail, and Mesars. Smail and McGuire. Rev. Mr. Keith, of Prescott, was the speaker of the evening, and McGuire. Rev. Mr. Keith, or Grescott, was the speaker of the evening, and this address on "The Privilege of Giving" was listened to with great pleasture by all present. After the program the ladles of the auxiliary served refreshments, and a social hour was spent. The offering amounted to $36.68.

Reference was made last week to the anniversary services conducted at Gravel HII, by Rev. Principal Scrimger. On Monday following a Harvest Home supper and entertainment were held. The supper was served in the orange Hall at 6.30 p.m. Afterwards the entertainment was held in the church, the chair being occupied by Rev. Mr. Drysdale, who after a few remarks, called on Rev. Mr. Bell of Finch to address the large audience. Everyone enjoyed his bright and helpfui taik. This was followed by a musical program which was greatly appreciated. A very enjoyable evening was brought to a close by singing the National Anthem.

The annual thank offering meetings of the W. F M. S. of the two churches at Smith's Falls were held on Thursday afternoon, and they were of special interest, as it was the 25th anniversary of the organization of the W. F. M. S. in Smith's Falls. In St. Andrew's church most interesting reminizectees of the work of the society during the past twenty-five years were given by Miss Margaret Campbell, the secretary. An inspiring address was given by the pastor's wife, Mrs. D. N. Coburn, and the uffering amounted to $100. In St. Paul's church the story of the work accomplished in the past twenty-five years was told by Mrs. (Senator) Frost, who was one of the charter members, and a collection amounting to $33 was taken.

WESTERN ONTARIO.

NEWS `

LETTERS

Rev. E. Leslle Pidgeon, of Knox Church, St. Thomas, conducted anniversary services at Bethel Church, Proof Line, last Sunday, Rev. W. G. Wilson, M.A., of St. Andrews, Guelph, will not accept the call to Old. St. Andrew's, Toronto, as assistant and successor to Dr. Milligan.

Rev. F. C. Harper.

Rev. F. C. Harper. Rev. Dr. McCrae, of Westminster, conducted anniversary services in St. Paul's church, Sarnia, last Sunday, Rev. J. R. Hall, of St. Paul's taking the services at Westminster.

Rev. Dr. Ross, of London, conducted anniversary services—the twentieth in the history of the congregation and the seventeenth of the induction of their pastor, Rev. John Currle,—at Belmont last Sunday.

The Komoka Church, after a thorough renovation, was re-opened last Sunday, Rev. Dr. Nixon preaching in the morning and Rev. Thomas Mitchell, of new St. James Church, London, conducting the evening services.

There has been organized at Pefferlaw an auxiliary of the W. F. M. Society with a membership of sixteen. It will be known as Cooke's. The following officers were elected:-Hon, President, Mrs. (Rev.) Overend, Sutton; President, Mrs. John Evans; Vice-president, Miss C. Armstrong; Organist, Mrs. Wm. Graham; Secretary, Mrs. Foyd Weir. The mission church sometime ago started by Knox Church. Hamilton, has now become self-sustaining and a movement is on foot for the organization of an independent congregation

The mission church sometime ago started by Knox Church. Hamilton, has now become self-sustaining and a movement is on foot for the organization of an independent congregation which shall be alded financially and otherwise by Knox as may be found necessary. Hamilton Presbytery will be asked to take action in this direction at its meeting on first Tuesday in December.

Rev. E. A. Mitchell, of Knox church, Hamilton, in the course of an instructive sermon, made the following pointed reference to the crying vice of the age: Gambling destroys self-respect; develops meanness, ministers to selfishness, destroys industry, take away reverence for God, destroys respect of days, law and home, and is opposed to the spirit of Jesus Christ, good society and good morals. Rev. George A. Wilson, of Vancouver, and good morals. Rev. George A. Wilson, of Vancouver, superintendent of missions for British Columbia and the Yukon, has been visiting London and neighborhood. He makes a strong appeal for men and money for the work on the Pacific cost. Mr. R. Elliott has offered his services as a lay catechist for home missions in British Columbia for six months in response to Mr. Wilson's appeal.

The Methodists of Camden East, will worship in the Presbyterian Church while the interior of their own is being renovated.

