The Traveller's Psalm.

Do you know that one of the Psalms is called "The Traveller's Psalm"? When you are going to take a long journey, when you go by the railroad or sea, I advise you to think of the Traveler's Psalm-the one hundredth and twenty-first. It is beautiful, all about taking a journey. If any visitor were leaving your house, and you have family prayers before they went away in the morning, you should read this Psalm; or, if any friends of yours are going to take a journey, give them or read them this Psalm.

A Question for the Sceptical.

Said a gentleman to an English acquaintance who was something of an infidel : "Either Jesus Christ was an impostor or He was not. If He was an impostor, we have the inconceivable phenomenon of a base man practising virtue, self-denial, charity, forgiveness of injuries, through His whole life, in spite of scourging, contumely, and even crucifixion. Is it philosophical to suppose that a bad man would take so much pains to make good men? But if He was not an impostor, then He has told the truth and we must believe Him" " Is it possible that I never saw that before?" was the only reply of the young Englishman; but the argument sank deeply into his heart, and when the traveller had arrived in Alexandria, he received a letter from the former sceptic acknowledging him as 'the best friend he ever had.' encouraging him to be equally faithful to others, and praying him not to forget his Odessa convert."

PERHAPS the most valuable result of all education is the ability to make yourself do the thing you have to do when it ought to be done, whether you like it or not; it is the first lesson which ought to be learned.

METHUSELAH was contemporary with Adam some 243 years, and also with Shem some 98 years; Shem also was contemporary with Isaac some 50 years; so that during this period of some 2, 100 years between Adam and Isaac, Adam could have told the story of Eden to Methuselah, and Methuselah to Shem, and Shem to Isaac. Were the antediluvian longevity still prevalent, a man might say to his grandson today: "I was present at the crucifixion of Jesus of Nazareth."

Doe Ye Nexte Thynge.

From an old English parsonage Down by the sea, There came in the twilight A message to me ; Its quaint Saxon legend, Deeply engraven, Hath, as it seems to me, Teaching for heaven ; And on through the hours The quiet words ring, Like a low inspiration : " Doe ye nexte thynge." Many a questioning, Many a fear, Many a doubt, Hath its quieting here. Moment by moment, Let down from heaven, Time, opportunity, Guidance are given. Fear not to-morrows, Child of the King : Trust them with Jesus : " Doe ye nexte thynge." Oh ! He would have thee Daily more free : Knowing the might Of thy royal degree. Ever in waiting, Glad for His call ; Tranquil through chastening, Trusting through all. Comings and goings No turmoil need bring ; His all thy future : "Doe ye nexte thynge." Do it immediately ; Do it with prayer ; Do it reliantly, Casting all care ; Do it with reverence, Tracing His hand Who hath placed it before thee With earnest command. Stayed on Omnipotence, Safe 'neath His wing, Leave all resultings : " Doe ye nexte thynge."

Looking to Jesus,
Ever serener,
Working or suffering,	1
Be thy demeanor.
In the shade of His presence,
The rest of His calm,
The light of His countenance,
Live out thy psalm.
Strong in His faithfulness,
Praise Him and sing ;
Then, as He beckons thee,
"Doe ye nexte thynge."

The Seven "Books."

The seven "sacred" books of the world are the Koran, of the Mohammedans, the Tri Pitikes of the Buddhists, the Five Kings of the Chinese, the Three Vedas of the Hindoos, the Zendavesta of the Persians, the Eddas of the Scandinavians and the Scriptures of the Christians.

The Koran is the most recent of all, dating from about the seventh century after Christ. It is a compound of quotations from both the Old and New Testaments and from the Talmud.

The Tri Pitikes contain sublime morals and pure aspirations. The author lived and died in the sixth century before Christ.

The "sacred" writings of the Chinese are called the Five Kings, the word "kings" meaning that they were originally written on five rolls of cloth. They contain wise sayings from the sages on the duties of life, but they cannot be traced further back than the eleventh century before our era.

The Vedas are the most ancient writings in the history of the Hinti w b doos, but they do not, according to late commentators, date prior to the twelfth century before the Christian era.