Says the Montreal Witness:—A pretty house wedding took place at Howlek when Miss C. A. MacKeracher, only daughter of the late Kev. C. M. MacKercher, was united in marriago to the Rev. W. E. Wallace, of Corunna, Ont., The Rev. R. L. Ballantyne performed the ceremony and Mrs. W. Latimer presided at the plano. Among the many beautful gifts to the bride were a silver tea service from the Women's Missionary Society of the congregation, and a bandsome travelling bag from the Sunday-school. Mr, and Mrs. Wellace left for Montreal on the afternoon train, a host of friends ageing them off.

12

ORGANIC UNION OR FEDERATION

(Concluded from page 5.)

assured in his own mind." "For as the body is one, and hath many mem-bers, and all members of that body being many are one body, so also is Christ." The different denominations

Christ." The different denominations are like so many streams falling into one great ocean." If these men who know the field speak in that way of the difficulties in the way of organic union abroad where there are few historical con-verties, with denominational pages where there are few historical con-nections with denominational names and creeds, is it any wonder that we dread the result if people in our coun-try are asked to give up the heritages they prize and in the possession of which they realize wonderful inspiration in Christian work?

Now let us turn more particularly to phases of the subjects which here in Canada have to be taken into account. It ought to be said emphatically that the Presbyterian Church is not com-mitted to organic union. No one but the people can commit the church to anything and the people have not yet been consulted. The General Assem-Deen consulted. The General Assem-bly has from year to year consented to go on with negotiations but the church has not pronounced on either the desirability or practicability of or-ganic union and those who have stud-led the situation in all provinces say ied the situation in all provinces say that the overwhelming majority of our people are against it. It is clear that so far as Christen-dom is concerned the formation of a united church in Canada would prac-tically mean another sect. It would not be like anything now existing. The Methodists, Presbyterians and Congre-gationalists coming from other coun-tries would find no church home here and would be in danger of drifting away from church altogether. We have known that to happen in occasional places when immigrants could not find a church corresponding to the one they had left. This is not the time in the history of Canada to leave people wandering like sheep without a shepherd. That there are problems before the Christian people of Canada which need Christian people of Canada which need careful study is apparent. A Federal Council of the Protestant Churches of the Dominon, not for temporal but for spiritual ends, could do very im-portant service. It could include all Protestant denominations and could with questions of co-operative deal fort fort. would be infinitely more valuable now than to have the union of three de-nominations take place, even if that could be effected. Such a union would be too limited to be of value and would produce more schisms and secessions than we can foresee at this present date. A recent writer in favor of or-canic union quotes the Confederation date. A recent writer in favor of or-ganic union quotes the Confederation of the provinces of Canada as an argument in favor of church union. But Canada is a federation, not an or-ganic union. The provinces have their distinct autonomy and exercise abso-lute control over their domestic con-cerns. But for that federal idea the provinces would never have come to-sether: Let the churches heed the lesgether: Let the churches heed the les-son and go on with their work, but let them honestly federate so as to solve the problems that the country presents to the churches.

to the churches. The basis of union now sent to the churches for consideration is vague as to polity and creed as well as adminis-tration. We desire to be perfectly fair to the brethren on the Joint Committee and therefore add that they have, doubties, done their honest best to meet the situation they were dealing with. Under the circumstances they had to be vague. So far as our church is concerned it seems fairly clear that the office of the ruling elder, the strongest feature in our polity, is prac-tically ablished or at least left, with a number of others, to the mercy of the united church. The matter of the settiment of ministers has its diff-cuities in all the churches, but the Presbyterians will prefer their present system to that of the proposed "settlement committee" whose work in one of the sister churches is an annual trouble to everyone and leaves the door of temptation open to the dexterous manipulator. If there is any difficulty in the administration of affairs in the Presbyterian Church it is not due to the form of groupment which is the manipulator. If there is any difficulty in the administration of affairs in the Presbyterian Church it is not due to the form of government which is the pattern for the freest civil governments on the earth, but to other causes which union would aggravate rather than lessen since it would bring together more numerous discordant elements. The statement of a proposed creed is as good as one could expect in a mat-ter where there had to be much com-promise, but the fact that 'no man is required to sign the creed' as the lead-ing minister of the Congregational Church stated in a recent article in their church paper is a serious mat-ter. This needs no comment beyond saying that it leads the way to all manner of confusion in the teaching of the church. The late Principal Caven, whose memory we all revere, held, as is stated in his printed ad-dress on the subject, that "the present relations of churches cannot be regard-ed as satisfactory, and should not be sadue there are without doubt certain conditions under which alone true union of the churches is possible, un-der which alone it sould be sought or desired," and first of all he states that "unity in holding the great doctrines of the Christian faith is an fidispen-able condition of true union." Hold-ing this view, one has only to look around to conclude, without being un-charitable, that this is not a time to pro-sond to conclude, without being un-charitable, that this is not a time to pro-the propel his the General Assembly of our church is pressing forward coi-lections for new College buildings, en-dowments etc. It is at the assembly

Our people are complaining on all sides that while the General Assembly of our church is pressing forward col-lections for new College buildings, en-dowments, etc., it is at the same time allowing negotiations to go on that might render all these unnecessary. They are giving their money for speci-fic objects which may vanish or be changed into some other form, and they feel it is unfair. One result, as the Funds of the Church clearly indi-cate, is that the people, perplexed by the uncertainty and hurt by the fact of their having been ignored in the negotiations, are withholding contri-butions. The fact seems to be that agitation for union began at the wrong end. The people should have been consulted at the outset on the general question of the desirability of union.

But the negotiations which have now practically ended will not have been fruitless if the negotiating churches, having had their attention called to the need of closer co-opera-tion, will take the lead in forming a Federel Council of all the Evangelical Churches of Canada. This Council would be formed for spiritual ends and not for the securing of temporal power. But it might incidentally be ready at any time to protest against any church. Protestant or Roman Catholic, claiming the right to domiready at any time to protest against any church. Protestant or Roman Catholic, claiming the right to domi-nate the state or receive from the state any special preferients and privileges. This, we emphasize, might be incidentally necessary at some time, but it is not the purpose for which the Federal Council would be formed. The purpose for which the church primarily exists is the evangel-ization of the world, and the agencies at her command are spiritual and not carnal. This Federal Council might have a branch in each province, and ization of the world, and the agencies at her command are spiritual and not carnal. This Federal Council might have a branch in each province, and might well have the power and privi-less of advising the churches as to the best means of doing the work in abroad. This, if the churches are willing to take heed, would prevent the newer or older settlements and amongst foreign people at home and abroad. This, if the churches are willing to take heed, would prevent the undue congestion of church work-ers at some points to the neglect of others, and would express, on moral issues, the concrete opinion of the churches represented. In this connec-tion there is a particular point in the the dates Senate document 765, which has just been submitted to that body by the commission on "Country Life" appointed by President Roose-velt. The comprission was composed of strong, clear-headed men who would not likely be inclined to let tae propagation of 'dosma' stand in the propagations. In the report they discuss the church as a factor in country life, and their finding is of special value as touching the much-discussed prob-church is long to retain its hold." Through a properly constituted federal Council the question of over-language of the second second second involv-ing the relation of the dominations the work and to each other could be dealt with. In this would be every benefit suggested as possible ap overy benefit suggested as possible ap work and to each other would be the contrusion which efforts to second the contrusion which efforts to second work. If in the process of years it would bring about a closer union, the second without the intermediate dan-ter of disruptions. In the meantime let us go on with the undertakings that God has mainfestly given into our hands. Every church that has a proper rescent for existence witheresses for the truth it holds, and should con-time the twents we have seen the tinue till its work is no longer neces-sary. In recent years we have seen the gradual disappearance imany smaller denominations and the gradual in-crease of better understanding between the larger bodies. But this cannot be forced by the but this cannot be tees. The crux of the church union problem is the local situation and urgency on the part of those "higher up" would charge the whole movement for closer relations with dynamite. As the Homi-lectic Review said in a recent editorial, "Let us get all the Chris-tian union that will flow from Chris-tian love, and all the co-operation work together. These are far better than wasting our time in schemes of mechanical consolidation engineered from the top."

<text><text><text><text>

NO REST FOR TERRIBLE ITCH.

Till Oil of Wintergreen Compound Made His Skin as Pure as Ever.