The Zendavesta of the Persians, next to our Bible, is reckoned among scholars as being the greatest and most learned of these writings. Zoroaster, whose sayings it contained, lived and worked in the twelfth century before Christ.

Moses lived and wrote the Pentateuch 1,500 years before the birth of Christ; therefore that portion of our Bible is at least 300 years older than the most ancient of the other so-called sacred writings.

The Eddas, a semi-sacred work of the Scandinavians, was first given to the world in the fourteenth century---Word and Work.

Fate of the Apostles.

All the apostles were assaulted by the enemies of the Master. They were called to seal their doctrines with their blood, and nobly did they bear the trial. Tradition says :

Matthew suffered martyrdom by being slain with the sword at the distant city of Ethiopia.

Mark expired at Alexandria, after having been cruelly dragged through the streets of that city.

Luke was hanged upon an olive tree in the classical land of Greece.

John was put into a cauldron of boiling oil, but escaped death in a miraculous manner and was afterwards banished to Patmos.

Peter was crucified at Rome, with his head downward,

James, the greater, was beheaded at lerusalem.

James, the less, was thrown from a lofty pinnacle of the temple, and then beaten to death with a fuller's club.

Philip was hanged up 'against a pillar at Heropolis, in Phrygia.

Bartholomew was flayed-alive.

Andrew was bound to the cross, whence he preached to his persecutors until he died.

Thomas was run through the body with a lance, in the East Indies.

Jude was shot to death with arrows.

Matthias was first stoned and then beheaded.

Barnabas, of the Gentiles, was stoned to death by the Jews, at Salonica.

Paul, after various tortures and persecutions, was at length beheaded at Rome by the Emperor Nero.

Simon Zelotes was crucified in India.

LAY INFLUENCE Where we find a layman regular in attendance in church on Sunday and week day, as if it was his business to be there, we know at once that his personal influence is valuable in that church. A verv few such men make a live church, for there is nothing that draws more than the fact that this or that church is known as frequented by such men. The value of a layman's example in a businesslike punctuality at every religious service is the greatest prize that God can grant to any church, next to a faithful pastor. - Episcopal Register.

The Parish Guide.

One year, 35c. Single copy, 5c. Communications to be addressed to 224 Bay Street South.

Notes.

EVERYBODY looked happy on Easter Day. The church was never so tastefully decorated before—so the oldest members say.

THE Easter offerings for missions amounted to $657.16—a decided increase on last year.

THERE were 277 communicants at the three celebrations on Easter Day, including 15 who communicated privately on account of sickness.

It was refreshing to see our chancel overflowing with such a crowd of bright-faced choristers. The very organ seemed inspired. Such heartiness and vim ! We congratulate Mrs. Wylie and Mr. Dixon. and every chorister, too. But somebody whispers, "Why can't we have hearty singing like that every Sunday?" Exactly ! Why not?

THERE was a marked improvement in the attendance at the Vestry Meeting. It is a good sign when men are interested in God's work, and we hope the time will come when every member of the church will feel it an imperative duty to be present at such important meetings.

THE Rector appointed Mr. Adam Brown as his warden. There appeared to be some misunderstanding as to whose name should be unanimously received for the position of People's Warden, the result of which was that Mr. Alfred Powis was re-elected to fill the position for another year. Mr. Powis' faithfulness to the parish and church for many years and his success in managing the finances during the past year are guarantees that he will do his duty and help in the work we all have at heart.

At the meeting of the congregation, held immediately afterward, Mr. Archdale Wilson was unanimously re-elected delegate to the Synod.

THE annual Diocesan meeting of the Woman's Auxiliary will be held on the 18th and 19th inst.

It is a matter of joy and thankfulness that the financial statement was so satisfactory — the largest amount in the history of the church for current expenses having been raised. "Te Deum Laudamus !"

THE Rev. Geo. Forneret and the Rector exchanged pulpits on Sunday evening, March 11.

AFTER sixteen years of faithful service Mr. Paradine has resigned his sextonship. He has many friends in the parish and all join in kind wishes upon his retirement.