Mr. James Lulloch, of Iron Bridge, Ont., considers the D. D. D. Prescrip-tion of oil of wintergreen, thymol, gly-cerine, etc., a wonderful cure for skin troubles. He has good reason to think so, too, according to his letter of Mar. 7, 1990. so, 27, "I

27. 1900. "In the setting of his letting of Mar." If have suffered for years," he says, "with eczema, and now through using two bottles of your wonderful cure, my skin is as pure as it ever was, "My face was so bail I could not see. I could not sleep. I could not rest at all for the terrible itch. "Thanks to your wonderful medicine I am cured." As eczema is a germ disease, and as the germs are start of the germs are start."

Thanks to your wontering memory and current is a germ disease, and as the second as a serie of the second s sale by all druggists.

THE DOMINION PRESBYTERIAN SPARKI FS

HEALTH AND HOME HINTS

14

Simple Cure for Warts-Take a raw onion, peel it, cut a little bit off the top, then get a saucer with a little table salt on, dip the onion in the salt, and rub it on the wart.

Bolled or fried potatoes make an excellent garnish for fish, with the ad-dition of parsley and lemon. Hard bolled eggs are suitable accompani-ments for bolled fish or molded spin-

Coffee Cake-Two cups of sugar, one-half cup of butter, one cup of mo-lasses, one cup of cold coffee, four lasses. lasses, one cup or cola conce, tout cups of flour, three eggs, one teaspoon-ful of cinnamon, and one of cloves, four teaspoonfuls of baking powder.

A handsome cover for a sofa tillow A handsome cover for a sofa pillow is made by embroidering two strips of blue satin with pink rosebuds and some fine green follage; alternate these strips with velvet or plush of a con-trasting color; a dark erimson is par-ticularly pretty with the blue.

To Cure Hoarseness-When the voice is lost, as is sometimes the case, from the effects of a cold, a simple, pleasant remedy is furnished by beating up the remedy is furnished by beating up the white of an egg, adding the julice of one lemon, and sweetening with white sugar to the taste. Take a teaspoonful from timesto time. It has been known to effectually cure the aliment.

to effectually cure the aliment. Apple Jelly—Take five pounds of cooking apples, rub them clean with a cloth, and core and cut them down into cold water, but do not peel them. Have two quarks of water boiling in your jelly pan, and into this put the cut apples, after straining them from the cold water; boil now till the ap-ples are quite reduced. Strain the again through a fiannel jelly bag, and to each pound of julce add ten ounces of sugar, and boil for twenty minutes after it comes to the boil. Before dishing add a pennyworth of essence of lemon and a little saffron or co-chineal; gum up while hot, and keep in a cool, dry place. Don't Turn Down the Lamp—An ex-

Don't Turn Down the Lamp-An ex-change says the following incident oc-curred in the west end of the city the other night. In regard to the man-agement of coal oil lamps it is worthy of notice. A merchant returned home agement of coal of hamps it is working of notice. A merchant returned home about two o'clock at night, and found his wife lying on the bed groaning heavily, and unconscious. She was waiting his return, and at last, tired waiting his return, and at last, tired out, laid herself on the bed, after turn-ing down the wick of a lighted lamp as low as possible without extinguish-ing it. In this position of the wick, if the oil is bad, a vapor mixed with innumerable quantities of specks of soot diffuses itself through the apart-ment, and so covers the eyes, nose and respiratory organs that, on falling asleep, one is in danger of suffocation. It is always advisable, therefore, in the use of coal oil lamps, to allow the wick to burn brightly, or to extinguish it altogether. it altogether.

Care of Teeth-Desirable as sound teeth are, there is no part of the bodies of young children that is so neglected by parents. Scarcely one child in a hundred has regular, sound teeth, and the proportion of those that are cover-ed to a greater or less extent with an unpleasant-looking coating is equally great. A very little care on the part unpleasant-looking coating is equally great. A very little care on the part of parents would largely obviate this difficulty, but the misfortune is that so few parents are willing to exercise such care. And this is sepacially the case in America where dentistry case In America where dentistry thrives more vigorously, perhaps, than in any other country, and all because parents are neglectful of their chil-dren's teeth. The daily use of the brush, without any other dentifrice than pure white castlle soap, and the removal of a misplaced tooth or two, would, in most instances, not only give nearly whiteness but excellent beth pearly whiteness, but regularity, both combining to greatly enhance beauty. pearly

"John, your smoke will spoil the curtains." "That's better than having the curtains spoil my smoke.

"A little nonsense now an' them," sald Uncle Eben, "is all right. But dar's allus a heap o' danger dat it's g'ineter git to be a habit."

Guest-Hey, waiter, how long will my steak be? Waiter-The average length is about four inches, sir.

Wisgles-I hear Bjenks has been very ill. Is he out of danger yet? Waggles-Well, he's convalescent; but he won't be out of danger until that pretry nurse who has been taking care of him has gone away.

Musician-At your afternoon concert rould you like me to play some of Wagner's works?

Parvenu-Yes-but on the hurdy-gurdy, or my guests will not under-stand it.-Fliegende Blaetter.

"What are you crying about?" "My husband beat me."

Who is he?

"A gypsy fiddler. He beat me with the fiddle-bow."

the fiddle-bow.' "Then you ought to be thankful he doesn't play a bass viol."-Fliegende Blaetter.

"Pray, my good man," said a judge to an Irishman, who was a witness on a trial, "what did pass between you and the prisoner?" "Oh, then, plase your lordship," said Pat, "sure I sees Phelim atop of the wall, "Paddy!" says he. What?" says I. "Ifcrei! says he. "What?" says I. "Whist!" says he. "Hush!" says I. And that's all, plase your lordship."

An old Tennessee darky was arrest-ed, charged with stealing a pig. The evidence was absolutely conclusive, and the judge, who knew the old man well, said reproachfully: "Now, Uncle TRastus, why did you steal that pig?" "Bekaze mah poor fambly whuz stary-ing, yo' honnah!" whimpered the old man. "Family starying!" cried the judge: "but they tell me you keep five dogs. How is that, uncle?" "Why, yo' honnah," said Uncle 'Rastus reprov-ingly, "you wouldn't 'spect mah fam-bly to eat dem dwgs!"

Teacher: "Freddy, you may go the principal's room and see if he is then come and tell me." Fredin, and then come and tell me." Fred dy (on his return): "He ain't there, Teacher (severely): "He aint there! Freddy (correcting himself): "He i went ost." is Almost no one desires to be pitied. But is there any one who does not long to be comforted?

clothes are rubbed out than worn out.

GOLD DUST

will spare your back and save your clothes. Better and far more economical than soap and other Washing Powders.

Made only by THE N K. FAIRBANK COMPANY Montreal, Chicago, New York, Boston, St. Louis, Makers of COPCO SOAP (oval cake)

REBUILDING THE WHOLE BODY

That is the Constant Business of the Blood.

And That is Why a Blood Making tonic will Make the body W H and Keep It So.

Pure, red blood is the vital princi-pal of life, for upon it the tissues of the body live. It goes practically to every part of the body, earrying nourishment and oxygen, taking up the wastes and so changing them that they can be cast out of the body. As our every act results in the breaking down of some of the tissues and the formation of waste some of the tissues and the formation Ussues and the formation of waste materials, the body is in a constant state of change. To maintain health, sirength and life the blood must be pure in order to replace these tis-sues with plenty of fresh nourishment and rid the body of its waste mate-rial. rial

Men and women who are run down will find Dr. Williams' Pink Pills the best tonic for their condition because these Pills are a certain blood-builder and purifier. They enable the blood to meet the usual demands of the body and give perfect health. We offer the case of Mrs. John Harman, of Welland, Ont. as a proof of the great power of Dr. Williams' Pink Pills over disease. Mrs. Harman says: "For Jower of Dr. William's Pink Pills over disease. Mrs. Harman says: "For several years I lived a life of pain and misery, and even now as I recall that illness it seems awful to contempiate. The trouble began with weakness and loss of appetite. This was followed by beadaches and emaciation. At times L had wilcet archiver disease. headaches and emaciation. At times I had violent palpitation of the heart and shortness of breath, finally I was completely prostrated completely prostrated. I was so hag-gard that my friends hardly knew me, and I often thought my last hour had come. My sufferings would follow me into the region of dreams with such distinctness that often times I would awaken shivering and shaking with sobs, and scarcely able to realize that I had been but dreaming. The best efforts of three doctors at different times failed to help me. Then I was urged to try Dr. Williams Pink Pills. urged to try Dr. Williams' Pink Pills. Within one month I felt a distinct im-provement, and after using 'elevien' boxes I was again in the full posses-lon of health and strength. Several years have now elapsed since this ill-ness and art benefations. ness and as I have constantly enjoy-ed the best of health I am warranted In saying that the cure is permanent."