Maclate A DIRECTORY of our parishioners is, after a great deal of labor, published herewith. Please inform us of any inaccuracies.

At the request of the Rev. W. E. Carroll, the Rector conducted a six days' mission at S. Andrew's Church, Alliston, from Feb. 22 to 28.

HAVE some of our parishioners forgotten that the Wednesday evening service is still held?

Your clergy would like to know all the men personally. How can they accomplish this? Pastoral visits are made in the day-time when the men are engaged in business, and only a few evenings are free to the clergy for this purpose. Will parishioners help in this matter by making themselves known, either before or after the services?

A Historical Sketch of our Parish.

N writing this short sketch of the Church of the Ascension and its originators we feel that we cannot omit to mention here the name of one who, while occupying the position of assistant minister, did much both by his faithful services and generous liberality to build up and strengthen the work of God in the Parish. The Rev. Charles L. F. Haensel came to the congregation in 1857. He had previously been assistant master in a private academy in Quebec, occupying at the same time the position of evening lecturer in Trinity Church, of that city.

Mr. Haensel was born in Germany in 1706. Feeling that he was called to enter the sacred ministry and evincing a strong desire to enter upon work in the foreign field, after due preparation he was finally accepted, ordained and sent out by the Church Missionary Society as its missionary to Sierra Leone. The unusually trying climate of that country, however, soon began to tell seriously upon his health and he was obliged, after only a few years' service, to relinquish his work there. After some time spent in travel he came to Quebec and thence to Hamilton. For nine years he held the position of assistant minister of the Church of the Ascension, discharging with exemplary faithfulness and zeal the duties of his office, and endearing himself to all with whom he was brought in contact by his hearty geniality and the christian kindliness of his character.

Leaving Hamilton in 1866 he again sought work in the eastern provinces, going first to Quebec and thence to New Brunswick.

For many years before his decease it had been his wish and prayer that he might be permitted to die in harness and be spared from becoming, by lingering illness, a burden upon his friends. His wish was fully realized. On Sunday, the 9th of January, 1876, while officiating at Carleton, N B., he was suddenly taken ill and passed quietly away on the following Thursday (Jan. 13), in the 80th year of his age. In a sermon preached at the time by the Rev. Mr. Hebden from the text : "The righteous perisheth and no man layeth it to heart"-Isaiah, lvii. 1, he gave expression to his feelings for his late friend and colleague in most touching and emphatic language. "Truly," he said, "this was pre-eminently a righteous man, the most faultless character he had ever met with-one to whom all who knew him were wont to look up with respect and reverence, as living a life of outward blamelessness, upheld in his untiring walk of usefulness by the exceeding grace of God given unto him. During the long period in which they had been associated together their intercourse had been marked by the most uninterrupted cordiality and fellowship-the unity of faith in the bond of peace."

The following lines, contributed anonymously to the Hamilton Spectator at the time of his decease, happily expresses his life-long wish :

- "One boon, O righteous Father ! I pray Thee not deny;
- May I not be a care to others-let me not lie
- On bed of lingering sickness; but, when summon'd home,

Nunc dimittis, nunc dimittis—quickly—quickly come."

Time-honored, faithful veteran in service of his King,

- A farewell-triumph chorus for his victory we sing.
- The boon he ask'd was granted : as wont he took his stand
- To war 'gainst sin and Satan, his sword of Truth in hand.
- But, when the spirit-call thrilled on his listening ear,

"Blest Heir of Heaven ! arise ! thy work is done-come here !"

- Bright Faith at once the feathers plumed on Hope's exulting wing ;
- He soared a conqueror o'er Deathno doubt -- no fear--- no sting !
- May a nobler pen than this his work and worth record ;
- His missionary labors-his zeal for Christ, his Lord.
- With heathen powers of darkness he waged a toilsome strife ;
- Oblivion may not, must not, fall on such a saintly life.
- His holy walk and converse as many lessons taught
- As his clear Gospel message, with saving doctrines fraught.
- With foreign tone and gesture-peculiarly his own-
- He sought by words of wisdom to melt the hearts of stone.
- The signets God hath given him we number not as yet ;
- But with these precious jewels his diadem is set,
- And far-off gems shall shine with refulgent beauty there,
- Reflecting, in their radiance, the promised meed of prayer.