In saying that the cure is permanent." Dr. Williams' Pink Pills should be used in all diseases caused by thin, watery or impure blood, such as anaenia, rheumatism, stomach trou-ble, the after effects of la grippe and fevers, neuralgia, headaches and the various ailments common to women and growing girls. These Pills are sold by all medicine dealers or sent by mail at 50 cents a box or six boxes for $2.50 by The Dr. Williams' Medicine Co., Brockville, Ont.

Delicate Soup-Boil a small cup of rice in a little over a quart of water. rice in a little over a quart of milk. Boil until it is as osf that it will pass through a sieve. Grate the nicely bleached parts of two heads of celery and add to the strained rice; add to this one quart strong beef stock, or that made from muton or veal may be used; it should be strained, and be clear and free from lumps when it As put in with the rice. Let this boil until the celery is tender. Season with a dash of cayenne pepper, or a little curry powder, and plenty of salt. salt.

A man who heeds not the caff of his brother in need will be disobedient to the pleadings of his own spirit.

Grand Trunk

Railway System

MONTREAL

8.30 a.m. (daily) 3.15 p.m. (Week days) 4.40 p.m. (daily).

4.40 p.m. (daily) New York and Boston Through Sleeping Cars.

8.35 a.m., 11.55 a.m., 5.00 p.m. (Week days)

Pembroke, Renfrew, Arnprior and Intermediate Points. 11.55 a.m. (Week days)

Algonquin Park, Parry Sound North Bay

Through Cafe Sleeping Cars to New York Daily.

PERCY M. BUTTLER. City Passenger and Ticket Agent, Russell House Block Cook's Tours. Gen'l Steamship Agency

CANADIAN PACIFIC

SERVICE BETWEEN TRAIN A AND MONTREAL, VIA SHORE FROM UNION OTTAWA NORTH UNION STATION.

b 8.15 a.m.; b 6.20 p.m. VIA SHORT LINE FROM CENTRAL STATION.

a 5.00 a.m.; b 8.45 a.m.; a 8.30 p.m. b 4.00 p.m.; c 8.25 p.m.

BETWEEN OTTAWA, ALMONTE ARNPRIOR, RENFREW, AND PEM-

BROKE FROM UNION STATION: a 1.40 a.m.; b 8.40 s.m.; a 1.15 p.m.;

b 5.00 p.m. a Daily; b Daily except Bunday

. Sunday only. GEO. DUNCAN,

City Passenger Agent, 42 Sparks St. General Steamship Agency.

New York and Ottawa Line

Trains Leave Central Station 7.50 a.m. and 4.35 p.m.

And arrive at the following St Daily except Sunday:-- ay except bunday.

3.50 s.m.	Finch	5.47 p.m.
9.33 a.m.	· Cornwall	6.24 p.m.
12.58 p.m.	Kingston	1.42 a.m.
4.40 p.m.	Toronto	6.50 a.m.
12.30 p.m.	Tupper Lake	9.25 s.m.
6.57 p.m.	Albany	5.10 a.m.
10.00 p.m.	New York City	3.55 a.m.
5.55 p.m.	Syracuse	4.45 a.m.
7.30 p.m.	Rochester	8.45 s.m.
9.30 p.m.	Buffalo	8.35 a.m.

Trains arrive at Central Station 11.00 m. and 6.35 p.m. Mixed train from Ann ad Nicholas St., daily except Sunday. saves 6.00 a.m., arrives 1.05 p.m.

Ticket Office, 85 Sparks St., and Cen-

Tooke's shirts

Compare our prices with the prices elsewhere and do not forget to consider the quality, work-manship and style. On all lines of Shirts we can save you from fifteen to twenty-five per cent. Fine quality. Tailor Made Shirts $1.00.

R. J. TOOKE.

177 St. James Street

493 St. Catherine Street West 473 St. Catherine Street East MONTREAL.

PRESBYTERIAN BROTHERHOOD

Report of the First Convention at Indianapolis, November 13th to 15th. A complete Handbook for the Brotherhood and its Work.

Paper Cover, 25 Cents, Postpaid, Cloth, 40 Cents, Postpaid.

"The keynote of the convention was loyalty to God and the Church. Its most noticeable feature was not size, though it was larger than the Gener-al Assembly; nor was it eloquence, though the speeches, both prepared and extempore, were fine. It was the spirit of earnest determination to do, and find out how to do better the work of the Church." Herald and Presbyter.

Presbyterian Board of Publication

Philadelphia, Weatherspoon Building New York, J56 Fifth Avenue St. Louis, 1516 Locust Street

Chicago, 192 Michigan Avenue Berkeley, Cal., 2436 Telegraph Ave. Nashville, 150 Fourth Ave. N.

KOOTENAY FRUIT LANDS

Choice tracts from ten acres to one thousand acres, on Kootenay Lake, Arrow Lakes, Slocan Lake, and in the subdistricts known as Nakusp, Burton City, Fire Valley, Deer Park and Crawford Bay. We can give you ground floor prices on land that will stand closest inspection. Write us.

MORRISON & TOLLINGTON

FRUIT LANDS AND REAL ESTATE

P.O. Box 443.

Nelson, B.C.

Ministers. Teachers. . . . Students @ Business Men

Subscribe to the Organ of French Protestants,

L'AUROR (THE DAWN)

A clean, newsy, up-to-date Family Paper, edited with care and written in simple, pure and classical French Good reading for those who know or who want to learn French.

ONE DOLLAR A YEAR REV. S. RONDEAU, MANAGING EDITOR, 17 BLEURY STREET. - - MONTREAL GIn the U.S. $1.25 a year and in Montreal, by mail $1.50.

Maclennan Bros., WINNIPEG, MAN.

Grain of all Kinds. Handled on Commission and Sold to Highest Bidder, or Will Wire Net Bids.

500.000 BUSHELS OF OATS WANTED. Write for our market card. Wire for prices. Reference, Imperial Bank, Winninger,

WESTON'S SODA BISCUITS

Are in every respect a Superior Biscuit

We guarantee every pound. A trial will convince.

ALWAYS ASK FOR WESTON'S BISCUITS

THE DRINK HABIT

Thoroughly Cured by the Fittz Treatment-nothing better in the World.

Rev. Canon Dixon, 417 King St. Rev. Canon Dixon, 417 King St. E., has agreed to answer quest-ions—he handled it for years. Clergymen and Doctors all over the Dominion order it for those addicted to drink. Free trial, enough for ten days. Write for particular. Strictly confidentia

FITZ CURE CO.

P.O. Box 214, Toronto.

GO TO

For an Ice Cream Soda or

A Fresh Box of Bon Bons

GATES & HODGSON Successors to Walker's

Sparks Street - -Ottawa

MARRIAGE LICENSES

ISSUED BY

JOHN M. M. DUFF.

107 St. James Street and 49 Crescent Street.

OUE

MONTREAL

"ST. AUGUSTINE" (REGISTERED) The Perfect Communion Wine. Cases, 12 Quarts, $4.50 Cases, 24 Pints, - $5.50 F. O. B. BRANTFORD J. S. HAMILTON & CO., BRANTFORD, ONT. Manufactures and Proprietors.

MAIL CONTRACT.

SEALED TENDERS addressed to the Postmaster General will be received at Ottawa until noon on Friday, 26th November, 1999, for the conveyance of His Majesty's Malls, on a proposed contract for four years, 12 linnes per week each way be ween Apple Hill and Martintown, from the first January next.

Printed notices containing fur-ther information as to conditions of proposed Contract may be seen and blank forms of Tender may be obtained at the Post Office of Apple Hill and Martintow, and at the Office of the Post Office Inspector at Ottawa.

Post Office Department, Mail Service Branch, Ottawa, 11th Oc-tober, 1909.