By Mr. Haensel's will, among several other generous legacies to societies in which he had taken a special interest—notably the Bible Society and the C. M. S., he left to the Sunday school of the Church of the Ascension the sum of $400.

(To be continued.)

Reasons Why I Love the Church of England.

1. Because she has been in England the witness for and keeper of Holy Writ.

2. Because she bears witness for every truth held by Nonconformists, (1) We have what the Baptists specally witness for, in the Baptismal service for adults. (2) We have what the Quakers specially witness for concerning the person, the gifts, and the baptism of the Holy Ghost, in the teachings for Whitsuntide and in the Ordination services. (3) We have what the Plymouth Brethren specially witness for concerning prophetical truth and the second coming of our Lord, in the teaching for the season of Advent. (4) We have all that is true in what the Church of Rome witnesses for.

3. Because of the large amount of Scripture introduced into her services, by which a systematic course of Biblical knowledge is ensured to her regular and thoughtful members. The Holy Bible is (so to speak) read through once every year, and the New Testament is read through twice every year, and the Psalms are read through every month; while the Scripture portions arranged for the epistles and gospels would form in themselves a manual of doctrinal, historical, experimental and practical divinity.

4. Because the Book of Common Prayer is the most uncommon and unrivalled collection of prayers, praises and thanksgivings in the world.

5. Because she brings before us in due order the entire earthly life of the Lord Jesus, commemorating His Birth, Circumcision, Baptism, Epiphany, Death, Resurrection and Ascension, and calling attention to all His recorded acts and words, and to the portrait of His mind and character as drawn by the Holy Spirit, and leads us to the inspired narrative of the deeds, words and sufferings of the first followers of our Lord, lest our minds, fastening on the one thing more than on another, should cease rightly to divide the Word of truth.

6. Because she bears witness that the praise and the worship to be rendered to God in heaven should be begun on earth ; and she has made provision for this spiritual sacrifice in the Te Deum and other songs of thanksgiving and adoration scattered through her services.

7. Because she is the great bulwark against the tyranny of the Church of Rome, and beneath her ample shade Nonconformists enjoy freedom and quietness. The truehearted Englishman will ever regard the Church of his fathers with feelings of veneration and love-not only because it is the glory of his native land ; not only because it dates its existence from Apostolic days; not only because it is one of the main spokes in that wonderful machinery in the British Constitution, which is the admiration of the whole world ; not only because it is an essential pillar of the State, without which the British Constitution would cease to exist, giving place to a secular government unblessed and unsanctified by the sacred bonds of union with Christ's holy Church : not only because it is, as far as we know, the most pure, the most learned and the most glorious Church upon the earth, but also because it was

- The Church of his fathers, that blest his first years-
 - That taught and that strengthen'd his youth ;
- In health that still guides and in sickness that cheers,
 - With the rules and the comforts of truth.

Yes, she it was that took me in her arms, and in my childhood brought me to my Saviour's feet ; ves, she it was that, when trembling at the sacred rail in the early youth at Confirmation I hid my eyes and held my breath, bid me be strong in Christ, my strength, and vow to own Him to the death ; yes, she it was that visited me in sickness and stood by my side at the grave of my loved one, and pointing to the skies, bade me look beyond the tomb; with an angel's voice of comfort she spoke to my sad and sorrowful soul, saying, "Blessed are the dead that die in the Lord." And again did she thrill my cold dead heart and make it glow with hope by rehearsing my Saviour's words, "I am the Resurrection and the Life ; he that believeth on Me, though he were dead, yet shall he live ; and whosoever liveth and believeth in Me shall never die."

The Church of England, when loyally and faithfully represented by her clergy and members, is a standing witness for God in this country to the world. There is wisdom in her words, music in her voice and beauty in her worship. Many of our forefathers gave up their lives rather than abandon the truths for which she witnesses.