Rideau Lakes Navigation

COMPANY

OTTAWA to KINGSTON

By the far-famed scenic Rideau, the most picturesque inland water route on the Continent. By Rideau Queen on Mondays and Thursdays, and Rideau King Tuesdays and Fridays, at 2 p.m., from Canal Basin. Tickets for sale by Ottawa For-warding Co. and Geo. Duncan,

WHY A TRUST COMPANY

is the most desirable Executor, Admin-strator, Guardian and Trustee :

"It is perpetual and responsible and saves the trouble, risk and expense of frequent changes in administration."

The Imperial Trusts

COMPANY OF CANADA

Head Office 17 Richmond St. West

JOHN HILLOCK & CO.

MANUFACTURERS OF THE ARCTIC REFRIGERATORS 165 Queen St., East,

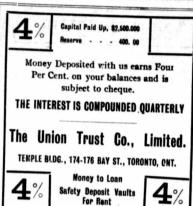

Tel .478, TORONTO

500 ACRES IN NURSERY STOCK

AGENTS wanted at once to sell for Fall 1908 and Spring 1909 delivery; whole or part time; liberal terms; outfit free.

The Thos. W. Bowman & Son Co., Ltd. RIDGEVILLE, ONT.

, the out-of-section and the section of the section

NOW READY

MODERNISM IN ITALY

A RECORD AND A APPRECIATION

50c. Net.

THE STUDY OF RELIGION

IN THE ITALIAN UNIVERSITY

$2.00 Net.

BY

REV. LOUIS H. JORDAN, B. D. and PROF. BALDASSARE LABANCA

HENRY FROWDE.

RICHMOND STREET.

TORONTO.

IT IS SO NICE TO DO THE NECESSARY CLEANING WITH

CALVERT'S Carbolic Tooth Powder

That is obvious at once from its pleasant flavour and the feeling of freshness left in the mouth, and, of course, you will soon see how splendidly. how easily, and how thoroughly it cleans.

Of all chemists, in tins, 6d., 18., and 18. 6d. New glass jar with sprinkler stopper, 18. net

Upholstered Furniture beautifully Dry Cleaned a specialty

234 BANK ST. . OTTAWA Phone 1378 Se .........

Synopsis of Canadian North-West.

HOMESTEAD REGULATIONS

A NY even-numbered section of Dominion Lands in Manitoba, Saskatchewan, and Alberta, ex-cepting 8 and 25, not reserved, may be homesteaded by any per-son who is the sole head of a family, or any male over 18 years of - age, to the extent of one-quarter section of 160 acres, more or less.

Application for entry must be made in person by the applicant at a Dominion Land account Sub-Assency for the struct. The by proxy may, however, be made at any Agency on certain condi-tions by the father, mother, son, daughter, brother, or sister of an intending homesteader.

DUTIES - (1) At least six months' residence upon and cul-tivation of the land in each year for three years.

(2) A homesteader may, if he so desires, perform the required readence, duties by living farming land owned solely by him, not less than eithty (39) acres in extent, in the vicinity of his homestead. He may also do so by living with father or mother, on the name of the solution of the solution of the solution of the solution.

(3) A homesteader intending to perform his residence duties in accordance with the above while living with parents or on farm-ing land owned by himself, must notify the agent for the district of such intention.

W. W. CORY,

Deputy of the Minister of the Interior.

N.B. - Unauthorized publication this advertisement will not be of paid for.

G. E. Kingsbury

PURE ICE FROM ABOVE

CHAUDIERE FALLS

Office-Cor. Cooper and Percy Streets, Ottawa, Ont.

Prompt delivery. Phone 935

OTTAWA RIVER NAVIGATION Co. MAIL LINE STEAMERS.

OTTAWA & MONTREAL (SHOOTING RAPIDS.)

Staamer leaves Queen's Wharf daily (Sundays excepted) at 7.30 a.m. with passengers for Montreal Excursions to Grenville Tues-days, Thursdays and Saturdays foc.

To Montebello every week day, 50c

Steamer will not stop at East Templeton on east-bound trip. Ticket Offices-Ottawa Despatch and Agency Co., 229 Sparks St; Geo. Duncan, 42 Sparks St; A. H Jarvis, 157 Bank St; Queen's Wharf.

TELEPHONE 242.

16

G. C. ANDERSON, Superintendent.